A REGULATION relating to parole; revising provisions concerning initial assessments regarding whether to grant parole to eligible prisoners; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires the State Board of Parole Commissioners to adopt regulations setting forth specific standards to assist the Board in determining whether to grant or revoke the parole of a convicted person. The standards are required to be based upon objective criteria for determining the convicted person’s probability of success on parole. (NRS 213.10885)

Existing regulations provide that the Board will establish an initial assessment regarding whether to grant parole to a prisoner by applying the severity level of the crime for which parole is being considered and the risk level assigned to the prisoner concerning his or her risk to reoffend. (NAC 213.516) This regulation: (1) makes technical changes to the description of certain possible outcomes of an initial assessment; and (2) provides that after an initial assessment is established, the Board will consider the initial assessment when determining whether to grant parole to a prisoner.

The initial assessment will correspond to the following table:
