

THE TWENTY-SECOND DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), February 27, 2017

Assembly called to order at 11:47 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Wheeler, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Father Chuck Durante.

Today is the birth of John Steinbeck, born in Salinas in 1902. So I thought it appropriate to center ourselves for prayer with this lovely quote from his novel, Tortilla Flat:

It is a time of quiet joy, the sunny morning. When the glittery dew is on the mallow weeds, each leaf holds a jewel which is beautiful if not valuable. This is no time for hurry or for bustle. Thoughts are slow and deep and golden in the morning.

Let us pray.

O God of sunny mornings and of cold, snowy days, we thank You for the simple, profound gift of another day. As we begin a new week, and as this Assembly begins its fourth week, slow us all down so that we can hear those who speak to us and speak to those who want to hear us. Slow us all down so that our thoughts are deep and golden. Remove the darkness of fear or confusion or self-centeredness, that all conversations had and discussions shared may be productive for the good of all.

Bless the members of the Nevada Assembly, thanking them for their willingness to serve others. Send Your Spirit of wisdom to guide and monitor all they do, keeping the common good for all at the forefront of their words, actions, deliberations, and decisions.

We make this prayer as Your humble and grateful people.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag, led by Jody Yap, Opportunity Village, Las Vegas.
