NAC 630.130 Limited license for graduate program of training.

1. The applicant for a limited license to practice medicine as a resident physician in a graduate program of clinical training must file an application with the Board on the standard form for application for a license to practice medicine and submit with the application such proofs and documents as are required on the form to the extent that the proofs and documents are applicable to the issuance of the limited license.

2. The application must be accompanied by written confirmation from the institution sponsoring the graduate program of clinical training that the applicant has been appointed to a position in the program. If the applicant is not a citizen of the United States, the applicant must also provide satisfactory evidence from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security that he or she is lawfully entitled to remain and work in the United States.

~~{3. The limited license will generally be issued at a meeting of the Board, but the President or Secretary of the Board may issue a limited license between meetings of the Board, subject to the approval of the Board at its next meeting.}~~

~~{4.}~~ 3. The applicant for a limited license may be required to appear before the Board or one of its members for an oral interview before the issuance of the limited license.

~~{5.}~~ 4. A limited license issued under this section will state on its face that it is a limited license to practice medicine as a resident physician in a graduate program of clinical training, and the period during which it is valid. If the licensee is not a citizen of the United States, a limited license is valid only as long as the licensee is lawfully entitled to remain and work in the United States.
