

THE EIGHTY-EIGHTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), November 29, 2022

Senate called to order at 11:47 a.m.

President Marshall presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Bruce Henderson.

A well-known Bible app has recently announced that the most read Bible verse during this last year was Isaiah 41:10. "Fear not, for I am with you, be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand."

Father, we have been going through months of weakness, uncertainty and fear. Thank You, today, for these promises of Your presence, strength and victory. Please keep us focused and compassionate during the road ahead.

I pray in the Name of my Savior.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

By previous order of the Senate, the reading of the Journal is dispensed with, and the President and Secretary are authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Senator Cannizzaro requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal.

As most of you know, the Nevada Senate Hall of Fame was created in 1989 to recognize individuals who were former members of the Senate and who made significant contributions to the State not only as members of this Body but also in their other endeavors. The portraits of previous inductees hang on the walls outside this Chamber.

Today, I am pleased to announce that the two inductees for the Senate Hall of Fame for 2021 are former Senators David R. Parks, who represented Clark County, and Mark E. Amodei, who represented Carson City, Douglas, Lyon and Storey Counties.

Senator Parks served a total of 24 years in the Nevada Legislature, 12 years in the Assembly and 12 years in the Senate. He served as Assembly Assistant Majority Whip in the 1999 Regular Session and as Assembly Assistant Majority Floor Leader during the 2001 Regular Session. In the Senate, he was President pro Tempore in the 2013 Regular Session and in both the 2013 and 2014 Special Sessions. He served in 12 Legislative Sessions and 16 Special Sessions. That places him in a tie with Assemblywoman Maggie Carlton for having served in the most Special Sessions. While in the Assembly, he was Chair of Assembly Government Affairs in 2005, Chair of Assembly Taxation in 2007 and the Chair of the Select Committee on Corrections, Parole and Probation also in 2007. He served on the Assembly Committees on Commerce, Constitutional Amendments, Growth and Infrastructure, Labor and Management, Transportation and Ways and Means. He was equally active in the Senate serving as Chair of Senate Government Affairs in 2013, 2017 and 2019, Chair of Legislative Operations and Elections in 2011 and Chair of Natural Resources in 2009. Additionally, he served on the Senate Committees on Commerce and Labor, Finance, Judiciary and Revenue and Economic Development.

Our second inductee, Senator Mark E. Amodei, served a total of 14 years in the Nevada Legislature, two years in the Assembly and 12 years in the Senate. He served as Senate Assistant Majority Whip in the 1999 and 2001 Regular Sessions. He served as the Senate's President pro Tempore in the 2003 Regular Session and in both of the 2003 Special Sessions. He held that same position in the 2004 Special Session, the 2005 Regular Session, the 2005 Special Session, the 2007 Regular Session, the 2007 Special Session and the first 2008 Special Session. For those of you keeping track, he was President pro Tempore for three regular and six Special Sessions. Senator Amodei served on the Assembly Committees on Commerce, Government Affairs, Health and Human Services and Transportation. He served as Chair of the Senate Committee on Judiciary during the 2003, 2005 and 2007 Sessions. He also served on the Senate Committees on Commerce and Labor, Human Resources and Facilities, Natural Resources, Taxation and Transportation. He has been representing Nevada's 2nd District in the U.S. House of Representatives since 2011.

Furthermore, both Senator Parks and Senator Amodei served on numerous interim commissions, committees and councils for the betterment of Nevada.

Please mark May 24th on your calendars as the date on which we will induct former Senators David Parks and Mark Amodei into the Senate Hall of Fame.

Senator Cannizzaro moved that the Senate adjourn until Monday, May 3, 2021, at 11:00 a.m.

Motion carried.

Senate adjourned at 12:06 p.m.

Approved:

KATE MARSHALL
President of the Senate

Attest: CLAIRE J. CLIFT
Secretary of the Senate
