

LEGISLATIVE REVIEW OF ADOPTED REGULATIONS--NRS 233B.066
Informational Statement
LCB File No. R034-17

1. A clear and concise explanation of the need for the adopted regulation.

Effective January 1, 2018, Assembly Bill 192 (A.B. 192) of the 2017 Legislative Session amends NRS 284.327 to require, rather than authorize, an appointing authority to make temporary limited appointments of certified persons with disabilities who are eligible for temporary limited appointments pursuant to NRS 284.327.

The amendments included in this LCB File are necessary because they place into regulation the requirement of the use of the lists of persons with disabilities who are eligible for temporary limited appointments.

The amendments remove language which indicates that the use of lists of persons with disabilities who are eligible for temporary limited appointments, pursuant to NRS 284.327, are optional, rather than mandatory.

The amendments specifically require the Division to certify and provide each list to an appointing authority, and include a timeframe for a response to an offer of employment.

Additionally, the amendments in this LCB File detail how appointments should be made from the list of persons with disabilities who are eligible for temporary limited appointments when more than one applicant from the list is qualified.

2. A description of how public comment was solicited, a summary of public response, and an explanation of how other interested persons may obtain a copy of the summary.
