AUTHORITY: § 1, NRS 360.090, 372.385 and 372.725.

A REGULATION relating to taxation; revising provisions governing the application of sales and use taxes to the purchase or use of parts and materials for the repair or replacement of tangible personal property under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law imposes a sales tax on the gross receipts of a retailer from the retail sale of tangible personal property in this State and a use tax on the storage, use or consumption in this State of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer for storage, use or other consumption in this State in a transaction that would have been subject to the sales tax if it had occurred in this State. (NRS 372.105, 372.185, 374.110, 374.190) Under existing regulations, the furnishing of replacement parts or materials to repair or replace tangible personal property pursuant to a warranty or guaranty that is included in the contract of sale for the tangible personal property is a part of the sale of the tangible personal property and sales and use taxes do not apply to the purchase and use of such replacement parts or materials. (NAC 372.460)

This regulation provides that the purchase and use of replacement parts or materials to repair or replace tangible personal property pursuant to a warranty or guaranty that was included in the sale of the tangible personal property is excluded from sales and use taxes only if: (1) the warranty or guaranty was a mandatory part of the sale of the tangible personal property and the repair or replacement of the tangible personal property is an obligation or duty imposed on a party to that mandatory warranty or guaranty; and (2) the sales price of the tangible personal property included the value of the mandatory warranty or guaranty. This regulation further clarifies that sales and use taxes apply to the purchase and use of replacement parts or materials to repair or replace tangible personal property under circumstances other than the circumstances set forth in this regulation, including, without limitation, the purchase and use of replacement parts or materials to repair or replace tangible personal property pursuant to an optional warranty or guaranty or pursuant to a term of any warranty or guaranty providing for repairs, replacements or services to maintain or enhance customer goodwill or to provide gratuitous or promotional repairs, replacements or services.
