THE ONE HUNDRED AND NINTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Thursday), May 26, 2011

Assembly called to order at 1:40 p.m.
Mr. Speaker presiding.
Roll called.
All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Steven Brooks.

Dear Lord, I would like to make a special prayer for my colleagues and myself today, that we would be able to understand that You have assembled special people, in this special place, for this special moment.

I would like to explain that we came to fight, and we came to win, but not against one another, together as one. You see, our war is not a physical warfare; it is deeper than the eye can see. It is a spiritual warfare and is based on principalities and strongholds. Our weapons are not that of mass destruction; our weapon of choice is our tongue. Let us remember that the decisions we make in these beautiful rotundas affect every man, woman, and child in the ugliest of circumstances and in moments of temporary desperation. As we stand in the gap to protect them let us not lose sight of Your plan, O Lord. For a balanced budget will come to pass, but we will be judged on how we protected Your children in a time of great need.

Please arm us with faith, hope, and love. Give us the courage You provided Gideon’s army and allow this army of 63 legislators to remember that on this day, You selected each and every one of them to serve Your people. In all of our foolishness, let us not forget that it is You whom we serve.

For it is with great honor that I serve in this army of servants and all of the great people You have provided to support us. For the greatest title one can have is that of a servant. I pray that we serve You well.

I pray this in Jesus’ name.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Conklin moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

AN ACT relating to traffic laws; prohibiting a person from using a cellular telephone or other handheld wireless communications device while operating a motor vehicle in certain circumstances; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under existing traffic laws of this State, it is a crime to engage in various activities while operating a motor vehicle or to operate a motor vehicle in a reckless or unsafe manner. (Chapters 484A-484E of NRS) Section 1 of this bill makes it a crime for a person to manually type or enter text into a cellular telephone or other similar device, or to send or read data using any such device, while operating a motor vehicle. Section 1 further prohibits a person from using such a device for voice communications unless the device is used with an accessory which allows the person to communicate without using his or her hands, with certain limited exceptions. Section 1 provides an exception to the prohibitions when the cellular telephone or other device is used by certain emergency and law enforcement personnel and persons designated by a sheriff or chief of police or the Director of the Department of Public Safety who are acting within the course and scope of their employment. Additional exceptions apply if: (1) the person is using the cellular telephone or other device to report or request assistance relating to a medical emergency, a safety hazard or criminal activity; (2) the person is responding to a situation requiring immediate action and stopping the vehicle would be inadvisable, impractical or dangerous; or (3) the person is a licensed amateur radio operator providing communications services in connection with a disaster or emergency, participating in a drill, test, or other exercise in preparation for a disaster or emergency or otherwise communicating public information. A violation of the provisions added by section 1 is a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of $50 for a first offense within the immediately preceding 7 years, $100 for a second offense within the immediately preceding 7 years and $250 for a third or subsequent offense within the immediately preceding 7 years. However, section 4 of this bill provides that until January 1, 2012, a law enforcement officer must not issue a citation to a person for violating section 1 but must give the person a verbal or written warning. Section 1 further provides that a first offense will not be treated as a moving traffic violation. Additionally, if a person is convicted of a third or subsequent offense, in addition to the fine, the driver’s license of the person will be suspended for 6 months. Section 2 of this bill makes the enhanced penalty for certain traffic violations that occur in a temporary traffic control zone applicable to violations of these new crimes.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Sections 1-3 of this bill provide for the exemption of certain trust property, interests or powers from execution and attachment. Sections 6-47 of this bill provide for nonprobate transfers of property, including certain real property, at the death of the owner of the property. Specifically, sections 41 and 42 govern the registration of property in beneficiary form and the extent to which the designation of a beneficiary may be revoked or changed during the lifetime of the owner of the property or in the owner’s will. Sections 40 and 45 set forth the rights of the beneficiary during the lifetime of the owner of the property and at the owner’s death. Sections 48-64 of this bill adopt provisions governing accounts in financial institutions in which one or more persons have an interest. Section 49 provides that an account may: (1) be owned by a single party or by multiple parties; and (2) include a payable-on-death beneficiary designation or an agency designation, or both. Section 50 provides sample forms for establishing multiple-person accounts. Section 53 provides that an account is owned by the parties during their lifetimes in accordance with each party’s net contribution to the account. Section 54 sets forth the rights of the parties with respect to an account upon the death of a party.

Existing law generally provides for the enforcement of a no-contest clause in a will or a trust. (NRS 137.005, 163.00195) Sections 73 and 177 of this bill provide, with certain exceptions, that a devisee’s or beneficiary’s share may be reduced or eliminated under a no-contest clause by conduct that is set forth by the testator in the will or by the settlor in the trust. Similarly, sections 70 and 176 of this bill provide that a disposition of property and the appointment of a fiduciary including, without limitation, a personal representative and a trustee, may be dependent on conditions set forth by the testator in a will or by the settlor in the trust. Sections 76-144 of this bill set forth the Independent Administration of Estates Act, which allows a personal representative to administer most aspects of a decedent’s estate without court supervision. Pursuant to sections 86 and 88, the court may: (1) grant the personal representative full authority or limited authority to administer the decedent’s estate; or (2) revoke the personal representative’s authority to administer the decedent’s estate without court supervision. Section 90 provides that if a personal representative is granted limited authority to administer the estate, court supervision is required for certain actions, including the sale of property of the estate, exchange of property of the estate or granting of an option to purchase property of the estate. Section 90 further provides that if the personal representative has been granted full authority to administer the estate, court supervision for the sale of property of the estate, exchange of property of the estate or granting of an option to purchase property of the estate is required only under certain circumstances. Sections 93-106 and 128 of this bill require the personal representative to give notice of a proposed action when exercising certain powers without court supervision, including selling real property of the estate. Sections 107-115 of this bill require the personal representative to give notice of the proposed action under certain circumstances when exercising certain powers. Sections 116-127 of this bill authorize the personal representative to exercise certain powers without giving notice of the proposed action, including the power to pay taxes and assessments and expenses incurred in the collection, care and administration of the estate.

Sections 202 and 203 of this bill adopt provisions concerning spendthrift trusts. Further, sections 204-206 of this bill amend existing law concerning the powers and responsibilities of a settlor or trustee for a spendthrift trust. Section 209 of this bill repeals the Uniform TOD Security Registration Act and other statutes related to nonprobate transfers of certain accounts.

Sec. 24. “Request” means a request for payment complying with all terms of the account, including special requirements concerning necessary signatures and regulations of the financial institution. For the purposes of sections 6 to 64, inclusive, of this act, if the terms of the account condition payment on advance notice, a request for payment is treated as immediately effective and a notice of intent to withdraw is treated as a request for payment.

Sec. 25. “State” includes any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and any territory or possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

Sec. 26. “Sums on deposit” means the balance payable on an account, including interest and dividends earned, whether or not included in the current balance, and any deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of a party.

Sec. 27. “Terms of the account” includes the deposit agreement and other terms and conditions, including the form, of the deposit.

Sec. 28. “Transferring entity” means a person who owes a debt or is obligated to pay money or benefits, render contract performance, deliver or convey property, or change the record of ownership of property on the books, records and accounts of an enterprise or on a certificate or document of title that evidences property rights, and includes any governmental agency or business entity that, or transfer agent who, issues certificates of ownership or title to property and a person acting as a custodial agent for an owner’s property.

Sec. 29. “Trust” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 132.350.

Sec. 30. “Trustee” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 132.355.

Sec. 31. “Will” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 132.370.

Sec. 32. 1. A provision for a nonprobate transfer on death in a contract is nontestamentary and includes any written provision that:

(a) Money or other benefits due to, controlled by or owned by a decedent before death must be paid after the decedent’s death to a person whom the decedent designates in the contract or in a separate writing, including a will, executed before or at the same time as the contract, or later;

(b) Money due or to become due under the contract ceases to be payable in the event of death of the promisee or the promisor before payment or demand; or

(c) Any property controlled by or owned by the decedent before death which is the subject of the contract passes to a person whom the decedent designates in the contract or in a separate writing, including a will, executed before or at the same time as the contract, or later.

2. A nonprobate transfer described in subsection 1:

(a) Is exempt from the requirements of chapter 133 of NRS;

(b) Is not subject to administration as part of the person’s estate at death;

(c) Is not subject to distribution pursuant to the decedent’s will or pursuant to chapter 134 of NRS, except to the extent that the beneficiary designation fails; and

(d) May be established in conjunction with the ownership registration of an asset, as provided in section 36 of this act.

3. A beneficiary designation that involves an interest in real property must be done in the form of a deed that satisfies the requirements of NRS 111.109.

4. Upon a decedent’s death:

(a) Money or other benefits due to, controlled by or owned by that decedent before death must be paid after the decedent’s death to the beneficiary whom the decedent designates in the contract or in a separate writing, including a will, executed before or at the same time as the contract, or later;

(b) If the contract provides that money due or to become due under the contract ceases to be payable in the event of the death of the promisee or the promisor before payment or demand, such provision is effective; and

(c) Any property controlled by or owned by the decedent before death which is the subject of the contract passes to the beneficiary whom the decedent designates in the contract or in a separate writing, including a will, executed before or at the same time as the contract, or later.
5. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section to the contrary, a writing separate from a contract is not effective to the extent it violates the terms of the contract unless it is signed or otherwise ratified by all parties to the contract.

6. Nothing in sections 32 to 64, inclusive, of this act authorizes a married person to transfer or otherwise affect the community property rights of that person’s spouse.

Sec. 33. For the purpose of discharging its duties under sections 32 to 46, inclusive, of this act, the authority of a transferring entity acting as agent for an owner of property subject to a nonprobate transfer does not cease at the death of the owner. The transferring entity shall transfer the property to the designated beneficiary in accordance with the contract between the transferring entity and the deceased owner and with sections 32 to 46, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 34. 1. Provision for a nonprobate transfer is a matter of agreement between the owner and the transferring entity, under such rules, terms and conditions as the owner and transferring entity may agree. Before a nonprobate transfer is effective, the contract may require:

   (a) Submission to the transferring entity of a beneficiary designation under a governing instrument;

   (b) Registration by a transferring entity of a transfer-on-death direction on any certificate or record evidencing ownership of property;

   (c) The consent of a contract obligor for a transfer of performance due under the contract;

   (d) The consent of a financial institution for a transfer of an obligation of the financial institution;

   (e) The consent of a transferring entity for a transfer of an interest in the transferring entity; or

   (f) Compliance with any other express condition.

2. Whenever a contract provision relating to a nonprobate transfer requires any of the conditions set forth in subsection 1, nothing in sections 32 to 46, inclusive, of this act imposes an obligation on a transferring entity to accept an owner’s request to make provision for a nonprobate transfer of property unless the conditions have been met.

3. When a beneficiary designation, revocation or change is subject to acceptance by a transferring entity, the transferring entity’s acceptance of the beneficiary designation, revocation or change relates back to and is effective as of the time when the request was received by the transferring entity.

Sec. 35. When a transferring entity accepts a beneficiary designation or beneficiary assignment or registers in beneficiary form certain property, the acceptance or registration constitutes the agreement of the owner and transferring entity that, unless the beneficiary designation is revoked or changed before the death of the owner, on proof of the death of the owner and compliance with the transferring entity’s requirements for showing proof of entitlement, the property will be transferred to and placed in the name and control of the beneficiary in accordance with the beneficiary designation or transfer-on-death direction, the agreement of the parties and the provisions of sections 32 to 46, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 36. A beneficiary designation, under a written instrument or law, that authorizes a transfer of property pursuant to a written designation of beneficiary transfers the right to receive the property to the designated beneficiary who survives, effective on the death of the owner, if the beneficiary designation is executed and delivered in proper form to the transferring entity before the death of the owner.

Sec. 37. 1. A written assignment of a contract right which assigns the right to receive any performance remaining due under the contract to an assignee designated by the owner and which expressly states that the assignment is not to take effect until the death of the owner transfers the right to receive performance due under the contract to the designated assignee beneficiary, effective on the death of the owner, if the assignment is executed and delivered in proper form to the contract obligor before the death of the owner or is executed in proper form and acknowledged before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths. A beneficiary assignment need not be supported by consideration or be delivered to the assignee beneficiary.

2. This section does not preclude other methods of assignment which are authorized by law and which have the effect of postponing enjoyment of a contract right until the death of the owner.

Sec. 38. 1. A deed of gift, bill of sale or other writing intended to transfer an interest in tangible personal property which expressly states that the transfer is not to take effect until the death of the owner transfers ownership to the designated transferee beneficiary, effective on the death of the owner, if the instrument is in other respects sufficient to transfer the type of property involved and is executed by the owner and acknowledged before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths. A beneficiary transfer instrument need not be supported by consideration or be delivered to any transferee beneficiary.

2. This section does not preclude other methods of transferring ownership of tangible personal property which are authorized by law and which have the effect of postponing enjoyment of property until the death of the owner.

Sec. 39. 1. A transferor of property, with or without consideration, may directly transfer the property to a transferee to be held in beneficiary form, as owner of the property.

2. A transferee under an instrument described in subsection 1 of section 32 of this act is the owner of the property for all purposes and has all the rights to the property otherwise provided by law to owners, including the right to revoke or change the beneficiary designation.
3. A direct transfer of property to a transferee to be held in beneficiary form is effective when the writing perfecting the transfer becomes effective to make the transferee the owner.

Sec. 40. 1. Before the death of the owner, a designated beneficiary has no rights in the property by reason of the beneficiary designation and the signature or agreement of the beneficiary is not required for any transaction respecting the property.

2. On the death of one of two or more joint owners, property with respect to which a beneficiary designation has been made belongs to the surviving joint owner or owners and the right of survivorship continues as between two or more surviving joint owners.

3. On the death of a sole owner, property passes by operation of law to the beneficiary.

4. If two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship among the beneficiaries in the event of the death of a beneficiary thereafter unless the beneficiary designation expressly provides for survivorship among them and, unless so expressly provided, surviving beneficiaries hold their separate interests in the property as tenants in common. The share of any subsequently deceased beneficiary belongs to that beneficiary’s estate.

5. If no beneficiary survives the owner, the property belongs to the estate of the owner.

Sec. 41. 1. Unless a beneficiary designation is expressly made irrevocable, a beneficiary designation may be revoked or changed in whole or in part during the lifetime of the owner. A revocation or change of a beneficiary designation involving property of joint owners may only be made with the agreement of all owners then living.

2. A subsequent beneficiary designation revokes a previous beneficiary designation unless the subsequent beneficiary designation expressly provides otherwise.

3. A revocation or change in a beneficiary designation must comply with the terms of the governing instrument, the rules of the transferring entity and the applicable law.

4. A beneficiary designation may not be revoked or changed by the provisions of a will unless the beneficiary designation expressly grants the owner the right to revoke or change a beneficiary designation by will. If a beneficiary designation is revoked by will, it must be revoked by an express provision in the will and extrinsic evidence is not admissible to establish the testator’s intent concerning the beneficiary designation.

5. A transfer during the owner’s lifetime of the owner’s interest in property, with or without consideration, terminates the beneficiary designation with respect to the property transferred.

6. The effective date of a revocation or change in a beneficiary designation must be determined in the same manner as the effective date of a beneficiary designation.
Sec. 42. 1. Property may be held in beneficiary form or registered in beneficiary form by including in the name in which the property is held or registered a direction to transfer the property on the death of the owner to a beneficiary designated by the owner.

2. Property is registered in beneficiary form by showing on the account record, security certificate or written instrument evidencing ownership of the property the name of the owner, and the form of ownership by which two or more joint owners hold the property, followed in substance by the words “transfer on death to.............. (name of beneficiary).” In lieu of the words “transfer on death to,” the words “pay on death to” or “pay on death to the owner’s lineal descendants, per stirpes” or the abbreviation “TOD,” “POD” or “LDPS” may be used. The designation of a person’s heirs as beneficiaries does not make the property subject to administration as part of the person’s estate, but the identities of the beneficiaries must be determined pursuant to chapter 134 of NRS as they relate to the owner’s separate property.

3. A transfer-on-death direction may only be placed on an account record, security certificate or instrument evidencing ownership of property by the transferring entity or a person authorized by the transferring entity.

4. A transfer-on-death direction transfers the owner’s interest in the property to the designated beneficiary, effective on the death of the owner, if the property is registered in beneficiary form before the death of the owner or if the request to make the transfer-on-death direction is delivered in proper form to the transferring entity before the death of the owner.

5. An account record, security certificate or written instrument evidencing ownership of property that contains a transfer-on-death direction written as part of the name in which the property is held or registered is conclusive evidence in the absence of fraud, duress, undue influence or evidence of clerical mistake by the transferring entity that the direction was regularly made by the owner and accepted by the transferring entity and was not revoked or changed before the death giving rise to the transfer. The transferring entity has no obligation to retain the original writing, if any, by which the owner caused the property to be held in beneficiary form or registered in beneficiary form, more than 6 months after the transferring entity has mailed or delivered to the owner, at the address shown on the registration, an account statement, certificate or instrument that shows the manner in which the property is held in beneficiary form or registered in beneficiary form.

Sec. 43. Any interest in property that would be distributed by nonprobate transfer to or for a beneficiary who is disqualified as a beneficiary pursuant to chapter 41B of NRS must be transferred as if the disqualified beneficiary had disclaimed the interest immediately upon the decedent’s death.

Sec. 44. An agent, guardian of the person or other fiduciary may not make, revoke or change a beneficiary designation unless:
1. The power of attorney or other document establishing the agent, guardian or other fiduciary’s right to act or a court order expressly authorizes such action; and

2. The action complies with the terms of the governing instrument, the rules of the transferring entity and applicable law.

Sec. 45. If property subject to a beneficiary designation is lost, destroyed, damaged or involuntarily converted during the owner’s lifetime, the beneficiary succeeds to any right with respect to the loss, destruction, damage or involuntary conversion which the owner would have had if the owner had survived but has no interest in any payment or substitute property received by the owner during the owner’s lifetime.

Sec. 46. 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 21.090 and other applicable law, a transferee of a nonprobate transfer is liable to the probate estate of the decedent for allowed claims against that decedent’s probate estate to the extent the estate is insufficient to satisfy those claims.

2. The liability of a nonprobate transferee may not exceed the value of nonprobate transfers received or controlled by that transferee.

3. Nonprobate transferees are liable for the insufficiency described in subsection 1 in the following order of priority:

   (a) A transferee specified in the decedent’s will or any other governing instrument as being liable for such an insufficiency, in the order of priority provided in the will or other governing instrument;

   (b) The trustee of a trust serving as the principal nonprobate instrument in the decedent’s estate plan as shown by its designation as devisee of the decedent’s residuary estate or by other facts or circumstances, to the extent of the value of the nonprobate transfer received or controlled; and

   (c) Other nonprobate transferees, in proportion to the values received.

4. Unless otherwise provided by the trust instrument, interests of beneficiaries in all trusts incurring liabilities under this section abate as necessary to satisfy the liability, as if all the trust instruments were a single will and the interests were devises under it.

5. If a nonprobate transferee is a spouse or a minor child, the nonprobate transferee may petition the court to be excluded from the liability imposed by this section as if the nonprobate property received by the spouse or minor child were part of the decedent’s estate. Such a petition may be made pursuant to the applicable provisions of chapter 146 of NRS, including, without limitation, the provisions of NRS 146.010, NRS 146.020 without regard to the filing of an inventory and subsection 2 of NRS 146.070.

6. A provision made in one instrument may direct the apportionment of the liability among the nonprobate transferees taking under that or any other governing instrument. If a provision in one instrument conflicts with a provision in another, the later one prevails.
7. Upon due notice to a nonprobate transferee, the liability imposed by this section is enforceable in probate proceedings in this State, whether or not the transferee is located in this State.

8. If a probate proceeding is pending, a proceeding under this section may be commenced by the personal representative of the decedent’s estate or, if the personal representative declines to do so, by a creditor in the name of the decedent’s estate, at the expense of the creditor and not of the estate. If a creditor successfully establishes an entitlement to payment under this section, the court must order the reimbursement of the costs reasonably incurred by the creditor, including attorney’s fees, from the transferee from whom the payment is to be made, subject to the limitations of subsection 2, or from the estate as a cost of administration, or partially from each, as the court deems just. A personal representative who declines in good faith to commence a requested proceeding incurs no personal liability for declining.

9. If a probate proceeding is not pending, a proceeding under this section may be commenced as a civil action by a creditor at the expense of the creditor.

10. If a proceeding is commenced pursuant to this section, it must be commenced:

   (a) As to a creditor whose claim was allowed after proceedings challenging disallowance of the claim by the personal representative, within 60 days after final allowance of the claim by the probate court or within 1 year after the decedent’s death, whichever is later.

   (b) As to a creditor whose claim against the decedent is being adjudicated in a separate proceeding that is still pending 1 year after the decedent’s death, within 60 days after the adjudication of the claim in favor of the creditor is final and no longer subject to reconsideration or appeal.

   (c) As to the recovery of benefits paid for Medicaid, within 3 years after the decedent’s death.

   (d) As to all other creditors, within 1 year after the decedent’s death.

11. Unless a written notice asserting that a decedent’s probate estate is nonexistent or insufficient to pay allowed claims and statutory allowances has been received from the decedent’s personal representative, the following rules apply:

   (a) Payment or delivery of assets by a financial institution, registrar or other obligor to a nonprobate transferee in accordance with the terms of the governing instrument controlling the transfer releases the obligor from all claims for amounts paid or assets delivered.

   (b) A trustee receiving or controlling a nonprobate transfer is released from liability under this section with respect to any assets distributed to the trust’s beneficiaries. Each beneficiary to the extent of the distribution received becomes liable for the amount of the trustee’s liability attributable to assets received by the beneficiary.

12. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary:
(a) A creditor has no claim against property transferred pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by a decedent unless it was exercisable in favor of the decedent or the decedent’s estate.

(b) A purchaser for value of property or a lender who acquires a security interest in the property from a beneficiary of a nonprobate transfer after the death of the owner, in good faith:

1. Takes the property free of any claims or of liability to the owner’s estate, creditors of the owner’s estate, persons claiming rights as beneficiaries under the nonprobate transfer or heirs of the owner’s estate, in absence of actual knowledge that the transfer was improper; and

2. Has no duty to verify sworn information relating to the nonprobate transfer. The protection provided by this subparagraph applies to information that relates to the ownership interest of the beneficiary in the property and the beneficiary’s right to sell, encumber and transfer good title to a purchaser or lender and does not relieve a purchaser or lender from the notice imparted by instruments of record respecting the property.

13. As used in this section, “devise” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 132.095.

Sec. 47. 1. Except as otherwise provided by the express terms of a governing instrument, a court order or a contract relating to the division of the marital estate made between the divorced persons before or after the marriage, divorce or annulment, the divorce or annulment of a marriage:

(a) Revokes any revocable:

1. Disposition or appointment of property made by a divorced person to his or her former spouse in a governing instrument and any disposition or appointment created by law or in a governing instrument to a relative of the divorced person’s former spouse;

2. Provision in a governing instrument conferring a general or nongeneral power of appointment on the divorced person’s former spouse or on a relative of the divorced person’s former spouse; and

3. Nomination in a governing instrument that nominates a divorced person’s former spouse or a relative of the divorced person’s former spouse to serve in any fiduciary or representative capacity, including a personal representative capacity, including a personal representative, executor, trustee, conservator, agent or guardian; and

(b) Severs the interest of the former spouses in property held by them at the time of the divorce or annulment as joint tenants with the right of survivorship or as community property with a right of survivorship and transforms the interests of the former spouses into equal tenancies in common.

2. A severance under paragraph (b) of subsection 1 does not affect any third-party interest in property acquired for value and in good faith reliance on an apparent title by survivorship in the survivor of the former spouses unless a writing declaring the severance has been noted, registered, filed or recorded in records appropriate to the kind and location of the property which records are relied upon, in the ordinary course of transactions involving such property, as evidence of ownership.

3. The provisions of a governing instrument are given effect as if the former spouse and relatives of the former spouse disclaimed all provisions revoked by this section or, in the case of a revoked nomination in a fiduciary or representative capacity, as if the former spouse and relatives of the former spouse died immediately before the divorce or annulment.

4. Any provisions revoked solely by this section are revived by the divorced person’s remarriage to the former spouse or by a nullification of the divorce or annulment.

5. Unless a court in an action commenced pursuant to chapter 125 of NRS specifically orders otherwise, a restraining order entered pursuant to NRS 125.050 does not preclude a party to such an action from making or changing beneficiary designations that specify who will receive the party's assets upon the party’s death.

6. A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument affected by the provisions of this section or for having taken any other action in good faith reliance on the validity of the governing instrument before the payor or other third party received written or actual notice of any event affecting a beneficiary designation. A payor or other third party is liable for a payment made or other action taken after the payor or other third party received written or actual notice of a claimed forfeiture or revocation under this section.

7. Written notice of the divorce, annulment or remarriage or written notice of a complaint or petition for divorce or annulment must be mailed to the payor's or other third party’s main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of the divorce, annulment or remarriage, a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or deposit any item of property held by it to or with the court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the decedent’s estate or, if no proceedings have been commenced, to or with the court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to decedents’ estates located in the county of the decedent's residence. The court shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon its determination under this section, shall order disbursement or transfer in accordance with the determination. Payments, transfers or deposits made to or with the court discharge the payor or other third party from all claims for the value of amounts paid to or items of property transferred to or deposited with the court.

8. A person who purchases property from a former spouse, relative of a former spouse or any other person for value and without notice, or who receives from a former spouse, relative of a former spouse or any other person a payment or other item of property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable obligation, is neither obligated under this section to return the payment, item of property or benefit nor is liable under this section for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit. A former spouse, relative of a former spouse or other person who, not for value, received a payment, item of property or any other benefit to which that person is not entitled under this section is obligated to return the payment, item of property or benefit or is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit to the person who is entitled to it under this section.

9. If this section or any part of this section is preempted by federal law with respect to a payment, an item of property or any other benefit covered by this section, a former spouse, relative of the former spouse or any other person who, not for value, received a payment, item of property or any other benefit to which that person is not entitled under this section is obligated to return that payment, item of property or benefit or is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit to the person who would have been entitled to it were this section or part of this section not preempted.

10. As used in this section:
   (a) “Disposition or appointment of property” includes a transfer of an item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument.
   (b) “Divorce or annulment” means any divorce or annulment or any dissolution or declaration of invalidity of a marriage. A decree of separation that does not terminate the status of husband and wife is not a divorce for purposes of this section.
   (c) “Divorced person” includes a person whose marriage has been annulled.
   (d) “Governing instrument” means a governing instrument executed by a divorced person before the divorce or annulment of the person’s marriage to the person’s former spouse.
   (e) “Relative of the divorced person’s former spouse” means a person who is related to the divorced person’s former spouse by blood, adoption or affinity and who, after the divorce or annulment, is not related to the divorced person by blood, adoption or affinity.
   (f) “Revocable,” with respect to a disposition, appointment, provision or nomination, means one under which the divorced person, at the time of the divorce or annulment, was alone empowered, by law or under the governing instrument, to cancel the designation in favor of the person’s former spouse or former spouse’s relative, whether or not the divorced person was then empowered to designate himself or herself in place of his or her former spouse or in place of his or her former spouse’s relative and whether or not the divorced person then had the capacity to exercise the power.

Sec. 48. The provisions of sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act:
1. Apply to accounts in financial institutions in this State for which ownership is determined under Nevada law.

2. Do not apply to:
   (a) An account established for a partnership, joint venture or other organization for a business purpose;
   (b) An account controlled by one or more persons as an agent or trustee for a corporation, unincorporated association or charitable or civic organization; or
   (c) A fiduciary or trust account in which the relationship is established other than by the terms of the account.

Sec. 49. 1. An account may be for a single party or multiple parties. A multiple-party account may be with or without a right of survivorship between the parties. Subject to subsection 3 of section 54 of this act, a single-party account or a multiple-party account may have a POD designation or an agency designation, or both.

2. An account established before, on or after October 1, 2011, whether in the form prescribed in subsection 1 of section 50 of this act or in any other form, is a single-party account or a multiple-party account, with or without right of survivorship, and with or without a POD designation or an agency designation, and is governed by sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 50. 1. An agreement of deposit that contains provisions in substantially the following form establishes the type of account provided, and the account is governed by the provisions of sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act applicable to an account of that type:

UNIFORM SINGLE- OR MULTIPLE-PARTY ACCOUNT FORM

2. An agreement of deposit that does not contain provisions in substantially the form provided in this section is governed by the provisions of sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act applicable to the type of account that most nearly conforms to the depositor’s intent.

Sec. 51. 1. By a writing signed by all parties, the parties may designate as agent of all parties on an account a person other than a party to the account.

2. Unless the terms of an agency designation provide that the authority of the agent terminates on disability or incapacity of a party, the agent’s authority survives disability and incapacity. The agent may act for a disabled or incapacitated party until the authority of the agent is terminated.

3. The death of the sole party or last surviving party terminates the authority of an agent.

4. Any designation of an agent on an account is revocable and may be superseded by a subsequent designation:
   (a) With regard to a single-party account, by the party; and
   (b) With regard to a multiple-party account, by the parties or a surviving party.
Any designation of an agent is superseded by an acknowledged power of attorney, as described in chapter 162A of NRS, when a copy of that power of attorney is delivered to the financial institution.

Sec. 52. The provisions of sections 52 to 57, inclusive, of this act concerning beneficial ownership as between parties or as between parties and beneficiaries:

1. Apply only to controversies between those persons and their creditors and other successors.
2. Do not apply to the right of those persons to payment as determined by the terms of the account.

Sec. 53. 1. During the lifetime of all parties, an account belongs to the parties in proportion to the net contribution of each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent. As between parties married to each other, in the absence of proof otherwise, the net contribution of each is presumed to be an equal amount.
2. A beneficiary in an account having a POD designation has no right to sums on deposit during the lifetime of any party.
3. An agent in an account with an agency designation has no beneficial right to sums on deposit.
4. As used in this section, “net contribution” of a party means the sum of all deposits to an account made by or for the party, less all payments from the account made to or for the party which have not been paid to or applied to the use of another party and a proportionate share of any charges deducted from the account, plus a proportionate share of any interest or dividends earned, whether or not included in the current balance. The term includes any deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question.

Sec. 54. 1. Except as otherwise provided in sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act or in an applicable contract, on the death of a party, sums on deposit in a multiple-party account belong to the surviving party or parties. If two or more parties survive and one is the surviving spouse of the decedent, the amount to which the decedent, immediately before death, was beneficially entitled under section 53 of this act belongs to the surviving spouse. If two or more parties survive and none is the surviving spouse of the decedent, the amount to which the decedent, immediately before death, was beneficially entitled under section 53 of this act belongs to the surviving parties in equal shares and augments the proportion to which each survivor, immediately before the decedent’s death, was beneficially entitled under section 53 of this act, and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.
2. In an account with a POD designation:
   (a) On the death of one of two or more parties, the rights in sums on deposit are governed by subsection 1.
(b) On the death of the sole party or the last survivor of two or more parties, sums on deposit belong to the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries. If two or more beneficiaries survive, sums on deposit belong to them in equal and undivided shares and there is no right of survivorship in the event of the death of a beneficiary thereafter. If no beneficiary survives, sums on deposit belong to the estate of the last surviving party.

3. Sums on deposit in a single-party account without a POD designation, or in a multiple-party account that, by the terms of the account, is without right of survivorship, are not affected by the death of a party, but the amount to which the decedent, immediately before death, was beneficially entitled under section 53 of this act is transferred as part of the decedent’s estate. A POD designation in a multiple-party account without right of survivorship is ineffective. For the purposes of this section, the designation of an account as a tenancy in common establishes that the account is without right of survivorship.

4. The ownership right of a surviving party or beneficiary, or of the decedent’s estate, in sums on deposit is subject to requests for payment made by a party before the party’s death, whether paid by the financial institution before or after the death, or unpaid. The surviving party or beneficiary, or the decedent’s estate, is liable to the payee of an unpaid request for payment. The liability is limited to a proportionate share of the amount transferred under this section, to the extent necessary to discharge the request for payment.

Sec. 55. 1. The rights at death under section 54 of this act are determined by the type of account at the death of a party. The type of account may be altered by written notice given by a party to the financial institution to change the type of account or to stop or vary payment under the terms of the account. The notice must be signed by a party and received by the financial institution during the party’s lifetime.

2. A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account, section 54 of this act or a POD designation may not be altered by a will.

Sec. 56. A transfer resulting from the application of section 54 of this act is effective by reason of the terms of the account involved and sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act and is not testamentary or subject to estate administration. Nonprobate transfers are effective with or without consideration.

Sec. 57. A deposit of community property in an account does not alter the community character of the property or community rights in the property, but a right of survivorship between parties married to each other arising from the express terms of the account or section 54 of this act may not be altered by a will.

Sec. 58. A financial institution may enter into an agreement of deposit for a multiple-party account to the same extent it may enter into an agreement of deposit for a single-party account, and may provide for a POD designation and an agency designation in a single-party account or a multiple-party account. A financial institution need not inquire as to the source of a deposit to an account or as to the proposed application of a payment from an account.

Sec. 59. A financial institution, on request, may pay sums on deposit in a multiple-party account to:

1. One or more of the parties, whether or not another party is disabled, incapacitated or deceased when payment is requested and whether or not the party making the request survives another party; or

2. The personal representative, if any, or, if there is none, the heirs or devisees of a deceased party if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased party was the survivor of all other persons named on the account as a party or beneficiary, unless the account is without right of survivorship under section 49 of this act.

Sec. 60. A financial institution, on request, may pay sums on deposit in an account with a POD designation to:

1. One or more of the parties, whether or not another party is disabled, incapacitated or deceased when the payment is requested and whether or not a party survives another party;

2. The beneficiary or beneficiaries, if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the beneficiary or beneficiaries survived all persons named as parties; or

3. The personal representative, if any, or, if there is none, the heirs or devisees of a deceased party, if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased party was the survivor of all other persons named on the account as a party or beneficiary.

Sec. 61. A financial institution, on request of an agent under an agency designation for an account, may pay to the agent sums on deposit in the account, whether or not a party is disabled, incapacitated or deceased when the request is made or received, and whether or not the authority of the agent terminates on the disability or incapacity of a party.

Sec. 62. If a financial institution is required or authorized to make payment pursuant to sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act to a minor designated as a beneficiary, payment may be made pursuant to Nevada’s Uniform Act on Transfers to Minors, as set forth in chapter 167 of NRS, or an equivalent law in another jurisdiction.

Sec. 63. 1. Payment made pursuant to sections 48 to 64, inclusive, of this act, in accordance with the type of account, discharges the financial institution from all claims for amounts so paid, whether or not the payment is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the account as between parties, beneficiaries or their successors. Payment may be made whether or not a party, beneficiary or agent is disabled, incapacitated or deceased when payment is requested, received or made.

2. Protection under this section does not extend to payments made after a financial institution has received written notice from a party, or from the personal representative, surviving spouse, or heir or devisee of a deceased party, to the effect that payments in accordance with the terms of the account, including one having an agency designation, should not be authorized, and the financial institution has had a reasonable opportunity to act on it when the payment is made. Unless the notice is withdrawn by the person giving it, the successor of any deceased party must concur in a request for payment if the financial institution is to be protected under this section. Unless a financial institution has been served with process in an action or proceeding, no other notice or other information shown to have been available to the financial institution affects its right to protection under this section.

3. A financial institution that receives written notice pursuant to this section or otherwise has reason to believe that a dispute exists as to the rights of the parties may refuse, without liability, to make payments in accordance with the terms of the account.

4. Protection of a financial institution under this section does not affect the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of sums on deposit in accounts or payments made from accounts.

Sec. 64. A beneficiary of a nonprobate transfer takes the owner’s interest in the property at death, subject to all conveyances, assignments, contracts, setoffs, licenses, easements, liens and security interests made by the owner or to which the owner was subject during the owner’s lifetime. Subject to the limitation of subsection 2 of section 46:

1. A beneficiary of a nonprobate transfer of an account with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union, broker or mutual fund takes the owner’s interest in the property at death, subject to all requests for payment of money issued by the owner before death, whether paid by the transferring entity before or after the death or unpaid.

2. The beneficiary is liable to the payee of an unsatisfied request for payment, to the extent that it represents an obligation that was enforceable against the owner during the owner’s lifetime. To the extent that a claim properly paid by the personal representative of the owner’s estate includes the amount of an unsatisfied request for payment to the claimant, the personal representative is subrogated to the rights of the claimant as payee.

3. Each beneficiary’s liability with respect to an unsatisfied request for payment is limited to the same proportionate share of the request for payment as the beneficiary’s proportionate share of the account under the beneficiary designation. Beneficiaries have the right of contribution among themselves with respect to requests for payment which are satisfied after the death of the owner, to the extent the requests for payment would have been enforceable by the payees.

4. In no event may a beneficiary’s liability to payees, to the owner’s estate and to other beneficiaries pursuant to this section, with respect to all requests for payment, exceed the value of the account received by the beneficiary. If a request for payment which would not have been enforceable under this section is satisfied from a beneficiary’s share of the account, the beneficiary:

(a) Is not liable to any other payee or the owner’s estate pursuant to this section for the amount so paid; and

(b) Has no right of contribution against other beneficiaries with respect to that amount.

Sec. 65. Chapter 132 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

“Nonprobate transfer” has the meaning ascribed to it in section 17 of this act.

Sec. 66. NRS 132.025 is hereby amended to read as follows:

132.025 As used in this title, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 132.030 to 132.370, inclusive, and section 65 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 67. NRS 132.050 is hereby amended to read as follows:

132.050 “Beneficiary,” as it relates to:

1. A trust, includes a person who has a present or future interest, vested or contingent, and the owner of an interest by assignment or other transfer;

2. A charitable trust, includes any person entitled to enforce the trust;

3. An instrument designating a beneficiary, includes a beneficiary of an insurance policy or annuity, of an account designated as payable on death, of a security registered as transferable on death or of a pension, profit-sharing, retirement or similar benefit plan or other nonprobate transfer; and

4. A beneficiary designated in a governing instrument, includes a grantee of a deed, a devisee, a beneficiary of a trust, a beneficiary under a designation, a donee, an appointee or a taker in default under a power of appointment, or a person in whose favor a power of attorney or a power held in any individual, fiduciary or representative capacity is exercised, but does not include a person who receives less than $100 under a will.

Sec. 68. NRS 132.090 is hereby amended to read as follows:

132.090 “Designation of beneficiary” means a governing instrument naming a beneficiary of an insurance policy or annuity, of an account designated as payable on death, of a security registered as transferable on death, or of a pension, profit-sharing, retirement or similar benefit plan or other nonprobate transfer.

Sec. 69. NRS 132.185 is hereby amended to read as follows:

132.185 “Interested person” includes, without limitation, an heir, devisee, child, spouse, creditor, settlor, beneficiary and any other person having a property right in or claim against a trust estate or the estate of a decedent, including, without limitation, the Director of the Department of Health and Human Services in any case in which money is owed to the Department of Health and Human Services as a result of the payment of benefits for Medicaid. The term includes a person having priority for appointment as a personal representative and other fiduciaries representing interested persons. The meaning as it relates to particular persons must be determined according to the particular purposes of, and matter involved in, a proceeding.

2. The term does not include:
   (a) After a will has been admitted to probate, an heir, child or spouse who is not a beneficiary of the will, except for purposes of NRS 133.110, 133.160 and 137.080.
   (b) A person with regard to a motion, petition or proceeding that does not affect an interest of that person.
   (c) A creditor whose claim has not been accepted by the personal representative if the enforcement of the claim of the creditor is barred under the provisions of chapter 11 or 147 of NRS or any other applicable statute of limitation.

Sec. 70. Chapter 133 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

Except to the extent that it violates public policy, a testator may:
1. Make a devise conditional upon a devisee’s action or failure to take action or upon the occurrence or nonoccurrence of one or more specified events; and
2. Specify the conditions or actions which would disqualify a person from serving or which would constitute cause for removal of a person who is serving in any capacity under the will, including, without limitation, as a personal representative, guardian or trustee.

Sec. 71. NRS 133.200 is hereby amended to read as follows:

When any estate is devised to any child or other relation of the testator, and the devisee dies before the testator, leaving lineal descendants, those descendants, in the absence of a provision in the will to the contrary, take the estate so given by the will in the same manner as the devisee would have done if the devisee had survived the testator. If any beneficiary who is a descendant of the testator dies before the testator, leaving lineal descendants, the property, share or beneficial interest that would have been distributed or allocated to that deceased beneficiary must be distributed or allocated to that beneficiary’s descendants then living, by right of representation, to be distributed under the same terms that would have applied to the deceased beneficiary.

Sec. 72. Chapter 136 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of section 47 of this act concerning the revocation of certain transfers based upon divorce or annulment apply to transfers of property made pursuant to a will.

Sec. 73. NRS 137.005 is hereby amended to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 4, a no-contest clause in a will must be enforced by the court.
2. A no-contest clause must be construed to carry out the testator’s intent. Except to the extent the will is vague or ambiguous, extrinsic evidence is not admissible to establish the testator’s intent concerning the no-contest clause. The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit such evidence from being admitted for any other purpose authorized by law. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 4, a devisee’s share may be reduced or eliminated under a no-contest clause based upon conduct that is set forth by the testator in the will, including, without limitation, any testamentary trust established in the will. Such conduct may include, without limitation:
   (a) Conduct other than formal court action; and
   (b) Conduct which is unrelated to the will itself, including, without limitation:
      (1) The commencement of civil litigation against the testator’s probate estate or family members;
      (2) Interference with the administration of a trust or a business entity;
      (3) Efforts to frustrate the intent of the testator’s power of attorney; and
      (4) Efforts to frustrate the designation of beneficiaries related to a nonprobate transfer by the testator.

3. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the will, a devisee’s share must not be reduced or eliminated if the devisee seeks only to:
   (a) Enforce the terms of the will or any document referenced in or affected by the will;
   (b) Enforce the devisee’s legal rights in the probate proceeding; or
   (c) Obtain a court ruling with respect to the construction or legal effect of the will.

4. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the will, a devisee’s share must not be reduced or eliminated under a no-contest clause because the devisee institutes legal action seeking to invalidate a will if the legal action is instituted in good faith and based on probable cause that would have led a reasonable person, properly informed and advised, to conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that the will is invalid.

5. As used in this section, “no-contest clause” means one or more provisions in a will that express a directive to reduce or eliminate the share allocated to a devisee or to reduce or eliminate the distributions to be made to a devisee if the devisee takes action to frustrate or defeat the testator’s intent as expressed in the will.

Sec. 74. NRS 141.120 is hereby amended to read as follows:

141.120 Except as otherwise provided in section 170 of this act, an interested person may appear at the hearing and file allegations in writing, showing that the personal representative should be removed.

Sec. 75. Chapter 143 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 76. Sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act may be cited as the Independent Administration of Estates Act.
Sec. 77. As used in sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in sections 78, 79 and 80 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 78. “Court supervision” means the judicial order, authorization, approval, confirmation or instructions that would be required if authority to administer the estate had not been granted pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 79. “Full authority” means the authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act that includes all the powers granted pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 80. “Limited authority” means authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act that includes all the powers granted pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, except the power to do any of the following:

1. Sell real property.
2. Exchange real property.
3. Grant an option to purchase real property.
4. Borrow money with the loan secured by an encumbrance upon real property.

Sec. 81. The personal representative may not be granted authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act if the decedent’s will provides that the estate must not be administered pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 82. A special administrator may be granted authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act if the special administrator is appointed with, or has been granted, the powers of a general personal representative.

Sec. 83. The provisions of sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act apply in any case where authority to administer the estate is granted pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 84. 1. To obtain authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, the personal representative must petition the court for that authority in a petition for appointment of the personal representative or in a separate petition filed in the estate proceedings.

2. The personal representative may request either of the following:
   (a) Full authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act; or
   (b) Limited authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 85. 1. If the authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act is requested in a petition for appointment of the personal representative, notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner applicable to the petition for appointment.
2. Where proceedings for the administration of the estate are pending at the time a petition is filed pursuant to section 84 of this act, notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in NRS 155.010 to all the following persons:

(a) Each person specified in NRS 155.010;

(b) Each known heir whose interest in the estate would be affected by the petition;

(c) Each known devisee whose interest in the estate would be affected by the petition; and

(d) Each person named as personal representative in the will of the decedent.

3. The notice of hearing of the petition for authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, whether included in the petition for appointment or in a separate petition, must include a statement in substantially the following form:

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. This will avoid the need to obtain court approval for many actions taken in connection with the estate. However, before taking certain actions, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action. Independent administration authority will be granted unless good cause is shown why it should not be.

Sec. 86. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, unless an interested person objects in writing at or before the hearing to the granting of authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act and the court determines that the interested person has shown good cause why the authority to administer the estate under those provisions should not be granted, the court shall grant the requested authority.

2. If the interested person has shown good cause why only limited authority should be granted, the court shall grant limited authority.

Sec. 87. 1. If the personal representative is otherwise required to file a bond and has full authority, the court shall fix the amount of the bond at not more than the estimated value of the personal property, the estimated value of the decedent’s interest in the real property authorized to be sold pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act and the probable annual gross income of the estate or, if the bond is to be given by personal sureties, at not less than twice that amount.

2. If the personal representative is otherwise required to file a bond and has limited authority, the court shall fix the amount of the bond at not more than the estimated value of the personal property and the probable annual gross income of the estate or, if the bond is to be given by personal sureties, at not less than twice that amount.

Sec. 88. 1. Any interested person may file a petition requesting that the court make either of the following orders:
(a) An order revoking the authority of the personal representative to continue administration of the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act; or

(b) An order revoking the full authority of the personal representative to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act and granting the personal representative limited authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

2. The petition must set forth the basis for the requested order.

3. The petitioner shall give notice for the period and in the manner provided in NRS 155.010.

4. If the court determines that good cause has been shown, the court shall make an order revoking the authority of the personal representative to continue administration of the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act. Upon the making of the order, new letters must be issued without the authority to act pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

5. If the personal representative was granted full authority and the court determines that good cause has been shown, the court shall make an order revoking the full authority and granting the personal representative limited authority. Upon the making of the order, new letters must be issued indicating whether the personal representative is authorized to act pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act and, if so authorized, whether the independent administration authority includes or excludes the power to do any of the following:

(a) Sell real property;

(b) Exchange real property;

(c) Grant an option to purchase real property; or

(d) Borrow money with the loan secured by an encumbrance upon real property.

Sec. 89. 1. Subject to the limitations and conditions of sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, a personal representative who has been granted authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act may administer the estate as provided pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act without court supervision, but in all other respects, the personal representative shall administer the estate in the same manner as a personal representative who has not been granted authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1, the personal representative may obtain court supervision of any action to be taken by the personal representative during administration of the estate.

Sec. 90. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act to the contrary, whether the personal representative has been granted limited authority or full authority, a personal representative who has obtained authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act is required to obtain court approval for any of the following actions:

(a) Allowance of the personal representative’s compensation;
(b) Allowance of compensation of the attorney for the personal representative;
(c) Settlement of accounts;
(d) Preliminary and final distributions and discharge;
(e) Sale of property of the estate to the personal representative or to the attorney for the personal representative;
(f) Exchange of property of the estate for property of the personal representative or for property of the attorney for the personal representative;
(g) Grant of an option to purchase property of the estate to the personal representative or to the attorney for the personal representative;
(h) Allowance, payment or compromise of a claim of the personal representative, or the attorney for the personal representative, against the estate;
(i) Compromise or settlement of a claim, action or proceeding by the estate against the personal representative or against the attorney for the personal representative;
(j) Extension, renewal or modification of the terms of a debt or other obligation of the personal representative, or the attorney for the personal representative, owing to or in favor of the decedent or the estate; and
(k) Any transaction described in this section that would indirectly benefit the personal representative, a relative of the personal representative, the attorney for the personal representative or the attorney for a relative of the personal representative.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act to the contrary, a personal representative who has obtained limited authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act is required to obtain court supervision for any of the following actions:

(a) Sale of real property;
(b) Exchange of real property;
(c) Grant of an option to purchase real property; and
(d) Borrowing money with the loan secured by an encumbrance upon real property.

3. Paragraphs (e) to (k), inclusive, of subsection 1 do not apply to a transaction between the personal representative in his or her capacity as a personal representative and the personal representative as a person if all the following requirements are satisfied:

(a) The personal representative is the sole beneficiary of the estate or all the known heirs or devisees have consented to the transaction;
(b) The period for filing creditor claims has expired;
(c) No request for special notice pursuant to NRS 155.030 is on file or all persons who filed a request for special notice have consented to the transaction; and
(d) The claim of each creditor who filed a claim has been paid, settled or withdrawn, or the creditor has consented to the transaction.

4. As used in this section, “relative” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 163.020.

Sec. 91.
1. Subject to the conditions and limitations of sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act and to the duties and liabilities of the personal representative, a personal representative who has been granted authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act has the powers described in:
(a) Sections 93 to 106, inclusive, of this act with regard to powers that are exercisable only after giving a notice of proposed action;
(b) Sections 107 to 115, inclusive, of this act with regard to powers the exercise of which requires giving a notice of proposed action under certain circumstances; and
(c) Sections 116 to 127, inclusive, of this act with regard to powers that are exercisable without giving a notice of proposed action.

2. The will may restrict the powers that the personal representative may exercise pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 92.
1. Subject to the limitations and requirements of sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, when the personal representative exercises the authority to sell property of the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, the personal representative may sell the property at public auction or private sale, and with or without notice, for cash or on credit, for such price and upon such terms and conditions as the personal representative may determine.

2. The requirements applicable to court confirmation of sales of real property referenced in subsection 1 include, without limitation:
   (a) Publication of the notice of sale;
   (b) Court approval of agents’ and brokers’ commissions;
   (c) The sale being not less than 90 percent of appraised value of the real property;
   (d) An examination by the court into the necessity for the sale of the real property, including, without limitation, any advantage to the estate and benefit to interested persons; and
   (e) The efforts of the personal representative to obtain the highest and best price for the property reasonably attainable.

3. The requirements applicable to court confirmation of sales of real property and sales of personal property do not apply to a sale pursuant to this section.

Sec. 93. The personal representative may exercise the powers described in sections 93 to 106, inclusive, of this act only if the requirements of sections 128 to 140, inclusive, of this act are satisfied.
Sec. 94. The personal representative who has full authority has the power to sell or exchange real property of the estate.

Sec. 95. The personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the power to sell or incorporate any of the following:
1. An unincorporated business or joint venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of the decedent’s death; and
2. An unincorporated business or joint venture which was wholly or partly owned by the decedent at the time of the decedent’s death.

Sec. 96. The personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the power to abandon tangible personal property where the cost of collecting, maintaining and safeguarding the property would exceed its fair market value.

Sec. 97. 1. Subject to the limitations provided in subsection 2 and NRS 143.180, the personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the following powers:
   (a) The power to borrow; and
   (b) The power to place, replace, renew or extend any encumbrance upon any property of the estate.
2. Only a personal representative who has full authority has the power to borrow money with the loan secured by an encumbrance upon real property.

Sec. 98. The personal representative who has full authority has the power to grant an option to purchase real property of the estate for a period within or beyond the period of administration.

Sec. 99. If the will gives a person the option to purchase real or personal property and the person has complied with the terms and conditions stated in the will, the personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the power to convey or transfer the property to the person.

Sec. 100. The personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the power to convey or transfer real or personal property to complete a contract entered into by the decedent to convey or transfer the property.

Sec. 101. The personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the power to allow, compromise or settle any of the following:
1. A third-party claim to real or personal property if the decedent died in possession of, or holding title to, the property; or
2. The decedent’s claim to real or personal property, title to or possession of which is held by another.

Sec. 102. The personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the power to make a disclaimer.

Sec. 103. If the time for filing creditor claims has expired and it appears that the distribution may be made without loss to creditors or injury to the estate or any interested person, the personal representative who has limited authority or full authority has the power to make preliminary distributions of the following:

1. Income received during administration to the persons entitled thereto pursuant to the decedent’s will or by intestate succession.

2. Household furniture and furnishings, motor vehicles, clothing, jewelry and other tangible articles of a personal nature to the persons entitled to the property under the decedent’s will, not to exceed an aggregate fair market value to all persons of $50,000 computed cumulatively through the date of distribution. Fair market value must be determined on the basis of the inventory and appraisal.

Nothing in this subsection authorizes a personal representative to take an action pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act if the personal representative does not have the power to take the action pursuant to those provisions.

2. A personal representative who has been granted authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act may give notice of a proposed action as provided in sections 128 to 140, inclusive, of this act, even if the provisions of sections 89 to 127, inclusive, of this act giving the personal representative the power to take the action authorize the personal representative to take the action without giving notice of the proposed action. The person objecting to the proposed action may use the form provided in section 143 of this act or may make the objection in any other writing that identifies the proposed action with reasonable certainty and indicates that the person objects to the taking of the proposed action.

3. The personal representative is deemed to have notice of the objection to the proposed action if the notice is delivered or received at the address stated in the notice of proposed action before:

The court shall grant the requested order without requiring notice to the personal representative and without cause being shown for the order.

2. The personal representative is deemed to have notice of the restraining order if the notice is given and served upon the personal representative in the manner provided in NRS 155.040 and 155.050, or in the manner authorized by the court, before:
   (a) The date specified in the notice of proposed action on or after which the proposed action is to be taken; or
   (b) The date on which the proposed action is actually taken, whichever occurs later.

Sec. 137. 1. If the proposed action is one that would require court supervision if the personal representative had not been granted authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, and the personal representative has notice of a written objection made pursuant to section 135 of this act or a restraining order issued pursuant to section 136 of this act, the personal representative shall, if the personal representative desires to take the proposed action, petition the court to obtain approval from the court.

authority to administer the estate pursuant to sections 76 to 144, inclusive, of this act, but the personal representative has given notice of the proposed action and has notice of a written objection made pursuant to section 135 of this act or a restraining order issued pursuant to section 136 of this act, the personal representative shall, if he or she desires to take the proposed action, request instructions from the court concerning the proposed action. Sec. 138. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, only a person described in section 129 of this act has a right to have the court review the proposed action after it has been taken or otherwise to object to the proposed action after it has been taken. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, a person described in section 129 of this act waives the right to have the court review the proposed action after it has been taken, or otherwise to object to the proposed action after it has been taken, if:

(b) The person has waived notice of or consented to the proposed action as provided in sections 130 and 131 of this act.

2. Unless the person has waived notice of or consented to the proposed action as provided in sections 130 and 131 of this act, the court may review the action taken upon a petition filed by a person described in section 129 of this act who establishes that he or she did not actually receive the notice of proposed action before the time to object pursuant to subsection 4 expired.

3. The court may review the action of the personal representative upon a petition filed by an heir or devisee who establishes all the following:
(a) At the time notice of the proposed action was given, the heir or devisee lacked capacity to object to the proposed action or was a minor;
(b) No notice of proposed action was actually received by the guardian, conservator or other legal representative of the heir or devisee;

The failure of the personal representative who has limited authority or full authority to comply with subsection 1 of section 128 of this act and with sections 129, 133, 134 and 137 of this act, and the taking of the action by the personal representative without such compliance, does not affect the validity of the action so taken or the title to any property conveyed or transferred to bona fide purchasers or the rights of third persons who, dealing in good faith with the personal representative, changed their position in reliance upon the action, conveyance or transfer without actual notice of the failure of the personal representative to comply with those provisions.

2. A person dealing with the personal representative does not have any duty to inquire or investigate whether the personal representative has complied with the provisions listed in subsection 1.

Sec. 140. 1. In a case where notice of a proposed action is required by sections 128 to 140, inclusive, of this act, the court, in its discretion, may remove the personal representative from office unless the personal representative:

Sec. 150. 1. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the will, a personal representative who is an attorney retained to perform services for the personal representative may receive compensation for services as a personal representative or for services as an attorney for the personal representative, but not both, unless the court:

(b) Finds that method of compensation to be for the advantage, benefit and best interests of the decedent’s estate.

2. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to disallow compensation for services rendered by an attorney as a personal representative if:
(a) Such services are included as part of the legal services of the attorney in a manner consistent with NRS 150.060; and
(b) The attorney does not receive compensation pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 150.020.

3. The services which are rendered by a personal representative who is an attorney and for which compensation is requested pursuant to this section include services rendered by an employee, associate or partner in the same firm of such an attorney and services rendered by an affiliate of such an attorney.

Sec. 152. NRS 150.050 is hereby amended to read as follows:

150.050 1. A personal representative, at any time after the issuance of letters and upon such notice to the interested persons as the court requires, may apply to the court for an allowance upon his or her fees.

3. If the attorney is requesting compensation based on the hourly rate of the attorney, he or she may include, as part of that compensation for ordinary services, a charge for legal services or paralegal services performed by a person under the direction and supervision of the attorney.

4. If the attorney is requesting compensation based on the value of the estate accounted for by the personal representative, the allowable compensation of the attorney for ordinary services must be determined as follows:
   (a) For the first $100,000, at the rate of 4 percent;
   (b) For the next $100,000, at the rate of 3 percent;
   (c) For the next $800,000, at the rate of 2 percent;
   (d) For the next $9,000,000, at the rate of 1 percent;
   (e) For the next $15,000,000, at the rate of 0.5 percent; and
   (f) For all amounts above $25,000,000, a reasonable amount to be determined by the court.

5. Before an attorney may receive compensation based on the value of the estate accounted for by the personal representative, the personal representative must sign a written agreement as required by subsection 8. The agreement must be prepared by the attorney and must include detailed information, concerning, without limitation:
   (a) The schedule of fees to be charged by the attorney;
   (b) The manner in which compensation for extraordinary services may be charged by the attorney; and
   (c) The fact that the court is required to approve the compensation of the attorney pursuant to subsection 8 before the personal representative pays any such compensation to the attorney.

6. For the purposes of determining the compensation of an attorney pursuant to subsection 4, the value of the estate accounted for by the personal representative:
   (a) Is the total amount of the appraisal of property in the inventory, plus:
      (1) The gains over the appraisal value on sales; and

8. The compensation of the attorney must be fixed by written agreement between the personal representative and the attorney, and is subject to approval by the court, after petition, notice and hearing as provided in this section. If the personal representative and the attorney fail to reach agreement, or if the attorney is also the personal representative, the amount must be determined and allowed by the court. The petition requesting approval of the compensation of the attorney must contain specific and detailed information supporting the entitlement to compensation, including:
(a) If the attorney is requesting compensation based upon the value of the estate accounted for by the personal representative, the attorney must provide the manner of calculating the compensation in the petition; and

10. On similar petition, notice and hearing, the court may make an allowance to an attorney for services rendered up to a certain time during the proceedings. If the attorney is requesting compensation based upon the value of the estate as accounted for by the personal representative, the court may apportion the compensation as it deems appropriate given the amount of work remaining to close the estate.
11. An heir or devisee may file objections to a petition filed pursuant to this section, and the objections must be considered at the hearing.
12. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, an attorney for minor, absent, unborn, incapacitated or nonresident heirs is entitled to compensation primarily out of the estate of the distributee so represented by the attorney in those cases and to such extent as may be determined by the court. If the court finds that all or any part of the services performed by the attorney for the minor, absent, unborn, incapacitated or nonresident heirs was of value to the decedent’s entire estate as such and not of value only to those heirs, the court shall order that all or part of the attorney’s fee be paid to the attorney out of the money of the decedent’s entire estate as a general administrative expense of the estate. The amount of these fees must be determined in the same manner as the other attorney’s fees provided for in this section.

150.063 1. If there are two or more attorneys for a personal representative, the compensation must be apportioned among the attorneys

The clerk shall set the petition for hearing and the petitioner shall give notice of the petition to the personal representative if he or she is not the petitioner and to all known heirs in an intestacy proceeding and devisees in a will proceeding. The notice must be given for the period and in the manner provided in NRS 155.010. If a complete copy of the petition is not attached to the notice, the notice must include a statement of the amount of the compensation which the court will be requested to approve or allow and the manner in which the compensation was determined.

3. On the hearing, the court may enter an order allowing the portion of the compensation of the attorney for the personal representative for such services rendered up to that time as the court deems proper. The order must authorize the personal representative to charge against the estate the amount of compensation allowed by the court pursuant to this subsection.

Sec. 156. Chapter 153 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

Sec. 158. Chapter 155 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 159 to 170, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 159. As used in sections 159 to 169, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in sections 160

Sec. 167. 1. To the extent the court finds that a transfer was the product of fraud, duress or undue influence, the transfer is void and each transferee who is found responsible for the fraud, duress or undue influence shall bear the costs of the proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney’s fees.
2. Except as otherwise provided in section 168 of this act, a transfer is presumed to be void if the transfer is effective on or after a transferor’s death and the transfer is to a transferee who is:
   (a) The person who drafted the transfer instrument;
(b) A caregiver of the transferor;
(c) A person who arranged for or paid for the drafting of the transfer instrument; or

I am disassociated from the interest of the transferee to the extent that I am in a position to advise my client independently, impartially and confidentially as to the consequences of the transfer. On the basis of this counsel, I conclude that the transfer or transfers of property in the transfer instrument that otherwise might be invalid pursuant to section 167 of this act are valid because the transfer or transfers are not the product of fraud, duress or undue influence.

   (Name of Attorney)  (Date)

Sec. 170. 1. The court may find that a person is a vexatious litigant if the person files a petition, objection, motion or other pleading which is without merit or intended to harass or annoy the personal representative or a trustee. 2. If a court finds that a person is a vexatious litigant pursuant to subsection 1, the court may impose sanctions on the person in an amount sufficient to reimburse the estate or trust for all or part of the expenses incurred by the estate or trust to respond to the petition, objection, motion or other pleading and for any other pecuniary losses which are associated with the actions of the vexatious litigant. The court may make an order directing entry of judgment for the amount of such sanctions.

3. The court may deny standing to an interested party to bring a petition or motion if the court finds that:
   (a) The subject matter of the petition or motion is unrelated to the interests of the interested party;
   (b) The interests of the interested party are minimal as it relates to the subject matter of the petition or motion; or
   (c) The interested party is a vexatious litigant pursuant to subsection 1.

4. If a court finds that a person is a vexatious litigant pursuant to subsection 1, that person does not have standing to:
   (a) Object to the issuance of letters; or
   (b) Request the removal of a personal representative or a trustee.

Sec. 171. NRS 155.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:
155.030 1. stated mailing address, and deposited with the United States Postal Service with the postage thereon prepaid, within 2 days after each is filed, or personal service of the notice may be made on the person or the person’s attorney within the 2 days, and the personal service is equivalent to deposit in the post office, and proof of mailing or of personal service must be filed with the clerk before the hearing of the proceeding.

3. If, upon the hearing, it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the notice has been regularly given, the court shall so find in its order and the order is final and conclusive upon all persons.

4. An interested person in a testamentary trust or its property, or the attorney for that person, may serve upon the trustee or the trustee’s attorney, and file with the clerk of the court wherein administration of the trust is pending, a written request stating that he or she desires notice of the filing of accounts and petitions in connection with the trust. The provisions of subsections 2 and 3 apply to such a request.

   (a) Terminate his or her services;
   (b) Serve upon the personal representative or the personal representative’s attorney an amended written request for notice directing that any further notice be sent to the interested person at his or her last known address; and

6. Any filing of a motion for substitution of counsel or order authorizing withdrawal of counsel of record for an attorney who has filed a written request for notice on behalf of an interested person pursuant to subsection 1 shall be deemed to be an amended written request for notice as described in subsection 5, and any further notice must be sent to the address provided in the motion for substitution of counsel or the order authorizing the withdrawal of counsel, as applicable.

7. On the filing of an inventory or a supplementary inventory, the personal representative shall mail a copy to each person who has requested special notice.

Sec. 172. NRS 155.140 is hereby amended to read as follows:
155.140  1. In a proceeding involving the estate of a decedent or a testamentary trust:
   (a) Interests to be affected must be described in pleadings that give reasonable information to owners by name or class, by reference to the instrument creating the interest or in another appropriate manner.
   (b) An order binding the sole holder or all co-holders of a power of revocation or presently exercisable general power of appointment, including a power of amendment, binds other persons to the extent their interests, as objects, takers in default or otherwise, are subject to the power.
(c) To the extent there is no conflict of interest between them or among persons represented:

(1) An order binding a guardian of the estate binds the person whose estate the guardian controls.

(2) An order binding a guardian of the person binds the ward if no separate guardian of the estate of the ward has been appointed.

(3) An order binding a trustee binds beneficiaries of the trust in a proceeding to probate a will establishing or adding to the trust, to review the acts or accounts of a previous fiduciary, or involving creditors or other third parties.

(4) An order binding a personal representative binds persons interested in the undistributed assets of the estate of a decedent in an action or proceeding by or against the estate.

(d) If there is no conflict of interest and no guardian of the estate has been appointed, a parent may represent his or her minor child.

(e) An unborn or unascertained person who is not otherwise represented is bound by an order to the extent his or her interest is adequately represented by another person having a substantially identical interest in the proceeding.

(f) Notice as prescribed by this title must be given to every interested person or to one who can bind an interested person under [subsection] paragraph (b), (c) or (d). Notice may be given both to a person and to another who can bind him or her.

(g) Notice is given to unborn or unascertained persons who are not represented under [subsection] paragraph (b), (c) or (d) by giving notice to all known persons whose interest in the proceeding is substantially identical to that of the unborn or unascertained persons.

(h) At any stage of a proceeding, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem or an attorney to represent the interest of a minor, an incapacitated, unborn or unascertained person, or a person whose identity or address is unknown, if the court determines that representation of the interest would otherwise be inadequate. If not precluded by conflict of interest, a guardian ad litem or an attorney may be appointed to represent several persons or interests. The court shall set out its reasons for appointing a guardian ad litem or an attorney as a part of the record of the proceeding.

2. If an attorney has been appointed for minors or other interested persons, the attorney, until another may be appointed, shall represent the person or persons for whom the attorney has been appointed in all subsequent proceedings.

3. In any proceeding filed pursuant to this title, the court has jurisdiction and authority to fix and adjudicate fees and costs due an attorney from his or her client for services performed by the attorney in connection with the proceeding.

1. May obtain discovery, perpetuate testimony or conduct examinations in any manner authorized by law or by the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure relevant to such proceeding; and

2. Is not required to satisfy any rule requiring the initial disclosure of experts, attendance at an early case conference or the filing of a report on an early case conference as a prerequisite to commencing an action described in subsection 1.

Sec. 174. NRS 159.065 is hereby amended to read as follows:

159.065 1. Except as otherwise provided by law, every guardian shall, before entering upon his or her duties as guardian, execute and file in the guardianship proceeding a bond, with sufficient surety or sureties, in such amount as the court determines necessary for the protection of the ward and the estate of the ward, and conditioned upon the faithful discharge by the guardian of his or her authority and duties according to law. The bond must be approved by the clerk. Sureties must be jointly and severally liable with the guardian and with each other.

2. If a banking corporation, as defined in NRS 657.016, doing business in this state, is appointed guardian of the estate of a ward, no bond is required of the guardian, unless specifically required by the court.

3. Joint guardians may unite in a bond to the ward or wards, or each may give a separate bond.

4. If there are no assets of the ward, no bond is required of the guardian.

5. If a person [is appointed in a will] has been nominated to be guardian in a will, power of attorney or other written instrument that has been acknowledged before two disinterested witnesses or acknowledged before a notary public and the will, power of attorney or other written instrument provides that no bond is to be required of the guardian, the court may direct letters of guardianship to issue to the guardian after the guardian:

(a) Takes and subscribes the oath of office; and

(b) Files the appropriate documents which contain the full legal name and address of the guardian.

6. In lieu of executing and filing a bond, the guardian may request that access to certain assets be blocked. The court may grant the request and order letters of guardianship to issue to the guardian if sufficient evidence is filed with the court to establish that such assets are being held in a manner that prevents the guardian from accessing the assets without a specific court order.

Sec. 175. Chapter 162 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:
1. An attorney who represents a fiduciary does not, solely as a result of such attorney-client relationship, assume a corresponding duty of care or other fiduciary duty to a principal.

2. Nothing in this section limits a principal, fiduciary or successor fiduciary's ability to assert appropriate claims against the attorney resulting from the negligent or intentional acts of the attorney.

3. As used in this section:
   (a) “Fiduciary” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 162.020.
   (b) “Principal” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 162.020.

Sec. 176. Chapter 163 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Make a devise conditional upon a beneficiary’s action or failure to take action or upon the occurrence or nonoccurrence of one or more specified events; and

Sec. 177. NRS 163.00195 is hereby amended to read as follows:

163.00195 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 4, a no-contest clause in a trust must be enforced by the court.

2. A no-contest clause must be construed to carry out the settlor’s intent. Except to the extent the no-contest clause in the trust is vague or ambiguous, extrinsic evidence is not admissible to establish the settlor’s intent concerning the no-contest clause. The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit such evidence from being admitted for any other purpose authorized by law. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 4, a beneficiary’s share may be reduced or eliminated under a no-contest clause based upon conduct that is set forth by the settlor in the trust. Such conduct may include, without limitation:

   (a) Conduct other than formal court action; and
   (b) Conduct which is unrelated to the trust itself, including, without limitation:

      (1) The commencement of civil litigation against the settlor’s probate estate or family members;
      (2) Interference with the administration of another trust or a business entity;
      (3) Efforts to frustrate the intent of the settlor’s power of attorney; and
      (4) Efforts to frustrate the designation of beneficiaries related to a nonprobate transfer by the settlor.

3. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the trust, a beneficiary’s share must not be reduced or eliminated if the beneficiary seeks only to:
(a) Enforce the terms of the trust, any document referenced in or affected by the trust, or any other trust-related instrument;

(b) Enforce the beneficiary’s legal rights related to the trust, any document referenced in or affected by the trust, or any trust-related instrument; or

(c) Obtain a court ruling with respect to the construction or legal effect of the trust, any document referenced in or affected by the trust, or any other trust-related instrument.

4. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the trust, a beneficiary’s share must not be reduced or eliminated under a no-contest clause in a trust because the beneficiary institutes legal action seeking to invalidate a trust, any document referenced in or affected by the trust, or any other trust-related instrument if the legal action is instituted in good faith and based on probable cause that would have led a reasonable person, properly informed and advised, to conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that the trust, any document referenced in or affected by the trust, or other trust-related instrument was is invalid.

5. As used in this section:

(a) “No-contest clause” means one or more provisions in a trust that express a directive to reduce or eliminate the share allocated to a beneficiary or to reduce or eliminate the distributions to be made to a beneficiary if the beneficiary takes action to frustrate or defeat the settlor’s intent as expressed in the trust or in a trust-related instrument.

(b) “Trust” means the original trust instrument and each amendment made pursuant to the terms of the original trust instrument.

(c) “Trust-related instrument” means any document purporting to transfer property to or from the trust or any document made pursuant to the terms of the trust purporting to direct the distribution of trust assets or to affect the management of trust assets, including, without limitation, documents that attempt to exercise a power of appointment.

Sec. 178. NRS 163.004 is hereby amended to read as follows:

163.004 1. A trust may be created for any purpose that is not illegal or against public policy.

2. A trust created for an indefinite or general purpose is not invalid for that reason if it can be determined with reasonable certainty that a particular use of the trust property is within that purpose. Except as otherwise provided by a specific statute, federal law or common law, the terms of a trust instrument may vary the rights and interests of beneficiaries in any manner that is not illegal or against public policy, including, without limitation, specifying:

(a) The grounds for removing a fiduciary;

(b) The circumstances, if any, in which the fiduciary must diversify investments; and
(c) A fiduciary's powers, duties, standards of care, rights of indemnification and liability to persons whose interests arise from the trust instrument.

3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to:
   (a) Authorize the exculpation or indemnification of a fiduciary for the fiduciary's own willful misconduct or gross negligence; or
   (b) Preclude a court of competent jurisdiction from removing a fiduciary because of the fiduciary’s willful misconduct or gross negligence.

4. The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed has no application to this section. This section must be liberally construed to give maximum effect to the principle of freedom of disposition and to the enforceability of trust instruments.

Sec. 179. NRS 163.556 is hereby amended to read as follows:

163.556 1. Unless the terms of a testamentary instrument or irrevocable trust provide otherwise, a trustee with discretion or authority to distribute trust income or principal to or for a beneficiary of the trust may exercise such discretion or authority by appointing the property subject to such discretion or authority in favor of a second trust for the benefit of one or more of those beneficiaries.

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1, a trustee may not appoint property of the original trust to a second trust if:
   (a) The second trust includes a beneficiary who is not a beneficiary of the original trust. For purposes of this paragraph, a permissible appointee of a power of appointment exercised by a beneficiary of the second trust is not considered a beneficiary of the second trust.
   (b) Appointing the property will reduce any current fixed income interest, annuity interest or unitrust interest of a beneficiary of the original trust. As used in this paragraph, “unitrust” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 164.700.
   (c) A contribution made to the original trust qualified for a marital or charitable deduction for federal or state income, gift or estate taxes or qualified for a gift tax exclusion for federal or state tax purposes and the terms of the second trust include a provision which if included in the original trust would prevent the original trust from qualifying for the tax deduction or exclusion.
   (d) The property to be appointed is subject to a power of withdrawal which is held by a beneficiary of the original trust and may be executed at the time of the proposed appointment, unless after the exercise of such appointment, the beneficiary of the original trust's power of withdrawal is unchanged with respect to the trust property.
   (e) Property specifically allocated for one beneficiary of the original trust is no longer allocated for that beneficiary under either or both trusts, unless the beneficiary consents in writing.
   (f) Property held for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries under both the original and the second trust has a lower value than the value of the property held for the benefit of the same beneficiaries under only the original trust, unless:

(1) The benefit provided is limited to a specific amount or periodic payments of a specific amount; and

(2) The value of the property held in either or both trusts for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries is actuarially adequate to provide the benefit.

(g) Under the second trust:

(1) Discretionary distributions may be made by the trustee to a beneficiary or group of beneficiaries of the original trust;

(2) Distributions are not limited by an ascertainable standard; and

(3) A beneficiary or group of beneficiaries has the power to remove and replace the trustee of the second trust with a beneficiary of the second trust or with a trustee that is related to or subordinate to a beneficiary of the second trust.

(h) A contribution made to the original trust qualified for a gift tax exclusion as described in section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 2503(b), by reason of the application of section 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 2503(c), unless the second trust provides that the beneficiary’s remainder interest must vest not later than the date upon which such interest would have vested under the terms of the original trust.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1, a trustee who is a beneficiary of the original trust may not exercise the authority to appoint property of the original trust to a second trust if:

(a) Under the terms of the original trust or pursuant to law governing the administration of the original trust:

(1) The trustee does not have discretion to make distributions to himself or herself;

(2) The trustee’s discretion to make distributions to himself or herself is limited by an ascertainable standard [4], and under the terms of the second trust, the trustee’s discretion to make distributions to himself or herself is not limited by the same ascertainable standard; or

(3) The trustee’s discretion to make distributions to himself or herself can only be exercised with the consent of a cotrustee or a person holding an adverse interest and under the terms of the second trust the trustee’s discretion to make distributions to himself or herself is not limited by an ascertainable standard and may be exercised without consent; or

(b) Under the terms of the original trust or pursuant to law governing the administration of the original trust, the trustee of the original trust does not have discretion to make distributions that will discharge the trustee’s legal support obligations but under the second trust the trustee’s discretion is not limited.

4. The provisions of subsection 3 do not prohibit a trustee who is not a beneficiary of the original trust from exercising the authority to appoint property of the original trust to a second trust pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1.

5. Before appointing property pursuant to subsection 1, a trustee may give notice of a proposed action pursuant to NRS 164.725 or may petition a court for approval pursuant to NRS 153.031, 164.015 or 164.725. Any notice of a proposed action or a petition for a court’s approval must include the trustee’s opinion of how the appointment of property will affect the trustee’s compensation and the administration of other trust expenses.

6. The trust instrument of the second trust may:
   (a) Grant a power of appointment to one or more of the beneficiaries of the second trust who are proper objects of the exercise of the power in the original trust. The power of appointment includes, without limitation, the power to appoint trust property to the holder of the power, the holder’s creditors, the holder’s estate, the creditors of the holder’s estate or any other person.
   (b) Provide that, at a time or occurrence of an event specified in the trust instrument, the remaining trust assets in the second trust must be held for the beneficiaries of the original trust upon terms and conditions that are substantially identical to the terms and conditions of the original trust.

7. The power to appoint the property of the original trust pursuant to subsection 1 must be exercised by a writing, signed by the trustee and filed with the records of the trust.

8. The exercise of the power to invade principal of the original trust pursuant to subsection 1 is considered the exercise of a power of appointment, other than power to appoint the property to the trustee, the trustee’s creditors, the trustee’s estate or the creditors of the trustee’s estate and the provisions of NRS 111.1031 apply to such power of appointment.

9. The provisions of this section do not abridge the right of any trustee who has the power to appoint property which arises under any other law.

10. The provisions of this section do not impose upon a trustee a duty to exercise the power to appoint property pursuant to subsection 1.

11. The power to appoint property to another trust pursuant to subsection 1 is not a power to amend the trust and a trustee is not prohibited from appointing property to another trust pursuant to subsection 1 if the original trust is irrevocable or provides that it may not be amended.

12. A trustee’s power to appoint property to another trust pursuant to subsection 1 is not limited by the existence of a spendthrift provision in the original trust.

13. A trustee exercising any power granted pursuant to this section may designate himself or herself or any other person permitted to act as a trustee as the trustee of the second trust.

14. The trustee of a second trust, resulting from the exercise of the power to appoint property to another trust pursuant to subsection 1, may also...
exercise the powers granted pursuant to this section with respect to the second trust.

(14) 15. As used in this section, “ascertainable standard” means a standard relating to an individual’s health, education, support or maintenance within the meaning of section 2041(b)(1)(A) or 2514(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 2041(b)(1)(A) or 2514(c)(1), and any regulations of the United States Treasury promulgated thereunder.

Sec. 179.5. Chapter 164 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 180 and 180.5 of this act. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 180. Chapter 164 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:
The provisions of section 47 of this act concerning the revocation of certain transfers based upon divorce or annulment apply to transfers of property made pursuant to a trust.

Sec. 180.5. The notice that a trustee is required to provide pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 164.900 may be in the following form:
NOTICE TO BENEFICIARY
You are hereby notified, as required by subsection 3 of NRS 164.900, that:
1. The undersigned is the trustee of the trust that is designated (specify name and date or another type of identification of the trust).
2. You are being given this notice because, under the terms of the trust instrument, the trustee is authorized or required to make distributions of income to you or for your benefit. The above-named trust became irrevocable before October 1, 2011, and the trust instrument does not contain specific direction as to the amount of income that is to be applied toward standard fiduciary compensation and toward expenses for accountings, judicial proceedings or certain other matters. For the purposes of this notice, “standard fiduciary compensation” means the regular compensation of the trustee and any person providing advisory or custodial services to the trustee whose compensation is based on the value of the trust’s principal or a portion of the trust’s principal.
3. Under the Uniform Principal and Income Act (1997), as adopted in Nevada, one-half of the standard fiduciary compensation and the expenses described above are generally paid from trust income and the balance of the standard fiduciary compensation and expenses are generally paid from the trust’s principal.
4. Subsection 2 of NRS 164.900 places a limit on the amount of income that can be applied toward standard fiduciary compensation and the expenses described above, but that limit does not apply to this trust unless the adult beneficiaries to whom or for whose benefit net income of the trust presently is or may be payable, by majority vote, make an election to have the limitation apply as authorized under subsection 7 of NRS (164.900)."

5. If such an election is made, it may or may not increase the income that is available for distribution, but such an election will not reduce distributable income.

6. If you want to have the limitation authorized under subsection 7 of NRS (164.900) apply to this trust, you must notify the trustee by signing at the bottom of this form and returning the form to the trustee. Failure to sign this form and return it to the trustee will be considered a negative vote with regard to applying the limitation described in subsection 2 of NRS (164.900) to this trust.

(Signature of Trustee) (Date) (Address of Trustee)

If you would like to make the election under subsection 7 of NRS (164.900) as explained above, please sign below and send the signed copy by certified or registered mail to the trustee or personally deliver the signed copy to the trustee.

NOTICE OF ELECTION UNDER SUBSECTION 7 OF NRS (164.900)

I, the undersigned beneficiary, hereby make the election authorized under subsection 7 of NRS (164.900) to limit the amount of income that can be paid toward the regular compensation of the trustee and of any person providing advisory or custodial services to the trustee whose compensation is based on the value of the trust’s principal or a portion of the trust’s principal and toward expenses for accounting, judicial proceedings or certain other matters. I understand that the election will only be effective after the adult beneficiaries to whom or for whose benefit net income of the trust presently is or may be payable, by majority vote, make this election.

Sec. 181. NRS 164.021 is hereby amended to read as follows:

164.021  1. When a revocable trust becomes irrevocable because of the death of a settlor or by the express terms of the trust, the trustee may, within 90 days after the trust becomes irrevocable, provide notice to any beneficiary of the irrevocable trust, any heir of the settlor or to any other interested person.

2. The notice provided by the trustee must contain:
   (a) The identity of the settlor of the trust and the date of execution of the trust instrument;
   (b) The name, mailing address and telephone number of any trustee of the trust;
   (c) Any provision of the trust instrument which pertains to the beneficiary or notice that the heir or interested person is not a beneficiary under the trust;
   (d) Any information required to be included in the notice expressly provided by the trust instrument; and
(e) A statement set forth in a separate paragraph, in 12-point boldface type or an equivalent type which states: “You may not bring an action to contest the trust more than 120 days from the date this notice is served upon you.”

3. The trustee shall serve the notice pursuant to the provisions of NRS 155.010.

4. No person upon whom notice is served pursuant to this section may bring an action to contest the validity of the trust more than 120 days from the date the notice is served upon the person, unless the person proves that he or she did not receive actual notice.

Sec. 181.5. NRS 164.780 is hereby amended to read as follows:

164.780 NRS 164.700, subsection 2 of NRS 164.720 and NRS 164.780 to 164.925, inclusive, and section 180.5 of this act, may be cited as the Uniform Principal and Income Act (1997). (Deleted by amendment.)

subsection 1 must not exceed the applicable income percentage of income for the accounting period.

3. The trustee of a trust that became irrevocable before October 1, 2011, and whose trust instrument does not otherwise address the allocation of compensation and other expenses specifically mentioned in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of subsection 1, shall notify each adult beneficiary who, at the time the notice is provided, is a person to whom or for whose benefit net income of the trust presently is or may be payable, of the right to elect to apply the limitation set forth in subsection 2 to the trust.

4. Such an election:
   (a) Must be evidenced by a written election to apply the limitation set forth in subsection 2 to the trust which is signed by a majority of the adult beneficiaries described in subsection 3; and
   (b) May be applied to the disbursement of income only after a majority of the adult beneficiaries described in subsection 3 have so elected to apply the limitation set forth in subsection 2 to the trust.

   (b) One vote for each percentage of income to which that beneficiary is entitled if, pursuant to the terms of the trust instrument, the trustee is required to pay a specific percentage of the net income to two or more such beneficiaries.

6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, the trustee shall provide the notice required pursuant to this section to each adult beneficiary described in subsection 2 at least three times, not less than 30 days apart. The notice must:
   (a) Be given by personal delivery or by certified or registered mail to the beneficiary’s last known address;
   (b) Be in at least 12-point type or font except that the provision in which the beneficiary makes the election to apply the limitation set forth in subsection 2 to the trust must be in at least 16-point bold type or font;
   (c) Describe the availability of such an election;
   (d) Describe the effect of such an election on the distribution of income from the trust; and
   (e) Inform the beneficiary of the manner in which such an election may be made.

7. An adult beneficiary described in subsection 3 may:
   (a) By written notice given to the trustee by personal delivery or by certified or registered mail or as otherwise directed by the trustee, consent to a different form of notice or waive the right to receive notice pursuant to this section; and
(b) Elect to apply the limitation set forth in subsection 2 to the trust at any time after the date on which the first notice is personally delivered or mailed to any such beneficiary.

8. The provisions of subsection 2:
(a) Apply to a trust that becomes irrevocable on or after October 1, 2011.
(b) Do not apply to a trust that became irrevocable before October 1, 2011, unless a majority of adult beneficiaries described in subsection 3 elect rate fixed on January 1 of that year pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 99.040, plus 2 percentage points; and to paragraph (a) of subsection 1 exceeds 15 percent of the income of the trust in the accounting period, the trustee shall exercise the authority in NRS 164.795 to equitably reduce the amount charged against income for that accounting period unless:

(a) The trustee, after taking into consideration the terms of the trust instrument, reasonably concludes that the reduction is not in the best interest of the beneficiaries of the trust;
(b) The reduction of the amount charged to income would violate the express terms of the trust instrument other than a general directive to comply with the Uniform Principal and Income Act (1997) or with a general provision that contains language similar to that found in paragraph (a) of subsection 1;
(c) The trustee is authorized under the terms of the trust instrument to

2. If a principal asset is encumbered with an obligation that requires income from that asset to be paid directly to the creditor, the trustee shall transfer from principal to income an amount equal to the income paid to the creditor in reduction of the principal balance of the obligation.

Sec. 184. Chapter 165 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 185. As used in NRS 165.135 and sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in sections 186 to 191, inclusive, of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 186. “Accounting period” means the period for which the trustee is accounting, and except as otherwise provided in this section, commencing with the first day following the previous accounting period and ending on the date specified by the trustee or on the date specified by the court if the account is ordered by the court. If the account is an initial account, the account commences on the day the trustee became the trustee.

Sec. 187. “Broad power of appointment” means a power of appointment held by a person, commonly referred to as a power holder, that can be exercised in favor of:

1. The power holder, without any restriction or limitation; or

2. Any person other than one or more of the following:

   (b) The power holder’s estate;
   (c) The power holder’s creditors; or
   (d) The creditors of the power holder’s estate.

Sec. 188. “Current beneficiary” means a distribution beneficiary to whom or for whose benefit the trustee is authorized or required to make distributions of income or principal at any time during the accounting period.

Sec. 191. “Remote beneficiary” means a beneficiary who may become a current beneficiary upon the death of two or more persons or upon the occurrence of some other event that cannot possibly occur during the beneficiary’s lifetime.

Sec. 192. 1. The following provisions apply to the extent that the trust instrument does not expressly provide otherwise:
   (a) The trustee shall provide an account to each current beneficiary and to each remainder beneficiary upon request but is not required to provide an account to a remote beneficiary;
   (b) A trustee is not required to provide an account more than once in any calendar year unless ordered by a court to do so upon good cause shown;
   (c) Each account provided to a beneficiary must comply with the provisions of subsection 3 or 4 of NRS 165.135;
   (d) In addition to other methods of providing an account to a beneficiary, a trustee may provide an account to a beneficiary by electronic mail or through a secure website on the Internet;
   (e) While a trust is revocable, the trustee is not required to provide an account to any person other than a person having the right of revocation except that a trustee of such a trust shall provide an account if:
      (1) A court-appointed guardian of the trust estate requests an account on behalf of the settlor; or
      (2) The court, in considering a petition filed under NRS 164.015, determines that the settlor is incompetent or is susceptible to undue influence and directs the trustee to provide an account, specifying the nature and extent of the account to be provided and the person or persons who are entitled to receive the account;
   (f) While an irrevocable trust in its entirety is subject to a broad power of appointment, the trustee is not required to provide an account for that trust to any person other than the power holder;
   (g) The cost of an account must be charged as provided in the Uniform Principal and Income Act (1997) as set forth in chapter 164 of NRS;
   (h) An account shall be deemed approved by a beneficiary who received a copy of the account if no written objection thereto is given to the trustee within 120 days after the date on which the trustee provided the account to that beneficiary;
   (i) An account shall be deemed approved by a minor, unborn or unknown beneficiary if it is deemed approved as to an adult beneficiary who has a similar interest;
(j) A trustee is not required to provide to a beneficiary information that does not affect the beneficiary’s interest in the trust, and an adult beneficiary may, by a written declaration that is signed by that beneficiary, waive the right to receive any information otherwise required to be provided pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3 or 4 of NRS 165.135; and

(k) For the purposes of paragraph (h), a beneficiary shall be deemed to have received a copy of an account provided by the trustee to the beneficiary by electronic mail or through a secure website on the Internet if the trustee:

2. As used in this section:

(a) “Electronic mail” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 41.715.

(b) “Electronic record” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 132.117.

Sec. 193. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the trust instrument:

1. If the amount distributable to a current beneficiary is affected by the amount of administrative expenses or is affected by the allocation of receipts and disbursements to income or principal, the trustee shall, upon request, provide an account annually to the current beneficiary. An account provided to a current beneficiary pursuant to this subsection must comply with the provisions of subsection 3 or 4 of NRS 165.135, except to the extent that the current beneficiary agrees otherwise in writing.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, upon request, an account must be provided annually to each remainder beneficiary of an irrevocable trust. A beneficiary who has been eliminated by the exercise of a power of appointment has no right to request or receive an account pursuant to this subsection.

3. A trustee, at the expense of the trust, may provide:

(a) An unrequested account to one or more beneficiaries at any time; and

(b) More information to beneficiaries, including, without limitation, remote beneficiaries, than is required under the trust instrument or by law.

4. Unless the court determines that there is clear and convincing evidence that the trustee was acting in good faith, a trustee who fails to provide an account when required pursuant to NRS 165.135 and sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act is personally liable to each beneficiary who requested the account in writing for all costs reasonably incurred by each such beneficiary to enforce NRS 165.135 and sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and court costs. The trustee may not expend trust funds therefor.

Sec. 194. A beneficiary may send a written demand for an account pursuant to NRS 165.135 and sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act to the trustee in accordance with the following procedure:

1. The demand on the trustee must be sent to the trustee or to the trustee's attorney of record and the demand must include, without limitation:
   (a) The identity of the demanding beneficiary, including the beneficiary's mailing address or the address of the beneficiary's attorney;
   (b) The accounting period for which an account is demanded; and
   (c) The nature and extent of the account demanded and the legal basis for the demand.

2. Within 14 days after the trustee has received a demand for an account from a beneficiary, the trustee shall notify the demanding beneficiary of the trustee's acceptance or rejection of the demand. The trustee shall:
   (a) Provide an account within 60 days after receipt of the demand, unless that time is modified by consent of the beneficiary or by order of the court if the trustee accepts the beneficiary's demand for an account; or
   (b) Set forth the grounds for rejecting the beneficiary's demand for an account in the notice of rejection and inform the beneficiary that the beneficiary has 60 days in which to petition the court to review the rejection if the trustee rejects the beneficiary's demand for an account.

3. The demand by the beneficiary and the notice of acceptance or rejection of the demand by the trustee must be delivered by first-class mail, personal delivery or commercial carrier. If delivery of the demand or of the notice is in dispute, proof of delivery may be established by a return receipt or other proof of delivery provided by the person making the delivery or by affidavit of the person who arranged for the delivery setting forth the delivery address, the method of delivery arranged for and the actions taken by that person to arrange for the delivery.

4. If the trustee fails to accept or reject a beneficiary's demand for an account as required by subsection 2, the beneficiary's demand shall be deemed rejected.

Sec. 195. 1. A beneficiary whose demand for an account in compliance with section 194 of this act is rejected or deemed rejected must file a petition seeking the court's review of the trustee's rejection within 60 days after the rejection date as described in subsection 2. A petition filed pursuant to this section may also seek additional relief pursuant to NRS 153.031.

2. If the trustee rejects the beneficiary's demand for an account, the rejection date is the date on which the trustee provides the beneficiary with a notice of rejection. If the trustee fails to accept or reject the beneficiary's demand, the rejection date is deemed to be 14 days after the beneficiary gave the trustee the demand.

3. If the court has not previously accepted jurisdiction over the trust, the beneficiary must petition the court to confirm the appointment of the trustee pursuant to NRS 164.010. Such a petition may be combined with the petition for the court’s review of the trustee’s rejection.

4. The clerk shall set the petition for hearing, and the petitioner shall give notice to all interested persons for the period and in the manner provided in NRS 155.010. The notice must state the filing of the petition, the object and the time and place of the hearing.

5. If one or more other beneficiaries with interests substantially similar to the petitioner request to join the petition at or before the hearing, the court shall consider the other beneficiaries to be additional petitioners without requiring those beneficiaries to file separate petitions or to give separate notices of the hearing.

6. At the hearing, as to each petitioner, the court may enter an order:
   (a) Compelling the trustee to provide an account to the petitioner and specifying the nature and extent of the account to be provided;
   (b) Declaring that the petitioner is not entitled to an account and setting forth the reason or reasons the petitioner is not so entitled; or
   (c) Compelling the trustee to provide an account to the petitioner as described in paragraph (a) and authorizing an independent review of the account using the procedure set forth in section 196 of this act.

7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of NRS 153.031 and subsection 4 of section 193 of this act, each petitioner shall pay his or her own expenses, including, without limitation, attorney’s fees, that arise in conjunction with filing a petition pursuant to this section.

Sec. 196. If, while considering a petition filed pursuant to section 195 of this act, the court finds that the beneficiary is entitled to an account pursuant to this section and that the trust instrument authorizes or directs the trustee not to provide the account with the disclosures required by this section, the court shall, upon the beneficiary’s request, compel the trustee to confidentially provide an account in accordance with the following procedure:

1. If the beneficiary has not been previously provided with a copy of the trust instrument, the court shall direct the trustee to provide the court and each reviewer selected pursuant to subsection 2 with a copy of the trust instrument, or such portions as the court deems to be pertinent to the determination of the adequacy of the trustee’s account and to the enforcement of the beneficiary’s rights under the trust.

2. The court shall direct the account to be provided confidentially to the court and to one or more reviewers selected by the beneficiary. The court may direct that the account be filed with the court clerk under seal or delivered to the court for in camera review. The account provided must contain the information required by this section without regard to any trust provision restricting the information to be provided to the requesting beneficiary.

3. A reviewer must be either a certified public accountant or an attorney.

4. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection 5, the beneficiary requesting the account must pay for the services of each reviewer. The expense of preparing the account must be paid as an expense of the trust.

5. Each reviewer must agree that:
   (a) The account provided must be reviewed confidentially and must not be provided to the beneficiary except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) or in an order of the court; and
   (b) The reviewer’s duty is to review the account and to prepare a written report, which must be filed with the court clerk under seal or submitted to the court for in camera review, informing the court if there is anything that would indicate that the trust, as it affects the beneficiary’s interest, has not been or may not have been properly administered or accounted for in accordance with applicable law, the trust instrument and generally accepted accounting principles applicable to trusts. At the same time a copy of the reviewer’s report is provided to the court, a copy of each reviewer’s report must be delivered to the trustee or to the trustee’s attorney of record.

6. The trustee may submit to the court and to each reviewer an objection to the report of a reviewer within 10 days after the trustee received the reviewer’s report. The trustee shall submit the objections to the court and to each reviewer in the same manner as the trustee provided the account. The court may consider each reviewer’s report and the objections of the trustee with or without a hearing. If the court, after considering the report of any reviewer and any objection submitted by the trustee, finds that the trust, as it affects the beneficiary’s interest, has not been or may not have been properly administered or accounted for in accordance with applicable law, the trust instrument and generally accepted accounting principles applicable to trusts, in addition to any other relief granted by the court pursuant to NRS 153.031 or section 195 of this act, the court shall enter an order granting the relief necessary to protect the beneficiary’s interests or to allow the beneficiary to enforce his or her rights under the trust.

7. An order granting relief described in subsection 6 may include one or more of the following:
   (a) A directive to the trustee to provide the beneficiary an account which complies with the provisions of subsection 3 or 4 of NRS 165.135, together with such additional information as the beneficiary may require to properly enforce his or her rights under the trust;
   (b) A directive to the trustee to provide further annual accounts required under this section without further court order;
(c) A directive to the trustee to provide the court and each reviewer a more complete account or such additional information as the court deems necessary to determine if the trust is being properly administered in compliance with the trust instrument and applicable law;
(d) A directive to the trustee to take action to remedy or mitigate the effects of any improper administration of the trust;
(e) A declaration relieving each reviewer from any further obligation of confidentiality; and
(f) Any such additional relief as the court deems proper to ensure the trustee's compliance with the trust instrument and applicable law and to allow enforcement of the beneficiary's rights.

8. If the beneficiary is granted any relief by the court on the basis that the trust was not properly administered or accounted for, the provisions of subsection 3 of NRS 153.031 and subsection 4 of section 193 of this act apply with regard to the reimbursement of costs incurred by the beneficiary.

Sec. 197. 1. Upon request by a beneficiary who is entitled to receive an account pursuant to the terms of NRS 165.135 and sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act, a trustee shall provide a copy of the trust instrument to that beneficiary except as expressly provided otherwise in the trust instrument.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 or any provision to the contrary in the trust instrument, the court may direct the trustee to provide a beneficiary who is entitled to receive an account pursuant to the terms of NRS 165.135 and sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act a copy of the trust instrument, or such portions as the court deems to be pertinent to the determination of the adequacy of the trustee's account and to the enforcement of the beneficiary's rights under the trust.

3. Except as otherwise provided in section 196 of this act or by order of the court for good cause shown, the trustee must not be compelled to provide a copy of the trust instrument to a person who is not a beneficiary of the trust or a person who is not entitled to an account of the trust pursuant to the provisions of NRS 165.135 and sections 185 to 198, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 198. Except as otherwise provided in a trust instrument, a person holding a power of appointment pursuant to a nontestamentary trust does not owe a fiduciary duty to any person and is not liable to any person with respect to the exercise or nonexercise of the power of appointment.

Sec. 199. NRS 165.135 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 200. NRS 165.160 is hereby amended to read as follows:

165.160 1. Except for the provisions of NRS 165.135, provisions of this chapter shall have no application to nontestamentary trusts unless the settlor shall expressly so declare in the instrument creating the trust. But no expression of intent by any settlor shall affect the jurisdiction of the courts of this state over inventories and accounts of trustees, insofar as such jurisdiction does not depend upon the provisions of this chapter, as otherwise provided by a specific statute, federal law or common law, the terms of a trust instrument may expand, restrict, eliminate or otherwise vary the rights and interests of beneficiaries in any manner that is not illegal or against public policy, including, without limitation, specifying:
(a) The right to be informed of the beneficiary’s interest for a period of time;
(b) The grounds for removing a fiduciary;
(c) The circumstances, if any, in which the fiduciary must diversify

(b) Preclude a court of competent jurisdiction from removing a fiduciary because of the fiduciary's willful misconduct or gross negligence.

3. The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed has no application to this section. This section must be liberally construed to give maximum effect to the principle of freedom of disposition and to the enforceability of trust instruments.

Sec. 201. Chapter 166 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 202 and 203 of this act.

Sec. 202. 1. A trust administered under the laws of another state, or under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction, is a spendthrift trust pursuant to this chapter if:

(b) The trustee or other person having the power to transfer the domicile of the trust declares such intent to transfer in writing;
(c) The writing declaring the intent to transfer the domicile of the trust is delivered to the trustee, if it is executed by a person other than the trustee; and
(d) All requirements of this chapter are satisfied simultaneously with, or immediately after, the change of domicile.

2. For purposes of NRS 166.170, if the domicile of an existing trust is transferred from another state or from a foreign jurisdiction to this State and the laws of the other state or jurisdiction are similar to the provisions of this chapter, the transfer shall be deemed to have occurred:
(a) On the date on which the settlor of the trust transferred assets into the trust if the applicable law of the trust has at all times been substantially similar to the provisions of this chapter; or
(b) On the earliest date on which the applicable laws of the trust were substantially similar to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 203. The settlor of a spendthrift trust has only those powers and rights that are conferred to the settlor by the trust instrument. An agreement or understanding, express or implied, between the settlor and the trustee that attempts to grant or permit the retention of greater rights or authority than is stated in the trust instrument is void.

Sec. 204. NRS 166.015 is hereby amended to read as follows:

166.015 1. Unless the writing declares to the contrary, expressly, this chapter governs the construction, operation and enforcement, in this State, of all spendthrift trusts created in or outside this State if:

Unless the writing declares to the contrary, expressly, it shall be deemed to be made in the light of this chapter and all other acts relating to spendthrift trusts enacted in this State.

Sec. 205. NRS 166.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

166.040 1. Any person competent by law to execute a will or deed may, by writing only, duly executed, by will, conveyance or other writing, create a spendthrift trust in real, personal or mixed property for the benefit of:
   (a) A person other than the settlor;
   (b) The settlor if the writing is irrevocable, does not require that any part of the income or principal of the trust be distributed to the settlor, and was not intended to hinder, delay or defraud known creditors; or
   (c) Both the settlor and another person if the writing meets the requirements of paragraph (b).

   (c) The settlor is a beneficiary of a trust that qualifies as a charitable remainder trust pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 664, or any successor provision,

(d) The settlor is authorized or entitled to receive a percentage of the value of the trust each year as specified in the trust instrument of the initial value of the trust assets or their value determined from time to time pursuant to the trust instrument, but not exceeding:

(g) The settlor is authorized to receive income or principal from the trust, but only subject to the discretion of another person; or

(h) The settlor is authorized to use real or personal property owned by the trust.

3. 4. As used in this section, “remainder beneficiary” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 164.785.

Sec. 206. NRS 166.170 is hereby amended to read as follows:

166.170  1. A person may not bring an action with respect to a transfer of property to a spendthrift trust:

3. A creditor may not bring an action with respect to transfer of property to a spendthrift trust unless a creditor can prove by clear and convincing evidence that the transfer of property was a fraudulent transfer pursuant to chapter 112 of NRS or [was otherwise wrongful as to the] that the transfer violates a legal obligation owed to the creditor under a contract or a valid court order that is legally enforceable by that creditor. In the absence of such clear and convincing proof, the property transferred is not subject to the claims of the creditor. Proof by one creditor that a transfer of property was fraudulent or wrongful does not constitute proof as to any other creditor and proof of a fraudulent or wrongful transfer of property as to one creditor shall not invalidate any other transfer of property.

4. If property transferred to a spendthrift trust is conveyed to the settlor or to a beneficiary for the purpose of obtaining a loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on the property and then reconveyed to the trust, for the purpose of subsection 1, the transfer is disregarded and the reconveyance relates back to the date the property was originally transferred to the trust. The mortgage or deed of trust on the property shall be enforceable against the trust.

5. A person may not bring a claim against an adviser to the settlor or trustee of a spendthrift trust unless the person can show by clear and convincing evidence that the adviser acted in violation of the laws of this State, knowingly and in bad faith, and the adviser’s actions directly caused the damages suffered by the person.

As used in this subsection, “trustee” includes a cotrustee, if any, and a predecessor trustee.

7. If more than one transfer is made to a spendthrift trust:
   (a) The subsequent transfer to the spendthrift trust must be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether a person may bring an action pursuant to subsection 1 with respect to a prior transfer to the spendthrift trust; and
   (b) Any distribution to a beneficiary from the spendthrift trust shall be deemed to have been made from the most recent transfer made to the spendthrift trust.

8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no action of any kind, including, without limitation, an action to enforce a judgment entered by a court or other body having adjudicative authority, may be brought at law or in equity against the trustee of a spendthrift trust if, as of the date the action is brought, an action by a creditor with respect to a transfer to the spendthrift trust would be barred pursuant to this section.

9. For purposes of this section, if a trustee exercises his or her discretion or authority to distribute trust income or principal to or for a beneficiary of the spendthrift trust, by appointing the property of the original spendthrift trust in favor of a second spendthrift trust for the benefit of one or more of the beneficiaries as authorized by NRS 163.556, the time of the transfer for purposes of this section shall be deemed to have occurred on the date the settlor of the original spendthrift trust transferred assets into the original spendthrift trust, regardless of the fact that the property of the original spendthrift trust may have been transferred to a second spendthrift trust.

10. As used in this section:
   (a) “Adviser” means any person, including, without limitation, an accountant, attorney or investment adviser, who gives advice concerning or was involved in the creation of, transfer of property to, or administration of the spendthrift trust or who participated in the preparation of accountings, tax returns or other reports related to the trust.

Senate Bill No. 223.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Natural Resources, Agriculture, and Mining:

Amendment No. 681.

AN ACT relating to animals; authorizing a person to report an act of cruelty against an animal; requiring such a report to be kept confidential under certain circumstances; making certain willful and malicious acts of cruelty to certain animals punishable as a felony; clarifying that a retailer, dealer or operator who separates a dog or cat from its mother is guilty of a misdemeanor under certain circumstances; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law prohibits a person from committing an act of cruelty against an animal. (NRS 574.100) “Cruelty” is defined to include any act, omission or neglect, whereby unjustifiable physical pain, suffering or death is caused or permitted. (NRS 574.050) For a first or second offense within 7 years, existing law provides that a person who commits an act of cruelty against an animal is guilty of a misdemeanor. For a third or subsequent offense within 7 years, existing law provides that such a person is guilty of a category C felony. (NRS 574.100) Existing law also prohibits a person from committing certain acts against a dog that is owned by another person and that is used in an exhibition, show, contest or other event in which the skill, breeding or stamina of the dog is judged or examined. Specifically, a person who willfully, unjustifiably and maliciously tampers or interferes with such a dog is guilty of a category D felony. A person who willfully and unjustifiably abuses or injures such a dog is guilty of a category D felony and may be further punished by a fine of not more than $10,000. A person who willfully and unjustifiably kills such a dog is guilty of a category C felony. (NRS 574.107)

Section 1 of this bill: (1) authorizes a person to report an act of cruelty against an animal to any peace officer, officer of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or animal control officer; (2) provides that the report is confidential; and (3) prohibits releasing any information concerning the report except pursuant to for the purposes of a criminal investigation or prosecution. Section 4 of this bill provides that a person who willfully and maliciously commits certain acts of cruelty against an animal kept for companionship or pleasure or against any cat or dog is guilty of a category D felony, except that the person is guilty of a category C felony if the act of cruelty is committed against the animal in order to threaten, intimidate or terrorize another person.

Existing law prohibits a retailer, dealer or operator from separating a dog or cat from its mother until it is 8 weeks of age or is accustomed to taking food or nourishment other than by nursing, whichever is later. (NRS 574.500) Although no penalty is specifically provided for violating that prohibition, existing law provides that whenever the performance of any act is prohibited by any statute, and no penalty for the violation of such statute is imposed, a person who commits that act is guilty of a misdemeanor. (NRS 193.170) Section 6 of this bill clarifies that a person who separates a dog or cat from its mother before it is 8 weeks old or is accustomed to taking food or nourishment other than by nursing is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Bill read second time.
The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Transportation:

Amendment No. 669. AN ACT relating to vehicles; prohibiting a manufacturer from requiring a dealer to alter substantially an existing facility of the dealer or construct a new facility; prohibiting a manufacturer from taking adverse action against a dealer relating to the exportation of a vehicle outside the United States except under certain circumstances; revising provisions governing the modification or replacement of a franchise; revising provisions relating to unfair practices; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 2 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer from requiring a dealer to alter substantially an existing facility or to construct a new facility for any new vehicles that are handled by the dealer in certain circumstances and provides that any such requirement constitutes a modification of the franchise of the dealer.

Section 3 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer from taking adverse action against a dealer who sells a vehicle which is later exported outside the United States, unless the dealer had actual knowledge of or reasonably should have known of the exportation of the vehicle.
Section 9 of this bill provides that if a manufacturer is purchased by another manufacturer or entity, a dealer must be offered a franchise agreement that is substantially similar to the franchise agreement offered to other dealers of the same line and make of vehicles.

Section 16 of this bill provides that the forms for the application for credit and contracts to be used in the sale of vehicles prescribed by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions must contain a provision which provides that if the seller elects to rescind the contract, the seller must provide notice to the buyer not less than 20 days after the date of the contract.

Section 10 of this bill provides that a refusal to accept an amended claim for parts and labor or a claim that was not filed before the manufacturer’s deadline that is submitted within 60 days after the claim was first filed or was due is an unfair practice. Section 10 also makes an audit confirming a warranty repair, sales incentive or rebate performed more than 9 months after a claim was made an unfair practice. Section 11 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer from preventing a dealer from disclosing a service, repair guidance or recall notice or providing certain information relating to warranty coverage.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 482 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 2. 1. A manufacturer shall not require a dealer:
   (a) To alter substantially an existing facility of the dealer; or
   (b) To construct a new facility.
   ➔ for any new vehicles that are handled by the dealer unless the alteration or new construction constitutes a reasonable facility requirement in accordance with the franchise agreement.

   2. If a manufacturer requires a substantial alteration of an existing facility of the dealer or requires the dealer to construct a new facility, that requirement constitutes a modification of the franchise of the dealer for the purposes of this section and NRS 482.36311 to 482.36425, inclusive, and section 3 of this act.

Sec. 3. A manufacturer shall not modify the franchise of a dealer or take any adverse action against a dealer that sells a vehicle which is later exported outside the United States, unless the dealer had actual knowledge of or reasonably should have known of the exportation of the vehicle.

Sec. 4. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 5. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 6. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 7. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 8. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 9. NRS 482.36354 is hereby amended to read as follows:
482.36354 1. A manufacturer or distributor shall not modify the franchise of a dealer or replace the franchise with another franchise if the modification or replacement would have a substantially adverse effect upon the dealer’s investment or obligations to provide sales and service, unless:
(a) The manufacturer or distributor has given written notice of its intention to the Director and the dealer affected by the intended modification or replacement; and
(b) Either of the following conditions occurs:
   (1) The dealer does not file a protest with the Director within 30 days after receiving the notice; or
   (2) After a protest has been filed with the Director and the Director has conducted a hearing, the Director issues an order authorizing the manufacturer or distributor to modify or replace the franchise.

2. The notice required by subsection 1 must be given to the dealer and to the Director at least 60 days before the date on which the intended action is to take place.

3. If a manufacturer or distributor changes the area of primary responsibility of a dealer, the change constitutes a modification of the franchise of the dealer for the purposes of NRS 482.36311 to 482.36425, inclusive. As used in this subsection, “area of primary responsibility” means the geographic area in which a dealer, pursuant to a franchise agreement, is responsible for selling, servicing and otherwise representing the products of a manufacturer or distributor.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if a manufacturer is purchased by another manufacturer or entity, a dealer must be offered a franchise agreement that is substantially similar to the franchise agreement offered to other dealers of the same line and make of vehicles.

Sec. 10. NRS 482.36385 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.36385 It is an unfair act or practice for any manufacturer, distributor or factory branch, directly or through any representative, to:

1. Compete with a dealer. A manufacturer or distributor shall not be deemed to be competing when operating a previously existing dealership temporarily for a reasonable period, or in a bona fide retail operation which is for sale to any qualified person at a fair and reasonable price, or in a bona fide relationship in which a person has made a significant investment subject to loss in the dealership and can reasonably expect to acquire full ownership of the dealership on reasonable terms and conditions.

2. Discriminate unfairly among its dealers, or fail without good cause to comply with franchise agreements, with respect to warranty reimbursement or authority granted to its dealers to make warranty adjustments with retail customers.

3. Fail to compensate a dealer fairly for the work and services which the dealer is required to perform in connection with the delivery and preparation obligations under any franchise, or fail to compensate a dealer fairly for labor, parts and other expenses incurred by the dealer under the manufacturer’s warranty agreements. The manufacturer shall set forth in writing the respective obligations of a dealer and the manufacturer in the preparation of a vehicle for delivery, and as between them a dealer’s liability for a defective product is limited to the obligation so set forth. Fair compensation includes diagnosis and reasonable administrative and clerical costs. The dealer’s compensation for parts and labor to satisfy a warranty must not be less than the amount of money charged to its various retail customers for parts and labor that are not covered by a warranty. If parts are supplied by the manufacturer, including exchanged parts and assembled components, the dealer is entitled with respect to each part to an amount not less than the dealer’s normal retail markup for the part. This subsection does not apply to compensation for any part, system, fixture, appliance, furnishing, accessory or feature of a motor home or recreational vehicle that is designed, used and maintained primarily for nonvehicular, residential purposes.

4. Fail to:
   (a) Pay all claims made by dealers for compensation for delivery and preparation work, transportation claims, special campaigns and work to satisfy warranties within 30 days after approval, or fail to approve or disapprove such claims within 30 days after receipt;
   (b) Disapprove any claim without notice to the dealer in writing of the grounds for disapproval;
   (c) Accept an amended claim for labor and parts if the amended claim is submitted not later than 60 days after the date on which the manufacturer or distributor notifies the dealer that the claim has been disapproved and the disapproval was based on the dealer’s failure to comply with a specific requirement for processing the claim, including, without limitation, a clerical error or other administrative technicality that does not relate to the legitimacy of the claim.

Failure to approve or disapprove or to pay within the specified time limits in an individual case does not constitute a violation of this section if the failure is because of reasons beyond the control of the manufacturer, distributor or factory branch.

5. Sell a new vehicle to a person who is not licensed as a new vehicle dealer under the provisions of this chapter.

6. Use false, deceptive or misleading advertising or engage in deceptive acts in connection with the manufacturer’s or distributor’s business.

7. Perform an audit to confirm a warranty repair, sales incentive or rebate more than 12 months after the date of the transaction on which the claim was made. An audit of a dealer’s records pursuant to this subsection may be conducted by the manufacturer or distributor on a reasonable basis, and a dealer’s claim for warranty or sales incentive compensation must not be denied except for good cause, including, without limitation, performance of nonwarranty repairs, lack of material documentation, fraud or misrepresentation. A dealer’s failure to comply with the specific requirements of the manufacturer or distributor for processing the claim does not constitute grounds for the denial of the claim or the reduction of the amount of compensation to the dealer if reasonable documentation or other evidence has been presented to substantiate the claim. The manufacturer or distributor shall not deny a claim or reduce the amount of compensation to the dealer for warranty repairs to resolve a condition discovered by the dealer during the course of a separate repair.

8. Prohibit or prevent a dealer from appealing the results of an audit to confirm a warranty repair, sales incentive or rebate, or to require that such an appeal be conducted at a location other than the dealer’s place of business.

Sec. 11. NRS 482.36389 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.36389 A manufacturer shall not:

1. Require a dealer to disclose information concerning a customer to the manufacturer or a third party if the customer objects or the disclosure is otherwise unlawful; or

2. Prohibit or prevent a dealer from disclosing a service, repair guidance or recall notice that is documented by the manufacturer or notifying customers of available warranty coverage and expiration dates of existing warranty coverage.

Sec. 12. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 13. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 14. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 15. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 15.5. Chapter 97 of NRS is hereby amended by adding there to a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of any contract to the contrary, default on the part of the buyer is only enforceable to the extent that:

1. The buyer fails to make a payment as required by the agreement; or
2. The prospect of payment, performance or realization of collateral is significantly impaired. The burden of establishing the prospect of significant impairment is on the seller.

Sec. 16. NRS 97.299 is hereby amended to read as follows:

97.299 1. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions shall prescribe, by regulation, forms for the application for credit and contracts to be used in the sale of vehicles if:

(a) Identify and itemize the items embodied in the cash sale price, including the amount charged for a contract to service the vehicle after it is purchased.

(b) In specifying the amount of the buyer’s down payment, identify the amounts paid in money and allowed for property given in trade and the amount of any manufacturer’s rebate applied to the down payment.

(c) Contain a description of any property given in trade as part of the down payment.

(d) Contain a description of the method for calculating the unearned portion of the finance charge upon prepayment in full of the unpaid total of payments as prescribed in NRS 97.225.

(e) Contain a provision that default on the part of the buyer is only enforceable to the extent that:

(1) The buyer fails to make a payment as required by the agreement; or
(2) The prospect of payment, performance or realization of collateral is significantly impaired. The burden of establishing the prospect of significant impairment is on the seller.

(f) Contain a provision which provides that if the seller elects to rescind the contract, exercises a valid option to cancel the vehicle sale as a result of being unable to assign the contract to a financial institution with whom the seller regularly does business, the seller must hand-deliver or send prepaid by United States mail written notice to the buyer not less than 20 days after the date of the contract.

(g) Include the following notice in at least 10-point bold type:

NOTICE TO BUYER

Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces. You are entitled to a completed copy of this agreement. If you pay the amount due before the scheduled date of maturity of the indebtedness and you are not in default in the terms of the contract for more than 2 months, you are entitled to a refund of the unearned portion of the finance charge. If you fail to perform your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be liable for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement.

3. The Commissioner shall arrange for or otherwise cause the translation into Spanish of the forms prescribed pursuant to subsection 1.

4. If a change in state or federal law requires the Commissioner to amend the forms prescribed pursuant to subsection 1, the Commissioner need not comply with the provisions of chapter 233B of NRS when making those amendments.

5. As used in this section:

(a) “Commercial transaction” means any sale of a vehicle to a buyer who purchases the vehicle solely or primarily for commercial use or resale.
(b) “Dealer” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 482.020.

Bill ordered reprinted, reengrossed, and to third reading.

Senate Bill No. 299.
Bill read second time.
The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Natural Resources, Agriculture, and Mining:
Amendment No. 682.
AN ACT relating to animals; requiring the board of county commissioners of each county and the governing body of each incorporated city to adopt an ordinance requiring commercial breeders of dogs or cats to obtain a permit to act as a breeder under certain circumstances; setting forth the requirements for the issuance of those permits; making various changes to the standards of care for dogs and cats; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Existing law specifies standards for the care of dogs and cats by kennel and cattery operators, cat and dog breeders and sellers, and operators of animal shelters. (NRS 574.360-574.440) Section 1.3 of this bill defines “breeder” as a person who operates a commercial establishment engaged in the business of breeding dogs or cats for sale or trade. Section 1.3 expressly excludes from that definition any person who breeds dogs or cats as a hobby. Section 1.6 of this bill requires the board of county commissioners of each county and the governing body of each incorporated city to adopt an ordinance requiring each breeder to obtain an annual permit to do so from the board or governing body or from the animal control agency of the applicable county or city. Section 1.6 also requires the applicable authority to issue the permit and assign a permit number to each breeder who applies for a permit, pays the prescribed fee, if any, and complies with any other requirement established by the ordinance. Each permit issued must specify the premises at which the person may act as a breeder, and the number of the permit assigned to a breeder must be displayed in all advertising in which the breeder offers a dog or cat for sale or trade and on any receipt of sale of a dog or cat sold by the breeder. Section 1.6 also authorizes an animal control agent of the applicable board or governing body or animal control agency to enter and inspect the specified premises of a breeder during any reasonable hour for the purpose of enforcing the animal care provisions of chapter 574 of NRS. Finally, section 1.6 authorizes the ordinances required pursuant to this bill to provide for the suspension, revocation or denial of a permit for violating those animal care provisions.

Section 1.9 of this bill prohibits a breeder from selling a dog or cat unless a registered microchip has been subcutaneously inserted into the dog or cat and the dog or cat has had all the required vaccinations for rabies, which are appropriate for the age of the dog or cat. In addition, section 1.9 prohibits a breeder from breeding a female dog before she is 18 months old or more than once a year. Sections 4 and 9-11 of this bill make various changes to certain standards of care for dogs and cats.

Amendment No. 712.

AN ACT relating to medical facilities; revising provisions governing billing and related practices of certain larger hospitals; revising requirements relating to notices of billing practices which must be provided to patients of certain hospitals; providing administrative penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires major hospitals with 200 or more beds to reduce by at least 30 percent the total billed charges for hospital services provided to inpatients who: (1) do not have insurance; (2) are not eligible for a government program which provides medical assistance; and (3) make arrangements to pay the hospital bill. (NRS 439B.260) Section 2 of this bill specifies that the reduction in total billed charges applies only to inpatients who do not have health insurance and specifically excludes policies of insurance such as casualty and property insurance for purposes of determining whether an inpatient has insurance. Existing law requires major hospitals to give patients, upon discharge, notice of the provisions concerning the reduction of billed charges. (NRS 449.730) Section 2 additionally requires major hospitals to include such a notice on or with the first statement of the hospital bill provided to each patient. Existing law prescribes civil and administrative penalties which are applicable to a violation of the provisions of section 2. (NRS 439B.500)

Section 3 of this bill prohibits a hospital from collecting any amount owed to the hospital for hospital care from the proceeds or potential proceeds of a civil action or from an insurer other than a health insurer if the patient was covered by health insurance and the hospital has a contractual agreement with the insurer of the patient.

2. Collection efforts may begin and interest may begin to accrue on any amount owed to the hospital for hospital care which remains unpaid by the responsible party not sooner than 30 days after the responsible party is sent a bill by mail stating the amount that he or she is responsible to pay which has been established after receiving a determination concerning payment of the claim by any insurer or public program and after applying any discounts. Interest must accrue at a rate which does not exceed the prime rate at the largest bank in Nevada as ascertained by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions on January 1 or July 1, as the case may be, immediately preceding the date on which the payment becomes due, plus 2 percent. The rate must be adjusted accordingly on each January 1 and July 1 thereafter until the payment is satisfied.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:
Existing law provides for the licensure or registration and regulation of various professions in this State. (Title 54 of NRS) This bill provides for the registration, permitting and regulation of asset management companies and their employees and agents asset managers by the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry. Such companies and persons manage the property, performing services such as securing the property by changing locks, removing trash and debris, cleaning the home and surrounding property, performing maintenance and repairs of homes and disposing of the personal property of homeowners left in homes which are in foreclosure and which the legal owner has deemed abandoned.

Section 13.5 of this bill exempts from the requirements of registration or requirement to obtain a separate permit a person who holds a current permit to engage in property management but requires the person to comply with the remaining provisions of this bill as well as those regulating the practice of property management. Section 23 of this bill sets forth the requirements an asset management company must meet to be registered in this State, including criminal background checks on all principals, partners, directors and officers of the company. Section 24 of this bill requires asset management companies to carry sufficient insurance to cover any damage to real property, any wrongful evictions or any wrongful disposal of the personal property of a homeowner or a tenant of a homeowner. Section 31 of this bill specifies the services an asset management company may provide and the steps an asset management company must take before it may dispose of the personal property of a homeowner or a tenant of a homeowner, including storage of the property for 30 days in a secure location and notifying the homeowner or the tenant in writing of the disposal and where the property may be reclaimed. Section 32 of this bill makes it a misdemeanor for a person to operate an asset management company in this State without being registered with the Division or for an employee or independent contractor of an asset management company to engage in asset management without a permit issued by the Division. Section 33 of this bill makes it a misdemeanor for an asset management company or its agents to: (1) evict a real property owner or a tenant of a real property owner without a court order while the real property owner still has time to redeem his or her real property; (2) dispose of any personal property of a homeowner or a tenant of a homeowner except as provided in section 31; (3) seize real property that is not in foreclosure; (4) allow any work to be done on real property by a person who is not licensed to do that type of work or allow any work to be done on real property which requires a permit or an inspection unless the permit is obtained or inspection completed; (5) conduct any activities for which a real estate license or property management permit is required without such a license or permit; (6) fail to provide the real property disclosure to any purchaser of a residence for which the asset management company has provided services; or (7) receive, collect, hold or manage money which belongs to another person, including, without limitation, rent from a tenant, except in certain circumstances.

Existing law requires a seller to complete and serve a purchaser of residential property with a disclosure form regarding the property, but allows a purchaser to waive his or her right to receive such a form. (NRS 113.130) Section 34 of this bill prohibits a purchaser from waiving, or a seller from requiring a purchaser to waive, the purchaser’s right to the disclosure form. In addition, section 34 requires a seller to provide the purchaser with the contact information of any asset management company who repaired or replaced or attempted to repair or replace any defects in the property and requires the asset management company to provide the purchaser with a service report on the property upon request.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Sec. 30.3. 1. Any unlawful act or violation of any of the provisions of this chapter by any asset management company or asset manager is not cause to suspend, revoke or deny the renewal of the certificate of registration or permit of an asset management company or asset manager associated with an asset management company or asset manager, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the Division that the associate knew or should have known thereof. A course of dealing shown to have been persistently and consistently followed by any asset management company or asset manager constitutes prima facie evidence of such knowledge upon the part of the associate.

2. If it appears that a registered asset management company knew or should have known of any unlawful act or violation on the part of an asset manager employed by the asset management company, in the course of his or her employment, the Division may suspend, revoke or deny the renewal of the certificate of registration of the asset management company and may assess a civil penalty of not more than $5,000.

Sec. 30.7. The expiration or revocation of a certificate of registration or permit by operation of law or by order or decision of the Division or a court of competent jurisdiction or the voluntary surrender of a certificate of registration or a permit by an asset management company or asset manager does not:

1. Prohibit the Administrator or Division from initiating or continuing an investigation of, or action or disciplinary proceeding against, the asset management company or asset manager as authorized pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto; or

2. Prevent the imposition or collection of any fine or penalty authorized pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto against the asset management company or asset manager.

Sec. 31. 1. Subject to the provisions of section 33 of this act, the services an asset management company may provide include, without limitation:

   (a) The asset management company shall reasonably provide for the safe storage of the property for 30 days after the abandonment or eviction and may charge and collect the reasonable and actual costs of inventory, moving and storage before releasing the property to the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner or his or her authorized representative rightfully claiming the property within that period. The asset management company is liable to the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner only for the asset management company’s negligent or wrongful acts in storing the property.
   (b) After the expiration of the 30-day period, the asset management company may dispose of the property and recover his or her reasonable costs from the property or the value thereof if the asset management company has made reasonable efforts to locate the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner, has notified the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner in writing of his or her intention to dispose of the property and 14 days have elapsed since the notice was given to the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner. The notice must be mailed to the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner at the present address of the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner and, if that address is unknown, then at the last known address of the homeowner or the tenant of the homeowner.
   (c) Vehicles must be disposed of in the manner provided in chapter 487 of NRS for abandoned vehicles.

Sec. 31.3. 1. An asset management company that is a natural person or an asset manager shall notify the Division in writing if he or she is convicted of, or enters a plea of guilty, guilty but mentally ill or nolo contendere to, a felony or any offense involving moral turpitude.

2. An asset management company that is a natural person or an asset manager shall submit the notification required by subsection 1:
(a) Not more than 10 days after the conviction or entry of the plea of guilty, guilty but mentally ill or nolo contendere; and

2. A person who has filed an irrevocable consent in accordance with subsection 1 in connection with a previous application for a certificate of registration or permit is not required to file an additional consent.

3. If a person, including a nonresident of this State, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or a regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter and the person has not filed an irrevocable consent to service of process in accordance with subsection 1, engaging in the conduct constitutes the appointment of the Administrator as the person’s agent for service of process in a noncriminal proceeding against the person, a successor or personal representative which arises out of the conduct.

4. Service under subsection 1 or 3 may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the Office of the Administrator, but it is not effective unless:

Senate Bill No. 323.
Bill read second time.
Amendment No. 672.
AN ACT relating to vehicles; revising provisions governing the reinstatement of the registration of a motor vehicle whose registered owner has allowed his or her policy of liability insurance to lapse; revising provisions governing registration of vehicles in this State by residents of this State; requiring certain nonresidents to register vehicles in this State; prohibiting the Department of Motor Vehicles from registering a motor vehicle under certain circumstances; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Under existing law, a registered owner who failed to have liability insurance on a date specified by the Department of Motor Vehicles is required, with respect to a vehicle that is not dormant, to pay to the Department a fee of $250 to reinstate the registration of the vehicle.
(NRS 482.480) Section 1 of this bill replaces the flat $250 reinstatement fee with a tiered system of penalties that includes, depending upon how many times the registered owner has allowed his or her insurance to lapse and depending upon the length of time during which the insurance has lapsed, escalating reinstatement fees, escalating fines, requirements to file and maintain a certificate of financial responsibility and possible suspension of the registered owner’s driver’s license.

Existing law requires a person, within 60 days after becoming a resident of this State, to apply for the registration of each vehicle he or she owns which is operated in this State. A nonresident owner of a noncommercial vehicle is not required to apply for registration of the vehicle unless the vehicle is furnished to a resident for his or her continuous use within this State. (NRS 482.385) Section 2 of this bill changes the 60-day period within which a new resident must apply for registration of his or her vehicle to a 30-day period. Section 2 also requires certain persons to register their vehicles: (1) if the person is a nonresident and the vehicle is operated in this State for a period of more than 30 days in the aggregate in any 1 calendar year; (2) within 30 days if the person is a resident or nonresident and engages in a trade, profession or occupation or accepts gainful employment in this State; (3) within 30 days if the person is a resident or nonresident and enrolls his or her children in a public school in this State; or (4) within 30 days if the person is a resident and operates a vehicle owned by a nonresident. Section 2 provides exceptions to the preceding requirements for persons who are on active duty in the military service of the United States, out-of-state students, certain students of institutions of higher education who are present in this State to participate in a work-study program, and migrant or seasonal farm workers.

Under existing law, a constable may issue a citation to an owner or driver, as appropriate, of a vehicle that is required to be registered in this State if the constable determines that the vehicle is not properly registered. Such a constable must, upon the issuance of the citation, charge and collect a fee of $100 from the person to whom the citation was issued. (NRS 258.070) Section 3 of this bill prohibits the Department of Motor Vehicles from registering a motor vehicle if the Department has received from a local authority notice that the owner of the vehicle has failed to pay a fee imposed by a constable for noncompliance with the provisions of NRS 482.385, unless the owner provides to the Department a receipt indicating that the owner has paid the fee to the local authority or the local authority transmits to the Department a notice stating that the owner has paid the fee.

Senate Bill No. 339.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Health and Human Services:

Amendment No. 711.

AN ACT relating to public health; requiring certain medical facilities to provide to patients and to post certain information relating to facility-acquired infections; requiring providers of health care to provide certain information to a patient who has an infection or a person authorized by the patient to receive such information; revising requirements for patient safety plans adopted by certain medical facilities; requiring certain medical facilities to designate an infection control officer and establish an infection control program; including facilities for intermediate care and facilities for skilled nursing within the scope of these requirements and other provisions concerning health and safety of patients; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.
Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 2 of this bill requires certain medical facilities to provide to their patients certain information relating to facility-acquired infections and to post in public areas of the facilities information on reporting facility-acquired infections.

Section 2.5 of this bill requires a provider of health care or the designee of a provider of health care to inform a patient at a medical facility or the legal guardian or other person authorized by the patient to receive such information of a diagnosis that the patient has an infection as soon as practicable but not later than 5 days after the diagnosis is confirmed, except that such notice may be delayed in certain limited circumstances. Section 2.5 further requires the medical facility to ensure that providers of health care of the medical facility establish protocols for providing such information and for informing a patient or the legal guardian or other person authorized by the patient to receive such information whether the infection was acquired at the medical facility and of the apparent source of the infection. Section 2.5 further provides for immunity from liability for providing certain information to a patient relating to the source of an infection.

Section 3 of this bill requires certain medical facilities to designate an infection control officer to carry out certain duties relating to the prevention and control of infections. Section 3 also establishes requirements for the qualification and training of infection control officers and requires that at least one employee per 100 occupied beds have certain training in infection control.

Section 4.5 of this bill extends the provisions of this bill and other provisions concerning health and safety of patients at certain medical facilities to facilities for intermediate care and facilities for skilled nursing. Existing law requires certain medical facilities to prepare a patient safety plan and to submit a copy of the plan to the Health Division of the Department of Health and Human Services on or before March 1 of each year. (NRS 439.843, 439.865) Section 6 of this bill requires the patient safety plan which is prepared by each medical facility to include an infection control program to prevent and control infections within the medical facility. In addition, section 6 requires that the patient safety plan be reviewed annually and to include a program for the prevention and control of infections. Section 5 of this bill requires the Department to post each patient safety plan on an Internet website maintained by the Department.

Senate Bill No. 361.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Government Affairs:

Amendment No. 614.

AN ACT relating to water; authorizing the issuance of a temporary permit to appropriate water to establish fire-resistant vegetative cover in certain areas; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 1 of this bill authorizes a person to apply to the State Engineer for the issuance of a temporary permit to appropriate water to establish vegetative cover that is resistant to fire in an area that has been burned by a wildfire or to prevent or reduce the impact of a wildfire in an area. Unless extended by the State Engineer, the duration of such a temporary permit is limited to 1 year. Section 2 of this bill declares the use of water to prevent or reduce the impact of wildfires or to rehabilitate areas burned by wildfires as a policy of the State.

Sections 3-7 of this bill exempt an application for such a temporary permit from several requirements in existing law for applications for permits concerning water rights, including publication of notice of the application in a newspaper and authorization for the filing of protests against the granting of the application. This expedited process is similar to the process for the issuance of environmental permits by the State Engineer. (NRS 533.437-533.4377)

Section 8 of this bill requires the State Forester Firewarden, upon the request of the State Engineer, to review the plan for establishing the vegetative cover that is required to be submitted by the applicant for the temporary permit.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 533 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. A person may apply for a temporary permit to appropriate water to establish vegetative cover that is resistant to fire in an area that has been burned by a wildfire or to prevent or reduce the impact of a wildfire in an area.

2. In addition to the information required by NRS 533.335, an applicant for a temporary permit shall submit to the State Engineer:
   (a) A plan for establishing vegetative cover that is resistant to fire in the area;
   (b) Any other information which is necessary for a full understanding of the necessity of the appropriation; and
   (c) For:
       (1) Examining and filing the application for the temporary permit, $150.
       (2) Issuing and recording the temporary permit, $200.

3. The State Engineer may forward a plan submitted pursuant to subsection 2 to the State Forester Firewarden for his or her review and comments.

4. The State Engineer shall approve an application for a temporary permit if:
   (a) The application is accompanied by the prescribed fees;
   (b) The appropriation is in the public interest; and
   (c) The appropriation does not impair water rights held by other persons.
5. A temporary permit issued pursuant to this section must not exceed 1 year in duration. [but may be extended by the State Engineer in increments not to exceed 1 year in duration.]

Sec. 2. NRS 533.024 is hereby amended to read as follows:

533.024 The Legislature declares that:

1. It is the policy of this State:
   (a) To encourage and promote the use of effluent, where that use is not contrary to the public health, safety or welfare, and where that use does not interfere with federal obligations to deliver water of the Colorado River.
   (b) To recognize the importance of domestic wells as appurtenances to private homes, to create a protectable interest in such wells and to protect their supply of water from unreasonable adverse effects which are caused by municipal, quasi-municipal or industrial uses and which cannot reasonably be mitigated.
   (c) To encourage the State Engineer to consider the best available science in rendering decisions concerning the available surface and underground sources of water in Nevada.
   (d) To encourage and promote the use of water to prevent or reduce the spread of wildfire or to rehabilitate areas burned by wildfire, including, without limitation, through the establishment of vegetative cover that is resistant to fire.

2. The procedures in this chapter for changing the place of diversion, manner of use or place of use of water, and for confirming a report of conveyance, are not intended to have the effect of quieting title to or changing ownership of a water right and that only a court of competent jurisdiction has the power to determine conflicting claims to ownership of a water right.

Sec. 3. NRS 533.360 is hereby amended to read as follows:

533.360 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, NRS 533.345 and subsection 5 of NRS 533.370, when an application is filed in compliance with this chapter, the State Engineer shall, within 30 days, publish or cause to be published once a week for 4 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation and printed and published in the county where the water is sought to be appropriated, a notice of the application which sets forth:
   (a) That the application has been filed.
   (b) The date of the filing.
   (c) The name and address of the applicant.
   (d) The name of the source from which the appropriation is to be made.
   (e) The location of the place of diversion, described by legal subdivision or metes and bounds and by a physical description of that place of diversion.
   (f) The purpose for which the water is to be appropriated.
   The publisher shall add thereto the date of the first publication and the date of the last publication.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, proof of publication must be filed within 30 days after the final day of publication. The State Engineer shall pay for the publication from the application fee. If the application is cancelled for any reason before publication, the State Engineer shall return to the applicant that portion of the application fee collected for publication.

3. If the application is for a proposed well:
   (a) For municipal, quasi-municipal or industrial use; and
   (b) Whose reasonably expected rate of diversion is one-half cubic foot per second or more, the applicant shall mail a copy of the notice of application to each owner of real property containing a domestic well that is within 2,500 feet of the proposed well, to the owner’s address as shown in the latest records of the county assessor. If there are not more than six such wells, notices must be sent to each owner by certified mail, return receipt requested. If there are more than six such wells, at least six notices must be sent to owners by certified mail, return receipt requested. The return receipts from these notices must be filed with the State Engineer before the State Engineer may consider the application.

4. The provisions of this section do not apply to an environmental permit or a temporary permit issued pursuant to section 1 of this act.

Sec. 4. NRS 533.363 is hereby amended to read as follows:

533.363 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if water for which a permit is requested is to be used in a county other than that county in which it is to be appropriated, or is to be diverted from or used in a different county than that in which it is currently being diverted or used, then the State Engineer shall give notice of the receipt of the request for the permit to:
   (a) The board of county commissioners of the county in which the water for which the permit is requested will be appropriated or is currently being diverted or used; and
   (b) The board of county commissioners of the county in which the water will be diverted or used.

2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply:
   (a) To an environmental permit or a temporary permit issued pursuant to section 1 of this act.
   (b) If:
      (1) The water is to be appropriated and used; or
      (2) Both the current and requested place of diversion or use of the water are within a single, contiguous parcel of real property.

3. A person who requests a permit to which the provisions of subsection 1 apply shall submit to each appropriate board of county commissioners a copy of the application and any information relevant to the request.

4. Each board of county commissioners which is notified of a request for a permit pursuant to this section shall consider the request at the next regular or special meeting of the board held not earlier than 3 weeks after the notice is received. The board shall provide public notice of the meeting for consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in its county. The notice must state the time, place and purpose of the meeting. At the conclusion of the meeting the board may recommend a course of action to the State Engineer, but the recommendation is not binding on the State Engineer.

Sec. 5. NRS 533.370 is hereby amended to read as follows:

533.370 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 533.345, 533.371, 533.372 and 533.503, the State Engineer shall approve an application submitted in proper form which contemplates the application of water to beneficial use if:

(a) The application is accompanied by the prescribed fees;

(b) The proposed use or change, if within an irrigation district, does not adversely affect the cost of water for other holders of water rights in the district or lessen the efficiency of the district in its delivery or use of water; and

(c) The applicant provides proof satisfactory to the State Engineer of the applicant’s:

(1) Intention in good faith to construct any work necessary to apply the water to the intended beneficial use with reasonable diligence; and

(2) Financial ability and reasonable expectation actually to construct the work and apply the water to the intended beneficial use with reasonable diligence.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection and subsections 3 and 11 and NRS 533.365, the State Engineer shall approve or reject each application within 1 year after the final date for filing a protest. The State Engineer may:

(a) Postpone action upon written authorization to do so by the applicant or, if an application is protested, by the protestant and the applicant.

(b) Postpone action if the purpose for which the application was made is municipal use.

(c) In areas where studies of water supplies have been determined to be necessary by the State Engineer pursuant to NRS 533.368 or where court actions are pending, withhold action until it is determined there is unappropriated water or the court action becomes final.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 11, the State Engineer shall approve or reject, within 6 months after the final date for filing a protest, an application filed to change the point of diversion of water already appropriated when the existing and proposed points of diversion are on the same property for which the water has already been appropriated under the existing water right or the proposed point of diversion is on real property that is proven to be owned by the applicant and is contiguous to the place of use of the existing water right. The State Engineer may:

(a) Postpone action upon written authorization to do so by the applicant or, if the application is protested, by the protestant and the applicant.
(b) In areas where studies of water supplies have been determined to be necessary by the State Engineer pursuant to NRS 533.368 or where court actions are pending, withhold action until it is determined there is unappropriated water or the court action becomes final.

4. If the State Engineer does not act upon an application within 1 year after the final date for filing a protest, the application remains active until acted upon by the State Engineer.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 11, where there is no unappropriated water in the proposed source of supply, or where its proposed use or change conflicts with existing rights or with protectable interests in existing domestic wells as set forth in NRS 533.024, or threatens to prove detrimental to the public interest, the State Engineer shall reject the application and refuse to issue the requested permit. If a previous application for a similar use of water within the same basin has been rejected on those grounds, the new application may be denied without publication.

6. In determining whether an application for an interbasin transfer of groundwater must be rejected pursuant to this section, the State Engineer shall consider:
   (a) Whether the applicant has justified the need to import the water from another basin;
   (b) If the State Engineer determines that a plan for conservation of water is advisable for the basin into which the water is to be imported, whether the applicant has demonstrated that such a plan has been adopted and is being effectively carried out;
   (c) Whether the proposed action is environmentally sound as it relates to the basin from which the water is exported;
   (d) Whether the proposed action is an appropriate long-term use which will not unduly limit the future growth and development in the basin from which the water is exported; and
   (e) Any other factor the State Engineer determines to be relevant.

7. If a hearing is held regarding an application, the decision of the State Engineer must be in writing and include findings of fact, conclusions of law and a statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings of fact. The written decision may take the form of a transcription of an oral ruling. The rejection or approval of an application must be endorsed on a copy of the original application, and a record must be made of the endorsement in the records of the State Engineer. The copy of the application so endorsed must be returned to the applicant. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 12, if the application is approved, the applicant may, on receipt thereof, proceed with the construction of the necessary works and take all steps required to apply the water to beneficial use and to perfect the proposed appropriation. If the application is rejected, the applicant may take no steps toward the prosecution of the proposed work or the diversion and use of the public water while the rejection continues in force.

8. If:
MAY 26, 2011 — DAY 109

(a) The State Engineer receives an application to appropriate any of the public waters, or to change the point of diversion, manner of use or place of use of water already appropriated;

(b) The application involves an amount of water exceeding 250 acre-feet per annum;

(c) The application involves an interbasin transfer of groundwater; and

(d) Within 7 years after the date of last publication of the notice of application, the State Engineer has not granted the application, denied the application, held an administrative hearing on the application or issued a permit in response to the application.

The State Engineer shall notice a new period of 45 days in which a person who is a successor in interest to a protestant or an affected water right owner may file with the State Engineer a written protest against the granting of the application. Such notification must be entered on the Internet website of the State Engineer and must, concurrently with that notification, be mailed to the board of county commissioners of the county of origin.

9. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 10, a person who is a successor in interest to a protestant or an affected water right owner who wishes to protest an application in accordance with a new period of protest noticed pursuant to subsection 8 shall, within 45 days after the date on which the notification was entered and mailed, file with the State Engineer a written protest that complies with the provisions of this chapter and with the regulations adopted by the State Engineer, including, without limitation, any regulations prescribing the use of particular forms or requiring the payment of certain fees.

10. If a person is the successor in interest of an owner of a water right or an owner of real property upon which a domestic well is located and if the former owner of the water right or real property on which a domestic well is located had previously filed a written protest against the granting of an application, the successor in interest must be allowed to pursue that protest in the same manner as if the successor in interest were the former owner whose interest he or she succeeded. If the successor in interest wishes to pursue the protest, the successor in interest must notify the State Engineer on a form provided by the State Engineer.

11. The provisions of subsections 1 to 6, inclusive, do not apply to an application for an environmental permit or a temporary permit issued pursuant to section 1 of this act.

12. The provisions of subsection 7 do not authorize the recipient of an approved application to use any state land administered by the Division of State Lands of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources without the appropriate authorization for that use from the State Land Registrar.

13. As used in this section:

(a) “County of origin” means the county from which groundwater is transferred or proposed to be transferred.
“Domestic well” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 534.350.

Sec. 6. NRS 533.380 is hereby amended to read as follows:

533.380 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, in an endorsement of approval upon any application, the State Engineer shall:

(a) Set a time before which the construction of the work must be completed, which must be within 5 years after the date of approval.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, set a time before which the complete application of water to a beneficial use must be made, which must not exceed 10 years after the date of the approval. The time set under this paragraph respecting an application for a permit to apply water to a municipal or quasi-municipal use on any land:

(1) For which a final subdivision map has been recorded pursuant to chapter 278 of NRS;

(2) For which a plan for the development of a project has been approved by the local government pursuant to NRS 278.010 to 278.460, inclusive; or

(3) On any land for which a plan for the development of a planned unit development has been recorded pursuant to chapter 278A of NRS, must not be less than 5 years.

2. The State Engineer may limit the applicant to a smaller quantity of water, to a shorter time for the completion of work, and, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of subsection 1, to a shorter time for the perfecting of the application than named in the application.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4 and NRS 533.395 and 533.4377, the State Engineer may, for good cause shown, grant any number of extensions of time within which construction work must be completed, or water must be applied to a beneficial use under any permit therefor issued by the State Engineer, but a single extension of time for a municipal or quasi-municipal use for a public water system, as defined in NRS 445A.235, must not exceed 5 years, and any other single extension of time must not exceed 1 year. An application for the extension must in all cases be:

(a) Made within 30 days following notice by registered or certified mail that proof of the work is due as provided for in NRS 533.390 and 533.410; and

(b) Accompanied by proof and evidence of the reasonable diligence with which the applicant is pursuing the perfection of the application.

The State Engineer shall not grant an extension of time unless the State Engineer determines from the proof and evidence so submitted that the applicant is proceeding in good faith and with reasonable diligence to perfect the application. The failure to provide the proof and evidence required pursuant to this subsection is prima facie evidence that the holder is not proceeding in good faith and with reasonable diligence to perfect the application.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 and NRS 533.395, whenever the holder of a permit issued for any municipal or quasi-municipal use of water on any land referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection 1, or for any use which may be served by a county, city, town, public water district or public water company, requests an extension of time to apply the water to a beneficial use, the State Engineer shall, in determining whether to grant or deny the extension, consider, among other factors:

(a) Whether the holder has shown good cause for not having made a complete application of the water to a beneficial use;

(b) The number of parcels and commercial or residential units which are contained in or planned for the land being developed or the area being served by the county, city, town, public water district or public water company;

(c) Any economic conditions which affect the ability of the holder to make a complete application of the water to a beneficial use;

(d) Any delays in the development of the land or the area being served by the county, city, town, public water district or public water company which were caused by unanticipated natural conditions; and

(e) The period contemplated in the:

(1) Plan for the development of a project approved by the local government pursuant to NRS 278.010 to 278.460, inclusive; or

(2) Plan for the development of a planned unit development recorded pursuant to chapter 278A of NRS, if any, for completing the development of the land.

5. The provisions of subsections 1 and 4 do not apply to an environmental permit or a temporary permit issued pursuant to section 1 of this act.

6. For the purposes of this section, the measure of reasonable diligence is the steady application of effort to perfect the application in a reasonably expedient and efficient manner under all the facts and circumstances. When a project or integrated system is composed of several features, work on one feature of the project or system may be considered in finding that reasonable diligence has been shown in the development of water rights for all features of the entire project or system.

Sec. 7. NRS 533.400 is hereby amended to read as follows:

533.400 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, on or before the date set in the endorsement of a permit for the application of water to beneficial use, or on the date set by the State Engineer under a proper application for extension therefor, any person holding a permit from the State Engineer to appropriate the public waters of the State of Nevada, to change the place of diversion or the manner or place of use, shall file with the State Engineer a statement under oath, on a form prescribed by the State Engineer. The statement must include:

(a) The name and post office address of the person making the proof.
(b) The number and date of the permit for which proof is made.
(c) The source of the water supply.
(d) The name of the canal or other works by which the water is conducted to the place of use.
(e) The name of the original person to whom the permit was issued.
(f) The purpose for which the water is used.
(g) If for irrigation, the actual number of acres of land upon which the water granted in the permit has been beneficially used, giving the same by 40-acre legal subdivisions when possible.
(h) An actual measurement taken by a licensed state water right surveyor or an official or employee of the Office of the State Engineer of the water diverted for beneficial use.
(i) The capacity of the works of diversion.
(j) If for power, the dimensions and capacity of the flume, pipe, ditch or other conduit.
(k) The average grade and difference in elevation between the termini of any conduit.
(l) The number of months, naming them, in which water has been beneficially used.
(m) The amount of water beneficially used, taken from actual measurements, together with such other data as the State Engineer may require to become acquainted with the amount of the appropriation for which the proof is filed.

2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply to a person holding an environmental permit or a temporary permit issued pursuant to section 1 of this act.

Sec. 8. NRS 472.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

472.040 1. The State Forester Firewarden shall:

(d) Designate the boundaries of each area of the State where the construction of buildings on forested lands creates such a fire hazard as to require the regulation of roofing materials.
(e) Adopt and enforce regulations relating to standards for fire retardant roofing materials to be used in the construction, alteration, change or repair of buildings located within the boundaries of fire hazardous forested areas.
(f) Purchase communication equipment which can use the microwave channels of the state communications system and store this equipment in regional locations for use in emergencies.
(g) Administer money appropriated and grants awarded for fire prevention, fire control and the education of firefighters and award grants of money for those purposes to fire departments and educational institutions in this State.

(h) Determine the amount of wages that must be paid to offenders who participate in conservation camps and who perform work relating to fire fighting and other work projects of conservation camps.

(i) Cooperate with the State Fire Marshal in the enforcement of all laws and the adoption of regulations relating to the prevention of fire through the management of vegetation in counties located within or partially within the Lake Tahoe Basin and the Lake Mead Basin.

(j) Assess the codes, rules and regulations which are adopted by other agencies that have specific regulatory authority within the Lake Tahoe Basin and the Lake Mead Basin, and which are not subject to the authority of a state or local fire agency, for consistency with fire codes, rules and regulations.

(k) Ensure that any adopted regulations are consistent with those of fire protection districts created pursuant to chapter 318, 473 or 474 of NRS.

(l) Upon the request of the State Engineer, review a plan submitted with an application for the issuance of a temporary permit pursuant to section 1 of this act.

2. The State Forester Firewarden in carrying out the provisions of this chapter may:

(b) Appoint suitable citizen-wardens. Citizen-wardens serve voluntarily except that they may receive compensation when an emergency is declared by the State Forester Firewarden.

(c) Appoint, upon the recommendation of the appropriate federal officials, resident officers of the United States Forest Service and the United States Bureau of Land Management as voluntary firewardens. Voluntary firewardens are not entitled to compensation for their services.

(d) Appoint certain paid foresters or firewardens to be arson investigators.

(e) Employ, with the consent of the Director of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, clerical assistance, county and district coordinators, patrol officers, firefighters, and other employees as needed, and expend such sums as may be necessarily incurred for this purpose.

(f) Purchase, or acquire by donation, supplies, material, equipment and improvements necessary to fire protection and forest and watershed management.

(g) With the approval of the Director of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources and the State Board of Examiners, purchase or accept the donation of real property to be used for lookout sites and for other administrative, experimental or demonstration purposes. No real property may be purchased or accepted unless an examination of the title shows the property to be free from encumbrances, with title vested in the grantor. The title to the real property must be examined and approved by the Attorney General.

(h) Expend any money appropriated by the State to the Division of Forestry of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources for paying expenses incurred in fighting fires or in emergencies which threaten human life.

3. The State Forester Firewarden, in carrying out the powers and duties

Director of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources.

Sec. 9. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.

amendment.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, reengrossed, and to third reading.

Senate Bill No. 414.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on

Amendment No. 716.

AN ACT relating to financial institutions; prohibiting a banking or other financial institution from unreasonably delaying a response to an offer for a sale in lieu of a foreclosure sale on real property secured by a residential mortgage loan; prohibiting a banking or other financial institution from obtaining a deficiency judgment in certain circumstances; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under existing law, a judgment creditor or a beneficiary of a deed of trust may obtain, after a hearing, a deficiency judgment after a foreclosure sale or trustee’s sale if it appears from the sheriff’s return or the recital of consideration in the trustee’s deed that there is a deficiency of the proceeds of the sale and a balance remaining due the judgment creditor or beneficiary of the deed of trust. For an obligation secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on or after October 1, 2009, a court may not award a deficiency judgment to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust if: (1) the creditor or beneficiary is a financial institution; (2) the real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor or grantor was the owner of the property; (3) the debtor or grantor used the loan to purchase the property; (4) the debtor or grantor occupied the property continuously after obtaining the loan; and (5) the debtor or grantor did not refinance the loan. (NRS 40.455)

Section 3.5 of this bill prohibits a court from awarding a deficiency judgment to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust if:
(1) the creditor or beneficiary is a banking or other financial institution; (2) the real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor or grantor was the owner of the property; (3) the debtor or grantor used the loan to purchase the property; (4) the debtor or grantor occupied the property continuously after obtaining the loan; (5) the debtor or grantor and the banking or other financial institution entered into an agreement, commonly known as a short sale, to sell the real property to a third party for less than the indebtedness; and (6) the agreement does not state the amount of money still owed by the debtor or grantor or does not authorize the banking or other financial institution to recover that money, and contains a statement that the banking or other financial institution has waived its right to recover the amount owed.

Section 3 of this bill prohibits a banking or other financial institution or its officers, managers or employees from unreasonably delaying its response to an offer for a short sale in lieu of a foreclosure sale on real property secured by a residential mortgage loan.

Under existing law, a violation of section 3 constitutes a misdemeanor and, in addition to any criminal penalty, is punishable by an administrative fine of not more than $10,000. (NRS 668.112, 668.115)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 668 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 and 3 of this act.

Sec. 2. (Deleted by amendment.)

2. For the purposes of this section, a person is presumed to have unreasonably delayed responding to an offer for a short sale in lieu of a foreclosure sale on real property secured by a residential mortgage loan when the person fails to respond to an offer for a short sale in lieu of a foreclosure sale with an acceptance or rejection of the offer within 90 days after receipt of the offer, unless the parties have agreed in writing to a delay of more than 90 days after receipt of the offer.

3. As used in this section:
   (a) “Banking or other financial institution” means any bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, thrift company, credit union or other financial institution that is licensed, registered or otherwise authorized to do business in this State.

   (c) “Residential mortgage loan” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 645B.0132.
   (d) “Sale in lieu of a foreclosure sale” means a sale of real property pursuant to an agreement between a banking or other financial institution and an owner of real property to sell the real property secured by a residential mortgage loan to a third party for an amount less than the originally owed.

Sec. 3.5. Chapter 40 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. If the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust who applies for a deficiency judgment is a banking or other financial institution, the court may not award a deficiency judgment to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust if:
   (a) The real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor or the grantor of the deed of trust was the owner of the real property at the time of the sale in lieu of a foreclosure sale;
   (b) The debtor or grantor used the amount for which the real property was secured by the mortgage or deed of trust to purchase the real property;

      (2) Contains a conspicuous statement that has been acknowledged by the signature of the debtor or grantor which provides that the banking or other financial institution has waived its right to recover the amount owed by the debtor or grantor and which sets forth the amount of recovery that is being waived.

2. As used in this section:
   (a) “Banking or other financial institution” means any bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, thrift company, credit union or other financial institution that is licensed, registered or otherwise authorized to do business in this State.
   (b) “Sale in lieu of a foreclosure sale” means a sale of real property pursuant to an agreement between a person to whom an obligation secured by a mortgage or other lien on real property is owed and the debtor of that obligation in which the sales price of the real property is insufficient to pay the full outstanding balance of the obligation and the costs of the sale. The term includes, without limitation, a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

Sec. 4. NRS 40.455 is hereby amended to read as follows:
1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 or 4, upon application of the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust within 6 months after the date of the foreclosure sale or the trustee’s sale held pursuant to NRS 107.080, respectively, and after the required hearing, the court shall award a deficiency judgment to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust if it appears from the sheriff’s return or the recital of consideration in the trustee’s deed that there is a deficiency of the proceeds of the sale and a balance remaining due to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust, respectively.

2. If the indebtedness is secured by more than one parcel of real property, more than one interest in the real property or more than one mortgage or deed of trust, the 6-month period begins to run after the date of the foreclosure sale or trustee’s sale of the last parcel or other interest in the real property securing the indebtedness, but in no event may the application be filed more than 2 years after the initial foreclosure sale or trustee’s sale.

3. If the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust is a financial institution as defined in NRS 363A.050, the court may not award a deficiency judgment to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust, even if there is a deficiency of the proceeds of the sale and a balance remaining due the judgment creditor or beneficiary of the deed of trust, if:
   (a) The real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor or grantor was the owner of the real property at the time of the foreclosure sale or trustee’s sale;
   (b) The debtor or grantor used the amount for which the real property was secured by the mortgage or deed of trust to purchase the real property;
   (c) The debtor or grantor continuously occupied the real property as the debtor’s or grantor’s principal residence after securing the mortgage or deed of trust;
   (d) The debtor or grantor did not refinance the mortgage or deed of trust after securing it.

4. If the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust is a banking or other financial institution, the court may not award a deficiency judgment to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust, if:
   (a) The real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor or grantor was the owner of the real property at the time of the foreclosure sale or trustee’s sale;
   (b) The debtor or grantor used the amount for which the real property was secured by the mortgage or deed of trust to purchase the real property;

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Horne:

Amendment No. 801.

AN ACT relating to genetic marker analysis; imposing an administrative assessment upon a defendant convicted of any crime; requiring that a biological specimen be obtained from a person arrested for a felony or a sexual offense; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 2 of this bill imposes an additional administrative assessment of $2.50 on a person convicted of a misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor or felony. Section 2 also provides that the money collected from the assessments must be used to defray the costs associated with obtaining biological specimens and genetic marker analysis.

Under existing law, if a defendant is convicted of a felony or certain other specified offenses, the court, as part of the defendant’s sentence, must order that a biological specimen be obtained from the defendant and that the specimen be used for analysis to determine the genetic markers of the specimen. (NRS 176.0911-176.0917) Section 3 of this bill requires that a biological specimen be obtained if a person is arrested for a felony or a sexual offense punishable as a misdemeanor. Section 3 provides that if the person is convicted of the felony or the sexual offense, the specimen must be kept, but if the person is not convicted, the specimen and all records relating thereto must be destroyed and expunged.

Existing law prohibits a person from sharing or disclosing certain information relating to another person’s biological specimen or genetic marker analysis and makes such conduct a misdemeanor. (NRS 176.0913) Sections 3 and 8 of this bill increase the penalty for such conduct from a misdemeanor to a category C felony.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 176 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2, 3 and 4 of this act.

Sec. 2. 1. In addition to any other administrative assessment imposed, when a defendant pleads guilty, is found guilty or enters a plea of nolo contendere to a misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor or felony, including the violation of any municipal ordinance, the justice or judge of the justice, municipal or district court, as applicable, shall include in the sentence the sum of $2.50 as an administrative assessment for obtaining a biological specimen and conducting genetic marker analysis and shall render a judgment against the defendant for the assessment. If a defendant is sentenced to perform community service in lieu of a fine, the sentence must include the administrative assessment required pursuant to this subsection.

2. The money collected for an administrative assessment for the provision of genetic marker analysis must not be deducted from the fine imposed by the justice or judge but must be taxed against the defendant in addition to the fine. The money collected for such an administrative assessment must be stated separately on the court’s docket and must be included in the amount posted for bail. If bail is forfeited, the administrative assessment included in the bail pursuant to this subsection must be disbursed pursuant to subsection 3. If the defendant is found not guilty or the charges are dismissed, the money deposited with the court must be returned to the defendant. If the justice or judge cancels a fine because the fine has been determined to be uncollectible, any balance of the fine and the administrative assessment remaining unpaid shall be deemed to be uncollectible, and the defendant is not required to pay it. If a fine is determined to be uncollectible, the defendant is not entitled to a refund of the fine or administrative assessment he or she has paid, and the justice or judge shall not recalculate the administrative assessment.

3. If the justice or judge permits the fine and administrative assessment for the provision of genetic marker analysis to be paid in installments, the payments must be applied in the following order:
   (a) To pay the unpaid balance of an administrative assessment imposed pursuant to NRS 176.059;
   (b) To pay the unpaid balance of an administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities pursuant to NRS 176.0611;
   (c) To pay the unpaid balance of an administrative assessment for the provision of specialty court programs pursuant to NRS 176.0613;
   (d) To pay the unpaid balance of an administrative assessment for the provision of genetic marker analysis pursuant to this section; and
   (e) To pay the fine.

4. The money collected for an administrative assessment for the provision of genetic marker analysis must be paid by the clerk of the court to the county treasurer on or before the fifth day of each month for the preceding month for credit to the fund for genetic marker analysis pursuant to NRS 176.0915.

Sec. 3. 1. If a person is arrested for a felony pursuant to a warrant, the law enforcement agency making the arrest shall:
   (a) Submit the name, social security number, date of birth and any other information identifying the person to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History; and
   (b) Upon booking the person into a city or county jail or detention facility, and before the person is released from custody, obtain a biological specimen from the person through a check swab pursuant to the provisions of this section so that the specimen can be used for an analysis to determine the genetic markers of the specimen. The biological specimen may be collected by any law enforcement agency.

2. If a person is arrested for a felony without a warrant, the law enforcement agency making the arrest shall:
   (a) Submit the name, social security number, date of birth and any other information identifying the person to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History;
   (b) Upon booking the person into a city or county jail or detention facility, and before the person is released from custody, obtain a biological specimen from the person through a check swab pursuant to the provisions of this section so that the specimen can be used for an analysis to determine the genetic markers of the specimen. The biological specimen may be collected by any law enforcement agency; and
   (c) Not submit the biological specimen for genetic marker analysis pursuant to subsection 4 until a court or magistrate makes a determination that probable cause existed for the person’s arrest.

3. If the person is arrested for a sexual offense that is punishable as a misdemeanor, upon booking the person into a city or county jail or detention facility, and before the person is released from custody, the law enforcement agency making the arrest shall obtain a biological specimen from the person pursuant to the provisions of this section so that the specimen can be used for an analysis to determine the genetic markers of the specimen. The law enforcement agency obtaining the biological specimen shall provide the biological specimen to the forensic laboratory that has been designated in the county in which the person was arrested to conduct or oversee genetic marker analysis for the county pursuant to NRS 176.0917 and shall specifically direct the forensic laboratory to hold the biological specimen in a separate storage area pending notification from:
   (a) The Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History resulting from a query of records indicating that the person from whom the biological specimen was obtained has been convicted; or
   (b) A court or magistrate indicating that the person from whom the biological specimen was obtained has failed to appear for a scheduled hearing.

Upon receipt of notification pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b), the forensic laboratory shall proceed with any genetic marker analysis pursuant to subsection 4.

4. The law enforcement agency obtaining the biological specimen shall provide the specimen to the forensic laboratory that has been designated by the county in which the person was arrested to conduct or oversee genetic marker analysis for the county pursuant to NRS 176.0917. If the forensic laboratory determines that the biological specimen is inadequate or otherwise unusable, the law enforcement agency may obtain an additional biological specimen from the person arrested unless the person arrested is eligible to request expungement of the genetic marker analysis pursuant to subsection 12. Each designated laboratory is authorized to contract with individuals or organizations for services to perform genetic marker analysis. The identification characteristics resulting from the genetic marker analysis must be stored and maintained by the forensic laboratory in CODIS and only may be made available as provided in section 4 of this act. The information stored and maintained by the forensic laboratory and the computer software used by the forensic laboratory for CODIS are confidential and are not public books or records within the meaning of NRS 239.010. The information may only be disclosed and used as specifically authorized by law.

5. Any cost that is incurred to obtain a biological specimen from a person pursuant to this section is a charge against the county in which the person was arrested and must be paid as provided in NRS 176.0915.

6. A law enforcement agency shall not obtain a biological specimen from a person who has previously submitted such a specimen for an arrest or conviction of a prior offense unless the law enforcement agency, court or magistrate determines that an additional specimen is necessary.

7. A court or magistrate shall:
   (a) Make the provision of a biological specimen a condition of any person being admitted to bail or released on the person’s own recognizance; and
   (b) Require the biological specimen to be provided to the forensic laboratory that has been designated by the county in which the person was arrested to conduct or oversee genetic marker analysis for the county pursuant to NRS 176.0917.

Upon receipt of the biological specimen, the forensic laboratory shall proceed with any genetic marker analysis pursuant to subsection 4.

8. The Attorney General or a district attorney may petition a district court for an order requiring a person under this section to:
   (a) Provide a biological specimen; or
   (b) Provide a biological specimen by alternative means if the person will not cooperate.

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the collection of a biological specimen by order of a court of competent jurisdiction or the collection of a biological specimen of persons required to provide such a specimen under this section.

9. The detention, arrest or conviction of a person based upon a match in CODIS or other information in CODIS is not invalidated if it is later determined that the biological specimen was obtained or placed in CODIS by mistake, provided that the forensic laboratory demonstrates that a good faith effort has been made to comply with all laws and regulations governing the inclusion of such information in CODIS.
10. Upon completion of any genetic marker analysis, the forensic laboratory shall inform the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History of the existence of such information pursuant to this section.

11. The Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History shall include an indication on the criminal history record regarding the collection of a biological specimen, but may not include the results of the genetic marker analysis or any other information relating to the forensic laboratory’s records.

12. A person whose genetic marker analysis has been included in the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History and CODIS pursuant to this section may make a written request to the Central Repository that it be automatically expunged on the grounds:
   (a) That the conviction on which the authority for keeping the biological specimen or the result of the genetic marker analysis has been reversed and the case dismissed; or
   (b) That the arrest which led to the inclusion of the biological specimen or the result of the genetic marker analysis has:
      (1) Resulted in a felony or sexual offense charge that has been resolved by a dismissal, nolle prosequi, successful completion of a preprosecution diversion program or a conditional discharge or acquittal; or
      (2) Not resulted in any additional criminal charges for a felony or sexual offense within 10 years after the arrest.

13. Within 90 days after receiving a written request pursuant to subsection 12, the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History shall forward such request and documentation to the forensic laboratory holding the biological specimen.

14. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 15, the forensic laboratory holding the biological specimen shall automatically purge all records and identifiable information pertaining to the person and destroy all specimens from the person upon receipt and confirmation of a written request that such data be expunged pursuant to this section, and:
   (a) A certified copy of the court order reversing and dismissing the conviction; or
   (b) For biological specimens included pursuant to arrest:
      (1) A certified copy of the dismissal, nolle prosequi, successful completion of a preprosecution diversion program or a conditional discharge, or acquittal; or
      (2) A sworn affidavit from the law enforcement agency which submitted the biological specimen that no felony or sexual offense charges arising out of the arrest have been filed within 10 years after the arrest.

15. The forensic laboratory shall not expunge a person’s biological specimen and genetic marker analysis if the forensic laboratory is notified by a law enforcement agency that the person has a prior felony or sexual...
offense conviction, a new felony or sexual offense arrest or a pending felony or sexual offense charge for which collection of a biological specimen is authorized pursuant to this section.

16. When a person’s biological specimen and genetic marker analysis are expunged pursuant to this section, the forensic laboratory shall ensure that the person’s biological specimen and genetic marker analysis are expunged from CODIS and shall inform the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History that the genetic marker analysis has been expunged from CODIS.

17. Except as otherwise authorized by federal law or specific statute, a biological specimen obtained pursuant to this section, the results of a genetic marker analysis and any information identifying or matching a biological specimen with a person must not knowingly be shared with or knowingly disclosed to any person other than the authorized personnel who have possession and control of the biological specimen, results of a genetic marker analysis or information identifying or matching a biological specimen with a person, except pursuant to:
   (a) A court order; or
   (b) A request from a law enforcement agency during the course of an investigation.

Sec. 5. NRS 176.0611 is hereby amended to read as follows:

176.0611 1. The money collected for such an administrative assessment must be stated separately on the court’s docket and must be included in the amount posted for bail. If bail is forfeited, the administrative assessment included in the amount posted for bail pursuant to this subsection must be disbursed in the manner set forth in subsection 6 or 7. If a fine is determined to be uncollectible, the defendant is not entitled to a refund of the fine or administrative assessment the defendant has paid and the justice or judge shall not recalculate the administrative assessment.
5. If the justice or judge permits the fine and administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities to be paid in installments, the payments must be applied in the following order:
