

LEGISLATIVE REVIEW OF ADOPTED REGULATIONS--NRS 233B.066
Informational Statement
LCB File No. R018-19

1. A clear and concise explanation of the need for the adopted regulation.

The amendment to NAC 284.498 in Section 1 of the regulation is necessary to ensure that State of Nevada supervisors and managers are knowledgeable in the areas of unlawful discrimination and sexual harassment, as well as a variety of other provisions required by federal law. Currently, courses covering these topics are offered and this amendment will make completion of these courses within the required timeframes mandatory for supervisors and managers.

The amendment to NAC 284.726 in Section 2 of the regulation is necessary to allow and also limit access to notes, records, recordings or findings of an investigation conducted by the Division of Human Resource Management related to sexual harassment or discrimination, or both, to certain persons.

Also, the amendment to subsection 8 of Section 2 of the regulation is necessary to comply with existing law in NRS 284.390.

2. A description of how public comment was solicited, a summary of public response, and an explanation of how other interested persons may obtain a copy of the summary.

On January 28, 2020, copies of the proposed regulation amendments were sent by email to persons who were known to have an interest in the subject of proposed personnel regulation changes as well as any person who had specifically requested such notice via Listserv. These documents were also made available on the Division of Human Resource Management's website, the Nevada Public Notice website, the Legislative Counsel Bureau's website, and mailed to all county libraries in Nevada, and posted at the following locations:
