A REGULATION relating the release of information to district courts, district court jury commissioners, or the Administrative Office of the Courts, specifying the manner in which the Employment Security Division may be reimbursed for reasonable costs incurred.

Section 1. Chapter 612 of the Nevada Administrative Code (NAC), Unemployment Compensation, Collection of Contributions section is hereby amended to add NAC 612.057 to read as follows:

NAC 612.057 Release of information to district court, district court jury commissioner or Administrative Office of the Courts.

- 1. Upon request of any district judge or jury commissioner of the judicial district, the Administrator may comply with the requirement to furnish information pursuant to NRS 612.265(10) by providing such data to the Administrative Office of the Courts, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator.*
- 2. The Administrator may charge a reasonable fee to reimburse the Division for reasonable costs incurred in providing information pursuant to subsection 10 of NRS 612.265. The fee will not exceed the actual cost of providing the information, as determined by the Administrator.*
- 3. Upon a district judge or jury commissioner submitting a written request to the Administrator pursuant to NRS 612.265(10), the district judge or jury commissioner agrees to have the Administrator furnish appropriate information to the Administrative Office of the Courts for processing and dissemination to the requestor.*
- 4. A request for information pursuant to NRS 612.265(10) may only be submitted to the Administrator once a year after February 1st. The Administrator shall inform the requesting district judge and jury commissioner of the cost of providing such data, prior to taking steps toward complying with such request. The cost of such data shall be an amount equal to the cost imposed by the Department of Motor Vehicles for data provided pursuant to NRS 6.045(b) or a different amount as determined by the administrator based on need.*
- 5. The district judge or jury commissioner shall pay the costs of providing the information requested pursuant to NRS 612.265(10), before such data is furnished.*
- 6. The district judges, jury commissioners, and the Administrative Office of the Courts are on notice of the confidential and privileged nature of information addressed by NRS 612.265 and, by requesting, processing, and disseminating such data or information, they agree to the confidentiality requirements of this statute and 20 C.F.R. part 603.*

Section 2. This regulation becomes effective when the final version and a copy of the informational statement required by NRS 233B.066 is filed with the Secretary of State.
