ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—Honoring the contributions of former members of the Nevada Legislature.

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution provides that the legislative authority of the State of Nevada is vested in a Senate and Assembly which shall be designated as the Legislature of the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, From the time the first Nevada Territorial Legislature met in 1861 until the present day, over 2,100 Legislators have served the people of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature is comprised of 21 Senators and 42 Assemblymen, each representing the geographic and cultural diversity of this State; and

WHEREAS, Nevada is one of only six states that has a true citizen legislature, with its members representing many different occupations, including ranchers, miners, doctors, school teachers, plumbers, lawyers, casino dealers, business owners and retirees; and

WHEREAS, Such Legislators have ranged in age from 21 to 81 years of age, and have served terms from as little as a few days up to 40 years; and

WHEREAS, Each of member of the Nevada Legislature has brought his or her unique perspective, understanding and expertise to this role, reflecting the rich and varied life experiences of such persons; and

WHEREAS, Over the last 156 years, the members of the Nevada Legislature have been asked to solve complex and difficult policy issues, making vital decisions that have profoundly affected the lives of the residents of this State and shaping the future of this State; and

WHEREAS, Many members of the Nevada Legislature have gone on to serve as United States Senators and Representatives, Governors and state and federal judges, as well as becoming leaders in commerce and various other professions; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That April 27, 2017, is designated as Alumni Day at the Nevada Legislature; and be it further

RESOLVED, That on this day we honor all the former Legislators who have served as members of this great institution and reflect on the sacrifices they made to serve the people of this State.
