

THE FIFTY-THIRD DAY

CARSON CITY (Thursday), March 30, 2017

Assembly called to order at 12:07 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Ellison, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Dr. William Stomsky.

Gracious Lord and Creator of all, we approach this new day knowing there is a lot of work to be done. Awaken us from our slumber to be attentive to what must be done. Enable us to have patience, listening ears, open and wise hearts and minds.

We anticipate this to be a final day of hard work. As we begin to see a light at the end of the tunnel, may it not be an oncoming train catching us unaware of issues not addressed, but rather a light acknowledging work that has been hard, well done, and near completion. May we be encouraged today by our corporate efforts, infused with the goal of serving the common good and blessed by Your gracious and divine will.

We offer thanksgiving for this new day, despite our weariness and mixed feelings and frustrations. Enliven us with Your spirit to have servant hearts as we continue to strive for a common good.

Keep our government safe, our leaders strong, and may we continue to strive to make this a better world now and for future generations. In God's most Holy Name we pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
