

THE SIXTEENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), February 19, 2019

Senate called to order at 11:13 a.m.

President Marshall presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Senator Hansen, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Deacon Thomas Roberts.

Kind and loving God, we thank You for having created us and giving us to each other in the human family. As our Creator and our Shepherd, we give thanks for the gifts of diversity and inclusion that bring us all here, today, in a spirit of common community and gratitude for our many blessings, as we come together with the richness of many faith traditions and beliefs from across the world. May these spiritual gifts bind us together in love and respect for one another.

We humbly ask for Your blessing this morning upon our Governor, our Legislature and all of those who are entrusted with the gifts of leadership and service for all of God's children here in the great State of Nevada. We implore You to seal them with Your wisdom, Your compassion and Your empathy especially for the most vulnerable among us: the poor, the hungry, the homeless, the voiceless senior and all of those who depend on government and private social services for survival. May we, together, as a community, be effective stewards of caring for our sisters and our brothers who are in the greatest need.

In a special way, Lord, we ask for Your continued inspiration and presence upon our youth to harvest their curiosity, passion and expectations for their lives that will continue to sow the seeds of progress with a vision of justice, peace and equality for our community and for our world.

Place in our hearts the desire to make a difference in our families, our communities, our State and our Nation. Help us to achieve our goals with determination and perseverance and always with a sense of humor. Give us balance and focus in times of distraction and uncertainty.

Above all, Lord, please give us Your love and Your peace.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

By previous order of the Senate, the reading of the Journal is dispensed with, and the President and Secretary are authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.
