Madam Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Hambrick, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Dr. Ken Haskins.

O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is Your Name in all the Earth. We marvel at Your creative genius and at the work of Your hands: the star-filled sky, the snow-capped mountains, the painted deserts, and the mighty oceans. These and more sing Your praises. Lord, bless our creative efforts in order that the work of our hands may enrich the lives of those whom we serve for years to come. In Jesus' Name I pray.

AMEN.

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Nevada Legislature that the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus has maintained its honorable status throughout the known world and especially in this great State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The Ancient and Honorable and Exceedingly Humble Order of E Clampus Vitus has survived the test of time to become one of the longest surviving brotherhoods of men that continue to fulfill a fundamental need in providing protection and kindness while advancing the noble cause of Clamperdom to residents of the Silver State, especially all the “widders” and orphans, and descendants of the Argonauts; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus was founded in West Virginia in 1845 by Ephram Bee, owner of a tavern on the National Road, and shortly thereafter the warmhearted brothers affectionately became known as the “Clampin Vipers”; and

WHEREAS, In 1860, William Stewart founded the first Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus, Winnemucca Lodge #1, in the Utah Territory, in the unsuspecting peaceful town known as Carson City; and

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 75th Session of the Nevada Legislature, of whom many are proud members of E Clampus Vitus, do hereby declare February 19, 2009, as E Clampus Vitus Day at the Nevada Legislature, a day to be marked by appropriate revelry and thanksgiving; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus is praised and commended for its contributions to mankind and others, and recognized as an illustrious group of Clampers, Clampatrious, Vituscans and Frolicking Friars who must continue to serve and protect the residents of the Silver State; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to the Patriarchs of E Clampus Vitus.

Assemblyman Anderson moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Anderson.

Assemblyman Ocegüera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

For me, one of the highlights of each legislative session is when we have the opportunity to honor the order of E Clampus Vitus, and since the “doin” this evening will be in recognition of the former Speaker, Joe Dini, this is of particular significance to me.

This fraternal organization, as we heard the Chief Clerk explain in the resolution, is now generally associated with the western mining camps in California and Nevada, but it had its origins elsewhere. Ephraim Bee, the founder of E Clampus Vitus, was a tavern owner in Lewisport, West Virginia. He was also an agent of the Underground Railroad. Ephraim Bee hid escaped slaves in caves near Lewisport. Sometimes he would give the townsfolk a raucous party to keep them occupied while the slaves moved on to the next station.

In 1845, Ephraim Bee announced that he had received a special commission from the Emperor of China to establish the ancient and honorable order of E Clampus Vitus. From there, the order spread far and wide, being carried west by the soldiers in the Mexican War and the miners in the California gold rush.

It is not hard to understand why E Clampus Vitus became so popular. The nineteenth century was the heyday of the fraternal orders—the Masons, the Odd Fellows, the ancient order of the Hibernians, and a score of others.

E Clampus Vitus was a thoroughly democratic organization and a conscious parody of these exclusive and pretentious orders. To poke fun at the pomp and ceremony of the fraternal organizations, with their fancy sashes, jeweled vests, and other elaborate headgear, the Clampers cut tin can lids into odd shapes and pinned them to their hats and their characteristic red shirts. This practice is still called “wearing your tin.” You will note that many of these gentlemen have such items on their vests.

In the place of pretentious titles and orders, the Clampers elected officers with names like “The Noble Grand Humbug,” “The Roisterous Iscutis,” or “The Grand Imperturbable Hangman.” Finally, in place of the elaborate initiation ceremonies, the Clampers admitted new members with a rowdy drinking party.

Today, the Clampers are best known for preserving the history of the western mining districts. When you visit one of Nevada’s old mining camps, you will see bronze plaques marking the sites of taverns, bordellos, and other places that were important to the miners of the nineteenth century but would be forgotten today if it were not for the Clampers. After placing one of these historic markers, the Clampers revert to their origins as a “historic drinking society,” holding a boisterous party known as the “doin’s,” of which we’ll have one this evening.

So today we salute the contributions of one of Nevada’s oldest, largest, and most disreputable fraternal organizations, the ancient and honorable order of E Clampus Vitus.

I want to thank you and I want to thank them for their contribution to our society and for the reminder that is possible to have a fun day regardless of where you are at. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Resolution adopted.

Assemblyman Anderson moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 8 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, February 19, 2009

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8.

SHERRY L. RODRIGUEZ
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8.

Assemblywoman Dondero Loop moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Dondero Loop, Munford, Christensen, Pierce, Leslie, Parnell, Anderson, Bobzien, Grady, and Madam Speaker.

Assemblyman Ocegüera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DONDERO LOOP:

I would like to introduce my dear friend, Guy Rocha. Guy and I go way back. We were John S. Park Elementary School Panthers together, I think, in the second grade. Then we were Lancers at John C. Fremont Middle School. Then he decided not to be a Wildcat and went to Clark High School and left us all, but we stayed friends. He is a true product of public education in the State of Nevada and is a native Nevadan. I followed his work and we reconnected at a dinner recently when I realized he did not know he had made my best friend, Amy, cry throughout the entire third grade because he teased her about being Polish. We have straightened all that out. Amy has gotten her dozen red roses. We have found out that Guy was Polish and that is why he was telling those jokes to her. So all these years later we have found that out and it is now all laid to rest. I applaud him for everything he has done. We forgive you for crying every day. Thank you for the red roses to Amy. She is very happy and living in Boulder City now. Thank you for all your hard work, and thank you for being such a dear friend.

ASSEMBLYMAN MUNFORD:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I would also would like to extend my congratulations and strong support for Guy Rocha. He was, at one time, one of my students at Clark High School. I am very impressed with his success, and I just wish him all good luck. I hope he gets what he's been looking for in the future. Thanks a lot for being part of my life.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHRISTENSEN:

Thank you for recognizing me, Madam Speaker. I stand in strong support of this measure to recognize our honoree. I am in strong protest, however, of his retiring. You will be greatly missed. I have heard that great things come out of Clark High School, and I admit, for full disclosure, that I graduated from Clark, as well. I didn't want that disclosure issue to come back on me. But, I just wanted to tell you that—and I am sure that I speak for many of us here in this body—some of my most fond memories in the three sessions that have been leading up to this one, is sitting over in the old Assembly Chamber and hearing those stories of knife wielding Assembly members and Senators, going through their brawls and passing laws. Those stories helped us feel so civil, here. Really, there are just some great memories of watching you speak and represent history in Nevada. I will truly miss you. Again, I want to recognize you for all the great things you have done for the state. Thank you.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks.

I would note that Guy was the first and only state archivist in our state's history to make presentations to the full Assembly at the old Assembly Chamber, and it is one of our best days each session. We did that in 2003, 2005, 2007, and I am pleased to let all the freshman know that he has agreed to present again this time, in 2009. We will look forward to that day, one of our most special floor sessions each session.

Guy, we so appreciate all you have done in your service to our state. We recognize that we have to preserve what you have built up over the years. We will do that. Thank you for all you have done for us.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN PIERCE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of this resolution. I reiterate what everyone else has said. I am a history buff, and I just really always look forward to when we go to the old Capitol and you tell us about days gone by. I just wanted to thank you very much for your service to this state.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN LESLIE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of this resolution. I just have a little request for Mr. Rocha since he will be addressing us next month or whenever we have our old Assembly Chamber floor session scheduled. I would like to hear the story of the Mesquite mosquito in regards to the old Assembly Chamber. Senator Reid told a story yesterday. It will be quite interesting, I think, for Mr. Rocha to research that for us. I think the Assembly will greatly benefit from hearing about the Mesquite mosquito. It is a challenge.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN PARNELL:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of SCR 8. As a friend of Guy's and he being one of my constituents, I wanted to just say, on behalf of the Capital City, and on behalf of all former history teachers, we just think you are a gem. We are glad you will at least be staying in Carson City, so hopefully you will continue to come to the State Library and do what you do so well. We wish you happiness and health in your retirement. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I, too, rise in support of the resolution. As a history teacher and one who likes to believe they understand a little bit about Nevada history, I cannot emphasize enough the remarkable contribution, truly remarkable contribution of Mr. Rocha in breaking the myths that surround the oral history of the state as compared to that which is actually supported by records that are keenly kept. Without his strong endeavor, those myths would live forever. I look forward to both his written and televised presentations continuing in the tradition of making sure the historical record of our state is kept accurately.

We now have almost enough time to say we have a historic past, but we are still working on it. I thank you for your service. I regret his departure from state service and recognize, in part, it is because of the deep economic troubles facing his department and the area where he works. His retiring, being at the top end of the food ladder, means others might be able to stay and carry on the work that he has started. That kind of dedication is rare in any society. I think we should all recognize it. Thank you, Mr. Rocha.

ASSEMBLYMAN BOBZIEN:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of the resolution. I just would like to start on a personal note and thank Guy for the time I have spent with him and getting to know him and the friendship that he has with members of my family. I think it is important to note—and I want to thank you on a broader level as one of many people in this body who is not a native Nevadan—that ever since I have been here, I have been aware of his work and the things he has done to interpret our past and to help us to define ourselves as Nevadans, once we got here. I think it is also important to note—as you're concluding your service in your professional position—that we not lose sight, as Nevadans, of the importance of what it was and what it is that you do for our state as we hurtle into our very uncertain future. We always know where we came from. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GRADY:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I do stand in support of this resolution. I think it is appropriate since this past weekend we just finished the state wrestling championships around the state. A very important part of history is that Guy was a state championship wrestler. Not only that, he has helped many of the local high schools produce championship wrestlers, and for that we really appreciate him. Also, from a local government person, over the years, Guy has gone around to all the smaller communities. When I was mayor in Yerington, he was down there quite often helping us put our records together. If it had not been for Guy, many of the records for the smaller communities around the state would have been lost, and for that, I thank you and wish you happy retirement.

Resolution adopted.

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 12:35 p.m.

Madam Speaker presiding.

Quorum present.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Hardy requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

Today, I have two guests sitting with me who are going to stand with me; and I would invite the group coming from Clark County predominantly to also stand at this point. Sitting with me are Kelly Thomas Boyers and her son, Alec Thomas. In light of the fact that I am probably going to wax eloquent, I think it is probably appropriate to welcome them to the floor of the Assembly and recognize that they are budding lobbyists and they will probably be talking to each and every one of us. So, if you can welcome them to the floor of the Assembly.

If you will indulge me, Madam Speaker. Kelly is the mother of Adam Thomas; Alec is the brother of Adam Thomas. Adam Thomas, as you may recollect, almost one year ago was serving as the intern for Senator Michael Schneider when he was involved in a one-car accident, swerving to avoid a pedestrian. He was not safety belted in, was ejected from the vehicle, and subsequently died. Because Alec, being the brother, is attending a high school of religious origin, I thought it only fair to ask him about the concept of giving one's life. I would preface that by saying that when my Savior was asked, "Who is my neighbor?" he used the parable of the Good Samaritan to illustrate that each and every one of us has a neighbor. So that would lead me to the quote of the scripture in John 15:13, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." I asked Alec, "Who were his friends?" and he appropriately answered, "Everyone".

His brother, Adam, who gave his life for a friend that he did not know, truly made a sacrifice. He may not have understood the sacrifice that was going to happen, but it is my testimony that the resurrection is real, and Adam has done something for someone he did not know. What a privilege it is for us to have a wonderful mother, a wonderful brother, here representing their son, their brother, to us and with us on the floor of the Assembly. May we all appreciate our children, our siblings, our spouses, and may we remember the sacrifices that so many people have given for us, would be my humble prayer.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.
