

THE EIGHTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), February 13, 2017

Assembly called to order at 12:01 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Ellison, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Fred Kingman.

Heavenly Father, as we gather today to serve the men and women of this great state, let us remember Your creation. You're the author of the mountains that captivate our hearts, the planner of the rivers and lakes that provide us water and enjoyment, the sustainer of the land that gives us sustenance, and the artist of this beautiful desert we call home.

But more than this, you're the Creator of those in our charge, the people of Nevada who've entrusted us with the power to lead and care for them. As we set out, give us a high view of our constituents who are made in Your image as well as a high view of fellow Assembly Members who share that same honor. Help us serve the creation entrusted to us, knowing we, too, are among that creation.

Would You gather our thoughts, our words, our emotions and helps us to be present in the Assembly today. Help us to entrust our families and work back home to You, and give us grace to lead Nevada from the highest level during the session. Grant us confidence knowing You've made each of us with the gifts to legislate and govern, and we pray these gifts would be used and relied upon today. In the name of Jesus we pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
