A REGULATION relating to state employees; defining “sex- or gender-based harassment”; requiring state employees to attend certain training classes concerning sex- or gender-based harassment; replacing the term “sexual harassment” with “sex- or gender-based harassment”; making various other changes related to sex- or gender-based harassment; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under existing law: (1) it is the policy of this State to ensure that its employees do not engage in sex- or gender-based harassment; (2) sex- or gender-based harassment is a form of unlawful discrimination; and (3) it is prohibited for a state employee to engage in sex- or gender-based harassment against another employee, an applicant for employment or any other person in the workplace (Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 51, chapter 321, Statutes of Nevada 2021, at page 1912 (NRS 284.408))

Section 1 of this regulation defines “sex- or gender-based harassment.” Section 2 of this regulation makes a conforming change to indicate the proper placement of section 1 in the Nevada Administrative Code.

Existing regulations require an employee to attend a certified class concerning the prevention of sexual harassment within 6 months after the initial appointment of the employee to state service. (NAC 284.496) Section 3 of this regulation instead requires an employee to attend a certified class concerning the prevention of sex- or gender-based harassment within 30 days after his or her initial appointment to state service.

Existing regulations set forth certain training requirements for an employee who is appointed to a supervisory or managerial position, including that such an employee attend at least one training class in sexual harassment. (NAC 284.498) Section 4 of this regulation instead requires a supervisory or managerial employee to attend: (1) a training class concerning sex- or gender-based harassment within 30 days after his or her appointment to the supervisory or managerial position; and (2) an additional training class on sex- or gender-based harassment within 12 months after his or her appointment to the supervisory or managerial position.

Existing regulations authorize appropriate disciplinary or corrective action to be taken against an employee for the failure of the employee to participate in an investigation concerning sexual harassment. (NAC 284.650) Section 5 of this regulation instead authorizes appropriate disciplinary or corrective action to be taken for the failure of the employee to participate in an investigation concerning sex- or gender-based harassment.

Sections 6-8 of this regulation replace the term “sexual harassment” with “sex- or gender-based harassment” in certain provisions relating to investigations of discrimination by the Division of Human Resource Management of the Department of Administration.

Existing regulations authorize an appointing authority to impose harsh disciplinary sanctions on, or dismiss, persons who commit sexual harassment. (NAC 284.771) Section 9 of this regulation instead authorizes an appointing authority to impose harsh disciplinary sanctions on, or dismiss, persons who commit sex- or gender-based harassment. Section 9 further requires that any disciplinary sanction imposed by an appointing authority for sex- or gender-based harassment be proportionate to the violation.

Section 10 of this regulation repeals the definition of the term “sexual harassment.”

Section 1. Chapter 284 of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:
