New language bolded and italicized, omitted language in brackets and strikeout

NAC 656.120 Examination: Administration. (NRS 656.130, 656.160)

1. The Executive Secretary of the Board shall assign a unique identification number to each application that is approved by the Board. An applicant must register on the day of the examination by presenting the original of the photo identification that accompanied his application and by signing the sheet for registration provided by the Board. The Board or a member of the staff of the Board will open the examination room on the day of the examination at 8 a.m. for registration. The Board or a member of the staff of the Board will provide a seat for the applicant in the examination room according to the identification number that is assigned to his application.

2. A member of the Board shall give oral instructions and remarks of introduction at approximately 9 a.m. on the day of the examination. Unless special arrangements are made pursuant to subsection 7 or 8, all applicants shall register and be present for the oral instructions and remarks of introduction.

3. The Board will administer two sections of the examination. An applicant who takes the examination for the first time must complete both sections of the examination. The name of the applicant or his identification number, or both, must not be written or otherwise appear on the examination provided by the Board.

4. The examination of an applicant and all other material relating to the examination must not be removed from the examination room during the administration of the examination. If an applicant removes the examination or material relating to the examination, the Board will fail the applicant for the purposes of the current application and will, if deemed appropriate by the Board, disqualify the applicant from participation in future examinations. After an applicant completes the examination, he shall return the examination and material to the registration desk.

5. An applicant shall not:

(a) Ask questions during the examination except for questions that are necessary for clarification of the examination; or

(b) Leave the room in which the examination is administered without permission from a person who is monitoring the examination or a member of the staff of the Board who is present at the registration desk.

6. An applicant shall bring to the examination room a pen or pencil, stenographic or voice writing equipment and any other equipment required by the Board. The Board will not:

(a) Provide stenographic, voice writing or any other equipment.

(b) Replace equipment for an applicant if his equipment malfunctions during the examination.

7. Upon the written request of an applicant with a disability at least 10 working days before the examination, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall make special arrangements for the administration of the examination to the applicant if those arrangements are:

- (a) Feasible;
 - (b) Reasonable; and
 - (c) In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 to 12213, inclusive.
8. Upon the request of an applicant whose religious beliefs prevent him from taking the examination on the date of the examination, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall make special arrangements for the administration of the examination to the applicant if the request is made before the date of the examination.
9. If an applicant cheats on the examination, the Board will expel the applicant from the examination room and fail the applicant.
10. Questions concerning the administration, procedure or content of the examination must be submitted in writing to the Board.

NAC 656.130 Examination: Written section. (NRS 656.130, 656.160)

1. After the presentation of the oral instructions and remarks of introduction by a member of the Board, the Board will provide for the administration of the written section of the examination. Unless special arrangements are made pursuant to subsection 7 of NAC 656.120, the Board will give an applicant 1 hour and 45 minutes to complete and submit the written section to the Board or a member of the staff. A grade of at least 70 percent is required to pass the written section.

2. The written section of the examination consists of not less than 150 and not more than 200 questions that test the knowledge of the applicant in:

- (a) Vocabulary;
- (b) Punctuation;
- (c) Grammar;
- (d) Spelling;
- (e) Medical terminology;
- (f) Legal terminology;
- (g) The provisions of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure relating to the practice of court reporting;
- (h) The provisions of the Supreme Court Rules relating to the practice of court reporting; and
- (i) Any other subject relating to the duties of a court reporter specified by the Board.

↪ The Executive Secretary of the Board shall include material to prepare for the written section of the examination in the letter of admittance to the examination mailed to the applicant.

3. An applicant shall not refer to or otherwise use books, papers or other material during the written section of the examination. All books, papers and other such material must be placed on the floor during the examination.

- (f) Complete answers to the questions contained on the form.

↳ Upon receipt of a complete application, the Board will process an application for a certificate.

3. A successful applicant shall not practice court reporting in this State until he receives a certificate from the Board.

4. An applicant may submit a written request to the Board to review his examination. ~~[Upon receipt of such a request, the Board will provide a copy of the section on transcription if the applicant pays the Board for the actual expenses incurred by the Board in photocopying the examination and mailing the examination to the applicant.]~~ An applicant may, within 45 days after the Board certifies the score of the applicant pursuant to subsection 1, review the written section and section on transcription of the examination at the office of the Board. The Board will not mail the written and section on transcription of the examination to an applicant. An applicant may not copy or otherwise reproduce the written and section on transcription of the examination.

5. Any applicant wishing to appeal any aspect of the examination shall do so by written request within 30 days of the Board's official ratification of the exam results.

6. All decisions of the Board are final.
