

THE THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), March 13, 2013

Assembly called to order at 11:44 a.m.

Madam Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Brooks, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Bruce Henderson.

Well, Lord, this week we've had 4-H Day and Canada Day. I have also led prayers this session for United Way Day and Nurses' Day. I am told that tomorrow is special, too, but I've never led a prayer for Indian Taco Day.

It reminds me, though Lord, of the great diversity in our state. We thank You for that. And I echo the words our Lord prayed when He asked that we all be one, as You and He are one. We pray, Lord, for such unity even in the midst of our diversity.

I pray in His name.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Horne moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

Remarks by Assemblyman Bobzien.

ASSEMBLYMAN BOBZIEN:

Assembly Bill 89 authorizes the formation of benefit corporations. A benefit corporation is a close corporation, nonprofit cooperative corporation, private corporation, or professional association that elects to be subject to the laws regarding benefit corporations. The measure also allows an existing domestic corporation to become a benefit corporation by amending its articles of incorporation.

The bill also requires a benefit corporation to have as its purpose the creation of general public benefit, and the measure deems the creation of such benefits in the corporation's best interests. The bill requires the board of directors to prepare an annual report indicating whether the corporation failed in any material respect to pursue its purpose, and it authorizes the corporation or another person authorized by the articles of incorporation to initiate a benefit enforcement proceeding in court for any failure. However, the bill provides that the corporation is not liable for any money damages for such a failure.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblyman Carrillo.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARRILLO:

Assembly Bill 115 makes changes to the written statement that a peace officer investigating an act of domestic violence must provide to a suspected victim. The bill adds language to the written statement regarding an animal owned or kept by the suspected victim, the person who committed or threatened the act of domestic violence, or the minor child of either such person. The additional language in the written statement notifies the suspected victim that he or she may seek a court order for the protection of the animal; the protective order may require the offender to stop injuring, taking possession of, or threatening the animal; and the court may issue future protective orders requiring compliance with arrangements for care or possession of the animal.

Assembly Bill No. 127.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblyman Ohrenschall.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 127. The bill authorizes the Nevada Gaming Commission to adopt a seal for its use in identifying various licenses related to interactive gaming. The bill makes unauthorized use of the seal a misdemeanor, except for circumstances in which a person fraudulently counterfeits or forges and makes use of a seal, which then would be a category D felony. This measure also makes a person convicted of unauthorized use of the seal liable for a $5,000 civil penalty for each violation, which is to be remitted to the Gaming Commission.

Madam Speaker, this is just a piece of the framework of all the hard work that our Majority Leader, the chairman of Judiciary, you, and the Governor put together in terms of trying to keep Nevada at the forefront of this great new industry. Assembly Bill 127 will help make sure that our Gaming Control Board can police it the way it should be policed. I urge everyone's support.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Aizley and Ohrenschall.

ASSEMBLYMAN AIZLEY:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1 recognizes the Upper Las Vegas Wash as a unique and nationally important paleontological, cultural, and biological site. The resolution expresses legislative support for designating the Wash as a national monument in order to conserve, protect, interpret, and enhance the site's resources for the benefit of present and future generations.

The Wash is very unique, even though that is grammatically incorrect to say. It is unique. We found more than 10,000 fossils in the area when the power company constructed a power line through there. These relics are stored in San Bernardino because we do not have the appropriate facilities for storage. It is hoped that this will become a very important tourist attraction and benefit the entire state. La Brea Tar Pits is an example. Nevada and Arizona have national monuments that attract many visitors, so I would urge the support for this national monument. It is located on the north side of Las Vegas, the Upper Las Vegas Wash. Many of you may be familiar with other places in the nearby area. There is the Wildlife Refuge, the Ice Age Park, the Floyd Lamb State Park, Tule Springs, and the Gilcrease Bird Sanctuary, all of which have had fossils discovered in them. The University of Nevada, Las Vegas, has had a recent student receive a PhD in digging and finding sites and locating, I believe, what's called a dire wolf. Anyway, I would urge your support on this.

It might have been more appropriate to introduce it yesterday when we were going over the history of Nevada. This certainly dates the history quite a bit before what we were talking about, but I remember when the glaciers melted. I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

I also rise in support of Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1. The Lower Las Vegas Wash runs through my district, and Clark County has established a wetlands park down there. It is very popular. Families come to see wildlife. I just think this will be a great project, so I wanted to remind everybody that monuments matter. I urge your support.

Roll call on Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1:

YEAS—40.

NAYS—Ellison.

EXCUSED—Brooks.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1 having received a constitutional majority, Madam Speaker declared it passed.

Resolution ordered transmitted to the Senate.
