If the counselor does not grant an extension or approve or disapprove of the plan and notify the private person or public agency of his decision within 21 days after the plan was submitted to the system, the plan shall be deemed approved.

7. 616.5173 1. A vocational rehabilitation counselor shall develop a plan for a program of vocational rehabilitation for each injured employee who is eligible for vocational rehabilitation services pursuant to NRS 616.5178. The counselor shall work with the insurer and the injured employee to develop a program that is compatible with the injured employee's age, sex and physical condition.

2. If the counselor determined in the written assessment developed pursuant to NRS 616.5172 that the injured employee has existing marketable skills, the plan must consist of job placement assistance only. When practicable, the goal of job placement assistance must be to aid the employee in finding a position which pays a gross wage that is equal to or greater than 80 percent of the gross wage that he was earning at the time of his injury. An injured employee must not receive job placement assistance for more than 90 days after the date on which he was notified that he is eligible only for job placement assistance because:

(a) He was physically capable of returning to work; or

(b) It was determined that he had existing marketable skills.

3. If the counselor determined in the written assessment developed pursuant to NRS 616.5172 that the injured employee does not have existing marketable skills, the plan must consist of a program which trains or educates the injured employee and provides job placement assistance. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616.51735, such a program must not exceed:

(b) If the injured employee has incurred a permanent physical impairment of 6 percent or more, but less than 11 percent, 9 months.

4. A plan for a program of vocational rehabilitation must comply with the requirements set forth in NRS 616.5177.

5. A program of vocational rehabilitation must not commence before the treating physician or chiropractor, or an examining physician or chiropractor determines that the injured employee is capable of safely participating in the program.

6. If, based upon the opinion of a treating or an examining physician or chiropractor, the counselor determines that an injured employee is not eligible for vocational rehabilitation services, the counselor shall provide a copy of the opinion to the injured employee, the injured employee's employer and the insurer.

7. A plan for a program of vocational rehabilitation must be signed by a certified vocational rehabilitation counselor.

8. If an initial program of vocational rehabilitation pursuant to this section is unsuccessful, an injured employee may submit a written request for the development of a second program of vocational rehabilitation which relates to the same injury. An insurer shall authorize a second program for an injured employee upon good cause shown.

9. If a second program of vocational rehabilitation pursuant to subsection 8 is unsuccessful, an injured employee may submit a written request for the development of a third program of vocational rehabilitation which relates to the same injury. The insurer, with the approval of the employer who was the injured employee's employer at the time of his injury, may authorize a third program for the injured employee. If such an employer has terminated operations, his approval is not required for authorization of a third program. An insurer's determination to authorize or deny a third program of vocational rehabilitation may not be appealed.

(a) A claimant injured on or after July 1, 1973, and before July 1, 1981, who incurs a disability that does not exceed 12 percent may elect to receive his compensation in a lump sum. A claimant injured on or after July 1, 1981, and before July 1, 1995, who incurs a disability that does not exceed 25 percent may elect to receive his compensation in a lump sum.

(b) The spouse, or in the absence of a spouse, any dependent child of a deceased claimant injured on or after July 1, 1973, who is not entitled to compensation in accordance with NRS 616.615, is entitled to a lump sum equal to the present value of the deceased claimant's undisbursed award for a permanent partial disability.

(c) Any claimant injured on or after July 1, 1981, and before July 1, 1995, who incurs a disability that exceeds 25 percent may elect to receive his compensation in a lump sum equal to the present value of an award for a disability of 25 percent. If the claimant elects to receive compensation pursuant to this paragraph, the insurer shall pay in installments to the claimant that portion of the claimant's disability in excess of 25 percent.

(d) Any claimant injured on or after July 1, 1995, may elect to receive his compensation in a lump sum in accordance with regulations adopted by the administrator and approved by the governor. The administrator shall adopt regulations for determining the eligibility of such a claimant to receive all or any portion of his compensation in a lump sum. Such regulations may include the manner in which an award for a permanent partial disability may be paid to such a claimant in installments. Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 233B.070, any regulation adopted pursuant to this paragraph does not become effective unless it is first approved by the governor.

2. If the claimant elects to receive his payment for a permanent partial disability in a lump sum [,] pursuant to subsection 1, all of his benefits for compensation terminate. His acceptance of that payment constitutes a final settlement of all factual and legal issues in the case. By so accepting he waives all of his rights regarding the claim, including the right to appeal from the closure of the case or the percentage of his disability, except:

(a) His right to reopen his claim according to the provisions of NRS 616.545; and

(b) Any counseling, training or other rehabilitative services provided by the insurer.

The claimant must be advised in writing of the provisions of this subsection when he demands his payment in a lump sum, and has 20 days after the mailing or personal delivery of this notice within which to retract or reaffirm his demand, before payment may be made and his election becomes final.

3. Any lump sum payment which has been paid on a claim incurred on or after July 1, 1973, must be supplemented if necessary to conform to the provisions of this section.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the total lump sum payment for disablement must not be less than one-half the product of the average monthly wage multiplied by the percentage of disability. If the claimant received compensation in installment payments for his permanent partial disability before electing to receive his payment for that disability in a lump sum, the lump sum payment must be calculated for the remaining payment of compensation.

5. The lump sum payable must be equal to the present value of the compensation awarded, less any advance payment or lump sum previously paid. The present value must be calculated using monthly payments in the amounts prescribed in subsection 6 of NRS 616.605 and actuarial annuity tables adopted by the division. The tables must be reviewed annually by a consulting actuary.

6. If a claimant would receive more money by electing to receive compensation in a lump sum than he would if he receives installment payments, he may elect to receive the lump sum payment.".

2. If the insurer and the injured employee execute an agreement pursuant to subsection 1, the acceptance of the payment of compensation in a lump sum by the injured employee extinguishes his right to receive vocational rehabilitation services under his claim. Except as otherwise required by federal law, an injured employee shall not receive vocational rehabilitation services from any state agency after he accepts payment of compensation in a lump sum pursuant to this section.

3. Before executing an agreement pursuant to subsection 1, an insurer shall:

(a) Order an assessment of and counseling concerning the vocational skills of the injured employee, unless the provisions of NRS 616.5176 are applicable;

(b) Consult with the employer of the injured employee; and

(2) That the injured employee may rescind the agreement within 20 days after he signs it.

(3) That the 20-day period pursuant to subparagraph (2) may not be waived.

(4) That acceptance by the injured employee of payment of compensation in a lump sum in lieu of the provision of vocational rehabilitation services extinguishes his right to receive such services.

4. No payment of compensation in a lump sum may be made pursuant to this section until the 20-day period provided for the rescission of the agreement has expired.".

680B.050 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a domestic or foreign insurer which owns and substantially occupies and uses any building in this state as its home office or as a regional home office, as defined in subsection 2, is entitled to the following credits against the tax otherwise imposed by NRS 680B.027:

(a) An amount equal to 50 percent of the aggregate amount of the tax as determined under NRS 680B.025 to 680B.039, inclusive, and section 2 of [this act;] Senate Bill No. 271 of this session; and

(b) An amount equal to the full amount of ad valorem taxes paid by the insurer during the calendar year next preceding the filing of the report required by NRS 680B.030, upon the home office or regional home office together with the land, as reasonably required for the convenient use of the office, upon which the home office or regional home office is situated.

These credits must not reduce the amount of tax payable to less than 20 percent of the tax otherwise payable by the insurer under NRS 680B.027.

2. For the purposes of this section a "regional home office" means an office of the insurer performing for an area covering two or more states, with a minimum of 25 employees on its office staff, the supervision, underwriting, issuing and servicing of the insurance business of the insurer.

3. The insurer shall on or before March 1 of each year furnish proof to the satisfaction of the executive director of the department of taxation, on forms furnished by or acceptable to the executive director, as to its entitlement to the tax reduction provided for in this section. A determination of the executive director of the department of taxation pursuant to this section is not binding upon the commissioner for the purposes of NRS 682A.240.

4. An insurer is not entitled to the credits provided in this section unless:

(a) The insurer [owned] :

(1) Owned the property upon which the reduction is based for the entire year for which the reduction is claimed; and

[(b) The insurer occupied]

(2) Occupied at least 70 percent of the usable space in the building to transact insurance or the insurer is a general or limited partner and occupies 100 percent of its ownership interest in the building.

(b) In the case of insurers that are authorized to provide industrial insurance in this state, the commissioner notifies the state treasurer that the balance in the state insurance fund is sufficient to ensure the solvency of the state industrial insurance system pursuant to section 129.5 of this act.

5. If two or more insurers under common ownership or management and control jointly own in equal interest, and jointly occupy and use such a home office or regional home office in this state for the conduct and administration of their respective insurance businesses as provided in this section, each of the insurers is entitled to the credits provided for by this section if otherwise qualified therefor under this section.

Sec. 130.6. NRS 680B.060 is hereby amended to read as follows:

680B.060 1. [The] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the taxes imposed under NRS 680B.027 must be collected by the department of taxation and promptly deposited with the state treasurer for credit to the state general fund.

2. If the tax is not paid by the insurer on or before the date required for payment, the tax then becomes delinquent, and payment thereof may be enforced by court action instituted on behalf of the state by the attorney general. The attorney general may employ additional counsel in the city where the home office of the insurer is located, subject to approval of compensation for such services by the state board of examiners. The administrative and substantive enforcement provisions of chapters 360 and 372 of NRS apply to the enforcement of the taxes imposed under NRS 680B.027.

3. Upon the tax becoming delinquent the executive director of the department of taxation shall notify the commissioner, who shall suspend or revoke the insurer's certificate of authority pursuant to NRS 680A.190.

4. If a dispute arises between an insurer and the state as to the amount of tax, if any, payable, the insurer is entitled to pay under protest the tax in the amount assessed by the department of taxation, without waiving or otherwise affecting any right of the insurer to recover any amount determined, through appropriate legal action taken by the insurer against the department of taxation, to have been in excess of the amount of tax lawfully payable.

5. [All] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, all taxes, fees, licenses, fines and charges collected under this code, including the general premium tax provided for under NRS 680B.027 and as increased in any instances pursuant to NRS 680A.330, must be promptly deposited with the state treasurer for credit to the state general fund.

6. The taxes collected pursuant to NRS 680B.027 from insurers that are writing industrial insurance in this state, including the state industrial insurance system, must be promptly deposited with the state treasurer for credit to the state insurance fund until the commissioner notifies the state treasurer that the balance in the state insurance fund is sufficient to ensure the solvency of the state industrial insurance system. Upon receipt of such a notice, the state treasurer shall discontinue depositing the taxes in the state insurance fund and shall deposit the taxes collected from these insurers for credit to the state general fund.".

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your abundant blessings on our United States of America. I ask You, Father to bless these men and women whom You have put in these positions of authority. Bless them with wisdom, discernment, knowledge and understanding. Have them do what Proverbs, 3:5 says: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding."

When they face trying circumstances and difficult decisions, let them trust in You Lord, acknowledge You, and You will make their paths straight. Put Your hedge of protection and angels around them and their families.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 170.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 942.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting section 1 and inserting new sections designated sections 1 through 3, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

1. On June 5, 1979, the people of the State of Nevada enacted an exemption for the retail sale of food from the sales and use tax;

2. The exemption for the retail sale of food contains an exception for food prepared for immediate consumption;

3. The provisions enacted in 1979 stated that the exemption of food for human consumption from the sales and use tax and local school support tax must be strictly construed and be applied to only those foods and beverages commonly purchased for preparation and consumption at home;

4. The provisions further stated that the exemption applies to food and beverages sold in food stores or departments where sales of eligible foods and beverages constitute more than half of the total sales;

5. Changes in modern marketing techniques have blurred the distinction between food sold in restaurants for immediate consumption and food sold in grocery stores which requires no additional preparation;

6. A clear distinction between taxable and exempt food can be made based upon whether or not it is prepared food intended for immediate consumption; and

7. The provisions enacted in 1979 need to be revised to reflect modern technology and ensure fairness and equal treatment for all sectors of the retail food business.

In 1 Samuel, Chapter 17, we read of the battle between David, a small boy, slaying Goliath, a giant. STATE OF NEVADA

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

CARSON CITY, NEVADA 89710

June 21, 1995

THE HONORABLE JOSEPH DINI and THE HONORABLE LYNN HETTRICK, Speakers, Nevada State Assembly, Carson City, Nevada 89710

DEAR ASSEMBLYMAN DINI and ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

I am herewith forwarding to you, for filing within the Constitutional time limit, and without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 43, entitled:

> An act relating to the Federal Government; clarifying the authority of an officer or employee of the Federal Government to enforce the provisions of the Statutes of Nevada or Nevada Revised Statutes and to exercise the powers of a peace officer in this state; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Numerous state, local and federal officials have expressed their concerns about Assembly Bill No. 43 to me. I am persuaded by their arguments that this bill would seriously undermine the current state of cooperation among the various federal, state and local law enforcement agencies and could potentially endanger the public safety of Nevada's citizens and visitors.

Among the most serious concerns expressed by these officials are:

1) Assembly Bill No. 43 creates unacceptable jurisdictional problems for task forces and federal-local cooperative arrangements that cross county lines. It would eliminate the ability of federal law enforcement officers or employees to enforce laws relating to a number of serious crimes. Under the Assimilative Crimes Act, the United States currently relies on state laws when there is no specific federal prohibition. Assembly Bill No. 43 would tie the hands of these federal employees trying to protect the public on federal lands.

2) Currently, federal rangers and agents routinely help state and local law enforcement efforts with both manpower and equipment. This bill would create potential liability for a federal peace officer who comes to the assistance of a trooper, county officer, brand inspector or a citizen in a remote area of Nevada without an existing cooperative agreement.

3) Under the bill, the state agencies would be prohibited from entering into a cooperative agreement with federal agencies for law enforcement; all the current cooperative agreements would be void. This would result in a lack of public safety coverage.

Assembly Bill No. 43 creates confusion, uncertainty and potential animosity in an arena which needs cooperation and assistance.

Sincerely,
BOB MILLER
Governor

The question was put: "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

Remarks by Assemblymen Carpenter, Marvel, Humke, Allard, Sandoval and Perkins.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It seems the theme for this session has been perception versus reality. We have all heard this term in conjunction with various issues. This bill, once again, presents the theme of the perception of what this bill would do, and the reality of what this bill will do.

My remarks will be threefold. First, I will explain why I asked for this bill. Second, I will explain what the bill does and does not do. Third, I will address the Governor's veto message.

Why did I ask for this bill? The answer is in the title to the bill. It says, "Clarifies the authority of the Federal Government to enforce state laws." On February 16, 1994, the U.S. Forest Service issued a proposed regulation that was published in the Federal Register. What this regulation proposed to do was to authorize the Forest Service to make arrests on public lands and to enforce state and local laws.

In response to this federal rule, Elko County Sheriff Neil Harris said he did not agree with the charge that his office lacked the resources to protect the county's citizens on public lands. He also said that the Elko County Sheriff's Department had been patrolling forest service areas, including Lamoille Canyon, for a number of years under an agreement with the agency. The system seems to work well.

Mr. Harris also said, "We go out (to investigate) any crime on forest service land, serious or not." Harris added that he opposed empowering the Federal Government to enforce local laws. I'd be concerned if this was going to happen here. They (the federal agents) are trying to get a foothold enforcing local law in rural areas, Harris said. "We're in a better position to do enforcement. We know the people and they know us." This proposed regulation was eventually withdrawn because of the public backlash it created. Representative Barbara Vucanovich was quoted in the Elko Daily Free Press concerning this regulation, "I am pleased the regulations are withdrawn. Now, the task is to watch for the inevitable 'second draft' or 'revision.' "

That is why I requested this bill, to avoid this kind of unacceptable federal intervention in matters of state law and to avoid the 'second draft' or 'revisions.' The only time a federal officer should be enforcing our laws is if we have granted them specific authority.

Under NRS 171.1245, an agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Secret Service may arrest a person without a warrant or arrest a person on a state warrant. We have specifically authorized a limited enforcement of a state provision by a federal officer in that statute.

As some of you may recall, we had a bill last session that would have extended that statute to include the United States Marshals. That bill, Senate Bill No. 2, was rejected by this body. It was appropriate that we decided whether a federal officer should be enforcing state laws, and in that case we said, "No."

That is what this bill is about, it simply clarifies that federal officers should not enforce state laws, unless a specific state or federal law says they can, or they have an agreement with the Sheriff or Chief of Police. As stated in a memorandum from Brenda Erdoes, our legislative counsel, "An officer of the Federal Government does not generally possess the authority to enforce the provisions of the law of a state, unless he has been specifically granted that authority under a federal or state statute."

See, United States versus Tarlowski, 305 F. Supp. (1969): Holding that, in the absence of applicable federal statutes, the extent of the authority of an agent of the Internal Revenue Service depends largely upon the statute or common law of the state in which he operates; Counsel inf., Op, 2 Op. O.l.c. 47 in (1978), the F.B.I.'s own legal counsel stated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has no authority to take action with respect to violations of state laws, even in exigent circumstances, and any authority to act in such instances must come from state law. Therefore, although the activities of a federal officer or employee are free from regulation by a state, if the officer or employee wishes to engage in activity as a peace officer, he must generally be given that authority pursuant to a specific state or federal statute.

The second part of my remarks is, what would this bill do? I asked for an opinion from the legislative counsel regarding the constitutionality of this bill. The reasons that it is constitutional points out what the bill does. The opinion states that it is the existing law, not in our statute, but the existing case law says, that "an officer of the Federal Government does not generally possess the authority to enforce provisions of the law of a state unless he has been specifically granted that authority under a federal or state statute."

The opinion states as follows: "Accordingly, it is the opinion of this office that because the provisions of Assembly Bill No. 43 merely clarify that an officer or employee of the Federal Government may not enforce any provision of the statutes of Nevada while on public land which is under the control of the Federal Government unless he is authorized to do so pursuant to a specific state or federal statute or pursuant to a cooperative agreement with a Sheriff or Chief of Police. The provisions of Assembly Bill No. 43 are constitutional and provide the mechanism for granting such authority."

The perception of what this bill would do has distorted the reality of what this bill would do in the real world. As related by Elko County Sheriff, Neil Harris, he already patrols forest service areas under arrangement with the agency. Speaking with White Pine County Sheriff, Bernie Romero, and a representative of the Washoe County Sheriff's Office, confirms the same arrangement. They patrol forest service areas under cooperative agreement and would continue this arrangement as provided for in Assembly Bill No. 43.

New accounts have purported that under Assembly Bill No. 43, law enforcement on Indian reservations would be hindered. This is pure poppycock. Local law enforcement officers do not arrest Indians on reservations or colonies. They do, however, back up Indian police in emergencies. Indian police do not arrest non-Indians on Tribal lands except in emergencies. They call on the county sheriff to arrest the non-Indians. These cooperative agreements will continue under Assembly Bill No. 43 provided the B.I.A. and County Sheriffs believe the arrangements are proper policy.

In talking with highway patrol personnel, they often use the expertise and resources of federal agencies, especially in complicated cases. This is as it should be. They do not, however, want federal agents patrolling the highways on a regular basis. The highway patrol is the agency empowered to enforce state statute and any increase of federal police power on our highways would be met with great resistance by the citizens of Nevada.

The Clark County Sheriff did testify against Assembly Bill No. 43 in the Senate. However, he later brought an amendment to Assembly Bill No. 43, which I presumed satisfied his objections.

The Governor's Press Secretary, Richard Urey, made the most irresponsible statement of all by inferring that Assembly Bill No. 43 would prevent a park ranger from rescuing a child left in a hot car at Hoover Dam's Visitors Center, and furthermore, it would enable the culprit "simply to drive away."

If Mr. Urey, the park ranger, myself or anyone at the scene did not rescue the child and arrest the culprit, either as a peace officer or as a private citizen with power of citizens arrest, we are all derelict in our duties as citizens of this great state.

I will briefly respond to the veto message from the Governor. First, the Governor contends that the bill would tie the hands of federal officers because they rely on state laws if there is no applicable federal law. This is contrary to what I believe and what my constituents believe. We believe that the Federal Government is not, and should not, be enforcing state laws. If there is no federal law in existence then the Federal Government ought to deal with that through the provisions of Assembly Bill No. 43. There are so many federal laws out there, that I find it hard to believe they don't have a law that covers every conceivable situation. In any event that is a federal problem, which Assembly Bill No. 43 would help to correct.

Second, the Governor states that this measure may cause potential liability for federal officers who assist state officers in remote areas of Nevada. Since this law simply clarifies the existing case law, I do not see how it gives rise to additional liability.

Finally, the Governor asserts that state agencies would be prohibited from entering into cooperative agreements with federal officers and this would hinder cooperation. Again, this bill only clarifies the existing case law, and as I have stated, myself and my constituents do not want federal officers enforcing state laws unless a specific state or federal statute authorizes that or there is an agreement with the Sheriff or Chief of Police. Assembly Bill No. 43 provides the vehicle that will continue the cooperation among our law enforcement agencies. Without Assembly Bill No. 43, there is a real question of whether such cooperation can continue.

In conclusion, I urge you to override the Governor's veto and stand on the side of reality, not perception.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of my colleague from Assembly District 33 in asking this body to override the Governor's veto on Assembly Bill No. 43. To me this is clearly a "state's rights" issue. Pure and simply.

The veto message does not state what the bill actually does. It does prohibit federal encroachment in areas where state and local jurisdiction should be the binding force. So, if you read subsection 2 very closely it does not preclude local agencies or state agencies from entering into these local agreements with our federal agencies.

Secondly, this word was the first thing that disturbed me when the first regulation came out. It said "employees," that means the rank and file of the Forest Service or the BLM or any other federal agency would have these powers and these people are not trained like our people are. So, again, I say that this is a "state's rights" issue and I hope that you will support us in overriding this veto.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the veto override. The Chief Executive has set out three different rationales for the veto. I think the key is in point number one of the June 21 writing; point number one, near the bottom of the page. Assembly Bill No. 43 creates unacceptable jurisdictional problems for task forces, federal and local cooperative arrangements that cross county lines.

I would agree that it does create jurisdictional problems for a State's Chief Executive and certainly for the federal agencies that wish to have the authority to enforce the state laws outside their federal jurisdiction. I do not agree that it is unacceptable. All that is needed is for this Legislature to pass appropriate legislation and, perhaps, the Chief Executive himself could enter into an executive order directing those agencies to negotiate the agreements with the federal agencies.

This leads directly into the Chief Executive's point number two, at the second page of the message, where it is set out that the federal agencies often need to and wish to assist state troopers, county officers, brand inspectors or citizens; citizens as was alluded to by the previous speaker from Elko, may need assistance or may be making a citizen's arrest.

I think that this Legislature knows that many of these people are friends of ours. The State Head Brand Inspector is a long-standing friend of mine, but if he needs the assistance of a federal officer, that ought to be supported by state statute. The ability to cooperate ought to be supported by a state statute or an executive order.

The third point made by the Chief Executive, I believe is the key, where it is stated that the state agencies would be prohibited from entering into cooperative agreements with law enforcement agencies. All that is needed is a few specific statutes, the Chief Executive cites troopers and state brand inspectors. Those are the only two federal agencies cited that could be taken care of in one bill, that could be passed in three hours by this Legislature as companion to Assembly Bill No. 43.

As the previous speaker from Elko cited, under agravating circumstances, a federal agent can still make an arrest, and still take the action. This would be in a hot pursuit situation where there is a fresh crime scene which shows a murder or shows that there is a child in danger. I guess that is the main thing I see about this veto message, and I want the members to make no mistake, there is no citation of constitutional problem. There is no constitutional problem with Assembly Bill No. 43.

A bill that passed this Assembly, and the committee unanimously, had a slight change in the Senate. A change in which this body agreed. The Chief Executive does not and cannot cite a constitutional problem with this bill. This bill simply makes it inconvenient for the Chief Executive. This is not the same thing as unconstitutional.

Mr. Speaker, I will go into two additional areas briefly. I think that the way that this bill is being styled, the issue is being styled as a rural issue. Members need only to look at the issue, look behind it and say, "Well, it is a rural issue." It affects Elko County, the Elko County Sheriff, and maybe, a certain local official's nose is out of joint in way-out eastern Nevada. "It's just a rural issue." Those of you from Reno and Las Vegas, make no mistake. It could happen to you. It could happen to you in a heartbeat where some of your legislation could be vetoed based on the same theory. Not on constitutional grounds, but based on convenience.

Finally, the last theory that I would like to go into is the area of federalism and respect for all levels of government. This veto message does the Federal Government a huge favor. In fact, this is a situation where this state is doing the bidding of the Federal Government. In essence it says, "Please slap more mandates on us. Please tell us how to run our own law enforcement in our state, our counties and other political subdivisions. Because, to do otherwise, would be inconvenient."

I do not want to go into a whole lecture on federalism. The basic concept of federalism is that there is respect by one level of government for all other levels of government. In other words, the Federal Government ought to respect state governments as well as local government and vice versa. Thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN ALLARD:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would just like to ask the question, who knows more about how to enforce Nevada's laws, the laws that we make, than Nevadans?

There has been a lot of talk this session about separation of powers between different branches of our state government. But, I believe this measure clarifies certain aspects of our relationship between our Federal Government and our state government. I do not want the federal agents coming to our state and enforcing our laws. To not have this measure, in essence, is saying that we can't handle our own affairs. I believe that we can. I hope that this body shares that belief. This bill passed out of this house unanimously just a short time ago. I submit to you today that nothing has changed since that time. We still have the ability to enforce our laws and enter into an agreement with the Federal Government when we feel that it is appropriate. I urge you to make this bill a law and not erode our state's power any further. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN SANDOVAL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the override of the veto of Assembly Bill No. 43. Rather than create confusion, uncertainty and potential animosity, the bill will encourage state and local law enforcement to work hand-in-hand to fight crime and to help development of agreements between these agencies.

With the passage of this bill, federal and local law enforcement will be more familiar with each other's procedures resulting in improved protection for Nevada's citizens and visitors. Assembly Bill No. 43 is a good simple bill. It will enhance public safety at a time when all of us are demanding more weapons to fight crime. Therefore, I urge this body to override the veto of Assembly Bill No. 43. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to overriding the Governor's veto on Assembly Bill No. 43. Yes, I voted for this bill early in the session as did everyone else in this house. I regret that mistake. Of all people, I should have recognized the flaws that Assembly Bill No. 43 drew in its drafting. It saw no opposition in committee.

My good friend from Elko told us that the bill didn't really do anything but codify what is occurring today. I would respectfully disagree.

This bill addresses peace officers sworn to uphold the law. It addresses their ability to do their law enforcement jobs. Crime is the most pressing issue facing our state today. Federal, state, and local law enforcement authorities are working together to provide the safety that our citizens demand and deserve. They are law enforcement officers regardless of where their pay comes from. They are men and women just like you and me. The only difference between them and me is who their employer is. This bill undermines the unspoken cooperation that is shared by members of the law enforcement profession, sworn under the Constitution and given the best training to enforce the law.

We have heard that our officers receive P.O.S.T. training and that federal officers, perhaps, aren't trained quite as well. I can only tell you that is absolutely not the case. Federal law enforcement officers have the ability and access much finer training than our state police officers do.

On November 25, 1994, a brutal robbery and murder occurred at a restaurant in Henderson. A group of Henderson Police Investigators worked tirelessly for weeks without being able to solve this crime. It was the sudden involvement of a special agent of the local office of the FBI that broke that case. Five people were arrested and charged with crimes such as robbery, burglary, coercion, kidnapping, murder and others. This was a brutal crime in which a federal law enforcement agency proved instrumental in its solving. This is but one example of thousands, Mr. Speaker, of how federal law enforcement helps local law enforcement.

This cooperation has been spelled out in written agreements between state and federal agencies. These agreements provide for cooperation and backup for both state and federal law enforcement personnel. These agreements have worked well. If we adopt this law, we will invalidate the agreements where they exist with the county and not specifically with the local Sheriff or Chief of Police.

The sponsors of this bill intended it to be a state's rights issue. But, when it is examined closely, it is not about state's rights. A United States Attorney has warned that prohibiting federal agents from arresting people for state crimes would turn our public lands into a safe harbor for criminals.

We Nevadans use those lands for work and for pleasure. It is in Nevadans' own best interest to do everything possible to make them safe from crime, not safe for criminals. Every member of this house has promised his or her constituents that we will be "tough on crime." We can't be "tough on crime" if we're going to make it tougher for law enforcement officers to do their jobs.

I have heard an explanation by the prime sponsor of what he believes the bill does. That interpretation is not shared by the local law enforcement community. They did testify in the Senate against Assembly Bill No. 43. As this body recognizes, perception is reality, particularly when it comes to public safety.

I apologize for not seeing and understanding the flaws in this bill before we passed it out. I do appreciate that it was caught by the Governor so that it could be addressed. I urge this body to sustain this veto so as to allow local, state and federal law enforcement to provide the best blanket of security possible for your family, my family and all citizens of this great state. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The roll was called, and the Assembly sustained the veto of the Governor by the following vote:

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Braunlin requested that Assemblyman de Braga's remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With your permission, I would like to move for the adoption of the following resolution.

WHEREAS, 1:01 p.m. on June 23, 1995, was the time and date chosen by James Brian Sandoval to make his appearance on this earth; and

WHEREAS, he wisely chose Brian and Kathleen Sandoval to be his family; and

WHEREAS, even though he weighed in at a substantial 7 lbs. 10 ozs. and is 19½ inches long, the miracle of birth was not your everyday garden variety miracle; and

WHEREAS, his entry was fraught with danger, causing considerable worry to his family, a state of mind most children wait until they are teenagers to inflict upon their parents; and

WHEREAS, any who is not aware that James Brian is a child of obviously superior intelligence and incredible good looks either has not seen him yet or has not talked to his father; and

WHEREAS, ahead of the Sandoval's lie sleepless nights, dirty diapers, teething, talking, talking back, the terrible twos, the terrifying teens, and thousands of "phases" which if they were remembered vividly, would result in most children being deprived of brothers or sisters; and

WHEREAS, the 42 Assembly Members of the 68th Session of the Nevada Legislature, who seldom agree on anything, did unite with all the other people who have, by virtue of longevity established residency in this building, to pray for the safety of James Brian and are humbly grateful that their prayers were answered;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that, by virtue of our mutual participation in the blessed event, we have a collective stake in his future; and

BE IT THEREFORE FURTHER RESOLVED that upon his graduation from law school, any inclination James may have toward a career in politics will automatically trigger a bipartisan caucus to deal with the subject; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we all wish for James Brian Sandoval good health, much happiness and all the best life has to offer.

Assemblyman Perkins moved that the Assembly adjourn until Monday, June 26, 1995 at 11 a.m.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill No. 283 revises the confidentiality of certain records of the Commission on Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The bill stipulates that a report concerning denial of a claimaint's rights is confidential. In addition, the measure authorizes the commission pursuant to provisions in Nevada's open meeting law to close a portion of a meeting at which it discusses an employee's character or conduct with respect to denial of a client's rights or the care or treatment of a client.

If I might, as a request from my colleague from Assembly District No. 8, read some clarification of legislative intent into the record. The report of denial is still in the client's record of treatment. The client and their attorney can have access to their own records.

Sec. 7. NRS 353.205 is hereby amended to read as follows:

353.205 The state budget for each fiscal year must be set up in three parts:

1. Part 1 must consist of a budget message by the governor which outlines the financial policy of the executive department of the state government for the next 2 fiscal years, describing in connection therewith the important features of the financial plan. It must also embrace a general budget summary setting forth the aggregate figures of the budget in such a manner as to show the balanced relations between the total proposed expenditures and the total anticipated revenues, together with the other means of financing the budget for the next 2 fiscal years, contrasted with the corresponding figures for the last completed fiscal year and fiscal year in progress. The general budget summary must be supported by explanatory schedules or statements, classifying the expenditures contained therein by organizational units, objects and funds, and the income by organizational units, sources and funds.

2. Part 2 must embrace the detailed budget estimates both of expenditures and revenues as provided in NRS 353.150 to 353.246, inclusive. The information must be presented in a manner which sets forth separately the cost of continuing each program at the same level of service as the current year and the cost, by budget issue, of any recommendations to enhance or reduce that level of service. Revenues must be summarized by type and expenditures must be summarized by category of expense. Part 2 must include a mission statement and measurement indicators for each program. It must also include statements of the bonded indebtedness of the state government, showing the requirements for redemption of debt, the debt authorized and unissued, and the condition of the sinking funds, and any statements relative to the financial plan which the governor may deem desirable, or which may be required by the legislature.

3. Part 3 must include a recommendation to the legislature for the drafting of a general appropriation bill authorizing, by departments, institutions and agencies, and by funds, all expenditures of the executive department of the state government for the next 2 fiscal years, and may include [complete drafts] recommendations to the legislature for the drafting of such other bills as may be required to provide the income necessary to finance the budget and to give legal sanction to the financial plan if adopted by the legislature.

As soon as each part is prepared, a copy of the part must be transmitted to the fiscal analysis division of the legislative counsel bureau for confidential examination and retention.

Sec. 8. NRS 353.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

353.230 1. The chief shall review the estimates, altering, revising, increasing or decreasing the items of the estimates as he may deem necessary in view of the needs of the various departments, institutions and agencies in the executive department of the state government and the total anticipated income of the state government and of the various departments, institutions and agencies thereof during the next fiscal year. In performing the duties required by this subsection, the chief shall use the projections and estimates prepared by the economic forum pursuant to NRS 353.228.

2. A fiscal analyst of the legislative counsel bureau or his designated representative shall meet with the chief and participate in the budget review and shall have full access to all materials connected with the review.

3. The chief shall then prepare a budget, in accordance with NRS 353.150 to 353.246, inclusive, and shall deliver it to the governor. All revenue projections and any other information concerning future state revenue contained in the budget must be based upon the projections and estimates prepared by the economic forum pursuant to NRS 353.228. The governor shall transmit the budget to the legislature not later than the 10th day of the regular legislative session. The governor shall simultaneously submit, as a separate document:

(a) An analysis of any new programs or enhancements of existing programs being recommended; and

(b) Any increase in or new revenues which are being recommended in the budget.

The document must specify the total cost by department or agency of new programs or enhancements, but need not itemize the specific costs. All revenue projections and any other information concerning future state revenue contained in the document must be based upon the projections and estimates prepared by the economic forum pursuant to NRS 353.228.

4. During the consideration of the general appropriation bill [, the] and any special appropriation bills and [the] bills authorizing budgeted expenditures by the departments, institutions and agencies operating on money designated for specific purposes by the constitution or otherwise, drafted at the request of the legislature upon the recommendations submitted by the governor with the budget, the governor or his representative have the right to appear before and be heard by the appropriation committees of the legislature in connection with the appropriation bill or bills, and to render any testimony, explanation or assistance required of him.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTIONS

218.241 Drafting of bills for agency or officer of executive branch of state government or local government. Upon request made within the time allowed and within limits established by the legislature by concurrent

To assure the greatest possible equity in the handling of requests, drafting must proceed as follows:

1. Requests for legislative measures from each agency or officer of the executive branch of the state government or local government must, insofar as is possible, be acted upon in the order in which they are received, unless a different priority is designated by the requester.

2. As soon as an agency or officer of the executive branch of the state government or a local government has requested 10 bills for any session the legislative counsel may request the agency, officer or local government to designate the priority for each succeeding request.

3. The priority so designated must guide the legislative counsel in acting upon the requests of the respective agencies and officers of the executive branch of the state government to ensure each agency and officer, and each local government among themselves, as nearly as is possible, an equal rank.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 59 through 61 as sections 60 through 62 and adding a new section designated sec. 59, following sec. 58, to read as follows:

"Sec. 59. Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 364 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 176 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. A county whose population is 400,000 or more or a city located within such a county, upon recommendation of the appropriate court, may, by ordinance, authorize the justices or judges of the justices' or municipal courts within its jurisdiction to impose for not longer than 25 years, in addition to an administrative assessment imposed pursuant to NRS 176.059, an administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, in any jurisdiction in which an administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities has been authorized, when a defendant pleads guilty or guilty but mentally ill or is found guilty of a misdemeanor, including the violation of any municipal ordinance, the justice or judge shall include in the sentence the sum of $10 as an administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities and render a judgment against the defendant for the assessment.

3. The provisions of subsection 2 do not apply to:

(a) An ordinance regulating metered parking; or

(b) An ordinance which is specifically designated as imposing a civil penalty or liability pursuant to NRS 244.3575 or 268.019.

4. The money collected for an administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities must not be deducted from the fine imposed by the justice or judge but must be taxed against the defendant in addition to the fine. The money collected for such an administrative assessment must be stated separately on the court's docket and must be included in the amount posted for bail. If the defendant is found not guilty or the charges are dismissed, the money deposited with the court must be returned to the defendant. If the justice or judge cancels a fine because the fine has been determined to be uncollectible, any balance of the fine and the administrative assessment remaining unpaid shall be deemed to be uncollectible and the defendant is not required to pay it. If a fine is determined to be uncollectible, the defendant is not entitled to a refund of the fine or administrative assessment he has paid and the justice or judge shall not recalculate the administrative assessment.

5. If the justice or judge permits the fine and administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities to be paid in installments, the payments must be applied in the following order:

(a) To pay the unpaid balance of an administrative assessment imposed pursuant to NRS 176.059;

(b) To pay the unpaid balance of an administrative assessment for the provision of court facilities pursuant to this section; and

(c) To pay the fine.

6. The money collected for administrative assessments for the provision of court facilities in municipal courts must be paid by the clerk of the court to the city treasurer on or before the fifth day of each month for the preceding month. The city treasurer shall deposit the money received in a special revenue fund. The city may use the money in the special revenue fund only to:

(a) Acquire land on which to construct additional facilities for the municipal courts or a regional justice center which includes the municipal courts.

(b) Construct or acquire additional facilities for the municipal courts or a regional justice center which includes the municipal courts.

(c) Renovate or remodel existing facilities for the municipal courts.

(d) Acquire furniture, fixtures and equipment necessitated by the construction or acquisition of additional facilities or the renovation of an existing facility for the municipal courts or a regional justice center which includes the municipal courts. This paragraph does not authorize the expenditure of money from the fund for furniture, fixtures or equipment for judicial chambers.

(e) Acquire advanced technology for use in the additional or renovated facilities.

(f) Pay debt service on any bonds issued pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 350.020 for the acquisition of land or facilities or the construction or renovation of facilities for the municipal courts or a regional justice center which includes the municipal courts.

Any money remaining in the special revenue fund after 5 fiscal years must be deposited in the municipal general fund for the continued maintenance of court facilities if it has not been committed for expenditure pursuant to a plan for the construction or acquisition of court facilities or improvements to court facilities. The city treasurer shall provide, upon request by a municipal court, monthly reports of the revenue credited to and expenditures made from the special revenue fund.

7. The money collected for administrative assessments for the provision of court facilities in justices' courts must be paid by the clerk of the court to the county treasurer on or before the fifth day of each month for the preceding month. The county treasurer shall deposit the money received to a special revenue fund. The county may use the money in the special revenue fund only to:

(a) Acquire land on which to construct additional facilities for the justices' courts or a regional justice center which includes the justices' courts.

(b) Construct or acquire additional facilities for the justices' courts or a regional justice center which includes the justices' courts.

(c) Renovate or remodel existing facilities for the justices' courts.

(d) Acquire furniture, fixtures and equipment necessitated by the construction or acquisition of additional facilities or the renovation of an existing facility for the justices' courts or a regional justice center which includes the justices' courts. This paragraph does not authorize the expenditure of money from the fund for furniture, fixtures or equipment for judicial chambers.

(e) Acquire advanced technology for use in the additional or renovated facilities.

(f) Pay debt service on any bonds issued pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 350.020 for the acquisition of land or facilities or the construction or renovation of facilities for the justices' courts or a regional justice center which includes the justices' courts.

Any money remaining in the special revenue fund after 5 fiscal years must be deposited in the county general fund for the continued maintenance of court facilities if it has not been committed for expenditure pursuant to a plan for the construction or acquisition of court facilities or improvements to court facilities. The county treasurer shall provide, upon request by a justice's court, monthly reports of the revenue credited to and expenditures made from the special revenue fund.

8. If money collected pursuant to this section is to be used to acquire land on which to construct a regional justice center, to construct a regional justice center or to pay debt service on bonds issued for these purposes, the county and the participating cities shall, by interlocal agreement, determine such issues as the size of the regional justice center, the manner in which the center will be used and the apportionment of fiscal responsibility for the center.''.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Senate Bill No. 416.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Humke, Anderson, Ernaut and Manendo.

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill No. 416 modifies the sentencing of persons convicted of felonies. Under this measure, the judge must sentence such a person to a minimum and a maximum term of imprisonment within the limits prescribed by statute. The minimum sentence imposed must not be more than 40 percent of the maximum sentence. An offender is required to serve the minimum sentence imposed by the judge, and there is no parole eligibility during this period. In addition, no credits earned in prison apply to reduce the minimum sentence. After serving the minimum sentence, the offender is eligible for parole and sentence reducing credits which are applied to reduce the maximum.

Senate Bill No. 416 places each felony in state law into one of the following five categories based on the type of sentence that may be imposed:

Category A contains the felonies for which the judge may impose a sentence of life without the possibility of parole. Felonies carrying a potential sentence of death are also included in this category.

Category B contains the felonies for which the judge may impose a sentence that is not less that one year nor more than 20 years.

Category C contains the felonies for which the judge may impose a sentence not less than one year nor more than five years.

Category D contains the felonies for which the judge may impose a sentence not less than one year nor more than four years.

Category E contains the felonies for which probation is mandatory, but the judge imposes an underlying prison sentence of not less than one year nor more than four years.

With the indulgence of the Speaker, my Co-Chairman will present the balance of our prepared remarks.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Senate Bill No. 416 also increases the penalty for certain felonies, including murder, rape, burglary and child abuse, and decreases the penalty for other felonies, such as possession and trafficking of controlled substances. This measure also amends the drug trafficking statutes of changing the mandatory minimum fines to mandatory maximum fines.

Senate Bill No. 416 authorizes judges to design programs unique to an offender's situation and requires the judge to monitor the program to determine whether the offender is responding appropriately. Offenders may be required to obtain a private bond as a condition of probation or an alternative program of restitution for felonies that involve fraud.

The "super" habitual criminal provision is also provided in Category A felony. This legislation requires the prosecutor to charge the offender as a habitual offender if the offender's current charge is one of the violent or sex-related felonies listed in these provisions and the offender has two prior convictions for such felonies. If the offender is convicted, the penalty is life without the possibility of parole, life with the possibility of parole after 10 years or a definite term of 25 years with parole eligibility after 10 years have been served.

This legislation also prohibits the Board of Pardons Commissioners from reducing a sentence of death or life without parole for first degree to a sentence that allows parole.

This act is effective on July 1, 1995.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Senate Bill No. 416. In my opinion, Senate Bill No. 416 is the single most important issue that we will pass in this legislature.

I think many of us were sent here with a mandate. I know 19 freshmen were. People in the State of Nevada and all across this country were tired of crime and tired of the criminal justice system as a whole.

Senate Bill No. 416 has gone a long ways to rectifying those problems. It sends an unarguable message to people who want to commit crimes in the State of Nevada. That is, if you commit crimes, you will do the time you are sentenced to. If you are sentenced to 10 years, you will do 10 years.

At the beginning of the session, I brought a bill which I never introduced because I was waiting to see how this bill turned out. It was an absolute abolishment of parole and the Parole Board. It was the ultimate truth in sentencing.

I was very proud of the Senate, Senator James, the Governor and very proud of our Judiciary Co-Chairmen. I think their explanation of this bill today spoke volumes of the fact that this bill was bipartisan and very important. I think this body, as does the whole process, deserves a round of applause for this bill. We have done a good thing here today, and I think you should all be proud.

ASSEMBLYMAN MANENDO:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Senate Bill No. 416. The public's tolerance for a criminal justice system that releases violent offenders back to our streets and neighborhoods has reached its end.

I read that Nevadan's now have a 1-in-16 chance each year of being a victim of a violent crime. With a state that lives off odds, in gaming that is, in this case the lower the odds, the higher the chance is that you will lose your life.

The plan eliminates parole for violent criminals, requires mandatory minimum sentences, frees up prison space for the most violent criminals, and places substance abuse offenders in alternative incarceration programs. Inmates will have to serve up to 40 percent of the maximum sentence before they start gaining good time credits used to win parole.

This would allow the state to more effectively use its prison system to keep the violent people in and direct the nonviolent people to other community based programs.

Another element that this bill does, is to let victims know exactly what the penalty will be. I urge you to support Senate Bill No. 416. Thank you.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Anderson requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Co-Chairman of Judiciary and I want to recognize a very important part of our ability, and that of our committee, to do this job. That is, the gentleman who is standing in the back of the room who often receives little recognition, Mr. Dennis Neilander. Dennis has his head down and is doing his work, trying to avoid attention, as usual. It is because of his and Allison Combs' hard work that your Judiciary Committee was able to produce a piece of legislation such as Senate Bill No. 416, the truth in sentencing bill, that we just passed. Their hard work, together, has made Nevada's Legislature accomplish something that other state legislatures have taken two or three sessions to accomplish. I wanted to make sure Dennis was recognized for his hard work.

Assemblyman Krenzer moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Krenzer, Chowning, Freeman, Spitler and Segerblom.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Each and every Nevadan should be horrified and appalled by the statistics contained in this booklet. We should be embarrassed and motivated to take action for those who cannot take care of themselves. The Junior League has come forward and brought this to our attention in this powerful booklet. It has a distinct account and brings to light this critical issue. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHOWNING:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 50. This is not the only time that a compelling, graphically illustrated book has been presented. The work that the Junior League has put into this is absolutely commendable. The child abuse that is shown in such a graphic way is very, very effective. The books that they have brought before have been equally as effective. As a citizenry group, we all owe them a great deal of thanks.

ASSEMBLYMAN FREEMAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 50. The Junior League is the "grass roots" people of issues regarding families. The work that they do is factual and well done. I would like to thank the people in the Junior League. They help us alot. Those of us who have a chance and an opportunity to change public policy thank them for their efforts.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, also, stand in support of this resolution. One of the great things about Junior League is they have probably touched more nonprofit groups, particularly in southern Nevada, than almost any other organization. They have provided seed money for so many important things for people in southern Nevada to enjoy. I am thinking of Spring Mountain Ranch and of the summer theater. This was actually begun with seed money from Junior League. The work that this organization does really deserves the praise and attention that it is receiving today. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this resolution. The Junior League, especially in Las Vegas, are the people I am concerned with. They have started many programs for young people and for parents. We need to commend them because those programs they started are still being continued in Clark County. Thank you.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Krenzer moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 50 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried unanimously.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 61.

Assemblyman Dini moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Dini, Close and Ohrenschall.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of this Assembly. I am very proud to have known Kenny Guinn all of these years. Our association started in the 1967 and 1969 sessions when O'Callahan was Governor. We were very close and worked together on a lot of education matters. Throughout the years, I have watched this man progress as a great leader in this state.

Recently, he went to Las Vegas and took over the University of Nevada, Las Vegas when there were problems. He is a real force in this state. I think everyone in the State of Nevada knows Kenny Guinn and what a good man he is. We are very proud to have him in Nevada.

He has become the Chairman of the Board of PriMerit Bank in between his stints in education. He is known to me as one of the first real leaders to be progressive in bringing education in Nevada up to the standards they are today. He ought to be commended. I hope everyone in this room knows who Kenny Guinn is because he is a great man.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 61. Kenny Guinn means a lot to the State of Nevada. He has done a lot, not just in southern Nevada, but the entire state. I have had the opportunity of knowing Mr. Guinn for sometime, not only as a friend, but as a patient and in other areas, too.

I look back at the time that he served as superintendent of the Clark County Schools, and the effort he put forth on behalf of our children. I think the results of his efforts are still in effect today and the benefits that are still being derived in our county because of that. But, I think that when he took over UNLV, for those of us in southern Nevada, he was looked at as a savior, because we were in difficult straits.

I think he brought his business acumen into an environment which previously was lacking business acumen. He has brought UNLV to a point now which I think is on the right track. I certainly support this resolution. I urge you to support it also.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to this distinguished body. I, too, am honored to have known Kenny Guinn for a long time. The only thing I can add is that he accomplished a miracle when he headed up the Clark County schools. He went on to continue that craving with common sense coupled with learning into a business acumen in banking. He went on to triple it and complete a perfect record when he went to help UNLV. It is my honor to rise in support of this resolution.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Assembly Bill No. 695 creates a presidential primary election in Nevada on the fourth Tuesday in March, 1996. The bill requires a person who wishes to be a candidate for the nomination of President of the United States for a major political party to pay to the Secretary of State a filing fee of $1,000 and submit the slate of delegates pledged to his or her candidacy in each congressional district. If only one candidate files for a party's nomination for President, that candidate's delegates must be certified by the Secretary of State as the party's delegates to the national convention. If no candidate files for a political party, the state central committee of that party must select the delegates to the applicable national convention. The bill further provides that the candidate winning the most votes of his or her political party, in each of Nevada's two congressional districts, will receive all the delegates to the national convention for that particular district.

Additionally, the bill provides that the presidential primary must be conducted by mail and the election materials will resemble those distributed for absentee voting. The bill also specifies that a registered voter may vote in person at the county clerk's office during the period of early voting authorized by law. Furthermore, upon recommendation by the Secretary of State and approval of the State Board of Examiners, the cost of the election will be charged against the state's statutory contingency account. The bill appropriates $200,000 from the State General Fund to the statutory contingency account.

Both your Elections and Procedures and Ways and Means Committees have held hearings on this bill and support a do pass.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To my colleague from Las Vegas. If only one political party wants to have a Presidential primary, it will be held?

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you, to my colleague from Boulder City. If only one party wants to have a primary, they can still have it. But, if there is only one candidate, as was amended yesterday, it would be up to the central committee of that party to make that decision.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, to my colleague from Las Vegas. Will the state pick up the tab for one political party to have a primary?

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, through you and to my colleague from Boulder City. There has been a constitutional challenge in other states where the states have attempted not to pick up the tab. This was found to be unconstitutional. Therefore, that is the reason we kept it that way.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, to my colleague from Las Vegas. We had Presidential primaries in 1976 and 1980, why were they discontinued?

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I can't answer that question, so I would yield to anyone else who has the answer.

ASSEMBLYMAN TIFFANY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to my colleague from Clark County, we had two Presidential primary elections in the past under Governor O'Callaghan. The reasons that they were cancelled were: one, it was held too late in the session, as it was held in May and all the Presidential candidates were already chosen. The second reason was there was a low voter turnout. After O'Callaghan left office, the legislature decided to sunset that.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I speak to my colleague from Henderson? If the voter turnout was so low, why do you think there will be a larger turnout now?

ASSEMBLYMAN TIFFANY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to my colleague from Clark County, that is why we have done an all mail-in voter ballot because the testimony from the voter registrars from Carson, Douglas and Clark counties all testified that when it is an all mail-in ballot, you have a larger response. We based the fiscal note on a 50 percent response, which between 35 and 50 percent is anticipated, according to the experts.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I believe in 1980 it was 49 percent and felt to be too low. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill No. 695. I want to thank this body for its consideration yesterday on the amendment that was offered. I believe that the legislature should not mandate to the major parties what type of Presidential election they can have. I do want to thank you for that consideration.

I still have concerns that weren't addressed within the legislation. The first being the issue of total mail-in ballots. There were some very strong questions that were asked, but not answered, regarding security of those ballots. Secondly, the fiscal note included in the bill is $200,000 and we had testimony that if everyone worked, because they have to mail out the ballots with self-addressed return, that it could go upwards to $700,000, which would impact the contingency fund.

I also believe, personally, in the caucus structure, it forces parties to go out and organize and involve people to the process. My other concern is if you challenge, and one Presidential preference is selected, they choose the slate of the candidates that go to the convention, not anyone else. Therefore, it allows for political patronage. Those are some of the concerns. I commend, though, that we've had a debate and if the parties chose to do so, they will go forward and allow individuals to cast their ballots for their Presidential preference. These were some areas of dissension. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN LAMBERT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Bill No. 695. There is no way anyone can convince me that it is more fair for less than 1,000 insiders to select a Presidential nominee than all the registered voters of a political party. All Nevadan's must be given the right to select their Presidential preference. The cost of the system is designed to discourage widespread participation, by its complexity and its inconvenience to the regular run-of-the mill voters. It's time to open up this process by enacting Assembly Bill No. 695. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN FETTIC:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to this honorable body, I rise in support of Assembly Bill No. 695 because it opens up the political process for nominating the President of the United States. The current caucus system for selecting Nevada's delegates at the National Convention is effectively closed to the average citizen who may not have the time to spend hours of time at a precinct meeting or a county convention. As a people's representative, we should be intent upon assuring our electoral process is easily accessible to as many voters as possible. The direct mail-in Presidential primary provided for in Assembly Bill No. 695 does just that. It opens up the process to all the people. I urge your support for Assembly Bill No. 695.

ASSEMBLYMAN TIFFANY:

Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to this honorable body, I rise in support of Assembly Bill No. 695 which restores a Presidential primary in Nevada because it opens up the process of nominating our Presidential candidates to all the registered voters of our major political parties.

Currently, delegates to our national conventions are selected in a truncated and unrepresentative system that begins with the precinct caucus. The few people who attend the precinct caucus then elect delegates to the county convention, the delegates to the county convention then elect delegates to the state convention and finally, less than 1,000 insiders of each major political party select the delegates to our national party conventions, effectively shutting out from the process the hundreds of thousands of registered voters in each of our major political parties who do not have the time or opportunity to take part in lengthy precinct caucuses and county and state conventions.

We have a 24-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week economy. At any time or on any day, almost one-third of our workforce is denied the opportunity to take part in a precinct meeting. This is unfair and undemocratic. And it is totally at odds with Nevada's history and tradition of encouraging as widespread voter participation as possible.

Nevada became a state in order to help abolish slavery and grant to the former slaves full citizenship and the right to vote.

We adopted women suffrage six years before the rest of the nation.

We enjoy the right of initiative and referendum as well as the right to recall public officials. We enacted motor-voter registration long before it was done on the federal level.

The precinct caucus system is totally at odds with our history and tradition and of making it as easy as possible for voters to take part in the process of government.

Assembly Bill No. 695 establishes a simple and direct way for Nevadans to nominate their choice for President. Briefly, a presidential candidate files his or her declaration of candidacy with the Secretary of State, pays a $1,000 filing fee and files the slate of delegates in each congressional district pledged to that candidacy. The primary is to be held on the 4th Tuesday in March, along with the California primary. In 1976 and 1980, when Nevada experimented with a presidential primary the date for the primary was at the end of May, after the nomination was effectively settled. That's why turnout was low.

To increase voter participation, this does two things: it gears it to the California primary date so that candidates stopping in Los Angeles will also likely visit Las Vegas, and those stopping in San Francisco will visit the Reno media market and put Nevada on the map. Assembly Bill No. 695 also provides for a mail-in ballot to all registered voters of the major political parties. This will not only increase voter participation, but will also save money by not making it necessary to hire poll workers at each precinct. As amended, this is permissive and it is up to the state central committee of each major political party to decide if they want to participate in the primary. I hope both of them will do so.

Assembly Bill No. 695 is simple, direct and designed to minimize cost. It has a sunset provision so that the next legislature must determine if it should be maintained. Depending on whether one or both major parties have primaries and the size of the mail response, it could cost as little as $200,000 to conduct the primary.

This is a small amount to pay when you consider the price others have paid for the right to vote. As expressed by the great Lincoln who observes our every act, "This is a government of the people, by the people and for the people; not some of the people, but all the people!"

This is the essence of Assembly Bill No. 695. I urge my colleagues to extend the presidential franchise to all the people by voting for Assembly Bill No. 695.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's not often that I get to agree with the gentle woman from Assembly District No. 21. I want to support this historic speech. The reason I'm supporting this, is because it is vital. I believe, as a historian, and I do characterize myself as such, in this particular instance. I believe the political parties are alive and well and growing. It is able to keep up to date. It is an opportunity to do not what others are doing, but rather to broaden it's opportunity for people to participate. In this regard, I'm always willing to try something new and different to get people to sit down and be quiet, and to participate in the political process.

"Sec. 43. Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 297 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8. NRS 62.211 is hereby amended to read as follows:

62.211 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 62.212, if the court finds that a child is within the purview of this chapter it shall so decree and may:

(a) Place the child under supervision in his own home or in the custody of a suitable person elsewhere, upon such conditions as the court may determine. A program of supervision in the home may include electronic surveillance of the child. The legislature declares that a program of supervision that includes electronic surveillance is intended as an alternative to commitment and not as an alternative to probation, informal supervision or a supervision and consent decree.

(b) Commit the child to the custody of a public or private institution or agency authorized to care for children, or place him in a home with a family. In committing a child to a private institution or agency the court shall select one that is required to be licensed by the department of human resources to care for such children, or, if the institution or agency is in another state, by the analogous department of that state. The court shall not commit a female child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Caliente youth center, and shall not commit a male child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Nevada youth training center.

(c) Order such medical, psychiatric, psychological or other care and treatment as the court deems to be for the best interests of the child, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(d) Order the parent, guardian, custodian or any other person to refrain from continuing the conduct which, in the opinion of the court, has caused or tended to cause the child to come within or remain under the provisions of this chapter.

(e) If the child is less than 17 years of age, order the parent, guardian or custodian of the child, and any brothers, sisters or other persons living in the same household as the child over whom the court has jurisdiction to attend or participate in counseling, alone or together with the child, including, but not limited to, counseling regarding parenting skills, alcohol or substance abuse or techniques of dispute resolution.

(f) Order the parent or guardian of the child to participate in a program designed to provide restitution to the victim of an act committed by the child or to perform public service.

(g) Order the parent or guardian of the child to pay all or part of the cost of the proceedings, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees, any costs incurred by the court and any costs incurred in the investigation of an act committed by the child and the taking into custody of the child.

(h) Order the suspension of the child's driver's license for not more than 2 years. If the child does not possess a driver's license, the court may prohibit the child from applying for a driver's license for not more than 2 years:

(1) Immediately following the date of the order, if the child is eligible to apply for a driver's license.

(2) After the date he becomes eligible to apply for a driver's license, if the child is not eligible to apply for a license on the date of the order.

If the court issues an order suspending the driver's license of a child pursuant to this paragraph, the judge shall require the child to surrender to the court all driver's licenses then held by the child. The court shall, within 5 days after issuing the order, forward to the department of motor vehicles and public safety the licenses, together with a copy of the order. If, pursuant to this paragraph, the court issues an order delaying the ability of a child to apply for a driver's license, the court shall, within 5 days after issuing the order, forward to the department of motor vehicles and public safety a copy of the order. The department of motor vehicles and public safety shall not report a suspension pursuant to this paragraph to an insurance company or its agent inquiring about the child's driving record or require the child to submit to the tests and other requirements which are adopted by regulation pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 483.495 as a condition of reinstatement or reissuance after a suspension of his license pursuant to this paragraph, unless the suspension resulted from his poor performance as a driver.

(i) Place the child, when he is not in school, under the supervision of:

(1) A public organization to work on public projects;

(2) A public agency to work on projects to eradicate graffiti; or

(3) A private nonprofit organization to perform other public service.

The person under whose supervision the child is placed shall keep the child busy and well supervised and shall make such reports to the court as it may require. As a condition of such a placement, the court may require the child or his parent or guardian to deposit with the court a reasonable sum of money to pay for the cost of policies of insurance against liability for personal injury and damage to property or for industrial insurance, or both, during those periods in which he performs the work, unless, in the case of industrial insurance, it is provided by the organization or agency for which he performs the work.

(j) Permit the child to reside in a residence without the immediate supervision of an adult, or exempt the child from mandatory attendance at school so that the child may be employed full time, or both, if the child is at least 16 years of age, has demonstrated the capacity to benefit from this placement or exemption and is under the strict supervision of the juvenile division.

(k) Require the child to provide restitution to the victim of the crime which the child has committed.

(l) Impose a fine on the child. If a fine is imposed, the court shall impose an administrative assessment pursuant to NRS 62.223.

2. If the court finds that a child who is less than 17 years of age has committed a delinquent act, the court may order the parent or guardian of the child to pay any fines and penalties imposed for the delinquent act. If the parent or guardian is unable to pay the fines and penalties imposed because of financial hardship, the court may require the parent or guardian to perform community service.

3. In determining the appropriate disposition of a case concerning a child found to be within the purview of this chapter, the court shall consider whether the act committed by the child involved the use of a firearm or the use or threatened use of force or violence against the victim of the act and whether the child is a serious or chronic offender. If the court finds that the act committed by the child involved the use of a firearm or the use or threatened use of force or violence against the victim or that the child is a serious or chronic offender, the court shall include the finding in its order and may, in addition to the options set forth in [subsection] subsections 1 and 2 of this section and NRS 62.213:

(a) Commit the child for confinement in a secure facility, including a facility which is secured by its staff.

(b) Impose any other punitive measures the court determines to be in the best interests of the public or the child.

[3.] 4. At any time, either on its own volition or for good cause shown, the court may terminate its jurisdiction concerning the child.

[4.] 5. Whenever the court commits a child to any institution or agency pursuant to this section or NRS 62.213, it shall transmit a summary of its information concerning the child and order the administrator of the school that the child last attended to transmit a copy of the child's educational records to the institution or agency. The institution or agency shall give to the court any information concerning the child that the court may require.

[5.] 6. In determining whether to place a child pursuant to this section in the custody of a person other than his parent, guardian or custodian, preference must be given to any person related within the third degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

483.490 1. Except as otherwise provided in [subsection 2,] subsections 2 and 3, after a driver's license has been suspended or revoked for an offense other than a second violation within 7 years of NRS 484.379 and half the period during which the driver is not eligible for a license has expired, the department may, unless the statute authorizing the suspension prohibits the issuance of a restricted license, issue a restricted driver's license to an applicant permitting the applicant to drive a motor vehicle:

(a) To and from work or in the course of his work, or both; or

(b) To acquire supplies of medicine or food or receive regularly scheduled medical care for himself or a member of his immediate family.

Before a restricted license may be issued, the applicant must submit sufficient documentary evidence to satisfy the department that a severe hardship exists because the applicant has no alternative means of transportation and that the severe hardship outweighs the risk to the public if he is issued a restricted license.

2. After a driver's license has been suspended pursuant to paragraph (h) of subsection 1 of NRS 62.211 or NRS 62.226, the department may issue a restricted driver's license to an applicant permitting the applicant to drive a motor vehicle:

(a) If applicable, to and from work or in the course of his work, or both; and

(b) If applicable, to and from school.

3. After a driver's license has been suspended pursuant to section 1 of this act, the department may issue a restricted driver's license to an applicant permitting the applicant to drive a motor vehicle:

(a) If applicable, to and from work or in the course of his work, or both;

(b) To receive regularly scheduled medical care for himself or a member of his immediate family; and

(c) If applicable, as necessary to exercise a court-ordered right to visit a child.

4. A driver who violates a condition of a restricted license issued [under] pursuant to subsection 1 or by another jurisdiction is guilty of a misdemeanor, and if his license was suspended or revoked for a violation of NRS 484.379, 484.3795, 484.384 or homicide resulting from driving a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or the violation of a law of any other jurisdiction which prohibits the same conduct, he shall be punished in the manner provided by subsection 2 of NRS 483.560.

[4.] 5. The periods of suspensions and revocations [under] required pursuant to this chapter and [under] NRS 484.384 must run consecutively, except as *otherwise*provided in NRS 483.465 and 483.475, when the suspensions must run concurrently.

[5.] 6. Whenever the department suspends or revokes a license, the period of suspension, or of ineligibility for a license after the revocation, begins upon the effective date of the revocation or suspension as contained in the notice thereof.

Sec. 3. NRS 483.495 is hereby amended to read as follows:

483.495 The department shall by regulation:

1. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (h) of subsection 1 of NRS 62.211 , [and] subsection 4 of NRS 62.226 [,] and section 1 of this act, set forth any tests and other requirements which are a condition for the reinstatement of a license after any suspension, revocation, cancellation or voluntary surrender of the license. The tests and requirements:

(a) Must provide for a fair evaluation of a person's ability to operate a motor vehicle; and

(b) May allow for the waiver of certain tests or requirements as the department deems necessary.

2. Set forth the circumstances under which the administrator may, for good cause shown, rescind the revocation, suspension or cancellation of a license, or shorten the period for the suspension of a license.

Sec. 48. Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 567 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. NRS 62.193 is hereby amended to read as follows:

62.193 1. Proceedings concerning any child alleged to be delinquent, in need of supervision or in need of commitment to an institution for the mentally retarded are not criminal in nature and must be heard separately from the trial of cases against adults, and without a jury. The hearing may be conducted in an informal manner and may be held at a juvenile detention facility or elsewhere at the discretion of the judge. Stenographic notes or other transcript of the hearing are not required unless the court so orders. All proceedings pursuant to this chapter must be open to the general public unless the judge, or in case of a reference, the referee, upon his own motion or upon the motion of another person, determines that all or part of the proceedings must be closed to the general public because such closure is in the best interests of the child or the general public. If the judge or referee determines that all or part of the proceedings must be closed to the general public, the general public must be excluded and only those persons having a direct interest in the case may be admitted, as ordered by the judge or referee. The judge or referee in his sole discretion may determine that a victim or any member of a victim's family is a person having a direct interest in the case who may be admitted to the proceedings.

2. The court shall provide written notice of any hearing after the initial detention hearing to the parent, guardian or custodian of the child together with a copy of a notice which the parent, guardian or custodian may provide to his employer. The employer's copy of the notice must set forth the date and time of the hearing and the provisions of NRS 62.410. The employer's copy of the notice must not set forth the name of the child or the offense alleged.

3. The parties must be advised of their rights in their first appearance at intake and before the court. They must be informed of the specific allegations in the petition and given an opportunity to admit or deny those allegations.

4. If the allegations are denied, the court shall proceed to hear evidence on the petition. The court shall record its findings on whether the acts ascribed to the child in the petition were committed by him. If the court finds that the allegations in the petition have not been established, it shall dismiss the petition and order the child discharged from any detention or temporary care previously ordered in the proceedings, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

5. If the court finds on the basis of an admission or a finding on proof beyond a reasonable doubt, based upon competent, material and relevant evidence, that a child committed the acts by reason of which he is alleged to be delinquent, it may, in the absence of objection and except as otherwise provided in NRS 62.214, proceed immediately to make a proper disposition of the case.

6. The court may, at the request of the prosecuting attorney, expedite the date for any adjudicatory hearing involving acts committed against a child less than 16 years of age or involving acts witnessed by a child less than 16 years of age. In making a ruling, the court may consider the effect a delay in the commencement of the hearing might have on the mental or emotional health or well-being of the child.

7. In adjudicatory hearings all relevant and material evidence helpful in determining the questions presented, including oral and written reports, may be received by the court and may be relied upon to the extent of its probative value. The parties or their counsel must be afforded an opportunity to examine and controvert written reports so received and to cross-examine persons making reports when reasonably available.

[7.] 8. On its motion or that of a party, the court may continue the hearings under this section for a reasonable period to receive reports and other evidence bearing on the disposition. If the hearing involves acts committed against a child less than 16 years of age or involving acts witnessed by a child less than 16 years of age, the court may consider any adverse effect a continuance or other postponement might have upon the mental or emotional health or well-being of the child. The court may deny a continuance or other postponement if the delay will adversely affect the mental or emotional health or well-being of the child. The court shall make an appropriate order for detention or temporary care of the child subject to supervision of the court during the period of [the continuance.

9. If the court finds by preponderance of the evidence that the child is in need of supervision or is in need of commitment to an institution for the mentally retarded, the court may proceed immediately, or at a postponed hearing, to make proper disposition of the case.

[9.] 10. Unless the court by written order extends the time for disposition of the case and sets forth specific reasons for the extension, the court shall make its final disposition no later than 60 days after the petition was filed.

[10.] 11. The prosecuting attorney shall disclose to the victim of an act committed by a child the disposition of the child's case regarding that act if the victim, or a parent or guardian of the victim, requests such a disclosure.

Sec. 49. Section 3 of Assembly Bill No. 570 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. 1. A conviction under NRS 207.010 [or] , section 2 of this act or section 24 of Assembly Bill No. 317 of this session operates only to increase, not to reduce, the sentence otherwise provided by law for the principal crime.

2. If a count under NRS 207.010 [or] , section 2 of this act or section 24 of Assembly Bill No. 317 of this session is included in an information charging the primary offense, each previous conviction must be alleged in the accusatory pleading, but such a conviction must not be alluded to on trial of the primary offense, nor may any allegation of the conviction be read in the presence of a jury trying the offense or a grand jury considering an indictment for the offense. A count under NRS 207.010 , [or] section 2 of this act or section 24 of Assembly Bill No. 317 of this session may be separately filed after conviction of the primary offense, but if it is so filed, sentence must not be imposed, or the hearing required by subsection 3 held, until 15 days after the separate filing.

3. If a defendant charged under NRS 207.010 , [or] section 2 of this act or section 24 of Assembly Bill No. 317 of this session is found guilty of, or pleads guilty to, the primary offense, but denies any previous conviction charged, the court shall determine the issue of the previous conviction after hearing all relevant evidence presented on the issue by the prosecution and the defendant. At such a hearing, the defendant may not challenge the validity of a previous conviction. The court shall impose sentence:

(a) Under NRS 207.010 upon finding that the defendant has suffered previous convictions sufficient to support an adjudication of habitual criminality; [or]

(b) Under section 2 of this act upon finding that the defendant has suffered previous convictions sufficient to support an adjudication of habitually fraudulent felon [.] ; or

(c) Under section 24 of Assembly Bill No. 317 of this session upon finding that the defendant has suffered previous convictions sufficient to support an adjudication of habitually violent felon.

4. Nothing in the provisions of this section, NRS 207.010 [or] , section 2 of this act or section 24 of Assembly Bill No. 317 of this session limits the prosecution in introducing evidence of prior convictions for [purposes] the purpose of impeachment or another lawful purpose.

5. For the purposes of this section, NRS 207.010 [and] , section 2 of this act [,] and section 24 of Assembly Bill No. 317 of this session, a certified copy of a felony conviction is prima facie evidence of conviction of a prior felony.".

Amend sec. 47, page 31, by deleting line 35 and inserting:

"Sec. 54. 1. This section and sections 1 to 13, inclusive, 15 to 20, inclusive, 22, 23, 24, 27, 29, 30 to 38, inclusive, 41, 42 to 48, inclusive, and 50 to 53, inclusive, become effective on July 1, 1995.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 62.

Assemblyman Arberry moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Arberry.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that Assemblyman Arberry's remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have the honor of having present with me today, a lady whom I would like to praise for her courage, effort and support for victims of violent crimes.

As stated in the resolution, Mrs. Hayes moved to the southern area of the state in 1960, where she and her husband were trying to raise a family and enjoy the fruits of Nevada. Mrs. Hayes bore two sons, Gregory and Derrick. Then her husband was eliminated and removed from her family on December 8, 1969.

I understand that he was killed and left her and her sons all alone. But, Mrs. Hayes did not just let that deterrent take her away from trying to provide for her family. She decided to take up business administration at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

As you know, Mr. Speaker, it takes courage when you lose the bread winner and knowing you might have a shortfall. When you try to raise your family as the new bread winner, it is difficult. But, to lose your son on a day when you are out having recreation is devastating.

Her son Gregory, I understand, was playing basketball at one of our activity centers. She lost him; losing two people that were very close to her. But, I am proud to say that she said "no more." She wanted to get involved and stay involved.

I was just talking with her and she said that her doctor told her she should not be here, because I understand that she has been afflicted with cancer. I can relate, as I attended a funeral a few days ago for my Aunt who died from the same deadly disease.

Mr. Speaker, I would like this body to understand that it is people like Mrs. Hayes who in the forefront makes this Assembly and Senate what we are today. I do encourage your support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 62. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Arberry moved that the Assembly recess subject to the call of the Chair.

SIGNING OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

There being no objections, the Speakers and Chief Clerk signed Assembly Bills Nos. 152, 310, 383, 410, 524; Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 28; Senate Bills Nos. 68, 229, 349, 378, 422, 424, 462, 475, 496; Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 20.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My colleague and I, the Democratic Floor Leader, have a special presentation that we would like this body to participate in today.

I would like to take everyone back to November of last year when a unique situation happened in the State of Nevada. That was the first time in modern history the Assembly Chambers were deadlocked in a 21-21 tie. I think that everyone remembers the things that were written and the things that were said. There was a lot of pessimism, a lot of anxiety that it would never work and would degenerate into partisan battles. I think that by and large we have shown this state that it has worked and it hasn't been partisan. It has been good public policy across the board.

I think that there are no two people more responsible for that than our Co-Speakers. I am going to take a moment to talk about Speaker Hettrick. I met Lynn two campaign cycles ago, at the behest of one of the closest people to me in the political process and in Nevada, Lou Bergevin. This was the person who was going to succeed Lou and as anybody knows in this body, Lou is a very special person to me.

I was excited that Lou had blessed Lynn's candidacy. He was someone who was going to be filling his shoes and doing great things for Douglas County and Carson County for years to come. And, I think that I share in the fact that when you meet Hettrick for the first time, you can't help but notice that he is one of those honorable, pleasant people that you could ever meet. In fact, I used to say to people, "If you can't like Lynn Hettrick, you can't like anybody."

Lynn is my classmate, my boss and my very good friend. I can say with the utmost sincerity, I have met no finer public servant, no finer Nevadan and no finer man than Lynn Hettrick.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

Thank you all, I appreciate that very much and I appreciate the kind words very, very much. It has been a privilege to serve. I don't want to get into a long speech in response. It has been a privilege to serve with Pete. He has done a tremendous job and we do appreciate all the efforts from everyone involved. I believe that Mr. Perkins is standing for some similar reason.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It is my honor to provide the other half of this presentation. To someone who will go down in the history of this state as always being known as "Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Dini has spent almost 30 years in this Legislature. I guess I could try and talk about who his predecessor was, but probably Joe is the only one who knows. So, I guess I won't go into that. I won't talk about how when Speaker Dini was elected, the Republican Floor Leader and myself were probably still in diapers.

It has always been known, particularly as this session started, and the rocky roads we were on to get into this session, that Joe Dini carries the respect of everyone, without exception. Everyone who knows about Joe Dini, knows that his character is impeccable, his integrity is untarnished and that he is a man of honor. Joe Dini is the consummate statesman.

There have been many times between November 8 and January 16 when we were trying to organize this house, that he brought the voice of reason to the table; his very calming voice. Between Joe and Lynn, they were probably the two most important reasons we were able to get down to doing the people's work. Joe Dini's leadership is unquestionable.

I think that you can look around at all the public policies that exist today, and although you won't see any overt fingerprints, I am sure that you can tell that Joe's touch has been on every important public policy that exists for our state today.

One of the things that is unusual for somebody in this house, is that they gain strength as the session goes. Most of us are running down; our stamina is falling apart and I think everyone has noticed that this is the point in session when Speaker Dini actually gains his strength. He will, undoubtedly, be the strongest person for us and for our state as we close this session and actually reach the point of Sine Die.

It has been said that Joe went out on a limb when he asked me to be his Floor Leader. I won't dispute that, but I do want to say, I appreciate your faith and your confidence in me and the wisdom that you have imparted to me to help you and the rest of this Assembly do the work that needs to be done.

In closing, I would like to say that I'll be very proud to be able to speak to my children and grandchildren and tell them that I served with Speaker Dini.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, so much. I have a sinus infection today, so I don't talk well, but it has really been an honor to serve with Lynn. He has really been a great guy to work with. He is intelligent. He is learning the process fast and you know, it is nice to see young people develop.

My Dad was always that way. He wanted to see the young people move forward. To see these two Floor Leaders develop, who are probably younger than my youngest son, really means a lot to me. That is what this is all about. The old people can give you some guidance and talk to you, but you either develop or you don't develop in this process.

The turnover that I have seen and the great people that I have served with, you tell in a hurry who is going to make it and who's not. I think these boys are going to be around for a long time. It's a pleasure serving with all of you and it has been a great session as far as I'm concerned. Thank you, so much.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Mr. Speakers, as you are opening your gifts, I want you to know that those gifts come from every member of this body with a special thanks to the Co-Chairman of Elections and Procedures who kicked in a little extra. They are a token of our gratitude for your service to the state; matching silver belt buckles. I feel that they are very appropriate with this session in that they are identical except for your names.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

You can't see our names, but we will be happy to show them to you. They are engraved on the back and they are absolutely beautiful. I thank you all very, very much. It has really been a pleasure to serve with Joe. I can't do better than Rich did in terms of speaking to what "Mr. Speaker" in the State of Nevada means.

We were very fortunate to have had an article written in State Legislature Magazine recently about two Speakers-one house. It was very nice. At one point in the article it said, "Hettrick, when spoken to early in the session was addressed as Mr. Speaker." And I said, "No, I had to earn that; Joe was Mr. Speaker." I would like to think that I have earned that, but I want to tell you that it has been in part because of the effort and help from Mr. Dini. I really, truly thank you all.

Assembly called to order at 11:23 a.m.

Speaker Dini presiding.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Al Tilstra.

We thank You, O Lord, that this land is still governed by the people's representatives. Let the democratic processes be seen at their best as we come to the close of this year's session.

As these chosen women and men discharge their duties, guide them, O God, in the decisions they must make today. Give them the grace of humility and shed Your guiding light into every mind. May what is done be so clearly right it needs no incendiary justification. These things we ask in Your Holy Name. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Sec. 25. Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 297 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. NRS 62.211 is hereby amended to read as follows:

62.211 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 62.212, if the court finds that a child is within the purview of this chapter it shall so decree and may:

(a) Place the child under supervision in his own home or in the custody of a suitable person elsewhere, upon such conditions as the court may determine. A program of supervision in the home may include electronic surveillance of the child. The legislature declares that a program of supervision that includes electronic surveillance is intended as an alternative to commitment and not as an alternative to probation, informal supervision or a supervision and consent decree.

(b) Commit the child to the custody of a public or private institution or agency authorized to care for children, or place him in a home with a family. In committing a child to a private institution or agency the court shall select one that is required to be licensed by the department of human resources to care for such children, or, if the institution or agency is in another state, by the analogous department of that state. The court shall not commit a female child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Caliente youth center, and shall not commit a male child to a private institution without prior approval of the superintendent of the Nevada youth training center.

(c) Order such medical, psychiatric, psychological or other care and treatment as the court deems to be for the best interests of the child, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(d) Order the parent, guardian, custodian or any other person to refrain from continuing the conduct which, in the opinion of the court, has caused or tended to cause the child to come within or remain under the provisions of this chapter.

(e) Place the child, when he is not in school, under the supervision of:

(1) A public organization to work on public projects;

(2) A public agency to work on projects to eradicate graffiti; or

(3) A private nonprofit organization to perform other public service.

The person under whose supervision the child is placed shall keep the child busy and well supervised and shall make such reports to the court as it may require. As a condition of such a placement, the court may require the child or his parent or guardian to deposit with the court a reasonable sum of money to pay for the cost of policies of insurance against liability for personal injury and damage to property or for industrial insurance, or both, during those periods in which he performs the work, unless, in the case of industrial insurance, it is provided by the organization or agency for which he performs the work.

(f) Permit the child to reside in a residence without the immediate supervision of an adult, or exempt the child from mandatory attendance at school so that the child may be employed full time, or both, if the child is at least 16 years of age, has demonstrated the capacity to benefit from this placement or exemption and is under the strict supervision of the juvenile division.

(g) Require the child to provide restitution to the victim of the crime which the child has committed.

(h) Impose a fine on the child. If a fine is imposed, the court shall impose an administrative assessment pursuant to NRS 62.223.

(i) If the child is less than 17 years of age, order the parent, guardian or custodian of the child, and any brothers, sisters or other persons living in the same household as the child over whom the court has jurisdiction to attend or participate in counseling, alone or together with the child, including, but not limited to, counseling regarding parenting skills, alcohol or substance abuse or techniques of dispute resolution.

2. If the court finds that a child who is less than 17 years of age has committed a delinquent act, the court may order the parent or guardian of the child to pay any fines and penalties imposed for the delinquent act. If the parent or guardian is unable to pay the fines and penalties imposed because of financial hardship, the court may require the parent or guardian to perform community service.

3. If the court finds that the child is a serious or chronic offender, it may, in addition to the options set forth in [subsection] subsections 1 and 2 of this section and NRS 62.213:

(a) Commit the child for confinement in a secure facility, including a facility which is secured by its staff.

(b) Impose any other punitive measures the court determines to be in the best interests of the public.

[3.] 4. At any time, either on its own volition or for good cause shown, the court may terminate its jurisdiction concerning the child.

[4.] 5. Whenever the court commits a child to any institution or agency pursuant to this section or NRS 62.213, it shall transmit a summary of its information concerning the child and order the administrator of the school that the child last attended to transmit a copy of the child's educational records to the institution or agency. The institution or agency shall give to the court any information concerning the child that the court may require.

[5.] 6. In determining whether to place a child pursuant to this section in the custody of a person other than his parent, guardian or custodian, preference must be given to any person related within the third degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Bruce Henderson.

Almighty God, Solomon penned the words in about 975 B.C., and the Byrds sang them in the 1960s, "To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under Heaven." When, O Lord, will the season for adjournment come? I heard someone say, "If sine don't die soon, all of us will!"

Father, we pray for the strength, wisdom and humor to accomplish the task at hand. May we always be able to look back on this experience and be grateful that we were able to serve the people of Nevada.

And, Father, we thank You for the new Mr. Sandoval. In the Name of our Lord.

Amen.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 52—Commending the Chief and staff of the State Printing and Micrographics Division of the Department of Administration for services rendered to the Nevada Legislature.

WHEREAS, The 68th session of the Nevada Legislature created an overwhelming number of bills and amendments during this legislative session, requiring the Chief and staff of the State Printing and Micrographics Division of the Department of Administration to work long hours in meeting the needs of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, The work produced by the Division met the high standards of previous years because of the care that the Chief and his excellent staff devoted to every assignment given to them; and

WHEREAS, In the absence of such outstanding service, the Legislature could not function or fulfill its obligations to the people of this state; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature hereby express their appreciation and commend the Chief and members of the staff of the State Printing and Micrographics Division of the Department of Administration for their fine work; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Mr. Donald L. Bailey, Sr., the Chief of the State Printing and Micrographics Division of the Department of Administration.

Assemblyman Price moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Price, Humke, Evans, Anderson, Brower and Mr. Speaker Hettrick.

Assemblyman Bache requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It is with great pleasure that I speak in favor of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 52. There are no people more important to the operation of our legislative session than the people working in the print shop and their Director Don Bailey.

They work, virtually, day and night on our behalf. We are one of the few legislatures, constitutionally, required to have the final printed product of what we are voting on. We are at the point where they are sending us over loose leaf papers and that is a very good idea. In my opinion, our operation is made possible by Don's office and his employees' hard work. They do not have a life of their own when the legislature is in session.

I might add, they are only across the street. It would be interesting for any one of our members, who has never been there to walk across the street and visit their operation. They are always very glad to have us over there, to see what they are doing and to learn about their operation.

How many years, Don, have you been our State Printer or can you tell? Don has been our State Printer for 21 years. He has always been fine to work with. He is also interested in Nevada history.

A few years ago, Don purchased the old hospital in Virginia City and started Saint Mary's Art Center. He has done his part in preserving our history. It is with great pleasure that I speak on behalf of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 52.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It is my pleasure to rise in support of this resolution. It has also been my pleasure to represent Mr. Bailey who has been my constituent for a number of years. I would echo the remarks of the Chairman of Taxation as to the extremely high quality of the printing services that the State Printing Office does offer to this legislature and to the entire state government. It is a unique office.

They are always happy to see you. When I did my first session here, I didn't have much to do toward the end of the session, so I went over there about midnight one night, and received a full tour of the operation. Their office is open to any of you.

With the Speaker's permission or the Floor Leader's permission, I would say that any of you, late tonight or late tomorrow night, might want to go over to the State Printer's Office and tour the office on one of our one-minute to 30-minute recesses. It is truly amazing to see the work that they do over there. The quality is supreme and this resolution is very much deserved.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

I, too, rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 52. I am happy to commend Mr. Bailey and his outstanding crew. We have talked about the timeliness and how quickly they turn around information for us, but I think we also have to talk about how error free that product is.

How many times do we see errors in bills? I can recall only one instance this session that was brought to my attention. I think it happened in the Elections and Procedures Committee. It was very minor and most of us did not catch it. It is not only the speed, but it is the excellent quality of their work. They print not only for us, but for all of the state agencies.

If you follow Mr. Bailey in his automobile, you will see his license plate reads "Print 1." I would have to say it is certainly appropriate because he is "Number One." Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 52. I have had the opportunity to visit the print shop and see Don's staff. It is, in fact, the oldest union in the State of Nevada. The print shop is the very first union in this state. They have hanging on their wall the original document that brought it into existence. Don's staff and their efforts, I think, speak well for all of the employees of this state. Particularly, that department as it relates to our job and makes it very, very easy.

I would also encourage all of you to visit them. They really do feel unappreciated. Although, it is nice to see this resolution. They are the kind of people who are very proud of their craft and take personal pride in making all of us look good. It only takes a moment to go over there and simply say one kind word. Thank you, Mr. Bailey. Thank you, very much for the job you do.

ASSEMBLYMAN BROWER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think I need to disclose that I own a printing company, but I don't think voting on this resolution will affect me any differently than anyone else.

I would like to rise in support of this resolution. Probably, no one in this body knows more about deadlines and pressures that you have in getting things back to this building on time, than me. I can tell you that I truly appreciate them. I hope you have a nice rest when this is over.

SPEAKER HETTRICK:

I would say that one of the things that always impresses people when they come here to visit is when they sit down and look at these bill books piled up on our desks. If you tell them that they are printed overnight and they are back in our books the next morning reprinted, they are amazed. When they look at the number of bills we process and the number that they must print, it truly is an awesome task that they do.

I also think they are not appreciated enough. The kind of work they do is taken for granted. It is done and here in the morning, and we just take it for granted. It is truly a privilege to thank you and your staff for a job well done. We could not do it without you.

MR. DON BAILEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to thank all of you on behalf of the Nevada State Printing Office for this recognition, and for the recognition you have given us in the past.

Believe me, we know how hard you are working as well as us. We appreciate everything that you are doing, and what we do is serve. The recognition is there. We understand that you are busy. We appreciate, today when you are trying to go home, this recognition.

I speak for my entire staff. They are a great group of people to work with. They are extremely hard working, and like Mr. Anderson pointed out, it is the oldest union in the state. We would encourage you, if you would, to take some time, either after the session or any time you are in the city, to come see us. We would like you to see the facility that you support so graciously. Again, I want to thank you for all the people who work for the printing office, because they are the people who make me look good. It is because of them that I stand here and receive this resolution. I thank you on their behalf and their families' behalf.

By Assemblymen Allard, Anderson, Arberry, Bache, Batten, Bennett, Braunlin, Brower, Buckley, Carpenter, Chowning, Close, de Braga, Dini, Ernaut, Evans, Fettic, Freeman, Giunchigliani, Goldwater, Harrington, Hettrick, Humke, Krenzer, Lambert, Manendo, Marvel, Monaghan, Neighbors, Nolan, Ohrenschall, Perkins, Price, Sandoval, Schneider, Segerblom, Spitler, Steel, Stroth, Tiffany, Tripple and Williams:

Assembly Resolution No. 15—Expressing appreciation to the Chief Clerk and the staff of the front desk of the Assembly for their dedication and outstanding performance.

WHEREAS, The exceptional abilities of the Chief Clerk and her staff on the front desk of the Assembly have contributed immensely to the speed and efficiency of the legislative process during the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature; and

WHEREAS, The demands placed on the front desk have required the Chief Clerk and her staff to work long hours to complete their work in a timely manner; and

WHEREAS, Such cooperation and dedication is admired and greatly appreciated by the members of the Assembly; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, That the members of the Assembly of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature do hereby express their appreciation and commend Chief Clerk Mouryne Landing and the staff of the front desk of the Assembly which includes Carol Moore, Assistant Chief Clerk, Lucinda Benjamin, History Clerk, Linda Alden, Journal Clerk, and Donna Schumacher, Minute Clerk, for their outstanding performance, professional demeanor and contributions made, to ensure a successful and orderly Legislative session; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Legislative Counsel prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and each member of the staff of the front desk of the Assembly of the Nevada Legislature.

Assemblyman Close moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Close, Ernaut, Mr. Speaker Hettrick, Anderson, Lambert, Humke, Evans, Marvel, Chowning, Price, Perkins, Carpenter, Dini and Giunchigliani.

Assemblyman Allard requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I could go on for a long time to discuss the merits of Assembly Resolution No. 15. I am sure today that we will have many who will rise in support of this resolution.

When we, the Elections and Procedures Committee, looked at resolutions, we put this at the top of our list. We felt that we, as a body, could not do what we do without the ladies in the front. I am sure that it was difficult for Mouryne to have to read the resolution for herself. I wish I could have read it for her. I think it is a true tribute to the work and efforts of the ladies of the Assembly and for what they have done for us.

This is my first time in the legislature, but I have sat behind the bar on many occasions and observed the workings of the ladies in the front, and the Speakers. I am proud to be able to say that I have had the opportunity to work with these lovely ladies, and I'm sure that speaking from my perspective, there isn't a finer group of ladies who work in this endeavor throughout the entire United States and I would urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I obviously rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 15. The ladies of the front desk are obviously the chiefs and we are the Indians. We could not do what we do without them.

I can tell you from my colleague, Democratic Floor Leader and myself, they keep us from looking like fools, many times. In that vein, I would like to single out Carol Moore. Carol is our surrogate mother. She tells us when to make the motions; how to make the motions; when you've made the wrong motion; how to rescind the wrong motion and how to fix it. She's always been there for us, gotten after us when we were lax and procrastinating.

I think the whole front desk is tremendous. They do a tremendous job. Many of you never see the jobs they do after we leave. They're usually here four, five and six hours after we are home or out having fun with our friends. I think that these ladies deserve not only our gratitude, but a warm round of applause.

I just want to say to Carol that all of the cookies you have left at my desk did not in any way influence my speech today.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

I would just like to point out in regard to Mr. Ernaut's remarks, that these ladies quit last night sometime after 2 a.m. and were back here this morning ready to go to work, bright, cheery and smiling, which we all appreciate. I didn't say they liked it, I said bright, cheery and smiling!

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

I wish to speak, obviously, in support of this resolution. I don't think that what we say about the ladies at the front desk will ever be adequate to express the warmth that they radiate on a day-to-day basis.

No matter what happens here, their sense of humor and ability to laugh at my dumb jokes is absolutely appreciated. I feel a personal debt of gratitude to them because they put up with my silliness. I know that when I run my dumb train it probably comes over a little loud on the speaker, and when they have to listen to those remarks at length and put them into the record, they get tired of it. I think they do a remarkable job and each plays a vital role. I love them greatly.

ASSEMBLYMAN LAMBERT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the resolution. I don't think there are enough good things that we can say about the front desk. They make us look good. When a member forgets to ask for Order of Business No. 8 before making a motion, in the Journal it is always under Order of Business No. 8.

All of the things that we forget in our enthusiasm or disgust, always comes across on the record as a professional document because the ladies that do it are very, very professional. I consider that the highest compliment that I can pay anyone. You definitely have all earned it and we thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to ratify all of the previous remarks as if they were made by myself because I agree with them totally.

I see Mrs. Landing up there. She has raised me in this process from a pup. Now, I am just an older pup, still being raised in the legislative process. I don't mind very well, but that is beside the point, she is still trying.

I would like to refer back to an expression I used to hear in the midwest. That is, when people would talk about someone else, it was usually considered the highest compliment to pay that person and it is that the person is always the same no matter what happens. They don't act like politicians. They don't slap people on the back and tell them what a great person they are, and the moment their back is turned, tell the next person what a jerk that person is. These ladies are always the same, whether it is 6 a.m., 2 a.m. or 6 p.m.

I think all of you have had a chance to see them in some of the more stressful situations, and they are unflappable. They are always kind and gentle. And, as previously spoken, always accurate and thorough. This is a much deserved resolution. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am delighted to rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 15. I would like to echo the sentiments of my colleague from Assembly District No. 29, because that is what, indeed, the front desk does. They always make us look good. No matter how we screw things up, it always comes out looking wonderful. And, on the subject of looking wonderful—these long days when we come in, like something the cat dragged in—I want you to know I absolutely resent the fact that you always look so fabulous!

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would be remiss if I didn't say something in support of this resolution because I am the oldest living Republican in age and service in this body. I think that I could bet my last dollar that we have the finest front desk in the United States of America. You ladies are just amazing. You are always so gracious to each and every one of us. Even after nine sessions, you are still teaching me every day. What I think is most remarkable is how you can keep two Speakers so well organized. Thank you, again from the bottom of my heart, ladies, for the tremendous job that you do.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHOWNING:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 15. When tempers start to flare and everybody's tired and they are upset about this or that, you just don't know how much it means to have the calm and professional attitude of you wonderful folks. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to the front desk, I am speaking in support of Assembly Resolution No. 15. They have been keeping me straight for years, and I have to echo that it is so nice and surprising to be able to come in and see you looking happy-faced after working 'til 2 a.m. It's remarkable that you can go home, be back here looking happy-faced and are always responsible for getting me here on time.

Like John, I've had the opportunity to visit many legislatures throughout the states, and we are so blessed to have professional, hard-working, and if I may use the word "loving" folks up on the front desk. If we really wanted to show our appreciation, we could get them some modern equipment. I thought we were working on that. Maybe we should get everybody to do that today. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for all of your support, hard work, good nature and making it a pleasure for us.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to echo the comments of the Republican Floor Leader. You guys just thought we knew what we were doing, didn't you? We really have used the expertise and knowledge of the front desk to its fullest.

I remember when Joe asked me to be his floor leader, and it is quite a different responsibility than sitting back in the peanut gallery last session, not having any responsibility, and I was truly scared to death. The thing that made it accomplishable, from my perspective, was that there was always somebody there to answer the questions that I had. Generally, the questions were answered for me before I asked them. Carol's pushing the motion in front of me or Mouryne's telling me that I should do it this way.

As the session goes on, and people in this body already know that we have gotten on each other's nerves, and there have been some flare-ups, but we don't have the workload that the front desk does. We don't have to stay here until 2 a.m. or 3 a.m., and you never see that. It is very appreciated and it speaks to the professionalism that we have at our desk.

The last point that I would like to make is, that this body does become a family over a period of time. The front desk is an extended family and we have really come to appreciate them. There is a lot of love for them in this body.

For example, after my son was diagnosed last session, lo and behold, I got a card in the mail from Mouryne. She didn't have to send that, but she did. It really speaks volumes of the type of people that we have who work with us. I don't consider that they work for us, they work with us. It's a tribute to the state, and the citizens of the state are the beneficiaries of that. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would just like to say thank you to you ladies at the front desk and it is interesting to see the changing hairdos.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to address this resolution. I certainly stand in strong support of this resolution. You really don't realize how hard they are working behind that desk, unless you are a Speaker and sit up there on top watching them work. It is a real coordinated effort. Each one knows what the left hand and right hand is doing. They work together to do all these little things like putting all this stuff in that antiquated equipment we have.

You know, over all the years that I have worked with the front desk, and this is my sixth term as Speaker, it always has been because we have a real leader in Mouryne. She teaches everyone and coordinates the activities to really keep us going here. Yesterday, she only had to turn around 20 times to tell me I was doing something wrong. You guys thought I was on a roll! She just turns around and whispers little things. Right?

We really have to commend these ladies for their hard work. I felt bad last night when I was able to leave at 10 p.m., and I knew that they were going to be here until 2 a.m. or 3 a.m., and have to come back this morning. Then, we just stalled around all morning and we could have let them stay in bed! We ought to have a buzzer to call them, I guess so that they could show up a half hour later.

I certainly want to commend them and hope that when we get out of their hair, they can rest and catch up on their other activities like yardwork, housework, cooking or whatever they want to do . . . go to Hawaii or something like that. We hope that the rest of the session is nice as it has been so far and that you are able to get some rest when we get out of here.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 15. I can't add anything further to everyone's comments except that it is always nice to be able to sit here and always see your smiling faces.

You've always maintained, not only professionalism, but you always have a great sense of humor and that is what helps make this house a little more fun in the long run. The members of this body have picked up a little something for each of the ladies, so if you wouldn't mind, Mr. Close and I would like to present them. It isn't as much as we would like to do, but our hearts say that we love you, respect you and we want to thank you for everything that you do. Just a little something from everyone in the body. Thank you, very much.

MOURYNE LANDING:

I'm not going to say very much, but I would like to thank you on behalf of the girls. I think the reason that we do a good job is because we enjoy working with you and we really do love each one of you. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

Since we are at this point, we are going to go ahead and do a presentation. Linda, if you turn around and cry, you are going to break me up. Now, don't do that.

Speaker Dini and I have gotten some things to thank the front desk. His comments were so apropos. They really make us look good. They turn around, tell us in advance what we should do, and when we do it wrong, they fix it. You can't imagine the help. You couldn't do this job up here without these ladies. It's impossible. So, we too, want to thank them and we have something that we want to give them. You have to open at least one and show them what they are. We had to be fair, so they are not greatly different.

MOURYNE LANDING:

We just want to take the opportunity to thank both of our Speakers, Speaker Dini and Speaker Hettrick. They have made our job easier. When we went into this split house, we really didn't know what to expect, and all of you have said the same things that we feel, about how well they work together.

We couldn't have had two speakers who would have been more fair to everyone, worked together better and they have been exceptionally good to the front desk. So, we have a little gift that we would like to give them. Once again, we appreciate all you have done for us.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

SPEAKER HETTRICK:

We have two to go. We would like the Floor Leaders to come up here. Obviously, our job couldn't be done without these two young bucks, who got up here and did all the running and made it work. They've spent longer hours than I know I did. I certainly couldn't have done this job without Pete.

Pete has the political savvy, that I frankly, don't feel I have. I really respect his opinion. He is tireless. You never have to say a word, that he doesn't do it. Most of the time, he never gets to say it, because he has already done it. It has been a joy to work with Pete. I wouldn't have taken on this job without him. I told him that when we started. I said that I didn't want to do it unless he would be the Republican Floor Leader. It has been a job that I couldn't have done without him. I want to thank him for that and all his efforts. I'll hand him this gift and let Speaker Dini have the mike.

SPEAKER DINI:

I feel very strongly about the Democratic Floor Leader, Mr. Perkins. I think that he did a great job for us. He is a great negotiator. I didn't realize the talent that he had. He's developing each day. He is more wise about the politics of this group and how to negotiate. He works out deals that get conclusion.

We couldn't ever have gotten to conclusion of this session without these two young men. I think that they are going to be leaders of the future for our state and on behalf of Lynn and I, I would like to present this to Rich.

I have a gift that I want to give a guy whom I really have to compliment for the great job that he has done. I've never worked with any one better than Lynn. He has been just super. It has all been straight up and above board. We've worked together, tried to do a job for the people, so I would like to give him a gift on behalf of myself.

SPEAKER HETTRICK:

You are making me feel guilty as I didn't know Joe was going to do this. He has snuck up on me and I don't have a way to reciprocate and I feel guilty. And, so, I don't know what to say except to compliment Mr. Dini.

I think the finest compliment that I can give him is that we have truly become good friends. I value him as a friend. He has been exactly what he said; absolutely straight with me. There has never been one time that I couldn't take anything he said and put it in the bank. I truly appreciate that. He has just been fantastic to work with. He has been such a help to me, it's unbelievable. I value him more than anything as a friend. That part, I really appreciate. And, now I am going to have to feel even more guilty and open this. I don't know what to say, because if I say too much I won't be able to say anything. It is absolutely beautiful. Thank you, so much, Joe. I will treasure it.

If, at any time in the judgment of the state engineer, the holder of any permit to appropriate the public water is not proceeding in good faith and with reasonable diligence to perfect the appropriation, the state engineer shall require the submission of such proof and evidence as may be necessary to show a compliance with the law. If, in his judgment, the holder of a permit is not proceeding in good faith and with reasonable diligence to perfect the appropriation, the state engineer shall cancel the permit, and advise the holder of its cancellation. The failure to provide the proof and evidence required pursuant to this subsection is prima facie evidence that the holder is not proceeding in good faith and with reasonable diligence to perfect the appropriation.

2. If any permit is canceled under the provisions of NRS 533.390, this section or 533.410, the holder of the permit may within 60 days of the cancellation of the permit file a written petition with the state engineer requesting a review of the cancellation by the state engineer at a public hearing. 3. If the decision of the state engineer modifies or rescinds the cancellation of a permit, the effective date of the appropriation under the permit is vacated and replaced by the date of the filing of the written petition with the state engineer.

4. The cancellation of a permit may not be reviewed or be the subject of any judicial proceedings unless a written petition for review has been filed and the cancellation has been affirmed, modified or rescinded pursuant to subsection 2.

5. For the purposes of this section, the measure of reasonable diligence is the steady application of effort to perfect the appropriation in a reasonably expedient and efficient manner under all the facts and circumstances. When a project or integrated system is comprised of several features, work on one feature of the project or system may be considered in finding that reasonable diligence has been shown in the development of water rights for all features of the entire project or system.

6. The appropriation of water or the acquisition or lease of appropriated water from any:

(a) Stream system as provided for in this chapter; or

(b) Underground water as provided for in NRS 534.080, by a political subdivision of this state or a public utility as defined in NRS 704.020 to serve the present or the reasonably anticipated future municipal, industrial or domestic needs of its customers for water, as determined in accordance with a master plan adopted pursuant to chapter 278 of NRS [, a plan adopted pursuant to section 15 of this act] or a plan approved by the state engineer, must be considered when reviewing an extension of time.".

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting line 1 on page 8 and inserting:

"Sec. 33. 1. If, after conducting an examination of the affairs, transactions, accounts, funds, records and assets of the system, the commissioner determines that the system is insolvent, he shall give written notice of his determination to the manager and administrator.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, upon receipt of such a notice, the administrator shall impose and collect a solvency surcharge from:

(a) Each employer who was insured by the Nevada industrial commission or the system at any time during the period beginning on July 1, 1979, and ending on July 1, 1995;

(b) Each employer who is insured by the system at any time after July 1, 1995;

(c) Each self-insured employer; and

The formula used by the administrator to calculate the surcharge must be approved by the legislative committee on workers' compensation created pursuant to section 120 of this act. The surcharge must be paid in the manner prescribed by the administrator. The manager shall collect the surcharge imposed against those employers who are insured by the system at any time after July 1, 1995.

4. If, at any time after the imposition of a surcharge pursuant to this section, the manager determines that the system is no longer insolvent, he shall file a request with the commissioner to cease the collection of any surcharge imposed pursuant to this section. Upon the receipt of the request, the commissioner shall, for the purpose of determining the financial condition of the system, conduct an examination of the affairs, transactions, accounts, funds, records and assets of the system. If, after conducting the examination, the commissioner determines that the system is no longer insolvent, the commissioner shall approve the request.

5. Any employer, self-insured employer or association of self-insured public or private employers that fails to pay any surcharge imposed pursuant to this section is liable in a civil action commenced by the administrator for:

(a) The amount owed pursuant to this section;

(b) The reasonable expenses incurred by the administrator in enforcing this section; and

(c) Payment of interest on the amount due at the rate fixed pursuant to NRS 99.040 for the period from the date upon which the surcharge was due to the date upon which the surcharge is paid.

Any money collected by the administrator pursuant to this subsection must be deposited into the account for solvency surcharges.

6. For the purposes of this section, the system is insolvent if the system is required to sell or otherwise liquidate any of the invested assets or real property of the system for the purpose of paying its outstanding obligations as they mature in the regular course of business.

616.545 1. If an application to reopen a claim to increase or rearrange compensation is made in writing more than 1 year after the date on which the claim was closed, the insurer shall reopen the claim if:

(a) A change of circumstances warrants an increase or rearrangement of compensation during the life of the claimant;

(b) The primary cause of the change of circumstances is the injury for which the claim was originally made; and

(c) The application is accompanied by the certificate of a physician or a chiropractor showing a change of circumstances which would warrant an increase or rearrangement of compensation.

2. After a claim has been closed, the insurer, upon receiving an application and for good cause shown, may authorize the reopening of the claim for medical investigation only. The application must be accompanied by a written request for treatment from the physician or chiropractor treating the claimant, certifying that the treatment is indicated by a change in circumstances and is related to the industrial injury sustained by the claimant.

3. If a claimant applies for a claim to be reopened pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 and a final determination denying the reopening is issued, the claimant shall not reapply to reopen the claim until at least 1 year after the date on which the final determination is issued.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, if an application to reopen a claim is made in writing within 1 year after the date on which the claim was closed, the insurer shall reopen the claim only if:

(a) The application is supported by medical evidence demonstrating an objective change in the medical condition of the claimant; and

(b) There is clear and convincing evidence that the primary cause of the change of circumstances is the injury for which the claim was originally made.

5. An application to reopen a claim must be made in writing within 1 year after the date on which the claim was closed if:

(a) The claimant was not off work as a result of the injury; and

(b) The claimant did not receive benefits for a permanent partial disability.

If an application to reopen a claim to increase or rearrange compensation is made pursuant to this subsection, the insurer shall reopen the claim if the requirements set forth in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection 1 are met.

6. If an employee's claim is reopened pursuant to this section, he is not entitled to vocational rehabilitation services or benefits for a temporary total disability if, before his claim was reopened, he:

(a) Retired; or

(b) Otherwise voluntarily removed himself from the work force, for reasons unrelated to the injury for which the claim was originally made.

7. One year after the date on which the claim was closed, an insurer may dispose of the file of a claim authorized to be reopened pursuant to subsection 5, unless an application to reopen the claim has been filed pursuant to that subsection.

8. An increase or rearrangement of compensation is not effective before an application for reopening a claim is made unless good cause is shown. The insurer shall, upon good cause shown, allow the cost of emergency treatment the necessity for which has been certified by a physician or a chiropractor.

9. A claim that automatically closes pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616.567 may not be reopened pursuant to this section.

10. The provisions of this section apply to any claim for which an application to reopen the claim or to increase or rearrange compensation is made pursuant to this section, regardless of the date of the injury or accident to the claimant. If a claim is reopened pursuant to this section, the amount of any compensation or benefits provided must be determined in accordance with the provisions of NRS 616.625.

Assemblyman Nolan moved that the Assembly adopt the report of the first Committee on Conference concerning Senate Bill No. 458.

Remarks by Assemblymen Nolan, Dini, Krenzer, Ernaut, Bache and Giunchigliani.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this conference committee report. Who is going to pay the bill? How many small businesses can afford to pay this bill? How much is the surcharge going to be? You tell me that; you try and pay the bill. I have been under a penalty with SIIS for two years. It costs me $7,000 a month. Why are you going to add another $3,000 a month for me because people got out of the system? Tell me what it is going to cost a small employer in this state.

ASSEMBLYMAN NOLAN:

Mr. Speaker, the solvency surcharge is a trigger mechanism. Currently, the system is in the black and they are doing better. Every year they have predicted to do better. The opportunity to kick in the solvency surcharge is depleting annually. This is just an emergency mechanism in the event that the system does go under.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

If the system is doing so well, why do we need to have this in the law?

ASSEMBLYMAN NOLAN:

The system has been having problems for the last 10 years and they were not discovered until just recently in the last four to five years. There is no predicting what the future holds for the system. This is a very difficult and contentious issue to deal with; trying to figure out if, in fact, the system goes under. We have a $2 billion deficit hanging over the head of every taxpayer in the state. Who is really responsible for this? Essentially, we all know the surcharge was a result of under-funded premiums during that period of time, since 1979.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The system actually has $2.2 billion unfunded liability. There are provisions in Senate Bills Nos. 316, 458, 587 and 498 that will help address this serious problem. However, on page 3, subsection 6 of this amendment it defines solvency. If the system is required to sell or otherwise liquidate any of the investment assets or real property of the system for the purpose of paying its outstanding obligations as they mature in the regular course of business, then a surcharge may be imposed as a very last option.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the adoption of the conference committee report to Senate Bill No. 458. It is true that SIIS has made a dramatic turn-around since the last session. We have seen a growth in cash flow. The problem that we have is in the unfunded liability. The cash flow today can sustain the present claims and can also sustain some of the unfunded liability responsibility it has had in past debt.

However, the problem remains that if we dip below the actual sound reserve balance for present claims, we may run into trouble again. This is only an emergency measure. It is only a trigger if you drop below a watermark. I feel that all of the consensus language that we have done, not only in Senate Bill No. 316 of last session, but Senate Bill No. 458 of this session ensures that this trigger will never have to go off. Like Speaker Dini, I am a small business owner and I pay SIIS claims as well. I have a very great concern, not only for myself, but for my colleagues that also own small businesses. I feel that we have done a very good job in all of the other areas of this bill that ensure the solvency. I hope, as Speaker Dini does, that this trigger never goes off. I think that we have done a great job with this bill. We have done good public policy and I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN BACHE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in opposition to the conference committee report on Senate Bill No. 458. In particular, the Governor currently has the authority to enact this system, if in fact, the system does have a financial emergency that will cause the system to go under. And secondly, sections 119 through 123, instead of an interim committee for the next two years, has created a permanent legislative committee on workers compensation that will micromanage the system. This is not needed. The committee that was established for this interim is all that is really needed. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to one of the Co-Chairmen, I just had a simple question. It seemed to me you said $2.2 billion liability, correct? That is what they supposedly had last session. And yet, they have being getting $100 million plus in cash flow every month for the last couple of years, so why do we still have the same number?

ASSEMBLYMAN NOLAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to my colleague from Assembly District No 9. That was the most recent actuarials that were provided by SIIS number one, and number two, as these claims develop the unfunded liability and the reserves continue to keep it up. Some things will drop off with time and as claim management progresses, but that does not prevent these claims and reserves from adding to that debt.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It just seems kind of ironic that two years later we are being quoted the same numbers, which I never bought last time.

I do have a concern about the small businesses. The issue of solvency will not become a reality until next session. And, if it does, I think the Governor already has the authority under the Constitution; and I think we already know the system knows who left that system with its tail and they should not become a solvency issue. A surcharge should not hit those people currently in the system, because they were not the ones who caused the problem. So, I do think that there are still some problems with this report.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to my honorable colleague from southern Nevada, in regards to the committee. As in this amendment on page 9, section 122, the purpose of the subcommittee is to review the issues related to workers compensation; study the desirability of establishing the preferred employee program which helps get injured workers back to work and provides incentives to do that.

It may review the manner in which the Division of Industrial Relations and the Department of Business and Industry rate physical impairment, and its own, to ensure the solvency of the state system; review and study the financial condition and determine the extent of the insolvency and establish a formula. These are all critical things that need to be looked at. We can't wait 18 months to return and find out what the condition of the system is, or look for solutions in 18 months. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for a second time. To you and through you to this honorable body, I think it is very important to note that if you take the surcharge language singularly, certainly it may be alarming. However, you have to understand that what we have found in the last 18 months was not apparent in the 1993 session. The fact that the major cause of these unfunded liabilities was under-collected premiums. What the interim study and the existing study will do is define how that surcharge would be paid, if and only if, the trigger ever went off.

It is true that the Governor is statutorily empowered to fix the system now, but it would not be in a delineated fashion that the interim committee will fashion that is the key. You cannot look at this as one part. You have to look at it as a sum of its parts. The sum of its parts is in census language that the trial lawyers, employers, employees, all the major labor unions of this state have all agreed to. This is the consensus language. It has taken five months to come to this agreement with a lot of hard work by a lot of people in this body and across the hall, and I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Mr. Speaker, when we passed the bill out of here, we took the surcharge out, and on another bill we moved the date on self-insurance until 1999, to your implementation for self-insurance further than we really wanted. So now the small employer can't go anywhere. He is stuck with the surcharge that is not right to impose on the small employers of this state.

ASSEMBLYMAN BACHE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to the Republican Floor Leader, is my understanding correct when you said that the benefits for the injured worker would not be the cause of the unfunded liability that the system has had over these years?

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With all due respect to the Co-Chairman of Government Affairs, what I said was the major cause was under-collected premiums. This has been hammered out over months and months. I don't think we are going to solve this by nit-picking this bill this evening. If people had a concern, they had their chance to voice that concern. I appreciate your opinions, but I think it is time to either vote "Yes" or vote "No." Thank you.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Bill No. 736.

Roll call on Assembly Bill No. 736:

YEAS—23.

NAYS—Anderson, Bache, Batten, Bennett, Braunlin, Brower, Buckley, Close, Ernaut, Freeman, Giunchigliani, Lambert, Manendo, Ohrenschall, Sandoval, Spitler, Steel—17.

Assembly Bill No. 736 having received a constitutional majority, Mr. Speaker declared it passed, as amended.

Bill ordered transmitted to the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 579.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Arberry, Anderson, Freeman and Schneider.

Assemblyman Ernaut requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARBERRY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill No. 579 makes an appropriation to the Division of Museums and History and also makes an appropriation to prenatal care. It also deals with the state water engineer so that they can establish a statewide water rights program. It also deals with the retired senior citizens' volunteer program and also with the well at the China Springs Youth camp. We would appreciate your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN FREEMAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do intend to vote for the bill. I do see that there is money in this bill for a sound wall in Las Vegas. I had a bill in Transportation that I was asking for money for a sound wall in Reno that is badly needed. Perhaps, I can get it two years from now.

ASSEMBLYMAN SCHNEIDER:

Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition of Senate Bill No. 579. This is the "pork bill." We have been sent here to do a job. We are funding $3.2 million on this bill for an automobile museum that I could buy for $10 million and cash the city out.

But, regardless of that, yesterday in the paper a story was written about Vicki High. She needs a heart transplant, and we have several of these in our state. We have a surplus of money right now and that is why the "pork bill" is here, and we have it rolling here at almost 10:30 p.m. on Friday evening. I think that the people sent us up here to do more than this.

I think that we have not worked at social issues quite enough this time. You know, to fund heart transplants for people in the State of Nevada, it is estimated that over the biennium there would be five people eligible in this state for heart transplants, 40 other states provide this under Medicaid. It would cost us approximately $500,000. That is the latest figure to come out. Currently, we spend $300,000-$400,000 a day to keep people alive and Medicaid pays for this in treatments and hospitals. Those people are going to die anyway.

We have people that can become productive citizens. Eighty percent of all heart transplants are successful. I think that we need to look at that. They can go back, be returned to society and be a productive member of society. Any one of us could be eligible for a heart transplant. A major operation like this would wipe out anybody, financially. This is not an appeal for an extension of welfare. It is a statement that we surely have better places to spend the millions of dollars.

It is a statement that exposes "pork" for what it really is. It is a statement that demands a return to a legislative process for the public and the legislature as a whole and participate in the process of how we spend our dollars. A very large share of the dollars at issue comes from Clark County. We have friends and neighbors in Clark County that need our help. I think it is time we stood up and gave them that help. I oppose this bill in the absence of doing what is right. I am not a great orator like my colleague from Assembly District No. 6, but let me quote someone who had something good to say about society, Sir Walter Scott, "The race of mankind would perish should they cease to aid each other." We do not exist without mutual help. People that need aid have a right to ask for it from their fellowmen, and no one who has the power of granting can refuse without guilt.

Mr. Speaker, there is guilt hanging above your chamber here tonight. I cannot vote on this bill. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I would like to remove this from the General File and place it on the Chief Clerk's desk for the purpose of an amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With all due respect to the Chairman of Economic Development and Tourism, I think that the remarks previously are grossly unfair. I take great umbrage with them.

I think they smack of demagoguery and think that they are disrespectful to this process and disrespectful to the money committees that have worked hard on this budget. Let's stick to the facts here. This is the session that has not increased taxes. This is a session that taxes a $70 million hole in the second year of the biennium. This is the session that had 10 new tax exemptions and four repealed taxes outright. There are needed projects across this state.

You can call it "pork;" you can call it a necessary appropriation. The people count on us for needed projects all across this state and this process is one of give and take; one of compromise and one of negotiation. To call all of us into question over that is absolutely irresponsible. These are difficult measures to vote on, but they are necessary for the people across this state. This money committee and this legislature worked very hard to prioritize those and bring them to the floor today. I urge your support of Senate Bill No. 579. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MONAGHAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this bill. I do not call retired senior volunteer programs "pork." I do not call lifeline pregnancy assistance and vocational training "pork." I do not call monies for search and rescue in Clark County "pork." Purchases for equipment and supplies to help identify victims of mass disaster is not "pork." They are needed programs. I urge your support.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 621.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1425.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 33 through 40 and inserting:

"Secs. 33-40. (Deleted by amendment.)".

Assemblyman Humke moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 621.

Remarks by Assemblyman Humke.

Motion carried.

Assembly Bill No. 650.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1439.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 1 and 2 and adding new sections designated sections 1 through 3, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. NRS 125.510 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125.510 1. In determining the custody of a minor child in an action brought under this chapter, the court may:

(a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at any time thereafter during the minority of any of the children of the marriage, make such an order for the custody, care, education, maintenance and support of the minor children as appears in their best interest; and

(b) At any time modify or vacate its order, even if the divorce was obtained by default without an appearance in the action by one of the parties.

The party seeking such an order shall submit to the jurisdiction of the court for the purposes of this subsection. The court may make such an order upon the application of one of the parties or the legal guardian of the minor.

2. Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated by the court upon the petition of one or both parents or on the court's own motion if it is shown that the best interest of the child requires the modification or termination. The court shall state in its decision the reasons for the order of modification or termination if either parent opposes it.

3. Any order for custody of a minor child or children of a marriage entered by a court of another state may, subject to the jurisdictional requirements in chapter 125A of NRS, be modified at any time to an order of joint custody.

4. A party may proceed pursuant to this section without counsel.

5. Any order awarding a party a limited right of custody to a child must define that right with sufficient particularity to ensure that the rights of the parties can be properly enforced and that the best interest of the child is achieved. The order must include all specific times and other terms of the limited right of custody. As used in this subsection, "sufficient particularity" means a statement of the rights in absolute terms and not by the use of the term "reasonable" or other similar term which is susceptible to different interpretations by the parties.

6. All orders authorized by this section must be made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 125A of NRS and must contain the following language:

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 6, all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country.

8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

9. Except where a contract providing otherwise has been executed pursuant to NRS 123.080, the obligation for care, education, maintenance and support of any minor child created by any order entered pursuant to this section ceases:

(a) Upon the death of the person to whom the order was directed; or

(b) When the child reaches 18 years of age if he is no longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when he reaches 19 years of age.

10. As used in this section, a parent has "significant commitments in a foreign country" if he:

(a) Is a citizen of a foreign country;

(b) Possesses a passport in his name from a foreign country;

(c) Became a citizen of the United States after marrying the other parent of the child; or

(d) Frequently travels to a foreign country.

Sec. 2. NRS 125A.290 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125A.290 1. Any order awarding a party a right of visitation of a minor child must [define] :

(a) Define that right with sufficient particularity to ensure that the rights of the parties can be properly enforced and that the best interest of the child is achieved [.] ; and

(b) Specify that the State of Nevada or the state where the child resides within the United States of America is the habitual residence of the child. The order must include all specific times and other terms of the right of visitation.

2. As used in this [subsection,] section, "sufficient particularity" means a statement of the rights in absolute terms and not by the use of the term "reasonable" or other similar term which is susceptible to different interpretations by the parties.

Sec. 3. This act becomes effective at 12:01 a.m. on October 1, 1995.".

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 356.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1236.

Amend section 1, pages 1 and 2, by deleting lines 2 through 25 on page 1 and lines 1 through 8 on page 2 and inserting:

"350.0051 1. In determining whether to approve or disapprove a proposal to incur debt or to levy a special elective tax, the commission shall not, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d), [undertake to determine whether the purpose for which it is proposed to incur the debt or levy the special elective tax is a public purpose or meets] initiate a determination as to whether the proposed debt or special elective tax is sought to accomplish a public purpose or to satisfy a public need. The commission shall consider, but is not limited to, the following criteria:

(a) If the proposal is to incur debt, the amount of debt outstanding on the part of the municipality proposing to incur the debt.

(b) The effect of the tax levy required for debt service on the proposed debt, or of the proposed levy of a special elective tax, upon the ability of the municipality proposing to incur the general obligation debt or levy the special elective tax and of other municipalities to raise revenue for operating purposes.

(c) The anticipated need for other incurrences of debt or levies of special elective taxes by the municipality proposing to incur the debt or levy the special elective tax and other municipalities whose tax-levying powers overlap, as shown by the county or regional master plan, if any, and by other available information.

(d) If the information set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection 4 of NRS 350.004 indicates that the proposal would result in a combined property tax rate in any of the overlapping entities within the county which exceeds 90 percent of the limit provided in NRS 361.453:

(1) The public need to be served by the proceeds from the proposed debt or tax levy; and

(2) A comparison of that public need and other public needs that appear on the statements of current and contemplated general obligation debt and special elective taxes submitted pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 350.0035 that may affect the combined property tax rate in any of the overlapping entities within the county.

2. If the commission approves the proposal, the amount received from the sale of the general obligation debt or from the special elective tax may be expended only for the purposes described in the proposal.".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 3 and 4 as sections 4 and 5 and adding a new section designated sec. 3, following sec. 2, to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 281 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. NRS 350.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

350.020 1. Except as otherwise permitted by subsection 3, when any municipality proposes to issue or incur general obligations, the proposal must be submitted to the electors of the municipality at a special election called for that purpose or the next primary or general municipal election or primary or general state election.

2. A special election may be held only if the governing body of the municipality determines, by a unanimous vote, that an emergency exists. The determination made by the governing body is conclusive unless it is shown that the governing body acted with fraud or a gross abuse of discretion. An action to challenge the determination made by the governing body must be commenced within 15 days after the governing body's determination is final. As used in this subsection, "emergency" means any unexpected occurrence or combination of occurrences which requires immediate action by the governing body of the municipality to prevent or mitigate a substantial financial loss to the municipality or to enable the governing body to provide an essential service to the residents of the municipality.

3. If payment of a general obligation of the municipality is additionally secured by a pledge of gross or net revenue of a project to be financed by its issue, and the governing body determines, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the governing body, that the pledged revenue will at least equal the amount required in each year for the payment of interest and principal, without regard to any option reserved by the municipality for early redemption, the municipality may, after a public hearing, incur this general obligation without an election unless, within 60 days after publication of a resolution of intent to issue the bonds, a petition is presented to the governing body signed by not less than 5 percent of the registered voters of the municipality who together with any corporate petitioners own not less than 2 percent in assessed value of the taxable property of the municipality. Any member elected to the governing body whose authority to vote is limited by charter, statute or otherwise may vote on the determination required to be made by the governing body pursuant to this subsection. The determination by the governing body becomes conclusive on the last day for filing the petition. For the purpose of this subsection, the number of registered voters must be determined as of the close of registration for the last preceding general election and assessed values must be determined from the next preceding final assessment roll. An authorized corporate officer may sign such a petition whether or not he is a registered voter. The resolution of intent need not be published in full, but the publication must include the amount of the obligation and the purpose for which it is to be incurred. Notice of the public hearing must be published at least 10 days before the day of the hearing. The publications must be made once in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality. When published, the notice of the public hearing must be at least as large as 5 inches high by 4 inches wide.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 656.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1410.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering section 1 as sec. 2 and adding a new section designated section 1, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. Chapter 361 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Any person who qualifies for an exemption pursuant to NRS 361.090 may, in lieu of claiming his exemption:

(a) Pay to the county assessor all or any portion of the amount by which the tax would be reduced if he claimed his exemption; and

(b) Direct the county assessor to deposit that amount for credit to the veterans' home account established pursuant to NRS 417.145.

2. Any person who wishes to waive his exemption pursuant to this section shall designate the amount to be credited to the account on a form provided by the Nevada tax commission.

3. The county assessor shall deposit any money received pursuant to this section with the state treasurer for credit to the veterans' home account established pursuant to NRS 417.145. The state treasurer shall not accept more than a total of $1,000,000 for credit to the account pursuant to this section and section 4 of this act during any fiscal year.".

Amend section 1, page 2, by deleting line 5 and inserting: "county assessor shall mail a form for :

(a) The renewal of the exemption ; and

(b) The designation of any amount to be credited to the veterans' home account, to the person".

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sec. 2 as sec. 5 and adding new sections designated sections 3 and 4, following section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. NRS 361.155 is hereby amended to read as follows:

361.155 1. All claims for personal tax exemptions on real property , [and] the initial claim of an organization for a tax exemption on real property and the designation of any amount to be credited to the veterans' home account pursuant to section 1 of this act must be filed on or before June 15. All exemptions provided for [under] pursuant to this chapter apply on a fiscal year basis and any exemption granted [under] pursuant to this chapter must not be in an amount which gives the taxpayer a total exemption greater than that to which he is entitled during any fiscal year.

2. Each claim for an exemption provided for [under] pursuant to this chapter must be filed with the county assessor of:

(a) The county in which the claimant resides for personal tax exemptions; or

(b) Each county in which property is located for the tax exemption of an organization.

3. After the initial claim for an exemption pursuant to NRS 361.088 or 361.098 to 361.150, inclusive, an organization is not required to file annual claims if the property remains exempt. If any portion of the property loses its exemption pursuant to NRS 361.157 or for any other reason becomes taxable, the organization must notify the county assessor.

4. If an exemption is granted or renewed in error because of an incorrect claim or failure of an organization to give the notice required by subsection 3, the assessor shall assess the taxable portion of the property retroactively pursuant to NRS 361.769 and a penalty of 10 percent of the tax due for the current year and any prior years must be added.

Sec. 4. Chapter 371 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Any person who qualifies for an exemption pursuant to NRS 371.103 may, in lieu of claiming his exemption:

(a) Pay to the department all or any portion of the amount by which the tax would be reduced if he claimed his exemption; and

(b) Direct the department to deposit that amount for credit to the veterans' home account established pursuant to NRS 417.145.

2. Any person who wishes to waive his exemption pursuant to this section shall designate the amount to be credited to the account on a form provided by the department.

3. The department shall deposit any money received pursuant to this section with the state treasurer for credit to the veterans' home account established pursuant to NRS 417.145. The state treasurer shall not accept more than a total $1,000,000 for credit to the account pursuant to this section and section 1 of this act during any fiscal year.".

Amend sec. 2, page 3, by deleting line 4 and inserting: "assessor shall mail a form for :

All exemptions provided for in this section [shall] must not be in an amount which gives the taxpayer a total exemption greater than that to which he is entitled during any fiscal year.

Sec. 7. NRS 371.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

371.230 [Moneys] Except as otherwise provided in section 4 of this act, money collected by the department for privilege taxes and penalties [under] pursuant to the provisions of this chapter [shall] must be deposited with the state treasurer to the credit of the motor vehicle fund.".

Amend sec. 3, page 3, line 24, by deleting "1995." and inserting "1996.".

Amend the title of the bill, first line, after "taxation;" by inserting: "authorizing persons who are qualified for certain exemptions from the property tax or the motor vehicle privilege tax to waive their exemptions and designate any additional amount to be credited to the veterans' home account established in the state general fund;".

Assemblyman Allard requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On behalf, I'm sure, of every one in this body, it is our pleasure today to recognize our support staff. It has been an honor, I'm sure for all of us, to serve in this legislative body. I think that one of the greatest things I have observed in this body is that I have not heard, in many instances, the word "I," "my," or "mine." It's always "we," "together," or "us."

I think this is a good example of leadership which we have seen and has been provided to us by our Speakers, our front desk, our floor leaders. I think that we would be hard-pressed, very hard-pressed to accomplish what we have accomplished without the people who have served as our support staff.

There is a saying that, "No one is as great as all of us." No one is greater than anyone of us in this body. I think we have surely shown, in this State of Nevada, that we can work together as political parties, as individuals from rural and urban Nevada and that is shown with the support staff that we have.

On behalf of all of us, especially the Elections and Procedures Committee which has had the opportunity to introduce this resolution, it is my pleasure to recognize the staff that we've had and urge this body to support Assembly Resolution No. 16.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I remember two years ago when I first served here, standing here the last night when we did sine die and congratulating the staff.

The position that I enjoyed this time allowed me to see more from the inside. I can't tell you what a tremendous job these people do. No one can appreciate the kind of work and hours they put in; every single person back here. We've read their names, but I want them all to be recognized, please stand up. I just can't tell you how much you are appreciated. It was so hard on Joe, he lost his hair! Seriously, I don't want to make a joke out of this, these people work very hard and they deserve the recognition that this resolution brings and I can't say enough "thank you's" to every one of them for doing a job that, for most part, goes unrecognized. They don't get the credit that they deserve and we should definitely make sure that they do.

I want to name one special person for me this time, Cindy, who is sitting here and said I can't do this, but I'm going to do it anyway. She is so good at what she does, I can't tell you how efficient she is. How easily she does this is amazing; everything just happens. Yesterday, she stuck into my briefcase, a listing of all the files that she has done for me this entire session, fully indexed, so that I know where everything is, including every single drawer. It is unbelievable. This young lady is very talented, and besides, she is very pleasant to work with. I couldn't have done any part of this without her. I want to give her some special recognition, as well as the rest of you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I have always felt that one of the most remarkable groups of people that work in our building is behind the scenes. Those are the individuals who work in our bill room. We've never given them the kind of recognition that they deserve.

When we walk into any of our committee rooms, not to have to carry every piece of paper with you, and to know and depend on, that everything you need is going to be there without any question. When you walk out of that room, and walk into the next room, you will have the information that you need right in front of you. The orderly presentation of it makes any little thing stick out like a glowing error. It happens so rarely it is ridiculous even to mention it.

The kind of work that our secretaries do for us to make sure that everything else is taken care of is very much appreciated. I know that Ms. Sneddon and Ms. Hicks are absolutely essential to what I have done this session. Our Judiciary Committee could not work without them. I know that the other secretaries have treated us all with such pleasant attitudes, and it makes it a joy to be here. This is especially important to me.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. A thought had occurred to me that it would be interesting to see how this body would operate if all the people who are listed on that resolution just up and disappeared one day.

The notes that needed to be passed on the floor, the errands that needed to be run, the letters that needed to be typed and the agendas that needed to be posted. If we all had to do that for ourselves, annual sessions would be a reality because we would never leave here. It would be a 24-hour-a-day, 365-day-a-year job. These are the people who make us look good; the people who make the process work. It would be impossible for that to occur without them.

I, too, would like to mention someone who has kept me where I need to be, Maria Kelderman. I'm not the best organized person in the world. I take a lot of prodding from her to be in the right place at the right time. I know that I haven't always been there, but it is not because she didn't try and do her best to get me there. It was certainly my fault if I didn't get there. With those remarks, Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, stand in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. Everyone knows who runs this building; it is this group of people in this resolution. I think one of the best pieces of advice anyone ever gave me when I got here was to make friends with all of the secretaries, because they make your life so much easier. I took that to heart.

I want to thank all of them for putting up with my practical jokes, my coffee cup collection and all the cookies that I stole. I really appreciate it. You made this process very enjoyable and very efficient. And to my own secretary, Kelly, who for those of you who don't know, is going to be my secretary in the private world after the session, working with me is probably analogous to her trying to stop a charging rhinoceros with a pellet gun. She does a great job. She keeps me organized and covers for me. I really appreciate her and look forward to working with her for years and years to come.

But, to all the other attachés, you have done a great job. You keep this place running long before we get here and long after we leave. We owe you a real debt of gratitude.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am delighted to rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. The work that happens in the legislature by our attachés is the epitome of teamwork and collegiality. I know that they are assigned, in many cases, to one or two legislators or to a particular committee, but it doesn't make any difference. If you need something, whoever's there and they can tell usually by the look of desperation on your face, they don't wait to be asked, they volunteer. "What do you need? What can I do? How can I help?" It is that spirit that makes the session a success.

In my own case, of course, I have the "General." General Wehry, who keeps me on track. She makes all kinds of sacrifices on my behalf. In fact, she keeps all kinds of people in line on the third floor. The other day, someone asked me at one of my more difficult moments, whether I was going to run again and I said it depended on whether or not Marci would come back and work with me, because I can't imagine being here without her. She is truly indispensable. I thank her, and I thank all of you for all of your good help.

ASSEMBLYMAN HUMKE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. My Co-Chairman has previously spoken about two of the finest assistants that we have had, but I have to rise in support of it also. We have three assistants, Patty Hicks, Jacque Sneddon and Joi Davis. They are just fantastic. They are fantastic because with the Co-Chairman system in our case, you have a walrus and a would-be cowboy who often have disreviews and it is difficult to sort those things out. And, they manage to do it with regard to the record that was made.

For example, my Co-Chairman reads the minutes in draft as soon as they come out of the printer, and my stack is still up there from February 1. We'll get to them. That is how disparate we are. But, this is something that our staff would have prevented.

You can see in this picture in our one moment of fame, the Co-Chair and I were able to show the back of my head which is blocking the face of my Co-Chair on the front page of the Review-Journal. Meanwhile, showing Mr. Anderson's Senator in fine form and Senator James, of course, and the Governor very well. Suffice it to say, that our staff would have prevented that. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I would like to say that all of you are our heroes and our heroines. Your job is to make us look good and it's real tough some days. I do applaud you. You have been absolutely delightful.

I do want to commend you. You have done an excellent job and we could not have done it without you. We would not be as successful as, hopefully, we will be when we sine die, tonight. Thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I look here behind me at this great bunch of people, both sides; over the years they have become very, very close friends. I just want to commend each and every one of you for the great work you have done, particularly, our girls in Ways and Means who have had to put up with "Mooseman" and the "Old Man," Y, Jonnie Sue, Deb and Dale. It is just amazing all the numbers that they have to listen to and they still keep their sense of humor. To each and every one of you, I wish you well. We are going to miss you during the interim and it has been a pleasure working with all of you.

ASSEMBLYMAN HARRINGTON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. One for all and all for Irene! We really put Irene through the hot seat this session with Wendell, Brian and I. Brian has made her work hard. Brian is a hard charger in writing letters and we really do appreciate the great work that she has done.

Also, Barb Prudic, on the Education Committee has really had to toe the line there to keep us both happy. Amazingly, they have kept us both happy. All three of us. I just have to say to Lorne and the group here, I have never seen an organization work so well and so efficiently and in such a cooperative spirit. I have been very pleased by that.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I echo the words of my predecessors who have spoken before me. I also want to thank you for the moral, spiritual and personal support that you have given me as a new mom and all of the good advice and the words to my baby. She is really going to miss you guys. I am going to miss you guys! I won't have you there every morning to pick her up and help me out. Thank you so much for making this a great session for me.

ASSEMBLYMAN BROWER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to everyone here, I would like to thank all of you for your help to me and all of us. It has been wonderful working with you and as far as that look of panic, that my colleague mentioned, Marlene has seen it on my face twice today already. Thank you, Marlene, for everything.

ASSEMBLYMAN BACHE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. All of the staff here are just wonderful, particularly Kelly, Denise and Sara from Government Affairs. They have treated myself and my Co-Chairman in the most wonderful manner. I have been very pleased that I have been able to let you use my office for a hanging-out place when you needed a few minutes from typing to drink a coke, or whatever. I appreciate your work and thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I would like to thank all of the staff who have helped me on various projects. To all the attachés who have labeled me their number one note queen, thanks. A special thanks to Janine who had the difficult task of working for Mr. Schneider, Diane and Dora Steel and myself to balance four very different people with different needs as well as she did. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I will make it very brief. Thank you to each and every one of you, but most particularly to Cecilia, who has supported me and Mr. Close in every possible circumstance and has really helped us to learn the ropes. Thanks to all of you.

ASSEMBLYMAN FREEMAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of this resolution. Donna, who is the secretary for Mr. Neighbors, Mr. Bennett and myself; most of you in the building know what a cookie maker she is. She has a bowl on her desk every day with new kinds of cookies. She and my husband have developed quite a telephone relationship. They send themselves gifts; an onion, a very special onion, another time a beer tray. You are very special.

ASSEMBLYMAN BENNETT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ditto baby! Thank you, Donna, you still have the best cookies of anybody in this legislature. You've been a great help and we appreciate you.

ASSEMBLYMAN KRENZER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, want to rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I want to say thank you to Jen Carnahan. She has had double duty on a very difficult committee, taking all those records, files and everything and to prepare Room 119 day after day, Tuesdays and Thursdays, a very special thanks to her.

ASSEMBLYMAN BRAUNLIN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. To Susie, Frances and each and every one of you, thank you very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. We can never say enough wonderful things about our extended family who takes care of us, makes us look good and works so hard on our behalf. I am surprised that I haven't had to take Nykki down and have her committed with all the things that she has had to put up with from me this session, including trying to clean up my office.

Everyone from Ways and Means, to Denise my private artist, who created our "alien" for us. Everybody has just been wonderful and it is just like losing family when I go home. We won't see you for two years, but if I had my way it would be next year. Thank you so very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN FETTIC:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise also in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. Just let me say, as a senior freshman, thank you all for making my life a lot easier.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I have enjoyed this session very much on account of the staff. They are always cheerful and helpful, especially, Carol Dickerson who is doing her second term with me and if I don't fall by the wayside, will be back for a third term. And, also to the pages who say that I drink too much coffee. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN STROTH:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I just want to thank all of the ladies. I have had so many of you come in and help out when Carolyn was busy with Taxation. I think all of you have been so cooperative and generous with your time.

I especially want to thank Carolyn, who I appreciate most of all for her wonderful personality and upbeat attitude. She keeps me straight and has even learned to understand when I change the subject five times in 90 seconds. I just wish that I could take her home with me. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ALLARD:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. I want to thank my secretary, Marlene. She has been extremely helpful keeping me straight and going. She is a great lady. I also want to thank the pages for all those diet cokes. I don't know if you know it, but I do drink diet cokes. With that, "Joe, would you go get me a diet coke?"

ASSEMBLYMAN MANENDO:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 16. Mary just came on board a few weeks ago and had the difficult task of coming into this session at the most ludicrous time. She has done a great job with the number of letters that Mrs. Krenzer and I put out, and I want to thank her. We lost our other secretary and I want to thank the rest of the staff who took over and helped me out personally, when we were in a situation of not having anyone. I want to thank all of them because it made my life easier. Thank you, very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN MONAGHAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support and I think that the best gift that we can give them is to go home!

Ditto.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHOWNING:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to say thank you to everyone, especially to Sylvia and Jackie. Can you imagine this one saying, "I'm going to make a Democrat out of you yet!" That's what I say to him and he says to me, "I'm going to make a Republican out of you yet." Those two have kept these two diverse teams straight and organized and they really deserve a medal. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLOSE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for a second time. As I opened the discussion on this Assembly Resolution I said some general statements, but I realized that my secretary, Cecilia, is helping me pack my boxes and if I don't publicly thank her, I'm not sure what she is going to put in those boxes. I would like to express my personal thanks to Cecilia for all the work that she puts forth on my behalf. I would also like to extend my thanks to Bobbie on behalf of my Co-Chairman and myself for all the work that she did on Elections and Procedures. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

I would just like to say I think that this is one of the finest crews that we have ever assembled. Everyone has been very efficient and done an excellent job for us. I want to especially recognize the bill clerks and Sally who has been here since 1971, almost as long as me, but not quite. She has done a wonderful job here all these years and my secretary, Betty, who is at my desk.

Everybody knows Betty; everybody in my district knows Betty. I think that she could beat me in an election if she ran. She sits there by the hour answering the telephone from my constituents and I never have to talk to them. She talks to them. Obviously, they must be pretty satisfied. She is going to retire to Lahontan Lake and enjoy the mosquitos. This year she can go out on the lake and boat. It's going to be a great summer for her. It has been wonderful having her here, because if she hadn't been here when I got here at the beginning of session, I think it would have been all over. She spun me around about three times and said this is the way that you have to go. We have been going straight ever since. I really appreciate her coming back and working for me.

ASSEMBLYMAN NEIGHBORS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To you and through you to the wonderful staff and Donna, it was really great. I especially appreciate it when you said that I was so much easier to work with than the cowboy that you had the previous session.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Let's not forget our secretarial supervisor, Vicki. She has done a wonderful job for us. We really appreciate her stepping in this year and taking over and doing a real efficient and good job for us.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

We forgot one other person, too. The "General" of the leadership area, Laverna, she had to take off early. But in her stead, I have to say that she ran interference for leadership very well. She fed Goldwater which is a daily chore. I think that he has a tape worm. She did a great job. I think she is a surrogate mother to all of us. I have to tell you one quick story. She put a note on my door that said call so and so ASAP. I said, "Laverna, why didn't you bring the note to me on the floor, it said ASAP." She said, "There was nobody here, I couldn't do it." I said, "Laverna if it was ASAP it was probably important." She said, "You don't even call your mother back, and I am not giving any more messages until you call your mother back."

Resolution adopted unanimously.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen Freeman, Segerblom, de Braga, Steel, Braunlin, Ohrenschall, Krenzer, Stroth, Giunchigliani, Lambert, Monaghan, Chowning, Tripple, Brower and Buckley:

Assembly Resolution No. 17—Commending the Speakers pro Tempore of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature for their service.

WHEREAS, It is customary that the members of the Assembly elect a Speaker pro Tempore to preside in the temporary absence of the Speaker and serve as a part of the leadership of the Assembly; and

WHEREAS, The equal division between the parties this session led to a unique sharing of leadership responsibilities and the election of two women to serve as Speakers pro Tempore; and

WHEREAS, Jan Evans and Sandra Tiffany each brought to the office a refreshing perspective to complement the traditional notions of legislative leadership; and

WHEREAS, Their individual service at the podium when presiding over the Assembly was efficient and effective, even when they served at a moment's notice; and

WHEREAS, The importance of their additional contributions to the legislative process is not diminished by the fact that much of the work done by these strong leaders was accomplished quietly and without public recognition; and

WHEREAS, The strength, compassion and commitment of these two Assemblywomen to the legislative process and the residents of this state must be recognized and commended; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, That the members of the Assembly of the 68th session of the Nevada Legislature commend and extend their sincere thanks to Jan Evans and Sandra Tiffany for their dedicated and effective service as Speakers pro Tempore; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Jan Evans and Sandra Tiffany.

Assemblyman de Braga moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen de Braga, Segerblom, Spitler, Brower, Marvel, Hettrick, Anderson, Chowning, Monaghan, Mr. Speaker Dini and Price.

ASSEMBLYMAN DE BRAGA:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. These two women that we are very pleased to honor here today have been through this session, both as very effective and efficient leaders. They have done their job quietly and have not received much recognition. We, the women of the 68th session, want them to know how very proud we are of their accomplishments and how very pleased we are to have them as leaders. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. I know this is not the "Year of the Woman." It was two years ago when all us women were elected, but we think it is the "Year of the Woman," since we have two women Co-Speakers; Co-Existing Speakers. It has been the first time that has happened for two wonderful parties. We feel very fortunate to have such wonderful additions to our Assembly, and we hope that they will be back.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPITLER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. It has been my pleasure, since 1991, to work with my colleague from Sparks. I have certainly enjoyed the times I was on her side, because she can be quite effective if you tend to disagree along the way or have a different point of view. But it has always been a pleasure working with her. When she has the flag and she has the issue at hand, I don't think anyone waves it more proudly and with more strength than she does, and I really enjoy that.

This has been my first time with my colleague from southern Nevada, and I have had a really unique experience because not only have I seen what she is capable of doing on the floor of the Assembly, it was truly my pleasure to co-chair Commerce with her this time. I have to tell you, once or twice we definitely locked horns. I am not sure I have walked away as the victor in any of those, because she is very capable of taking the car for the full ride. It has been wonderful to see that interaction and to be a part of that. I have to thank her for allowing me to share that experience.

I think what we have seen here with the leadership of two women being Speakers pro Tempore this year, is we have certainly seen leadership on their part and not leadership diversities in general. I think we all benefit and sometimes the transition is difficult and a little rocky road along the way, but ultimately, history looks back and says that this diversification and these changes toward inclusiveness benefit us all. I thank both of these people; I am thrilled that we are honoring them.

I think a lot of times people in the number two position don't always get the day-to-day praise. So I am very proud to stand in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. Thank you, Mr.Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN BROWER:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. I would like to say that I think that we have two of the best Speakers pro Tempore anywhere. I think we are very fortunate to have leaders of this caliber here in our state. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MARVEL:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. I had the pleasure of being Co-Chair of Ways and Means and to have two very bright, brilliant, dedicated ladies as being Vice Co-Chairs. It was quite a unique experience, and may I say this to the members of this body, those women in their roles as Co-Chairs were able to fill in for either Chairman Arberry or I when we were absent. They performed magnificently on the Subcommittees that they co-chaired, and they were tough committees. I think that they did an excellent job on their budget closings. This body, the whole legislature and the State of Nevada can be very proud of these two ladies for their dedicated work to the state.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. I think it is true, unfortunately, that as Speakers pro Tempore they don't get the recognition on the floor, and I think that it is unfortunate. I think they have done an excellent job when we have needed them to fill in. They have done this with impeccable efficiency whenever they had the opportunity to do so.

I have to say that their real strength was shown on Ways and Means and in the committee. These are two really talented ladies with a lot of intelligence who can ask the tough questions, follow it through and are truly a part of this process. I clearly think they don't get the recognition either one of them deserve, and I am glad that we are doing this. I fully support this resolution.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. It always surprises me, I guess, coming from a session that is dominated by women that people don't recognize that people who are Speakers pro Tempore are in their positions because they are leaders. They are leaders which might sound like a small thing; honoring women in recognition that they are leaders and they prove that every day by what they do here. I am happy to follow their lead from time to time, disagree with them from time to time, but knowing that when I do, they are up to the fight because they are willing to lead. You can always tell a leader. They are the ones with all of the arrows in their backs. These two ladies get their quiver every day.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHOWNING:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Resolution No. 17. When you are second in line, you're called the "pinch hitters." I would just like to say that I am so proud of the way these two "pinch hit" and filled in. They did it with dedication and with class. I am very grateful and thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MONAGHAN:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support and admiration both to my colleague from Henderson and my colleague from Sparks. I would like to thank them both for their leadership, integrity and their honesty. It has been a pleasure to work with both of them.

ASSEMBLYMAN DINI:

Thank you, very much. I guess I ought to say something before all these lights go on. I wish they wouldn't. What I would like to say is that I know Ms. Evans a lot better than I know Ms. Tiffany because we have been associated here in this house for a good number of years. I really appreciated having Jan serving as my Speaker pro Tempore. I made her my best pal. I think and I consider her that because we can discuss any issue and no matter where we are on it, we can always talk about it. I notice that both of our Speakers pro Tempore came on strong. As the year went along, they got stronger and learned the process better. I think we have an excellent team that has produced well for the citizens of our state. I want to congratulate both of you for good work and coming along strong.

ASSEMBLYMAN PRICE:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, want to speak on behalf and in favor of Assembly Resolution No. 17, congratulating and recognizing the talent and the work of our colleagues. I am not sure how many years that I have served on Ways and Means with Mrs. Evans, but I can tell you that I listen to everything she says for direction. She is so good and knows the system so well.

The last two sessions I have served with Mrs. Tiffany and we've sat next to each other, which makes it easier for me to ask questions about technical matters and computer matters. She digs into the system so well. Of course, with the times they have lead us from the podium as our Speakers pro Tempore, they both have always done an excellent job. We are very fortunate to have them as colleagues and fellow legislators. We thank you so much for your service to your districts and the whole state.

ASSEMBLYMAN EVANS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The first time I presided, someone asked me after the session, "Isn't it kind of scary up there?" And I said, "Well, it is a different perspective." I am used to seeing the back of people's heads and so forth. I think it wasn't too scary for me. First of all, because I had the experience and knowledge and the steady hand of Speaker Dini always to rely upon and, of course, the most comforting part of that is the front desk and Mrs. Landing. There is no way in the world they are going to let you fall on your face no matter how lost you get. They have an incredible way of making you look like you know what you are doing. So, I thank all of them. It has been an honor to serve in this capacity. It has been an honor also to serve with my colleague from Henderson, Ms. Tiffany. We have been soul mates on Ways and Means, grinding those numbers now for a couple of sessions, and I certainly have to concur with what has been said previously. She always gives 110 percent in whatever she does. Not very much gets past her and it is just great to work with her. Thanks to all of you.

ASSEMBLYMAN TIFFANY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am shocked and flabbergasted. I was out running the halls trying to get business done for these Conference Committees, so I did not expect this, and I am overwhelmed. I was complaining about all the great clocks and said, "What about us?" Thank you.

I would also like to take it to the next step and talk about the front desk for a second. It is scary up there. I probably should have had sweat pants on every time I was up there. I was a nervous wreck. Mouryne Landing, when Bob discussed her fading back like with a football, it is exactly what she does, only I was going, "What, what? What are you doing?" She is great. She never let us fail and the same with my "co-pro Tempore."

We have spent some time together. We have been on Ways and Means together, vice-chairs together, health care committees together, I can go on and on. I respect everything she has to say. She has a legislative memory and history that is unparalleled, particularly, in health care issues and social issues. It has been a pleasure working with you. I just want to thank everybody. Thank you.

If, on comparison of the count with the pollbook, a majority of the inspectors are of the opinion that the ballots folded together were voted by one person, the ballots must be rejected and placed in an envelope, upon which must be written the reason for their rejection. The envelope must be signed by the counting board officers and placed in the ballot box after the count is completed.

3. If the ballots in the box are found to exceed in number the number of names on the pollbooks, the ballots must be replaced in the box, and a counting board officer, with his back turned to the box, shall draw out a number of ballots equal to the excess. If there is a discrepancy between the number of ballots and the number of voters, a record of the discrepancy must be made.

Sec. 36. NRS 293.367 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.367 1. The basic factor to be considered by an election board when making a determination of whether a particular ballot must be rejected is whether any identifying mark appears on the ballot which, in the opinion of the election board, constitutes an identifying mark such that there is a reasonable belief entertained in good faith that the ballot has been tampered with and, as a result of the tampering, the outcome of the election would be affected.

2. Regulations for counting ballots must include provisions that:

(d) If it is impossible to determine a voter's choice for any office or question, his vote or votes for that office or question may not be counted.

(e) A soiled or defaced ballot may not be rejected if it appears that the soiling or defacing was inadvertent and was not done purposely to identify the ballot.

(f) Only devices provided for in this chapter or chapter 293B of NRS may be used in marking ballots.

(g) It is unlawful for any election board officer to place any mark upon any ballot other than a spoiled ballot.

(h) When an election board officer rejects a ballot for any alleged defect or illegality, the officer shall seal the ballot in an envelope and write upon the envelope a statement that it was rejected and the reason for rejecting it. Each election board officer shall sign the envelope.

(i) In counties or cities where mechanical voting systems are used whereby a vote is cast by punching a card, a superfluous punch into any card does not constitute grounds for rejection of the ballot unless the election board determines that the condition of the ballot justifies its exclusion pursuant to subsection 1.

Sec. 37. NRS 293.373 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.373 If paper ballots or ballots which are voted by punching a card are used:

2. The voted ballots, rejected ballots, tally lists for regular ballots, tally list for rejected ballots, challenge list, stubs of used ballots, spoiled ballots and unused ballots must be sealed under cover by the counting board officers and addressed to the county or city clerk.

4. The voted ballots deposited with the county clerk are not subject to the inspection of anyone, except in cases of contested election, and then only by the judge, body or board before whom the election is being contested, or by the parties to the contest, jointly, pursuant to an order of such judge, body or board.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1509.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 1 through 17 and adding new sections designated sections 1 through 12, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. Chapter 342 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 2. As used in sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Acquisition" means the acquisition of real property by a governmental body by purchase or eminent domain.

2. "Business" means a business which is licensed in accordance with law.

3. "Displacement" means the actual vacating of real property by a natural person or business because of an acquisition by a governmental body.

4. "Governmental body" means any political subdivision of this state, any department, agency or instrumentality of a political subdivision, and any other entity which is authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain.

Sec. 3. Before displacing a natural person or a business as a result of an acquisition, a governmental body shall develop a process by which natural persons or businesses who will be displaced from their dwellings or business establishments as a result of the acquisition, and who are otherwise eligible for services and benefits provided by the governmental body pursuant to sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act, may claim eligibility for those services and benefits. The process must include, without limitation, claim forms and a schedule setting forth the time when those forms and any required attachments must be submitted to the governmental body and the time when the governmental body will distribute any monetary compensation or provide other services.

Sec. 4. A governmental body shall provide the following administrative services for persons whose dwellings or business establishments are situated on property proposed for acquisition by the governmental body:

1. Written materials and public meetings, where applicable, which will provide information on the proposed acquisition of the property and the services and benefits that will be available to the persons who will be displaced.

2. Information and assistance regarding the time and manner in which the persons may claim eligibility for such services and benefits.

3. Ninety days' written notice of the proposed displacement. This notice must contain information on the procedure for obtaining the services and benefits provided pursuant to sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act, to which a person is otherwise eligible.

Sec. 5. Before undertaking a project that will result in the displacement of a natural person or a business, each governmental body shall adopt policies pursuant to sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act to provide relocation assistance and make relocation payments to each person displaced from his dwelling or business establishment as a result of the acquisition of property in a manner substantially similar to and in amounts equal to or greater than those which are provided for in the federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, 42 U.S.C. §§ 4601-4655, and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

Sec. 6. 1. In addition to the relocation benefits provided pursuant to section 5 of this act, each person who is displaced from his business establishment as a result of the acquisition of property by an agency created pursuant to chapter 279 of NRS or by any person or entity acting on behalf of, in cooperation with or under contract with such an agency, and whose lease of the premises on which the establishment is situated is terminated as a consequence of the acquisition, must be paid:

(a) The actual, reasonable and necessary costs of alterations and other physical changes that are required to be made to a new location to render it suitable for the operation of the business;

(b) The actual, reasonable and necessary costs of modifications made to machinery, equipment and other personal property moved to the new location which were necessary for the operation of the business, except that such costs must not exceed the acquisition cost of the machinery, equipment and other personal property less accumulated depreciation;

(c) The prorated fees for any licenses, permits or certifications that must be obtained for the business to operate in the new location;

(d) The actual, reasonable and necessary fees for professional services incurred in connection with the acquisition of a replacement site, including the services of architects, appraisers, attorneys, engineers, realtors and other consultants; and

(e) A sum equal to:

(1) An amount which, when added to the amount that the tenant formerly paid in rent, will enable him to rent or lease a comparable business location on the current market for a term equal to the period that would have remained on his lease if it had not been terminated as a result of the acquisition of the property or 3 years, whichever is greater; or

(2) The fair market value of the business as determined in accordance with subsection 5 of NRS 37.009 if the business owner is unable to relocate his business establishment to a comparable new location because of the operation of a governmental ordinance, regulation or restriction or because a comparable business location is not available.

2. The provisions of this section do not apply to month-to-month tenancies.

3. The provisions of this section do not apply to a business which executes an initial lease within 1 year before the approval of a development agreement or other similar action of a governmental body identifying the property that will be acquired, unless the business is renewing a lease on a site that it has occupied for more than 1 year before the identification of the property that will be acquired.

4. A governmental body may adopt ordinances or regulations or take any other appropriate action which allows a business to be relocated to a comparable business location.

5. As used in this section, "comparable business location" means a location that is decent, safe and sanitary, adequate in size for the needs of the displaced business, functionally equivalent for the purposes of the displaced business and located in an area not subject to unreasonably adverse environmental conditions.

6. Nothing contained in this section requires a governmental body to relocate a business to a location in a redevelopment area or an area similar to a redevelopment area, or to provide the benefits that a location in a redevelopment area would provide.

Sec. 7. 1. All payments of benefits pursuant to sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act must be made within 90 days after notice of displacement is given by a governmental body. If a person entitled to such benefits informs the governmental body that a payment is needed immediately to pay a third party, such as a new landlord, utility company or escrow company, the governmental body shall make any authorized payment directly to the third party upon request.

2. Each governmental body subject to the provisions of sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act shall establish an administrative appeal process for handling grievances arising pursuant to those sections. The process must include, at a minimum, notice and an opportunity to be heard.

Sec. 8. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute to the contrary, the provisions of sections 2 to 7, inclusive, of this act apply to all acquisitions of real property by a governmental body by purchase or eminent domain unless the person who is being displaced owns and occupies the real property and willingly agrees to the purchase price offered by the governmental body.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 2 to 7, inclusive, of this act, a governmental body may, if appropriate under the circumstances, pay to a displaced person an amount of benefits that exceeds the amounts set forth in sections 2 to 7, inclusive, of this act. The governmental body has sole discretion to decide whether benefits will be paid in an amount that exceeds the amounts set forth in sections 2 to 7, inclusive, of this act, and its decision on that matter is final.

3. The regulations adopted pursuant to the federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, 42 U.S.C. §§ 4601-4655, govern the interpretation of any word or phrase not specifically defined in sections 2 and 6 of this act.

Sec. 9. NRS 463.1605 is hereby amended to read as follows:

463.1605 1. [The] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, the commission shall not approve a nonrestricted license, other than for the operation of a race book or sports pool at an establishment which holds a nonrestricted license to operate both gaming devices and a gambling game, for an establishment in a county whose population is 100,000 or more unless the establishment is a resort hotel.

2. A county, city or town may require resort hotels to meet standards in addition to those required by this chapter as a condition of issuance of a gaming license by the county, city or town.

3. The commission may approve a nonrestricted license for an establishment which is not a resort hotel at a new location if the establishment was acquired or displaced pursuant to a redevelopment project undertaken by an agency created pursuant to NRS 279.382 to 279.685, inclusive.

Sec. 10. 1. The provisions of subsection 1 of NRS 354.599 do not apply to any additional expenses of a local government which are related to the provisions of this act.

2. A local government may obtain reimbursement from a private entity to cover all or any part of the expenses incurred by the local government in carrying out the provisions of sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 11. The provisions of section 6 of this act do not apply to any business that executed a lease after January 1, 1992, for a site in a pedestrian mall that was created pursuant to NRS 268.810 to 268.823, inclusive, unless the business previously occupied that site under a lease for more than 1 year which was executed before January 1, 1992.

Sec. 12. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.".

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

"An Act relating to governmental acquisitions of real property; providing for payments by governmental bodies to persons displaced from their dwellings or business establishments as a result of such acquisitions; authorizing the Nevada gaming commission to approve a nonrestricted gaming license for an establishment which is not a resort hotel at a new location if the establishment is acquired or displaced pursuant to a redevelopment project; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.".

Amend the summary of the bill to read as follows:

Prayer by the Chaplain, The Reverend Al Tilstra.

O Lord, at this moment the members of this council ask again for Your help and guidance. This has been a very busy weekend, so make this a sacred moment, when men and women are aware of their need of God. A moment when answers come and guidance is given.

In the midst of great activity, today, we ask You to remind us often of Your invisible presence. That out of confused issues may come simplicity of plan; out of fear may come confidence; out of hurry may come the willingness to wait; out of frustration, rest and power.

This we ask in Your name. AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Amendment No. 1269.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 1 through 31 as sections 5 through 35 and adding new sections designated sections 1 through 4, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. NRS 379.021 is hereby amended to read as follows:

379.021 1. Whenever in any county a petition or petitions praying for the formation of a county library district and the establishment of a public library therein setting forth the boundaries of the proposed library district, certified by the district judge of any judicial district as being signed by 10 percent of the taxpayers or by taxpayers representing 10 percent of the taxable property in the proposed county library district, as shown by the last preceding assessment roll of the county, is presented to the board of county commissioners of the county in which the territory of the proposed county library district is situated, accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits of one or more of the signers thereof that the signatures thereto are genuine, the board of county commissioners shall, at its next regular meeting after the petition or petitions are so presented:

(a) Pass a resolution to the effect that a county library district with properly defined boundaries is to be established and cause to be published a notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation within the district once a week for a period of 2 weeks; and

(b) Allow 30 days after the first publication of the notice during which all taxpayers of the district in which the district library is to be situated have the right to file protests with the county clerk.

2. If the aggregate of protests is less than 10 percent of the taxpayers voting in the last general election, the board of county commissioners shall order the creation of the county library district and the establishment of a public library therein and levy taxes in support and continued maintenance of the library in accordance with subsection 5.

3. If the aggregate of protests is more than 10 percent of the taxpayers voting in the last general election, the board of county commissioners shall proceed no further with reference to the establishment of a county library district without submitting the question to the voters at a primary or general election.

4. If the majority of votes cast at the election is against the establishment of the county library district, the question is lost and the board of county commissioners shall proceed no further. If the majority of votes is in favor of the county library district, the board of county commissioners shall, within 10 days after the election, order the creation of the county library district and establishment of a public library therein.

5. Upon the creation of a county library district and establishment of a public library therein, the board of county commissioners shall, at the next time for levying taxes and in each year thereafter, at the time and in the manner other taxes are levied, levy a tax upon all taxable property in the county library district to create and maintain a fund known as the library fund.

6. All money received by the county treasurer pursuant to subsection 5 and NRS 379.026 may be transferred to a separate account established and administered by the trustees of a district library in accordance with the provisions of NRS 354.603.

Sec. 2. NRS 379.025 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Hold and possess the property and effects of the library in trust for the public.

(d) In the case of a county library, submit annual budgets to the board of county commissioners, containing detailed estimates of the amount of money necessary for the operation and management of the library for the next succeeding year.

(f) In the case of a consolidated library district:

(1) Administer any separate account established pursuant to NRS 354.603.

(2) Annually submit a budget to the board of county commissioners and governing body of the city for joint review and recommendation, which must contain detailed priorities and estimates of the amount of money necessary for the operation and management of the consolidated library district for the next succeeding year. Unless a majority of the members of the board of county commissioners and a majority of the members of the governing body of the city reject the budget within 21 days after it is submitted to them, the trustees shall cause copies of the final budget to be submitted to the board of county commissioners for attachment to the copy of the final budget for the county which is filed pursuant to NRS 354.59801, and to the governing body of the city for attachment to the copy of the final budget for the city which is filed pursuant to NRS 354.59801. If the budget is so rejected, the trustees shall resubmit a revised budget for joint review pursuant to this subparagraph.

(3) Submit quarterly reports to the board of county commissioners and governing body of the city concerning the budget and the programs of the library, and provide any additional information requested by either governing body as soon as is reasonably practicable after receiving the request.

(g) In the case of a district library, administer any separate account established pursuant to NRS 354.603.

(h) Establish bylaws and regulations for the management of the library and their own management.

[(h)] (i) Manage all the property, real and personal, of the library.

(c) Invest the money in the appropriate library fund in accordance with the provisions of chapter 355 of NRS.

(d) Do all acts necessary for the orderly and efficient management and control of the library.

3. The trustees shall, as a primary goal of the consolidated library district, provide the library facilities, resources and trained staff to meet the informational needs of all residents of the district.

Sec. 3. Chapter 266 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. A city council shall not enter into a lease of real property owned by the city for a term of 3 years or longer or enter into a contract for the sale or exchange of real property until after the property has been appraised by one disinterested appraiser employed by the city. Except as otherwise provided in this section and paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 268.050, a lease, sale or exchange must be made at or above the current appraised value of the real property as determined by the appraiser unless the city council, in a public hearing held before the adoption of the resolution to lease, sell or exchange the property, determines by affirmative vote of not fewer than two-thirds of the entire city council based upon specified findings of fact that a lesser value would be in the best interest of the public. For the purposes of this subsection, an appraisal is not considered current if it is more than 3 years old.

2. The city council may sell, lease or exchange real property for less than its appraised value to any person who maintains or intends to maintain a business within the boundaries of the city which is eligible pursuant to section 1 of Senate Bill No. 520 of this session for an abatement from the sales and use taxes imposed pursuant to chapter 374 of NRS.

7. The board of county commissioners, if it determines that there is clear evidence of misuse or mismanagement of money in any separate account, may order the closing of the account and the return of the money to the county treasury to be administered in accordance with existing provisions of law. The board of trustees of the county school district, the board of hospital trustees of the county hospital or the board of trustees of the consolidated library district or district library is entitled to a hearing before the board of county commissioners.".

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 224.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1461.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 1 and 2 as sections 8 and 9 and adding new sections designated sections 1 through 7, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

"Section 1. Chapter 354 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. The statement required by paragraph (c) of subsection 4 of NRS 354.624 must indicate for each fund set forth in that paragraph:

(a) Whether the fund is being used in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Whether the fund is being administered in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures.

(c) Whether the reserve in the fund is limited to an amount that is reasonable and necessary to carry out the purposes of the fund.

(d) The sources of revenues available for the fund during the fiscal year, including transfers from any other funds.

(e) The statutory and regulatory requirements applicable to the fund.

(f) The balance and retained earnings of the fund.

2. To the extent that the reserve in any fund set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 4 of NRS 354.624 exceeds the amount that is reasonable and necessary to carry out the purposes for which the fund was created, the reserve may be expended by the local government pursuant to the provisions of chapter 288 of NRS.

Sec. 2. NRS 354.476 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.476 As used in NRS 354.470 to 354.626, inclusive, and section 1 of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 354.478 to 354.580, inclusive, have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 3. NRS 354.6215 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.6215 [If] Except as otherwise provided in section 1 of this act, if a local government provides a fund for self-insurance of property, for any form of insurance for the benefit of its employees, or for any other risk that it is permitted by law to assume, the reserves or balance of a fund thus provided must not be expended for any purpose other than that for which the fund was established, except that when the governing body deems the reserve or balance to be no longer required, either in whole or in part, it shall transfer the excess balance to the general fund of the local government. Any such transfer must be reported to the department of taxation within 30 days. Money so transferred is not available as a basis for augmentation of the local government's budget during the year of transfer.

Sec. 4. NRS 354.624 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.624 1. Each local government shall provide for an annual audit of all of its:

(a) Funds;

(b) Account groups; and

(c) Separate accounts established pursuant to NRS 354.603.

A local government may provide for more frequent audits as it deems necessary. Except as provided in subsection 2, each annual audit must be concluded and the report of the audit submitted to the governing body as provided in subsection 5 not later than 5 months after the close of the fiscal year for which the audit is conducted. An extension of this time may be granted by the department of taxation to any local government which makes application for an extension. If the local government fails to provide for an audit in accordance with the provisions of this section, the department of taxation shall cause the audit to be made at the expense of the local government. All audits must be made by a public accountant certified or registered or by a partnership or professional corporation registered under the provisions of chapter 628 of NRS.

2. The annual audit of a school district must be concluded and the report submitted to the board of trustees as provided in subsection 5 not later than 4 months after the close of the fiscal year for which the audit is conducted.

3. The governing body may, without requiring competitive bids, designate the auditor or firm annually. The auditor or firm must be designated not later than 3 months before the close of the fiscal year for which the audit is to be made.

4. Each annual audit must cover the business of the local government during the full fiscal year. It must be a financial audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, including comment on compliance with statutes and regulations, recommendations for improvements and any other comments deemed pertinent by the auditor, including his expression of opinion on the financial statements. The form of the financial statements must be prescribed by the department of taxation, and the chart of accounts must be as nearly as possible the same as that used in the preparation and publication of the annual budget. The report of the audit must include:

(a) A schedule of all fees imposed by the local government which were subject to the provisions of NRS 354.5989; and

(b) A comparison of operations of the local government with the approved budget and a statement from the auditor that previously noted deficiencies in operations and previously made recommendations for improvements contained in previous reports have been acted upon by adoption as recommended, adoption with modifications or rejection.

(c) A statement from the auditor indicating whether each of the following funds established by the local government is being used expressly for the purposes for which it was created, in the form required by section 1 of this act:

(1) An enterprise fund.

(2) An internal service fund.

(3) A trust and agency fund.

(4) A self-insurance fund.

(5) A fund whose balance is required by law to be:

(I) Used only for a specific purpose other than the payment of compensation to a bargaining unit, as defined in NRS 288.028; or

(II) Carried forward to the succeeding fiscal year in any designated amount.

5. The recommendations and the summary of the narrative comments contained in the report of the audit must be read in full at a meeting of the governing body held not more than 30 days after the report is submitted to it. Immediately thereafter, the entire report, together with any related letter to the governing body required by generally accepted auditing standards or by regulations adopted pursuant to NRS 354.594, must be filed as a public record with:

(a) The clerk or secretary of the governing body;

(b) The county clerk;

(c) The department of taxation; and

(d) In the case of a school district, the department of education.

6. The governing body shall act upon the recommendations of the report of the audit within 6 months after receipt of the report, unless prompter action is required concerning violations of law or regulation, by setting forth in its minutes its intention to adopt the recommendations, to adopt them with modifications or to reject them for reasons shown in the minutes.

Sec. 5. NRS 288.200 is hereby amended to read as follows:

288.200 Except in cases to which NRS 288.205 and 288.215, or NRS 288.217 apply:

1. If:

(a) The parties have participated in mediation and by August 1, have not reached agreement; or

(b) The bargaining unit represented by the employee organization contains fewer than 30 persons, either party to the dispute, at any time up to September 20, may submit the dispute to an impartial factfinder for his findings and recommendations. His findings and recommendations are not binding on the parties except as provided in subsections 5, 6 and 9. The mediator of a dispute may also be chosen by the parties to serve as the factfinder.

2. If the parties are unable to agree on an impartial factfinder within 5 days, either party may request from the American Arbitration Association or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service a list of seven potential factfinders. If the parties are unable to agree upon which arbitration service should be used, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service must be used. The parties shall select their factfinder from this list by alternately striking one name until the name of only one factfinder remains, who will be the factfinder to hear the dispute in question. The employee organization shall strike the first name.

3. The local government employer and employee organization each shall pay one-half of the cost of factfinding. Each party shall pay its own costs of preparation and presentation of its case in factfinding.

4. A schedule of dates and times for the hearing must be established before October 20 and the factfinder shall report his findings and recommendations to the parties to the dispute within 30 days after the conclusion of the factfinding hearing.

5. The parties to the dispute may agree, before the submission of the dispute to factfinding, to make the findings and recommendations on all or any specified issues final and binding on the parties.

6. If the parties do not agree on whether to make the findings and recommendations of the factfinder final and binding, either party may request the formation of a panel to determine whether the findings and recommendations of a factfinder on all or any specified issues in a particular dispute which are within the scope of subsection 9 are to be final and binding. The determination must be made upon the concurrence of at least two members of the panel and not later than October 20 unless that date is extended by the commissioner of the board. Each panel shall, when making its determination, consider whether the parties have bargained in good faith and whether it believes the parties can resolve any remaining issues. Any panel may also consider the actions taken by the parties in response to any previous factfinding between these parties, the best interests of the state and all its citizens, the potential fiscal effect both within and outside the political subdivision, and any danger to the safety of the people of the state or a political subdivision.

7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, any factfinder, whether his recommendations are to be binding or not, shall base his recommendations or award on the following criteria:

(a) A preliminary determination must be made as to the financial ability of the local government employer based on all existing available revenues as established by the local government employer [,] and within the limitations set forth in section 1 of this act, with due regard for the obligation of the local government employer to provide facilities and services guaranteeing the health, welfare and safety of the people residing within the political subdivision.

(b) Once the factfinder has determined in accordance with paragraph (a) that there is a current financial ability to grant monetary benefits, he shall use normal criteria for interest disputes regarding the terms and provisions to be included in an agreement in assessing the reasonableness of the position of each party as to each issue in dispute and he shall consider whether the board found that either party had bargained in bad faith.

The factfinder's report must contain the facts upon which he based his determination of financial ability to grant monetary benefits and his recommendations or award.

8. Any sum of money which is maintained in a fund whose balance is required by law to be:

(a) Used only for a specific purpose other than the payment of compensation to the bargaining unit affected; or

(b) Carried forward to the succeeding fiscal year in any designated amount, to the extent of that amount, must not be counted in determining the financial ability of a local government employer and must not be used to pay any monetary benefits recommended or awarded by the factfinder.

9. The issues which may be included in a panel's order pursuant to subsection 6 are:

(a) Those enumerated in subsection 2 of NRS 288.150 as the subjects of mandatory bargaining, unless precluded for that year by an existing collective bargaining agreement between the parties; and

(b) Those which an existing collective bargaining agreement between the parties makes subject to negotiation in that year.

This subsection does not preclude the voluntary submission of other issues by the parties pursuant to subsection 5.

Sec. 6. NRS 288.215 is hereby amended to read as follows:

288.215 1. As used in this section:

(a) "Firemen" means those persons who are salaried employees of a fire prevention or suppression unit organized by a political subdivision of the state and whose principal duties are controlling and extinguishing fires.

(b) "Police officers" means those persons who are salaried employees of a police department or other law enforcement agency organized by a political subdivision of the state and whose principal duties are to enforce the law.

2. The provisions of this section apply only to firemen and police officers and their local government employers.

3. If the parties have not agreed to make the findings and recommendations of the factfinder final and binding upon all issues, and do not otherwise resolve their dispute, they shall, within 10 days after the factfinder's report is submitted, submit the issues remaining in dispute to an arbitrator who must be selected in the manner provided in NRS 288.200 and have the same powers provided for factfinders in NRS 288.210.

4. The arbitrator shall, within 10 days after he is selected, and after 7 days' written notice is given to the parties, hold a hearing [for the purpose of receiving] to receive information concerning the dispute. MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, July 2, 1995

To the Honorable the Assembly:

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day adopted the report of the first Committee on Conference concerning Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 14.

MARY JO MONGELLI
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK:

Since we are getting close to closing down and waiting for the last things to come from the Senate, the first thing I would like to do is thank every one of you for all your hard work and efforts. It really has been hard work.

I just want to say that I've truly appreciated everything that everyone has done here. I want to say a particular thank you to the Republicans. I don't want this to sound partisan, because it isn't. I just want to tell you that I'm truly proud of this group.

I want to point out, that coming into this session, out of the 21 Republicans we had, only four had served more than one term; three had served only one term. Of those four, who had served more than one term, only two had ever chaired a committee. To come here with 14 freshmen, and do the work that the people did on both sides of the aisle, was truly hard work, but everyone did it. I truly want to tell you this is nonpartisan. I'm so proud of every one of you, and it's hard to find the words to express this. I am truly proud of the group that worked with me. I want to thank all of you.

Mr. Speaker Dini requested the privilege of the floor for the purpose of making the following remarks:

I would like to say a few words. I've been sputtering around here for a week or so. I believe that I need to thank my Democrats for staying together and working as hard as they did. Of course, we had more veterans here than the Republicans. The size of our delegation was slightly diminished in the last election. We had the realization, one morning in November, that it was tied.

I'm very proud of the fact that they were able to work together. There were some rocky spots, but on the other hand, this thing worked out well. I could see the team jelling together the last month; everybody getting more cohesive, trying to get solutions to the problems, getting out there and doing the job.

Again, I have to thank my front desk for the beautiful job they have done. I hope Mouryne enjoys her retirement maybe in some far, far away places; traveling around the world or whatever. But, I know that she deserves a good rest, as these sessions get tougher and longer. She told me it was time to go. We don't want to see her go, though. I think we will make her a contract employee next session, and put her back to work doing something around here, keeping track of this end of the front desk.

It has been a pleasure, and I want to thank everybody for all the cooperation, on both sides of the aisle, and the front desk.

MOURYNE B. LANDING, Chief Clerk of the Assembly:

I do want to let you know what a great session I thought it was. I almost retired in December, but when I found out there was a tied house, I thought, "They wouldn't do this to me. They wouldn't let me retire before they had a history making session." I'm very glad I stayed. I think we were all concerned about it; about how the two of you would get along so evenly divided. I'm so pleased. I think you've done a great job. I'm proud of the freshmen, who not only had to learn the legislative process, but had to learn how to chair committees. I think you've done an outstanding job.

I want to thank the staff. We had more new staff than we've ever had before. They were put into a very difficult situation and they handled it beautifully. Carolyn, you've been with me a long time, and I appreciate all that you've done. Vicki, I think you've done an outstanding job; stepping into a job where we had the same supervisor for the secretarial staff for a long time. She was loved, and you're loved, too, Vicki. And like you said, "You can't stand in someone else's shoes, because you aren't that person." You have your own shoes to fill, and you are doing it well.

To my front desk, there isn't any better front desk than what I have. Donna, you're new, but you've done a great job. Linda and Cindy, you've been with me several years. Carol, I can't say enough about Carol, as she's been my right hand ever since I became Chief Clerk.

I want to say thank you. I love each one of you. It's going to be very difficult to see you start up a session without me, but I know that the state's going to go on whether I'm here or not.

You've been exceptionally nice to me this session. The legislature has been one of the greatest things I've had in my life. Thank you and goodbye.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Perkins requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN PERKINS:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, we made it! I would like to personally thank everyone in this house for the hard work they put into this session. I know it was difficult at times to think that we would make it this far, but everyone here can be very proud of this historic session.

It is a historic session for several reasons. We passed a historic crime package; the most wide-sweeping crime package the legislature in this state has ever passed. It was a historic 21-21 tie, and we made it work despite of what was predicted when the session first started.

We made it work for a lot of different reasons. We had Co-Chairman of widely different political philosophies who made their committees work, generally, with a minimum of grandeur. All of our committee chairmen should be commended, Mr. Speaker. We had experienced legislators who were willing to help the freshmen, and we had a lot of freshmen this session.

We had great cooperation between our two Speakers. There is no way we could have gotten through this without their leadership. The person I want to thank the most, however, Mr. Speaker, is the Republican Floor Leader.

We had a conversation at the legislative watering hole about three hours ago, and found it ironic that last session, Republicans spoke only five or six words to each other. We didn't know each other. This session we became very good friends. We've worked very well together. There is no one in this body whom I truly respect more than the Republican Floor Leader.

I would like to thank, as well, this legislative family. I think everyone has come to understand what a legislative family is now. I would like to thank their families back home, who actually had to sacrifice for us. They are the ones who made the real sacrifices.

I know that my wife was a single mother for six months, and she had to deal with all the responsibilities of carrying on the household. I know that each and every one of you have a similar story.

Sometime, about May, Mr. Speaker, I remember going home, walking into my home and feeling like I didn't belong. It was very difficult. After being away for so long, I felt alien to my own home. It's very difficult and I know everyone here has a similar story.

It was difficult not being a part of my children's development over the last six months; having to find out over the telephone the score of a T-ball game or how proud they were of their accomplishments in school; how proud they were to be honored in school or whether they participated in a program that I wasn't able to attend. They were just so proud of their accomplishments. It's very difficult not to be there.

I'm here to tell you that each and every one of you should go home and appreciate what you have. It was just short of two years ago when I went home and found out my son had a very serious illness. It really, really prioritized my life. This is not as important as your families are. I hope we always believe that.

I would like to close, again, by thanking everyone in this body for their hard work. Everyone can be proud of the accomplishments we have made this session and for the work that we have done for the people of the State of Nevada. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First of all, I would like to thank my colleague from Henderson. I could not have done anything this session without him.

We made an agreement at the beginning of session that we would always be up front, honest and we would support each other. He is a stand-up man. He keeps his word. There are no two finer compliments that you can say about Rich Perkins. He keeps his word and always has.

Mr. Speaker, they said this couldn't be done. They said it wouldn't last. They said the 68th Session of the Nevada Assembly would degenerate into a partisan bloodbath. It was doomed to terrible failure. I'm here to tell you, they were wrong. We have not only succeeded, but we have prevailed!

Due to each and every one of you, a focus, a collective and inclusive effort produced major public policy statements in workers' compensation and complete reformation of the Nevada criminal code. All of us introduced new legislation that produced no new taxes, repealed some and provided more exemptions than any session in history.

We funded education to the highest degree in our history. We loosened owner regulations; provided major steps in water law, tax distribution and economic development. From the "E.T." highway to Ponderosa County, we endured. We can drive 75 m.p.h. with a concealed weapon while touring Mustang Ranch and through all that we stayed together. We stayed responsible and always did what was right for the State of Nevada.

The 68th Session of the Nevada Legislature was unique and historic from beginning to end. We had Co-Speakers, Co-Floor Leaders, Co-Chairmen, but most of all, we had cooperation. You all played a vital role, and for that you should be proud. To the Co-Speakers and to my colleague, I thank you.

To all the Republicans, I really want to tell you thank you for letting "Fat Moe Basco" be your Floor Leader. It is an honor that you will never know. To my colleagues, I raise a toast to the 68th Session that the Nevada Assembly will leave you with an indelible mark; a lasting memory to be passed on throughout the ages. The memory that you participated in the greatest example of bi-party cooperation and responsible co-party making in the history of the State of Nevada.

Simply, the 68th Session will go down as the best Assembly session in our history. Don't take lightly what you have accomplished here today; what you have accomplished over the last six months. Tell the taxpayers, tell your constituents, tell all Nevada; we did it and we did it right!

ASSEMBLY STANDING RULES

I. OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Speakers of the Assembly.

1. All officers of the Assembly are subordinate to the Speakers in all that relates to the prompt, efficient and correct discharge of their official duties under the Speakers' supervision.

2. Possessing the powers and performing the duties described in this rule, the Speakers shall:

(a) Take the chair at the hour to which the Assembly stands adjourned, call the members to order, and upon the appearance of a quorum, proceed to business.

(b) Preserve order and decorum and have general direction of the chamber of the Assembly and the approaches thereto, and in the event of any disturbance or disorderly conduct therein, order the same to be cleared.

(c) Decide all questions of order, subject to a member's right to appeal to the Assembly. On appeal from such decisions, the Speakers have the right, in their places, to assign the reason for their decision.

(d) Have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond one legislative day.

(e) When the Assembly resolves itself into Committee of the Whole, name a chairman to preside thereover and call him to the chair.

(f) Have the power to accredit the persons who act as representatives of the press, radio and television, and assign them seats.

(g) Sign all bills and resolutions passed by the Legislature as provided by law.

(h) Sign all subpenas issued by the Assembly or any committee thereof.

(i) Receive all messages and communications from other departments of the government and announce them to the Assembly.

(j) Represent the Assembly, declare its will and in all things obey its commands.

(k) Vote on final passage of a bill or resolution, but the Speakers shall not be required to vote in ordinary legislative proceedings except where their votes would be decisive. In all aye and no votes, the Speakers' names, in alphabetical order, shall be called last.

3. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Speaker, through death, resignation or disability of a Speaker, the corresponding Speaker pro Tempore shall temporarily and for the period of vacancy or disability act in that Speaker's place to conduct the necessary business of the Assembly.

4. If a permanent vacancy occurs in an office of Speaker, the Assembly shall select a new Speaker.

Committee on Ethics; Legislative Ethics.

1. The Committee on Ethics consists of:

(a) Four members of the Assembly appointed by the Speakers; and

(b) Two qualified electors of the state chosen by the members of the committee who are appointed pursuant to paragraph (a), neither of whom is a present or former member of the Legislature or employed by the State of Nevada.

2. The Speakers shall appoint two members of the Assembly, one from each major political party to serve as alternate members of the committee. If a member is disqualified, the alternate appointed from the same political party shall serve as a member of the committee during the consideration of a specific question.

3. A member is disqualified if he is the requester of advice concerning a question of ethics or conflict of interest, or if the advice is requested by another member of the Assembly and a reasonable person in his situation could not exercise independent judgment on the matter in question.

4. The committee shall hear complaints on alleged breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest, brought by Legislators and others, and it may advise Legislators on questions of breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest. All proceedings held to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence or physical or mental health of any person by the committee on matters of ethics or conflicts of interest are confidential unless a Legislator:

(a) Against whom a complaint is brought requests a public hearing;

(b) Discloses the opinion of the committee at any time after his hearing; or

(c) Discloses the content of an advisory opinion issued to him by the committee.

5. A complaint which alleges a breach of ethics or a conflict of interest must be in writing and signed by the person making the allegation. The complaint must be filed with the chairmen and he shall send a copy of the complaint, within 24 hours after receiving it, to the Legislator against whom the complaint is brought.

6. The criterion to be applied by the committee in determining whether a

Legislator has a conflict of interest is whether the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in his position upon the matter in question would be materially affected by:

(a) His acceptance of a gift or loan; or

(b) His private economic interest.

7. A Legislator who determines that he has a conflict of interest may vote upon, advocate or oppose any measure as to which a potential conflict exists if he makes a general disclosure of the conflict. In determining whether to vote upon, advocate or oppose the measure, the Legislator should consider whether:

(a) The conflict impedes his independence of judgment;

(b) His participation will produce a negative effect on the public's confidence in the integrity of the Legislature;

(c) His participation is likely to have any significant effect on the disposition of the measure; and

(d) His interest is greater than the interests of an entire class of persons similarly situated.

2. The presiding officer shall call for ayes and noes by a division or by a roll call, either electronic or oral.

3. When taking the ayes and noes on any question, the electronic roll call system may be used, and when so used shall have the force and effect of any roll call under these rules.

4. When taking the ayes and noes by oral roll call, the Chief Clerk shall take the names of members alphabetically except that the Speakers, in alphabetical order, shall be called last.

5. The electronic roll call system may be used to determine the presence of a quorum.

6. The ayes and noes shall not be taken with the electronic roll call system until all members present are at their desks. The Speakers and the Speakers pro Tempore may vote at their desks or at the rostrum.

7. Only a member, certified by the Committee on Credentials or special committee of the Assembly, may cast a vote in the Assembly. A member shall not vote for another member on any roll call, either electronic or oral.

Any member who votes for another member may be punished in any manner deemed appropriate by the Assembly.

2. The announcement of the result of any vote shall not be postponed.

[Statutes of Nevada 1975, 1876]

[Statutes of Nevada 1973, 1903; A 1977, 1707; 1985, 2314; 1993, 2916; 1995, 2850]

1. The committee shall have regular meetings scheduled by the Assembly leadership. A quorum of the committee is a majority of its members and may transact business except as limited by this rule.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, motions may be moved, seconded and passed by voice vote by a simple majority of those present.

3. Definite action on a bill or resolution will require a majority of the entire committee except when the vote on a motion to report a bill or resolution to the floor, with or without amendment, results in a tie vote of the entire committee. In that case, the bill or resolution must be reported out of committee without a recommendation for action. The vote on such a bill or resolution may be reconsidered at any time before the bill or resolution is transmitted back to the Assembly, upon a motion to reconsider which is approved by a majority of the entire committee. Such a motion to reconsider may be made by any member of the committee.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, a two-thirds majority of all the committee is required to reconsider action on a bill or resolution.

5. Committee introduction of legislative measures which are not prefiled requires concurrence of two-thirds of the committee and does not imply commitment to support final passage.

6. The chairmen shall vote on all final action regarding bills or resolutions. No member of the committee may vote by proxy under any circumstances.

It shall recommend by resolution the appointment of all attachés and employees of the Assembly not otherwise provided for by law. It may suspend or remove any such attaché or employee for incompetency or dereliction of duty. It shall function as the Committee on Rules and as the Committee on Credentials of the Assembly.

[Statutes of Nevada 1973, 1885; A 1977, 1707; 1981, 2059, 2171; 1985, 2316; 1991, 2480; 1993, 2916]

Procedure for Election Contests.

1. Upon receipt of a statement of contest from the Secretary of State pursuant to NRS 293.427, the Speakers shall, as soon as practicable, appoint a special committee to hear the contest or refer the contest to the Standing Committee on Elections and Procedures. The committee shall conduct a hearing to consider the contest. The committee shall keep written minutes of the hearing. The contestant has the burden of proving that any irregularities shown were of such a nature as to establish that the result of the election was changed thereby.

2. The contest must be submitted so far as may be possible upon depositions or by written or oral arguments as the Assembly may order. Any party to a contest may take the deposition of any witness at any time after the statement of contest is filed with the Secretary of State and before the contest is finally decided. At least 3 days' notice must be given to the prospective deponent and to the other party. If oral statements are made at any hearing before the Assembly or a committee thereof which purport to establish matters of fact, they must be made under oath. Strict rules of evidence do not apply.

3. The committee shall, not later than 5 calendar days after the contest was referred to the committee, report to the Assembly its findings on whether the contestant has met the burden of proving that any irregularities shown were of such a nature as to establish that the result of the election was changed thereby. The committee shall then report to the Assembly its recommendation on which person should be declared elected or report that it has no recommendation. The Assembly shall, as soon as practicable thereafter but not later than 7 calendar days after the Speakers received the statement of contest, vote whether to accept or reject the committee's recommendation without amendment, if a recommendation is made. If the recommendation is accepted, the Speakers shall declare the recommended person elected. If the recommendation is rejected or the committee did not make a recommendation, the Assembly shall consider immediately which person should be declared elected. Reading of Bills.

The presiding officer shall announce at each reading of a bill whether it be the first, second or third reading. The first reading of a bill shall be for information. If there is objection, the question shall be, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If the question to reject fails to receive a majority vote by the members present, or if there is no objection, the bill shall take the proper course. No bill shall be referred to a committee until after the first reading, nor amended until after the second reading.

Second Reading and Amendment of Bills.

All bills shall be read the second time on the first legislative day after which they are reported by committee, unless a different day is designated by motion. Upon second reading, Assembly bills reported without amendments shall be engrossed and placed on the General File and Senate bills reported without amendments shall be placed on the General File. Committee amendments reported with bills shall be considered upon their second reading, and such amendments may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present. Assembly bills so amended shall be reprinted, engrossed, and placed on the General File, and Senate bills so amended shall be reprinted, reengrossed, and placed on the General File.

Any member may move to amend a bill during its second or third reading, and such motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present. Bills so amended on second reading shall be treated the same as bills with committee amendments. Any bill so amended upon the General File shall be reprinted and reengrossed.

The reprinting of amended bills may be dispensed with only in accordance with the provisions of law.

On or before the 80th calendar day of a regular session, a standing committee may by unanimous vote of the members present report a bill with the recommendation that it be placed on the consent calendar. The question of recommending a bill for the consent calendar may be voted upon in committee only after the bill has been recommended for passage and only if no amendment is recommended. If the bill is an Assembly bill, it must be engrossed upon receipt by the Chief Clerk of the committee's recommendation.

2. The Chief Clerk shall maintain a list of bills recommended for the consent calendar. The list must be printed in the daily history and must include the summary of each bill, and the date the bill is scheduled for consideration on final passage.

3. Unless postponed by motion, the consent calendar must be considered on Monday and Thursday. A bill reported on Friday to Monday, inclusive, is eligible to be considered on the following Thursday; a bill reported on Tuesday to Thursday, inclusive, is eligible to be considered on the following Monday.

4. At any time before the presiding officer calls for a vote on the passage of the consent calendar, a member may give written notice to the Chief Clerk or state orally from the floor of the Assembly in session that he objects to the inclusion of a particular bill on the consent calendar. If a member so objects, the Chief Clerk shall remove the bill from the consent calendar and transfer it to the second reading file. A bill removed from the consent calendar may not be restored to that calendar.

5. During floor consideration of the consent calendar, members may ask questions and offer explanations relating to the respective bills.

6. When the consent calendar is brought to a vote, the bills remaining on the consent calendar must be read by number and summary and the vote must be taken on their final passage as a group.

But engrossed bills shall be placed at the head of the file, in the order in which they are received. JOINT STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

COMMITTEES OF CONFERENCE

To Be Appointed by One House at Request of the Other.

In every case of an amendment of a bill, or joint or concurrent resolution, agreed to in one House, dissented from in the other, and not receded from by the one making the amendment, each House shall appoint a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the other; and the committee so appointed shall meet publicly at a convenient hour to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen and announced publicly, and shall confer upon the differences between the two Houses as indicated by the amendments made in one and rejected in the other and report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective Houses. The report shall be made available to all members of both Houses. The whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be considered by the committee, and it may recommend recession by either House, new amendments, new bills or resolutions, or other changes as it sees fit. New bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments unless the bills or resolutions are composed entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treatment required in the respective Houses for original bills, or resolutions, as the case may be.

The report of a conference committee may be adopted by acclamation, and such action may be considered equivalent to the adoption of amendments embodied therein. The report is not subject to amendment. If either House refuses to adopt the report, or if the first conference committee has so recommended, a second conference committee may be appointed. No member who served on the first committee may be appointed to the second.

There shall be but two committees of conference on any bill or resolution. A majority of the members of a committee of conference from each House must be members who voted for the passage of the bill or resolution.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES REGARDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

1. The Legislature hereby declares its intention to maintain a working environment which is free from sexual harassment. This policy applies to all legislators, lobbyists, legislative interns and employees of the Legislature, including supervisors and coworkers. Each member, lobbyist, legislative intern and employee of the Legislature is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others are able to work in such an environment.

2. For the purposes of this rule, "sexual harassment" means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, including, but not limited to:

(a) Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments;

(b) Visual conduct such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;

(c) Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with the work directed at a person because of his sex;

(d) Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests to keep a person's job or avoid some other loss, and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors; and

(e) Retaliation for opposing, reporting or threatening to report sexual harassment, or for participating in an investigation, proceeding or hearing conducted by the Nevada Equal Rights Commission or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment or submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person or such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

3. A person may have a claim of sexual harassment even if he has not lost a job or some other economic benefit. Conduct that impairs a person's ability to work or his emotional well-being at work constitutes sexual harassment.

4. If a person believes he is being sexually harassed on the job, he may file a written complaint with:

(a) The Speaker of the Assembly, if the complaint involves the conduct of a member, legislative intern or employee of the Assembly or a lobbyist;

(b) The Majority Leader of the Senate, if the complaint involves the conduct of a member, legislative intern or employee of the Senate or a lobbyist; or

(c) The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, if the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate.

The complaint must include the details of the incident or incidents, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate, as appropriate, shall refer a complaint against a member, legislative intern or employee of a certain House to a committee consisting of legislators of the same House. A complaint against a lobbyist may be referred to a committee in either House.

6. If the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate, the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau shall refer the complaint to the Assembly Standing Committee on Elections and Procedures or the Senate Standing Committee on Legislative Affairs and Operations, as appropriate. If the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate is a member of one of these committees, the Speaker or the Majority Leader, as the case may be, shall not participate in the investigation and resolution of the complaint.

7. The committee to which the complaint is referred shall immediately conduct a confidential and discreet investigation of the complaint. As a part of the investigation, the committee shall notify the accused of the allegations. The committee shall facilitate a meeting between the complainant and the accused to allow a discussion of the matter, if both agree. If the parties do not agree to such a meeting, the committee shall request statements regarding the complaint from each of the parties. Either party may request a hearing before the committee. The committee shall make its determination and inform the complainant and the accused of its determination as soon as practicable after it has completed its investigation.

8. If the investigation reveals that sexual harassment has occurred, the Legislature will take remedial action against the member, lobbyist, legislative intern or employee which is commensurate with the severity of the offense. The committee shall inform the complainant of any action taken against the member, lobbyist, legislative intern or employee. The Legislature will also take any action necessary to deter any future harassment.

9. The Legislature will not retaliate against a person who files a complaint and will not knowingly permit any retaliation by the person's supervisors or coworkers.

10. The Legislature encourages a person to report any incident of sexual harassment immediately so that the complaint can be quickly and fairly resolved.

11. Action taken by a complainant pursuant to this rule does not prohibit the complainant from also filing a complaint of sexual harassment with the Nevada Equal Rights Commission or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.
