NAC 656.261 Examination of designated representative: Prerequisite to service; schedule for administration; fee. (NRS 656.130, 656.186, 656.220)

1. Before a person who is not a certified court reporter may serve as a designated representative of a court reporting firm, the person must pass an examination administered by the Board.
2. The Executive Secretary of the Board shall prepare a schedule for the administration of examinations to applicants to become a designated representative of a court reporting firm.
3. The fee for an examination is $250.
4. The Board will consider applications for the immediately succeeding examination. The Executive Secretary of the Board shall establish a deadline for submission of applications at least 30 days before the examination for certification is administered. If an application is postmarked after the deadline, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall return the application to the applicant and the applicant is ineligible to take the examination.
5. An application must be submitted to the Board in its original form.
6. All questions on the application must be completed. If an application is incomplete, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall return the application to the applicant. An applicant whose application is returned because it is incomplete may resubmit his or her application if the application that is resubmitted is postmarked on or before the date of the deadline.

- 1. An application must include a photocopy of a picture identification of the applicant.*
- 2. An application must be signed by the applicant under penalty of perjury and include an* acknowledgment by the applicant that a misrepresentation or omission in the application may constitute a ground for denial, suspension or revocation of a certificate pursuant to NRS 656.240. The signature of the applicant attests to the accuracy of all information provided by the applicant, including, but not limited to, the information contained in the application and all other evidence and information accompanying the application.

9. If the Board rejects an application, the Board will include a letter that explains the reason for the rejection.

10. If the Board approves an application, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall mail to the applicant a letter of admission to the examination.

11. An applicant may cancel his or her submission of an application and request a refund of the examination fee by submitting a written request to the Board on or before the deadline for submission of applications established by the Executive Secretary of the Board pursuant to subsection 1. If the request is submitted on or before the deadline for submission of applications, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall cancel the applicant's application and refund the examination fee to the applicant. The Executive Secretary of the Board shall not refund an examination fee if the request for a refund is submitted after the deadline for submission of applications.

12. An applicant may cancel his or her submission of an application and request that the Board apply the applicant's examination fee to the immediately succeeding examination by submitting a written request to the Board after the deadline for submission of applications established by the Executive Secretary of the Board pursuant to subsection 1 but before the date of the examination. If the request is submitted after the deadline for submission of applications but before the date of the examination, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall cancel the applicant's application and apply the applicant's examination fee to the immediately succeeding examination.

13. An applicant who is unable to take the examination because of an emergency may submit a written request to the Board not later than 15 days after the date of the examination requesting that the Board apply the applicant's examination fee to the immediately succeeding examination. The request must include documented proof of the emergency. If the Board grants the applicant's request, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall apply the applicant's examination fee to the immediately succeeding examination.

14. As used in this section, "emergency" means a sudden or unforeseen circumstance that makes it impractical or impossible for the applicant to take the examination and includes, without limitation, an illness or injury to the applicant or an injury to or the illness or death of a family member of the applicant.

NAC 656.265 Examination of designated representative: Content; procedure; notice of results; application for and restrictions on retaking. (NRS 656.130, 656.186)

1. Each examination administered pursuant to NAC 656.261 will consist of 125 multiple-choice questions that test the knowledge of the applicant in:

- (a) The applicable laws, regulations, and court and procedural rules governing the practice of court reporting in this State;
- (b) Technical advances in the practice of court reporting;
- (c) Ethics and professionalism in the practice of court reporting;
- (d) Management of the business and economics of court reporting; and
- (e) Any other subject relating to court reporting that the Board determines appropriate for inclusion in the examination.

2. Each applicant will have 90 minutes to complete the examination. During the examination, the applicant must not refer to or otherwise use any book, paper or other material.

3. Not more than 8 weeks after the administration of the examination, the Board will, at a public meeting held for that purpose, certify the score of each applicant who took the examination. As soon as practicable after conducting the public meeting, the Board will provide official written notice to each applicant of the results of the examination of the applicant. The results of an examination must not be given to an applicant by telephone. ~~Not later than 7 days after an examination, the Board will mail the results of the examination to each applicant. If the applicant passed the examination, the Board will include with the results of the examination a certificate of completion.~~ If the applicant failed the examination, the Board will include with the results of the examination a statement that the applicant failed the examination and is not eligible for a certificate of completion.

4. An applicant may not take more than four examinations during any period of 12 consecutive months. To apply for a subsequent examination, an applicant must submit a written request to the Board and pay the fee required pursuant to NAC 656.261.

5. An applicant who passes the examination must submit an application to the Board for a license within 2 years after the date on which the applicant passed the examination.

NAC 656-XXX Reciprocity to Members of the Armed Forces (NRS 622.510, NRS 622.530)

NAC 656.XXX “Temporary Certificate of Registration” means a certificate to practice court reporting issued to a person on a temporary basis under the provisions of this chapter.

1. Any person may, with the approval of the Board, practice court reporting on a temporary basis as a certified court reporter who is an active-duty member of the United States Armed Forces, member’s spouse, veteran or veteran’s spouse. A person requesting the approval of the Board to practice court reporting on a temporary basis shall submit to the Board:

a) An application with the Executive Secretary of the Board. The application must be accompanied by a fee of $100 and all information as required under NRS 656.150 and NRS 656.180

b) Documentation or other proof that the person has at least one continuous year of experience working full-time in the practice of court reporting; and

c) A copy of one of the following:

1) The certification as a Registered Professional Reporter, Registered Merit Reporter or Certified Realtime Reporter issued to the person by the National Court Reporters Association;

2) A certificate as a Certified Verbatim Reporter issued to the person by the National Verbatim Reporters Association.

2. A temporary certificate of registration shall be renewed on or before January 2 of the succeeding year, upon payment of the required fee, for a period not to exceed 12 months after being issued.

3. A person who is granted a temporary certificate of registration shall take an examination until said examination is passed in accordance with NRS 656.160 and NRS 656.170.

4. If a person granted a temporary certificate of registration does not pass the examination within 12 months after the certificate is issued, the court reporter will no longer be eligible for a temporary certificate of registration.

5. A person issued a temporary certificate of registration shall comply with the provisions set forth in NRS 656 and NAC 656 and all applicable laws, regulations and court procedural rules governing court reporters.

6. To the extent applicable, the Board will apply the applicable laws, regulations and court procedural rules governing court reporters, including, without limitation, suspension or revocation of a certificate, to a person holding a temporary certificate of registration as the Board applies those statutes and regulation to court reporters.

7. A person holding a temporary certificate of registration may administer oaths and affirmations in accordance with NRS 656.315.
