

NEVADA LEGISLATURE

Thirty-Fifth Special Session, 2023

ASSEMBLY DAILY JOURNAL

THE FIRST DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), June 7, 2023

Assembly called to order at 12:12 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblywomen Cohen and Thomas, who were excused.

Prayer by Assemblyman C.H Miller.

Hey, Lord, it is us again, Your favorite legislative body. Your word says to acknowledge You in all our ways and You will direct our paths. We come to You this morning as we embark on another session to continue in our work of the people. We want to first thank You for keeping us in our right minds, our households afloat, and hopes in our hearts. We want to ask You to revive and refresh our minds and to reignite our energy levels so that we overcome the weight of exhaustion that may result in poor decision-making.

We want to ask You to heal our hearts, our minds, our bodies, our emotions, our friendships, and relationships—both in this body and in our personal lives. The work this body is tasked with comes with great personal sacrifice, not just for us but also our families. Many of us have children and spouses who are missing us or even parents in hospitals facing health issues. So, Lord, we ask that You extend Your healing power beyond just us in this building to those who love and support us, because they, too, sacrifice tremendously for our work in this Chamber.

As we return to those loved ones after our work here is done, we ask that You remind us to use the same passion to serve our communities that divided us in the previous two sessions and will likely divide us in this one. But we ask You to make it unite us like never before as we return and serve our people, because despite what we fight over here, it is that passion that drives us through the many sacrifices to be here to do Your work in the People's House. I guess You know all too well about passion that requires sacrifice for the greater good.

With all that in mind, and as we carry on in this session, we rest assured that everything will work together for the good according to Your purpose. We know that Your purpose for our lives in this season is to serve our neighbors. We do that with the humbleness and the utmost respect, love, and gratitude for our neighbors and for You, Lord, the one who made it all possible. As we continue in this service to our neighbors—the people of our state who elected us to ensure we are creating an environment by which every person has an equitable opportunity to pursue happiness and in that pursuit are able to live passionately, love abundantly, and laugh loudly—we ask You to give us divine wisdom, understanding, and courage to make the best decisions on the weighty matters before us that will prove to be the right decisions in this present time and for our children's children.

We respect and have many faiths and different belief systems in this body that are represented. With all due respect, I ask these things according to my faith and in the power of Your holy, magnificent Name, the Name of Jesus. And all the people say,

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

5. The Legislative Counsel Bureau shall make available to the public copies of the validated 2020 census database for the cost of reproducing the database.
6. The redistricting committees shall make available for review by the public copies of all maps prepared at the direction of the committees.

ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

Rule No. 14. Maintenance of Working Environment; Procedure for Filing, Investigating and Taking Remedial Action on Complaints.

1. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the policy of the Legislature to prohibit any conduct, whether intentional or unintentional, which results in sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment based upon any other protected category. The Legislature intends to maintain a working environment which is free from sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment. Each Legislator is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others are able to work in such an environment.
2. In accordance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., for the purposes of this Rule, “sexual harassment” means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

 - (c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.
3. Each Legislator must exercise his or her own good judgment to avoid engaging in conduct that may be perceived by others as sexual harassment. The following noninclusive list provides illustrations of conduct that the Legislature deems to be inappropriate:
 - (a) Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments;
 - (b) Visual conduct such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;

(c) Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with the work directed at a person because of his or her sex; and

(d) Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests to keep a person's job or avoid some other loss, and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors.

4. In addition to other prohibited conduct, a complaint may be brought pursuant to this Rule for engaging in conduct prohibited by Rule No. 37 of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 82nd Session of the Legislature when the prohibited conduct is based on or because of the gender or other protected category of the person.

5. Retaliation against a person for engaging in protected activity is prohibited. Retaliation occurs when an adverse action is taken against a person which is reasonably likely to deter the person from engaging in the protected activity. Protected activity includes, without limitation:

(a) Opposing conduct that the person reasonably believes constitutes sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment;

(b) Filing a complaint about the conduct; or

(c) Testifying, assisting or participating in any manner in an investigation or other proceeding related to a complaint of sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment.

(a) The Speaker of the Assembly;

(b) The Majority Leader of the Senate;

(c) The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, if the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate; or

(d) The reporting system established pursuant to subsection 11.

↪ The complaint must include the details of the incident or incidents, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses. Unless the Legislative Counsel is the subject of the complaint, the Legislative Counsel must be informed upon receipt of a complaint.

7. The Speaker of the Assembly, the Majority Leader of the Senate or the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, as appropriate, shall cause a discreet and impartial investigation to be conducted and may, when deemed necessary and appropriate, assign the complaint to a committee consisting of Legislators of the appropriate House.

8. If the investigation reveals that sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct in violation of this policy has occurred, appropriate disciplinary or remedial action, or both will be taken. The appropriate persons will be informed when any such action is taken. The Legislature will also take any action necessary to deter any future harassment.

9. The Legislature encourages a Legislator to report any incident of sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct inconsistent with this policy immediately so that the complaint can be quickly and fairly resolved.

10. All Legislators are responsible for adhering to the provisions of this policy. The prohibitions against engaging in sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment which are set forth in this Rule apply to employees, Legislators, lobbyists, vendors, contractors, customers and any other visitors to the Legislature.

11. The Legislative Counsel shall establish a reporting system which allows a person to submit a complaint of a violation of this Rule with or without identifying himself or herself. Such a complaint must provide enough details of the incident or incidents alleged, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses to allow an appropriate inquiry to occur.

12. This policy does not create any enforceable legal rights in any person.
