Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law authorizes the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry to adopt regulations which are necessary to carry out the provisions of existing law governing time shares. (NRS 119A.190)

Existing law authorizes the Division to accept in certain circumstances, in lieu of a statement of record, an abbreviated registration from a developer of a time-share plan in which some or all of the units are located outside of this State. If the Division accepts the abbreviated registration, the developer is required to provide to each purchaser, in lieu of the public offering statement, a copy of the disclosure document of the other state or jurisdiction in which some or all of the units are located. (NRS 119A.302) Section 2 of this regulation establishes requirements relating to the abbreviated registration disclosure document that the developer is required to provide. Section 3 of this regulation provides that an existing permit may be converted to an abbreviated registration by filing an application for conversion to an abbreviated registration with the Division. Section 3 sets forth the requirements for such an application and establishes the time limits within which the Division will review each application and issue an approval or a request for more information or documentation.

Existing law establishes a fee of $500 for the registration of a time share exchange company. (NRS 119A.360) Section 4 of this regulation requires a developer that wishes to operate as an exchange company and offer a program for the exchange of occupancy rights among owners or with the owners of time shares in other time-share plans, or both, to file a registration with the Division that is accompanied by such a registration fee.

Section 5 of this regulation prohibits a developer from changing the project broker which coordinates the sale of time shares on behalf of the developer without first filing with the Division an amendment to the statement of record.

Existing law requires certain persons to register as time-share resale brokers with the Division by completing a form for registration provided by the Division. (NRS 119A.4771) Section 6 of this regulation sets forth the information and documents that such a person is required to provide to the Division.

Existing law authorizes the Real Estate Administrator to refuse to issue a license, permit, certificate or registration to, or refuse to renew, or suspend or revoke, the license, permit, certificate or registration of, a person who has failed to pay money owed to the Division. (NRS 119A.365) Existing regulations provide that the Division will charge a fee to a person who submits a check or draft to the Division to obtain a license, permit, certificate, registration, approval, accreditation or other type of authorization to engage in an activity for which authorization is required and the check or draft is returned to the Division because of insufficient funds or the person stopped payment on the check or draft. (NAC 119A.073) Section 13 of this regulation provides that such a fee: (1) will also be charged to a person who submits an electronic payment to the Division that is returned because of insufficient funds or the person stopped payment on the electronic payment; and (2) does not apply to a person who is obtaining a permit from the Division.

Existing regulations provide for the issuance of a provisional license to an applicant for a sales agent's license. (NAC 119A.083) Section 14 of this regulation revises provisions relating to the supervision of a provisional licensee.

Existing law sets forth requirements for the operation and supervision of branch offices at which the business of selling or reselling time shares is conducted. (NRS 119A.035, 119A.268) Section 15 of this regulation provides that: (1) every branch office must be operated in accordance with such requirements; and (2) a branch office is required for each site that is separate from the principal place of business.

Existing regulations establish provisions relating to the prohibition against the commingling of money or other property and the maintenance of records by a project broker. (NAC 119A.105) Section 16 of this regulation applies such provisions to time-share resale brokers.

Existing regulations establish provisions concerning the application and issuance of time-share permits. (NAC 119A.190-119A.230) Sections 20-27 of this regulation revise provisions relating to time-share permits. Section 20 revises provisions concerning the procedures for filing an application for a time-share permit. Section 22 sets forth the information that a developer is required to provide to the Division in a statement of record when applying for a permit. Section 23 sets forth the requirements relating to a public offering statement.

Existing regulations establish provisions concerning the standards and duties of project brokers, developers, broker-salespersons, salespersons, sales agents, real estate brokers and time-share representatives. (NAC 119A.240-119A.290) Sections 28-33 of this regulation revise certain provisions relating to such standards and duties. Section 28 provides that the records of a developer and project broker may be inspected and audited by the Division at the discretion of the Administrator. Section 29 revises the duties of project brokers and requires a project broker to provide to a purchaser of a time share a paper copy of a receipt for a copy of the public offering statement signed by the purchaser and selling agent. Section 30 establishes requirements concerning the formatting of contracts for the sale of a time share and purchase agreements.

Existing law authorizes the Division to adopt regulations regarding the content of advertisements relating to time shares. (NRS 119A.190) Existing regulations set forth provisions relating to advertising, promotional meetings and promotions. (NAC 119A.295-119A.370) Sections 34-42 of this regulation revise provisions relating to advertisements for time-share plans and time shares. Section 43 of this regulation revises the standards with which sales techniques and tactics must conform, and section 44 of this regulation revises provisions relating to the advertisement or promotion of a time-share plan with a program which includes the use of a sweepstakes, vacation or other form of a gift certificate.

Section 46 of this regulation repeals certain definitions as well as certain provisions relating to project brokers, escrow accounts, and advertising, promotional meetings and promotions.

Sections 8-12 of this regulation revise certain definitions used for the purposes of existing regulations governing time shares.

Section 1. Chapter 119A of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 6, inclusive, of this regulation.

Sec. 2. 1. If a developer files an abbreviated registration pursuant to NRS 119A.302 and the Division approves the public report, public offering statement or other disclosure document issued for the time-share plan in the state or jurisdiction where the time-share plan is offered or sold, the developer shall provide to each purchaser, in addition to any information and documents required to be provided by law, an abbreviated registration disclosure document, on a form prescribed by the Division, which contains:

- (a) A copy of the public report, public offering statement or other disclosure document from the other state or jurisdiction;*
- (b) A cover page which contains the statement required by subsection 1 of NAC 119A.205;*
- (c) A page which includes:*
 - (1) The name and address of the developer;*
 - (2) The effective date of the abbreviated registration disclosure document;*
 - (3) The date on which the permit was originally issued and the permit number;*
 - (4) The address and telephone number of the Division; and*
 - (5) A statement that the disclosure document has been approved for use by the Division;*
- (d) A copy of the permit issued by the Administrator, including the effective date of the permit, the date of each renewal thereof and the date of each amendment to the abbreviated registration disclosure statement;*
- (e) A copy of the Time Share Notice of Cancellation form prescribed by the Division; and*
- (f) A copy of the Receipt of Nevada Public Offering Statement form prescribed by the Division.*

2. The abbreviated registration disclosure document must be offered to a prospective purchaser in paper format. If the prospective purchaser requests to receive the abbreviated registration disclosure document in an electronic format, the following information must be provided to the prospective purchaser in paper format, on a form provided by the Division:

- (a) The documents described in paragraphs (b) to (f), inclusive, of subsection 1; and*
- (b) A disclosure of alternative media delivery, which contains:*

(1) A list of all documents that will be included in the abbreviated registration disclosure document being provided to the prospective purchaser in an electronic format;

(2) A description of the hardware and software necessary for the prospective purchaser to access electronically the abbreviated registration disclosure document;

(3) Any instructions necessary for the prospective purchaser to access electronically the abbreviated registration disclosure document; and

(4) The following disclosure in at least 12-point boldface red type, followed by an area for the signature of the prospective purchaser:

I understand that I have the option of receiving the abbreviated registration disclosure document in an electronic format or paper format, and I have decided to accept the abbreviated registration disclosure document in an electronic format.

I understand that I should not accept the abbreviated registration disclosure document in an electronic format unless I am able to access electronically the abbreviated registration disclosure document before the end of the 5-day period during which I may cancel the contract of sale pursuant to NRS 119A.410.

3. Upon providing the disclosure of alternative media delivery pursuant to subsection 2, the developer shall obtain from the prospective purchaser a receipt for a copy of the disclosure form signed by the purchaser. The developer shall keep the receipt with any other documents relating to the sale of the time share at the principal place of business of the developer.

4. If the developer provides the abbreviated registration disclosure document in an electronic format, the developer must file with the Division the documents required to be provided to a prospective purchaser in paper format pursuant to subsection 2 and a sample copy of the compact disc, USB flash drive or thumb drive or other form of electronic media on which the abbreviated registration disclosure document is provided.

5. The renewal of an abbreviated registration must be made in accordance with the provisions of NRS 119A.355.

Sec. 3. 1. An existing permit may be converted to an abbreviated registration by filing an application for conversion to an abbreviated registration with the Division, subject to the requirements of this section and NRS 119A.302. The Division will review each application and issue an approval or a request for more information or documentation:

(a) Within 60 days after receipt of an application for a permit to sell time shares in a time-share plan containing only one component site; and

(b) Within 120 days after receipt of an application for a permit to sell time shares in a time-share plan containing more than one component site.

2. An application for conversion to an abbreviated registration must be submitted to the Division in an electronic format or paper format and:

(a) Include all information and documentation required by NRS 119A.302;

(b) Be signed by an authorized representative of the developer;

(c) Be submitted on a form prescribed by the Division; and

(d) Be accompanied by the fee specified in NRS 119A.360.

Sec. 4. 1. A developer that wishes to operate as an exchange company and offer a program for the exchange of occupancy rights among owners or with the owners of time shares in other time-share plans, or both, must file a registration with the Division in an electronic format or paper format. After a registration has been filed pursuant to this subsection, the developer shall file any amendment to the registration with respect to any material change in an electronic format or paper format.

2. A registration or amendment filed with the Division pursuant to subsection 1 must be:

(a) Signed by an authorized representative of the developer;

(b) Submitted on a form prescribed by the Division; and

(c) Accompanied by the fee specified in NRS 119A.360.

Sec. 5. 1. A developer shall not change the project broker which coordinates the sale of time shares on behalf of the developer without first filing an amendment to the statement of record filed with the Division.

2. An amendment filed with the Division pursuant to subsection 1 must be:

(a) Signed by an authorized representative of the developer;

(b) Submitted on a form prescribed by the Division; and

(c) Accompanied by the fee specified in NRS 119A.360.

Sec. 6. In addition to any other information and documents required to be provided by law, an applicant for registration as a time-share resale broker shall provide the following information and documents with the application for registration, on a form prescribed by the Division:

1. The date of application, the name of the applicant and, if different, the name on the applicant's license as a real estate broker issued pursuant to chapter 645 of NRS, the license number of such license, the home address, business address, electronic mail address, telephone number and facsimile number of the applicant and, if the applicant does business under an assumed or fictitious name pursuant to the provisions of chapter 602 of NRS, the assumed or fictitious name and each county in which such an assumed or fictitious name is registered.

2. If the applicant has done business as a real estate broker under any assumed or fictitious name other than any assumed or fictitious name provided pursuant to subsection 1, any other such assumed or fictitious name and the counties and states in which each such name was registered.

3. If the applicant is a corporation, partnership, limited-liability company or any other business entity, other than a publicly traded corporation:

(a) The name and address of the entity and its state of formation; and

(b) The name, address and principal occupation of each person owning or controlling an interest of 10 percent or more in the entity and the position held by each such person in the entity.

4. If the applicant is a corporation, partnership, limited-liability company or any other business entity, a statement as to whether the entity is organized for the sole purpose of the resale of time shares.

5. Information concerning any criminal conviction of, or plea of guilty or nolo contendere by, the applicant.

6. If the applicant has filed a petition in bankruptcy or has been the object of an involuntary petition within the 7 years immediately preceding the date of the application, a copy of the disposition of any such petition.

7. A brief history of the applicant's business experience and background regarding time-share plans, including, without limitation, all current and former job descriptions, job titles and employer information.

8. A statement regarding whether the applicant intends to charge or collect an advance fee and, if so, a copy of a sample contract for an advance fee listing that the applicant intends to use.

9. A copy of the state business license of the applicant, a copy of the business license for each county, city or other municipality in this State in which the applicant intends to conduct business, showing that the applicant is in good standing and such a license is in active status, and a copy of any filing for each county in which the applicant intends to conduct business under an assumed or fictitious name.

10. A sample of the sales contract and all other documents that the applicant intends for a prospective purchaser to sign or initial.

11. A sample of the following completed forms prescribed by the Division:

(a) Form 524, Consent to Act;

(b) Form 525, Duties Owed by a Nevada Real Estate Licensee; and

The disclosure required by paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must be provided to a prospective purchaser in writing or electronically at least once before any scheduled sales presentation, but does not need to be included in every advertisement provided to a prospective purchaser before the sales presentation.

Sec. 42. NAC 119A.355 is hereby amended to read as follows:

119A.355 1. An advertisement must not contain the term "appraised," "appraised value" or any other similar term without specifying the statistics or materials which support the conclusion, including:

(a) The date of the appraisal;

(b) The appraiser's name, address and telephone number;

- (c) Any limiting conditions and other special factors of the appraisal; and
- (d) The relationship of the appraiser to the developer.

2. An advertisement must not contain terms such as “minutes away,” “short distance,” “only miles,” “near” or similar indistinct or indefinite terms which are intended to indicate distance unless the actual distance in miles along a road is stated together with the types of roads traversed.

3. A promotional offer which is advertised must not use the terms “free,” “no obligation” or a term of similar import to describe that which is offered unless the offer is unequivocally without conditions.

4. A ~~{unit,}~~ time share ~~{or interest}~~ must not be advertised as being “free” if the prospective purchaser is required to give any consideration, or if any additional ~~{unit,}~~ time share ~~{or interest}~~ must be purchased to render the “free” ~~{unit,}~~ time share ~~{or interest}~~ usable. A ~~{unit,}~~ time share ~~{or interest}~~ may be advertised as being offered “for closing costs only” if the closing costs are fully disclosed.

5. An advertisement which refers to or depicts “roads” or “streets” that are not traversable year-round by a conventional automobile must affirmatively disclose the nature of those roads or streets . ~~{, including whether the roads or streets are paved, gravel or dirt, and if a road or street is not traversable year-round by a conventional automobile.}~~

6. An advertisement may use the term “waterfront” project or other terms of similar import only if the project ~~{, time-share unit or interest}~~ being offered actually fronts on a body of water and ~~{has}~~ a purchaser of a time share within the project will have full and usable access along the frontage.

Sec. 43. NAC 119A.365 is hereby amended to read as follows:

119A.365 Sales techniques and tactics must conform to the following standards:

1. Decoys or false buyers must not be used in a promotional meeting for any purpose.
2. Each oral statement made to a prospective purchaser at a promotional meeting must be completely consistent with written advertising . ~~for other material filed with and approved by the Division.~~
3. Any prospective purchaser who expresses a desire to leave a promotional meeting at any time during or after the sales presentation may not be impeded in any manner from departing or coerced or pressured to remain.
4. Investigators and other employees of the Division must be allowed to attend any promotional meeting.
5. Excessively loud music must not be played during a promotional meeting, and it must be turned off or down at the request of employees of the Division who are present at the meeting.
6. Except for a speaker making a speech from a podium, after a salesperson initially meets with a prospective purchaser, the developer or project broker may allow only one additional salesperson to attempt a sale.
7. If an employee of the Division is present at a sales presentation, he or she must not be identified, singled out or asked questions in such a way that a potential purchaser might hear the question or the employee's remarks.
8. If a project broker or developer at any time before, during or after a promotional meeting uses any electronic surveillance, recording, eavesdropping or listening device, he or she must disclose its use orally at the beginning of the meeting and also by means of a placard prominently displayed in the meeting room.

9. Each gift advertised must be given to a prospective purchaser whether or not he or she purchases a time share. The advertisement must disclose, in writing, any condition or restriction of the offer of a gift.

10. ~~{An employee of the developer shall not keep a prospective purchaser's credit card for a period longer than is reasonably necessary to check the purchaser's credit rating.~~

~~{11.}~~ The public offering statement and exchange information, the sales contract and other documents which ~~{the}~~ a prospective purchaser would be signing if a purchase were consummated must be reviewed by the sales agent, salesperson, broker-salesperson or project broker with the ~~{potential}~~ prospective purchaser.

~~{12.}~~ 11. Upon the ~~{purchaser's}~~ request ~~{, the}~~ of a prospective purchaser, he or she must be allowed time to discuss the documents with another person, review the documents and, if he or she so desires, consult an attorney before signing any document.

~~{13.}~~ 12. Before signing an offer to purchase, ~~{the}~~ a prospective purchaser must be informed of his or her unconditional right to rescind the sales contract.

~~{14.}~~ 13. The Division may not be mentioned in such a manner as to suggest that the Division has approved a time-share plan or the ~~{project,}~~ documents or sales techniques of the ~~{project.~~

~~{15.}~~ time-share plan.

14. No false or misleading statements may be made regarding the future economic success, any recreational facilities or the location of ~~{the}~~ any project ~~{}~~ within the time-share plan.

Sec. 44. NAC 119A.370 is hereby amended to read as follows:

119A.370 1. Before a developer advertises or promotes a ~~{project}~~ time-share plan with a program which includes the use of a sweepstakes, vacation or other form of a gift certificate, the developer must:

(a) ~~{Provide copies of the vacation or gift certificates and any other published materials to be used in the program;~~

~~—(b) Provide the names of the companies with which he or she has contracted to provide the goods or services offered;~~

~~—(c) Provide evidence satisfactory to the Division that he or she has firm commitments with the suppliers of goods or services which will be used as part of the program;~~

~~—(d)~~ If required by the Administrator, provide proof of financial assurance that he or she can and will honor his or her commitments to the recipients and the suppliers; and

~~{(e)}~~ (b) Comply with the provisions of NRS 598.131 to 598.139, inclusive.

2. A sweepstakes, vacation or other form of a gift certificate must conform to the standards for advertising that are set forth in this chapter and must:

(a) Contain a fixed date for the expiration of rights afforded recipients; and

(b) Disclose the nature of the gift or other benefit. The disclosure must include a description of:

(1) What the prospective purchaser will actually receive;

(2) When he or she will receive it;

(3) His or her obligations, if any;

(4) All other material conditions or limitations; and

(5) The actual value of the gift or benefit . ~~{and~~

~~—(6) If the offering constitutes a chance to win a gift or other benefit, the probability of winning conspicuously stated in plain language.~~

3. ~~{Any change in the expiration date or in the identity of a supplier of goods or services used in the program is a material change in the written plan, and notice of the change must be given to the Division for its written approval before the change becomes effective.~~

~~—4.} When the developer, real estate licensee or other agent meets with a recipient , he or she shall clearly identify himself or herself and his or her status of employment with regard to the {project.~~

~~—5.} time-share plan.~~

4. The Administrator will schedule an informal meeting to attempt to resolve a question regarding an advertisement or a document as provided in NAC 119A.215.

Sec. 45. NAC 119A.450 is hereby amended to read as follows:

119A.450 1. A form for registration submitted pursuant to NRS 119A.532 by a person who wishes to engage in the business of, act in the capacity of, advertise or assume to act as a manager of a project located in this State must be:

(a) Completed personally by the person who wishes to register. A member of the Commission or employee of the Division may not prepare a form for registration on behalf of a person who wishes to register.

(b) Accompanied by the fees prescribed by the Division.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, accompanied by satisfactory evidence, acceptable to the Division, that the person who wishes to register and his or her employees have obtained fidelity bonds, insurance policies or cash deposits deemed comparable by the Division for the benefit of the association or, if there is no association, the owners.

2. A separate form for registration must be filed for each agreement to manage a time-share plan or project . ~~{that a person wishes to enter.}~~

3. A person who has not entered into an agreement to manage a time-share plan or a project, but who files a form for registration for the purpose of advertising, soliciting or otherwise offering his or her management services in this State, must indicate this purpose on the form in the space provided for the registered name of the time-share plan or the project, or both. Within 30 days after entering into an agreement to manage a time-share plan or a project, a person who has registered pursuant to this subsection must:

(a) File a separate form for registration that indicates the registered name of the time-share plan or the project, or both; and

(b) Submit satisfactory evidence, acceptable to the Division, that he or she has complied with the provisions of paragraph (c) of subsection 1.

Sec. 46. NAC 119A.015, 119A.020, 119A.035, 119A.070, 119A.258, 119A.295, 119A.300, 119A.320 and 119A.360 are hereby repealed.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTIONS

119A.015 “Blanket encumbrance” defined. (NRS 119A.190) “Blanket encumbrance” means any lien which encompasses more than one time share.

119A.020 “Branch office” defined. (NRS 119A.190) “Branch office” means an office operated by a licensed real estate broker or corporation, separate from the principal location of the project broker, for the purposes of engaging in the business of selling real estate or time shares.

119A.035 “Director” defined. (NRS 119A.190) “Director” means the Director of the Department of Business and Industry.

119A.070 “Time-share plan” defined. (NRS 119A.190) “Time-share plan” means the rights, obligations and program created by the time-share instruments for a time-share project.

119A.258 Escrow accounts for purchasers. (NRS 119A.190, 119A.420) All deposits, negotiable instruments and money received in the sale of a time share must be placed in a separate escrow account for each purchaser for the duration of the period of revocation provided in this chapter unless:

1. The project broker has posted a surety bond naming the Division for the benefit of the purchasers in the minimum amount of $25,000 or in an amount equal to the highest monthly total amount of deposits received by that project broker, whichever sum is greater; and
2. All such money or negotiable instruments are deposited in one trust account established solely for the project and the purposes set forth in this section.

119A.295 Requirements for advertisement: Submission by developer or agent; changes in item; identification of name of developer; press release. (NRS 119A.190, 119A.370)

1. A proposed advertisement must be submitted to the Division by the developer or an employee or agent thereof.
2. Any change in an item of advertising which has been previously filed with the Division must be submitted to the Division with the changes clearly marked on the item. The modified advertisement voids the prior filing.

3. The name of the developer must be clearly identified to the satisfaction of the Division in any advertising used by the developer.

4. A press release issued in good faith is exempt from this section if it is intended for publication without payment of any consideration.

119A.300 Fees. (NRS 119A.190, 119A.370)

1. Each item of advertising and each modification of an item of advertising which was previously filed constitutes a separate filing, and a fee will be assessed for each item submitted.

2. A fee may be paid in cash or by cashier's check, certified check, personal check, company check or money order. If payment is made by a personal or company check, the Division will not file the advertisement until the check has been honored by the bank on which it is drawn.

3. The following schedule of fees is established for the filing of advertising:

(a) For each item of advertising 8 1/2 by 14 inches or less in size, the fee is $5 per page to a maximum of $25. If the item is a newspaper line advertisement or a classified display of 15 words or less, without any illustrations, the fee is $2.

(b) For a full page advertisement in a newspaper, approximately 15 by 22 inches, the fee is $20.

(c) If an advertisement contains matter on both sides of a page, the advertisement is considered to be two pages in length.

(d) If the size of the advertisement, including, but not limited to, a map, poster or billboard, is larger than 15 by 22 inches, or if the length of a written advertisement, including, but not limited to, a radio or television script, speech script, book, pamphlet or similar item, contains five or more pages, the fee is $25.

(e) For a television or motion picture presentation, the fee is $25. If a script is submitted simultaneously with the television tape or motion picture film, there is no extra charge. The developer is responsible for making the advertisement available for review by the Division.

119A.320 Reference to community or geographical area. (NRS 119A.190, 119A.370)

An advertisement which refers to a community or a geographical area in connection with a project, unit, time share or interest must state the mileage from a specific point in that community or area, together with the types of roads to be traversed.

119A.360 Approval of promotional meeting. (NRS 119A.190, 119A.370)

1. Before a developer may conduct a promotional meeting, a statement of the nature and manner of conducting the meeting must be submitted in writing and approved by the Division.

2. In reviewing material submitted by an applicant pursuant to NRS 119A.370, the Administrator will investigate whether the nature and manner of conducting a promotional meeting will bring about a full disclosure of all the material facts concerning the project.
