GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
CARSON CITY, March 20, 1895. }

To the Honorable the Secretary of State of Nevada:

SIR: I have the honor to herewith file in your office to be laid by you before the Legislature of Nevada at its next session, Assembly Bill No. 67 entitled "An Act allowing the payment of taxes in equal semi-annual installments, and regulating the collection of taxes on personal property," without my approval. My objections to the bill are as follows:

First—It is to my mind impracticable in its provisions, and does not and will not meet with any favor from the average taxpayer in this State, and if tested in the Courts would be declared inoperative and void.

Second—It would be in conflict with the revenue laws now in force in many respects, and would greatly retard the collection of taxes by such conflict.

Third—Its provisions are obvious and to my mind will result in no practical benefit to the general taxpayer, although possibly it might be of advantage to those of the wealthier class, of whom, unfortunately, Nevada at present holds but few within her borders, and as just legislation is intended to be the "greatest good to the greatest number," and believing as I do, I withhold my approval to said bill. Very respectfully submitted,

JOHN E. JONES, Governor.

At the conclusion of the reading of the bill, the question was put, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the Governor's veto?" and was passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen of Churchill, Allen of Eureka, Benton, Bradshaw, Burchfield, Fallon, Ferguson, Fitzgerald, Foster, Gilbert, Greene, Hodgkinson, Hoenstine, Lemmon, Lernhart, McNaughten, Norcross, Oliver, Reymers, Stoddard, Whitney, Wilkerson and Wogan—23.

NAYS—Messrs. Dempsey, Hardesty, Hatch, McAfee, Smiley and Trembath—6.

Absent—Mr. Garrard.

The bill having received a constitutional majority it was declared passed.

Assembly Bill No. 162 of the Seventeenth Session of the Nevada Legislature, and vetoed by the Governor, taken up, the title of which is as follows: "An Act to encourage industry." Introduced by the Committee on Mines and Mining, March 12, 1895.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
CARSON CITY, March 20, 1895. }

To the Honorable the Secretary of State of Nevada:

SIR: I have the honor to herewith file in your office, to be laid by you before the Legislature of Nevada at its next session, Assembly Bill No. 162, entitled "An Act to encourage the mining industry in the State of Nevada," without my approval.

My objections are as follows: The bill, as framed, is ambiguous, unintelligible and uncertain on account of its ungrammatical construction. By reason of these defects I would consider that if approved it would be ineffective and void, and for these reasons I withhold my approval thereof. Very respectfully submitted,

JOHN E. JONES,
Governor.

At the conclusion of the reading of the Governor's veto, the question was put before the House, "Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the Governor's veto?" and decided by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Dempsey.

NAYS—Messrs. Allen of Eureka, Benton, Bradshaw, Burchfield, Fallon, Ferguson, Fitzgerald, Foster, Gilbert, Greene, Hardesty, Hatch, Hodgkinson, Hoenstine, Lemmon, Lernhart, McNaughten, Norcross, Oliver, Reymers, Stoddard, Trembath, Whitney, Wilkerson, Wogan and Mr. Speaker—23.

Absent—Mr. Garrard.

Not voting—Messrs. McAfee and Smiley—2.

The bill failing to receive a constitutional majority, the Governor's veto was sustained.

Assembly Bill No. 95 of the Seventeenth Session of the Legislature of the State of Nevada, vetoed by the Governor, was then taken up, by title as follows: "An Act providing for the location, recording and working of mines and mineral deposits and for other purposes."

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
CARSON CITY, March 22, 1895. }

To the Honorable the Secretary of State of Nevada:

SIR: I have the honor to herewith file in your office to be laid by you before the Legislature of Nevada at its next session Assembly Bill No. 95 entitled "An Act for the location, recording and working of mines and mineral deposits and for other purposes," without my approval.

My objections are as follows: This proposed bill is an attempt to make new and strange requirements for the locating, prospecting and establishing valid, lode and placer mining claims, which is inconsistent and subversive to the mining laws of the United States now in force, and the rights of miners of each mining district to make regulations not in conflict with United States mining laws governing the location, manner of recording, amount of work necessary and the manner in which it is to be performed in order to hold possession of mining claims. Also, the manner of locating placer claims as defined in this bill would be in direct contravention and in violation of the laws of the United States governing the same by substituting in this bill the word "acres" instead of "feet."

The provisions of the whole bill is intended, to my mind, and is embodied in the last portion of the title, "and for other purposes," which means the promotion and the causing of endless litigation, if approved, over questions which have already been so well established in our courts, and are generally understood by miners and prospectors; and any interference with them would, in my judgment, lead to confusion and trouble. I therefore withhold my approval. Very respectfully submitted,

JOHN E. JONES,
Governor.

At the conclusion of the reading of the Governor's veto message, the question was put before the House, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the Governor's veto?" and decided by the following vote:

YEAS—None.

NAYS—Messrs. Allen, Benton, Bradshaw, Burchfield, Fallon, Ferguson, Fitzgerald, Foster, Gilbert, Greene, Hatch, Hodgkinson, Hoenstine, Lemmon, Lernhart, McAfee, McNaughten, Norcross, Oliver, Reymers, Stoddard, Trembath, Whitney, Wilkerson, Wogan and Mr. Speaker—26.

Absent—Mr. Garrard.

Not voting—Messrs. Dempsey, Hardesty and Smiley—3.

The bill having failed to receive a constitutional majority the Governor's veto was sustained.

Mr. Hatch moved that the House adjourn.

Carried.

House adjourned until 11 A. M. Thursday.

Approved:

L. ALLEN,
Speaker of the Assembly.

Attest: N. W. ROFF,
Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE NEVADA HOSPITAL FOR MENTAL DISEASES.

RENO, NEVADA, January 24, 1897.

To the Honorable Legislature of the State of Nevada :

GENTLEMEN: In times past, it has been the custom to extend an invitation to your honorable body to visit the Hospital en masse and enjoy its hospitality.

The natural bend of my inclination would be to continue the practice and to surpass all previous efforts at entertainment. But, unfortunately, the visit of a large number of persons with its accompanying noise, bustle and excitement, is positively injurious to many of the inmates; hence, a sense of duty compels me to forego the pleasure such proceedings would afford me.

However, it would give me great satisfaction to meet as many of your honorable body as may from time to time visit Reno, either during the session or in its intervals.

A telephone circuit, having its central station at Lake's book store, Virginia street, connects the Hospital with the town, and if at any time any of your honorable body, desiring to visit the Hospital, will notify me through this source, I shall be pleased to place a vehicle at your disposal, and enable you to see everything in and about the institution, and afford you every opportunity to acquire any and all information you may desire, either as citizens or law-makers.

Every Saturday evening between 7 and 9 o'clock we have a dancing party, to which you are cordially invited. With highest consideration, sincerely yours,

H. BERGSTEIN,
Superintendent.

SPECIAL ORDER—ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATOR.

Nominations were declared in order.

Mr. Trembath placed in nomination the Honorable John P. Jones, with the following remarks:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Assembly:

I rise to nominate our present Senator, a gentleman whose twenty-four years of eminent service in the Senate of the United States "has won golden opinions from all sorts of people." For his fidelity to the special interests of the State, the purple toga has been placed upon his shoulders for four successive terms.

True, he has always been returned to the Senate as a Republican by the Republican party of the State. It was his pride to be a member of that great political organization. He had seen it use its mighty strength to break the chains of bondage. He had watched it struggling through the wilderness of reconstruction; had been an active participant in all its great achievements, and had shared the disappointments of its reverses; a sagacious adviser in its councils, a zealous supporter of all its measures of reform. But when that great political organization departed from the wholesome traditions of the fathers, when, as a climax to its perfidy, it set up the golden calf and prostrated itself before it, then, gentlemen, his thoughts reverted to the people of his State, and his generous heart rebelled. And so he turned his face toward the rugged mountain of the law, and with patience, zeal and intrepidity wended his way toward the source of truth and righteousness.

A man of lofty ideas and of great and noble purposes; a shining light among his fellow men. A master of the great questions of political economy, the uncompromising champion of a financial system that will bring the greatest good to the greatest number of people, a deliver in the deep mines of philosophy, a patient student of nature's mute inexorable laws; in him we recognize the profound thinker, the logical reasoner, the eminent orator, a man who in the Senate of the United States will constantly reflect the wisdom of your choice, and crown himself with honor. And now, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, for the exalted position of United States Senator, I submit to your consideration the name of the Hon. John P. Jones of Storey county.

The nomination was seconded by Mr. Norcross with the following remarks:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Assembly:

It gives me great pleasure to second the nomination of that distinguished statesman, Hon. John P. Jones, for United States Senator from Nevada, and in seconding his nomination I desire to give some reasons why I believe his election, at this time, should be made unanimous.

The people of the State of Nevada, almost without exception, have declared that the question of the free and unlimited coinage of silver is paramount to all others. The Silver Party of this State, which has been placed in control of all branches of State and county government, has for its only object the promotion of the silver cause, a question, the proper solution of which, we believe, lies at the foundation of the prosperity of this Nation and of the entire world.

We have put aside every minor question and issue, in order that all who believe in the justice and necessity of our cause might unite and present to the enemy our front unbroken by petty questions; questions that pale into insignificance when compared with that greater one which touches the very perpetuity of our sacred institutions. This question of monetary reform is not limited by the narrow confines of Nevada, or even those of the United States. It is world-wide in its scope. Alone, we can expect nothing. We must unite with our sister States who believe as we do, and join forces with those who are the prime movers in our cause throughout the world. This idea was recognized by the great majority of the people of this State and forms the basic principle of the political party now dominant in Nevada.

We have laid aside all else for the sake of this one issue, and, by reason of this action, our influence has been felt the world over. Therefore, in the selection of a Senator to succeed the Honorable J. P. Jones, there is one question to be considered which overshadows all others, and the answer to that question, for the time being at least, must be the answer to all others. That question is: "What effect will our action to-day have upon this question, that we have said shall be uppermost until it is justly settled?" If, as I have said, our action was but local in its effect, it might be answered in different ways. But we are engaged in a struggle that has the Nation for its field, and in that struggle that is attracting the attention of the world, there is one man upon the side of the producing masses who towers above all others, who is recognized everywhere as the man whose genius, whose transcendent ability has made the money question almost an exact science, who has given the logic, the reasoning, the argument that cannot be answered, and which must eventually prevail because behind it all is the might of truth. That man is John P. Jones, who has earned the honor and rare distinction of being elected for the fifth time to the greatest representative body in the world.

It was my great pleasure to be an eye-witness of an occurrence upon the floor of the United States Senate which showed the esteem in which our distinguished Senator is held by his colleagues, an esteem accorded to but few and to none but statesmen of the highest rank. It was during the historical debate over the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman Act. The fight between the Senators who favored and opposed repeal was one of the most bitter in all the history of the Senate. Senator Voorhees, leader of the repeal forces, declared that the Senate should never adjourn until a vote was taken. Day and night the silver men kept up a ceaseless debate, but little attention was paid them, until at last it came to Senator Jones' time to take up the discussion where a worn-out colleague had left off. But no sooner had he commenced to speak than there was a change in the attitude of the Senate. Friend and foe came in to listen, until soon every Senator was in his seat, giving the speaker most earnest and undivided attention. A few hours later Senator Voorhees arose and asked if the Senator from Nevada would yield. Upon his doing so, Senator Voorhees said: "I desire to congratulate the Senator from Nevada upon his splendid contribution to the literature of this debate. The charm of what he has said has been enhanced by the personal affection all the members of this body bear to him. The Senator is tired and we are tired. We have been in continuous session for fifty-six hours out of the past seventy-seven, discharging a great public duty. I move to adjourn, in order that we at our best may hear the Senator at his best."

It is needless to say an adjournment was taken. If Senator Jones could command, under such circumstances, a tribute such as that from his fellow Senators, he must, indeed, be worthy their esteem and our gratitude.

We, his constituents, would show ourselves unmindful and unappreciative of his great efforts in behalf of our most vital interest did we not return him to the halls of Congress by unanimous vote.

Mr. Oliver then placed in nomination Mr. William McMillan of Storey county with appropriate remarks.

Mr. Hodgkinson seconded the nomination of Mr. McMillan. No further nominations appearing the nominations were declared closed, and the House proceeded to ballot for United States Senator with the following result:

Those voting for John P. Jones were: Messrs. Allen of Eureka, Benton, Bradshaw, Burchfield, Dempsey, Fallon, Ferguson, Fitzgerald, Foster, Gilbert, Garrard, Greene, Hardesty, Hatch, Hoenstine, Lemmon, Lernhart, McAfee, McNaughten, Norcross, Reymers, Smiley, Stoddard, Trembath, Whitney, Wilkerson, Wogan and Mr. Speaker—28.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
CARSON CITY, March 3, 1897. }

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform you that I have approved Assembly Bill No. 23—An Act to provide for the building, completion and equipment of a mechanical building and the completion and equipment of the gymnasium at the Nevada State University.

I find the same defect in the title of this bill as there is in Assembly Bill No. 45, to which I have directed your attention in another communication, but as the bill passed your honorable body by unanimous vote, I have approved it, as I do not deem it the duty of the Executive to withhold his approval under such circumstances and set his opinion above that of the representatives of the people in Legislature assembled. Very respectfully,

REINHOLD SADLER,
Lieutenant-Governor and Acting Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
CARSON CITY, March 3, 1897. }

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to report that I have approved Assembly Bill No. 45—An Act to provide for the deficiencies incurred in the building and furnishing of dormitories and for the construction of the annex for a mechanical building at the Nevada State University at Reno, Nevada.

I have withheld my approval of this bill until the last day allowed me by the Constitution, for the following reasons:

First—Because the State Board of Examiners found upon examination of the bills for material for furnishing the dormitories that a portion of the appropriation was not expended for the purposes authorized by the Act of 1895 to provide for the building and furnishing of dormitories at the State University. For instance, a sofa costing $68 in San Francisco, as is shown by the bill, can scarcely be deemed necessary furniture for a dormitory for either male or female students in an institution supported by the taxpayers of the State.

Second—Because the greater part of the deficiencies, amounting to over $9,000 in the aggregate, were incurred in direct violation of the spirit and letter of the Act appropriating public funds for the building and furnishing of dormitories at the State University, approved February 15, 1895, section four of which Act contains the following: "And in no case shall a contract be entered into which shall exceed the sum of $35,000 for the erection of said buildings and the furnishing of the same." This makes it clearly apparent that the deficiencies were incurred in direct violation of the Act authorizing the construction and furnishing of the dormitories.

Third—The Board of Examiners found that expenditures were made and contracts entered into without authority or direct ratification of the Board of Regents.

Fourth—While the bill provides for the issuance of bonds and the levying of taxes, no reference is made to either subject in its title as required by article four, section seventeen, of the Constitution.

Regardless of these facts, to which, as Chief Executive, I deem it my duty, however unpleasant it may be, to call your attention, I think it incumbent upon me to approve the bill, as it passed your honorable body by unanimous vote and I do not consider it the province of the Executive to veto a measure under such circumstances. Very respectfully,

REINHOLD SADLER,
Lieutenant-Governor and Acting Governor.

PETITION.

NEVADA STATE UNIVERSITY, PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, }
RENO, NEVADA, March 4, 1897.

To the Honorable the Assembly :

The undersigned, your petitioner, is a resident of the State of Nevada and President of the State University located at Reno, Nevada.

The statute makes it the duty of the President of the University under the direction of the Board of Regents to manage all matters connected with the institution, to employ teachers and servants, purchase supplies and make monthly statements to the Board of Regents of all receipts and expenditures supported by vouchers.

Your petitioner has read in the Nevada State Journal published at Reno, Nevada, and dated Thursday, March 4, 1897, under the head "University Bills Approved—A Sharp Message from the Governor," an article which includes a message from the Governor to your honorable body, which reports his approval of Assembly Bill No. 45, but which further gives four reasons why he, the Governor, withheld his approval of this bill until the last day allowed him by the Constitution. The first reason which the Governor gives is as follows: "Because the State Board of Examiners found upon examination of the bills for furnishing the dormitories that a portion of the appropriation was not expended for the purposes authorized by the Act of 1895. For instance, a sofa, costing sixty-eight dollars in San Francisco."

The Governor's second reason is as follows: "Because the greater part of the deficiencies, amounting to over nine thousand dollars in the aggregate, were incurred in direct violation of the spirit and letter of the Act approved February 15, 1895."

The Governor's third reason is as follows: "The Board of Examiners found that expenditures were made and contracts entered into without authority or direct ratification of the Board of Regents."

The Governor's fourth reason is as follows: "While the bill provides for the issuance of bonds and the levying of taxes, no reference is made to either subject in its title, as required by article four, section seventeen of the Constitution of Nevada."

Inasmuch as the Board of Regents of the State University will not be in session prior to the adjournment of the Legislature, and, therefore, cannot take action with reference to the implied charges of mismanagement by the Governor, and inasmuch as your petitioner, the President of the University, is the executive officer of the Board of Regents and is charged by statute with the responsible duty of making, under the direction of the Board of Regents, all the expenditures connected with the management of said institution, and is, therefore, justly held responsible for any such mismanagement or extravagance of expenditure as the Governor sets forth clearly, though by implication, in his message to your honorable body, your petitioner, the President of the University, deems it a duty which he owes himself and the University and the Board of Regents, to set forth to your honorable body a specific denial of the truthfulness and integrity of the several reasons set forth by the Governor in his message to the Assembly; and your petitioner further asserts that the statements of the message are for the most part reckless and calculated to do injury.

Your petitioner affirms that the first reason set forth in the message is untrue, and asserts further that all the bills for furnishing the dormitories were severally approved "as correct and ought to be paid" by the State Board of Examiners, and that each several bill bears the Governor's signature, approving the same.

Your petitioner denies the correctness of the judgment given by the Governor as his second reason.

Your petitioner avers that the statement under the third head is also wholly untrue, and that the Governor ought to have known that his statement under this head was untrue.

So far as the fourth reason is concerned, your petitioner asserts that while the question is one for the lawyers, yet he believes that the opinion of the Governor as to the constitutionality of the bill, because of defective title, cannot be established.

In view of the gravity of the charges implied in the Governor's message, touching the administration of his duties by the President of the University, your petitioner requests most earnestly that he be permitted to appear before the Assembly in Committee of the Whole, and that he be interrogated most carefully upon any and all points connected with the deficiency bill known as Assembly Bill No. 45; and that the members of the State Board of Examiners, namely, the Governor, the Attorney-General, and the Secretary of State, be invited to be present and to participate in the interrogation.

I have the honor to remain, gentlemen of the Assembly, with high esteem, respectfully, your petitioner,

J. E. STUBBS,
President of the Nevada State University.

Mr. Greene moved that Assembly Bill No. 105 be taken from the table and placed at the bottom of the file.

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE.

Mr. Speaker:

Your Committee on State Library beg leave to report that, while they have had but little time to devote to any matters outside of the Library, they have ascertained that any former report concerning the Library has nothing to do with that institution or the management in any particular.

We have examined into the Library, its work and condition, and find, after investigation, that it has been kept in a very exemplary way and in such a manner as to reflect much credit upon the Library and its management.

The service is efficient and the department has been opened so as to give the public an opportunity to take advantage of it.

A complete record is kept of every book taken out and returned, and a catalogue kept of every book purchased, giving its entire history in detail.

A new catalogue has been compiled by the present management for the four years from 1890, after much research and work, thus making a complete catalogue to date.

We desire to say that the Library, the way it is kept now, is a credit to the State. We recommend that the Library be kept open, as has been done, two nights in the week for the benefit of the public.

S. L. McNAUGHTEN,
Chairman.
