A REGULATION relating to educational personnel; revising provisions governing the single subject major or minor in world languages; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires the Commission on Professional Standards in Education to adopt regulations: (1) prescribing the qualifications for licensing teachers; (2) identifying fields of specialization in teaching which require the specialized training of teachers; and (3) setting forth the requirements a teacher must satisfy to qualify for an endorsement in each field of specialization. (NRS 391.019) Under existing regulations, such endorsements are based on a licensed teacher’s field of specialization or concentration, usually designated as his or her major, minor or area of concentration. (NAC 391.113, 391.125) Existing regulations recognize various single subjects in academic education as majors or minors, including the category “world languages” and 14 enumerated foreign languages.
