

THE FIFTY-FOURTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Friday), March 26, 2021

Senate called to order at 11:33 a.m.

President Marshall presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Don Baumann.

Gracious God, we thank You for the richness of the heritage that we received from the family in which we grew up. We also thank You for the vibrancy that diverse cultures add to our own lives and to our State.

Today, we think of our friends, family, neighbors and colleagues of Asian descent and thank You for each one of them. We are grateful as we reflect on the significant contributions of Asian Americans in the history of Nevada, their vital ongoing role and their engaging cultures.

Most of all, we treasure the individuals we do not regard as Asian Americans, our family and dear friends. Our hearts are deeply troubled by the rising tide of violence against Asian Americans throughout our Nation. We ask that You protect the Asian communities in our State. May we stand together strongly against all hatred directed toward them, along with other ethnic communities. Help us to reassure our Asian-American family, friends, neighbors and colleagues that they are loved, respected and valued.

We ask this in the Name of our Creator, the Lord Jesus.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

By previous order of the Senate, the reading of the Journal is dispensed with, and the President and Secretary are authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.
