Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

(NRS 616C.440) Existing law authorizes certain injured employees who are or were firefighters, arson investigators, police officers or emergency medical attendants and who are partially disabled from certain occupational diseases to elect to receive such compensation for a permanent total disability. (NRS 617.455, 617.457, 617.485, 617.487) Section 2 of this bill prohibits an insurer from halting or limiting the payment of compensation to such an injured employee for a permanent total disability on the basis that the injured employee earns income. THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 616C.405 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.405 Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~4~~ 5 of NRS 616C.440, an employee who is receiving compensation for:

1. A permanent total disability is not entitled to compensation for permanent partial disability during the period when the employee is receiving compensation for the permanent total disability.

2. A temporary total disability is not entitled to compensation for a permanent partial disability during the period of temporary total disability.

3. A temporary partial disability is not entitled to compensation for a permanent partial disability during the period of temporary partial disability.

Sec. 2. NRS 616C.440 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.440 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 616C.175, every employee in the employ of an employer, within the provisions of

1 chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, who is injured by accident arising out of 2 and in the course of employment, or his or her dependents as defined in chapters
3 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, is entitled to receive the following compensation 4 for permanent total disability:

5 (a) In cases of total disability adjudged to be permanent, compensation per 6 month of $66\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the average monthly wage.

7 (b) If there is a previous disability, as the loss of one eye, one hand, one foot or 8 any other previous permanent disability, the percentage of disability for a 9 subsequent injury must be determined by computing the percentage of the entire 10 disability and deducting therefrom the percentage of the previous disability as it 11 existed at the time of the subsequent injury, but such a deduction for a previous 12 award for permanent partial disability must be made in a reasonable manner and 13 must not be more than the total amount which was paid for the previous award for 14 permanent partial disability. The total amount of the allowable deduction includes, 15 without limitation, compensation for a permanent partial disability that was 16 deducted from:

17 (1) Any compensation the employee received for a temporary total 18 disability; or

19 (2) Any other compensation received by the employee.

20 (c) If the character of the injury is such as to render the employee so physically 21 helpless as to require the service of a constant attendant, an additional allowance 22 may be made so long as such requirements continue, but the allowance may not be 23 made while the employee is receiving benefits for care in a hospital or facility for 24 intermediate care pursuant to the provisions of NRS 616C.265.

25 2. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616B.028 and 616B.029, an injured 26 employee or his or her dependents are not entitled to accrue or be paid any benefits 27 for a permanent total disability during the time the injured employee is 28 incarcerated. The injured employee or his or her dependents are entitled to receive 29 those benefits when the injured employee is released from incarceration if the 30 injured employee is certified as permanently totally disabled by a physician or 31 chiropractor.

32 3. An employee is entitled to receive compensation for a permanent total 33 disability only so long as the permanent total disability continues to exist. The 34 insurer has the burden of proving that the permanent total disability no longer 35 exists.

36 4. ~~Am~~ If an injured employee has filed a claim with an insurer pursuant to 37 NRS 617.455, 617.457, 617.485 or 617.487, the insurer may not terminate,
38 suspend, withhold, offset, reduce or otherwise halt, restrict or limit the payment 39 of compensation for a permanent total disability to ~~an~~ the injured employee or 40 his or her dependents on the basis that the injured employee earns income.

41 5. If an employee who has received compensation in a lump sum for a 42 permanent partial disability pursuant to NRS 616C.495 is subsequently determined 43 to be permanently and totally disabled, the insurer of the employee's employer shall 44 recover pursuant to this subsection the actual amount of the lump sum paid to the 45 employee for the permanent partial disability. The insurer shall not recover from 46 the employee, whether by deductions or single payment, or a combination of both, 47 more than the actual amount of the lump sum paid to the employee. To recover the 48 actual amount of the lump sum, the insurer shall:

49 (a) Unless the employee submits a request described in paragraph (b), deduct 50 from the compensation for the permanent total disability an amount that is not more 51 than 10 percent of the rate of compensation for a permanent total disability until the 52 actual amount of the lump sum paid to the employee for the permanent partial 53 disability is recovered; or

1 (b) Upon the request of the employee, accept in a single payment from the 2 employee an amount that is equal to the actual amount of the lump sum paid to the 3 employee for the permanent partial disability, less the actual amount of all 4 deductions made to date by the insurer from the employee for repayment of the 5 lump sum.
