

THE SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Friday), April 12, 2013

Senate called to order at 12:31 p.m.

President pro Tempore Parks presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by Senator Pat Spearman.

Let us pray. God, creator of the universe, giver of all that is good and champion for the poor, the downtrodden and those living in the social margins, we come this day thanking You for all the gifts of life we enjoy.

Let us not be comfortable with our blessings while suffering, discrimination, oppression and castigation exist in the world. Trouble our hearts and minds to work for justice and equality for all of Your children. Agitate us to consider the plight of the poor, the sick, the weak, the infirm and the vulnerable as we deliberate policies.

By Your spirit, keep us concerned about the difficulty of the distressed, the oppressed and the depressed who live among us without the opportunity to live life to its fullest.

As You were present at the beginning of time and brought order out of chaos, be present with us today as we deliberate matters that affect the lives of all Nevadans. Let us do so without malice, selfishness or acrimony. Fill us with Your love, endow us with Your wisdom and give us a spirit of spiritual humility so that all we do this day reflects Your will for peace, justice and equitable treatment of all of humanity.

This is our hope and our petition. We close this prayer with a firm belief that You have heard our concerns and that You now empower us to accomplish the tasks set before us. In the Name of the God who is concerned about all of creation and the God of the universe, we declare this prayer answered.

For my Muslim brothers and sisters, Salla Allahu ta'ala 'alayhi wa Sallam. For my Jewish brothers and sisters, Shalom. And for my Christian brothers and sisters,

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

The President pro Tempore announced that under previous order, the reading of the Journal is waived for the remainder of the 77th Legislative Session and the President pro Tempore and Secretary are authorized to make any necessary corrections and additions.
