THE FIRST DAY—THE ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOURTH DAY

OF THE

ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

SIXTY-EIGHTH SESSION

THE FIRST DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday) January 16, 1995

Pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution and Statutes, the Assembly was called to order by Secretary of State Dean Heller at 12 noon.

Prayer by the Chaplain, the Reverend David Camp.

Our nation honors Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. this day. Thirty plus years ago, Dr. King shared a dream that all people would have equality. His vision lives on. Let us pray: "O, Lord our God, we pray that You will bless these persons chosen by the people of this State, for You know them, their needs, their motives, their hopes and their fears. Lord, give them strength and speak to them to give them wisdom greater than their own. We pray this to Your glory. AMEN.

Presentation of Colors by Boy Scout Honor Guard, Boulder Dam Area Council.

The following poem was read by Eric Coskey:

Sixty-two years ago on February 6, 1933, the Legislature adopted "Home Means Nevada" as the official State Song. Mrs. Bertha Raffetto of Reno wrote it to honor the State.

"HOME MEANS NEVADA"

'Way out in the land of the setting sun,
Where the wind blows wild and free,
There's a lovely spot, just the only one
That means home sweet home to me.
If you follow the old Kit Carson trail,
Until the desert meets the hills,
Oh, you certainly will agree with me,
Its a place of a thousand thrills.

"Home," means Nevada, "Home," means the hills,
"Home," means the sage and the pines.
Out by the Truckee's silvery rills,
Out where the sun always shines,
There is the land that I love the best,
Fairer than all I can see.
Right in the heart of the golden west
"Home" means Nevada to me.

Whenever the sun at the close of day
Colors all the western sky,
Oh, my heart returns to the desert grey
And the mountains tow'ring high.
Where the moon beams play in shadowed glen
With the spotted fawn and doe
All the livelong night until morning light
Is the loveliest place I know.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Mr. Secretary of State requested Mrs. Mouryne B. Landing to serve as temporary Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

Mr. Secretary of State requested the following rules for organization be entered in the Journal:

RULES FOR ORGANIZATION OF THE NEVADA ASSEMBLY
1995 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

In order to ensure a smooth beginning to the 1995 session of the Nevada Assembly, the following rules are hereby agreed to and will be included in the Journal of January 16, 1995:

1. Whenever the Secretary of State directs Mrs. Landing to call the roll of the Assembly, all 42 names of the members-elect will be called.

2. Assemblymen Evans and Giunchigliani will assume their seats on the Assembly floor. Their names will not be draped. They will be able to participate in the organization of the Assembly. They will be able to vote on all organizational matters involving the Assembly. They will also be able to vote on their contest of election, should they choose to do so.

3. During the ceremony all 42 assemblymen-elect will stand to take the oath of office. Only those members having a certificate of election will be called to the rostrum to subscribe to oath.

4. A special committee will be appointed to hear both election challenges. The committee will consist of the following, the first two-named members being the co-chairs:

Assemblymen Lambert, Spitler, Price, Anderson, Buckley, Perkins, Close, Hettrick, Sandoval and Tiffany.

The attached copy of revised rule 45 will govern the hearing.

5. With the exception of this rule, revised rule 45, and a resolution honoring Martin Luther King, Jr., to the greatest extent feasible, the Assembly will conduct no business until the contest of election hearings are finished, so as to allow all members of the Assembly to observe the hearings.

Dated This 16th Day of January, 1995.

Remarks by Speaker Dini.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

SPEAKER DINI:

Thank you, and welcome to the 1995 Nevada Legislature. It is an honor to accept the Co-Speakership of this 68th Legislative Session.

For a moment, stop, look, listen, even pinch yourself if you like and drink in this instant. Today is a day which you will never forget.

When it comes to this great State of Nevada, twenty-one is usually thought of as a very lucky number, and usually twenty-two is not. However, twenty-two is a far preferable number at least when it comes to the organization of this Chamber.

No other topic has predominated the State Assembly news since the November 8th election like this Assembly split. To use the time tested phrase, in 1995 the Nevada Assembly is indeed share and share alike. Just as each of you members of this Assembly evenly share seats on the committees and the leadership of those committees, so too will the Speakership be shared.

Here I would like to pause and congratulate and publicly thank my Republican Co-Speaker Lynn Hettrick. In working together to determine details of this shared Speakership, he has been great to work with and has shown himself to be a gentleman. Lynn's a credit to his party and to this process as well.

And fellow Assemblymen and women, it's essential to remember that it's the process, not the split house result of the election that really counts. In discussions with my constituents, what they want to see, and I'll bet what your constituents want as well, from the 1995 Nevada Legislature, is for us to conduct the business of the people quickly, efficiently, and professionally.

Believe me, the people of this wonderful State which we are blessed to call home expect this assembly to address the issues which affect them including the budget, crime, education, health care, senior citizens, workers compensation, and much more.

Accomplishing that will take balance. It's balance that is called for and achievement which is far more on the minds of Nevadans than the numeric balance of this Assembly.

And there's going to be a learning curve involved from this moment forward. After all, there are are 19 freshmen here today.

Now, I've had a chance to meet many of you newcomers and I am truly impressed. Here we're talking about freshmen with some real talent - Republican and Democrat, Southerner and Northerner, young and not so young. But, still, it will take a little time for you to learn the ropes legislatively. However, I am confident that because of your enthusiasm and intelligence that this will occur rapidly.

Besides experience, there are other variables which will affect this session as well. Because I don't have a crystal ball, I can't tell you exactly what they will do. But there's one thing for sure . . . there is no place in this Assembly for grandstanding. The public has no appetite for showmanship or rhetoric.

Over the years, some legislators, and in most cases I'm talking about former legislators, made grandstanding their stock in trade. Nevada deserves better than that.

The vast majority of solid lawmakers do their homework, work hard for the bills of importance to their people and do so in a quiet and effective fashion. I suggest that's the right way to go.

In 1995, this great state of ours faces serious challenges—challenges which exist in part because of Nevada's tremendous growth. According to recent numbers, one in six Nevadans didn't live here as recently as just five years ago. Now there's something that will challenge all of us in committee and floor work and it underscores why we must focus on issues.

On this festive occasion, I don't want to dampen your enthusiasm. This is your day and your family's day. Enjoy it, you've earned it through all the hard work during your campaign which resulted in your election.

On a personal note, I'd like to thank my family and friends who have been so supportive during my campaign and during the months since then.

As you know, this is new territory for me with the absence of my greatest supporter and dearest friend who is unable to be here in person this session. However, I know that Jeanne joins us here today in spirit.

So, fellow Assemblymen and Assemblywomen, please join me. Let's roll up our sleeves, do the work of the people of Nevada and make this a legislative session of which the people of Nevada can be proud.

Some might suggest that this Assembly is a half empty glass. I encourage you to consider instead that it is half full.

I am humbled and honored to have earned the confidence of this chamber as its Co-Speaker. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Mr. Speaker, as someone who has a great deal of respect for you and your prestigious and unprecedented sixth term as Speaker of the esteemed body, I would like to extend to you my personal, as well as, all of my colleagues deepest gratitude. Your wisdom and leadership have emblazoned an indelible mark on the great State of Nevada and all of us here today. I wish you every best in this session and in all that you do. And with that, I request that your eloquent remarks be entered into the Journal for this Legislative Day.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

SPEAKER HETTRICK:

Thank you for your expression of support for me as Co-Speaker and, in keeping with the technological advancements of our era, welcome to the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature—the first session ever to be done in living stereo.

This session promises to be a historic one for many reasons. Nevadans are proud to be thought of as pioneering and independent, with a strong belief in personal freedoms and opportunity. In short, Nevada is a leader and dedicated to progress.

This session, the membership of the Nevada Legislature consists of 22 women 17 of whom will serve right here in our Assembly Chambers. This is by far the most women to have served in the Nevada Legislature and ranks us second from the top of the list when compared to other states—one example of leadership and progress.

It is also fitting on this day, that we both convene the session and honor a great American, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The November election resulted in doubling the number of African-Americans serving in the legislature and our numbers represent the most African-Americans to have ever served in the Nevada Legislature—another example of the progress we are making as a state.

One of my favorite presidents, Dwight D. Eisenhower, who has recently begun receiving the historic recognition he deserves as a visionary President, once said, in a 1945 speech in Abilene, Kansas: "To define democracy in one word, we must use the word cooperation." I believe that in this session, we will see democracy flourish in all its glory because of the spirit of cooperation and that, too, will lead to progress.

The State of Michigan recently faced a split House of Representatives. Following the legislative session, the members stated it was the most productive session in memory. In fact, every single incumbent who sought re-election following that session was returned to office by the voters. Let us look upon our session with hope and a sense of opportunity.

The Nevada Assembly truly is the house of the people. In an effort to represent the people effectively and efficiently, we need to dispense with the people's business carefully, and in a more timely manner. In order to achieve this goal, I pledge to each of you, my best effort. And to the people of Nevada, I pledge the combined best effort of every member of this Assembly.

Thank you again—welcome. Let's go to work representing the citizens of the State of Nevada.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

The election of Speaker Hettrick as Co-Speaker of the Assembly is truly an indication of bipartisan cooperation for the 1995 Legislative Session. He represents District No. 39 and is in his second term. He has faithfully served the citizens of District No. 39, as well as those, of this great state. In his short tenure as a member of these Chambers, Speaker Hettrick has distinguished himself to be a man of intellect and honor. I am confident that he will work closely with Speaker Dini to guide this historic session. Through their efforts, the 1995 Legislative Session will be judged a success for all Nevadans.

Speaker Hettrick declared that nominations were in order for Chief Clerk.

Assemblyman Marvel nominated Mouryne B. Landing to be Chief Clerk.

Assemblyman Price moved that nominations be closed.

Motion carried unanimously.

Speaker Hettrick declared Mrs. Mouryne B. Landing to be the Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

Speaker Dini appointed Assemblymen Carpenter, Brower and Chowning as a committee to inform the Senate that the Assembly was organized and ready for business.

Speaker Dini appointed Assemblymen Arberry, Freeman and Monaghan as a committee to inform the Governor that the Assembly was organized and ready for business.

COMMUNICATIONS

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF NEVADA

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

CARSON CITY, NEVADA 89710, January 9, 1995

THE HONORABLE JOSEPH E. DINI, JR., Speaker of the Assembly, THE HONORABLE LYNN HETTRICK, Speaker of the Assembly, Nevada State Legislature, Legislative Building, Carson City, Nevada 89710

DEAR JOE AND LYNN:

With permission of your honorable body, I propose to deliver my State of the State message to the 68th Session of the Nevada Legislature on January 18, 1995, at 7:00 p.m. My very best wishes to you and the Assembly for a productive and expeditious session. I look forward to working with you all during this legislative session.

Sincerely,

BOB MILLER
Governor

MESSAGES FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

STATE OF NEVADA

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

CARSON CITY, NEVADA, January 16, 1995

MOURYNE B. LANDING, Chief Clerk of the Assembly, Legislative Counsel Bureau, Carson City, Nevada 89710

DEAR MOURYNE:

Pursuant to NRS 293.427 I am transmitting the two election contests of the 1994 General Election for State Assembly which has been filed in my office. The contests are:

District 9—Kathy Von Tobel vs. Chris Giunchigliani;

District 30—Brendan Trainor vs. Jan Evans.

Please deliver to the presiding officer of the Assembly for consideration.

Sincerely,

DEAN HELLER
Secretary of State

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assemblyman Perkins moved that the following Procedure for Election Contests for 1995 be adopted.

PROCEDURE FOR ELECTION CONTESTS FOR 1995

1. Upon receipt of a statement of contest from the Secretary of State pursuant to NRS 293.427, the Speaker shall, as soon as practicable, appoint a special committee to hear the contests. The committee shall conduct a hearing to consider each contest. The committee shall keep written minutes of the hearings. The contestant has the burden of proving that any irregularities shown were of such a nature as to establish that the result of the election was changed thereby.

2. The contest must be submitted so far as may be possible upon depositions or by written or oral arguments as the committee may order. Any party to a contest may take the deposition of any witness at any time after the statement of contest is filed with the Secretary of State and before the contest is finally decided. At least 3 days' notice must be given to the prospective deponent and to the other party. If oral statements are made at any hearing before the Assembly or a committee thereof which purport to establish matters of fact, they must be made under oath. Strict rules of evidence do not apply.

3. The committee shall, not later than Friday, January 20, 1995, report to the Assembly its findings on whether the contestant has met the burden of proving that any irregularities shown were of such a nature as to establish that the result of the election was changed thereby. The committee shall then report to the Assembly its recommendation on which person should be declared elected or report that it has no recommendation. The Assembly shall, as soon as practicable thereafter but not later than Friday, January 20, 1995, vote whether to accept or reject the committee's recommendation without amendment, if a recommendation is made. If the recommendation is accepted, the Speaker shall declare the recommended person elected. If the recommendation is rejected or the committee did not make a recommendation, the Assembly shall consider immediately which person should be declared elected. The Speaker shall not adjourn the Assembly until it has declared a person to be elected.

4. The Speaker shall inform the Governor of the identity of the person declared to be elected by the Assembly.

Motion carried.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, January 16, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 1.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 1.

Assemblyman Arberry moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Arberry.

Assemblyman Arberry requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

The authors of the Nevada Constitution had no way of knowing that the day they established as the permanent first day of each legislative session would be declared a national holiday. Yet they inadvertently provided us with a unique and important way to begin our sessions.

Now, during the pomp and circumstance of the opening ceremonies, we officially pause to remember one of the greatest Americans this country has ever known. The Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., was born on January 15, 1929—yesterday, he would have been 66 years old. Before he was assassinated on that terrible day in 1968, Reverend King clearly and eloquently reminded all people—regardless of race—of our responsibilities to each other as human beings. He was a man of compassion, dignity, and peace. By his words and his life, he taught us all important lessons about living and working together. It is more than fitting that we, as legislators, stop at the beginning of each session to remember Reverend King and his wisdom.

Although Reverend King never addressed the Nevada Legislature in person, I wonder if he might have been thinking of us, and lawmakers everywhere, when he said, "We must use time creatively and forever realize that the time is always ripe to do right."

As we conduct our deliberations this session, may Reverend King's words guide our thoughts and actions today and every day.

Resolution adopted.

THE SECOND DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), January 17, 1995

Assembly called to order at 12:14 p.m.

Speaker Hettrick presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Elaine Morgan.

Lord of all Creation: Send down Your love upon each member of the Nevada State Assembly. Give them Your gifts of discernment, peace, joy and strength. Provide them with Your guidance in each decision they are called upon to make during this legislative session. Make Yourself real to them so that they may know and experience Your Spirit in their lives as they receive Your gifts that will help them to select the paths that will bring the citizens of Nevada to pursue and discover the opportunities that will lead all Nevadans to become independent, productive and responsible members of society. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

Mr. Speaker declared that nominations were in order for Speaker pro Tempore.

Assemblyman Ernaut nominated Assemblymen Evans and Tiffany for Co-Speakers pro Tempore.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that nominations be closed.

Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Speaker declared Assemblymen Evans and Tiffany to be Co-Speakers pro Tempore of the Assembly.

Remarks by Assemblymen Evans and Tiffany.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I signaled to my Co-Speaker pro Tempore, and I see she deferred to me, I guess because of my advancing years. I appreciate that. Respect for age is important. I am honored to serve in this capacity. It's going to be an interesting session. The previous Speaker pro Tempore cast a rather long shadow. I think that is a fair remark. Mrs. Williams occupied that important seat for a number of years, and we will try to live up to the record she set for service to the Assembly. Thank you all very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN TIFFANY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Whatever you choose for the reason I deferred, I really didn't know we were going to do this, and I didn't know what to say. So, I thought I'd wait until you said something first. I would also like to thank all of you for the opportunity of service as Speaker pro Tempore and in this unique situation of 21–21, I kind of feel like the royal family in waiting; kind of like Prince Andrew who is third or fourth down the line. I hope we do have the opportunity to go up there and give the podium a try. I would also like to say that we do have some big shoes to fill from the last Speaker pro Tempore, Myrna Williams, who is now a County Commissioner. Again, thank you very much.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Motion carried.

Assembly in recess at 12:21 p.m.

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 12:22 p.m.

Attest: MOURYNE B. LANDING
Chief Clerk of the Assembly

THE THIRD DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), January 18, 1995

Assembly called to order at 2:03 p.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Williams, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend David Camp.

Let us pray: God of our lives, You know our dissatisfaction when life falls short of our expectations. Do not let our dissatisfaction lead to despair. May we pursue an active search for fuller and richer lives. You are with us in the search, revealing the aim, pointing out the way, and encouraging us to go on. To You be glory now and forever.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

Assemblyman Spitler moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Motion carried.

Assembly in recess at 2:07 p.m.

Mr. Speaker announced that there being no objections, the following Assembly Joint Resolution has been referred to the Committee on Transportation:

By the Committee on Transportation:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 10—Expressing continued support for the designation of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency as a Metropolitan Planning Organization in accordance with the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991.

Mr. Speaker announced that there being no objections, the following Assembly Joint Resolution has been referred to the Committee on Ways and Means:

By Assemblyman Bennett:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 11—Proposing to amend the Nevada constitution by authorizing the Governor to reduce or veto individual appropriations of money or authorizations to expend money within a bill.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 35 of article 4 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

[Sec:] Sec. 35. 1. Every bill which may have passed the Legislature, shall, before it becomes a law be presented to the Governor. If he approve it, he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it with his objections, to the House in which it originated, which House shall cause such objections to be entered upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it; If after such reconsideration it again pass both Houses by yeas and nays, by a vote of two thirds of the members elected to each House it shall become a law notwithstanding the Governors objections. [If] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if any bill shall not be returned within five days after it shall have been presented to him (Sunday excepted) exclusive of the day on which he received it, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature by its final adjournment, prevent such return, in which case it shall be a law, unless the Governor within ten days next after the adjournment (Sundays excepted) shall file such bill with his objections thereto, in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall lay the same before the Legislature at its next Session, in like manner as if it had been returned by the Governor, and if the same shall receive the vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature, upon a vote taken by yeas and nays to be entered upon the journals of each house, it shall become a law.

2. If any bill so presented to the Governor contains one or more appropriations of money from the treasury or authorizations to expend money drawn from another source, the Governor may reduce or strike from the bill any or all of these without objecting to the bill as a whole. If the Governor so reduces or strikes out, he shall:

(a) Append to the bill a statement of the items reduced or stricken out and of the reasons for his action; and

(b) Within 48 hours after the bill is presented to him and before the Legislature finally adjourns, transmit a copy of the statement to the House in which the bill originated.

Each appropriation or authorization not reduced or stricken out becomes law in the same manner as a bill to which the Governor does not object. If the Governor fails to transmit a copy of the statement to the House in which the bill originated within the time allowed or before the Legislature finally adjourns, each appropriation or authorization reduced or stricken out likewise becomes law.

3. The Legislature may, by the same vote as for bills to which the Governor objects:

(a) Cause any one or more of the individual appropriations or authorizations to become law notwithstanding his striking it out; or

(b) Restore the original amount appropriated or authorized, or insert any other amount not less than that approved by the Governor nor more than that originally appropriated or authorized, notwithstanding his reducing it.

If the Legislature does not so act, any appropriation or authorization stricken from the bill by the Governor shall be deemed not appropriated or authorized and any amount to which an appropriation or authorization was reduced by the Governor shall be deemed so appropriated or authorized.

Mr. Speaker announced that there being no objections, the following Assembly Joint Resolution has been referred to the Committee on Government Affairs:

By Assemblyman Bennett:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 12—Proposing to amend the Nevada constitution to prohibit an exemption for legislators or officers, employees or agencies of the state from laws applicable to the general public.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That a new section be added to article 4 of the constitution of the State of Nevada, to read as follows:

Sec. 38. The legislature shall not enact any law or provision of a law exempting legislators, officers or employees of the state or agencies of the state from the provisions of a law otherwise applicable to all members of the general public.

Mr. Speaker announced that the introduction of prefiled Joint Resolutions was concluded.

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Assembly Resolution No. 1—Providing for the appointment of attachés.

Assemblyman Giunchigliani moved the adoption of the resolution.

Resolution adopted.

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 6 of the 67th Session—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to revise the standard for determining the number of signatures of voters required for a petition seeking to recall a public officer and to increase the number of days within which a special election upon such a petition must be held after the issuance of a call.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 9 of article 2 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. Every public officer in the State of Nevada is subject, as herein provided, to recall from office by the registered voters of the state, or of the county, district, or municipality [, from which he was elected.] which he represents. For this purpose , [a number of registered voters] not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the number who actually voted in the state or in the county, district, or municipality [electing said officer, at the preceding general election,] which he represents, at the election in which he was elected, shall file their petition, in the manner herein provided, demanding his recall by the people . [; they] They shall set forth in said petition, in not exceeding two hundred (200) words, the reasons why said recall is demanded. If he shall offer his resignation, it shall be accepted and take effect on the day it is offered, and the vacancy thereby caused shall be filled in the manner provided by law. If he shall not resign within five (5) days after the petition is filed, a special election shall be ordered to be held within [twenty days (20)] thirty days (30) after the issuance of the call therefor, in the state, or county, district, or municipality electing said officer, to determine whether the people will recall said officer. On the ballot at said election shall be printed verbatim as set forth in the recall petition, the reasons for demanding the recall of said officer, and in not more than two hundred (200) words, the officer's justification of his course in office. He shall continue to perform the duties of his office until the result of said election shall be finally declared. Other candidates for the office may be nominated to be voted for at said special election. The candidate who shall receive highest number of votes at said special election shall be deemed elected for the remainder of the term, whether it be the person against whom the recall petition was filed, or another. The recall petition shall be filed with the officer with whom the petition for nomination to such office shall be filed, and the same officer shall order the special election when it is required. No such petition shall be circulated or filed against any officer until he has actually held his office six (6) months, save and except that it may be filed against a senator or assemblyman in the legislature at any time after ten (10) days from the beginning of the first session after his election. After one such petition and special election, no further recall petition shall be filed against the same officer during the term for which he was elected, unless such further petitioners shall pay into the public treasury from which the expenses of said special election have been paid, the whole amount paid out of said public treasury as expenses for the preceding special election. Such additional legislation as may aid the operation of this section shall be provided by law.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

By Assemblymen Heller, de Braga, Chowning, Humke, Gibbons, Schneider, Petrak, Gregory, Ernaut, Segerblom, Bennett, Bache, Bonaventura, Scherer, Augustine, Kenny, Giunchigliani, Perkins, Arberry, Smith, Price, Toomin, Collins, Hettrick, Marvel, Tiffany, Evans, Myrna Williams, Carpenter, Lambert, Anderson, Haller, Spitler, McGaughey, Dini, Porter and Garner:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 19 of the 67th Session—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to prescribe additional restrictions on the public employees' retirement system.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 2 of article 9 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. 1. The legislature shall provide by law for an annual tax sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the state for each fiscal year; and whenever the expenses of any year [shall] exceed the income, the legislature shall provide for levying a tax sufficient, with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency, as well as the estimated expenses of such ensuing year or two years.

2. Any [moneys] money paid for the purpose of providing compensation for industrial accidents and occupational diseases, and for administrative expenses incidental thereto, and for the purpose of funding and administering a public employees' retirement system, [shall] must be segregated in proper accounts in the state treasury, and such [moneys shall] money must never be used for any other purposes, and they are hereby declared to be trust funds for the uses and purposes herein specified.

3. Any money paid for the purpose of funding and administering a public employees' retirement system must not be loaned to the state or invested to purchase any obligations of the state.

4. The public employees' retirement system must be governed by a public employees' retirement board. The board shall employ an executive officer who serves at the pleasure of the board. In addition to any other employees authorized by the board, the board shall employ an independent actuary. The board shall adopt actuarial assumptions based upon the recommendations made by the independent actuary it employs.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Affairs.

Motion carried.

By the Committee on Ways and Means:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 26 of the 67th Session—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to clarify the exemption from the debt limitation of money borrowed to retrofit state buildings to make the use of energy in the buildings more efficient.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 3 of article 9 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. The state may contract public debts; but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exclusive of interest, exceed the sum of two per cent of the assessed valuation of the state, as shown by the reports of the county assessors to the state controller, except for the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenses, as hereinafter mentioned. Every such debt shall be authorized by law for some purpose or purposes, to be distinctly specified therein; and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest semiannually, and the principal within twenty years from the passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of said taxes to the payment of said principal and interest; and such appropriation shall not be repealed nor the taxes postponed or diminished until the principal and interest of said debts shall have been wholly paid. Every contract of indebtedness entered into or assumed by or on behalf of the state, when all its debts and liabilities amount to said sum before mentioned, shall be void and of no effect, except in cases of money borrowed to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in time of war, or, if hostilities be threatened, provide for the public defense.

The state, notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, may, pursuant to authority of the legislature, make and enter into any and all contracts necessary, expedient or advisable for the protection and preservation of any of its property or natural resources, or for the purposes of obtaining the benefits thereof, however arising and whether arising by or through any undertaking or project of the United States or by or through any treaty or compact between the states, or otherwise [.] , including contracts for the retrofitting of state buildings to make the use of energy in the buildings more efficient. The legislature may from time to time make such appropriations as may be necessary to carry out the obligations of the state under such contracts, and shall levy such tax as may be necessary to pay the same or carry them into effect.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Motion carried.

By the Committee on Ways and Means:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 35 of the 67th Session—Proposing to amend the Nevada constitution to allow the investment of state money to stimulate economic development.

WHEREAS, Emerging competition in other states and federally regulated territories threaten the State of Nevada's long-term growth in its vital gaming industry; and

WHEREAS, Finance programs necessary to assure business expansion and high quality job growth do not currently provide Nevada's business sector with adequate access to those types of money and capital essential to support the growth of a diversified economic base; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada constitution currently contains restrictions, based on conditions existing in the 19th century, that have prevented the Legislature from considering legislation similar to laws enacted in several other states, which would permit prudently managed investments in public-private partnerships and corporations designed to provide needed sources of capital for high quality, job-creating businesses within Nevada that cannot feasibly obtain such financing from existing private financial markets in an easily accessible and efficient manner; and

WHEREAS, The State of Nevada must remain competitive with other states in providing the necessary financial tools to attract the types of businesses and industries that would diversify Nevada's economic base and improve the standard of living for Nevada's citizens; and

WHEREAS, The benefits to be derived from a strong economic development effort throughout the state may be jeopardized if current restrictions in the Nevada constitution are not replaced with more flexible and contemporary standards that both protect public investments in economic development projects and provide access to the type of financing needed to stimulate the growth of businesses and industries throughout the state which will provide the high quality jobs, increased property values, and enhanced standard of living desired by Nevadans; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 9 of article 8 of the constitution of the State of Nevada is hereby amended to read as follows:

[Sec: 9. The]

Sec. 9. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, the State shall not donate or loan money [,] or its credit [,] to, or subscribe to or be [,] interested in the Stock of any company, association, or corporation . [, except] 2. The legislature may by law, approved by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house, authorize the investment of state money in a company, association or corporation subject to the following conditions:

(a) Before any investment is authorized, a determination must be made, by a person or entity designated in the authorizing legislation, that:

(1) The investment is for the economic development of this state or the creation of new employment opportunities in this state;

(2) The state can reasonably expect to achieve a reasonable rate of return on the investment, adjusted for the relative degree of risk; and

(b) Each investment by the state must be made through a cooperative venture with private investors of reasonable sophistication who participate in the venture on terms that are the same as or less favorable than the terms on which the state is participating.

Revenue received from investments pursuant to this subsection may be reinvested subject to the same conditions.

3. The provisions of this section do not apply to corporations formed for educational or charitable purposes.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Motion carried.

The Committee on Escort escorted the Governor to the rostrum.

The Speaker of the Assembly welcomed the Governor and invited him to deliver his message.

The Governor delivered his message as follows:

Mr. President, Co-Speakers, Mr. Chief Justice, distinguished justices of the Supreme Court, ladies and gentlemen of the 68th Nevada Legislature, honored guests, and my fellow Nevadans.

Nevadans have spoken, and they have given us one party in control of the Governorship, another party in control of the Senate, and have left the Assembly divided between the two parties.

This is an experiment, an experiment that can begin and end in division, rancor, and disappointment. Or it can end differently—as an example of bipartisanship, of rising above one party, of moving forward from the political center that grounds both parties.

If we can remove the blinders of partisanship and the quest for advantage, we will see clearly that more unites us than divides us. I believe that with the leadership of Senators Raggio and Titus and Speakers Dini and Hettrick, we will work together to enact fair, well-reasoned and sound legislation to better our great State.

It is this unity of purpose which guides this administration. The voters in the last election were very eloquent in their message to us:

They want responsible, limited government. Those services which only government can provide must be delivered as efficiently and as inexpensively as possible.

They want strong, smart measures enacted into law that will attack the menace of violent crime.

They want quality education for their children from kindergarten through our university system.

The people of our state deserve these things and they want them without expanding state government. The budget and the legislative program I propose sets out to meet these sound and well-reasoned demands—and they are demands. We must meet these demands by providing efficient government services, tough and smart crime measures, and improvements in our educational system.

Fiscal responsibility is an absolute priority of this administration. The budget submitted to you is driven largely by the necessity to keep up with rising school enrollments and increasing prison populations and Medicaid caseloads. This budget meets the needs of the people of the fastest growing state in America, but does so with no tax increases.

Holding the line on taxes and also meeting the expanding demands for services are not enough to ensure Nevada's fiscal strength. Economic cycles are immutable facts of life. That was made painfully clear by the recession of the early 1990s—a recession that showed no state any mercy. It would be arrogance. It would be ignorance not to prepare now for a future economic downturn.

At this time, Nevada's economy is booming, business is good, and state revenue is up. And that is good news, but it also creates a dangerous temptation to spend.

I choose a wiser course. Let us seize this opportunity to build our reserves to shield us from the treacherous cycles of boom and bust. To that end, we must increase the "Rainy Day Fund" to its maximum level under law. I am recommending a direct appropriation of $81 million to bring the "Rainy Day Fund" up to the statutory limit of $100 million.

And I believe even that is not enough. Beyond topping off the "Rainy Day Fund" I am proposing in addition to the minimum reserve, that $20 million be reserved in our ending fund balance. That additional reserve will give us a "head start" on the 1997 biennium. These saved reserves will provide a fiscal "damper" to the ever increasing demands for revenue which we will face in 1997, AND MUST REMAIN UNSPENT NOW! Let us think and act wisely now and not respond to the impulses of the moment. A failure to preserve these funds now will only complicate and make our future fiscal position worse. Do not mortgage our future. This is our opportunity to prove our skeptics wrong—this government is committed to a prudent fiscal plan with a strong savings program.

The public expects us to operate Government like a business—we must provide the maximum level of service at the lowest possible cost. Two years ago, we began streamlining state government by reducing the number of state departments from 42 to 21. Total Quality Leadership is being implemented which is increasing staff productivity and eliminating inefficiencies.

The results of these actions are bearing fruit.

In our Department of Employment, Training, and Rehabilitation, we've adopted the model of Neighborhood Service Centers. It's a one-stop-shopping concept to better serve Nevadans. In convenient locations throughout this state, citizens will be able to obtain information and enroll in a whole host of human service programs in one place, rather than having to go to many different offices. When you come in with a problem, you leave with an answer—not a referral to another agency.

Of course when most Nevadans think of state services, they first think of the Department of Motor Vehicles. It's probably the most widely used state agency . . . and because of that it's also the most overworked. I am proposing that we separate the DMV from the Department of Public Safety so that we can concentrate on the separate missions of both agencies more completely. Nevadans who need the services of DMV should be able to get them quickly and efficiently. The best way to do that is to have an agency that concentrates solely on those services. We will shorten the lines and reduce the waiting times for services.

I am also proposing to streamline government further by consolidating the Department of Economic Development and the Department of Tourism into a single agency. These departments have each done an excellent job of serving the people of this state—especially in our rural districts. We can make their efforts even more efficient by consolidating them into a Department of Development and Tourism. In this budget alone, we project a savings to the state of nearly $200,000.

In furthering efficiency, we must also eliminate Government services when they are no longer needed. The federal deregulation of the transportation industry has eliminated many responsibilities from the Public Service Commission. While traditionally, government agencies might attempt to find new responsibilities to justify maintaining staffing levels, that will not be the case in Nevada. We will reduce the staffing at the PSC and lower the cost of government.

Our most sweeping reorganization two years ago was in the State Industrial Insurance System. The impending SIIS bankruptcy was the worst financial crisis in Nevada history. The liabilities for business were growing out of control, the quality of services for Nevada's workers was in question, and the costs of health care threatened to bankrupt the entire system. A $2 billion shortfall cannot be corrected overnight. But in just one year, we have shown a $141 million turnaround. In 1993, there was $80.9 million more going out the door than coming in. In 1994, SIIS had $61 million more coming into its accounts than were being paid out in claims. We have dramatically turned this potential catastrophe into a success story. I have already discussed with Senator Townsend that our primary goal is to ensure that this success story continues. Together we must not waiver from our goal of financial stability in our workers' compensation program.

Government is not just about numbers and organizational charts; it's also about people—dedicated people. So, within the bounds of a tight budget, we are recommending that state employees be given a 4 percent salary increase in the first year and 3 percent in the following year of this biennium. Some will say this is too little; others will say too much. But we should all remember that these employees have diligently served the public without a pay increase for three straight years.

It is my opinion that state employee salary increases should remain a priority. If later in this session, revenue forecasts increase, we should consider additional compensation for these dedicated public employees.

Of course, all Nevadans face the challenge of living within their budgets. Perhaps nowhere is that challenge greater than dealing with the exorbitant cost of health care. With the failure of Washington to successfully deal with the health care crisis, it is all the more important that we continue our successful efforts. Our hospital cost containment law is scheduled to sunset this year. If it didn't work, it should be wiped from the books. But, it has been successful and has earned our continued support.

While we once had the dubious honor of having the highest hospital costs in the nation, for each of the last six years, Nevada has had the best record in the nation for holding down inflation of hospital costs.

Federal mandates, which are often unfunded and out of control, continue to drive up Medicaid costs. These costs are eating up more and more of our available state dollars. Our total costs for Medicaid in the present budget represent an increase of $223.5 million over the last biennium. To get control of these costs, I am proposing that we seek Federal approval of a managed care program. We have seen the success of the managed care program in turning around our workers' compensation system and we are confident that we will see success in Medicaid cost containment as well.

No group of Nevadans is more concerned about the costs of illness than our seniors. In an effort to keep our seniors independent and living quality lives, I will continue to expand the Community Home Based Initiative Program, known as CHIP. This program allows a growing number of senior Nevadans to live independent lives at home, rather than dependent lives in an institution at far higher costs.

As successful as these programs are, we will still fail if we cannot protect our citizens from the plague of violent senseless crime. With the advice and support of the chief law enforcement experts in the state, including Sheriffs Jerry Keller and Dick Kirkland, Police Chief Jim Weston, and prosecutors Stewart Bell and Dick Gammick, I have defined an extensive package to reform our entire criminal justice system.

I am pledging to give our police officers, our prosecutors and judges the tools they need to insure that law abiding citizens are made safer and violent predators go to jail. Violent criminals will pay the price in Nevada.

The time is now to send a message to criminals throughout Nevada that we are going to take back our streets, we are going to make our schools safe again and we are going to make our homes secure once more.

We will open Lovelock Prison this year. We will open Lovelock Two in 1997 and begin construction on a new facility that same year.

The cruel reality is that the faces of violent criminals are growing younger. A 16-year-old committing a violent or sex-related crime should be presumed to be an adult and face prison. And judges should, under appropriate circumstances, be able to decide that 14-year-olds bent on a life of crime be subject to adult prosecution. Juvenile laws are to protect children, not young criminals.

We must make our streets safer by taking guns from the hands of juveniles. There is no good reason for teenagers to have guns in their cars on a Friday night. We will revoke the driver's licenses of those who violate gun, alcohol or drug laws.

We will provide judges the ability to require parents to accept the responsibilities and obligations for the actions of their children by ordering restitution to victims, community service and/or counseling for the parents of juvenile offenders. And we will create a juvenile boot camp to mirror the success we have in our adult camp.

Just as we review and revise the juvenile justice system, we must also reconsider treatment of adult offenders. We must identify and isolate career criminals. I propose we make the sentencing of repeat, violent offenders mandatory under Nevada's Habitual Crime Law. No deals, no plea bargaining—a life sentence.

Further, I am calling on you to approve a Sentencing Commission to create truth in sentence and to keep violent offenders in prison for longer periods of time.

Assemblywoman Jeannine Stroth, herself a victim of crime, told me she will prepare legislation to require judges to inform victims of what the minimum time is to be served under the sentence. I support this, but feel the solution is best found in a comprehensive reform of Nevada's entire sentencing structure. We will direct the Sentencing Commission to establish absolute—absolute—non-negotiable—prison terms. When a judge sentences a felon to five to ten years, it means five years and not a day less. And, if there is no rehabilitation, he'll do the ten years. Everyone will then know just what the sentence meant.

The Sentencing Commission will also design tougher penalties on violent, career offenders. Most have heard the slogan "Three Strikes and You're Out" as a means of keeping felons in prison. I propose a smarter, more thoughtful approach, entitled CRIME POINTS TO PRISON. Under this plan, devised by Sheriff Keller's Deputy Chief Paul Conner, all facts and circumstances of a criminal act will be taken into consideration. "Did the criminal use a gun? Did she have an accomplice? Did he have a child or a senior as a victim?" Under this system, targeting the most serious of our offenders, even someone who committed two violent felonies could find himself in prison for life.

A commitment to putting more violent criminals behind bars for a longer period of time brings with it the obligation not only of building prisons, but also of freeing up prison cells.

In order to keep the rapists, murderers, child molesters and criminals that use guns behind bars we must develop a strategy to make the most efficient use of our available prison cells.

Part of that strategy must be to deal with the non-violent offenders. I believe that we must break the cycle of crime by retraining, educating and mandating drug and alcohol rehabilitation for non-violent offenders. One solution is the Life Skills Program which has met with great success in other states. The project, designed as a partnership with existing service providers within the community, can correct the problems which led to the criminal behavior. It calls for a rigorous program of strict supervision of non-violent offenders. If a criminal has a drug problem, he will get counseling. If she has no job skills, she will be trained. If the offenders cannot read or write, they will be educated. This is a far less expensive way of dealing with non-violent offenders and holds out the possibility of creating productive citizens rather than skilled career criminals. Our goal is to make sure the cycle of crime is stopped. While these criminals are given the opportunity to turn their lives around, those who violate the rules of the Life Skills Program will end up in a prison cell.

We will also expand the use of House Arrest programs, the most successful such program in the nation. To date it has been limited to felony drunk driving offenders. We must expand this promising program to some drug and non-violent property felons.

We must also expand the boot camp program we began a few years ago. It provides the shorter-term, intense program needed to change career paths from crime to productive society members.

But let's be honest, the only long term solution is to focus on our children. To teach them the right values and priorities. To give them the care, the nurturing, and the education they deserve.

Throughout the last six years, I have held our children's education nearest to my heart, and at the top of my administration's list of priorities. And while we may be occasionally diverted by other pressing issues—Budget Cuts—SIIS Reform—Public Safety—we must never waiver in our commitment to Nevada's school children.

Sandy and I have visited hundreds of schools throughout Nevada. Reading to classrooms, meeting parents and listening to teachers, those whose mission it is to teach and help care for our children.

One message consistently rings loud and clear: Governor please continue to provide us smaller class sizes—"It works."

I believe it works. You'll always be able to dispute test results or the value of team teaching. But there's no disputing the value of giving our children a leg up in those early years. Give our teachers a class size they can manage. Not projects for 35 nameless faces, but a moment to recognize Mary's flair for art or to help Tommy's math or Mario's science. Our children deserve that personal attention.

I am asking you tonight to heed the pleas of thousands of teachers and parents. We must continue to extend our class size reduction program to the third grade. Our children deserve no less.

Today's children are growing up in a world in which computers are as commonplace as books. Our schools need to teach the children the keys to working with the changes. Science and technology is the key to success. We are providing our schools with money and equipment to properly train our students in these areas so that our kids will be leaders in the Information Age.

As we provide our education system with the tools it needs to prepare our students, the public deserves to know how effective the schools are in using the tools. In the 1993 session, we passed the Nevada school accountability law, which requires school districts to inform the public on school performance. I am convinced we must go much farther. I propose we phase in a system of accreditation for all public schools. We must create standards so that every public school meets the basic requirements needed to provide a good education. Assemblywoman Chris Giunchigliani has requested a Bill Draft to begin this process. We should work together to support legislation to provide Nevadans the assurance they need to continue to invest in our children's future.

Our goal is to prepare more of our Nevada students to take advantage of the high caliber education our Universities and Community Colleges offer. Let me take a moment to highlight some of our system's accomplishments. The Reynolds School of Journalism at UNR is home to five Pulitzer Prize winners—Stanford only has two. Yale University ranks UNR's Mackay School of Mines as among the best of its kind. UNLV has increased the number of graduate students by 10 percent in one year alone. UNLV professor Rebecca Mills was named Professor of the Year by the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching.

These are just some of the many accomplishments of our higher education system. One way we can help our universities grow and compete is to support their needs for more facilities. I propose we spend $16.2 million for a new education building at UNR as well as funding the planning and design for a new library at UNLV. Additionally I ask you to support me in providing increased funding for higher education that allows for continued enrollment growth and returns the faculty-student ratio to the levels before the recession of two years ago.

Beyond our state's borders there are clouds, and none are darker than those that come from Washington, D.C. Once again, Senators who care little about our state or its people are plotting to make Nevada the nuclear waste dump of the country. This time, they strip any pretense of fairness and science, and simply declare that their plans for a repository have failed and so we should now accept a far less safe alternative: They call it "interim storage." We know it as a permanent disaster.

As long as I am Governor, Nevada will not surrender its rights, submit to foolhardy plans, or buckle to nuclear utility industry pressure. Yucca Mountain is wrong, the Federal Government has run rough shod over our rights, and it will be stopped. It is up to this administration, and this legislature, to support our Congressional Delegation's efforts to stop this ill designed strategy.

There are also those in Washington who, in their quest for ever larger revenues, have cast an eye toward the bedrock of our tourism economy—our flourishing gaming industry. Those efforts to impose a Federal Gaming tax were successfully turned back last year and more than 30,000 Nevada jobs were saved. But we must remain on guard. We must also be careful to ensure that gaming remains a state issue, under state legislation and not fall victim to the tax and regulate schemes on Capitol Hill.

In Washington, they are beginning a great debate on welfare reform. As we watch from here we will be anxious that "reform" back there does not result in more taxes here.

We will not wait for the Federal Government to get its act together. We are already making significant progress toward turning welfare into a temporary helping hand and away from a way of life. The key to getting off the welfare roll, is to get on the payroll. Working together with business, we are creating the best welfare program in the world—jobs.

We will shift the focus of the initial interview to include an assessment for not just eligibility, but also employability. That will include a discussion of skill assessment, job opportunities, and supporting resources to get even more Nevadans back to work.

We will expand the Employment Training Program for those already on welfare. We currently train and employ 3,000 Nevadans on welfare; we will double the number of people trained and employed to 6,000.

Working together with the new MGM we trained and they hired more than 800 Nevada welfare recipients, more than 75 percent are still on the job. We are already at work with the upcoming Silver Legacy, also known as Project C, to duplicate this success. We have to continue to find ways to form partnerships with existing and new corporations throughout Nevada. It's better for the taxpayers, it's good for business and it is great for the children who see their moms and dads working and independent.

The taxpayer alone cannot bear all the burdens. That is why I continue our efforts to improve the collection of child support payments. We will increase enforcement personnel, and create a statewide computerized information network to track down and hold accountable parents who are not living up to their obligations.

Responsibility to our children must include a fundamental change in our laws to make it paramount, that in legal proceedings the safety of the child is of primary importance. No longer should judges and officials be bound by senseless rules that fail to protect children and force them to send children back to abusive or violent families. The child's best interests should come first. This change is supported by the state's juvenile court judges and a bipartisan effort of legislators including Assemblymen Vivian Freeman and Peter Ernaut and Senator Ernie Adler.

We have the resources throughout this state, to provide children and their families with support and assistance in times of need. But, often it is a confusing maze to people in a time of crisis. Government should as often as possible make certain that when the people need us, access is as easy and convenient as possible. Here in Nevada we have seen the great success of Family Resource Centers that bring together the private and public social services that serve families. These centers are a great example of public and private cooperation. With the assistance the Centers provide, families can grow and become strong. I am proposing funding, to assist in the opening of more Family Resource Centers in areas in which the greatest needs exist. We can help families to learn to help themselves by providing localized neighborhood centers where the resources they need are available.

I end tonight as I began, with a call to make this legislative session a successful experiment in bipartisanship. Let it be written and said at the end of this session—in May, that despite division, despite the difficulty of the task, and despite the pundits' barbs, we rose to the occasion. That in measures great and small we worked to make Nevada a better home for our people. There can be no better legacy.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By the Committee on Taxation:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 13—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to provide a procedure to resolve conflicts, if any, between initiative petitions which are approved by the voters to amend the state constitution.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 2 of article 19 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1 of article 4 of this constitution, but subject to the limitations of section 6 of this article, the people reserve to themselves the power to propose, by initiative petition, statutes and amendments to statutes and amendments to this constitution, and to enact or reject them at the polls.

2. An initiative petition shall be in the form required by section 3 of this article and shall be proposed by a number of registered voters equal to 10 percent or more of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election in not less than 75 percent of the counties in the state, but the total number of registered voters signing the initiative petition shall be equal to 10 percent or more of the voters who voted in the entire state at the last preceding general election.

3. If the initiative petition proposes a statute or an amendment to a statute, the person who intends to circulate it shall file a copy with the secretary of state before beginning circulation and not earlier than January 1 of the year preceding the year in which a regular session of the legislature is held. After its circulation, it shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than 30 days prior to any regular session of the legislature. The circulation of the petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the secretary of state or such other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is earliest. The secretary of state shall transmit such petition to the legislature as soon as the legislature convenes and organizes. The petition shall take precedence over all other measures except appropriation bills, and the statute or amendment to a statute proposed thereby shall be enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment within 40 days. If the proposed statute or amendment to a statute is enacted by the legislature and approved by the governor in the same manner as other statutes are enacted, such statute or amendment to a statute shall become law, but shall be subject to referendum petition as provided in section 1 of this article. If the statute or amendment to a statute is rejected by the legislature, or if no action is taken thereon within 40 days, the secretary of state shall submit the question of approval or disapproval of such statute or amendment to a statute to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election. If a majority of the voters voting on such question at such election votes approval of such statute or amendment to a statute, it shall become law and take effect upon completion of the canvass of votes by the supreme court. An initiative measure so approved by the voters shall not be amended, annulled, repealed, set aside or suspended by the legislature within 3 years from the date it takes effect. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of such statute or amendment to a statute, no further action shall be taken on such petition. If the legislature rejects such proposed statute or amendment, the governor may recommend to the legislature and the legislature may propose a different measure on the same subject, in which event, after such different measure has been approved by the governor, the question of approval or disapproval of each measure shall be submitted by the secretary of state to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election. If the conflicting provisions submitted to the voters are both approved by a majority of the voters voting on such measures, the measure which receives the largest number of affirmative votes shall thereupon become law.

4. If the initiative petition proposes an amendment to the constitution, the person who intends to circulate it shall file a copy with the secretary of state before beginning circulation and not earlier than September 1 of the year before the year in which the election is to be held. After its circulation it shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than 90 days before any regular general election at which the question of approval or disapproval of such amendment may be voted upon by the voters of the entire state. The circulation of the petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the secretary of state or such other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is earliest. The secretary of state shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation, on three separate occasions, in each county in the state, together with any explanatory matter which shall be placed upon the ballot, the entire text of the proposed amendment. If a majority of the voters voting on such question at such election votes disapproval of such amendment, no further action shall be taken on the petition. If a majority of such voters votes approval of such amendment, the secretary of state shall publish and resubmit the question of approval or disapproval to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election in the same manner as such question was originally submitted. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of such amendment, no further action shall be taken on such petition. If a majority of such voters votes approval of such amendment, it shall , except as otherwise provided in this subsection, become a part of this constitution upon completion of the canvass of votes by the supreme court. If a majority of voters voting in the election approve separate petitions which contain substantively conflicting amendments to amend the constitution, the proposed amendment which receives the largest number of affirmative votes shall become a part of this constitution.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Taxation.

Motion carried.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Assembly Resolution No. 3—Adopting Standing Rules of the Assembly for the 68th session.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, That the Assembly Standing Rules as amended by the 67th session are adopted, with the following changes, as the Standing Rules of the Assembly for the 68th session of the Legislature:

I. OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Duties of Officers

[Speaker] Speakers of the Assembly.

1. All officers of the Assembly are subordinate to the [Speaker] Speakers in all that relates to the prompt, efficient and correct discharge of their official duties under [his] the Speakers' supervision.

2. Possessing the powers and performing the duties described in this rule, the [Speaker] Speakers shall:

(a) Take the chair at the hour to which the Assembly stands adjourned, call the members to order, and upon the appearance of a quorum, proceed to business.

(b) Preserve order and decorum and have general direction of the chamber of the Assembly and the approaches thereto, and in the event of any disturbance or disorderly conduct therein, order the same to be cleared.

(c) Decide all questions of order, subject to a member's right to appeal to the Assembly. On appeal from such decisions, the [Speaker has] Speakers have the right, in [his place,] their places, to assign the reason for [his] their decision.

(d) Have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond one legislative day.

(e) When the Assembly resolves itself into Committee of the Whole, name a chairman to preside thereover and call him to the chair.

(f) Have the power to accredit the persons who act as representatives of the press, radio and television, and assign them seats.

(g) Sign all bills and resolutions passed by the Legislature as provided by law.

(h) Sign all subpenas issued by the Assembly or any committee thereof.

(i) Receive all messages and communications from other departments of the government and announce them to the Assembly.

(j) Represent the Assembly, declare its will and in all things obey its commands.

(k) Vote on final passage of a bill or resolution, but [he] the Speakers shall not be required to vote in ordinary legislative proceedings except where [his vote] their votes would be decisive. In all aye and no votes, the [Speaker's name] Speakers' names, in alphabetical order, shall be called last.

3. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Speaker, through death, resignation or disability of [the] a Speaker, the corresponding Speaker pro Tempore shall temporarily and for the period of vacancy or disability act in that Speaker's place to conduct the necessary business of the Assembly.

4. If a permanent vacancy occurs in [the] an office of Speaker, the Assembly shall select a new Speaker.

II. SESSIONS AND MEETINGS

Time of Meeting.

The Assembly shall meet each day at 11 a.m., unless the Assembly adjourns to some other hour.

Open Meetings.

All meetings of the Assembly and its standing committees shall be open to the public.

Reserved.

III. DECORUM AND DEBATE

Points of Order.

If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the Assembly, the [Speaker] Speakers shall, or any member may, call to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and if called to order by a member, such member shall immediately state the point of order. If the point of order be sustained by the [Speaker,] presiding officer, the member shall not be allowed to proceed; but if it be not sustained, then he shall be permitted to go on. Every such decision from the [Speaker] presiding officer shall be subject to an appeal to the House; but no discussion of the question of order shall be allowed unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the [Speaker.] presiding officer.

Committee on Ethics; Legislative Ethics.

1. The Committee on Ethics consists of:

(a) [Two] Four members of the Assembly appointed by the [Speaker from the majority political party;

(b) One member of the Assembly appointed by the Minority Leader from the minority political party; and

(c)] Speakers; and

(b) Two qualified electors of the state chosen by the members of the committee who are appointed pursuant to [paragraphs (a) and (b),] paragraph (a), neither of whom is a present or former member of the Legislature or employed by the State of Nevada.

2. The [Speaker] Speakers shall appoint two members of the Assembly, one from [the majority political party and one from the minority] each major political party to serve as alternate members of the committee. If a member is disqualified, the alternate appointed from the same political party shall serve as a member of the committee during the consideration of a specific question.

3. A member is disqualified if he is the requester of advice concerning a question of ethics or conflict of interest, or if the advice is requested by another member of the Assembly and a reasonable person in his situation could not exercise independent judgment on the matter in question.

4. The committee shall hear complaints on alleged breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest, brought by Legislators and others, and it may advise Legislators on questions of breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest. All proceedings held to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence or physical or mental health of any person by the committee on matters of ethics or conflicts of interest are confidential unless a Legislator:

(a) Against whom a complaint is brought requests a public hearing;

(b) Discloses the opinion of the committee at any time after his hearing; or

(c) Discloses the content of an advisory opinion issued to him by the committee.

5. A complaint which alleges a breach of ethics or a conflict of interest must be in writing and signed by the person making the allegation. The complaint must be filed with the [chairman] chairmen and he shall send a copy of the complaint, within 24 hours after receiving it, to the Legislator against whom the complaint is brought.

6. The criterion to be applied by the committee in determining whether a Legislator has a conflict of interest is whether the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in his position upon the matter in question would be materially affected by:

(a) His acceptance of a gift or loan; or

(b) His private economic interest.

7. A Legislator who determines that he has a conflict of interest may vote upon, advocate or oppose any measure as to which a potential conflict exists if he makes a general disclosure of the conflict. In determining whether to vote upon, advocate or oppose the measure, the Legislator should consider whether:

(a) The conflict impedes his independence of judgment;

(b) His participation will produce a negative effect on the public's confidence in the integrity of the Legislature;

(c) His participation is likely to have any significant effect on the disposition of the measure; and

(d) His interest is greater than the interests of an entire class of persons similarly situated.

IV. QUORUM, VOTING, ELECTIONS

Manner of Voting.

1. The [Speaker] presiding officer shall declare all votes but the ayes and noes shall be taken when called for by three members present, and the names of those calling for the ayes and noes shall be entered in the Journal by the Chief Clerk.

2. The [Speaker] presiding officer shall call for ayes and noes by a division or by a roll call, either electronic or oral.

3. When taking the ayes and noes on any question, the electronic roll call system may be used, and when so used shall have the force and effect of any roll call under these rules.

4. When taking the ayes and noes by oral roll call, the Chief Clerk shall take the names of members alphabetically except that the [Speaker] Speakers, in alphabetical order, shall be called last.

5. The electronic roll call system may be used to determine the presence of a quorum.

6. The ayes and noes shall not be taken with the electronic roll call system until all members present are at their desks. The [Speaker] Speakers and the [Speaker] Speakers pro Tempore may vote at their desks or at the rostrum.

7. Only a member, certified by the Committee on Credentials or special committee of the Assembly, may cast a vote in the Assembly. A member shall not vote for another member on any roll call, either electronic or oral. Any member who votes for another member may be punished in any manner deemed appropriate by the Assembly.

Reserved.

Announcement of the Vote.

1. A member may change his vote at any time before the announcement of the vote if the voting is by voice, or at any time before the votes are electronically recorded if the voting is conducted electronically.

2. The announcement of the result of any vote shall not be postponed.

Voting by Division.

Upon a division and count of the Assembly on any question, no person without the bar shall be counted.

V. LEGISLATIVE BODIES

Standing Committees.

The standing committees of the Assembly are as follows:

1. Ways and Means, [thirteen] fourteen members.
2. Judiciary, [fifteen] fourteen members.
3. Taxation, [eleven] twelve members.
4. Education, [eleven] twelve members.
5. Elections and Procedures, [eleven] twelve members.
6. Natural Resources, Agriculture and Mining, [eleven] ten members.
7. Labor and Management, [eleven] ten members.
8. Transportation, [nine] ten members.
9. Commerce, [thirteen] twelve members.
10. Health and Human Services, [eleven] ten members.
11. Government Affairs, fourteen members.
12. Economic Development and Tourism, eight members.

Appointment of Committees.

Except as otherwise provided in Assembly Standing Rule No. 23, all committees must be appointed by the [Speaker,] Speakers, unless otherwise directed by the Assembly. The [Speaker] Speakers shall designate the [chairman and vice chairman] chairmen and vice chairmen of each committee.

To facilitate the full participation of the members during the adjournment required by NRS 218.115, the [Speaker] Speakers may temporarily appoint a member to a standing committee that is scheduled to meet during the adjournment if none of the committees to which the member is regularly assigned will be meeting during the adjournment.

Committee Action.

1. The committee shall have regular meetings scheduled by the Assembly leadership. A quorum of the committee is a majority of its members and may transact business except as limited by this rule. [Motions]

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, motions may be moved, seconded and passed by voice vote by a simple majority of those present . [, except that definite]

3. Definite action on a bill or resolution will require a majority of the entire committee [. A] except when the vote on a motion to report a bill or resolution to the floor, with or without amendment, results in a tie vote of the entire committee. In that case, the bill or resolution must be reported out of committee without a recommendation for action. The vote on such a bill or resolution may be reconsidered at any time before the bill or resolution is transmitted back to the Assembly, upon a motion to reconsider which is approved by a majority of the entire committee. Such a motion to reconsider may be made by any member of the committee.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, a two-thirds majority of all the committee is required to reconsider action on a bill or resolution.

5. Committee introduction of legislative measures which are not prefiled requires concurrence of two-thirds of the committee and does not imply commitment to support final passage.

6. The [Chairman] chairmen shall vote on all final action regarding bills or resolutions.

7. No member of the committee may vote by proxy under any circumstances.

Subcommittees.

Subcommittees made up of committee members may be appointed by the [chairman] chairmen to consider and report back on specific subjects or bills.

Committee on Elections and Procedures.

The Committee on Elections and Procedures has jurisdiction over matters relating to personnel. It shall recommend by resolution the appointment of all attachés and employees of the Assembly not otherwise provided for by law. It may suspend or remove any such attaché or employee for incompetency or dereliction of duty. It shall function as the Committee on Rules and as the Committee on Credentials of the Assembly.

Procedure for Election Contests.

1. Upon receipt of a statement of contest from the Secretary of State pursuant to NRS 293.427, the [Speaker] Speakers shall, as soon as practicable, appoint a special committee to hear the contest or refer the contest to the Standing Committee on Elections and Procedures. The committee shall conduct a hearing to consider the contest. The committee shall keep written minutes of the hearing. The contestant has the burden of proving that any irregularities shown were of such a nature as to establish that the result of the election was changed thereby.

2. The contest must be submitted so far as may be possible upon depositions or by written or oral arguments as the Assembly may order. Any party to a contest may take the deposition of any witness at any time after the statement of contest is filed with the Secretary of State and before the contest is finally decided. At least 3 days' notice must be given to the prospective deponent and to the other party. If oral statements are made at any hearing before the Assembly or a committee thereof which purport to establish matters of fact, they must be made under oath. Strict rules of evidence do not apply.

3. The committee shall, not later than 5 calendar days after the contest was referred to the committee, report to the Assembly its findings on whether the contestant has met the burden of proving that any irregularities shown were of such a nature as to establish that the result of the election was changed thereby. The committee shall then report to the Assembly its recommendation on which [candidate] person should be declared elected [.] or report that it has no recommendation. The Assembly shall, as soon as practicable thereafter but not later than 7 calendar days after the [Speaker] Speakers received the statement of contest, vote whether to accept or reject the committee's recommendation without amendment [.] , if a recommendation is made. If the recommendation is accepted, the [Speaker] Speakers shall declare the recommended [candidate] person elected. If the recommendation is rejected [,] or the committee did not make a recommendation, the Assembly shall consider immediately [whether to declare another candidate elected.] which person should be declared elected. The [Speaker] Speakers shall not adjourn the Assembly until it has declared a [candidate] person to be elected.

4. The [Speaker] Speakers shall inform the Governor of the identity of the [candidate] person declared to be elected by the Assembly.

Committee Action on Reports.

Committee reports shall be adopted at a committee session actually assembled and meeting as a committee with a quorum present. Every committee vote on a matter pertaining to a bill or resolution shall be recorded. The vote may be taken by roll call at the discretion of the [chairman.] chairmen.

47

Committee Records.

The [chairman] chairmen of each committee shall keep, or cause to be kept, a complete record of the committee proceedings in which there shall be entered:

1. The time and place of each meeting;
2. The attendance and absence of members;
3. The name of the chairman presiding;
4. The names of all persons appearing before the committee, with the names of persons, firms, corporations or associations in whose behalf such appearance is made; and [4.] 5. The subjects or measures considered and action taken.

Disposition of Committee Records.

All minutes, records and documents in the possession of committees and their chairmen shall be filed in the offices of the Legislative Counsel Bureau upon adjournment sine die.

Committee Hearings.

[Public hearings shall be held on important bills and other matters of high public interest. Presence] A public hearing must be held on each bill and resolution which is referred to committee. The presence of a quorum of the committee is desirable but not required. Public hearings are opened by the presiding chairman who announces the subject under consideration and provides for those wishing to address the committee to be heard. These persons shall rise in an order determined by the presiding chairman, address the chair, furnish their names, addresses and firms or other organizations represented. Committee members may address the presiding chairman for permission to question the witness. When all persons present have been heard, the presiding chairman may declare closed the [public hearing closed] portion of the meeting wherein the committee will accept public testimony on the matter before proceeding to other matters.

Concurrent Referrals.

When a bill or resolution is referred to two committees , the bill or resolution must go to the first committee named. If the first committee votes to amend the bill or resolution, it must be reprinted with amendments and then returned to the first committee or sent immediately to the next committee. If there is no amendment proposed by the first committee, or if the first committee acts upon the bill or resolution after amendment, the bill or resolution must be sent with the committee recommendation immediately to the second committee.

VI. RULES GOVERNING MOTIONS

Entertaining.

No motion shall be debated until the same be distinctly announced by the [Speaker;] presiding officer; and it shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the [Speaker] Speakers or any member, and be read by the Chief Clerk before the same shall be debated. A motion may be withdrawn by the maker at any time before amendment or before the motion is put to vote.

Particular Motions

Reserved.

64

Reserved.

65

Indefinite Postponement.

When a question is postponed indefinitely, the same shall not be considered again during the session and the question shall not be subject to a motion for reconsideration.

66

To Strike Enacting Clause.

A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill or resolution shall not take precedence over any other subsidiary motion. If the motion is carried, it shall be considered equivalent to the rejection of such bill or resolution.

Division of Question.

Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided, if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Assembly. A motion to strike out being lost shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

To Reconsider—Precedence Of.

A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn, or to fix the time to which to adjourn; and when the Assembly adjourns, while a motion to reconsider is pending, or before passing the order of Motions and Resolutions, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next day of sitting. No notice of reconsideration of any final vote shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session.

Speaking on Question.

No member shall speak more than twice during the consideration of any one question, on the same day, and at the same stage of proceedings, without leave. Members who have once spoken shall not again be entitled to the floor (except for explanation) to the exclusion of others who have not spoken.

Previous Question.

The previous question shall be put only when demanded by three members. The previous question shall not be moved by the member last speaking on the question.

VIII. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

A. Rules and Procedure

Mason's Manual.

The rules of parliamentary practice contained in Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure shall govern the Assembly in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Standing Rules and orders of the Assembly, and the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly.

Suspension of Rule.

No standing rule or order of the Assembly shall be rescinded or changed without a vote of two-thirds of the members elected, and one day's notice being given of the motion therefor; but a rule or order may be suspended temporarily by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Notices of Bills, Topics and Public Hearings.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3:

(a) All committees shall provide notice of public hearings on bills, resolutions or topics of high public importance at least 5 calendar days before such hearings.

(b) Notice for public hearings on bills, resolutions and topics not deemed by the chairmen to be of high public importance must be provided at least 24 hours before such hearings.

(c) Notice shall also be provided for all other committee meetings at least 24 hours in advance of such meetings.

Notices in all cases shall include the date, time, place and agenda to be covered and shall be posted conspicuously in the legislative building, appear in the daily history and be made available to the press.

2. The noticing requirements of this rule may be suspended for emergency situations but only after approval by a two-thirds vote of a committee.

3. Subsection 1 does not apply to:

(a) Committee meetings held on the floor of the Assembly during a recess; or

(b) Conference committee meetings.

Reserved.

Privilege of the Floor and Lobbying.

No person, except Senators, former Assemblymen and state officers, may be admitted at the bar of the Assembly, except by special invitation on the part of some member; but a majority may authorize the [Speaker] Speakers to have the Assembly cleared of all such persons. No person may do any lobbying upon the floor of the Assembly at any time, and it is the duty of the Sergeant at Arms to remove any person violating any of the provisions of this rule.

Material Placed on Legislators' Desks.

All papers, letters, notes, pamphlets and other written material placed upon an Assemblyman's desk shall contain the signature of the Legislator requesting the placement of such material on the desk or shall contain a designation of the origin of such material. This rule does not apply to books containing the legislative bills and resolutions, the legislative daily histories, the legislative daily journals or Legislative Counsel Bureau material.

Peddling and Soliciting.

Peddling, begging and soliciting are strictly forbidden in the Assembly Chamber, and in the lobby, gallery and halls adjacent thereto, and no part of said chamber or halls shall be used for, or occupied by signs or other devices for any kind of advertising.

Petitions and Memorials.

Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the Assembly, shall be presented by the [Speaker,] Speakers, or by a member in [his] their place. A brief statement of the contents thereof shall be made [verbally] by the introducer. They shall not be debated on the day of their being presented, but shall be on the table, or be referred, as the Assembly shall determine.

Request of Purpose.

A member may request the purpose of a bill or joint resolution upon its introduction.

Remarks.

It shall be in order for members to make remarks and to have such remarks entered in the Journal.

100

Precedence of Parliamentary Authority.

The precedence of parliamentary authority in the Assembly shall be as follows:

1. The Constitution of the State of Nevada.
2. The Statutes of the State of Nevada.
3. The Standing Rules of the Assembly and the Joint Standing Rules of the Senate and Assembly.
4. Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure.

Substitute Bills.

A substitute bill shall be deemed and held to be an amendment, and treated in all respects as such. However, a substitute bill may be amended after its adoption, in the same manner as if it were an original bill.

Skeleton Bills.

The introduction of skeleton bills is authorized after the beginning of a session when, in the opinion of the sponsor and the Legislative Counsel, the full drafting of the bill would entail extensive research or be of considerable length. A skeleton bill will be provided for purposes of introduction and committee referral. Such bill will be a presentation of ideas or statements of purpose, sufficient in style and expression to enable the Legislature and the committee to which the bill may be referred to consider the substantive merits of the legislation proposed. The committee, if it treats the skeleton bill favorably, shall then request the draft of a completed bill in such detail as would afford the committee the opportunity of considering the legislative ideas proposed in context with all their necessary ramifications.

Reading of Bills.

The [Speaker] presiding officer shall announce at each reading of a bill whether it be the first, second or third reading. The first reading of a bill shall be for information. If there is objection, the question shall be, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If the question to reject fails to receive a majority vote by the members present, or if there is no objection, the bill shall take the proper course. No bill shall be referred to a committee until after the first reading, nor amended until after the second reading.

Second Reading and Amendment of Bills.

All bills shall be read the second time on the first legislative day after which they are reported by committee, unless a different day is designated by motion. Upon second reading, Assembly bills reported without amendments shall be engrossed and placed on the General File and Senate bills reported without amendments shall be placed on the General File. Committee amendments reported with bills shall be considered upon their second reading, and such amendments may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present. Any amendment which is numbered, copied and made available to all members shall be moved and voted upon by number unless any member moves that it be read in full. Assembly bills so amended shall be reprinted, engrossed, and placed on the General File, and Senate bills so amended shall be reprinted, reengrossed, and placed on the General File.

Any member may move to amend a bill during its second or third reading, and such motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present. Bills so amended on second reading shall be treated the same as bills with committee amendments. Any bill so amended upon the General File shall be reprinted and reengrossed.

The reprinting of amended bills may be dispensed with only in accordance with the provisions of law.

1. On or before the 80th calendar day of a regular session, a standing committee may by unanimous vote of the members present report a bill with the recommendation that it be placed on the consent calendar. The question of recommending a bill for the consent calendar may be voted upon in committee only after the bill has been recommended for passage and only if no amendment is recommended. If the bill is an Assembly bill, it must be engrossed upon receipt by the Chief Clerk of the committee's recommendation.

2. The Chief Clerk shall maintain a list of bills recommended for the consent calendar. The list must be printed in the daily history and must include the summary of each bill, and the date the bill is scheduled for consideration on final passage.

3. Unless postponed by motion, the consent calendar must be considered on Monday and Thursday. A bill reported on Friday to Monday, inclusive, is eligible to be considered on the following Thursday; a bill reported on Tuesday to Thursday, inclusive, is eligible to be considered on the following Monday.

4. At any time before the presiding officer calls for a vote on the passage of the consent calendar, a member may give written notice to the Chief Clerk or state orally from the floor of the Assembly in session that he objects to the inclusion of a particular bill on the consent calendar. If a member so objects, the Chief Clerk shall remove the bill from the consent calendar and transfer it to the second reading file. A bill removed from the consent calendar may not be restored to that calendar.

5. During floor consideration of the consent calendar, members may ask questions and offer explanations relating to the respective bills.

6. When the consent calendar is brought to a vote, the bills remaining on the consent calendar must be read by number and summary and the vote must be taken on their final passage as a group.

Reserved.

General File.

All bills reported to the Assembly, by either standing or special committees, after receiving their second readings shall be placed upon a General File, to be kept by the Chief Clerk. No bill shall be considered by the Assembly until the regular order of business shall have been gone through. Then bills shall be taken from the General File and acted upon in the order in which they were reported, unless otherwise specially ordered by the Assembly. But engrossed bills shall be placed at the head of the file, in the order in which they are received. The Chief Clerk shall post, in a conspicuous place in the chamber, a daily statement of the bills on the General File, setting forth the order in which they are filed, and specifying the alterations arising from the disposal of business each day. He shall likewise post notices of special orders as made.

Reconsideration of Vote on Bill.

On the first legislative day that the Assembly is in session succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill or resolution has been taken, a vote may be reconsidered on the motion of any member. Notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall be given on the day on which such final vote was taken by a member voting with the prevailing party. It shall not be in order for any member to move a reconsideration on the day on which such final vote was taken, except by unanimous consent. But there shall be no reconsideration of a vote on a motion to indefinitely postpone. Motions to reconsider a vote upon amendments to any pending question may be made at once.

Order of Business.

The Order of Business must be as follows:

1. Roll Call.
2. Reading and Approval of Journal.
3. Presentation of Petitions.
4. Reports of Standing Committees.
5. Reports of Select Committees.

6. Communications.
7. Messages from the Senate.
8. Motions, Resolutions and Notices.
9. Introduction, First Reading and Reference.
10. Consent Calendar.
11. Second Reading and Amendment.
12. General File and Third Reading.
13. Unfinished Business of Preceding Day.
14. Special Orders of the Day.
15. Remarks from the Floor, limited to 10 minutes.

122

Privileged Questions.

Privileged questions shall have precedence of all others in the following order:

1. Motions to fix the time to which the Assembly shall adjourn.
2. Motions to adjourn.
3. Questions relating to the rights and privileges of the Assembly or any of its members.
4. A call of the House.
5. Motions for special orders.

Privilege of Closing Debate.

The author of a bill, resolution or a main question shall have the privilege of closing the debate, unless the previous question has been sustained.

Vetoed Bills.

Bills which have passed both Houses of the Legislature and are transmitted to the Assembly accompanied by a message or statement of the Governor's disapproval or veto of the same, shall be taken up and considered immediately upon the coming in of the message transmitting the same, or shall become the subject of a special order, and when the message is received, or (if made a special order) when the special order is called, the said message or statement shall be read together with the bill or bills so disapproved or vetoed; and the message and bill shall be read by the Chief Clerk without interruption, consecutively, one following the other, and not upon separate occasions; and no such bill or message shall be referred to any committee, or otherwise acted upon save as provided by law and custom; that is to say, that immediately following such reading the only question (except as hereinafter stated) which shall be put by the [Speaker] Speakers is, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?" It shall not be in order, at any time, to vote upon such vetoed bill without the same shall first have been read, from the first word of its title to and including the last word of its final section; and no motion shall be entertained after the [Speaker has] Speakers have stated the question, save a motion to adjourn or a motion for the previous question, but the merits of the bill itself may be debated. The message or statement containing the objections of the Governor to the bill shall be entered upon the Journal of the Assembly. The consideration of a vetoed bill, and the objections of the Governor thereto, shall be a privileged question, and shall take precedence over all others.

IX. LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATIONS AND MISCELLANEOUS

Compensation of Witnesses.

Witnesses summoned to appear before the Assembly or any of its committees shall be compensated as provided by law for witnesses required to attend in the courts of the State of Nevada.

Use of the Assembly Chamber.

The Assembly Chamber shall not be used for any public or private business other than legislative, except by permission of the Assembly.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Giunchigliani:

Amendment No. 1.

Amend the resolution, page 7, line 2, after "committee." by inserting: "If such a bill or resolution is reported out of committee without a recommendation for action, the Assembly shall resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole and receive relevant public testimony before the bill or resolution is read for the third time on the floor of the Assembly.".

Assemblyman Giunchigliani moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Giunchigliani and Sandoval.

Assemblyman Bache requested that Assemblyman Giunchigliani's remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Amendment No. 1 which would require public input. It may seem innocuous to some of you, but in the interest of preserving public input testimony and open government, I believe we must make the effort to require testimony during the committee of the whole.

I will note that I continue to be opposed to this rule of having ties go to the floor. But if that's the deal that was made, then we have an obligation to preserve public input. I offer this amendment for the following reasons:

1. Ties to the floor abandons our underlying fundamental democratic principle of majority rule. Government seems to have abandoned many principles—we can't afford another. Majority rule assures that the legislation has some value (policy or otherwise), and that at least a majority considers it worthwhile to move forward for full debate. It saves taxpayer money and streamlines the process.

2. Also, ties don't die in committee, the bill is alive until it receives a majority to pass it out or to indefinitely postpone it. Don't be fooled by those who claim that due to the 21–21 ties this rule is necessary. It flies in the face of open government and cooperative government. It assumes controversy and partisanship. It doesn't keep a hammer over the committee's head to reach compromise, which is the premise for co-chairing. It negates the committee structure—which exists first and foremost for public input. Second, it affects a committee's ability to streamline our process by assessing the bill is good public policy. Third, it causes legislators to take the easy way out. Fourth, it absolutely lets lobbyists have even more control of the legislature than it does now! They no longer have to work to secure a majority vote. All they have to do is make a deal to force a tie. We need less lobbyist interference, not more. This rule is the lobbyist full employment act. During negotiations, our suggestion of a committee of the whole was accepted, which I appreciate. Unfortunately, it only came back as may go to a committee of the whole and may allow public testimony. It doesn't go far enough. That's why I'm offering this amendment. The arguments given during negotiation were "not everyone gets to hear all the information," or due to 21–21, some votes will be partisan, so we need to go to the floor to get another shot at the issue. Well, in order to have good government, you need open government. Therefore, by deleting and inserting shall, you'll make everyone listen to the bill, its history and testimony. And you'll assure that the public, whom we serve, not the lobbyists, will have another opportunity to promote legislation which is hopefully based on good policy, not rhetoric and partisanship. Opponents to changing may to shall will probably say it will be too cumbersome, or it will take too much time. We were elected to do a job and do it fairly with full consideration, not swiftness at the expense of common sense. Therefore, I urge you to support the amendment to Rule 42.

Amendment lost.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Tiffany, Batten, Anderson, Dini and Perkins.

Assemblyman Anderson requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of A.R. No. 3, and I don't want there to be any confusion about it. However, I am a little concerned about the rhetoric of some of the previous statements. I believe that indeed the last few weeks have been filled with a great deal of compromise and agreement, but I believe that there has been a misstatement in terms of the public being excluded from the previous deliberations. In fact, that is not the case, even though the media often focuses on this particular body, and not on the real work of where the legislature takes place, that is in committee where the people do have the opportunity to give testimony. That body has always been open for the citizens of this state.

I believe this is a new age. I believe this is an age where we all can work together. This has been the hallmark of Nevada legislators. Nevada legislators, whether they be from the North or the South; whether they be Democrats or Republicans. It's the harmony to do for all the people of this state regardless of their political affiliations. It is indeed the spirit of that that makes me rise in support of this document. The new age in which we speak happens every two years in this Chamber. It's that new life that we always have to continue to breathe into this document. I'm concerned that this has not been made clear; the people always have the opportunity to approach these Chambers. I want to be sure these remarks are included in the record.

Resolution adopted.

By Assemblymen Dini, Bache, Manendo, Spitler, Krenzer, Chowning, de Braga, Giunchigliani, Neighbors, Price, Perkins, Marvel, Hettrick, Monaghan, Close and Segerblom:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 14—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to require that the Governor and the Lieutenant Governor be affiliated with the same political party and be elected jointly.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That sections 2, 4 and 17 of article 5 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read respectively as follows:

[Sec:] Sec. 2. The Governor [shall] and Lieutenant Governor must be affiliated with the same political party and must be elected jointly by the casting by each qualified [electors] elector of a single vote applicable to both offices at the time and places of voting for members of the Legislature . [, and] The Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall hold [his] office for [Four Years] four years from the time of [his] their installation, and until [his successor shall be] their successors are qualified. Each candidate for Governor shall file jointly with a candidate for Lieutenant Governor in primary elections, or otherwise comply with nomination procedures provided by law so that the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor are voted upon together in primary and general elections.

[Section] Sec. 4. The returns of every election for United States senator and member of Congress, district and state officers, and for and against any questions submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada, voted for at the general election, shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government, directed to the secretary of state, and the chief justice of the supreme court, and the associate justices, or a majority thereof, shall meet at the office of the secretary of state, on a day to be fixed by law, and open and canvass the election returns for United States senator and member of Congress, district and state officers, and for and against any questions submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada, and forthwith declare the result and publish the names of the persons elected and the results of the vote cast upon any question submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada. The persons or, in the case of the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, the team of persons having the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected, but in case any two or more persons or teams have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the legislature shall, by joint vote of both houses, elect one of [said persons to fill said office.] the persons or teams to fill the office or offices.

[Sec: 17. A] Sec. 17. The eligibility of the Lieutenant Governor [shall be elected at the same time and places and in the same manner as the Governor and his term of Office, and his eligibility, shall also be the same. He] is the same as that of the Governor. The Lieutenant Governor shall be President of the Senate, but shall only have a casting vote therein. If during a Vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant Governor shall be impeached [,] or displaced, shall resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of the office, or be absent from the State, the President pro-tempore of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy [be] is filled or the disability [cease.] ceases.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That section 22 of article 17 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 22. In case the office of any State officer, except the Lieutenant Governor or a judicial officer, shall become vacant before the expiration of the regular term for which he was elected, the vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Governor until it shall be supplied at the next general election, when it shall be filled by election for the residue of the unexpired term. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, the person appointed as Lieutenant Governor by the Governor shall hold office until the next general election in which a Governor is elected.

Assemblyman Dini moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

THE NINTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), January 24, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:07 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblymen Freeman and Marvel, who were excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Al Tilstra.

Almighty God, Creator of all things, giver of every good and perfect gift, hear us today as we seek Your blessing on the deliberations of this body. Hear us when we pray for all those in places of influence and authority, that they may do right. Guide those who lead us, and touch them with Your wisdom that their faith may be revived; their hope renewed and their vision made clear and challenging. May it be that no one here would add to the problems that are faced, but rather by Your help, to become part of the answer. So help us God. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Buckley requested that Assemblyman Goldwater's remarks be entered in the Journal.

I rise today on a somber note. The University of Nevada, Las Vegas, as well as the State of Nevada has experienced a loss. Dr. Murray Rothbard, who was a giant in the field of Economics and had a magnanimous personality has recently passed away. I first came in contact with Dr. Rothbard when I was in college. I purchased some textbooks. One was called, A Man, the Economy and State which was a treatise on Economics. Dr. Rothbard was the author, and I had gone into my office, which then consisted of a shower and sink, to read my first textbook. I read it for the first time almost cover-to-cover and didn't get any sleep. This man's ideas and thoughts were absolutely enthralling. He is considered an authority in the world on the history of economic thought. A Man, the Economy and State was not his only work. The month before his death he sent to press his second volume of the history of economic thought, which will be considered the authority on that particular discipline. He also published America's Great Depression which is a very controversial book on what caused America's depression. He was a very conservative thinker, almost conservative to the point of anarchy, who didn't believe in military, just thought government free market truly worked. Murray Rothbard was an inspiration to students and an inspiration to the community alike. His body of work will certainly live on to inspire, teach and motivate generations in the future. His ideas will endure to enrich our lives.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

SIGNING OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

There being no objections, the Speakers and Chief Clerk signed Assembly Resolutions Nos. 1, 2; Senate Bill No. 1; Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 1.

LYNN C. HETTRICK
Speaker of the Assembly

Attest: MOURYNE B. LANDING
Chief Clerk of the Assembly

THE TENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), January 25, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:06 a.m.

Speaker Hettrick presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Freeman, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Lance Whitehurst.

Let us pray: God, please be with this group today, guide and direct them. As You have blessed this state since its gaining statehood, I pray that You will continue to bless these men and women as they try to make this a better place to live and raise a family. We ask all this in Your Holy and Precious Name. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen Segerblom, Ohrenschall, Giunchigliani, Spitler, Anderson, Marvel, Arberry, Goldwater, de Braga, Neighbors, Buckley, Bennett, Manendo, Bache, Harrington, Krenzer, Schneider, Williams, Price, Evans and Batten:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16—Urging Congress to eliminate inequities in the payment of social security benefits based on the year that persons initially become eligible for such benefits.

Assemblyman Segerblom moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

By Assemblyman Hettrick:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 3—Directing certain state agencies to cooperate with the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency and the local governments in the Lake Tahoe Basin and to provide information within their fields of responsibility.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Affairs.

Motion carried.

By Assemblyman Hettrick:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 4—Directing the Legislative Commission to appoint a committee to continue the review of the Tahoe Regional Planning Compact, including a review of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency and the federal and state agencies that regulate activities in the Lake Tahoe Basin.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

By Assemblyman Hettrick:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 5—Expressing the support of the Nevada Legislature for the participation of the Department of Transportation in certain projects in the Lake Tahoe Basin.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Transportation.

Motion carried.

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 6—Adopting the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 68th session of the Legislature.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as amended by the 67th session are adopted, with the following changes, as the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 68th session of the Legislature:

COMMITTEES OF CONFERENCE

To Be Appointed by One House at Request of the Other.

In every case of an amendment of a bill, or joint or concurrent resolution, agreed to in one House, dissented from in the other, and not receded from by the one making the amendment, each House shall appoint a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the other; and the committee so appointed shall meet publicly at a convenient hour to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen and announced publicly, and shall confer upon the differences between the two Houses as indicated by the amendments made in one and rejected in the other and report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective Houses. The report shall be made available to all members of both Houses. The whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be considered by the committee, and it may recommend recession by either House, new amendments, new bills or resolutions, or other changes as it sees fit. New bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments unless the bills or resolutions are composed entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treatment required in the respective Houses for original bills, or resolutions, as the case may be.

The report of a conference committee may be adopted by acclamation, and such action may be considered equivalent to the adoption of amendments embodied therein. The report is not subject to amendment. If either House refuses to adopt the report, or if the first conference committee has so recommended, a second conference committee may be appointed. No member who served on the first committee may be appointed to the second.

There shall be but two committees of conference on any bill or resolution. A majority of the members of a committee of conference from each House must be members who voted for the passage of the bill or resolution.

Procedure Concerning.

Proclamations by the Governor convening the Legislature in extra session shall, by direction of the presiding officer of each House, be read immediately after the convening thereof, filed and entered in full upon the Journal of proceedings.

Whenever a message from the Governor is received, the Sergeant at Arms will announce: "Mr. President, or Mr. Speaker, the Secretary of the Governor is at the bar."

The secretary will, upon being recognized by the presiding officer, announce: "Mr. President, or Mr. Speaker, a message from His Excellency, the Governor of Nevada, to the Honorable, the Senate or Assembly," and hand same to the Sergeant at Arms for delivery to the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly. The presiding officer will direct the biennial message of the Governor to be received and read, and all special messages to be received, read and entered in full upon the Journal of proceedings.

Messages from the Senate to the Assembly shall be delivered by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary, and messages from the Assembly to the Senate shall be delivered by the Chief Clerk or Assistant Clerk, who shall be announced by the doorkeeper, enter within the bar, announce and deliver his message.

BILLS

Communications.

Each House shall communicate its final action on any bill or resolution, or matter in which the other may be interested, in writing, signed by the Secretary or Clerk of the House from which such notice is sent.

BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Signature.

Each enrolled bill or joint resolution shall be presented to the presiding officers of both Houses for signature. They shall, after announcement is made of their intention to do so, sign it in open session and their signatures shall be followed by those of the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

Reserved.

PRINTING

Each House may order the printing of bills introduced, reports of its own committees, and other matter pertaining to that House only; but no other printing may be ordered except by a concurrent resolution passed by both Houses. Each Senator is entitled to the free distribution of four copies of each bill introduced in each House, and each Assemblyman to such a distribution of two copies. Additional copies of such bills may be distributed at a charge to the person to whom they are addressed. The amount charged for distribution of the additional copies must be determined by the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau to approximate the cost of handling and postage for the entire session.

1. A joint resolution must be used to:

(a) Propose an amendment to the Nevada constitution.

(b) Ratify a proposed amendment to the United States Constitution.

(c) Address the President of the United States, Congress, either House or any committee or member of Congress, any department or agency of the Federal Government, or any other state of the Union.

2. A concurrent resolution must be used to:

(a) Amend these joint rules.

(b) Request the return from the Governor of an enrolled bill for further consideration.

(c) Resolve that the return of a bill from one House to the other House is necessary and appropriate.

(d) Express facts, principles, opinion and purposes of the Senate and Assembly.

(e) Establish a joint committee of the two Houses.

(f) Direct the Legislative Commission to conduct an interim study.

3. A concurrent resolution or a resolution of one House may be used to:

(a) Memorialize a former member of the Legislature or other notable or distinguished person upon his death.

(b) Congratulate or commend any person or organization for a significant and meritorious accomplishment, but any request for drafting the resolution must be approved by the Senate Committee on Legislative Affairs and Operations or the Assembly Committee on Elections and Procedures before submission to the Legislative Counsel.

VETOES

Special Order.

Bills which have passed a previous Legislature, and which are transmitted to the Legislature next sitting, accompanied by a message or statement of the Governor's disapproval, or veto of the same, shall become the subject of a special order; and when the special order for their consideration is reached and called, the said message or statement shall be read, together with the bill or bills so disposed or vetoed; and the message and bill shall be read by the Clerk without interruption, consecutively, one following the other, and not upon separate occasions; and no such bill or message shall be referred to any committee, or otherwise acted upon, save as provided by law and custom; that is to say, that immediately following such reading the only question (except as hereinafter stated) which shall be put by the Chair is, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?" It shall not be in order, at any time, to vote upon such vetoed bill without the same shall have first been read, from the first word of its title to and including the last word of its final section; and no motion shall be entertained after the Chair has stated the question save a motion for "The previous question," but the merits of the bill itself may be debated.

ADJOURNMENT

1. In calculating the permissible duration of an adjournment for 3 days or less, the day of adjournment must not be counted but the day of the next meeting must be counted, and Sunday must not be counted.

2. The Legislature may adjourn for more than 3 days by concurrent resolution. One or more such adjournments, for a total of not more than 20 days during any regular session, may be taken to permit standing committees, select committees or the Legislative Counsel Bureau to prepare the matters respectively entrusted to them for the consideration of the Legislature as a whole.

3. In addition to any adjournment taken pursuant to subsection 2, after the first 19 calendar days of a regular legislative session, the Legislature shall adjourn until the 36th calendar day of the regular session in accordance with NRS 218.115. During this adjournment, the Senate Standing Committee on Finance and the Assembly Standing Committee on Ways and Means shall hold hearings in both the mornings and afternoons to consider the budgets of the major agencies of the state. The two committees shall, when practicable, meet jointly while maintaining majorities of both committees. During this adjournment all other standing committees may hold hearings at any place in the state on legislative measures or on any general topic which is pertinent to possible legislative action.

4. During the adjournment taken pursuant to subsection 3:

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Senate Standing Rule No. 92 and Assembly Standing Rule No. 92, an agenda may be revised by the chairman of a committee to add or delete any item at any time on the day before the meeting. The revised agenda must be posted at the place of the meeting, and must appear in the daily history when the Legislature reconvenes.

(b) Actions taken by committees have the same effect as actions taken while the Legislature is in session.

EXPENDITURES FROM THE LEGISLATIVE FUND

Except for routine salary, travel, equipment and operating expenses, no expenditures shall be made from the Legislative Fund without the authority of a Concurrent Resolution regularly adopted by the Senate and Assembly.

LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION

1. When members of the minority party in the Senate or in the Assembly comprise less than 34 percent of the total number elected to that House, minority party membership for that House on the Legislative Commission must be:

(a) One, if such membership is less than 21 percent.

(b) Two, if such membership is between 21 percent and 33 percent.

If the members of the minority party in the Senate or in the Assembly comprise more than 33 percent of the total number elected to that House, minority party membership for that House on the Commission must be three, being equal to the membership of the majority party.

2. Each House shall select one or more alternate members for each member from that House, designating them according to party or according to the individual member whom the alternate would replace.

3. A vacancy in the regular Senate or Assembly membership created by death or by resignation or by the Legislator's ceasing to be a member of the Legislature shall be filled by the proper alternate member as designated by that House. If there is no proper alternate member, the Legislative Commission shall fill the vacancy by appointing a Senator or Assemblyman of the same party.

4. If for any reason a member is or will be absent from a meeting and there are no alternates available, the chairman of the commission may appoint a member of the same House and political party to attend the meeting as an alternate.

5. The members shall serve until their successors are appointed by resolution as provided in NRS 218.660, notwithstanding that their terms of office may have expired, except that the membership of any member who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is defeated for reelection shall terminate on the day next after the election and the vacancy shall be filled as provided in this rule.

6. The chairman shall be selected at the first meeting of the newly formed Legislative Commission and shall serve until his successor is appointed following the formation of the next Legislative Commission.

RECORDING COMMITTEE PROCEEDINGS ON AUDIO TAPE

1. Each standing committee of the Legislature shall record on audio tape the proceedings of its meetings.

2. The secretary of a standing committee shall:

(a) Label each tape with the date, time and place of the meeting and also indicate on the label the numerical sequence in which the tape was recorded;

(b) Keep the tapes in chronological order; and

(c) Deposit the tapes immediately following the final adjournment of any regular or special session of the Legislature with the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau.

3. The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau shall:

(a) Index the tapes;

(b) Make the tapes available for listening by any person during office hours under such reasonable conditions as he may deem necessary;

(c) Maintain a log as a public record containing the date, time, name and address of any person listening to any tapes and identifying the tapes listened to; and

(d) Retain the tapes for two bienniums and at the end of that period dispose of the tapes in any manner he deems reasonable.

REAPPORTIONMENT

The Committee on Government Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on Elections and Procedures of the Assembly are respectively responsible for measures which primarily affect the designation of the districts from which members are elected to the Legislature. Any request for research concerning the population of proposed districts must be submitted to the Research Division of the Legislative Counsel Bureau through one of these committees.

LIMITATION ON INTRODUCTION AND REQUESTS FOR DRAFTING OF LEGISLATIVE MEASURES

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, any request submitted, after a regular legislative session has convened, to the Legislative Counsel for the drafting of a bill or resolution will not be honored by the Legislative Counsel unless the request is approved by:

(a) A two-thirds vote of the members present in the House where it is to be introduced; or

(b) A standing committee of that House if the request was approved by two-thirds of all of the members of the committee before the request was submitted to the Legislative Counsel. A standing committee may only request the drafting of a bill or resolution or introduce a bill or resolution that is within the jurisdiction of the standing committee.

2. After a regular legislative session has convened, the Legislative Counsel shall honor not more than 5 requests from each Assemblyman and not more than 10 requests from each Senator for the drafting of a bill or resolution which has not received the approval required by subsection 1.

3. After the first 10 calendar days of a regular legislative session, bills and joint resolutions may be introduced by:

(a) Standing committees without consent. A measure introduced by a standing committee must indicate the person or organization at whose request the measure was drafted.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, a member who had requested the drafting of the bill or resolution by the Legislative Counsel before the [11th] 16th calendar day of the legislative session.

4. The following measures must be introduced by a standing committee:

(a) Measures drafted at the request of agencies and officers of the executive branch of state government, local governments, the courts and other authorized nonlegislative requesters.

(b) Measures requested by interim legislative studies.

(c) Bills and joint resolutions requested by a standing committee, or by persons designated to request measures on behalf of a standing committee during the interim. Bills and joint resolutions requested by or on behalf of a standing committee must be introduced by that committee.

5. Simple and concurrent resolutions requested by or on behalf of a standing committee may be introduced by an individual member.

6. If two or more measures are being considered in the same house which are subtantively duplicative, only the measure which has been assigned the lowest number for the purpose of establishing its priority in drafting may be considered, unless the measure with the lowest number is not introduced within 5 days after introduction of a measure with a higher number.

7. A legislator may not change the subject matter of a request for a legislative measure after it has been submitted for drafting.

8. Consent to suspend this rule may be given only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the House where it is to be introduced, which must be entered in its Journal for that day, and the consent may apply to no more than one bill or resolution or request for drafting.

CONTINUATION OF LEADERSHIP OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY DURING THE INTERIM BETWEEN SESSIONS

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, the tenure of the President pro Tem, Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the Senate and the Speaker, Speaker pro Tem, Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the Assembly extends during the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature.

2. The Senators designated to be the President pro Tem, Majority Leader and Minority Leader for the next succeeding regular session shall perform any statutory duty required in the period between the time of their designation after the general election and the organization of the next succeeding regular session of the Legislature if the Senator formerly holding the respective position is no longer a Legislator.

3. The Assemblymen designated to be the Speaker, Speaker pro Tem, Majority Leader and Minority Leader for the next succeeding regular session shall perform any statutory duty required in the period between the time of their designation after the general election and the organization of the next succeeding regular session.

TIME LIMITATIONS ON INTRODUCTION OF LEGISLATION REQUESTED BY STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, on the first legislative day, the Legislative Counsel shall randomly deliver, in equal amounts, all legislative measures drafted at the request of any state agency or department or any local government to the Majority Leader of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly for consideration for introduction. Bill drafts delivered pursuant to this subsection may not be introduced after the 15th legislative day.

2. Any legislative measure properly requested in accordance with NRS 218.241 and 218.245 by any state agency or department or any local government which has not been drafted before the first legislative day must, upon completion, be immediately and randomly delivered, in equal amounts, by the Legislative Counsel to the Majority Leader of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly for consideration for introduction. Bill drafts delivered pursuant to this subsection may be introduced only during the 15 legislative days following delivery.

DATE OF FIRST JOINT BUDGET HEARING

The first joint meeting of the Senate Standing Committee on Finance and the Assembly Standing Committee on Ways and Means to consider the budgets of the agencies of the state must be held on or before the 92nd calendar day of the regular session.

CRITERIA FOR REVIEWING BILLS THAT REQUIRE POLICIES OF HEALTH INSURANCE TO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR CERTAIN TREATMENT OR SERVICES

Any standing committee of the Senate or Assembly to which a bill is referred requiring a policy of health insurance delivered or issued for delivery in this state to provide coverage for any treatment or service shall review the bill giving consideration to:

1. The level of public demand for the treatment or service for which coverage is required and the extent to which such coverage is needed in this state;

2. The extent to which coverage for the treatment or service is currently available;

3. The extent to which the required coverage may increase or decrease the cost of the treatment or service;

4. The effect the required coverage will have on the cost of obtaining policies of health insurance in this state;

5. The effect the required coverage will have on the cost of health care provided in this state; and

6. Such other considerations as are necessary to determine the fiscal and social impact of requiring coverage for the treatment or service.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Manendo requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHOWNING:

It is my extreme pleasure to introduce to you a lady, Ruth Stringer, who has spent 39½ years in education. She is the past president of the retired teachers, and is presently the legislative chairman for the Southern Nevada Retired Teachers. She is a constituent of my colleague, Assemblyman Monaghan.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I don't have my own guest to introduce, but I wish to join in Mrs. Chowning's tribute to Ruth Stringer. Ruth Stringer has been recognized as Nevada's School Teacher of the Year. In her career as a school teacher, teaching in an economically deprived area, she saw fit to take children who were in her class, not only tutoring them but taking them into her home. She taught them life skills and took them across the country, so they could see these United States. In general, she gave of herself in an inspirational way that is rarely found. Since she stopped teaching, she has seen fit to contribute to senior citizens by spearheading the VITA Income Tax Assistance Program in southern Nevada. She is a great lady.

SPECIAL ORDERS OF THE DAY

The hour of 10:15 a.m. having arrived, vetoed Assembly Bills Nos. 359 and 687 of the 67th Session were considered.

Vetoed Assembly Bill No. 359 of the 67th Session.

Bill read.

Governor's message stating his objections read.

STATE OF NEVADA
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER
CARSON CITY, NEVADA 89710

July 13, 1993

THE HONORABLE CHERYL LAU, Secretary of State, Capitol Building, Carson City, Nevada 89710

DEAR SECRETARY LAU:

I am herewith forwarding to your office, for filing within the Constitutional time limit, and without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 359 entitled:

> An act relating to the program of deferred compensation for state employees; making various changes regarding the committee established to administer the program; limiting the authority to make withdrawals from the program; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

This bill is positive in its attempts to improve the deferred compensation program. However, section 5, subsection 3(a), requires the committee hire a private consultant which is expected to cost the deferred compensation fund approximately a hundred thousand dollars or more each year. The committee would be required to hire this consultant even though the true need for such an individual or corporation has yet to be determined. Certainly, the committee presently has the authority, should they see the need, to hire such a consultant today. Discretionary authority is fine; the mandate is unacceptable.

The cost of this consultant would come directly out of the pockets of the state employees who invest in this program. It would reduce their retirement income. These employees have said they appreciate the value of this investment program but want us to avoid driving up the overhead costs.

Sincerely,

BOB MILLER
Governor

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Motion carried.

Assembly in recess at 10:18 a.m.

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 10:28 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Quorum present.

The question was put: "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

Remarks by Assemblyman Bache.

The roll was called, and the Assembly sustained the veto of the Governor by the following vote:

YEAS—None.

NAYS—Allard, Anderson, Arberry, Bache, Batten, Bennett, Braunlin, Brower, Buckley, Carpenter, Chowning, Close, de Braga, Ernaut, Evans, Fettic, Freeman, Giunchigliani, Goldwater, Harrington, Humke, Krenzer, Lambert, Manendo, Marvel, Monaghan, Neighbors, Nolan, Ohrenschall, Perkins, Price, Sandoval, Schneider, Segerblom, Spitler, Steel, Stroth, Tiffany, Tripple, Williams, Mr. Speaker Dini, Mr. Speaker Hettrick—42.

Vetoed Assembly Bill No. 687 of the 67th Session.

Bill read.

Governor's message stating his objections read.

STATE OF NEVADA
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER
CARSON CITY, NEVADA 89710

July 14, 1993

THE HONORABLE CHERYL LAU, Secretary of State, Capitol Building, Carson City, Nevada 89710

DEAR SECRETARY LAU:

I am herewith forwarding to your office, for filing within the Constitutional time limit, and without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 687 entitled:

> An act relating to tenancies; lessening the length of a notice to quit for certain short-term tenancies; requiring landlords to have a notice to quit delivered in person to certain tenants; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Any legislation affecting the stability or tenure of an individual's residence must be carefully scrutinized for its potential impact on that individual. Furthermore, any changes to existing law regarding the right to evict must be conservative in its approach.

This bill's attempt to address the concerns of landlords regarding delayed weekly rental payments skews the delicate balance between property owners' rights and tenants' needs. AB 687 constitutes too drastic a step for my support.

For example, the requirement that the landlord's two day eviction right last a full 120 days is excessive. After all, according to state law, a person is considered permanent enough to vote after only 30 days residence. If that person is stable enough to vote, they should be considered stable enough to be protected by the existing eviction notice period.

At a bare minimum, to be fair the bill should have required all notices delivered under the newly allowed two day standard to be personally delivered.

Sincerely,

BOB MILLER
Governor

The question was put: "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

Remarks by Assemblymen Carpenter, Evans, Giunchigliani, Arberry and Buckley.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Assembly Bill No. 687, during the last session received a very fair hearing. We had testimony from all sides. The Judiciary Committee worked very hard on this measure to make sure that everyone was protected. The Governor saw fit to veto it. At this time, we will be coming back with another bill and have more hearings so everybody can give their input. I felt it was a fair bill and did have a great deal of hearings last time and so, I will be voting to override the Governor's veto. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Governor's veto of Assembly Bill No. 687. The bill reduces the notice period for non-payment of rent evictions in weekly rentals from five to two days. The bill has raised a number of concerns. Mainly, that it may be unconstitutional because a court can evict tenants who may have no advance notice of the proceedings.

In terms of unconstitutionality of the bill, perhaps the most fundamental principal of due process of law is that a person may have a property right, here a tenancy, taken away without advance notice of legal proceedings, so that he or she may have the opportunity to appear and defend.

Under Assembly Bill No. 687, to evict a tenant for non-payment of rent, the landlord must first attempt personal service of a two day notice to quit. If a tenant is not at home, the landlord is authorized to "nail and mail." That simply means, he is to leave a copy of the notice on the premises by sticking it in the door, tacking it to a wall, etc. As proof, the landlord must have the signature of a witness to the attempted service. This requirement is easily evaded. A tenant cannot prove or disprove the alleged attempt.

Under current law, the landlord must, in addition to attempting personal service, mail a notice to the tenant and obtain a Certificate of Mailing from the Post Office. There is, therefore, some protection for the tenant. Current law requires a notice of five judicial days, which in actuality, means a minimum of eight calendar days. Unless the mail is misdirected, this period assures that the tenant gets actual notice in time to file an affidavit with the court if he or she asserts a defense. If no defense is raised, the tenant at least knows that he or she is being evicted before the sheriff shows up at the door.

Under Assembly Bill No. 687, however, a landlord may mail a notice on Monday and receive an Order on Wednesday at noon removing the tenant within 24 hours. Even in urban areas, it is highly unlikely that the tenant will receive this mailed notice before noon of the second day after service. In rural areas, where mail must be routed through Reno or Las Vegas, the problem is even worse. Under the above scenario, it is absolutely clear that in many cases each year, tenants may be put out in the streets before they even know an eviction process has begun. It seems to me that this bill is unconstitutional, and the Governor was wise to veto it.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The genesis of Assembly Bill No. 687 is a result of changing the intent of language from a bill that I introduced last session, Assembly Bill No. 325. Rather than trying to build equity and due process as Assembly Bill No. 325 was attempting to do without harming apartment managers and apartment owners, the committee chose to introduce another bill that focused mostly on the time periods and affect on motels.

My district is unique, and my constituents are egregiously affected by the bill, and that is why I support sustaining the Governor's veto.

After my election, many of you heard or read statements by my opponent that people who lived in daily or weekly motels were registered to vote. I countered that these statements smacked of establishing a "wealth factor" for voter registration. I stated that I commended these people for exercising their constitutional right to register to vote, to enroll their children in school and to provide them the best home they are financially able. Approximately one quarter of my district houses motels and seniors, and families of working poor claim these as homes. It is my job as an Assemblywoman to try and balance their needs, along with apartment owners and apartment managers.

In fact, I believe there needs to be a due process for apartment managers in order to properly evict, but I do not believe Assembly Bill No. 687 was the answer.

Not only is this bill probably unconstitutional, it is also unfair. Presently, tenants have five judicial days or eight calendar days in which to pay back rent and avoid eviction.

Proponents of this bill will tell you that it hurts the small landlords. In reality, however, some of our largest landlords, especially in Clark County, have very profitable, large operations. For example, a 1,000 unit complex in Las Vegas offers weekly rentals of $149.50 for a studio, and $169.50 for a one bedroom. Landlords are frequently able to make more money on weekly rentals than by renting the same apartment on a monthly basis. For example, the $169.50 weekly one bedroom rental would translate to $734.50 a month.

There is a large market for weekly rentals because the working poor are often unable to put aside the funds necessary to rent monthly. A monthly rental virtually always requires a month's rent in advance, and in addition may require a second month's rent or security deposit. This means there is a need to put aside $500 to $1,250 in order to move in. The working poor are usually paid weekly, however, and find it very difficult to save this sum.

Apartment managers, being human beings, are subject to the same foibles as others. They can be guilty of discriminatory attitudes, personality conflicts with particular tenants, or a wish to cover their own mistakes. Tenants' rent payments may be lost, tender of payment may be refused, or a genuine dispute over the amount owed may exist. In these cases, tenants should have the right not only as a matter of constitutional law, but of fundamental fairness to have their day in court to raise these defenses.

There has also been much misinformation circulated by proponents of this bill that so-called professional tenants take advantage of the current system to live rent free. They indicate that if a tenant does file an affidavit, a court may not schedule a hearing for weeks. In truth, the average time for a hearing to be scheduled after the tenant files an affidavit is two days in Las Vegas and three days in Carson City. In Reno, the hearing is the first Monday after the notice expires. Current law, at NRS 118A.490, allows a landlord to petition a judge to require that current rent which comes due be paid into court if the hearing is continued.

Assuming that there may be a handful of so-called professional tenants floating around, there is no need to change the law for the many to cure this problem. Testimony before Assembly Judiciary in the last session indicated that in 93 percent of all cases, the landlord obtained possession without any contest. There was no testimony to show that any significant percentage of the 7 percent of tenants who did file affidavits did so in bad faith. If "professional tenants" do exist, it would seem that landlords have the responsibility of protecting themselves through credit checks prior to renting. The burden should not fall on the vast majority of tenants, nor on society.

Assembly Bill No. 687 is unfair. I urge you to sustain the Governor's veto.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARBERRY:

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Governor's veto of Assembly Bill No. 687. I share the concern of a number of cities and advocacy groups that the bill would contribute to homelessness. Increased homelessness would of course mean additional burdens for local taxpayers and already strapped social service agencies. This concern lead a number of groups to either oppose Assembly Bill No. 687 in the Senate last session, or ask the Governor to veto it. Included were: The cities of Las Vegas, Reno, Henderson and Sparks; the Alliance of the Mentally Ill in Nevada, Southern Nevada Homeless Coalition; Henderson Allied Community Advocates; Nevada Women's Lobby; Women's Development Center; Project Restart; Salvation Armies of both Reno and Clark County; Nevada Legal Services; Catholic Community Services of Nevada; and the Economic Opportunity Board of Clark County.

Proponents of this bill would have you believe that the primary reason that tenants fail to pay their rent is that they are either "deadbeats" or "professional tenants" trying to get something for nothing. The truth is that many of these tenants live on the edge of financial disaster and for a variety of reasons, many go over the edge. Tenants may not pay their rent on time due to delayed government checks, medical emergencies, family break-ups or wage disputes creates the necessity to put other bills first. For example, a car payment to avoid a repossession, etc. A period of two and a half days simply does not provide enough time to deal with these types of emergencies. Given a few extra days, tenants can often raise the money for rent: checks finally arrive, money can be borrowed, emergency relief can be obtained from the county or a charitable group, etc., or at least make arrangements for a new place to live. The failure to provide this extra time often means families are on the streets with no place to go.

This is the Year of the Family. The time period is simply too fast. Even if the tenant is personally served, two and a half days is too speedy and as Assemblywoman Evans said, many tenants will have no time at all. In our surrounding states, the shortest period of time from the moment the tenant is first notified that he or she is being evicted to the moment the sheriff or constable could lock them out is eight days. While the landlords deserve their property back if the rent cannot be paid, our larger society deserves an orderly process which does not create additional social problems.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In order to avoid even the appearance of a conflict, because I testified against Assembly Bill No. 687 in the Senate on behalf of individuals on fixed incomes, while employed as an attorney with Nevada Legal Services, I will be abstaining from voting.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I didn't think we were going to get into a prolonged debate on this issue. The committee heard all of this last time. We are going to hear it again. I thoroughly sympathize with those people that have a real problem and can't pay. The testimony that we heard was that the landlords are very sympathetic. I didn't hear of one instance in the testimony last year that these people were put out on the street. We don't want them out on the street. But on the other hand, the landlords are the one's that have to make the investment so that these people have a place to live in the first place. If we don't have places for them to live, then they are really out on the street. This bill was an attempt to get some balance into the situation. I think it has provided that. We heard in testimony that it did provide that. This debate will surely be carried on, but I feel I should rise for the second time, Mr. Speaker, because all landlords out there are not the people that have been portrayed by some of the speeches here today. There are two sides to this story, and we have to listen to it again. I'd like to say that if it wasn't for the landlords putting in the investment, these people would not have a place to stay. We have to have some balance. Thank you.

The roll was called, and the Assembly sustained the veto of the Governor by the following vote:

THE SEVENTEENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), February 1, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:06 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Al Tilstra.

Let us pray: Our Father, as we seek Your blessing, remind us that we cannot deceive ourselves. We dare not devise our own plans and draft our own schemes and then have the nerve to ask You to bless them, for we know that there are some things You will not and cannot bless. And unless Your blessing accompanies what we do here, we waste our time. So guide us in what we propose, so that You can bless us in what we produce. Through Your mighty Name we pray. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, January 31, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day passed, as amended, Senate Bill No. 66.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By the Committee on Ways and Means:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 8—Amending the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly to remove the provisions that require the Legislature to adjourn for 2 weeks during the legislative session.

Assemblyman Arberry moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

By Assemblymen Goldwater and Ohrenschall:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 9—Commending the Nevada Youth Baseball Association and urging the American Legion to award the bid to host the 1997 American Legion World Series Tournament to the Nevada Youth Baseball Association.

WHEREAS, This season marks the 70th anniversary of the founding of American Legion Baseball, an organization in which the youth of Nevada and her 49 sister states participate; and

WHEREAS, American Legion Baseball is the oldest and largest nationwide baseball program at the high school level in the United States, and has continued to grow rapidly with the formation of over 800 teams since 1987, including many teams created under the statewide jurisdiction of the Nevada Youth Baseball Association; and

WHEREAS, More than 1,000,000 participants have benefited from this program of service to the youth of America, including many youth in Nevada and almost 75 percent of all college baseball players and 66 percent of all major league baseball players; and

WHEREAS, In addition to improving the physical fitness and athletic prowess of the youth of America, American Legion Baseball strives to develop our youth in the areas of citizenship, sportsmanship, loyalty and team spirit; and

WHEREAS, American Legion Baseball enjoys a history of over 40 years in Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Youth Baseball Association has administered baseball programs in Nevada since 1990, including serving as statewide director of American Legion Baseball in Nevada since 1991; and

WHEREAS, In addition to administering Legion and Junior Legion programs and statewide tournaments, the Nevada Youth Baseball Association has significant experience staging larger events, including hosting the Western 8 Regional Tournaments in 1992, 1993 and 1995; and

WHEREAS, Cashman Field in Las Vegas, Nevada, with its extensive facilities, is equipped to handle the throngs of fans who will attend the American Legion World Series Tournament; and

WHEREAS, The efforts of the Nevada Youth Baseball Association to host the American Legion World Series Tournament have generated the enthusiastic support of the community for the event and have resulted in generous pledges to finance the bid from professional organizations and organizations providing community services; and

WHEREAS, The State of Nevada has never had the honor of hosting the American Legion World Series Tournament, and the Nevada Youth Baseball Association, in cooperation with the American Legion Department of Nevada and various other professional organizations and organizations providing community services, is prepared and eager to promote, support and host the American Legion World Series Tournament at Cashman Field in Las Vegas, Nevada; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature hereby commend the Nevada Youth Baseball Association for its commitment to the youth of Nevada and urge the American Legion to award to the Nevada Youth Baseball Association, and the various organizations cooperating with it, the bid to host at Cashman Field in Las Vegas, Nevada, the American Legion World Series Tournament, which commences on August 21, 1997; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to the Executive Director of the Nevada Youth Baseball Association, the National Executive Director of the American Legion and the members of the National Executive Committee of the American Legion that will award the bid for the 1997 American Legion World Series Tournament.

Assemblyman Goldwater moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Goldwater, Humke and Ohrenschall.

Assemblyman Ohrenschall requested that Assemblyman Goldwater's remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If I may, there are two points that may be overlooked. First, there is a time factor on Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 9. The bids are required by February 14, 1995. We would like to get this resolution passed as soon as possible, given the adjournment. The second point, Las Vegas was asked to submit a bid. They did not solicit the bid. They were solicited to submit this bid, so in no way does it conflict with the north. This brings me to my next two points. The reasons why this is so important, and why we would like the American Legion World Series in southern Nevada are, first of all, it is a very big event. It is televised nationally, and can do much to enhance and encourage tourism in southern Nevada. We have the facilities, not only the hotel room space, but also lovely Cashman Field which is very well kept. Assemblywoman Ohrenschall of District No. 12 has joined with me in introducing Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 9. Not only will this resolution help to encourage tourism and the positive aspects this will have on our community in southern Nevada, but additionally, the positive aspects that baseball and sports and other activities have on our communities. I personally feel that the issue of crime, which will be addressed in our Committee on Judiciary, will not be solved by the Committee on Judiciary, but will be solved on the baseball diamonds, football fields, basketball courts and schools in this state. This body recognizes that we encourage the participation in these activities, and I, therefore, move the adoption and encourage your vote on this concurrent resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Resolution adopted.

THE NINETEENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Friday), February 3, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:04 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Carpenter, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Al Tilstra.

Let us pray: In these morning hours, at the end of this week, we must come again for wisdom and strength. We have asked for Your guidance in difficult decisions, yet it has not always come when we thought it should. Many of the situations and relationships for which we have asked Your intervention have remained the same. Forgive us for thinking, therefore, that You are unwilling to help us in our dilemmas, or that there is nothing You can do. Remind us, that when we plug in an electric iron and it fails to work, we do not conclude that electricity has lost its power, nor do we plead with the iron. We look at once to the wiring to find what has broken or blocked the connection source of power. May we do the same ourselves, that You may continue to work through us to do Your will. This we ask in Your name. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Nolan requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm hoping to solicit your assistance in a small domestic affair, which I will have to deal with when I arrive in Las Vegas. Last week, when my wife, being late for work, was preparing our children to race out of the house, our number two son, four-year-old Joey whom many of you met as he made his way around the Chambers on opening day, was dawdling. Upon encouragement to try to rush him, he went that much slower. My wife said, "That's fine. I'm leaving." She took my youngest son out to the car and waited for Joey to appear. Fifteen minutes had passed and he never appeared, so she went back into the house to find him. She found him talking on the phone. When she queried to whom he was talking, he informed her that he had dialed 911 and had reported her for abandoning him.

It took some explanation with the seasoned operator who had answered the call to convince her that this was not the case. After hanging up, my four-year-old son, being very perceptive, realized that he was in for a good dose of judicious corporal punishment. Whereupon he said, "If you hit me or spank me, I'll call 911 again and tell them you are beating me." At that point, he won a stay, at least until I arrive home.

I'm hoping you can help me with this dilemma. Mr. Speaker, perhaps we can open the roll call, and those of you who would be in favor of seeing Mr. Joseph Michael Nolan receive one good swat for falsely reporting his mother to the 911 operator would vote yes. I would like to have a vote, either by saying aye, or by doing it on the roll call. Can we do that, Mr. Speaker? Thank you, very much. He thanks you, I'm sure. If you could enter these comments into the record for his posterity and his posterior.

GUESTS EXTENDED PRIVILEGE OF ASSEMBLY FLOOR

On request of Assemblyman Ernaut, the privilege of the floor of the Assembly Chamber for this day was extended to Lance Christie.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Bennett requested that Assemblyman Ohrenschall's remarks be entered in the Journal.

I wish to take a moment to memorialize the passing of Dr. Ernest W. Searles. Dr. Searles was an immigrant from Greece. He exemplified all the virtues that we associate with Nevada. Dr. Searles came here with very little education, took all the jobs that we consider very low within our casino industry such as washing dishes, being a short order cook, becoming a dealer and managed to pay his way through college earning a Doctorate in Economics. Not only did he become a Professor of Economics, he pioneered the community college movement in southern Nevada. Dr. Searles was one of the founders and the most fondly remembered professors at the Clark County Community College. I request that this honorable body would join me in a moment of silence in his memory.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is the middle of the pack of bills that came from the interim study committee on TRPA. I just wanted to publicly acknowledge the work of my colleague from District 39 and the people from Government Affairs on their hard work on these bills. They are much needed, very important and although my colleague's predecessor from District 39 and myself have been staunch opponents on some of the things this agency has done over the years, I do think they are steps in the right direction. This committee and all of its members should be commended on their hard work.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Senate Bill No. 122.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 29.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 1 through 12 and the text of the repealed section and adding new sections designated sections 1 and 2, to read as follows:

"Section 1. 1. Each insurer which, pursuant to NRS 680B.027, paid or is required to pay a tax of at least $2,000 on net direct premiums and net direct considerations written during the 1994 calendar year, shall file a report for the first quarter of the 1995 calendar year on or before March 31, 1995. The report must be in such form as prescribed by the executive director of the department of taxation. The report must be accompanied by a payment made payable to the department of taxation in an amount equal to 25 percent of the tax paid or required to be paid on net direct premiums and net direct considerations written during the 1994 calendar year.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 680B.027 to the contrary, the prepayment otherwise due on or before March 1, 1995, pursuant to the provisions of NRS 680B.027, is due on or before June 15, 1995, and must be paid at the same time as the prepayment due on or before June 15, 1995.

3. An insurer which makes the quarterly payment that is due pursuant to subsection 1 shall subtract the amount of the quarterly payment actually made from the amount otherwise due pursuant to subsection 2.

4. All of the provisions of NRS, including specifically those imposing penalties or other requirements concerning reporting and nonpayment, underpayment or late payment of a prepayment or any other form of the tax as required by NRS 680B.025 to 680B.039, inclusive, are applicable to insurers and other persons who, pursuant to NRS 680B.027, are required to pay the tax on net direct premiums and net direct considerations, to the same extent and in the same manner as if this section were included in the provisions of NRS 680B.025 to 680B.039, inclusive.

Sec. 2. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to insurance; delaying the date on which the first prepayment of the insurance premium tax is due; requiring certain insurers to make a quarterly payment of the insurance premium tax; clarifying that the existing provisions of NRS governing the administration and enforcement of the insurance premium tax are applicable to the payments required by this act; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

"Summary—Delays first prepayment of insurance premium tax and requires one quarterly payment. (BDR 57-611)".

Assemblyman Marvel moved the adoption of the amendment.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Motion carried.

I would like to respectfully request the privilege and honor to address the Nevada State Legislature in Joint Session on Monday, February 27, 1995 at 11:00 a.m.

I appreciate the opportunity to address the legislature and look forward to seeing you at that time.

Sincerely,

RICHARD H. BRYAN
United States Senator

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 19—Proposing to amend the Nevada constitution to authorize specifically the legislative review of administrative regulations.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 1 of article 3 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Section [.] 1. 1. The powers of the Government of the State of Nevada shall be divided into three separate departments,—the Legislative,—the Executive and the Judicial; and no persons charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any functions, appertaining to either of the others, except in the cases [herein] expressly directed or permitted [.] in this constitution.

2. If the legislature authorizes the adoption of regulations by an executive agency which bind persons outside the agency, the legislature may provide by law for:

(a) The review of these regulations by a legislative agency before their effective date to determine initially whether each is within the statutory authority for its adoption;

(b) The suspension by a legislative agency of any such regulation which appears to exceed that authority, until it is reviewed by a legislative body composed of members of the Senate and Assembly which is authorized to act on behalf of both houses of the legislature; and

(c) The nullification of any such regulation by a majority vote of that legislative body, whether or not the regulation was suspended.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Sec. 2. The sessions of the Legislature shall be biennial, and shall commence on the [3rd] first Monday of [January] March next ensuing the election of members of the Assembly, unless the Governor of the State , [shall,] in the interim, [convene] convenes the Legislature by proclamation.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That section 12 of article 17 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be repealed.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION

Sec: 12. First biennial legislative session to commence in 1867. The first regular session of the Legislature shall commence on the second Monday of December A.D. Eighteen hundred and Sixty Four, and the second regular session of the same shall commence on the first Monday of January A.D. Eighteen hundred and Sixty Six; and the third regular session of the Legislature shall be the first of the biennial sessions, and shall commence on the first Monday of January A.D. Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16.
Resolution read third time.
Remarks by Assemblymen Segerblom, Goldwater, Carpenter, Manendo, Humke and Ohrenschall.

Assemblyman Stroth requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16 again urges Congress to enact legislation to eliminate inequities in the payment of social security benefits issued in the years that persons initially became eligible for such benefits. The resolution further urges Congress to eliminate those inequities without reducing the benefit of persons who were born before 1917.

You will all remember that this Assembly Joint Resolution was Mr. Petrak's, a former member of this Assembly, and was for people born between 1917 and 1926. So, you know why I took this resolution over without going into much detail. I would like your approval. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOLDWATER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16 is an important resolution. The "Notch Baby" issue was thought to be dead and put to sleep by commission. It was a commission formed by President Clinton and made up by experts from both parties concerning social security. The commission came back with a report that the "Notch" inequity did not exist. What this resolution says is that there are several people who feel a "Notch" does exist. I think this resolution says that we, as a body, do feel a "Notch" exists. We would like them to take action to make equity to the people who just by the year of their birth were discriminated against. This sort of discrimination is abhorrent, not only to the people of the State of Nevada, but to America as a whole. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. When I was born in Philadelphia in the year whatever it was to make me eligible as a "Notch Baby," and in special recognition of Mr. Petrak who pushed this bill for at least two or three terms on this Assembly floor, I would very much urge you to vote for Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MANENDO:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16. "Notch Babies" is a term which describes those social security recipients born between 1917 and 1926. Retirees born just before then were the first social security recipients to be affected by cost of living increases enacted by Congress in 1972. It soon became apparent that those increases were causing benefits to soar and that continuing under that formula would bankrupt the system. Congress changed the rules again in 1977 creating a system some today say is unfair. For example, considering two retirees with identical work histories and similar wages, one born in 1916 would receive as much as $100 more in monthly social security checks than one born in 1917. When Congress changed the rules in 1977, the cost of living increase based on the 1972 formula was preserved for the people who were already drawing social security, were eligible to draw, or were one year away from a 62 age minimum. People five years away from retirement received some of the money from the 1972 formula that created the windfall, but not all of it. In the years following the fix, Congress worked to set up a safety net that nearly bankrupted the social security system, steering it on a course that today has built trust funds worth billions of dollars. It also created unhappy constituents, the "Notch Babies," who have won many members of Congress to their cause. The National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare has been the chief proponent of these changes. In southern Nevada, the National American Notch Association, led by Heleana Gross, has been leading the fight. There are about 50,000 "Notch Babies" in Nevada, and 8 million nationwide. They feel like they are second class citizens.

I would like to read a statement made by Geraldine Malarcher, who is a member of the National American Notch Association. "We've reached retirement age and wish to live out the rest of our lives in peace and harmony with financial stability. We've paid our taxes and contributed to the growth and prosperity of America. We are not asking for anything other than monies that we have been denied."

Mr. Speaker, the "Notch" group is comprised of Veterans of World War II, the Korean conflict, Vietnam, widowers and survivors whose health is fragile and whose life expectancy is short. Even though they have fought for a decade to correct this injustice, they still have hope. Whether repealed on the national level or not, at least we know they are not quitters and they will not be ashamed. I encourage my colleagues to give our 50,000 "Nevada Notchers" continued hope, and I leave you with this thought as well, "if Congress can discriminate against one age group, they can do it to any age group." We must continue to send a message at the state level. Thank you, very much. I encourage my colleagues to support this.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16, but I must say if Assembly Bill No. 99 passed, we would have proper forum to deal with resolutions such as this. Thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, join in supporting Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16, because it is a matter of fundamental fairness and financial protection. In today's world, where seniors are having trouble on limited incomes and making ends meet, I think it's really unfair to have those who have contributed equally into this system receive less from the system. Thank you.

The Speaker of the Assembly welcomed Senator Bryan and invited him to deliver his message.

Senator Bryan delivered his message as follows:

MESSAGE TO THE LEGISLATURE OF NEVADA

SIXTY-EIGHTH SESSION, 1995

Thank you, very much. Mr. Speaker de jure, Mr. President, Legislative Leaders, Members of the Legislature, and the State Constitutional Officers and friends who join us today, I'm delighted to be here. I look forward to this sentimental journey to return, as the Speaker has indicated, to where I first got my start in terms of working on the great policy issues that confront the State of Nevada. As I look about this Chamber, only two have survived from that 1969 session that first brought me to Carson City in the old Chambers. I look back at the state in 1969, a state with less than a half million people, and a state that we confront today booming with more than 1,500,000 people, and it is not patronizing to observe that I think the challenges and the responsibilities that face you are so much greater than the challenges and the responsibilities that faced those of us who were here in the late 1960s.

As many of you know, I have a profound interest in history. There are watershed years in the history of this republic. 1933 was such a year when the "new deal Congress" came to Washington following the landslide that brought Franklin Roosevelt into the presidency for his first term. I think in some respect that 1995 shapes up to be a watershed year as well, because the entire role of government is being re-examined and questions are being asked as to what services ought to be performed by government. Whether they ought to be done at the federal level, state level or the local level and how best to do them. I think for those of us who are privileged to serve and represent you in Washington, just as those of you who are privileged to serve and represent the various constituent interests of our state, this is really an exciting time because it's a fresh start. I want to make some observations that maybe can give you some insight and perspective as to how I see things coming from Washington.

First of all, as you know, in this Congress, the Accountability Act has been enacted. That says for the first time that those legislative enactments that are passed by the Congress of the United States shall also apply to those who serve in the Congress. That seems reasonable and fair. The vein of state legislatures and local city councils and county commissions and boards of supervisors for some time has memorialized unfunded mandates. We direct you to do it, we provide no resources for you to do it with, then you are left implementing the program. The unfunded mandate legislation which began working its course in the legislative process and the last Congress has now passed both the Senate and the House. It's in conference, but will soon make its way to the White House for signature. That is an impressive start.

I want to talk to you for a moment about an issue that will be voted on tomorrow. It will have a significant impact for the future of our country and I suspect will have a very significant impact for you, as well, if it passes. It is the Balanced Budget Amendment, an amendment that says the President of the United States shall submit to each Congress a balanced budget and a requirement that the Congress of the United States approves such a balanced budget subject to some exceptions. You're no stranger to that process. When I came here in 1969, it was our responsibility, just as it was Governor Laxalt's responsibility, to submit the biennial budget and to balance that budget. It's never easy. Constituents have a tendency to always ask for a little bit more than they know you can provide. That's true in the tight years, when there is seemingly no money, and to some extent, even more difficult when better times return. More money builds up in the State Treasury and groups come to you for the programs that are important to them and to the people of the State of Nevada. You have to make those decisions, the tough calls. I submitted such budgets to you as the Governor. In Washington, things have been different. Not since Richard Nixon left the Presidency has there been a balanced budget submitted to the Congress of the United States, nor approved by the Congress of the United States. In this blame game that we are all involved in from time to time, the message is clear. Neither Democrats nor Republicans have been able to balance the budget as Presidents or the controlling party in either house of the Congress. There are those who will say that the changes are too radical and they are too extreme. I supported the Balanced Budget Amendment when I first came to this Chamber. I supported it as Governor, and I will be voting to support it tomorrow when I cast my ballot.

Let me just share a bit, if I may, with you. The American political experience from the time of the Revolutionary War, up to and including 1908, that means the debt that the federal Congress assumed from the state of the revolution, Civil War, two World Wars, a great depression, the expenses of Korea and Vietnam in 1980 was less than one trillion dollars. In the 1980s, it exploded. It more than tripled. Today, each new administration that comes to Washington in a four-year period of time, adds one trillion dollars to the national debt. We cannot sustain that course of action. Just as you have options to make decisions and choices, so do we, but increasingly those options are preempted as the amount of money is spent each year. The payment of interest to the federal debt begins to dominate the discussions that we have each year in Washington. It's not going to be easy. A fairly recent exit poll taken by the New York Times suggests that when the American people are asked which category of expense represents the largest part of the federal budget, about 27 percent said foreign aid. Whatever you think of foreign aid, and there are certainly some well documented examples of abuses in it, it represents about one to 1.2 percent of the entire national budget. Now a budget of $1,600,000,000 is a substantial sum of money. But as legislators, you know that one percent does not get you very far down the road to a 100 percent solution. It's not going to be easy for all of you if this comes to pass. Right now, one vote might make the difference. This morning's newscast indicates that it requires a two-thirds Constitutional majority to pass a Constitutional amendment, to be submitted for the ultimate ratification of three-fourths of the states. And one vote hangs in the balance. Federal and state governments receive each year from the Federal Government, $230,000,000. I commend you for that massive budget you go through so painstakingly. It contains in this biennium, nearly $1.3 billion of federal money, a little over 17 percent of the entire biennial budget. So, it's not going to be easy, but it seems to me that it must be done. We are mortgaging the birthright of our children. No other generation of Americans in public office, whatever their political leanings may be, has ever done what generations of which we are a part of has done. In terms of preempting the future for young Americans, that is unconscionable and irresponsible. It must stop, and I've reached the conclusion, that although many say, "Look we can do it!," the reality is that in a quarter of a century, we've been unable to do it. Neither Democrats, Republicans, Presidents, or members of the Congress have been able to summon up the will which you do each time you convene on a biennial basis to balance the budget, and that is why I will be supporting the amendment tomorrow.

One of the great areas of controversy that we are about to debate is regulatory reform. Each year, the cost and burden of regulation on Americans reaches $600,000,000. The expenses are well documented; the absurdity of some of their conclusions defy common sense and reason. When John Kennedy was President, the Federal Register contained about 15,000 pages each year with respect to new regulations. During George Bush's last year, that had grown to some 70,000 pages. As state legislators, you know first hand some of the experiences that you face. Some of the examples defy common sense and reason. In New York City, they wanted to donate an abandoned building to an order of nuns, who had taken the vows of chastity, poverty and obedience, and to four square use of any modern conveniences, but they were going to be required to install an elevator, the cost of which would be $100,000 or more. They neither wanted it nor had the money, and so as a result, the building was never used. During the height of the California fire season, 28 homes were in danger. They wanted to cut a fire break to stop the fire. We are all very experienced with that here in Nevada as we face our own problems. But, because the kangaroo rat is an endangered species, and allegedly, his habitat would be compromised, that was not provided. I don't know any biologist that maintains a kangaroo rat can survive the force of a fiery inferno, but that was the conclusion. Absurd, no common sense at all, and yet on the other hand, as Americans, whether it is the food we eat or water we drink or air we breath or medicines we take, America is the world's leader. No other civilization in the history of the world, no other country on the face of the earth has as good a water supply, as clean air for an industrial society or as safe a food supply or quality prescription medications we take. And so, I would submit that for those who suggest we ought to impose a moratorium on all regulations, irrespective of their merit, go too far. A couple of examples have surfaced fairly recently. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service established the duck season. That doesn't make any sense, to say they can't do that. We all know that daily the Federal Aviation Administration examines the causes of airline crashes. We've had a couple of them fairly recently that are very dawning. The USAir airplane that was approaching Pittsburgh a few months ago, weather perfect, no indications of any problems, went into the ground. Are we to say when the FAA discovers what the cause of that might be and was going to issue some sort of regulatory directive, they should be precluded from doing so? I think the answer is obvious. So what we seek is the illusive balance. Not every regulation is desirable or good public policy; not every regulation is bad or undesirable. That's going to be the challenge that we face, much as it is the challenge of you who are empowered to enact regulations at the state level.

There are other items on the agenda this year such as immigration reform. I think this is a reform that has a bipartisan opportunity to move forward. We, in Nevada, are impacted dramatically by the forces of illegal immigration. It costs money for schools, law enforcement and social services. It is an enormous impact. There has been a failure at the federal level in terms of immigration policy. We've made a start. I was pleased to offer an amendment last year that increased the number of agents on the Border Patrol to provide for some expedited procedures in terms of deportation, but it is not a comprehensive solution. That is one that we must undertake, and I believe it is one which we will. Let me just cite an example. In December of each year, I visit with all the federal agencies in Nevada. So, I had the Reno Housing Authority come into my office. I learned that in 1980, Congress enacted legislation that precluded illegal immigrants from receiving public housing. It is now 15 years later, Democratic and Republican Presidents have come and gone. Fifteen years later this regulation is not enforced. It makes no sense at all. It is those kinds of issues that will be addressed.

Much has been focused on welfare reform. If there is a unanimity of opinion in America, a consensus, everybody acknowledges that the present system does not work. It neither serves its recipients, nor the American taxpayer. Not surprisingly, there is not a unanimity as to what we ought to do in terms of addressing the situation. Let me share with you again for a moment a couple of things that I think are important for you to consider. One of the central themes to that debate, is whether to change welfare from an entitlement program or to make it a discretionary program. To make it discretionary versus entitlement, under the current law, if one fits in with the category that determines the criteria of eligibility, we are required to fund it. It is not a discretionary program. If we change it, as we may, and make it a discretionary program, that means we can indicate what level of funding we should provide. A number of you may have seen the morning paper where Congressman Ensign spoke at a Town Hall meeting in Las Vegas to express his opposition to the proposed freeze that is currently being addressed and processed in the House on the basis of a state like Nevada. The expanding population that we have would be adversely impacted and disproportionately impacted because of that very reason.

Another issue is block grants as opposed to categorical assistance. I must tell you, as a former Governor, I have a good bit of sympathy for block grants, and yet, I recognize there are vulnerable populations in our society. Women, infants and children and programs over the years have had wide bipartisan support that could be impacted as a result of either abandoning the entitlement system or going strictly to a block grant approach.

More flexibility, perhaps less money, maybe that's a reasonable trade-off, but ultimately those decisions are going to come to roost here in the state legislature in terms of how you choose to prioritize your funding decisions.

Nevada has been fortunate, with respect to a number of actions taken by the Federal Government. Just this morning, I was in Reno to announce that Reno Air has been selected as one of six carriers to provide direct service from Canada to Reno. That is good news for us in northern Nevada and it is good news in southern Nevada because part of that flight will also have a terminal point in Las Vegas. Critical for tourism in Nevada and an important by-product, was a decision just made last Friday when the President of the United States and the Prime Minister of Canada entered into a bilateral agreement that makes, for the first time, this direct air service on a regularly scheduled basis as opposed to a charter service available to us. Reno Air has been selected as one of six to receive that route consideration.

Nellis, Fallon and Hawthorne are going to be spared from the Base Closing Commission which has now gone through two rounds and is into the third round. The V.A. facilities in Reno, the Veterans Hospital, some $20 million in terms of providing new beds and renovating part of that facility is on-line. In Las Vegas, where a number of veterans are moving into that area, equals a percentage of population growth, we will double the space of the outpatient service facilities. Growth also brings challenges, as each of us know. And one of the challenges in the southern part of the state is the search for new water resources. I think the legislature, working with the Governor and his leadership that he provided in the last session, and the continuing leadership that he has provided, has enabled Nevada to speak with a single voice. There are many schemes and ideas that have been proposed; a lot of them I'm sure are theoretically possible from an engineering perspective, but the solution, it seems to me, lies along the border between Nevada, Arizona, California and Utah and it is the artery of life that flows in the southwest, the Colorado River. Allocations made more than seven decades ago no longer serve our needs and our requirements and so negotiations are ongoing between Arizona and Utah to work out some agreement by which southern Nevada can receive additional water resources. I think that those negotiations can come to fruition. The Department of Interior, that is much criticized for many of its actions in Nevada has been very, very supportive. I think that those negotiations will bear fruit and that we will be able to provide additional water resources in the very, very near term.

The Nevada Test Site. The future of the Nevada Test Site is a bit brighter today. Many of you know I've chaired a Solar Task Force. I think, with the abundance that nature has provided us, solar energy is a natural fit for us here in Nevada. The Nevada Test Site which provides enormous public land to allow solar development seems to me to be a logical place as we deal with alternative uses of the Nevada Test Site, as its role has changed with the onset of the end of the cold war. To produce 100 megawatts of power driven by private sector incentives, not a government program, does require the sort of thing that you all have done extraordinarily well here in Nevada, and that is the public-private partnership. We need to establish policies at the federal level that encourage and permit that kind of development and the private sector has indicated that they are prepared to come forward and to construct such facilities. You all are going to be involved in that decision process as well because they want to construct large manufacturing facilities in southern Nevada that will require many millions of dollars. And the industrial revenue bond program that you all have been a part of and the Governor's office has been a part of is going to be a necessary component of that. One such company, Enron, which has about a $9,000,000,000 asset base has said they will come tomorrow if you can provide that opportunity for them. So, this very morning, an application is being filed with the Department of Energy for a grant to enable us to devise the request for proposal. That is a big document that gives every private sector company an opportunity to produce and to submit a proposal. I think that makes good sense.

I must say, as I speak with candor, as you invite me each biennium, there are other proposals for the Nevada Test Site that I think are fraught with danger and some peril. As you know, there has been a recent proposal to store nuclear artillery shells at the Nevada Test Site. I have not been supportive of that proposal and I believe that, at least for the time being, we have been able to defer that decision. I don't think it is going to happen in the near term, and I am hopeful that we can dissuade them from that. But, that is part of a broader concept, which I reject and strongly disagree with and that is to convert the Nevada Test Site to a plutonium storage repository for the nuclear warheads and the old nuclear weapons that are now part of the drawback from Start I and Start II as we reduce the number of nuclear weapons that we have in America that are coming from our forward deployed areas. And there are many people that see the Nevada Test Site as the logical place to put them. I must say that I'm not one of them. I do not believe that makes sense for us, as Nevadans, to embrace that kind of activity. I favor the clean renewable energy option of solar energy which gives us a chance to become the solar capital of the world and develop improved and expanded manufacturing infrastructure base.

For more than a decade, Nevadans have remained resolute in their opposition to the high-level nuclear waste dump. More than $2,000,000,000 has been expended since the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982 was enacted. Signed into law by President Reagan in 1983, it promised that there would be a repository somewhere in America in 1998—15 years. Two billion dollars later, even the most optimistic of folks say it is going to be another 15–20 or beyond. The good news is that the industry itself has become, I think, acutely aware that the likelihood of a permanent repository in Nevada is becoming increasingly remote. Incompetence and ineptitude in terms of management, the fact that increasingly there are scientific and technical obstacles that the industry is not sure they can meet and frankly, the firm, unremitting objections here in Nevada, notwithstanding the millions of dollars that have been spent to importune Nevadans to accept it. The public remains today, overwhelmingly opposed to it as they were when it was first embraced in 1983.

Now that is the good news. The bad news is that the Department of Energy and the nuclear power industry remains ever resourceful and so this coming week we have a proposal introduced by our old nemesis Senator Bennett Johnston and one introduced by the industry. Let me take a moment to explain what it is. It is billed as a temporary, or in the lexicon of the business, a Monitored Retrieval Storage System, an M.R.S.S. It's temporary. They just want to put it here temporarily. What the legislation does is two or three things, which I think ought to be of alarm and concern to every Nevadan. First of all, it says it ought to go to Yucca Mountain. Now there is no way, if you look at the map of the United States, that Nevada is the central location for the reception of high-level nuclear waste. If you wanted to get the center of the country, Kansas would be the geographic center. That is a wonderful location because most of the nuclear waste comes from the east. But, this legislation, in addition to earmarking and designating Nevada, says that the temporary licensure will be for 100 years. I don't know how stupid they think we must be. With the exception of, perhaps some of these young people up in the balcony that I see, probably none of us who have any public policy roles are going to be around 100 years from now. In addition by statute, the standards are constantly lowered and lowered to make it easier to cite. So, you can see that the interest in the permanent repository has waned. If they ever get the temporary dump on, you'll never hear about the permanent repository because that takes care of the problem, as they see it, for 100 years. Now, I recognize that there are some legitimate concerns and I've introduced in this Congress as I have in previous years a provision which will allow the utilities, the nuclear utilities, that generate the waste, and provide the nuclear power in those communities to store it on site. Dry cast storage, approved by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission has already been adopted by some responsible utilities. I went to one just two weeks ago at Calver Cliffs, Maryland outside of the Washington Belt Line, and recognizing that utility ratepayers pay into the Nuclear Waste Policy Fund, and also pay for the dry cast storage our proposers say if you do the responsible thing, keep it where it is generated to avoid the risk, danger and expense of transporting it all over the country. We will give you a credit for every dollar you spend on the dry cast storage that will offset what your contribution would have otherwise been to the High-level Nuclear Waste Fund. That, in my view, is a reasonable approach. One that is not likely to receive much enthusiasm by the nuclear power industry. Unfortunately, the actions of two public officials in apparent defiance of the majority of people in that county has now created an appearance problem that will be used by the nuclear power industry and its advocates at this hearing—suggesting that Nevadans really are prepared to take this dump. All they want is a few dollars. There can be no compromise with health and safety. There can be no compromise with something that could impact the economic base of our state, which is tourism, in the future. That's not something that we should be playing with. That's not something that is worth the kind of risk, and for those of us who have had more than four decades of experience, having been told in the past that this is safe, that it is safe.

I grew up, as you all know, in Las Vegas. I saw the first nuclear detonation in 1951. We were excited about it. Every kid in school thought that this was the greatest thing in the world, and we were assured that there was absolutely no risk at all. We could handle it. Just let the scientists take care of it. Is there any responsible scientist on the face of the earth who would walk into this or any other legislative chamber and say they were going to detonate a nuclear device in the air about 100 miles, or less, from the largest community in your state? Of course not, but we were told that and today, you and I, as taxpayers, pay money to those individuals who suffer from genetic damage and who have died as a consequence of that experience. We do not want a future generation of Nevada legislators representing us in Washington to come back and say they are going to have to appropriate money because we did not fully understand the consequences of our actions. The siren call is always appealing; that there is money out there, the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow syndrome; the great Spanish conquistador that came into the American southwest to look for the fabled lost cities of gold. It was an illusion. So, too, my friends, is this an illusion. Our decision must remain resolute and firm. As Nevadans and as policymakers, you really have a decision to set the future course of history for our state. What kind of place do we want to provide for our children and our grandchildren?

There are some who have an option. They say we can accept toxic hazardous waste. I was confronted with such a decision in 1983 as your Governor. As regulations tightened around the country, we were engulfed by requests to establish incinerators and to let the toxic and hazardous waste from all over the Pacific Northwest and the West flow into our state. Would there have been some money in that? Yes, there would have been some people who would have made some money. Is that your vision for the future of Nevada? Yes, there would be some money made if we opened this up and allowed Nevada to become, in effect, the nuclear refuse capital of the world. We could expand upon that and say there are other countries in the world that use nuclear reactors, so why don't we take it all? That's an option that we have, and we could say about the Nevada Test Site, "Let's not think about solar energy, let's convert to plutonium storage." That is an option that we have, but it is not my vision for the future of our state. It is true that we have vast expanses, areas with very little population with a climate that is very arid. But that is part of the enchantment; part of the beauty of our country and that is why those of us who were privileged to arrive here as youngsters made a decision to stay and make it our home. And why so many of you who did not come as youngsters, but saw the attraction of Nevada and decided to make this your permanent home and to raise your families and to have your future here. We are at that crossroads, and it is a policy that will foreclose options for us in generations yet to come if we do not make the right decision.

And finally, I would observe that all of us who serve need to ask ourselves from time to time, why we are here; why do we do it? Nobody in this Chamber makes a lot of money as a result of his or her service either holding constitutional office or legislative office. The public is oftentimes not sympathetic to the great policy dilemmas that you deal with and are not terribly sympathetic. And sometimes, maybe the media is a little harsh on all of us, but I think it's on such occasions that we need to remind ourselves that each of us is here because we feel individually, whatever our party, whatever part of Nevada we come from, whatever our political philosophy, that we can make a difference—a difference in people's lives, whether it's getting a liver transplant for someone in our state who is terminally ill or whether it's helping a widow who is having difficulty cutting through the red tape to get a Social Security check, or the veteran to qualify for a home loan. Those are the kind of reasons we make our decision as we do in public service and I am one who commends you for that service.

I wish you well, and I look forward to working with each of you in the months and years ahead. Thank you, so very much.

THE FORTY-FOURTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), February 28, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:15 a.m.

Speaker Hettrick presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Bruce Murray.

Our Most Gracious Heavenly Father, we thank You today for the privilege of prayer. Your word declares, "Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And, if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him."

We pray for wisdom, guidance, and courage, to make decisions today that will honor You and bless the people of our state. Give these men and women Your mind on every matter they address and may every decision fulfill Your will.

We ask these things in Your Name. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

THE FORTY-FIFTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), March 1, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:07 a.m.

Madam Speaker pro Tempore Evans presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Braunlin, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Bruce Henderson.

Father, as the rest of the world concerns itself with whether or not we'll have baseball, and as everyone else seems glued to news coverage of the Simpson trial, we find ourselves occupied with many other concerns. Admittedly, some of these don't seem too exciting. May these civil servants keep their edge, stay alert and remember the people they serve.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen Bache, Dini, Spitler, Neighbors, Sandoval, Giunchigliani, Freeman, Price and Manendo:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 23—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to require that the Governor and Lieutenant Governor file and be elected jointly and to merge the offices of state treasurer and state controller.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That sections 2, 4, 17, 19 and 22 of article 5 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read respectively as follows:

[Sec:] Sec. 2. The Governor [shall] and Lieutenant Governor must be affiliated with the same political party and must be elected jointly by the casting by each qualified [electors] elector of a single vote applicable to both offices at the time and places of voting for members of the Legislature . [, and] The Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall hold [his] office for [Four Years] four years from the time of [his] their installation, and until [his successor shall be] their successors are qualified. Each candidate for Governor shall file jointly with a candidate for Lieutenant Governor in primary elections, or otherwise comply with nomination procedures provided by law so that the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor are voted upon together in primary and general elections.

[Section] Sec. 4. The returns of every election for United States senator and member of Congress, district and state officers, and for and against any questions submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada, voted for at the general election, shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government, directed to the secretary of state, and the chief justice of the supreme court, and the associate justices, or a majority thereof, shall meet at the office of the secretary of state, on a day to be fixed by law, and open and canvass the election returns for United States senator and member of Congress, district and state officers, and for and against any questions submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada, and forthwith declare the result and publish the names of the persons elected and the results of the vote cast upon any question submitted to the electors of the State of Nevada. The persons or, in the case of the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, the team of persons having the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected, but in case any two or more persons or teams have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the legislature shall, by joint vote of both houses, elect one of [said persons to fill said office.] the persons or teams to fill the office or offices.

[Sec: 17. A] Sec. 17. The eligibility of the Lieutenant Governor [shall be elected at the same time and places and in the same manner as the Governor and his term of Office, and his eligibility, shall also be the same. He] is the same as that of the Governor. The Lieutenant Governor shall be President of the Senate, but shall only have a casting vote therein. If during a Vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant Governor shall be impeached [,] or displaced, shall resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of the office, or be absent from the State, the President pro-tempore of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy [be] is filled or the disability [cease.] ceases.

[Section] Sec. 19. A secretary of state, a treasurer [, a controller,] and an attorney general, shall be elected at the same time and places, and in the same manner as the governor. The term of office of each shall be the same as is prescribed for the governor. Any elector shall be eligible to either of said offices.

[Section] Sec. 22. The secretary of state, state treasurer, [state controller,] attorney general, and superintendent of public instruction shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That section 3 of article 9 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. The state may contract public debts; but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exclusive of interest, exceed the sum of two per cent of the assessed valuation of the state, as shown by the reports of the county assessors to the state [controller,] treasurer, except for the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenses, as hereinafter mentioned. Every such debt shall be authorized by law for some purpose or purposes, to be distinctly specified therein; and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest semiannually, and the principal within twenty years from the passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of said taxes to the payment of said principal and interest; and such appropriation shall not be repealed nor the taxes postponed or diminished until the principal and interest of said debts shall have been wholly paid. Every contract of indebtedness entered into or assumed by or on behalf of the state, when all its debts and liabilities amount to said sum before mentioned, shall be void and of no effect, except in cases of money borrowed to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in time of war, or, if hostilities be threatened, provide for the public defense.

The state, notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, may, pursuant to authority of the legislature, make and enter into any and all contracts necessary, expedient or advisable for the protection and preservation of any of its property or natural resources, or for the purposes of obtaining the benefits thereof, however arising and whether arising by or through any undertaking or project of the United States or by or through any treaty or compact between the states, or otherwise. The legislature may from time to time make such appropriations as may be necessary to carry out the obligations of the state under such contracts, and shall levy such tax as may be necessary to pay the same or carry them into effect.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That section 12 of article 15 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

[Sec:] Sec. 12. The Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer [, State Controller,] and Clerk of the Supreme Court, shall keep their respective offices at the seat of Government.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That section 22 of article 17 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 22. In case the office of any State officer, except the Lieutenant Governor or a judicial officer, shall become vacant before the expiration of the regular term for which he was elected, the vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Governor until it shall be supplied at the next general election, when it shall be filled by election for the residue of the unexpired term. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the Lieutenant Governor, the person appointed as Lieutenant Governor by the Governor shall hold office until the next general election in which a Governor is elected.

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 12:16 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Quorum present.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

MR. SPEAKER:

We are privileged today to have William Detweiler, the National Commander of the American Legion, address the joint bodies.

William M. Detweiler, 54, of New Orleans, was elected National Commander of the American Legion on September 8, 1994, during the closing session of the American Legion's 76th Annual National Convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Mr. Detweiler served in the United States Army Intelligence Corps from 1963-1965. In 1966, he was transferred from Active Reserve to Standby Reserve with the rank of Captain.

He obtained his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology in 1961, and a law degree in 1963 from Loyola University in New Orleans. Mr. Detweiler became a practicing attorney and has served as elected Constable of the First City Court in New Orleans since 1979.

He is actively involved in the New Orleans community, serving on dozens of committees and chairing many of them. Mr. Detweiler is a long-time member of the Louisiana Historical Society. He was the co-chair of Operation Heros' Welcome to New Orleans, which assured a warm welcome to local veterans returning from the Persian Gulf War. He also chairs the Advisory Committee for the Agent Orange Family Systems Project.

He is married to the former Maureen Reed. They have four children: Scott, Bonnie, Keith and Jeannie.

Please help me welcome National Commander Detweiler.

MR. WILLIAM DETWEILER, National Commander, American Legion:

Thank you, very much. Mr. Co-Speakers, Mr. President, Members of the Senate and the House of the great State of Nevada, guests and my fellow Legionnaires and ladies of the Auxiliary who are in the audience. Some people may find it surprising that I am comfortable to stand in a room of politicians. I having been in politics since 1956, having been in elected office since 1978, I find it very comfortable to be here. I also find it, as I mentioned to the Speaker, that you have beautiful facilities. I had a couple of people come up to me as I came in, and apologize for one thing or another, because you are a small state. Well, I understand that great things come in small packages. I am happy to be here. Nevada has contributed greatly to this nation and I am pleased to be able to spend a few moments with you. The American Legion, as many of you know, was founded some 76 years ago and one of the most important issues before us continues to be an issue that concerns not only the American Legion, but I know concerns the members of the House and Senate here in Nevada, and that is the question of VA benefits. We were instrumental as an organization in establishing the Veterans Administration back in the 1930s and the American Legion has stepped forward on numerous occasions when the question of benefits was brought to issue.

Some of you may not know that back in 1932, President Roosevelt had a bill run through with no debate. With that bill, all VA benefits were wiped out. The Legion stepped forward with a grass roots campaign and those benefits were reinstated. We have moved along from that time to a time including just shortly after World War II, when we stepped forward again and established the GI Bill. We saw to its development, its passage and its enactment. We are pleased and proud of that and we have continued to work for those issues.

Here in the State of Nevada, you have a great number of veterans who have participated in all wars, and have participated with great honor and great respect from you and from our American people. But, our population continues to grow as far as veterans are concerned, and the issues that we face as an organization working for those veterans are issues that are very important to you as a state and to you as legislators in this state. You are concerned about the bottom line of the dollar. We, as an organization, work on a daily basis in Washington lobbying the House and Senate and the administration to bring back to our states and communities more benefits, not only for our veterans community, but also more benefits from the standpoint of military entitlements, military establishments, keeping our bases open and working for our military people. This is something we do on a day-to-day basis, and I think that this is very important not only to us as an organization and of war-time veterans, but you as elected officials here in the State of Nevada. You are concerned about your communities, you are concerned about employment, and I would say that probably two of the largest employers in the State of Nevada, or any other state for that matter, are the military with all the spinoffs that come from the defense industry, such as the VA Health Care System, the hospital you have in Reno, the outpatient clinic you have in Las Vegas and the various other things.

How many of you have bought homes through the home loan program or attended graduate school because of the GI Bill? We have some problems. We have some problems, but we continue to work on those problems. We know that the hospital in Reno needs to be updated and I assure you that the American Legion members here in the State of Nevada, as well as the national organization, continue to lobby for the funds to try to improve that facility and offer better care for those veterans that use that facility. One of the things that we are trying to do as an organization, and we know that dollars are tight on the state level as well as on the national level, is to find new dollars to go into the system.

One of the things they are having success with is to allow the third party reimbursement monies, hospitalization, Medicare and so forth for the veterans to stay in those hospitals and improve those facilities where the services are rendered. That is being done. I will give you an example of something that is being done on a "pilot basis" and hopefully it will eventually happen here in Nevada as well as in all of our states within the VA system to help improve it. In Ashville, North Carolina, they have a program using Champus monies to treat people in that hospital and keep those funds. And they are keeping the funds and using them for the betterment of all. We believe that if the VA would open up the system and get rid of what they call the "means test," where certain veterans that earn more money than is allowed cannot use the hospital, and allow the hospitals to be open to all veterans, that those monies would flow in. They could use those monies and it would help to better those hospitals and we would see a situation, for example in Reno, where the facility could be improved for all.

I also know, from talking to the people here in Nevada, that this particular year you are talking about state veterans' homes. I have had the pleasure of visiting a good many veterans' homes around the country. The homes can be built with matching funds of at least 65 percent from the Federal Government and 35 percent from the state. Some are small specialized facilities. Others appear to be larger facilities, but regardless of what it takes, I hope that one day a veterans' home can be opened here in this state.

I know that it was not too many years ago that you established in Nevada two state veterans' cemeteries. It is a service that should be offered to these people. Through the VA

Veterans' Home Grants Program, you have had an excellent opportunity to care for veterans while they are still with us. I would urge you during this session to give favorable consideration and support to establishing a veterans' home here.

Nevada is a state that continues to grow. I heard this morning on TV that the City of Reno will double in size by the first part of the next century. And that, of course, will bring additional veterans into the state. Today we are not at war, we are not in hostility, so to speak, but we are now involved in what is called peace keeping or peace enforcement operations around the world. This is a situation that probably will continue, and as a result of that, we will continue to have the need for veterans' services.

A couple of weeks ago, I had the opportunity to stand at the tomb of the gentleman whose picture you have in front of you, Mr. Lincoln. I had the opportunity to speak at Mr. Lincoln's tomb, and when I arrived, I thought of a couple of things that have been uppermost in the minds of a lot of American people over the last few months. That, of course, involves the problems we have seen develop at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington. Most of you are familiar with the problems surrounding the Enola Gay issue. The Enola Gay is the plane that dropped the first bomb on Japan bringing an end to World War II. That issue really is a symptom of the problems that have been going on in this country for a long time. You know, Mr. Lincoln said that you can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time. And unfortunately, the curators that developed the Enola Gay exhibit at the Smithsonian thought they could fool the American people. The exhibit was centered around the Enola Gay. It was an exhibit that was flawed from the very beginning. It was written by a group of revisionists, historians or curators, who in effect said that we, the American people, particularly those veterans of World War II, were the aggressors and the Japanese were the victims and we, as a nation, bombed a defeated country when the bombs were dropped on Nagasaki and Hiroshima. It questioned the morals and the motives behind President Truman's desire to bring World War II to a conclusion. That is unfortunate, but again, I think it shows what is going on in this country.

For too long, it has been out of vogue to be patriotic and stand up for what is right. The American Legion took it upon itself to step forward and face the curators of the Smithsonian. The American Legion says that all we ask is the facts be properly presented and that no one's particular agenda be presented to the American people, or to those who visit that facility. We ask only that the facts be presented without commentary and without bias. We have been successful today, after many months of controversy. Mr. Hammon, the Secretary of the Smithsonian, finally agreed to cancel the exhibit as it was prepared. He has agreed to use the same reasoning that I had discussed with him four or five months ago as his reason for canceling the exhibit. It is unfortunate that he waited that long because it brought that revered institution into a lot of controversy. Today, we are working hard to see that the plane which played such an important part in ending the terrible destruction of the War in the Pacific be properly displayed so those who participated in the war will have an opportunity to look at it.

We have an obligation to teach our young people, and many of you have participated in the various youth programs of the American Legion over the years. We have a need to never forget, to always remember. We have a need not to rewrite history, but to learn from it. That is all we have sought in this effort with the Smithsonian.

It is not only that problem that shows this is a symptom of the problems that are facing this country about being "politically correct" and not being patriotic. Many of you know of the issues that have come about in the examination of our textbooks. Our textbooks have been written so that the history of this country, as we know it factually, has been totally rewritten to the point you would not recognize it. That is unfortunate. We have to continue to work on that issue.

The American Legion has also stepped out on an issue, which according to the people on the Beltway in Washington is not really an issue. That is an amendment to protect the American flag from physical desecration. It is the only symbol that binds us all together. We have many symbols in this country. We have many flags in this country. The American flag is the only symbol that binds us all together. It is the flag for which we have fought. It is the flag for which men and women have died for hundreds of years. It is important.

There is nothing wrong with being patriotic and stepping forward to seek an amendment to protect that flag from physical desecration. Not only is it the right thing to do, it is the proper thing to do. I know that your senators and representatives from Nevada have already stepped forward. You, as a legislature, memorialized it by resolution to the United States Congress some four years ago. You are, I think, the ninth state of the Union to memorialize a resolution to Congress asking them to return an amendment to "we the people." To have an opportunity, or the basic right of a free democracy to vote on the issue. We have not asked Congress, nor will we ask Congress to tell us whether it is good for us or bad for us. The Constitution starts out with the words, "We the people . . ." It does not say, "We the Congress, the Supreme Court, or the President, or the Administration . . ." It says, "We the people." You stepped forward, you voted to support this issue and I am pleased to tell you that, as of this morning, the amendment is in the House and Senate, and the wording is the same. It is an authorizing amendment. It is something different. There is no other amendment to the Constitution that has been drafted like this, nor is there an amendment to the Constitution, currently, which merely authorizes. The amendment basically says that Congress and the several states will have the right to pass legislation to protect the American flag from physical desecration.

As of this morning, the bill will not be introduced in either the Senate or the House until next week, the 14th of March. There are 222 members of the United States House of Representatives and 35 Senators who have signed as co-sponsors before the bill has even been introduced. We are supporting it through a grass roots effort similar to what I mentioned came about back in the 1930s when the VA got in trouble and all VA benefits were wiped out. At that time, a grass roots effort was started and it was successful. The American Legion, some five years ago, began to work for the memorializing of resolutions.

We know this is not a veterans issue, this is not an American Legion issue, so last year we formed what is called a Citizens Flag Alliance. Today, we have 88 organizations, the Moose, the Lions, the Knights of Columbus, Northern and Southern Consistories of the Scottish Rights, labor unions and business organizations. The 88 organizations now total some 28 million people across this country. Eighty percent of the American public polled over a number of years, in four separate Gallop polls, agree with this approach and will vote for such an amendment when it is returned to the states for consideration. We believe that in this 104th Congress, we have an opportunity to finally accomplish this effort. To put back on the books, the necessary legislation to protect the flag which we have all worked so hard for. Some of you may know that the only symbol left on the moon was the American flag. That was the only symbol left on the moon.

I thank you very much for all that you have done for the Veterans of the State of Nevada. I thank you very much for being one of the first states to memorialize the flag resolution to the United States Congress. I thank you for what you continue to do. I thank you for being involved in the political process. It is a noble profession and it is something you should be proud to participate in. I know that I am. Thank you very much for letting me come and visit with you this morning. You have accorded me a great honor.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 13.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that all rules be suspended, reading so far had considered first reading, rules further suspended, resolution declared an emergency measure under the Constitution and placed on third reading and final passage.

Motion carried unanimously.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Senate Joint Resolution No. 13.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Sandoval and Dini.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN SANDOVAL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of Senate Joint Resolution No. 13. As a member of the Nevada Bar, I had the opportunity to appear before Judge Thompson only once. However, this brief appearance was enough to command my utmost respect and reinforced what others already believed.

Judge Thompson is truly a legend in Nevada. I can think of no better person after whom the new federal courthouse in Reno should be named. Judge Thompson was a gentleman and a scholar, and to name the new courthouse after him will remind all of us that we should strive to achieve the same high standard of character.

With me today is Judge Thompson's widow, Ellen Thompson, his son Harold Thompson and Coe Swobe, a former member of this House and primary sponsor for the petition to name the courthouse after Judge Thompson. With this, I urge all of you to join me in supporting this resolution. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I certainly stand strong in supporting Senate Joint Resolution No. 13. I believe it is time to bring this to a conclusion. Judge Thompson served so many years with distinction and honor. We were all proud of him and the job he did. I would urge everyone in this House to support this resolution. Thank you.

Roll call on Senate Joint Resolution No. 13:

YEAS—41.

NAYS—None.

Absent—Williams.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 13 having received a constitutional majority, Mr. Speaker declared it passed.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, March 13, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13.

Assemblyman Dini moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Dini and Anderson.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Madam Speaker pro Tempore and Members of the Assembly, Bill Marks was a man that I became acquainted with in the early 1970s. Mr. Marks was a funny man. He was the epitome of a man who was a fair shaker and always took care of his community first. He was born in Virginia City, graduated from that beautiful school, the Fourth Ward School, that we have been trying to preserve for the past 35 years.

He also graduated from the University of Nevada, Reno. Bill served in the Air Force during World War II. He was a county commissioner in Virginia City where he served 17 years with a distinguished record of being a fair commissioner. He was a devout Catholic, and one of his favorite things was the preservation of St. Mary's Catholic Church. He was also the supervisor of our bill room for a long time.

We had a tradition on St. Patrick's Day for Bill to come down on the floor in his Irish costume and sing a few Irish ditties for us. Today, we are fortunate to have Monte Fast here to sing one for old time's sake for Bill. I think it would be appropriate for us to do that.

When Bill passed away, unfortunately, I was in Hawaii and did not get back until after the services were over. I've been a very close family friend to Bill, his wife and daughters and I know we want to extend our sympathy to them on behalf of the Assembly. His passing was a tragic day for the people of Virginia City and for the people throughout the state who knew him as the kind person he was and the graciousness that he presented to all of us. Thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, want to rise in support of this resolution for Bill Marks.

Bill was a fraternity brother of mine. More importantly, he was a genuine human being who cared a great deal for the legislative process and also for having a good time. I'm sure all of us can tell wonderful stories about him standing in front of this body and singing. But, I remember him on a night in Virginia City, when I asked for a particular Irish whiskey that I was fond of. He went into the basement and opened up the trap door to go deep into the cellar to get the whiskey, as he was that kind of man. He wanted everyone to have a good time. He will be greatly missed. He cared a great deal about life and about things that really counted. A real Nevadan.

Resolution adopted.

Madam Speaker pro Tempore announced that if there were no objections, the Assembly would recess subject to the call of the Chair for the purpose of hearing an Irish ballad sung by Monte Fast in memory of Bill Marks.

Assembly in recess at 11:58 a.m.

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 11:59 a.m.

Madam Speaker pro Tempore presiding.

Quorum present.

By Assemblymen Anderson, Allard, Arberry, Bache, Batten, Bennett, Braunlin, Brower, Buckley, Carpenter, Chowning, Close, de Braga, Ernaut, Evans, Fettic, Freeman, Giunchigliani, Goldwater, Harrington, Humke, Krenzer, Manendo, Marvel, Neighbors, Nolan, Ohrenschall, Perkins, Price, Sandoval, Schneider, Segerblom, Spitler, Steel, Stroth, Tiffany, Tripple, Dini and Hettrick:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 15—Commending the Nevada School Food Service Association for its public service regarding public nutrition.

WHEREAS, In 1946, Congress enacted the National School Lunch Act which appropriated money to states on a matching basis to provide a school lunch program; and

WHEREAS, Currently within the State of Nevada over 111,646 breakfast and lunch meals are served daily to pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 through 12; and

WHEREAS, Pupils who are eligible for assistance represent 51.4 percent of the school lunch meals served and 74.1 percent of the breakfast meals served; and

WHEREAS, These figures are projected to increase in the future because of the large number of families moving to Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Education of the State of Nevada oversees the Child Nutrition Programs which administer six federal programs that are entirely supported by the United States Department of Agriculture; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada School Food Service Association is also responsible for providing training for school nutrition personnel, providing continuing education classes on nutrition for teachers, developing promotional materials and disseminating scientifically valid information to teachers, parents, school food service personnel and children; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the Nevada Legislature commend the Nevada School Food Service Association for their commitment and dedication in providing the children of Nevada nutritionally complete breakfast and lunch meals; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this legislative body is grateful and appreciative to the Nevada School Food Service Association for their efforts in the successful dissemination of nutritional information to all persons involved in the health of our children; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Sandy Ewert, President of the Nevada School Food Service Association.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblyman Giunchigliani:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 16—Commending the members of the chiropractic profession upon their centennial celebration.

WHEREAS, The chiropractic profession was founded in Davenport, Iowa, on September 18, 1895; and

WHEREAS, On this date the first chiropractic adjustment was performed in an office building on a janitor named Harvey Lillard; and

WHEREAS, One hundred years later, the chiropractic profession is now recognized by the Congress of the United States which has included chiropractic care under Medicare and authorized the commissioning of chiropractors as officers in the military; and

WHEREAS, The chiropractic profession is practiced throughout the world, including 50,000 chiropractic physicians throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, With this unprecedented growth, there has been a broadening acceptance of the benefits of chiropractic health care by the public and the health care community; and

WHEREAS, According to health care experts, as many as 80 percent of Americans will suffer back pain at some point in their lives; and

WHEREAS, Lower back pain is the most common health complaint experienced by working Americans today; and

WHEREAS, For many Americans who suffer from lower back pain, chiropractic care is a natural method of alleviating pain that does not require the use of drugs or surgery; and

WHEREAS, Chiropractors around the country have made and continue to make a significant contribution to the health and welfare of many people whose lives would not be the same without their services; and

WHEREAS, On March 18, 1995, members of the chiropractic profession will gather in Las Vegas to honor those dedicated to enhancing the quality of life of the residents of Nevada; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That members of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature do hereby commend the members of the chiropractic profession for their dedication and expertise in their profession; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Nevada Legislature extends its appreciation to these devoted professionals as they celebrate 100 years of the chiropractic profession; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Jeffrey D. Andrews, President of the Nevada State Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

Assemblyman Giunchigliani moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Giunchigliani.

Resolution adopted.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 16 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried unanimously.

By Assemblyman Batten: Assembly Joint Resolution No. 24—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to provide for the election of the chief justice by the justices of the supreme court.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That sections 3 and 19 of article 6 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read respectively as follows:

[Sec:] Sec. 3. The Justices of the Supreme Court, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State at the general election, and shall hold office for the term of Six Years from and including the first Monday of January next succeeding their election; [Provided,] provided, that there shall be elected, at the first election under this Constitution, Three Justices of the Supreme Court who shall hold Office from and including the first Monday of December AD. Eighteen hundred and Sixty four, and continue in Office thereafter, Two, Four and Six Years respectively, from and including the first Monday of January next [suceeding] succeeding their election. They shall meet as soon as practicable after their election and qualification, and at their first meeting shall determine by lot, the term of Office each shall fill, and the Justice drawing the shortest term shall be Chief Justice . [, and after the expiration of his term, the one having the next shortest term shall be Chief Justice, after which the Senior Justice in Commission shall be Chief Justice; and in case the commission of any two or more of said Justices shall bear the same date, they shall determine by lot, who shall be Chief Justice.]

Sec. 19. 1. The chief justice must be selected from among the justices of the supreme court by a majority vote of the justices. The term of office of chief justice is 4 years. A justice may succeed himself as chief justice.

2. A justice may resign the office of chief justice without resigning from the office of justice of the supreme court.

3. If a vacancy in the office of chief justice occurs, the justices of the supreme court shall, by majority vote, select from among the justices another chief justice to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

4. The chief justice is the administrative head of the court system. Subject to such rules as the supreme court may adopt, the chief justice may:

(a) Apportion the work of the supreme court among justices.

(b) Assign district judges to assist in other judicial districts or to specialized functions which may be established by law.

(c) Recall to active service any retired justice or judge of the court system who consents to such recall and who has not been removed or retired for cause or defeated for retention in office, and may assign him to appropriate temporary duty within the court system.

[2.] 5. In the absence or temporary disability of the chief justice, the associate justice senior in commission shall act as chief justice.

[3. This section becomes effective July 1, 1977.]

6. The provisions of this section pertaining to the selection of a chief justice and his term of office become effective January 1, 2000.

Assemblyman Batten moved that the resolution be referred to the Concurrent Committees on Judiciary and Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

THE SIXTY-FOURTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), March 20, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:13 a.m.

Speaker Hettrick presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Washoe Tribal Elder Theresa "Smokey" Jackson.

Heavenly Father, be with us today. Bless everyone here that has come to discuss problems. Whatever the subjects will be, that they do and say the right things. We should all work together so that all things are right.

The Washoe people lived here a long time ago. Our ancestors and we do not forget who we are and where we are. They took care of the land, the plants and especially the willows for weaving; the animals, including the wild horses; streams and rivers and also the lake, Lake Tahoe.

We should all talk to our children in order to teach the care of the land and to encourage respect of others. We will work together to do these things and to ensure Nevada is the land we love, and the place we want to be. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Ernaut moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 of the 67th Session.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblyman Manendo.

Assemblyman Close requested that Assemblyman Manendo's remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 of the 67th Session proposes to amend the Nevada Constitution to direct legislation to provide by law the rights of victims of crimes. The resolution enumerates those rights for victims to be informed of the status of criminal proceedings related to the crime, to be present at all public hearings and to be heard at sentencing. Specifically, no cause of action arises from the violation of laws pertaining to the rights of victims, nor does the violation give cause to set aside a conviction of sentence. A person may initiate an action to tell a public official or employee to carry out duties associated with victims' rights. Existing laws bring victims many of the rights outlined in this resolution. Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 would elevate those rights to constitutional recognition. This measure was approved by the 1993 Legislature. If approved in identical form by the 1995 Legislature, Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 would be submitted to the voters at the 1996 general election for final approval or disapproval.

I support this constitutional amendment because this provides a much more abiding guarantee of protection.

We all know that because a law is on the books, it does not mean it is carried out. A specific constitutional provision as backup can only enhance the enforcement of victims' rights laws. This sends a message. It reassures the public that government cares a great deal about victims of crime and intends to do all that it possibly can to protect their rights.

States all over the United States have some type of victims' rights legislation, such as the Victims' Bill of Rights and several adopted constitutional amendments similar to the one before us today.

Supporters of this resolution include STOP DUI, MADD, representatives from the Rape Crisis Center and members of the association known as Families of Murder Victims.

The language contained in this bill is appropriate because it addresses the question dealing with dignity and respect throughout all critical phases of the process. It is appropriate to recognize victims' rights constitutionally in the criminal justice system, just as we have always done for the rights of the accused.

Now it is time for victims of crime to be represented and have their rights protected. This provides sensitivity, dignity and respect to those many victims in this state. Victims are entitled to this and that is the way the constitution of this great state should read.

I urge this body to support Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 of the 67th Session.

Roll call on Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 of the 67th Session:

YEAS—42.

NAYS—None.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 of the 67th Session having received a constitutional majority, Mr. Speaker declared it passed.

Resolution ordered transmitted to the Senate.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

"Section 1. Chapter 362 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. If the net proceeds of a geographically separate extractive operation in any calendar year exceed $4,000,000, the tax upon the net proceeds for the next calendar year must be paid:

(a) On or before August 1 for the net proceeds extracted from January 1 through June 30 of that year;

(b) On or before November 1 for the net proceeds extracted from July 1 through September 30 of that year; and

(c) On or before February 1 for the net proceeds extracted from October 1 through December 31 of the preceding year.

The rate of tax must be computed pursuant to NRS 362.140 on the basis of the best estimate of the taxpayer as to the rate that will be applicable for the current year. If the rate selected is different than the rate paid in the previous year, the taxpayer shall submit a brief explanation with the payment to justify the rate selected. If, upon investigation of the facts, the department determines that an inappropriate rate was used which resulted in an underpayment of the taxes due, the department shall immediately notify the taxpayer in writing of the deficiency. The taxpayer shall pay the deficiency within 10 days after receipt of such a notice.

2. If the total amount of royalties paid by a geographically separate operation to a person in any calendar year exceeds $100,000, the recipient of the royalties shall pay the tax on the royalties for the next calendar year:

(a) On or before August 1 for royalties paid from January 1 through June 30 of that year;

(b) On or before November 1 for royalties paid from July 1 through September 30 of that year; and

(c) On or before February 1 for royalties paid from October 1 through December 31 of the preceding year.

3. The tax upon the net proceeds for any other operation or on any other royalties may be paid pursuant to the requirements of subsection 1 or 2.

4. The taxpayer shall include with each payment made pursuant to this section a copy of the calculations by which the amount of the payment was determined, including the amount of net proceeds and the rate of tax.

5. On or before March 15 of each year, the department shall provide a notice to each person to whom subsection 1 or 2 is applicable. The notice must include a copy of this section and state that the department has determined that subsection 1 or 2 is applicable to that person for the current calendar year. Failure to receive the notice required by this subsection does not excuse late payment or nonpayment.

Sec. 2. NRS 362.110 is hereby amended to read as follows:

362.110 1. Every person extracting any mineral in this state or receiving any royalty:

(a) Shall, on or before February [15] 1 of each year, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), file with the department a statement showing the gross yield and claimed net proceeds from each geographically separate operation where a mineral is extracted by that person during the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which the statement is filed.

(b) May have up to [30] 15 additional days to file the statement, if beforehand he makes written application to the department and the department finds good cause for the extension.

2. The statement must:

(a) Show the claimed deductions from the gross yield in the detail set forth in NRS 362.120. The deductions are limited to the costs incurred during the period covered by the statement.

(b) Be in the form prescribed by the department.

(c) Be verified by the manager, superintendent, secretary or treasurer of the corporation, or by the owner of the operation, or, if the owner is a natural person, by someone authorized in his behalf.

3. Each recipient of a royalty as described in subsection 1 shall annually file with the department a list showing each of the lessees responsible for taxes due in connection with the operation or operations included in the statement filed pursuant to subsections 1 and 2.

Sec. 3. NRS 362.115 is hereby amended to read as follows:

362.115 In addition to the statement required by subsection 1 of NRS 362.110, each person [who is required to file that statement:

1. Shall,] extracting any mineral in this state shall on or before May 30 of each year, file with the department a statement showing the estimated gross yield and estimated net proceeds from each such operation for the entire current calendar year [, and shall pay the tax upon the net proceeds so estimated to the department on or before July 15 of that year. If an estimate is filed, the amount due under the final certification pursuant to NRS 362.130 is the difference between the total tax established upon the certification and the sum of the estimated payments made or credited, if any, for that calendar year. If the sum of the estimated payments exceeds the total tax, the taxpayer is entitled to credit the excess against the ensuing estimates or final taxes due until it is exhausted, or, if the taxpayer files a statement with the department which indicates that he will have no tax liability for the next calendar year, upon verification by the department, the taxpayer is entitled to receive a refund.

2. May file with the department a quarterly report stating an estimate for the year and the actual quarterly amounts of production, gross yield and net proceeds as of March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31, to establish whether liability for a penalty exists. If the person chooses to submit such reports, the reports must be submitted on a form prescribed by the department no later than the last day of the month following the end of the calendar quarter.] and an estimate of all royalties that will be paid during the current calendar year. The department shall use this statement only to prepare estimates for use by local governments in the preparation of budgets.

Sec. 4. NRS 362.130 is hereby amended to read as follows:

362.130 1. When the department determines from the annual statement filed pursuant to NRS 362.110 the net proceeds of any minerals extracted, it shall prepare its certificate of the amount of the net proceeds and the tax due and shall send a copy to the owner of the mine, operator of the mine, or recipient of the royalty, as the case may be.

2. The certificate must be prepared and mailed not later than [June 10] April 20 immediately following the month of February during which the statement was filed.

3. [If the amount paid pursuant to NRS 362.115 is less than 90 percent of the amount certified pursuant to this section, the amount due must include a penalty of 10 percent of the underpayment unless:

(a) The amount paid pursuant to NRS 362.115 is equal to or greater than the total tax liability of the operation for the immediately preceding calendar year; or

(b) The person files quarterly reports pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 362.115 in a timely manner for that year and pays the additional amount due within 30 days after the quarterly report that indicates the additional estimated tax liability is filed with the department. The additional estimated tax liability must be calculated by determining the difference between the revised estimates of net proceeds based on the recent production figures as indicated by the quarterly reports and the original estimate supplied on May 30 of that year.

4. The taxes and any penalty are due on June 30 of that year.] The tax due as indicated in the certificate prepared pursuant to this section must be paid on or before May 10 of the year in which the certificate is received.

4. If the owner of the mine, operator of the mine, or recipient of the royalty paid taxes pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 of section 1 of this act, the certificate must indicate any deficiency remaining from the previous calendar year or any overpayment of the taxes made for the previous calendar year.

5. Any deficiency remaining from the previous calendar year, as indicated on the certificate prepared pursuant to this section must be paid on or before May 10 of the year in which the certificate is received.

6. If an overpayment was made and subsection 1 or 2 of section 1 of this act applies to the taxpayer for the current calendar year or the taxpayer chooses to pay the tax pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 of section 1 of this act for the current calendar year, one-half of the overpayment may be credited towards the payment due on August 1 of the current calendar year and one-quarter may be credited towards each of the other two payments due for the current calendar year. If neither subsection 1 nor subsection 2 of section 1 of this act is applicable to the taxpayer for the current calendar year and the tax is paid on or before May 10 of the next calendar year, the overpayment may be credited towards that payment.

Sec. 5. NRS 362.160 is hereby amended to read as follows:

362.160 1. If the amount of any tax [or estimated payment] required by NRS 362.100 to 362.240, inclusive, is not paid within [30] 10 days after it is due, it is delinquent and must be collected as other delinquent taxes are collected by law, together with [the penalties provided for the collection of delinquent taxes.] a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the tax which is owed, as determined by the department, in addition to the tax, plus interest at the rate of 1.5 percent per month, or fraction of a month, from the date the tax was due until the date of payment.

2. Any person extracting any mineral or receiving a royalty may appeal from the imposition of the penalty and interest to the Nevada tax commission by filing a notice of appeal within 30 days after the tax became due.

Sec. 6. NRS 362.170 is hereby amended to read as follows:

362.170 1. There is hereby appropriated to each county the total of the amounts obtained by multiplying, for each extractive operation situated within the county, the net proceeds of that operation and any royalties paid by that operation, by the combined rate of tax ad valorem, excluding any rate levied by the State of Nevada, for property at that site [.] , plus a pro rata share of any penalties and interest collected by the department for the late payment of taxes distributed to the county. The department shall report to the state controller [for distribution on August 1] on or before February 15, May 25, August 15 and November 15 of each year the amount appropriated to each county, as calculated for each operation from the final statement made in February of that year for the preceding calendar year [.] and the statements filed pursuant to section 1 of this act. The state controller shall distribute all money due to a county on or before February 20, May 30, August 20 and November 20 of each year.

2. The county treasurer shall apportion to each local government or other local entity [, the] an amount calculated by:

(a) Determining the total of the amounts obtained by multiplying, for each extractive operation situated within its jurisdiction, the net proceeds of that operation [, including] and any royalty payments [,] paid by that operation, by the rate levied on behalf of that local government or other local entity [, less] ;

(b) Adding to the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (a) a pro rata share of any penalties and interest collected by the department for the late payment of taxes distributed to that local government or local entity; and

(c) Subtracting from the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (b) a percentage commission of 3 percent of that amount which must be deposited in the county general fund.

3. The amounts apportioned pursuant to [this subsection,] subsection 2, including the amount retained by the county and excluding the percentage commission, must be applied to the uses for which each levy was authorized in the same proportion as the rate of each levy bears to the total rate.

[3.] 4. The department shall report to the state controller on [August 1] May 25 of each year the amount received as tax upon the net proceeds of geothermal resources which equals the product of those net proceeds multiplied by the rate of tax levied ad valorem by the State of Nevada.

Sec. 7. NRS 362.173 is hereby amended to read as follows:

362.173 1. The permanent net proceeds fund is hereby created as a trust fund. No portion of the principal of the fund may be removed except by direct legislative appropriation. Any such appropriation must receive the votes of a two-thirds majority of each house of the legislature.

2. On or before [August 15] June 1 of each year, the state controller shall deposit in the fund 5 percent of the portion of the revenue from the tax on the net proceeds of minerals that is remaining after [the appropriation made by] all of the distributions of the proceeds of the taxes paid for the previous calendar year have been made pursuant to NRS 362.170.

3. On or before [August] June 15 of each odd-numbered year, the state controller shall transfer to the fund any revenue from the tax on the net proceeds of minerals that was received [during] in payment for taxes due for the 2 previous fiscal years which, after subtracting the amount deposited pursuant to subsection 2 and the amount appropriated pursuant to NRS 362.170 for both fiscal years, exceeds $55,000,000.

Sec. 8. NRS 362.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

362.230 1. Every person extracting any mineral in this state, or receiving a royalty in connection therewith, who fails to file with the department the statements provided for in NRS 362.100 to 362.240, inclusive, during the time and in the manner provided for in NRS 362.100 to 362.240, inclusive, shall pay a penalty of not more than [10 percent of the amount of the tax due or $5,000, whichever is less.] $5,000. If any such person fails to file the statement, the department may ascertain and certify the net proceeds of the minerals extracted or the value of the royalty from all data and information obtainable, and the amount of the tax due must be computed on the basis of the amount due so ascertained and certified.

2. The executive director shall determine the amount of the penalty. This penalty becomes a debt due the State of Nevada and, upon collection, must be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund.

3. Any person extracting any mineral or receiving a royalty may appeal from the imposition of the penalty [and interest] to the Nevada tax commission by filing a notice of appeal within 30 days after the decision of the executive director.

Sec. 9. 1. On or before August 15, 1995, the state controller shall distribute the proceeds of the taxes that were due on June 30, 1995, and paid pursuant to NRS 362.130, as it existed before amendment by this act, to the counties to which they were appropriated.

2. On or before August 1, 1995, the state controller shall make the payment required by subsection 2 of NRS 362.173 for the 1995 calendar year.

3. All taxes imposed by chapter 362 of NRS for:

(a) The 1994 calendar year must be paid pursuant to chapter 362 of NRS as it existed before amendment by this act.

(b) The 1995 calendar year must be paid pursuant to chapter 362 of NRS as amended by this act.

Sec. 10. This act becomes effective on July 1, 1995.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to taxation; revising the manner in which the tax on the net proceeds of minerals is paid and the penalty for late payments; making various changes concerning the distribution of the proceeds of the tax to the local entities; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

"Summary—Revises provisions governing payment and distribution of tax on net proceeds of minerals. (BDR 32-127)".

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 53.

Amend the bill as a whole by adding a new section designated sec. 4.5, following sec. 4, to read as follows:

"Sec. 4.5. NRS 209.429 is hereby amended to read as follows:

209.429 1. The director may, at the request of an offender who has:

(a) Established a position of employment in the community; and

(b) Successfully completed the initial period of rehabilitation required under the program of treatment established pursuant to NRS 209.425, assign the offender to the custody of the division of parole and probation of the department of motor vehicles and public safety to serve a term of residential confinement, pursuant to NRS 213.380, for not longer than the remainder of his sentence.

2. Before a person may be assigned to serve a term of residential confinement pursuant to this section, he must submit to the division a signed document stating that:

(a) He will comply with the terms or conditions of his residential confinement; and

(b) If he fails to comply with the terms or conditions of his residential confinement and is taken into custody outside of this state, he waives all his rights relating to extradition proceedings.

3. If an offender assigned to the custody of the division of parole and probation pursuant to this section escapes or violates any of the terms or conditions of his residential confinement:

(a) The division of parole and probation may, pursuant to the procedure set forth in NRS 213.410, return the offender to the custody of the department of prisons.

(b) The offender forfeits all or part of the credits for good behavior earned by him before the escape or violation, as determined by the director. The director may provide for a forfeiture of credits pursuant to this paragraph only after proof of the offense and notice to the offender, and may restore credits forfeited for such reasons as he considers proper. The decision of the director regarding such a forfeiture is final.

[3.] 4. The assignment of an offender to the custody of the division of parole and probation pursuant to this section shall be deemed:

(a) A continuation of his imprisonment and not a release on parole; and

(b) For the purposes of NRS 209.341, an assignment to a facility of the department of prisons, except that the offender is not entitled to obtain any benefits or to participate in any programs provided to offenders in the custody of the department of prisons.

[4.] 5. No person has a right to be assigned to the custody of the division of parole and probation pursuant to this section, or to remain in that custody after such an assignment, and it is not intended that the provisions of this section or of NRS 213.371 to 213.410, inclusive, create any right or interest in liberty or property or establish a basis for any cause of action against the state, its political subdivisions, agencies, boards, commissions, departments, officers or employees.''.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Freeman, de Braga, Neighbors and Price.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN FREEMAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22 urges Congress to continue the existence of the corporations for public broadcasting and its important role in ensuring public television and radio programming of high quality, diversity, creativity and innovations for all Americans. The resolution becomes effective upon passage and approval.

I remember that public broadcasting was started in the 1960s. As a person who grew up in a rural area, I was gratified and astonished at the type of programming, both in radio and television, which was available to those of us who hadn't had the opportunity for this type of programming. I consider it one of the things that makes our lives as Americans full.

I have a lot of material here that explains what happens with your involvement in the public school system. For example, you can get a GED in Las Vegas via public television teachers, as well as training in English as a second language. If they lose their funding, the rural areas will suffer. I would hate to think we would do this. I would ask for your support. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN DE BRAGA:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22. In rural areas of Nevada where there are few cultural choices, public radio and television often offers residents their only access to educational programs, in-depth local political coverage and classical music. These broadcasts are vital to rural Nevada as well as to the rest of the state. I really cannot survive without a daily fix from KUNR, and I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN NEIGHBORS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22. This is a very important resolution, especially for the rural counties. For many of you who have driven up from Las Vegas, once you leave Indian Springs, you have 400 miles of good music, news and radio. I urge your support on this bill. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I want to tell a story about a person that I think we will all see and appreciate someday. Two years ago at the ALEC meeting in upper Michigan, all the legislators were invited to a school whose name escapes me, but it is a summer school for children talented in music and painting. I met and listened to a young black girl about 7 or 8 years old playing the violin. She was a genius. This young lady is going to be known when she grows up. Her name was Melissa White. It turned out that I talked to her mother to see how her talent developed. Melissa had watched someone playing the violin on Sesame Street and started bugging her mother until she finally bought her a violin. It really brought home that one story. I don't watch Sesame Street, but I tell you it must have some wonderful things on it. I will be continuing my support to the extent I can for public television and radio. Thank you.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, March 24, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day concurred in the Assembly amendment to Senate Bill No. 146.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING AND REFERENCE

By the Committee on Ways and Means:

Assembly Bill No. 400—An Act relating to community centers for training retarded persons; authorizing the making of grants of money to certain such centers to assist in the payment of administrative and operational expenses of the centers before such expenses have actually been incurred; requiring reporting concerning the expenditure of such money; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Assemblyman Marvel moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Motion carried.

By the Committee on Government Affairs:

Amend sec. 2, page 1, by deleting lines 22 through 25 and inserting: "tion by the superintendent that the applicant is qualified, a] A license must be issued to [the applicant.] an applicant if the superintendent determines that the applicant is qualified and:

(a) The reports on the criminal history of the applicant from the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the central repository for Nevada records of criminal history do not indicate that the applicant has been convicted of a felony or any offense involving moral turpitude; or

(b) The superintendent determines, in his discretion, that any conviction indicated in the reports on the criminal history of the applicant is unrelated to the position within the county school district for which the applicant applied.".

Amend sec. 3, page 2, line 15, by deleting: "section 1 of this act" and inserting: "paragraph (d) of subsection 6 of NRS 179A.075".

Amend sec. 5, pages 3 and 4, by deleting lines 47 and 48 on page 3 and lines 1 through 9 on page 4, and inserting:

"(d) Investigate the criminal history of any person who:

(1) Has applied to the superintendent of public instruction for a license;

(2) Has applied to a county school district for employment; or

(3) Is employed by a county school district, and notify the superintendent of each county school district and the superintendent of public instruction if the investigation of the central repository indicates that the person has been arrested for or convicted of a felony or any offense involving moral turpitude.

(e) On or before the first day of each month, notify the superintendent of each county school district by providing him with a list of all persons:

(1) Investigated pursuant to paragraph (d); or

(2) Employed by a county school district whose fingerprints were sent previously to the central repository for investigation, who the central repository's records indicate have been arrested for or convicted of a felony or any offense involving moral turpitude since the central repository's initial investigation. The superintendent of each county school district shall determine whether further investigation or action by the district is appropriate.".

Assembly Bill No. 175.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Education:

Amendment No. 131.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering section 1 as sec. 2 and adding a new section designated section 1, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. NRS 387.1233 is hereby amended to read as follows:

387.1233 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, basic support of each school district must be computed by:

(a) Multiplying the basic support guarantee per pupil established for that school district for that school year by the sum of:

(1) [Six-tenths the] The count of pupils enrolled in the kindergarten department on the last day of the first school month of the school year.

(2) The count of pupils enrolled in grades 1 to 12, inclusive, on the last day of the first school month of the school year.

(3) The count of pupils not included under subparagraph (1) or (2) who are receiving special education pursuant to the provisions of NRS 388.440 to 388.520, inclusive, on the last day of the first school month of the school year, excluding the count of pupils who have not attained the age of 5 years and who are receiving special education pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 388.490 on that day.

(4) Six-tenths the count of pupils who have not attained the age of 5 years and who are receiving special education pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 388.490 on the last day of the first school month of the school year.

(5) The count of children detained in detention homes, alternative programs and juvenile forestry camps receiving instruction pursuant to the provisions of NRS 388.550, 388.560 and 388.570 on the last day of the first school month of the school year.

(b) Multiplying the number of special education program units maintained and operated by the amount per program established for that school year.

(c) Adding the amounts computed in paragraphs (a) and (b).

2. If the sum of the counts prescribed in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 is less than the sum similarly obtained for the immediately preceding school year, the larger sum must be used in computing basic support.

3. Pupils who are excused from attendance at examinations or have completed their work in accordance with the rules of the board of trustees must be credited with attendance during that period.

4. Pupils who are incarcerated in a facility or institution operated by the department of prisons must not be counted for the purpose of computing basic support pursuant to this section. The average daily attendance for such pupils must be reported to the department of education.

5. Part-time pupils who are enrolled in courses which are approved by the department as meeting the requirements for an adult to earn a high school diploma must not be counted for the purpose of computing basic support pursuant to this section. The average daily attendance for such pupils must be reported to the department.".

Amend section 1, page 1, by deleting lines 9 through 11 and inserting: "children. If the board decides not to establish such a kindergarten, it may:

(a) Provide transportation for those children to enable them to attend kindergarten in another school; or

(b) Provide, by agreement with a child's parent or guardian, an authorized program of kindergarten instruction that may be offered in the home. Such a program must provide for consultation by the child's parent or guardian with assigned licensed educational personnel for assistance as necessary.".

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sec. 2.

Amend sec. 3, page 2, line 45, by deleting "5" and inserting "6".

Amend sec. 3, page 3, by deleting lines 1 through 21 and inserting:

"2. Any child who will arrive at the age of 5 years by September 30 may be admitted to kindergarten at the beginning of the school year and his enrollment must be counted for purposes of apportionment. Any child who will arrive at the age of 6 years by September 30 must be admitted at the beginning of the school year to a regular school program [, and may] and his enrollment must be counted for purposes of apportionment. Such a child must be admitted to kindergarten, unless he has completed kindergarten or the results of a developmental screening test indicate his readiness for first grade, in which case he must be admitted to the first grade . [at the beginning of the school year, and his enrollment must be counted for apportionment purposes.] If a child will not arrive at the age of [6] 5 years by September 30, the child must not be admitted to [the first grade] kindergarten until the beginning of the school year following his [sixth] fifth birthday.

3. Whenever a child who has arrived at the age of [6] 5 years but not at the age of [7] 6 years is enrolled in a public school, each parent, guardian or other person in the State of Nevada having control or charge of the child shall send him to the public school during all the time the school is in session. This requirement for attendance does not apply to any child under the age of [7] 6 years who has not yet been enrolled or has been formally withdrawn from enrollment in public school.

4. A child who becomes a resident of this state after completing kindergarten or beginning first grade in another state in accordance with the laws of that state may be admitted to the grade he was attending or would be attending had he remained a resident of the other state regardless of his age unless the board of trustees of the school district determines that the requirements of this section are being deliberately circumvented.

5. Each school district shall, upon request from the child's parent or guardian, perform a developmental screening test on a child who will arrive at the age of 6 years by September 30 of the next school year to determine the child's developmental readiness for a regular school program. The school district shall report the results of any such screening test to the child's parent or guardian.".

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sec. 4 and renumbering sec. 5 as sec. 4.

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to education; revising the manner in which the basic support guarantee per pupil is established; requiring the completion of kindergarten as a prerequisite for admission to first grade; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Assemblyman Williams moved the adoption of the amendment.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Speaker:

Your Committee of the Whole has considered Assembly Resolution No. 8.

LYNN HETTRICK, Chairman

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Perkins requested that remarks made during the Committee of the Whole be entered in the Journal.

FRANKIE SUE DEL PAPA:

Members of this Honorable Body: I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to appear before you today. This is the first time in my career that I have been extended such an invitation. I had not expected it to be in the context of defending an action that I had taken in my official capacity as Attorney General. Be that as it may, I will be brief—because there are other voices that should be heard.

Please don't kid yourselves and don't think that Nevadans will be fooled either . . . today's vote is not, I repeat, it is not about free speech. Today's vote is related to one of the most important state public policy issues that we as Nevadans will ever have to deal with, an issue which most certainly concerns the public safety of all of our citizens, and an issue directly and indirectly concerned with the continued economic vitality of the entire State of Nevada, not just the residents of Lincoln County.

Nevada's economic health is inextricably tied to our gaming and tourism industry. Not only is it our major industry, representing one out of every four jobs, it is also our primary economic driver. The rapid growth experienced in recent years, especially the latter part of the 1980s and 1990s, is largely the result of the construction and subsequent opening of megaresorts. Today, we are on the verge of yet another boom as corporate America is again betting big bucks on Nevada's future (i.e., the recent announcements of plans to start construction on MGM Grand's New York-New York, the Mirage-Gold Strike's Victoria and the Mirage's Beau Rivage).

Nevada is the economic envy of the nation. We are currently the fastest growing state in just about every major economic indicator (population, employment, personal income, housing starts, etc.). In addition to adding jobs in the gaming/tourist sector itself, it is conservatively estimated that for every job generated here another job is created elsewhere in the economy. In the last 12 months alone this process produced over 55,000 new jobs.

Nevada's fiscal well-being is also directly tied to gaming and tourism. Gaming revenues alone account for 43 percent of the state's general revenue and it is estimated that tourists contribute some 20–25 percent of sales tax revenue. Combined, tourist spending easily generates over 50 percent of state revenues.

Both the statistics presented and common sense make it abundantly clear just how critical gaming and tourism are to Nevada. Any threat to this sector of our economy is a threat to all of Nevada.

The recent actions by Lincoln County officials are such threats. The specter associated with a nuclear waste dump, whether real or imagined, could have a significant adverse impact. The decision to invest millions of dollars and, in some cases, billions in megaresorts is predicated on the belief that tourists will continue to flock to Nevada in ever-increasing numbers. The storing of deadly nuclear waste some 85 miles away from Las Vegas (home to 75 percent of the state's gaming and tourism workers) would in all probability have significant adverse impacts.

Now remember, 90 percent of the high-level radioactive waste generated in our nation originates east of the Mississippi River. Putting aside the very real transportation issues associated with delivering this to our state, some of DOE's own scientists have expressed grave concern about its ultimate storage in Nevada. This month alone, there have been two important New York Times newspaper articles discussing major problems with placing high-level radioactive waste in Yucca Mountain. The March 5 issue reported that two Los Alamos National Laboratory scientists believe that waste stored in Yucca Mountain is likely, in time, to explode with the force of atomic and perhaps hydrogen bombs. The New York Times March 23 issue indicated this theory was confirmed by three of DOE's own Savannah River scientists. Time does not permit a full discussion of the other public safety issues such as earthquakes and water. Suffice it to remind ourselves, Nevada ranks third in the nation relative to earthquake occurrence (after Alaska and California); or that reportedly the Skull Mountain earthquake in June 1993, did a million dollars worth of damage to the Test Site.

Coupled with all of this is the long and involved history of our state's dealings primarily with the Department of Energy. This has been an ongoing relationship which can, at best, be described as heavy-handed and at worst, be described as deceitful and untrustworthy on DOE's part. The bottom line, however, is this is a very complex legal and factual relationship involving federal laws, rules and regulations, and millions of pages of documents, and many complicated court cases involving matters of a highly technical nature.

Into this picture step some of Lincoln County's officials.

During the Lincoln County Board of Commissioners meeting on March 6, 1995, the City Manager of Caliente was asked how the idea of the interim storage facility at Elgin got started. He responded that it was his idea on a return flight in late November from Minnesota. He and a few other city and county officials had been attending meetings with nuclear industry and state nuclear utility regulatory groups. Until we have the opportunity to take the deposition of the City Manager, we will not know exactly what he was told. We do know that 14 nuclear utilities and 20 states sued the Department of Energy last year to force the DOE to take title to the spent fuel at nuclear power generating reactor sites and take it off their hands by January, 1998. The DOE has resisted their claims. We also know that the program to site a repository at Yucca Mountain is in a state of disarray. U.S. Senator Murkowski, Chairman of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee, in a March 2, 1995, hearing, said that there is less than a 50–50 chance that the Yucca Mountain site can be licensed. Upon the City Manager's return to Nevada the Joint City/County Impact Alleviation Committee chaired by the City Manager entered the picture. In the Committee's December 15, 1994, meeting, the members approved the concept advanced by the City Manager and almost immediately published a report, The Yucca Report, which advised the Caliente City Council and the Board of Lincoln County Commissioners to seek modifications of the Nuclear Waste Policy Act. The Committee recommendation became almost verbatim the language of the resolution which was first considered on January 3, 1995, and approved that day by the City Council. The Lincoln County Commissioners also considered the resolution on that day but took no action. Following the City Council's vote a document entitled, "A Citizen's Guide to Recommendations for Maximizing Benefits and Minimizing Risks Associated with State and Industry Proposals to Amend the Nuclear Waste Policy Act," was published.

One of my deputies appeared before the County Commissioners on January 20, and attempted to dissuade them from passing the resolution. On February 6, 1995, the Board again considered the proposed resolution but tabled the matter after vehement public opposition. A letter from the Governor was faxed to the meeting which suggested that the resolution would be in violation of state policy and law and that it would be counter productive to the interests of Nevadans. My office was in telephone contact with the District Attorney during the meeting, and advised him that the approval of the resolution would be an invitation and encouragement to the Federal Government to violate the state law prohibiting storage of high-level radioactive waste in Nevada. He, in turn, advised each of the Commissioners that my office would seek legal recourse if the resolution was enacted.

On February 16, the City Council again addressed the resolution and again approved it. On February 17, 1995, Lincoln County officials met with staff members of the Governor's Office. The Governor's Chief of Staff stated numerous times, clearly, that nuclear waste is a state-federal issue and that Nevada law does not permit the storage of high-level nuclear waste in the state. The group met also with members of my staff, Brooke Nielsen, the Assistant Attorney General and Harry Swainston, the Senior Deputy assigned to nuclear waste matters, the same day. Because of the press of time caused by airline reservations, a full discussion and exchange of views was not possible. The message was communicated by Mr. Swainston, however, that should the Commissioners approve the resolution inviting the Federal Government to violate state law, two actions would be recommended to the Attorney General, one for removal from office based upon a charge of conspiracy to violate state law and to commit an act injurious to the public health, and the state's trade and commerce and a second action seeking to enjoin the implementation of the resolution.

The day before the meetings in Carson City, February 16, the officials of the City of Caliente and Lincoln County, including Commissioner Ed Wright and Mayor Kevin Phillips, escorted nuclear industry representatives and out-of-state officials to the Elgin site and offered the site as the answer to their interim storage needs.

On Tuesday, February 21, 1995, the two Lincoln County Commissioners, Culverwell and Wright, as a majority, with Commissioner Chamberlain in opposition, approved the resolution and immediately faxed a copy of the resolution to the Secretary of Energy. A comment was made during the Commission meeting by Commissioner Culverwell that something interesting is going to happen in Washington, D.C., on Thursday. She obviously was referring to the introduction by Representative Fred Upton from Michigan of a bill, H.R. 1020, on Thursday, February 23, 1995, which referenced the willingness of a local government in Nevada to host an interim high-level radioactive waste facility. The bill was drafted by a nuclear industry group, the Nuclear Energy Institute, members of which were present in the field trip to the Elgin site. Section 206 of the bill specified that an interim storage facility would be located in Area 25 of the Nevada Test Site unless the DOE determined that it would be appropriate to accept the proposal of an affected unit of government in Nevada that expressed a desire to host such a facility and/or facilities for the handling and transportation of spent nuclear fuel. The facts indicate that an official or officials of the city and county were in continuous contact with nuclear industry representatives before the resolution was enacted. The resolution was simply a formality to finalize a plan to offer up the county as a willing host for the construction and operation of a facility for the interim storage of high-level radioactive waste and facilities for the handling and transportation of spent nuclear fuel.

On March 2, 1995, Mayor Phillips and Commissioner Wright appeared before the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources for the purpose of urging that Senate Bill 167 be amended so that an interim radioactive waste storage facility be developed and operated at the Elgin site rather than the Area 25 site near Yucca Mountain. Hearings on the Upton bill are expected to be conducted before the House Energy and Power Subcommittee as early as May.

In the interest of time, I will only say that I find it very hard to believe that the senators who voted in favor of a similar resolution yesterday, and those of you who may vote affirmatively today, can say with a straight face that this is about free speech. The truth of the matter is that we all know what this is about. The officials of Lincoln County went far beyond constitutionally protected debate and discussions. What is at issue here today is their formal actions.

I have had legislators tell me privately how sorry they are, but publicly that they have to vote with "the family," i.e., the Republican party. I have been told that I should back off or otherwise my office could be impacted (implicitly through the budget process). I am sorry if that happens to the fine people I work with as a result of our standing up on a complicated legal issue that indeed impacts all Nevadans now and certainly in the future, as well as our state's public safety and economic vitality.

In the interest of all Nevadans, I would respectfully suggest to you that the proper course today is not to condemn me, or the Governor, but rather it would be to reaffirm this body's opposition to the storage of high-level radioactive waste anywhere in Nevada.

Or in the alternative, 'fess up, stop the charade, and if you really do want to change the law of Nevada so that local entities can deal with the feds one on one with total disregard for the rest of us—then do it.

Local governments are not sovereign, they are creatures of this state legislature. It is your decision as to what the proper role of local government is, just as it is your decision as to what message you send today.

When the Attorney General of Nevada takes action designed to reinforce Nevada's opposition to the Yucca Mountain dump and Nevada's legislature will not stand behind her, it sends an unmistakable message to our nation's capital. That message is that the Silver State's long-time unanimity has begun to erode. Is that what you want Washington to hear? And are you prepared to answer to our constituents for the consequences of that message?

The last few days of the 1993 legislative session made it very clear that the nuclear power industry lobby regards the Nevada Legislature as the weak link in our state's stance against the dump. I hope by your votes today you will smash that assumption once and for all.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I do have a question Madam Attorney General. Thank you for the excellent information. You were talking a little fast to keep notes, but I want to tell you up front so that everyone knows, I do not think that this issue is a throw down the hammer issue. We have friends, elected officials and a duty on both sides of this issue to figure out what is legal and I agree that this is not a freedom of speech issue. I think that this is a legal issue and I tend to think that at this point in time that there may have been people on both sides moving with some either misunderstanding or not understanding everything and I have a question. You went down through a series of various meetings and I was not able to get all of the dates, but I was told this morning by someone and I wanted to ask you and this is the only time to do it. There were obviously a whole series of meetings when your deputy was giving advice and telling the commission what was going to happen if they did this. I was told that at some point in time and I jotted down perhaps on the 20th, but at some point in time that they were advised by a deputy attorney general that a motion would not be, in fact, a violation of the law and I am told that is on video tape and so forth and that is one part of the question. The other part, which is what I am curious about is whether there was written communication, not that it would necessarily be written, but was there, in fact, written communication from your office prior to them taking the final act, whenever that was, February 22nd, or what have you, that in the opinion of your office which I happen to tend to agree that it would be a violation of law instead of free speech. I would never have thought of that until this whole thing came up, but after reading everything I agree and I think any of us here would have fallen into that trap without really thinking, but those are the two questions, were they in fact advised at some point in time that a resolution would not be a violation of law and were they ever advised that it would be a violation of law by right?

MS. DEL PAPA:

Mr. Price, I was not personally present, Deputy Attorney General Harry Swainston, I think is in the best position to answer those questions—that is why I have called him forward to do that. I appreciate your noticing the fact that this is a mischaracterization to characterize this issue as a free speech issue.

HARRY SWAINSTON:

I am a deputy attorney general and have been for nearly 21 years. Mr. Price, in answer to your question, I think this reference was to my appearance before the Lincoln County Commissioners on January 20th, as I recall. At that time, I advised the commissioners that the resolution itself, per se, did not call for the actual storage of waste in the state, and obviously it doesn't by the very wording of the statute. However, upon looking at this more closely, subsequently, it became apparent that it did contemplate something in the nature of a conspiracy under our statutes which prescribe that a conspiracy is an act by two or more persons to do something that is injurious to the public health, to the trade or commerce, and which is unlawful. I think that probably would be sufficient to answer your question.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, very much. I want to make sure that I understand this. So, there is a possibility that at least at one point in time, there may have been confusion or misunderstanding on even both parts. I can understand that because in any kind of law, if any two people, elected officials or anything else as I see it, got together and said, "Let's take some action or resolution and let's go ask somebody to come in and commit some other crime such as robbery, that would be conspiracy," and I understand that. But, I also can understand the confusion at that point in time. So, there was a period of time before you actually fully studied the resolution that wasn't apparent to you or to them. Now, the second part of the question that I want to ask is, before they took action, were they informed, perhaps in writing, but in any way directly that the attorney general's office did feel that it would be a violation? Before they took action, even if it was an hour before, because I don't know, I'm asking because I don't know and before we finish today I want to have the facts.

MR. SWAINSTON:

Mr. Price, the county commissioners met on February 6th. At that meeting, and during the meeting, I was in a telephone conversation with Mr. Tom Dales who was the district attorney in Lincoln County. At that time, I explained to him that we considered the resolution as a kind of encouragement or an invitation to the Federal Government to violate our law prohibiting the storage of high-level radioactive waste in the state. And, my understanding is that Mr. Dale met with each of the commissioners at that time and advised them of our position and that we would likely seek legal recourse should they proceed. At that hearing, they did defer consideration of the resolution. Later on, of course, in the meeting of February 17th, I made it abundantly clear just exactly what our position was and that was in advance of their meeting on February 21st where they approved the resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Okay, so you advised the district attorney on the 6th, and then on the 17th you appeared before the council or whoever and advised them directly, face-to-face. Do I understand that? And, then a couple of days later they actually took the action?

MR. SWAINSTON:

Yes, they came to Carson City on February 17th and met with us. On February 21st, they took the action.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you so very much. I appreciate it.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I would like to address this to Ms. Del Papa, please. Ms. Del Papa, I am referring to a supplementary communication that you sent to all Senators and Assemblymen dated March 28, 1995. I am referring to page 2, the bottom of page 2. And, my question relates to my interpretation of going from point A to point B. I am not an attorney, so I would like you to take me through this process as how to go from point A to point B. Your comment in the last paragraph states that the proposed resolutions that have been enacted as having no legal effect and only express a sentiment. You then go over the next page and relate that as a result of that you accuse them of violating their oath because they knowingly and willfully failed to bear true faith and allegiance and loyalty to the government and laws in the State of Nevada by taking specific action to obtain an interim storage facility in Lincoln County. My confusion, Ms. Attorney General, is how we go from something that has basically no legal effect, only sentiment, to those individuals being accused of what I just described.

MS. DEL PAPA:

Assemblyman Close, I think that it is real important and that is why I took such time to take you through all the specific actions that took place here. I think that if you choose to isolate any one thing, that causes problems. I think you have to look at this as an ongoing process, and that is why I took you back even as far as November. And, that is why I say, who among you can really with a straight face tell me that this is a question of debate, that we are out to violate someone's free speech. When you look at the time period that is involved and when you look at the successive action, upon action, upon action. Even when you go beyond the actual passage of the resolution. And, I think you have to look at that whole process when you view this issue and not take one portion of it basically out of context.

MR. SWAINSTON:

Mr. Close, as a supplement to that answer, I think it might be appropriate to recognize that the resolution, I believe that was referred to without having any legal course or effect, would have been the resolution of the Senate yesterday with regard to Senate Resolution No. 4. That is a different resolution, however. That was in fact the intent, a memorandum which I had participated in preparing.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

I see no further questions. The representatives of Lincoln County have 15 minutes if they would like to come down . . . Caliente. Please identify yourself for the record and go ahead.

YVONNE CULVERWELL:

I am Yvonne Culverwell, Vice Chairman, Lincoln County Commission. Unfortunately, I was contacted late last night and do not have a full-time staff to prepare comments, but I will do the best of my ability to try and clear up a few points. Ms. Del Papa is not clear on a number of items that I heard. There are a few misstatements there. I would like to say thank you to all of you who are willing to listen to both sides of the issue and come to your own conclusions about what is going on. It is rather an important issue. Resolution 2-95 I do not believe is the issue here. I personally believe that it is a freedom-of-speech issue. We have an impact alleviation committee in Lincoln County. I sit on the board, the mayor of the city sits on the board and we have citizens who sit on the board. It has been in existence for 10 years and has studied this issue for 10 years in just such an event as what this 104th Congress is likely to do. I have a couple of questions. These are questions that after two years of studying myself, I had these questions when all of this, when the November 8th elections took place and we understood that this 104th Congress was going to do business in a hurry, after gathering much facts, one question was can Congress actually amend the Nuclear Waste Policy Act and override the State of Nevada and the answer was yes. If that is Congress' intent, they can override what the state wishes. The second question is, how many cases has the state actually taken to court that deals with the Yucca Mountain issue? And, I was told somewhere between 12 and 14 cases. I don't have the exact number and if I am wrong perhaps someone here can correct me. Then I asked how many cases has the state won in regard to this issue and I was told one and that had to do with benefits for the state. The next question was, to my ownself and I voiced this to the impact alleviation committee, does the state record give Lincoln County any reason to believe that they will be able to protect us from state fuel shipments if the Nuclear Waste Policy Act is amended and it's shipped through our rail line. I leave that to you all. Question number 5 that I had, was it within our legal jurisdiction to actually pass this resolution? There has been much discussion about that and I do have copies of the minutes from two meetings that I would like entered into the record. From January 20th Mr. Swainston stated that the resolution is inviting the Federal Government into Lincoln County to use its own land for a purpose that the City of Caliente agrees with—I don't see a legal problem with doing that, but I don't think it means a lot since they could do the same by inviting it and putting it on the Governor's lawn. The second meeting was February 6th and it says "prior to the approval of these additions and corrections, Tom (who is our Lincoln County District Attorney) stated that he had spoken with Harry Swainston, Deputy Attorney General, and he did not feel that the resolution was a violation of any particular statute even though there is a NRS that states that you cannot store nuclear waste in Nevada. Mr. Swainston didn't feel that it was an illegal action in that it violated the statutes. He did say, and Tom concurred, that it went against the policy of the State of Nevada as expressed by the legislature in that statute. Ms. Del Papa in her letter to the Senate and Assembly, says "I believe that they to some extent in Lincoln County, may have been mislead by opinion authored by the Legislative Counsel Bureau to Senator Rawson dated February 13, 1995." I do not believe that is the case. I believe Mr. Swainston lead us to believe otherwise. "I have offered to drop the removal action if they will rescind Resolution 2–95 from the very moment of the court filings or to agree to a permanent injunction against the implementation of the resolution." As an elected official of my county, trying to do the best I can to protect the safety and well-being of my citizenry and my constituents, I felt that was extortion. Question: if the Nuclear Waste Policy Act is amended to ship spent fuel to Nevada via the Caliente route and no dialogue has taken place between the state and the Federal Government for risk minimization and benefits, are we then to assume that the state considers Lincoln County to be an expendable commodity? That's my personal feeling. If we are not allowed to have any dialogue with what is ultimately happening here, how are we to have any say in the only city in Nevada that will actually have spent fuel shipped through it? Seven elected officials, including myself, have been accused of malfeasance of office by the Attorney General, because we dared to address Congress and the Secretary of Energy in the hopes of turning involuntary risk with no benefits into voluntary risk with maximum benefits. The state has accused Lincoln County of endangering the health and safety of Nevada citizens by passing this resolution. The reality of the situation is simply this: the state itself is guilty of endangering the health and safety of the citizens of Nevada by refusing to acknowledge the probability of Nevada hosting an MRS or a deep geologic repository and therefore being on line to minimize risks and negotiate for benefits. Lincoln County will not be muzzled, nor will we be coerced into rescinding this resolution. Another story that comes to you from the mayor of our city who could not be here today. It is about two little boys. These little boys who were on their way home from school, they walked into the house and upon entering their bedroom were stunned to see their bedroom filled with horse manure. Well, the little pessimistic boy started crying and screaming and throwing a fit and saying well, "how did this happen and who could have done such a thing and now look at all the time I'm going to have to spend cleaning this up." And, as he looked over at his little brother who had a smile on his face and he was just plowing through the horse manure. And he said to him, "what in the world are you doing?" The little optimistic boy said, "Well, if there is this much horse manure in this bedroom there has got to be a pony in there somewhere."

I am telling you that Lincoln County and the City of Caliente are looking for that pony. On behalf of the seven elected officials in Lincoln County and the City of Caliente, I would like to thank the Assembly for the consideration of Assembly Resolution No. 8 to protect our constitutional rights of freedom of speech. Thank you. Excuse me, I would like to read one item from Jones, Jones, Close and Brown. Attached is a memorandum from the Tartanian case which speaks to the issue that under the Nevada law political subdivisions of the state are legally incapable of entering into a conspiracy. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Thank you for the excellent testimony, Madam Commissioner. I do have to warn you, though, that everyone is presumed to be under oath when they are here and telling the truth, and I have a hard time believing that when the mayor told you that story that he said, "horse manure." I want to go back to the same question that started at the other side, and you were listening. So, apparently around February 6th, Deputy Attorney Swainston talked to your advisor, District Attorney Tom Hill, and we heard testimony that said that he told your attorney, at that point in time, that after complete review, or whatever the words were, that he felt that it would be a violation. Now, that's what I heard him say, if I understood right, talking to Hill. We know that talking between people, things change. You were saying, that when you were advised by your attorney, Mr. Hill, that his report of the conversation was that they did not think that it was a good idea and it was a violation of the state policy, but it was not a violation of law and that is in the minutes.

MS. CULVERWELL:

Yes sir, it is in the minutes.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. To clarify the question one more time, Yvonne, in your opinion, your action was based in part on the advice the DA's office who has brought this suit against you based on their opinion that your resolution did not violate state law.

MS. CULVERWELL:

Yes sir. We actually have it on video tape.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Am I to understand your resolution is also based, in part, on the lack of faith and the ability of the State of Nevada to carry out its responsibilities to the citizens of the state as a whole?

MS. CULVERWELL:

Yes sir. Once again, I will say that Lincoln County and the City of Caliente are caught between two very powerful entities here. The United States Congress and the State of Nevada. At this point in time, somebody needs to step forward and say something in the event that this actually does happen.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

I am not decrying the position that both Lincoln County and the City of Caliente are voices to be reckoned with the State of Nevada, rather that you have no confidence in the state's ability to face the needs of all of its constituents.

MS. CULVERWELL:

No sir. At this point, I do not have faith in the state's capability because they have not done anything that addresses the situation or even the probability or the possibility that this could happen. There has been no contingency plan on the state's part.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

Madam Commissioner, I was curious from reading the minutes of your February 6th meeting. I noticed there are a couple references to the issue asking it to be put to a vote of the people. This seemed not to be a unanimous decision on the part of the commissioners, that you vote on the resolution. I would just be curious to know why that course of action was not taken? Why did you not wish to let the people speak?

MS. CULVERWELL:

Well, that is not quite true. From some of the recordings of the minutes, actually the room has been about evenly split with pros and cons. And as you know, in any given political situation you have a handful of people that are very loud dissenters. We do intend to have this go to a vote of the people. We did have one of the commissioners put together a survey. None of us knew about the survey until it had actually been circulated. In my own opinion, I thought the survey was biased, and so, I am not quite sure if the survey expressed actually the will of the county, or if they were actually being lead into believing something that was not so. I have had this conversation with many people that are under the assumption that the passage of this resolution meant something other than what it did mean. This will come to a vote of the people. There will be a referendum held in the county.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I apologize for all of the questions, but I think that we have to get all of the information to make our decision. Sometimes, in fact most of the time, it is hard to tell even when we do something what the intent was. I will ask this question, somewhat general in nature. In your feelings, was it the intent of your collective body to encourage Congress to place the dump in Nevada and Lincoln County, or was it the intent that if they were going to, we are really talking about the temporary dump not the final storage, having the temporary storage in Lincoln County? I would like to say something before you answer, I served on two high-level waste committees. One is the National Conference of State Legislatures, and as a vice chairman of your Committee of Interim Storage and Transportation, and I chair the legislature's High-Level Waste Committee. I have probably been at more of the meetings that we are talking about here in the last few years on the transportation, storage and interim than anyone connected with this body, with the exception of one of our staff. I think I know the issues and the concerns that have been talked about, not only with your county, but with other counties in other locations. The basic questions, is it your intent to encourage them to bring it or if it was their intent to bring it to you, you would?

MS. CULVERWELL:

It was not our intent to encourage them to site it there. If you read the resolution, it says in the event that the Nuclear Waste Policy Act is revisited and amended by Congress these are the things we would like to see occur. Once again, I state that the City of Caliente is the only city that the spent fuel will be shipped through and I live 150 yards from the UP line. I am very concerned with the risks that are involved.

MARY LEE DAZEY:

I am working with Citizens' Alert, a statewide grassroots environmental organization dedicated to the promotion of education and public participation on issues that affect our lives and the well-being of future generations. Citizens' Alert has been actively involved with the nuclear waste issue since the first proposal to store radioactive waste in the Climax Mine at the Nevada Test Site 20 years ago. We are proud of the track record of the elected officials of this state who have bravely held back the Federal Government in its attempt to dump its wastes on Nevada. The state law, NRS 459.910, has been the first line of defense to keep the wastes out of our state. But the decisive action recently undertaken by our Attorney General is nothing more than a move to preserve our state's immune system from the literal diseases that will occur with high-level radioactive waste moving through the state. Lincoln County officials created a hole in our state's first line of defense when motivated by money or fear and took an official act of elected representatives and passed a resolution saying they intended to invite the Federal Government to store nuclear waste. The state's ability to oppose the dump is only as good as the sum of its parts, and parts of it are dancing to the distant drummer back in Washington, D.C., looking out for the nuclear industry. As they said, the needs of the majority of Nevadans to keep waste out of our state have been met successfully through our elected officials throughout the history of the dump battle, but this resolution cloaked in the guise of freedom of speech represents a departure. There are many positive signs that we may be winning the battle. Energy Secretary O'Leary has recently given Yucca Mountain a 50–50 chance. Part of why the odds are moving in our favor is the growing opposition we are seeing as more and more communities along the transportation route begin to speak out. Recently, it has been ruled in New Mexico, that property owners on the high-level waste transportation route will have to be compensated for their loss of property value. A precedent setting case in 1993, that of New York versus the United States, which argued that an act of Congress which would have required states to take title to low-level radioactive waste if they failed to establish disposal repositories before a certain time, will certainly help Nevada argue that it cannot be commandeered into the federal service as a host for such a storage facility without its consent. The state and the law enacted by the legislature has been successful, but we urge you to vote "No" today in order to patch the hole that has been made in Nevada's first line of defense so as to prevent the Federal Government from making their toehold in Nevada a foothold. Vote "No" and leave the decision in its rightful place, one of the judicial branches of court. Thank you for this opportunity for freedom of speech.

BOB FULKERSON:

I am representing myself, although, I have worked on the nuclear waste issue for the past 11 years as the former executive director of Citizens' Alert. I would like to thank you for holding this hearing this morning, and for accepting public testimony.

I would like to start off by saying that the only free speech issue today is the freedom of publicly-elected officials to conspire to violate state laws. The Lincoln County resolution specifically invites the dump to come to Nevada if the price is right. Conspiracy to violate state law is illegal, and public officials that violate the law are derelict in their duties and should be removed from office. Assembly Resolution No. 8 says that the people should recall these officials if they don't like it. Well, why should the people have to be called upon to recall every instance of malevolent behavior by a public official? That is why we have an Attorney General. It is the duty of law enforcement to enforce those laws, and we should let the Attorney General do her job. Assembly Resolution No. 8 also says that the Attorney General's suit shows the Lincoln County officials are already guilty and that is not fair to them. Somehow, their rights have been violated simply by bringing this lawsuit forward. These public officials will have due process. They will have their day in court. Both sides will present evidence on this before a judge, and a judge will decide whether these officials should be removed from office.

The Department of Energy's efforts to build a nuclear waste dump are failing. You just heard about Secretary O'Leary saying that there was a 50–50 chance to get this thing on. This is really good news. The dump is far from inevitable in this state, contrary to what we heard from the Lincoln County official up here. Transportation remains an issue. The transportation routes are not locked in stone. The Department of Energy has been known to change routes at the last minute. They have already said that they will give a warning on which routes will be used.

There are nuclear power plants up and down the coast of California, Washington and Oregon that will have to go through the State of Nevada and certainly not link all the way down south or all the way north of here in order to go through the only town that was just spoken of.

The Lincoln County resolution also shows that it is offering a part of our state, not just Lincoln County, but a part of Nevada, that we all share for the dubious honor of being the world's first high-level nuclear waste dump. The resolution is not just expressing a first amendment view, but it has the ultimate effect of locking our state into a decision that we all have to live with or suffer the consequences of, our generation and generations to come for a millennium. I urge you to vote against this resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

The question I would pose to Mr. Fulkerson is the land that they offered public land or private land?

MR. FULKERSON:

Since Lincoln County is about 99 percent federally-owned, I would say that it was probably public land, but I am not certain.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

The answer then is public land?

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I agree with much of what you said, but I want to make sure I understand your opinion. You heard testimony, I presume you were here for the whole thing, right? So you heard testimony, I might add from both sides, that indicate that there may have been, in fact, some confusion about the effect of a resolution. We also heard testimony and that you characterized, and I want to make sure I understood it right, you indicated that they were inviting them to bring nuclear waste to Nevada. But, the testimony from the commissioner was that the intent was that if they were going to put it in Nevada, or anywhere, that they would like to be considered. Not that they were encouraging them to make that decision. Now could you tell me which they were doing? My final question is, with the confusion on both sides that we have heard about this morning, are you saying that, as elected officials, we made a wrong decision that we should be removed from office? Or should there be some other perhaps less severe way of correcting a problem that has happened?

MR. FULKERSON:

First of all, I think it is disingenuous to say that the resolution does not invite the Federal Government to dump nuclear waste in Nevada. What the Federal Government needs, what the Department of Energy needs and what the Congress needs is a willing host community so it does not look like they are cramming this thing down anybody's throat. Lincoln County has set up certain requirements that must be fulfilled prior to being that willing host community, but once those requirements have been signed off on the dotted line, then they become that host community that is willing, and it is pretty clear that they have offered themselves up on the block.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Now Bob, you and I have both been involved in this and have been to many meetings. I have to disagree with you. I want to bring something up that you and I know about now, that I have tried to get some quick research on, which I did not get, but you and I both know that Fremont County, for example, in Wyoming, actively and for a long time have tried to get the site, the first site brought to Fremont County in Wyoming. It wasn't through resolutions that said, "If you are going to do this . . ." but here we have a resolution that says and testimony that says in their heart they may. Now don't you think that there is a difference between those two situations? We could bring up a lot of areas, but I think Fremont County is probably the closest. A lot of our folks don't know about that, which I'll be talking about later, but this is not the first time this has happened.

MR. FULKERSON:

It is a "chicken and egg" argument. It is not going to happen unless a resolution like this comes forward. It depends on what your perspective is, I guess. A response to your question, should public officials be removed from office when they make a bad decision? No, not by the Attorney General. That is up to the voters. But when they are derelict in their duties and they violate a state law, when they conspire to break a state law, or conspire to do actions which are injurious to the public, then they have to be brought before a judge.

GLENN VAN ROEKEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members of the Assembly, my name is Glenn Van Roekel. I am the City Manager of the City of Caliente. I hadn't intended to come and speak to you today, and I wouldn't have, except I feel the word "nuclear" has come up so many times today that we have a nuclear debate. I am very proud to be a part of Lincoln County. The gentleman in the painting above me, President Lincoln, is my hero. I feel that I am not sure exactly what policies he was following when he decided that it was unkind to have slaves in the United States. Was it a policy that he decided that, Oh, gee, maybe somebody better do something about this?

I am a little bit concerned and overwhelmed that we are in a position in Lincoln County to do everything that Frankie Sue Del Papa has addressed so well earlier. She said, that Las Vegas was the largest growing community in the country. We want to protect it as much as she does. It provides a great deal of revenue to the entire state. We are not traitors in Lincoln County. We feel that we are doing all we can to protect the interests of the citizens of Nevada, as well as our own residents, regardless of how it may come across. I hope that once this goes to court and the details come out in the resolution, that it will be understood. Right now, we are talking about our freedom of speech.

I have just been chastised because I had an idea on the way home on an airplane ride. I was even asked that in a commission meeting. I was grilled by a commissioner that was working through the advice of the Deputy Attorney General. He wanted to know who I was sitting next to on the airplane, how long and what I talked about on the way home? Well, I am sorry. This is America. I asked if I was under grand jury indictment or investigation, or just what is going on here? I just want this body to know and everybody in this state to know that we in Lincoln County love our state and we are American citizens.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Any questions? I see none. At this time, we are going to have the Chief Clerk read into the record two letters that were received.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER::

Mr. Chairman, my light was on to ask a question.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

It is not, Mr. Spitler, but you are welcome to ask a question. I am sorry.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

It is lit up down here. I did have a question for Mr. Van Roekel.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

I apologize, Mr. Spitler, the light was not on up here.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

Yes, thank you. I received a letter from you during the holidays of last year, during the Christmas holidays, dated December 23rd.

MR. VAN ROEKEL:

Yes sir.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

Did you forward that letter to all the members of the Assembly and the Senate?

MR. VAN ROEKEL:

I appreciate you bringing that up, Assemblyman Spitler. I, as you well know, wrote each and every person in this body a letter. In the very bottom paragraph, I hope a few of you received the copies of the form, it says I very much urge and desire your comments on this issue. I gave you my fax number and phone number.

Commissioner Chamberlain wrote a letter to each of you following that, and said that I had testified in front of the Lincoln County Commission, and that I had your support. Since I had received no response, that was slanderous in my opinion, he will have to deal with the Ethics Commission on that. I would not lie to this committee. I have been a registered lobbyist. I have never been an actual lobbyist, but I have registered because the law said I had to. I have come here to try and protect the interests of our citizens. I told the commissioners in that meeting, and I have gotten the other two commissioners and the editor of the local newspaper and all the people in the room, that I wish I had heard back from the legislators that I had written in a mutual letter. I had heard no response. Commissioner Ed Wright, when he decided not to pass the resolution on January 3rd, said one of the reasons he was not going to pass it that day was because we needed to put it off, because unlike Glenn, he said he didn't get any response back. I am sorry to hear that, but yet Commissioner Chamberlain wrote each of you a letter and called me a liar. I did not appreciate that, because I would not lie to you people.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

I'm not assuming that you would. I was curious when the letter came because in no point in the letter did it indicate that you might use a nonresponse as affirmative action in terms of what you were doing. I had forwarded this letter to the Legislative Counsel Bureau, because I was very curious how this could be pursued this way. So as I understand your response, the follow-up letter that I did receive, which I answered immediately, and I am sure all of the members of this body received this because, Mr. Van Roekel, it was indicated that you testified that you had support of the Nevada Legislature since you had notified each of us in December and received no protest. And as I understand from your comments today, that is a mischaracterization of what, in fact, you did?

MR. VAN ROEKEL:

A gross mischaracterization. I turned that letter over to the Ethics Commission along with several other documents that I feel have been aimed to discredit my character.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

Thank you. I appreciate that response because, Mr. Chairman, that had concerned me a great deal. If a no response had, in fact, implied support of this action. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. As the City Manager of the City of Caliente, do you favor the nuke dump coming to Lincoln county?

MR. VAN ROEKEL:

I don't favor the nuke dump being shoved down our throat and coming to Nevada, but that brings us right back to the question. I don't see the word "nuclear" in this resolution, but if you want to discuss my feelings toward it, unlike all Nevadan's, I feel Congress grossly misacted. When the Nuclear Waste Policy was amended in 1987, they shoved it down Nevada's throat. The "Screw Nevada Bill" was an insult to all Nevadans, and I am firmly one of those Nevadans. I don't think that any debate that goes on here today will make any difference in Washington, D.C. I can tell you that the Nuclear Waste Strategy Coalition, the nuclear industries, The Nuclear Commission on Regulatory Authority and the representatives of some 35 states with over 70 United States Senators and 300 United States Congressmen have all said that Nevada is going to receive nuclear waste. I am just saying that we are the ones on the main line of the railroad track, and I made a public statement that I am going to curl up like a rattlesnake ready to strike, and I am not going to let it roll right over me. That is how I feel about it.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Glenn, you know it has been about eight years now that Lincoln County has attempted to bring in every dirty industry that was available in the country to your county, whether it be incinerators or nuclear waste what is the policy of Lincoln County in attracting industry? Is that where you are going to go, for dirty industry completely or not?

MR. VAN ROEKEL:

The policy of the Joint City-County Impact Alleviation Committee of which I am a chairman, I do not act in that capacity, that is a floating chairmanship. Our policy has been since conception in 1984 to minimize risk and maximize benefits. If you are saying on an economic development avenue we go out and accept anything into our community just to get money in our pockets, the answer is no. We have turned away opportunities to people who have come to us and said we have a perfect site up in Lincoln County to accept all of the solid wastes out of Los Angeles County. They are dying for a place to put it. Let's make a deal and put it up there, and we don't make deals. We think things out and we go through a process and that is what this committee has done on this issue. Here we are back on this issue when all I am asking is did we have a right to discuss this? Is it premeditated thought or is thought illegal? I don't know, but that is the issue here today.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Earlier, we heard testimony from a member of Caliente who showed lack of faith and confidence in the ability of the State of Nevada to carry out its responsibilities. Do you share that responsibility? Do you have that feeling, that we are not being responsible in carrying out our responsibilities to the constituents of this state?

MR. VAN ROEKEL:

We met with Jim Molhol and the Governor's Chief of Staff, who is standing in the back of the room, on January 23rd and provided him with a copy of the resolution. We met with each of our congressional delegation. We tried to tell everybody. I wrote you all letters. We wrote every citizen in Lincoln County. We said that just in case the state fails this is a protection plan. We know that the state is trying hard and everybody has been gallantly trying in Congress to protect us. But, if for some reason all of this doesn't work, it is going to Las Vegas. The bill that Senator Johnston introduced doesn't say they will stop in Caliente and keep it in Lincoln County. It says they will go to Las Vegas and build a new rail line up Highway 95 to Yucca Mountain. We are saying that if it is going to come anyway, instead of running through and killing the tourist economy in Las Vegas, we know what power of the press can do to Lincoln County in this state, it has happened in Lincoln County. The press has rammed us into the ground, big time. I think that on a national level you can expect that same thing when you start seeing spent fuel canisters in the forefront and the bright lights in the background of Las Vegas. Our tourism base is what I am trying to say. I don't have any faith in the state so far, no, they have not done a very good job in my eyes up to this date.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

My question is really of the Attorney General's Office. Perhaps we should finish any questions with Mr. Van Roekel and then I would like to ask a question, which I've been requested to ask.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

I'm not certain, Mr. Price, that we can do that in fairness. We have offered 15 minutes to each side. We have given the Attorney General the full 15 minutes. If it is a straight question and answer that we can do very quickly, I think in fairness, we don't want to make it inappropriate for the other side. Is it a straight question?

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Perhaps we can make an inquiry?

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

All right, we will do that then. Any further questions for Mr. Van Roekel? Seeing none, Mr. Price, did you want Ms. Del Papa to come back? If you want to ask a question, you need to have her come to the microphone so we can get it on the record.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I think it would be better on the record. I am not absolutely certain it is relevant, but if it isn't, it is close. To tell you the truth, I thought that this was addressed, although, I can't find it. Going back to Assembly Bill No. 222 which became a statute prohibiting the storage in Nevada of high-level waste. Has there or was there one portion of that law, that in fact, was struck down? If it was, would that have any effect, one way or another, on the remaining portions, in your honest opinion, of what we are debating here today?

MS. DEL PAPA:

Assemblyman Price, I think that I could explain it, but I think it is better for Harry to explain it since he was present. It was the 1990 Nevada vs. Watkins case, and there has been a lot of misinformation with reference to that case, as there has been a lot of, I think, mischaracterization and misinformation with reference to this issue. You can even tell that by what was said by the officials here today. Harry.

MR. SWAINSTON:

Assemblyman Price, I will answer your question. It may be a little extended because I don't want to leave anything out.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

It's okay Harry, we know that you are an attorney.

MR. SWAINSTON:

They pay me by the word. Nevada vs. Watkins was a case that was started because this legislature enacted Assembly Joint Resolution No. 4 and Assembly Joint Resolution No. 6, as well as Assembly Bill No. 222 during the 1989 Legislative Session. There was some suggestion right after the enactment of those resolutions and law, that in fact, this was notice of disapproval under the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of the state selection as a possible repository. In effect, it was a kind of legislative veto. The Attorney General's Office, on November 1st of that year, confirmed that in response to questions by the Governor. The Secretary of Energy did not agree with it and threatened to sue us. We filed suit on behalf of the state in advance of the suit that was filed a month later by the United States, and thereby, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals took the original and exclusive jurisdiction of the matter. The upside of the case was very limited. The court said it was premature for us to use Assembly Bill No. 222 as a legislative veto of the site characterization program at Yucca Mountain, but that is as far as it went. To that extent, it was preempted. The court held that the Federal Government had the power under the property clause to study its own property for a federal purpose, and that the state did not object to that study. However, the court did not rule that the state's law was unconstitutional and that would not be a proper thing to do. Either its preempted because of an overriding inconsistent federal law that is valid or it is not. Now if, in fact, the repository is selected at some point in time that whole issue will be raised again. At that time, we will make two very substantial arguments. One, what is the power of the Federal Government to take title to privately-produced waste and force it on an unconsenting state? I challenge anyone to tell me what that power is. The other aspect of it is, what power of the Federal Government is it to commandeer the states police power, its legislative processes and governmental processes, its economy and its government? I could go on and on into the federal service without its permission and consent.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

If I understand this in electricians language, they said it didn't do what it thought it did? They didn't actually knock it down, and we didn't appeal up to the Supreme Court? There is no final action? The law is still on the books and it's valid?

MR. SWAINSTON:

We did petition the United States Supreme Court for a Writ of Certiorari. It was denied, but that doesn't mean too much.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

But as far as we are concerned, until someone can prove otherwise, the statute is still on the books?

MR. SWAINSTON:

We think it is as good as gold right at this moment. Not only is it not preempted, it is totally consistent with federal law.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Mr. Swainston, I'm going to stop you. The resolution in question is not about the nuclear waste dump or Yucca Mountain. This is not what this debate is about, and I have another question from Mr. Neighbors. I will allow one more question. I don't feel this is appropriate to bring these folks back to give them additional time.

ASSEMBLYMAN NEIGHBORS:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Just clarification on the NRS, which I don't have at this time, but is very simply written. Please correct me if I'm wrong. As I understand that particular law, when it went to federal court, part of it was correct. The part that was correct had to do with government agencies, that you, I, California or the State of Nevada, under that law, did not have the authority to destroy this type of material. Under the supremacy clause of the Constitution of the United States, and it was federal property, that was the part that the court said you don't have any authority over? Two parts to that law, right? One part and then the other? Is that correct?

MS. DEL PAPA:

Again, what I think this line of questioning illustrates is something, in all fairness, I spoke of in my original comments to you, and that is the complexities. The complicated legal issues that are involved here, that have been involved over a long period of time. Not just the Nuclear Waste Policy Act, not just the federal law, but rules and regulations and millions of pages of documents, we can argue over a specific point. It's been debated that the point about that law, I think that question has been asked and answered. The bottom line is, this is a very complicated and complex legal issue that Lincoln County has stepped into and I would disagree with anyone in this room that says there was any confusion in the final analysis as to the decision of the State of Nevada when those officials were taking their vote.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I just wanted to read for identification to this body, the very statue in which we are quoting, which is NRS 459.910. Let me read the annotation that was put in. After this bill and as this NRS was passed, in bold lines, section preempted by federal law. NRS 459.910 intended as legislative veto of Secretary of Energy's investigations of Yucca Mountain as potential site for location of national high-level radioactive waste repository, is preempted by federal law because it stands as an obstacle to accomplishment of full purposes and objectives of Congress and any state legislation which frustrates full effectiveness of federal law is rendered invalid by the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution.

MR. SWAINSTON:

Mr. Ernaut?

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Mr. Swainston, that was not a question.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

We will now read into the Record two letters we received. Then we will proceed to comments from the floor.

CHIEF CLERK LANDING:

STATEMENT OF SENATOR RICHARD BRYAN, MARCH 30, 1995.

It is unfortunate the misguided actions of the Lincoln County Commission and the Caliente City Council are being used in a highly partisan political campaign to embarrass several of Nevada's highest Democratic officials. At the same time that the nuclear industry itself is beginning to concede defeat on a permanent repository at Yucca Mountain, a few irresponsible public officials in Lincoln County have chosen to provide support to those who want to make Nevada the dumping ground for the most dangerous and toxic waste ever produced. Many Republicans in the Legislature may view the Lincoln County situation as an easy opportunity to score partisan points. All members of the Legislature should be fully aware however, that any actions by the Legislature concerning nuclear waste related matters risk confusing the state's well established position of fierce opposition to any high-level waste dump in Nevada.

March 30, 1995

NEVADA ASSEMBLY REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP
STATE LEGISLATURE
CARSON CITY, NEVADA 89710

DEAR MEMBERS OF ASSEMBLY:

I am Alan Chamberlain, a Lincoln County Commissioner and Chairman of the Pahranagat Valley Republican Precinct. I understand that the Assembly is considering a Resolution opposing the Attorney General's action against Lincoln County.

I am concerned with the presentation of the Assembly Resolution as a free speech issue. My fellow Commissioners have stifled the free speech of their Lincoln County constituents by refusing on two occasions, (February 6 and 21, see attached minutes) to allow Lincoln County residents the opportunity to voice their opinions of the County's resolution to bring in nuclear waste into Lincoln County. Given the results of surveys that demonstrate strong opposition to the storage of high-level waste in Lincoln County, I believe it is important that the people of Lincoln County have such an opportunity.

I am also concerned about the way this issue has been politicized. As a Republican, I have taken a bi-partisan stance on the nuclear waste issue, and I am concerned that some of my fellow Republicans may be using this resolution not only as a means to open the door for storage of nuclear waste, but also as a means to embarrass members of the opposing party.

I urge all the members of the Assembly to vote against the Assembly resolution, and to allow the Attorney General to proceed with the duties and responsibilities of the office to which she was elected.

Sincerely,

ALAN CHAMBERLAIN, Lincoln County Commissioner

A Nevada Corporation since 1983. They will do a formal presentation on 2-21.

ROAD ABANDONMENT

R.J. Collet was present from Panaca. He is requesting an abandonment of portions of North 4th Street in Panaca. All of the affected property owners have agreed to this action. The Facts/Findings/Resolutions and Determination Report was submitted from the Planning Commission with 2 stipulations: The property owners should have a survey to get actual amount of land and the property owners will pay the county for the land. A motion was made by Alan to approve this partial road abandonment as presented with the stipulations of a survey and payment; seconded by Eve. All voted in favor. Bill Lloyd will assist with a value on the land.

PANACA CATTLE GUARDS

Garland Hollingshead was present and requested that the Commission furnish 2 cattle guards for Panaca, to be used near the cemetery. Max McCrosky was present also and stated that he wasn't sure what he had on hand. He will check on this and if he has two available, he will take them to Panaca.

PPU TRUCK BID

Pat Kelley was present for this matter. He stated that Kurt Lee can meet the bid price given by State Purchasing and PPU would like to give him the business to keep it here locally. The price of the truck is $13,993.00. A motion was made by Eve to purchase the truck from Lee Ford; seconded by Alan. All voted in favor.

JOINT RESOLUTION #1-95

A Caliente City/LC joint resolution was proposed which was titled "A JOINT RESOLUTION OF THE LINCOLN COUNTY COMMISSION AND THE CALIENTE CITY COUNCIL, REQUESTING THAT AMENDMENTS TO THE NUCLEAR WASTE POLICY ACT TO BE PROPOSED BY THE NUCLEAR POWER INDUSTRY AND VARIOUS STATES INCLUDE LANGUAGE WHICH SEEKS TO MINIMIZE RISKS AND MAXIMIZE BENEFITS TO RESIDENTS OF LINCOLN COUNTY, NEVADA". Kevin Phillips, Caliente City Mayor, was present and advised the Board that the City Council had approved this resolution, unanimously, on 1-3-95 and they request that the Commissioner vote favorably on this resolution today. Louie Benezet was present and he stated that there are some other items on the agenda which should be discussed prior to a vote. He reported that he was at a previous meeting when this issue was turned down and both Ed and Eve had advised that there would be no further action on this issue, and now here it is again. He doesn't feel that the issue has been covered adequately, Paul Long stated that he is enthused that the "city fathers" have finally agreed on something. He feels that we are burdened with taxes and supports this issue. He feels that we might as well get something out of it. Elizabeth Gemmill stated that Pioche is the county seat. She resents Caliente taking everything away. She asked that no vote be taken until all sides of the issue are heard. Robert O'Connor stated that he doesn't know what the big problem is. He doesn't feel any mountain will be found safe or totally unsafe. He commented that the canisters and the transportation are the real issues. He is strongly in favor of the site below Caliente. Connie Simkins was present and she stated she recognizes that there has been inadequate coverage in the Lincoln County Record. The Impact Alleviation Committee mailed to each post office box an informational pamphlet on this issue and the Review Journal and the Spectrum have covered the issue almost daily. She feels that this matter has been well covered. Torrie Klomp said she understands that the decision to be made today is just saying that we want to have a say in what happens. Ed answered that is correct. She is in favor of having a say in this issue and the decisions. Connie Nelson stated she has lived in Lincoln County all of her life. She agrees that we should have a say in our future. She feels that the majority of the people do not know what is going on and what's at stake. Pat Kelley asked that the City and the County stop and go back and work with the State. He asked about the survey which is being conducted. Alan reported that he hopes to have a 1000 responses by 2-21. He reported the following preliminary response from the survey which he stated is being conducted by him, at his own expense: 170 responses—Question 1) 11% yes, 72% against; 2) 18% yes, 67% against; 3) 12% yes, 77% against; 4) 21% yes, 61% against; 5) 21% yes, 69% against; 6) 1% yes, 73% against; 7) 68% yes, 1% against, 12% don't know; 8) 10% yes, 38% no, 44% don't know; 9) 74% yes, 1% against; 10) 1% yes, 54% against, 24% don't know. Alan suggested putting this issue to a vote of the people. Milton Hollingsworth said that he feels the people have been brainwashed on nuclear power. He feels that the government will put it here whether we want it or not. He advised that the nuclear waste is in rods or pellets, not liquid form. Martha Lauritzen feels that the nuclear waste power is too tough to fight, but if we are going to fight for our public lands, we don't want the nuclear waste people telling us what to do. Eve stated that people thought she was crazy when she started fighting for the public lands, but look where that issue has gone. Denise Nay stated that she feels we don't need to be a garbage dump. "They made it, let them store it." Ed reported that he had a petition with 268 signatures on it, favoring the issue. Rollie Simmons commented that we are not voting on whether Yucca Mountain will be the repository; we're voting that if spent rods go through the county that we're going to get some benefit from it. Alan read a fax he had received from Congresswoman Vucanovich and stated that he feels there is time to take this issue to a vote of the people. Connie Nelson stated that we don't need to feel it's coming no matter what. Remember MX? There's time to do a vote. If the people want it, then let's get behind it and get the most out of it that we can. Pat Kelley questioned if the State has an impact alleviation committee? Alan advised that they do. Pat then asked why our impact Alleviation Committee doesn't meet with them and work on the resolution? Rey Flake questioned why we need an Impact Alleviation Committee if we aren't going to listen to what they tell us? Rick Nelson questioned, if it's coming, no matter what, why do we think they're going to listen to anything we have to say? Carol Shanks stated that we are "like a flea on the dog." We're telling the Federal Government not to tell us what to do; we're telling the state government not to tell us what to do and yet we have our hand out to them. She feels that Alan has every right to conduct a survey. Marge Detraz commented that we do have a committee that has been working with this issue for several years and yet people do not know about the issue. Her concern is for the groundwater. She feels this issue should go to a vote of the people. She also commented that most of the people do not understand the information going out. Alan stated he has received several letters from State officials with most of them being against the nuclear waste issue. Alan then read a press release from Deputy AG Harry Swainston, Kevin Phillips said he has a copy of Alan's letter which he sent to all the legislators, which slanders Glenn Van Roekel's statement and Kevin feels that all of Alan's comments on this issue should be null and void. Eve read letters into record from Glenn Van Roekel on this issue. Ed read a fax from Governor Miller into the record. He stated that they have spoken with Jim Mulhall and Richard Urie, of the Governor's Office, and after discussing this issue with counsel, Tom Dill, the commissioners have decided to meet with the AG's office to review the resolution and bring this back on 2-21-95. Ed stated that he feels if this went to a vote of the people it would fail as most people don't get out to find out about the issue. Tom feels that they need to meet with the AG to clarify the resolution. He feels that the resolution is an "if and when" resolution, but the AG views it differently.

'95-'96 BUDGET

Dan McArthur was present for this matter and submitted dates of February 20th for the budget workshop with the Department heads (8 hrs.); March 7th-workshop (4-8 hrs.); March 21 (2-3 hrs.); April 5th to approve the tentative budget; May 5 final budget hearing. After some discussion, it was decided to eliminate the Feb. 20th meeting and just have the department heads submit their budget requests to the auditor. All of the meetings will start at 10:00. Some discussion was held on the cost of the budget preparation. Dan advised, if it is held to the meetings as outlined, he could do the budget for $4,000. A motion was made by Alan for Dan to prepare the budget; seconded by Eve all voted in favor.

ADDITIONAL COMMISSIONER DISTRICTS

Several names have been submitted as willing to work on the committee to outline a proposal for the two new commissioner districts. After some discussion, a motion was made by Eve for the following persons to sit on that committee: Frank Hulse—Pioche, Leo Wadsworth—Panaca, Kevin Phillips—Caliente, Shirley McCrosky—at large; seconded by Alan. All voted in favor. A motion was made by Eve for Frank Hulse to be the Chairman; seconded by Alan. All voted in favor. The DA will provide legal counsel and Jason offered the census information and any maps that they may need. The target date for completion of this project is July 1, 1995.

PUBLIC LANDS

Shelley Wadsworth was present for this matter. She submitted a request for a copy machine or access to one. She stated that it is difficult for everyone when she has the copy machine here tied up. Ed suggested to check with the Sheriff's office since they are open 24 hours, maybe she could arrange to use their machine. Shelley submitted letters to the following: proposed letter from the county to Curtis Tucker re: information request on 4120 (NV 055); proposed letter from the county to Gary Ryan, BLM re: horse numbers; proposed letter to the BLM from the county re: request for proof of BLM jurisdiction relative to grazing allotment management. A motion was made by Eve for Ed to review these and if determined that they need to be sent to sign the letters; seconded by Alan. All voted in favor. Shelley submitted a statement of concern regarding a BLM officer stopping a citizen for a traffic citation. Tom advised that this officer has been reprimanded and there won't be anymore traffic stops. The Commissioners will send a letter to Ann Morgan advising that BLM officers do not have any authority to enforce LC laws. Connie Simkins was present and stated that she had previously sat on the CRMP board to determine the number of wild horses on public land.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Thank you, Mrs. Landing. We will open the Committee up to comments from the floor. That will basically be limited to five minutes by the members. Mr. Anderson.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Mr. Chairman, do you wish us to speak from here or from up in front?

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

There is fine, I think that will be fine.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. The least a person can do at such a time is to declare himself and know where he stands. I believe in freedom with the same burning delight, the same faith, the same intense abandon I'm sure it intended at its birth in this government over two centuries ago and in this state 131 years ago. I just want to say, before I get slowed down, that I am in love with freedom. It is an affair of long standing. It first was ignited by my immigrant parents who craved this element so highly given their background and the country from which they came. I grow suspicious of people or institutions that would trample on these rights. The resolution before us would decry the Chief Executive Officer of the State and the Attorney General for upholding the legislative acts of this body while hiding itself within the veil of freedom of speech questions. To be sure, it is freedom of speech that allows each of us who so chooses to fill the time with this debate, the right of the people to petition government cannot be abridged. The question is not one of freedom in this resolution, the question is one of responsible actions.

I have seen no BDR introduced to repeal the statutes of NRS 459.910. The Attorney General is carrying out her oath, as each of us must, no less an obligation falls on the elected officers of Caliente or Lincoln County. I have had the opportunity to read their joint resolution 2–95, as I am sure most of you have. At the very least, I would encourage my colleagues to take a position of neutrality. For while NRS 495.910, which states our position on the question of storage of high-level nuclear waste in Nevada remains, we should not try to determine the rightness or the wrongness of her office and its actions. I am distressed by the lack of public confidence in the will of this body and of the elected leaders of this state to carry out the will of the constituency. The right of the individual members of any community has a right to petition government and to address the wrongs and speak of the needs of such a facility and of the needs of such a community. They do not have the right, however, to place my constituents at risk. The citizens of my community have stood along major rail lines and with a major marshalling yard for over 78 years. Every piece of ordinance moving out of the major ammunition dump in the United States has been assembled in that community and indeed it understands the risks.

I believe the State of Nevada has acted in a responsible manner and I believe the Attorney General has carried out her duties we have prescribed for her. It would be wrong, indeed, to say less of her or expect less of her office than her sworn obligation to carry out her responsibilities. For that, I would ask either a vote of neutrality on this position or to vote against it.

ASSEMBLYMAN ALLARD:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. In hearing the testimony today, I have heard many comments about whether or not the Federal Government will be successful in placing a waste dump in Nevada and whether or not the Lincoln County resolution will precipitate the dump being placed in Nevada. In deciding whether or not to vote for this Assembly Resolution, I have had to ask myself one question, is this a nuclear waste issue or a free speech issue? And with all due respect, the answer came back to me in no uncertain terms. The action of the Attorney General is a clear cut case of state government trying to squelch the freedom of speech of local officials. I am personally opposed to a nuclear dump being placed in Nevada. I am not, however, willing to squelch the opinions of my colleagues or local officials to achieve that end.

Quoting from a letter sent to me by the Attorney General's Office, the Attorney General asked the question, "What constitutional power authorizes the Federal Government to take title to a privately produced waste product and force its disposal on an unconsenting state?" In my opinion, they have no right. But this issue raises another question. By what right does state government bring suit to remove local officials from office for expressing their views in a resolution? If expressing a view that is contrary to a state's policy is malfeasance, passing this Assembly Resolution could be construed by some as malfeasance. But, I think not. How can we, at the state level, condone the actions of the Attorney General when we as a state are continually complaining to the Federal Government about its presence?

What the Lincoln County officials did was to set forth a contingency plan and express a sentiment, and whether or not I agree with that sentiment, I would defend their right to express it. It has been said that the Lincoln County resolution endangers the lives of all Nevadans. What then is the taking of the right to free speech do? I believe the actions of the Attorney General's office sets a dangerous precedent, and I, therefore, rise in support of this Assembly Resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to this resolution, as drafted, for a number of simple reasons. First of all, I cannot buy the argument this is a free speech issue. I strongly support our First Amendment right to free speech as I am sure does everyone in this body.

Mr. Chairman, on January 16, 1995, I took my third oath to support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Nevada. My second oath was taken on January 18, 1993, and my first oath, Mr. Chairman, was taken a little over 11 years ago when I embarked upon my law enforcement career. I believed then and continue to believe, that it is my duty to defend our guaranteed freedom, including the freedom of speech, to the death, if necessary.

Free speech is simply not the issue. What we have here is an Attorney General and Governor who did what they honestly believed was in the best interest of the safety and well-being of the people of Nevada. Was the Attorney General's action legally correct? I am a police officer, not a constitutional attorney, and I cannot answer that but the courts will and that is the proper place for that decision to be made, not in this legislature. I strongly believe in the separation of powers and in fairness and I do not believe that this resolution represents either.

As a strong opponent of the nuclear dump, I am also concerned about the message that this will send about our state's commitment against the dump. At the very time we finally have some hope of keeping it from coming here, those who support this resolution can repeat over and over and over that it does not mean that they support the dump, but I am concerned that it is not the message that will be ultimately heard in Washington, D.C. Anyone who believes Commissioner Culverwell's statement that in the event the Nuclear Waste Policy Act is amended was not to encourage the Federal Government to place the dump in Lincoln County is naive.

I can tell you when I tell my children when I leave for this body on Monday morning, in the event their room is clean when I come home they will get their allowance, they are certainly encouraged to clean their room. Again, I believe this resolution is an unfair attack on a constitutional officer who did what she believed was in our best interest, an unnecessary act because the legality of her actions will ultimately be determined in the courts anyway, and most of all a dangerous message to those in Washington, D.C. who are determined to make Nevada the nation's nuclear dumping ground. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Thank you, Mr. Perkins. Mr. Neighbors?

ASSEMBLYMAN NEIGHBORS:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 8. Assembly District No. 36, which I represent, includes Lincoln County, and I believe the rights of some of its officials have been trampled. By trampled, I refer to the Attorney General's attempt to have them removed from office. Incredibly these officials have had their loyalty questioned; they have been accused of malfeasance; they have been accused worse yet, of conspiracy and they have been cast in the role of defendants all for exercising their right of free speech. If the citizens of Lincoln County, who elected them, decide to recall them, and I understand that may be underway, that is their right, and so be it. But for the Attorney General to take that position, I am totally opposed to it. My support of Assembly Resolution No. 8 has to do with the undying faith in the very foundation of this nation's freedom, the concept of free speech. I have no quarrel with the Attorney General's views on nuclear waste. However, I am disappointed and angry that these Lincoln County officials have been bullied around in such a cavalier manner. Although, I am not an attorney as Bob Dillion said, "You do not have to be a weatherman to know which way the wind is blowing." I do not think you have to be an attorney either, to be able to understand what the First Amendment says and that is good enough for me. The very first Article in the nation's Bill of Rights says, and I quote, "Congress shall make no laws respecting the establishment of religion or prohibiting the exercise thereof or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or of the rights of people peacefully to assemble and to petition to the government for redress of grievances." Make no mistake about it, if this attempt to muzzle people for speaking out goes unchallenged, you can bet down the road the same tactic will be used with some other Nevadans, in some other Assembly District on the same or a different issue just for speaking out and I find that is very chilling. The issue is preserving the constitutional process and sovereignty of the people. My support of this resolution does not reflect support, I repeat, does not reflect support for the transportation or storage of nuclear waste in Nevada. That is a separate issue, but all I have heard is everybody trying to make another issue out of this and you know if we are going to send a message to the people of the State of Nevada the concern I have is that this body will send a message of free speech. We really have a problem with it up here and that would be one of my biggest concerns. You know, as a young man my beliefs in the protection of the freedoms we enjoy, including free speech, led me twice into combat for my country. Today, it leads me to support Assembly Resolution No. 8. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Ms. Giunchigliani?

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I rise in opposition to Assembly Resolution No. 8 for the following reasons. I would like to read the summary to you. This is what the public generally sees when they look at a bill draft. "Expresses disapproval of certain recent actions of Governor and Attorney General of the State of Nevada." What this basically amounts to and what this is really all about is politics. Under the guise of our First Amendment rights. Yes, a Democratic Senator raised the issue, but like buzzards flocking to fresh kill, the Republicans moved swiftly, in fact much more swiftly than I have seen a single piece of legislation dealt with this session, to attack a Democratic Governor and Attorney General. Assembly Resolution No. 8, as written, still focuses on the disapproval of them rather than reaffirming our support of the First Amendment rights as well as reaffirming our opposition to the nuclear dump. After we rise as a body, out of this Committee of the Whole, I have an amendment to propose to this body to take a look at which presents a positive solution to this issue which will focus on whether or not we want to stand in support of First Amendment rights as well as reaffirm our position. I would hope that you would consider that at that time. Thank you, very much.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Ms. de Braga?

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DE BRAGA:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I rise in opposition to Assembly Resolution No. 8. While I fully support the right of every Nevadan to speak out for any cause he or she believes in, I think it is imperative that we consider the motives of those involved and the role of the Attorney General. In passing Joint Resolution No. 295, Lincoln County officials did more than state their beliefs. They exceeded their authority by acting on those beliefs and did so without the consent of the people they represent. In defiance of Nevada's long time stand against becoming the nation's nuclear dump, they demonstrated a willingness to trade the health and well-being of their county and of the state for cash. Whether or not you agree that the course of action taken by the Attorney General was the correct one, you must recognize that it is her sworn duty to oversee the welfare of the citizens of Nevada. How can we then censure her for carrying out that duty? Keep in mind that this nuclear waste has to pass over and through other counties and other states as well. If we now broadcast the message that we as Nevadans are not unified in our desire to protect our state and safeguard it for future generations, we will forfeit all hope of ever being able to achieve that goal. I urge you to defeat this measure.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Mr. Carpenter?

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 8. I would say one thing though, free speech is alive and well in this building today. There is even more free speech here today than we have in cowboy poetry.

On a more serious note, though, Mr. Chairman, what we do not need in rural Nevada is for our Attorney General going around trying to remove from office our county commissioners, our small town mayors and city councilmen just because they dared to exercise their right to free speech under the First Amendment to our Constitution. We have heard a lot of rhetoric here today, but I really think that there is no reason that these people need to be threatened with the removal from office. I was a county commissioner for 14 years and if we had been threatened with removal from office every time we spoke up against the state or the Federal Government, we probably would have been in office only one week or less.

What we do need in rural Nevada is support from our Attorney General who will stand up to the Federal Government and fight for our state's water rights on public lands. Elko County has filed suit against the Federal Government to strengthen state water law on public lands. Our Attorney General has declined to help Elko County in this suit. It is, and should be, the Attorney General's responsibility to defend our state's rights in regards to water. Instead, a county has to do it.

The Attorney General, and I believe she is, was really serious about keeping a nuclear dump out of Nevada. The Attorney General should be in the forefront to return the public land in Nevada to state control. If the state owned the public land in Nevada, we could absolutely control the agenda on Yucca Mountain, and I think that should be the foremost push in our state to get our land back so we can control our destiny, not only with Yucca Mountain, but all the problems we have with the Federal Government. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Ms. Tiffany?

ASSEMBLYWOMAN TIFFANY:

That is a hard act to follow. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. In his book, One Man Stands For Freedom, the United States Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black says, "Freedom of speech means that you shall not do something to people either for the views they express or the words they write and speak." Sadly, Hugo Black's definition has been turned upside down in Nevada today and it now reads, "Freedom of speech means that you shall not do something to people either for the views they express or the words they write and speak unless it happens to disagree with the Attorney General and with the Governor and then it becomes open season." The Attorney General and the Governor, in seeking removal of the officials from Lincoln County and the City of Caliente, are trying to punish them, not for what they did, but for what they said. By initiating this action they gave a chilling warning to all of us Nevadans. Express the correct views or suffer the consequences. While I may personally agree with the state's policy, it is okay to strongly feel that way, but with the certainty that that position demands all opposition be silenced, then we have arrived at an ominous point in our society where ideas can be crimes. As the people's representatives we cannot allow ourselves to be intimidated by these self-proclaimed enforcers of correct thought.

In the words of another United States Supreme Court Justice, Robert Jackson, "If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox of politics or other matters of opinions or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein." I urge my colleagues to support this resolution because there is no room for thought police in the State of Nevada. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Ms. Evans?

ASSEMBLYWOMAN EVANS:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I am really a bit puzzled by the spin we are putting on this issue. Spin is something you hear a lot about in Washington. They even have people they call spin doctors. It looks like we have a few rising stars in that category in Nevada.

I was quite taken by the statement of the Lincoln County Commissioner who, just a few moments ago, characterized this as a freedom of speech issue, as many others have since, and then yet admitted that what they wanted for themselves, or they see being denied, they denied to their own citizens. Ex post facto they want to go to a vote of the people and they themselves were judge and jury on whether or not the poll that was taken was accurate. So, indeed, I see this as a bit of spin. We heard the words "muzzled," "squelched" and "trampled," but I ask you, whose responsibility is it to enforce the laws and the wishes of this legislature?

In many previous sessions, we have had bills and resolutions that have said no nukes in Nevada, and I think that is a pretty clear message. And now, we have a local jurisdiction who wants to go the other way. Do we expect our chief law enforcement officer in the state to look the other way? I would say if she did so that would be dereliction of duty.

I am also concerned, Mr. Chairman, with the way we are handling this issue. I could see that disgruntled members could write letters, a letter signed by all who agreed with them. But to go so far as to create a document of the legislature, a resolution, there is not much precedence for this.

I asked the Legislative Counsel Bureau to do some checking. How often do we do this? How often have we done it? Well, in 1871, we chastised the Treasurer for some embezzlement. I guess that was okay. In 1917, the Board of Regents, had to do with mismanagement, and in 1958, Governor Russell, after he was out of office by saying, "Don't tear down the Capitol Building." So, we do not go this far very often. And I think we have gone too far in trying to make this a formal document and I think we are trying to do more than what meets the eye.

I am also concerned with the language of this resolution that condemns officials in the Executive Branch. Why do we condemn? I heard yesterday in the Senate that the resolution does not say, "condemn;" it says "disapprove." But I refer you to the dictionary which says, "condemn: to express disapproval of" and that is what this resolution says, so it is condemning. And as far as our concern about trampling on the rights of Lincoln County, we do it every day in this legislature. Look at the flow of bills that pour into Government Affairs. This is not a "home rule" state. Local government has to come to us begging every day for this, that or the other, sort of an en loco parentis relationship. Just mention the word "home rule" and people flee the room, so from everybody who now seems to be on the other side I expect that there will be legislation tomorrow supporting "home rule."

I hope, Mr. Chairman, we will rise above sectionalism, rise above partisanship and as Spike Lee said, "Do the right thing." Defeat this resolution.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

I would point out that it is technically inappropriate to applaud in committee hearings. We have two people left who have their lights on. We will let those two speakers finish and that will be it for this portion. We will then rise out of committee. Ms. Buckley.

ASSEMBLYMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I believe that all citizens in the United States have a right to express their opinion. This right does not apply only to popular ideas, but to all expressions. It includes expressions of the ignorant and the uninformed. It also includes the right to say that Nevada should become a dumping ground for nuclear waste. It would seem that I would support this resolution, but I will not. While I support the First Amendment, and the First Amendment rights of the Lincoln County Commissioners and the Caliente City Council, I will not vote for a resolution that can be waved around by the nuclear industry as support for the location of a nuclear dump in Nevada. I also cannot vote for a resolution that denounces the Governor for exercising his First Amendment right to state his support for the Attorney General.

It is ironic that a resolution allegedly being brought because of the First Amendment, proceeds to excoriate the Governor for exercising his First Amendment rights. I also do not want an official resolution to be used by the nuclear industry to show dissension between the Assembly, the Governor and the Attorney General and to hurt our position in negotiating with the Federal Government. We show an example only in the past month where our delegation went back to Washington, D.C. to discuss the issue of the dump with the Energy Department and our Commissioner from Clark County was not even permitted to address the delegation.

It is important to have a unified message for Washington. It is important to let the Federal Government know that the overwhelming majority of Nevadans do not support turning Nevada into a nuclear dumping ground. It is important not to pass a resolution that could be construed as praising Lincoln County Commissioners and the Caliente City Council who seem to believe that turning the state into a nuclear dumping ground is okay as long as their county or city gets a $30 million, lump sum, up front and $10 million a year. That's what the resolution says.

I support any Nevadan's right to speak whether that speech is motivated by a true difference of opinion or by greed. But I will not support a resolution that is ambiguous and can be used as a tool by the nuclear industry. I would support an amended resolution striking the balance that we need to achieve and that is a reaffirmation that we believe that all in Nevada, including county officials, have a First Amendment right to speak and to petition government for redress of their grievances, but I believe we cannot do that while sending a message that Nevada should be a dumping ground for nuclear waste. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Mr. Ernaut?

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. To you and through you to this honorable body. Today, I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 8. There has been a lot of testimony here today, both for and against, talking about many things, but let us not delude ourselves or be dissuaded in any way into thinking this resolution is anything other than what it is.

It is not a referendum on storing nuclear waste in Nevada. It is not a partisan political vendetta. It is plainly, simply and clearly, a debate about the bounds and thresholds of our most basic right as Americans and as Nevadans—freedom of speech. Let me say from the start, that I, myself, as did many people in this body who signed on this resolution, are against storing nuclear waste in the State of Nevada and have always been that way and maintain that today. Furthermore, I am against negotiating benefits for the storage of nuclear waste in Nevada. And you may find this ironic, but I am absolutely opposed to what Lincoln County said in the resolution. But, I will defend their ability to say it and that is the essence of this debate, because the essence of free speech is to defend that speech which you disagree with as vehemently as the speech that you agree with. To disagree with that statement is to disagree with the freedom of speech altogether.

Don't take my word for it. Let me read you some excerpts from some of the editorials that have been about the state in the last couple of days. First of all from the Nevada Press Association, "The Association has supported a free and vigorous debate on all issues, but free speech is bruised when the state's top law enforcement officer seeks a criminal complaint against public officials, not for what they have done but for what they think ought to be done. Lincoln County's idea to explore, the temporary storage of nuclear waste in Lincoln County should be debated, not silenced, and those who wish to publicly discuss the issue should be able to do so without fear of prosecution by the State of Nevada." Las Vegas Review Journal, "Let's clear the smoke and mirrors. The judicial intimidation is pure and simple an effort to silence those who won't parrot the state's vehement opposition to storage of nuclear waste." Again, the Las Vegas Review Journal, "The action Ms. Del Papa outlandishly maintains violates the state law already rendered essentially moot by the federal court prohibiting storage of nuclear waste in Nevada."

It is not my intent today to give anybody in this body a lecture on free speech; we all know what it is, we all know its bounds. The concept of free speech is unequivocal, it is absolute, it is not tested by what you agree with or don't agree with, so the real question before us today is not the concept of free speech as some of the opponents have said. What is really the question and what is it that we're talking about? Are we talking about the Attorney General's hindrance of or repressing of free speech to the people in Lincoln County? I think so, and if you don't think so then I guess you agree with the fact that the Attorney General maintains that Lincoln County violated a state law.

By passing this resolution, and notwithstanding the fact that this resolution is nothing more than expressed opinion of the author, so the fact that we pass resolutions in this house every session urging Congress to do many things contrary to federal law, and we are not threatened with removal, or the fact that I sat on this very floor in 1993, along with many of you, voted against the Clean Air Act which was federal law. It also lends itself directly to the argument that we may have endangered the public safety of the State of Nevada, yet we weren't removed. And notwithstanding the argument that Lincoln County officials should be removed from office for violating state law, specifically NRS 459.910, and let me read that to you: NRS 495.910—"Unlawful to store high-level radioactive waste in the state. It is unlawful for any person or governmental entity to store high-level radioactive waste in Nevada."

Did Lincoln County store high-level nuclear waste in Nevada? No. Did they violate the state law? No, in fact my assertion is backed up in a recent LCB opinion and I'll read that as follows, "Because the resolution in question would make recommendations regarding logistics of transporting nuclear waste to Yucca Mountain, the resolution appears to respond appropriately to one of the activities specified by Congress as a use for that financial assistance. NRS 459.910 does not, by specific terms, prohibit such a recommendation and therefore the members of the Council or the Board of County Commissioners do not violate this statute by approving the resolution in question." That is dated February 20th. And even if you are not persuaded by the fact that Lincoln County in no way violated this statute, let's speak about the very constitutionality of NRS 459.910. In another recent LCB opinion, the Legislative Counsel Bureau writes the following, "Since NRS 459.910 provides it is unlawful for any person or governmental entity to store high-level nuclear waste in Nevada, it might be argued that the adoption of the resolution in question would promote an illegal activity. However, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has held the adoption of this statute as an attempt by Nevada to veto the Secretary of Energy's site characterization activities at Yucca Mountain is preempted by the Nuclear Waste Policy Act. In its opinion, the court noted that any state legislation which frustrates the full effectiveness of federal law is rendered invalid by the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution." So the linchpin of the legal argument in the Attorney General's complaint is unarguably unconstitutional. Earlier, I read to you from the very citation in the NRS. Now for all you attorneys, you know that the citations and the annotations are guidelines by which attorneys interpret. It says exactly the same thing, this is preempted by federal law, proving that even when this measure was passed in 1989 the signers knew then that it was unconstitutional and knew it expressed an opinion of the 1989 Legislature. My colleagues, I purport to you that in no way did Lincoln County officials violate state law, so then, if they did not violate state law, what are we really talking about here?

Plainly, simply, we are talking about a local body publicly disagreeing with state law, not violating, publicly disagreeing. I ask you, my colleagues, what is our job as elected officials? I would intimate to you that the very essence of our job is to speak out against that which is wrong and that with which we disagree and change what we feel is wrong regardless of its popularity or its partisanship.

The second argument we hear today is this is not the proper forum to bring this complaint, that somehow we are overstepping our bounds as legislators in admonishing this act. In fact, the Attorney General recently wrote a letter to each of you saying, and let me quote from it, "The checks and balances between the legislative branch and the executive branch established by the Nevada Constitution are undermined by this unjustified attack upon me." Ladies and gentlemen, I maintain to you that this is the very essence of checks and balances. When one entity in this government acts inappropriately it is not the right, but the responsibility of the others to keep it in check and to keep it in balance. So, I would echo the remarks of the Senate Majority Leader yesterday when he said, "If not us, who and if not now, when?" If we allow this punitive and harassing lawsuit to continue, unquestioned and unchallenged, then we are too, to cast a cloud over elected officials in this state, us included. If he or she cannot speak their minds without fear of legal retribution, what recourse do the citizens of this state have if this elected body refuses to take up this fight? You can't go to the county commission because they have already been admonished.

In conclusion, the question at hand is questionable. Are we going to punish people for speaking out because they are scared, because they don't believe the state can protect them? You heard today that Lincoln County didn't invite the waste dump, they merely wanted to be protected if it came. For that we should remove them from office? I ask each and every one of you here today to ask yourself a question, "What do I stand for?" Do you stand for the repression of free speech merely because you disagree with its contents? Do you stand for taking away elected officials rights, or any citizen's rights, protecting his or her government, or will you be blinded by allowing yourself to buy into this specious argument that the Attorney General is trying to protect us from ourselves? Or will you stand up and defend the very essence, the very essence of free speech? I implore you to look inside yourself today and see the real issue, see beyond the demagoguery, see beyond the politics, see beyond the emotion and do what is right. Remember that freedom of speech is like loyalty, it is just a concept until it is tested. Today, ladies and gentlemen, this is your test.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Mr. Price?

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I'm referring to Mason's Manual which we all have, Section 687, subsection 6. My point of order is that I believe the primary purpose of the Committee of the Whole is to be able to hear testimony from the public. By the way, I want to congratulate you and our two leaders for what has happened here today. It is 10,000 times better than what happened at the other end of the building. The primary purpose, but not absolutely necessary, of dissolving into a Committee of the Whole is to take testimony and then to make a recommendation back to the full body. I would respectfully suggest that it would be proper that we should make some type of motion. I will not make the motion. I would like to hear the other side and I'm not trying to be pushy. Let me read this: Motions permitted in the Committee of the Whole which are considerably restricted, for example, you don't have to have seconds for motions and you can't limit debate and so forth. While they are restricted, the only regular motions available are to limit debate, to propose amendments and are limited to recommendations to the House, the same as any other committee. In other words, we come and hear debate on both sides, and we are just like the Judiciary Committee or any other committee and when we pass a bill out, or decide not to pass a bill out, we are supposed to make a recommendation to the full House. I think a motion should be made, whether it be for or against, or an amendment be added or something else. I believe the proper thing for us to do is to make a recommendation to the full body and it will be on the record.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. To my colleague from Clark County, it was the intent for this Committee of the Whole to read the committee report back to this body with no recommendation. Mainly, I would direct you to page 464 in the Mason's Manual, which does not allow for any roll call vote to be taken. In essence, not to get into a battle over the Mason's Manual, we thought it would be more appropriate to take the vote once we have risen from the Committee of the Whole and take additional debate upon the adoption of the motion.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I did not hear that earlier. But even then, I would respectfully submit that a motion should be made as we dissolve back that we have heard the debate and that we make no recommendation. The proper thing would be to have that in the record. I have no problem with that. I think we should be doing it procedurally correct.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

In reviewing this with Mrs. Landing, the section says the only motions that can be considered are, "being available" are the actual words, limited debate, propose amendments, to recommend and to rise. We can recommend that we have heard, recommend that we go back, recommend that we rise, whatever you choose. I think the idea is to put this vote on the record. I think the proper motion here would be to recommend that we report back to the Assembly that we have had the hearing on Assembly Resolution No. 8.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

If you would go to the next subsection, it says likewise, the Committee of the Whole cannot take any final action, but its power is limited to recommendations to the House, the same as any other committee. When a bill or resolution comes out of committee, in any of our committees, the recommendations used are three: for, against, amend and no recommendation which is seldom used. I'm only saying that this is the appropriate thing for this body to do. As stated, just below what you are reading.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Mr. Chairman, to my colleague from Clark County. It was not our intent to get into a Mason's Manual battle today. Neither was it our intent to duplicate the effort of making the vote. We are going to do the vote in about five minutes. Unless we want to waste more time with some of this stuff, I would respectfully submit to our colleague from Clark County that we will be taking the vote very shortly. It will be duly recorded within an official session of the legislature rather than in the Committee of the Whole where it cannot be recorded.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Beyond that, Mr. Price, I would point out that subsection 6 that you just quoted says that the power is limited to recommendation, but it is not required. There is no recommendation required. Mrs. Landing also informs me that by precedence this is the way we have handled it in the past. We do not recommend or come out with a recommendation, but we report back.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Mr. Ernaut?

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

I move the Committee of the Whole now do rise and report back to the Assembly.

CHAIRMAN HETTRICK:

Assemblyman Ernaut has moved the Committee of the Whole do rise and report back to the Assembly. All those in favor signify by saying "Aye". Opposed, "No." Motion carries. I call the Assembly back to order.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assembly Resolution No. 8.

Resolution read.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblymen Dini, Perkins, Giunchigliani, Buckley, Anderson, Arberry, Bache, Chowning, de Braga, Evans, Freeman, Goldwater, Krenzer, Manendo, Ohrenschall, Price, Schneider, Segerblom, Spitler and Williams:

Amendment No. 192.

Amend the resolution, page 2, by deleting lines 11 through 28 and inserting:

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, That the Assembly of the State of Nevada vehemently reaffirms its opposition to the permanent storage of high-level radioactive waste in Nevada and its opposition to any amendment of the Nuclear Waste Policy Act which would allow the siting of an interim storage program or monitored retrievable storage program in Nevada; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Assembly of the State of Nevada supports the First Amendment rights of all citizens of the United States to express freely their views on public policy issues, recognizing the right of freedom of speech is meaningless if it applies only to popular speech; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Assembly of the State of Nevada, regardless of the issue under consideration, supports the right of all local governments to express their views to the state and Federal Government, even if their views are unpopular, contrary to the wishes of the majority of Nevadans, and likely to be injurious to the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of the State of Nevada; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this Resolution to the Nevada Congressional delegation, the Board of County Commissioners of Lincoln County and the Caliente City Council.".

Amend the preamble of the resolution, pages 1 and 2, by deleting lines 1 through 28 on page 1 and lines 1 through 10 on page 2 and inserting:

"WHEREAS, The Nevada Legislature has concluded that the storage of high-level radioactive waste in Nevada poses a severe threat to the health and safety of the current and future generations of Nevadans because of the extremely dangerous nature of such waste and the persistence of that danger for an extended period; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Legislature believes that the storage of high-level radioactive waste in Nevada would pose a severe threat to the tourist-based economy of the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Legislature believes that neither the Federal Government nor the nuclear industry has engaged in a fair process for the selection of a site for nuclear storage facilities; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Legislature believes that the nuclear industry has and will continue to engage in tactics designed to locate a nuclear "dump" in the State of Nevada, despite many legitimate concerns regarding public safety and regardless of the amount of money the industry must spend to do so; and

WHEREAS, An overwhelming majority of the people of this State do not support the construction and operation of a nuclear "dump" in the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The members of the County Commission of Lincoln County and the Caliente City Council have taken actions which may be characterized as showing support for the construction of a nuclear "dump" in Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The members of the County Commission of Lincoln County and the Caliente City Council have passed Joint Resolution No. 2–95 which requests the payment of $1 million annually to the Caliente City Council and $2 million annually to Lincoln County before the shipment of nuclear waste to Lincoln County, and $30 million upon the arrival of nuclear waste in Lincoln County and $10 million annually thereafter to Lincoln County if Congress decides to enact the Nuclear Waste Policy Act during the 95th session of Congress; and

WHEREAS, By passing Joint Resolution No. 2–95 the County Commissioners of Lincoln County and the Caliente City Council have not only ignored the wishes of the majority of Nevadans and disregarded the official State policy regarding interaction with the Federal Government on this issue, they have also increased the danger of transforming this beautiful state into a nuclear dumping ground; and

WHEREAS, The First Amendment right of each local government to express its views to the state and Federal Government is not limited to popular speech, it extends to the expression of views which are politically unpopular and which blatantly disregard the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, This constitutional right of free speech even protects speech which is uninformed, has been influenced by special interests willing to spend millions of dollars to have their viewpoint prevail and endangers the legal position of the State of Nevada in its fight to prevent the construction of a nuclear "dump" here; and

WHEREAS, The Attorney General of the State of Nevada filed a civil Complaint for Removal from Office in the Seventh Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Lincoln (Case No. 13–3–95 LC) against certain individual members of the Board of County Commissioners of Lincoln County and the Caliente City Council which requests the court to issue an order "which will have the effect of removing each of the Defendants from their respective offices"; and

WHEREAS, If a resolution were to be adopted by the Assembly which expressed disapproval of the Attorney General for filing that civil Complaint, that resolution could be used by the nuclear industry in its fight against Nevada to show dissention between the Nevada Legislature, the Governor and the Attorney General regarding the nuclear "dump" despite the fact that the Nevada Legislature, the Governor, the Attorney General and a majority of the citizens of Nevada believe that the "dump" will be injurious to the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, Despite the passage of a Senate Resolution expressing disapproval of the Attorney General for filing that civil Complaint, it is of vital importance to make absolutely clear that the official position of the State of Nevada is that the construction and operation of a nuclear "dump" will be injurious to the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of the State of Nevada; now, therefore, be it".

Amend the title of the resolution to read as follows: "Reaffirming the right of free speech and legislative opposition to storage of high-level radioactive waste in Nevada.".

Amend the summary of the resolution to read as follows: "Reaffirms right of free speech and legislative opposition to storage of high-level radioactive waste in Nevada. (BDR R-1936)".

Assemblyman Giunchigliani moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Giunchigliani, Humke, Ernaut, Buckley, Carpenter, Krenzer, Dini, Steel, Tiffany, Price and Allard.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

I offered this amendment in order to properly focus on what this issue is about. Amendment No. 192 accomplishes what I have heard both in the halls the last days, as well as what I have heard on the floor during the debate on Assembly Resolution No. 8. It reaffirms our long-standing state policy of opposition because the storage of high-level nuclear waste proposes severe threat to the health and safety of Nevadans and poses a severe threat to our tourist economy. The legislature, the Governor and the Attorney General have consistently opposed nuclear waste being stored here. Nevadans have consistently said "no" to storing nuclear waste and have constantly said "no" to selling the state's future by negotiating with the carpetbagging nuclear industry.

Further, this amendment notes that the Lincoln County Commissioners have taken action showing support for a nuke dump stored in their county with disregard for the safety and welfare of the rest of the state. It also references that they have suggested a monetary "scheme" in their resolution which implies that some in Nevada can be bought by the nuclear industry. But while the amendment states that the individuals involved may have jeopardized Nevadans through its complete disregard for our state policy, it also does not condemn the Commissioners, the Council, the Governor nor the Attorney General. It doesn't get personal as some of the rhetoric did yesterday as well as some of what we've heard today. It doesn't cause this body to act as both the judge and jury in the consideration of whether or not what the Attorney General did was correct or whether or not what the council and commission did was correct. That is for the court to decide, not this body.

In addition, the amendment makes it absolutely clear that even though the Lincoln County officials may have jeopardized our policy and sent a mixed message to Washington, they have every right to speak out. We must protect our First Amendment right to discuss, debate and disagree even if it's unpopular. That is their right under the First Amendment. I just hope that my peers who have capitalized on this political issue by wrapping themselves around the First Amendment would continue to do so even if a resolution came forth supporting flag burning as a symbol of free speech or to support picketers to be outside public sidewalks.

What this amendment provides is a positive solution so that we can come back together and set aside any partisan politics. What it states and adamantly reaffirms is our opposition to the storage of nuclear waste which Assembly Resolution No. 8 does not, and it clarifies our support of one's right to free speech. Let me make this very clear, if you vote in support of this amendment you are supporting our no-nuke-dump policy and the First Amendment. If you vote no on this amendment, you are voting against the First Amendment and you are saying you are in favor of the storage of nuclear waste. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to Amendment No. 192 to Assembly Resolution No. 8. The kindest thing that I can say about this amendment is that it does mention the First Amendment, but it damns with faint praise. I would quote from page 2 of the amendment, new language, "Resolved that the Assembly of the State of Nevada, regardless of the issue under consideration supports the right of all local governments to express their views to the state and Federal Government even if their views are unpopular. Contrary to the wishes of the majority of Nevadans, and likely to be injurious to the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of the State of Nevada," and it goes on.

Later, at page 4, there is a similar reference reading from the amendment, "Whereas the First Amendment right of each local government to express its views to the state and Federal Government is not limited to popular speech, it extends to the expression of views which are politically unpopular and which blatantly disregard the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of the State of Nevada." Then it goes on additionally to call attention to the very resolution that the Lincoln County Commissioners did pass and finally it does change the title and summary of the bill at page 5. Language as follows: "Reaffirming the right of free speech and legislation opposition to the storage of high-level radioactive waste in Nevada." And that language is essentially repeated in the summary. Mr. Speaker, I would say that this is one of the oldest tricks in the book. It literally takes a bill that says "A" and changes it into a resolution that says "B." No member should be fooled by this. This is not the intent of the makers and it should not be given consideration. If the proponents wish a resolution, they should go and get a resolution. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in opposition to Amendment No. 192 to Assembly Resolution No. 8. Although, nice try. In no way do I support the storing of nuclear waste in Nevada, but I am not sure that this amendment does that. And number two, I am not sure that in the way that it addresses the First Amendment it reaffirms my right or my opinion on the First Amendment because I would say that this probably would have to be a constitutional challenge for the points that my colleague from Washoe County brought up.

First of all, we need to make something very clear—that the purpose of Assembly Resolution No. 8 was to admonish an act that the co-signed felt was inappropriate and out of bounds, a clear abridgement of free speech. This amendment to this resolution, while it's trying to place our chess pieces in check, certainly again fools nobody. I find it the height of demagoguery. But, with that being said I would ask the prime sponsor of this amendment, if indeed, that she feels this way about the First Amendment as it relates to Assembly Resolution No. 8. Does this mean that the undersigned will stand for another resolution after the Attorney General has dismissed the suit?

ASSEMBLYMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to my colleague from Assembly District No. 37. It is not to make a judgment regarding whether or not I wish to call on the Attorney General to withdraw anything, I think that is up to the Attorney General and the Governor in the area of separation of power. However, if your offer is to take the resolution I presented, as well as the resolution that is currently on the books, because neither one seems to accomplish what both parties seem to think they are saying, sit down and work out a compromise, I would be more than happy to put this bill on the desk and work out a compromise with my colleagues.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

To you and through you to my colleague from District No. 9, I am very reticently acknowledging your offer of a compromise. However, I would point out to you that this amendment was not in any way born of compromise, nor of acknowledgment by the Republicans. In fact, it was just passed out today, and it was passed out to the Democrats and not to the Republicans. So, I'm not sure that the good faith of compromise is in the air today, although the original resolution was indeed brought to every member of this body save a couple that I couldn't find to ask their opinion on it. So, in saying that I would ask this body to defeat Amendment No. 192, to pass Assembly Resolution No. 8 and if we want to discuss again another resolution asking for the dissolving of the lawsuits by the Attorney General, I would be all ears.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate your patience. To you and through you to my colleague, I would state by looking at the names who signed on and did not sign on to a bill is not indicative ever of support and that has been our past practice. I was never asked to look, nor sign on to Assembly Resolution No. 8. The amendment was worked out last evening by myself and my colleagues. I did inform my colleagues that I was bringing an amendment forth. If there is a wish for a caucus or to work some kind of compromise, again we'd be more than willing to work with them. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Amendment No. 192 to Assembly Resolution No. 8. I believe that the amendment does capture a bit of the oldest trick in the book. But, I think that there is a reason for that. And, I think that the reason relates to any amendment concerning the first amendment and unpopular speech. If this amendment was to condemn someone for refusing to allow someone to make a racist or anti-semitic remark, I believe it is only appropriate that in addition to that censure of that person for violating the First Amendment right, that you restate your opposition to racism and anti-semitism. I think that was the trick that was attempting to be accomplished in Amendment No. 192 and that is to say while everyone in the State of Nevada has a First Amendment right to speak, while local government officials have the right to speak and to redress government, that does not necessarily mean that we support a nuclear dump in Nevada. That was the intention of Amendment No. 192. If this debate, is indeed, about the free speech issue, and if indeed those individuals who believe in freedom of speech also are against the nuclear dump, I believe that Amendment No. 192 should be adopted. It supports wholeheartedly the right to free speech. It specifically supports local government's right to express support for a nuclear dump. It also expresses our view that a nuclear dump poses a serious threat to the health and safety of current and of future Nevadans. It also expresses concern that Lincoln County Commissioners and the Caliente City Council are ignoring the wishes of the majority of Nevadans. I think that this is exactly the type of message that we have to send. That we support the right to say something that we don't agree with, but to again reiterate why we don't agree with it. Additionally, this resolution cures, I believe, a fatal defect in the original Assembly Resolution No. 8 that condemns the Governor for exercising his First Amendment rights. I don't think that we can substitute in a resolution by saying we don't support anyone who crushes First Amendment rights and in the wake of it, we crush the Governor's First Amendment rights. If this debate is about free speech only, and to reaffirm our opposition to the nuclear dump, I urge your support of Amendment No. 192.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in disapproval of Amendment No. 192. The reason I do is that I don't think that it goes to the core of the issue. The issue, as I see it, is should we be removed from office if we speak out, or pass a resolution, or whatever against anyone? I do not believe that the Attorney General should have that kind of power to remove someone from office. I think the Attorney General has the right to try to declare a resolution, or ordinance or whatever unconstitutional if it be against the law of the State of Nevada or the United States, but I don't think that those people should be removed from office. And this amendment does not go to the heart of that issue. Therefore, I urge you to not support this amendment. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Amendment No. 192 to Assembly Resolution No. 8. I feel that this amendment balances Lincoln County's rights, freedom of speech and also restates the overwhelming majority opinion of the people of the state in opposition to the storage of high-level radioactive waste.

I would also ask what was the last two hours about if a resolution is at hand that does not reflect the testimony given, does not reflect the true picture of the testimony given by our Attorney General, does not, in fact, discuss her many attempts to communicate with the officials in Lincoln County, nor does it address Lincoln County's exclusion of public testimony on this issue? I rise in support of this amendment because it does strike a balance. It strikes a balance by stating the two issues clearly. If this amendment is not accepted, I would support putting this on the desk and formulating a resolution that clearly states the testimony that we have heard today. Assembly Resolution No. 8 does not do that. I therefore rise in support of Amendment No. 192.

SPEAKER DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the Assembly. You know I was reading a little bit of a news article, last week and I rise in support of the amendment based on the grounds of a couple of things that I want to say. Last week the former Attorney General and presently the chairman of the opposite political party, made the statement that the Attorney General had no choice but to file the action—that she was doing her duty. He said it publicly and I think he meant it based on the facts that the Attorney General has to enforce the laws of the State of Nevada. The other thing that I really feel concerned about, if we don't adopt the amendment, is that we are giving away the power of this legislature to legislate to the counties and the cities. They are creations of ours. We created counties, we created cities. We give cities more power than the counties do, actually, because they have local city charters. But you know, if we want to govern, we have to be the force that is going to stand behind the executive branch of government. There is a separation of powers, sure, but we pass laws. The Governor signs the law and it becomes a law and the executive branch has to enforce the act. And, I think we are giving up a lot of power adopting this resolution without this amendment.

I think we have to reiterate the right of free speech. We all have that right. We all want everybody to say what they want to us. They tell us everything they want, anyway. That's for sure, whether it's in the press, at home or on the telephone. But, the other side is that we don't want people to go away from the legislature feeling that we are trying to deprive anybody of free speech. I'm not trying to condemn the Lincoln County Commissioners. They did their job, I guess, what they felt they were doing, so I don't think that they can stand up to the legislature and the Governor and say, "You've got a law, but we don't have to obey it."

And we have to get down to another resolution or amend this resolution to make it proper so that we send the right message out. We're for free speech. We want to oppose the nuclear dump being located in this state at any location, whether it be Yucca Mountain or outside Lincoln County. And I know that Lincoln County has had a tough time. Economically they have been really suffering for a long time. They have been going downhill and downhill. Whether it's their location or whether it is other problems within their government, I don't know. It's not my job to determine that. However, the past record of Lincoln County in this chamber has been to bring the dirtiest industry in the world into Nevada and locate them in their county, and it is time that they wake up and if they want economic development to go out and get some jobs that they can bring into their community that will not condemn our state to be the dumping ground of the world.

I believe the Attorney General was correct this morning when she stated that the most important economy is gaming. We are being attacked at all levels, whether it is Federal Government, Indian reservations or whatever you want to talk about. We are being attacked and business is being taken away from this state. And there are new moves in California. We cannot do anything that will cause any kind of deficiency and not bring business to our community. So, I urge you to support this amendment. If you cannot support this amendment, let's put it on the desk, go to the drawing board and create an amendment that we can all live with. I urge your support of the amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to this honorable body. I rise in opposition to Amendment No. 192. My reason is very simple. The resolution that we are considering here today is a resolution on free speech. It does not condemn the nuclear waste dump; it does not condemn the Lincoln County officials. It's just a free speech issue. What this amendment asks us to do as a body is to put our votes down whether we approve or disapprove of the dump, without really having actual testimony on the nuclear dump issue. We've heard whether it's okay to say something about it, but we haven't heard anything on the issue. We are looking at apples and oranges here, and I think that we should defeat this amendment. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN TIFFANY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this amendment. This amendment, to me, is 180 degrees from the original intent and purpose of this resolution. I am personally offended that we can take the First Amendment and tie it to a policy issue. I couldn't believe it. We have briefly touched on the First Amendment. But there are pages that have brought in terminology like storage of high-level radioactive waste, fair process of selection of a site, construction operation of a nuclear dump. Then, it goes on and on about money and the rhetoric about Lincoln County selling out for money. That, is not the purpose of this bill and I do not support us going to the table, because we are too far apart on this and this attempt is good. It has a purpose and it deserves to have a vote on it today. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to this honorable body. First, while we are on the record, I would like to congratulate the floor leaders on both sides, yourself and this body for the conduct and the service that we have provided to the citizens of this state today unlike our colleagues at the other end of the hall, we as the people's branch of government. The closest of any elected officials to the people, which is why we are sometimes called that have allowed the people to have their say and we have brought this issue before them in a manner that we can be proud of.

I am rising in support of the amendment, although I will tell you candidly that the amendment does not address all of the issues that I feel should be addressed by this body on this subject matter.

I congratulate and I support the Attorney General for doing what she perceives and I agree by what the letter of the law is supposed to do and that is to, in her opinion, and the opinion of anyone sitting in that office, to exercise their power to enforce the laws of the state.

As an aside, I'm looking forward to see this vigor in addressing the open meeting law in the future. I couldn't resist getting that in. We are elected in districts by a few people. In my case, the last time I had an election there were 11,000 people. We are elected to represent the entire state, the interests of every person who crosses the border into this great state. Our colleagues from Lincoln County, from the City of Caliente, from the City of Las Vegas or from any other political district are elected or appointed to represent the views and interests of their district, not necessarily the entire state. They are elected to represent the people who brought them to office. I personally have no problem, and neither should any of us have a problem if from time to time those interests may be of a different opinion than the interests we share in this body. There are plenty of forums, in some cases legal and in some cases debate and many other things to handle those. By the way, in response to my colleague who was concerned about changing what appears to be the issue through amendment, that is the compromise process which is the essence of debate and compromise in legislative bodies. If it were not, we could be in some country that had a king or czar who is going to tell everyone what to do. The basic emphasis of this body is to put forth ideas, sometimes by debate, sometimes by bills, and to debate that and to come to a mutual agreement. Most of the time it is not quite as close as 21 to 21, but a mutual agreement. And that is the wonderful thing about the process that we have and we should all appreciate it. In my mind today, for whatever it is worth, I heard an Attorney General who expressed to us her understanding of the law, what she felt that she had to do and I agree with her. We heard a body from a county and a city that I respectfully suggest had plenty of argument to add to the confusion. Although I want to tell you that I disagree with them, I would not have voted for that particular action, but that is neither here nor there. That is their collective right under the constitution of this state and what should be the principles of our state and this body. They did collectively for whatever reason, what they thought was correct. I think that we have a forum here through this resolution . . . the proposed amendment. I think we have the opportunity, to some degree, to sit down and negotiate or help resolve this issue without having it be partisan, without attacking anyone, encouraging the coming together of the two parties that have been discussed here, the two branches of government to some amenable resolution. We do not have to embarrass the Governor. We do not have to embarrass us. We do not have to embarrass anyone. Now, I don't have any problem doing that, by the way, when I feel that strongly about it. I have thought about it. I have to tell you I thought about a resolution against another branch of government earlier this year on some of their actions, but in this case I think that it is incumbent upon us and I would beg my colleagues, Republican, Democrat, North, South and rural, to use our power to sit down and bring together the parties in this manner in a dignified and responsible and non-embarrassing manner to anyone regardless of who they are.

Again, sounds a little weird, but I have to say that I agreed with almost every statement by all of my colleagues on both sides because the truth and the intent has been in parts of all of us. I would encourage the adoption of this because it makes it a little less offensive than before. But, I would strongly encourage all of us, regardless of Republican or Democrat, to take a few days or a few hours to sit down, eventually bring this to the desk and see if we cannot resolve it in a less combative matter. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If we are going to talk about the Attorney General suppressing free speech because it was her duty to carry out the laws of the State of Nevada, then, let's talk about it. Let's talk about it honestly and let's talk about it intellectually.

In 1993, we had a resolution in the State of Nevada. That resolution asked for us to negotiate for benefits if the nuke dump came to the State of Nevada. My recollection is that five Senators voted for that. Why weren't they removed from office? Just this week the Washoe County District Attorney went on television and said the District Attorney's Office will, in fact, violate state law. They will prosecute trace amounts of drug possession as a misdemeanor rather than a felony. Whether you agree or disagree with that, ultimately it is in violation of state law. Will the Attorney General's Office prosecute immediately? That is not what we are talking about here. And, that is a cop out to say that she was doing her duty. She was negligent in doing her duty, punitively doing her duty. So let's be honest about this, okay?

Number two, if we are talking about this amendment on my bill as being congruent, than I would like to talk to the benevolent chairman of taxation by saying that I would love to amend my Ponderosa County bill on your annual session bill. It's about that congruent.

Assembly Resolution No. 8 talks about free speech, period. Plainly, simply, clearly. It's not about the nuke dump and I'll not vote for an amendment which brings that issue into the issue of the First Amendment right of free speech. Now, I will say to the people who want to vote for this amendment, get your own resolution.

SPEAKER DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will have trouble following that act, but I want to disagree just a little bit with my distinguished colleague from Washoe County and the lady from Clark County in District No. 21. The thing is, when you go along in this legislative process for a long time, you have to make some tough decisions. This resolution, as presently written, only censures the Attorney General and the Governor for doing their duties. You know, the toughest vote I ever made in this House was a vote I made to censure one of our members several years ago. It was the toughest vote I ever made in my life. And, when you go to censure a constitutionally-elected official then you had better have more than what I have heard here this morning in evidence of what they have done in violation of doing their duties. You elect them; you constitutionally give them certain rights. We give them statutes, tell them to enforce them and I think we have got to get back to that basic. Don't censure someone unless you have the evidence to show that they did something wrong, because it is the worst vote that you will ever make in your life.

ASSEMBLYMAN ALLARD:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this amendment. I agree with Speaker Dini in that the Attorney General has a responsibility to uphold the laws of the state. The Lincoln County officials didn't break any laws, and therefore, the suit is wrong and Assembly Resolution No. 8 condemns the Attorney General's action in filing this suit. The amendment is more ostentatious. It has been said that this is a nuclear waste issue being wrapped in a First Amendment shroud. But I submit to you that this is a First Amendment issue being wrapped in a nuclear waste cloud, and I therefore oppose this amendment and urge you to do the same. Thank you.

Assemblymen Marvel, Anderson and Allard moved the previous question.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would remind the benevolent Chairman of Taxation that it still takes 22. Along those lines, I have a document that I would like placed in the record today. I'd like to read it to you.

STATE OF NEVADA
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
Capitol Complex
Carson City, Nevada 89710

To: Jim Hulse
FROM: Misty Young, Executive Assistant
PHONE: (702) 687-3512 FAX: (702) 687-5798
DATE: March 20, 1995

Jim, here are the Lincoln County lawsuit documents. Thanks for your help. I hope that you personally will be able to write a letter to the editor for publication ASAP, and that Common Cause may stand firmly in favor of this action.
Thank you again.

The significance of that date is that's the date the Lincoln County complaint was filed. I would report to this body that if we debated motivations yesterday, and we debated who was politically motivated, I contend that sending a copy of the documents, alleged documents, to a politically charged agency who is against the dump, maybe even prior to those affected by the complaint, asking for a letter writing campaign, is very politically motivated. So if the defense of free speech rights was that the Attorney General was merely doing her duty, I would say to you in light of this, that is, at best, erroneous.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, April 3, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 17.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By the Committee on Government Affairs:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 26—Expressing the vehement opposition of the State of Nevada to storage of radioactive waste in Nevada.

Assemblyman Bache moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Affairs.

Motion carried.

By Assemblymen Close, Hettrick, Arberry, Giunchigliani, Lambert, Chowning, Harrington, Nolan, Bennett, Goldwater, Spitler, Tiffany, Marvel, Fettic, Allard, Buckley, Segerblom and Neighbors:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 27—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to provide for the initial selection of judges by appointment with an annual review of their performance and their subsequent retention by election.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That a new section be added to article 6, and sections 3, 5, 15 and 20 of article 6 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 22. 1. Commencing with any term of office that expires on or after December 31, 1999, each justice of the supreme court and judge of a district court who desires to succeed himself shall, on or before July 1 next preceding the expiration of his term of office, declare his candidacy in a manner provided by law. With respect to each justice or judge who so declares, the question must be presented at the next general election, in a form provided by law, whether that justice or judge shall succeed himself. The term of office of each justice or judge who succeeds himself is 6 years, beginning and ending on the first Monday of January in the respectively appropriate years.

2. If a justice or judge does not declare his candidacy, or if a majority of the votes cast on the question of his retention are cast against his succeeding himself, a vacancy is created at the expiration of his term which must be filled by appointment pursuant to section 20 of this article. The initial term of the justice or judge appointed to replace the justice or judge who is not succeeding himself is the term the former justice or judge would have served had he succeeded himself.

[Sec: 3. The Justices of the Supreme Court, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State at the general election, and shall hold office for the term of Six Years from and including the first Monday of January next succeeding their election; Provided, that there shall be elected, at the first election under this Constitution, Three Justices of the Supreme Court who shall hold Office from and including the first Monday of December AD. Eighteen hundred and Sixty four, and continue in Office thereafter, Two, Four and Six Years respectively, from and including the first Monday of January next suceeding [succeeding] their election. They shall meet as soon as practicable after their election and qualification, and at their first meeting shall determine by lot, the term of Office each shall fill, and the Justice drawing the shortest term shall be Chief Justice, and after the expiration of his term, the one having the next shortest term shall be Chief Justice, after which the Senior Justice in Commission shall be Chief Justice; and in case the commission of any two or more of said Justices shall bear the same date, they shall determine by lot, who shall be Chief Justice.]

Sec. 3. After each biennial election, the justices of the supreme court shall meet and declare as chief justice the senior justice in commission. If the commissions of any two or more justices bear the same date, they shall determine by lot who is chief justice.

Sec. 5. The state is hereby divided into Nine Judicial Districts of which the county of Storey shall constitute the First; The county of Ormsby the Second; the county of Lyon the Third; The county of Washoe the Fourth; The counties of Nye and Churchill the Fifth; The county of Humboldt the Sixth; The county of Lander the Seventh; The county of Douglas the Eighth; and the county of Esmeralda the Ninth. The county of Roop shall be attached to the county of Washoe for judicial purposes until otherwise provided by law. The Legislature may, however, provide by law for an alteration in the boundaries or divisions of the [Districts herein prescribed, and also] judicial districts and for increasing or diminishing the number of [the Judicial Districts and Judges] those districts and the judges therein. But no such change [shall] may take effect, except in case of a vacancy [,] or the expiration of the term of an incumbent of the [Office. At the first general election under this Constitution there shall be elected in each of the respective Districts (except as in this Section hereafter otherwise provided) One District Judge, who shall hold Office from and including the first Monday of December AD. Eighteen hundred and Sixty four and until the first Monday of January in the year Eighteen hundred and Sixty seven. After the said first election, there shall be elected at the General election which immediately precedes the expiration of the term of his predecessor, One District Judge in each of the respective Judicial Districts (except in the First District as in this Section hereinafter provided.) The District Judges shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective districts, and shall hold office for the term of 6 years (excepting those elected at said first election) from and including the first Monday of January, next succeeding their election and qualification; Provided, that the First Judicial District shall be entitled to, and shall have Three District Judges, who shall possess] office of district judge. In a judicial district with more than one district judge, each judge possesses co-extensive and concurrent jurisdiction, and [who shall be elected at the same times, in the same manner, and shall hold office for the like terms as herein prescribed, in relation to the Judges in other Judicial Districts, any one of said Judges] any of those judges may preside on the [empanneling] empaneling of Grand Juries and the presentment and trial on indictments [, under such rules and regulations as may be] in the manner prescribed by law.

[Sec:] Sec. 15. The Justices of the Supreme Court and District Judges shall each receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law and paid in the manner provided by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they [shall] have been elected [,] or appointed, unless a Vacancy occurs, in which case the successor of the former incumbent shall receive only such salary as may be provided by law at the time of his election or appointment; and provision shall be made by law for setting apart from each year's revenue a sufficient amount of Money [,] to pay such compensation.

Sec. 20. 1. When a vacancy occurs [before the expiration of any term of office] for any reason in the supreme court or among the district judges, the governor shall appoint a justice or judge from among three nominees selected for [such] the individual vacancy by the commission on judicial selection [.

2. The term of office of any justice or judge so appointed expires on the first Monday of January following the next general election.

3. Each nomination for the supreme court shall be made by the permanent commission, composed of:

(a) The chief justice or an associate justice designated by him;

(b) Three members of the State Bar of Nevada, a public corporation created by statute, appointed by its board of governors; and

(c) Three persons, not members of the legal profession, appointed by the governor.

4. Each nomination for the district court shall be made by a temporary commission composed of:

(a) The permanent commission;

(b) A member of the State Bar of Nevada resident in the judicial district in which the vacancy occurs, appointed by the board of governors of the State Bar of Nevada; and

(c) A resident of such judicial district, not a member of the legal profession, appointed by the governor.

5. If at any time the State Bar of Nevada ceases to exist as a public corporation or ceases to include all attorneys admitted to practice before the courts of this state, the legislature shall provide by law, or if it fails to do so the court shall provide by rule, for the appointment of attorneys at law to the positions designated in this section to be occupied by members of the State Bar of Nevada.

6. The term of office of each appointive member of the permanent commission, except the first members, is 4 years. Each appointing authority shall appoint one of the members first appointed for a term of 2 years. If a vacancy occurs, the appointing authority shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The additional members of a temporary commission shall be appointed when a vacancy occurs, and their terms shall expire when the nominations for such vacancy have been transmitted to the governor.

7. An appointing authority shall not appoint to the permanent commission more than:

(a) One resident of any county.

(b) Two members of the same political party.

No member of the permanent commission may be a member of a commission on judicial discipline.

8.] and review.

2. The legislature shall provide by law for the:

(a) Number;

(b) Qualifications;
(c) Appointment;
(d) Compensation; and
(e) Terms of office, of the members of the commission, not more than two-fifths of whom may be attorneys admitted to practice before the courts of this state.

3. The commission shall:

(a) Annually review the performance of each justice and judge in the manner provided by law; and

(b) After the completion of that review, cause a report to be published regarding the performance of each justice and judge in the manner provided by law.

4. The commission may:

(a) Adopt regulations for the operation of the commission and for maintaining the confidentiality of its proceedings and records; and

(b) Exercise such further powers as the legislature may from time to time confer upon it.

5. A member of the commission may not serve simultaneously as a member of a commission on judicial discipline.

6. After the expiration of 30 days from the date on which the commission [on judicial selection] has delivered to him its list of nominees for any vacancy, if the governor has not made the appointment required by this section, he shall make no other appointment to any public office until he has appointed a justice or judge from the list submitted.

[If a commission on judicial selection is established by another section of this constitution to nominate persons to fill vacancies on the supreme court, such commission shall serve as the permanent commission established by subsection 3 of this section.]

Assemblyman Close moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING AND REFERENCE

By the Committee on Government Affairs:

Assembly Bill No. 428—An Act relating to the City of Henderson; making the charter gender neutral; removing duplicative grants of authority to the city council where that authority is also granted by county ordinance or state law; revising various provisions to conform to existing state law; repealing various sections which are addressed by existing state law; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen Ohrenschall, Stroth, Steel, Sandoval, Monaghan, Manendo, Schneider, Carpenter, Buckley, Neighbors, de Braga, Bennett, Perkins and Anderson:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 28—Urging Congress to enact legislation allowing individual states to establish daylight saving time as the standard time in their respective states throughout the calendar year.

Assemblyman Ohrenschall moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Elections and Procedures.

Motion carried.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 17.

Assemblyman Spitler moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Spitler and Giunchigliani.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You know, all of us in life have real heroes and a lot of times when we look back at who those heroes are, they are people who have withstood phenomenal odds in life and came about to change the world as we know it today.

I am really proud to have with me today, Mr. Page, who in fact, has accomplished those very feats. Most of us are very familiar with Schindler's List. It was an academy award winning film and if you saw it as many times as I did, you not only learned history, but you learned compassion and you learned that there were people who withstood phenomenal pain for existence. But, some people lived through that horror and lived to tell about it. The gentleman we honor today, through this resolution, not only lived through that, but he made a firm commitment at the time he met Oskar Schindler, that this story would be told. It took a lot of perseverance to tell this story. Mr. Page's dedication and relentless determination to have it told came about because he, himself, was spared from the Nazi's extermination due to Schindler's humanity.

It took nearly 50 years before Mr. Page's promise to industrialist Oskar Schindler became a reality. Schindler himself spent nearly $2 million, and those of you who saw the movie realize that he ended up broke at the very end of his life. He was able to save 1,300 Jews from Nazi concentration camps.

After surviving the death camps of Europe, Mr. Page moved with his wife Mila to the United States. He became a merchant in Beverly Hills, California, yet he never lost sight of his commitment to have this story told. It was really one of those strange things in life that occurred in 1981 when an Australian novelist who is Catholic, Thomas Keneally, stopped in to buy luggage from Mr. Page. While waiting for his credit card to clear, Mr. Page found out quite serendipitously that Keneally was a writer. Hence, Mr. Page told his story in hopes that this writer would take on the cause about writing about Schindler. At first, Keneally did not find himself credible because he was not Jewish. But, Mr. Page insisted that a non-Jew writing the story would be less suspect.

It was that day in 1981, that became the turning point in embryonic stages for the recent film Schindler's List, which of course, became well known. Mr. Page spent his life telling the story, writing about it, speaking before many agencies. It's truly an honor for me today to introduce him to this body and urge the adoption of this resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of this resolution. We see many resolutions in this body. We'll see another one today. But, rarely do we have an opportunity to recognize, applaud and say thank you to someone such as Mr. Page. As an educator, I stand ready, willing and able to work with this body to support any form of legislation that deals with educating people about the Holocaust. In fact, you will be seeing Assembly Bill No. 388 that I introduced with support and help from Mr. Spitler and the Ways and Means Committee. Mr. Page embodies what so often we forget, that in silence, we indicate support. And, what we have to do as part of our obligations, is make sure that we are never silent on this matter. Thank you, very much.

Resolution adopted.

THE SEVENTY-NINTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), April 4, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:15 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Paul Goulet.

Let us bow for prayer. Heavenly Father, we recognize our utter dependence upon Your care, intervention and direction. We realize that the Word of God says that if any man or woman lack wisdom they can ask God who gives freely. We lack wisdom and we need Your wisdom from Heaven. We plead for wisdom and guidance from the Holy Spirit. Holy Spirit fill our lives, this room and protect our families, our children and the people we represent in this great State of Nevada. We pray for a great blessing on this sacred Assembly and its participants. We ask for a very special healing touch on Willie. We thank You that You preserved her life in that car accident and we truly ask for Your healing. Thank You that John is going through healing, also. Father just bless this congregation, this Assembly and may the decisions being made bring glory to You. In Jesus' powerful Name. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 22.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 100.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 1 and 2 and renumbering sections 3 and 4 as sections 1 and 2.

Amend sec. 3, page 2, by deleting lines 32 through 44 and inserting:

"407.0762 1. The account for maintenance of state parks within the division of state parks is hereby created in the state general fund. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 407.0765, any amount of fees collected pursuant to subsection 4 of NRS 407.065 in a calendar year, which is in excess of the amounts authorized for expenditure from that revenue source in the division's budget for the fiscal year beginning in that calendar year, must be deposited in the account . [for the division of state parks.] The interest and income earned on the money in the account, after deducting any applicable charges, must be credited to the account.

2. The money in the account [for the division of state parks] does not lapse to the state general fund at the end of any fiscal year.

3. The money deposited in the account [for the division of state parks] pursuant to subsection 1 must only be used to repair and maintain state parks, monuments and recreational areas.".

Amend sec. 4, page 3, by deleting lines 4 through 18 and inserting:

"407.0765 1. The [account for Lake Tahoe Nevada State Park is hereby created in the state general fund.] administrator, with the approval of the director, may collect at each state park a fee for the repair, operation and maintenance of sewer, water and electrical systems within the park. Any fees collected [at Lake Tahoe Nevada State Park pursuant to subsection 4 of NRS 407.065 for the repair, operation and maintenance of sewer and water systems] pursuant to this section must be deposited in the account [. No other fees collected at Lake Tahoe Nevada State Park may be deposited in the account. The interest and income earned on the money in the account, after deducting any applicable charges, must be credited to the account.

2. The money in the account does not lapse to the state general fund at the end of any fiscal year.

3.] for maintenance of state parks within the division of state parks created in NRS 407.0762.

2. The money deposited in the account pursuant to this section must be accounted for separately for each park and must only be used for the repair, operation and maintenance of the sewer [and] , water and electrical systems in [Lake Tahoe Nevada State Park.

4.] the park in which the money was collected.

3. The administrator, subject to the approval of the director, may expend money pursuant to subsection [3.] 2.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sec. 5 as sec. 4 and adding a new section designated sec. 3, following sec. 4, to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. 1. The state treasurer shall transfer any balance remaining unexpended on June 30, 1995, in the account of the division of state parks attributable to fees made available for maintenance projects under the provisions of NRS 407.0762 to the account for maintenance of state parks within the division of state parks created in NRS 407.0762 for such uses as have previously been authorized by the interim finance committee.

2. The state treasurer shall transfer any balance remaining unexpended on June 30, 1995, in the account for Lake Tahoe Nevada State Park in the state general fund created in NRS 407.0765 to the account for maintenance of state parks within the division of state parks created in NRS 407.0762. The money so transferred must be accounted for separately and used only for the repair, operation and maintenance of sewer, water and electrical systems at Lake Tahoe Nevada State Park.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to state parks; consolidating certain accounts; authorizing the collection of a fee for the repair, operation and maintenance of sewer, water and electrical systems; limiting the use of the fees so collected; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

"Summary—Revises provisions regarding funding and operation of state parks. (BDR 35-563)".

Assemblyman Marvel moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Marvel.

Amendment adopted.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 8.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Government Affairs:

Amendment No. 150.

Amend the bill as a whole by adding new sections designated sections 5 and 6, following sec. 4, to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. NRS 269.127 is hereby amended to read as follows:

269.127 1. A town board or board of county commissioners may:

[1.] (a) Make application for and hold any license required to provide television or FM radio broadcast translator signals [.] , or both.

[2.] (b) Contract with any person, corporation or association to provide the equipment, facilities and services necessary to furnish [television] such broadcast translator signals for a period not to exceed 10 years.

[3.] (c) Enter into contracts for the purposes of this section that extend beyond the term of office of any member of the board or commission.

[4.] (d) Levy and collect a tax upon the assessed value of property within an unincorporated town to cover the costs of providing [television] such broadcast translator signals to that town.

2. As used in this section, "FM radio" means a system of radio broadcasting by means of frequency modulation.

Sec. 6. NRS 354.626 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.626 1. No governing body or member thereof, officer, office, department or agency may, during any fiscal year, expend or contract to expend any money or incur any liability, or enter into any contract which by its terms involves the expenditure of money, in excess of the amounts appropriated for that function, other than bond repayments, short-term financing repayments, and any other long-term contract expressly authorized by law. Any officer or employee of a local government who willfully violates NRS 354.470 to 354.626, inclusive, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof ceases to hold his office or employment. Prosecution for any violation of this section may be conducted by the attorney general, or, in the case of incorporated cities, school districts or special districts, by the district attorney.

2. Without limiting the generality of the exceptions contained in subsection 1, the provisions of this section specifically do not apply to:

(a) Purchase of comprehensive general liability policies of insurance which require an audit at the end of the term thereof.

(b) Long-term cooperative agreements as authorized by chapter 277 of NRS.

(c) Long-term contracts in connection with planning and zoning as authorized by NRS 278.010 to 278.630, inclusive.

(d) Long-term contracts for the purchase of utility service such as, but not limited to, heat, light, sewerage, power, water and telephone service.

(e) Contracts between a local government and an employee covering professional services to be performed within 24 months following the date of such contract or contracts entered into between local government employers and employee organizations.

(f) Contracts between a local government and any person for the construction or completion of public works, money for which has been provided by the proceeds of a sale of bonds or short-term financing. Neither the fund balance of a governmental fund nor the equity balance in any proprietary fund may be used unless appropriated in a manner provided by law.

(g) Contracts which are entered into by a local government and delivered to any person solely for the purpose of acquiring supplies and equipment necessarily ordered in the current fiscal year for use in an ensuing fiscal year, and which, under the method of accounting adopted by the local government, will be charged against an appropriation of a subsequent fiscal year. Purchase orders evidencing such contracts are public records available for inspection by any person on demand.

(h) Long-term contracts for the furnishing of television or FM radio broadcast translator signals as authorized by NRS 269.127.

(i) The receipt and proper expenditure of money received pursuant to a grant awarded by an agency of the Federal Government.

(j) The incurrence of obligations beyond the current fiscal year under a lease or contract for installment purchase which contains a provision that the obligation incurred thereby is extinguished by the failure of the governing body to appropriate money for the ensuing fiscal year for the payment of the amounts then due.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to local governments; authorizing the creation of a general improvement district to furnish facilities for certain radio transmission; authorizing unincorporated towns to provide for certain radio transmissions; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Assemblyman Lambert moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Lambert.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed and to third reading.

Assembly Bill No. 19.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 55.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 1 through 3 and adding new sections designated sections 1 through 3, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. NRS 244.33512 is hereby amended to read as follows:

244.33512 In a county in which a tax has been imposed pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 244.3351:

1. The proceeds of the tax and any applicable penalty or interest must be:

(a) Remitted to the appropriate city if collected in the incorporated area of any city and not within any transportation district created by the county, or if collected in any transportation district created by a city; or

(b) Retained by the county if collected elsewhere, and used as provided in this section.

2. [If] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, if the county has created one or more transportation districts, it shall use any part of the money retained which is collected within the boundaries of a transportation district to pay the cost of:

(a) Projects related to the construction and maintenance of sidewalks, streets, avenues, boulevards, highways and other public rights of way used primarily for vehicular traffic, including, without limitation, overpass projects, street projects and underpass projects, as defined in NRS 244A.037, 244A.053 and 244A.055, within the boundaries of the district or within 1 mile outside those boundaries if the governing body finds that such projects outside the boundaries of the district will facilitate transportation within the district;

(b) Payment of principal and interest on notes, bonds or other obligations issued by the county to fund projects described in paragraph (a); or

(c) Any combination of those uses.

3. In addition to those uses set forth in subsection 2, if a county has created one or more transportation districts and all or any portion of those districts are located in an area that is governed by an interstate compact entered into by this state and a state that borders this state, the county may use any part of the money retained which is collected within the boundaries of a transportation district to pay the cost of establishing, operating and maintaining a public transit system within the boundaries of the district, or outside those boundaries if the governing body finds that such a system outside the boundaries of the district will facilitate transportation within the district, or both.

4. Any part of the money retained which is collected in the unincorporated area of the county and not within any transportation district created by the county or a city must be used for the same purposes within the unincorporated area of the county or within 1 mile outside that area if the board of county commissioners finds that such projects outside that area will facilitate transportation within that area.

5. As used in this section, "public transit system" means a system employing motor buses, rails or any other means of conveyance, by whatever type of power, that is operated for the conveyance of members of the general public.

Sec. 2. NRS 268.446 is hereby amended to read as follows:

268.446 1. [A] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a city that has created one or more transportation districts shall use any part of the money received pursuant to the provisions of NRS 244.3351 which is collected within the boundaries of a transportation district to pay the cost of:

(a) Projects related to the construction and maintenance of sidewalks, streets, avenues, boulevards, highways and other public rights of way used primarily for vehicular traffic, including, without limitation, overpass projects, street projects and underpass projects, as defined in NRS 244A.037, 244A.053 and 244A.055, within the boundaries of the district or within 1 mile outside those boundaries if the governing body finds that such projects outside the boundaries of the district will facilitate transportation within the district;

(b) Payment of principal and interest on notes, bonds or other obligations issued by the city to fund projects described in paragraph (a); or

(c) Any combination of those uses.

2. In addition to those uses set forth in subsection 1, if a city has created one or more transportation districts and all or any portion of those districts is located in an area that is governed by an interstate compact entered into by this state and a state that borders this state, the city may use any part of the money received pursuant to the provisions of NRS 244.3351 which is collected within the boundaries of a transportation district to pay the cost of establishing, operating and maintaining a public transit system within the boundaries of the district, or outside those boundaries if the governing body finds that such a system outside the boundaries of the district will facilitate transportation within the district, or both.

3. A city shall use any part of the money received from such a tax which is not collected within the boundaries of a transportation district for the same purposes within the incorporated boundaries of the city or within 1 mile outside those boundaries if the governing body finds that such projects outside those boundaries will facilitate transportation within the incorporated area.

4. As used in this section, "public transit system" means a system employing motor buses, rails or any other means of conveyance, by whatever type of power, that is operated for the conveyance of members of the general public.

Sec. 3. The approval by the voters on November 3, 1992, of Question No. 2, concerning transportation, on the 1992 general election ballot for Douglas County shall be deemed to constitute approval by the voters of the tax authorized by the provisions of NRS 244.3351, and of the uses of that tax that are set forth in NRS 244.33512, as amended by this act. No other approval by the voters is required for the imposition and use of that tax in Douglas County, including its incorporated cities, at the rate of 1 percent of the gross receipts from the rental of transient lodging.".

Amend the title of the bill by deleting the second and third lines and inserting: "rental of transient lodging that is imposed throughout certain counties to be used for a public transit system; and providing other matters properly".

Amend the summary of the bill, second line, by deleting: "within transportation district" and inserting: "throughout certain counties".

Assembly Bill No. 48.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Government Affairs:

Amendment No. 94.

Amend section 1, page 1, line 2, by deleting "and 3" and inserting: "to 5, inclusive,".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sec. 2 as sec. 3 and adding a new section designated sec. 2, following section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. "Extraordinary maintenance, repair or improvement" means all expenses ordinarily incurred not more than once every 5 years to maintain a capital project in a fit operating condition.".

Amend sec. 2, pages 1 and 2, by deleting lines 3 through 21 on page 1 and lines 1 through 14 on page 2 and inserting:

"Sec. 3. 1. A local government in a county whose population is 100,000 or more shall establish a fund for the extraordinary maintenance, repair or improvement of capital projects. The local government shall establish within that fund a separate account for each capital project it undertakes, except a capital project for the construction of public roads or a capital project for the control of floods. The local government shall allocate an amount equal to one-half of 1 percent of the total amount of the bonds sold for each capital project and deposit that amount in the separate account established for that capital project. The proceeds from the sale of those bonds or any other money of the local government may be used to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

2. Any interest and income earned on the money in an account within the fund in excess of any amount which is reserved for rebate payments to the Federal Government pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 148, as amended, or is otherwise required to be applied in a specific manner by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, must be credited to that account.

3. The money in each account within the fund may be used only for the extraordinary maintenance, repair or improvement of the capital project or a facility which replaces that capital project. The money in each account within the fund at the end of the fiscal year may not revert to any other fund or be a surplus for any purpose other than the purpose specified in this subsection. If the local government sells any capital project for which an account within the fund was established, any balance remaining in that account must be used to reduce the debt of the local government.

4. The annual budget and audit report of the local government prepared pursuant to NRS 354.624 must specifically identify:

(a) Each fund and every account within that fund established pursuant to this section and indicate in detail any extraordinary maintenance, repairs or improvements of the capital project that have been paid for with money from the fund; and

(b) Any planned accumulation of money in each fund and every account within the fund.

The audit report must include a statement by the auditor whether the local government has complied with the provisions of this subsection.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 3 and 4 as sections 5 and 6 and adding a new section designated sec. 4, following sec. 2, to read as follows:

"Sec. 4. 1. A local government in a county whose population is less than 100,000 may establish a fund for the extraordinary maintenance, repair or improvement of capital projects. If the local government establishes such a fund, the local government must establish within that fund a separate account for each capital project it undertakes, except a capital project for the construction of public roads or a capital project for the control of floods.

2. Any interest and income earned on the money in an account within the fund in excess of any amount which is reserved for rebate payments to the Federal Government pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 148, as amended, or is otherwise required to be applied in a specific manner by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, must be credited to that account.

3. The money in each account within the fund may be used only for the extraordinary maintenance, repair or improvement of the capital project or a facility which replaces that capital project. The money in each account within the fund at the end of the fiscal year may not revert to any other fund or be a surplus for any purpose other than the purpose specified in this subsection. If the local government sells any capital project for which an account within the fund was established, any balance remaining in that account must be used to reduce the debt of the local government.

4. The annual budget and audit report of the local government prepared pursuant to NRS 354.624 must specifically identify:

(a) Each fund and every account within that fund established pursuant to this section and indicate in detail any extraordinary maintenance, repairs or improvements of the capital project that have been paid for with money from the fund; and

(b) Any planned accumulation of money in each fund and every account within the fund.

The audit report must include a statement by the auditor whether the local government has complied with the provisions of this subsection.".

Amend sec. 3, pages 2 and 3, by deleting lines 43 through 48 on page 2 and lines 1 and 2 on page 3.

Amend sec. 4, page 3, line 5, by deleting "and 3" and inserting: "to 5, inclusive,".

Amend sec. 4, page 3, line 7, by deleting "and 3" and inserting: "to 5, inclusive,".

Amend sec. 4, page 3, line 26, after "inclusive," by inserting: "and sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of this act,".

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 5 and 6 and adding a new section designated sec. 7, following sec. 4, to read as follows:

"Sec. 7. NRS 354.476 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.476 As used in NRS 354.470 to 354.626, inclusive, and sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 354.478 to 354.580, inclusive, and section 2 of this act, have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to local financial administration; requiring a local government in certain counties to establish a fund for the extraordinary maintenance, repair or improvement of certain capital projects; requiring a local government to allocate a percentage of the amount of bonds sold for certain capital projects for deposit in that fund; authorizing a local government in certain counties to establish a fund for the extraordinary maintenance, repair or improvement of certain capital projects; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

The Committee on Escort escorted the Senator to the rostrum.

The Speaker of the Assembly welcomed Senator Reid and invited him to deliver his message.

Senator Reid delivered his message as follows:

MESSAGE TO THE LEGISLATURE OF NEVADA

SIXTH-EIGHTH SESSION, 1995

Lt. Governor Hammargren, Speaker Dini, Speaker Hettrick, William J. Raggio, members of the Senate and Assembly leadership, fellow legislators, members of the Supreme Court and friends.

I am a student of history and the more I learn about the United States Constitution the more I am impressed. The founding fathers had great wisdom and vision and that has been more apparent to me the last 100 days than any time I have studied history and the Constitution. The House is set up so there is little debate that the party in power rules with an iron hand, whether that party is lead by a Gingrich or an O'Neil. The Senate is and has been the modern rating force of the legislative branch of government for over 200 years. It's that way because the founding fathers established it that way.

What is the will of the people? A poll of today or tomorrow? A poll by your party or my party? The Constitution framers never intended that a current vogue of the people always be set into law. As Alexander Hamilton warned, "People are turbulent and changing." So the framers intentionally created a Republic. The Senate was part of our system to halt the impulsive actions of the House.

The intent of the Contract with America is good, but has been carried too far, as I will show in just a few minutes. In the Contract with America, for example, the House passed a measure on unfunded mandates. We all know that the time has come to do something about unfunded mandates. The question is how to do it? The House passed a measure in a couple of hours, that we spent a month talking about—unfunded mandates. We have a piece of legislation that does some things that makes the unfunded mandate legislation more meaningful and important. Not only do we have in legislation now, the fact that there should be very few federal unfunded mandates to the states, but we also put in our legislation the fact that there shouldn't be unfunded mandates from the state to local government.

The Line Item Veto—even though I'm not a fan, the line item veto that we received from the House of Representatives, which they spent a half day on and we spent three weeks on, is dramatically different than the line item veto legislation that came from the House. The one that I think is so apparent that we needed the United States Senate is the legislation that we received from the House that dealt with the moratorium on regulations. Can you imagine that? They passed a bill that said in effect that we are going to stop all regulations not in effect, and that is what they did. We have the best food in the world, the cleanest water in the world. Twenty years ago we passed the Clean Water Act. Eighty percent of the nation's waterways were polluted. Today only 20 percent of the waterways are polluted. We have clean air. The moratorium, for example, put a moratorium on mammograms as they are now dictated by the Department of Health and Human Services. That is the wrong way to go. Senator Don Nicholas, a Republican from Oklahoma and I, recognized the legislation dealing with moratoriums was wrong. We offered an amendment that says any regulations promulgated by a federal agency that has a financial impact over $100 million will not go into effect for 45 days. During that 45 days, the Senate and House will have an opportunity to look it over. If we don't like it, we will reject it. Any regulations promulgated with an impact of less than $100 million will go into effect immediately, but we will have 45 days to rescind if we want. That is more meaningful. Senator Nicholas and I were able to convince the Senate that was the right way to go and we prevailed by a vote of 100 to nothing. That is a much more recent piece of legislation on which I think we would all agree.

Most people in this chamber know, that it was my amendment that defeated the balanced budget amendment. I don't apologize or hesitate for that. I am proud of the fact that I was part of the debate that lead to the fact that when the debate ended it was clearly established that we have a problem with the deficit and that we have to do something about it. But we are not going to do it on the backs of Social Security recipients today, or our children or our children's children. The reason we can't be run pell-mell as to what a poll shows is because if you ask the American people, "Are you in favor of a balanced budget amendment?" Eighty percent of the people say, "Yes." If you ask the same people, "Are you in favor of a balanced budget amendment if you include Social Security?" Ninety percent of the people say, "No." So let's not be dictated to as to what polls say.

We just received from the House last week, a bill to reduce taxes. Now, everybody is in favor of reducing taxes. But I think we will see that the tax bill that we received from the House over the next four years will have a financial impact of $200 billion and over the next eight years will have an impact of almost $1,000,000,000. I think we better slow down and find out who the real winners are in that legislation and find out who the losers are. The winners are, of course, I don't think I have to tell you, the wealthiest people in America. The top one percent of taxpayers in America will receive over 20 percent of the benefits received from tax cuts. The top 20 percent of income earners in the United States will receive over 70 percent of the tax benefits. I think we should look at this a little more. Let us talk about who the losers are. The losers are too numerous for me to mention in total today, but I will talk about school lunches, day care, Headstart, student loans, college scholarships and job training.

Twelve thousand three hundred thirty-three Nevada students, if the House provision prevails, will pay more for student loans.

Sixteen entire Nevada school districts will lose money to make schools safe and drug free.

Five thousand Nevada kids will lose summer jobs.

Ninety-three thousand one hundred eighty-eight Nevada children are in danger of losing their school lunches. Don't let me hear you say, "We have an increase." Sure we have an increase in the House provision, but it doesn't even take care of inflation. I'm giving you figures, that if the House provision prevails, will have over 93,000 Nevada children in danger of losing their lunches.

One thousand two hundred thirty Nevada children are at risk of losing access to safe, affordable child care.

Nine thousand one hundred eighty-nine Nevada senior citizens, families and kids will lose heating assistance they depend on to get through the winter if the House provision prevails.

We now have 75 new police officers in Nevada as a result of the crime bill we passed last year. If we follow what the House has said to us, we will eliminate 45 of those. This isn't the right way to go.

Let's do welfare reform, but not ruin programs that work. Let's fix the programs that need fixing, some with block grants, some with elimination and some by returning programs to the states. We should only reduce taxing when we get the federal deficit under control. For these and other reasons, I think the United States Senate and our bicameral form of legislation has been good for the country.

I want to talk about something today that I feel strongly about. It was to be part of the Contract with America, but it failed and I quote Edmund Burke, "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." And the modern day terminology would say, "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men and women to do nothing."

I was stricken last Thursday as I got my clips from my newspapers in Nevada. The Reno Gazette Journal, April 6, 1995, "In Term Limits Movement—Often Federal Cash from Afar." I always knew that, but had never seen it in writing. The term limits argument is something that you need to take a stand on. You need to be strong and speak out on the issue. Because the advocates of term limits are wrong and being pushed by outside interests, outside big money interests. If I were a trial lawyer as Henry Hyde said, and a Republican Congressman from Illinois during the debate and I called witnesses in this trial on term limits, my first witnesses would be the founding fathers because they denounced term limits. They were against term limits.

What about term limits? I served, as Speaker Dini indicated, in the Assembly a number of years ago. I served with two people who are still members of this legislature, Jacobsen and Dini. I think they have done a good job for the State of Nevada and what kind of democracy is it that says you can't vote for them if you want to? Barbara Vucanovich—she has served going on 14 years in the House of Representatives. Why shouldn't the people of Nevada be able to vote for Barbara Vucanovich if they want? Bill Raggio, as everyone here knows—Bill and I don't agree on everything, but Bill has been an outstanding representative of the people of northern Nevada. Why shouldn't he be able to run as many times as the people will elect him? You pass term limits, and professionals will run this government. Only they will be the faceless, nameless, try to get them on the phone, unaccountable, permanent bureaucracy, as Henry Hyde said. If you serve in the United States House of Representatives for five years, you are in the top 45 percent of seniority. Do we need term limits? I have served in the Senate eight years. I'm now 56th in seniority. Next they will be asking for term limits for judges. So you must be leaders and speak out against this. Look at the new members we have in this body. What reason do we need in the Nevada Legislature to have term limits? But it is a conspiracy of silence and you are afraid to speak out for something you know is wrong. Stand up and be counted and do not let outside money interests run what goes on. Who will win with term limits? Bureaucrats. These bureaucrats will love dealing with amateurs. Staff will be strong and tough and they will be the ones calling the shots around here. And of course, the big winners are the lobbyists.

We hear so much negative in government, and some of it is very deserved. I want to talk about some good things that are going on in our country. This year we will have the third year in a row where we have a reduction in our annual deficit. The first time in 50 years that has happened. We have also had the lowest inflation and the lowest unemployment this past two years than we have had in 50 years. We've had the highest economic growth since the years of Kennedy. We hear a lot about the waste in government and there is lots of it at the federal level especially, but we have 150,000 less federal employees today than we had two years ago. That is pretty good and we should talk on a positive note about that.

I'm in favor of having our income match our spending. I'm in favor of returning more power to the states so you can make more decisions on issues that are important to the people of the State of Nevada. But on the federal level, we must recognize where the money is spent; for example, out of the $1,500,000 we spend annually, 48 percent of that money goes to entitlements; 17 percent goes to interest on the debt and about 20 percent goes to defense spending. You add those numbers up and it is 85 percent, leaving 15 percent for domestic discretionary spending. Domestic discretionary spending, education, the criminal justice system, infrastructure development and the things we care about including medical research is in that 15 percent. Why are we spending all that time trying to balance the budget on 15 percent? I say I would rather have a few less B-2 bombers and have more programs that help real people. We have to do something about the entitlement programs, but we haven't looked at those programs. All we are doing is hacking away at the 15 percent. We have to change that.

We shouldn't hurt good programs. For example, Substance Abuse and Block Grants, WIC, School Nutrition programs and Summer Youth Employment. Let me talk about one program that has been eliminated, but we are going to try and save it. The Substance Abuse Block Grant has been terminated. What has that program done for Nevada? We know that substance abuse treatment saves lives and restores hope. Substance abuse programs in Nevada are important because substance abuse in Nevada is a primary factor in 55 percent of child abuse. We have part of the Substance Abuse Block Grant program called Family Preservation. This program serves 42 families at the cost of two incarcerations. Forty-two families, 200 people, and the cost of that is two incarcerations in a reformatory or in a prison. We've had a 90 percent success rate in that program one year after treatment.

We have another program that is part of the Substance Abuse Block Grant, Ridge House, a program for ex-felons. We have tracked reincarceration. The recidivism rate is 22 percent over a three-year period, not over a one-year period. This is down from the usual 70 percent recidivism rate at a cost $945 per felon per year. The average cost for keeping a felon locked up in a penitentiary is $40,000 a year.

Reno's St. Mary's Hospital did a Chemical Dependency Program evaluation the year before and the year after treatment. Emergency room visits were reduced 62 percent and hospital stays were reduced by 73 percent. A pretty good use of very little money.

I want to talk about one last program that is part of the Substance Abuse Block Grants and is going to be terminated unless we do something about it. It is called HACES, Hispanics Assisting the Community with Excellence for Students. This program is for high-risk Hispanic students. It includes the involvement of parents. They have Saturday workshops and can only attend if they haven't missed school during the week. It is a great program. It is great because of the following figures: absenteeism reduced 73 percent, the dropout rate was reduced 75 percent, satisfactory academic progress a plus of 94 percent and Hispanic youth wanting to go to college increased 300 percent. So let's don't eliminate programs just to be eliminating them, let's evaluate the programs before we do that.

There has been a lot of criticism of government programs recently, much of it valid. But sometimes, lost in the chorus of criticism, are quiet success stories that should also be a part of the debate. Take, for example, the story of John Van Geldern. Mr. Van Geldern is a resident of Reno and is here with us today.

John was a mining engineer with a doctorate degree. He was out doing his job working in a mine and was bitten by a spider that caused him to have a series of strokes. He was lucky to live. He lost his employment and suffered financial problems to the point he was forced to sleep on a friend's office floor for a matter of months.

Then John heard about a government program, don't be embarrassed about government programs, the Senior Community Service Employment Program. This program is operated by private, nonprofit national aging organizations that work closely with governors and the Department of Labor to train seniors on jobs. Through this program, John Van Geldern got a job at the Reno Social Security Office as a computer troubleshooter. Three years later he began his own business and he is now a published author. He is a dynamic man. I spent the morning with him. Mr. Van Geldern, would you please stand so we can recognize you.

About eight years ago, coming to Nevada was a man by the name of Robert Porterfield. Robert Porterfield had come to take over St. John's Lutheran Church in Fallon, Nevada. He wanted to do what his life's work indicated he should do and that is work with the spiritual needs of the people in Fallon. St. John's Lutheran Church is located across from Churchill County High School. After he had been established there running the church, he was approached by school authorities and asked to provide infant and toddler care. "Why?" he asked. "Because we have so many pregnant teenagers in our school that they are dropping out because they couldn't find child care." At the same time, the State Department of Welfare made inquiry about the church providing child care, so some of the AFDC mothers could find work and otherwise be encouraged to lead normal lives. Reverend Porterfield didn't say no. He said maybe. He proceeded to look around to see what he could do to provide assistance to these young women. He learned there was a national program called AmeriCorps. He, with his church members, was able to raise matching monies through contributions in kind and they were accepted as part of the AmeriCorps. What has this done? It has changed the lives of real human beings. Young pregnant girls have been able to finish school, go to college and get jobs. I've been to his program. If there was ever a time that I wanted to cry tears of joy, it was after leaving St. John's Lutheran Church in Fallon, Nevada and watching these young women become productive parts of our society. These are great young women. Women who have now, as I indicated, graduated from high school or obtained their GEDs. They are now in college, young women who are off welfare and at work. It's not only morally right but it's the financially important thing to do.

Reverend Porterfield is with us today and I would like him to stand so we can acknowledge someone who is really a Christian and someone who has done great things on behalf of the American public. There is no one who recognizes our Christian, Judaical ethics more than Reverend Porterfield. He also has someone with him today, a woman by the name of Nikki Green. Nikki Green got out of the military. She wanted to improve her life and those of her two children. She now works for the AmeriCorps program and in return receives money so she can go to college. Nikki, I would like you to also stand to be recognized.

In 1988 President Bush signed on the day of my granddaughter's birth, one of the most important western legislations that has ever come across a President's desk and that was the Truckee-Carson Negotiated Settlement Act. What did that legislation do? It solved a 100-year water war between the states of California and Nevada. It dealt with two endangered species and two Indian tribes. It talked about upstream storage for Nevada, for Reno and Sparks, and it attempted to solve a problem of the wetlands area, that was at one time a 100,000 acre-feet, that dropped to less than 1,000 acre-feet of very putrid water. The President signed that. It was good legislation that is now being implemented. There is nothing that we have done that has dealt with two states, two Indian tribes, wetlands, domestic storage and endangered species that complicated. Nevada is now being used for a textbook at water conferences around the country. I recently initiated another round of negotiations involving affected parties in northern Nevada to resolve some outstanding issues relating primarily to the agricultural interests in Lahontan Valley to have a say in potential federal changes in the Newlands Project which has been there since 1902. Unfortunately, the parties were not able to reach a consensus agreement. However, the good news is that they communicated. They sat across the table from each other and began to understand one another's positions. They walked out with smiles on their faces rather than frowns. There is hope for the future.

Soon, Representative Vucanovich and I plan to announce, along with State, Washoe County, Reno and Sparks, and Pyramid Lake Tribal representatives, a significant accomplishment of these negotiations. It relates to a water quality agreement that will end litigation involving Reno's waste water treatment facility and provide a minimum instream flow in the Truckee River and contribute to the recovery of Pyramid Lake.

On another water issue in the northern part of the state, I would call to this body's attention the environmental tragedy waiting to happen at Walker Lake. I am grateful to the Walker River Irrigation District, the Walker River Tribe and the state for engaging in discussions at my request to save this precious resource. But time is running out, there are only 21 other lakes like Walker Lake in the whole world, a desert terminus lake. We must find ways to provide additional water to this spectacular resource.

I am cognizant of the concern of agricultural interests about protecting their water rights. But I would urge this body to help move Nevada into a progressive era of water policy. We must find better ways to conserve water and to provide it both for agriculture and environmental purposes. Our growing population and future generations demand action. To that end, I would encourage you in this session to enact legislation that will reward irrigators for conserving water. No longer should we function under a "use it or lose it" approach that forces irrigators to pour water into the desert rather than face a reduction to their rights if they conserve.

In southern Nevada, I have been working closely with Governor Miller and with the Interior Department to find additional sources of water through necessary changes in the management of the Colorado River. I applaud the Governor's efforts in this area and would urge the legislature to be receptive to solutions that may require interstate cooperation. I have met on a number of occasions with Governor Leavitt of Utah and I believe he is committed to helping Nevada. We need to reach out to our sister state of Arizona in a spirit of cooperation. Neither Arizona nor Nevada can afford a water war.

Crime continues to plague our communities. Next week, I plan to hold a summit with the top law enforcement officials in southern Nevada, including the U.S. Attorney, the FBI and local law enforcement agencies to forge a federal and state partnership. I am going to do the same in northern Nevada and I solicit your input and assistance about the role of the Federal Government.

We have a scourge crossing our country dealing with crime. I've had the good fortune to be on surveillance efforts with the drug enforcement administration. I've spent time with the FBI, time with Customs and other local law enforcement agencies, but never was I more impressed than the evening I spent last Friday with Officer Modesto Reyes of the Reno Police Department Gang Task Force. As we traveled around Reno, looking at the problems facing this part of Nevada, we really have to join together and recognize that we have crime of epidemic proportions. We have to work together to solve those problems.

I also want to extend my congratulations and appreciation to the legislature for sending to me a resolution acknowledging that we should do something about the Source Tax. If there were ever a case about taxation without representation it is the Source Tax. How can we justify California, as an example, collecting taxes from our citizens when our citizens do not use their highways, recreation facilities, hospitals or anything else? We've passed it twice in the Senate. We hope to get it passed this time and get it signed by the President and I feel confident that we can do that. I would also solicit your assistance in dealing with a terribly unfair situation that we have in Schurz. I am trying my hardest to solicit federal assistance to build a new school there. The Bureau of Indian Affairs has no authority there. It is part of the Mineral County School District. There are more than 100 students and there would be more if the school was adequate. They currently attend classes in a substandard and really unsafe school. Many of these children, as young as five years old, are bussed 90 miles a day. Local government has been unable to raise the funding to construct a new facility. Mineral County hasn't been able to do that. They need our assistance. I believe that Mineral County is lacking the ability to do that on their own and I think the state has an obligation to do that. I will work with you and together let us solve that problem.

In the area of gaming, Senator Bryan, Governor Miller and I have successfully blocked a number of tax initiatives from the Executive Branch that would have been detrimental to Nevada. Much to our chagrin, even more outlandish proposals seem to be starting to surface in the new Congress. We must be constantly vigilant to make sure our state's number one industry is not damaged.

Finally, let me say a word about the Nevada Test Site. Most of us here are opposed to siting a nuclear waste dump in Nevada. But I am concerned about a perceived linkage between the Yucca Mountain Project and any nuclear-related activity at the Test Site. The Test Site has safely handled nuclear materials for decades and can continue to do so. To lose this facility, its related jobs and scientific resources because of a misplaced fear of all things nuclear would be a tragedy to the State of Nevada. I believe we should keep our minds open to a new role for the Nevada Test Site in the nation's reconfigured nuclear defense complex.

In my opinion, we have strayed too far in recent decades from a core sense of values. Today's values more often seem to be based on the latest fad in the mass media rather than what comes from our hearts. If Alexis de Tocqueville were to visit America today, I wonder what he would think of our democracy. Might he conclude that the core of the American value system is self interest and self promotion? If he were to judge us solely on what he were to see on television, I think he might.

But I believe that there are overriding values in this great country of ours. American democracy has been fashioned by an ethic of hard work, of honest pay for an honest day's work, respect for others, and we should be fair and honest in our dealings with each other.

Each of us in this room today, regardless of our party affiliation, I believe that we, as elected representatives, must measure whether our votes and our actions are supportive of the middle class, as ours is the largest middle class of any in the world and the foundation of our economic success is the middle class. And just as importantly, do our actions reward hard work? Do they educate our people? Do they provide a government that serves? If our actions protect working men and women in rewarding hard work, educating our people and protecting our constitutional form of government, it will be said we served our country well. Thank you all, very much.

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING AND REFERENCE

By the Committee on Government Affairs:

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 205.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Transportation:

Amendment No. 247.

Amend the bill as a whole by adding new sections designated sections 5 through 7, to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. NRS 482.322 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.322 1. A person shall not engage in the activities of a new vehicle dealer, used vehicle dealer, manufacturer, distributor or rebuilder in this state until he has been issued:

(a) A new vehicle dealer's, used vehicle dealer's, manufacturer's, distributor's, rebuilder's or lessor's license certificate or similar license or permit by every city within whose corporate limits he maintains an established place of business and by every county in which he maintains an established place of business outside the corporate limits of a city; and

(b) A license by the department. The department shall not issue a license to the person until he has been issued all certificates, licenses and permits required by paragraph (a).

2. A vehicle dealer's, manufacturer's or rebuilder's license issued pursuant to this chapter does not permit a person to engage in the business of a new or used mobile home dealer, manufacturer or rebuilder.

3. The department shall investigate any applicant for a dealer's, manufacturer's, distributor's, rebuilder's or lessor's license certificate or license and complete an investigation report on a form provided by the department.

Sec. 6. NRS 482.350 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.350 1. A new vehicle dealer's license shall not be furnished to any dealer in new vehicles, trailers or semitrailers unless the dealer [shall first furnish] first furnishes the department an instrument executed by or on behalf of the manufacturer certifying that he is an authorized franchised dealer for the make or makes of vehicle concerned. New vehicle dealers [shall be] are authorized to sell at retail only those new vehicles for which they are certified as franchised dealers by the manufacturer.

2. In addition to selling used vehicles, a used vehicle dealer may:

(a) Sell at wholesale a new vehicle to a new or used vehicle dealer; and

(b) Sell a new vehicle on consignment from a person not licensed as a vehicle dealer.

Sec. 7. NRS 482.423 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.423 1. When a new vehicle is sold in this state [,] for the first time, the seller shall complete and execute a manufacturer's certificate of origin or a manufacturer's statement of origin and, unless the vehicle is sold to a licensed dealer, a dealer's report of sale. The dealer's report of sale must be in a form prescribed by the department and must include:

(a) A description of the vehicle;

(b) The name and address of the seller; and

(c) The name and address of the buyer.

If in connection with the sale a security interest is taken or retained by the seller to secure all or part of the purchase price, or a security interest is taken by a person who gives value to enable the buyer to acquire rights in the vehicle, the name and address of the secured party or his assignee must be entered on the dealer's report of sale and on the manufacturer's certificate or statement of origin.

2. Unless an extension of time is granted by the department, the seller shall:

(a) Submit the original of the dealer's report of sale and the manufacturer's certificate or statement of origin to the department within 20 days after the execution of the dealer's report of sale; and

(b) Furnish one copy of the report to the buyer.

One copy must be affixed to the right front windshield of the vehicle, which permits the vehicle to be operated for a period not to exceed 10 days. Upon the issuance of the certificate of registration for the vehicle or the expiration of 10 days after the sale, whichever occurs first, the buyer shall remove the copy from the windshield of the vehicle.

3. For the purposes of establishing compliance with the period required by paragraph (a) of subsection 2, the department shall use the date imprinted or otherwise indicated on the dealer's report of sale as the beginning date of the 20-day period.

4. The department shall furnish a special permit for use when a contract of sale is entered to enable the buyer to operate the vehicle for a period not to exceed 10 days. Upon execution of all required documents to complete the sale of a vehicle, the dealer shall remove this permit and execute a dealer's report of sale as required by this section.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to motor vehicles; establishing restrictions for the sale of certain vehicles by certain long-term lessors; expanding the definitions of "new vehicle," "used vehicle" and "used vehicle dealer" for the purposes of the sale and registration of such vehicles; requiring a person to possess a new vehicle dealer's license to engage in the activities of a new vehicle dealer; requiring a person to possess a used vehicle dealer's license to engage in the activities of a used vehicle dealer; authorizing a used vehicle dealer to sell a new vehicle under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

"Summary—Revises provisions regarding sale, lease and registration of motor vehicles. (BDR 43-113)".

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 243.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 1 through 5 and renumbering sections 6 and 7 as sections 2 and 3 and adding a new section designated section 1, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. NRS 218.6825 is hereby amended to read as follows:

218.6825 1. There is hereby created in the legislative counsel bureau an interim finance committee composed of the members of the assembly standing committee on ways and means and the senate standing committee on finance during the current or immediately preceding session of the legislature. The immediate past chairman of the senate standing committee on finance is the chairman of the interim finance committee for the period ending with the convening of each even-numbered regular session of the legislature. The immediate past chairman of the assembly standing committee on ways and means is the chairman of the interim finance committee during the next legislative interim, and the chairmanship alternates between the houses of the legislature according to this pattern.

2. If any regular member of the committee informs the secretary that he will be unable to attend a particular meeting, the secretary shall notify the speaker of the assembly or the majority leader of the senate, as the case may be, to appoint an alternate for that meeting from the same house and political party as the absent member.

3. The interim finance committee, except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, may exercise the powers conferred upon it by law only when the legislature is not in regular or special session. The membership of any member who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is defeated for reelection continues until the next session of the legislature is convened.

4. During a regular session the interim finance committee may also perform the duties imposed on it by subsection 5 of NRS 284.115, subsection 2 of NRS 321.335, NRS 322.007, subsection 2 of NRS 323.020, NRS 323.050, subsection 1 of NRS 323.100, subsection 3 of NRS 328.480, subsection 1 of NRS 341.145, NRS 353.220, 353.224 and 353.335, paragraph (b) of subsection 4 of NRS 407.0762, NRS 428.375, subsection 6 of NRS 445.700 and NRS 538.650. In performing those duties, the senate standing committee on finance and the assembly standing committee on ways and means may meet separately and transmit the results of their respective votes to the chairman of the interim finance committee to determine the action of the interim finance committee as a whole.

5. The director of the legislative counsel bureau shall act as the secretary of the interim finance committee.

6. A majority of the members of the assembly standing committee on ways and means and a majority of the members of the senate standing committee on finance, jointly, may call a meeting of the interim finance committee if the chairman does not do so.

7. In all matters requiring action by the interim finance committee, the vote of the assembly and senate members must be taken separately. An action must not be taken unless it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the assembly members and a majority of the senate members.

8. Except during a regular or special session of the legislature, each member of the interim finance committee and appointed alternate is entitled to receive the compensation provided for a majority of the members of the legislature during the first 60 days of the preceding regular session for each day or portion of a day during which he attends a committee meeting or is otherwise engaged in committee work plus the per diem allowance provided for state officers and employees generally and the travel expenses provided pursuant to NRS 218.2207. All such compensation must be paid from the contingency fund in the state treasury.''.

Amend sec. 6, page 3, line 42, after ''The'' by inserting: ''provisions of NRS 321.335 and 322.007 which require approval of the interim finance committee notwithstanding and in lieu thereof, the''.

Amend sec. 6, page 4, between lines 4 and 5 by inserting:

''3. The leasing of certain land within Washoe Lake State Park, with an option to renew, to Washoe County, for the placement of a caretaker residence and related septic system, from the date it receives the requisite approval from the legislature and the state board of examiners for a term of 10 years, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the proposed lease.

4. The leasing of certain land at the Southern Nevada Correctional Center, with an option to renew, to Fleet Call of Utah, Inc., for the construction and maintenance of an equipment shelter and antenna, from the date it receives the requisite approval from the legislature and the state board of examiners for a term of 5 years, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the proposed lease.

5. The leasing of four wood frame residences within the Stewart Indian School historic district, with a limited option to renew, to the F.I.S.H. Emergency Referral Services Program, Inc., for use as transitional housing for the homeless, from the date it receives the requisite approval from the legislature and the state board of examiners for a term of 5 years, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the proposed lease.

6. The leasing of certain water rights, with an option to renew, to the Silver Lake Water Distribution Company for delivery of state-owned water to the organization maintenance shop and armory of the Nevada Army National Guard, from the date it receives the requisite approval from the legislature and the state board of examiners to August 14, 2036, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the proposed lease.".

Amend sec. 6, page 4, line 5, by deleting "3." and inserting "7.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to state land; authorizing the interim finance committee to approve leases, exchanges and sales of certain state land while the legislature is in regular or special session; approving the execution of six particular leases and the sale of a certain state building and land; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Anderson requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today is indeed a very joyous occasion for me, Mr. Speaker. I get to introduce to this chamber one of my true heroes. When I think of him, I think of every quality I wish I had. I apologize for this lengthy introduction, Mr. Speaker, but it is something I feel strongly about.

As many of you recall, the 1993 Legislative Session concluded on the evening of July 2, 1993. Well, I like many others headed south on July 3rd, of course, obeying the speed limit all the way home. A little over two weeks later, on July 19th, after feeling ill, my 10-year-old son, Brian, was diagnosed with cancer. Being ignorant about childhood cancer, I assumed that it was a terminal disease and that my only son was going to die.

Mr. Speaker, because of his perseverance, that was not to be the case. On July 22nd, Brian underwent abdominal surgery to remove his malignant tumor. After that, he began what would be almost a year of chemotherapy. Brian started this adventure at a little over five feet tall and weighed 80 pounds. During his treatment, he endured over 15 spinal taps, a homebound education absent of the company of other children, the normal nausea and vomiting, hair loss, a bout with spinal meningitis, a couple of trips to intensive care, a drop in weight to 60 pounds and the loss of three roommates to their battles with similar diseases.

About midway through his treatment, Brian felt so horrible, that he told me he didn't want to take his medicine anymore. He was very difficult to motivate because of his condition, which of course, caused his mother and me great concern because we all know how important it is to fight through this sort of illness. In short, if you don't want to live, you will not. Soon, however, for reasons we will always cherish in our family, Brian began fighting with all his might, Mr. Speaker.

Brian became stronger and actually gained his weight back. He is back in school, weighs nearly 100 pounds and has obviously grown back his hair. I watched my son fight through the pain, endure the procedures, deal with the side effects of the procedures, endure the secondary illnesses as deadly as the cancer and overcome the emotions one feels when your friends are dying around you. He overcame a terrible disease. It is with that background, Mr. Speaker, that I am proud to present to this body, my hero and my son, Brian.

Mr. Speaker, I have been asked, "How do you deal with your child having cancer?" I really didn't think about it while we dealt with it. But I now have to ask, "How do you not deal with it?" I would still tell you that you cannot do it alone. With that, I would like to publicly thank the doctors, nurses, medical staff, family, friends and others that all contributed to my son's treatment and recovery. I would also like to thank each and every one of you who kept him in your prayers, asked about him with every contact and genuinely provided the love that our whole family needed to maintain our strength. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

As an Irishman, I have the great pleasure of the emotion. I don't think there is anyone in this chamber who is not touched by the emotional fight that you, my most distinguished colleague from District No. 23 support, an example you have provided to your son. We applaud you, your wife and family for what they have accomplished in this fight also. Thank you for keeping that spirit alive which is Nevada.

THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Wednesday), April 12, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:11 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblymen Arberry and Marvel, who were excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Marvin Dennis.

As we continue our work serving the people of Nevada, I ask that our prayer may be as You taught us to pray: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 132.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 105.

Amend section 1, page 1, by deleting lines 6 through 11 and inserting: "holder to purchase coupons or otherwise receive benefits under the Act.] "Access device" means any card, plate, account number or other means of access that can be used, alone or in conjunction with another access device, to obtain payments, allotments, benefits, money, goods or other things of value, or that can be used to initiate a transfer of funds pursuant to the Act.

(b) "Act" means the Food Stamp Act of [1964] 1977, as amended (7 U.S.C. §§ 2011, et seq.) and regulations [promulgated] adopted thereunder.

(c) "Coupon" means a food stamp , coupon, certificate or access device issued by the United States Department of Agriculture as provided in the Act.

2. Any person who knowingly uses, transfers, sells, purchases, acquires, alters or pos-".

Amend section 1, page 2, between lines 4 and 5, by inserting:

"5. The value of all coupons misappropriated in separate acts of fraud involving coupons must be combined for the purposes of imposing punishment for the offense charged if:

(a) The separate acts were committed within 6 months before the offense;

(b) None of the individual acts is punishable as a felony; and

(c) The cumulative value of all the coupons misappropriated is sufficient to make the offense punishable as a felony.

6. A court may accept as a complete or partial mitigation of the offense satisfactory evidence that a person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section sold or transferred the coupons for cash to buy necessities which may not be obtained with coupons, such as gasoline, toilet paper or diapers.".

Amend the title of the bill, second line, after the semicolon by inserting: "requiring the cumulation or mitigation of offenses under certain circumstances;".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

"Summary—Revises provisions governing crimes relating to federal food stamps. (BDR 15-845)".

Assemblyman Anderson moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Anderson.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed and to third reading.

Assembly Bill No. 178.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Natural Resources, Agriculture and Mining:

Amendment No. 109.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering section 1 as sec. 2 and adding a new section designated section 1, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. NRS 517.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:

517.030 1. Within 60 days after posting the notice of location, the locator of a lode mining claim shall distinctly define the boundaries of the claim by placing a valid legal monument at each corner of the claim. A valid legal monument may be created by:

(a) Removing the top of a tree [(having] , which has a diameter of not less than 4 inches , [)] not less than 3 feet above the ground, and blazing and marking it;

(b) Capping a rock in place with smaller stones so that the rock and stones have a height of not less than 3 feet; or

(c) Setting a wooden or metal post or a stone.

2. If a wooden post is used, the dimensions of the post must be at least 1½ inches by 1½ inches by 4 feet, and the post must be set 1 foot in the ground.

3. If a metal post is used, the post must be at least 2 inches in diameter by 4 feet in length, and it must be set 1 foot in the ground. If the metal post is hollow and:

(a) Is not set before [the] March 16, 1993, the post must be securely capped.

(b) Was set before March 16, 1993, the post must be securely capped on or before August 31, 1995.

4. If it is practically impossible, because of bedrock or precipitous ground, to sink a post, it may be placed in a mound of earth or stones. If the proper placing of a monument is impracticable or dangerous to life or limb, the monument may be placed at the nearest point properly marked to designate its right place.

5. If a stone is used [(] which is not a rock in place , [),] the stone must be not less than 6 inches in diameter and 18 inches in length, and it must be set with two-thirds of its length in the top of a mound of earth or stone 3 feet in diameter and 2½ feet in height.

6. Durable plastic pipe that was set before March 16, 1993, for the purpose of defining the boundaries of a lode mining claim shall be deemed to constitute a valid legal monument if the pipe is at least 3 inches in diameter by 4 feet in length, and the pipe is set 1 foot in the ground.

7. The locator of a lode mining claim located before March 16, 1993, or his successor in interest, may remove the durable plastic pipe described in subsection 6 and replace the monument of location and the corner monuments with valid legal monuments in the manner prescribed pursuant to subsection 1. The locator or his successor in interest is not required to replace a monument located at the center of a side line. Within 60 days after the replacement, the locator of the lode mining claim, or his successor in interest, shall record a notice of remonumentation with the county recorder of the county in which the claim is located and pay the fee required by NRS 247.305. The notice must contain:

(a) The name of the claim;

(b) The book and page number or the document number of the certificate of location or the most recent amendment to the certificate of location;

(c) The book and page number or the document number of the map filed pursuant to NRS 517.040; and

(d) A description of the monument used to replace each monument that is removed.

The notice may include more than one claim.

8. The replacement of durable plastic pipe or the recording of a notice pursuant to subsection 7 does not:

(a) Amend or otherwise affect the legal validity of the claim for which the monuments were created;

(b) Modify the date of location of the claim; or

(c) Require the filing of an additional or amended map pursuant to NRS 517.040.".

Amend section 1, pages 1 and 2, by deleting lines 1 through 24 on page 1 and lines 1 through 29 on page 2, and inserting:

"Sec. 2. Section 2 of chapter 10 of Statutes of Nevada 1993, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. NRS 517.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:

517.030 1. Within 60 days after posting the notice of location, the locator of a lode mining claim shall distinctly define the boundaries of the claim by placing a valid legal monument at each corner of the claim. A valid legal monument may be created by:

(a) Removing the top of a tree, which has a diameter of not less than 4 inches, not less than 3 feet above the ground, and blazing and marking it;

(b) Capping a rock in place with smaller stones so that the rock and stones have a height of not less than 3 feet; or

(c) Setting a wooden or metal post or a stone.

2. If a wooden post is used, the dimensions of the post must be at least 1½ inches by 1½ inches by 4 feet, and the post must be set 1 foot in the ground.

3. If a metal post is used, the post must be at least 2 inches in diameter by 4 feet in length, and it must be set 1 foot in the ground. If the metal post is hollow [and:

(a) Is not set before March 16, 1993, the post] , it must be securely capped.

[(b) Was set before March 16, 1993, the post must be securely capped on or before August 31, 1995.]

4. If it is practically impossible, because of bedrock or precipitous ground, to sink a post, it may be placed in a mound of earth or stones. If the proper placing of a monument is impracticable or dangerous to life or limb, the monument may be placed at the nearest point properly marked to designate its right place.

5. If a stone is used which is not a rock in place, the stone must be not less than 6 inches in diameter and 18 inches in length, and it must be set with two-thirds of its length in the top of a mound of earth or stone 3 feet in diameter and 2½ feet in height.

6. Durable plastic pipe that was set before March 16, 1993, for the purpose of defining the boundaries of a lode mining claim shall be deemed to constitute a valid legal monument if [the] :

(a) The pipe is at least 3 inches in diameter by 4 feet in length, and the pipe is set 1 foot in the ground [.] ; and

(b) The pipe is securely capped with no open perforations.

7. The locator of a lode mining claim located before March 16, 1993, or his successor in interest, may remove the durable plastic pipe described in subsection 6 and replace the monument of location and the corner monuments with valid legal monuments in the manner prescribed pursuant to subsection 1. The locator or his successor in interest is not required to replace a monument located at the center of a side line. Within 60 days after the replacement, the locator of the lode mining claim, or his successor in interest, shall record a notice of remonumentation with the county recorder of the county in which the claim is located and pay the fee required by NRS 247.305. The notice must contain:

(a) The name of the claim;

(b) The book and page number or the document number of the certificate of location or the most recent amendment to the certificate of location;

(c) The book and page number or the document number of the map filed pursuant to NRS 517.040; and

(d) A description of the monument used to replace each monument that is removed.

The notice may include more than one claim.

8. The replacement of durable plastic pipe or the recording of a notice pursuant to subsection 7 does not:

(a) Amend or otherwise affect the legal validity of the claim for which the monuments were created;

(b) Modify the date of location of the claim; or

(c) Require the filing of an additional or amended map pursuant to NRS 517.040.".

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 2 and 3 and renumbering section 4 as section 3.

Amend sec. 4, page 4, by deleting lines 3 through 6 and inserting:

"Sec. 3. If, before the effective date of this act, the locator of a lode mining claim located before March 16, 1993, or his successor in interest, removes and replaces durable plastic pipe in the manner described in NRS 517.030, as amended by section 1 of this act, the locator or his successor in interest may, within 60 days after the effective date of this act, record a notice of remonumentation as".

Amend the bill as a whole by adding a new section designated sec. 4, following sec. 3, to read as follows:

"Sec. 4. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.".

Speaker Hettrick presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Arberry, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Marvin Dennis.

Our Heavenly Father, everyday is a special day and you have taught us in Your word that Your mercies are new every morning. Thank You for this special time of the year when our thoughts turn to You in a special way. For some, the celebration of the Passover and deliverance from Egypt. For others, the celebration of the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. Regardless of our background or who we are I ask that You bring us together in love and understanding for the good of our land, our families and our personal lives. AMEN.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 13.

Resolution read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Amendment No. 175.

Amend the resolution, pages 1 through 3, by deleting lines 1 through 29 on page 1, lines 1 through 48 on page 2 and lines 1 through 3 on page 3, and inserting:

"RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That section 1 of article 16 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. 1. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate or Assembly; and if the same shall be agreed to by a Majority of all the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their respective journals, with the Yeas and Nays taken thereon, and referred to the Legislature then next to be chosen, and shall be published for three months next preceding the time of making such choice. And if in the Legislature next chosen as aforesaid, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house, then it shall be the duty of the Legislature to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people, in such manner and at such time as the Legislature shall prescribe; and if the people shall approve and ratify such amendment or amendments by a majority of the electors qualified to vote for members of the Legislature voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall, unless precluded by subsection 2 [,] or section 2 of article 19 of this constitution, become a part of the Constitution.

2. If two or more amendments which affect the same section of the constitution are ratified by the people pursuant to this section at the same election:

(a) If all can be given effect without contradiction in substance, each shall become a part of the constitution.

(b) If one or more contradict in substance the other or others, that amendment which received the largest favorable vote, and any other ratified amendment or amendments compatible with it, shall become a part of the constitution.

3. If , after the proposal of an amendment, another amendment is ratified pursuant to this section which affects the same section of the constitution but is compatible with the proposed amendment, the next legislature if it agrees to the proposed amendment shall submit such proposal to the people as a further amendment to the amended section. If, after the proposal of an amendment, another amendment is ratified pursuant to this section which contradicts in substance the proposed amendment, such proposed amendment shall not be submitted to the people.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That section 2 of article 19 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1 of article 4 of this constitution, but subject to the limitations of section 6 of this article, the people reserve to themselves the power to propose, by initiative petition, statutes and amendments to statutes and amendments to this constitution, and to enact or reject them at the polls.

2. An initiative petition shall be in the form required by section 3 of this article and shall be proposed by a number of registered voters equal to 10 percent or more of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election in not less than 75 percent of the counties in the state, but the total number of registered voters signing the initiative petition shall be equal to 10 percent or more of the voters who voted in the entire state at the last preceding general election.

3. If the initiative petition proposes a statute or an amendment to a statute, the person who intends to circulate it shall file a copy with the secretary of state before beginning circulation and not earlier than January 1 of the year preceding the year in which a regular session of the legislature is held. After its circulation, it shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than 30 days prior to any regular session of the legislature. The circulation of the petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the secretary of state or such other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is earliest. The secretary of state shall transmit such petition to the legislature as soon as the legislature convenes and organizes. The petition shall take precedence over all other measures except appropriation bills, and the statute or amendment to a statute proposed thereby shall be enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment within 40 days. If the proposed statute or amendment to a statute is enacted by the legislature and approved by the governor in the same manner as other statutes are enacted, such statute or amendment to a statute shall become law, but shall be subject to referendum petition as provided in section 1 of this article. If the statute or amendment to a statute is rejected by the legislature, or if no action is taken thereon within 40 days, the secretary of state shall submit the question of approval or disapproval of such statute or amendment to a statute to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election. If a majority of the voters voting on such question at such election votes approval of such statute or amendment to a statute, it shall become law and take effect upon completion of the canvass of votes by the supreme court. An initiative measure so approved by the voters shall not be amended, annulled, repealed, set aside or suspended by the legislature within 3 years from the date it takes effect. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of such statute or amendment to a statute, no further action shall be taken on such petition. If the legislature rejects such proposed statute or amendment, the governor may recommend to the legislature and the legislature may propose a different measure on the same subject, in which event, after such different measure has been approved by the governor, the question of approval or disapproval of each measure shall be submitted by the secretary of state to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election. If the conflicting provisions submitted to the voters are both approved by a majority of the voters voting on such measures, the measure which receives the largest number of affirmative votes shall thereupon become law. If at the session of the legislature to which an initiative petition proposing an amendment to a statute is presented which the legislature rejects or upon which it takes no action, the legislature amends the statute which the petition proposes to amend in a respect which does not conflict in substance with the proposed amendment, the secretary of state in submitting the statute to the voters for approval or disapproval of the proposed amendment shall include the amendment made by the legislature.

4. If the initiative petition proposes an amendment to the constitution, the person who intends to circulate it shall file a copy with the secretary of state before beginning circulation and not earlier than September 1 of the year before the year in which the election is to be held. After its circulation it shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than 90 days before any regular general election at which the question of approval or disapproval of such amendment may be voted upon by the voters of the entire state. The circulation of the petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the secretary of state or such other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is earliest. The secretary of state shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation, on three separate occasions, in each county in the state, together with any explanatory matter which shall be placed upon the ballot, the entire text of the proposed amendment. If a majority of the voters voting on such question at such election votes disapproval of such amendment, no further action shall be taken on the petition. If a majority of such voters votes approval of such amendment, the secretary of state shall publish and resubmit the question of approval or disapproval to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election in the same manner as such question was originally submitted. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of such amendment, no further action shall be taken on such petition. If a majority of such voters votes approval of such amendment, it shall , unless precluded by subsection 5 or 6, become a part of this constitution upon completion of the canvass of votes by the supreme court.

5. If two or more measures which affect the same section of a statute or of the constitution are finally approved pursuant to this section, or an amendment to the constitution is finally so approved and an amendment proposed by the legislature is ratified which affect the same section, by the voters at the same election:

(a) If all can be given effect without contradiction in substance, each shall be given effect.

(b) If one or more contradict in substance the other or others, the measure which received the largest favorable vote, and any other approved measure compatible with it, shall be given effect. If the one or more measures that contradict in substance the other or others receive the same number of favorable votes, none of the measures that contradict another shall be given effect.

6. If, at the same election as the first approval of a constitutional amendment pursuant to this section, another amendment is finally approved pursuant to this section, or an amendment proposed by the legislature is ratified, which affects the same section of the constitution but is compatible with the amendment given first approval, the secretary of state shall publish and resubmit at the next general election the amendment given first approval as a further amendment to the section as amended by the amendment given final approval or ratified. MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21.

Assemblyman Marvel moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Marvel and Dini.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

Thank you, very much, Mr. Speaker. As the resolution noted, former Senator John Fransway was truly a statesman for the State of Nevada. I had the pleasure of knowing John, in fact I was a constituent of his for several years while he served in the Senate, and I can tell you that whatever John Fransway did, he did well. As noted in the resolution, his physical handicap did not deter him from his activities. And as it was noted also, he was the second pilot in the United States to be issued a license as an amputee.

But more than that, he served the judiciary on the local level; worked his way to the state Senate where he served for 12 years and was very instrumental in establishing our school of medicine on the Reno campus. Of course, at that time it was a very controversial issue, but his vote prevailed and now the family can be proud that the school is one of the finest medical institutions in the United States.

After leaving the Senate, John was one of the first to chair the Environmental Commission which helped the people in southern Nevada establish high water quality. That was to everyone's best interest.

I certainly want to convey our condolences to the family, especially his son who is with us today. I'm sorry his widow isn't with us. I would like to say that Nevada has truly lost one of its finest citizens.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members of the Assembly, I had the privilege of serving with John for three sessions: 1967, 1969 and 1971. He was really a true leader. He was on Senate Finance and you want to ask tough questions? He was the champion of tough questions on Senate Finance. You hated to go down there and testify. But, he was really interested in the issues statewide. It was not just rural county issues. He was a statewide leader and he was a real rival of former Governor O'Callaghan. There was a cartoon in the paper one day about this Governor chasing a guy with one arm down the hall, beating him up with his artificial leg. Governor O'Callaghan, of course, had an artificial leg. It was about a real battle they were having in Senate Finance over an issue that the Governor wanted and John was the key vote. I think that John had made some public statements, but Mike and he became great friends.

John was an excellent pilot, by the way. He flew all over the State of Nevada. He was just a real, fine gentlemen. He never crossed any of us. He would tell you right up front what he was going to do and why he had to do it.

Governor O'Callaghan appointed him to the Environmental Commission as chairman, and he really was responsible for the beginning of that commission because it was in its infancy when he took it over. He did an excellent job and developed the regulations.

He moved down to southern Nevada and lived at Lake Mead. He'll really be missed by this state because he was an outstanding man.

Resolution adopted.

MESSAGE TO THE LEGISLATURE OF NEVADA

SIXTY-EIGHTH SESSION, 1995

Thank you, Lieutenant Governor Hammargren, Majority Leader Raggio, Speakers Dini and Hettrick. It is truly an honor to be here. I don't think there was anyone more surprised than me to be here today. As of a little bit before the election, it didn't look so good for me being here.

Having served these last three months in Washington, I can say without a doubt, and truly a surprise, what an honor it is to serve in the United States House of Representatives, just as it is for you to serve here. It's truly an honor and privilege that Nevadans have given us, but also an awesome responsibility that we have.

Over the last 100 days, we have accomplished a lot in Congress. As I was driving from Reno to Carson City today, I was driving down the hill and remembered I used to take my bicycle over that hill coming in from Bowers' Mansion. I saw the place where my first job was when I was in the fourth grade. I had the job of taking out the trash in a bar. I received a quarter every time I took the trash out. It just reminded me of what a great state we live in. Having lived in both the north and south, I think this is one of the greatest states in the entire Union. I'm just proud to be from our state and proud to be representing our state back in Washington.

In the first 100 days, we have passed what I think is very significant legislation. We passed the Balanced Budget Amendment and were only one vote short in the Senate. We passed tort reform and we even passed the unfunded mandate legislation. I think for those of you here that is very significant. My challenge to you now is to pass an unfunded mandate legislation that says the state will not pass unfunded mandates on to the local and county governments. We also passed a law that makes all the laws that apply to everyone else apply to Congress, which was passed almost unanimously in the House and the Senate. We passed what I consider a very significant welfare reform bill that will give all of you who we think can govern better at the local and state level a chance to do it right. We also had the first ever vote on term limits in the House of Representatives.

The most important part of the contract, in my opinion, is not any of the individual pieces of the Contract with America. The most important part is that we actually did what we said we were going to do. For all levels of government, it is credibly important in a democracy that the electors have faith in their elected officials. I think this was just the first step in bringing that faith back to the American people. I think it will bode well not only for people in Washington, but at all levels of government.

In Congress, we have proven with the Contract with America that we are different from typical politicians. We are keeping our commitments and we are creating real change. Working together with the American people, we have made history in the first 100 days. Now we have an opportunity to renew America by setting new goals and exceeding them by transforming our approach to government so we have a safer and more prosperous America. This level of transformation, however, will require a new dialogue leading to a new partnership. Such a new dialogue and new partnership can only grow out of a clearly stated vision and a comprehensive set of goals.

What is our plan to create a safe and prosperous future for our generation, our children and grandchildren? House members are proposing the most significant change in American government since 1933. This change involves $11.7 trillion over the next seven years, the fundamental direction of the American society and the lives of over 260,000,000 Americans. The coming session is not just about the budget; it's about America's future; it's about doing the right thing. It's about an opportunity to create the potential for prosperity, safety and a better life for virtually every American. It will take hard systemic work and real change, but it can be done. It will improve our lives and our children's lives.

In 1995, we are at a crossroads. America has been in similar situations before and has always risen to the challenge. In 1933, facing 25 percent unemployment, Franklin D. Roosevelt said, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself." In 1981, Ronald Reagan, facing 13 percent inflation, 22 percent interest rates and the Iranian hostage crisis remarked, "We have every right to dream heroic dreams." The crisis we are facing today requires our best effort and our willingness to believe in ourselves and the capacity to perform great deeds; to believe that together with God's help we can and will resolve the problems that now confront us. After all, why shouldn't we believe that? We are Americans. After all, why shouldn't we believe that? We are Nevadans.

The question remains, how can we overcome our modern day challenges? Through five key steps:

1. By creating an opportunity society out of a welfare state.
2. By decentralizing and privatizing American government.
3. By reestablishing America's competitiveness in the world market by reducing taxes, litigation and regulations.
4. By leading the world's transformation into an information age society.
5. By balancing the budget and solving the financial crisis in Social Security and Medicare.

If we fulfill our destiny, we will achieve every willing person integrated into the work force; a healthy environment managed through sound science and common sense; opportunities in learning; health and jobs to the poorest rural and intercity neighborhoods. Government will be lean; customer responses and effective job opportunities for every American; low taxes so incomes translate into strong take-home pay; and a regularly balanced federal budget.

All around us, we have living proof in America that we can succeed in the 21st century. All around us, scientists and entrepreneurs are inventing a better future. All around us, corporations are rethinking and reengineering to produce more, better and faster with fewer resources. They are using the principles that people such as Edward Deming has been espousing for years known as, "Total Quality Management." All around us in the private sector, private citizens are changing, adapting and improving. The Federal Government is the least changed and least improved institution in America. We know we can have a leaner, better and more effective government that does more and serves the people better with fewer resources.

The first strategic improvement involves maintaining compassion which will require replacing the welfare state with an opportunity society. Let me say, we need to redefine compassion. A classmate of mine, J. C. Watts of Oklahoma said, "We need to redefine the word compassion." Instead of how many people are we putting on welfare and into public housing, how many people are we getting off welfare and out of public housing into their own homes? Our welfare system is a failed model. It actually hurts the poor. Its failure is reflected by the violence, brutality and child abuse on every broadcast news hour. The cultural violence increasingly permeates our entertainment and denigrates our civilization.

The nonworking, nonproductive part of our society is a factor in the deficit and declining American competitiveness in the world markets. When I grew up in Carson City and Reno, shortly after my parents divorced, my mother was a single mom who had three children and worked at Harrah's Reno carrying change. At that time, we had no child support and lived with another family who also had three children, and I saw her each and every day get up and go to work. What that communicated to me was the work ethics which we have lost to a degree in this country. Welfare recipients' children are robbed of that opportunity in our society, to see their parents go to work on a daily basis.

Poor Americans are trapped in unsafe housing. They maintain unsafe neighborhoods saddled with rules that are anti-poverty, anti-work and anti-family. They are forced to have their children attend public schools that are monopolies and cost a lot, but accomplish little. In the name of compassion, we have funded a system which destroys families. And as Newt Gingrich said, "No civilization can survive with 12-year-olds having babies; 15-year-olds killing each other; 17-year-olds dying of AIDS; 18-year-olds receiving diplomas they can't even read; and furthermore, no civilization can survive where their parents and grandparents are refusing to balance their budgets." The welfare state cheats the poor; an unbalanced budget cheats every single child in this country.

What is the legacy we are leaving our children? Moral and physical bankruptcy. I believe the program for a better American future begins with replacing the welfare state with an opportunity society. A transformation which emphasizes welfare reform that encourages work, family and opportunity; tax incentives for work, investments and entrepreneurship; reestablishing property ownership; learning as the focus of education; shifting federal funding to local and state officials who know better how to spend the money.

The second strategic improvement involves restoring freedom by ending centralized bureaucratic micromanagement from Washington. The current centralized Washington-based system of micromanagement has failed. What works here in Carson City doesn't necessarily work in New York City and vice versa. Reforms that emphasize decentralization from Washington and return authority to the state and local governments, and a general rule for decision making should be local problems. Local government is best, and whenever possible, private sector is better than local government.

When rethinking the Federal Government, we must ask, "Can a private for profit business achieve the same goal as well or better than government, and if government is the best place to do it can it be done at the state or local level? Have we thought through the least expensive, most citizen-oriented, most entrepreneurial way to do it with maximum satisfaction and minimum resources?" Rethinking the Federal Government isn't a matter of partisanship. It doesn't matter whether you're a Democrat or a Republican. It is a matter of what works and what doesn't, and let me take some time right now to praise our Vice President Al Gore for his reinventing government. I like a lot of the things that he has done. He came and spoke to us as Republicans. Newt Gingrich invited him over and I like a lot of what he is doing. He made, I think, one critical flaw in his first question, "How can we make government work better and more efficiently?" His second question that he is now embarking upon is, "What should, and what shouldn't government be doing?" The critical flaw that I think he had, and it is not that it is not correctable now, but I think he should have made those reverse priorities. We should first say, "What should and what shouldn't government be doing?" And once we have answered that, let's improve and find out how we can do what government should be doing to make it do it better.

The third strategic improvement involves promoting economic growth, jobs, prosperity by reducing taxes, litigation, and regulation. The American economy needs to grow with an increasingly competitive world market. The middle class keeps getting squeezed. Today most families are working harder, but not getting ahead. Couples take on second jobs, not to support themselves, but to pay for government taxes, and this just isn't right. Creating more effective government that needs fewer resources will allow us to lower taxes and increase take-home pay for working middle class families. You know the average American family today pays more in taxes than they pay for food, clothing and shelter combined? Reengineering government to cut out waste, lower costs, increased productivity and increased quality will also allow us to lower taxes on entrepreneurs and inventors so we can create more economic growth. A one percent increase in our GDP caused by sound economic principles as opposed to a one percent decrease in GDP will have profound effects.

Let me give you examples. At one percent growth in GDP over the next seven years, we will receive $1.4 trillion more in federal tax revenues. Just a one percent increase in GDP. We will also receive or have $1.3 trillion in federal debt. The average American person will have $19,000 more in income over seven years, which is a one percent increase in the federal GDP. At one percent decrease in the GDP from current projections, Social Security goes into default 13 years earlier than now projected. That would be the year 2016. The federal deficit will be $640 billion larger, and individuals will have over $9,000 less in income over those same years. You see it all of the time. These are just business cycles, we can't help recessions, we can't help the GDP no matter what you do in Washington.

Well, over the last 18 years in Japan, they haven't had a single recession. They have averaged a 4.2 percent annual growth rate and a 3.6 percent annual personal income growth. Let's compare that with America's performance over the same time period. We have had three recessions during that same time period. We have had a 2.6 percent annual growth rate and only a one percent annual personal income increase. Imagine if America had matched the Japanese in economic growth over the same period of time. Per capita increased income would be $9,000 higher. The federal budget deficit, actually it wouldn't be a deficit, it would be $207 billion in surplus per year instead of the $200 billion deficit we now have. How do we reverse our trend? Greater American competitiveness and increased economic growth requires a tax code that favors work, savings, and investment. Less litigation; lean and effective bureaucracies; sensible government investments; infrastructure; more aggressive U.S. Government support of exports, and more effective enforcement of trade agreements.

The fourth strategic improvement—creating opportunity by leading the transformation to a third wave information age society. What this means, if we look historically, we went from an age of going from hunters and gatherers into the agricultural age and then we went from the agricultural age into the industrial age. Now, we are going from the industrial age into the information age. In the information age, we will have opportunities in a wide range of areas in computers; in worldwide electronics; molecular medicine; breakthroughs in material technology. We see the Information Superhighway, and it is being developed on its own. The government wants to take that over and if they do, they will ruin it.

To give you an example of how government can mess up this information age, let's look at high definition television. America was leading the world in bringing this technology to the market place. We had five companies competing against each other and they were bringing this right to our market place. It would be here today if American government had left it alone. But instead, our national government, and this was under a Republican administration, decided the Japanese government was getting involved with it and we needed to be involved with it as well. So, we got together and decided to set up a standard and get the companies together and let them work together. And instead of working competitively against each other to bring the best product to market, they are trying to get together and virtually no progress has now been made on high density television.

We have to be very careful that we encourage the information age instead of discouraging it. Can you imagine if our government could meet the standards that private industry has set? And how much we could improve services, reduce spending, reduce taxes and balance the budget with an approach like private industry has? In a successful 21st century government, we can replace the wasteful bureaucracies of today with programs that serve citizens and save tax dollars. Among the proposals that are being considered in Washington are merging of the Departments of Education and Labor. That will save over $4 billion every year. Eliminating HUD will save up to $15 billion over five years. Eliminating the Department of Energy will save up to $20 billion over five years.

I am actually on that task force because the Department of Energy is fairly important to our state. I am there to make sure that we don't get hurt when we eliminate the Department of Energy. But there is so much waste, incredible waste and inefficiency in that department, that we know we can eliminate it at the cabinet level.

The fifth strategic improvement—creating a safe future for our children and ourselves by balancing the budget and saving Medicare and Social Security. What I am about to tell you is probably the biggest part of what is going to happen during this summer and maybe in the next 10 years, because the budget deficit combined with baby boomers coming into retirement will cause a crisis of historic proportions unless the problem is honestly faced and managed well in advance.

So, what is the solution? It's obviously a balanced budget. Federal Reserve chairman, Alan Greenspan, remarked what a balanced budget would mean for Americans. He said the real incomes and purchasing power of the real incomes would significantly improve. They would look forward to their children doing better than they.

One recent estimate is that a balanced budget would produce two percent lower interest rates; a two percent lower interest rate on your car, on your mortgage, on your credit cards; a two percent lower interest rate on building a new factory, on keeping a family farm in the family. This is the balanced budget dividend. While two percent may not sound like much, it adds up to a lot of money over a lifetime. Two percent on a 30-year mortgage means, for instance, on a $75,000 home with an 8¾ percent interest rate, you would pay an extra $3,700 a year. For a six-month, $350,000 loan for a farm, you would pay an extra $4,000 with a two percent higher interest rate. What does it mean on a federal level if we have a two percent lower interest rate? It will mean the creation of 6.1 million jobs in 10 years. It will increase per capita income by 16 percent. It will generate $235,000,000 more revenue for the Federal Government, annually without a tax increase. It will generate $232,000,000 more revenue for state and local governments without a tax increase.

And, now Medicare. Fact: the imminent in Medicare funding is real and unavoidable. I am on the Health Care Subcommittee and we had meetings right before we adjourned. Medicare is broke. It actually starts paying out more money than it takes in in the year 1996. The Medicare Trust Fund will be bankrupt in the year 2002. And all of the "quick fixes" for Medicare have already been tried. They have been extending when the Medicare Trust Fund goes broke, but we can no longer raise the earnings cap. We can no longer increase the premiums because the protected premium increases are tripled. As far as employer contributions, they go up by five to six times, so we can no longer do that. What do we have to do with Medicare? We have to completely transform it. We need to bring in private sector reforms so that we can insure choices to older Americans and preserve Medicare for the baby boomers who are getting ready to retire, and also so that it will be there for our children some day when they retire. If we don't save Medicare now, it is gone for the people who are on it now as well as for the people who are going to be going on it in the future.

The crisis we are facing in Medicare actually dwarfs the crisis that we will be facing with Social Security. When the baby boomers begin to retire, they will put enormous pressure on the federal budget. In the year 2013, Social Security spending will exceed the taxes that workers are paying into the system, and in the year 2030 the Social Security Trust Fund will be broke. Faced with combined deficits on this gigantic scale, the politicians of 2013 will have only four choices.

One is ruthless spending cuts of unprecedented depths, massive tax increases, tremendous cuts in Social Security benefits or fiscal crisis leading to massive inflation. So, what do we do to avoid this economic catastrophe? We must implement five strategic improvements. Let me repeat them. We must replace the welfare state. We must end central bureaucratic Washington government. We must reduce taxes and spending. We must lead the transformation into the information age society, and we must balance the budget and solve the crisis in Medicare and Social Security.

All of the world's children rely on American leadership for a safe, free and prosperous future. There is no alternative leader. We are it. The alternative to a strong America is a dark and bloody planet—Bosnia, Somalia, Ruwanda, Haiti, Chechnya. For our children's sake, our country's sake and the world's sake, we must wrest control from those who refuse to take responsibility. We must insist on a plan to create a safe and prosperous future for our children and for our own retirement years.

If we fulfill our destiny, the bleak economic scenario I outlined can be converted to this: every willing person will be brought into the work force; a healthy environment managed through sound science opportunities and learning; health and jobs to the poorest communities. Government will be lean, customer responsive and effective. America will still have the best health system in the world. There will be job opportunities for every American; low taxes so that incomes translate into good take-home pay and a regularly balanced federal budget. The time for cheating our children has ended. The time to balance the budget has arrived. America's future requires a new dialogue; a new partnership with the American people. That is what we are elected to do and to achieve, and that is what we are going to do and achieve. I thank you for your time.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 34.

Bill read second time, ordered engrossed and to third reading.

Assembly Bill No. 80.

Bill read second time, ordered engrossed and to third reading.

Assembly Bill No. 93.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 266.

Amend section 1, pages 1 and 2, by deleting lines 19 through 21 on page 1 and lines 1 through 3 on page 2, and inserting: "unless the offender agrees in writing that he will complete the entire program of treatment. Of those offenders who make such an agreement, the director shall when assigning offenders to the program, to the extent possible, give preference to those offenders who appear to the director capable of successfully completing the entire program.".

Amend sec. 1, page 2, between lines 12 and 13, by inserting:

"6. As used in this section, "entire program" means both phases of the program established pursuant to NRS 209.425, for offenders who have not been released from prison, and NRS 209.429, for offenders who have been assigned to the custody of the division of parole and probation of the department of motor vehicles and public safety.".

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks by Benjamin T. Y. Lo, Director General, Taipei Economic and Cultural Office, Taiwan, Republic of China be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, distinguished members of the Assembly, ladies and gentlemen. I think it is definitely a privilege and honor for me to be able to stand before you and say a few words.

I came to United States last year knowing that the State of Nevada is the sister state of the Province of Taiwan. I tried to call on you early, actually August of last year, unfortunately you were not in session. I was only able to see and meet with your staff members. They were very friendly and attentive to me.

In talking about the State of Nevada, I think Speaker Hettrick mentioned that the State of Nevada is the sister state of the Province of Taiwan, and that was done in October, 1985. In other words, it will be the tenth anniversary in the upcoming October. I, as one working for the government of the Republic of China in Taiwan, representing the interests of the Province of Taiwan, and also here in this part of the United States, certainly will be more than happy, with your permission, to propose that something should be worked out to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the sisterhood.

This morning, being very much privileged to sit with Speaker Hettrick to observe these smooth proceedings of your Assembly, I must confess it was not only informative, but it was educational to me. I see the Assembly members of the two parties working wholeheartedly for the interest and benefit of this state. I certainly would urge the assemblymen of the Province of Taiwan to come to Nevada to observe the proceedings here. As you probably see, our representatives occasionally have some quarrels, fistfighting sometimes.

Let me say, ladies and gentlemen, we consider this as a transitional period towards a full democracy. China is an old country, but democracy, even in the Republic of China, the furthest republic in Asia, is still very young. We are still learning. I should inform you that we recently had the election of the Governor of the Province of Taiwan, the Mayors of the cities of Taipei and Kao-Hsiung. We will have a direct election of our President next March. By that time, we would have those and other heads of government directly elected by our people. So, please excuse those fistfights in our Assembly halls. Hopefully, it will be over soon, and we will be a real democratic country by that time. As I have said, we have found some political reform, and we also have a friendlier name given to us by foreigners called, "Taiwan Miracle."

Let me briefly share some figures with you. For our land, we are only 14,000 square miles, very small. Approximately one-eighth the size of the State of Nevada. But, our population is 21,000,000, approximately 10 times that of your state. If you put that together, our population density is approximately 80 times that of yours. We therefore, have to make good use of every inch of the land. After strenuous efforts by our government and our people over the last four decades, we were able to have a projected income of $12,000 in U.S. dollars last year. We are ranked twenty-fourth the world over. We are ranked twentieth as far as gross national product is concerned. We are the fourteenth largest trading partner the world over. Essentially, we are the fifth largest trading partner of the United States of America.

For foreign investments, we have managed to be the ninth largest in the world. We actually are the largest in countries neighboring us, such as southeast Asian countries like Indonesia, Thailand and the Philippines. We are the number one investors for the last two or three years. If we put the lump sum together, we are the ninth.

Ladies and gentlemen, for foreign reserves, I'm very happy and proud to inform you that we are now number two exceeding $100,000,000 in U.S. dollars last week. This is what the economic success has done over the last 40 years. This is the sister state of the State of Nevada. This is a state which is not a member, unfortunately, of the United Nations, yet. I, therefore, publicly make use of this opportunity to appeal to each and every one of you to help us to be readmitted to the United Nations. I think a country of the figures I have cited, of the democracy which we are working very hard for, deserves to be a member of the United Nations, the international organ representing the principle of universality of the world.

We like to contribute to the international community. We are very grateful for the United States aid. We were receiving aid from the United States of America until 1965. But after that, for the last 30 years, we have reciprocated. We have recontributed to the international community. For instance, the government has earmarked a foundation fund in the amount of $1.16 billion U.S. dollars to help the developing countries the world over. We can do more if we were admitted back to the United Nations.

We cannot distribute international aid as some countries do. For instance, before coming here, I was Director General of the West Agent Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. I was responsible for the whole Middle East and the former USSR during the well-known Gulf War, when Iraq invaded Kuwait and when refugee problems were very serious in that part of the world. My government decided to respond to the appeal of the United Nations. We had the money, but we had nowhere to hand the money, because we are not a member of the United Nations.

I think, also for humanitarian consideration, a nation of 21,000,000 should also be represented. We are a small state like I mentioned earlier, as far as size is concerned, but we are not that small if you talk about the population. We probably rank approximately fiftieth from the bottom of the line if you compare us to the other members of the United Nations. So, either from international cooperation or from the principle of universality, which is very basic in international democracy, or for human rights consideration, ladies and gentlemen, I do appeal to you to help us to be readmitted to the United Nations. This will help us to contribute more, and we can play a more active role in international communities.

Last but not least, let me reemphasize the friendship from the Province of Taiwan of the Republic of China which I, myself, have the privilege and honor to represent in this part of the United States including, of course, the State of Nevada. Anything at all, which my office or my humble self can do for you, please feel free to give us a call. Anything which contributes to strengthening the existing friendship and harmonious relationship between the State of Nevada and the Province of Taiwan of the Republic of China, we would not hesitate to do it. Thank you. Thank you, very much for your kind attention.

The Committee on Escort escorted the Representative to the rostrum.

The Speaker of the Assembly welcomed Representative Vucanovich and invited her to deliver her message.

Representative Vucanovich delivered her message as follows:

MESSAGE TO THE LEGISLATURE OF NEVADA

SIXTY-EIGHTH SESSION, 1995

Good Morning. It is certainly great to be back in Nevada, and have this opportunity to speak to you today for the seventh time since 1983.

As I look around this chamber, I see a lot of new faces, but I do see a few familiar faces. I see Bill Raggio and Joe Dini are still here. And it is very nice to see John Marvel here today. John and Willie are long time friends. It's really great to see you and Willie both.

It's also refreshing to see so many new faces. Believe me, we need both new and old legislators to serve Nevada well. Those of us like Joe and Bill, who have been in politics for a while, get used to hearing the same question asked in many different ways, "So, when are you going to retire?" I can't speak for my distinguished legislative colleagues, but I have to tell you that after 13 years in Congress, I've never had more fun. I'm sure they will agree that there is something to be said for being in the majority—it just took me a seventh term to find that out.

I'm here today to talk to you about life in Washington these days, and some of the ramifications of the sweeping changes we have seen during the first 100 legislative days.

As members of this citizen legislature, you represent government in the best independent, may I say, Nevada tradition. Every one of you here today has a life outside of politics. That couldn't be healthier, because you are really in touch with the people you represent. And that opens the door to something the American people, no matter where they live, are demanding—more control over their government. It's no secret that people think government is out of touch and out of control. We hear that all the time in Washington, of course, and I suspect you hear it in Carson City, too.

And, as current trends point to a dramatic shift of power and responsibility back to the states, you are going to see dramatic changes in your roles as state legislators. The West, including great emphasis on Nevada, has always believed that the government that governs closest to home governs best. Now the rest of the country is waking up to this idea.

Last year's election was a thunder clap across America for a new direction. Time and time again, people across this state have told me they were tired of a Federal Government that had become too big, too arrogant, too intrusive and too "helpful." The new Congress took the message to Washington, swallowing hard in some instances, and has worked hard to keep the promises outlined in the Contract with America to give government back to the people. We've taken the first steps to create a smaller Federal Government, with lower taxes and less spending. We have advocated more government accountability and personal responsibility. We've pressed for less Federal Government interference in our lives and more local control to solve local problems.

After 100 days, I stand before you more convinced than ever that the direction we are headed is the right one. Despite efforts to paint these changes as extreme, most Americans still agree that government is simply too big and costs too much. One of the most important of these changes has been the shift of responsibility for government programs back to the states. We have taken several steps to do this.

First, we put a leash on unfunded federal mandates that Washington has been strapping on the backs of state and local governments. With the federal budget deficit increasing daily, we in Congress have up to now found it much easier to pass on the cost of new programs to state and local governments. Prime examples of this trend are the Clean Air Act and Clean Water Act, the new Medicare programs for the poor and the motor voter programs. Each of them have laudable goals, but who is going to bear the cost? The answer all too often was state government. At least now, it will take a supermajority of Congress before we can pass on any new costs.

Second, the House passed legislation to bring some good, old-fashioned common sense to a regulatory process that has run amuck by establishing a moratorium on new regulations. We are serious about untying the hands of state government, local governments, small businesses, ranchers, farmers, and ordinary citizens. I'm disappointed that the Senate has chosen to water down the moratorium to the point where it hardly differs from current law. Some in the Senate have characterized regulatory reform as hostile to public safety. That is simply demagoguery.

There never was any intent to prohibit regulations that will protect public safety, and the House language was explicit on this point. But the bureaucrats are not going to give up without a fight. They want to continue to list more fresh water shrimp as endangered in the Sacramento Valley, put more ranchers and contractors out of business in southern Nevada with the desert tortoise and squelch job growth among our small manufacturers.

In addition to regulatory reform, Speaker Gingrich has asked me to chair the task force to establish a legislative corrections day one day a week. Corrections day will be used to target rules, regulations, or laws which are overburdensome and have proven to be financial black holes. We'll be looking at noncontroversial changes that make good sense and save money, and I hope you will offer your suggestions. Already, we have received from the National Governor's Association, dozens of examples of burdensome regulations affecting state government.

Our first piece of legislation will correct the insane requirement that San Diego clean its waste water to a standard better than the ocean water it will be pumped into at a cost of millions of dollars to the local taxpayers.

I'm also proposing that we look at the OSHA regulations which require our municipal fire departments to have four firefighters on every call regardless of the type of emergency. I have heard from many local communities about the unreasonable cost this will place on our fire departments.

Third, on the crime fighting front, we passed a crime package that puts teeth in the Clinton crime bill of last year, so Nevada law enforcement officials can take a real bite out of crime. This bill puts power in the hands of local police and gives states the flexibility to use their grant money for what they need in their battle against crime, whether it be more cops, police cruisers, better communications equipment, or programs to discourage juvenile crime. The rhetoric over the crime bill got pretty distorted when it was claimed we were eliminating the cops on the beat, when in fact we were giving local police the power to decide how best to spend the money. It is my hope that the Senate will help local police officials make their own decisions.

Fourth, the House of Representatives also put forth a bold legislative package to transform the welfare system. The Personal Responsibility Act is based on the ideals of self-respect and opportunity. We are replacing a failed system that doesn't work with a more compassionate solution that encourages work, supports families, and offers needy children hope for the future.

Under this plan, you have an important role. We are cutting federal red tape and giving you maximum flexibility to fight poverty and to set up a welfare system that works for Nevadans. We are taking the current Federal Entitlement Program and establishing block grants with minimal federal mandates so you can use your creativity, innovation and ingenuity to help Nevada's welfare recipients beat the welfare trap. These block grants are for temporary family assistance, child care, family nutrition, school-based nutrition and child protection.

Many opponents to transforming welfare say these changes are mean spirited. How many times did you hear about the Republican cuts in the school lunch program? How many times did you hear this distortion of the truth? The simple fact is that school lunch funding is increased 4.5 percent every year. For Nevada, and please listen to this closely, for Nevada this means that next year our state will receive $1 million more for school lunches than we will get this year, and funding will be increased 4.5 percent annually. One million dollars more next year. That is a must. It is an increase. Even basic math students can figure out that equation.

The truth about the school lunch cuts is that we are cutting bureaucracy's and administrative costs so we can spend more money on meals for needy school children. So when you hear accusations of how welfare reform is mean spirited, ask yourself if it isn't really the current welfare system that has trapped women and children in a vicious cycle of dependency, poverty and illegitimacy that is mean spirited.

The status quo is cruel to children. It destroys self-respect, it ravages families, it encourages dependency and is rife with waste, fraud and abuse. The status quo has failed. We need to end the cycle of welfare dependence, put an emphasis on work and increase spending for those who really need the help in a time of personal crisis. It's truly disappointing to hear opponents of change label what we are doing as radical and out of the mainstream, when in fact, we are trying to make real change for a better future.

Trying a new approach, that is what the first 100 days have been all about. But, what we have tried to do so far is nothing compared to the challenge facing us in balancing the federal budget. That's our goal, and making the American dream a reality for our children and grandchildren is the task at hand. That is why this year's budget debate will be about more than just numbers.

It's clear that people across this state and throughout this nation feel that Washington is out of control. For a nation that prides itself on leaving a better country for our children, we are instead leaving a legacy of fiscal and moral bankruptcy. The nation is nearly $5 trillion in debt. In just 17 years from now, spending on entitlements—that is Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security, veterans' programs, farm programs and interest on the debt will consume all tax revenues. That means no national defense, no education and no environmental protection. Nothing other than entitlements and an interest payment. In just two years, we will pay more for interest on the debt, $270 billion, than we will pay for the national defense, $257 billion. And make no mistake, that interest payment is made by every one of us. Over our lives, we'll personally pay thousands of dollars in interest on the debt. A child born this year will pay nearly $200,000 over his or her lifetime in interest on the debt. That's the legacy we're leaving our children. That $200,000 would be much better spent to buy a new house or invest in a college education than spent to pay off our government's poor spending habits. This legacy has caused a middle-class squeeze. Families are working harder and harder, without getting any further ahead and they are sending more of their hard earned money to Uncle Sam.

In 1950, the average household paid 5 percent of its income to the Federal Government in taxes. Today, the same household sends 24 percent. In fact, an average family today loses about half of its income because of income taxes at all levels of government.

And, what about retirement? The programs that so many Nevadans depend on, Medicare and Social Security, are headed toward bankruptcy. In just six years, Medicare spending will outpace revenues. If we do nothing, Medicare taxes will have to be raised 125 percent, and seniors will face a 300 percent increase in annual premiums. Social Security is headed toward bankruptcy a little farther down the road, but if we do nothing, it will go broke. We can't continue the path we're on now.

I could stand here and name off a dozen programs that benefit the State of Nevada that I support and will be loathe to cut, but that will never solve the real budget problems we are facing. It's easy to name some unpopular, miniscule program which I could single out to get rid of and you would all applaud, but that won't balance the budget. Balancing the budget doesn't mean reducing spending. It doesn't even mean a freeze. It means restraining spending for seven years so natural revenue growth catches up with what we want to spend. It won't be easy and it will require difficult choices.

We, on the Appropriations Committee, will be asking ourselves if every program passes the federal spending test. Should this be a government program? Would the program be better served by a nonprofit or private business? Does the program symbolize the values of the nation? Could we make it more efficient, less expensive or more technologically advanced? Is there needless bureaucracy and duplication? And if the Federal Government should be involved in the program, we have to ask ourselves can we afford it and where is it on our priority list. These are the questions we are asking ourselves in Congress as we try to set a new direction for this nation. These are questions that every family that has to live within a budget asks itself on a daily basis. These are questions that Nevada state government asks itself as it operates under a balanced budget requirement.

Let me tell you what we've done in Washington. We started by cutting Congress first. We also passed a $17 billion cut in current year funding. We reformed welfare, we cut foreign aid, we're attacking corporate welfare and we're eliminating government agencies. If we create a more effective government, we'll need fewer tax dollars. We have the opportunity to do the right thing to bring federal spending under control. That will improve the lives of every single Nevadan and every single American. Or, we can turn our backs on the future and live for today, ringing up more and more debt that will be left for our children to pay off.

Balancing the budget will have a real impact on everyone's lives. If we balance the budget, experts say interest rates will decrease by 2 percent; 2 percent less for car loans, home mortgages, credit cards, new factories, new schools and bonds for new roads. Reducing interest rates by 2 percent would create 6,000,000 jobs in 10 years, increase per capita incomes 16 percent and generate $232 billion in additional revenues for state and local governments, without tax increases.

These are the goals we need to keep in mind as the great budget debate unwinds. As state legislators, you understand the political difficulty of what lies ahead. I hope that we will have your support in doing what must be done. It's as simple as this: we need to give more power back to the states and we need to reduce the growth in federal spending. I believe that was the message voters gave us last November. It will be a challenge. It won't be easy. I think we can make the necessary changes by working together for the good of Nevada and the country. With that, let me thank you for the opportunity to share my thoughts with you and now I'll let you get back to doing your job as I continue to do mine.

Senator Washington moved that the Senate and Assembly in Joint Session extend a vote of thanks to Representative Vucanovich for her timely, able and constructive message.

Motion carried.

The Committee on Escort escorted the Representative to the bar of the Assembly.

Assemblyman de Braga moved that the Joint Session be dissolved.

Motion carried.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen de Braga, Dini, Neighbors, Carpenter, Segerblom, Steel, Braunlin, Schneider, Harrington, Manendo, Price, Perkins, Ernaut, Stroth, Allard, Anderson, Humke, Chowning, Spitler, Sandoval, Fettic, Goldwater, Ohrenschall, Bennett, Freeman, Nolan, Krenzer, Marvel, Tripple, Bache, Lambert, Close and Giunchigliani:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 31—Urging the National Museum of the American Indian to return a portion of the tule duck decoys to the Department of Museums, Library and Arts of the State of Nevada.

Assemblyman de Braga moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Affairs.

Motion carried.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 22.

Assemblyman Price moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Price, Dini, Goldwater and Segerblom.

Assemblyman Stroth requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

I was fortunate at my very first session, that Mahlon was still here. He was a gentleman, and probably at that time the most knowledgeable on legislative procedure that we have ever had. As the resolution indicates, he was here through the evolution of our body into the modern age, including the years when the decisions were made for the creation of this building. He served two or three terms in this building.

He served as the Majority Leader for 10 years, longer than anyone else. That included the year we held an annual session. I always remember him saying he thought the annual session in 1960 was the most productive session we ever had. But seriously, he was the kind of person that everyone went to for advice and help. His door was never closed to anyone.

Mahlon was Justice of the Peace during the period when I first came to Las Vegas. I remember it being mentioned in the remarks of one of the senators, when Mahlon was being inducted into the Senate Hall of Fame, that Mahlon had presided at his marriage. This senator and his wife had been married 25 years or so at that point in time, so Mahlon must have done a good job of getting them together. During his time as Justice of the Peace, he presided at the marriages of famous movie stars such as Judy Garland, Hoot Gibson and Jean Tierney. He indicated that he had married up to 100 couples in a day. In Las Vegas, back in the 1950s, the position of Justice of the Peace was a very sought after position. He did an excellent job.

His legacy that is left today is one of the finest things he worked on behind the scenes. That was the creation of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He was a very big supporter of getting a university built in southern Nevada. It wasn't easy. At the time UNLV's construction was started, people wondered why it was being built so far out in the desert. He recognized what the growth in the area would be, and the need for the university. It was, indeed, a wonderful thing that he accomplished.

I was so fortunate to serve that one term with B. Mahlon Brown. After the first couple of terms here, I tried not to associate with the senators at the other end, but during Mahlon's time it was a pleasure and honor. I'm very pleased that we are honoring him and his family today. I have his son here with me and will be introducing B. Mahlon Brown, III in a few moments. I certainly urge you to support this resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this resolution. I served with Senator Mahlon Brown from 1967 through 1975. He was one of my mentors. I really enjoyed talking to Mahlon. He was always fair. He grew up in this system when there was one senator from each county. One county did not dominate our system, and he grew under that system.

He served as Minority Leader for three or four terms before he became Majority Leader. He knew the State of Nevada. His interests were about things from a statewide perspective and not about partisan politics. I don't think he was ever involved in any partisan politics during the years that I knew him. He was such a fair man.

In 1975, I was Majority Leader of the Assembly and he was Majority Leader of the Senate. We worked together with Speaker Ashworth to close the session. It was really my first time being involved with closing a session and I became very close to the man. Afterwards, he had kind words for me. Every now and then, I would receive a telephone call from him regarding a variety of issues. I have become very fond of his son, Mahlon. It was a great pleasure to serve with him, and if you had known him, you'd know what a great man he was. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOLDWATER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of this resolution. I knew Mahlon Brown as a constituent in Assembly District No. 10, but that is not where I was first fortunate enough to meet him.

After Mahlon Brown retired, I was a bank teller at First Interstate Bank, and he came in daily to do his banking. His gentle nature and kindness was evident. It is truly my honor to memorialize Mahlon Brown in this way. I wish to extend my support for this resolution, and my condolences to the family.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this resolution. I remember Mahlon Brown when he was a Justice of the Peace. He lived next door to my sister-in-law, and how she liked getting that dollar when she was a witness. Mahlon Brown, III used to run around the yard all the time and his dad would have a hard time getting him home. He liked my brother so well he didn't want to go home. I certainly rise in support of this, and I certainly hope all of you will, too. Thank you.

Resolution adopted.

Assemblyman Stroth moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Motion carried.

Assembly in recess at 12:28 p.m.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

SIGNING OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

There being no objections, the Speakers and Chief Clerk signed Assembly Bill No. 272; Senate Bill No. 367.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Stroth requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

SPEAKER HETTRICK:

What I would like to do now, if I may, is a special presentation. You may remember, last week we had Mr. Perkins do a presentation about his son, who had cancer. We have a young man seated at Mr. Perkins' desk today who is also battling cancer, and who is going to win that battle. I want you to meet him. His name is Brett Ruiz.

Brett is a brave young man who wants to become a police officer. Mr. Perkins, being a police officer from Henderson, has been very kind in helping us put together a presentation. I would like Mr. Perkins to do that now if he would.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It is indeed my great pleasure to do this. First of all, I'd like to say I'm honored, on behalf of my profession, that we have some great young people that would consider a profession in law enforcement.

We've been able to gather a few things, with the help of Mr. Speaker and others. We have framed patches and have Legislative Police pins that go with that. As well as that, I did bring back from the City of Henderson, after conferring with the Chief of Police there, some other things. As part of this presentation, Mr. Speaker, there is a letter I would like to read.

TO: BRETT RUIZ

FROM: TOMMY J. BURNS, Chief of Police

SUBJECT: Honorary Appointment

Because of your sincere interest in law enforcement, and your concern as a citizen of Nevada for the well-being of the community at large, as Chief of Police of Henderson, Nevada, I hereby, appoint you "Honorary Police Lieutenant" for the Henderson Police Department. Our prayers and well wishes are with you and your family, and the entire Henderson Police Department salutes you.

God bless you.

TOMMY J. BURNS, Chief of Police

With that, Mr. Speaker, it is important for me to point out that Brett now outranks me. At the swipe of a pen, I now have a new boss. Please help me welcome Brett here. We all know it is a tough battle, but one that can be won and we offer our encouragement to him in that direction. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

THE NINETY-FIFTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Thursday), April 20, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:03 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Freeman, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Ruth Hanusa.

Long ago the Prophet said, "A voice cries in Ramah: Rachel weeping for her children, and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more." O God, today we pray for children; children whose bodies have been torn apart and crushed; children missing; children abused and neglected; children homeless and hungry; children who will bear the burden of debt; and for the children of long ago, now grown, who are angered and saddened by the events of these days. Dear God, be with us as we grieve, bring healing and comfort, give strength to those whose lives must be rebuilt and surround us with Your loving embrace. On Your gracious mercy we rely. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

"2. [The director shall not release, in any files and records made available for the solicitation of another person to purchase a product or service, the social security number of any person.

3. The] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, the director may release information from a file or record relating to the driver's license, identification card or title or registration of a vehicle of a person if the requester submits a notarized release from the person about whom the information is requested which is dated no more than 90 days before the date of the request.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the director shall not release to any person who is not an officer or employee of a law enforcement agency:

(a) A list which includes license plate numbers combined with any other information in the records or files of the department;

(b) The social security number of any person, if it is requested to facilitate the solicitation of that person to purchase a product or service; or

(c) The name, address, telephone number or any other personally identifiable information if the information is requested by the presentation of a license plate number.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 5, the director shall not release:

(a) The name, residential address or telephone number of any individual person; or

(b) Residential information on any list of selected information, if the scope of the requested information is narrower than the entire data base, from a file or record relating to a driver's license, identification card or title or registration of a vehicle.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, if a person or governmental entity appears in person or by its representative, provides a description of the information requested and its proposed use and signs an affidavit to that effect, the director may release the name, residential address and telephone number of a person from a file or record relating to a driver's license, identification card or title or registration of a vehicle for use:

(a) By any governmental entity, including, but not limited to, any court or law enforcement agency, in carrying out its functions, or any person acting on behalf of a federal, state or local governmental agency in carrying out its functions. In addition, the director may, by regulation, establish a procedure whereby a governmental entity may retrieve such information electronically or by written request in lieu of a signed affidavit.

(b) In connection with any civil, criminal, administrative or arbitration proceeding before any federal or state court, regulatory body, board, commission or agency, including, but not limited to, use for service of process, investigation in anticipation of litigation and execution or enforcement of judgments and orders, or pursuant to an order of a federal or state court.

(c) In connection with matters relating to:

(1) The safety of drivers of motor vehicles;

(2) Thefts of motor vehicles;

(3) Emissions from motor vehicles;

(4) Alterations of products related to motor vehicles;

(5) An advisory notice relating to a motor vehicle or the recall of a motor vehicle;

(6) Monitoring the performance of motor vehicles;

(7) Parts or accessories of motor vehicles;

(8) Dealers of motor vehicles;

(9) Activities relating to research of the market for motor vehicles, such as the conducting of surveys; or

(10) Removal of nonowner records from the original records of motor vehicle manufacturers.

(d) By any insurer, self-insurer or organization that provides assistance or support to an insurer or self-insurer or its agents, employees or contractors, in connection with activities relating to the rating, underwriting or investigation of claims or the prevention of fraud.

(e) In providing notice to the owners of vehicles which have been towed, repossessed or impounded.

(f) By an employer or its agent or insurer to obtain or verify information relating to a holder of a commercial driver's license who is employed by or has applied for employment with the employer.

(g) By a person who is licensed pursuant to NRS 648.060, for any use permitted pursuant to this section. In addition, the director shall, by regulation, establish a procedure whereby such a person who has personally appeared before an employee of the department at least once may establish an account with the department to facilitate his ability to request information by telephone if he has submitted to the department proof of his licensure and a signed and notarized affidavit acknowledging:

(1) That he has read and fully understands the current laws and regulations regarding the manner in which information from the department's files and records may be obtained and the limited uses which are permitted;

(2) That he understands that any sale of information so obtained must be in accordance with the provisions of this section;

(3) That he understands that a record will be maintained by the department of any information he requests; and

(4) That he understands that a violation of the provisions of this section is a criminal offense.

6. A person who requests and receives information pursuant to subsection 5 may sell or disclose that information only for a use permitted pursuant to that subsection. Such a person must keep and maintain for a period of 2 years a record of:

(a) Each person to which the information is provided; and

(b) The purpose for which that person will use the information, which must, pursuant to a court order, be available for examination by the department at all reasonable times upon request.

7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the director may deny any private use of the files and records if he reasonably believes that the information taken may be used for:

(a) An illegal purpose; or

(b) An unwarranted invasion of a particular person's privacy.

[4.] 8. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 485.316, the director shall not allow any person to make use of information retrieved from the data base created pursuant to NRS 485.313 for a private purpose and shall not in any other way release any information retrieved from that data base.

[5.] 9. The director shall adopt such regulations as he deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

10. It is unlawful for any person to:

(a) Make a false representation to obtain any information from the files or records of the department.

(b) Knowingly obtain or disclose any information from the files or records of the department for any use not permitted by the provisions of this chapter.''.

Amend the bill as a whole by adding a new section designated sec. 2, following section 1, to read as follows:

''Sec. 2. NRS 483.916 is hereby amended to read as follows:

483.916 [Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary,] Except as otherwise provided in NRS 481.063, the department shall furnish full information regarding the driving record of any person to:

1. The driver's license administrator of any other state or of any province or territory of Canada who requests that information;

2. Any employer or prospective employer of that person upon his request and payment of a fee established in regulations adopted by the department; or

3. Any insurer upon its request and payment of a fee established in regulations adopted by the department if the insurer has complied with the provisions of NRS 485.314.''.

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

''An Act relating to motor vehicles; prohibiting the department of motor vehicles and public safety from disclosing the name, residential address or telephone number of a person for private use except under certain circumstances; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.''.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, April 21, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolutions Nos. 24, 25.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24.

Assemblyman Bennett moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Bennett, de Braga, Stroth and Harrington.

Assemblyman Nolan requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN BENNETT:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. The National Finals Rodeo has been one of the greatest events that has come to the State of Nevada. Unfortunately, it was marred by tragedy last December.

There are a lot of people in this Assembly and many people in this state that have strong feelings about the sport of rodeo. This is the least we can do for the greatest sacrifice a mother could ever make.

On a lighter side, in the spirit of our 21-21 split, I think it was a funny choice that I was asked to make this presentation. Since back in Oklahoma City, when we held the nationals many years ago, and being a native, I used to have box seats in the front row at the chutes. I think I'll yield the floor to other speakers that would care to make remarks.

ASSEMBLYMAN DE BRAGA:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24. The National Finals Rodeo is a wonderful event for the State of Nevada, and we did, as the former speaker said, "steal it from the State of Oklahoma." It has been great for the State of Nevada and the participants. Hopefully, it will not be diminished by this tragic event. We join with others in mourning the tragic loss of a fine competitor at such a young age. But, we still look forward to continuing this sport in the State of Nevada. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN STROTH:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of this resolution memorializing Brent Thurman.

We knew the Thurman family in Texas. My son, Trent, road bulls with Brent when he was 14. My husband played golf regularly with his dad. We were deeply grieved when Brent died, as we knew the emptiness and anguish that his family and friends were experiencing.

Brent's mom was concerned about his safety. Shortly before Brent died, he consoled his mother with these words, "Mom, God is with me when I'm sitting in a chair, and he is with me when I'm walking across the street. You have to look at it this way, if God wants to take me, it doesn't matter if I'm in a chair, asleep or walking. How many people can say they died doing what they loved to do?" Brent did die doing what he loved. It gives me great comfort to know that my son, Trent, has a friend like Brent with him now. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN HARRINGTON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I was a doctor at the University Medical Center, not the day he arrived, but subsequent days I worked there. I just want to commend his family. They brought a wonderful spirit of cooperation, hope and enthusiasm with them. I don't think the doctors and nurses pulled for any patient harder than they did for Mr. Thurman. They were really hoping a miracle would happen on behalf of the family who were so kind and courageous. I would like to commend them for their spirit while they were there.

KAY GOODNIGHT THURMAN:

I'm really at a loss over the kindness and love that can come out of a state. As someone who has visited Las Vegas, it is a city of bright lights, fun and gambling. You spend your money and you go home.

Until the tenth round of the National Finals, that was pretty much my impression of Las Vegas. We take pride in being Texans and a friendly state, but I was amazed at the outpouring of love, care, food, money and people. Whether they had $1 or $100, it made no difference, people were there with support.

We, as Texans, can only hope that we can show the support to someone from Nevada, Oklahoma City or wherever when the need arises. We will never, ever, as long as we live, be able to repay the kindness. Just know that Nevada will never again be bright lights and a fast way of life for us. Nevadans are loving, caring individuals that we will owe for the rest of our lives. From the bottom of my heart, I thank you for my son and our family. Thank you, so much.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Bennett moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Motion carried.

Assembly in recess at 11:27 a.m.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 143.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Government Affairs:

Amendment No. 339.

Amend section 1, page 1, line 11, by deleting "aviation field,".

Amend section 1, page 1, by deleting line 14 and inserting:

"2. If the county has a planning commission, the board shall refer the application to the planning commission which shall consider the application and submit its recommendation to the board.

3. The board shall hold at least one public hearing upon the application. Notice of the time and place of the hearing must be:

(a) Published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county;

(b) Mailed to all owners of record of real property located within 300 feet from the land proposed for conveyance; and

(c) Posted in a conspicuous place on the property and, in this case, must set forth additionally the extent of the application for conveyance.

The hearing must be held not less than 10 days nor more than 40 days after the notice is so published, mailed and posted.

4. The board may approve such an application after a hearing if".

Amend section 1, page 1, by deleting line 20 and inserting: "5. If the board approves such an application, it".

Amend section 1, page 2, line 1, by deleting "4." and inserting:

"6. The board shall prepare annually a list and description of any property conveyed to a nonprofit organization pursuant to this section for inclusion in the annual audit of the county conducted pursuant to NRS 354.624.

7.".

Amend section 1, page 2, between lines 5 and 6, by inserting:

"8. For the purposes of this section, "nonprofit organization" means an organization that is recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 in effect on October 1, 1995, future amendments to that section and the corresponding provisions of future internal revenue laws.".

Amend the bill as a whole by adding a new section designated sec. 3, following sec. 2, to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. NRS 354.624 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.624 1. Each local government shall provide for an annual audit of all of its:

(a) Funds;

(b) Account groups; and

(c) Separate accounts established pursuant to NRS 354.603.

A local government may provide for more frequent audits as it deems necessary. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, each annual audit must be concluded and the report of the audit submitted to the governing body as provided in subsection 5 not later than 5 months after the close of the fiscal year for which the audit is conducted. An extension of this time may be granted by the department of taxation to any local government which makes application for an extension. If the local government fails to provide for an audit in accordance with the provisions of this section, the department of taxation shall cause the audit to be made at the expense of the local government. All audits must be made by a public accountant certified or registered or by a partnership or professional corporation registered under the provisions of chapter 628 of NRS.

2. The annual audit of a school district must be concluded and the report submitted to the board of trustees as provided in subsection 5 not later than 4 months after the close of the fiscal year for which the audit is conducted.

3. The governing body may, without requiring competitive bids, designate the auditor or firm annually. The auditor or firm must be designated not later than 3 months before the close of the fiscal year for which the audit is to be made.

4. Each annual audit must cover the business of the local government during the full fiscal year. It must be a financial audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, including comment on compliance with statutes and regulations, recommendations for improvements and any other comments deemed pertinent by the auditor, including his expression of opinion on the financial statements. The form of the financial statements must be prescribed by the department of taxation, and the chart of accounts must be as nearly as possible the same as that used in the preparation and publication of the annual budget. [The] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, the report of the audit must include:

(a) A schedule of all fees imposed by the local government which were subject to the provisions of NRS 354.5989; and

(b) A comparison of operations of the local government with the approved budget and a statement from the auditor that previously noted deficiencies in operations and previously made recommendations for improvements contained in previous reports have been acted upon by adoption as recommended, adoption with modifications or rejection.

5. The report of the annual audit of a county must also include a list and description of any property conveyed to a nonprofit organization pursuant to section 1 of this act.

6. The recommendations and the summary of the narrative comments contained in the report of the audit must be read in full at a meeting of the governing body held not more than 30 days after the report is submitted to it. Immediately thereafter, the entire report, together with any related letter to the governing body required by generally accepted auditing standards or by regulations adopted pursuant to NRS 354.594, must be filed as a public record with:

(a) The clerk or secretary of the governing body;

(b) The county clerk;

(c) The department of taxation; and

(d) In the case of a school district, the department of education.

[6.] 7. The governing body shall act upon the recommendations of the report of the audit within 6 months after receipt of the report, unless prompter action is required concerning violations of law or regulation, by setting forth in its minutes its intention to adopt the recommendations, to adopt them with modifications or to reject them for reasons shown in the minutes.''.

"Sec. 15. NRS 482.423 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.423 1. When a new vehicle is sold in this state, the seller shall complete and execute a manufacturer's certificate of origin or a manufacturer's statement of origin and, unless the vehicle is sold to a licensed dealer, a dealer's report of sale. The dealer's report of sale must be in a form prescribed by the department and must include:

(a) A description of the vehicle;

(b) The name and address of the seller; and

(c) The name and address of the buyer.

If in connection with the sale a security interest is taken or retained by the seller to secure all or part of the purchase price, or a security interest is taken by a person who gives value to enable the buyer to acquire rights in the vehicle, the name and address of the secured party or his assignee must be entered on the dealer's report of sale and on the manufacturer's certificate or statement of origin.

2. Unless an extension of time is granted by the department, the seller shall:

(a) Submit the original of the dealer's report of sale and the manufacturer's certificate or statement of origin to the department within 20 days after the execution of the dealer's report of sale; and

(b) Furnish one copy of the report to the buyer.

One copy must be affixed to the right front windshield of the vehicle, which permits the vehicle to be operated for a period not to exceed [10] 20 days. Upon the issuance of the certificate of registration and license plates for the vehicle or the expiration of [10] 20 days after the sale, whichever occurs first, the buyer shall remove the copy from the windshield of the vehicle.

3. For the purposes of establishing compliance with the period required by paragraph (a) of subsection 2, the department shall use the date imprinted or otherwise indicated on the dealer's report of sale as the beginning date of the 20-day period.

4. The department shall furnish a special permit for use when a contract of sale is entered to enable the buyer to operate the vehicle for a period not to exceed 10 days. Upon execution of all required documents to complete the sale of a vehicle, the dealer shall remove this permit and execute a dealer's report of sale as required by this section.".

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen Braunlin, Brower, Buckley, Chowning, de Braga, Evans, Freeman, Giunchigliani, Krenzer, Lambert, Monaghan, Ohrenschall, Segerblom, Steel, Stroth, Tiffany, Tripple, Dini, Hettrick, Manendo, Goldwater, Close, Humke, Harrington, Williams, Bennett, Batten, Neighbors, Perkins, Spitler, Arberry, Price, Sandoval, Anderson, Schneider, Bache, Nolan, Allard, Carpenter, Fettic, Marvel and Ernaut:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25—Commemorates the 75th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

WHEREAS, In July 1848, the first Women's Rights Convention was held at Seneca Falls, New York, at which the Declaration of Sentiments was adopted, advocating, among other propositions, that women be granted the right to vote and stating "[w]e hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men and women are created equal"; and

WHEREAS, In the seven decades following the Women's Rights Convention, the proposition that women be granted the right to vote became a subject of heated public debate and discussion, upon which numerous marches were held and speeches were made, some nearly resulting in riots; and

WHEREAS, In 1890, Wyoming became the first state to grant women the right to vote, and in 1914, the women of Nevada were granted the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, In 1918, President Woodrow Wilson urged the Congress of the United States to adopt a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America granting the right to vote to all American women; and

WHEREAS, In 1918, the House of Representatives adopted a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America stating that "[t]he right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex"; and

WHEREAS, In 1919, the Senate adopted the proposed amendment and sent it to the states for ratification; and

WHEREAS, At the urging of Sadie Dotson Hurst, Nevada's first female legislator, the Honorable Emmet D. Boyle, Governor of the State of Nevada, called a special session of the Nevada Legislature for the purpose of ratifying the proposed amendment; and

WHEREAS, When the special session of the Legislature convened on February 7, 1920, Assemblywoman Hurst introduced Assembly Joint and Concurrent Resolution No. 1, ratifying the proposed amendment, and presided over the Assembly during the final consideration of the resolution; and

WHEREAS, In a special session lasting just over 4 hours, the Assembly passed the resolution ratifying the proposed amendment by a vote of 25 to 1, while the Senate passed the resolution unanimously; and

WHEREAS, Governor Boyle signed the resolution the same day, in the presence of Assemblywoman Hurst and many of the women in Nevada who had been instrumental in the fight for women's suffrage, making Nevada the 28th state to ratify the proposed amendment; and

WHEREAS, On August 26, 1920, the State of Tennessee became the 36th and final state to ratify the 19th Amendment; and

WHEREAS, The ratification of the 19th Amendment granted 26 million American women the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, The 19th Amendment was ratified before the presidential election of November 1920, allowing those 26 million American women to vote in that election, including 91-year-old Charlotte Woodward, the only surviving woman to have signed the Declaration of Sentiments 72 years earlier in Seneca Falls; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the Nevada Legislature and the citizens it represents commemorate the 75th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Nevada Legislature finds that the female voters of today are grateful for the courage, determination and persistence of our nation's great women who fought diligently for so many years to win the right to vote, including Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucretia Mott, Susan B. Anthony, Alice Paul, Carrie Chapman Catt and Anne Martin, a native Nevadan.

Assemblyman Evans moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Evans, Carpenter, Lambert, Krenzer, de Braga, Price, Segerblom, Chowning, Ohrenschall and Tiffany.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I recall some years ago having a conversation with my young daughter and some of her friends on the subject of voting. When I explained to them that women didn't always have the right to vote, they at first laughed. They thought that I was kidding. And then, I had to go and get some reference books to show them the 19th Amendment and convince them that this was, indeed, the case. Their humor turned to outrage because the young women today, I don't believe, can understand that they should not be on equal footing.

Winning the right to vote was a long and arduous struggle. Throughout the last half of the 19th and 20th centuries, women's suffrage was associated with a general effort to expand economical and political rights, emancipation, the populist movement and the settling of the frontier in a progressive era. We can all say with great pride that the West led the way, and indeed, by 1914, New Mexico was the only western state that had failed to give women the right to vote. It is both amazing and quaint to read the history of the suffrage movement and note some of the reasons and arguments against it. To wit: "Women's timidity and modesty require them to rely on the strength of men." "Giving women the quality of rights would threaten their character of dependence and weakness that has been ordained for their own protection." "Giving women the right to vote would dissolve the family union." And finally, my favorite, "The activities of politics and higher education will cause a woman's womb to shrink."

Those kinds of arguments seem very long ago and very much out of context with today's woman. But, I am proud to stand here in support of this resolution, Madam Speaker pro Tempore, it is a pleasure to see you standing at the rostrum and I urge support by this assembly. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I stand in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25. I don't want to get into the differences between men and women, but I do want to read a little story out of a book called Women's West. It is quite an interesting book and this little story is entitled simply "The Vote." "As I had been blessed with a more than usually harmonious marriage, and enjoyed the natural ability to express my ideas on paper in a somewhat marked degree, it devolved upon me to voice the opinions of many women who were too timid or were not allowed by their husbands to speak for themselves." stated Abigail Scott Duniway, considered the person most responsible for bringing the right to vote to the western woman.

Abigail was born in 1834 on an Illinois farm. One of her earliest memories was of her mother saying upon the birth of her ninth child, "Poor baby, she'll be a woman some day and a woman's lot is so hard."

In 1852 the family came west over the Oregon Trail. Abigail married, had four children and wrote a small novel, Captain Gray's Companion. She helped establish the Oregon State Equal Suffrage Association, founded a newspaper dedicated to equal rights and began touring six western states, traveling by horseback, stagecoach, riverboat and rail. She recalled, "It was no small task to travel, often by night, over the terrible roads of the Pacific Northwest, lecturing from three to five evenings every week."

Abigail reached men through their mothers, wives and daughters; preaching to the women, "All the laws recognize the husband and wife as one, and the husband is that one. The wife is legally dead. Now is the time for women to rise up and secure their full and complete enfranchisement."

The women of Wyoming were the first to be given equal political rights in 1869, followed by Colorado in 1893 and three years later by Utah and Idaho. The men of Oregon finally succumbed to Abigail and the times, granting women the right to vote in 1912. Nevada joined two years later, in 1914. Madam Speaker pro Tempore, I rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25.

ASSEMBLYMAN LAMBERT:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I am grateful that you didn't say "elder" or anything else like that. That is truly appreciated. Thank you. It is appropriate on the 75th anniversary of women's suffrage that women today who enjoy the right to vote give some thanks to women of the past who worked so hard to get that right for us.

I would also like to point out to this body that back in 1920, in a special session when Nevada approved the proposed amendment, that the session only lasted four hours. I think that was probably the birth of efficient and effective government in Nevada.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25. It is indeed an honor for me to rise before this body. It is also an honor for each one of us to sit in these chairs and to press these buttons. My great-great grandmother and great grandmother were not extended the privilege to do that, or to run for an office.

The Nevada Citizen, published in 1897, printed the words of Florence Williamson who said, "There is no meaning in life except development; conscientious, progressive development. We ask no compliment, because we are women. We ask justice, because we are human. Carrie Chapman Catt came to Nevada in 1920 when the petition was finally passed, 75 years ago, and said, "We are no longer petitioners, but free and equal citizens. Let us do our part to keep it a true and triumphant democracy. Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore.

ASSEMBLYMAN DE BRAGA:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25, the resolution commemorating the 75th anniversary of women being granted the right to vote.

No one knows for sure when, in the evolutionary process, instinct turned to reason and thought, but a good estimate is that it took men some 48,000 years to conclude that women are on the same level with them intellectually. I like that affirmation of equal footing.

I hate stories like the one where the reporter said to Winston Churchill, "What do you say, sir, to the prediction that in the year 2000, women will be running the world?" Churchill is said to have replied, "They still will, eh?" I hate the fact that there's a women's caucus. I hate the fact that women were ever thought to be the lesser of the sexes by virtue of being the weaker of the sexes.

This myth was invented by the caveman, Smiling Simeon, the very night he discovered there was a difference between the two. Simeon found, quite by accident, that he could satisfy his craving for salt by licking his neighbor's cheek. Simeon also discovered that it was a lot more satisfying if the neighbor was a female. Then, everybody forgot about the salt.

I hate it that some time, in antiquity, it was determined that the standard for excellence was physical strength, and that the measure of superiority was control.

The 19th Amendment is not about voting. It is about equality. And, as we recognize this particular milestone, we must also recognize that it was simply a step, but it was not a journey completed. The journey will end only when men and women learn to respect the God-given right of each of us; not only to act like idiots, Lord knows, we've had 48,000 years of that, but the unconditional right to have equal control over our lives.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25. I am very proud and happy to be able to be here supporting this resolution today. I have asked for our research library to send over some material, and I got all kinds of great stuff for reading.

I am fortunate that I came to Nevada 40 years ago from the state that was first to grant women suffrage, Wyoming, and Nevada followed not too far behind. When we were talking about the western states leading the way, I read just a little about the reason for that. One of the political reasons was that men were hoping to get more women out West to join them. It was certainly a good move on their part. Along with the right to vote were many other rights that were established for women, including the right to serve on juries.

Most of you know I am married to a very fine elected official, and one year for her birthday I thought I would get a newspaper from New Jersey where she was born. I decoupaged a little table for her with this newspaper from the day she was born. On top of the table, was the story saying that on the day she was born they passed the law to allow women to serve on a jury in New Jersey. So, it hasn't been all that long ago. I was reading some of the arguments that were being quoted earlier, in 1920, in the halls across the parkway, and one of the arguments from Abner Cleveland, who was a legislator from Roop and Washoe counties and was not in support of allowing the vote. His argument was that God himself established the women's sphere, and it is not for men to question the wisdom of God. Women should not have the right to vote, God said so. However, fortunately, he must have been getting his message from somewhere else and I have been fortunate to serve with many fine women legislators during my time here. I'm glad that we are passing this resolution in your honor today.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. On a lighter side, I must support Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25. Many of you don't realize that it is a wonder that I'm here because my grandfather, Johnny Bell, a minister from Humboldt County, voted against women's suffrage in 1913. But, you know what I read in the paper? He took the train to San Francisco. He did not go back to Winnemucca. But, the women got him the next election, so I'm here.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHOWNING:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore, and what a pleasure it is to be able to say "Madam Speaker pro Tempore." I am just so grateful to be a member of this honorable body, and being the mother of three daughters, I have, along with a wonderful husband, raised them to be fiercely independent and to be able to feel that they have the opportunity to pursue whatever path they wish; to take and pursue whatever career they wish. But, just think about that. Our grandmothers did not have that opportunity. And, we take it for granted. I just can't tell you how honored I am to be able to be a member of this body and work so closely and so positively with my fellow male colleagues and my female colleagues. I just want to tell you that my co-chairman of Transportation is ever so grateful to have the opportunity to work with his female counterparts. He told me so.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25 because I feel the ideals of universal suffrage and socio-economic equality constitute a sacred trust that we must all pass on to our daughters, but also to our sons. It is something that they are both beneficiaries of, and we must let them know the benefits of it. Thank you.

Speaker pro Tempore Tiffany requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

I think it's worth noting that Nevada has gotten behind the 19th Amendment program. Women have at one time or another been elected to four of our six constitutional offices. One of our two representatives in the House of Representatives is a woman. We have two Speakers pro Tempore, an Assistant Floor Leader and an Assistant Whip who are women. The Minority Leader and the Majority Leader of the Senate are women. Seventeen of 42 members of the Assembly and five of the 21 members of the Senate are women. Our woman Chief Clerk and her staff make it possible for the legislature to function every day. Twelve women chair or co-chair committees of the Assembly and the Senate. Two of our largest cities have women who are mayors and many other elected officials at the local level. And, it won't be long, my gentlemen colleagues, before from Washington, D.C., we will be hearing the term Madam President.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Krenzer moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 25 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried unanimously.

By the Committee on Elections and Procedures:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 26—Congratulating Dr. Charles Elachi for being selected as the recipient of the Nevada Medal given by the Desert Research Institute and sponsored by Nevada Bell.

WHEREAS, Scientists have made extraordinary advances in understanding the earth's environment largely because of the breakthroughs in radar technology which allow scientists to view the Earth from space; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Charles Elachi has been a dominant figure in the development of the remote sensing technologies that have made these important breakthroughs possible; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Elachi began his advanced education in Grenoble, France, where he earned his Bachelor's Degrees in physics and engineering; and

WHEREAS, After receiving Master's Degrees in electrical science, geology and business administration, Dr. Elachi received his Doctorate in electrical sciences from the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena in 1971; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Elachi has continued to work for NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena and is the Assistant Laboratory Director for Space Science and Instruments; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Elachi is a member of the National Academy of Engineering and a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, holds four patents for his work and is the author of more than 200 publications, including six books; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Elachi's design and development of the Shuttle Imaging Radar-A, known widely by the acronym SIR-A, was carried on the second test flight of the space shuttle Columbia in November 1981; and

WHEREAS, Features of the Earth's surface were delineated in great detail by SIR-A, and in the extremely dry areas of the eastern Sahara Desert, the radar system penetrated the surface sand sheets to a depth of several meters revealing rock, alluvial deposits and drainage structures, all quite undetectable from surface indication or from more conventional imaging; and

WHEREAS, SIR-B, an imaging radar system of yet greater capability, provided surface images at a variety of incidence angles and illumination geometries, making possible the construction of stereoscopic images from the data; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Elachi has recently been selected as the Radar Team Leader for the Cassini mission to Saturn and he is the principal investigator on the development of the SIR-C, an even more capable system; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Elachi's achievements and continuing contributions in this advanced technology have been recognized and he is being honored this year as the recipient of the Nevada Medal, which includes a $5,000 prize; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Medal is an honor conferred by the Desert Research Institute of the University and Community College System of Nevada in recognition of outstanding scientific, engineering and technical achievements; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Medal is sponsored by Nevada Bell, a member of the Pacific Telesis group and provider of a variety of telecommunication services to northern Nevada; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature hereby congratulate Dr. Charles Elachi for being named the recipient of the 1995 Nevada Medal given by the Desert Research Institute; and be it further

RESOLVED, That Nevada Bell is hereby commended for their continued sponsorship of this medal, which offers well-deserved recognition to persons who have demonstrated outstanding scientific, engineering and technical achievements; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Dr. Charles Elachi.

Assemblyman Giunchigliani moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Giunchigliani and Dini.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I would offer my congratulations as well, but I offer my time to Speaker Dini. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. It is indeed my honor to have seated with me, Doctor Charles Elachi and his wife. First, let me describe the Nevada Medal which he received. It's a national award given annually by the Desert Research Institute to recognize and stimulate outstanding scientific, engineering and technical achievements that have contributed to improved understanding of our global environment. The Desert Research Institute is a nonprofit arm of the University Nevada system, which is statewide and has high esteem throughout the world. Dr. Charles Elachi, who will receive the 1995 Nevada Medal, has been a dominant figure in the development of the remote sensing technologies that have made these important breakthroughs possible. For more than 20 years, Dr. Elachi has conceived, designed and constructed instrumentation to take advantage of orbiting satellites and space shuttle flights. What's good for the earth is appropriate for other planets, too, and he is also applying his efforts to interplanetary exploratory missions.

Last spring and this fall, new earth observing radar techniques developed under Dr. Elachi's direction provided the world with stunning images of the earth from orbiting space shuttles. Some of these exciting views were beamed virtually direct to evening news programs, and the data bases acquired during the flights will require another generation of researchers to exhaust.

Dr. Elachi works out of NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena, where he received his Ph.D. in electrical sciences in 1971. He has also earned three master's degrees in electrical science, geology and business administration, after earning his bachelor's degree in physics at the University of Grenoble, and a Diploma Ing. in engineering from the Institute Polytechnique de Grenoble, both in France. Dr. Elachi is currently JPL, Cal Tech's assistant laboratory director for space science and instruments.

Among many other honors and accomplishments, he is a member of the National Academy of Engineering, a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers, holds four patents for his work and has authored more than 200 publications, including six books. So now you can understand that we are honoring here, today, a man with significant contributions to the world's betterment. I strongly support the adoption of this resolution. Thank you.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Giunchigliani moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 26 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried unanimously.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, April 27, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 24.

Resolution read.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 350.

Amend the resolution, page 2, by deleting lines 7 through 24 and inserting:

"3. Reduce the sum of money authorized for the South Fork State Recreation Area by $42,231;

4. Reduce the sum of money authorized for the Washoe Lake State Park by $27,667;

5. Reduce the sum of money authorized for the Ward Charcoal Ovens State Historic Park by $23,731;

6. Increase the sum of money authorized for the Kershaw Canyon-Ryan State Park by $28,977;

7. Increase the sum of money authorized for the Spring Mountain Ranch State Park by $8,081;

8. Increase the sum of money authorized for the Valley of Fire State Park by $4,448;

9. Increase the sum of money authorized for the Big Bend of the Colorado State Recreation Area by $2,962;

10. Increase the sum of money authorized for the Floyd R. Lamb State Park by $15,311; and

11. Increase the sum of money authorized for the Cathedral Gorge State Park by $129,875;".

Assemblyman Arberry moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Arberry.

Amendment adopted.

Resolution ordered reprinted and engrossed.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26.

Assemblyman Hettrick moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Hettrick, Close, Price, Giunchigliani and Anderson.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

SPEAKER HETTRICK:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. One hundred years ago, Henry Ford built his very first automobile. He called it a quadricycle. After selling this unpublicized car, the 32-year-old inventor went on to build a second. Ten years later, the Piquette Avenue plant in Detroit was gearing up to produce the first assembly line car, the venerable Model T.

Prior to the mass-produced automobile, people relied on public transportation, horses and horse-drawn conveyences, or bicycles. The motorcar opened new vistas for Americans, both in moving goods more conveniently as well as creating personal mobility.

It wasn't until after World War II that the automobile became an icon for success in America. Each manufacturer ballyhooed the style and change for the coming year, not unlike women's fashions. Excessive chrome and size were the hallmarks of the 1950s automobiles. In the sixties, power became the status symbol for automobiles with hemi engines, Cobras and pony cars leading the field and vying for personal choice.

We saw the 1970s bring about gas rationing, which caused the auto industry to think about "down-sizing" their products. But Americans still preferred the well-known American car, the land-yacht. As the 1980s drew to an end, the economy car began to find a niche in American garages. But for sheer fun, a collector shared space for leisure time activities and a growing segment of our American population.

Today, as we honor the collector car hobby, we note the beneficial impact this specialized interest has had in our state. Nearly every parade in Nevada has featured vintage cars carrying dignitaries as part of the event. Those vehicles are always donated by their owners who are most proud of those automobiles. Charitable shows, rides in convertibles for the elderly, and Reno's own, Hot August Nights are testimonials to the popularity and impact of the collector car within this state. How fitting today, nearly 100 years from the time that one of the very first automobiles was created, we pay tribute to the families, the individuals and the collectors who strive to keep a part of history alive and enjoyable for everyone else. It's a hobby of sharing. A point of nostalgia. Our lives are just a little bit richer for being part of the collector car experience.

I want to tell you, it is a privilege for me to support this resolution. I am the proud owner and current "would-be" builder of a 1937 Ford. I believe the collector car and antique automobiles are, indeed, an important part of our economy and well worth our time and effort. Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I would like to rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26. As a proud owner of a 1956 Thunderbird, which doesn't see much light of day, and for the time and effort I put forth to create my car, I'm sure if we multiplied that by time people put in their cars, you would be amazed at the number of hours that are spent on them.

I agree with Speaker Hettrick on the great asset this is to our community, both in the north and the south, and the economic development which it provides to our great State of Nevada. I think to car collectors it is more than a hobby. It is a past, a love and part of our culture, of our society. Without that, I think we would be surely remiss by not having this available to us. I would surely encourage each of you to see the vehicles which are on the grounds of this building today, so you can see the time and effort these individuals have put in their cars. Likewise, they are being presented at the Sawyer Office Building at the same time they are being shown today. I would say with a little bit of encouragement, if my bill passes, many of these cars will have the classic vehicle license plates on them, also. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26. I'm proud to also own a collector car, a very special car, my 1966 Ford. I forgot about the cars being outside this morning. Someone suggested that, if perhaps, we take a one minute recess, I could take my car out and put it with the other collector cars. It represents the type of collector's item that a legislator can afford after serving here as long as I have. You can look forward to that, Mr. Close. I do think it is wonderful that we are recognizing this very fine hobby this morning. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26. I happen to be the owner of a 1940 Chevy. Unfortunately, it will not qualify for my co-chair's bill, because it is a hot rod. It has a 350 Corvette engine and a Chevy Nova front end which makes it not a classic. But, my husband and I do own a 1967 Pontiac Bonneville convertible which qualifies. I will support this resolution. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26. Since I have the attention of so many collectors, may I inquire if anyone out there would know where I might find a wand indicator light for my 1961 Morris Minor? Thank you.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, April 27, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 27.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 27.

Assemblyman Krenzer moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Krenzer, Dini, Buckley, Hettrick, Segerblom, Giunchigliani and Price.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. In 1791, the bicameral system was setup with the Senate and the House. So apparently, not to be out done, our Senators have sent us over a resolution also commemorating this day. However, I do want to applaud their efforts. This is also done in conjunction with the National Foundation of Women Legislators and I do support this resolution. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I guess I've served with 75 percent of the ladies that served in this house the last 30 years. So, does that give me the privilege to speak one more time?

As you know, we had two distinguished lady legislators here with us today, Jean Ford and Sue Wagner. They really are people that are close to my heart in all the years that I've served here. They both represented the height of integrity and the desire to have high ethics in these chambers. They always fought for that. They were excellent legislators. They did their homework. They worked hard to make these houses look respectable and to be honored throughout our country.

There is a lady that was not mentioned this morning that I served my first term with. She was from Clark County. Her name was Flora Dungan. She was really a feisty little lady. She caused reapportionment when she filed a suit in 1965 and caused the 1966 reapportionment. I served on the Elections Committee with her. It was a five-man committee; three Democrats and two Republicans. We had a lot more committees in those days, but smaller numbers on them. She taught me the art of being a committee chairman. She showed me how you worked the system to get what you wanted. She fought Governor Laxalt at that time over the 18-year-old voting. Of course, Governor Laxalt had put that in his State of the State as a priority. However, the Democrats thought it was their priority, so it didn't get passed that year.

I have been impressed with the women that I have served with in these chambers over the years. I think we should pay honor to the ladies that have served in these chambers in the past 100 years.

ASSEMBLYMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of this resolution. And, I think it only appropriate in addition to honoring Flora Dungan, Sue Wagner and Jean Ford, strong women who have paved the way, to recognize three other women legislators: Joan Lambert, Jan Evans and Vivian Freeman who have served in this body for quite a number of terms and who, along with these other ladies, have paved the way, especially for us freshmen women legislators. I'd like to thank them.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 27. I just wanted to tell you that I thought I deserved honorable mention because about a third of my mail comes to Assemblywoman Lynn Hettrick.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I must rise in support of this resolution because my mother served here before Joe Dini. In 1935, my mother, Hazel Bell Wines, was in this Assembly chamber even though my grandpa voted against women's right to vote.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 27. I would like to mention two other ladies that I think helped pave the way. Mary Gojack; many of us may have known Mary for years, and I think she truly was a pioneer. Also, the woman that I succeeded, who many of you know, Eileen Brookman. She sends her fond hellos. She was my assemblywoman, and hopefully, I have followed in her footsteps. However, I've never cut off Mr. Speaker's tie as she has been known to do.

I think it's also appropriate for us women to thank the men we serve with as well. We do appreciate your support. We sure hope that you will show up tonight. You are welcome to the dinner as Ms. Krenzer informed you. You are now kept men; you did come cheap. Thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, had the honor of serving with all of the above-mentioned that we have been talking about except Helen, who left, I believe, the session before I got here. But I have to say, every woman legislator that comes to my mind has been an excellent representative. And I can remember one who actually used to try to read all of the bills, which is something very few of us guys do. But, I mean seriously, she tried to go through everything. They have all been hard working and have served us well, and I'm proud to have had the opportunity to be sharing my period of time with all of those wonderful people.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assembly Bill No. 84.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 321.

Amend section 1, page 1, line 7, by deleting the semicolon and inserting: "[;] or the crime is an act which constitutes domestic violence as set forth in NRS 33.018;".

Amend section 1, page 1, by deleting lines 15 through 25 and inserting:

"4. The alcoholic or drug addict has a record of [one] two or more convictions of a crime described in subsection 1 or 2, a similar crime in violation of the laws of another state, or of [two] three or more convictions of any felony;

5. Other criminal proceedings alleging commission of a felony are pending against the alcoholic or drug addict;

6. The alcoholic or drug addict is on probation or parole and the appropriate parole or probation authority does not consent to the election; or

7. The alcoholic or drug addict elected and was admitted, pursuant to NRS 458.290 to 458.350, inclusive, to a program of treatment not more than twice within the preceding 5 years.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sec. 2 as sec. 4 and adding new sections, designated sections 2 and 3, following section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. NRS 458.320 is hereby amended to read as follows:

458.320 1. If the court, after a hearing, determines that a person is entitled to accept the treatment offered pursuant to NRS 458.310, the court shall order an approved facility for the treatment of abuse of alcohol or drugs to conduct an examination of the person to determine whether he is an alcoholic or drug addict and is likely to be rehabilitated through treatment. The facility shall report to the court the results of the examination and recommend whether the person should be placed under supervision for treatment.

2. If the court, acting on the report or other relevant information, determines that the person is not an alcoholic or drug addict, is not likely to be rehabilitated through treatment or is otherwise not a good candidate for treatment, he may be sentenced and the sentence executed.

3. If the court determines that the person is an alcoholic or drug addict, is likely to be rehabilitated through treatment and is a good candidate for treatment, the court may:

(a) Impose any conditions to the election of treatment that could be imposed as conditions of probation;

(b) Defer sentencing until such time, if any, as sentencing is authorized pursuant to NRS 458.330; and

(c) Place the person under the supervision of an approved facility for treatment for not less than 1 year nor more than 3 years.

The court may require such progress reports on the treatment of the person as it deems necessary.

4. A person who is placed under the supervision of an approved facility for treatment shall pay the cost of the program of treatment to which he is assigned and the cost of any additional supervision that may be required, to the extent of his financial resources. The court may issue a judgment in favor of the court or facility for treatment for the costs of the treatment and supervision which remain unpaid at the conclusion of the treatment. Such a judgment constitutes a lien in like manner as a judgment for money rendered in a civil action, but in no event may the amount of the judgment include any amount of the debt which was extinguished by the successful completion of community service pursuant to subsection 5.

5. If the person who is placed under the supervision of an approved facility for treatment does not have the financial resources to pay all of the related costs:

(a) The court shall, to the extent practicable, arrange for the person to be assigned to a program at a facility that receives a sufficient amount of federal or state funding to offset the remainder of the costs; and

(b) The court may order the person to perform supervised work for the benefit of the community in lieu of paying the remainder of the costs relating to his treatment and supervision. The work must be performed for and under the supervising authority of a county, city, town or other political subdivision or agency of the State of Nevada or a charitable organization that renders service to the community or its residents. The court may require the person to deposit with the court a reasonable sum of money to pay for the cost of policies of insurance against liability for personal injury and damage to property or for industrial insurance, or both, during those periods in which the person performs the work, unless, in the case of industrial insurance, it is provided by the authority for which he performs the work.

6. No person may be placed under the supervision of a facility under this section unless the facility accepts him for treatment.

Sec. 3. NRS 458.330 is hereby amended to read as follows:

458.330 1. Whenever a person is placed under the supervision of a treatment facility, his sentencing must be deferred, and , except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, his conviction must be set aside if the treatment facility certifies to the court that he has satisfactorily completed the treatment program, and the court approves the certification and determines that the conditions upon the election of treatment have been satisfied.

2. If, upon the expiration of the treatment period, the treatment facility has yet to certify that the person has completed his treatment program, the court shall sentence him. If he has satisfied the conditions to the election of treatment and the court believes that he will complete his treatment on a voluntary basis, it may, in its discretion, set the conviction aside.

3. If, before the treatment period expires, the treatment facility determines that the person is not likely to benefit from further treatment at the facility, it shall so advise the court. The court shall then:

(a) Arrange for the transfer of the person to a more suitable treatment facility, if any; or

(b) Terminate the supervision and conduct a hearing to determine whether the person should be sentenced.

Whenever a person is sentenced under this section, time spent in institutional care must be deducted from any sentence imposed.

4. Regardless of whether the person successfully completes treatment, the court shall not set aside the conviction of a person who has a record of two or more convictions of any felony.".

Amend sec. 2, page 2, line 1, by deleting "The" and inserting "1. The".

Amend sec. 2, page 2, after line 4, by inserting:

"2. The amendatory provisions of section 2 of this act do not apply to a criminal offender whose criminal conduct occurred before October 1, 1995.

3. The amendatory provisions of section 3 of this act do not apply to a criminal offender who was assigned to a program of treatment pursuant to NRS 453.580 before October 1, 1995.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to civil commitment; revising the circumstances under which an alcoholic or a drug addict convicted of a crime is eligible to elect treatment for the abuse of alcohol or drugs before sentencing; requiring such a person to pay for that treatment to the extent of his financial resources; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

"Summary—Revises provisions governing placement of criminal offenders in programs of treatment for abuse of alcohol and drugs before sentencing. (BDR 40-234)".

Assembly Bill No. 131.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 270.

Amend sec. 2, page 1, by deleting lines 4 through 8 and inserting: "interfaced similar games which are located at two or more licensed gaming establishments that are linked to conduct gaming activities, contests or tournaments.".

Amend sec. 3, page 1, line 13, by deleting the period and inserting: ", and who is authorized to share in the revenue from the linked games without having been individually licensed to conduct gaming at the establishment.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 8 through 10 as sections 9 through 11 and adding a new section designated sec. 8, following sec. 7, to read as follows:

"Sec. 8. NRS 463.0157 is hereby amended to read as follows:

463.0157 1. "Gaming employee" means any person connected directly with an operator of a slot route, the operator of a pari-mutuel system , the operator of an inter-casino linked system or a manufacturer, distributor or disseminator, or with the operation of a gaming establishment licensed to conduct any game, 16 or more slot machines, a race book, sports pool or pari-mutuel wagering, including:

(a) Accounting or internal auditing personnel who are directly involved in any recordkeeping or the examination of records associated with revenue from gaming;

(b) Boxmen;

(c) Cashiers;
(d) Change personnel;
(e) Counting room personnel;
(f) Dealers;
(g) Employees of a person required by NRS 464.010 to be licensed to operate an off-track pari-mutuel system;
(h) Employees of a person required by NRS 463.430 to be licensed to disseminate information concerning racing;
(i) Employees of manufacturers or distributors of gaming equipment within this state whose duties are directly involved with the manufacture, repair or distribution of gaming equipment;
(j) Employees of operators of slot routes who have keys for slot machines or who accept and transport revenue from the slot drop;
(k) Employees of operators of inter-casino linked systems;
(l) Floormen;
[(l)] (m) Hosts or other persons empowered to extend credit or complimentary services;
[(m)] (n) Keno runners;
[(n)] (o) Keno writers;
[(o)] (p) Machine mechanics;
[(p)] (q) Odds makers and line setters;
[(q)] (r) Security personnel;
[(r)] (s) Shift or pit bosses;
[(s)] (t) Shills;
[(t)] (u) Supervisors or managers; and
[(u)] (v) Ticket writers.
2. "Gaming employee" does not include bartenders, cocktail waitresses or other persons engaged exclusively in preparing or serving food or beverages.".

Amend sec. 8, page 2, line 16, by deleting the period and inserting: "[.] , except that losses in a contest or tournament conducted in conjunction with an inter-casino linked system may be deducted to the extent of the compensation received for the right to participate in that contest or tournament.".

Amend sec. 8, page 2, line 23, by deleting the semicolon and inserting: "[;] , except for a contest or tournament conducted in conjunction with an inter-casino linked system;".

Amend sec. 9, page 3, line 7, after "device," by inserting: "inter-casino linked system,".

Amend sec. 10, page 3, lines 36 and 37, by deleting: "on the system." and inserting: "from the linked games.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 11 through 14 as sections 13 through 16 and adding a new section designated sec. 12, following sec. 10, to read as follows:

"Sec. 12. NRS 463.370 is hereby amended to read as follows:

463.370 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 463.373, the commission shall charge and collect from each licensee a license fee based upon all the gross revenue of the licensee as follows:

Three percent of all the gross revenue of the licensee which does not exceed $50,000 per calendar month;

Four percent of all the gross revenue of the licensee which exceeds $50,000 per calendar month and does not exceed $134,000 per calendar month; and

Six and one-quarter percent of all the gross revenue of the licensee which exceeds $134,000 per calendar month.

2. Unless the licensee has been operating for less than a full calendar month, the commission shall charge and collect the fee prescribed in subsection 1, based upon the gross revenue for the preceding calendar month, on or before the 24th day of the following month. Except for the fee based on the first full month of operation, the fee is an estimated payment of the license fee for the third month following the month whose gross revenue is used as its basis.

3. When a licensee has been operating for less than a full calendar month, the commission shall charge and collect the fee prescribed in subsection 1, based on the gross revenue received during that month, on or before the 24th day of the following calendar month of operation. After the first full calendar month of operation, the commission shall charge and collect the fee based on the gross revenue received during that month, on or before the 24th day of the following calendar month. The payment of the fee due for the first full calendar month of operation must be accompanied by the payment of a fee equal to three times the fee for the first full calendar month. This additional amount is an estimated payment of the license fees for the next three calendar months. Thereafter, each license fee must be paid in the manner described in subsection 2. Any deposit held by the commission on July 1, 1969, must be treated as an advance estimated payment.

4. All revenue received from any game or gaming device which is [leased for operation on the premises of the licensee-owner to a person other than the owner thereof, or located in an area or space on the premises which is leased by the licensee-owner to any such person, must be attributed to the owner for the purposes of this section and be counted as part of the gross revenue of the owner. The lessee is liable to the owner for his proportionate share of the license fees.] operated on the premises of a licensee, regardless of whether any portion of the revenue is shared with any other person, must be attributed to the licensee for the purposes of this section and counted as part of the gross revenue of the licensee. Any other person who is authorized to receive a share of the revenue is liable to the licensee for his proportionate share of the license fees paid pursuant to this section.

5. Any person required to pay a fee pursuant to this section shall file with the commission, on or before the 24th day of each calendar month, a report showing the amount of all gross revenue received during the preceding calendar month. Each report must be accompanied by:

(a) The fee due based on the revenue of the month covered by the report; and

(b) An adjustment for the difference between the estimated fee previously paid for the month covered by the report, if any, and the fee due for the actual gross revenue earned in that month. If the adjustment is less than zero, a credit must be applied to the estimated fee due with that report.

6. If the amount of license fees required to be reported and paid pursuant to this section is later determined to be greater or less than the amount actually reported and paid by the licensee, the commission shall:

(a) Charge and collect the additional license fees determined to be due, with interest thereon until paid; or

(b) Refund any overpayment, with interest thereon, to the licensee.

Interest must be computed at the rate prescribed in NRS 17.130 from the first day of the first month following either the due date of the additional license fees or the date of overpayment until paid.

7. Failure to pay the fees provided for in this section shall be deemed a surrender of the license at the expiration of the period for which the estimated payment of fees has been made, as established in subsection 2.

8. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 463.386, the amount of the fee prescribed in subsection 1 must not be prorated.

9. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 463.386, if a licensee ceases operation, the commission shall:

(a) Charge and collect the additional license fees determined to be due with interest; or

(b) Refund any overpayment, with interest thereon, to the licensee, based upon the gross revenue of the licensee during the last 3 months immediately preceding the cessation of operation, or portions of those last 3 months.

10. If in any month, the amount of gross revenue is less than zero, the licensee may offset the loss against gross revenue in succeeding months until the loss has been fully offset.

11. If in any month, the amount of the license fee due is less than zero, the licensee is entitled to receive a credit against any license fees due in succeeding months until the credit has been fully offset.''.

Amend sec. 11, page 4, by deleting lines 10 through 13 and inserting: ''of a payout from a game played in an inter-casino linked system except for a payout made in conjunction with a card game. The amount of the deduction must be determined based upon the written agreement among the licensed gaming establishments participating in the inter-casino linked system and the operator of the system. All cash prizes and the value of noncash prizes awarded during a contest or tournament conducted in conjunction with an inter-casino linked system are also deductible on a pro rata basis to the extent of the compensation received for the right to participate in that contest or tournament. The deductions may be taken only by those participating licensed gaming establishments that held an active gaming''.

"Sec. 24. Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 125 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. NRS 62.211 is hereby amended to read as follows:

62.211 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 62.212, if the court finds that a child is within the purview of this chapter it shall so decree and may:

(a) Place the child under supervision in his own home or in the custody of a suitable person elsewhere, upon such conditions as the court may determine. A program of supervision in the home may include electronic surveillance of the child. The legislature declares that a program of supervision that includes electronic surveillance is intended as an alternative to commitment and not as an alternative to probation, informal supervision or a supervision and consent decree.

(b) Commit the child to the custody of a public or private institution or agency authorized to care for children, or place him in a home with a family. In committing a child to a private institution or agency the court shall select one that is required to be licensed by the department of human resources to care for such children, or, if the institution or agency is in another state, by the analogous department of that state. The court shall not commit a female child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Caliente youth center, and shall not commit a male child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Nevada youth training center.

(c) Order such medical, psychiatric, psychological or other care and treatment as the court deems to be for the best interests of the child, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(d) Order the parent, guardian, custodian or any other person to refrain from continuing the conduct which, in the opinion of the court, has caused or tended to cause the child to come within or remain under the provisions of this chapter.

(e) Place the child, when he is not in school, under the supervision of [a] :

(1) A public organization to work on public projects ;

(2) A public agency to work on projects to eradicate graffiti; or [a]

(3) A private nonprofit organization to perform other public service.

The person under whose supervision the child is placed shall keep the child busy and well supervised and shall make such reports to the court as it may require. As a condition of such a placement, the court may require the child or his parent or guardian to deposit with the court a reasonable sum of money to pay for the cost of policies of insurance against liability for personal injury and damage to property or for industrial insurance, or both, during those periods in which he performs the work, unless, in the case of industrial insurance, it is provided by the organization or agency for which he performs the work.

(f) Permit the child to reside in a residence without the immediate supervision of an adult, or exempt the child from mandatory attendance at school so that the child may be employed full time, or both, if the child is at least 16 years of age, has demonstrated the capacity to benefit from this placement or exemption and is under the strict supervision of the juvenile division.

(g) Require the child to provide restitution to the victim of the crime which the child has committed.

(h) Impose a fine on the child. If a fine is imposed, the court shall impose an administrative assessment pursuant to NRS 62.223.

(i) Order the parent, guardian or custodian of the child, and any brothers, sisters or other persons living in the same household as the child over whom the court has jurisdiction to attend or participate in counseling, alone or together with the child, including, but not limited to, counseling regarding parenting skills, alcohol or substance abuse or techniques of dispute resolution.

2. If the court finds that the child is a serious or chronic offender, it may, in addition to the options set forth in subsection 1 of this section and NRS 62.213:

(a) Commit the child for confinement in a secure facility, including a facility which is secured by its staff.

(b) Impose any other punitive measures the court determines to be in the best interests of the public.

3. At any time, either on its own volition or for good cause shown, the court may terminate its jurisdiction concerning the child.

4. Whenever the court commits a child to any institution or agency pursuant to this section or NRS 62.213, it shall transmit a summary of its information concerning the child and order the administrator of the school that the child last attended to transmit a copy of the child's educational records to the institution or agency. The institution or agency shall give to the court any information concerning the child that the court may require.

5. In determining whether to place a child pursuant to this section in the custody of a person other than his parent, guardian or custodian, preference must be given to any person related within the third degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.".

THE ONE HUNDRED AND THIRD DAY

CARSON CITY (Friday), April 28, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:07 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblyman Freeman, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Father Jerry Hanley.

We pray first for Father John Bain, who celebrated last night, 25 years of service to Nevadans. I recently found seven precepts of life forming the lives of the Wasichus, a native American tribe: To pray for the health of the people, to pray for the health of the unborn generations, to help others, to share with others, to strive for happiness, to walk in quietness and to care for others. As it was for them, O God, make it so for us. Bless this day and this Assembly and speak clearly to us all. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 24.

Assemblyman Marvel moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Arberry.

Resolution adopted, as amended.

By Assemblymen Krenzer, Nolan, Fettic, Steel, Braunlin, Goldwater, Schneider, Harrington, Ohrenschall, Bennett, Price, Perkins, Marvel, Ernaut, Arberry, Close, Giunchigliani, Stroth, Allard, Bache, Anderson, Humke, Chowning, Batten, Carpenter, de Braga, Manendo, Monaghan, Sandoval, Hettrick, Dini, Spitler, Tiffany, Segerblom, Tripple, Lambert, Buckley, Brower, Evans, Williams, Neighbors and Freeman:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 27—Designating April 28, 1995, as Workers Memorial Day in Nevada.

WHEREAS, On April 28, 1995, the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations will observe Workers Memorial Day, a day to remember workers who have been killed, injured or diseased on the job and to renew the commitment to prevent these tragedies in the future; and

WHEREAS, This date has significance in that it is the anniversary of the Occupational Safety and Health Act; and

WHEREAS, Every year more than 6 million workers are killed, injured or diseased on the job which amounts to approximately one worker every 5 seconds; and

WHEREAS, In the State of Nevada there have been over 70 deaths caused in work-related injuries in the past 2½ years; and

WHEREAS, Too often these tragedies and the devastation they cause for the workers, their families and co-workers are quickly forgotten; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature hereby designate April 28, 1995, as Workers Memorial Day, a day to honor workers who have died as a result of work-related injuries; and be it further

RESOLVED, That residents of Nevada are hereby urged to observe this day by recognizing the need for strengthening the safety in the workplace so that future tragedies are prevented.

Assemblyman Krenzer moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Krenzer, Nolan and Anderson.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Workers Memorial Day is observed to remember workers killed or injured on the job. This legislative body recognizes that the people of Nevada are this state's most important resource. By a variety of legislative actions, we have endeavored to make workplaces safer and to reduce the frequency and severity of industrial injuries. Through the combined efforts of your Committee on Labor and Management, progress is being made. However, too many workers continue to get injured or contract occupational diseases and too many workers are killed in the course and scope of their employment.

There have been seven job-related fatalities in Nevada this year:

Forty-nine year-old Maintenance Worker—Hit and run;

Forty-nine year-old Hotel Engineer—Skull fracture;
Twenty-seven year-old Uniformed Patrol Officer—Gunshot while struggling with assailant;
Forty-eight year-old Airline Steward—Plane crash;
Thirty year-old Operating Engineer—Bob Cat accident—broken neck;
Twenty year-old Watchman/Helper—Accidentally run over by co-worker;
Fifty-seven year-old Timet Worker—Flashfire with flammable dust, burned over 60 percent of his body.

At this time, I ask that we observe 30 seconds of silence in honor of the men and women who have been killed in the course of their employment. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN NOLAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 27. I join with the various labor organizations and management who dedicate themselves to making the workplace a safer place.

At the tender age of 18, when on my second day of work as an emergency medical technician in Las Vegas, I responded to a call at the, then being built, MGM. A foundation pit had been dug and a rather shabbily-built bridge expanded that pit which was strewn with rebar. A worker crossing the pit tripped and went through a poorly-constructed side-railing and became entangled in the rebar below. It took us an hour to extricate him and transport him to the hospital where he succumbed to his injuries.

Over a 10-year period, I have seen many injured workers, some of whom have died. The Assembly Committee on Labor and Management of the 68th Session has already passed several bills to improve safety in the workplace and will commit to continuing this effort. Again, I rise in support of this very worthwhile resolution. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 27. Indeed, it is a very small statement in terms of the breadth and depth of the problem.

As a youth, I remember hearing from my father who had come to the United States to work on the railroad in central Nevada from his native Ireland. He came with a man named John McVoy. Mr. McVoy and my father were close friends. Mr. McVoy was killed by a train while he was on a handcar trying to save other members of his track crew.

One of my earliest recollections is of a man by the name of Jim Heslen. Mr. Heslen had but one arm, unlike my distinguished colleague, the Co-Speaker, his was lost at the elbow. Jim used to hold me down by that stump and tickle me unmercifully. I often inquired as to how he lost his arm. It happened in a mishap while working for the railroad. The workers of this country have given their lives to build our roads, railroads and buildings. The workers of this country bring us our food. It is a very small thing we do here today for the enormous debt that we owe to the working man who made it all happen. Thank you.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Perkins requested that Assemblyman Ohrenschall's remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to take this moment to memorialize a constituent of mine. The reason I am choosing this particular moment is that Bill "Irish" Grant, who died Saturday, April 15, 1995, and was the former president of Whispering Sands Mobile Home Park, spent his entire life as a staunch union backer and union organizer. When he came to Nevada to retire, even though he was in his advanced years, there was never a union picket line that needed help, that Bill "Irish" Grant wasn't there. Last Christmas, at the age of 79, with an advanced heart condition, Bill was out there unloading trucks with packages for the Frontier Hotel strikers.

In Nevada, not only did he do everything he could for the cause of labor, but also for the cause of mobile home park residents. He received an award from the Mobile Home Owner's League of the Silver State. I know that all of his friends in labor would want to join with me in remembering him. I would ask that we join in 30 seconds of silence in his memory. Thank you.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 366.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Education:

Amendment No. 355.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 1 through 11 and adding new sections designated sections 1 through 9, to read as follows:

"Section 1. The legislature finds and declares that American Sign Language is a fully developed, autonomous, natural language with a distinct grammar, syntax and artistic character, and should be accorded equal status with other linguistic systems in the public education system of this state.

Sec. 2. Chapter 389 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. The state board shall approve course work and develop policies and procedures for the teaching of American Sign Language in the system of public instruction.

2. A school that chooses to offer American Sign Language as a course shall allow any pupil who successfully completes the course to earn credit for completing an elective course in a foreign language or toward completing a required number of credits in a foreign language, if that school has such a requirement.

Sec. 3. NRS 391.019 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.019 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 391.027, the commission:

(a) Shall adopt regulations:

(1) Prescribing the qualifications for licensing teachers and other educational personnel and the procedures for the issuance and renewal of such licenses.

(2) Identifying fields of specialization in teaching which require the specialized training of teachers.

(3) Requiring teachers to obtain from the department an endorsement in a field of specialization to be eligible to teach in that field of specialization.

(4) Setting forth the educational requirements a teacher must satisfy to qualify for an endorsement in each field of specialization.

(5) Setting forth the qualifications and requirements for obtaining a license or endorsement to teach American Sign Language.

(b) May adopt such other regulations as it deems necessary for its own government or to carry out its duties.

2. Any regulation which increases the amount of education, training or experience required for licensing:

(a) Must, in addition to the requirements for publication in chapter 233B of NRS, be publicized before its adoption in a manner reasonably calculated to inform those persons affected by the change.

(b) Must not become effective until at least 1 year after the date it is adopted by the commission.

(c) Is not applicable to a license in effect on the date the regulation becomes effective.

Sec. 4. Chapter 396 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

The board of regents may approve a uniform course of study and develop policies and procedures on the teaching of American Sign Language in the University and Community College System of Nevada.

Sec. 5. 1. The superintendent of public instruction and the director of the department of employment, training and rehabilitation shall, not later than July 15, 1995, appoint a task force to continue the activities of the task force on American Sign Language created by section 1 of chapter 336, Statutes of Nevada 1993. The task force created pursuant to this section shall continue to provide advice, expertise and recommendations concerning the establishment of a course of study in American Sign Language in secondary and post-secondary schools for credit as a foreign language and as a special course in elementary schools. The task force shall hold its first meeting not later than August 15, 1995. It shall, not later than November 15, 1996, submit its findings and recommendations to the director of the legislative counsel bureau for transmittal to the legislative commission.

2. The task force must be comprised of a majority of members who are deaf or who are related to a deaf person. To the extent possible, the membership of the task force must include:

(a) The coordinator of the sensory deficit program for Clark County and the coordinator of the programs for the hearing impaired in Washoe County, or his designee;

(b) The president of the Nevada Association of the Deaf, or his designee;

(c) The president of the Telecommunications Council, or his designee;

(d) A representative of the Telecommunications Relay Centers;

(e) A representative of parents with deaf children who reside in a rural community;

(f) A deaf student;

(g) The president of the Parents Advisory Committee of Hearing Impaired Children in Reno and Las Vegas, or his designee;

(h) The executive director of the Nevada State Education Association, or his designee;

(i) The chairman of the Rural Alliance, or his designee;

(j) A representative from the foreign language departments of the University of Nevada, Reno, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, and a community college;

(k) A representative of the department of education who is knowledgeable regarding special education and a representative of the rehabilitation division of the department of employment, training and rehabilitation;

(l) Two instructors of American Sign Language, one of whom must be deaf; and

(m) Such other persons as the superintendent and director deem appropriate.

3. The task force shall:

(a) Ascertain the cost of establishing a course of study in American Sign Language in the secondary and post-secondary schools in this state and the University and Community College System of Nevada.

(b) Make recommendations to the state board of education to assist it in approving a course of study in American Sign Language and developing policies and procedures on the teaching of American Sign Language in the system of public instruction.

(c) Make recommendations to the commission on professional standards in education to assist it in determining the qualifications and requirements for obtaining a license or endorsement to teach American Sign Language.

(d) Make recommendations to the board of regents of the University of Nevada to assist it in approving a course of study in American Sign Language and developing policies and procedures on the teaching of American Sign Language in the University and Community College System of Nevada.

(e) Monitor and evaluate how the recommendations made pursuant to paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) were carried out and report on the progress to the 69th session of the Nevada Legislature.

4. The members of the task force serve without salary. The members are entitled to per diem and travel expenses for attending meetings of the task force.

Sec. 6. The state board of education shall consult with the boards of trustees of the various school districts and, through the task force created pursuant to section 5 of this act, with persons who are deaf or hearing impaired to assist the state board in approving a course of study in American Sign Language and developing policies and procedures on the teaching of American Sign Language in the system of public instruction pursuant to section 2 of this act.

Sec. 7. The commission on professional standards in education shall consult with the boards of trustees of the various school districts and, through the task force created pursuant to section 5 of this act, with persons who are deaf or hearing impaired to assist the commission in establishing pursuant to NRS 391.019 the qualifications and requirements for obtaining a license or endorsement to teach American Sign Language.

Sec. 8. The board of regents of the University of Nevada may consult with the boards of trustees of the various school districts and, through the task force created pursuant to section 5 of this act, with persons who are deaf or hearing impaired to assist the board or regents in approving a course of study in American Sign Language and developing policies and procedures on the teaching of American Sign Language in the University and Community College System of Nevada pursuant to section 4 of this act.

Sec. 9. This act becomes effective on July 1, 1995.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to education; requiring the state board of education to approve a course of study in American Sign Language; requiring the commission on professional standards in education to adopt regulations concerning the qualifications for teaching American Sign Language; authorizing the board of regents of the University of Nevada to approve a course of study in American Sign Language; directing the appointment of a task force to make recommendations concerning the establishment of a course of study in American Sign Language; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

"Summary—Requires creation of policies and procedures on teaching of American Sign Language. (BDR 34-1123)".

Assemblyman Spitler moved the adoption of the amendment.

By Assemblymen Anderson, Goldwater, Fettic, Ohrenschall, Arberry, Perkins, Price, Williams, Schneider, Segerblom, Carpenter, Neighbors, de Braga, Evans, Brower, Spitler, Chowning, Close, Giunchigliani and Bache:

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 33—Proposing to amend the constitution of the State of Nevada to place the commission on judicial discipline in the executive branch of the state government.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That article 5 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended by adding thereto a new section to be designated as section 23 to read as follows:

Sec. 23. 1. The commission on judicial discipline is hereby created in the executive branch of state government to monitor the performance and qualifications of justices and judges.

2. A justice of the supreme court, a district judge, a justice of the peace or a municipal judge may, in addition to the provision of article 7 for impeachment, be censured, retired, removed or subject to other discipline or corrective action by the commission on judicial discipline. A justice or judge may appeal to the supreme court a final decision of the commission to censure, retire, remove or otherwise discipline or impose corrective action on him.

3. The commission is composed of:

(a) Two persons who each serve as a district judge, justice of the peace or municipal judge, appointed by the supreme court;

(b) Two members of the State Bar of Nevada, a public corporation created by statute, appointed by its board of governors; and

(c) Three persons, not members of the legal profession, appointed by the governor to represent the general public.

The commission shall elect a chairman from among its three members who represent the general public.

4. If at any time the State Bar of Nevada ceases to exist as a public corporation or ceases to include all attorneys admitted to practice before the courts of this state, the legislature shall provide by law, or if it fails to do so the supreme court shall provide by rule, for the appointment of attorneys at law to the positions designated in this section to be occupied by members of the State Bar of Nevada.

5. The term of office of each appointive member of the commission, except the initial members, is 4 years. Each appointing authority shall appoint one of the members initially appointed for a term of 2 years. If a vacancy occurs, the appointing authority shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. An appointing authority shall not appoint more than one resident of any county. The governor shall not appoint more than two members of the same political party. No member may be a member of a commission on judicial selection.

6. The commission shall make appropriate rules for:

(a) The confidentiality of matters before the commission, except that a decision to censure, retire or remove a justice or judge must be made public. The rules must specifically provide guidelines for the disclosure of information during the preliminary screening of complaints.

(b) The grounds of censure and other forms of discipline or corrective action which may be imposed by the commission.

(c) The manner in which preliminary screenings of complaints, investigations and hearings must be conducted.

(d) Its own management and government.

7. No justice or judge may, by virtue of this section, be:

(a) Removed, except for:

(1) Willful misconduct;

(2) Willful or persistent failure to perform the duties of his office; or

(3) Habitual intemperance.

(b) Retired, except for:

(1) Advanced age which interferes with the proper performance of his judicial duties; or

(2) Mental or physical disability which prevents the proper performance of his judicial duties and which is likely to be permanent in nature.

8. Any matter relating to the fitness of a justice or judge may be brought to the attention of the commission by any person or on the motion of the commission. The commission shall conduct a preliminary screening of all complaints, including complaints filed by the commission on its own motion, against justices and judges to determine whether the commission has jurisdiction to hear the matter and to confirm the validity of the facts alleged in the complaint. After the preliminary screening, the commission shall dismiss the matter or:

(a) If the public interest would be served, consult with the justice or judge to pursue an informal resolution of the matter; or

(b) If appropriate, order a hearing to determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the conduct of the justice or judge is or has been inappropriate or that he is not fit for office.

After the preliminary screening, the commission may amend the complaint to include any information obtained from additional complainants or witnesses.

9. If a hearing to determine probable cause is ordered, a statement of the matter must be served upon the justice or judge against whom the proceeding is brought. The commission in its discretion may suspend a justice or judge from the exercise of his office pending the determination of the proceedings before the commission. Any justice or judge whose removal is sought is liable to indictment and punishment according to law. A justice or judge retired for disability in accordance with this section is entitled thereafter to receive such compensation as the legislature may provide.

10. If a proceeding is brought against a district judge, a district judge from the same judicial district may not sit on the commission for that proceeding. If a proceeding is brought against a justice of the peace, a justice of the peace from the same township may not sit on the commission for that proceeding. If a proceeding is brought against a municipal judge, a municipal judge from the same city may not sit on the commission for that proceeding. When any member of the commission is disqualified by this subsection or for any other reason, the supreme court shall appoint a substitute from among the eligible judges.

11. The commission shall hire one or more attorneys at law to act as disciplinary counsel. The disciplinary counsel shall not participate in the preliminary screening of complaints. If, after the preliminary screening, a case is referred to him, he shall:

(a) Prepare a formal statement of the charges;

(b) Conduct an investigation of a complaint whose facts have been verified and over which the commission has jurisdiction; and

(c) Prosecute a judge or justice in a proceeding before the commission.

12. The attorney general shall act as advisory counsel to the commission. The attorney general shall advise the commission in the preliminary screening of complaints, but shall not perform any functions related to the investigation of complaints and the prosecution of a judge or justice.

13. The commission may:

(a) Summon witnesses to appear and testify under oath and compel the production of books, papers, documents and records;

(b) Grant immunity from prosecution or punishment when the commission deems it necessary and proper in order to compel the giving of testimony under oath and the production of books, papers, documents and records; and

(c) Exercise such further powers as the legislature may from time to time confer upon it.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That section 21 of article 6 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be repealed.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION

Sec. 21. Commission on judicial discipline.

1. A justice of the supreme court, a district judge, a justice of the peace or a municipal judge may, in addition to the provision of article 7 for impeachment, be censured, retired, removed or otherwise disciplined by the commission on judicial discipline. A justice or judge may appeal from the action of the commission to the supreme court, which may reverse such action or take any alternative action provided in this subsection.

2. The commission is composed of:

(a) Two justices or judges appointed by the supreme court;

(b) Two members of the State Bar of Nevada, a public corporation created by statute, appointed by its board of governors; and

(c) Three persons, not members of the legal profession, appointed by the governor.

The commission shall elect a chairman from among its three lay members.

3. If at any time the State Bar of Nevada ceases to exist as a public corporation or ceases to include all attorneys admitted to practice before the courts of this state, the legislature shall provide by law, or if it fails to do so the court shall provide by rule, for the appointment of attorneys at law to the positions designated in this section to be occupied by members of the State Bar of Nevada.

4. The term of office of each appointive member of the commission, except the first members, is 4 years. Each appointing authority shall appoint one of the members first appointed for a term of 2 years. If a vacancy occurs, the appointing authority shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. An appointing authority shall not appoint more than one resident of any county. The governor shall not appoint more than two members of the same political party. No member may be a member of a commission on judicial selection.

5. The supreme court shall make appropriate rules for:

(a) The confidentiality of all proceedings before the commission, except a decision to censure, retire or remove a justice or judge.

(b) The grounds of censure and other forms of discipline which may be imposed by the commission.

(c) The conduct of investigations and hearings.

6. No justice or judge may by virtue of this section be:

(a) Removed except for willful misconduct, willful or persistent failure to perform the duties of his office or habitual intemperance; or

(b) Retired except for advanced age which interferes with the proper performance of his judicial duties, or for mental or physical disability which prevents the proper performance of his judicial duties and which is likely to be permanent in nature.

7. Any person may bring to the attention of the commission any matter relating to the fitness of a justice or judge. The commission shall, after preliminary investigation, dismiss the matter or order a hearing to be held before it. If a hearing is ordered, a statement of the matter shall be served upon the justice or judge against whom the proceeding is brought. The commission in its discretion may suspend a justice or judge from the exercise of his office pending the determination of the proceedings before the commission. Any justice or judge whose removal is sought is liable to indictment and punishment according to law. A justice or judge retired for disability in accordance with this section is entitled thereafter to receive such compensation as the legislature may provide.

8. If a proceeding is brought against a justice of the supreme court, no justice of the supreme court may sit on the commission for that proceeding. If a proceeding is brought against a district judge, no district judge from the same judicial district may sit on the commission for that proceeding. If a proceeding is brought against a justice of the peace, no justice of the peace from the same township may sit on the commission for that proceeding. If a proceeding is brought against a municipal judge, no municipal judge from the same city may sit on the commission for that proceeding. If an appeal is taken from an action of the commission to the supreme court, any justice who sat on the commission for that proceeding is disqualified from participating in the consideration or decision of the appeal. When any member of the commission is disqualified by this subsection, the supreme court shall appoint a substitute from among the eligible judges.

9. The commission may:

(a) Designate for each hearing an attorney or attorneys at law to act as counsel to conduct the proceeding;

(b) Summon witnesses to appear and testify under oath and compel the production of books, papers, documents and records;

(c) Grant immunity from prosecution or punishment when the commission deems it necessary and proper in order to compel the giving of testimony under oath and the production of books, papers, documents and records; and

(d) Exercise such further powers as the legislature may from time to time confer upon it.

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 12:25 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Quorum present.

Remarks by Assemblymen Giunchigliani, Anderson, Carpenter, Harrington, Steel, Williams and Manendo.

Assemblyman Williams requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Senate Bill No. 87. I am an employee of the Clark County School District. I know that the school district desperately needs this legislation to clarify what is on the books. This accommodates the year-round school sessions and the double sessions that are being held within Clark County.

As I indicated last week, I would not support this bill if it meant less instructional time. You need to look at the quality of time and the time spent on tasks. This bill, as written, allows the minutes to be increased. I would note for the record, which we have done in other instances, that the term "alternative scheduling" on line 10 is absolutely not intended to allow for a four-day school week, which many people have a concern about. What "alternative scheduling" is really supposed to be about is to look at it in two phases depending upon the school day, such as 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. to better accommodate the use of that facility, rather than an actual day. If it makes people more comfortable, I think we should note for the record, that the intent is it cannot be defined as a four-day school week. I would urge your reconsideration. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this particular piece of legislation, quite simply because one of the major criticisms that the education community faces these days revolves around the "time on task" questions.

At the high school level, it is not unusual because of multiple activities, to see students released after spending a good part of the day and then call it a full day educational experience. It is not a full day educational experience. This bill goes a long way to set up worthwhile programs not usually considered part of the educational program. It allows those programs to be taken into consideration, and adjust the day so that the time on tasks for students is relative to the real classroom. Therefore, I think this is a very important piece of legislation, particularly allowing for greater interlink with the business community to bring real-life experiences into our classrooms, especially at the secondary level. These experiences will become increasingly important in the technological age in which we live. Therefore, I rise in support of this worthwhile piece of legislation.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I reluctantly rise in support of Senate Bill No. 87. I listened very carefully to the arguments last Friday and voted against this bill because I felt those arguments had more merit.

When I got home Friday afternoon, the Elko School District was waiting for me and pointed out what they felt the fallacy of my vote was. In order to give them the flexibility they need, I'm going to change my vote on this bill. I do want it in the record as to why I'm doing it. I have a letter here which I would like to read.

> DEAR ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:
> My understanding of Senate Bill No. 87 which allows school districts to have flexibility in instruction scheduling will be coming up for a second vote today. We are in support of this bill. It is not our intention to use the allowed flexibility in our regular school education programs. The flexibility will be of great assistance to us in our alternative education intervention programs for students who do not fit into the regular educational programs.
> MARCIA BANDERA
> Superintendent of Elko County School District

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN HARRINGTON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, to reiterate some of the points from last Friday, other nations are sending their children to school far more days than we are and this bill takes us in the wrong direction. Not only that, it opens a Pandora's box, which allows various options school districts may want to choose.

White Pine County has specifically submitted Assembly Bill No. 6. You may want to take a look at it, as on line 8, "the Board of Trustees specifically requests a four-day school week." If you are a working parent and have to work five days a week, having your children completely out of school for that one day will be a real problem for them. Any number of other schedule changes can occur. They have experimented with a 144-day schedule. Once those schedules are written into the contract, they can be very difficult and costly to change back to the 180 days.

Again, Clark County has the flexibility of 10 days. They can do the "five practice system" which they are going to start next year on a 170-day schedule. This just opens up a Pandora's box for other options which will be very detrimental, I believe. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition of this bill. The reason is I believe it will hit the working families the hardest. It doesn't say that they won't go to a four-day schedule. I think bills need to say what they mean. If you don't mean a four-day week, you should write it in here and make an amendment that says you cannot go to a four-day school week. I wouldn't see anything wrong with such an amendment.

I think we are going in the wrong direction as far as time in school. We need more time for our students to learn more while they are in school because once they are out of school, that's it. Unless they have a good secure bottom line education in our grade school levels, they aren't going to have the drive to go further in life. I really think we need to do it. I would support an amendment that this would not go to a four-day in any district. But outside of that, I would ask everyone to please oppose this bill for working parents that will now have to go out and find day-care centers for that fifth day. I'm not saying schools should be a day-care center. There aren't enough day-care centers to go around if this bill goes through. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIAMS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Senate Bill No. 87. This bill was requested by the Clark County School District, but there has been some conversation that the school district does not want this bill. I talked to the superintendent's office less than an hour ago and they do wholeheartedly support and want this bill.

I would say to those who talk about less school time, this will not lower the time spent in the classroom. Under this bill, they will have to have the equivalent amount of time in the classroom, or more. This is not Yugoslavia, Japan, Taiwan or any of those places they are talking about. This is Nevada. Unlike most states, we have a situation where our legislature meets every two years and most states meet every year. We are also faced with having the fastest growing school district in the nation in Clark County.

The state superintendent of schools would have to approve any changes in scheduling. The school board would have to approve it, and they could not do it without public input. There are safeguards in this bill. One of the changes we don't want to happen, since we won't be meeting until 1997, is having our constituents get school board officers to say they need more flexibility. The best thing we can do for our constituency is to allow this particular instrument and this tool to be in the hands of the school district in case they need it. We are faced with a fast-growing population. How in the world can we talk about what's happening in some other country? We are talking about Nevada. We are Nevadans. We need to do what's best for our school districts, to take on this responsibility without losing any class time. I don't know why people keep thinking there will be a reduction in class time, because there won't. This bill will help. This bill will allow school districts to have the tools they need. Let's give them what they need for education. Support Senate Bill No. 87. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MANENDO:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Once more, I rise in opposition to Senate Bill No. 87. I still believe we need more school days, not fewer. I'm really concerned that we are not going to get these school days back if we get rid of them. I'm still philosophically against a reduction in school days. I believe the idea of Senate Bill No. 87 is to provide time to allow students to engage in extracurricular or supplemental activities. I'm all in favor of those types of things, but not at the expense of education or days in the classroom. I'm still not convinced of that. I still believe we need to educate to elevate and I believe this bill is a "dummy down Nevada" bill.

I had a meeting this weekend with 30 students at a community home. They believe that we are sending a wrong message to the parents, taxpayers, educators, and more importantly, to the students themselves. When they look you in the face and say, "What are you trying to do? You want us to succeed, but you want us to have a reduction in school days." I do not believe that this is the proper way to go about educating. I think we need more school days.

The minutes may be the same, but I think eventually we need to increase the minutes and also increase days. I think that's how we are going to compete in this world. I was just making a notation that 82 percent of the prison population doesn't have a high school diploma. Crime has a lot to do with not seeing the light at the end of the tunnel. I think reducing school days is not opening the doors to light, but closing it and making it dark. I urge your vote against Senate Bill No. 87. Thank you.

Assemblymen Marvel, Lambert and Monaghan moved the previous question.

Motion carried.

The question being on the passage of Senate Bill No. 87.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, May 3, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 29.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen Segerblom, Nolan, Bennett, Arberry, Bache, Giunchigliani, Harrington, Williams, Krenzer, Freeman, Braunlin, Batten, Manendo, Brower, Ohrenschall, Neighbors, Tripple, de Braga, Close, Sandoval, Carpenter, Buckley, Perkins, Spitler, Lambert, Tiffany, Chowning, Anderson, Stroth, Steel, Goldwater, Ernaut, Schneider, Monaghan, Price, Fettic, Allard, Dini, Evans, Hettrick, Marvel and Humke:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29—Commending Nevada pioneer and Ruby Valley matriarch, Lourinda Wines.

WHEREAS, Lourinda Mariane Rahbeck was born on March 10, 1901, to Peter K. Rahbeck and Teena May Collins Rahbeck in Gardnerville, Nevada; and

WHEREAS, While attending the University of Nevada in 1922, Lourinda Rahbeck decided to accept a teaching position in the Ruby Valley near Elko; and

WHEREAS, After a 5-day journey from Reno to Deeth via train to Elko and horse-drawn sleigh across the 70-mile-long Ruby Valley, Lourinda Rahbeck arrived at the I. E. Wines Ranch, a ranch which would become a way of life for Lourinda; and

WHEREAS, This captivating young teacher fell in love with and married the owner's son, James B. Wines, and together they raised five children, Blaine, Calvin, Gordon, Mary Lou (Armuth) and Carroll, known as "Buster"; and

WHEREAS, Kerosene lanterns, a wood-burning stove for cooking, no indoor plumbing, ironing with a flat iron on clothes which had to be washed by hand in the creek, were all a part of life that Lourinda Wines willingly accepted as she raised her family in those early years; and

WHEREAS, Since James passed on in 1959, Lourinda Wines has continued to operate the ranch and even joined the Nevada Cattlemen's Association in her late husband's place; and

WHEREAS, Lourinda is a charter member of the American National CowBelle's Association, now known as the American National CattleWomen's Association and she founded the Elko County and Nevada State CowBelle organizations; and

WHEREAS, In 1989, Lourinda Wines was selected as the outstanding CattleWoman of the Year at the National Convention and in 1991 she was named Elko County Cattlewomen's Mother of the Year; and

WHEREAS, Lourinda Wines is also active in the Presbyterian Church of Elko, Ruby Valley Friendship Club, American Association of University Women, Northeastern Nevada Historical Society, Wells Rural Electric Board, Hospital Auxiliary and a china painting club; and

WHEREAS, As current chairman for the Political Action Committee of the Nevada Cattlemen's Association, Lourinda continues to stay busy raising money for this organization; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the Nevada Legislature commend Lourinda Wines for her years of contributions to this state and honor her for her tenacity, honesty and determination, all of which have made Lourinda Wines one of Nevada's great ladies; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Lourinda Wines.

Assemblyman Segerblom moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Segerblom, Carpenter, Marvel, Ernaut and Speaker Hettrick.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, very much, Mr. Speaker. I would like you to know that just like my mother several years before, my cousin went to teach in Ruby Valley. She married James Wines, a rancher.

Since that time, she has been very happy with the CowBelles, which is now called the American National CattleWomen's Association, but I like CowBelles better. Lourinda was also the first president of the original Twentieth Century Club; the Elko Garden Club; the Ruby Valley Friendship Club; the Girl Scout Council; County, State and American National CowBelles; the National Livestock Board of 1968 and was named as the outstanding National Cattlewoman of the Year and is very active in the Republican party. I'm sure you'll all be interested in that, coming from me. I would like to recognize her today with this Assembly Concurrent Resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29. There is no question that Lourinda Wines is one of the great ladies of Nevada.

We all become attached to certain people. I grew up in the livestock industry and there are certain people who stand out. There is no question that Lourinda Wines is my favorite cowgirl. She is a great lady. If anyone is in need of help, she is always there to help them. In Ruby Valley, she is the pillar of that community. I just can't say enough about Lourinda and her family. This ranching family has been part of not only Elko County, but the western part of Nevada for many years, and it is indeed a great honor to have them here. I thank my partner from Boulder City for introducing this resolution. There was another deal here that said Lourinda was a great lady and I guess that is about all you can say. Lourinda, welcome here today.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, stand up in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29. I think, Lourinda, you should know that you just have been elected to John Carpenter's Elko County Hall of Fame.

I have known Lourinda Wines all my life. I don't think that I have ever met a more gracious lady than Lourinda. Lourinda has probably done more than any other individual to promote the livestock business in the State of Nevada. It is a pleasure that we are able to honor such a great person today.

Gene, I want to thank you for bringing forward this resolution. It is a great pleasure having you with us, Lourinda, and we hope to see you many, many more years to come.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29. The Wines family has been in Elko County and the Ruby Valley since the middle 1800s. In fact, anyone that was in attendance for the women's suffrage play the other evening noticed a "Wines" in one of the original discussions about women's suffrage in the 1870s. I think above all else, a family of this strength, stability and class exemplify what Nevada's all about.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I forgot one thing that I would like to mention. There are probably hundreds of thousands of CowBelles in the United States, but here in our midst today, is the one that was chosen the number one CowBelle in the United States. I think that really needs to be emphasized. Thank you.

Speaker Hettrick requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

I have to say that I rise from the chair in support of this resolution. I have met Calvin and Buster Wines out in the Ruby Valley. My Dad owns property next to Calvin's ranch in the Ruby Valley. They are great neighbors and fine people. In addition, to show you what a small world it really is, I bought a home from one of the Rahbecks in Douglas County. We have a bond going back much farther than you would imagine.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Segerblom moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried unanimously.

By Assemblymen de Braga, Williams, Segerblom, Harrington, Carpenter, Braunlin, Steel, Schneider, Giunchigliani, Bache, Lambert, Chowning, Monaghan, Allard, Stroth, Close, Arberry, Evans, Dini, Buckley, Anderson, Spitler, Goldwater, Ohrenschall, Sandoval, Tripple, Brower, Manendo, Perkins, Neighbors, Nolan, Krenzer, Hettrick, Batten, Humke, Price, Fettic, Bennett, Ernaut, Marvel and Freeman:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 30—Commending Wuzzie Dick George and her family for preserving the traditions of the Northern Paiute People of the Stillwater Marsh.

WHEREAS, Wuzzie Dick George, whose first name means "Small Animal" in Paiute, was born into a band of the Northern Paiutes around 1880 in Jersey Valley near the Stillwater Mountain Range of western Nevada; and

WHEREAS, During her childhood, Wuzzie Dick George learned valuable cultural skills including gathering, cutting and treating tules and cattails for use in crafting tule bags, tule duck decoys, tule balsa boats and cattail mats for covering houses; and

WHEREAS, Wuzzie Dick George volunteered countless hours to teach her skills to others and to record the Paiute language and her memories of past lifeways for posterity; and

WHEREAS, Wuzzie Dick George worked tirelessly as a participant in the creation of the film Tule Technology: Northern Paiute Uses of Marsh Resources in Western Nevada which was produced by the Smithsonian Institution and has enabled millions of Americans to share in the rich traditions of the Paiute heritage; and

WHEREAS, Wuzzie Dick George, until her death in 1984, honored and preserved the ways of her ancestors by teaching her skills and respect for tradition to her children and grandchildren, even after being afflicted with arthritis and suffering a stroke during the last years of her life; and

WHEREAS, Jimmy George, the husband of Wuzzie Dick George, was a Native American born between 1875 and 1879 below the south branch of the Carson River in western Nevada where he spent his boyhood learning to hunt waterfowl and rabbits, discovering the customs of his ancestors and developing such skills as making tule balsa boats; and

WHEREAS, Jimmy George, both before and during his marriage to Wuzzie Dick George, spent a major portion of his life working at Soda Lake and on various ranches near Fallon, Nevada, while continuing to engage in the Native American traditions of creating tule duck decoys, boats and mats; and

WHEREAS, Jimmy George became a Native American doctor, or shaman, and earned the respect of his community by effectively treating nearly 1,000 patients; and

WHEREAS, Jimmy George donated numerous hours demonstrating his skills, sharing his vast knowledge of the history of his people and relating his own personal stories and memories to historians; and

WHEREAS, The native artistry of the Northern Paiute People of the Stillwater Marsh continues to be preserved through such projects as a diorama of a camp scene that includes tule baskets, tule duck decoys, a tule balsa boat and a cattail house created for the Churchill County Museum and Archives in Fallon, Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The exhibit in the Churchill County Museum and Archives was refurbished by a son of Wuzzie and Jimmy George, Ivan George, with his sons, Martin and Davin; and

WHEREAS, Pride in Paiute history and tradition is kept alive through the continued efforts of all members of the Fallon Paiute-Shoshone Tribe who teach their children and grandchildren the ways of their ancestors, the Northern Paiute People of the Stillwater Marsh; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature commend the Fallon Paiute-Shoshone Tribe and the George family for their efforts to honor and keep alive the memory of their ancestors by teaching their history and carrying on their work; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the members of the Nevada Legislature commend Wuzzie and Jimmy George for their lifelong effort to develop and teach the traditions, crafts and skills of their ancestors; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Alvin Moyle, Chairman, of the Fallon Paiute-Shoshone Tribe, to the sons of Wuzzie and Jimmy George, Ivan George of Fallon, Nevada, and Ashley George of Sacramento, California, to the granddaughter of Wuzzie and Jimmy George, Louella George Thomas of Fallon, Nevada, and to the great-grandson of Wuzzie and Jimmy George, Joey Allen of Fallon, Nevada.

Assemblyman de Braga moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman de Braga.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that Assemblyman de Braga's remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN DE BRAGA:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This resolution commends Wuzzie, Jimmy George and their descendants for continuing the ancient arts and history of the Numa Paiute Toi Ticuta (Cattail Eater) people of the Stillwater Marshes.

Although, the George family is named specifically as representatives of their people, we wish to recognize all the families whose arts were handed down from generation to generation and who recognized the importance of retaining the arts and traditions of the area's earliest residents. Unfortunately, members of the family weren't able to be here today, but at their annual pow wow in June, members of the family and tribe will be presented with this resolution honoring all those who have demonstrated respect for their ancestors and pride in their heritage and culture. Thank you.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman de Braga moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 30 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried unanimously.

By the Committee on Transportation:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 31—Expressing support for programs to mitigate traffic noise.

Assemblyman Chowning moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Transportation.

Motion carried.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 29.

Assemblyman Stroth moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Stroth.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that Assemblyman Stroth's remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN STROTH:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In June of 1994, the Las Vegas Dustdevils were a raw but talented young soccer team that had difficulty making it through the exhibition tournament. However, by October 8, 1994, the team won the Continental Indoor Soccer League championship series against the defending CISL champions, the Dallas Sidekicks of Dallas, Texas.

The Dustdevils, with just a 17–11 record during the regular season, not only won the league title in their inaugural season, but also became the first professional champions in Las Vegas since the Stars won the Pacific Coast Baseball title in 1988.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 40.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 349.

Amend section 1, pages 1 and 2, by deleting lines 2 through 26 on page 1 and lines 1 through 33 on page 2, and inserting:

"50.070 1. Any person, corporation, partnership, association or other entity who is:

(a) An employer; or

(b) The employee, agent or officer of an employer, vested with the power to terminate or recommend termination of employment, of a person who is a witness or who has received a summons to appear as a witness in [any court,] a judicial or administrative proceeding, who deprives the witness or person summoned of his employment, as a consequence of his service as a witness or prospective witness, or who asserts to the witness or person summoned that his service as a witness or prospective witness will result in termination of his employment, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

2. A person discharged from employment in violation of subsection 1 may commence a civil action against his employer and obtain:

(a) Wages and benefits lost as a result of the violation;

(b) An order of reinstatement without loss of position, seniority or benefits;

(c) Damages equal to the amount of the lost wages and benefits; and

Amendment No. 380.

Amend section 1, page 1, by deleting lines 9 through 25 and inserting: "surrender of the premises [at] :

(a) At or before noon of the fifth full day following the day of service [. The notice] ; or

(b) If the landlord chooses not to proceed in the manner set forth in paragraph (a) and the rent is reserved by a period of 1 week or less and the tenancy has not continued for more than 45 days, at or before noon of the third full day following the day of service. As used in this paragraph, "day of service" means the day the landlord or his agent personally delivers the notice to the tenant. If personal service was not so delivered, the "day of service" means the day the notice is delivered, after posting and mailing pursuant to subsection 2, to the sheriff or constable for service if the request for service is made before noon. If the request for service by the sheriff or constable is made after noon, the "day of service" shall be deemed to be the day next following the day that the request is made for service by the sheriff or constable.

2. A landlord or his agent who serves a notice to a tenant pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 shall attempt to deliver the notice in person in the manner set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 40.280. If the notice cannot be delivered in person, the landlord or his agent:

(a) Shall post a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises and mail the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested; and

(b) After the notice has been posted and mailed, may deliver the notice to the sheriff or constable for service in the manner set forth in subsection 1 of NRS 40.280. The sheriff or constable shall not accept the notice for service unless it is accompanied by written evidence, signed by the tenant when he took possession of the premises, that the landlord or his agent informed the tenant of the provisions of this section which set forth the lawful procedures for eviction from a short-term tenancy. Upon acceptance, the sheriff or constable shall serve the notice within 48 hours after the request for service was made by the landlord or his agent.

3. A notice served pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 must:".

Amend sec. 31, page 21, line 33, by deleting "inclusive." and inserting: "inclusive, and section 5 of [this act.] Senate Bill No. 61 of this session.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 41 through 43 as sections 42 through 44 and adding a new section designated sec. 41, following sec. 40, to read as follows:

"Sec. 41. Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 125 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. NRS 62.211 is hereby amended to read as follows:

62.211 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 62.212, if the court finds that a child is within the purview of this chapter it shall so decree and may:

(a) Place the child under supervision in his own home or in the custody of a suitable person elsewhere, upon such conditions as the court may determine. A program of supervision in the home may include electronic surveillance of the child. The legislature declares that a program of supervision that includes electronic surveillance is intended as an alternative to commitment and not as an alternative to probation, informal supervision or a supervision and consent decree.

(b) Commit the child to the custody of a public or private institution or agency authorized to care for children, or place him in a home with a family. In committing a child to a private institution or agency the court shall select one that is required to be licensed by the department of human resources to care for such children, or, if the institution or agency is in another state, by the analogous department of that state. The court shall not commit a female child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Caliente youth center, and shall not commit a male child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Nevada youth training center.

(c) Order such medical, psychiatric, psychological or other care and treatment as the court deems to be for the best interests of the child, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(d) Order the parent, guardian, custodian or any other person to refrain from continuing the conduct which, in the opinion of the court, has caused or tended to cause the child to come within or remain under the provisions of this chapter.

(e) Order the parent, guardian or custodian of the child, and any brothers, sisters or other persons living in the same household as the child over whom the court has jurisdiction to attend or participate in counseling, alone or together with the child, including, but not limited to, counseling regarding parenting skills, alcohol or substance abuse or techniques of dispute resolution.

(f) Order the parent or guardian of the child to participate in a program designed to provide restitution to the victim of an act committed by the child or to perform public service.

(g) Order the parent or guardian of the child to pay all or part of the cost of the proceedings, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees, any costs incurred by the court and any costs incurred in the investigation of an act committed by the child and the taking into custody of the child.

(h) Order the suspension of the child's driver's license for not more than 2 years. If the child does not possess a driver's license, the court may prohibit the child from applying for a driver's license for not more than 2 years:

(1) Immediately following the date of the order, if the child is eligible to apply for a driver's license.

(2) After the date he becomes eligible to apply for a driver's license, if the child is not eligible to apply for a license on the date of the order.

If the court issues an order suspending the driver's license of a child pursuant to this paragraph, the judge shall require the child to surrender to the court all driver's licenses then held by the child. The court shall, within 5 days after issuing the order, forward to the department of motor vehicles and public safety the licenses, together with a copy of the order. If, pursuant to this paragraph, the court issues an order delaying the ability of a child to apply for a driver's license, the court shall, within 5 days after issuing the order, forward to the department of motor vehicles and public safety a copy of the order. The department of motor vehicles and public safety shall not report a suspension pursuant to this paragraph to an insurance company or its agent inquiring about the child's driving record or require the child to submit to the tests and other requirements which are adopted by regulation pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 483.495 as a condition of reinstatement or reissuance after a suspension of his license pursuant to this paragraph, unless the suspension resulted from his poor performance as a driver.

(i) Place the child, when he is not in school, under the supervision of [a] :

(1) A public organization to work on public projects ;

(2) A public agency to work on projects to eradicate graffiti; or [a]

(3) A private nonprofit organization to perform other public service.

The person under whose supervision the child is placed shall keep the child busy and well supervised and shall make such reports to the court as it may require. As a condition of such a placement, the court may require the child or his parent or guardian to deposit with the court a reasonable sum of money to pay for the cost of policies of insurance against liability for personal injury and damage to property or for industrial insurance, or both, during those periods in which he performs the work, unless, in the case of industrial insurance, it is provided by the organization or agency for which he performs the work.

(j) Permit the child to reside in a residence without the immediate supervision of an adult, or exempt the child from mandatory attendance at school so that the child may be employed full time, or both, if the child is at least 16 years of age, has demonstrated the capacity to benefit from this placement or exemption and is under the strict supervision of the juvenile division.

(k) Require the child to provide restitution to the victim of the crime which the child has committed.

(l) Impose a fine on the child. If a fine is imposed, the court shall impose an administrative assessment pursuant to NRS 62.223.

2. In determining the appropriate disposition of a case concerning a child found to be within the purview of this chapter, the court shall consider whether the act committed by the child involved the use of a firearm or the use or threatened use of force or violence against the victim of the act and whether the child is a serious or chronic offender. If the court finds that the act committed by the child involved the use of a firearm or the use or threatened use of force or violence against the victim or that the child is a serious or chronic offender, the court shall include the finding in its order and may, in addition to the options set forth in subsection 1 of this section and NRS 62.213:

(a) Commit the child for confinement in a secure facility, including a facility which is secured by its staff.

(b) Impose any other punitive measures the court determines to be in the best interests of the public or the child.

3. At any time, either on its own volition or for good cause shown, the court may terminate its jurisdiction concerning the child.

4. Whenever the court commits a child to any institution or agency pursuant to this section or NRS 62.213, it shall transmit a summary of its information concerning the child and order the administrator of the school that the child last attended to transmit a copy of the child's educational records to the institution or agency. The institution or agency shall give to the court any information concerning the child that the court may require.

5. In determining whether to place a child pursuant to this section in the custody of a person other than his parent, guardian or custodian, preference must be given to any person related within the third degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.".

Amend sec. 41, page 26, by deleting line 32 and inserting: "Sec. 42. NRS 176.003, 176.006, 176.009 and 176.011 are".

Amend sec. 42, page 26, by deleting lines 34 through 36 and inserting:

"Sec. 43. As soon as practicable, each entity required to appoint a member of the legislative commission on sentencing pursuant to subsection 1 of section 17 of this act shall appoint each member that the entity is required to appoint for an initial term".

Amend sec. 43, page 26, by deleting lines 38 and 39 and inserting:

"Sec. 44. The amendatory provisions of this act do not apply to offenses which are committed before the effective date of this act.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sec. 44 as sec. 46 and adding a new section designated sec. 45, following sec. 44, to read as follows:

"Sec. 45. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of NRS 354.599, each local government shall pay any additional expenses related to the provisions of this act from existing revenues of that local government.".

Amend sec. 44, page 26, by deleting line 40 and inserting:

"Sec. 46. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.".

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting the leadline of NRS 213.080 from the leadlines of repealed sections.

Amend the title of the bill, third line, after "creating the" by inserting "legislative".

"Sec. 11. 1. If a municipality wishes to sell its bonds by competitive bid and use the services of a financial adviser to do so, it shall provide notice of the request for proposals in a manner that ensures that a reasonable number of financial advisers for the size of the bond issue are notified of the request. The governing body of the municipality shall approve the notice.

2. The procedure for a request for proposals established by a municipality, including any requirement relating to the municipality's policy of equal opportunity concerning the selection of financial advisers, must be described in the written statement of the debt management policy of the municipality.

3. A municipality may sell by competitive bid the bonds described in the request for proposals and use the services of the financial adviser it selects for not more than 6 years after the selection of the financial adviser. If bonds are not described in the request for proposals or if a sale by competitive bid occurs more than 6 years after the selection of a financial adviser, the municipality shall request proposals from financial advisers pursuant to subsection 1 before it selects a financial adviser for that sale by competitive bid.

4. As used in this section, "request for proposals" means a statement which requests that prospective financial advisers submit proposals to the municipality to provide financial services for the sale by competitive bid.

Sec. 12. The governing body of a municipality which sells bonds by competitive bid and uses the services of a financial adviser shall establish a procedure for the selection of a proposal for the sale of the bonds. The procedure must include a consideration of:

1. The ability and experience of the responding financial adviser; and

2. The degree to which the responding financial adviser meets the needs of the municipality and minimizes the risk and cost to the municipality.".

THE ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTEENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), May 8, 1995

Assembly called to order at 11:09 a.m.
Speaker Dini presiding.
Roll called.
All present.
Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Jeff Flaherty.

Lord, we come before You and give You thanks. Thanks for living in a country that is free and thanks for the opportunity to serve You. I ask for a special blessing upon the members of this governing body and their families. Lord, grant them wisdom as they make important decisions for this great state. Lord, lead us and guide us down Your path. Lord, we take time to remember the people in Oklahoma who have lost family and friends. I pray that You comfort them in the time of need and that Your peace would rest upon their troubled hearts. Thank You for Your kindness and understanding. May the Lord bless you and keep you; may He make His face to shine upon you. AMEN.

"Sec. 3. NRS 665.165 is hereby amended to read as follows:

665.165 1. Every state bank shall retain its business records for such periods as are or may be prescribed by or in accordance with the terms of this section.

2. Each state bank shall retain permanently the minute books of meetings of its stockholders and directors, its capital stock ledger and capital stock certificate ledger or stubs, its general ledger, its investment ledger, its copies of bank examination reports, and all records which the commissioner in accordance with this section requires to be retained permanently.

3. All other bank records must be retained for such periods as the commissioner may in accordance with this section prescribe.

4. The commissioner shall, from time to time, issue regulations classifying all records kept by state banks and prescribe the period for which records in each class must be retained. Such periods may be permanent or for a lesser term of years. The commissioner shall keep such regulations current and shall revise them at least once every 3 years. In issuing and revising such regulations, the commissioner shall consider:

(a) Actions at law and administrative proceedings in which the production of bank records might be necessary or desirable.

(b) State and federal statutes of limitation applicable to such actions or proceedings.

(c) The availability of information contained in bank records from other sources.

(d) Such other matters as the commissioner considers pertinent in order that his regulations will require banks to retain their records for as short a period as is commensurate with the interests of bank customers and shareholders and of the people of this state in having bank records available.

5. Any state bank may dispose of any record which has been retained for the period prescribed by or in accordance with the terms of this section for retention of records of its class, and shall thereafter be under no duty to produce such record in any action or proceeding.

6. Any state bank may cause any or all records required to be kept pursuant to this section to be reproduced by the microphotographic process [and any] , optical disk imaging or any other equivalent technique designed to ensure an accurate reproduction of the original. Any such reproduction has the same effect as the original. Upon completion of such a [microphotographic] duplication, the original of any record may be destroyed.

7. To the extent that they are not in contravention of any law of the United States, the provisions of this section apply to all banks doing business in this state.".

Amend the title of the bill, fourth line, after "condition;" by inserting: "revising the manner in which state banks are allowed to keep duplicate records;".

Amendment No. 376.

Amend section 1, page 2, by deleting lines 9 through 20 and inserting:

"5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS 125A.360, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint custody of the child by the perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall then determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

(c) The likelihood of future injury;

(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self-defense; and

(e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the determination.

In such a case, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.

7. As used in this [paragraph,] section, "domestic violence" means the".
