CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to contractors; revising provisions regarding the advertising of construction services and the soliciting of construction bids; increasing penalties for certain violations of provisions governing contractors; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires persons engaged in certain construction work to be licensed contractors, regulates the activities of licensed contractors, prohibits persons from making certain advertising claims about themselves as contractors, and provides criminal and monetary penalties for violations of the preceding provisions. (Chapter 624 of NRS)

Under existing law, it is unlawful for a licensed contractor or an applicant to become a licensed contractor to misrepresent a material fact in connection with any information or evidence furnished officially to the State Contractors’ Board. (NRS 624.3013) Section 2 of this bill expands the prohibition to include omissions of material facts as well as misrepresentations.

Section 3 of this bill adds the solicitation of a bid or estimate from a person known by a licensed contractor to be unlicensed to the list of acts for which a licensed contractor may be subject to disciplinary action.

Existing law prohibits licensed contractors and other persons from engaging in certain acts of advertising that are false or misleading. (NRS 624.720) Section 5 of this bill: (1) requires any person who advertises to perform or complete construction work or a work of improvement, and who is not a licensed contractor, to affirmatively state in the advertisement that they are not licensed; and (2) makes it unlawful for any person to advertise to perform or complete construction work or a work of improvement using a license number not assigned to that person.

Section 6 of this bill increases the monetary fines that may be imposed for violations of certain provisions of chapter 624 of NRS. In addition, section 6 provides for an enhancement of such monetary fines under certain circumstances.

Section 4 of this bill makes conforming changes.
