Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 1 of this bill requires: (1) certain peace officers employed by the Nevada Highway Patrol to wear a portable event recording device while on duty; and (2) the Nevada Highway Patrol to adopt policies and procedures governing the use of portable event recording devices. Section 1 also establishes that any record made by a portable event recording device is a public record which may only be requested: (1) on a per incident basis; and (2) viewed at the location where the record is held if the record contains confidential information.

Existing law authorizes investigative or law enforcement officers to intercept wire or oral communications, subject to certain requirements. (NRS 179.410-179.515) Section 2 of this bill exempts a portable event recording device worn by a peace officer employed by the Nevada Highway Patrol from the definition of an “electronic, mechanical or other device” used to intercept wire or oral communication.

Existing law also prohibits surreptitious electronic surveillance on: (1) the grounds of any facility owned or leased by the State of Nevada; (2) the property of a public school; or (3) a campus of the Nevada System of Higher Education. (NRS 331.200, 393.400, 396.970) Sections 3-5 of this bill create an exception for peace officers employed by the Nevada Highway Patrol wearing a portable event recording device in accordance with section 1 from certain provisions relating to unlawful surreptitious electronic surveillance.

Section 6.5 of this bill requires the Nevada Highway Patrol to adopt initial policies and procedures governing the use of portable event recording devices by July 1, 2016. Section 6.5 further requires the Advisory Commission on the Administration of Justice to review such initial policies and procedures at a meeting on or after July 1, 2016.

Section 6.3 of this bill makes an appropriation for the 2015-2017 biennium from the State Highway Fund to the Nevada Highway Patrol for the purpose of carrying out the requirements of this bill.
