The following document is the initial draft regulation proposed by the agency submitted on 04/20/2022

NAC 289.270 Executive certificate. (NRS 289.510)

1. The Commission will grant an executive certificate to an officer upon submission of proof satisfactory to the Commission that the officer meets the following minimum requirements:

- (a) A current basic certificate.
- (b) A current intermediate certificate.
- (c) A current advanced certificate.
- (d) A current supervisor certificate.
- (e) A current management certificate.

(f) Six years of experience as a peace officer, including at least 1 year of experience in an executive level position and a current assignment in an executive level position.

(g) Two hundred hours of training in advanced management in addition to the training completed for the basic, intermediate, advanced, supervisor and management certificates.

(h) The applicant must present proof that the current assignment meets the criteria for an executive level position as set forth in NAC 289.047 by submitting a letter of recommendation with the application which is signed by the administrator of the agency. The letter must include an organizational chart which demonstrates the applicant's position within the agency and must describe the manner in which the applicant's current assignment meets the criteria for an executive level position as set forth in NAC 289.047. OR

2. Where the applicant is eligible for reciprocity and meets sections 1. (f), (g) and (h) above and possesses a basic, intermediate, advanced, supervisor and management certificate from that state or federal agency recognized for reciprocity. Should the reciprocity state not issue such certificates, proof from the applicant that they have the training and experience in that reciprocity state that would meet Nevada POST requirement for such certificate had the applicant been a Nevada peace officer. OR

3. The appointed or elected chief executive who has 5 consecutive years in the position of chief executive in that agency, regardless of above.

4. In making a determination pursuant to subsection 1, the Commission will review and consider each applicant individually.
