

THE EIGHTY-FIRST DAY

CARSON CITY (Thursday), April 22, 2021

Senate called to order at 11:32 a.m.

President Marshall presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Father Thomas Babu.

Almighty and eternal Light of the World, You are, indeed, the source of mercy and compassion. You hear the cry of the poor. You suffer with those who feel the indifference of the world. Grant us a renewed commitment to stand with You and in You for life and love, hope and healing, mercy and compassion. Help us value the dignity of the human person from the unborn to those on death row. Help us see each person, regardless of one's past mistakes or failures, as a precious member of our human family, worthy of love and compassion. We pray for all who are merciful and compassionate as they are instruments of Your tender mercy and unconditional love.

Help our Senators of this Great State to be compassionate leaders. Help them stand committed to building a world based on Your covenant of love and life. Encourage them to be kind and merciful in giving second chances to the downtrodden. While the global pandemic has caused much anxiety and suffering, let Your people be a beacon of hope and a sign of peace as we heal our divisions and work together to end the pandemic.

In the Holy Name of our Creator, we pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

By previous order of the Senate, the reading of the Journal is dispensed with, and the President and Secretary are authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.
