Remarks by Senators Lee and Cegavske.

Senator Lee requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

SENATOR LEE:

Thank you, Mr. President. I have known the Hoban family through their son, Bob, for many years. His father, Toby, was a real-estate developer and general contractor in the early days of Las Vegas. There were many who came to town back then and just slapped together houses out of old railroad ties, but Toby Hoban was a general contractor's general contractor. He worked hard and did a good job. He helped with affordable housing in Las Vegas. He fought for the preservation of the old Huntridge neighborhood where many houses were built in the 1950s. He was active in the Elks organization and with the Helldorado Rodeo.

He and his wife, Mary Ann, received the Key to the City of Las Vegas on their 50th wedding anniversary. Las Vegas recognized this wonderful lady and her fine husband.

Her son, Bob, is a great friend of mine. He is a sixth-generation Nevadan. He has followed his father's example. I have served on some boards with Bob, and his family continues to give to our community. They are an integral part of the good things that happen in southern Nevada.

I would like to say "happy trails" to this Nevada pioneer.

SENATOR CEGAVSKE:

Thank you, Mr. President. It is my pleasure to stand in support of this resolution. My relationship to the family is with Mary Ann. What a great friend she is. I worked with her with WestCare. She was on the Board. Mary Ann would put together a fundraiser for WestCare consisting of horseback riding on a trail. She was able to raise a lot of money. There would be a chuck wagon on the trail. She and the cook would play cards while the participants were on the trail, and those trails went on forever. It was an all-day experience. You would remember that ride for several days and weeks.

It was a great experience to work with Mary Ann, and I know the entire Hoban family shares in the wonderful honor of having Mary Ann and Toby recognized. They do so much for the community. Many organizations have benefited from their work. This family never stops giving.

Resolution adopted.

Resolution ordered transmitted to the Assembly.
