Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law governs generally the employment of persons in the classified and 2 unclassified service of the State. Existing law further establishes the duties of the 3 Administrator of the Division of Human Resource Management of the Department 4 of Administration with regard to administering competitive examinations of 5 persons seeking employment in the classified service of the State and maintaining a 6 list of eligible persons for employment in the classified service. (Chapter 284 of 7 NRS) Under existing law, the Administrator may refuse to examine an applicant or 8 refuse to certify an eligible person if the person has been found guilty of any crime 9 involving moral turpitude or of infamous or notoriously disgraceful conduct.
10 (NRS 284.240)

11 Section 2 of this bill provides, with exceptions, that the criminal history of an 12 applicant or other qualified person under consideration for employment in the 13 unclassified service of the State may be considered only after an appointing 14 authority has made a conditional offer of employment to the applicant or, if 15 applicable, the applicant has been certified by the Administrator. Section 3 of this 16 bill prohibits the Administrator from considering the criminal history of an 17 applicant in examining the applicant. Additionally, section 3 provides, with 18 exceptions, that the criminal history of an applicant for a position in the classified 19 service may be considered only after the applicant has been certified by the 20 Administrator or an appointing authority has made a conditional offer of 21 employment to the applicant. Sections 2 and 3 set forth specific factors that must 22 be considered by an appointing authority or the Administrator before the criminal 23 history of an applicant may be used as the basis for rescinding a conditional offer of 24 employment or for rejection of the applicant, including: (1) whether any criminal 25 offense committed by the person directly relates to the responsibilities of the 26 position for which the person has applied; (2) the nature and severity of each 27 criminal offense committed by the person; (3) the age of the person at the time of 28 the commission of each criminal offense; (4) the period of time between the 29 commission of each criminal offense and the date of the application for 30 employment; and (5) any information or documentation demonstrating the person's 31 rehabilitation. Sections 5 and 6 of this bill establish similar provisions relating to 32 the consideration by the governing body of a county or incorporated city of the 33 criminal history of an applicant for employment by the county or incorporated city.
34 Sections 2, 3, 5 and 6 provide that if the criminal history of an applicant is used as 35 the basis for rejecting the applicant or rescinding a conditional offer of employment 36 extended to the applicant, the appointing authority or the governing body of the 37 county or city, as applicable, must provide to the applicant a written statement 38 which must specifically state the evidence presented and the reason for the rejection 39 of the applicant or rescission of the conditional offer of employment.

10 position because of the particular criminal history of the person,

28 conditional offer of employment must be made in writing and 29 specifically state the evidence presented and the reasons for the 30 rescission of the offer.
