Chris Day, Political Director, Nevada State Education Association, asked to ensure the NDE honors the spirit of A.B. 320 from the 2017 Legislative Session. It is a major move of course from using statewide assessment data, the SBAC, to the student learning goals. As assessments are selected for use, he requested to see more in relation to portfolio work to honor the spirit of moving away from standardized high stakes data into something tailored for individual classrooms.
