AUTHORITY: §§1-6 and 8-36, NRS 233B.040, 288.110; §7, NRS 233B.040, 288.110 and section 53 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3744.

A REGULATION relating to state employees; expanding the applicability of certain provisions to collective bargaining for state employees; revising provisions relating to fees assessed for the support of the Government Employee-Management Relations Board; prescribing requirements governing the preliminary investigation of a complaint submitted to the Board for state collective bargaining; establishing bargaining units for employees of the Executive Department of State Government; revising requirements governing procedure in proceedings of the Board; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law authorizes collective bargaining between the Executive Department of the State Government and certain state employees. (Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3725) Existing law defines “employee” for these purposes to include a person who: (1) is employed in the classified service of the State; or (2) is employed by the Nevada System of Higher Education in the classified service of the State or is required to be paid in accordance with the pay plan for the classified service of the State. Existing law further provides that the term “employee” does not include a “confidential employee.” (Section 19 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3729 (NRS 288.425)) Section 3 of this regulation interprets the term “confidential employee” to include clerical personnel employed by the Board.

Existing law expands the powers and duties of the Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board to include hearing and deciding certain disputes between the State and certain state employees. (Sections 2, 7, 15-44 and 48 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at pages 3726, 3733, 3734 and 3741 (NRS 281.755, 288.029, 288.110, 288.405-288.590)) Existing law changes the name of the Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board to the Government Employee Management Relations Board to conform to this change in powers and duties. (NRS 288.110, as amended by section 46 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3741) Section 8 of this regulation makes a conforming change. Section 2 of this regulation defines the term “government employer” to mean: (1) a local government employer; or (2) the Executive Department. Sections 9, 10, 12-16, 19 and 34 of this regulation make certain provisions of existing regulations relating to the Board’s duty to hear and decide disputes applicable to all government employers, thereby expanding the applicability of these provisions to include disputes between the Executive Department and certain state employees.

Existing law: (1) requires the Board annually to assess a fee for its support based on number of employees of each local government employer and agency or other unit of the Executive Department of State Government; and (2) authorizes the Board to verify the identity and number of employees employed by these employers by any reasonable means. (NRS 288.139; section 23 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3730 (NRS 288.475)) Section 4 of this regulation prescribes the information the Board will use to verify the identity and number of employees employed by a local government or the Executive Department of State Government for the purposes of assessing the fee for the support of the Board against a local government employer or an agency or other unit of the Executive Department of State Government. Section 4 also requires the Board to adjust the fee imposed on a local government employer in certain circumstances.

Existing law requires a party aggrieved or its designated representative to file a complaint with the Board. Existing law also authorizes the Board to conduct a preliminary investigation of such a complaint. (Sections 27 and 28 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at pages 3733-34 (NRS 288.625, 288.630)) Section 5 of this regulation prescribes certain requirements governing preliminary investigations. Section 21 of this regulation prohibits the Board from ordering a settlement conference for any matter for which a preliminary investigation of a complaint is completed.

Existing law authorizes the Board to appoint a hearing officer to conduct certain hearings the Board is otherwise required by law to conduct. (Section 27 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3733 (NRS 288.625)) Section 6 of this regulation prescribes requirements for such a hearing officer, including proposing a recommended decision or order to the Board in writing. Section 6 also authorizes either party to file a written objection to the recommended decision or order with the Board.

Existing law requires the Board to adopt regulations establishing bargaining units of employees of the Executive Department. (Section 53 of Senate Bill No. 135, chapter 590, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 3744) Section 7 of this regulation establishes these bargaining units.

Sections 10, 13, 18, 20, 22, 23, 28, 29, 32, 33, 35 and 36 of this regulation change certain procedural deadlines for matters considered by the Board. Section 11 of this regulation updates existing regulations to conform with changes made to the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure on March 1, 2019.

Section 17 of this regulation clarifies that pleadings and written motions that are filed electronically with the Board do not need to comply with certain requirements prescribed for written documents that are filed with the Board.

Existing regulations require each party to file a prehearing statement with the Board. (NAC 288.250) Section 20 of this regulation requires such a statement to include certain information concerning any pending or anticipated administrative, judicial or other proceedings related to the subject of the hearing.

Existing regulations authorize the Commissioner of the Board to establish one or more panels consisting of members of the Board for the purpose of hearing and disposing of a matter. If two or more panels are established and the absence of one or more members of such a panel would otherwise require the postponement of a hearing, existing regulations authorize the Commissioner to randomly assign another member or members of the Board to the panel with the written consent of all the parties to the hearing. (NAC 288.271) Section 24 of this regulation removes the requirement that the Commissioner obtain the parties' written consent and provides that if the Commissioner makes such a random assignment: (1) the agenda for the meeting of the panel must indicate that the Commissioner has taken such action; and (2) the member or members randomly assigned to the panel shall continue to participate in the panel for purposes of the hearing and disposition of the matter, including when the matter is deliberated or disposed of at a future meeting of the panel. Existing regulations require the Commissioner to assign a case to the next available panel for which a meeting agenda has not yet been posted whenever a case is commenced before the Board. (NAC 288.2715) Section 25 of this regulation revises this requirement to authorize the Commissioner to assign a case to the full Board or an initial panel.

Section 26 of this regulation authorizes the Board to conduct a hearing by video conference and requires notice of a hearing to include certain information about the hearing.

Existing regulations: (1) limit representation before the Board in a contested case to representation in proper person or by an attorney who is licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada; and (2) prescribe criteria for representation to be deemed in proper person. Existing regulations also authorize the Board to waive the limitation on representation upon a motion. (NAC 288.278) Section 27 of this regulation provides that representation shall be deemed to be in proper person if the representation is by a currently elected or appointed official of the labor organization, an employee of the labor organization or an employee of the Executive Department. Section 27 also authorizes the Board to waive the limitation on representation by stipulation of the parties.

Section 28 of this regulation extends the deadline for submitting a request for postponement of a scheduled hearing; and (2) authorizes the Commissioner to waive the period for hearing a complaint. Section 30 of this regulation revises requirements concerning exhibits submitted to the Board.

Existing regulations require each brief filed with the Board to be accompanied by a certificate showing service on each party of record. (NAC 288.345) Section 31 of this regulation provides that this requirement does not apply if the Board orders the submission of simultaneous briefs. Section 31 additionally requires the Board to serve each party of record if the Board has required the submission of simultaneous briefs.
