AUTHORITY: §1, NRS 284.065, 284.155 and 284.345.

A REGULATION relating to state personnel; requiring an appointing authority or the Division of Human Resource Management of the Department of Administration to grant administrative leave with pay during an emergency to nonessential employees who have been directed by the Governor not to report for work during the emergency; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. NAC 284.589 is hereby amended to read as follows:

284.589 1. An appointing authority may grant administrative leave with pay to an employee:

(a) To relieve the employee of his or her duties during the active investigation of a suspected criminal violation or the investigation of alleged wrongdoing;

(b) For up to 30 days when the appointing authority initiates the leave to obtain the results of an examination concerning the ability of the employee to perform the essential functions of his or her position;

(c) For up to 30 days to remove the employee from the workplace when he or she has committed or threatened to commit an act of violence;

(d) For up to 2 hours to donate blood; or

(e) To relieve the employee of his or her duties until the appointing authority receives the results of a screening test pursuant to NRS 284.4065.

2. The appointing authority, upon approval of the Risk Management Division, may extend administrative leave with pay granted to an employee for a purpose set forth in paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection 1.

3. If an employee is granted administrative leave with pay pursuant to subsection 1 or 2, the employee must be available:

(a) By telephone to the supervisor of the employee; and

(b) To report to a work site or another location, as directed by the supervisor of the employee, ↪ during regular business hours.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, an appointing authority or the Division of Human Resource Management may grant administrative leave with pay to an employee for any of the following purposes:

(a) His or her participation in, or attendance at, activities which are directly or indirectly related to the employee's job or employment with the State but which do not require him or her to participate or attend in an official capacity as a state employee.

(b) Closure of the employee's office or work site caused by a natural disaster, pandemic or other similar adverse condition when the employee is scheduled and expected to be at work. An appointing authority may designate certain employees as essential and notify them that they are required to report to work.

(c) Closure, as a result of a pandemic, of a school or a center or facility that provides day care services which is attended by the employee's dependent child or the temporary cancellation, as a result of a pandemic, of a program attended by the employee's dependent child. An appointing authority may designate certain employees as essential and notify them that they are required to report to work.

(d) His or her appearance as an aggrieved employee or a witness at a hearing of the Committee.

(e) His or her appearance as an appellant or a witness at a hearing conducted pursuant to NRS 284.390 by a hearing officer of the Division of Human Resource Management.

(f) His or her appearance to provide testimony at a meeting of the Commission.

5. An appointing authority or the Division of Human Resource Management shall grant administrative leave with pay to ~~an~~ :

(a) An employee for a purpose set forth in paragraph (d), (e) or (f) of subsection 4 if:

~~(a)~~ (1) The employee requests the administrative leave for a period of time that is reasonably needed to testify at the hearing or meeting;

~~(b)~~ (2) The employee requests the administrative leave at least 2 weeks before the leave is needed, unless such notice is impractical; and

~~(c)~~ (3) The absence of the employee will not cause an undue hardship to the operations of the appointing authority or adversely impact the provision of services to clients or to the public.

(b) Employees during an emergency when such employees have been directed by the Governor not to report to work during the emergency, including, without limitation, emergencies relating to enemy attacks or other hostile actions, natural causes or other catastrophes, except for employees who are designated as essential and notified that they are required to report to work.

6. An appointing authority shall grant administrative leave with pay to an employee for any of the following purposes:

(a) The initial appointment and one follow-up appointment if the employee receives counseling through an employee assistance program.

(b) His or her attendance at a health fair which has been authorized by the Board of the Public Employees' Benefits Program.

(c) His or her participation in an official capacity as a member of a committee or board created by statute on which he or she serves as a representative of state employees. Such leave must be in lieu of other fees provided for attendance at meetings and participation in official functions of the committee or board.

(d) Up to 8 hours for preparation for all hearings regarding a suspension, demotion or dismissal of the employee as provided in NAC 284.6561.

(e) Up to 8 hours for preparation for all hearings regarding an involuntary transfer of the employee.
