Remarks by Assemblyman Ellison.

ASSEMBLYMAN ELLISON:

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate two of my dear friends, Assemblywoman Alexis Hansen from District 32 and Senator Ira Hansen from Senate District 14. They are the first husband and wife to be elected to serve in the same session of this Legislature. Alexis and Ira own a small business in Washoe County and have been happily married for 38 years. We congratulate them and express our appreciation for their willingness to serve, and commend all those Nevada families that establish and maintain strong traditions in public service, providing our state and our communities with generations of strong statesmen and true Nevadans. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank Alexis and Ira for their service in Nevada over the years and congratulate them and their families on this strong honor.

Assemblywoman Carlton requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Carlton.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I think we would be remiss if we did not thank our folks that have been clearing sidewalks and roads, clearing off cars, and making sure we all got home safely. Yesterday was a long day. Today is going to be a long day for them and again tomorrow. I just wanted to make sure that we put on the record recognition for all the folks out there that make sure we are safe when we are walking to and from the building and who take care of us. I thank them.

On request of Assemblywoman Backus, the privilege of the floor of the Assembly Chamber for this day was extended to Sandy Backus, Jerry Allred, and Marc McDermont.
