AN ACT relating to civil liability; authorizing a person who is the victim of certain discriminatory conduct relating to an incident involving a peace officer to bring a civil action under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law provides that if a person commits certain crimes because of a 2 victim’s actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, physical or mental 3 disability, sexual orientation or gender identity or expression: (1) the person who 4 committed the crime is subject to an additional penalty; (2) unless a greater penalty
5 is provided by law, the person who committed the crime is guilty of a gross 6 misdemeanor; and (3) a person injured by the crime may bring a civil action against 7 the person who committed the crime. (NRS 41.690, 193.1675, 207.185) Existing 8 law also provides that a public agency may bring a civil action to recover the 9 expense of an emergency response by the public agency against any person who 10 knowingly: (1) makes a false report to a public agency that a felony or 11 misdemeanor has been committed or that an emergency exists; or (2) creates the 12 false appearance that a felony or misdemeanor has been committed or that an

13 emergency exists, and that false appearance causes a false report to be made to a 14 public agency that a felony or misdemeanor has been committed or that an 15 emergency exists. (NRS 41.508)

16 This bill authorizes a person to bring a civil action for damages if another 17 person, because of the actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, 18 physical or mental disability, sexual orientation or gender identity or expression of 19 the person, knowingly causes a peace officer to respond to a location with the intent 20 to: (1) infringe on the constitutional rights of the person; (2) cause the person to feel 21 harassed, humiliated or embarrassed; (3) cause the person to be removed from a 22 location where he or she is lawfully located; or (4) damage the reputation or 23 economic interests of the person.

1 WHEREAS, There have been numerous incidents across the 2 country in which a person has, apparently because of his or her
3 prejudice concerning the actual or perceived race, color, religion, 4 national origin, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation or 5 gender identity or expression of another person, contacted a law
6 enforcement agency to report innocuous behavior by another person
7 as suspicious or to falsely report that the other person has committed 8 a crime; and

9 WHEREAS, These unjust incidents cause serious harm to the 10 person who is the victim of this type of discrimination and waste the 11 finite time and resources of law enforcement agencies; and

12 WHEREAS, Such misuse of law enforcement agencies to 13 discriminate against members of our communities creates distrust of 14 peace officers, law enforcement agencies and the criminal justice 15 system; and

16 WHEREAS, The creation of a specific, targeted remedy for 17 persons who are victimized by this type of discrimination will assist 18 in rebuilding trust in peace officers, law enforcement agencies and 19 the criminal justice system; and

20 WHEREAS, It is not the intent of this act or the Legislature to 21 discourage sincere persons who are not motivated by prejudice from 22 contacting law enforcement agencies when crimes have actually 23 been committed, emergencies actually exist or behavior is actually 24 suspicious and requires a response by a peace officer; and

25 WHEREAS, It is the intent of this act and the Legislature to 26 provide to persons who are victimized by this type of discrimination 27 a specific, effective, targeted, statutory remedy to receive, at a 28 minimum, monetary compensation for the injuries that they have 29 suffered; now therefore,
