SENATE DAILY JOURNAL

THE FIRST DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), February 1, 2021

Senate called to order at 1:12 p.m.
President Marshall presiding.

Prayer by Senator Pat Spearman.

Gracious and wise God, we call on You as we acknowledge all the Names Your children use that harmonize with Your divine will; Creator of the Universe, Giver of all that is good, and Champion for the poor, downtrodden, and those living in the social margins. We come with this petition asking for Your guidance as we begin this Legislative Session.

We acknowledge our shortcomings and failures to work with You to lift those who are targeted for destruction because of their race, gender or religious affiliation. Help us to participate in Your celebration of the multiple cultures and ethnicities that showcase Your commitment to diversity in Your sovereign acts in creation.

We ask for equal measures of understanding and determination as we seek ways to mitigate and eliminate the scourge of systemic racism that has been so pervasive in our world. Give us the courage to seek truth for authentic reconciliation and give us the strength to hold each other accountable so that we may achieve real unity and a commitment to our personal growth in our relationship with You.

Give us new ears that are cloaked with empathy and hearts filled with compassion for those who are struggling during these dual, public-health crises of systemic racism and COVID-19. These systems stand as the antithesis to Your divine will for equality and equity for all of Your children. Eternal One, we need Your wisdom infused into every word, spoken and unspoken, as the members of this Body discuss the future path for legislation that we will honor Your commandment to love our neighbor as we love ourselves.

We have worked, walked, planned and talked about becoming a more "perfected union," and now is the time to participate fully to bring Your kingdom to this earth as it exists in the spiritual realm. Now, as we begin this 81st Session of the Nevada State Senate, we are acutely aware that these deliberations might represent the crossroads or precipice for all of the work done by the generations before us. Be now that blessed assurance that their work has not been in vain. Be the light we need to stamp out the darkness of discrimination, hate and prejudice. Be the courage needed to cocreate, with You, a better world for all.

When we have done all that we came here to do, help us to stand united in this petition for You to complete the work of justice too-long delayed that now will not be denied. We invoke Your spirit to guide these deliberations and bring a favorable conclusion to this fight for equality.

This is our petition, our hope and our affirmation. We pray in Your Holy and matchless Name.

Amen, Shalom, and Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Remarks by Senator Cannizzaro.

I want to thank everyone, first, for their patience this evening as we seek to get organized for this Legislative Session. As we begin the 81st Session of the Nevada Legislature, we do so with over 4,000 Nevadans who have lost their lives to this deadly virus we still face. Their families are in our thoughts and prayers.

On this first day of Black History Month, we recognize that communities of color have been disproportionately impacted by this virus. Today, we renew our commitment to them and everyone in this State and pledge to work toward an equal and just system for all Nevadans. We pledge to work with all Nevadans with respect to getting them back to work and to a place where we begin to prosper. At the same time, this Chamber has much work to accomplish. We are all determined to get to work and fight to protect families across our State.

Let me be clear, our top priority this Session is to combat COVID-19 and put Nevada in the strongest position possible to emerge from this crisis stronger than ever before. I remain hopeful this Body can and will work in a fashion to work better together for all of Nevada's families. Over the course of this Session, this Legislature will work across the aisle and with the federal government to respond and meet Nevada's needs.

We will ensure we are safely reopening our public schools, making sure teachers are vaccinated and getting our students safely back into the classroom. We will continue to provide that educational promise from which so many in this Body, and their families, have benefited. We will ensure workers are protected and invest in workforce training and skilled job opportunities to get families and businesses affected by the pandemic back on their feet and to a feeling of hopefulness. We will protect those who have fallen behind on their mortgage, rent and utility payments and ensure that, just because many have lost their jobs, not all is lost. Opportunity to succeed exists. We ensure to help small businesses and business owners, the engine of our communities, to deal with the economic consequences of COVID-19 so they can keep their doors open and their employees employed.

Once we tackle these immediate and most pressing issues, we can begin to look toward our future. Nevada is a state where anyone willing to work hard and play by the rules has every opportunity to succeed. While I was growing up, this was a promise made to and by my family. My colleagues in the Senate, I hope we can work together toward a brighter future for all.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Senators Cannizzaro and Settelmeyer:

Senate Resolution No. 1—Adopting the Standing Rules of the Senate for the 81st Session of the Legislature.

RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, That the Senate Standing Rules are hereby adopted for the 81st Session of the Legislature as follows:

I. OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Rule No. 1. President.

The President shall take the chair and call the Senate to order precisely at the hour appointed for meeting, and if a quorum is present shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read. The President shall preserve order and decorum, and in case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct within the Senate Chamber, shall order the Sergeant at Arms to suppress it, and may order the arrest of any person creating any disturbance within the Senate Chamber. The President may speak to points of order in preference to members, rising from the President's seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the Senate by two members, on which appeal no member may speak more than once without leave of the Senate. The President shall sign all acts, addresses and joint resolutions, and all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the Senate, all of which must be attested by the Secretary. that the Sergeant at Arms is incapacitated or absent for any reason, the Deputy Sergeant at Arms shall serve as the Sergeant at Arms until the incapacity or absence has ended.

Rule No. 6. Continuation of Leadership of the Senate During the Interim Between Sessions.
1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2, 3 and 4, the tenure of the President pro Tempore, Majority Leader and Minority Leader extends during the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature.
2. The President pro Tempore, Majority Leader and Minority Leader for the next succeeding regular session shall perform any duty that is required of that officer by the Standing Rules of the Senate and the Nevada Revised Statutes in the period between the time of their designation after the general election and the organization of the next succeeding regular session.

   (c) Appoint committees during the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature for any proper purpose, including, without limitation, taking testimony, compelling the attendance of witnesses, punishing persons or entities for contempt and reporting findings to the next session of the Legislature.
5. This Rule shall remain in full force and effect throughout the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature and until new Standing Rules of the Senate are adopted as part of the organization of a newly-constituted Senate at the commencement of a session.

The next rule is 10.

II. SESSIONS AND MEETINGS

Rule No. 10. Time of Meeting.
1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the President shall call the Senate to order each day of sitting at 11:00 o’clock a.m., unless the Senate has adjourned to some other hour.

Rule No. 11. Call of Senate—Moved by Three Members.
A Call of the Senate may be moved by three Senators, and if carried by a majority of all present, the Secretary shall call the roll and note the absentees, after which the names of the absentees shall again be called over. The doors shall then be closed and the Sergeant at Arms directed to take into custody all who may be absent without leave, and all Senators so taken into custody shall be presented at the bar of the Senate for such action as to the Senate may seem proper.

Rule No. 13. Open Meetings.
1. Except as provided in the Constitution of the State of Nevada and in subsection 2, all meetings of the Senate and its committees must be open to the public.
2. A Senate committee meeting may be closed to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health of a person.

The next rule is 20.

III. DECORUM AND DEBATE

Rule No. 20. Points of Order.
1. If any Senator, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the Senate, the President shall, or any Senator may, call him or her to order. If a Senator is so called to order, he or she shall not proceed without leave of the Senate. If such leave is granted, it must be upon the motion, “That he or she be allowed to proceed in order,” and the Senator shall confine himself or herself to the proposal under consideration and avoid personality.
2. Every ruling on points of order made by the President is subject to appeal, and a discussion of a question of order may be allowed only upon the appeal of two Senators. In all cases of appeal, the question must be, “Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Senate?”

1. In cases of breaches of decorum or propriety, any Senator, officer or other person is liable to such censure or punishment as the Senate may deem proper.

2. If any Senator is called to order for offensive or indecorous language or conduct, the person calling the Senator to order shall report the offensive or indecorous language or conduct to the presiding officer. No member may be held to answer for any language used on the floor of the Senate if business has intervened before exception to the language was taken.

3. Indecorous conduct or boisterous or unbecoming language is not permitted in the Senate Chamber.

Rule No. 22. Reserved.

Rule No. 23. Committee on Ethics; Legislative Ethics.
1. The Committee on Ethics consists of:
   (a) Two members of the Senate appointed by the Majority Leader from the majority political party;
   (b) One member of the Senate appointed by the Minority Leader from the minority political party; and
   (c) Four qualified electors of the State, two of whom are appointed by the Majority Leader, one who is appointed by the Minority Leader, and one who is appointed by the other members appointed to the Committee, and none of whom is a present member of the Legislature or employed by the State of Nevada.
   ➡ Not more than four members of the Committee may be members of the same political party.

2. The Majority Leader shall appoint the Chair and Vice Chair of the Committee. The Vice Chair shall serve as the acting Chair if the Chair is unable to serve for any reason during the consideration of a specific proposal.

3. The Majority Leader shall appoint an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 and an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 1. The Minority Leader shall appoint an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection 1 and an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 1. The members of the Committee shall appoint an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 1. If a member of the Committee is unable to serve for any reason during the consideration of a specific proposal, the alternate appointed with the qualifications from the same paragraph in subsection 1 by the same appointing authority shall serve as a member of the Committee during the consideration of the specific proposal.

4. A member of the Committee is disqualified to serve during the consideration of a specific proposal if:
   (a) The member is the requester of advice concerning the question of ethics or conflict of interest, or the member is the subject of the complaint concerning the specific question; or
   (b) A reasonable person in the member’s situation could not exercise independent judgment on the matter in question.

5. The members of the Committee shall perform any duty required in the period between the time of their appointment after the general election and the organization of the next succeeding regular session, or until the Majority Leader or the Minority Leader appoint new members to the Committee, whichever occurs first.

6. The tenure of the members of the Committee shall extend during the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature.

7. The Committee:
   (a) May hear requests brought by Senators for advice on specific questions of potential breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest; and
   (b) Shall hear complaints brought by Senators and others on specific questions of alleged breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest, including, without limitation, alleged breaches of the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in the Joint Standing Rules.
8. All proceedings held by the Committee to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence or physical or mental health of any person on matters of ethics or conflicts of interest and all materials related to those proceedings are confidential, unless the person who is the subject of the proceedings requests a public hearing or discloses the content of the proceedings or materials.

9. An individual may file a complaint which alleges a breach of ethics or a conflict of interest, including, without limitation, an alleged breach of the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in the Joint Standing Rules. If the alleged breach of ethics or conflict of interest involves the conduct of more than one person, separate complaints must be filed regarding each person. A complaint must be:
   (a) Made in writing on a form provided by the Legislative Counsel;
   (b) Signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the individual making the allegation; and
   (c) Filed with the Legislative Counsel who shall review the complaint and any other relevant information and consult with the Chair of the Committee or, if the Chair is the subject of the complaint, with the Vice Chair, to evaluate whether the Committee has jurisdiction and whether an investigation is warranted in the matter. If it is determined that the Committee:
      (1) Does not have jurisdiction or that an investigation is not warranted in the matter, the Legislative Counsel shall send written notice of the determination to the individual who filed the complaint.
      (2) Has jurisdiction and an investigation is warranted in the matter, the Legislative Counsel shall send written notice of the determination and a copy of the complaint to the person who is the subject of the complaint.

10. Each Legislator is subject, at all times, to the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in the Joint Standing Rules and, in addition, must determine whether he or she has a conflict of interest upon any matter in question before the Legislator. In determining whether the Legislator has such a conflict of interest, the Legislator should consider whether the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in his or her situation upon the matter in question would be materially affected by the Legislator’s:
   (a) Acceptance of a gift or loan;
   (b) Private economic interest; or
   (c) Commitment to a member of his or her household or immediate family.

11. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 12, if a Legislator knows he or she has a conflict of interest pursuant to subsection 10, the Legislator shall make a disclosure of the conflict of interest on the record in a meeting of a committee or on the floor of the Senate, as applicable. Such a disclosure must be entered:
   (a) If the Legislator makes the disclosure in a meeting of a committee, in the minutes for that meeting.
   (b) If the Legislator makes the disclosure on the floor of the Senate, in the Journal.

12. If, on one or more prior occasions during the current session of the Legislature, a Legislator has made a general disclosure of a conflict of interest on the record in a meeting of a committee or on the floor of the Senate, the Legislator is not required to make that general disclosure at length again regarding the same conflict of interest if, when the matter in question arises on subsequent occasions, the Legislator makes a reference on the record to the previous disclosure.

13. In determining whether to abstain from voting upon, advocating or opposing a matter concerning which a Legislator has a conflict of interest pursuant to subsection 10, the Legislator should consider whether:
   (a) The conflict impedes his or her independence of judgment; and
(b) His or her interest is greater than the interests of an entire class of persons similarly situated.
14. The provisions of this Rule do not under any circumstances and regardless of any conflict of interest:
   (a) Prohibit a Legislator from requesting or introducing a legislative measure; or
   (b) Require a Legislator to take any particular action before or while requesting or introducing a legislative measure.
15. If a Legislator who is a member of a committee declares on the record when a vote is to be taken by the committee that he or she will abstain from voting because of the requirements of this Rule, the necessary quorum to act upon and the number of votes necessary to act upon the matter is reduced as though the Legislator abstaining were not a member of the committee.
16. The standards and procedures set forth in this Rule which govern whether and to what extent a Senator has a conflict of interest, should disclose a conflict of interest or should abstain from voting upon, advocating or opposing a matter concerning which the Senator has a conflict of interest pursuant to subsection 10:
   (a) Are exclusive and are the only standards and procedures that apply to Senators with regard to such matters; and
   (b) Supersede and preempt all other standards and procedures with regard to such matters, except that this subsection does not exempt any Senators from the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in the Joint Standing Rules.
17. For purposes of this Rule, “immediate family” means a person who is related to the Legislator by blood, adoption or marriage within the first degree of consanguinity or affinity.
18. This Rule shall remain in full force and effect throughout the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature and until new Standing Rules of the Senate are adopted as part of a newly-constituted Senate at the commencement of a session.

The next rule is 30.

IV. QUORUM, VOTING, ELECTIONS

Rule No. 30. Recorded Vote—Three Required to Call For.
1. A recorded vote must be taken upon final passage of a bill or joint resolution, and in any other case when called for by three members. Every Senator within the bar of the Senate shall vote “yea” or “nay” or record himself or herself as “not voting,” unless excused by unanimous vote of the Senate. A Senator who records himself or herself as “not voting” must make a full and complete disclosure of a conflict of interest pursuant to Senate Standing Rule No. 23.
2. The votes and names of those absent or recorded as “not voting” and the names of Senators demanding the recorded vote must be entered in the Journal.

Rule No. 31. President to Decide—Tie Vote.
A question is lost by a tie vote, but when the Senate is equally divided on any question except the passage of a bill or joint resolution, the President may give the deciding vote.

Rule No. 32. Manner of Election—Voting.
1. In all cases of election by the Senate, the vote must be taken vivà voce. In other cases, if a vote is to be recorded, it may be taken by oral roll-call or by electronic recording.
2. When a recorded vote is taken, no Senator may:
   (a) Vote except when at his or her seat;
   (b) Explain his or her vote or discuss the question while the voting is in progress; or
   (c) Change his or her vote after the result is announced.

If a member of a subcommittee is not a member of the standing or select committee for which the subcommittee is created, the approval of the Majority Leader is required for that member’s appointment.    (b) That a person who has been declared elected to an office was not at the time of election eligible to that office.

   (d) That the election board, in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.
   (e) That the defendant has given, or offered to give, to any person a bribe for the purpose of procuring his or her election.

   (a) To protect the health, safety and welfare of Legislators, members of legislative staff and others who participate in the legislative process amid the ongoing and widespread public-health crisis caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Remote-Technology Rules are intended to authorize necessary protective and safety measures intended to keep the legislative process as safe and free as reasonably possible from the extraordinary danger, risk, harm, injury and peril posed by the COVID-19 pandemic.
   (b) To enable the members of the Senate to represent their constituents and carry out their official powers, functions, duties and responsibilities in the legislative process amid the ongoing and widespread public-health crisis caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Remote-Technology Rules are intended to authorize members of the Senate, under certain circumstances, to use remote-technology systems to attend, participate, vote and take any other action in legislative proceedings when determined to be necessary as a protective or safety measure to keep the legislative process as safe and free as reasonably possible from the extraordinary danger, risk, harm, injury and peril posed by the COVID-19 pandemic.
To safeguard the workings of the Legislative Department of Nevada’s State Government and protect the continuity and efficacy of its legislative operations amid the ongoing and widespread public-health crisis caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Remote-Technology Rules are intended to ensure that the Senate may efficiently and effectively carry out its official powers, functions, duties and responsibilities which are expressly and exclusively assigned to the Senate by the Nevada Constitution and which cannot be exercised or performed by any other body or branch of Nevada’s State Government.

2. Because of the extraordinary danger, risk, harm, injury and peril posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Remote-Technology Rules must be liberally construed to achieve their intended public purposes, and if there is any uncertainty or doubt regarding the interpretation or application of the Remote-Technology Rules, that uncertainty or doubt must be resolved in favor of carrying out the intended public purposes of the Remote-Technology Rules.

Rule No. 133. Definitions.

As used in the Remote-Technology Rules, unless the context otherwise requires, “remote-technology system” means any system or other means of communication that is:

1. Approved by the Majority Leader and uses any electronic, digital or other similar technology to enable a member of the Senate from a remote location to attend, participate, vote and take any other action in any proceedings of the Senate or the Committee of the Whole even though the member is not physically present within the Senate Chambers or at a meeting of the Committee of the Whole.

2. Approved by the chair of a committee, other than the Committee of the Whole, and uses any electronic, digital or other similar technology to enable a member of the Senate from a remote location to attend, participate, vote and take any other action in any proceedings of the committee even though the member is not physically present at a meeting of the committee.

1. Upon request by a member of the Senate:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the Majority Leader may authorize the member to use a remote-technology system to attend, participate, vote and take any other action in any proceedings of the Senate or the Committee of the Whole if the Majority Leader determines that such use by the member is necessary as a protective or safety measure to carry out the public purposes of the Remote-Technology Rules. If the Majority Leader grants such authorization:

(1) It must be entered in the Journal of the Senate.

(2) A member who uses a remote-technology system to attend or participate in a proceeding of the Senate may not vote on any matter on which a vote is taken in that proceeding unless the member is using the remote-technology system to attend or participate in the proceeding from a location in this State.

(b) The chair of a committee, other than the Committee of the Whole, may authorize the member to use a remote-technology system to attend, participate, vote and take any other action in any proceedings of the committee if the chair determines that such use by the member is necessary as a protective or safety measure to carry out the public purposes of the Remote-Technology Rules. If the chair grants such authorization, it must be entered in the records of the committee.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of subsection 1, if a member of the Senate uses a remote-technology system to attend, participate, vote and take any other action in any proceedings pursuant to the Remote-Technology Rules, the member shall be deemed to be present and in attendance at the proceedings for all purposes.

3. For the purposes of voting in proceedings of:

(a) The Committee of the Whole, the Secretary of the Senate, or an authorized assistant, shall call the roll of each member who is authorized to use a remote-technology system for the proceedings and, in accordance with the procedures of the Senate, cause the member’s vote to be entered into the record for the purposes of the records of the Committee of the Whole, as applicable.

(b) A committee, other than the Committee of the Whole, the committee secretary shall call the roll of each member who is authorized to use a remote-technology system for the proceedings and, in accordance with the procedures of the committee, cause the member’s vote to be entered into the record for the purposes of the records of the committee.
Rule No. 135. Authority to Adopt Rules.

1. The Senate hereby finds and declares that:
   (a) The Nevada Constitution invests each House of the Legislature with certain plenary and exclusive constitutional powers which may be exercised only by that House and which cannot be usurped, infringed or impaired by the other House or by any other branch of Nevada’s State Government. (Heller v. Legislature, 120 Nev. 456 (2004); Commission on Ethics v. Hardy, 125 Nev. 285 (2009); Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure §§ 2-3 & 560-564 (2010) (Mason’s Manual))
   (b) Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to determine the rules of its proceedings and to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management, expressly providing that: “Each House shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers (except the President of the Senate), determine the rules of its proceedings and may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elected, expel a member.”
   (c) In addition to its plenary and exclusive constitutional powers, each House possesses certain inherent powers of institutional self-protection and self-preservation to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management. (In re Chapman, 166 U.S. 661, 668 (1897); Mason’s Manual § 2; Luther S. Cushing, Elements of the Law & Practice of Legislative Assemblies § 533 (1856) (Cushing’s Legislative Assemblies))
   (d) The inherent powers of each House are considered “so essential to the authority of a legislative assembly, that it cannot well exist without them; and they are consequently entitled to be regarded as belonging to every such assembly as a necessary incident.” (Cushing’s Legislative Assemblies § 533)
   (e) The inherent powers of each House authorize it to take all necessary and proper institutional actions that are “recognized by the common parliamentary law.” (Cushing’s Legislative Assemblies § 684)
   (f) Thus, it is well established that each House is “vested with all the powers and privileges which are necessary and incidental to a free and unobstructed exercise of its appropriate functions. These powers and privileges are derived not from the Constitution; on the contrary, they arise from the very creation of a legislative body, and are founded upon the principle of self-preservation.” (Ex parte McCarthy, 29 Cal. 395, 403 (1866))
   (g) Under the Nevada Constitution, there are no constitutional provisions establishing a particular method for determining whether a member of either House is present at legislative proceedings.
   (h) The United States Supreme Court has held that when there are no constitutional provisions establishing a particular method for determining whether a member of a legislative house is present at legislative proceedings, “it is therefore within the competency of the house to prescribe any method which shall be reasonably certain to ascertain the fact.” (United States v. Ballin, 144 U.S. 1, 6 (1892))
   (i) The United States Supreme Court has also held that when a legislative house adopts a rule establishing a reasonable method for determining whether a member is present at legislative proceedings, that rule must be given great deference by the courts because:

   Neither do the advantages or disadvantages, the wisdom or folly, of such a rule present any matters for judicial consideration. With the courts the question is only one of power. The constitution empowers each house to determine its rules of proceedings. It may not by its rules ignore constitutional restraints or violate fundamental rights, and there should be a reasonable relation between the mode or method of proceeding established by the rule and the result which is sought to be attained. But within these limitations all matters of method are open to the determination of the house, and it is no impeachment of the rule to say that some other way would be better, more accurate, or even more just. It is no objection to the validity of a rule that a different one has been prescribed and in force for a length of time. The power to make rules is not one which once exercised is exhausted. It is a continuous power, always subject to be exercised by the house, and, within the limitations suggested, absolute and beyond the challenge of any other body or tribunal.
The Senate hereby exercises its constitutional and inherent powers and privileges and adopts the Remote-Technology Rules to:

(a) Govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management;
(b) Ensure its institutional self-protection and self-preservation; and
(c) Establish a reasonable method for determining whether a member of the Senate is present at legislative proceedings amid the ongoing and widespread public-health crisis caused by the COVID-19 pandemic in order to keep the legislative process as safe and free as reasonably possible from the extraordinary danger, risk, harm, injury and peril posed by the COVID-19 pandemic.

The next rule is 140.

IX. LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATIONS

Rule No. 140. Compensation of Witnesses.

Witnesses summoned to appear before the Senate, or any of its committees, shall be compensated as provided by law for witnesses required to attend in the courts of the State of Nevada.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That this resolution becomes effective upon adoption.

Senator Cannizzaro moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Senators Cannizzaro, Settelmeyer and Hansen.

Senator Cannizzaro:

Rule No. 3 is revised to provide that in the absence of the Secretary of the Senate, and subject to the direction of the Majority Leader, the Assistant Secretary shall attest all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by the Senate and shall certify passage of the Senate bills and resolutions; in the absence of both officers, the Majority Leader shall designate a signatory.

Rule Nos. 20, 23, 61, 62, 67, 80, 81, 115, 121 are revised to reflect the current 2020 Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure use of the term "proposal" instead of "question"; and Rule No. 20 is similarly revised to provide for a "ruling" on points of order by the President instead of a "decision" by the President on points of order.

Rule No. 40 is revised to update the membership and jurisdiction of the Senate Standing Committees, with the following substantive changes: (1) chapter 407A, Outdoor Recreation, was added by the 2019 Session and is assigned to Natural Resources; and (2) chapter 453A, Medical Marijuana, which was previously assigned to Health and Human Services, and 453D, Adult-Use Marijuana, which was previously assigned to Revenue, were replaced by Title 56 of NRS, Regulation of Cannabis, in the 2019 Session, and Title 56 of NRS is now assigned to Health and Human Services.

Rule No 53 is revised to provide that if a committee meeting is conducted with all members participating remotely pursuant to the direction of the Majority Leader, the members of the committee must attend remotely from a location other than a committee room. An exception to the precedence of the Remote Technology Rules is made in Rule No. 131 so that Rule No. 53 would control with regard to committees meeting entirely remotely.

Rule No. 62 is revised to provide that in addition to the current rule that there is no reconsideration of a vote on a motion to postpone indefinitely, there must also be no rescission of a vote on a motion to postpone indefinitely.

Rule Nos. 80, 112, 121 and 124 are revised as clean-up for the Legislative Session as Senators will not be standing or rising to speak from their desks. Rule No. 94 is likewise revised as there will not be guests seated in the Senate Chamber.

Rule No. 109 is revised to reflect the practice of the Senate that the reading of a bill is by number, sponsor and summary.

Rule No. 110 is revised to remove joint resolutions from the same treatment of bills for placement or removal on the consent calendar; similarly, Rule No. 113 relating to reading on General File is revised to clarify that the rule applies to "bills" and not all legislative measures. The procedure for the introduction, referral, amendment, consideration and placement of joint resolutions on the Joint Resolution File is now specifically set forth in Rule No. 118. This Rule also clarifies that Joint Resolutions are not treated as bills.

Rule No. 112 is revised to allow a Senator to submit by electronic means his or her approval for another Senator to be added as a sponsor on a bill or resolution.

Rule No. 130 revises the procedure for election contests to establish the grounds for an election contest as the grounds set forth in statute, to require the appointment of a committee to consider the contests which will consist of three Senators who are not parties to the contest, to require the appointment of a chair and vice chair, to authorize the chair of the committee to take certain actions necessary to facilitate the contest, to provide each party to a contest with notice and an opportunity to present written arguments concerning whether the requirements to bring and maintain a contest have been met, to provide a procedure for the parties to present evidence and arguments concerning an election contest if the Senate determines that the requirements to bring and maintain the contest have been met, to require the committee considering the contest to report to the Senate and to require the Senate to accept or reject the committee's recommendation without amendment.

Rule Nos. 131-135 incorporate the Remote-Technology Rules from the 31st and 32nd Special Sessions into the Senate Standing Rules with a change to Rule No. 134 to prohibit a Senator who is participating in a Senate Floor proceeding remotely from voting unless the Senator is participating remotely from a location in Nevada.

SENATOR SETTELMEYER:
I want to thank the Majority Leader for the recent changes to Rule No. 53 that deals with Committees trying to keep the doors open which is in line with Article 4 of the Constitution. I appreciate the change in the language. I have a question about Rule No. 134. We changed this from being able to vote from anywhere to at least needing to be within the State of Nevada. Is the intent to keep within the stated requirement that I think exists, that voting has to occur at the seat of government, which is Carson City? I would like to know if this is the intent.

SENATOR CANNIZZARO:
The intent of the language of the rule is, of course, to provide for remote participation for floor votes where it is necessary. Acknowledging we are still in the middle of a pandemic, that may be necessary from time to time. The intent is for members to be voting here, within the building, and certainly within Carson City. The rule states they shall be within the State of Nevada.

SENATOR SETTELMEYER:
I appreciate the clarification. We have a duty to operate the Legislature in a safe and responsible manner, and I appreciate everything you and the Secretary of the Senate have done to do this. I hope we can work together, in a bipartisan way, to carefully craft safety procedures and create a solution that will allow the public admittance into this building and this process. It is vital we have them helping us craft better legislation.

SENATOR HANSEN:
I just received the rules and am not completely sure what is in all of this; however, there is a critical omission. We all swore an oath to uphold the Nevada Constitution. Article 4, Section 15, states the doors of each House will be open during a Session and meetings of all legislative committees must be open to the public.

Article 1, Section 10, says, "The people shall have the right freely to assemble together to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives, and to petition the legislature for redress of grievances."

Under Article 4, Section 6, we have the right to have rules for our own procedures. Virtually every business in Nevada is now open to at least 25-percent capacity. If the Nevada Constitution requires our Chambers be kept open to the public, we should be opening up some avenue to where the public is either in now, or identify a clear statistical trigger to give the public an absolute assurance that when COVID-19 reaches a predetermined level in the State, the legislative doors will be opened. People in the Culinary Union and other businesses have to go to work and have to open up to at least 25-percent capacity. For whatever reason, our building is still 100-percent closed to the public. That clearly violates the spirit of the Constitution. It seems ironic we would hold ourselves to the higher standard of zero when we require virtually every business in Nevada to have at least a 25-percent number and most, including gaming, are at 50 percent. This means tens of thousands of people are around those workers in the State. The Constitution clearly is being violated here. It is an omission in this Body of rules for the Senate to not have a clear, statistical-standard trigger for when we will reopen this building to the general public. If there is not a trigger—and I see no reason why there is not if we are going to force or give businesses the opportunity to open up at 25 percent—we should at least have that as a minimal standard. In the absence of that, our old rules allow us to put in place some sort of trigger so the public knows when the Governor, or another person, determines the COVID-19 numbers have reached “x,” “y” and “z,” they will be allowed back into this building. That should be included in our rules today to ensure compliance with the Constitution. We need to let the general public know we are not excluding them from the business we are here to do. This is the people’s business, yet we are excluding the very people for whom we are supposedly passing these laws.

I apologize for not having been able to read all of these. I literally just received the final draft before we sat down. I am not trying to throw anyone under the bus, but I think we have failed to follow the constitutional obligation we swore to uphold.

SENATOR CANNIZZARO:
With respect to the rules, it is within the prerogative of the Legislature, and certainly within this Body’s prerogative, to adopt the Standing Rules by which we operate. While we are still in the middle of a global pandemic and dealing with its repercussions, we are trying to take appropriate measures, by these rules, to keep everyone in the building safe. We have many wonderful staff working every day who we have asked to be in this building to assist us in accomplishing our goals and objectives and enable us to do our duties. We do so with the flexibility of knowing that, as things change, we will continue to ensure the public has participation here in our building to meet the job of the constituents who elected us. These rules reflect that and seriously consider everyone’s safety in this building, including our staff. They will allow us to operate in a smart manner.

Motion carried unanimously.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS TO THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE
In normal times, I would be addressing you tonight in this Legislative Chamber, assembled in front of our constitutional officers, elected officials, Supreme Court Justices and other guests. As we all know too well, these are not normal times.

Every Nevadan has been impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak. Whether you have lost a job, had to learn from home, missed a graduation, grappled with keeping your small business open, or been unable to visit family for birthdays and holidays, or in a hospital room, this disease has touched us all. The truth is we still have a ways to go. I know, however, Nevadans are battle born. We face our challenges head on, and we will get through this difficult time together. The state of our State is determined, resilient and strong.

Two years ago, I came before all of you for my first state of the State address. I laid out a vision for what we could accomplish, and I am proud of what we were able to achieve working with State lawmakers from both parties, who are watching tonight. We gave raises to our teachers and provided record funding to our schools. We passed sweeping healthcare legislation to end surprise emergency room billing. We have outlawed insurance companies the ability to drop people with pre-existing conditions. We implemented Nevada's first-ever State climate strategy to expand the use of renewables and decrease our dependence on fossil fuels. Unemployment was low, business was buzzing, and consumer confidence was at a record high. Then, on March 5, 2020, Nevada got its first case of COVID-19. Shortly thereafter, we had 5 cases, which quickly turned into 15, then 100. As of Friday, January 15, 2021, Nevada has suffered over a quarter-of-a-million cases and over 3,700 Nevadans have lost their lives. That is 3,700 families grappling with the loss of a loved one.

In that time, we were faced with excruciating choices that continue today as we remain under a state of emergency. Throughout this crisis, we have worked hard to balance protecting public health while doing everything we can to keep the economy afloat and our businesses open. The fact remains, our State and our people have suffered in ways none of us could have imagined a year ago. Let me tell you, not a day goes by that I do not think about the sacrifices so many are making.

The challenges are unprecedented; we have so much to fix, but we are forging a new path forward. Tonight, you will hear about my priorities and my plans to achieve them. These include: how to win the battle against COVID-19 and vaccinate our people; how to get all of our students back in the classroom and provide teachers with the tools they need to do their job; how to get our economy back on its feet and our people back to work; to look ahead toward what is next; infrastructure, green energy jobs, help for small businesses and other engines of growth to provide new opportunities for our people.

Through these historically challenging times, we have leaned on the most resilient of Nevadans, the heroes who have helped get us through: doctors, nurses, caregivers, faith leaders, public employees, educators, the Nevada National Guard and the many others working the frontlines of this crisis over the last 10 months. This includes all Nevadans who are caring for our veterans and who have served our country. They have been showing up and putting themselves at risk every day to ensure this State can move forward. They are people like Dr. Jacob Keeperman in Reno, who joins us here tonight.

It is because of people like Dr. Keeperman that I am optimistic about our future. On behalf of the State of Nevada, I want to say thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Early in our response, with no playbook for this historic crisis, Nevada’s public and private sectors mobilized to fight this deadly virus. From local government and State agencies, to the Response, Relief, and Recovery Task Force chaired by Jim Murren and made up of business leaders from across the State, partners rolled up their sleeves and got to work. The Nevada Department of Agriculture worked to ensure Nevadans did not go hungry by providing over 16-million pounds of food across the State, serving approximately 250,000 individuals per month. Business and education leaders worked to bridge the digital divide for our students by creating connectingkidsnv.org. In August, approximately 80 percent of Nevada’s students did not have the device or connectivity they needed to participate in distance learning. As of the start of this month, every student participating in online learning has at-home access to the internet and a computer to do their work. To keep people in their homes, millions of dollars were put into State and local rental assistance programs and an eviction mediation program was created by Chief Justice Jim Hardesty and housing advocates. The Nevada National Guard, under the direction of Major General Ondra Berry, embarked upon the largest and lengthiest State activation in Nevada history, stepping up as the heroes we all need in this moment of crisis. Labs across the State increased testing operations to record levels, reporting over 2.3-million COVID-19 molecular tests thus far. In 2019, labs in Nevada reported a total of 300,000 lab results for all diseases. The increase is staggering.

The truth remains, while heroes like Dr. Mark Pandori, Director of the Nevada State Public Health Lab, located at University Of Nevada, Reno, have helped Nevada scale up our resources so we can process thousands of COVID tests a day. We Nevadans are the only ones who can control how many of those test results come back negative. While we are awaiting the full benefit of the vaccine, we must unite in our statewide effort to slow and stop the spread of this virus by wearing masks, avoiding gatherings and protect each other. We must remain vigilant.

Our greatest challenge now is running the largest vaccination campaign in history. Despite the lack of resources or coordination from the federal government, we have pushed forward. To date, we have administered over 100,000 initial and secondary doses of the vaccine. As we await more vaccines for the State, we are ramping up our distribution efforts. Our immunization team, the Nevada National Guard, and the Division of Emergency Management are working with our local partners to get more shots in the arms of Nevadans. We are expanding our vaccination workforce to include EMS providers, medical assistants, pharmacy technicians, dentists, veterinarians and more. We opened a vaccination mega-site at Cashman Field in Las Vegas, and we are coordinating with the private sector, including our resort properties, to have more vaccination sites as our supply increases. We are working with private-health providers like Renown in Washoe County to distribute vaccines to local residents who are not typically their patients.

Again, let me assure all of you, every part of government is focused on vaccinating Nevadans. Anyone who tells you that COVID-19 is just a public-health crisis is wrong. This is an economic and fiscal crises impacting Nevadans' ability to feed themselves and their kids, inhibiting their ability to keep the lights on, keep a roof over their heads, earn a paycheck and maintain their benefits that allow them access to healthcare. In our first months of the pandemic, more than 250,000 Nevadans were laid off. It was devastating.

You know the truth; we depend on the hospitality industry for a big part of our economy. When travel stops, when hotel rooms go empty, when showrooms close, when our convention business and tourism shuts down, it hits our State harder than any other state in the Nation. That makes me more determined than ever to get our world-leading hospitality industry open and our workers back on the job, but that is not enough. We need to expand our economy to other world-leading industries that can create new jobs and new opportunities for our people.

Everyone needs to remember it is not just big businesses that have been hit hard. Our small businesses have also suffered, and they account for almost half of all the jobs in our State. The grit and determination of so many small business employees and owners across Nevada amazes me as they have worked together to get through this pandemic. People like Trina Jiles, who owns Gritz Cafe in Las Vegas. Thank you, Trina.

In October 2020, I joined State Treasurer Zach Conine and the Governor's Office of Economic Development to launch a small business assistance program that has been providing up to $10,000 in emergency grant funding to businesses like Trina's. This funding has helped small businesses keep their doors open and their employees paid through these difficult times. The response has been overwhelming, and so far, we have provided $50 million to small businesses across Nevada, but we need to do more.

Tonight, I am announcing an additional $50 million in my budget for this program that is vital for small businesses. I am asking the Legislature, as one of their first items of business, to get this done. Additionally, our own Lieutenant Governor Kate Marshall will be working to create a small business advocacy center to be a one-stop location to help small businesses take advantage of the resources that exist and help them cut through the red tape. As I said before, it is not enough to just aim for a full reopening of our current economy. We must look forward to the kind of economy that will let our State prosper in the future and create opportunity for all Nevadans. Let me share with you 5 initiatives that will help propel us forward. First, is the new energy economy. Nevada is at the geographical center of energy transmission for the western United States. It has an opportunity to become to energy what Wall Street is to finance, or what Silicon Valley is to technology.

Nevada is already a leader in renewable energy, generating billions of dollars in investment and employing tens of thousands of our people. Now, we are perfectly poised to lead the world in energy storage. To reach these ends, I will work with Senator Chris Brooks and the Legislature to pass a bold energy bill establishing our commitment to increased transmission, storage and distribution of all forms of clean energy. More importantly, passing this bill will create good-paying construction jobs starting this year and will help in our fight against climate change. This bill will attract and develop a variety of new industries, including electric vehicle infrastructure, component manufacturing and lithium mining. Lithium is the primary ingredient in electricity storage, and Nevada is home to the most accessible lithium reserves in North America.

Second, I am proposing the creation of innovation zones in Nevada. New companies, creating groundbreaking technologies, can come to Nevada to develop their industries. This will be done without tax abatements or public financing. Following passage of my innovation zone legislation, Blockchains LLC has committed to make an unprecedented investment in our State and create a smart city in northern Nevada that would fully run on Blockchain technology, making Nevada the epicenter of this emerging industry and creating the high-paying jobs and revenue that go with it. There are other exciting innovations taking place throughout the State. For example, University of Nevada, Las Vegas physicists are leading the way in breakthrough superconductivity research. This technology allows for transmission of energy across long distances without energy loss and provides huge commercialization and job opportunities while helping solve our energy and climate challenges. The Department of Energy calls this breakthrough the "holy grail" of energy efficiency.

Third, preparing our workforce for the new Nevada economy. Nevada has never experienced an economic recovery challenge as great as the one it faces now. Many of the jobs lost during the pandemic will not come back as businesses move toward automation. Job training and retraining our displaced workforce, as well as connecting Nevada workers with remote working opportunities and emerging industries will be key to the State's economic future. To achieve this goal, I will be creating the Nevada Job Force calling on some of Nevada's leading companies to fund, design and implement training programs to prepare and qualify employees for these new jobs. In addition, we need to recognize that our community colleges will play an even bigger role in workforce training. I will be asking the Legislature to work with the Nevada System of Higher Education over the next two years to develop a framework transitioning Nevada's community colleges to a new, independent authority to focus on making Nevadans' job ready. Community colleges, together with union apprenticeship programs, are critical elements in building Nevada's workforce and economic future. The COVID-19 pandemic has changed the way we work, with remote work opportunities doubling by 2025. Nevada must be ready to take advantage of this trend, which is why I am establishing the new Remote Work Resource Center to connect Nevada workers with job opportunities across the globe.

Fourth, is building our infrastructure. Infrastructure creates real jobs for real people and allows us to put hundreds of millions of dollars into our economy. Capital projects not only create high-paying construction and development jobs now but also those infrastructure improvements serve as the building blocks for our State's economic expansion for decades to come. The budget I unveiled yesterday includes $75 million for future capital improvement projects to launch the State Infrastructure Bank. We can leverage outside capital to fund important infrastructure projects like rural broadband, renewable energy and road improvements. I am calling on State agencies and local governments to fast track billions of dollars of infrastructure projects that have not been started. The faster we move these projects from the list of things we need to do to the list of things we are doing, the more Nevadans we put to work.

Fifth, is making government work better. While public employees at every level of government worked around the clock to deal with the impact of the pandemic, we found that many of our government systems were out of date and overwhelmed. We need to fix them. This was painfully apparent with our Unemployment Insurance system. The Division was hit by unprecedented volume, going from handling 20,000 claims a week to 370,000 claims a week; a twenty-fold increase. That increase created delays that caused real hardships for families. By August, there were over 243,000 claims waiting to be verified in order to prevent fraud, fraud that would have cost businesses and taxpayers tens of millions of dollars. Today, the original backlog is reduced by 95 percent, and we now have more staff and improved systems to reduce the backlog completely. I want to thank Speaker Barbara Buckley, who chaired a Rapid Response Strike Force and Elisa Cafferata, acting Director of DETR, for their extraordinary service addressing this problem. Our computer infrastructure, however, is still outdated, and our systems need improvement. I am recommending to the Legislature that we work together to modernize and utilize private sector expertise to help Nevadans in need. More broadly, we need to recover the federal dollars that rightfully belong to Nevadans. My goal is to increase Nevada's share of federal grants by $100 million over the next 2 years and by $500 million annually by 2026. I will be working with Assemblywoman Daniele Monroe-Moreno and our federal delegation to do just that. Better systems, modernization, private sector help; more federal dollars are a big part of the path forward.

I want to thank State Treasurer Zach Conine, the Governor's Office of Economic Development, and countless others who have helped develop this ambitious economic plan. Once implemented, it will create 30,000 jobs in the short term. Over the next decade, it will create 170,000 construction and development jobs and over 165,000 permanent jobs.

I believe in this State and our future. We will support our current industries like tourism, while developing new industries, embracing innovation, providing workforce training, and investing in infrastructure to create a more robust and sustainable economy. We will emerge stronger from this pandemic and lead the Nation in jobs and opportunity.

Now, I would like to talk to you about the State budget. Honestly, putting together a budget for the next two years is hard enough in the good times and even more difficult during a state of emergency. Analysts and economists have different projections. Markets are volatile. Business is uncertain. This budget, therefore, reflects the current emergency. Just like your family, the State will take a responsible approach to reflect today's reality. The fact is the State's financial situation has improved slightly in the past few months. The Economic Forum's December revenue projection for the next biennium is $8.5 billion, which is $418 million more than was projected in June 2020 during the Special Session, when significant budget cuts were made. For perspective, prior to the pandemic, projections were indicating we would have $9 billion to spend in this budget. We are in an improved, yet still difficult position. Our fiscal situation has improved due to the decisions we have made over the last ten months working to strike a balance between protecting public health and protecting our fragile economy.

Here are a few important items I want to tell you about the budget. We are anticipating General Fund revenue of $4.1 billion in Fiscal Year 2022, nearly 9 percent less than the previous year. To avoid even deeper cuts, I am proposing the use of nearly $100 million dollars from the State's existing Rainy Day Fund. If our current situation is not a downpour, I cannot imagine what would be.
This budget reflects $187.2 million less than the previous budget including the elimination of 152 vacant State positions over the next 2 years. The COVID-19 pandemic and the unknown economic impact required State employees to do more with less, including required furloughs for the second half of fiscal year 2021. My recommended budget will not include a continuation of furloughs into the next biennium. My budget also prioritizes the health and well-being of State employees and their health benefits in a time when health is wealth.

While this budget makes tough reductions, it also contains smart investments in the essential priorities I outlined earlier, including restoring nearly $40 million in funding for preschool and $415 million dedicated for construction, maintenance, planning and economic development. These projects will create thousands of jobs. In order to stop talking about our doctor shortage and actually do something about it, I am proposing a $25 million, one-time expenditure to help complete the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Medical School Building, a school that could generate as many as 16,000 jobs over the next ten years.

Finally, in a time when one in four Nevadans are enrolled in Medicaid, access to quality healthcare is critically important to the public and economic health of our State. During the 31st Special Session, when things looked very bleak, the Legislature was forced to make 6-percent cuts to Medicaid rates and reduce neonatal intensive care unit hospital service rates. However, as a result of the efforts we have made, our revenue never went as low as our worst projections. This is why my recommended budget calls on the Legislature to restore the rate reductions to support Nevada families and providers.

I look forward to working with the Legislature to adjust this budget and make responsible revisions. I am hopeful that long, overdue federal support to state and local governments will be delivered in the coming months. That support is critical, and it is outrageous it has not arrived already.

This will be a dynamic process, but an important one as we work to recover, educate our kids, promote justice and equality, and most importantly now, protect the health of our people. I look forward to signing legislation that creates jobs, saves the State money, and improves outcomes. That is what Nevadans expect us to focus on, and that is what they deserve. To all of the parents, students and educators out there, I know this has been a particularly tough time. None of us have ever faced anything like COVID-19. Just ask Juliana Urtubey, Nevada's Teacher of the Year, who joins us tonight.

It is easy to forget what life was like before masks and social distancing. I want to pause for a moment and take this opportunity to give a big shout-out to those who educate our young people. Nevada educators deserve credit for handling the adjustments needed to educate our kids while keeping everyone healthy and safe. When our schools shifted from in-person learning to virtual or online learning, our business people gained a new appreciation for the valuable role schools play in helping to keep our economy humming. One other thing became even more apparent; COVID-19 has exacerbated educational inequities, further expanding the gap between have and have-nots. On top of that, the lack of access to in-person learning has resulted in an increase in mental and behavioral health problems for our youth. It is unacceptable and harmful to our children, and we need to fix it.

The disparities and inequities became obvious not only in education but also in all facets of our society. The Legislature and all Nevadans must take on this important work. I want to take a moment to recognize Senator Joe Neal, who was a true champion for social justice, equality and opportunity. He held us all accountable in the work we do here and in our State. We have lost a powerful Nevada voice.

As many of you know, I have not been quiet about my urgent desire to see children return to in-person learning. We will not recover as a State if we leave our children behind. I will do whatever it takes to get our students back in the classroom. That is why we worked to supply PPE, ensure rapid testing was made available to all school districts and now prioritize our educators for vaccinations. With a new infusion of federal funds, I will continue to work with State Superintendent Jhone Ebert and local leaders to finish the job and get all of our kids, in every area of the State, returned to in-person learning. That is the immediate priority, but we also need to look at solving the longstanding challenges facing our schools.

Two years ago, in the 2019 Legislative Session, we began the process of modernizing Nevada's 53-year-old education funding formula. We took a significant step in the right direction with the creation of the Pupil-Centered Funding Plan. Education funding should be allocated to meet each student's learning needs. The dollars should follow the students, rather than being connected to districts or schools. To accomplish this, we established the Commission on School Funding including parents, educators, and financial experts. The Nevada Department of Education has been working with the Commission to promote equity, transparency, accountability and flexibility in our school funding approach.

In light of this emergency budget, I am recommending a phased approach to implementing this plan that begins during the 2021-2023 biennium using only State revenues, followed by phase 2 in the next biennium that will include both State and local revenues. This phased-in approach will allow school districts to manage resources to meet the needs of their communities.

My budget also ensures Marijuana Tax dollars will continue to fund education to ensure districts can meet the needs of students during the pandemic and into the future.

I would like to close tonight with 2 personal thoughts. First, I want to thank my family for their unending support: my mother, Mary; my two daughters, Carley and Ashley, and, of course, First Lady Kathy Sisolak. We recently celebrated our two-year anniversary, and it allowed me to reflect on what a lucky man I am for having her by my side during one of the most difficult years in Nevada’s history. Kathy, thank you. I love you.

Second, I want to address the division and polarization gripping our Country. It must end. It is breaking down trust in our institutions and threatening our ability to solve the problems we face. This is America. This is Nevada, and we need to pull together. Tonight, I have asked leaders from both parties to join me. We do not always agree, but when it comes to the big challenges facing our State, the economic recession, One October, and now the pandemic, we work together for a stronger Nevada.

Now, I am asking all Nevadans to join me in giving thanks to the over 200 Nevada National Guardsmen currently in Washington, D.C. from Nevada. We can do this. We are determined. We are resilient, and we are strong. Speaker Frierson, thank you for hosting me in the Nevada Assembly Chamber tonight.

Thank you all. God bless you, and let us get back to work.

WHEREAS, The Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution prohibits any state from denying to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Supreme Court has interpreted the requirement of Section 21 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution that “all laws shall be general and of uniform operation throughout the State” to be coextensive with the guarantees of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, The generality of the language used in the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Section 21 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution has allowed the Judicial branches of the Federal and State governments to establish a hierarchy within the persons entitled to the protection of the laws; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court has recognized that each individual state may adopt its own constitution and provide its citizens more expansive individual liberties than those provided by the Federal Constitution; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of this State wishes to strictly guarantee the equality of rights under law to certain persons within its jurisdiction; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That a new section, designated Section 24, be added to Article 1 of the Nevada Constitution to read as follows:

Sec. 24. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by this State or any of its political subdivisions on account of race, color, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, ancestry or national origin.

Senator Ohrenschall moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections.
Motion carried.
By the Committee of the Whole:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 1 of the 32nd Special Session—Proposing to amend the Nevada Constitution to revise provisions governing the taxation of minerals extracted in this State and to require the Legislature to provide by law for a program to make payments to eligible persons in this State from a portion of the tax on the proceeds of minerals.

RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That Section 5 of Article 10 of the Nevada Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. 1. The Legislature shall provide by law for the taxation of mines, mining claims and the proceeds of all minerals, including oil, gas and other hydrocarbons, extracted in this State.

2. In addition to any other taxes provided by law, for each calendar year beginning on or after January 1, 2023, a tax is hereby imposed upon the [net] gross proceeds of all minerals, including oil, gas and other hydrocarbons, extracted in this [state] State during a calendar year, at a rate [not to exceed 5 percent of the net] of 7.75 percent of the gross proceeds. No other tax may be imposed upon a mineral or its proceeds until the identity of the proceeds as such is lost.

3. The legislature shall appropriate to each county that sum which would be produced by levying a tax upon the entire amount of the net proceeds taxed in each taxing district in the county at the rate levied in that district upon the assessed valuation of real property. The total amount so appropriated to each county must be apportioned among the respective governmental units and districts within it, including the county itself and the school districts, in the same proportion as they share in the total taxes collected on property according to value, unless the Legislature increases or reduces the rate of the tax by a law enacted in accordance with subsection 5.

4. Each patented mine or mining claim must be assessed and taxed as other real property is assessed and taxed, except that no value may be attributed to any mineral known or believed to underlie it, and no value may be attributed to the surface of a mine or claim if one hundred dollars’ worth of labor has been actually performed on the mine or claim during the year preceding the assessment. Fifty percent of any money collected by the State from the tax imposed pursuant to subsection 2 on the gross proceeds of minerals extracted in this State must be segregated in proper accounts in the State Treasury and, in accordance with appropriations made by law, used exclusively to fund a program established pursuant to subsection 4.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution:
(a) A majority of all the members elected to each House is necessary to pass any provision of a bill that enacts or amends any law providing for the taxation of mines, mining claims or the proceeds of minerals, including oil, gas and other hydrocarbons, extracted in this State, if the provision creates, generates or increases any public revenue in any form, including, without limitation, any provision of a bill that increases the rate of the tax imposed pursuant to subsection 2.

(b) An affirmative vote of not fewer than two-thirds of the members elected to each House is necessary to pass a bill which provides for an exemption from or a reduction in the rate of the tax imposed pursuant to subsection 2 with respect to the gross proceeds of minerals extracted in this State during a calendar year by a class of persons extracting such minerals or with respect to the gross proceeds of a type of mineral extracted in this State during a calendar year.

And be it further

Rule No. 39. Authority of Senate and Assembly to Adopt Ethical Standards and Prohibit and Sanction Ethical Breaches.

1. The Senate and Assembly hereby find and declare that:
   (a) Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management, expressly providing that: “Each House shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers (except the President of the Senate), determine the rules of its proceedings and may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elected, expel a member.” (Heller v. Legislature, 120 Nev. 456 (2004); Commission on Ethics v. Hardy, 125 Nev. 285 (2009); Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure §§ 2-3 and 560-564 (2010) (Mason’s Manual))
   (b) Section 7 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to govern, control and regulate any person who is not a member
but who is guilty of disrespect to the House by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence, and each House also has inherent powers, according to the common parliamentary law, to prohibit and sanction all offensive behavior committed against it by any person who is not a member. (Mason’s Manual §§ 805-806; Luther S. Cushing, Elements of the Law & Practice of Legislative Assemblies §§ 690-695 (1856) (Cushing’s Legislative Assemblies))

(c) In addition to its other powers, each House possesses certain inherent powers of institutional self-protection and self-preservation to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management. (In re Chapman, 166 U.S. 661, 668 (1897); Mason’s Manual § 2; Cushing’s Legislative Assemblies § 533)

(d) The inherent powers of each House are considered “so essential to the authority of a legislative assembly, that it cannot well exist without them; and they are consequently entitled to be regarded as belonging to every such assembly as a necessary incident.” (Cushing’s Legislative Assemblies § 533)

(e) The inherent powers of each House authorize it to take all necessary and proper institutional actions that are “recognized by the common parliamentary law.” (Cushing’s Legislative Assemblies § 533)

(f) Thus, it is well established that each House is “vested with all the powers and privileges which are necessary and incidental to a free and unobstructed exercise of its appropriate functions. These powers and privileges are derived not from the Constitution; on the contrary, they arise from the very creation of a legislative body, and are founded upon the principle of self-preservation.” (Ex parte McCarthy, 29 Cal. 395, 403 (1866))

2. The Senate and Assembly hereby exercise their constitutional and inherent powers and adopt the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in the Joint Standing Rules to:

(a) Establish ethical standards to regulate the behavior and conduct of persons who participate in the legislative process; and

(b) Prohibit and sanction ethical breaches.
