

THE EIGHTY-FIRST DAY

CARSON CITY (Thursday), April 27, 2017

Assembly called to order at 11:31 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblymen Monroe-Moreno, Sprinkle, and Swank, who were excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Chase Ward.

Lord, Your word tells us, "For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good."

Thank You for these men and women who seek to do good through law. We thank You for the alumni who are present today. We thank You for their past service and for their current concern for our state. Today, we ask for wisdom that they may address today's agenda with direct fervor. Lead them in truth and in the well-being of our state. In Jesus' name I pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblywoman Benitez-Thompson moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 10—Honoring the contributions of former members of the Nevada Legislature.

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution provides that the legislative authority of the State of Nevada is vested in a Senate and Assembly which shall be designated as the Legislature of the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, From the time the first Nevada Territorial Legislature met in 1861 until the present day, over 2,100 Legislators have served the people of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature is comprised of 21 Senators and 42 Assemblymen, each representing the geographic and cultural diversity of this State; and

WHEREAS, Nevada is one of only six states that has a true citizen legislature, with its members representing many different occupations, including ranchers, miners, doctors, school teachers, plumbers, lawyers, casino dealers, business owners and retirees; and

WHEREAS, Such Legislators have ranged in age from 21 to 81 years of age, and have served terms from as little as a few days up to 40 years; and

WHEREAS, Each member of the Nevada Legislature has brought his or her unique perspective, understanding and expertise to this role, reflecting the rich and varied life experiences of such persons; and

WHEREAS, Over the last 156 years, the members of the Nevada Legislature have been asked to solve complex and difficult policy issues, making vital decisions that have profoundly affected the lives of the residents of this State and shaping the future of this State; and

WHEREAS, Many members of the Nevada Legislature have gone on to serve as United States Senators and Representatives, Governors and state and federal judges, as well as becoming leaders in commerce and various other professions; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That April 27, 2017, is designated as Alumni Day at the Nevada Legislature; and be it further

RESOLVED, That on this day we honor all the former Legislators who have served as members of this great institution and reflect on the sacrifices they made to serve the people of this State.

Assemblywoman Benitez-Thompson moved the adoption of the resolution.
Resolution adopted and ordered transmitted to the Senate.
