

NEVADA LEGISLATURE

Eightieth Session, 2019

SENATE DAILY JOURNAL

THE THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), March 11, 2019

Senate called to order at 11:55 a.m.

President Marshall presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Senator Denis, who was excused, and one vacant.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Louis Locke.

Let us pray. Lord, Your Word directs us to make it a priority to pray for and give thanks to You for our leaders and those who are in authority. So we do, with thanksgiving, pray for those in authority that they may lead with wisdom, grace and integrity, working together for the betterment of the people of the State of Nevada.

We also ask that You, O Lord, bless the men and women of this Senate, their families and staff. In the Name of the Most High God, I pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was led by Alanna Hernandez.

By previous order of the Senate, the reading of the Journal is dispensed with, and the President and Secretary are authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senator Woodhouse moved that Senate Bill No. 159 be taken from the General File and placed on the General File for the next legislative day.

Motion carried.

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING AND REFERENCE

By Senators Cancela, Spearman, Ratti, Parks, Harris, Ohrenschall, Scheible and Woodhouse:

Senate Bill No. 256—AN ACT relating to housing; revising provisions relating to discrimination in housing; revising provisions relating to the return of security deposits; limiting the amount of fees for late rent; revising provisions relating to the recovery of damages by a tenant for a landlord's failure to maintain a dwelling unit in a habitable condition; requiring a landlord to allow a former tenant to retrieve essential personal effects and establishing an expedited procedure if a landlord acts unreasonably under such circumstances; authorizing a tenant to take certain actions if a landlord abuses the right of access to a dwelling unit or uses that right to harass the tenant; making various other changes to provisions relating to housing; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Senator Cancela moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Commerce and Labor.

Motion carried.

By Senators Pickard, Hammond, Goicoechea, Ohrenschall, Settlemeyer; Assemblymen Leavitt, Cohen and Roberts:
