AN ACT relating to the National Guard; conferring certain protections upon the members of the National Guard of another state concerning the unlawful termination of employment of those members in this State; authorizing a member of the Nevada National Guard or a member of the National Guard of another state to bring a civil action concerning his or her unlawful termination under certain circumstances; revising the remedies available to a member of the Nevada National Guard or a member of the National Guard of another state whose employment is unlawfully terminated; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Under existing law, the employer of a member of the Nevada National Guard is prohibited from terminating the member’s employment because he or she is ordered to active service or otherwise required by law to perform duties as a member of the Nevada National Guard. An employer who violates that prohibition is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to an administrative penalty of not more than $5,000. (NRS 412.139) Section 1 of this bill expands existing law by prohibiting the employer of a member of the National Guard of another state who is employed in this State from terminating the member’s employment because he or she is ordered to active service or otherwise required by the law of that state to perform duties as a member of the National Guard of that state.

Under existing law, a member of the Nevada National Guard who believes that his or her employment has been terminated unlawfully is entitled to a hearing before the Labor Commissioner. (NRS 412.1393) Section 2 of this bill confers that same right upon a member of the National Guard of another state who is employed in this State. Section 2 also provides that if, for any reason the Labor Commissioner does not determine that the employment of a member of the Nevada National Guard or the National Guard of another state was terminated unlawfully, the member may bring a civil action in district court against his or her employer seeking such a determination.

Under existing law, if the Labor Commissioner determines that the employment of a member of the Nevada National Guard was terminated unlawfully, the member is entitled to be immediately reinstated to his or her former position without loss of seniority or benefits and to receive all wages and benefits lost as a result of the termination. (NRS 412.1395) Section 3 of this bill provides that if the Labor Commissioner determines that the employment of a member of the Nevada National Guard or the National Guard of another state was terminated unlawfully, the member is entitled to: (1) immediate reemployment in the position in which he or she would have been employed if his or her continuous employment with the employer had not been unlawfully terminated; (2) immediate restoration to the seniority and benefits to which he or she would have been entitled if his or her continuous employment with the employer had not been unlawfully terminated; and (3) receipt of all wages and benefits lost as a result of the termination. Section 3 also requires the award of attorney’s fees and costs to the member under certain circumstances.
