City/County: Clark County Approved by: Damon Harris, Deputy Director of Finance Comment: Bill N/A to County departments. Not able to quantify the frequency individuals would be in violation of the sections that define criminal penalties, but it's estimated that there'd be no material impact to detention operations based on the proposed charges.

It will certainly require staff hours of preparation and involvement and may require the addition of a position or overtime hours.

Comment: Minimal fiscal impact expected. Appears that reports will be submitted to the Inspector General of Education instead of the Department of Taxation. Minimal cost, but unable to determine how much, for posting the hotline information throughout at sites.
