

NEVADA LEGISLATURE

Eighty-Second Session, 2023

ASSEMBLY DAILY JOURNAL

THE NINETY-SECOND DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), May 8, 2023

Assembly called to order at 12:13 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Gavin Jarvis.

God, we come before You as the Creator who made the world and everything in it. You are the Lord of heaven and earth, and do not live in houses made by man. You have no needs. You give to all mankind life and breath and every good and perfect gift. Your word says that You have determined the times and the places that we live on this earth so that through Your kindness, we would seek the God who made us.

This means that these Assembly members are not here by accident, but that it is Your will for them to live in Nevada in 2023 and that to each of them You offer the good gifts necessary for them to fulfill their office this week, so that they would see Your goodness and that they would serve Nevada well.

And so for these Assembly members and all of their staff, I pray that the final weeks of this session would be marked by Your gracious gifts. I continue to pray for their health and endurance, for wisdom in all of the work being done in committees and on this floor, and that wherever they turn their attention, their decisions would lead to the wellbeing and welfare of our state and for each of their districts. Bless all of them as they continue their day with each other. I pray this in Jesus' name.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblywoman Jauregui moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, May 4, 2023

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4.

SHERRY L. RODRIGUEZ
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Joint Resolution No. 5.

Resolution read.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Gorelow.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GORELOW:

Senate Joint Resolution 5 urges the United States Congress to expand the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program and the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children to cover the purchase of menstrual products.

Roll call on Senate Joint Resolution No. 5:

YEAS—42.

NAYS—None.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 5 having received a constitutional majority, Mr. Speaker declared it passed.

Resolution ordered transmitted to the Senate.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 4.

Assemblywoman Anderson moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Anderson.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN ANDERSON:

I ask that this body adopt the Concurrent Resolution as it will honor a great Nevadan as well as somebody who has dedicated her life to our Chamber.

There was nothing quite like seeing Pat when you came into an office. I know many of us would recognize her if you saw a picture of her. There was always a twinkle in her eye; she was a little bit mischievous. That gentle smile was encouraging, which is an example of every educator who has ever lived. She was somebody who believed in everyone. She believed in the positives in life. She was the most caring individual you could possibly imagine. When I spoke with a few friends of hers, that is basically what came out. She had this patience—yet every once in a while, the Irish temper would come out, too, I am not going to lie. I saw it once or twice when I might have had a little bit too much to drink at a sine die party, but that is another story.

Pat Hutson was always a true professional. She knew the most important thing, though, was not just about the laws we were enacting but also the connection to each other. When you would ask her, Did you always want to be a teacher? She would come back with, Well, when I decide to grow up. She never grew up. She had this infectious love of people, and that is exactly why she was a great teacher, a great friend, a great mother, and that is something we should all try to be. I ask that you support Senate Concurrent Resolution 4..

Resolution adopted.
