

THE FOURTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Thursday), February 7, 2019

Assembly called to order at 11:41 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Bishop Deborah Hutterer.

Eternal God, we lift up all who govern this state of Nevada, especially this legislative body. May those who hold power understand that it is a trust from You to be used, not for personal glory and profit but for the service of the people. Drive them from cynicism, selfishness, and corruption; grant in Your mercy that they may be just in purpose, wise in counsel, unwavering in duty. As they do this work to which You have called them, may they be deliberate in using their position to serve all in their care, including those who depend upon the care of others. In all their words and exchanges, may they uphold the honor of this state and secure the protection of all people for the common good.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblywoman Titus requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Titus.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN TITUS:

Today, on my way to work here, I made a house call on one of my patients, which I commonly do. But this morning was a special morning because I was able to deliver to my patient and constituent a proclamation acknowledging his 100th birthday today. I will not read the whole proclamation because you can just imagine after 100 years how long that might be.

Theodore “Ted” Faber was born in Mason Valley on February 7, 1919. He was two months early and his mother had to keep him in a little shoebox to keep him warm. On his way to town—that little farmhouse that he was born in is about 20 miles away from the town of Yerington—he rode in a buckboard, and they would have to use straw and heated stones to keep warm. When he was just a young guy, he signed up for the Navy the day after Pearl Harbor and ended up in the Battle of Midway. Today, 100 years later, he is still at home with his wife of 70-plus years.

I just want to put into the journal that we acknowledge him and thank him for his service to the state of Nevada.
