[(p)] (o) Approval by the agency of any project expires 3 years after the date of final action by the agency or the effective date of the amendments to this compact, whichever is later, unless construction is begun within that time and diligently pursued thereafter, or the use or activity has commenced. In computing the 3-year period any period of time during which the project is the subject of a legal action which delays or renders impossible the diligent pursuit of that project shall not be counted. Any license, permit or certificate issued by the agency which has an expiration date shall be extended by that period of time during which the project is the subject of such legal action as provided in this subdivision.

[(q)] (p) The governing body shall maintain a current list of real property known to be available for exchange with the United States or with other owners of real property in order to facilitate exchanges of real property by owners of real property in the region.

ARTICLE VII. Environmental Impact Statements

(a) The Tahoe Regional Planning Agency when acting upon matters that have a significant effect on the environment shall:

(1) Utilize a systematic, interdisciplinary approach which will insure the integrated use of the natural and social sciences and the environmental design arts in planning and in decisionmaking which may have an impact on man's environment;

(2) Prepare and consider a detailed environmental impact statement before deciding to approve or carry out any project. The detailed environmental impact statement shall include the following:

(A) The significant environmental impacts of the proposed project;

(B) Any significant adverse environmental effects which cannot be avoided should the project be implemented;

(C) Alternatives to the proposed project;

(D) Mitigation measures which must be implemented to assure meeting standards of the region;

(E) The relationship between local short-term uses of man's environment and the maintenance and enhancement of long-term productivity;

(F) Any significant irreversible and irretrievable commitments of resources which would be involved in the proposed project should it be implemented; and

(G) The growth-inducing impact of the proposed project;

(3) Study, develop and describe appropriate alternatives to recommended courses of action for any project which involves unresolved conflicts concerning alternative uses of available resources;

(4) Make available to states, counties, municipalities, institutions and individuals, advice and information useful in restoring, maintaining and enhancing the quality of the region's environment; and

(5) Initiate and utilize ecological information in the planning and development of resource-oriented projects.

(b) Prior to completing an environmental impact statement, the agency shall consult with and obtain the comments of any federal, state or local agency which has jurisdiction by law or special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved. Copies of such statement and the comments and views of the appropriate federal, state and local agencies which are authorized to develop and enforce environmental standards shall be made available to the public and shall accompany the project through the review processes. The public shall be consulted during the environmental impact statement process and views shall be solicited during a public comment period not to be less than 60 days.

(c) Any environmental impact statement required pursuant to this article need not repeat in its entirety any information or data which is relevant to such a statement and is a matter of public record or is generally available to the public, such as information contained in an environmental impact report prepared pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act or a federal environmental impact statement prepared pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. However, such information or data shall be briefly described in the environmental impact statement and its relationship to the environmental impact statement shall be indicated.

In addition, any person may submit information relative to a proposed project which may be included, in whole or in part, in any environmental impact statement required by this article.

(d) In addition to the written findings specified by agency ordinance to implement the regional plan, the agency shall make either of the following written findings before approving a project for which an environmental impact statement was prepared:

(1) Changes or alterations have been required in or incorporated into such project which avoid or reduce the significant adverse environmental effects to a less than significant level; or

(2) Specific considerations, such as economic, social or technical, make infeasible the mitigation measures or project alternatives discussed in the environmental impact statement on the project.

A separate written finding shall be made for each significant effect identified in the environmental impact statement on the project. All written findings must be supported by substantial evidence in the record.

(e) The agency may charge and collect a reasonable fee from any person proposing a project subject to the provisions of this compact in order to recover the estimated costs incurred by the agency in preparing an environmental impact statement under this article.

(f) The agency shall adopt by ordinance a list of classes of projects which the agency has determined will not have a significant effect on the environment and therefore will be exempt from the requirement for the preparation of an environmental impact statement under this article. Prior to adopting the list, the agency shall make a written finding supported by substantial evidence in the record that each class of projects will not have a significant effect on the environment.

ARTICLE VIII. Finances

(a) On or before September 30 of each calendar year the agency shall establish the amount of money necessary to support its activities for the next succeeding fiscal year commencing July 1 of the following year. The agency shall apportion $75,000 of this amount among the counties within the region on the same ratio to the total sum required as the full cash valuation of taxable property within the region in each county bears to the total full cash valuation of taxable property within the region. In addition, each county within the region in California shall pay $18,750 to the agency and each county within the region in Nevada, including Carson City, shall pay $12,500 to the agency, from any funds available therefor. The State of California and the State of Nevada may pay to the agency by July 1 of each year any additional sums necessary to support the operations of the agency pursuant to this compact. If additional funds are required, the agency shall make a request for the funds to the states of California and Nevada. Requests for state funds must be apportioned two-thirds from California and one-third from Nevada. Money appropriated shall be paid within 30 days.

(b) The agency may fix and collect reasonable fees for any services rendered by it.

(c) The agency shall submit an itemized budget to the states for review with any request for state funds, shall be strictly accountable to any county in the region and the states for all funds paid by them to the agency and shall be strictly accountable to all participating bodies for all receipts and disbursements.

(d) The agency is authorized to receive gifts, donations, subventions, grants, and other financial aids and funds; but the agency may not own land except as provided in subdivision (i) of Article III.

(e) The agency shall not obligate itself beyond the moneys due under this article for its support from the several counties and the states for the current fiscal year, plus any moneys on hand or irrevocably pledged to its support from other sources. No obligation contracted by the agency shall bind either of the party states or any political subdivision thereof.

ARTICLE IX. Transportation District

(a) The Tahoe transportation district is hereby established as a special purpose district. The boundaries of the district are coterminous with those of the region.

(b) The business of the district shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of:

(1) One member of the county board of supervisors of each of the counties of El Dorado and Placer;

(2) One member of the city council of the City of South Lake Tahoe;

(3) One member each of the board of county commissioners of Douglas County and of Washoe County;

(4) One member of the board of supervisors of Carson City;

(5) The director of the California Department of Transportation; and

(6) The director of the department of transportation of the State of Nevada.

Any director may designate an alternate.

(c) The vote of at least five of the directors must agree to take action. If at least five votes in favor of an action are not cast, an action of rejection shall be deemed to have been taken.

(d) The Tahoe transportation district may by resolution establish procedures for the adoption of its budgets, the appropriation of its money and the carrying on of its other financial activities. These procedures must conform insofar as is practicable to the procedures for financial administration of the State of California or the State of Nevada or one or more of the local governments in the region.

(e) The Tahoe transportation district may in accordance with the adopted transportation plan:

(1) Own and operate a public transportation system to the exclusion of all other publicly owned transportation systems in the region.

(2) Acquire upon mutually agreeable terms any public transportation system or facility owned by a county, city or special purpose district or any privately owned transportation system or facility within the region.

(3) Hire the employees of existing public transportation systems that are acquired by the district without loss of benefits to the employees, bargain collectively with employee organizations, and extend pension and other collateral benefits to employees.

(4) Contract with private companies to provide supplementary transportation or provide any of the services needed in operating a system of transportation for the region.

(5) Fix the rates and charges for transit services provided pursuant to this subdivision.

(6) Issue revenue bonds and other evidence of indebtedness and make other financial arrangements appropriate for developing and operating a public transportation system.

(7) By resolution, determine and propose for adoption a tax for the purpose of obtaining services of the district. The tax proposed must be general and of uniform operation throughout the region, and may not be graduated in any way. The district is prohibited from imposing an ad valorem tax, a tax measured by gross or net receipts on business, a tax or charge that is assessed against people or vehicles as they enter or leave the region, and any tax, direct or indirect, on gaming tables and devices. Any such proposition must be submitted to the voters of the district and shall become effective upon approval of a majority of the voters voting on the proposition. The revenues from any such tax must be used for the service for which it was imposed, and for no other purpose.

(8) Provide service from inside the region to convenient airport, railroad and interstate bus terminals without regard to the boundaries of the region.

(f) The legislatures of the states of California and Nevada may, by substantively identical enactments, amend this article.

ARTICLE X. Miscellaneous

Except as provided in subdivision (c), the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. Whenever a superintendent has reason to believe that cause exists for the dismissal of a certificated employee and when he is of the opinion that the immediate suspension of the employee is necessary in the best interests of the children in the district, the superintendent may suspend the employee without notice and without a hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 391.312, a superintendent may suspend a certificated employee who has been officially charged but not yet convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude or immorality. If the charge is dismissed or if the employee is found not guilty, he must be reinstated with backpay, plus interest, and normal seniority. 6. A certificated employee who is convicted of any crime and who is sentenced to and serves any sentence of imprisonment forfeits all rights of employment from the date of his arrest or the date on which his employment terminated, whichever is later.

7. A certificated employee who is charged with a felony or a crime involving immorality or moral turpitude and who waives his right to a speedy trial while suspended may receive no more than 12 months of backpay and seniority upon reinstatement if he is found not guilty or the charges are dismissed, unless proceedings have been begun to dismiss the employee upon one of the other grounds set forth in NRS 391.312.

8. A superintendent may discipline a certificated employee by suspending the employee [for up to 2 days] with loss of pay at any time after a [due process] hearing has been held [.] which affords the due process provided for in this chapter. The grounds for suspension are the same as the grounds contained in NRS 391.312. [The suspension provisions of this section may not be invoked] An employee may be suspended more than once during the employee's contract year [.] *, but the total number of days of suspension may not exceed 20 in 1 contract year. "391.3197 1. A probationary employee is employed on an annual basis and has no right to employment after a probationary contract year.

2. If a probationary employee first began his employment after June 30, 1979, the board [of trustees] shall notify him in writing on or before April [1] 15 of the school year whether he is to be reemployed for the next school year. The employee shall advise the [school] board in writing on or before April [10] 25 of his acceptance of reemployment. If a probationary employee is assigned to a school that operates all year, the board shall notify him in writing no later than 45 days before his last day of work under his contract whether he is to be reemployed for another year. He shall advise the board in writing within 10 days after the date of notification of his acceptance or rejection of reemployment for another year. Failure to advise the [school] board of his acceptance of reemployment constitutes rejection of the contract.

3. A probationary employee who has received a notice of reemployment from the school district is entitled to be a postprobationary employee in the ensuing year of employment.

4. A school district which has not given notice of reemployment to a probationary employee may offer the employee a contract for a trial year. An employee who receives an offer of a contract for a trial year may request [that his performance during the trial year be evaluated by a person selected by him and his first evaluator.] a supplemental evaluation during the trial year by another administrator in the school district selected by him and the superintendent. If a school district has five or fewer administrators, the supplemental evaluator may be an administrator from another school district in the state.

6. If a probationary employee who is an administrator is not reemployed in that capacity, he may accept a contract as a teacher for the ensuing school year in writing on or before April [10.] 25. If he fails to accept the contract as a teacher, he shall be deemed to have rejected the offer of a contract as a teacher.

7. [Any postprobationary employee of a Nevada school district who is employed by another school district shall serve the probationary period required by this section.

8.] Before dismissal, the probationary employee is entitled to a [due process] hearing before a hearing officer as set out in NRS 391.311 to 391.3196, inclusive.''.

Amend sec. 10, page 6, line 42, after ''conduct.'', by inserting: ''The board shall not unreasonably withhold its consent. Any administrator who willfully secures the signature on a statement of intent to accept employment of any teacher or other certificated employee who has notified the board of another school district in this state of his acceptance of employment is guilty of unprofessional conduct, unless the employee has first obtained the written consent of the board to which he has given notice of acceptance.''.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 33.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Joerg, Schofield and Rader.

Assemblyman Francis requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN JOERG:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 33 invites Taiwan, or the Republic of China as it is known to some, to become a sister state with Nevada. This resolution is long overdue.

We have been close friends and an ally with the Republic of China for several years. I am told that we were the first state, back in early 1979, to openly support Taiwan after the president terminated the United States' defense treaty with Taiwan. Since November 6, 1979, twenty-six states have become sister states with Taiwan. It is ironic that Nevada, one of Taiwan's older and more supportive friends, has been remiss in enacting a sister state resolution. Let me give you a little history about Taiwan and Nevada's relationship to that small, brave, self-sufficient country.

On January 1, 1979, the United States switched its diplomatic recognition from Taiwan to the Peoples' Republic or mainland China. That move caused the Nevada Legislature, in S.J.R. 10 of the 1979 Legislative Session, to request the United States Congress to explore all avenues towards maintaining in full force and effect the numerous existing treaties and other agreements we had with Taiwan. The resolution also asked Congress to further develop the United States' economic and trade relations with Taiwan. It sought various protections for Taiwan against Communist aggression.

Well, international politics prevailed and on April 10, 1979, President Carter signed into law the Taiwan Relations Act, Public Law 96-8, which created domestic legal authority for the conduct of unofficial relations with Taiwan. Official relations went out the window.

American commercial and cultural interaction with the people of Taiwan is now facilitated through the American Institute of Taiwan, a nongovernmental entity. The institute has its headquarters in Washington, D.C., and two offices in Taiwan.

A counterpart organization, the Coordination Council for North American Affairs, has been created by Taiwan. It has headquarters offices in Taipei and field offices in Washington, D.C. and nine other United States cities including San Francisco.

Mr. Paul Chen-Tzu Mao and Mr. Yeong-Cho Chen of the San Francisco office of the Coordination Council for North American Affairs visited with us last week and explained to a joint meeting of the Assembly Committee on Legislative Functions and the Senate Committee on Legislative Affairs and Operations the importance of sister state recognition for both Taiwan and Nevada.

On the plus side for Nevada will be the possibility of increased economic trade and the opportunity for additional cultural experiences provided through visits by Chinese artists. I should point out that over the years Taiwan has sent various trade and cultural groups and scholars to the United States and plans to do so in the future.

Mr. Mao explained to the committees how Taiwan has attempted to purchase many of its goods from the United States, especially those states which have become sister states. Just recently, Taiwan made arrangements with Utah, a sister state with Taiwan, to purchase more agricultural products including hides for Taiwan's major shoe industry.

Taiwan provides a splendid example of how a small country can flourish under a free economy. Its economic growth has been rapid and has continued for several decades. Taiwan is our country's fourth largest trading partner in the world and the second largest trading partner with the states of the Pacific rim.

Taiwan stands on its own two feet. The United States Agency for International Development Mission was closed in Taiwan in 1965. Taiwan's postwar recovery was quick and it has been sustained.

The sister state concept, inaugurated by President Eisenhower back in 1956, envisions a people to people expression of friendship. I believe we should extend our hand of friendship to the hardworking, industrious people of the Republic of China. I urge your "aye" vote on S.J.R. 33.

ASSEMBLYMAN SCHOFIELD:

I wanted to mention that a couple of my colleagues here, one from Las Vegas and one from Washoe County, myself and our wives were very fortunate to have been able to take advantage of a trip to Taiwan. We had lunch with the Speaker of the Assembly in Taiwan. We toured the whole country. Believe me if you ever have an opportunity through the Council of State Governments to visit Taiwan I would encourage it. It is a rude awakening on what people do with people. This is one of the most fantastic countries and representation that they have brought out. There wasn't a "soul" we saw in touring the whole country that did not have something to do. Most generally, their business was right below where they lived. At no time did we ever see any poverty or anyone "pushing the shopping carts collecting cans". Everyone had a job to do and they were doing it. The freeway system, the power system and the structure of the whole country is utterly fantastic based on the three principles of government that Dr. Sun Yat Sen came up with. My colleagues, Assemblyman Kerns and Assemblyman Jeffrey, I believe, share my feelings. I encourage anyone, if they have an opportunity, to visit Taiwan.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 250.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 677.

Amend section 1, pages 1 through 3, by deleting lines 1 through 22 on page 1, lines 1 through 42 on page 2 and lines 1 through 4 on page 3 and inserting:

"Section 1. NRS 354.5988 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.5988 1. If actual receipts from the supplemental city-county relief tax for any fiscal year exceed the estimate previously made by the executive director of the department of taxation, the excess receipts must be deposited in the reserve fund for the supplemental city-county relief tax which is hereby created in the state treasury. [There must also be deposited in this fund any proceeds of that tax which become available when for any local government] If the amount of the supplemental city-county relief tax otherwise distributable to [it] a local government exceeds the combined amount allowable to it from the supplemental city-county relief tax and taxes ad valorem [.] , the excess must be distributed to the other local governments in the county in the proportion that the maximum allowable revenue of each local government in that county bears to the total maximum allowable revenue of all local governments in that county excluding those governments whose share of the proceeds of the tax exceeded their maximum allowable revenue. If the proceeds of the tax exceed the maximum allowable revenue for all local governments within a county, the excess must be deposited in the reserve fund for the supplemental city-county relief tax. Money in this fund must not be used for any purpose other than distribution to local governments pursuant to this section. The interest earned upon the money in the fund must be added to the principal of the fund.

2. The money in this fund must be used to increase the distribution to local governments when the actual receipts from the supplemental city-county relief tax are less than the estimates previously made by the director of the department of taxation. Whenever the money in the fund at the beginning of any fiscal year exceeds 10 percent of the actual revenues from the supplemental city-county relief tax in the preceding fiscal year, this excess must be distributed to local governments in the following fiscal year in the same proportion as current receipts are distributed for that fiscal year. This distribution must be included in the executive director's estimate of money to be received by each local government from the supplemental city-county relief tax.

3. The Nevada tax commission may direct the state controller to make a special distribution from the fund if it determines that unforeseen or uncontrollable conditions, existing or imminent, substantially impair the financial capacity of a local government to provide the basic services for which it was created. In making such a determination, the tax commission shall consider the recommendation of the executive director of the department of taxation. The executive director and the tax commission shall consider, without limitation, the effect of a sudden and unusual change in population served, the construction of major public works and facilities, a significant decrease in one or more revenues from sources other than property taxes, excessive increases in the unit cost of providing services, whether present or probable, and events of an uncommon nature, such as judgments and other uninsured losses or natural disasters. The tax commission shall consider the general economic condition of the community and of the state and the effect of each proposal on the taxpayer, and make written findings of the facts supporting the distribution.".

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 1 of article 10 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. 1. The legislature shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real, personal and possessory, except mines and mining claims, when not patented, the proceeds alone of which shall be assessed and taxed, and when patented, each patented mine shall be assessed at not less than five hundred dollars ($500), except when one hundred dollars ($100) in labor has been actually performed on such patented mine during the year, in addition to the tax upon the net proceeds . Remarks by Assemblymen Williams, Little, Collins, Joerg, Dini, Roberts, Jeffrey and Thompson.

Assemblyman Bogaert requested that Assemblyman Williams' remarks be entered in the Journal.

A.B. No. 224 is one of the celebrated "tips" bills. I think that when all of us arrived in Carson City we anticipated that these would be among the most controversial bills we would deal with this session. However, the gaming industry and organized labor are to be commended; for, in their combined wisdom, they chose cooperation instead of confrontation and they chose basic fairness instead of fighting. This is a permissive bill which allows an employee to declare tip income which can be added to wages for the purpose of increasing the employee's benefit level for industrial accident benefits. This bill limits the amount that may be claimed and additionally sets specific time frames for computation of wages for these benefits. Your Committee on Labor and Management unanimously urges a favorable vote on A.B. No. 224.

Assemblyman Malone requested that Assemblyman Little's remarks be entered in the Journal.

I would like to stand in opposition to A.B. No. 224. First of all, Webster's dictionary defines wage as "a payment usually of money for labor or services usually according to contract on an hourly, daily or piece work basis". I know this bill is a voluntary bill for those persons wishing to report their tips in return for workers compensation. I feel it has good intentions. But, unfortunately, I feel it is unjust and misleading. Unjust because the restaurant owner is compelled, upon the service request of filing, to pay workers compensation payments on all the tips she claims. This money was not given to the server as a wage from the employer, but from the customer as a tip. If we claim tips as wages then it seems the customer should be responsible for the workers compensation. The third thing is to let the waitress purchase her own insurance from the tips. This way the money is still their responsibility.

To endorse A.B. No. 224 confirms we believe tips are wages contrary to the definition and our belief. Since the employer did not give the employee the tips, I feel it is unfair to compel him by law to pay compensation on it. This bill definitely will have a severe impact on the small restaurants. I ask you to vote "no" on A.B. No. 224. A no vote would support the small business and the working waitress. Yes, there was a deal cut between the union and the big casinos. But they unfortunately forgot the small businessman and the working waitress and I ask that you vote no.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 957.

Amend the bill as a whole by adding new sections designated sections 2 through 4, following section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. NRS 354.5987 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.5987 1. For the purposes of NRS 354.59805, 354.59811 and 354.59816, the maximum allowable combined revenue of any local government:

[1.] (a) Which comes into being on or after July 1, 1983, whether newly created, consolidated , or both; or

[2.] (b) Which was in existence before July 1, 1983, but did not receive revenue from taxes ad valorem, except any levied for debt service, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1981, must be initially established by the Nevada tax commission.

2. If the local government for which the maximum allowable combined revenue is established performs a function previously performed by another local government, the total revenue allowed to all local governments for performance of substantially the same function in substantially the same geographical area must not be increased. To the extent necessary to achieve this result, the Nevada tax commission shall subtract from the maximum allowable combined revenue of each local government that previously performed all or part of that function the amount expended for that purpose in the most recent fiscal year for which reliable information is available.

3. In any other case, the total maximum allowable combined revenue of all local governments in the county, to which the limits imposed by NRS 354.5905 and 354.59816 apply, must not be increased, but the total must be reallocated among them to accommodate the amount newly established pursuant to subsection 1.

Sec. 3. Section 2 of this act applies to every local government for which a maximum allowable combined revenue is established after the effective date of this act, or was established on or after May 1, 1985, with respect to all revenue to be collected on or after July 1, 1985.

Sec. 4. Sections 2 and 3 of this act become effective upon passage and approval.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read: "Treats special cases and precludes certain increases in revenues of local governments. (BDR 31-173)".

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 968.

Amend section 1, page 1, line 11, after "property", by inserting: "not governed by subsection 2".

Amend section 1, page 1, line 15, by inserting "secured" before "tax roll".

Amend the bill as a whole by adding new sections designated sections 2, 3 and 4, following section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. NRS 361.320 is hereby amended to read as follows:

361.320 1. At the regular session of the Nevada tax commission commencing on the 1st Monday in October of each year, the Nevada tax commission shall establish the valuation for assessment purposes of any property of an interstate and intercounty nature, which must in any event include the property of all interstate or intercounty railroad, sleeping car, private car, street railway, traction, telegraph, water, telephone, air transport, electric light and power companies, together with their franchises, and the property and franchises of all railway express companies operating on any common or contract carrier in this state. This valuation must not include the value of vehicles as defined in NRS 371.020.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3, 4 and 5 and NRS 361.323, the foregoing must be assessed as follows: The Nevada tax commission shall establish and fix the valuation of the franchise, if any, and all physical property used directly in the operation of any such business of any such company in this state, as a collective unit; and if operating in more than one county, on establishing such unit valuation for the collective property, the Nevada tax commission shall then determine the total aggregate mileage operated within the state and within its several counties, and apportion the mileage upon a mile-unit valuation basis, and the number of miles apportioned to any county are subject to assessment in that county according to the mile-unit valuation established by the Nevada tax commission.

3. After establishing the valuation, as a collective unit, of a public utility which generates, transmits or distributes electricity, the Nevada tax commission shall segregate the value of all projects in this state for the generation of electricity whose construction was commenced on or after January 1, 1982, and which are not yet put to use. This value must be assessed in the county where it is located, and taxes must be levied and collected:

(a) On all of it, at the rate levied for the county school district;

(b) On all of it, at the rate levied for county purposes;

(c) On that fraction of it which the population of each incorporated city is of the population of the entire county, at the rate levied for that city;

(d) On that fraction of it which the population of each unincorporated town, as determined by the county, is of the population of the entire county, at the rate levied for that town; and

(e) On that fraction of it which the local assessed value of that portion of each general improvement district located within the county is of the local assessed value of the entire county, at that portion of the rate levied for that district or county which is required to construct those improvements described in NRS 318.125, 318.135, 318.140 and 318.144, including debt service for such improvements. For the purposes of this paragraph, "local assessed value" means the assessed value on the roll of a general improvement district or county excluding that assigned by the Nevada tax commission according to this section and net proceeds of mines.

The legislature finds and declares that this segregation fairly reflects the additional burden put upon the public services of the county during its construction. For the purposes of this section, "commencement of construction" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 704.840.

4. After establishing the valuation, as a collective unit, of a public utility which generates, transmits or distributes electricity, the Nevada tax commission shall segregate the value of all projects in this state for the generation of electricity whose construction was commenced before January 1, 1982, and which are not yet put to use. This valuation must be assessed in the county where it is located and must be taxed at the same rate as other property.

5. After establishing the valuation, as a collective unit, of each public utility which generates, transmits or distributes electricity in this state, the Nevada tax commission shall segregate the value of all projects for the generation of electricity whose construction was commenced on or after January 1, 1982, and allocate 10 percent of the valuation of each project to the county in which it is located and 90 percent of it among all the counties of this state in proportion to their respective populations. The valuation so allocated to each county must be assessed, and taxes must be levied and collected:

(a) On all of it, at the rate levied for the county school district;

(b) On all of it, at the rate levied for county purposes;

(c) On that fraction of it which the population of each incorporated city is of the population of the entire county, at the rate levied for that city;

(d) On that fraction of it which the population of each unincorporated town, as determined by the county, is of the population of the entire county, at the rate levied for that town; and

(e) On that fraction of it which the local assessed value of that portion of each general improvement district located within each county is of the local assessed value of the entire county, at that portion of the rate levied for that district or county which is required to construct those improvements described in NRS 318.125, 318.135, 318.140 and 318.144, including debt service for such improvements. For the purposes of this paragraph, "local assessed value" means the assessed value on the roll of a general improvement district, excluding that assigned by the Nevada tax commission according to this section and net proceeds of mines.

The legislature finds and declares that the consumption of electricity is roughly proportionate to population and that this allocation fairly distributes revenues arising from this consumption, and takes fair account of the effect of the generation of power on the natural resources of the state as a whole.

6. The Nevada tax commission shall adopt formulas, and cause them to be incorporated in its records, providing the method or methods pursued in fixing and establishing the taxable value of all franchises and property assessed by it. The formulas must be adopted and may be changed from time to time upon its own motion or when made necessary by judicial decisions, but the formulas must in any event show all the elements of value considered by the Nevada tax commission in arriving at and fixing the value for any class of property assessed by it. These formulas must take into account, as indicators of value, the company's income, stock and debt, and the cost of its assets.

7. As used in this section the word "company" means any person, company, corporation or association engaged in the business described.

8. [In case of an omission by the Nevada tax commission to establish a valuation for assessment purposes upon the property mentioned in this section, the county assessors of any counties wherein the property is situated shall assess it. .

9.] All other property must be assessed by the county assessors, except as provided in NRS 362.100 and except that the valuation of land and mobile homes must be established for assessment purposes by the Nevada tax commission as provided in NRS 361.325.

[10.] 9. On or before the 1st Monday in December the department shall transmit to the several county assessors the assessed valuation found on such classes of property as are enumerated in this section, except for private car lines, together with the apportionment of each county of the assessment. The several county assessors shall enter on the roll all such assessments transmitted to them by the department.

[11.] 10. On or before November 1 of each year the department shall forward a tax statement to each private car line company based on the valuation established pursuant to this section and in accordance with the tax levies of the several districts in each county. The company shall remit the ad valorem taxes due on or before December 15 to the department which shall allocate the taxes due each county on a mile-unit basis and remit the taxes to the counties no later than January 31. The portion of the taxes which is due the state must be transmitted directly to the state treasurer. As an alternative to any other method of recovering delinquent taxes provided by this chapter, the attorney general may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover delinquent taxes due under this subsection in the manner provided in NRS 361.560.

Sec. 3. NRS 361.403 is hereby amended to read as follows:

361.403 1. Any person, firm, company, association or corporation, claiming overvaluation or excessive valuation of its property in this state; or

2. Any representative of any local government entity or the department claiming undervaluation, overvaluation or nonassessment of any property in the state, solely by reason of the valuation placed thereon by the Nevada tax commission pursuant to NRS 361.320, [361.323,] 361.325 or 367.050, whether or not it is apportioned pursuant to NRS 361.321 or 361.323, is entitled to a hearing before the state board of equalization to protest any assessment resulting therefrom, without appearing before or requesting relief from the county board of equalization. If a hearing is held, evidence of the valuation of the property in which the value is determined by using appropriate appraisal standards must be submitted to the state board of equalization.

Resolution read first time.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 48.

Assemblyman Stone moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Stone, Getto and Coffin.

Mr. Speaker requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN STONE:

It has been my privilege during the last two legislative sessions to work with Director Housewright. I found him to be an honest and forthright individual and extremely competent in his job. He probably has one of the toughest jobs in Nevada. He has handled it with dignity and with a lot of class considering the kinds of things he has to deal with. I think this state has been lucky to have him on board. I'm sorry we are losing him. I think this resolution is well in order.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

I would like to add a few words about Vernon Housewright. It has certainly been my pleasure to work with this man. I think Nevada was fortunate to have the use of his years of experience and years of leadership. He has pulled us through a very critical situation. If you recall, from the last session to this session we did not fund the prisons adequately. But Vernon Housewright was able to keep control of the prisons and to keep us on course. He's a great man. I'm sorry his health is not the best right now and I hope that he will regain his health and be able to enjoy his life in comfort.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

I, too, rise in praise of Vernon Housewright. He is a person truly dedicated to his job. I served on the prison subcommittee during the last two sessions and worked many days with him. I can say he truly exemplifies the person we wish all of our prison officials to be—showing sensitivity with firmness. I think Vern is retiring because he simply worked too hard. He worked himself right into retirement. I think there must be a place for him with his skills. I hope we borrow him in the future as we begin to plan for that necessary prison we'll have to build in the next few years.

Resolution adopted.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 25.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Getto, Sader, Thomas and Dini.

Assemblyman Spriggs requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

This is a good resolution as far as resolutions go. I wonder, however, how much impact they have on Congress. The American mining business has suffered severely from uncontrolled importation of foreign minerals. In many of the foreign countries the cost of production has been kept artificially low by direct subsidies. Worse than that, however, is that many of these countries have received loans from our country at a lower rate of interest than our own mining industry can obtain loans. The mining industry is the number two industry in this state and at the present time is practically on its back. This means that with many of the mines closed, especially many of the larger ones, there are a lot of unemployed miners in this state. This is a very important resolution to the State of Nevada.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

I would like to ask a couple of questions. I understand the importance of the mineral industry to this state, yet this resolution suggests that we do something which is philosophically opposed to what some of us believe we ought to be doing in the free enterprise system. That is to set up import quotas, and set up controls in an atmosphere in which we're decontrolling some of these industries; particularly in the present administration's point of view on importation and so forth. Being one who is strongly in favor of the free enterprise system wherever it exists, Mr. Getto, I'd like to know if the testimony in committee indicated what kind of effect this would have if Congress actually did what this resolution proposes.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMAS:

I would like to address Mr. Sader's remarks. I agree with him completely that there is nothing like the wide open free enterprise trading system. However, in this situation the thing that makes it different is that they are doing it with our money. We are lending them the money to turn around and "fog it to us" with their government subsidized exports. That simply isn't fair. I think the people in Washington, D.C. don't know what they are doing. Their right hand doesn't know what the left hand is doing. As much as I abhor quotas, I have to go along with this one.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

I would like to reiterate to the people in this House the importance of this resolution to the State of Nevada. Throughout the west there are over 20,000 miners out of work because the mines have all shut down. Here in Nevada, the mine in Ely closed down and the mine in Yerington, with 500 employees, closed down. Also, the molybdenum mine in Tonopah, with 400 employees, has closed down. What has happened is you can't compete with the foreign prices. I resent mostly the exploitation of our capital through the world bank with loans from this country. Especially to South American countries where they bring copper into the United States at a cheaper price. It brings us to the thing that was very important to this state a few years ago when Congressman Santini tried to establish a federal minerals policy in Congress and with the President to support the mining industry throughout this country and develop a policy for mine development. We do not even have any copper production in this state at the present time of any magnitude. If there was a war tomorrow and you have to depend on Chili and other countries for copper, there will be some problems.

"Sec. 5. 1. In determining whether a private insurer is acceptable to issue a contract for the insurance of deposits, the administrator and the commissioner of insurance must consider:

(a) The value of the insurer's capital.

(b) The ratio of the insurer's assets, including reinsurance, which are readily available to cover any losses incurred by depositors, to its insured deposits. This ratio must be adequate to reimburse depositors for any losses which they may incur and may not be less than the ratio maintained by the share insurance fund established under the Federal Credit Union Act of 1934, as amended, (12 U.S.C. §§ 1781 et seq.).

(c) The qualifications of the directors, officers and managers of the insurance company.

(d) The insurer's articles of incorporation and its bylaws and all amendments thereto.

Union Act of 1934, as amended, (12 U.S.C. §§ 1781 et seq.) to the depositors.

3. After a private insurer obtains the approval of the administrator and the commissioner, the administrator, after consultation with the commissioner, may, for cause, require the insurer to establish and maintain for such a time as the administrator may require, a reserve, in cash or United States treasury bills or notes, in an amount fixed by the administrator. If required, the reserve must be kept in an account approved by the administrator in a federally insured financial institution located in this state.".

3. A credit union must apply to the administrator for approval of a plan of insurance for members' accounts, either pursuant to the Federal Credit Union Act of 1934, as amended, (12 U.S.C. §§ 1781 et seq.), or under a contract [or policy] of insurance issued by an insurer [holding a certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state, and take all actions necessary to maintain an insured status thereunder.] , which must be approved by the administrator and the commissioner of insurance pursuant to section 5 of this act. The issuance of such a contract is not transacting insurance under Title 57 of NRS.

4. The administrator shall make available reports of the financial condition of credit unions, reports of examinations made pursuant to NRS 678.790 and any other reports that may be required by the insurer and deemed appropriate by the administrator. If a court enters judgment for an amount of support to be paid by a responsible parent, the division is entitled to the amount of the debt created by such judgment to the extent of public assistance paid, and the judgment awarded shall be deemed to be in favor of the division. This entitlement applies but is not limited to a temporary order for spousal support, a family maintenance order or an alimony order, whether or not allocated to the benefit of the child on the basis of providing necessaries for the caretaker of the child, up to the amount paid by the division in public assistance to or for the benefit of a dependent child. The division may petition the appropriate court for modification of its order on the same grounds as a party to the action.

Senate Bill No. 399.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 1061.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 17 and 18 as sections 19 and 20 and adding new sections designated sections 17 and 18, following section 16, to read as follows:

"Sec. 17. NRS 354.59805 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.59805 Except as otherwise provided in NRS 354.59816, the maximum amount of money which a local government, except a school district , a district to provide a telephone number for emergencies, or a redevelopment agency, is permitted to receive from taxes ad valorem, other than those levied for the payment of bonded indebtedness and interest thereon incurred as a general or short-term obligation of the issuer, or for the payment of obligations under a capital lease executed before April 30, 1981, must be calculated by:

1. First multiplying the tax rate certified for that local government for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1981, by its assessed valuation as equalized for the collection of taxes during the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1981. For the purposes of this subsection:

(a) A county whose actual tax rate, for purposes other than debt service, for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1981, was less than 50 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is entitled to the use of a rate not greater than 80 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

(b) A fire district in such a county whose tax rate was more than 50 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is entitled to the use of a rate not greater than $1.10 per $100 of assessed valuation.

2. Then subtracting the estimated amount to be received by that local government from the supplemental city-county relief tax for the fiscal year for which the tax ad valorem is to be levied. For the fiscal years beginning on and after July 1, 1982, the executive director of the department of taxation shall provide this estimate to the local government on or before February 15 preceding the fiscal year to which it applies. A local government may, on or before March 1 preceding the fiscal year to which the estimate applies, appeal in writing to the Nevada tax commission, which may increase or decrease the estimate as it finds the facts warrant.

3. Then reducing the amount resulting from subsections 1 and 2 if necessary to bring it within any applicable limit provided in NRS 354.59811 or 354.59816.

Sec. 18. NRS 377.057 is hereby amended to read as follows:

377.057 1. The state controller, acting upon the relevant information furnished by the department, shall monthly from the fees, taxes, interest and penalties which derive from the supplemental city-county relief tax collected in all counties and from out-of-state businesses during the preceding month, after making any distributions required by NRS 377.053:

(a) Distribute the amount specified in this paragraph among the following local governments in the following percentages:

Political Subdivision	Percentage
Churchill County	3.23
City of North Las Vegas	46.52
City of Carlin	2.72
Esmeralda County	.20
Eureka County	.71
City of Winnemucca	5.56
City of Caliente	.46
City of Yerington	4.77
Mineral County	9.96
City of Gabbs	4.31
Pershing County	2.52
City of Lovelock	5.77
White Pine County	5.37
City of Ely	7.90

For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1981, the monthly amount is $71,110. For each succeeding fiscal year, this amount must be reduced by $7,111 from the preceding year.

(b) Distribute to each local government the amount calculated for it by the department of taxation pursuant to subsection 2.

2. The maximum amounts distributable under paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must be estimated for each fiscal year. The percentage of maximum allowable revenue, as determined pursuant to NRS 354.59805, to be derived from the supplemental city-county relief tax must be as nearly equal among the several counties as possible. The amount apportioned to each county must then be apportioned among the several local governments therein, including the county and excluding the school district , any district to provide a telephone number for emergencies, and any redevelopment agency, in the proportion which each local government's basic ad valorem revenue bears to the total basic ad valorem revenue of all these local governments except that no local government may receive more than the amount to which it is entitled pursuant to NRS 354.59811 and 354.59816. When any local government has received the maximum supplemental city-county relief tax calculated to be distributed to it, any remaining money otherwise distributable to it must be deposited in the reserve fund for the supplemental city-county relief tax.

3. As used in this section, the "basic ad valorem revenue":

(a) Of each local government is its assessed valuation for the year of distribution, multiplied by the rate levied on its behalf for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1981, for purposes other than paying the interest on and principal of its general obligations. For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) A county whose actual tax rate, for purposes other than debt service, for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1981, was less than 50 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is entitled to the use of a rate not greater than 80 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

(2) A fire district in such a county whose tax rate was more than 50 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is entitled to the use of a rate not greater than $1.10 per $100 of assessed valuation.

(b) Of the county for the distribution under subsection 1 is the sum of its individual basic ad valorem revenue and those of the other local governments within it, excluding the school district.

4. For the purposes of this section, a fire district organized pursuant to chapter 473 of NRS is a local government.".

Amend sec. 17, page 4, line 11, by inserting after the period: "If before the effective date of this act the people of a county have voted on the establishment of the system described in this act, and the proposal was approved by a majority of the voters voting on the question:

1. In the county, the requirement of section 3 for a vote is satisfied.
2. In a city, the requirement of section 11 for a vote is satisfied.".

I considered Marvin a friend. He was a great leader in the education field. He was the Superintendent of Schools in Washoe County and would probably still be serving in that capacity if it hadn't been for his health. This man had considerable strength considering his serious illness. He continued to work with whatever capacity he had. It's a great loss to Washoe County and the state. He will be missed very much.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, May 23, 1985

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 56.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 56.

Assemblyman Bogaert moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Bogaert, Price, Dini, Getto, Kerns and Craddock.

Assemblyman Francis requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN BOGAERT:

I'm sure that many of us would like to say nice things about Barbara. I'm sure we could do that the rest of the day. We've all had positive experiences with her. She is consistent in dealing with all of us, no matter what our temperament may be. We are always greeted with a smiling face and congenial and immediate help.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I would not want to pass up the opportunity to say some kind words about Barbara. Ever since I've been coming here, and I guess ever since Mr. Dini has been here, Barbara has been here to greet us and teach us the ropes. She has been the "Girl Friday" around here. She started when she was only 20 years old. She is a beautiful person at heart. We should have done this a long time ago.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

I would like to say that Barbara and I arrived on the scene at the same time, 18 years ago. It has been my pleasure to have been associated in this body all these years and have enjoyed her service, friendship, and the warmth of her friendly smile.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

Barbara and I, too, arrived here at the same time. We've had a close association over the years. She has always been friendly and very helpful to me. I've appreciated Barbara.

ASSEMBLYMAN KERNS:

I can't let all these long-time assemblyman take all the glory. I arrived here the same year, 1967, in a little bit different category. Barbara was a tremendous help to me then and has been a tremendous help from both sides of the door.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

Barbara and I have been close friends for a long time. She and I have a little secret that goes back to 1973 but I won't tell. But, if Barbara wants to tell you the story about her, myself and Mr. Crawford, I'm certain you would find pleasure in it. I'm really pleased to list Barbara among my friends.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Francis requested that Mr. Speaker's remarks be entered in the Journal.

The chair would claim a point of personal privilege at this time to say some words about Barbara. She keeps the social calendar and keeps the Speaker out of a lot of trouble. She has been a tremendous help. Secondly, while I am going to enthusiastically vote for this resolution, I think there is an error in the body of the resolution. In that, it says "many thankless hours", quite frankly, I think it ought to read on the part of everyone here many "thankful hours" on our behalf. Thank you, Barbara.

Mr. Speaker announced that if there were no objections, the Assembly would recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Assembly in recess at 11:55 a.m.

I think we should commend Mrs. Marvel for making the effort this session.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Bill No. 688.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Coffin and Nicholas.

Assemblyman Thompson requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

A.B. 688 proposes to exempt from sales tax their purchases on major equipment such as airplanes, engines and other pieces of equipment. What it does do is make an attempt to put Nevada's only currently scheduled air carrier on an equal footing with the air carriers based in other states. Currently, those states, most of them, exempt airlines which are based there. It has given a tremendous advantage to those other airlines at the expense of our own Sunworld Airlines. There was a situation back in the 1960's when Air West moved to Arizona to take advantage of that. It moved its entire staff, operations and headquarters out of Las Vegas and into Arizona. We don't want to see that happen again. This little airline has grown now to a payroll of nearly $4 million with 95 percent of that being paid to Nevada residents. Incidentally, the airline itself will continue to pay a good deal of taxes. As a matter of fact, they are going to be paying about a million dollars a year in jet fuel tax. In property tax, they pay about $70,000. Landing fees to the cities of Reno and Las Vegas last year were $400,000. They expect to be paying more in the years to come. What we want to do is put them on an equal footing with other airlines. Your Taxation Committee urges a "do pass."

ASSEMBLYMAN NICHOLAS:

In terms of purchases made by other airlines within the State of Nevada, such as parts, other services, meals, motel rooms, etc., I wonder if passage of this bill would perhaps assist them indirectly as well. In other words, what I'm asking you is whether or not we will actually be achieving a parity here by the elimination of this sales tax.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

We will, in fact, be achieving parity. For example, right now our only airline is at a disadvantage as it stands as centrally assessed utilities or properties are assessed. The fact is, one of the factors used in calculating the property taxes paid by these people is ground time. Naturally, your airline which spends most of its time on the ground when it is in Nevada is paying more taxes than United, Republic or other airlines which are based elsewhere. As far as unassociated expenses, for example, hotel rooms and things like that, I'm not sure how that relates to the bill in that this is only talking about major equipment, aircraft, etc.

ASSEMBLYMAN NICHOLAS:

Will this cause other airlines to come into the State of Nevada and buy services that they are not buying at this time because this bill would affect all airlines?

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

This is to only benefit airlines which maintain their headquarters offices in Nevada and maintain the majority of their aircraft in this state.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Doctor Gregg Townsley.

Heavenly Father, our Father, we stand in prayer this morning and during this holiday weekend, recognizing that You are a God who is available to us. As You were present to Moses, and as You were present to Jesus' early disciples, so You are near to us. Present Yourself to us this day we pray. In the work of our committees, in the actions of this Assembly, in the words of our fellow representatives and friends, and in the brief silences or rests the weekend brings. Encourage us to be the people You mean for us to be. And in the family or personal time this special "memorial weekend" brings, help us to relax. We pray in the Name of our Lord. AMEN.

There has been a proposal to transfer 25 percent of this water to Pyramid Lake. All this resolution does is ask that they consider the wildlife areas in the Newlands Project to be just as important and also the agricultural areas when they consider transferring 25 percent of this water.

Assemblyman Bogaert requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN LITTLE:

A.B. 578 prohibits the use of tobacco, a controlled substance or chewing tobacco on school grounds. It also would eliminate designated smoking areas on high school grounds considering that smoking does cause cancer and has a special danger to youth as we heard testimony in committee. Parents were unaware that there were smoking areas on the high school grounds. This problem was brought to my attention because the parents were very concerned. The chewing tobacco presented a special problem because of the spitting on floors and walls and became a health hazard. This bill is supported by the Education Committee and by the school districts.

ASSEMBLYMAN STONE:

I reluctantly rise in opposition to this bill. The bill is unenforceable, number one. Number two, legally in this state at the age of 18 you are an adult for all purposes. Many 18 year olds are in their senior year of high school. Does this mean we are going to be suspending them if they are caught smoking on school premises? Number three, what about night school? Many adults attend night school. I presume this prohibition extends to them. Are we going to be suspending those adults pursuing their education at night if they are smoking on school premises? The fourth thing that bothers me I guess is do you go around pulling out lower lips and check for chew. I don't know how else you would enforce this. I have no problem with the controlled substance section of the bill, but I think the tobacco section of the bill goes way beyond what could possibly be considered enforceable. It hits targets nobody ever intended to aim at.

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

I am certainly in sympathy with this bill this morning, at least to the smoking portion of it. I think Mr. Stone did raise a valid point in terms of the enforceability provisions of the chewing of tobacco. That seems to me to be much more a matter of regulation by the school district. We had a similar bill two years ago. Again, it essentially was trying to make something a misdemeanor on school grounds which already was a misdemeanor. The possession of tobacco by youngsters below the age of 18 is, in fact, a misdemeanor in this state. Of course, chewing in my part of the country is a way of life in terms of Copenhagen. It is unenforceable. I think that is a valid point. We have too many unenforceable laws now.

ASSEMBLYMAN BEYER:

We heard testimony in committee on this bill that actually chewing is a worse problem than smoking. In many schools the kids will spit on the sidewalk, walls and doors. If they are willing to swallow it or eat it or go to the latrine and spit it in the lavatory, it may be alright. This will provide the school districts some means of recourse to the students that spit on the floors and walls.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

To the chairman of the Education Committee, was the problem of the 18 year old student addressed in committee?

ASSEMBLYMAN BEYER:

We did not discuss the age. I think the intent of this bill is that any student currently enrolled in high school is considered under the provisions of the particular statute. Regarding the other question that was raised about the adult evening classes, I don't think this bill would go so far as to prevent those people from smoking during the adult classes. The intent is that anyone enrolled in high school would be covered by this statute.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

As a former "chewer" and "dipper" much to the consternation of my loved ones, I quit at the point of reading in the newspaper that incidents of several types of cancer on the part of the people who use this is 50 times the average rate. That was one thing Mrs. Little included in her defense statement. I also feel we should be free to regulate the activity that goes on in our schools, regardless of a statute regarding an age limit on the purchase and sale of certain products. I think we can still regulate the use of these products by the students in our schools. Therefore, I support this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

There was a bit of discussion in committee regarding role models by baseball players. There were comments about agricultural students. They seem to be prone to chew

Copenhagen. My thoughts on this is we may be in a position now to where we are getting so good that it comes out bad. I have to say that I certainly approve of the fact that my youngsters do not smoke. Occasionally they do chew a little Copenhagen. If I catch one of them spitting on the wall, he's out the door for a long time. I don't know how to handle this situation. We all have good intentions. I feel it is unenforceable. Some of the comments I heard is that we may lose a portion of our agricultural students in vocational education if we try to enforce this. I have mixed emotions. I think we have enough rules, regulations and laws that we currently can't enforce that I will be voting against this measure.

ASSEMBLYMAN MALONE:

I think what we are looking at here is that it is illegal right now to sell anyone under 18 years of age cigarettes. The school district down south, I understand up north they are not having a problem, but down south they have put smoking areas in all but one high school. This means they are condoning the smoking of cigarettes by juveniles. As far as enforcement is concerned, it is probably one of the easiest things in the world to enforce. Today, marijuana is enforced on campus, any place on campus. I do know for a fact that at the far corners of campuses, school security has picked up youngsters for being in possession of a controlled substance and have called the authorities. Therefore, they can do the same thing for cigarettes. This is very enforceable.

ASSEMBLYMAN COLLINS:

I'll keep my remarks very brief because Mr. Malone touched on some things I was going to cover. If we are concerned about our offspring, then we must take necessary steps to correct the problems. Here is an issue we cannot put the burden on the back of the educators. We, as legislators, can help sooth some of the educators' problems by passing laws that will help govern the discipline of our children. When we start talking about what is enforceable and what is not enforceable, this is what this body is all about. I find it very difficult for students to have areas designated for them to smoke when it is illegal for those students to have cigarettes in the first place. On one hand, we are saying there is a problem, we must correct the problem. On the other hand, we are saying that we cannot enforce the problem. This is one of the few times I have to agree with my colleague from Clark County. I'm not saying this in a derogatory way; however, I'm glad to see he has come around to my way of thinking that something has to be done to correct the problem in the school system. Supporting this bill is a step in the right direction.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

Since I am a co-sponsor of this bill, I naturally support the philosophy behind it. I think there have been some problems addressed today. The schools have provided an area for the students to do something that is illegal. On the other hand, the passage of this bill says that the student can't do something that is legal for him when they have even provided the space for him to do it.

ASSEMBLYMAN HORNE:

It would seem to me we have a very real question of civil rights in regard to this bill. We recognize there is certainly a problem. One should have the right to chew and to puff. Also, it would seem that one should have the right to breath air that is not contaminated with certain types of smoke, nor to walk in hallways splattered with certain types of substances. Along with the train of thought of our distinguished chairman of the Education Committee who suggested it would be okay if they swallowed, those that chew, I would simply suggest that it would be okay for those that puff if they would wear a bubble.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

I have a human interest story that happened in 1945 in the chemistry class in Pizen Switch. A distinguished member of the medical fraternity in Reno today who is an ophthalmologist and I were taking chemistry. His pet habit was chewing Copenhagen in class. Almost at the end of the period, the teacher asked him a question when he had a full mouth full and he had to swallow it. Needless to say, we didn't need a law to tell you not to chew any more—he didn't chew any more that year.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 33—Proposing to amend the Nevada constitution to limit the total revenue of the state.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF

NEVADA, JOINTLY, That article 9 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

Sec. 6. 1. The legislature shall not provide for a total revenue to the state which exceeds the limit established for each biennium by this section unless a majority of the voters voting on the question provides for the increased revenue.

2. Any revenue derived from a project financed by bonds whose principal and interest are payable solely from the revenues of the project must be excluded from the revenue limited by this section and from all calculations required by this section, but only to the extent that the revenue is used to pay the principal and interest on those bonds.

3. For each fiscal biennium the limit must be calculated from the total revenue for the fiscal biennium which began on July 1, 1983, by adding or subtracting the product of that amount multiplied by:

(a) The fractional increase or decrease, if any, in the broadest Consumer Price Index published by the Federal Government which occurred from January 1, 1982, to January 1 of the even-numbered year next preceding the biennium for which the limit is calculated; and

(b) The fractional increase or decrease, if any, in the population of the state from that estimated by the federal Bureau of the Census for the year 1981 to that estimated for the odd-numbered year next preceding the biennium for which the limit is calculated. The fraction so calculated must be adjusted for each fiscal biennium beginning after 1990 to reflect any difference shown by the federal decennial census between the proportionate increase or decrease, if any, in the population as measured by the census and the proportionate increase or decrease, if any, in the population as estimated for the corresponding years.

4. If the Federal Government ceases to publish a Consumer Price Index, the legislature shall select the index published by an authority outside the control of any branch or agency of the government of this state which most accurately reflects changes in the purchasing power of the federal currency, to be used instead of the Consumer Price Index.

Sec. 50. NRS 484.385 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484.385 1. As agent for the department, the officer who directed that a test be given under NRS 484.382 or 484.383 or who obtained the result of such a test shall immediately serve an order of revocation of the license, permit or privilege to drive on a person who fails to submit to the test or has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in his blood, if that person is present, and shall seize his license or permit to drive. The officer shall then advise him of his right to administrative and judicial review of the revocation and to have a temporary license, and shall issue him a temporary license on a form approved by the department if he requests one, which is effective for only 7 days including the date of issuance. The officer shall immediately transmit the person's license or permit to the department along with the written certificate required by subsection 2.

2. When a police officer has served an order of revocation of a driver's license, permit or privilege on a person pursuant to subsection 1, or later receives the result of an evidentiary test which indicates that a person, not then present, had 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in his blood, the officer shall immediately prepare and transmit to the department, together with the seized license or permit and a copy of the result of the test, if any, a written certificate that he had:

(c) Reasonable grounds to believe that the person had been driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle with 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in his blood, as determined by a chemical test.

The certificate must also indicate whether the officer served an order of revocation on the person and whether he issued the person a temporary license.

3. The department, upon receipt of such a certificate for which an order of revocation has not been served, after examining the certificate and copy of the result of the chemical test, if any, and finding that revocation is proper, shall issue an order revoking the person's license, permit or privilege to drive by mailing the order to the person at his last known address. The order must indicate the grounds for the revocation and the period during which the person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive and state that the person has a right to administrative and judicial review of the revocation and to have a temporary license. The order of revocation becomes effective 5 days after mailing.

4. Notice of an order of revocation and notice of the affirmation of a prior order of revocation or the cancellation of a temporary license provided in NRS 484.387 is sufficient if it is mailed to the person's last known address as shown by any application for a license. The date of mailing may be proved by the certificate of any officer or employee of the department , [of motor vehicles,] specifying the time of mailing the notice. [Such a] The notice is presumed to have been received upon the expiration of 5 days after it is deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail.

Sec. 51. NRS 484.387 is hereby amended to read as follows:

At any time while a person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive following an order of revocation issued pursuant to NRS 484.385, he may request in writing a hearing by the department to review the order of revocation, but he is only entitled to one hearing. The hearing must be conducted within 15 days after receipt of the request, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, in the county where the requester resides unless the parties agree otherwise. The director of the department of motor vehicles or his agent may issue subpenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers and may require a reexamination of the requester. The department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the administrative review.

2. The scope of the hearing must be limited to the issue whether [or not] the person failed to submit to a test or had 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in his blood at the time of the test. Upon an affirmative finding on this issue, the department shall affirm the order of revocation. If a negative finding is made on the issue, the order of revocation must be rescinded.

3. If, after the hearing, the order of revocation is affirmed, the person whose license, privilege or permit has been revoked is entitled to a review of the same issue in district court in the same manner as provided by NRS 483.520. The reviewing court may issue a stay of the revocation upon appropriate terms if a substantial question is presented for review which is supported by affidavits or relevant portions of the record of the hearing. The court shall notify the department upon the issuance of a stay and the department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the review.

4. If a hearing officer grants a continuance of a hearing at the request of the person whose license was revoked, or a court does so after issuing a stay of the revocation, the officer or court shall notify the department, and the department shall cancel the temporary license and notify the holder by mailing the order of cancellation to his last known address.

SIGNING OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

There being no objections, the Speaker and Chief Clerk signed Assembly Bills Nos. 50, 211, 224, 250, 353, 403, 426, 491, 675; Senate Bills Nos. 28, 62, 126, 197, 268, 279, 338, 339, 400, 434, 492; Senate Joint Resolutions Nos. 29, 30.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Francis requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

MR. SPEAKER:

I would like to take the privilege of the chair and welcome back my good friend, Assemblyman Sedway.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEDWAY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, to you and to members of this honorable body which has given me great pleasure and much aggravation at various times. I want you to know how I feel about all of you. As you know I had a heart attack about 10 days ago. I survived for lots of reasons; among which is the fact that I made sure I would outlive Bill Bilyeu and Charlie Joerg regardless of what happens. Each for different reasons, of course.

We come here once every two years to perform a duty for the people of the State of Nevada. We come from different philosophies and different points of view. Hopefully, even with those differences, we are here for the best interest of the people of this state. I know that Bill Bilyeu has the same feelings about the State of Nevada that I do. His happens to be a little different—digging holes in the ground out in the middle of nowhere. Besides that, he is a fine person, as you all are.

I know that your prayers were with me during the time when I needed it and it helped because I'm here. I want you to know I'm going to get better. I'm going to get stronger. And if it's possible, I'm going to get meaner because I'm coming back. The things that were important to me that I lost are not lost forever because I'm going to win and the people of the State of Nevada are going to win. Those are the people that we are here to serve—those who cannot help themselves. We all want this state to be a great state. It takes the efforts of every one of us. We can't do it alone. Regardless of how you feel about someone else today on a simple little matter, I know that in the long run we will rise together in the best interest of the people of this state. But, remember one thing, the Psalm that says, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil." I walked through the valley of the shadow of death and I came through it. It made me tougher and stronger and meaner and more determined to do the things that I think are important. If you think I'm kidding, come back two years from now because I'm going to be here; tougher, stronger and meaner than ever and get through the things that are important to me and to everybody in the State of Nevada. If you think I'm kidding, come back.

MR. SPEAKER:

I'll be here, Marvin, my friend, I am looking forward to it.

Assembly Bill No. 153.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Zimmer, Thompson, Jeffrey, Bilyeu, Nevin, Roberts, Schofield, Rader, Craddock, O'Donnell, Williams, Humke and Price.

Assemblyman Getto requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ZIMMER:

A.B. 153 is a landmark piece of legislation that provides safety to the citizens of Nevada and to the tourists that come to Nevada. We are all painfully aware of the violence that occurred during the last major strike in Clark County and the effects it had on our people, our image and our economy. Judge Thompson had the strength and good judgment to issue a temporary restraining order that limited the number of pickets on the street and thus reduced the danger to the public and to the participants. This bill is a mirror of that restraining order. The Supreme Court has ruled that picketing is a freedom of speech and in no way would this legislature wish to infringe on that right. The opposition will argue that this bill is unconstitutional because of that freedom. But I submit to this body that this argument is invalid. Our legislative counsel and other noted labor attorneys said that this bill does not limit the freedom of speech. This bill, while limiting the number of pickets, would insure the safety of the participants while guaranteeing their right to freedom of speech. The safety of the citizens of the State of Nevada is of paramount importance to this legislature. We as a body can pass no legislation that addresses that safety as significantly as A.B. 153. I would like to read to you Section 1, Article 1 of our Nevada Constitution: "All men are by nature free and equal to have certain inalienable rights among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing and protecting property and pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness." Your Committee on Labor and Management recommends a "do pass."

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

I stand in opposition to this bill. I think today we have before us an issue that on the surface appears to be a labor and management issue. But this issue has roots that run to the beginning of our nation. We talk a lot in these chambers about the rights of people and their needs. I have served three sessions in this house—that's not a lot compared to some of the people here—but I have not seen anything that even came close to this bill. I, too, like the chairman of the Labor and Management Committee would like to read something to you. However, this is from the United States Constitution. The First Amendment provides freedom of religion, speech and press; rights of assembly and petition. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof or bridging the freedom of speech or of the press or of the right of the people peacefully to assemble and to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

I think today these rights are being challenged by this bill. The proponents of this bill, because of one incident in Las Vegas, are willing to water down these rights. Not only the rights of Nevada citizens, but every citizen of our nation. There was violence in the strike in Las Vegas, but I might add on both sides. Not all strikes and demonstrations are violent. But I think because of this one incident, we are willing to draft this bill which I think is unconstitutional. I don't think the bill should ever have been drafted to begin with. We are willing to throw out these First Amendment rights for a one time incident. Not all strikes are violent. By and large, they are not violent.

I think if we pass this bill we are going to cost the taxpayers of this state money in the end as this bill is unconstitutional. It will certainly be challenged in court and the State of Nevada will be put into a position to defend a bill that we passed that will be unconstitutional.

ASSEMBLYMAN JEFFREY:

I rise in opposition to this bill, also. The chairman of the Labor and Management Committee was correct when she said this was landmark legislation. During the hearings on this bill, the attorney representing management who, by the way, was out of Beverly Hills complained about the out-of-state help in the strike. He said that two or three other states had passed this kind of legislation. I have here a research paper from our research department answering several questions that were asked. First of all, this Beverly Hills attorney misled the committee. It appears that there are no state laws which deal directly with the regulation of picketing during a labor strike. I checked with the National Conference of State Legislators and the United States Department of Labor. Neither of these organizations could locate a state with such a law. Review of the labor statutes of the other western states also indicate that the laws in these states contain no specific provision to regulate picketing during a labor strike. Four proposals relating to picketing and strike violence have been introduced in three states, Arizona, Florida and Iowa, during the 1985 session of their legislatures. The two measures in Florida and the senate bill in Iowa are apparently in their original committees. The proposal in Arizona passed the legislature but was vetoed by the governor.

Then the question was asked as to the preemption by federal law. He states here that the National Labor Relations Act as amended includes a prohibition against the use of violence by unions to interfere with the rights of employees. Under the NLRA, it is an unfair labor practice for a union to impede the policies of this law by engaging in violent misconduct that has the effect of restraining or coercing employees. The NLRB generally has jurisdiction over cases involving unfair labor practices. The NLRB has the authority to impose the following sanctions or remedies for situations pertaining to unfair labor practices which include incidents of strike violence, cease and desist orders, temporary injunctions, withholding of a bargaining order and decertification of a union.

State and federal courts have the authority to issue injunctions against violent actions, award compensatory and punitive damage and prosecute persons or groups under criminal statutes. Our research department contacted the NLRB regional director in Oakland, California and the attorney in the office of the general counsel of NLRB in Washington, D.C. They provided the following comments on sections of the bill. "The major problem with A.B. 153 is the provision which would make it unlawful to picket on private property without the owner's permission. This provision would be preempted by federal law because many NLRB and federal court decisions have affirmed the right of employees to picket peacefully on the property of an employer.

In the case of Seattle vs. First National Bank in the NLRB which was decided by the NLRB in 1979, and enforced by the 9th Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals in 1980, they did find that it was legal to picket. In fact, this was a case where they picketed on one of the upper floors of a bank building because that was where they had to go to get their message to the public. This and other cases cited in the court decision state that the employees have the right to picket on private property. The National Labor Relations Act guarantees employees the right to engage in organized activities. These activities include the right to strike and the right to picket. These rights are derived from the rights of free speech and assembly which are guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

The two people that were contacted from the NLRB were Mr. Francis and Ms. Farrell. They both indicate that some of the provisions of A.B. 153 could infringe upon these rights by limiting the rights of employees to picket and to peacefully express their grievances with an employer. Employees have the right to publicize their dispute with their employer. According to Mr. Francis, the private property of an employer in some cases may be the only place where employees can get their message across reflecting that a dispute exists with the employer.

As far as the strike in Las Vegas is concerned, I think the state court acted under their authority and that is also backed up by this research. The state courts have the authority to issue injunctions and limit the number of picketers in a labor dispute particularly if there was a threat to the property or access to the property of an employer. However, Ms. Farrell stated there should be a valid state interest to be protected if the state is to encroach on the right to picket by limiting the number of persons who may engage in this activity.

I think this bill is an unfortunate overreaction to the culinary strike in Las Vegas. One thing to keep in mind, however, is there are probably a hundred different labor organizations doing business in the State of Nevada and this legislation affects all of them. Building trades in particular have a stake in the picketing on private property. There have been many times that has been done and many times it has been upheld.

I think this bill is blatantly unfair. If you will read all of the instances on page two that talk about the areas that are misdemeanors, not one of these affects management. I can tell you that there was management harrassment on those picket lines as well as from labor. But there is not one instance here where management can be touched under this legislation. I think that the one provision, along with several others, that may very well shoot this bill down in court, and there is no doubt it will go to court if it is passed, is on page two starting on line 22. This provision says that only ten people can congregate for any purpose, even to eat, near a picket line. Now, if that doesn't attack the right of free assembly, I'll have to put in with you. I think this is a terrible bill. It does nothing but precipitate more unrest between labor and management and I urge its defeat.

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

I rise in support of this bill. I have heard, with interest, the arguments of my distinguished colleagues and I respect those arguments. I do not think it behooves us, predicated upon a possible court challenge or a possible question of constitutionality, to overlook the merits of this bill. Inherent in the right to peaceably assemble, the right to strike is, in fact, the very words used in argument that is to peaceably assemble. The right to petition for redress of grievances is, in fact, a constitutional right. But it must be done so within the boundaries of nonviolence in order for it to be effective or else it becomes a mob.

Now, one can argue about specific provisions or paragraphs of this bill. But, in fact, if you look at the bill it does say that it applies not only in the case of strike but also in the case of work stoppages or in other areas as well. What conduct does it prevent? It prevents persons from using language or words to threaten to do harm to a person or his property or designed to incite fear in any person attempting to enter or leave any property. It prohibits such acts as knowingly to spread, drop, throw or otherwise knowingly to disperse nails, tacks, staples, glass or other objects in the entrance to or exits from any property. It prevents people from intentionally operating vehicles so as to delay, impede or interfere with the ability of a person or vehicles to enter or leave any property. Those kind of acts have no business in peaceful assembly. Those kinds of acts have no business in terms of petitioning for the redress of wrongs. I would urge each and every one of us to carefully consider A.B. 153 and I urge a "do pass."

ASSEMBLYMAN NEVIN:

I am opposed to A.B. 153. Many reasons were discussed and I have to go along with the feeling that it is unconstitutional. On page two, line 3, section C it reads, "knowingly to threaten, molest, assault, or in any manner physically touch the person, clothing, or vehicle." Who is going to determine that it was knowingly done. If somebody walks by someone and touches their clothing they can be placed under arrest. I think that is going too far. Section D states, "Intentionally to operate a motor vehicle as to delay, impede, interfere the ability of the person". Who is going to say that person pulling into a driveway intentionally pulled into that driveway or business to slow down and impede. I think this language is wide open and has a lot of holes in it. I think it will be challenged in court and I urge your "no" vote on this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

I think the Speaker touched on the subject I am talking about. Because of an incident of violence, and I might add the violence was on both sides, we are going to pass a bill that in the end is going to cost everybody in the State of Nevada money to fight this in court. If you look at the bill, on page two, everything in there is already against the law. It is not lawful for you to spread tacks in the road or to hit people. These things are already illegal. I think because of this incident we are going to have a reaction to something that happened that is negatively going to affect people's rights and their pocketbooks.

ASSEMBLYMAN ROBERTS:

A.B. 153 is welcomed by several entities in my district including the union labor members and also by the residents. I must say there was a lot of damage and a lot of problems in District 18 when Sam's Town was on strike. The residents asked why they had to plow through two or three hundred people to get to their homes because the intersections that had nothing to do with Sam's Town were blocked. They blocked the sidewalks and intentionally walked in front of people. There were nails thrown, cars being hit with signs and there were no police around. These were just everyday events that happened in District 18. The reason I'm supporting this bill is because I was requested by my constituents to support A.B. 153. I think this bill gives rights to the picketers because they are being protected as well as the residents. I believe it is a very fair bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN SCHOFIELD:

I rise in extreme opposition to this bill and for this reason. I'm not usually on one side or the other relative to management or labor organizations but I do want to bring out one point that I think we are all missing on this particular issue. That is the three forms of government that this nation was founded on; the judicial, administrative and legislative.

As spoken by some of the proponents for this bill concerning the decision that was made by the district judge to, in fact, limit these pickets. I think that is a right granted by our Constitution to the judicial. We have a right as legislators to legislate, to pass laws, which we have. Some of them good and some of them bad. I charge you to take a look at the decisions that we will be making on this. We would be not only holding the judges who do, in fact, judge in the judicial from doing what their job is by telling them what we are going to do concerning this which is against the right of the people. The people are everyone, including my colleague from District 18 and his comment on everyone's rights. The right of the people to not be blocked. But I submit to you that is a law enforcement problem which is another end of our administrative form of government and as far as I'm concerned I think we would be doing the people of this state an injustice and the people of this country an injustice to try to pass this type of legislation when, in fact, it should be handled by the judicial.

I would urge you to amend this bill to further go toward the law enforcement to give them a little more arm and try not to pass legislation that will take the rights of the judges away and take the rights of the people away, which is the right to peaceful assembly and is part of the Constitution.

I am not questioning whether or not it is constitutional. There are many measures that we have spoken on in these halls in the last ten years that I have been here and that have been passed where there have been constitutional questions within this body. Some of them have been filed against the particular issue as far as the Constitution was concerned. I am not questioning the constitutionality; I am questioning what right we have to take those rights away from the other areas of government. I certainly urge you to, at least, vote "no" on this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN RADER:

I rise to support this bill, and I have a unique perspective on it. I am, possibly, the only member of this body who actually participated in that strike. I am a card-carrying member of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Local 720, in Las Vegas. I had the privilege of walking the picket line before and after Judge Thompson's order.

I can tell you that, for my own safety and the safety of the citizens in general, it was much better after the order. This bill just codifies the order. We were still able to get our message across after the order. I personally walked the line and discouraged people in a lawful manner from going into gaming establishments that were being struck. You can still do the job with this bill. Without this bill, you are going to have violence. You are going to have people crowding the entrances and exits so that the customers can't come in.

As to the constitutionality, organized labor had a golden chance to determine that during the strike when they appealed Judge Thompson's order to the Ninth Circuit Court, and they broke off that appeal. They had the chance then, if they had pressed that appeal, to get a definitive answer from the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals as to whether Judge Thompson's ruling was constitutional. I think it is too late for them to come and try to get that answer now when they already had a chance.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

It has already been pointed out that a big part of this bill, if it should become statute, would be repetitive and major. I would like to conclude my remarks very briefly by asking one question of the Chairman of the Labor and Management Committee; that is simply this, how are we, or anyone else, going to determine whether or not people are peaceably assembled by mere numbers? It would seem to me that twenty people can peaceably asemble or one can get rowdy.

ASSEMBLYMAN O'DONNELL:

I will be brief. I think the comments by my colleague from North Las Vegas were apropos when he stated that he walked the picket line before and after. We are not prohibiting assemblage; all we are doing is making it reasonable. Everyone knows what a strike is, and no one in my district was happy when the strike was called. This bill does exactly what the restraining order does. If the restraining order was so unconstitutional, then why wasn't the restraining order enjoined?

I submit to you that the person who was run over in the Caesar's Palace parking lot and had his ribs crushed and was in the hospital, surely has his rights, too. I said in committee, and I'll say on this floor today, this is a landmark measure in common sense, and I support it.

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIAMS:

I rise in opposition to this bill. Anybody in this Chamber who is familiar with my district will understand that I do not come from a labor district. When we listened to this bill in committee, we heard attorneys on both sides. I am convinced that this bill exceeds Judge Thompson's order. I am convinced that this bill puts a limitation on citizens' constitutional rights. I am convinced that the State of Nevada should not have to go to court and spend money to find out about the constitutionality which I believe is a legitimate issue. I would urge you not to support this. I think the right of free assembly is a basic tenet in our country, and I think it is something that we all need to defend and protect.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

I rise to speak in favor of the measure. The previous speaker and several others who are opposed talked about the rights of free speech and assembly, but this bill is a permissible regulation of those rights which are guaranteed under the First Amendment. There is a long, long line of court cases which show that it is permissible to regulate. A previous speaker from a district in Henderson asked, "What is the valid state interest that is to be protected?" That valid state interest is to protect the health, safety and welfare of all of the citizens of the state under the police powers of the United States and the Nevada Constitution. This bill does not fail due to vagueness nor to over-breadth. There are clear references to inciting and language to fighting words. There is, essentially, no discretion built in, discretion being a negative thing that could be authorized by a local official; there are standards built in. The bill does not fail due to constitutionality, and I think it is a good one.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I think it is no surprise to my colleagues that I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 153. I am not so sure that it has been clearly stated, but the problem with interfering with the rights of strikers and picketing is, in my opinion, not a constitutional question. It is a matter of jurisdiction between federal and state law. Having had experience in that area over the years running a labor union, I can tell you that everything that I have ever learned in court cases that I have seen in the past have indicated, as Mr. Jeffrey made very clear, that the jurisdiction of the rights of picketers is in the federal arena and not in the state arena. So, it doesn't make sense to me, other than the fact that I can understand political philosophy and where the votes come from, that we should be passing a bill of this nature and subject matter in our halls.

On the question of the constitutionality, if you look at the end of line three where it talks about other disputes, we are not talking about labor disputes; we are talking about any type of a dispute that may arise. One of the things that comes to mind, at least in Las Vegas, is when we had people picketing last year over that business that was selling memberships that were invalid. The people couldn't get the products that they paid for in the membership and they were out there picketing on private property.

I can remember another time, many years ago, when we had protesters and picketers going up and down the strip concerning food and welfare rights. There are many reasons people have been picketing all types of businesses, organizations, etc. that have nothing to do with labor, but they have inherent rights to assembly and to picket. What my honorable colleague that walked the picket line actually brought up is the right and the very positive part about the law now.

If, in fact, there is violence, or someone thinks there is violence, or someone thinks there are too many people on the picket line, under federal law they can go to court and get an injunction and go through that process. And that's good and it should remain that way. But it doesn't make since for us to close our eyes to a long, long history of what is federal jurisdiction and what is local jurisdiction and pass a law simply because of what happened last year, right, wrong, or indifferent.

ASSEMBLYMAN JEFFREY:

I would like, first of all, to say that as far as Judge Thompson's order is concerned, and the authority that he had to place that order, I don't think that anybody argues with that. State courts definitely do have the right to decide issues of public safety. I don't argue that now, nor have I ever. There have been times in the past when such orders have been placed that I totally agreed with and much of the order that Judge Thompson placed I agreed with.

I didn't agree with the right to assemble off of the property being picketed and that was one of the areas that was appealed. When the first appeal was placed, it was stricken down by one judge on the Ninth Circuit; Judge Foley's order to Metro to not enforce the order was rewritten, was upheld and was never challenged by either side. Thankfully, the strike came to an end. Nobody likes a strike. This strike in Las Vegas was one that labor did not want to get into. They were forced into it. That's beside the point and has nothing to do with this bill.

But, again, if you will go to page one of the bill and look at the language starting on lines five through ten, under the provisions of this bill, it is illegal to picket on private property, a right that has been established many times in court, without getting an order from a federal court or agency. That section alone is going to cause come real legal problems with this bill and I think it is enough to throw it out in itself. Now, if you take a look at page two, I agree with Mr. Speaker and the statements that he made about activities that should be stopped or prevented, but I submit to you that most of these are covered under present law. Take a look at the language from line three to line seven and then again line eleven to line thirteen, and you will see what I mean when I say that this is an unfair bill. It is illegal, "Knowingly to threaten, molest, assault, or in any manner physically touch the person, clothing or vehicle of any person attempting to enter or leave any property."

Now, there is not one word there about management harassment, and those same kinds of things happened on these picket lines. Where is the protection for the striker here? Starting on line eleven, "To use language or words threatening to do harm to a person or his property or designed to incite fear in any person attempting to enter or leave any property." Again, where is the protection for the striker here? This is a one-way bill. It protects the property of management during a labor dispute, but it does not do one thing to protect the rights of the strikers.

As far as the person who was run over at the entrance to Caesar's Palace, I agree that was an unfortunate incident. I would like to point out that that person was run over by a security guard, and there was much more violence on the part of the security guards in this strike than there was on the part of the strikers.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

Since I did not get a response to my direct question earlier, I would now extend that question to the entire membership. Let me repose it. How are we, or anyone else, to determine whether or not people are peaceably assembled by mere numbers? We have in excess of twenty here; we have far in excess of two; we seem to be peaceably assembled, but I am not certain that the determination can be made in any shape or fashion. I don't understand how the bill could be workable even if we did pass it out and it was not found to be unconstitutional.

Father in Heaven, we stand before You, mere mortal people endeavoring to resolve legislative problems that can only be solved with the help of Your infinite wisdom and the strength of Your Holy Spirit. Lord, I pray that You fill this room so that each person feels the same holy presence that the founding fathers called upon while this nation was still in its infancy to help them solve the legislative problems of this, our beloved republic. Lord, I pray that You touch each heart present so that the historians may set pen to paper that on this day these people did legislate; transcending the aspirations of partisan politics or personal gain. That on this day, Lord, these people did truly legislate for the better of humanity and to the glory of God. To this Lord we pray. AMEN.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Beyer requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN BOGAERT:

I think we'll all have some remarks about our staff and the members of the staff we worked most directly with. I think they have had to put up with a lot from us. It's not over yet. Their dedication has been shown over and over again and it will continue in the next few days ahead. I think we all realize and are grateful for their hard work, dedication and effort. I know they are here in the same spirit as we are to do the best job for the State of Nevada and we all appreciate it.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMAS:

You know, we people in the private sector are always patting ourselves on the back about the great employees we have and what a great job we do because we are out there in the competitive world. I can tell you one thing this is one of the smoothest, best well oiled machines I've ever seen—this Legislative Counsel Bureau. I think it is a tribute to the people who work here; I've never seen better anywhere. It has been a privilege to work with you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

I didn't want to pass up this opportunity to say a few words. I've been here, along with my colleague, longer than any other legislator and it has been many years since I have had the opportunity to have a secretary. I want to pay tribute to my secretary, Nancy, who has received the brunt of all the phone calls on a bill that has received more attention than any other. Everybody was telling me how terrible that I had to take all the pressure from the public. Really, Nancy took that. I thought I was going to lose her two or three times but she did stay with me. Thank you, Nancy.

Amend the bill as a whole by adding a new section designated section 28.5, following section 28, to read as follows:

"Sec. 28.5. NRS 377.057 is hereby amended to read as follows:

377.057 1. The state controller, acting upon the relevant information furnished by the department, shall monthly from the fees, taxes, interest and penalties which derive from the supplemental city-county relief tax collected in all counties and from out-of-state businesses during the preceding month, after making any distributions required by NRS 377.053:

(a) Distribute the amount specified in this paragraph among the following local governments in the following percentages:

Political Subdivision	Percentage
Churchill County	3.23
City of North Las Vegas	46.52
City of Carlin	2.72
Esmeralda County	.20
Eureka County	.71
City of Winnemucca	5.56
City of Caliente	.46
City of Yerington	4.77

City of Lovelock	5.77
White Pine County	5.37
City of Ely	7.90

For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1981, the monthly amount is $71,110. For each succeeding fiscal year, this amount must be reduced by $7,111 from the preceding year.

(b) Distribute to each local government the amount calculated for it by the department of taxation pursuant to subsection 2.

2. The maximum amounts distributable under paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must be estimated for each fiscal year. The percentage of maximum allowable revenue, as determined pursuant to NRS 354.59805, to be derived from the supplemental city-county relief tax must be as nearly equal among the several counties as possible. The amount apportioned to each county must then be apportioned among the several local governments therein, including the county and excluding the school district , [and] any redevelopment agency, and any other local government excluded by specific statute, in the proportion which each local government's basic ad valorem revenue bears to the total basic ad valorem revenue of all these local governments except that no local government may receive more than the amount to which it is entitled pursuant to NRS 354.59811 and 354.59816. When any local government has received the maximum supplemental city-county relief tax calculated to be distributed to it, any remaining money otherwise distributable to it must be deposited in the reserve fund for the supplemental city-county relief tax.

3. As used in this section, the "basic ad valorem revenue":

(a) Of each local government is its assessed valuation for the year of distribution, multiplied by the rate levied on its behalf for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1981, for purposes other than paying the interest on and principal of its general obligations. For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) A county whose actual tax rate, for purposes other than debt service, for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1981, was less than 50 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is entitled to the use of a rate not greater than 80 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

(2) A fire district in such a county whose tax rate was more than 50 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is entitled to the use of a rate not greater than $1.10 per $100 of assessed valuation.

(b) Of the county for the distribution under subsection 1 is the sum of its individual basic ad valorem revenue and those of the other local governments within it, excluding the school district.

4. For the purposes of this section, a fire district organized pursuant to chapter 473 of NRS is a local government.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering section 2 as section 3 and adding a new section designated as section 2, following section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. NRS 354.5988 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.5988 1. If actual receipts from the supplemental city-county relief tax for any fiscal year exceed the estimate previously made by the executive director of the department of taxation, the excess receipts must be deposited in the reserve fund for the supplemental city-county relief tax which is hereby created in the state treasury. There must also be deposited in this fund any proceeds of that tax which become available when for any local government the supplemental city-county relief tax otherwise distributable to it exceeds the combined amount allowable to it from the supplemental city-county relief tax and taxes ad valorem. Money in this fund must not be used for any purpose other than distribution to local governments pursuant to this section. The interest earned upon the money in the fund must be added to the principal of the fund.

2. The money in this fund must be used to increase the distribution to local governments when the actual receipts from the supplemental city-county relief tax are less than the estimates previously made by the director of the department of taxation. Whenever the money in the fund at the beginning of any fiscal year exceeds [$10,000,000,] $12,500,000 this excess must be distributed to local governments in the following fiscal year in the same proportion as current receipts are distributed for that fiscal year, except that the distribution to each local government must be so limited that it does not receive from this distribution, from distributions pursuant to NRS 377.057 and from taxes ad valorem a total amount greater than its maximum allowable combined revenue. This distribution must be included in the executive director's estimate of money to be received by each local government from the supplemental city-county relief tax.

3. The interim finance committee may direct the state controller to make a special distribution from the fund if it determines that unforeseen or uncontrollable conditions, existing or imminent, substantially impair the financial capacity of a local government to provide the basic services for which it was created, but:

(a) Until the balance in the fund reaches [$7,500,000] $10,000,000 no such distribution may be made; and

(b) The next $2,500,000 transferred into the fund is available for distribution pursuant to this subsection.

In making such a determination, the committee shall consider the recommendation of the executive director of the department of taxation. The executive director and the committee shall consider, without limitation, the effect of a sudden and unusual decrease in population served, a decrease in total revenue of at least 5 percent, and natural disasters. The committee shall consider the general economic condition of the community and of the state and the effect of each proposal on the taxpayer, and make written findings of the facts supporting the distribution. The total amount which may be distributed pursuant to this subsection must not exceed 25 percent of the amount in the fund at the beginning of that fiscal year.''.

Assemblyman O'Donnell moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen O'Donnell, Swain and Stone.

Assemblyman Sader requested that Assemblyman Swain's remarks be entered in the Journal.

I rise in opposition to Amendment 1392 to S.B. 510 specifically because of the deletion of Section 13 which appropriates $20,000 to employ outside counsel for any litigation arising as a result of this act.

In 1981 this legislative body passed a similar bill which was challenged successfully in the courts. An injunction was then placed on our abortion statutes. That action cost the taxpayers of this state $50,000. I know for a fact that a lawyer has already been hired to handle the constitutional attack on this bill and that the case is already being prepared.

The author of this bill recognized that possibility and quite appropriately attached $20,000 to the bill to pay for its defense. Twenty thousand dollars will not even begin to cover the costs that will be incurred in the forthcoming battle. I suggest to you that the removal of the $20,000 appropriation is merely a bit of political maneuvering designed to avoid the necessity of sending this bill to our Ways and Means Committee where it rightfully belongs.

If the proponents of S.B. 510 think that by removing Section 13 they are eliminating the fiscal impact of this bill, they are sorely mistaken. We heard testimony in committee that 517 minors received abortions in this state in 1984. If only half of that number needed court appointed counsel as per Section 2, at the probably insufficient rate of $400 per occurrence the cost to the counties would be $114,800.

I submit to you that the $20,000 appropriation belongs in this bill and I urge you to defeat this amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Rader, Sader, Humke, Craddock and DuBois.

Assemblyman Humke requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN RADER:

This was a close call for me when we had the vote the first time. I accepted the policy arguments for and against it on both sides. But after I voted it was called to my attention by some former legislators, both of them of the Democratic persuasion, that this body has worked for a long time to become a co-equal partner in government. And the abuses that exist on the federal level between the legislative and executive branch, and perhaps in the big industrial states, simply doesn't exist here and the bill is not really needed. We heard all the testimony about the governor's influence and powers with the budget. The bottom line for me was when I reexamined my position because I really believe I can do a better job of representing my district if I've got this vote and the governor doesn't have the line item veto.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

I also rise in opposition to S.J.R. 37. I think S.J.R. 37 represents a fundamental shift in the power between the executive branch and the legislative branch. As such, all of us as legislators should take a close look at this bill for what we are here to do, and constitutionally authorized, which is to set taxes and levels of state and local government spending. Setting local and state government spending is probably as important and effective means to exercise power given to us by the constitution that the legislative branch has. This bill gives away part of that power by giving the power of selective veto to the governor. This is not just over the budget, however, because the power of selective veto also gives any governor a tremendous amount of leverage over any legislation he cares about in these halls. As such, it really shifts fundamentally much of the power reserved to us to the governor because of the leverage given for selective vetos.

I believe some proponents of this bill honestly believe it will aid in fiscal responsibility because of the problem we see on the federal level with Congress particularly on costly riders on unassociated bills allowing for excess spending and large budget deficits. This, however, is not the situation in the State of Nevada. It is not the situation for several reasons. First, we have a constitutional requirement to balance our budget. Second, this, as well as allowing for the governor to reduce budgets, it could also allow the governor to increase budgets by withholding money the legislature thinks is important in order to get increases in other budgets. This would also allow any governor, whether Democrat or Republican, whether he is a conservative or liberal, beyond the philosophical, into the institutional to exercise more power than he should have.

Nevada already has a situation in which the governor makes our budgets. The governor controls who is going to testify. The governor controls what that person is going to say. Now, we are going to give the governor the ability to actually veto what we do. In doing so, we, I think, as citizens who do not have a staff of citizen legislators give to a professional governor with a great deal of staff, the kind of power that he should not have and that the constitution does not contemplate. If you believe that we have a fundamental differentiation between the legislative and the judicial branches; if you believe that we should keep that distinction; if you think we have checks and balances that preserve that power, then you should vote against this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN BANNER:

S.B. 64, second reprint, has been around here since January 30. It provides provision to NRS 630. These are the statutes related to physicians and physician assistants and is sometimes called the Medical Practice Act. This regulates the licensing and disciplining of physicians and physician assistants in the State of Nevada. The major changes proposed are:

1. Standardization of competency level of practicing physicians through uniform qualifications for licensure.
2. Making disciplinary procedures against physicians more efficient from the initial investigation through the adjudication of complaints.
3. Monitoring the ongoing maintenance of physician competency through the requirement of continuing medical education.
4. Eliminating inconsistent and contradictory segments of NRS 630 which are a result of years of amendments to NRS 630.
5. Enlarging the Board of Medical Examiners and thus increasing the percentage of lay involvement.

This bill has been around here a long time. It has been lobbied all over the place and we have had considerable hearings. I'm sure everybody in here knows how they are going to vote.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 22.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1299.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering section 5 as section 8 and adding new sections designated as sections 5 through 7, following section 4, to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. 1. For the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1985, and ending June 30, 1986, and for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1986, and ending June 30, 1987, a tax ad valorem of 2 cents on each $100 of assessed valuation of taxable property is hereby levied and directed to be collected, in the manner provided in chapter 361 of NRS, on all taxable property in this state, including the net proceeds of mines and mining claims, except such property as is by law exempt from taxation.

2. The proceeds of the tax levied by subsection 1 are hereby appropriated for each fiscal year to the consolidated bond interest and redemption fund to discharge the obligations of the State of Nevada as they are respectively due in that fiscal year. Any balance of money appropriated by this section remaining at the end of the respective fiscal years does not revert to the state general fund.

Sec. 6. 1. On or before July 1, 1985, and July 1, 1986, the state controller shall estimate the amount of the proceeds of the tax levied by section 5 of this act. If the amount is less than the total obligation of the State of Nevada for payment of the interest on and principal of bonds which will become due in that fiscal year, he shall reserve in the state general fund an amount which is sufficient to pay the remainder of the total obligation. The state controller may revise the estimate and the amount reserved.

2. If the money in the consolidated bond interest and redemption fund is insufficient to pay those obligations as they become due, the state controller shall cause the money reserved to be transferred from the state general fund to the consolidated bond interest and redemption fund. The amount reserved is hereby contingently appropriated for that purpose. Any balance of the sums appropriated by this subsection remaining at the end of the respective fiscal years must not be committed for expenditure after June 30 and reverts to the state general fund as soon as all payments of money committed have been made.

3. The state controller shall report to the legislature or, if the legislature is not in session, to the interim finance committee:

(a) The amount of any estimate made pursuant to subsection 1 and the amount of money reserved in the state general fund based upon the estimate;

(b) The amount of money transferred from the state general fund pursuant to subsection 2; and

(c) The amount of money which reverts to the state general fund pursuant to subsection 2.

Sec. 7. 1. There is hereby appropriated from the state general fund to the state board of examiners the sum of $125,000 for payment of any costs of the initial issuance and sale of the bonds issued pursuant to this act.

2. Any remaining balance of the appropriation made by subsection 1 must not be committed for expenditure after June 30, 1987, and reverts to the state general fund as soon as all payments of money committed have been made.".

Amend the title of the bill, second line, after "River;" by inserting: "levying a tax ad valorem to support the consolidated bond interest and redemption fund; making appropriations from the state general fund to support the consolidated bond interest and redemption fund and to pay the cost of issuing the bonds authorized by this act;".

The hearing must be held within 30 days after the notice is given and the board shall render its decision in the case within 10 days after the hearing.

[2.] 3. The board may on its own motion, within 15 days after the [hearing] appeals officer renders his decision, modify or reverse the decision.

Amend sec. 4, page 2, after line 42, by inserting:

"2. If the imposition of a common levy results in the increase or decrease of the rate of levy of taxes ad valorem imposed in an unincorporated town for the common service, the rate for that town must be increased or decreased in proportional increments for the first 3 fiscal years in which the common levy is imposed until the rate for that town equals the common rate calculated pursuant to subsection 1.''.

Assemblyman Roberts moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Roberts, Francis, Bergevin, Jeffrey and Williams.

Assemblyman Coffin requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ROBERTS:

I request the support of Amendment No. 1440. This is a three year equalization to equal the parity tax to make it fair. It is government's responsibility to be fair in judgment, especially when the government created the problem. Should we penalize the citizens of East Las Vegas, Sunrise Manor, and Spring Valley because of government error. On the other hand, should we continue to overtax Paradise and Winchester. I say no.

There should be equalization. That is why this amendment is being proposed. The East Las Vegas residents have had special assessments, in fact, recently a $300,000 building was built which they paid for themselves. Nobody else paid for it but the residents of East Las Vegas. The interesting thing is they didn't even receive the interest on that money they have had for three years. I asked the county where the money is and nobody can answer that question. Not only that, we just refunded $3 million to Winchester and Paradise and I just want the body to know I believe in parity but I believe the amendment would help equalize this. This all started in 1980. In 1978 and 1979, East Las Vegas, Paradise, Winchester, and Sunrise Manor were equalized and tax was the same. The funny thing in 1979 and 1980, East Las Vegas and Sunrise Manor paid more for assessment than Paradise and Winchester. After 1980 to 1981, 1981 to 1982, 1982 to 1983, 1983 to 1984, 1984 to 1985, Paradise and Winchester did pay more. All I'm asking this body is to be fair and not penalize these people at 15 cents in one area, 17 cents in another area, and 19 cents in another area by penalizing them with a one shot. These taxes were created as years went on. These people did not get penalized or taxed on one shot. This is what you are doing to these other three districts.

ASSEMBLYMAN FRANCIS:

I rise in opposition to this amendment. S.B. 393 provides a vehicle whereby tax rate parity can be achieved in urban unincorporated towns which are contiguous and which receive like services. An equalized levy would assure that the tax effort for common services is commonly shared. In recent years, such tax rates have continued to drift apart. For example, in Clark County, those town entities that have enjoyed substantially lower tax rates over the past few years have already had the benefit of a lesser tax burden for a considerable period of time. Relief for those town entities which have been supporting higher tax rates is already overdue.

It is important to note that the concept of phasing in a common tax levy as proposed by this amendment has already been proposed. It was rejected by the Senate and by the Assembly Taxation Committee. The rationale for that action is convincing. Aside from any possible technical difficulties associated with computing a phased-in tax rate, what this amendment does, does not seem to be the best philosophically to first recognize that disparity has occurred and then to retain that disparity for three more years by phasing in a solution.

Fairness is 100 percent effort. To phase in equity is an attempt to be first 50 percent fair and then 75 percent fair and finally fair. In the interest of providing 100 percent fairness, as it is needed, I suggest there be no further amendments to this bill except for Mr. Price's amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN BERGEVIN:

There is one point that has been missed by everybody. If we phase this in on a three year period, it totally destroys the distribution of the SCCRT. You cannot phase in a tax rate on this basis and maintain the proper distribution of SCCRT as it will affect some of these communities if you phase it on a three year period, which will be exceeding their maximum allowable revenue and will not be able to levy that kind of a tax. The bill, as written, declares this area to be one taxable area which equalizes the taxes, equalizes the distribution of the SCCRT and keeps the tax package intact.

ASSEMBLYMAN JEFFREY:

I, too, rise in opposition to the amendment. The district that I represent probably has among the highest, if not the highest, ad valorem tax rate in Clark County. It may be if this were done several years ago our rate may not be what it is now.

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIAMS:

I, also, rise in opposition to this amendment. To suggest that we can do this a little at a time is like saying somebody might be a little bit pregnant.

Amendment lost.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Price:

Amendment No. 1441.

Amend sec. 4, page 2, line 34, by inserting "1." before "If".

Amend sec. 4, page 2, by inserting after line 42:

"2. Whether or not a common levy has been established, each board of county commissioners shall cause to be prepared and made available as a public record a document showing:

(a) The services provided throughout the county and financed from the rate levied for the county as such; and

(b) The services provided in each area for which an additional rate is levied and financed from that rate.".

Assemblyman Price moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Price.

Assemblyman Coffin requested that Assemblyman Price's remarks be entered in the Journal.

Amendment 1441 allows the county to actually make available upon request the services that are provided by the base rate on the county. That is the rate that we in Henderson, North Las Vegas, and Las Vegas, all through the county pay and the services provided for the money collected in those special districts. I would urge your adoption. The county has no objections to this language.

Remarks by Assemblymen Jeffrey, Price, Getto, Bilyeu and Thomas.

Assemblyman Coffin requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN JEFFREY:

I don't think I need to tell anyone what a problem water is in the State of Nevada, especially in Clark County where we have a high growth rate at the present time. S.B. 277 appropriates $600,000 each year of the coming biennium for the study and testing of aquifers of deep carbon rocks in eastern and southern Nevada. The bill also allows any political subdivision or special district of the state, including the Las Vegas Valley Water District to continue for the same purpose and allows for the acceptance of contributions. In addition to the $600,000 annually for the state general fund, the Las Vegas Valley Water District has already committed $200,000 as a match in the current fiscal year to the United States Geological Service. Additionally, it has directly committed $50,000 to the Desert Research Institute. In addition, the water district has budgeted $200,000 next year to assist with the study.

The U.S. Department of the Interior has also committed funding in support of this project. Testimony received indicated that this would be in the range of $800,000 annually. For a $600,000 appropriation with the matches that the water district and Federal Government are committed to put it, we will have over $1,600,000 for this study. I think it is very important to Clark County and eastern Nevada. It may be a great benefit to the State of Nevada in the future.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I will be supporting the bill but I do have a couple of questions. When Commissioner Broadbent first talked about this study when he appeared before us here, I was under the impression that the Federal Government would be handling a larger load on this. It seems to me that with the proposed nuclear repository in our county and the testing that has been going on for water and testing the flow of water around our state that we actually are contributing money that they will benefit from. Whereas, just a very few days ago we passed A.J.R. 5 which asks the Federal Government to provide us with mitigating costs for the types of surveys they are doing in conjunction. The water is an important thing. Was there any discussion during the hearings on the fact that they will be benefiting from these studies?

The second question is all of the maps that I have seen over the years done for the state show that the water flow comes out of Utah, down through the underground, through our basin and out to California. I wonder if, also, we are spending this money benefiting other states, particularly to the north, and they will get the benefit with us spending all the money.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

We did not receive any testimony in committee as far as the geological aspect that the Federal Government would receive more benefit. In regard to the second question, we received testimony that the deep aquifer system does extend into Utah but there is a sharp divide in that the two systems are not connected. The fact that we must remember is that this probably is one of the few studies where the government will be participating 50 percent. I think that is very important and timely now looking into the future. This study will extend over a period of 12 years. I would like to correct one of the statements. The state's participation is $600,000 per year but also there will be efforts for private money to be matched. If we wait on this project, there won't be any federal matching and that's the important thing.

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

I rise in support of this most meritorious bill. We are asked to spend some money and this is a good thing to spend it on. One of the fallouts of the MX proposal was we found that in this arid waterless state that we had the potential for a vast amount of water underground. We have been afforded the opportunity with matching federal funds to begin to map and tap that resource. It is an opportunity that this state, which is so water deprived, cannot, in fact, afford to lose. I strongly urge each and every one of you to vote yes for this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMAS:

I, too, rise in support of this bill. If the Federal Government benefits in any way from this it will be perhaps in learning where to put the radiological waste deposits should we get stuck with them. If, in truth, there is the aquifer that we think there is and we have the amount of water that the hydrologists think there is, we are going to have to find out how to develop that before we risk contamination with any nuclear waste. It is very important we do this and do it now. We know the water is down there but we don't know how fast can we withdraw it; how fast can we use the water; and what is the replenishment rate. We know where the water comes from. We don't know what the replenishment rate is and that is what we need to establish and it must be done right away.

At this time I would like to ask that we observe a moment of silence for the Cashell family.

I never had the privilege of meeting Mr. Cashell myself but I did have the privilege of meeting about 30 residents of Longview, Texas all of whom knew Mr. Cashell. It was in Dallas, Texas that I met them. It was an interesting thing. I would have liked to have met the gentleman because the remarks that were addressed concerning him were full of love, respect, dedication to his community and to his church. From the remarks of the people in Longview, Texas, he was a credit to his community, state and nation. A fine human being.

ASSEMBLYMAN LITTLE:

I feel this resolution is very good for the state and for the country. I have a very short statement that I will read. America's budgetary woes would not be nearly so severe if our economy were not groaning under the strain of financing two military budgets, our own and a significant portion of the Soviet Unions. The great irony for Americans who will be asked to tighten their belts in order to pay for our defense needs is that much of the additional money that must be spent on defense is required to offset Soviet weapons that probably could not have been built without our assistance. It is madness to be asked to defend ourselves against an enemy we have helped to create and continue to strengthen. It is also madness to be asked to disarm while tyrants seek world domination. Sanity demands that we freeze the flow of U.S. technology, know how, U.S. loans and loan guarantees, and U.S. tax dollars to our avowed enemies.

This solution to arms race will not only save the U.S. taxpayers billions, it will also prevent national suicide. Right now we are spending over $200 billion on defense. I have nothing against spending money on defense, but I feel that when it is not needed that we should discontinue the practice. I feel this resolution is necessary, that we voice our feelings to Congress that we support this resolution and in so doing keep our money here in the states by not having to send so much to Washington. I ask your support on this resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN RADER:

I rise to support this resolution because how many times do we have to relearn our history. When the western allies compromised against Adolph Hitler in Munich in 1938, there was a lesson learned that if they had stood firm, they had not compromised and remained militarily strong, had limited relationships with the Nazi government, we would not have had World War II.

The only reason the Soviet Union is beginning to even talk seriously about arms negotiations is because the United States for the past four years has stood firm, been resolute, invaded Grenada, talked about limiting relations with them and talked about making them be honest with their dealings with the rest of the world.

This kind of a resolution reenforces that message that we are sending. The only way we are going to get any respect or any serious negotiations from them is to stand strong. That is why I support this resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN NICHOLAS:

As one of the many veterans in this body that has been involved in an active conflict with Communism, one form or the other, declared or undeclared, I will only suggest that as far as the main direction of this bill is concerned, I am very much in favor of it. It has one problem, however. It stipulates the word "trade" here. Trade can certainly be both strategic and nonstrategic items. No question that half of the gear being used by the Russians came, at least in theory, from us.

As far as the wheat and corn from our farmers, the agricultural products that we are finding more and more in demand around the world, that particular direction which can make a difference in the terrible problem we have with balance of trade, there is that one word I have to differ with. I'm going to vote for it because I think there is enough in it that needs to be said but I wish that word were out.

ASSEMBLYMAN DUBOIS:

I think our relations with Russia are very loose. I think it is about time we tighten that up. Right now, for instance, in Argentina, that's not Russia, but it is a country that is not particularly friendly to us, is building a nuclear plant from technology supplied by companies that are located in western Germany, Italy and the United States. With that technology they will be able to build a nuclear bomb. I support this resolution. I think we should send a message to Congress.

ASSEMBLYMAN BOGAERT:

I stand in favor of this resolution for two reasons. Number one, it is Pat Little's birthday and I do this in her honor. Our Communist enemies cringe when they have to be faced with the reality that our masses have a voice in government. But they do respect that and they do understand that. This is another way to send them a message that says the people of this country, who do elect their officials and have to be behind those elected officials in their decisions, really mean business.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

I support this resolution. If it makes Communists cringe, I'm for it.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMAS:

I, too, support this resolution. I agree with Mr. Nicholas about trade. But I would feel a lot better about trade with those guys if they ever would pay us for what we give them.

Assemblymen Price, Swain and Humke moved the previous question.

Motion carried.

The question being on the passage of Assembly Joint Resolution No. 31.

ASSEMBLYMAN DUBOIS:

Yes, Mr. Speaker. I support the sixth reprint of Senate Bill No. 26. The bill sets up a regional compact of eleven states wherein the financial institutions may cross lines and set up full service operations. Of these eleven states proposed in the bill, two of them, Utah and Idaho, already have reciprocal laws similar to ours so that they would be allowed to come in. Three additional states, Alaska, Washington and Arizona, also in the eleven state region, already have enacted free and open, nationwide, interstate banking so they could come in also. So with passage of the bill, five states could come in, could acquire and merge with any existing Nevada bank, and then commence full scale operations. However, the bank that was invited to come into this state by the legislature in special session last year, was invited in to engage only in limited banking operations, in effect, to set up a credit card facility, is the Citibank of Nevada. So they, in this bill, will still be limited; they will still have to wait two and a half years before they can engage in full state operations, and that date will be October 15, 1987. Their hands will still be tied, and other banks will be able to come in and operate with no limitations whatsoever. Of course, also, the First Interstate Bank is grandfathered in, and they are already engaging in full interstate banking. So the bill as it now stands, really is, I think, a very good, very worthy compromise, one that we can all live with. It is a compromise between those who would like to have complete protection for this particular industry within the boundaries of Nevada and those who tend to believe that free and open competition is really best for the consumer and for the small businessman. It is a compromise between more government regulation in this industry and between those who truly believe in free enterprise. So, if you push the green button, I feel that you will be voting for the consumer, voting for lower interest rates, voting for improved financial services, voting for more modern, innovative, progressive banking techniques which are sweeping the country at the present time. And if you don't believe this, then you don't believe that the people win when there is free and open competition. So I urge your support of the bill. I think, in your hearts, you know it is best for Nevada.

ASSEMBLYMAN NEVIN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. No. 26. The real question that we should be voting on in considering S.B. No. 26 is whether Nevada should engage in regional banking. Unfortunately, we have become hung up on the complex issue of when the interstate banking trigger goes into effect. I have been advised that the majority of the banking industry of this state would support a minimum of a 3½ year trigger. The Nevada banking industry originally wanted a five year trigger, but Citicorp negotiated the trigger to 3½ years. Now we have let Citicorp water this important bill down to a 2¼ year interest trigger to Citicorp, doing so at the expense of our Nevada banks. I ask, is this fair to our Nevada banks? I think not. I urge defeat of this bill in the interest of our banking industry of the State of Nevada. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMAS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in opposition to S.B. No. 26. This is, without question, the most lobbied bill of the season. I would like, for a moment, to take you behind the scenes of what S.B. No. 26 is really all about. We have heard triggers, 3½ year triggers, 2½ year triggers, regional banking, interstate banking, the big bad wolf Citicorp, and on and on. I think one question here is, is this special interest legislation? The answer is yes. To some extent it is special interest legislation for Zion Bank of Utah, Nevada State Bank of Las Vegas—they have a sweetheart deal all ready to go when this passes. It is also special interest legislation for probably all of the banks in Nevada who want to participate in regional banking except Citicorp. The bill does, in truth, discriminate. That's one of the reasons why I have been opposed to the bill all along. Even though I don't want to see regional banking in the state, I also don't approve of bills that discriminate and single out one particular bank as being a bad bank. And after all, Citicorp is a corporate citizen of the State of Nevada. Now, who asked for S.B. No. 26?

Supposedly, it is the outgrowth of an interim study. I can assure you of one thing, in the hearings it did not have unanimous approval. Not at all. Not even close. We heard testimony from bankers who wanted it; we heard testimony from bankers and thrift operators who wanted it with five year triggers; nothing less than five years was asked for in the hearings. We had probably, the blue ribbon of the legal community in the State of Nevada in these hearings; we had the presidents and the board chairmen and the general managers of, I think, all of the banks, including the Director of the Nevada Banking Association. Everybody was there, but the one thing that made the thing kind of fall apart was that nobody could agree on what the Feds are going to do. There was a lot of discussion along that line. What are the Feds going to do? The truth is that nobody knows. Just within the last ten days, if you read the Wall Street Journal and the New York Times, you would find that the Circuit Court of Appeals in Atlanta, Georgia just knocked non-bank banks out. That will go now to the Supreme Court of the United States. There are two or three other lawsuits having to do with this same subject, and nobody knows what the courts are going to do. So, here we are talking about regional banking, interstate banking, and whatever. We also heard a little bit about competition. Well, there is certainly nothing wrong with competition as long as it is really competition, but there is a difference between competition and predatorship. In a competitive situation, generally speaking, if you have a company that manufactures something or offers a service, like a bank, if you want to expand your market, you innovate new services for the market; you innovate new products for the market; or if you're really good, you go out and create new markets for your old products and services. That's competition. But, when you finally run out of ideas, when you finally don't have it anymore as management and you still want to increase your balance sheet, you still want your stock options to produce and you want your bonuses, the only way you can improve that balance sheet is to become a predator. You go out and buy up the little guys. That is what this bill is going to foster. Now, we talked about who attended the committee hearings, but we didn't talk about who did not attend the committee hearings, and I think this is very interesting. We had no gaming people there; no gaming people representatives. We had no tourism representatives, no manufacturing representatives, no mining representatives, no agricultural representatives, and no consumer representatives. In short, there was nobody there to say, hey, we need a new banking system; this is what stinks; let's change it. Let's open it up for everybody. We can't borrow money. Nobody was there to say they couldn't borrow money. Nobody was there to complain that they couldn't borrow money at decent interest rates. Nobody was there to complain that the banks don't give good service because it simply isn't the case. The facts of the matter are this bill has nothing in it whatsoever for the users of the Nevada banking system. What am I personally afraid of in S.B. No. 26? Two things; even though I don't like the fact that it discriminates against Citicorp, I don't want a money-center bank, like Citicorp, operating in Nevada any sooner than we have to have it. I am talking about Bank of America, Manufacturers Hanover, Chase Manhattan, Citicorp and all the others like them. Why? Because those banks, those money-center banks are exporters of capital, and at this particular critical time of economic diversification and development in Nevada over the next five to ten years, we cannot afford to be a capital export state. Now, we have heard talk about, look at FIB, assets of almost $3 billion. They are a regional bank, but they are not exporting capital. Let's look at Zion, assets of slightly over $3 billion. Let's look at Rainier Bank in Washington who could come into this picture, assets of over $45 billion. But, I submit to you that those are warts on a pickle compared to the assets of Citicorp which are $180 billion, and the reason that those assets are so high is because these people do business all over the world. They export capital out of wherever they want, lend it to third-world nations or whomever at very, very high interest rates, and are hopefully guaranteed by the United States. That's one thing that I am afraid of. But more important than that is the demise of the small banks. Have you ever wondered what made this great agricultural machine in the United States of America? We hear a lot about it. We feed the world. We are capable of feeding all the world, but have you ever really stopped to think what made that big engine of agriculture work? Sure, technology to a large extent, but the small hometown banks are the ones that really made it work because they are the only ones that would invest with the farmer. Now, we've got about 12,000 banks in this country still, most of them small, most of them backyard banks, little banks; and little banks need little people. Little banks can't afford to have all their capital borrowed by one or two big borrowers. The risk is too great. Little banks have to spread the risk over little borrowers, and little borrowers need little banks. This bill is designed to, without question, diminish the number of small banks because the predator game will dictate that those who want regional accommodation in the State of Nevada are going to have to buy a bank. There is no other way to do it. I personally stand to make a substantial monetary gain if this bill passes. I happen to be a founder and a stockholder of a bank here in town. It's a small bank. It's a good little bank, profitable, not much, but a little. This bank is an ideal target for a regional sweetheart deal with a bank under the specifics ascribed by S.B. No. 26. I just received a letter three days ago from the Chairman of the Board of this little bank, and he says this, "Due to positive change in the bank's performance, we have received inquires requesting purchases of available stock. If you are interested in selling your stock, please contact us at the bank." Do you think for one minute it has to do with the performance? It has to do with the passage of this bill; that's why they would like to buy my stock right now. There is no question in my mind right now that if this bill passes, the value of my bank stock will double and probably triple. No question about it. That doesn't make it a good bill. I have all these letters, that you are welcome to see, from the presidents of banks in the State of Nevada, savings associations here in the State of Nevada, asking for no bill at all. Due to that, and in view of the fact that within nineteen short months this body will meet again in this very chamber—nineteen short months is a shorter time than the trigger that we are talking about for Citicorp—the body has every opportunity to take another fresh look at this thing. In the meantime, we will have some idea, hopefully, of what the Feds are going to do because they don't know what they're going to do. If the Feds do decree that we are going to have regional banking in this country, they are going to give us at least five years because they can't move any faster. Why should we get in a hurry? We are getting stampeded; we are getting a "now" attack. Let's cool it. Let's kill this bill and take another look at it next time. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN DUBOIS:

Mr. Speaker, I have to agree with most of what was said. I really don't disagree with that. My main concern all along has been that the one bank here in Nevada, the one that we accepted in, have some sort of parity with these other banks that will be allowed to come in from other states. I didn't feel that it was right for them to be put at some sort of a disadvantage, to have their hands tied behind their backs, so to speak, for a two and a half year period while the other banks could come into the state and operate. What I prefer, frankly, is immediate full interstate banking just like they have in the State of Washington. Maine has it now, Alaska just put it in, and a number of other banks are considering it this year; they are considering that because they want to improve their financial resources; they want to bring in competition, and, as has happened in two states that have large money centers, the State of California, which has the largest bank in the world, and the State of New York, the smaller banks have thrived, have sprung up and have done very well because the larger, super banks, so to speak, do not serve the needs of the smaller bank. If you do believe in competition and the larger banks do not fulfill the needs, then the smaller banks will move in. So that is my concern, that there be some sort of a parity developed here. As far as exporting money out of the state, the bill requires that sixty percent of the deposits remain in the State of Nevada.

ASSEMBLYMAN TEBBS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to this body, I stand in opposition to S.B. No. 26. If I may, I would like to touch on just a couple of points that Assemblyman Thomas from Carson City pointed out in regard to some comments and things that are being done on the federal level in regard to interstate banking. Number one, on the federal level, the United States Senate Banking Committee has made it very clear that presently they do not intend to pass legislation that would trigger any form of full interstate banking; number two, the Chairmen of FDIC and the Federal Reserve Board have testified before the U.S. Senate Banking Committee that full interstate banking should not be passed without some type of regulation by the Feds which would protect the consumer from a concentration of domestic banking resources. Since the passing of S.B. No. 26 would trigger full interstate banking in three and a half years, I feel we could very possibly be putting the banking community in Nevada, and thus the consumer, at risk. In my opinion, the responsible action by this body would be to vote no on S.B. No. 26 and wait until the following session in 1987 to consider this legislation. This would allow the Federal Government to come forth with some guidelines and regulations to protect the consumer from concentration of domestic banking resources.

ASSEMBLYMAN FAIRCHILD:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand up in opposition to Senate Bill No. 26 for different reasons than have already been stated. I could have supported 26, I believe, with a 3½ year trigger, but not with a 2½, and the main reason is because of All-State Thrift. The connections between this and All-State Thrift should be considered by all Clark County legislators because I am sure that everyone of them have depositors with All-State in their districts, and I think this definitely takes away some of the incentive to buy All-State Thrift as it is. If it was back to 3½ years, I might be able to support it, but not as it is now.

ASSEMBLYMAN MCGAUGHEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tem. Senate Bill No. 463 is a bill for the unincorporated Town of Pahrump. The bill provides for staggered terms for the Town Board members and allows for a planning commission to develop a master plan and establish zoning districts.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tem. I rise in opposition to S.B. No. 463. This bill sets a dangerous precedent in that it gives the Town of Pahrump complete control over important matters, such as subdivisions of land, zoning, and construction of buildings, without having to pay for the consequences of those decisions. Nye County will still have to pay for services, facilities and roads, but the town's land development decisions would impact those county services. If this bill passes, who will be responsible for the liability that might arise from the town taking on these important powers? Who will cover the lawsuits that might develop from the land development decisions? Who will accept the roads and maintain them? Who will defend the Town of Pahrump in court? Who will pay the lawsuit awards for the decisions made by the Town of Pahrump? If this bill passes, it seems to me that most of Nevada's cities should disincorporate and take the route that Pahrump is taking since they will have the authority of a city, but not the responsibilty to pay for their actions. On May 21st, Mr. Speaker pro Tem, the Nye County Board of County Commissioners discussed S.B. No. 463 and voted to recommend that we kill this bill. If this bill should pass, this issue will end up in court and will ultimately cost all the taxpayers of Nye County to defend it.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

I would like to preface my remarks by saying that I am in complete sympathy with, at least, the small property owners in the Pahrump Valley. If the people in the Pahrump Valley want more authority, they should take on equal responsibility. They certainly can do that with a vote of the people to incorporate and to raise the property tax to where it will correspond with neighboring towns in Nye County.The Pahrump Valley has more residents and more property value than nine of the smaller cities in the state. We are talking about land development decisions. We're talking about a proliferation of septic tanks in a basin which totally depends on underground water which is, to say the least, committed at this point in time. We're talking about flood control in a relatively flat area. We're talking about decisions that could devastate Nye County financially. We're talking about the Town of Pahrump having the authority in keeping with their neighbors. Pahrump has a five cent town tax rate while the adjoining Town of Amargosa has, I believe, about $1.40. That's about twenty-eight times as much. All of the other rates are equal; I'm talking about schools, combined county rate and the state rate. We are really talking about representation without taxation, if you will, or to make it clear that I am saying exactly what I mean to say; we are talking about the Boston Tea Party in reverse. After parity or, if you will, the closing of the doors on sharing of SCCRT, Pahrump, at this point in time, has problems which the Government Affairs Committee did not delve into nearly as deeply as they should. With all due respect for the committee and without reservations, I oppose this bill simply because it is bad legislation, and it can only result in litigation or a bitter disappointment for the small property owners in the Pahrump Valley. For whatever it's worth, I am not running for Mayor of Pahrump.

ASSEMBLYMAN HORNE:

Mr. Speaker pro Tem, I rise to support S.B. No. 463. I am appreciative of my colleague from Southern Nevada bringing up the reference to the Boston Tea Party because I believe, having listened to the testimony of the committee on this particular measure, that what we have here is pure and simple a battle, a turf war that is based principally on the basis that we fought a much larger battle over 200 years ago which was being governed by a seat of government so far removed from the people that they were not sensitive to the needs and desires of that people. I submit to you that the principle involved here is exceedingly similar and that a two-year trial period with regard to this measure is in harmony with the American principle of keeping government as close to the people as possible. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN JEFFREY:

Mr. Speaker pro Tem, I have to rise in opposition to this bill. We have procedures within Nevada law today that if any community wants to determine their destiny, as requested in this bill, all they have to do is incorporate. The problem that I see with this bill, regardless of the two-year sunset—I have friends out there, and I am somewhat familiar with their resources and, in particular, their water resources. I don't think they have anywhere near enough water to develop the lots they have now. I can see that, in a two-year period of time, with an unincorporated town board that has the authority to appoint themselves as a planning commission, a lot of development, a lot of lots could be subdivided in that two-year period and further compound the problem that they already have. Again, I can only say that if they want to determine their destiny, they can do the same as my city did over 20 years ago and incorporate. I think the development interests in that area may have a great advantage if they can develop a lot of lots, put them up for sale, and not take any of the responsibility for their actions. I can see the same kind of thing happening all over the state; we have water resource problems in and around Reno, Lemmon Valley, etc., and I can see a real can of worms being opened with this legislation.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tem. I, too, in my district have unincorporated townships and that is the reason that I am concerned with this. To my esteemed colleague from Assembly District 3, I would remind him that, even though the government is removed from those people, they do have the recourse through the statutes to incorporate as a township. They have the population, they have the assessed value; it's up to them; it's pure and simple. If they want to rule themselves, they can do it on their own.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

Mr. Speaker, distance from the county seat is not unique in Nevada to Pahrump, and the very least that can be said about the debate on the floor today is that we have raised the question, and we have brought the focus to the point that maybe the county commission in Nye County will pay more attention to the people in Pahrump. This, I sincerely hope, will happen no matter what may happen to this bill. I, for the life of me, cannot understand why we are debating this issue when the vehicles that we have available have never been utilized to take care of the problems in the Pahrump Valley. Those problems, with time, can only get worse unless corrective action is taken.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPRIGGS:

Mr. Speaker pro Tem, believe it or not, I have really agonized over this bill. We have had a lot of debate back and forth. I felt like I had to rise and say how I see it. I think there are really valid points on both sides. Pahrump is unique because it is so far away from Tonopah; it is growing very rapidly; it is a very, very large area. They don't believe that they have had enough time to really understand if they can incorporate or to look into it. They thought that this would be one step toward incorporation, and they wanted the ability to put a master plan together because they don't have one. On the other side, I know that the county commissioners in this state are a little bit worried because this is a new development, and there are problems. There are really valid issues on both sides, but I don't think that anyone had a dishonest interest in this; I don't think there was anything underhanded in it. I think the people in Pahrump really have a valid point, and I think maybe it would be alright to have them look at it for two years. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN LAMBERT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. S.B. No. 519 provides funding for the Regional Water Planning and Advisory Board of Washoe County just for the 1985-86 fiscal year. The deadlines for submitting the budget for the 1985-86 fiscal year that are set in S.B. No. 196, which created the board, have already passed. We need this act to allow the Washoe County Commission to collect the money to fund the board for just the 1985-86 fiscal year until the mechanism in S.B. No. 196 can go into effect for the 1986-87 fiscal year and any after. This is not an additional tax; it is just what was intended in S.B. No. 196.

ASSEMBLYMAN STONE:

Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to my colleague from the north valleys, why wasn't it included in S.B. No. 196? I don't understand why we have a separate bill here. It looks like a new tax to me.

ASSEMBLYMAN LAMBERT:

Mr. Speaker, through you to my colleague in Sparks, it was an oversight in the bill, quite frankly, and they won't have any funding until 1986. It is not a new tax; it is nothing new. They have the authority to levy a tax rate not to exceed one half cent for each $100 of assessed valuation just like in S.B. No. 196, and only for the operation during the year of 1985-86.

Sec. 9. 1. The payments authorized by sections 3 to 11, inclusive, of this act do not constitute salary for the purpose of computing retirement contributions by the employee or employer pursuant to chapter 286 of NRS, premiums paid by the employer pursuant to chapter 616 of NRS or any other such additional charge which is based upon the salary of an employee.

2. The payments authorized by sections 3 to 11, inclusive, of this act must not be included as salary in the calculation of retirement benefits for employees.

Sec. 10. For accounting purposes only for the various state departments, commissions and agencies the payments authorized by sections 3 to 11, inclusive, of this act are effective June 30, 1985.

Sec. 11. Any of the amounts appropriated by sections 3, 4 and 5 of this act which are not required to meet the cost of the payments authorized by sections 3 to 11, inclusive, of this act for those employees revert to the fund from which they were appropriated on December 31, 1985.

Sec. 12. 1. There is hereby appropriated from the state general fund to the interim finance committee the sum of $12,500,000 for the design and construction of prisons. Any unexpended balance of this appropriation must not be committed for expenditure after June 30, 1991, and reverts to the state general fund as soon thereafter as all payments of money committed have been made.

2. The interim finance committee shall allocate money from this appropriation by resolution for the costs of the selection of a site for and the advance planning and design of facilities for criminal offenders. The vote of the assembly and senate members must be taken separately. A resolution must not be adopted unless it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the assembly members and a majority of the senate members.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to public finance; temporarily extending the increased rate of the tax on insurance premiums; delaying certain changes in the distribution of certain taxes from projects for the generation and transmission of electricity; requiring the making of a single payment as an incentive for continued service to employees of the state and the University of Nevada System; making appropriations from the state general fund and the state highway fund; making an appropriation for the design and construction of facilities for criminal offenders; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows: "Temporarily extends increased rate on tax on insurance premiums, delays provision for special distribution of taxes collected from generating facilities, provides single payment as incentive for continued service to certain public employees and makes appropriation for design and construction of facilities for criminal offenders. (BDR 57-1858)".

Assemblyman Joerg moved the adoption of the amendment.

Assemblyman Price moved that the Assembly adjourn until Monday, June 3, 1985 at 10 a.m.

Assemblymen Price, Thompson and Jeffrey requested a roll call on Assemblyman Price's motion.

The motion having failed to receive a majority, Mr. Speaker declared it lost.

Remarks by Assemblymen Getto, Dini, Jeffrey, Swain, Banner, Nevin, Nicholas, Joerg, Coffin, Malone, Schofield, Francis, Thompson, Craddock, Collins, Price and Marvel.

Assemblyman Price requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN JOERG:

This amendment provides for the retention of the insurance premium tax at 3 percent for the 1985 to 1987 biennium. In addition, the amendment would provide for a one-time payment to state employees, as well as university professional employees. This one-time payment would provide a benefit of 5½ percent of the gross base salary for the fiscal year 1984, 1985; effectively taking these employees' raises from January 1 of this year through June 30. The bill we passed previously picks up from there and carries forward.

In order to be eligible for this payment, the person would have to be employed during the fiscal year and on the payroll on July 1, 1985. The cost of these payments totals $8,538,407 from the general fund and $632,946 from the highway fund.

Inasmuch as I think everybody is aware of the fact that when this legislature is back in session two years from now, we have no choice but to face the issue of building a prison. It is something that we've all known since the first day we were here. We all know it's going to have to be done. Recognizing that, and the fact that it is appropriate to plan for eventual contingencies such as that, and when we have an opportunity to do so without raising taxes, at least we have an opportunity to start it without raising taxes, many people think that is the prudent and proper thing to do from the financial point of view.

Therefore, this amendment provides for an appropriation of $12.5 million from the general fund to the Interim Finance Committee for two items. One, they would be permitted to use parts of this money for site selection, design and advance planning for a new facility. Of course, the balance would be held in reserve for construction of a new prison when it is approved.

I might add, also, that any interest earned on the $12.5 million would remain in the general fund and would provide additional money for the trigger mechanism that we placed in the previous bill we passed on public employees' salaries. There is a better chance that that trigger mechanism would, in fact, come into place. In my judgment, there is a good chance the extra 2 percent provided in that bill would be provided to those employees.

With the adoption of this amendment, we would end up with an ending fund balance of approximately $46 million, if you consider the retention of the $6 million that is sitting in a trust account right now waiting the outcome of the litigation on the soda pop tax. If that litigation is successful and the state is unable to retain that money, we would end up with an ending fund balance of approximately $40 million. Many of us believe that is an absolute minimum amount that is necessary to run the operation of the state. In fact, most people believe that it should be closer to $50 million.

I urge your careful consideration of this amendment. I think it is very responsible and has the best interest of the state at heart.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

I rise to oppose this amendment. I was surprised about 45 minutes ago to be invited to a Taxation Committee meeting and found out I was in Ways and Means. The Taxation Committee which has spent a great deal of time this session doing its best to carve out a revenue picture of the state has now become the spending committee in this house by appropriating about $21 million with five minutes worth of discussion on a subject that is totally foreign to the members of the committee, and barely known to the members of the Ways and Means Committee. In some cases this is the first time this has been seen. We are talking about an appropriation of $12.5 million for a prison we have not even discussed in the Ways and Means Committee.

Basically, this is new to the entire house. I think it is not proper to take a vehicle like the insurance premium tax and attach an appropriation to it without a hearing. We asked for a hearing and we were denied a hearing in the committee. The actions of the committee, I believe, are irresponsible. I oppose the amendment. I think there are others here that feel that way, too.

We don't necessarily quarrel with how money is spent around this house because we don't have the votes, but it is sometimes the way it is spent that leaves you wondering whether or not we have the best interest of the people at heart in this Assembly. I oppose this amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMAS:

I rise in favor of this amendment. I think that all of us were concerned about the state employees going on a new fiscal year starting in July and losing the effect of their pay raise from January. I think this addresses that problem very well. I think it addresses a problem we can't sweep under the rug, and that is the prison. That thing kept coming up throughout all of our hearings. I think all of my colleagues on Ways and Means know that. Some of these things won't go away. I think we are being very prudent looking at it at this particular time, taking advantage of the future for a change and doing a little planning which is something we don't ordinarily do.

As far as the responsibility of the Ways and Means Committee is concerned, I would submit to you that two years ago about this time, we were thrown an entire budget in one package and never had an opportunity to vote on it in this body because of constraints and problems we'd been faced with; the same kind of problems we are faced with now. We didn't have the time then and we don't have the time now.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

I have a couple of questions for the chairman of either the Taxation Committee or the Ways and Means Committee. Not sitting on either of those committees, I'm trying to go through the four page amendment and understand what it says. I see bonuses here for university employees and state employees, but I see no bonuses for classroom teachers. That is an issue that has been long discussed since the Governor's State of the State address.

My first question: Is it correct that this amendment does not have classroom teachers in the bonus pay scheme?

ASSEMBLYMAN JOERG:

That is correct.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

I would like to know what policy reason there is for including university professors and state employees in a bonus system but not including classroom teachers.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

I think one of the answers we can give is the fact that perhaps the classroom teachers can negotiate with their local school districts. We do feel that we guarantee, and particularly in this budget, 11 percent for the first year of the biennium and perhaps a 3 percent that triggers the second. Additionally, they have the option of going to the 17 individual school districts and negotiate for a better bargain yet. The state employees and university professors have no power of negotiation.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

Again, I'm seeking more information on the issue of what we funded. Now, we funded the school budgets and have we included money, or is their money in the appropriations we have made, for a bonus for the Kindergarten through 12 classroom teachers?

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

The problem has been addressed of teacher pay raises with both the 11 and 3 percent plus the best deal they can negotiate with their local school district. That is the difference between Kindergarten through 12 and the state employees.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

I take it then that the answer to the question is no, the money has not been included for retention, retroactive or bonus pay, whatever you want to call it, for teachers. It has been included for ongoing pay raises but not a bonus. Is that right?

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

That is true.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

I'm no tax expert and I don't sit on the Taxation Committee, nor have I ever in my three terms, but I read this amendment and I, too, had the same question Mr. Sader had. Basically what we are saying here is we are going to give the money to the state employees and the university professors but not the classroom teachers.

I think the prison problem has been around a long time. I don't think that is new to anybody here. I don't think it was new on January 17. It certainly wasn't new last session. This has been an ongoing problem and everyone knew about it. I think everybody in this room campaigned on funding for higher education. Everybody knew at the onset that included retention pay for classroom teachers.

Mr. Speaker, I would say to you and everybody in this house, if you vote for this amendment you are supporting hypocrisy.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMAS:

True, the prison thing comes up all the time and the reason it comes up all the time is because nobody does anything about it. This is an attempt, probably for the first time, to get a head start on the prison situation.

Now, getting back to the so called hypocrisy. The classroom teachers have one advantage that the state employees and the college professors do not have and that is collective bargaining. They can cut any kind of a deal they want with their local school boards. They also have rollups and increments. I submit to you with the pay package, which is the highest pay package this body has ever given anybody, when it is all said and done I would bet you that the average teacher will make over 20 percent on this raise package, and maybe even as high as 25 percent.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

I rise reluctantly to get into this discussion. I do support the amendment for several reasons that have been stated. I know the prison discussion has been entered and thrown out on this body.

If you will recall earlier in this session there were articles talking about a $55 million prison which, if it had been placed on a tax roll, we would not have been able to leave here if you had gone home and told the voters that we had to raise property taxes to pay for a $55 million prison.

The subcommittee dealing with the prison system really went to work and we have worked very diligently in setting up a proposal for a new light to medium security prison that can be built in early 1987 for about the amount we are setting aside and a little bit more. It will solve the situation temporarily. Down the road, very shortly, we will be facing a maximum prison.

In the area that we have discussed about the retention pay for university system and the teachers' salaries and the state employees, two of those are in a different ball game as has been stated before. The university system has not had a method or rollup increase. They cannot negotiate and it is the same for state employees. When we leave here what we design for their increase is what they get. They have no other way to negotiate.

In many cases the scheme right now is the same percentage increase across the board for the university professionals, state employees, and for the teachers. That is the scheme. But in reality, as has been stated here, many times when the negotiation goes to the school board, the teachers come out with a higher percentage than state employees. That is not always the case, but it has happened several times.

I would be very happy to fund it all the way if we didn't have to increase taxes some place. I guess I have to support this amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIAMS:

I sit on the Taxation Committee and I'm very distressed at this amendment. I oppose it vehemently. Never, not once, were prisons ever mentioned in Taxation. There was a lot of talk in Taxation about basic fairness from some of my colleagues. I would like to suggest that this amendment certainly does not address basic fairness.

I would also like to suggest that the collective bargaining tool is only useful if there is money available for people to collectively bargain with. How can we be asked, within three minutes, to appropriate $20 million and $12.5 million for some future prison. If we are putting criminals ahead of quality teachers and quality education for our children, then I think we had better reexamine our values. We talk a lot about values, family, and children. I think we better start acting on them. I oppose this amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

I understand that the Senate has adjourned until 10:00 a.m. so I guess we have plenty of time to talk about this. I really don't intend to take up a lot of time but I am somewhat bothered by this. As a matter of fact, I got a note not too long ago from the White House which indicated I was the ranking member of the Education Committee in the minority party. Right now I feel pretty rank.

We in education have looked at the problems for a number of years. I am convinced that we will never make any meaningful improvements in the penal system until first we take care of some of the problems in the education system. I have a substantial amount of documentation on that point from the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court on down that I would be happy to provide to anyone that thinks we must take care of the problems at the lower level before we get involved with prison considerations. If we don't, we'll have prisons up to our neck. We can warehouse them forever, but until we take care of some of the problems at the level where these young people are getting started, we are in more serious trouble than I ever anticipated.

I oppose this and I'll stay with you until school convenes again before I'll vote for this.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

I would like to address a comment from one of my colleagues that we are for cons and not kids. That is a darn easy thing to say and it's a very catchy phrase but it's not responsible. You know, everyone of us have sat here and voted for bills that extend sentences and create more problems for our prisons and now we are saying we are not going to be responsible and let the courts turn them loose.

If you are a responsible legislator, you have to face that fact. When you sit here and vote for bills that mandate longer sentences and take away the rights of judges to provide probation, and turn around and say we are for cons and not kids, it is not so. We have to be responsible. If you want the courts to turn them loose, then let's not build any more prisons and let's not vote for any more bills that will lengthen the sentences of criminals.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

I must rise in opposition to the amendment. I take exception to my distinguished colleague from Churchill County when he says we are irresponsible because I think this whole amendment is irresponsible to hang it on this bill in this manner tonight.

Why don't we have an open hearing tomorrow morning on $12.5 million for a prison and put your mouth where your action is on this amendment. We all know we need prisons. We came into this session saying education had the first priority. We've taken care of a lot of the prison's problems with a lot more money, honor camps, and other things. Now, all of a sudden, we are saying we are going to discriminate against one group and take that money for a prison.

I don't rationalize with you guys at all on this issue. Why don't we do it fairly? Let's have a hearing right here tonight and show me that we have to have this $12.5 million this session for the prison system in the State of Nevada. It has not been proven to me. I sat on Ways and Means and I know we have a problem. But you have not proven to me we need this this session. I challenge the leadership in this house to show me, black and white, that we need the prison over these things for the teachers.

ASSEMBLYMAN JEFFREY:

I think one of the most important things we have to consider when we consider this amendment, and I do stand in opposition, in case there was any question, is the quality of the teachers we have in the school system. I submit to you that the teacher morale is very important in this process. I think the feeling of the teachers will be reflected in their work with the students.

I can say this prison debate is very interesting. We are here on what we thought was going to be the last night and maybe it will be the first day of the last week. We have had well over 100 days to debate the prison situation and the future of the prison system. All that we have heard from the majority party about the prison system is the rumor that there was going to be some kind of an attempt to put prisons above education.

I agree with Mr. Dini totally. That debate belongs in committee with ample time to discuss the issue. There has been none of that so far. I would also like to say as far as the collective bargaining arrangement is concerned, it also had a drawback last time. The teachers in Clark County, at least, received no pay increase in the last two years because they had a contract. I don't know what happened in the rest of the state but that's what happened in Clark County. Many of the teachers in Clark County are topped out at the top of their salary level and they didn't receive any rollups or step increases.

I think this amendment is ridiculous and is a last minute attempt to punish teachers that didn't support the majority party and I resent the whole move.

ASSEMBLYMAN SWAIN:

I rise in opposition to this amendment. Mr. Speaker, I would like to remind you that I think it was yesterday you had a teacher at your desk who was the outstanding teacher of the year for the State of Nevada and one of six outstanding teachers in the entire country. I don't see how we can turn our backs on these people. I find this amendment an embarrassment and I cannot bring myself to support such an action.

ASSEMBLYMAN BANNER:

I oppose this amendment. I got this big long document and, for me, it's pretty hard to read. But, I'm looking at 5, 5, and 4 and it says, "An Act relating to taxation temporarily extending an increased rate of tax on insurance premium, delaying certain change in the distribution of certain taxes from projects where the generation and transmission of electricity and providing other matters properly relating thereto."

Now I get this thing and on page 3 it says, "An Act relating to public finance, temporarily extending the increase rate of the tax on insurance premium delaying certain change, distribution of certain taxes and projects from generation of transmitting. . . ." Then, it says, "making a single payment as an incentive for continued service to employees of the state and the University of Nevada system, making an appropriation from the state general fund and the state highway fund . . . making an appropriation for the design and construction of facilities for the criminal offenders."

What has happened here is you have taken A.B. 554, which had to do with these other taxes, and attached an appropriation bill by the Taxation Committee at 9:30 at night on the last day. People like myself who are not privy to the Ways and Means Committee are then faced with the problem of understanding really what is going on.

It looks like some kind of a procedural move that I'm not quite fast enough to figure out. But it looks like somebody has planned something down the line for some horse trading. I'm a little confused. I hope somebody can explain why it was done in this way.

ASSEMBLYMAN NEVIN:

I, also, stand in opposition to this amendment. I sat on Ways and Means and listened to the prison issue. They got additional millions of dollars they said they needed. There was testimony that the prisons were crowded and we extended our honor camps to relieve some of the load. The only mention of the need for a new prison was in testimony when they said they would be back in two years to talk about financing a new prison. There was never any mention that this was a dire need and had to be done now.

ASSEMBLYMAN NICHOLAS:

Of course, this is a tough one. I want prisons to be financed because I was on that prison subcommittee. The problem is I also want teachers to receive some recognition in terms of the plans that have been advanced. Which button am I going to hit, I don't know. But, I do know this. If we can do something to do a little bit of both we are probably coming closer to satisfying me.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

I can't let one comment go. I have to answer my worthy leader of the other party regarding the fact that my comments were not responsible. I would like to say that if the other party, or any party, wants to do something responsible to alleviate the prison population there was a way this session and it is down in the other house. It's a bill that never saw daylight. You could call it an early parole bill or a bill that would help alleviate the prison situation. That bill never saw daylight and it was not because of the majority party in this house. It would have been one step in reducing the prison population but it didn't see daylight. So, don't lay it all on us.

ASSEMBLYMAN JOERG:

I would like to briefly address the question Mr. Banner had. I think we could debate the issue on its merits all night but it's not unusual for this body to consider a bill that has both an appropriation and a tax in it. We've done it before this session. They've been started by the other house. I can give you an example, A.B. 22, where we concurred in an amendment that had a 2 cent property tax on it to a $16.5 million bond issue. It happens all the time. It is perfectly proper. Otherwise, if it were against the rules, I presume the bill drafter wouldn't have drafted it.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

To my colleague from Fallon, who I had the distinct pleasure of serving with on the Ways and Means prison subcommittee, I want to recall what we did on that subcommittee in order that I might refresh the memory of those here who heard the budget bill but may not remember the fine points.

In the hearings we had we considered and concluded that the Governor's budget for prisons was a bit shy of the mark and had not spent enough money. Your Ways and Means prison subcommittee, after a great deal of gnashing of teeth and fighting with the prison people, added $1.6 million to the Governor's budget. The Senate, meanwhile, had added about $4.4 million. During that period of time, we agonized over how we were going to convince the Senate to cut its spending. We went into conference and after four or five meetings and saying no to the prison system many, many times, your prison subcommittee added an extra million dollars and convinced the Senate to join us at about an extra $2.6 million to the prison budget.

Never, ever in the deliberations of the prison subcommittee was a deposit, a down payment, even a rough construction schedule of a new prison, considered. And now I am astonished that the chairman of our subcommittee should suddenly rise and defend a $12.5 million appropriation for the prisons which comes out of the committee that doesn't even handle prison business, not experienced at all in that field. Maybe there have been hearings we haven't been aware of. Perhaps the gentleman from Fallon has chaired those hearings and perhaps we just didn't know about them.

I think this is coming a little too late and I'd like to hear an answer as to how this figure has suddenly appeared when it wasn't even considered before, never.

ASSEMBLYMAN MALONE:

This is a shocker. As many of you know, I came into this legislature early with a prison bill. It was "prisons for profit." We held a hearing in Judiciary and it went well. I called many areas of this country getting information on prisons for profit. This was all to see if we could cut down on the costs of our prisons. I was knowledgeable of what we needed.

I'm sorry to say that when this bill went into Legislative Functions, it had another hearing. And lo and behold it had a hearing of two people. At that time there was no one that sat on Legislative Functions interested in the prison system, obviously. To my knowledge, each member on the bill prior to mine was there. As soon as I started my presentation in Legislative Functions, and I think the record will show this, all but two people left. One came back later because he served in Judiciary and I gave the exact same talk and 10 minute film strip I obtained from 60 Minutes.

Mr. Speaker, for somebody who is real interested in prisons all of a sudden, and this bill shows it, I'm surprised you didn't stay around.

ASSEMBLYMAN SCHOFIELD:

What I want to speak on is dealing with fairness. Fairness in the hearings we have, fairness in the particular subject matter that is before us tonight, fairness in the amount of time spent on a particular item like this, as strong disagreement as this has, and, possibly, misunderstanding on the part of some.

I think that the minority floor leader had a good point as far as having a real fair hearing on something especially dealing with the size of an appropriation of this amount, whether it is tacked on to the end of something or not. I'm speaking of the methodology that is being done on something that probably could be a good idea were it to be talked about and analyzed a little bit. I don't think the time the committee spent on this, and for those who didn't realize this amendment was coming, had a fair opportunity.

What I'm talking about is fairness. We all came up here to do a job for the people of the State of Nevada as best we could. Considering the amount of money involved, I feel the action certainly deserves and warrants more time and discussion with the people who are sitting on those committees. If it has to go to Ways and Means for a hearing and back to Taxation, so be it.

I would urge all of you to think very hard on this and give it a fair consideration and treatment within both of those committees because it deals with two subject matters.

ASSEMBLYMAN FRANCIS:

A couple of weeks ago the good majority leader from the Senate brought up this idea. He was the one that said we were $50 or $60 million short to fund a prison. He was the one that presented the plan in the Senate.

I think if there is any hypocrisy, it's the people who are opposing this amendment. We are doing the right thing. We are doing the responsible thing. What we are doing is preventing a tax increase next session. That is the truth.

The responsible and right thing to do is support this amendment. We should act on it tonight.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

I have to rise in opposition to what the majority leader just said about the majority leader in the Senate, in that he said we had a problem with the prison. I think everybody knows we have problems with the prison. To lay that on him is one of the dumbest things I have heard come out of this house this session. That is absolutely stupid.

Furthermore, some of the things that have been said in here in regards to why we would give this money to the university professors and the state employees but not the school teachers, is because, to quote some of you, "The school teachers have collective bargaining and we provide this money so they can go out and collectively bargain for this money where state employees and university professors cannot." That is true. However, that doesn't guarantee, just because they have collective bargaining, that they are going to bargain 11 percent. That doesn't guarantee that they are going to get that money.

People have said in there we have to be responsible. I agree with that. I don't think this is responsible.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

Let's talk about responsibility for a brief jiffy. I think probably this entire discussion would not have occurred if we had followed the rules in Mason's Manual in the first place.

Nevertheless, over a course of the last eight years the Clark County classroom teachers have made some substantial contributions to the education benefit of young people. One time they gave up quite a bit of a pay raise, I think it was $125 one year and $250 the next, in the interest of a prep period so they could better prepare their lessons.

Another time, they negotiated a contract which made a provision for hiring 70 new teachers so they could comply with what has become vogue around here, which is to lower the teacher-student ratio in the lower grades. That has been happening in Clark County, through negotiations, for a number of years. I think that is responsible.

ASSEMBLYMAN COLLINS:

Anytime we have debate such as this, I don't plan on saying anything. I don't have a bone to pick with the prisons or the education system. I didn't run my campaign on supporting education or supporting prisons. But what I did say was that if there was an education issue that came before me, I would support education. I have always said that and I will always say that.

As I stand here tonight, what I would like to know is if you vote in favor of the amendment and it passes, or if you vote against the amendment and it passes, are you voting for or are you voting against education. It seems to me, funny as it may seem, if you are standing here, it's not funny at all.

As I alluded to earlier, whichever direction it goes, I would just like my question answered.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Here we are 132 days later, when we should be home resting, at 10 o'clock at night dealing with the most important business to the citizens of our state through chicanery, political maneuvering, and parliamentary procedure, rather than the hearing process that we all should be entitled to and expect from the most prestigious and important of our committees, the Ways and Means.

While as a courtesy to my chairman of Taxation, with a couple of minutes of explanation, we allowed the amendment to come out on the floor. We were never given, and I ask now, a reason why this amendment, if it's needed and is important, was not debated on all subject matter, including the prisons, and why there were not hearings in Ways and Means. I would now ask my distinguished colleague, who is chairman of Ways and Means, to tell me why at this late date there were no full and adequate hearings.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

We have been debating the prison system all session and we've been debating education all session. I would like to remind you, if you remember the first statement yesterday, that for education there was a 20.6 increase for the next biennium. That is one of the most significant increases in the history of the State of Nevada.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

My question was not answered. I respectfully ask again, and I certainly stand to learn something. My interpretation is there is a difference between debate over the period of session and specific hearings on a $12 million appropriation for the prison. I ask again, were there hearings on $12 million, $10 million, $15 million on an appropriations bill for the prisons. I don't mean debating back and forth, should we do this.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

In all fairness, there were no formal hearings on the prison issue but we have been studying the prisons all session. Since we have been here in January, we have had to change the course of direction several times. Just one example is after we got into the session, we found we needed more to meet the prison needs. Just last month, it has been developed by speaking to officials of the prison system, that we are rapidly running out of bed space. It is going to be imminent that a new prison will have to be constructed, perhaps within the next two years; at least started within the next two years. This has all happened recently.

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

I've gone on the floor this morning because I think a few things need to be said. Last night we pretty much debated the issue on this bill; pros and certainly cons. In that debate, my esteemed colleagues from the loyal opposition made certain charges. Now, I know that the hour is early and we all worked late last night. Hopefully, our days in this legislative fish bowl are numbered. I'm tired. I know you're tired. I long to get back to the real world. I long to relax, put my feet up, have a few friends over, talk about the weather, talk about fishing, talk about things in the real world and to be able to talk about the weather without having to worry whether or not we are going to vote on it.

This is a make believe world, to a certain extent, that we live in—our world of legislative politics. It has its own priorities. It has its own language, its own cast of supporting characters and its own bewildering pace. Every two years, men and women like you and me go out among our friends and neighbors. We find out their concerns, their hopes, their dreams, their fears and then we get ourselves elected. We make promises to the voters. Promises which generally revolve around the theme of looking out for the best interest of those who sent us here—the voters and the taxpayers of this state. We come to Carson City with plans and goals and strategies firmly fixed in our minds. Damn the torpedos, full speed ahead. The will of the people will be realized. Then, we run headlong into a juggernaut whose sole purpose is to divert us and bury us. Legislative politics can chew us up and spit us out. There is "legis-think" and "legis-speak." All of a sudden things that don't matter in the real world of the folks who pay government's bills take on tremendous significance to us.

The system is designed to get us to spend. When was the last time one of your constituents stuck his or her head into your office door and said, "Oh, by the way, I think you ought to raise my taxes because government doesn't have enough to spend over the next two years. The real world of legislative politics is microphones stuck in our faces and headlines screaming of critical needs and revenue shortfalls and people who tell us day in and day out that the world is going to come to an end if we don't fund this or don't fund that.

As legislators we are pampered and spoiled. People who want us to approve spending the taxpayer's money hang on our every word. We are quoted and "yes sir-ed" all over the place. It's pretty heady stuff. Quite a few of us have gotten lost in this make-believe world of legislative politics, never to return.

At the end of the ride on the legislative merry-go-round we all grab for the brass ring. We go home and face those that trusted us with their confidence and votes. Once we get home, many of us find it difficult to answer the questions that are put to us. All of a sudden things we thought were so important while we were in Carson City, just don't seem to be all that critical any more.

I'm sure as I'm standing here this morning, if this bill is defeated, it will mean that the taxpayers of this state are going to have to cough up about $12.5 million. They shouldn't have to cough up to give to government in order to pay for a new prison or prisons down the road. There is one question that will be asked of us out in the real world once the spotlight of media attention has been turned off, and that question deserves to be answered this morning. If we are responsible, and if we mean what we say about the best interest of the voters and taxpayers of the real world we serve, how can we increase education funding by 20.6 percent, an increase of some $125 million, and, in addition, provide funding for what we hope the school districts in our state will see fit to pass on to teachers of perhaps 15 percent in salary increases over the next two years, and then, after we have done that, tack on another $15.2 million in bonuses when that money could be used to pay some of the cost for the prisons we are going to need desperately. I submit to you that we cannot fund those bonuses. I submit to you we shouldn't have to be faced with that choice. We face that choice this morning because there is chicanery and hypocrisy at work here. We face that choice here this morning because there are those who would degrade teachers by treating them as a political commodity whose support can be bought and sold. To say that we are out to punish teachers because they didn't support Republicans is to treat them like a green stamp in someone's political redemption book. We face our current dilemma because this legislature has been misled, manipulated by the administration.

I am speaking this morning from the floor because from the beginning I opposed retro pay for Kindergarten through 12. That is no surprise in these chambers. I am speaking against it on the grounds of need—needs in the state, needs in the prison system, needs that have been recognized in our deliberations and in testimony and needs that have been recognized by other members of the legislature when they indicated that they may, in fact, need a 5 cent property tax increase to fund prisons that need to be built. Those are needs. There was a deliberate attempt on the part of the administration to hide those critical needs from this legislature from the day the gavel fell.

Why was the budget of the administration kept a dark secret? Why weren't we advised—we legislators in this Assembly who have to make these tough decisions? Why weren't we advised about such things and told and the needs addressed by the administration in such matters like the fact that our counties face bankruptcy because of indigent health care costs? Why weren't those critical issues addressed? We addressed those issues. We bit the bullet. We said that because of counties facing bankruptcy, because medical costs are escalating out of control, because of indigent health care costs, that we would do what was responsible. We would pass legislation raising the ad valorem taxes to keep our counties from going bankrupt. And we did it. But that was not addressed by the administration. Why weren't we told of the critical needs of families eligible for poverty assistance in terms of ADC? Who raised that level up? The legislature did. We raised it up to a level higher than that recommended by the administration and even at that we are still treating families on ADC at disgraceful levels. But that is not politically sexy. There are not a lot of votes out there on welfare.

Why weren't we advised of the real needs of the prison system? That's not politically sexy either. Why were all of these important areas underfunded, not addressed, in this political Christmas tree the administration unveiled in the State of the State address?

There were political payoffs. Presents for every special interest in the state. But, in addition, there was, not included in that budget, the potential bankruptcy of the counties because of indigent health care costs. Hunger for our children because of underfunded ADC. Possible federal court orders mandating that we build country club prisons for our growing prison population. That's what was also there. Ladies and gentlemen, that is shabby politics. That is political opportunism.

This legislature has been open. It has been honest and it has been aboveboard from the time the gavel fell. There has been no limitation on debate on this floor. There has been nothing but openness here. And now as this session is nearing its conclusion, we all find ourselves in a political squeeze play masterminded by the executive branch some months ago. A scheme which has already produced tax increases that probably wouldn't have been needed if the administration had been as honest with us as we have been with them.

What have we here hidden from view? What hidden political agenda has this legislature demonstrated. We have hidden nothing and we have no agenda save the best interests of the taxpayers and voters of this state. The Assembly Ways and Means Committee worked throughout this session in good faith, arguing back and forth, making decisions, discovering some political horror stories as they went along, changing what they could and accomplishing a great deal of reprioritization in order to bring this Christmas tree budget more in line with the real needs of this state.

I am proud to say that although the executive branch shirked its responsibility in underfunding critical areas, in my view, thereby, demonstrating a total lack of leadership this legislature has behaved responsibly. Aid to families with dependent children, prisons, medical care for the indigent, this legislature, Senators, Assemblymen, Republicans, Democrats alike bit the political bullet fired point blank at us by the executive branch knowing full well that if we had had the best possible information we might have been able to do a better job of meeting the needs of this state within the limits of the existing revenue structure. Even after eliminating unfair and discriminatory taxes, we were the ones in the final analysis to act responsibly.

It is in that spirit of responsibile behavior on behalf of the voters and taxpayers of this state that I stand before you this morning to speak to those who say it is unfair to cut out classroom teacher bonuses, I respond that we decide fairness in regard to state employees and the university system because they are, in fact, under our control. But fairness as demonstrated in the wide disparity between teacher pay raises granted by local school districts after the 1983 legislature finished its work, is beyond our control in regard to teacher pay. The local district decides in the final analysis. Fairness is not within our control or jurisdiction in that area.

Now, I have to say once again to those who say that I am trying to punish teachers, that I respond that I have taken my arguments to the teachers by speaking to the State Education Convention. Published reports of our discussion at that convention did not include that charge being made against me by those who will be affected by the outcome of this measure. To those who say that I might not care about the needs of education, I say that a 20.6 percent increase, a $125 million more plus a possible 15 percent pay increase is enough given the other needs we have discovered as a direct result of underfunded proposals by the administration.

In the consideration of the measure before us please keep two things in mind as you deliberate. Throughout the past several months of stormy dialogue over retro or retention, I have never been accused of not having the best interest of the voters and taxpayers of this state at heart. I never heard a proponent of retro or retention pay argue for it on the grounds that granting it is in the interest of the voters and taxpayers.

In fact, the best evidence I have been able to find including survey research and a poll by the Las Vegas Sun indicates that, in fact, the voters and taxpayers in this state do not feel that retro or retention pay is an issue they favor. I think it is important to remember what we have done here in so many areas. Is the glass half full or is the glass half empty? I say the glass is half full.

I read the Nevada State Journal this morning. The headlines say record school spending plan approved. The article says, "The legislature on Sunday endorsed the largest spending plan ever for public schools including a 20.6 percent increase in funding for school districts and a hefty pay raise for teachers. A.B. 726, endorsed by all but one legislator, is a near duplicate of the spending plan for grades Kindergarten through 12 submitted early in the session. Education officials and most of the legislators praise the new Distributive School Fund as progressive. Sue Strand, President of the Nevada State Education Association said her organization is pleased that lawmakers took a step forward."

Overall, ladies and gentlemen, the Distributive School Fund appropriates $727.2 million in the 1985-87 biennium to be spent in school districts in grades Kindergarten through 12. That represents a 20.6 percent increase over funding for the 1983-85 biennium. The legislature, two years ago, appropriated $602.9 million for state schools. The fund is part of a $2.5 billion biennial spending plan approved this year by lawmakers. The Distributive School Fund calls for an 11 percent pay raise effective July 1, 1985 with an additional 3 percent increase on July 1, 1986, and 2 percent in triggers.

The point, ladies and gentlemen, is that it is easy to not be responsible. It is easy to appeal to groups wherever they are, whoever they are in terms of money. But to address the needs of the state, the critical needs of the state, all of the needs of the state, is not easy. But, ladies and gentlemen, it is responsible. That is, hopefully, what we were all elected for.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I listen with great interest to the expert oratory of our colleague and friend from Elko. And you are quite right, the hour is early and the days are long and this is not the real world and it is sometimes make believe. The problem, my friend, is that those people in our state, the citizens we were elected to represent do live in the real world. Their problem is they must live with the results of what we do here, whether it is early in the morning, 11:00 o'clock at night, whether it is in the first day, the 90th day or the 133rd day of this body's deliberations.

Yes, we do all come here with plans and goals, and probably most us of with strategies. The only problem is are those strategies designed for the benefit of the people of this state or are they designed for the benefit of a select few, or a party, or are they looking toward the governor's race? Who knows? I sometimes wonder.

Did I hear that the things we say and do here do not matter? Was that a phrase that I heard? I hope not, but I believe it was. Yes, this system is designed to spend. That is what government is all about. It provides services. I have yet to hear of many services, particularly on the magnitude of a state level that are free. So, the question becomes what services does government provide at what level and what kind of sense and responsibility can be made out of determining those services?

I rather appreciate the techinque of attempting to turn the attention from what is really going on here to education and spending and some other things. No, I'm not having any neighbors stick their head in my office and say, "raise my taxes," be it for education, be it for a dam in Elko, be it for trucking or roads or anything else. Those are the things that they expect us to do with our hidden agendas and our plans and our strategies. They can only hope they survive and can receive some honesty from this body.

Did I hear someone talking about a brass ring? We, at least, know one area of this state that got a brass ring at a cost of two cents on the property tax and we all supported it. We talk about honesty and dealing in proper procedure. Was that two cents debated? Was there a hearing in the Taxation Committee on that two cents? After all it's only $5.5 million a year. I would suggest that the real question of honesty, integrity, and procedure is not the money that is being spent for education here today or the money that is being spent for prisons. It's how it came about.

When we take a $20 million bill and $12 million for a prison system that I hear articulated about, yet last night I was told there has never been formal hearings, there has never been an opportunity for the pros and cons to discuss the necessity and the amount, only chit chatting around the hall. Those of us that are elected flapping our jaws—you call that the legislative process that people should have faith in; that they should look at us and say they certainly have done their job.

Did I hear talk of a hidden agenda? I wonder if there is a hidden agenda? I wonder if there is some secret plan concocted 3,000 miles east of here in some smoke-filled backroom and fed back to Nevada. What am I talking about? I'll tell you what I'm talking about—the run for the 1985 governor's seat. You are the one this morning talking about the administration. How many pawns have we used in this game in the last 31 days? It's obvious where this bill is going this morning. But the thing that is not obvious, and will never be, is that after 132 days we have operated with integrity and honesty. Probably the most obvious thing will be that certain people's goals will have been achieved through dirty tricks and back room politics.

ASSEMBLYMAN BERGEVIN:

I will try, if I can, to pertain my remarks to the bill rather than all the dirty politics, chicanery, bigotry and whatnot I have heard going on here. I think it is a lot of bull. If we take what has happened to education in the past four years, I think you will find that education has been more than fairly treated. In the 1982-83 session, the Distributive School Fund was increased by 14.7 percent, which in those times, was a very hefty increase. In the 1981 session, when we had fallen on bad times, we were still able in the biennium to increase the Distributive School Fund by 8.9 percent. The 8.9 percent increase came about through the imposition of a 25 cent property tax on the people of the State of Nevada, the imposition of several taxes on tobacco, liquor, insurance premiums, and an additional 5 cent tax for state revenues so that other monies could be made available for school funds. These taxes were imposed with the promise that if times got better, these taxes would be reduced or taken away. That promise was not kept, of course, when we came to this legislature in 1983. The budget was built on the premise that all of the taxes that were put on in the 1983 session should continue to fund the programs as outlined by the budget.

During the bad times when the Distributive School Fund increased by 8.7 percent, a lot of other people were taking cuts in their funds available. If you will recall, Governor List had to cut down the funds of the University of Nevada. He had to cut down funds of state employees; he didn't hire new employees. Therefore, we had complete control over the spending of those two entities, the University of Nevada and the state employees and they went without for those years, without any pay increase. With the 8.9 percent going to the Distributive School Fund through local negotiations the school teachers were almost mandated they would get a pay raise.

Now, we come back, we want to reimpose these same taxes, trying to sunset them. We are being resisted down on the other end of the hall to even put sunsets on these taxes. If that isn't a breach of faith to the taxpayers in the State of Nevada, I would like to know what is.

The 25 cents we gave to schools remains in tact. We've done nothing to reduce that. We have reduced the 5 cents from the state simply because of the increased funds that became available during the biennium. In retrospect, the 25 cents, or any of the sunset taxes, were necessary to properly fund this budget during the last biennium. There was a sufficient amount of money there. It reminds me a little bit of a kid with a jar of jelly beans. He'll eat them all in one day and get a belly ache and the next day he wonders where his jelly beans went. That is precisely what is going to happen if we do not take a responsible position in this budget year to see that there is some carry over money for the critical needs that we know are coming down the road two years from now.

If we spend all of the money presently available, I will guarantee you there will be a substantial increase in the property tax rates of the State of Nevada and I will also guarantee you that the people of the State of Nevada won't stand for that. They will come back in here with a proposition to limit taxes faster than we can take our seats.

Also, available funds for education which have not been talked about is a 50 cent property tax totally outside of the Distributive School Fund. This property tax revenue grows as the assessed value of each individual county grows and in the case of a county growing fast, they get a tremendous amount of increased funds. One other thing I think is very pertinent to this discussion, the population of the elementary and secondary school districts in the past four years has risen less than 5 percent. Yet, in the last four years, we have pumped in 14 percent, 8.9 percent, 20.6 percent. If that isn't responsible funding of education, I would like to know what is.

ASSEMBLYMAN BEYER:

I think we need to dissect the bill for a moment and discuss the three groups we are concerned with, that is the state employees, the University of Nevada system professionals and the Kindergarten through 12 teachers. In 1971, because the state was flush at that time, we were able to grant the state employees a salary increase and we got locked into a calendar year basis for state employees. We have now for the last 14 years been on that cycle. We have granted salary increases to state employees at the session which were "retroactive" to January 1 because of that calendar year cycle.

Two years ago we were faced with a money deficit and we did not grant the state employees a salary increase. We call this appropriation a position retention, or bonus, or retroactive, whatever you want to call it, to me the appropriation in this bill is nothing more than a salary increase to state employees of 11 percent as of January 1 to June 30th of this year. A salary increase, to me, is one which they deserve and are justified in receiving.

The second group is the professionals at the university who have gone without a salary increase for four years or more. They did not even get a cost of living raise as was the case for state employees or teachers. This appropriation gives them an 11 percent increase from January 1 to June 30. Although the wording in the bill is a 5.5 percent retention pay back to July 1, 1984. Again, call it what you may. The numbers are pretty much the same. It amounts to a salary increase of 11 percent from January 1 to June 30. I think it is a salary increase they justly deserve and rightly need.

The third group we talk about now is the teachers from Kindergarten through 12 who are currently working under a negotiated contract with individual school districts. That contract may be good or bad, there may or may not have been raises in that, but that is left up to the individual school districts to negotiate that salary. And, so, today we have some disparity among the counties. My own county, Washoe County, is second from the bottom. Other counties are very wealthy when it comes to salaries for teachers and yet the Distributive School Fund is based on a formula where we appropriate x number of dollars per student which is the same throughout the state except for the wealth factor. When you get to how much money is appropriated per student, it is equal throughout the state. That negotiation process is left to the individual school districts and teachers.

That brings us to July 1, 1985. This appropriation gives a salary increase to university professionals and teachers working under a current contract. This puts it on an equal basis among the three groups, parity.

Let's talk a moment about a bonus now. What was recommended in the governor's budget was a bonus for the teachers of Kindergarten through 12. I have consistently said throughout this session I have no personal philosophical problem with that bonus. I still believe that. But I do have a problem with inequality in bonuses. If we for a moment think in terms of state employees and the professionals at the university system as just deserving a salary increase, they should all have an equal bonus. They should all have an equal bonus, not just one group. All get a bonus or none get a bonus. That to me is equality.

We have heard much this session about salaries due for past nonincreases in salaries. I'll long remember that all I got from my employer the week before Christmas in 1982, where I was told among another 110 employees, that henceforth you all take a 10 percent cut in pay if you want to keep your job. I worked for a year and a half when I finally left that firm in 1984 at the same salary, at the same 10 percent cut in salary. Times were tough and we were lucky to have a job during those recession days. I don't recall teachers receiving any cut in salary but the private sector did.

Now, we are faced with a salary increase for all three groups of 11 percent and 3 percent and a 1, 1 trigger for the next two years of the biennium. That's equality. If there is a bonus to be given, all three groups should be given the same bonus, be it 1, 2, 3 percent, whatever it might be. The state employees' salaries and the university staff is set by the state legislature. They have no bargaining process. The teachers do have the prerogative to bargain with their individual school districts. I'm convinced as we have gone through the budget process these last several months, that the increase that was given in the Distributive School Fund is sufficient to provide that 11, and hopefully 1, 1 trigger or more. I have talked with administrators around the state—they tell me there is a likely chance, and a good chance, that the pay increase for teachers will be more than the 11 and 3.

There was talk that the bonuses to teachers would be a thank you for service well done. I agree with those thank yous. But let's give a thank you to the state employees as well and the university staff. They need those thank yous. I believe the increase in the school funding for this session, at least it is hopefully my thank you, for a service well performed. We have an additional $22 million appropriated for education on top of the Distributive School Fund which, as far as I know, is the first time we have appropriated money on top of the Distributive School Fund. That money is to be used for program enhancement for equipment and for training of teachers. Those items were purchased and bought previously out of the Distributive School Fund. That can now be moved over into a separate fund, opening up additional funding in the Distributive School Fund for bargaining.

Let's switch for a moment for the appropriation for prisons. I sat with Virgil Getto and others on the capital improvements subcommittee. I had the pleasure of chairing that subcommittee. We spent many hours going through the proposed capital improvements in the prison system and tried to patch and make do where best we could in order to save funds in the capital improvements appropriation.

We talked to the prison wardens and asked: Can you stack inmates up a little deeper? Can you find more floor space to put them on? Can you squeeze here and squeeze there? I think we pretty much wanted the problem to go away. So last night when our colleague from southern Nevada indicated we had not discussed the problem of prisons, I think we all hoped the problem would go away, but it hasn't and it won't. We are going to be faced with additional space requirements for inmates. Not because we want to but because the United States Supreme Court's edict is that we do provide certain facilities for prisoners.

During the session we appropriated nearly $15 million for a new college of engineering at UNLV. And, you know, ladies and gentlemen, we paid cash for that building. We didn't have to go out and look for bonds, we didn't have to cut corners anywhere to pay for that building. We paid cash and that felt good to be able to pay cash for that college. Wouldn't it be great to come back in 1987 or 1989 and pay cash for a new state library and archives building; or pay for a new supreme court building; or pay cash for a new prison and not always have to look for bonding or for stripping of the budgets in order to pay for these buildings. Let's face it whether we like it or not we are in a building mode right now in this state and we've got to provide physical facilities to house some of these activities.

If you've gone through the state library building, it is a disgrace. We are told it is loaded right now equal to the weight of a 727 airplane. That is an historic building that we must save. We have historical records that are now being stored in a shed—records that can never be replaced if they are lost. We need a facility that will house those records. We need to think in terms of a new state library and archives building in the very near future.

We came here to do a job—not because of our lack of endorsements. We came here to be responsible for the needs of the state as was addressed earlier. I believe in equality and equal opportunity. I believe that funding that has been available from the taxpayers' pockets that we spend ought to be distributed equally among everyone who deserves that. Again, whatever you might call the appropriation in this bill, be it retroactive or bonuses or job retention, to me it is a salary increase rightfully deserved. If there are any bonuses to be given, they have to come out of that appropriation for the prison and ought to be distributed equally to all employees—state employees, university employees, and teachers as well.

I'm proud of what we have done this session for education. As the Speaker alluded to the article in the paper that stated this legislature provided the biggest increase in education in the history of this state. I believe we have put the twist on school districts to negotiate with their teachers. That is their job. It is not our job. We sat in Education Committee this session day after day and we were told not to take away the autonomy of the local school districts. We heard, "You can't do this to us because that is our right to develop our own programs in our school districts". So, we need to back off when it comes to telling the school districts where to spend their money. They have their own priorities. That is their job. I take my hat off to local school boards who have a tough job to run the school districts of this state. I believe they can do it. I believe they have the smarts to do it. I challenge them to work with us over the next two years and improve education in this state. With the funding that has been appropriated by this session, I think they can do a good job.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

I would like to talk a little bit about salaries. In Clark County a starting school teacher, who has a minimum of a bachelors degree in education, that's four years of college, starts out at $14,500 a year. There are a lot of business people here. I have been involved in a union. I was president of the Steel Workers Union and I can tell you for $14,500 a year, you can't get anybody to wash dishes. I can appreciate what my good friend from Washoe County said about collective bargaining and you know we give the school districts the money. But, don't forget they have to try to go back and get that money from the school districts. If the school district doesn't give them the money, this isn't going to get any better.

This time I was very fortunate in that I did not draw an opponent. I don't know why but it gave me time to really cover my district. When the rest of you were campaigning hard, I went to three different schools in my district and had lunch with the teachers. I represent an area that is probably as diverse as most. Some of you represent an area 40 blocks square say in downtown Reno or Las Vegas. I represent the most industrialized area of the state. I represent an area that probably more closely aligns itself conservatively wise as they do out in the cow counties, and Mesquite, and the valleys as we call them in southern Nevada. I went to schools in each of these areas. They all told me the same thing, "We've got to have some money. We can't live. I am not going to be a teacher. I'm holding two jobs. I had to marry someone who works so we could live."

I had a gentleman in Logandale, which is a farming community, a little area Mr. Banner is familiar with, who told me, "My son is graduating this year with a math background and I told him I would disown him if he became a teacher". I believe he was offered $30,000 a year in private industry. I realize we can't compete with that. I think to be a teacher there is a lot of dedication involved. To me a teacher takes a lot of dedication.

The prison thing. You know, Dr. Sedway had his heart attack and I kind of fell out of the frying pan into the fire because I had served on Ways and Means before and the leadership asked me to take his place. The prison problem has been around here a long time. This hasn't been a problem that came up just last session. When I started in 1981, it was a problem then. I went and visited the prison as a member of the Judiciary Committee, as did the other members, and saw how the prisoners were stacked up in there then. It is a problem that isn't going to go away. I don't pretend to imagine that. I also feel the problem with the teachers is not going to go away. Where are we going to be in two years as attrition goes by and the older teachers retire because we are not attracting new teachers? They are not coming here. A new teacher in California starts out at $19,000 a year. Maybe we can't compete with that. I'm sure we can't. Maybe we have other things to offer and I'm sure we do, but we have to address that problem.

We talked about the political ramifications and who is using who and are we being used. I can tell you freshman when I came up here my first time I really thought I was going to do something. Some of my friends asked what happened to me my first session; I learned a lot of dirty tricks because some people put it on me pretty heavy and the next session a lot of freshmen came to me and said people told me to talk to you about different motions and dirty tricks because these guys got you pretty bad. I left my first session and when I went to run again, I realized I had to answer for what I did. You don't really think about that too much when you are here.

I was confused a bit when the speaker talked about political moves and votes and not who is pushing this or doing the responsible thing. He also talked about a survey that says teachers' retention pay is not a popular issue. I'm sure it's not. I don't doubt for a minute that it is not a popular issue. But for me I think if we don't address the teacher problem, it would be a mistake. I think it is a more serious problem than the prison problem.

I sat on the Ways and Means Committee last session and we made some real good moves to come up with some honor camps to reduce the prison populations. I think that is one way we can do that—an honest way with nonviolent criminals. They can be housed in these camps at a considerably lower cost than $12,000 a year or whatever it is. Maybe we need to expand on that. I think it is a lot cheaper. We bought those housing units from the oil companies in Alaska and they were set up and that is what we are going to use. My first session, they only had the honor camp at the lake and two days before we visited the honor camp a prisoner pulled a knife on the forest service bus driver who was driving the prisoners. The other prisoners beat the heck out of him, took the knife and let the bus driver go. That told me something. We are doing something right there. For those of you who haven't visited the prison, I suggest you go. Everyone here should get locked up at "Max" for just an afternoon. It's an experience. You are going to have those kind of people no matter what we do here. You can't legislate morality.

I say to this, if you don't do something about teachers' pay it will be a mistake. I talked to a teacher recently who told me she started teaching in Clark County at $14,500 a year. She said after the end of this school year she is going back to Ohio to teach because she will be making $2,000 more a year. She is a good teacher and we lost her. How many more teachers are thinking that way? I think in two years the amount of attrition that could take place within that education system could be great. We can't get special education teachers now for what we pay. If we let this opportunity go by to tell the teachers we want them to stay here and we are willing to put our money where our mouth is, in two years this prison problem won't seem as great compared to the problem we'll have with kids who can't read or write.

I for one, and I think this is an appropriate statement—you can argue with it and we can all talk about politics and say that we are being used—am not afraid to make the tough decision, and I would encourage you all to make that same decision to not put prisons over our kids because that will come back to haunt you.

ASSEMBLYMAN NICHOLAS:

Rather than discuss all of the facets of the issue, I'll try to get to the heart of what is important to many of us. Let me suggest that for myself I will support the bill that is coming for a vote. Second, let me suggest that I'll be a responsible member of the majority party in this body. And, third, I will also seek further refinement of A.B. 554 so that my school teachers are not stricken from the benefits of the bill. Finally, when I participate in the debate dealing with the inevitable compromise of A.B. 554 I will vote for the inclusion of the Kindergarten through 12 teachers in its directions.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

I must say that I welcome the presence of our Speaker back on the floor. We've missed him. His eloquence is, I think, renowned and has a reputation that is well deserved for many years in the political wars and we've missed him here. I think because he knows how to turn a phrase better than any of us and speak with conviction and skill, and I salute him for that. I think back on one of the things he said about this being a make-believe world. We are not in the make-believe world, really. I would have to disagree with that because this is the real world. It's the real world of money and people and all the decisions that we make spread out into the real world. It was nice to hear your stream of consciousness here today, Mr. Speaker, on the floor so that it could be delivered to us personally and not to the press through a Monday morning memo. We got it straight and I appreciate that.

There was also talk from our distinguished Speaker about Christmas trees, bills which seem to multiply in size. I would submit to you that A.B. 554, a good bill in its original form, has not only become a Christmas tree, it's as big as a Douglas fir. In the real world Douglas firs are not cut down easily and neither will be A.B. 554 unless people who voted for it originally give it a lot of thought and change their mind.

But, going back to the make-believe world, which our distinguished Speaker has said we are in, I think we could look back 100 years and think about that great author from England, Mary Shelley, who wrote an interesting book which we know as Frankenstein. You know, it's funny how A.B. 554 has become like Frankenstein. You remember the creature created by the good Doctor Frankenstein. He borrowed a part here and part there from dead bodies and he sewed it all together and when he was finished it was a misshapen lump of flesh with no soul and a scar on its forehead. At least that's what the popular movie versions would tell us about it. Really, A.B. 554 has become very much like that. A.B. 554, a good bill in it origination, has had parts taken from all over the state and our budget and grafted onto it. We've got a kidney for the DMV, we've got a heart from the Legislative Counsel Bureau bonuses, and we've got a couple of legs of different sizes for the prisons system—all put together, sewn on A.B. 554, very sloppily.

I would submit to you A.B. 554 has become somewhat like Frankenstein. In fact, however, I think since this bill does not have a father; at least, anyone who would admit to it, I think maybe the bill has become the bastard child of Frankenstein, the monster. A bill without a father except the people foolish enough to vote for it.

ASSEMBLYMAN DUBOIS:

I cannot support the bill because of section 12. I wish to direct my remarks strictly on point. I don't want to talk about Christmas trees or Frankenstein or anyone else. We are faced in this legislature with priorities, always with priorities. We have need for improvement in our highway system. We have needs for bringing our Aid to Dependent Children program up to par. We have needs in our mental health institutions. Great needs in water management. We certainly have needs in our university system. Needs in our state parks. Needs in Kindergarten through 12 education and needs in our prison system. We even have needs for more guzzlers for the chukars and quail of the state. Everywhere we have needs. Everywhere we have priorities. But, nowhere do we have enough money to go around. Yes, we have been good to education in this session. We can all be proud of that.

The question before this house, the nut of the question, is how do we spend this additional money. Do we spend it on the prison system or do we spend it on teachers? You can say we would spend it on teachers in the form of retention, retoractive pay, recruitment or a bonus. Call it what you may. But I submit to you that industry and business does this as a matter of course. Industry and business gives bonuses not to be generous or kind; they do it to retain the good people that they have. That is what we are doing here. I believe that the need for teachers at this point in time supercedes the need for more prison capacity.

That is the bottom line choice we have to make in this house today. Do you believe we can improve the quality of education? Do you believe we can better the well being of the teachers? Do you believe we can hold on to the better quality teachers through this or do you think we need a prison system. I know where I stand on this problem. For the rest of you the choice is yours.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

We have heard now, last night and today, general discussion on A.B. 554. Yet, much of what we have heard has not been on the bill itself. We've heard budget, funding and taxing issues largely having to do with the budget itself but not on the issue of what we do with the surplus which currently exists. We've heard a diatribe about the governor, we've heard several of those. We've heard the Speaker's view of political life in the legislature. But, we haven't heard in specific from all but a few speakers what we are actually concerned with in A.B. 554.

I take my hat off to Mr. Beyer in support of the bill and Mr. DuBois in opposition. They were eloquent statements specifically on the bill. I see what we are doing right now this morning as the end of the opening shot on this issue. As the day unfolds we'll see how the Senate deals with this issue. We will undoubtedly see some sort of compromise suggested. We'll see, I hope, some movement by those who are prepared to vote for this issue to "further refinement" of this issue as my colleague from Incline Village states. Hopefully, we will see by the end of the day some form that the majority of us here can vote on which will give a retention pay to teachers. I hope we don't leave without that happening.

What we are doing here with the yes votes we'll see on the board on this first opening shot is a statement by the Assembly leadership of where their priorities are on this issue. That will be a clear statement. We heard it clearly last night. The issue is the use of budget surplus for either retention pay for teachers or for prison construction. The issue is in funding enhancements for state employees and university employees, which we are agreeing to do with this bill, but not for teachers. Where are our priorities? I understand when the Speaker says that he has been opposed to retroactive pay for teachers since the opening bell. I think he's made that clear and it should be no surprise as he stands today that he enunciates that position articulately.

What is a surprise to many of us is that he has 21 votes to go along with him today. That is a surprise. In discussing the pros and cons of this issue, and there are many cons, we come late in the session to a very hurried amendment considered quickly on the floor without discussion or debate in the form of hearings on such a major issue. Many of us have questioned the motivation behind those and I don't really want to get into that. I want to talk about the motivation and the priorities that leads me and those of us that oppose this bill to state our opposition. Motivation there lies in the emphasis and desire to enhance education in the State of Nevada. Education in the State of Nevada is only as good as the people in the system. They are the engine of education and money is the gas for the engine. We take pride, I think, almost unanimously in the way we have funded education in the future budget. We've heard much about it in debate on this issue but that's not the question in this issue. We're talking about budget surplus, not future spending when we talk about A.B. 554. We talk about the three groups that this body decides to fund and the level of funding we will make for those groups in the next two years—teachers, university employees, and state employees.

There has been a distinction made for teachers saying that somehow they are different because they have a collective bargaining process. And that somehow the collective bargaining process should take care of them. This is a hollow argument. Hollow for two reasons. First, as the chairman of Ways and Means Committee admitted last night we haven't funded the money for a surplus to be negotiated. How can you negotiate bonus pay unless you have given them the money to do so. Yes, we have funded increases for a new budget for the school districts for the next two years for bonuses, the 15 percent and that's as it should be. We've done it for the other two groups also.

Note, for instance, the language in SB 121 and SB 574. SB 121 is an appropriation for equipment for school systems. A.B. 574 or maybe A.B. 514 is for programs. Both of those bills specifically state that the money cannot be used for teacher negotiations on salaries. We've made clear what we are going to give the school districts.

If you want to talk about history, let's talk about two years ago. All of us who were here remember the promises we made to state employees and school employees at that time when we didn't have the money to fund increases. We promised that, if the money materialized in the future, we would remember that they bit the bullet two years ago. Now is the time to remember and we are remembering for the state employees. But we are not remembering for the teachers. We get back then to the priorities and to the real reason, I think, those of us who oppose this bill will state our opposition.

We know that the people, in general, want to see improvement in education. We made those campaign promises. We stated them many times. We know that in everything in the system, the most important part of the system is the teacher, the motivation, the interest, the enthusiasm to be good at what the teacher does. That is very difficult to do in the demoralized atmosphere of feeling you are underpaid and undervalued in the system. We are making a statement with this bill and the statement is of the three groups that we have the responsibility to fund, university employees, state employees and teachers, the one group on the bottom is the teachers. That is why I oppose this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

I rise to unqualifiedly speak in favor of A.B. 554. I'll try to confine my remarks to the bill. Many points have been made. We've had talk of Christmas trees, Frankensteins and other objects. We've also heard talk about political slogans. Kids versus cons is one we heard quite early in Ways and Means Committee, emanating from the executive branch, in particular. Kids versus cons is not just an easy catch phrase. We also heard remarks, not made officially on this floor last night, but from the gallery behind me saying there were more votes in doing something for schools than in doing something for prisons. Ladies and gentlemen, if you feel that way then shame on you. I have been both a teacher and worked in corrections. I feel I have some background with which to speak on this issue because it deals impliedly with both prisons and education.

On February 16 of this year, as we began our work in the Ways and Means Committee, the prison at Indian Springs had a near riot. I decided at that time, personally, I had to be able to sleep at night. That is, I had to participate in funding the prison system adequately so that we could protect, first of all, our state employees who work in those prisons; secondly, the public who may reside in the vicinity of prisons; and, thirdly, yes, the inmates that reside in those prisons. They deserve to be protected, too.

A few years ago, a sister state, New Mexico, had a full scale prison riot. There were scores of people murdered. There were all sorts of instances related in the press about the depths of man's inhumanity to man. I have to be able to sleep at night to know that all of our prisons are safe for all the groups I mentioned before. It is easy to say that school children, teachers and parents are more important than prisons. That is easy to say, that is not easy for me to say.

Now to reiterate on a few points about the three employee groups that are impliedly dealt with in A.B. 554. Once again, we are State of Nevada elected officials. We make the policy and we make the appropriations for the state. We deal directly with state employees and with university faculty and staff. But the State of Nevada, by statute, makes a grant to our school districts through our distributive school fund by a fund of money. School district employees negotiate with school districts for their salaries. You can say this is an arms length relationship. You could also say that faculty and staff have a second bite at the apple, also. Your Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Committee have passed appropriations for Kindergarten through 12th grade education totaling $727.2 million. Of this money, it is conceivable that $138 million could be considered in a category that can be bargained for by employees of the school districts. Do we need to draw a picture? I don't know if this bill will change in a conference committee, as my colleague to my immediate left has suggested, I do know that teachers have the capacity to get a 5.5 percent retention pay through the school districts. The money is there. Remarks have been related to me from behind me and in the halls of this building that school district representatives do not like the burden that has been placed upon them to negotiate for certain pay items for state employees. They consider this legislative body will be placing that more heavily on them. This relates to a matter of local control. School boards and administrators simply can't have it both ways.

Your Ways and Means Committee was told by school districts that we should not alter their equipment requests of $12 million for equipment and other critical needs in favor of a plan that would reduce class size because, although education experts appearing before that committee agree that lowering class size in grades 1, 2, and 3 is most critical, they argued that this should be subject to local control. Your Ways and Means Committee asked school districts in January of this year if they would mind not allowing the $22 million fund established in two separate bills intended for equipment and critical needs such as specialized teacher training to ever be placed in a category for salary negotiations. This is all we asked of the school districts. Twenty-two million dollars out of $727.2 million and the school districts agreed. In Jaunary of 1985, the teacher unions and the school board association sent notice to each member of this body that it was okay to give retro pay to teachers. They did not feel this would be a disturbance or an interference with the contractual relationship. I do feel it would be an interference. I do not agree with that. If you make a contract, you live with it. We all do that in business everyday and in our consumer relationships with business entities.

Again, people in the school districts, school boards and administrators cannot have it both ways. School districts have to bargain, they have to manage and they have to have the backbone to do their jobs. In conclusion, there is no need for this state to spend money like drunken sailors. The $12 million account created by A.B. 554 is a savings account. This is surplus tax money. The question arises, did we tax too high? You all have a savings account at home. The State of Nevada should have one, too. This savings account of surplus tax revenue is a down payment on preventing a general tax increase in 1987.

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIAMS:

I rise in opposition to this bill. The first thing I would like to address are some statements that were made about owing to special interest groups. Like everybody in this room, I walked my district and knocked on doors. That is an accurate statement—I do owe to special interest groups. I owe to a special interest group that is called District 10 in Clark County. People in my district, whether they be parent or grandparent want quality education for their children. That is the only special interest group I owe anything to. I want to make that clear.

I have heard a lot of talk about all the money going into education. We also need to reiterate this. The chairman of our Ways and Means Committee last night admitted there was no room for negotiation, no latitude in the money for teachers in the appropriation; the enormous millions of dollars that have been appropriated for education. That money does not include latitude for teachers.

As for my distinguished colleague from Washoe County regarding prison riots, I would like to suggest to him that from my educational background it doesn't matter how many prisons you build, you will never stop prison riots. Prison riots are part of the lifestyle that goes on within those institutions. So to suggest that by putting $12.5 million aside for future prisons you are going to be safer sleeping at night is an auspicious argument from my point of view.

I would like to talk a little bit about the brain drain. I think I have a little expertise in this area since I spent many years in higher education. I submit to you that we need to shore up and strengthen and enhance, not only the quality of our teachers but the morale of our teachers in Kindergarten through 12, or the result will be mediocre students entering our higher education system. None of us want to have mediocrity in education. I submit to you that before long those children that we are talking about today that will be the products of those teachers will be sitting in our seats in this chamber. Who do we want sitting in these seats? Do we want the brightest and the best? I do. I would hope that everybody in here that wants the brightest and the best will understand that when these young people get to college they need to know how to write an essay that is more than one sentence, that is punctuated, that has content, that has comprehension. We will not have that unless we make sure that we can retain the quality teachers we have and we can recruit new quality teachers so that we can compete with the other states. We are already facing problems in this area. I urge you to consider all of these things very carefully. I urge you to vote no on this.

ASSEMBLYMAN TEBBS:

At the risk of breaking my personal code of silence, I feel compelled to stand and express some of my feelings and comments on this issue. First of all, our colleague from Henderson commented that retention pay would help us in recruiting new teachers. I would submit to this body that retention pay does not help us in recruiting new teachers but an increase of possibly 15 percent does. Second, we have heard comments on the floor today that we have not heard sufficient testimony or, specifically, testimony on the amendment to A.B. 554.

As a member of the Ways and Means Committee, I can truthfully say that throughout our hearings we were told by a number of people a number of times of the urgent need for a new prison. We have already heard sufficient and persuasive testimony in support of the money going in this direction and I support it.

Finally, there seems to be some confusion as to what this bill addresses. Again, in my humble and freshman opinion, A.B. 554, as amended, addresses very well an aid in solving the issues of education, taxation and the safety of our children.

In conclusion, I hope when we consider voting on this bill that we will consider not only the teacher, not only our respective political party, or our respective political leader, as has been so challenged, but we will consider one group of people as a whole, and that is the citizens of the State of Nevada. I will support A.B. 554 in its amended version because, in my opinion, we are addressing through this bill the needs of Nevadans as a whole.

ASSEMBLYMAN FRANCIS:

I would like to commend everyone for keeping such an orderly house. I know a lot of us have bared our souls and said how we really feel. I would like to touch upon one subject that hasn't been talked about enough. Mr. Thompson has talked about how he didn't have an opponent during the last election and he visited schools and teachers. Well, maybe if he had had an opportunity to walk his district he would have talked to taxpayers out there. I can tell you that people in my district, as I walked and knocked on every door twice, told me enough is enough. My esteemed colleague from Gardnerville touched on the sunset taxes. Yes, that was a breach of faith. But I bit the bullet. I supported those sunset taxes. I also supported the 3 cents for the indigent care. I also supported 2 cents for flood control because I knew that was what needed to be done.

But I can say right now that the taxpayers won't buy retroactive or retention pay. They said to me enough is enough. A lot of us campaigned on education and keeping the taxes low, too. We did what we campaigned on. We kept our promise. We increased money for education like we never have before. I kept my campaign promise. But I also promised to keep taxes low. Not only for this session, but for next session. The logic is not there for the retention pay. The logic is sound in this bill, A.B. 554, as amended.

As I talked to teachers in my district they told me they were tired of being a political commodity. They want a pay raise. We gave them a pay raise. That is the responsible thing to do. And this bill, as amended, is responsible. It is unfortunate to be put in a position, Democrats and Republicans, alike of having to make this type of choice. I would remind this body that Question 12 is still looming out there. I'm going to remind this body what the vote was; yes for Question 12, 132,688 people versus no, 143,874. If we spend money like drunken sailors, as my distinguished colleague from Washoe County says, what will that vote be next time.

Mr. Coffin, you can talk about a Frankenstein out there but I submit to you if we don't do the responsible thing the Frankenstein out there is going to be the taxpayer.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

I believe the esteemed majority leader is breaching the rules by referring to the members of this house by their name rather than by their district number. I listen to my colleague say that I didn't walk my district. I didn't walk all of it but I talked to a lot of people. I think he thinks I didn't walk it just like he didn't know the esteemed majority leader from the Senate was in the room last night when he accused him of coming up with this plan.

My colleague said that the taxpayers won't buy retention pay. What makes you think they are going to buy retention pay for the university employees and the state employees and not the teacher. I frankly don't see the difference. You say they are different because of collective bargaining. Not all teachers belong to the teachers union. As a matter of fact, the majority do not. The majority of the teachers in Clark and Washoe Counties do not belong to the teachers association. I don't see what the difference is. I understand the political ramifications, but the majority of those people do not belong. If we provide money for those pay increases that doesn't automatically give it to them. As a matter of fact, my first session was in 1981 and we did give school districts the right to allow for teacher pay increases. They didn't get it though. They negotiated but they didn't get it. This doesn't guarantee anything. I think the mere fact that we are providing it for the state employees, and the university professors it should be also for the school teachers. I think there is a bigger demonstrated need there than there is for other groups. I think the priority is higher. I'm for the state employees and the university professionals, but I don't think that the taxpayer is going to buy giving it to two groups and not the other one.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

This is a point of personal privilege when your name is mentioned in debate. To be very brief, responding to the Frankenstein issue. It has risen its ugly head again. We apparently have found fathers for the ugly monster in this room. I should remind those who are here that in the end the monster ate its creator.

ASSEMBLYMAN GETTO:

I would like to point out the situation I was in last night. It was probably one of the worst that I have been involved with in this legislature. Beside me sat my wife who is a school teacher and a member of the association. I was torn. Not because my wife is a school teacher, and because of her salary; I was torn about the position I placed my wife in. I thought about that a long time. I apologized to her very sincerely afterward. I had to think about the responsibility to the State of Nevada and to the taxpayers and to the kids.

There has been a lot of rhetoric here today, but I think we have acted responsibly to provide proper funding that is needed. I wish we could do more without raising taxes. We have acted responsibly for the employees of this state and we have acted responsibly for higher education. I would like to point out that I was here when the negotiations act was passed for people in education and that took it completely out of the hands of the legislature. It placed the responsibility squarely on the school district and most of you state that you believe in local control.

I would also like to say that we can go away from here sometimes funding a certain percentage for education and then when it came to reality, and in one particular instance when state employees were funded at 7 or 8 percent, the education group went back and over 50 percent of the group negotiated a 27 percent increase. That was not funded but it was handled. I will say that when we leave here the money will be there and each district will negotiate what they have to to provide adequate funding for adequate salaries for their teachers. I certainly support teachers.

ASSEMBLYMAN O'DONNELL:

I was one of those who worked on this program very early in the session. Last night I agonized over this issue. I've had nightmares over this issue. I woke up in a cold sweat in this issue and said, "My God, they are going to put the prison at South Fork". I realized it was only a dream. The reason why I drafted or helped to draft this proposal was for equity. I realized that the state employees were on a different payroll schedule than the university professors and the school teachers. I asked myself what are we going to do in two years. Are we going to say we didn't give the teachers a raise for four years now so we won't give the state employees any money and we won't give the university employees any money, we'll give it all to the teachers. That is exactly the opposite of the desire of this legislator for this proposal. Equity was the issue. We are giving retention pay to university professors; we are giving retention pay for state employees and we are not giving it to the teachers.

Let me address the surplus, something that has not been discussed in all of the discussion this morning. Our surplus last year was based on a 5 3/4 percent sales tax. In 1981 and 1982, when we had a shift from the property tax to a sales tax the entire economy of the nation went down. Interest rates were at an all time high. The marginal propensity to save was at an all time high. We saved more money; we did not spend it. We did not use it in tourism or gambling.

In 1983, we had a deficit. We had to raise property taxes in order to accommodate the needs of this state. Since that time the economy of the nation has turned around. Interest rates have gone down. Money is freer than ever before. M-1 is up. We have more discretionary dollars. We have more tourism and more gaming and more revenue.

Three Fridays ago the interest rate went down even farther. It is now at 10 percent and will probably go down even further meaning that the marginal propensity to consume will be higher. We'll have more tourism and more gaming. Our economy in the State of Nevada lags by about six months to a year. I can only assume that only keeping all the taxes we have on the books, keeping the 5 3/4 percent on the books we will have more surplus next year and the following year than ever before. The idea behind retention pay was to equally distribute the money fairly to the three groups. Then no more. This legislator did not approve of or endorse retroactive pay raises for any group. Retention will be a thing of the past if we treat each individual group equitably. Retroactive pay will be a thing of the past. In 1987 we will be able to fund a prison for this state out of cash dollars. If you have kids in school as I do I hope you feel comfortable and secure knowing that each teacher that sits in a classroom is feeling ecstatic knowing they were treated fairly and equitably.

ASSEMBLYMAN HORNE:

I am appreciative of my colleague from Washoe County, District 32, for attempting to bring into focus the real issue at hand. He is highly respected by myself in many of his judgments and I would like to address this bill from that perspective.

The real issue is what is the responsible thing to do with these funds that we are addressing. We have already responsibly increased the salaries, or at least proposed that increase, which is essential. What is the responsible thing now to do with those funds that are being discussed? Is it a bonus to teachers Kindergarten through 12 which will have a questionable effect on the quality of education. I defy anyone to show, and I will present evidence to negate that that will have any significance on the quality of education, or is it responsible to use it as an investment to reduce the probability of a future significant tax increase. From the taxpayer's perspective I can tell you, as a taxpayer, the latter would be the responsible thing.

Let us now focus on the question, and I believe it is a sincere desire of the members of this body, to address the use of this money to effect the quality of education. I would submit to you that there is an erroneous assumption in all of the dialogue that I have heard here last night and today, and with all of the discussion with regard to this issue, that money is the ultimate motivator for excellence in performance. I ask each of you here, why are you here? What brought you to this place to be used and abused, to make hard decisions? Did you come here for the money? Is that why you are here? Is that what motivated you? Hardly. The answer is quite clear. I suggest that legislators and teachers share a commonality in several aspects of this discussion. Money is not the ultimate motivator.

I will submit to you some research data entitled, "Political myths about performance in teaching." Myth number one is entitled, "Pay teachers more and they will teach better". I, again, remind us that we are not talking about the salary levels, essentially, in this particular discussion. We have already addressed that and in our view, collectively, it is essential that we increase, as we are able, those salary levels to a competitive and respectable level. However, when we make the judgment as to whether a bonus will be effective we need to consider some of these elements.

From this data we read, "For most teachers, the rewards of teaching are not at all extrinsic. Teachers, instead, value the intrinsic, psychic rewards that come from students academic accomplishments and from confidence in their own ability to help students learn. Teachers seem motivated to change only when they believe that the attempt will enhance their effectiveness with students." Will a bonus accomplish that? Higher pay is unlikely to promote better professional performance. Teachers unstintingly put forth effort insofar as the professional rewards of their work outweigh the frustrations. Will a bonus alleviate that?

First, intrinsic rewards, and not salary, may be the primary motivators of better performance in teaching. A low salary can discourage from entering or remaining in the teaching profession. We recognize that and have addressed it. But higher pay alone will not lean to better teaching. It is, therefore, important for policy making to explore other factors influencing teachers' job performance and satisfaction. For all the teachers interviewed, reaching students was most important in making them feel good about their jobs. There has been much discussion about motivation, about what it is that causes people to perform in an excellent manner. My colleague from Washoe County's remarks motivated my response because I think it is an inherent and erroneous assumption. His remarks were, "Money is the gas for the engine. That quality education depends on money". I submit to each and everyone of you that that which motivates a sincere and intent legislator is the same as that which motivates a sincere teacher. That is the opportunity to effect some improvement in the quality of those whom we serve and in order to do that we must act responsibly and in the best interest of those whom we serve.

Again, I think it needs to be said and brought into perspective another commonality that we share as legislators with the teachers in this issue. We have both been used by administrators. If you will, in fact, review the scenario that we have before us, the executive branch has orchestrated this scenario for whatever purpose. That is why we are here debating the issue. On the other hand, the administrators have said, "If you will fund this bonus, it will make our job easier". What is the responsible thing to do—it is to utilize those monies in the most effective manner to bring about the purposes of the citizens of this state and in their best interest? Let us please consider the reality of the issue. Is it money that motivates the quality of education?

ASSEMBLYMAN ZIMMER:

I would like to agree with my good friend and colleague from Las Vegas. There is not enough money to go around. This bill is an honest approach to a decision this body has to make. The issue is, do we set aside $12.5 million for a prison in which we all agree we need, or do we spend the money on a bonus for our teachers and raise taxes in two years for that prison.

I disagree with my colleague from Sparks. We do not decide the level of funding for our teachers. We have provided ample funds to the individual school districts. I have a great deal of respect and admiration for our teachers. I know the respective school districts will give them generous raises. But, why is it that so many feel if you have money you must spend it. What on earth is wrong with saving money? What is wrong with putting money away for a prison we know we are going to have and saving the taxpayer future increases? This bill is prudent. This bill is responsible. This is a conservative approach and I support it.

ASSEMBLYMAN CRADDOCK:

I have a way of getting somewhat emotional when we talk about the young people of this state. I have experienced some things that some of you probably have not. Hopefully, that is true. I will never forget my most vivid formal education experience which was being rapped over the knuckles with a ruler because I insisted upon using the wrong hand, but I still do. Nobody won that battle.

We have heard an adequate demonstration here today that some are trying to put this bill together in a hodgepodge that we now affectionately call A.B. 554. I wish to make one point clear that the Masons Manual Rule 729.1, as well as Section 10, Article 4 of the Constitution, would clearly tell us that this bill is out of line in the first place. I hope that the Senate will, at least, pick up on what we are saying to the point that they would tear this thing apart and send it to us in pieces that we can at least discuss it.

We have talked about education funding for a number of years around here. I picked up a comprehensive program review which is called, "Agenda for excellence and academic planning" from UNR dated February 16, 1983. I would invite your attention to it if you haven't read it because one of the things it says is "until this program has been approved, no students will be admitted to the undergraduate program in education". What we are talking about is the College of Education at UNR with about two years of satisfactory operating history. I would submit to you the College of Education at UNLV is probably not much better, if any. I'll leave that to the judgment of the educators.

I'd like to visit an orange grove for just a jiffy for the purpose of making my point. We have a healthy orange grove and it is loaded with fruit and the price is low. That is the good old free enterprise system at work—supply and demand. All of a sudden we have a freeze and the oranges become scarce and the price goes up. That, again, is free enterprise. But imagine, if you will, that the grove freezes and we have no oranges. It doesn't make any difference how much money you have, you can't buy oranges if they are not there. If we don't have people entering the College of Education we will not be able to hire them at any price. We may find ourselves in the position where we must pay teachers more than we truly believe they deserve. If that be the case, so be it. We have to get bright young people interested in education and into the College of Education no matter what it costs us. We are in an emergency situation, not only in the State of Nevada, but nationwide. We are out of teachers. Our teachers in the State of Nevada average about 43 years of age and they are retiring.

We've talked about an education enhancement program and we've talked about putting a rather extensive amount of money into lowering the teacher pupil ratio. The Committees on Education and Ways and Means had materials submitted that indicated that until you lower the teacher-student ratio below 18 to 1, you really haven't made any substantial change in the productivity as it relates to the teacher's capabilities of educating young people. I like the idea of lowering the student-teacher ratio. But in the so called technical review committee of education, we did not find that to be the most effective way to go.

We've had a lot of posturing on this floor. I guess I'm relatively unique in that I'm here with the blessing of each and every one of you, singularly and collectively, and the last thing that I want to do is embarrass or say anything that would degradate the process that got me here and certainly I don't intend to say anything to degradate the people that got me here. I do tell you survive or not I came here with one commitment to the people that I represent and that is to do the best I can with the best information available to me as I see it. I will not allow any sideline information to interfere with that and if the people who elected me don't like it they know exactly what they can do about it and they almost did last time. I'm not implying by any means that the people that I represent are stupid. After all, they've been smart enough to elect me 7 times.

I will submit to you that there is a vast difference between ignorance and stupidity. Ignorance is basically the lack of information and lack of knowledge. The people that you represent don't have access to the information that you have. You have an obligation to them to do for them what you believe to be the best with the information you have. If I can't do a few things that I think are worthwhile, spare me the agony.

ASSEMBLYMAN SWAIN:

I went home last night feeling depressed. Feeling appropriately enough that I had been trampled by a herd of elephants. During the course of night got further trampled by a herd of small babies answering to the name of Shawn. In some ways I am feeling a little bit unreal and kind of like I'm in a make believe world this morning—the same one that my colleague from Elko referred to.

I think that we as legislators have to remember that we have a very real impact on the everyday lives of everyone in this state. With the press of a button we raise or lower pensions, mandate continuing education for this profession or that, and raise or lower the salaries of the people of this state according to the fluctuating levels of the state coffers.

My colleague from Elko says that the things that seemed important in Carson City just aren't that important in the real world. I have to disagree with that. If you are truly in tune with your own priorities and you have them in the correct order, I think you really know what is more or less important. If you are truly in tune with what the people of this state actually care about then you must know that education is the highest public priority. Our children are our future and let's not cheat those children out of the education they deserve. Let's not give our teachers the message they are merely tools to be manipulated by the whims of whatever the latest "sexy" political issue the majority party happens to favor today.

As a member of the Education Committee, I can honestly say that the message has been made clear to me. Our teachers have been very patient. They have continued in their profession out of the belief that they serve the future and in so doing they fulfill themselves. They certainly do not continue in their profession for the lucrative pay anymore than we as legislators participate in this process for the monetary benefits as has already been pointed out. I guarantee you that they will not continue to serve as they have if we treat them with as little respect as is implicit in A.B. 554.

This particular bill, as amended, is clearly intended as a slap in the face to teachers. We have, I hope, in this session made strides towards correcting the inequities in teacher's salaries which is making it increasingly difficult to attract and retain talented teachers. We have also in this session supported equally excellent education throughout the state. Even in small rural communities where the lack of population makes that prospect extremely difficult and indeed questionable fiscally. We heard testimony in the Education Committee which indicated we have barely seen the tip of the iceberg in terms of future problems in this area. Retention of our current teachers and attraction of bright new teachers are going to be the major issues in education in the immediate future.

I submit to you that the addressing of this particular issue is in the best interest of the taxpayers of this state and they know it and agree. Let's not cover up one issue with yet another and simply walk away expecting to get off scot-free because I guarantee you that won't happen.

ASSEMBLYMAN JEFFREY:

I rise in opposition to this bill. The way this whole thing came about is really rather unfortunate and the results I think we are going to feel for some time. The amendment to A.B. 554 that was placed last night did more than cut the teachers out of retroactive, or bonus or retention scheme as far as pay increases are concerned. It set one employee group against another and basically did the same thing with us right here in this body. Even within the same party.

I said last night and I think it needs to be said today that as far as I'm concerned this issue is teacher morale. I, like my friend from Sunrise Manor, remember some of the experiences in Kindergarten through 12 and still remember some of the teachers I had at that time. Without their direction, I don't know where I would be today. But there is even a deeper problem here than retroactive pay. That is that the teachers in this state feel the legislature is treating them as second class citizens, primarly because of this issue.

I had a call this morning from a special education teacher in my district. I've known her for 15 years and I know that while she has taught school for those 15 plus years because she taught before I met her, she has always held at least two jobs. She is not married.

I think we all made a mistake in thinking teachers are like they were 50 years ago—all women, spinster type with no real financial responsibilities and teach because they love children and have a great deal of dedication. I think there are a lot of people in the school systems that are just that way. I think we are driving them out. Dedication is wonderful. It doesn't pay a mortgage payment.

I had contact with another person in my district that had a great influence on my life when I went to high school in Henderson. He is philosophically opposed to retroactive pay. But, he is very upset with the way teachers have been treated this session and the way they have been made the brunt of an attack on the administration. By the way he is a Republican, or I should say, was a Republican. He has since changed his registration.

I can only say to the comments we heard earlier that we all have to go back and face our constituents. I've been doing that for 12 years. I'm out of step philosophically with some people in my district and they know it. Some of them support me anyway and some don't. Of course, that's their choice and that's the political process. When the majority don't agree with me and feel strongly to do something about it, none of you will have to listen to me. But until that time comes, I vote my conscience and my philosophy as I have for the 16 years I've been in politics. I've never had a problem explaining that to anybody in my district. They may not agree with me but hopefully the agreements outweigh the disagreements. They have so far.

I believe this whole issue came about because some people had an opposition philosophically to retro pay. I understand that and I don't argue with it. If that's the problem then those people that are deeply committed philosophically to any kind of bonus or retro pay should certainly support this bill. I don't think that is what is happening here today. I can only say that if all of you vote your conscience on this issue, you'll certainly have no problem with me. The people that have known me for the years I've been here know that we can be friends and still disagree agreeably and work together on the issues we can come together on. I think we've found that through this and other sessions. But if you've voting in favor of this proposal because you're at the direction of someone else, you're not only going to have a tough time facing your constituents over this issue, but you're going to have a tough time facing yourself after today.

I think the prisons became an issue here because prisons are a popular place to spend the money to avoid retro pay. When I polled my district and walked door to door, there were two issues that people were very concerned about. Actually, there were three and the third was flood control. I think we've handled that this session. At least, got a start. The other issues were education, number one, and prisons in my district were not a big issue. However, county wide, I believe, crime and issues relating to crime are a big issue. Not only in my district, but statewide.

I would also like to say that as far as the accusation that the governor withheld the budget information from us to keep everything a secret, those of us involved in the political process know this is nothing new. The budget is always revealed to the legislature at the same time it is revealed to the general population during the State of the State address. We had similar problems in other administrations from both parties where the governor wants to keep his programs under wrap so that he can reveal them to the public and press at the same time. That causes us some problems, I agree. But, regardless of who is in office I don't look for a change in that regard.

Most of us ran on a platform of quality education. Education was the number one priority for the administration, as well as District 22 that I represent. The administration has said from the beginning that other programs may have to suffer in order that our children receive a quality education. We heard it from various state agencies before the Ways and Means Committee and I'm sure that all of you whether you are on that committee or not have heard the same thing.

I submit to you that the best way to keep our prison population down is to provide quality education for our children along with those other programs that make responsible citizens of our children. Governor O'Callaghan said many years ago when he was governor that it is much cheaper to provide education and programs for our children than it is to put them in prison. I think we have that kind of a choice here today.

To those that say the teachers have a right to bargain collectively for the increases that were provided in the Distributive School Fund, I can only tell you that when the state employees received a 1 1/2 percent pay increase when the triggers were met that the Clark County teachers did not receive one dime. Why? They were covered under a collective bargaining agreement. I heard figures and I cannot swear that these are accurate that we have many long time teachers in Clark County and if I heard the figures correctly that about 38 percent of those received no step increases, no increases of any kind, where other employees did receive the 5 percent step increase.

To my colleague from Las Vegas that said better paid does not make better teachers, I agree. Money alone does not make the difference. But, I have to tell you that a science teacher in a high school in my district called me a long time before we came up here and told me that he had a son that had the same kind of ambition that he had with the same general math and science background. Everybody knows those areas are the most important especially in this age of high technology. When his son wanted to become a teacher, his father had to discourage him. Why? Because this teacher is raising a fairly large family on an income that in many areas would be an entry level income.

These are the people I'm concerned about. It's easy to say we've got good teachers in school and no matter what we do to them they will stay. That is probably true. In the case of the high school teachers that taught me, many of them are still there. There is no doubt in my mind they are going to stay until they retire. But, if we don't recruit people right out of high school with some encouragement and treat them the way they should be treated, the way we expect anybody in any profession to be treated, then they are not going to become teachers. The ones that are already trained are pretty well stuck. The teacher I talked to this morning with over 15 years experience as a special education teacher, an excellent teacher, who tends bar at night to make a living, is going to stay in the school system. At least for a while. These people, for the most part, that have been in the system for a long time are going to stay. Who is going to replace them?

We have a saying in the construction trades that when we have a job that takes a lot of people and we have trouble supplying well-trained qualified people, we get down to the "weak, lame and lazy". We make a joke of it but it's really not funny. I think we are rapidly coming to the same point with this kind of proposal.

I have here a sheet that was given to me this morning and I think it nails down the issue pretty well. The money that is already in the Distributive School Fund is there because the income was up in the last biennium and a surplus was created. That money currently earmarked for education was placed on a bill to continue the insurance premium tax and give back pay as a reward for sacrificing any pay raises during difficult times to state workers and university employees while refusing to reward teachers even though the money is already there.

This money is proposed to spend $12.5 million on prisons, even though there have been no hearings, no tesitmony of immediate need and no plan for spending the money. I would like to say that the Ways and Means Committee this session has appropriated money for honor camps. The prison people I talked to said we can meet the need in the next biennium with these honor camps. In my view, these honor camps are much better than a medium or maximum security prison because we are putting these people out to work for the community. There is much work in the rural areas that these honor camp prisoners can do that will be productive and beneficial to the state. Again, this sheet goes on to say that the argument is that because teachers negotiate they can get more money than the 11 and 3 percent appropriated. But these people forget that not all teachers, administrators, nor classified school district employees negotiate contracts. There are school districts in the state that are not under a collective bargaining agreement.

In past negotiations, teachers have willingly or unwillingly given up pay increases to reduce class size, fund new programs, or pay for fixed costs which have risen faster than appropriations. Increases have never been automatic. Again, even though the money may be there they are under a collective bargaining agreement and this money is not always turned over. By providing an 11 and 3 percent increase to state and university employees, plus a reward for past sacrifice, they have guaranteed that teachers will fall behind other workers even though all three groups need the increases.

In February, the Speaker announced there would be no retroactive pay increases for teachers, no way to reward them for two years of sacrifice. He said it would be shown why retro was a bad idea. All major newspapers and editorials blasted the plan then. Channel 3 in Las Vegas said on February 22nd, "Well, Mr. Bilyeu, it appears it is not only amateur hour in the legislature, it's anti-education time. Your attack on retoractive pay for school teachers was an act of pure stupidity". That is not my quote. I want to disclaim that.

In the months to follow, the Speaker has never shown a single reason why teachers should not receive the same recognition given to other employees. Two months after the Channel 3 editorial, the Las Vegas Sun still felt it necessary to state on April 19, "The partisan attacks and stick togetherness have got to stop with retroactive teacher pay. It's time the legislators looked at issues instead of party lines." Even now, 100 days after the Speaker said his reasons would soon be apparent, no reason has yet been given.

I have to say that the thing I agonized over this issue more than any other is the fact that we have more than one employee group involved here and as a person that has always been a strong supporter of all these groups, it appears, at least, that I have to choose sides. I will not choose one group over another. This issue has yet to be resolved. But I think this is a bad proposition that treats teachers unfairly.

I know my colleague from Washoe County talked about the little catch phrase that is going around the hall, but I can tell you this is one legislator that will not put "cons before kids".

ASSEMBLYMAN STONE:

I had not intended to speak on this issue this morning. We came here 130 and some odd days ago, 42 different people representing 42 different districts with 42 different agendas. During the course of those 130 days we have gotten to know each other. Frankly, as one who had been here before I wondered about some of you. What you were going to be like. Some of you, lo and behold, wound up on a committee I was chairing and I wondered about you even more seriously than I had previously. During the course of the session, I believe we have developed a mutual respect for each other.

My colleague from District 10 and I are philosophically miles apart. Yet I share a great respect and affection for her. My colleague from District 32, even though we represent part of the same city, have never known each other very well. During the course of this session, we have come to know each other very well. And I have great respect and admiration for him. My colleague from District 22, last session's majority leader and my chairman on Commerce, has always treated me with the utmost fairness; has always been willing to discuss issues with me; and I have great admiration for him and his abilities.

Yet, there comes a time in every session when the hard decisions have to be made. I, for one, knew it was coming in this session. And I, for one, knew this was the issue. I dreaded it. I sat here last night during the debate and I agonized. I will compare my voting record this session for the working men and women in this state with anybody in this body. I think you'll find I have almost always voted for the working men and women in this state, whether it was prevailing wage or a SIIS matter. I voted for what I felt was in the best interest of the working men and women of this state.

I had that in mind last night when this issue was brought forward. I had no advance notice as did anybody else that it was going to come forward in this manner. When I left here last night I was very uncomfortable with the decision I had made. When I woke up this morning and started to think through this, I became more comfortable with the decision.

As the chairman of the Judiciary Committee for this session, we've dealt with a lot of thought on crime issues. We've passed a lot of tough on crime bills. The governor has signed those bills. Those bills mean an added burden for the prison system of this state. The people of this state have always told me when I was running, that crime was one of the top two or three issues on their agenda. They want us to be tough on criminals. I've always responded to that with "I agree", but you've got to recognize the fact, Mr. and Mrs. Constituent, that justice is not free and it's not cheap. Prisons are not cheap. They are not cheap to build and not cheap to run. Honor camps are not cheap. The vast majority of the prison population, quite frankly, I don't want in an honor camp. Those who qualify should go there—it's a cheaper way of housing them. But that does not include the vast majority of prisoners in our prison system.

There was testimony by former director, Housewright, that some of his prisons are operating right now at 180 percent of capacity. They are right at the guidelines established by the federal courts in a lawsuit several years ago. The honor camps will relieve that immediate overcrowding problem. But that doesn't solve the long range problem because the effects of the legislation passed during this session will soon be felt in that prison system. I can think of at least three bills we passed where probation is not even an option to the judge. You do the crime, you're going to prison. We have got to recognize the fact that as long as the people want to be as conservative in nature as they are, and as long as we, as a legislature, respond to that, we are going to have to adequately care for these people. What is the alternative? The alternative is that a federal court, and there is a judge in Washoe County that will do just exactly this, will step in and order the immediate release of a sufficient number of prisons to bring that prison system back into compliance with what he has already established as guidelines. Nobody wants that.

I hate having to make this choice. I really do. But the choice, I think, is clear. I think the choice is proper when you consider the alternatives. I wish the money was there to give everybody everything they wanted and still adequately address the needs of our prison system. It's not. We have to do something and we have to do it immediately. I, for one, will vote the same way this morning that I voted last night, with reluctance and with some trepidation, but I'm going to do it because, I think, it is the conscionable thing to do. I think if you look at it and examine your conscience, you'll know that is right.

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

I commend the Speaker pro Tempore for his even handed handling of the debate on this issue in terms of permitting all of us who feel strongly in terms of our position to speak. From time to time the debate has strayed from the subject at hand which is A.B. 554. But, for the most part the debate came from the heart as well as the mind.

I think before I address A.B. 554, that I should point out that much of the debate on the floor has not been about A.B. 554, but about what is not in A.B. 554. For if you look at A.B. 554, is the issue that a tax on insurance premiums should continue. Is that something the administration and Senate wants? Indeed, it is. Indeed, that is part of the foundation of the administration's budget. The continuation of a tax which was due to sunset. That's not an issue in this debate.

Is the retro pay for state employees an issue? Indeed, it is not because that, too, is something that the administration wanted and which the Senate wanted. Is the issue of the university retention pay an issue? Indeed, it is not because that, again, is something that both the administration and Senate want.

The issue, then, is whether or not A.B. 554 should, in fact, include retroactive pay for teacher, Kindergarten through 12, in those 17 school districts out there each of which is an individual body which sets the salary schedule in that area.

Now, I've found interesting in terms of this debate that when I rose this morning and said that the administration in its budget had not addressed critical issues, no one in this debate on this floor, this morning, has rebutted that. No one has spoken to that subject. My distinguished colleague from southern Nevada, before he quoted at length from editorials, which I'm sure he personally doesn't share or certainly would not put his stamp on and thus be in violation of the rules of this house in terms of debate, made some important points. We handled flood control in this session of the legislature for southern Nevada. The initiative came from this legislature. We handled it. We bit the bullet and we essentially prescribed a method of funding.

Again, my colleague from southern Nevada, tacitly admitted that which I said earlier this morning, that the administration purposely overlooked areas of critical need in terms of the budget when he said that, in fact, the administration had said that and put their priorities totally on education.

That is politically a good way to go out and hang ornaments on a Christmas tree of all of these political promises. But is that, in fact, a responsible position to take. Do we have a problem with indigent health care that is going to bankrupt our counties? Yes, in fact, we had that coming into this session of the legislature. Was that addressed by the administration? Indeed it was not. Was it addressed by this legislature? Yes, indeed it was. We handled that.

Prisons. Was that addressed by the administration in the budget? Indeed, it was not. In fact, we had to supplement both in terms of capital improvements and ongoing just to keep our explosive prison system from exploding even further. Is there a need for a prison? Indeed, there is. Was that discussed and debated within these halls? Yes, it was. Did we not, in fact, by our own legislative action, select a committee to go out and select a new prison site? Indeed, we did.

Were crippled people in their homes taken care of in the administration's budget? Indeed, they were not. Were they taken care of by this legislature? Indeed, they were with an appropriation of a half of a million dollars.

Were the problems of Aid to Dependent Children handled adequately in this administration's budget? Indeed, they were not. Were they handled in this legislature? Yes, but still not adequately, but within the framework of the available revenues that we have.

One of the things that I agree with and I agree with many, many things that people who spoke against A.B. 554 said. I agree, wholeheartedly, that our commitment ought to be towards education. It is. Last biennium over 55 percent of the total general fund revenues went towards education. This biennium, that figure will be even higher. It has been pointed out in earlier debate that the increase was 20.6 percent over the biennium. Remember two years ago. Two years ago we enacted a whole bunch of taxes which were due to sunset and we were at that time told that if we enacted those there would be a surplus of perhaps $40 million. We were also told two years ago by the administration that we needed a 75 cent property tax for the state. Many of us in these halls did not agree with that. We held the line at 30 cents. And the result was $150 million surplus.

Not too long ago we finished an election. In that election in southern Nevada, the voters said they favored tax limitation Proposition 12. In the north it was very close and Proposition 12 was defeated by a very narrow margin statewide. Have we done bad by education? No. Not when you increase education 20.6 percent. That's not bad at all. Some of us here in this legislature are looking two years from now. Two years from now if we are to continue our commitment; if we are to continue our commitment to funding all of the needs of the state but in particular the needs of education in this state we are going to have more tough decisions to reach at that time.

Will our roads be in disrepair two years from now. Probably. We still have to address this session whether or not we are going to impose a tax amounting to $14 to $28 million over the biennium for the purpose of repairing roads to add to our $401 million transportation department budget. We still have to address that issue.

Are we going to continue our commitment to increasing teacher's salaries in two years? Indeed. I think just about everybody in here, including myself, is firmly committed to that. Are we going to realize our responsibilility and continue funding to education two years from now? Indeed, because the needs will continue to grow as our state continues to grow. That is what concerns me and has from the beginning.

Ladies and gentlemen, I did not hide my opposition to retoractive pay on the grounds that there was a better use. To my distinguished colleague's comment that hiding the budget from the legislature is the way it has always been done is not an answer at all. Whether it was a Republican or Democratic governor it would matter not one bit that that kind of political gamemanship where everyone is kept in the dark except the people who ultimately have to make the tough decisions is wrong. We should not engage in a champion form of government. We ought to, as a legislative body, along with the administration, along with the teachers, along with the administrator, along with the children, along with the parents and along with the taxpayers sit down and make decisions concerning all of our state. That's what we need to do.

I am concerned that two years from now we will come back here and the need for all of these things will exist. Certainly, the need for the prisons will exist. Certainly, the need to raise salaries and benefits, perhaps, for our state employees and our university professors will continue to exist.

Although it is not perhaps politically popular for the moment; although it may take a little political heat for the moment, the responsible, the concerned, the representative thing for us to do is to vote yes for A.B. 554.

of the gross''.

Assemblyman Bilyeu moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Bilyeu and Sader.

Assemblyman Coffin requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

May I, Speaker pro Tempore, be permitted to speak not only to the amendment but also on the bill and on the amendment that we just placed on another bill. As you know, SB 365 proposes one-time retention in-service payment for all public employees. The proposed amendment, No. 1501, continues the proposal for one time retention payments in all categories.

The session has been long and hard and we have struggled with the problems of the State of Nevada and in allocating the resources of the State of Nevada. In that spirit and in these final hours of the session, Amendment 1501 to SB 365 is proposed. Basically, SB 365, as amended, would provide for a one-time retention in-service payment for all public employees. This one-time payment would be in all categories, to state employees, school district employees and university professionals.

As you know, state employees who had been on a calendar year basis since 1971, were placed on a fiscal year basis. Fifteen years they enjoyed a calendar year status and as a one time roll up into a fiscal year basis, it is proposed in Amendment 1501 to provide to the state employees for the six months loss that they would enjoy during the pay appropriation bill that we passed, a 3 percent payment amounting to the sum of $3,197,670.00.

For all employees, state employees, university professionals, school district employees, it is proposed that a one time retention in-service payment of 4 percent be made. That would be paid to state employees on or about July 1, 1985 and to those on contracts it would be paid at the time of renewal of the contract in the coming year.

The amounts that we are dealing with here are for school districts, $11,072,616; for university professionals, $1,946,480; for state employees broken down into categories, for University of Nevada system classified, $766,240; for classified, $2,881,184; for unclassified, $481,056; Legislative Counsel Bureau, $135,080 for a total payment to state employees, one time, of $4,263,560. The total of all these one time payments in terms of the state budget is the sum of $20,480,000.

We commend to this body the passage of Amendment No. 1501 to SB 365.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

I have to ask a couple of questions first and I would like to ask if I may, through you, to request the Speaker, Mr. Bilyeu, to please respond.

This amendment proposes to give a one time retention pay compensation package to the state employees and university classified employees of 7 percent of their annual salary. Is that right?

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

Yes, it would be 4 percent and then the 3 percent equity issue in terms of the change over from the calendar year to the fiscal year. The 3 percent being for the change-over from the calendar to the fiscal year.

ASSEMBLYMAN SADER:

Yes, I understand there is a difference because the state employees have received salary increases when the legislature has granted them based on the calendar year, January 1, and whereas other employees have been on a fiscal year, July 1, and therefore there is a difference to make up.

So, we are talking the four and the three at 7 percent. I am restating it to clear it up in my own mind and to those that are here, also. I don't think this is totally clear to everyone.

For classroom teachers we are proposing a one time retention compensation program of 4 percent and for university teaching professionals, a one time compensation package of 4 percent. On that basis, I wish to address the amendment.

I wish to rise in opposition to the amendment. I speak not only for myself but for the Democratic caucus in the Assembly in saying that we have arranged, rather for all of us individually to express our comments, our interests, our opposition to this amendment, I have been chosen to very briefly express the basis of our opposition to this amendment and why we'll be voting against the bill if the amendment passes.

Three and one-half hours of the time this morning was spent debating the issue of whether or not we would pass the same kind of one time pay package which would allow 5 1/2 percent for university employees and 5 1/2 percent of annual salary for state employees and nothing for teachers. That was SB 554. As amended, that bill has come back to us and we have passed it in another form without that proposal. So that proposal no longer exists for purposes of debate. We spent two hours the night before talking about the same subject. I don't think we have to go over all those statements, but I do think it is important to restate our concerns and our reasons for opposing that plan because our reasons have not changed.

We said we felt the plan was unfair. We said that we felt teachers should be treated in this type of pay package exactly the same, at least equally, to other public employees. That package did not do that and neither does this one. We stated that our priorities, and the priorities we expressed during our campaign and we have expressed during the session, were strong emphasis in Kindergarten through 12 education. That issue was extremely important to us and we weren't changing that position. The pay package this morning did not properly state that priority and the one this evening does not also.

We stated that we believed retention pay was important to the morale of the teaching profession. It was important to the enthusiasm of teachers to do their job properly. Teachers run the system of Kindergarten through 12th grade. We need to retain them and encourage them. When we state priorities that either exclude them from compensation when other public employees receive it or treat them with lower or different percentages, we state the wrong priorities.

Our opinion from this morning has not changed. This bill, although better, this amendment, although stating better priorities, does not state enough. For one thing, we have gone from 5 1/2 percent this morning for university professionals, to 4 percent. I consider the 5 1/2 percent we spoke of this morning in annual compensation for state employees very similar to the 7 percent we are talking about now. Now, we have incorporated in that concept this problem with equating the fiscal years. Now, actually, although it is easy to say but not quite as easy to understand, we are talking about parity at 5 1/2 percent with the proposal this morning.

However, we are only at 4 percent for teachers. That is much better than this morning, but it is not good enough. We have come a long way. We have not gone as far as we should. Our vote no is a vote to increase the priorities for university teaching professionals and for teachers in this or any retention pay package that the legislature is going to pass in this session. We believe that when we evaluate the employee groups, that teachers should not be on the bottom. We believe Kindergarten through 12 has not been treated as a last priority in the budget, but it is in the proposal.

We seek fairness, we seek parity, we seek equal treatment for all public employee groups. This amendment and this bill, as amended, does not achieve that. We object to this proposal. We'll be voting against the amendment. We'll be voting against the bill. We ask no more than equal treatment and will accept no less.

ASSEMBLYMAN BILYEU:

I rise, very briefly, to address the remarks made by my colleague in the terms of parity, if you will. My colleague says there is not parity here. We debated the issue of the various categories at length on this floor, at least two occasions. In that debate, it was pointed out that with the three categories involved, that is the university state employees and the school district employees, there were only two categories that this legislature in and of itself made the decisions on. That was the university and that was, in fact, state employees, that in our state we have 17 school districts which make the individual determinations on salaries—some far better than others. Some far worse than others. We debated all of that. For those reasons some said that these are different categories.

One of the things that has happened here in these last few days, is that when we switched the state employees from a calendar year to a fiscal year, we removed the issue, if you will, perhaps hopefully forever, of this disparity which may or may not exist and also this thing called retroactivity.

State employees, as you know, since 1971, at least, have been paid in most sessions back to January of the year because they are not, in fact, on a calendar year. That is traditional. With the spector proposed of retroactive pay that became a problem obviously. We have removed that problem by placing the state employees on a fiscal year, not a calendar year. In so doing, that effectively cut them out of six months. There was no provision in any of the bills discussed here proposed by the Senate or by this Assembly, Republican or Democrat, to address the issue of that six months. And so that issue has been addressed in this amendment; a one time 3 percent payment which does not include any fringe benefits, for a roll up from a calendar year to a fiscal year placing state employees on the same fiscal basis.

Once that parity has been achieved by that payment then there remains a finite sum of money. You know that, Mr. Sader, I know that. In the proposed amendment, that sum of money then, once parity is achieved, has been divided equally between the three categories, 4 percent, 4 percent, 4 percent. That is at least the intent of this bill. That is what we believe it does.

ASSEMBLYMAN COFFIN:

Mr. Speaker, the remarks of the two preceding speakers on the adoption of the amendment show that when great issues are joined, great spokesmen rise to address them. We have been well-served by these explanations and inspired by their skills. We owe them our gratitude. I am sure there are differences of opinion and confusion over the issue of equality based on these monies and percentages. It is enough of a difference, however, for me to oppose this amendment and the bill, if amended.

ASSEMBLYMAN ROBERTS:

I am voting "nay" on Senate Bill No. 365 as my constituents in District 18 oppose the retroactive pay because of their needs in the area, such as crime, street repairs, etc.
