

THE THIRD DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), February 08, 2023

Senate called to order at 11:14 a.m.

President Anthony presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Father Jeff Paul.

O Lord our God, known by many names, bless the leaders of our land in these winter days, that we may be a people at peace among ourselves and a blessing to other nations of the earth.

To all staff in administrative authority, grant wisdom and grace in the exercise of their duties.

To our Senators, here present, and those who make laws in our State, cities and towns, give courage, wisdom and foresight to provide for the needs of all our people and to fulfill our obligations in the community of nations.

Give grace to Your servants here present.

In Your Name, we pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Senator Cannizzaro moved that, for the remainder of the 82nd Legislative Session, the reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the President and Secretary be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried unanimously.

By Senator Titus:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 1—Proposing to amend the Nevada Constitution to revise provisions relating to elections involving incumbent justices or judges who are unopposed.

RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That Section 4 of Article 5 of the Nevada Constitution be amended to read as follows:

~~Section~~ Sec. 4. The returns of every election for United States senator and member of Congress, district and state officers, and for and against any questions submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada, voted for at the general election, shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government, directed to the secretary of state . ~~¶~~ ~~and the~~ The chief justice of the supreme court, and the associate justices, or a majority thereof, shall meet at the office of the secretary of state, on a day to be fixed by law, and open and canvass the election returns for United States senator and member of Congress, district and state officers, and for and against any questions submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada, and forthwith declare the result and publish the names of the persons elected and the results of the vote cast upon any question submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada. ~~¶The~~ Except as otherwise provided in this section, the persons having the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected, but in case any two or more have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the legislature shall, by joint vote of both houses, elect one of said persons to fill said office. If, in an election for a judicial office in the Supreme Court, the court of appeals or a district court, an incumbent justice or judge, as applicable, is not opposed by another candidate and the number of votes for retaining the justice or judge is greater than the number of votes against retaining the justice or judge, then the justice or judge shall be declared elected, but if the number of votes against retaining the justice or judge is greater than the number of votes for retaining the justice or judge, then no person shall be declared elected for the office and the office must be filled for the term to which the election pertains in accordance with the provisions of Section 20 of Article 6 as if the vacancy had occurred before the expiration of the term of the office.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That Section 3 of Article 6 of the Nevada Constitution be amended to read as follows:

~~See~~ Sec. 3. The justices of the Supreme Court ~~¶~~ shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State at the general election, and shall hold office for the term of six years from and including the first Monday of January next succeeding their election; provided, that there shall be elected, at the first election under this Constitution, three justices of the Supreme Court who shall hold office from and including the first Monday of December A.D., eighteen hundred and sixty four, and continue in office thereafter, two, four and six years respectively, from and including the first Monday of January next succeeding their election. They shall meet as soon as practicable after their election and qualification, and at their first meeting shall determine by lot, the term of office each shall fill, and the justice drawing the shortest term shall be Chief Justice, and after the expiration of his term, the one having the next shortest term shall be Chief Justice, after which the senior justice in commission shall be Chief Justice; and in case the commission of any two or more of said justices shall bear the same date, they shall determine by lot, who shall be Chief Justice. If an incumbent justice seeks election to the office that he or she holds and is not opposed by another candidate, then the ballot for the election of that office must offer a voter only the choice to “Retain” or “Not Retain” the incumbent justice.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That Section 3A of Article 6 of the Nevada Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3A. 1. The court of appeals consists of three judges or such greater number as the Legislature may provide by law. If the number of judges is so increased, the Supreme Court must provide by rule for the assignment of each appeal to a panel of three judges for decision.

2. After the initial terms, each judge of the court of appeals must be elected by the qualified electors of this State at the general election for a term of 6 years beginning on the first Monday of January next after the election. The initial three judges of the court of appeals must be appointed by the Governor from among three nominees selected for each individual seat by the permanent Commission on Judicial Selection described in subsection 3 of section 20 of this Article. After the expiration of 30 days from the date on which the permanent Commission on Judicial Selection has delivered to the Governor its list of nominees for the initial judges, if the Governor has not made the appointments required by this Section, the Governor shall make no other appointment to any public office until the Governor has appointed a judge from the list submitted. The term of the initial judges is 2 years beginning on the first Monday of January next after the effective date of this Section, and an initial judge may succeed himself. If an incumbent judge seeks election to the office that he or she holds and is not opposed by another candidate, then the ballot for the election of that office must offer a voter only the choice to “Retain” or “Not Retain” the incumbent judge. If there is an increase in the number of judges, each additional judge must be elected by the qualified electors of this State at the first general election following the increase for a term of 6 years beginning on the first Monday of January next after the election.

3. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall appoint one of the judges of the court of appeals to be chief judge. The chief judge serves a term of 4 years, except that the term of the initial chief judge is 2 years. The chief judge may succeed himself. The chief judge may resign the position of chief judge without resigning from the court of appeals.

4. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for the assignment of one or more judges of the court of appeals to devote a part of their time to serve as supplemental district judges, where needed.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That Section 5 of Article 6 of the Nevada Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. The State is hereby divided into nine judicial districts of which the County of Storey shall constitute the First; The County of Ormsby the Second; the County of Lyon the Third; The County of Washoe the Fourth; The Counties of Nye and Churchill the Fifth; The County of Humboldt the Sixth; The County of Lander the Seventh; The County of Douglas the Eighth; and the County of Esmeralda the Ninth. The County of Roop shall be attached to the County of Washoe for judicial purposes until otherwise provided by law. The Legislature may, however, provide by law for an alteration in the boundaries or divisions of the districts herein prescribed, and also for increasing or diminishing the number of the judicial districts and judges therein. But no such change shall take effect, except in case of a vacancy, or the expiration of the term of an incumbent of the office. At the first general election under this Constitution there shall be elected in each of the respective districts (except as in this Section hereafter otherwise provided) one district judge, who shall hold office from and including the first Monday of December A.D., eighteen hundred and sixty four and until the first Monday of January in the year eighteen hundred and sixty seven. After the said first election, there shall be elected at the general election which immediately precedes the expiration of the term of his predecessor, one district judge in each of the respective judicial districts (except in the First District as in this Section hereinafter provided.) The district judges shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective districts, and shall hold office for the term of 6 years (excepting those elected at said first election) from and including the first Monday of January, next succeeding their election and qualification; provided, that the First Judicial District shall be entitled to, and shall have three district judges, who shall possess co-extensive and concurrent jurisdiction, and who shall be elected at the same times, in the same manner, and shall hold office for the like terms as herein prescribed, in relation to the judges in other judicial districts, any one of said judges may preside on the empanneling [empanneling] of grand juries and the presentment and trial on indictments, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by law. If an incumbent judge seeks election to the office that he or she holds and is not opposed by another candidate, then the ballot for the election of that office must offer a voter only the choice to "Retain" or "Not Retain" the incumbent judge.

And be it further
