AUTHORITY: §§1 and 12-36, NRS 427A.070 and 427A.175; §§2 and 10, NRS 427A.070, 427A.135 and 427A.138; §§3 and 5-7, NRS 427A.070 and 427A.125; §4, NRS 427A.070 and 427A.145; §§8 and 11, NRS 427A.070; §9, NRS 427A.070 and 427A.165.

A REGULATION relating to public welfare; expanding the authority of the Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman to advocate for the rights of recipients of services of certain facilities; renaming the Office of Specialist for the Rights of Elderly Persons to the Office of Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition; imposing a civil penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Administrator of the Aging and Disability Services Division of the Department of Health and Human Services to adopt rules and regulations, subject to the approval of the Director of the Department, relating to aging persons and persons with disabilities. (NRS 427A.070) Existing law authorizes the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman or an advocate to advocate for the protection of the health, safety, welfare and rights of recipients of the services of a facility for long-term care, day care center, facility for long-term rehabilitation or provider of living arrangement services. (NRS 427A.125, 427A.135, 427A.138, 427A.145, 427A.165) Existing regulations outline various requirements for the Administrator and the Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman in advocating for the rights of residents of facilities for long-term care. (NAC 427A.010, 427A.012, 427A.016, 427A.018, 427A.042-427A.048, 427A.125) Sections 2-9 and 11 of this regulation include recipients of the services of a day care center, facility for long-term rehabilitation or provider of living arrangement services within the group of persons for whom the Ombudsman or an advocate advocates.

Existing regulations require a facility for long-term care to post certain notices relating to the Ombudsman or an advocate and for making a complaint to the Ombudsman or an advocate. (NAC 427A.048) Section 9 of this regulation requires the Division to impose a civil penalty not to exceed $500 for the failure to post such notices by a facility for long-term care, day care center, facility for long-term rehabilitation or provider of living arrangement services.

Existing law establishes the Office of Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition. (NRS 427A.123) The Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition generally ensures the legal rights of such persons are not violated. (NRS 427A.1219-427A.1236) Existing regulations provide for various duties of the Specialist for the Rights of Elderly Persons. (NAC 427A.323, 427A.3235, 427A.3245-427A.3255, 427A.3275, 427A.328, 427A.3295, 427A.330, 427A.331, 427A.3315, 427A.3325, 427A.3335-427A.339) Assembly Bill No. 31 of the 2017 Legislative Session transferred the duties of the Specialist for the Rights of Elderly Persons to the Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition. Sections 12-35 of this regulation change the name of the “Specialist for the Rights of Elderly Persons” to the “Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.” Section 36 of this regulation repeals the definition of “Specialist” while section 1 of this regulation defines “Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.”

Section 1. Chapter 427A of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

427A.3255 Notices, findings of fact, opinions and decisions of the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition, and any document filed by a party, may be served by mail. Service shall be deemed to be complete when a true copy of the document, properly addressed and with postage paid, is deposited with the United States Postal Service.

Sec. 17. NAC 427A.3275 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3275 1. An original and two legible copies of each pleading must be filed with the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition in all matters before him or her.

2. The ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may direct that the party who filed a pleading make copies of it available to any other person who has requested copies, if the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition first determines that the person making the request may be affected by the proceeding.

Sec. 18. NAC 427A.328 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.328 The ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may allow any pleading to be amended or corrected or any omission to be supplied. Pleadings must be liberally construed and defects that do not affect a substantial right of a party must be disregarded.

Sec. 19. NAC 427A.3295 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3295 1. A respondent has 10 days after being served a complaint in which to file his or her answer with the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition, regardless of whether a settlement conference is scheduled pursuant to NAC 427A.329.

2. If the respondent fails to answer within 10 days, the respondent shall be deemed to have denied generally the allegations contained in the complaint.

3. If no answer is filed and a hearing is requested pursuant to NAC 427A.330, the hearing will proceed solely upon the issues set forth in the complaint, unless the hearing is continued to a future date by order of the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.

Sec. 20. NAC 427A.330 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.330 1. If a settlement is not reached pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 427A.175 and the complainant or respondent requests a hearing, the hearing must be before the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.

2. Notice of the place, date and hour of a hearing must be served at least 20 days before the date set for the hearing.

3. A hearing which has previously been continued may be rescheduled with at least 10 days' notice.

4. Each hearing must be held at a place in the State designated by the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition in the notice of hearing.

Sec. 21. NAC 427A.331 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.331 A party may enter an appearance at the beginning of a hearing or at any time designated by the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition by giving his or her name and address and stating his or her position or interest to the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition. The appearance must be recorded in the transcript of the hearing.

Sec. 22. NAC 427A.3315 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3315 1. If the complainant or the respondent fails to appear at a scheduled hearing and no continuance has been requested or granted, the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may hear the evidence of witnesses who have appeared and may proceed to consider the matter and dispose of it on the basis of the evidence before him or her.

2. Any person who fails to appear for a scheduled hearing or to request a continuance because of accident, sickness or other reasonable cause may, within 15 days after the failure, apply to the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition to reopen the proceedings.

3. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition, upon finding the cause to reopen the proceedings sufficient and reasonable, will immediately fix a time and place for the rescheduled hearing and give notice thereof.

4. At the time and place fixed, a second hearing must be held at which the person who requested the second hearing may testify in his or her own behalf or present other evidence beneficial to his or her cause.

5. Witnesses who have previously testified are not required to appear at a second hearing on the same matter unless so directed by the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.

Sec. 23. NAC 427A.3325 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3325 The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition will call the proceeding to order, take the appearances and make any introductory remarks. Each party may then make an opening statement.

Sec. 24. NAC 427A.3335 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3335 1. In conducting a hearing, the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition is not bound by the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure and an informality in any proceeding or in the manner of taking of testimony does not invalidate any decision the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition issues.

2. The Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure may be generally followed, but may be relaxed by the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition if deviation from those rules of evidence will aid in ascertaining the facts.

3. If an objection is made to the admissibility of evidence, the evidence may be received but it is subject to any subsequent ruling of the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.

4. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may exclude inadmissible, incompetent, cumulative or irrelevant evidence.

5. A party objecting to the introduction of evidence shall briefly state the grounds of the objection at the time the evidence is offered.

6. Evidence admitted at hearings must be material and relevant to the issues.

Sec. 25. NAC 427A.334 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.334 All testimony to be considered in a hearing must be taken under oath. Before taking the witness stand, each person must swear before the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition to the truthfulness of the testimony the person is about to give in the hearing.

Sec. 26. NAC 427A.3345 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3345 1. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may consolidate two or more proceedings into one hearing if it appears that the issues are substantially the same and the interests of the parties will not be prejudiced by consolidation.

2. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition will determine the order of procedure in a consolidated hearing.

Sec. 27. NAC 427A.335 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.335 The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may, before or during a hearing, and on a proper showing, grant continuances for submission of further proof of any matter or for any other just cause.

Sec. 28. NAC 427A.3355 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3355 1. With the approval of the ~~{Specialist,}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition, the parties may stipulate to any fact at issue by a written stipulation introduced in evidence as an exhibit or by oral statements shown upon the record.

2. Any stipulation is binding upon all parties to it and may be treated as evidence at the hearing.

3. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may demand proof by requiring evidence of the facts stipulated.

Sec. 29. NAC 427A.336 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.336 1. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may order briefs to be filed and specify a time limit for their filing.

2. Three copies of any requested brief must be filed with the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition in matters before him or her.

3. Each brief must be accompanied by an acknowledgment of service or a certificate of mailing to the other parties of record.

4. After the filing of briefs and the deciding of contested motions, the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may set the matter for oral argument and give reasonable notice to all parties.

Sec. 30. NAC 427A.3365 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3365 The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition may take official notice of:

1. The rules, regulations, official reports, decisions and orders of any regulatory agency of the State.

2. Matters of common knowledge and established technical or scientific facts.

3. Official documents, if relevant and properly introduced into the record of formal proceedings by reference. A proper and definite reference to the documents must be made by the party offering them, and the documents must be published and generally circulated so that the parties in interest may examine the documents and present rebuttal evidence.

Sec. 31. NAC 427A.337 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.337 The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition will cause a record to be made of all formal hearings. Any party who wishes to secure a copy of the record may obtain it from the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition upon payment of the proper fee.

Sec. 32. NAC 427A.3375 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.3375 Unless otherwise ordered, a proceeding stands submitted for decision by the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition after the taking of evidence, the filing of briefs or the presentation of oral argument required by the ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.

Sec. 33. NAC 427A.338 is hereby amended to read as follows:

427A.338 1. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition will issue a decision not later than 60 days after the hearing.

2. The ~~{Specialist}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition will mail or personally deliver a copy of the decision to the Administrator of the Division and each party of record or his or her representative.

3. Additional copies of the decision may be obtained by making a written request to the ~~{Specialist.}~~ Attorney for the Rights of Older Persons and Persons with a Physical Disability, an Intellectual Disability or a Related Condition.
