THE ONE-HUNDRED AND NINTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Thursday), May 26, 2005

Assembly called to order at 12:10 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Reverend Ruth Hanusa.

O God, the Patriarch Jacob wrestled with humans and You and, though he came away limping, wrested a blessing for himself and his descendants, and declared that he had seen You face-to-face (Genesis 32). As we engage in the final days of this session, help us to be tenacious in our wrestling, knowing that wrestling strengthens, and need not divide. Give us ears eager to listen to each other's questions and fears, passions, and hopes. Grant us generous hearts more ready to compromise than condemn. Pour out upon us a spirit of reconciliation and graciousness. And even though we should come away limping, give us and our descendants a blessing, knowing that we have seen You face-to-face.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblywoman Buckley moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

(b) Postpone action if the purpose for which the application was made is municipal use.

(c) In areas where studies of water supplies have been determined to be necessary by the State Engineer pursuant to NRS 533.368 or where court actions are pending, withhold action until it is determined there is unappropriated water or the court action becomes final.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, the State Engineer shall approve or reject, within 6 months after the final date for filing a protest, an application filed to change the point of diversion of water already appropriated when the existing and proposed points of diversion are on the same property for which the water has already been appropriated under the existing water right or the proposed point of diversion is on real property that is proven to be owned by the applicant and is contiguous to the place of use of the existing water right. The State Engineer may:

(a) Postpone action upon written authorization to do so by the applicant or, if the application is protested, by the protestant and the applicant.

(b) In areas where studies of water supplies have been determined to be necessary by the State Engineer pursuant to NRS 533.368 or where court actions are pending, withhold action until it is determined there is unappropriated water or the court action becomes final.

4. If the State Engineer does not act upon an application within 1 year after the final date for filing a protest, the application remains active until acted upon by the State Engineer.

~~{4.}~~ 5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~{7.}~~ 8, where there is no unappropriated water in the proposed source of supply, or where its proposed use or change conflicts with existing rights or with protectible interests in existing domestic wells as set forth in NRS 533.024, or threatens to prove detrimental to the public interest, the State Engineer shall reject the application and refuse to issue the requested permit. If a previous application for a similar use of water within the same basin has been rejected on those grounds, the new application may be denied without publication.

~~{5.}~~ 6. In determining whether an application for an interbasin transfer of ground water must be rejected pursuant to this section, the State Engineer shall consider:

(a) Whether the applicant has justified the need to import the water from another basin;

(b) If the State Engineer determines that a plan for conservation of water is advisable for the basin into which the water is to be imported, whether the applicant has demonstrated that such a plan has been adopted and is being effectively carried out;

(c) Whether the proposed action is environmentally sound as it relates to the basin from which the water is exported;

(d) Whether the proposed action is an appropriate long-term use which will not unduly limit the future growth and development in the basin from which the water is exported; and

(e) Any other factor the State Engineer determines to be relevant.

~~{6.}~~ 7. If a hearing is held regarding an application, the decision of the State Engineer must be in writing and include findings of fact, conclusions of law and a statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings of fact. The written decision may take the form of a transcription of an oral ruling. The rejection or approval of an application must be endorsed on a copy of the original application, and a record must be made of the endorsement in the records of the State Engineer. The copy of the application so endorsed must be returned to the applicant. Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~{8.}~~ 9, if the application is approved, the applicant may, on receipt thereof, proceed with the construction of the necessary works and take all steps required to apply the water to beneficial use and to perfect the proposed appropriation. If the application is rejected, the applicant may take no steps toward the prosecution of the proposed work or the diversion and use of the public water while the rejection continues in force.

~~{7-}~~ 8. The provisions of subsections 1 to ~~{5-}~~ 6, inclusive, do not apply to an application for an environmental permit.

~~{8-}~~ 9. The provisions of subsection ~~{6-}~~ 7 do not authorize the recipient of an approved application to use any state land administered by the Division of State Lands of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources without the appropriate authorization for that use from the State Land Registrar.

~~{9-}~~ 10. As used in this section, "interbasin transfer of ground water" means a transfer of ground water for which the proposed point of diversion is in a different basin than the proposed place of beneficial use."

“Section 1. Chapter 338 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

The fact that a particular project or undertaking does not qualify as a public work, as defined in NRS 338.010, does not exempt a person, including, without limitation, a contractor or subcontractor, or a governmental entity, from complying with the provisions of this section and NRS 338.010 to 338.090, inclusive, in the same manner as a public body is required to comply with those provisions if the person or governmental entity is otherwise required to comply with the provisions of this section and NRS 338.010 to 338.090, inclusive, by specific statute.”.

Amend sec. 4, page 10, line 13, by deleting “contract.” and inserting: “contract, unless approval of the change order is more economically feasible than termination of the retrofit.”.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sec. 5 as sec. 25 and adding new sections designated sections 7 through 24, following sec. 4, to read as follows:

“Sec. 7. Chapter 333A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 8. “Board” means:

1. If the using agency that enters into a performance contract is the University and Community College System of Nevada, the Board of Regents of the University of Nevada; or

2. For any other using agency that enters into a performance contract, the State Board of Examiners.

Sec. 9. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 333 of NRS, NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act, and chapter 338 of NRS to the contrary, a using agency may enter into a performance contract with a qualified service company for the purchase and installation of one or more operating cost-savings measures to reduce costs related to energy, water and the disposal of waste, and related labor costs.

2. Any operating cost-savings measures put into place as a result of a performance contract must comply with all applicable building codes.

Sec. 10. 1. The Purchasing Division of the Department of Administration shall work directly with any using agency interested in entering into a performance contract, using the list of qualified service companies compiled by the State Public Works Board pursuant to NRS 333A.080. The Purchasing Division, in conjunction with the using agency, shall ensure that each appropriate qualified service company is notified of the using agency’s interest in entering into a performance contract and coordinate an opportunity for each such qualified service company to:

(a) Visit the site pertaining to which the using agency wishes to enter into a performance contract;

(b) Perform a comprehensive audit in the manner prescribed in section 11 of this act; and

(c) Submit a proposal, including, without limitation, the comprehensive audit, and make a related presentation to the using agency for all operating cost-savings measures that the qualified service company determines would be practicable to implement.

2. The using agency shall:

(a) Evaluate the proposals and presentations made pursuant to subsection 1;

(b) Evaluate the financial stability of the qualified service companies that made proposals and presentations pursuant to subsection 1 based on the financial statements and ratings of the qualified service companies; and

(c) Select a qualified service company, pursuant to the provisions of NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act, and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto, for evaluating and awarding contracts.

3. A qualified service company selected by a using agency pursuant to subsection 2 shall prepare a financial-grade operational audit, which must include, without limitation:

(a) A detailed explanation of the operating cost savings that will result from the performance contract; and

(b) A comparison of the costs of implementing the operating cost-savings measures to the operating cost savings that are anticipated as a result of the performance contract.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the financial-grade operational audit prepared by the qualified service company pursuant to subsection 3 becomes, upon acceptance, a part of the final performance contract and the costs incurred by the qualified service company in preparing the financial-grade operational audit shall be deemed to be part of the performance contract. If, after the financial-grade operational audit is prepared, the using agency decides not to execute the performance contract, the using agency shall pay the qualified service company that prepared the financial-grade operational audit the costs incurred by the qualified service company in preparing the financial-grade operational audit, if the Legislature has specifically appropriated money for that purpose. An appropriation by the Legislature for the purchase and installation of an operating cost-savings measure creates no presumption that the using agency for which the money was appropriated is required to enter into such a performance contract.

Sec. 11. 1. Each comprehensive audit performed pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 of section 10 of this act must include, without limitation:

(a) An assessment of any operating cost-savings measure that might be implemented within the building of the using agency, including, without limitation, any operating cost-savings measure specifically requested by the using agency;

(b) An estimate of the costs associated with implementing an operating cost-savings measure described in paragraph (a);

(c) A comparison of the energy and water consumption in the building of the using agency to the energy and water consumption in similar buildings; and

(d) A report that compares the current pattern of the costs to the using agency associated with energy consumption, water consumption and the disposal of waste, and related labor costs, to the projected costs if the using agency implements operating cost-savings measures.

2. A comprehensive audit must be based on:

(a) A review and analysis of the historical energy and water usage of the using agency; and

(b) Surveys, plans, specifications or drawings that provide details of the structure or design of the building of the using agency.

3. The using agency shall provide to each qualified service company that intends to perform a comprehensive audit the records of the energy and water consumption of the building.

Sec. 12. 1. A using agency that selects a qualified service company pursuant to section 10 of this act shall retain the professional services of a third-party consultant to work on behalf of the using agency in coordination with the qualified service company.

2. A third-party consultant retained pursuant to subsection 1 must be certified by the Association of Energy Engineers as a “Certified Energy Manager” or hold similar credentials from a comparable nationally recognized organization.

3. The duties of a third-party consultant retained pursuant to subsection 1 may include, without limitation:

(a) Assisting the using agency in reviewing the operating cost-savings measures proposed by the qualified service company;

(b) Overseeing the construction of the operating cost-savings measures; and

(c) Monitoring the operating cost savings after the construction of the operating cost-savings measures is completed.

4. The Purchasing Division of the Department of Administration may procure sufficient funding from the qualified service company, through negotiation, to pay for the third-party consultant out of the proceeds relating to the performance contract. A qualified service company shall not pay a third-party consultant directly for the work described in subsection 3.

5. A third-party consultant retained pursuant to subsection 1 may recommend that the using agency not execute the performance contract. If the using agency does not execute the performance contract, the using agency shall pay the third-party consultant a pre-negotiated fee based on the work completed by the third-party consultant.

Sec. 13. In connection with any installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract entered into to finance a performance contract, the Board may:

1. Grant a security interest in any property that is the subject of the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract and execute an instrument to evidence such a security interest, including, without limitation, a deed of trust, a leasehold interest deed of trust, a mortgage or a financing agreement.

2. Offer certificates of participation.

3. If the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract involves an improvement to property owned by the State of Nevada or the using agency, enter into a lease of the property to which the improvement will be made and any property that is adjacent to that property if the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in section 20 of this act, has a term of not more than 15 years beyond the date on which construction of the work required by the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract is completed; and

(b) Provides for rental payments that approximate the fair market rental of the property before the improvement is made, as determined by the Board at the time the parties enter into the lease, which must be paid if the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract terminates before the expiration of the lease because the Legislature fails to appropriate money for payments due pursuant to the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract.

A lease entered into pursuant to this subsection may provide for nominal rental payments to be paid pursuant to the lease before the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract terminates.

4. Enter into any other agreement, contract or arrangement that the Board determines would be beneficial to the purpose of the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract, including, without limitation, contracts for professional services, trust indentures, paying agent agreements and contracts of insurance.

Sec. 14. For the period during which an installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract that was entered into to finance a performance contract is in effect, the property that is the subject of the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract:

1. Is exempt from ad valorem property taxation by this State and its political subdivisions if:

(a) An improvement is being constructed on the property pursuant to the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract; or

(b) This State or a using agency is in possession of the property.

2. Shall be deemed to be the property of this State or the using agency that is a party to the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract for the purposes of statutory limits on damages that may be awarded against this State, including, without limitation, the limits in chapter 41 of NRS, with respect to any action or claim, including a claim for civil damages, that arises from or is related to the property and is brought by a person who is not a party to the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract if:

(a) An improvement is being constructed on the property pursuant to the installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract; or

(b) This State or the using agency is in possession of the property.

Sec. 15. Any obligations of this State issued in accordance with NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act may be refunded on behalf of the State by the Board without the necessity of the refunding obligations being authorized by NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act, by the adoption of a resolution by the Board authorizing the issuance of obligations to refund, pay and discharge all or any part of such outstanding obligations of any one or more or all outstanding issues:

1. For the acceleration, deceleration or other modification of the payment of such obligations, including, without limitation, any interest on such obligations that is in arrears or about to become due for any period not exceeding 3 years after the date of the issuance of the refunding obligations, unless the capitalization of interest on obligations constituting an indebtedness increases the debt of the State in excess of the limitation set forth in Section 3 of Article 9 of the Nevada Constitution.

2. For the purpose of reducing interest costs or effecting other economies.

3. For the purpose of modifying or eliminating restrictive contractual limitations appertaining to the issuance of additional obligations, otherwise concerning the outstanding obligations, or otherwise relating to any operating cost-savings measure appertaining thereto.

4. For any combination of the purposes set forth in subsections 1, 2 and 3.

Sec. 16. 1. Except as otherwise provided in sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of this act, the proceeds of refunding obligations issued pursuant to section 15 of this act must be immediately applied to the retirement of the obligations to be refunded or be placed in escrow or trust in any trust bank or trust banks within or without or both within and without this State to be applied to the payment of the refunded obligations or the refunding obligations, or both, upon their presentation for payment to the extent, in such priority and otherwise in the manner which the using agency may determine.

2. The incidental costs of refunding obligations may be paid by the purchaser of the refunding obligations or be defrayed from any revenues in the State General Fund, subject to appropriations for such revenues as otherwise provided by law, or other available revenues of the State under the control of the Board or from the proceeds of the refunding obligations, or from the interest or other yield derived from the investment of the proceeds of any refunding obligations or other money in escrow or trust, or from any other sources legally available therefor, or any combination thereof, as the using agency may determine.

3. Any accrued interest and any premium appertaining to a sale of refunding obligations may be applied to the payment of the interest on or principal of those refunding obligations, or both, or may be deposited in a reserve therefor, or may be used to refund obligations by deposit in escrow, trust or otherwise, or may be used to defray any incidental costs appertaining to the refunding, or any combination thereof, as the using agency may determine, but in no event by the incurrence of additional debt in excess of the limitation on state debt set forth in Section 3 of Article 9 of the Nevada Constitution.

Sec. 17. 1. Any escrow or trust into which the proceeds of refunding obligations are placed pursuant to section 16 of this act must not necessarily be limited to proceeds of refunding obligations but may include other money available for its purpose.

2. Any proceeds of refunding obligations placed in escrow or trust, pending such use, may be invested or reinvested in federal securities, and in the case of an escrow or trust for the refunding of outstanding obligations issued in accordance with sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of this act in other securities issued by the Federal Government if the resolution by the Board authorizing the issuance of such outstanding state securities or any trust indenture or other proceedings appertaining thereto expressly allows any such investment or reinvestment in such securities issued by the Federal Government other than federal securities.

3. A trust bank accounting for federal securities and other securities issued by the Federal Government in such escrow or trust may place the securities for safekeeping wholly or in part in any trust bank or trust banks within or without or both within and without this State.

4. A trust bank shall continuously secure any money placed in escrow or trust and not so invested or reinvested in federal securities and other securities issued by the Federal Government by a pledge in any trust bank or trust banks within or without or both within and without the State of federal securities in an amount at all times at least equal to the total uninvested amount of such money accounted for in such escrow or trust.

5. Such proceeds and investments in escrow or trust, together with any interest or other gain to be derived from any such investment, must be in an amount at all times at least sufficient to pay principal, interest, any prior redemption premiums due, and any charges of the escrow agent or trustee and any other incidental expenses payable therefrom, except to the extent provision may have been previously otherwise made therefor, as such obligations become due at their respective maturities or due at designated prior redemption date or dates in connection with which the using agency has exercised or is obligated to exercise a prior redemption option on behalf of the State.

6. The computations made in determining such sufficiency must be verified by a certified public accountant licensed to practice in this State or in any other state.

7. Any purchaser of any refunding obligation issued pursuant to sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of this act is not responsible for the application of the proceeds of the refunding obligation by the State, the Board, the using agency or any of the officers, agents or employees of the State.

8. As used in this section, "federal securities" means bills, notes, certificates of indebtedness, bonds or other similar securities which are direct obligations of the United States or which are unconditionally guaranteed as to payment, both of principal and of interest, by the United States.

Sec. 18. Obligations for refunding and obligations for any other purpose authorized pursuant to sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of this act or by any other law may be issued separately or issued in combination in one series or more by the State in accordance with the provisions of sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 19. Except as otherwise provided in sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of this act, the relevant provisions elsewhere herein appertaining generally to the issuance of obligations to defray the cost of any operating cost-savings measure are equally applicable in the authorization and issuance of refunding obligations, including, without limitation, their terms and security, the covenants and other provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations, or other instrument or proceedings appertaining thereto, and other aspects of the obligations.

Sec. 20. 1. An obligation may not be refunded pursuant to sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of this act unless the holder of the obligation voluntarily surrenders the obligation for exchange or payment, or unless the obligation matures or is callable for prior redemption under its terms within 25 years after the date of issuance of the refunding obligations. Provision must be made for paying the securities within that period.

2. The maturity of any obligation refunded may not be extended beyond 25 years, or beyond 1 year next following the date of the last outstanding maturity, whichever limitation is later.

3. The principal amount of the refunding obligations may:

- (a) Exceed the principal amount of the refunded obligations; or*
- (b) Be less than or equal to the principal amount of the obligations being refunded if provision is duly and sufficiently made for their payment.*

Sec. 21. The determination of the using agency that the limitations imposed upon the issuance of obligations pursuant to NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act, including, without limitation, any obligations for funding or refunding obligations, have been met shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud or arbitrary and gross abuse of discretion regardless of whether the authorizing resolution or the obligations authorized by that resolution contain a recital as authorized by section 22 of this act.

Sec. 22. A resolution providing for the issuance of a performance contract, including, without limitation, an installment-purchase contract or lease-purchase contract or other proceedings appertaining thereto, may provide that the obligations contain a recital that the obligations are issued pursuant to NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act, which recital is conclusive evidence of the validity of the obligations.

Sec. 23. NRS 333A.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

333A.010 As used in NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 333A.020 to 333A.070, inclusive, and section 8 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 24. NRS 333A.080 is hereby amended to read as follows:

333A.080 1. ~~[Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter and chapters 333 and 338 of NRS to the contrary, a using agency may enter into a performance contract with a qualified service company for the purchase and installation of an operating cost-savings measure to reduce costs related to energy, water and the disposal of waste, and related labor costs. Such a performance contract may be in the form of an installment payment contract or a lease-purchase contract that is subject to the provisions of NRS 353.500 to 353.630, inclusive. Any operating cost-savings measures put into place as a result of a performance contract must comply with all applicable building codes.]~~

~~2.]~~ The State Public Works Board shall determine those companies that satisfy the requirements of qualified service companies for the purposes of NRS 333A.010 to 333A.150, inclusive ~~[.]~~, and sections 8 to 22, inclusive, of this act. In making such a determination, the State Public Works Board shall enlist the assistance of the staffs of the Office of Energy within the Office of the Governor, the Buildings and Grounds Division of the Department of Administration and the Purchasing Division of the Department of Administration. The State Public Works Board shall prepare and issue a request for qualifications to not less than three potential qualified service companies.

~~[3.]~~ 2. In sending out a request for qualifications, the State Public Works Board:

(a) Shall attempt to identify at least one potential qualified service company located within this State; and

(b) May consider whether and to what extent the companies to which the request for qualifications will be sent will use local contractors.

~~[4.]~~ 3. The State Public Works Board shall ~~[use objective]~~ adopt, by regulation, criteria to determine those companies that satisfy the requirements of qualified service companies. The ~~[objective]~~ criteria for evaluation must include , without limitation, the following areas as substantive factors to assess the capability of such companies:

(a) Design;

(b) Engineering;

(c) Installation;

(d) Maintenance and repairs associated with performance contracts;

(e) Experience in conversions to different sources of energy or fuel and other services related to operating cost-savings measures provided that is done in association with a comprehensive energy, water or waste disposal cost-savings retrofit;

(f) Monitoring projects after the projects are installed;

- (g) Data collection and reporting of savings;
- (h) Overall project experience and qualifications;
- (i) Management capability;
- (j) Ability to access long-term financing;
- (k) Experience with projects of similar size and scope; and
- (l) Such other factors determined by the State Public Works Board to be relevant and appropriate to the ability of a company to perform the ~~[the project.]~~ projects.

In determining whether a company satisfies the requirements of a qualified service company, the State Public Works Board shall also consider ~~{the financial health of the company as evidenced by its financial statements and ratings and}~~ whether the company holds the appropriate licenses required for the design, engineering and construction which would be completed pursuant to a performance contract.

~~{5.}~~ 4. The State Public Works Board shall compile a list of those companies that it determines satisfy the requirements of qualified service companies. ~~{The Purchasing Division of the Department of Administration shall work directly with any using agency interested in entering into a performance contract, using the list of qualified service companies compiled by the State Public Works Board. The Purchasing Division, in conjunction with the using agency, shall ensure that each appropriate qualified service company is notified of the using agency's interest in entering into a performance contract and coordinate an opportunity for each such qualified service company to:~~

(a) ~~Perform a preliminary and comprehensive audit and assessment of all potential operating cost savings measures that might be implemented within the buildings of the using agency, including any operating cost savings measures specifically requested by the using agency; and~~

(b) ~~Submit a proposal and make a related presentation to the using agency for all such operating cost savings measures that the qualified service company determines would be practicable to implement.~~

~~6. The using agency shall:~~

(a) ~~Evaluate the proposals and presentations made pursuant to subsection 5; and~~

(b) ~~Select a qualified service company, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 333 of NRS, and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto, for evaluating and awarding contracts.~~

~~7. A qualified service company selected by a using agency pursuant to subsection 6 shall prepare a financial grade operational audit. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the audit prepared by the qualified service company becomes, upon acceptance, a part of the final performance contract and the costs incurred by the qualified service company in preparing the audit shall be deemed to be part of the performance contract. If, after the audit is prepared, the using agency decides not to execute the performance contract, the using agency shall pay the qualified service company that~~

~~prepared the audit the costs incurred by the qualified service company in preparing the audit, if the Legislature has specifically appropriated money for that purpose. An appropriation by the Legislature for the purchase and installation of an operating cost savings measure creates no presumption that the using agency for which the money was appropriated is required to enter into such a contract.~~

~~8.—The using agency shall retain the professional services of a third party consultant with the requisite technical expertise to assist the using agency in reviewing the operating cost savings measures proposed by the qualified service company. The Purchasing Division of the Department of Administration may procure sufficient funding from the qualified service company, through negotiation, to pay for the third party consultant. Such a third party consultant must be certified by the Association of Energy Engineers as a “Certified Energy Manager” or hold similar credentials from a comparable nationally recognized organization. A third party consultant retained pursuant to this subsection shall work on behalf of the using agency in coordination with the qualified service company.]”~~

4. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Commission, the Commission may impose on any person who violates any provision of NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Department shall not, at any one time, issue more than ~~{25}~~ 30 separate designs of special license plates.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, on October 1 of each year the Department shall assess the viability of each separate design of special license plate that the Department is currently issuing by determining the total number of validly registered motor vehicles to which that design of special license plate is affixed. The Department shall not determine the total number of validly registered motor vehicles to which a particular design of special license plate is affixed if:

(a) The particular design of special license plate was designed and prepared by the Department pursuant to NRS 482.367002; and

(b) On October 1, that particular design of special license plate has been available to be issued for less than 12 months.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, if, on October 1, the total number of validly registered motor vehicles to which a particular design of special license plate is affixed is:

(a) In the case of special license plates designed and prepared by the Department pursuant to NRS 482.367002, less than 1,000; or

(b) In the case of special license plates authorized directly by the Legislature which are described in paragraph (b) of subsection 1, less than the number of applications required to be received by the Department for the initial issuance of those plates, the Director shall provide notice of that fact in the manner described in subsection 5.

5. The notice required pursuant to subsection 4 must be provided:

(a) If the special license plate generates financial support for a cause or charitable organization, to that cause or charitable organization.

(b) If the special license plate does not generate financial support for a cause or charitable organization, to an entity which is involved in promoting the activity, place or other matter that is depicted on the plate.

6. If, on December 31 of the same year in which notice was provided pursuant to subsections 4 and 5, the total number of validly registered motor vehicles to which a particular design of special license plate is affixed is:

(a) In the case of special license plates designed and prepared by the Department pursuant to NRS 482.367002, less than 1,000; or the Director shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, issue an order providing that the Department will no longer issue that particular design of special license plate. Such an order does not require existing holders of that particular design of special license plate to surrender their plates to the Department and does not prohibit those holders from renewing those plates.”.

(b) In the case of special license plates authorized directly by the Legislature which are described in paragraph (b) of subsection 1, less than the number of applications required to be received by the Department for the initial issuance of those plates,

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 51.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 801.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 1 through 11 as sections 2 through 12 and adding a new section designated section 1, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

“Section 1. NRS 125.480 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125.480 1. In determining custody of a minor child in an action brought under this chapter, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. ~~[If it appears to the court that joint custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may grant custody to the parties jointly.]~~

2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

3. The court shall award custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise:

(a) To both parents jointly ~~[pursuant to NRS 125.490 or to either parent.]~~, if the parents have agreed to an award of joint custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the custody of the child.

(b) To both parents jointly, or to either parent, according to the best interest of the child, based upon the best judgment of the court considering the facts of the case and subject to such conditions and limitations as the court deems equitable. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application. ~~[When awarding custody to either parent, the court shall consider, among other factors, which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.]~~

~~(b)~~ (c) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

~~(c)~~ (d) To any person related within the third degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

~~(d)~~ (e) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider ~~{}~~ and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

(a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his custody. ~~{}~~

(b) Any nomination by a parent or a guardian for the child. ~~{; and}~~

(c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

(d) The level of conflict between the parents.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

(i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

(k) The ability of each parent to prioritize the needs of the child.

(l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS 125C.210, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint custody of the child by the perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall, if possible, then determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

(c) The likelihood of future injury;

(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self-defense; and

(e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the determination.

In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies to both parties. If it is possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.

7. As used in this section, "domestic violence" means the commission of any act described in NRS 33.018."

CARSON CITY (Friday), May 27, 2005

Assembly called to order at 11:23 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblywoman Ohrenschall, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Reverend Ruth Hanusa.

O God, we give thanks for all whose labor contributes to the work done in this place: for Republicans and Democrats, who together express the will of the people; for those who argue for special cause and for those who seek to decide for the common good; for standing committees and for the Committee on Anatomical Dissection; for those who maneuver, those who stonewall and for those who break through; for those who jerk chains and those who rattle cages; for those who soothe ruffled feathers and pour out balm; for those who photograph, those who photocopy, and those who photo-journal; for those who pour water and later wipe up spills; for those who schlep paper, and for printers and for document distributors; for those who brew beefier coffee, and for clerks and cleaners and calendar keepers; for those who wax floors and those who wax eloquently; for the slow of speech and for the Chief Clerk; for those who feed, those who weed, and those who plant seeds; for those who guard the doors and those who guard the morals; for those who send flowers, those who deliver them, and those who delight in them; and we give thanks for You, O God—You who take great delight in us and who ceaselessly provide us with those who love and cherish us. For all these and more we give thanks. Bless them and us, today and always.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

ASSEMBLYMAN CONKLIN:

I rise in support of this bill and I want to get something on the record. There was an amendment yesterday on Senate Bill 325 that talked about condo conversions, and we added in that items that may expire within a ten-year period from the conversion to a condo be fully funded in the reserves. I want to make sure that the legislative intent is understood that it is in addition to the standard reserves that are put into place by the developer prior to sale.

Remarks by Assemblymen Anderson and Hettrick.

Assemblyman Anderson requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Senate Bill 347 revises provisions concerning personal identifying information. Senate Bill 347 requires data collectors that maintain records containing personal information to implement and maintain reasonable security measures to protect the information and requires that data collectors immediately provide notification concerning any breach of security. Senator Weiner, Clark County Senatorial District 3, requested this specific statement be included: “Personal information” to include “employer identification number”; and it is important to note, for the record, that the term “employer identification number” refers to the federal employer identification number issued by the Internal Revenue Service.

Further, S.B. 347 prohibits the establishment of a financial forgery laboratory and also enhances penalties for crimes involving personal identifying information that are committed against older persons or vulnerable persons. The bill also makes various changes relating to credit card issuers and businesses that maintain records concerning personal information to ensure the security of the information.

I would like to note, for the members in particular, the sections of this bill creating a crime and enhancing penalties are effective October 1, 2005. The sections of the bill concerning credit card issuers, data collectors, and businesses are effective January 1, 2006. The section prohibiting a business from transferring certain personal information that is not encrypted outside its secure system is effective October 1, 2008.

I want to make sure this becomes part of the current record, since this is landmark legislation.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Horne requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

I would like to say a few words today about Memorial Day and taking time out to reflect on the men and women, both military and civilian, who have given their lives for the freedom that we presently enjoy in this great country of ours. I am a military brat. My father, after his second tour in Vietnam, came back with leukemia and died before I was 12 years old, so I know full well the sacrifices that these families make, both the military and civilian personnel abroad and the families and friends who remain at home. They constantly think about these men and women who are serving their country. We move about our daily tasks, day in and day out, sometimes not thinking about them, and we have this one day that we have set aside to reflect on their sacrifices. I would like us, today, to take some time out throughout the day to remember these people, and also to remind yourself that this should not be the only day that we think about them. We should think about them more than just one day a year, because their sacrifices continue throughout the year, year in and year out. I ask you to take that time today, and let us give honor to them. Thank you.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That Section 1 of Article 10 of the Nevada Constitution is amended to read as follows:

Section 1. 1. The Legislature shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real, personal and possessory, except mines and mining claims, which shall be assessed and taxed only as provided in Section 5 of this Article.

2. Shares of stock, bonds, mortgages, notes, bank deposits, book accounts and credits, and securities and choses in action of like character are deemed to represent interest in property already assessed and taxed, either in Nevada or elsewhere, and shall be exempt.

3. The Legislature may constitute agricultural and open-space real property having a greater value for another use than that for which it is being used, as a separate class for taxation purposes and may provide a separate uniform plan for appraisal and valuation of such property for assessment purposes. If such plan is provided, the Legislature shall also provide for retroactive assessment for a period of not less than 7 years when agricultural and open-space real property is converted to a higher use conforming to the use for which other nearby property is used.

4. Personal property which is moving in interstate commerce through or over the territory of the State of Nevada, or which was consigned to a warehouse, public or private, within the State of Nevada from outside the State of Nevada for storage in transit to a final destination outside the State of Nevada, whether specified when transportation begins or afterward, shall be deemed to have acquired no situs in Nevada for purposes of taxation and shall be exempt from taxation. Such property shall not be deprived of such exemption because while in the warehouse the property is assembled, bound, joined, processed, disassembled, divided, cut, broken in bulk, relabeled or repackaged.

5. The Legislature may exempt motor vehicles from the provisions of the tax required by this Section, and in lieu thereof, if such exemption is granted, shall provide for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation of motor vehicles, which rate shall not exceed five cents on one dollar of assessed valuation.

6. The Legislature shall provide by law for a progressive reduction in the tax upon business inventories by 20 percent in each year following the adoption of this provision, and after the expiration of the 4th year such inventories are exempt from taxation. The Legislature may exempt any other personal property, including livestock.

7. No inheritance tax shall ever be levied.

8. The Legislature may exempt by law property used for municipal, educational, literary, scientific or other charitable purposes, or to encourage the conservation of energy or the substitution of other sources for fossil sources of energy.

9. No income tax shall be levied upon the wages or personal income of natural persons. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, and except as otherwise provided in subsection 1 of this Section, taxes may be levied upon the income or revenue of any business in whatever form it may be conducted for profit in the State.

10. The Legislature may provide by law for an abatement of the tax upon or an exemption of part of the assessed value of a single-family residence occupied by the owner to the extent necessary to avoid severe economic hardship to the owner of the residence.

11. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the amount of the property tax which may be collected annually for a residence owned and occupied by a senior citizen who has paid property taxes in this State during each of the previous 10 years must be limited to an amount that does not exceed the lesser of:

(2) Has paid property taxes in this State for each of the previous 10 years, whichever is later;

(b) The tax that would otherwise apply to the property for the current year.

The amount of the property tax which, but for the provisions of this subsection, would otherwise be collected for a residence owned and occupied by a senior citizen becomes due and payable when the senior citizen ceases to occupy the residence, upon the sale of the senior citizen's interest in the residence or upon the death of the senior citizen, whichever occurs first.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sec. 7 and adding a new section designated sec. 7, following sec. 6, to read as follows:

“Sec. 7. NRS 116.311 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.311 1. If only one of several owners of a unit is present at a meeting of the association, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that unit. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners cast the votes allocated to that unit without protest made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the unit.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, votes allocated to a unit may be cast pursuant to a proxy executed by a unit's owner. A unit's owner may give a proxy only to a member of his immediate family, a tenant of the unit's owner who resides in the common-interest community, another unit's owner who resides in the common-interest community, or a delegate or representative when authorized pursuant to NRS 116.31105. If a unit is owned by more than one person, each owner of the unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the unit through an executed proxy. A unit's owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.

3. Before a vote may be cast pursuant to a proxy:

- (a) The proxy must be dated.
- (b) The proxy must not purport to be revocable without notice.
- (c) The proxy must designate the meeting for which it is executed.
- (d) The proxy must designate each specific item on the agenda of the meeting for which the unit's owner has executed the proxy, except that the unit's owner may execute the proxy without designating any specific items on the agenda of the meeting if the proxy is to be used solely for determining whether a quorum is present for the meeting. If the proxy designates one or more specific items on the agenda of the meeting for which the unit's owner has executed the proxy, the proxy must indicate, for each specific item designated in the proxy, whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative on behalf of the unit's owner. If the proxy does not indicate whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative for a particular item on the agenda of the meeting, the proxy must be treated, with regard to that particular item, as if the unit's owner were present but not voting on that particular item.

- (e) The holder of the proxy must disclose at the beginning of the meeting for which the proxy is executed the number of proxies pursuant to which the holder will be casting votes.

4. A proxy terminates immediately after the conclusion of the meeting for which it is executed.

5. A vote may not be cast pursuant to a proxy for the election or removal of a member of the executive board of an association unless the proxy is exercised through a delegate or representative authorized pursuant to NRS 116.31105.

6. The holder of a proxy may not cast a vote on behalf of the unit's owner who executed the proxy in a manner that is contrary to the proxy.

7. A proxy is void if the proxy or the holder of the proxy violates any provision of subsections 1 to 6, inclusive.

8. If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the common-interest community must be cast by the lessees of leased units rather than the units' owners who have leased the units:

(a) The provisions of subsections 1 to 7, inclusive, apply to the lessees as if they were the units' owners;

(b) The units' owners who have leased their units to the lessees may not cast votes on those specified matters;

(c) The lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records and other rights respecting those matters as if they were the units' owners; and

(d) The units' owners must be given notice, in the manner provided in NRS 116.3108, of all meetings at which the lessees are entitled to vote.

- (a) Which is newly registered in this State; or
- (b) For which a policy of liability insurance has been issued, amended or terminated, is covered by a policy of liability insurance as required by NRS 485.185. In identifying a motor vehicle for verification pursuant to this subsection, the Department may, if the motor vehicle was manufactured during or after 1981, use only the last eight digits of the vehicle identification number. In comparing the vehicle identification number of a motor vehicle to the vehicle identification number in a policy of liability insurance, to determine if the two vehicle identification numbers match, the Department may find that the two vehicle identification numbers match if no fewer than seven of the last eight digits of the two vehicle identification numbers match.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the Department may use any information to verify, pursuant to subsection 1, whether the motor vehicle is covered by a policy of liability insurance as required by NRS 485.185. The Department may not use the name of the owner of a motor vehicle as the primary means of verifying that a motor vehicle is covered by a policy of liability insurance.

3. The owner shall complete the form with all the information which is requested by the Department, including whether he carries an owner's or operator's policy of liability insurance or a certificate of self-insurance, and return the completed form within 20 days after the date on which the form was mailed by the Department. If the Department does not receive the completed form within 20 days after it mailed the form to the owner, the Department shall send to the owner a ~~second form for verification~~ notice of suspension of registration by certified mail. The ~~owner shall complete the form and return it~~ notice must inform the owner that unless he submits a completed form to the Department within 15 days after the date on which it the notice was sent by the Department ~~his registration will be suspended pursuant to subsection 5~~. This subsection does not prohibit an authorized agent of the owner from providing to the Department:

(a) The information requested by the Department pursuant to this subsection.

(b) Additional information to amend or correct information already submitted to the Department pursuant to this subsection.

4. When the Department receives a completed form for verification, it shall verify the information on the form.

5. The Department shall suspend the registration and require the return to the Department of the license plates of any vehicle for which ~~the~~

~~(a) Neither of the forms~~ the form for verification set forth in subsection 3 is :

(a) Not returned to the Department by the registered owner or his authorized agent within the period specified in that subsection;

(b) ~~Either of the forms for verification set forth in subsection 3 is returned~~ Returned to the Department by the registered owner or his authorized agent and the Department is not able to verify the information on the form; or

6. If the Department suspends a registration pursuant to subsection 5 because:

(a) Neither the owner nor his authorized agent returned a form for verification within the specified period or the owner or his authorized agent returned a form for verification that was not completed sufficiently, and the owner or his authorized agent, thereafter:

(1) Proves to the satisfaction of the Department that there was a justifiable cause for his failure to do so;

(2) Submits a completed form regarding his insurance on the date stated in the form mailed by the Department pursuant to subsection 3; and

(3) Presents evidence of current insurance; or

(b) The owner or his authorized agent submitted to the Department a form for verification containing information that the Department was unable to verify and, thereafter, the owner or his authorized agent presents to the Department:

(1) A corrected form or otherwise verifiable evidence setting forth that the owner possessed insurance on the date stated in the form; and the Department shall rescind its suspension of the registration if it is able to verify the information on the form or the other evidence presented. The Department shall not charge a fee to reinstate a registration, the suspension of which was rescinded pursuant to this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection, “justifiable cause” may include, but is not limited to, the fact that the owner did not receive the form mailed by the Department pursuant to subsection 3.

(2) Evidence of current insurance,

7. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 8 and 9, if a registered owner whose registration is suspended pursuant to subsection 5, failed to have insurance on the date specified in the form for verification, the Department shall reinstate the registration of the vehicle and reissue the license plates only upon filing by the registered owner of evidence of current insurance and payment of the fee for reinstatement of registration prescribed in paragraph (a) of subsection 6 of NRS 482.480.

8. If a registered owner proves to the satisfaction of the Department that his vehicle was a dormant vehicle during the period in which the information provided pursuant to NRS 485.314 indicated that there was no insurance for the vehicle, the Department shall reinstate his registration and, if applicable, reissue his license plates. If such an owner of a dormant vehicle failed to cancel the registration for the vehicle in accordance with subsection 3 of NRS 485.320, the Department shall not reinstate his registration or reissue his license plates unless the owner pays the fee set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection 6 of NRS 482.480.

9. If the Department suspends the registration of a motor vehicle pursuant to subsection 5 because the registered owner of the motor vehicle failed to have insurance on the date specified in the form for verification, and if the registered owner, in accordance with regulations adopted by the Department, proves to the satisfaction of the Department that he was unable to comply with the provisions of NRS 485.185 on that date because of extenuating circumstances, the Department may:

(a) Reinstate the registration of the motor vehicle and reissue the license plates upon payment by the registered owner of a fee of $50, which must be deposited in the Account for Verification of Insurance created by subsection 6 of NRS 482.480; or

(b) Rescind the suspension of the registration without the payment of a fee.

The Department shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

10. For the purposes of verification of insurance by the Department pursuant to this section, a motor vehicle shall be deemed to be covered by liability insurance unless the motor vehicle is without coverage for a period of more than 7 days.”.

5. If a lease of land is for residential property and the term of the lease is 1 year or less, the State Land Registrar shall obtain an analysis of the market value of similar rental properties prepared by a licensed real estate broker or salesman when offering such a property for lease.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTIONS

281.477 Public hearing on request for opinion as to whether person committed act to impede success of political campaign: Request; notice; response; continuance; actions of Commission; judicial review of final opinion.

1. If a request for an opinion is filed with the Commission pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346, the Commission shall conduct a public hearing on the request. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the hearing must be held as expeditiously as possible, but not later than 15 days after the receipt of the request for the opinion.

2. Such a request must be accompanied by all evidence and arguments to be offered by the requester concerning the issues related to the request. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if such evidence and arguments are not submitted with the request, the Commission may:

(a) Draw any conclusions it deems appropriate from the failure of the person or group of persons requesting the opinion to submit the evidence and arguments, other than a conclusion that a person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 acted with actual malice; and

(b) Decline to render an opinion.

The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit the Commission from considering evidence or arguments presented by the requester after submission of the request for an opinion if the Commission determines that consideration of such evidence or arguments is in the interest of justice.

3. The Commission shall immediately notify any person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 that such an opinion has been requested by the most expedient means possible. If notice is given orally by telephone or in any other manner, a second notice must be given in writing not later than the next calendar day by facsimile machine or overnight mail. The notice must include the time and place of the Commission’s hearing on the matter.

4. A person notified pursuant to subsection 3 shall submit a response to the Commission not later than the close of business on the second business day following the receipt of the notice. The response must be accompanied by any evidence concerning the issues related to the request that the person has in his possession or may obtain without undue financial hardship. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if such evidence is not submitted within that time, the Commission may:

(a) Draw any conclusions it deems appropriate from the failure of that person to submit the evidence and argument; and

(b) Prohibit that person from responding and presenting evidence at the hearing.

The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit the Commission from allowing that person to respond and present evidence or arguments, or both, after the close of business on the second business day if the Commission determines that consideration of such evidence or arguments is in the interest of justice.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the Commission shall allow any person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 to:

(a) Be represented by counsel; and

(b) Hear the evidence presented to the Commission and respond and present evidence on his own behalf.

6. At the request of:

(a) The person or group of persons that filed the request for the opinion pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346; or

(b) The person alleged to have violated the provisions of NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346, the Commission may grant a continuance of a hearing held pursuant to the provisions of this section upon a showing of the existence of extraordinary circumstances that would prohibit the Commission from rendering a fair and impartial opinion. A continuance may be granted for not more than 15 days. Not more than one continuance may be granted by the Commission pursuant to this subsection.

7. The person or group of persons that filed the request for the opinion pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 has the burden of proving the elements of the offense, including that a person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 acted with actual malice. The existence of actual malice may not be presumed. A final opinion of the Commission rendered pursuant to this section must be supported by clear and convincing evidence. In addition to the other requirements for issuing an opinion pursuant to this subsection, the Commission shall not render a final opinion determining that a person has violated NRS 294A.345 unless the Commission makes specific findings that:

(a) The person caused to be published a false statement of fact concerning a candidate;

(b) The person acted with actual malice in causing the false statement to be published;

(c) The person acted with the intent to impede the success of the campaign of the candidate in causing the false statement to be published; and

(d) The publication of the false statement did in fact impede the success of the campaign of the candidate.

In addition to the other requirements for issuing an opinion pursuant to this subsection, the Commission shall not render a final opinion determining that a person has violated NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 unless a finding that each of the elements of the offense has been proven receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Commission.

8. The Commission shall render its opinion, or decline to render an opinion, as expeditiously as possible, but not later than 3 days after the date of the hearing. If additional time is required to determine the state of mind or the intent of the person alleged to have violated the provisions of NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 or to determine the amount of any civil penalty that may be imposed pursuant to NRS 281.551, the Commission may continue its jurisdiction to investigate those issues but shall render its opinion as to the truth or falsity of the statement made concerning the candidate or the ballot question or its opinion as to whether the person impeded the success of the campaign or induced another person to impede the success of the campaign. If the Commission continues its jurisdiction pursuant to this subsection, it may render a final opinion after the time set forth in this subsection.

9. A final opinion of the Commission rendered pursuant to this section is subject to judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130. The district court shall give a petition for judicial review of a final opinion of the Commission priority over other civil matters that are not expressly given priority by law. Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 233B.130, the court may provide for such expedited review of the final opinion, including shortened periods for filing documents, as it deems appropriate for the circumstances.

10. Each request for an opinion filed pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346, each opinion rendered by the Commission pursuant thereto and any motion, evidence or record of a hearing relating to the request are public and must be open to inspection pursuant to NRS 239.010.

11. For the purposes of NRS 41.032, the members of the Commission and its employees shall be deemed to be exercising or performing a discretionary function or duty when taking any action related to the rendering of an opinion pursuant to this section.

12. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a meeting or hearing held by the Commission to carry out the provisions of this section and the Commission's deliberations on the information or evidence are not subject to any provision of chapter 241 of NRS.

13. As used in this section:

(a) "Actual malice" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 294A.345.

(b) "Publish" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 294A.345.

294A.345 Impeding success of campaign of candidate by causing publication of certain false statements of fact concerning candidate prohibited; civil penalty imposed by Commission on Ethics.

1. A person shall not, with actual malice and the intent to impede the success of the campaign of a candidate, impede the success of the candidate by causing to be published a false statement of fact concerning the candidate, including, without limitation, statements concerning:

- (a) The education or training of the candidate.
- (b) The profession or occupation of the candidate.
- (c) Whether the candidate committed, was indicted for committing or was convicted of committing a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or corruption.
- (d) Whether the candidate has received treatment for a mental illness.
- (e) Whether the candidate was disciplined while serving in the military or was dishonorably discharged from service in the military.
- (f) Whether another person endorses or opposes the candidate.
- (g) The record of voting of a candidate if he formerly served or currently serves as a public officer.

2. Any candidate who alleges that a false statement of fact concerning the candidate has been published in violation of subsection 1 may file a request for an opinion with the Commission on Ethics pursuant to NRS 281.411 to 281.581, inclusive. Such a request must be filed with the Commission not later than 10 days after the date on which the false statement of fact is alleged to have been made. The Commission shall give priority to such a request over all other matters pending with the Commission.

Sec. 27. 1. If no employee organization is designated as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit, the Board shall order an election to be conducted within the workplace relations unit if:

(a) An employee organization files with the Board a written request for an election which includes a list of its membership showing that it represents at least 30 percent but not more than 50 percent of the employees within the workplace relations unit; and

(b) No other election to choose, change or discontinue representation has been conducted within the workplace relations unit during the preceding 12 months.

2. If the Board designates an employee organization as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit pursuant to subsection 1 or section 26 of this act, the Board shall order an election if:

(a) Either:

Sec. 28. 1. If the Board orders an election within a workplace relations unit pursuant to section 27 of this act, the Board shall order that each of the following be placed as a choice on the ballot for the election:

(b) Any other employee organization that, on or before the date that is prescribed by the rules established by the Board, files with the Board a written request to be placed on the ballot for the election and includes with the written request a list of its membership showing that the employee organization represents at least 30 percent of the employees within the workplace relations unit; and

(c) A choice for "no representation."

2. If a ballot for an election contains more than two choices and none of the choices on the ballot receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election, the Board shall order a runoff election between the two choices on the ballot that received the highest number of votes at the initial election.

3. If the choice for "no representation" receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election or at any runoff election, the Board shall designate the workplace relations unit as being without representation.

4. If an employee organization receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election or at any runoff election, the Board shall designate the employee organization as the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit.

Sec. 29. 1. The Board shall preside over all elections that are conducted pursuant to this chapter and shall determine the eligibility requirements for employees to vote in any such election.

2. An employee organization that is placed as a choice on the ballot for an election or any employee who is eligible to vote at an election may file with the Board a written objection to the results of the election. The objection must be filed not later than 10 days after the date on which the notice of the results of the election is given by the Board.

3. In response to a written objection filed pursuant to subsection 2 or upon its own motion, the Board may invalidate the results of an election and order a new election if the Board finds that any conduct or circumstances raise substantial doubt that the results of the election are reliable.

Sec. 30. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an exclusive representative shall:

(a) Act as the agent and exclusive representative of all employees within each workplace relations unit that it represents; and

(b) In good faith and on behalf of each workplace relations unit that it represents, individually or collectively, engage in discussions of workplace relations with the Executive Department concerning the terms and conditions of employment for the employees within each workplace relations unit that it represents, including, without limitation, any terms and conditions of employment that are within the scope of supplemental discussions of workplace relations pursuant to section 38 of this act.

2. If an employee is within a workplace relations unit that has an exclusive representative, the employee has the right to present grievances to the Executive Department at any time and to have those grievances adjusted without the intervention of the exclusive representative if:

(a) The exclusive representative is given an opportunity to be present at any meetings or hearings related to the adjustment of the grievance; and

(b) The adjustment of the grievance is not inconsistent with the provisions of the workplace relations agreement or any supplemental workplace relations agreement then in effect.

Sec. 31. If the Board designates an employee organization as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit pursuant to this chapter, an officer of the Executive Department may not, pursuant to NRS 281.129, withhold any amount of money from the salary or wages of an employee within the workplace relations unit to pay dues or similar fees to an employee organization other than the employee organization that is the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit.

Sec. 32. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative shall begin negotiations concerning a workplace relations agreement within 60 days after one party notifies the other party of the desire to negotiate.

Sec. 33. 1. If the parties do not reach a workplace relations agreement within 120 days after the date on which the parties began negotiations or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, either party may request a mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

2. The mediator shall bring the parties together as soon as possible after his appointment and shall attempt to settle each issue in dispute within 30 days after his appointment or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.

Sec. 34. 1. If the mediator determines that his services are no longer helpful or if the parties do not reach a workplace relations agreement through mediation within 30 days after the appointment of the mediator or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, the mediator shall discontinue mediation and the parties shall attempt to agree upon an impartial arbitrator.

2. If the parties do not agree upon an impartial arbitrator within 5 days after the date on which mediation is discontinued pursuant to subsection 1 or on or before any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, the parties shall request from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service a list of seven potential arbitrators. The parties shall select an arbitrator from this list by alternately striking one name until the name of only one arbitrator remains, and that arbitrator must hear the dispute in question. The party who will strike the first name must be determined by a coin toss.

3. The arbitrator shall begin arbitration proceedings within 60 days after his selection or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.

4. The arbitrator and the parties shall apply and follow the procedures for arbitration that are prescribed by the rules established by the Board. During arbitration, the parties retain their respective duties to negotiate in good faith.

5. The arbitrator may administer oaths or affirmations, take testimony and issue and seek enforcement of subpoenas in the same manner as the Board pursuant to section 18 of this act, and except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the provisions of section 18 of this act apply to subpoenas issued by the arbitrator.

6. The Executive Department and the exclusive representative shall each pay one-half of the cost of arbitration.

Sec. 35. 1. For each separate issue that is in dispute after arbitration proceedings are held pursuant to section 34 of this act, the arbitrator shall incorporate either the final offer of the Executive Department or the final offer of the exclusive representative into his decision. The arbitrator shall not revise or amend the final offer of either party on any issue.

2. To determine which final offers to incorporate into his decision, the arbitrator shall assess the reasonableness of:

- (a) The position of each party as to each issue in dispute; and
- (b) The contractual terms and provisions contained in each final offer.

3. In assessing reasonableness pursuant to subsection 2, the arbitrator shall:

(a) Compare the terms and conditions of employment for the employees within the workplace relations unit with the terms and conditions of employment for other employees performing similar services and for other employees generally:

- (1) In public employment in comparable communities; and
- (2) In private employment in comparable communities; and

(b) Consider, without limitation, such other factors as are normally or traditionally used as part of discussions of workplace relations, mediation, arbitration or other methods of dispute resolution to determine the terms and conditions of employment for employees in public or private employment.

4. The arbitrator shall render a written decision within 45 days after the conclusion of the arbitration proceedings or before any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.

5. Except as otherwise provided in section 36 of this act, each provision that is included in a decision of the arbitrator is final and binding upon the parties.

Sec. 36. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a party may seek judicial review in the district court of the decision of an arbitrator made pursuant to section 35 of this act based upon jurisdictional grounds or upon the grounds that the decision:

- (a) Was procured by fraud, collusion or other similar unlawful means; or
- (b) Was not supported by competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record and based upon the factors set forth in section 35 of this act.

2. If a party seeks judicial review pursuant to this section, the district court may stay the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator until the court rules on the matter.

3. The district court may affirm or reverse the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator, in whole or in part, but the court may not remand the matter to the arbitrator or require any additional fact-finding or decision making by the arbitrator.

4. If the district court reverses any part of the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator, the court shall enter an order invalidating that part of the decision of the arbitrator, and that part of the decision of the arbitrator is void and must not be given effect.

Sec. 37. 1. If a provision of a workplace relations agreement does not require an amendment to existing statute by the Legislature to be given effect, the provision becomes effective pursuant to the provisions of the workplace relations agreement.

2. If a provision of the workplace relations agreement requires an amendment to existing statute by the Legislature to be given effect, the provision becomes effective, if at all, on the date on which the necessary amendment to existing statute becomes effective.

Sec. 38. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Executive Department and the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit may engage in supplemental discussions of workplace relations concerning any terms and conditions of employment which are peculiar to or which uniquely affect fewer than all the employees within the workplace relations unit if such supplemental terms and conditions of employment are not included in any provision of the workplace relations agreement then in effect between the Executive Department and the workplace relations unit.

2. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative may engage in supplemental discussions of workplace relations pursuant to subsection 1 for fewer than all the employees within two or more workplace relations units that the exclusive representative represents if the requirements of subsection 1 are met for each such workplace relations unit.

3. If the parties reach a supplemental workplace relations agreement pursuant to this section, the provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement:

(a) Must be in writing; and

(b) Shall be deemed to be incorporated into the provisions of each workplace relations agreement then in effect between the Executive Department and the employees who are subject to the supplemental workplace relations agreement if the provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement do not conflict with the provisions of the workplace relations agreement.

4. If any provision of the supplemental workplace relations agreement conflicts with any provision of the workplace relations agreement, the provision of the supplemental workplace relations agreement is void and the provision of the workplace relations agreement must be given effect.

5. The provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement expire at the same time as the other provisions of the workplace relations agreement into which they are incorporated.

6. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative may, during discussions of workplace relations conducted pursuant to this chapter, negotiate and include in a workplace relations agreement any terms and conditions of employment that would otherwise be within the scope of supplemental workplace relations conducted pursuant to this section.

Sec. 39. 1. Except as otherwise provided by specific statute, an employee organization and the Executive Department may sue or be sued as an entity pursuant to this chapter.

2. If any action or proceeding is brought by or against an employee organization pursuant to this chapter, the district court for the county in which the employee organization maintains its principal office or the county in which the claim arose has jurisdiction over the claim.

3. A natural person and his assets are not subject to liability for any judgment awarded pursuant to this chapter against the Executive Department or an employee organization.

Sec. 40. The terms of any workplace relations agreement remain in effect until a new workplace relations agreement takes effect.

Sec. 41. NRS 281.129 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Assemblywoman Buckley moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 384.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Buckley.

Assemblywoman Buckley requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal.

I want to read a couple comments about the amendment into the record, in hopes that I never have to do another payday loan bill again.

A new section 21.8 was written to clarify that financial terms have the meaning ascribed to them in federal law, the Truth in Lending Act (TILA) and Regulation Z. It is the intent that case law interpreting this federal law, and particularly Ninth Circuit case law, be relied on in construing such terms.

Section 31 was amended to clarify that the written loan agreement must disclose every type of fee or charge, regardless of the name given to it and regardless of whether TILA would require disclosure of same as part of the finance charge. The written loan agreement must also disclose the customer's opportunity to enter into a repayment plan on default.

In Section 34, it has now been made even more clear that if more than one loan is made to a customer at any one time, the lender cannot raise the interest rate on a subsequent loan, and cannot charge any fee whatsoever on a subsequent loan. There is one exception to the no-fee rule for lenders who meet some very narrow criteria in Section 43 of the bill.

In Section 35, it has now been made clearer that a licensee must disclose, in the written loan agreement, not only all that is required to be disclosed under the federal Truth in Lending Act (TILA), but also a description and amount of every fee charged. There are a few fees which under TILA need not be included and disclosed as part of the finance charge. This section is to make it very clear that even if TILA does not require that a fee be included in calculating a finance charge, that state law requires disclosure of every fee or charge in the loan agreement.

In Section 38, the title lender's right to self-help repossession as it exists today under NRS Chapter 104 was restored. Basically, insofar as concerns a default on a title loan, the rights and obligations of the parties under Chapter 104 remain the same with the exception that this bill provides the lender may not seek any deficiency from the customer after a default, repossession, and sale of the vehicle. Even though subsection (3) was deleted from the First Reprint, providing for a return to the customer of any surplus proceeds from the sale of the vehicle, no adverse intent should be inferred therefrom, because existing law under NRS Chapter 104 already provides that a surplus must be returned to the debtor.

Section 44, which is the most important portion of the bill, was rewritten to make it even more clear that after default, the lender may only collect what was legally owed at the time of the default, minus payments, plus interest at prime plus 10 percent. That is it. In other words, no late fees or any other type of fees no matter what innovative term is used to describe them. Treble damages for a bad check cannot be sought. Only one $25 returned check fee can be sought. Interest cannot continue to accrue at the contract rate for an indefinite time because rollovers are limited to 60 days and because, upon default, the interest rate drops to prime plus 10 percent, and the prime plus 10 percent rate is not indefinite either; it is limited to 90 days. At that point, no interest can be charged. Even though, under existing law, treble damages cannot be charged, this was added to make it even clearer that such a legal argument is specious and not allowed.

Lastly, Section 74, which provides for a private right of action for violations of the law, was written. Subparagraph (1) provides a private right of action for violations of certain sections of the act, and for recovery of actual and consequential damages, punitive damages, and attorney's fees and costs. Subparagraph (2) provides for the recovery of statutory damages for violations of certain sections of the act, in addition to any other remedy or penalty. Subparagraphs (3) and (4) provide an affirmative defense and were taken from the language provided in the Federal Truth in Lending Act, at 15 U.S.C. § 1640 (c). It is the intent that case law interpreting that TILA section, and particularly Ninth Circuit case law interpreting that section, be relied on in construing these subparagraphs.

Remarks by Assemblymen Goicoechea, Horne, Giunchigliani, Ocegüera, and Parnell.

Assemblywoman Buckley requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOICOECHEA:

Although I am very supportive of driver's education in high school, I am going to have to rise in opposition to this bill because of the fiscal impact it would create on some school districts that would have to provide driver's education in places like McDermitt, Jackpot, Austin, Gabbs, where you would not have 20 kids in the program. How are they going to afford it? Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN HORNE:

I rise in support of AB 77. I believe, in the bill, we did address the issues of the rurals. They will not be affected. That was addressed in Committee and in Ways and Means. Check in the bill if you like.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOICOECHEA:

Thank you, to my colleague from southern Nevada. I do not see the exemption for any school district as the bill is presently written. I understand that there might be some funding made available, and I would like to see that placed on the record.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:

We inserted, in the grant program, in Assembly Bill 525 that we passed and is over in Senate Finance, for allowance for the driver's education coverage. In addition, for the rural counties, we allowed for them to still use the community college. I took out the word "elective" so it does not have to be a credit class. Therefore, the students could take it on a Saturday during the day, early for early birds, late birds, and that gave the districts the additional flexibility. We were trying to accommodate the rurals, and I think in the initial hearing in Transportation they also made some additional language changes as well.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOICOECHEA:

Thank you, to my colleague from southern Nevada, I appreciate that. I was trying to get into the record the fact that there was some funding made available. However, in these rural districts, I do not care whether it is on Saturday or whatever day of the week, or an elective or not, if you have to drive 100 miles to attend a driver's education class, it is not going to be very productive.

ASSEMBLYMAN OCEGUERA:

There are a few things that are done to correct that, actually. In Assembly Bill 52, the GDL bill, there is a 30-mile provision that is going to be put back in that will say if you cannot get driver's education within 30 miles of that location, then you would be exempted. That was taken out on the Senate side, but in conference we will put it back in. Also, you are allowed to do that in a community college if it is not available at the high school. There is one more, and I cannot think of it, but there are three or four provisions that try to address Mr. Goicoechea's concerns.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN PARNELL:

As a kind of rural legislator as well, I want to point out in Section 1 of the bill, page 3, paragraph (d), it does say that reasonable accommodations will be made for school districts with less than 50,000 in population.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOICOECHEA:

To my colleague from Carson City, I guess what concerns me is, what is reasonable?

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

The Cowboy Hall of Fame

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you. I want to welcome you to the Cowboy Hall of Fame. This is the fourth induction of the Assembly women and men and the support staff into the Nevada Legislature Cowboy Hall of Fame. Induction into the Cowboy Hall of Fame is a coveted award bestowed only on the most deserving. This year, because the urban cowboy, Wendell Williams, is no longer with us, I have enlisted the services of a real cowboy, our own Sergeant at Arms, Terry “Biscuit Roller” Sullivan.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

First, I need to thank the Speaker for allowing me the unprecedented opportunity to speak on the Floor in the Chambers, and you, Mr. Carpenter, for asking me. I am terribly flattered. I need to say one more thing because I am not sure that anyone ever explained to you folks what a cowboy is. Being a cowboy may or may not have anything to do with riding a horse. You can be a cowboy and never ridden a horse, or you could have ridden a horse your whole life and not been a cowboy. Being a cowboy is a state of mind. It is being a gentleman or -woman with ethics and loving a certain way of life that keeps you in the cowboy state of mind. Simply put, you gotta have heart.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Terry, that was great. I think, in order to get us in the cowboy mood, we should have a little western music.

The Assembly members who have been previously inducted, I would like you to stand as I read your name: John “Cowboy” Marvel, Rich “The Kid” Perkins, Lynn “Cool Hand” Hettrick, Chris “Bulldog” Giunchigliani, Moose “Brush Popper” Arberry, Bernard “Bubba” Anderson, Barbara “Buckaroo” Buckley, Genie “Legal Beagle” Ohrenschall, Mark “Range Rider” Manendo, and Steve “Fence Mender” Watson.

The preamble to our Buckaroo Cowboy Hall of Fame is “The Cowboy Way: Write it in your heart. Stand by the code and it will stand by you. Ask no more and give no less than honesty, courage, loyalty, generosity, and fairness, and never forget your constituent’s name.”

TERRY SULLIVAN:

The envelope please, for the first inductee of this most elite group of individuals. That would be Mrs. Ellen “Tin Teepee” Koivisto. Come on down.

Whereas Ellen “Tin Teepee” Koivisto, born in Morris, Minnesota, continuing her education at UNLV, and first elected to the Nevada Legislature in 1997, serving five special and five regular sessions by following the cowboy rule of “A cowboy always sets his hat upside down to catch all of God’s good luck.”

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Don’t you think Ellen is a great-looking cowgirl?

TERRY SULLIVAN:

Mrs. Koivisto will soon be going down the road in her metal camper on wheels, thus the “Tin Teepee” cowboy name, but Mrs. Koivisto could also have been called “Puppy Kicker” Koivisto. It seems to me she hauled around here several days after her puppy-kicking episode. You said you tripped on it, though.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KOIVISTO:

Yes, I did.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

That is your story.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Our next inductee: Whereas, Kathy “Redneck Woman” McClain received her master’s degree from UNLV and has served her constituents for four regular and five special sessions at the Nevada Legislature by following the cowboy rule of “Cowgirl up or shut up.”

Now that “Redneck” McClain is in the Cowboy Hall of Fame, we expect her to rope and hogtie Woody Thorne from the Employees’ Benefit Board and keep him tied down until he cries, “Medicare.”

TERRY SULLIVAN:

And the next inductee is John “Fallon Goat Roper” Ocegüera.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Oh, Biscuit Roller, we must stop the proceedings. The Pony Express just delivered a letter from Las Vegas. It is supposedly from Miss Rodeo America. The contents are questionable. I believe we need to call a cowboy caucus to sort things out.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

I couldn’t agree more.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Well, we voted three to two to put the letter on record. Biscuit, you read your part and I will read my part. It may get so deep in here it will be above our boots.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

This is from Miss Rodeo Nevada.

Dear Assemblyman Carpenter:

This letter is to serve as my official recommendation for Assemblyman John Ocegüera to be admitted to your Legislative Cowboy Hall of Fame.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

As you know, Nevada is the official Rodeo State. As Miss Rodeo Nevada, 2004, I served as the official spokesperson for the professional sport of rodeo. Therefore, no one knows cowboys like I know cowboys, so take it from me, Assemblyman Ocegüera is a cowboy worthy of induction into any hall of fame.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

Assemblyman Ocegüera was officially roped into hosting each Miss Rodeo Nevada State Queen since 2001 at the Nevada Legislature, which, in our world, makes him a true king of queens.

I have to make a comment here. I should have been hosting the rodeo queen. The last time she was here, I invited her out to the ranch and I did it in front of Mr. Ocegüera. She turned me down. I think I was too tall.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Assemblyman Ocegüera not only epitomizes the spirit of the West when wrangling livestock in the open range or in the Nevada Legislature, he always delivers the “cowboy up” attitude while conquering new territory.

Well, what do you think, Biscuit? Does the letter help or hurt his chances?

TERRY SULLIVAN:

Well, I will tell you, there is just a lot of bull in that letter.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

There is a real lot of bull in it, and if she knows real cowboys, the “Goat Roper” just can’t be one.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

Well, I already said what I thought about that.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

And the king of queens, what does that mean? Maybe there was more going on than just a little introduction. Well, we don’t want to disappoint Miss Rodeo America, so let’s do the induction. Come on up.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

Whereas, John “Fallon Goat Roper” Ocegüera, a native Nevadan, graduated at Western Nevada Community College, Truckee Meadows Community College, and UNLV twice, and was first elected to the Nevada Legislature in 2001, serving three regular and five special sessions by following the cowboy rule of “If you’ve done it, it ain’t braggin’.”

Mr. Ocegüera gets his handle from being a true Fallon goat roper. I knew he was the minute I saw the kind of hat he wore. Maybe it was the hat that put the rodeo queen on his side.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Our next inductee: Whereas, Jerry “Mule Deer” Claborn, the co-founder of the Nevada Heavy Highway Committee, forty-four years as an operating engineer, and first elected to the Nevada Legislature in 1999, serving five special and four regular sessions by following the cowboy rule of “When in doubt, ask a horse.”

Whereas, “Mule Deer” Claborn has always wanted to be in the Cowboy Hall of Fame, with his official designation, the noose will only get tighter on Terry Crawford and Bud Radley.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

We are now looking for Sharron “Lone Rider” Angle. Whereas, Sharron “Lone Rider” Angle graduated from Reno’s Wooster High School and the University of Nevada, and first elected to the Nevada Legislature in 1999, serving five special and four regular sessions by following the cowboy rule of “Letting the cat out of the bag is a whole lot easier than putting it back in.”

I don’t think we really need to explain why Mrs. Angle’s new handle is “Lone Rider.” She personifies the independent spirit of the cowboy here.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Our next inductee: Whereas, Sheila “Town Tamer” Leslie, a University of Nevada master’s graduate and first elected to the Nevada Legislature in 1999, serving five special and four regular sessions by following the cowboy rule of “Worry is like a rockin’ horse: It don’t get you nowhere.”

“Town Tamer” Leslie is now not only a member of the Cowboy Hall of Fame, but the official keeper of animals at UNR. Her duties are to feed and care for the cows every day.

TERRY SULLIVAN:

Where is “Git R Done” Parks? Whereas, David “Git R Done” Parks, a UNLV master in business administration graduate, Paradise Town chairman, and first elected to the Nevada Legislature in 1997, serving five regular and five special sessions by following the cowboy rule of “Advice is like castor oil; easy to give, but dreadful to take.”

“Git R Done” Parks seems to have his own way of doing things. It is apparent he believes that words that soak into your ears are whispered, not yelled. Mr. Parks, I don’t often give advice and I don’t think you spend much time herding cows, but if you ever do, my advice to you is always drink upstream from the herd.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Our last inductee: Whereas, Harry “State Parks Rocketman” Mortenson, author of fourteen scientific publications, and first elected to the Nevada Legislature in 1997, serving five regular and five special sessions by following the cowboy rule of “Never approach a bull from the front, a horse from the rear, or a fool from any direction.”

“Parks Man” Mortenson now has his official Hall of Fame sheriff’s badge to keep them park boys in line and his historical objects historical.

That is all of the inductees that we are going to do this year. As you see, this is a very prestigious group. I want to thank Steve Watson and Robin Bates for doing the music and Marilyn Maxfield and the people from the Media Department. It is resolved by the Legislative Cowboy Hall of Fame that these eight members are recognized for their outstanding legislative service and following the cowboy way. Be it further resolved that Ellen “Tin Teepee” Koivisto, Kathy “Redneck Woman” McClain, John “Fallon Goat Roper” Ocegüera, Jerry “Mule Deer” Claborn, Sharron “Lone Rider” Angle, Sheila “Town Tamer” Leslie, David “Git R Done” Parks, and Harry “State Parks Rocketman” Mortenson are hereby inducted into the Nevada Assembly Cowboy Hall of Fame. Let’s give them all a hand.

RICHARD PERKINS.

From: Chairman Nevada Veterans Services Commission. Representing 270,000 Veterans of Nevada. Ron Kruse, Master Chief Petty Officer USN, retired.

I wish to commend this legislative body for the outstanding job that you have accomplished for the Veterans of this great state in this Session.

We Veterans and Legislators accomplished more in this session than any other session during my tenure of 7 years on the Veterans Commission and 13 years of veteran support in this state.

I personally wish to thank Assemblyman Perkins for his leadership and guidance in bringing about the Armed Forces Day Event on May 20, 2005, on the Capitol Mall. I sincerely hope that this will become a legislative event of future years.

I would also like to bring to your attention that three of the members of the Assembly also serve on Veterans Commission and Veterans cemetery committee. Assemblywoman Kathy McClain has served 3 years. I personally commend her for her leadership, guidance, and support of the veterans of Nevada. I salute you, Kathy McClain.

Assemblyman Tom Grady, North Cemetery, Mark Manendo, South Cemetery. I commend you both for your continuing dedication, guidance, leadership, and above all, support. I salute you. It is only through your volunteerism and the veterans organizations that we collectively have been able to move great strides in veterans services in the great state of Nevada. I sincerely hope that this year 2005 is the start of many good things to come in the future for all the veterans of Nevada.

THE ONE-HUNDRED AND EIGHTEENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Saturday), June 4, 2005

Assembly called to order at 10:28 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Terry Sullivan.

Let us pray. Well, Lord, since "Cowboy Hall of Fame" day is over, it would be only proper to ask You for a blessing for all the cowboys in the world and all their horses and their cow dogs and certainly their family and friends. And I believe, Lord, that You know that in our hearts we're all cowboys here. And You also know that in this case the word cowboy is gender neutral. And I want to especially ask for You, Lord, to forgive those makers of the Third House, for as they say, "They know not what they do."

Please make these final few days as short and pleasant as possible and for sure, give us the ability to continue to think clearly as we have in the past. We ask for these blessings and other matters in whose name we pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Ocegüera moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

Conference Amendment No. CA9.

Amend section 1, pages 3 through 5, by deleting lines 2 through 40 on page 3, lines 1 through 43 on page 4 and lines 1 through 16 on page 5, and inserting:

“125.480 1. In determining custody of a minor child in an action brought under this chapter, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. If it appears to the court that joint custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may grant custody to the parties jointly.

2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

3. The court shall award custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise:

(a) To both parents jointly pursuant to NRS 125.490 or to either parent. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application. ~~[When awarding custody to either parent, the court shall consider, among other factors, which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.]~~

(b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

(c) To any person related within the third degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

(d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider ~~[]~~ and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

(a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his custody. ~~[]~~

(b) Any nomination by a parent or a guardian for the child. ~~[] and []~~

(c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

(d) The level of conflict between the parents.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

(i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

(k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS 125C.210, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint custody of the child by the perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall, if possible, then determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

(c) The likelihood of future injury;

(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self-defense; and

(e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the determination.

In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies to both parties. If it is possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.

7. As used in this section, “domestic violence” means the commission of any act described in NRS 33.018.”.

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sec. 13 and the text of the repealed section.

Amend the title of the bill by deleting the first through third lines and inserting:

“AN ACT relating to domestic relations; revising provisions concerning the considerations of the court in determining the best interests of a child for the purpose of determining custody of the child;”.

Assemblyman Anderson moved that the Assembly adopt the report of the first Conference Committee concerning Assembly Bill No. 51.

Remarks by Assemblymen Anderson and Buckley.

Assemblyman Ocegüera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

This amendment deletes Section 13 of the bill, which repealed NRS 125.490. The current presumption that joint custody is in the best interest of the child when the parents had agreed to joint custody will not change, thus maintaining that joint custody will be the first priority. It also removes new language adding subsection 3 of Section 1 of the bill concerning joint custody, because in returning the repealed section it is necessary. Third, it keeps the language in subsection 4 of Section 1, setting forth the specific findings concerning the best interest of the child.

Also, keeping the list of factors that were agreed to by the court, but it deletes paragraph (k), which would require the court to make findings about the ability of each parent to prioritize the needs of the child.

Section 1 of A.B. 51 with the above-described changes is what the Conference agreed to.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUCKLEY:

With regard to the bottom line of page 1, in deleting, “When awarding custody to either parent, the court shall consider, among other factors, which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.” I see that has been dropped down so that it is now subsection 4 (c) on the second page. I believe this is the doctrine whereby you want the parent to encourage the relationship and the visits with the other parent and, if you think that other parent might not want to do that, that can be a factor in who you give initial custody to, and that is the way the law is now, as I understand it. In moving it, now that has to be one of the factors in deciding whether the best interest of the child has been met. In the opinion of the Conference Committee, does that give the same existing weight for a court to be able to consider these factors in determining where a child would go?

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

The ability of the court to determine factors is unchanged with this modification. It merely lists those factors that the court should take into consideration. I have a mock-up of the new language and in part 4, in determining the best interest (a) the wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age; (b) any nomination by a parent or guardian; and (c) which parent is most likely to allow. Those are the factors that would come forward. In the subsection 3, “The court shall award custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise” will be retained. So both parties will still remain as (a).

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUCKLEY:

Am I correct in assuming that it is the Conference Committee’s intent that existing case law regarding this issue would not be changed?

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

It is the clearly the intent that existing case law would not be in any way endangered by this new additional language, which the court had suggested is its normal process and procedure. We are merely setting it forth into statutory language.

Assembly called to order at 10:30 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Terry Sullivan.

Let us pray. In this final prayer that I will give this session Lord, we just ask You that You continue to keep us all—legislators, lobbyists, attachés, interns, full-time staff, and, yes, even those folks at the north end of the building—in Your heart. Keep us all safe and in good spirits and allow us to keep the good friends we’ve made here. And if we didn’t make friends with everyone let us at least remember only the best situations and dull our minds to those incidents that were unpleasant to us.

And Lord, please give an extra blessing to these legislators who epitomize the term “public servants.” There are a lot of folks who work in government who are referred to as public servants, but these legislators are the only ones I know of who do it without pay. And we ask once more that You send us safely home to our family and friends, our dogs, our cats, our horses, and even our goldfish, if that’s the case. And we ask these things in whose name we pray.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Ocegüera moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

At the discretion of the utility, the credit*

may be in a dollar amount or in kilowatt hours. If the credit is reflected as excess electricity and the customer-generator is billed for electricity pursuant to a time-of-use rate schedule, the excess electricity carried forward must be added to the same time-of-use period as the time-of-use period in which it was generated unless the subsequent billing period lacks a corresponding time-of-use period. In that case, the excess electricity carried forward must be apportioned evenly among the available time-of-use periods. Excess electricity may be carried forward to subsequent billing periods indefinitely, but a customer-generator is not entitled to receive compensation for any excess electricity that remains if the net metering system ceases to operate or is disconnected from the utility's transmission and distribution facilities, the customer-generator ceases to be a customer of the utility at the premises served by the net metering system or the customer-generator transfers the net metering system to another person."

"(3) The excess electricity which is fed back to the utility shall be deemed to be electricity that the utility generated or acquired from a renewable energy system for the purposes of complying with its portfolio standard pursuant to NRS 704.7801 to 704.7828, inclusive."

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sec. 8 as sec. 10 and adding new sections designated sections 8 and 9, following sec. 7, to read as follows:

"Sec. 8. NRS 278.160 is hereby amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 11. The Legislature hereby declares that wind energy is a clean, renewable energy source, the use of which must be promoted. Regional planning is needed for communities to choose good turbine locations where wind is available. The provisions of this act allow the governing bodies of cities and counties to promote the use of this renewable resource while promoting the general welfare by regulating the location, height and noise level of wind turbines, as well as the parcel size on which turbines may be placed. The provisions of this act require cities and counties to balance the effects that wind turbines have on the environment through the existing master plan and zoning process.”.

Conference Amendment No. CA37.

Amend the bill as a whole by renumbering sections 1 through 11 as sections 12 through 22 and adding new sections designated sections 1 through 11, following the enacting clause, to read as follows:

“Section 1. Chapter 432A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2, 3 and 4 of this act.

Sec. 2. “Accommodation facility” means a child care facility which is operated:

1. By a business that is licensed to conduct a business other than the provision of care to children; and

2. As an auxiliary service provided for the customers of the primary business.

Sec. 3. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 and unless excused because of religious belief or medical condition, a child may not be admitted to any accommodation facility within this State, including an accommodation facility licensed by a county or city, unless his parents or guardian submit to the operator of the accommodation facility written documentation stating that the child has been immunized and has received proper boosters for that immunization or is complying with the schedules established by regulation pursuant to NRS 439.550 for the diseases set forth in subsection 1 of NRS 432A.230. The written documentation required pursuant to this subsection must be:

(a) A letter signed by a licensed physician stating that the child has been immunized and received boosters or is complying with the schedules;

(b) A record from a public school or private school which establishes that a child is enrolled in the school and has satisfied the requirements for immunization for enrollment in the school pursuant to NRS 392.435 or 394.192; or

(c) Any other documentation from a local health officer which proves that the child has been immunized and received boosters or is complying with the schedules.

2. A child whose parent or guardian has not established a permanent residence in the county in which an accommodation facility is located and whose history of immunization cannot be immediately confirmed by the written documentation required pursuant to subsection 1 may enter the accommodation facility conditionally if the parent or guardian:

(a) Agrees to submit within 15 days the documentation required pursuant to subsection 1; and

(b) Submits proof that he has not established a permanent residence in the county in which the facility is located.

3. If the documentation required pursuant to subsection 1 is not submitted to the operator of the accommodation facility within 15 days after the child was conditionally admitted, the child must be excluded from the facility.

4. Before December 31 of each year, each accommodation facility shall report to the Health Division of the Department, on a form furnished by the Division, the exact number of children who have:

(a) Been admitted conditionally to the accommodation facility; and

(b) Completed the immunizations required by this section.

5. To the extent that the Board or an agency for the licensing of child care facilities established by a county or city requires a child care facility to maintain proof of immunization of a child admitted to the facility, the Board or agency shall authorize a business which operates more than one accommodation facility to maintain proof of immunization of a child admitted to any accommodation facility of the business at a single location of the business. The documentation must be accessible by each accommodation facility of the business.

Sec. 4. 1. To the extent that the Board or an agency for the licensing of child care facilities established by a county or city requires a child care facility to make available a minimum amount of space per child in the facility, an accommodation facility may include the space occupied by any recreational toys that are used in the accommodation facility in satisfying the requirement for the minimum amount of space per child in the facility.

2. To the extent that the Board or an agency for the licensing of child care facilities established by a county or city requires a child care facility to make available a minimum number of toilets per child in the facility, the Board or agency shall adjust the number of toilets per child required in an accommodation facility to a number that is appropriate for accommodation facilities, taking into account the unique nature of such facilities.

3. An accommodation facility shall permit each parent or guardian of a child who is receiving care in the accommodation facility to attend to the needs of the child if the parent or guardian does so in an area of a bathroom facility that is designated for use by one person.

Sec. 5. NRS 432A.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

432A.020 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 432A.021 to 432A.028, inclusive, and section 2 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 6. NRS 432A.220 is hereby amended to read as follows:

432A.220 Any person who operates a child care facility without a license issued pursuant to NRS 432A.131 to 432A.220, inclusive, and section 4 of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 7. NRS 432A.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

432A.230 Except as otherwise provided in section 3 of this act for accommodation facilities:

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 and unless excused because of religious belief or medical condition, a child may not be admitted to any child care facility within this State, including a facility licensed by a county or city, unless his parents or guardian submit to the operator of the facility a certificate stating that the child has been immunized and has received proper boosters for that immunization or is complying with the schedules established by regulation pursuant to NRS 439.550 for the following diseases:

- (b) Tetanus;
- (c) Pertussis if the child is under 6 years of age;
- (d) Poliomyelitis;
- (e) Rubella;

2. The certificate must show that the required vaccines and boosters were given and must bear the signature of a licensed physician or his designee or a registered nurse or his designee, attesting that the certificate accurately reflects the child's record of immunization.

3. A child whose parent or guardian has not established a permanent residence in the county in which a child care facility is located and whose history of immunization cannot be immediately confirmed by a physician in this State or a local health officer, may enter the child care facility conditionally if the parent or guardian:

(a) Agrees to submit within 15 days a certificate from a physician or local health officer that the child has received or is receiving the required immunizations; and

(b) Submits proof that he has not established a permanent residence in the county in which the facility is located.

4. If a certificate from the physician or local health officer showing that the child has received or is receiving the required immunizations is not submitted to the operator of the child care facility within 15 days after the child was conditionally admitted, the child must be excluded from the facility.

5. Before December 31 of each year, each child care facility shall report to the Health Division of the Department, on a form furnished by the Division, the exact number of children who have:

(a) Been admitted conditionally to the child care facility; and

(b) Completed the immunizations required by this section.

Sec. 8. NRS 432A.240 is hereby amended to read as follows:

432A.240 If the religious belief of a child's parents or guardian prohibits the immunization of the child as required by NRS 432A.230 ~~or~~ or section 3 of this act, a written statement of this fact signed by the parents or guardian and presented to the operator of the facility exempts the child from the provisions of that section for purposes of admission.

Sec. 9. NRS 432A.250 is hereby amended to read as follows:

432A.250 If the medical condition of a child will not permit him to be immunized to the extent required by NRS 432A.230 ~~or~~ or section 3 of this act, a written statement of this fact signed by a licensed physician and presented to the operator of the facility by the parents or guardian of such child exempts such child from all or part of the provisions of NRS 432A.230 ~~or~~ or section 3 of this act, as the case may be, for purposes of admission.

Sec. 10. NRS 432A.260 is hereby amended to read as follows:

432A.260 If, after a child has been admitted to a child care facility, including a facility licensed by a county or city, additional immunization requirements are provided by law, the child's parents or guardian shall submit an additional certificate or certificates or, if the facility is an accommodation facility, additional written documentation in a form authorized pursuant to section 3 of this act to the operator of the facility stating that such child has met the new immunization requirements.

Sec. 11. NRS 432A.280 is hereby amended to read as follows:

432A.280 Any parent or guardian who refuses to remove his child from the child care facility to which he has been admitted when retention in the facility is prohibited under the provisions of NRS 432A.230, 432A.260 or 432A.270 or section 3 of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor.”.

Amend section 1, page 2, line 2, by deleting: “2 and 3” and inserting: “13 and 14”.

Amend sec. 3, page 3, by deleting lines 10 through 20 and inserting:

“Sec. 14. 1. *An agency which provides child welfare services shall provide training to each person who is employed by the agency and who provides child welfare services. All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Reverend Ruth Hanusa.

O God, we thank You for all the gifts of the Legislative Session: for friendships that formed bonds for life; for uneasy alliances that kept us on our toes; for your gracious care that sustained us these several months; for Your loving protection of our families while we've been apart; for the chance to participate in democracy, the boldest experiment in governing of all time. For all this, and more, we thank You. And still we ask You a blessing for this day, too: for the patience of Job, who, however, was not very patient, but as he wrestled, continued to trust You and expect every good. Give us patience with our process, patience with each other and patience with ourselves, trusting You for every good. And, at the end of this day, let us be able to say, "We done good."

AMEN.

“Sec. 9. The governing body of a municipality shall not adopt an ordinance pursuant to section 8 of this act unless:

1. If the ordinance:

(a) Creates a district, the governing body has determined that no retailers will have maintained or will be maintaining a fixed place of business within the district on or within the 120 days immediately preceding the date of the adoption of the ordinance; or

(b) Amends the boundaries of the district to add any additional area, the governing body has determined that no retailers will have maintained or will be maintaining a fixed place of business within that area on or within 120 days immediately preceding the date of the adoption of the ordinance.

2. The governing body has made a written finding at a public hearing that the project will benefit the district.

3. The governing body has made a written finding at a public hearing, based upon reports from independent consultants which were addressed to the governing body, to the board of county commissioners, if the governing body is not the board of county commissioners for the county in which the tourism district is or will be located, and to the board of trustees of the school district in which the tourism improvement district is or will be located, as to whether the project and the financing thereof pursuant to this chapter will have a positive fiscal effect on the provision of local governmental services, after considering:

(a) The amount of the proceeds of all taxes and other governmental revenue projected to be received as a result of the properties and businesses expected to be located in the district;

(b) The use of any money proposed to be pledged pursuant to section 8 of this act;

(c) Any increase in costs for the provision of local governmental services, including, without limitation, services for education, including operational and capital costs, and services for police protection and fire protection, as a result of the project and the development of land within the district; and

(d) Estimates of any increases in the proceeds from sales and use taxes collected by retailers located outside of the district and of any displacement of the proceeds from sales and use taxes collected by those retailers, as a result of the properties and businesses expected to be located in the district.

4. The governing body has, at least 45 days before making the written finding required by subsection 3, provided to the board of trustees of the school district in which the tourism improvement district is or will be located:

(a) Written notice of the time and place of the meeting at which the governing body will consider making that written finding; and

(b) Each analysis prepared by or for or presented to the governing body regarding the fiscal effect of the project and the use of any money proposed to be pledged pursuant to section 8 of this act on the provision of local governmental services, including education.

After the receipt of the notice required by this subsection and before the date of the meeting at which the governing body will consider making the written finding required by subsection 3, the board of trustees shall conduct a hearing regarding the fiscal effect on the school district, if any, of the project and the use of any money proposed to be pledged pursuant to section

8 of this act, and may submit to the governing body of the municipality any comments regarding that fiscal effect. The governing body shall consider those comments when making any written finding pursuant to subsection 3 and shall consider those comments when considering the terms of any agreement pursuant to section 12 of this act.

5. If the governing body is not the board of county commissioners for the county in which the tourism district is or will be located, the governing body has, at least 45 days before making the written finding required by subsection 3, provided to the board of county commissioners in the county in which the tourism improvement district is or will be located:

(a) Written notice of the time and place of the meeting at which the governing body will consider making that written finding; and

(b) Each analysis prepared by or for or presented to the governing body regarding the fiscal effect of the project and the use of any money proposed to be pledged pursuant to section 8 of this act on the provision of local governmental services.

After the receipt of the notice required by this subsection and before the date of the meeting at which the governing body will consider making the written finding required by subsection 3, the board of county commissioners may conduct a hearing regarding the fiscal effect on local governmental services, if any, of the project and the use of any money proposed to be pledged pursuant to section 8 of this act, and may submit to the governing body of the municipality any comments regarding that fiscal effect. The governing body may consider those comments when making any written finding pursuant to subsection 3 and shall consider those comments when considering the terms of any agreement pursuant to section 12 of this act.

6. The governing body has determined, at a public hearing conducted at least 15 days after providing notice of the hearing by publication, that:

(a) As a result of the project:

(1) Retailers will locate their businesses as such in the district; and

(2) There will be a substantial increase in the proceeds from sales and use taxes remitted by retailers with regard to tangible personal property sold at retail, or stored, used or otherwise consumed, in the district; and

(b) A preponderance of that increase in the proceeds from sales and use taxes will be attributable to transactions with tourists who are not residents of this State.

7. The Commission on Tourism has determined, at a public hearing conducted at least 15 days after providing notice of the hearing by publication, that a preponderance of the increase in the proceeds from sales and use taxes identified pursuant to subsection 6 will be attributable to transactions with tourists who are not residents of this State.

8. The Governor has determined that the project and the use of any money proposed to be pledged pursuant to section 8 of this act will contribute significantly to economic development and tourism in this State. Before making that determination, the Governor:

(a) Must consider the fiscal effects of the pledge of money on educational funding, including any fiscal effects described in comments provided pursuant to subsection 4 by the school district in which the tourism improvement district is or will be located, and for that purpose may require the Department of Education or the Department of Taxation, or both, to provide him with an appropriate fiscal report; and

(b) If the Governor determines that the pledge of money will have a substantial adverse fiscal effect on educational funding, may require a commitment from the municipality for the provision of specified payments to the school district in which the tourism improvement district is or will be located during the term of the use of any money pledged pursuant to section 8 this act. The payments may be provided pursuant to agreements with owners of property within the district authorized by section 12 of this act or from sources other than the owners of property within the district. Such a commitment by a municipality is not subject to the limitations of subsection 1 of NRS 354.626 and, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, is binding on the municipality for the term of the use of any money pledged pursuant to section 8 of this act.

9. If any property within the boundaries of the district is also included within the boundaries of any other tourism improvement district or any improvement district for which any money has been pledged pursuant to NRS 271.650, all the governing bodies which created those districts have entered into an interlocal agreement providing for:

(a) The apportionment of any money pledged pursuant to section 8 of this act and NRS 271.650 with respect to such property; and

(b) The priority of the application of that money between:

(1) Bonds issued pursuant to chapter 271 of NRS; and

(2) Bonds and notes issued, and agreements entered into, pursuant to section 13 of this act.

Any such agreement for the priority of the application of that money may be made irrevocable during the term of any bonds issued pursuant to chapter 271 of NRS to which all or any portion of that money is pledged, or during the term of any bonds or notes issued or any agreements entered into pursuant to section 13 of this act to which all or any portion of that money is pledged.”.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Giunchigliani.

Assemblywoman Giunchigliani requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal.

I just want to note, for the record, contained within this legislation is an addition with the whole restructuring of the property tax and the reduction for our taxpayers. We also commensurately reduced how much goes into the Distributive School Account for the local districts. We just wanted to make sure that everybody knew that what we also added here, as a qualification, that, if because we reground those numbers it was not accurate, the districts would be held harmless and the State would be obligated to make up those dollars when they redid it. We made this be put on the record in the Ways and Means Committee, but we also wanted to do so here, as well. As they ran their numbers through their formula, some of the rural counties notified us that we might have a problem, and we wanted to make sure that, for the record, the state is obligated to make up that General Fund any property tax loss and if there was one, the districts would be made whole.

Secondly, I would also say that this is a good piece of legislation in that it helps get us home, and most importantly, it does take care of our school districts. We made some gains in the per-pupil funding and we tried to deal with textbook inflation, which was very good, as we have not had that in the past, some things that really are the core for our students and their parents. I commend my colleagues on Ways and Means for having worked on this manner. I urge your support.

Conference Amendment No. CA15.

Amend sec. 32, page 21, by deleting lines 5 through 26 and inserting:

“Sec. 32. 1. For the purposes of NRS 361A.220, the value for open-space use of real property used as a golf course in a fiscal year is equal to the sum of:

2. The Nevada Tax Commission shall establish a manual for determining the value for open-space use of real property used as a golf course. The manual must:

(a) Require the use of such standards and modifiers, as published or furnished by the Marshall and Swift Publication Company, as the Nevada Tax Commission determines to be applicable.

(b) For the purpose of determining the value of the land, define various classifications of golf courses and provide for the valuation of each such classification in a manner that is consistent with the provisions of NRS 361.227, except that the value of the land must not be determined to exceed the product of $2,860 per acre multiplied by 1 plus the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index (All Items) for July 1 of the current year as compared to July 1, 2004.

(c) For the purpose of determining the value of the improvements made to the real property, require the use of such factors as the Nevada Tax Commission determines to be appropriate. Those factors must include, for the purpose of determining obsolescence, a factor for golf courses that are not used on a consistently frequent basis each month of the year, which is based upon the actual number of rounds of golf played on the golf course in relation to the number of rounds that could have been played under optimum conditions.”.

244.283 1. When the board of county commissioners determines that the lease of real property belonging to the county for industrial, commercial, residential or recreational purposes is necessary or desirable, the board may lease such real property, whether acquired by purchase, dedication or otherwise. Such a lease must not be in contravention of any condition in a gift or devise of real property to the county.

2. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 244.279, before ordering the lease of any property the board shall, in open meeting by a majority vote of the members, adopt a resolution declaring its intention to lease the property. The resolution must:

(b) Specify the minimum rental, and the terms upon which it will be leased.

(a) Posting copies of the resolution in three public places in the county not less than 15 days before the date of the meeting; and

4. At the time and place fixed in the resolution for the meeting of the board, all sealed proposals which have been received must, in public session, be opened, examined and declared by the board. Of the proposals submitted which conform to all terms and conditions specified in the resolution of intention to lease and which are made by responsible bidders, the proposal which is the highest must be finally accepted, unless a higher oral bid is accepted or the board rejects all bids.

5. Before accepting any written proposal, the board shall call for oral bids. If, upon the call for oral bidding, any responsible person offers to lease the property upon the terms and conditions specified in the resolution, for a rental exceeding by at least 5 percent the highest written proposal, then the highest oral bid which is made by a responsible person must be finally accepted.

6. A person may not make an oral bid unless, at least 5 days before the meeting held for receiving and considering bids, he submits to the board written notice of his intent to make an oral bid and a statement establishing his financial responsibility to the satisfaction of the board.

7. The final acceptance by the board may be made either at the same session or at any adjourned session of the same meeting held within the ~~{40}~~ 21 days next following.

Sec. 52.6. Section 13 of Assembly Bill No. 312 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13. 1. If a governing body has determined by resolution that the sale or lease of any real property owned by the city will be in the best interest of the city, it

(2) The minimum price, if applicable, of the real property proposed to be sold or leased; and

(3) The places at which the resolution described in subsection 1 has been posted pursuant to paragraph (a), and any other places at which copies of that resolution may be obtained.

If no qualified newspaper is published within the county in which the real property is located, the required notice must be published in some qualified newspaper printed in the State of Nevada and having a general circulation within that county.

3. If the governing body by its resolution finds additionally that the real property to be sold is worth more than $1,000, the board shall conduct an appraisal pursuant to section 12 of this act to determine the value of the real property and, except for real property acquired pursuant to NRS 371.047, shall not sell or lease it for less than the highest appraised value.

4. If the real property is appraised at $1,000 or more, the governing body may:

(2) Not less than 25 percent cash down and upon deferred payments over a period of not more than 10 years, secured by a mortgage or deed of trust bearing such interest and upon such further terms as the governing body may specify.

5. A governing body may sell or lease any real property owned by the city without complying with the provisions of sections 12, 13 and 14 of this act to:

(2) The sale or lease will be in the best interest of the city.

(b) Another governmental entity if:

(1) The sale or lease restricts the use of the real property to a public use; and

(2) The governing body adopts a resolution finding that the sale or lease will be in the best interest of the city.

6. A governing body that disposes of real property pursuant to subsection 5 is not required to offer to reconvey the real property to the person from whom the real property was received or acquired by donation or dedication.

7. If real property that is offered for sale or lease pursuant to this section is not sold or leased at the initial offering of the contract for the sale or lease of the real property, the governing body may offer the real property for sale or lease a second time pursuant to this section. If there is a material change relating to the title, zoning or an ordinance governing the use of the real property, the governing body must obtain a new appraisal of the real property pursuant to the provisions of section 12 of this act before offering the real property for sale or lease a second time. If real property that is offered for sale or lease pursuant to this section is not sold or leased at the second offering of the contract for the sale or lease of the real property, the governing body may list the real property for sale or lease at the appraised value with a licensed real estate broker, provided that the broker or a person related to the broker within the first degree of consanguinity or affinity does not have an interest in the real property or an adjoining property.

Sec. 52.7. Section 14 of Assembly Bill No. 312 of this session is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and section 15 of this act and NRS 268.048 to 268.058, inclusive, and 278.479 to 278.4965, inclusive, except as otherwise required by federal law, except as otherwise required pursuant to a cooperative agreement entered into pursuant to NRS 277.050 or 277.053 or an interlocal agreement in existence on October 1, 2004, except if the governing body is entering into a joint development agreement for real property owned by the city to which the governing body is a party, except for a lease of residential property with a term of 1 year or less and except for the sale or lease of real property larger than 1 acre which is approved by the voters at a primary or general election, the governing body shall, in open meeting by a majority vote of the members and before ordering the sale or lease at auction of any real property, adopt a resolution declaring its intention to sell or lease the property at auction. The resolution must:

(a) Describe the property proposed to be sold or leased in such a manner as to identify it;

(b) Specify the minimum price and the terms upon which the property will be sold or leased; and

(c) Fix a time, not less than 3 weeks thereafter, for a public meeting of the governing body to be held at its regular place of meeting, at which sealed bids will be received and considered.

2. Notice of the adoption of the resolution and of the time and place of holding the meeting must be given by:

(a) Posting copies of the resolution in three public places in the county not less than 15 days before the date of the meeting; and

(1) A description of the real property proposed to be sold or leased at auction in such a manner as to identify it;

(2) The minimum price of the real property proposed to be sold or leased at auction; and

(3) The places at which the resolution described in subsection 1 has been posted pursuant to paragraph (a), and any other places at which copies of that resolution may be obtained.

If no qualified newspaper is published within the county in which the real property is located, the required notice must be published in some qualified newspaper printed in the State of Nevada and having a general circulation within that county.

3. At the time and place fixed in the resolution for the meeting of the board, all sealed bids which have been received must, in public session, be opened, examined and declared by the governing body. Of the proposals submitted which conform to all terms and conditions specified in the resolution of intention to sell or lease and which are made by responsible bidders, the bid which is the highest must be finally accepted, unless a higher oral bid is accepted or the governing body rejects all bids.

4. Before accepting any written bid, the governing body shall call for oral bids. If, upon the call for oral bidding, any responsible person offers to buy or lease the property upon the terms and conditions specified in the resolution, for a price exceeding by at least 5 percent the highest written bid, then the highest oral bid which is made by a responsible person must be finally accepted.

5. The final acceptance by the governing body may be made either at the same session or at any adjourned session of the same meeting held within the 21 days next following.

6. The governing body may, either at the same session or at any adjourned session of the same meeting held within the 21 days next following, if it deems the action to be for the best public interest, reject any and all bids, either written or oral, and withdraw the property from sale or lease.

7. Any resolution of acceptance of any bid made by the governing body must authorize and direct the chairman to execute a deed or lease and to deliver it upon performance and compliance by the purchaser or lessor with all the terms or conditions of his contract which are to be performed concurrently therewith.

Such a project must be constructed in accordance with the standard underground practices and procedures approved by the Public Utilities Commission of Nevada.

482.367008 1. As used in this section, “special license plate” means:

Such additional designs must be issued by the Department in accordance with the chronological order of their authorization or approval.*

3. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, on October 1 of each year the Department shall assess the viability of each separate design of special license plate that the Department is currently issuing by determining the total number of validly registered motor vehicles to which that design of special license plate is affixed. the Director shall provide notice of that fact in the manner described in subsection 5.

5. The notice required pursuant to subsection 4 must be provided:

(a) If the special license plate generates financial support for a cause or charitable organization, to that cause or charitable organization.

(b) If the special license plate does not generate financial support for a cause or charitable organization, to an entity which is involved in promoting the activity, place or other matter that is depicted on the plate.

6. If, on December 31 of the same year in which notice was provided pursuant to subsections 4 and 5, the total number of validly registered motor vehicles to which a particular design of special license plate is affixed is:

the Director shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, issue an order providing that the Department will no longer issue that particular design of special license plate. Such an order does not require existing holders of that particular design of special license plate to surrender their plates to the Department and does not prohibit those holders from renewing those plates.

Sec. 3. NRS 482.36705 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.36705 1. (a) The cost of the property sold. However, in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Tax Commission may prescribe, a deduction may be taken if the retailer has purchased property for some other purpose than resale, has reimbursed his vendor for tax which the vendor is required to pay to the State or has paid the use tax with respect to the property, and has resold the property ~~{prior to}~~ before making any use of the property other than retention, demonstration or display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business. If such a deduction is taken by the retailer, no refund or credit will be allowed to his vendor with respect to the sale of the property.

(c) The price received for labor or services used in installing or applying the property sold.

(d) The amount of any tax , ~~{(}~~ not including ~~{, however,}~~ any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax , ~~{)}~~ imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales , whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(e) The amount of any allowance against the selling price given by a retailer for the value of a used vehicle which is taken in trade on the purchase of another vehicle.

4. For purposes of the sales tax, if the retailers establish to the satisfaction of the Tax Commission that the sales tax has been added to the total amount of the sale price and has not been absorbed by them, the total amount of the sale price shall be deemed to be the amount received exclusive of the tax imposed.

Sec. 5. This Act becomes effective on January 1, 2007.

Sec. 31. The ballot page assemblies and the paper ballots to be used in voting on the question must present the question in substantially the following form:

Shall the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 be amended to exempt from the taxes imposed by this Act on the gross receipts from the sale and the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property, the value of any used vehicle taken in trade on the purchase of another vehicle and to exempt from the taxes imposed by this Act on the gross receipts from the sale and the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property, the value of farm machinery and equipment?

Yes ☐ No ☐

Sec. 32. The explanation of the question which must appear on each paper ballot and sample ballot and in every publication and posting of notice of the question must be in substantially the following form:

(Explanation of Question)

The proposed amendment to the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 would exempt from the taxes imposed by this Act on the gross receipts from the sale and the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property, the value of any used vehicle taken in trade on the purchase of another vehicle and the value of farm machinery and equipment. The Legislature has amended the Local School Support Tax Law and the City-County Relief Tax Law to provide the same exemption for farm machinery and equipment if this proposal is adopted.

Sec. 33. If a majority of the votes cast on the question submitted to the voters is yes, the amendment to the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 becomes effective on January 1, 2007. If less than a majority of votes cast on the question submitted to the voters is yes, the question fails and the amendment to the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 does not become effective.

Sec. 34. All general election laws not inconsistent with this act are applicable.

Sec. 35. Any informalities, omissions or defects in the content or making of the publications, proclamations or notices provided for in this act and by the general election laws under which this election is held must be so construed as not to invalidate the adoption of the act by a majority of the registered voters voting on the question if it can be ascertained with reasonable certainty from the official returns transmitted to the Office of the Secretary of State whether the proposed amendment was adopted by a majority of those registered voters.”.

Amend sec. 15, page 9, by deleting line 35 and inserting:

“Sec. 36. 1. NRS 368A.130 and 368A.210 are hereby repealed.

2. NRS 374.107 is hereby repealed.

3. Sections 58 and 59 of Chapter 400, Statutes of Nevada 2003, at page 2371, are hereby repealed.”.

Amend sec. 16, page 9, by deleting line 36 and inserting:

“Sec. 37. 1. This section becomes effective upon passage and approval.

2. Section 22 of this act:

(a) Becomes effective upon passage and approval for the purpose of adopting regulations and on July 1, 2005, for all other purposes; and

(b) Expires by limitation on December 21, 2005.

3. Sections 1 to 12, inclusive, 15, 16, 20 and subsection 1 of section 36 of this act become effective on July 1, 2005.

4. Sections 25 to 35, inclusive, and subsection 3 of section 36 of this act become effective on October 1, 2005.

5. Sections 13 and 23 of this act become effective on January 1, 2006.

6. Sections 14, 17, 21 and 24 of this act become effective on January 1, 2007, only if the proposal submitted pursuant to sections 28 to 35, inclusive, of this act is approved by the voters at the General Election on November 7, 2006.

7. Sections 18, 19 and subsection 2 of section 36 of this act become effective on January 1, 2007, only if the proposal submitted pursuant to sections 28 to 35, inclusive, of this act is not approved by the voters at the General Election on November 7, 2006.”.

Amend the text of repealed sections by adding the text of NRS 374.107 and Sections 58 and 59 of Chapter 400, Statutes of Nevada 2003.

Amend the title of the bill, eighth line, after “property;” by inserting: “revising the provisions governing the application of sales and use taxes to retail sales of vehicles for which used vehicles are taken in trade; revising the provisions governing the application of sales and use taxes to retail sales of farm machinery and equipment; providing for the submission to the voters of the question whether the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 should be amended to provide an exemption from the tax for sales of vehicles for which used vehicles are taken in trade and for farm machinery and equipment; providing exemptions from certain analogous taxes;”.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblywoman Buckley requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUCKLEY:

Well, it's the end of the regular Session. For the last hour or so, maybe two, maybe three, maybe four, we have been working very hard on the Millennium Scholarship changes. We have been trying to do what we can to preserve the program and make our existing resources stretch as far as we can but not to do it at the expense of just making cuts and taking very deserving hardworking students and separating them from the scholarships.

I want to thank all the members of this Body who worked on very reasonable compromises. I really enjoyed being in sync with my Assembly Republican colleagues in trying to work something very reasonable. I really enjoy when we work well together and make good suggestions to try to get things done. I regret that we were unable to achieve that same success across the hall.

You know what—to just cut somebody's scholarship by a quarter when they are doing well and say, "We are doing it to conserve the program," there is another way to describe that, and that is, “We are cutting deserving hardworking kids off their scholarships.” I am not going to be a part of that. I think the Millennium Scholarship works. I think we should do everything we can to continue our goal of improving our college graduation rate.

When we started this program, there were no incentives, and we had one of the worst rates of high school students going to college. We are at a crossroads right now. Do we want to say, “Let’s just throw that all away,” because we want to withdraw our commitment to it, or do we want to improve it? Do we want to refine it but still consider the kids for which this program was created? I am siding with the kids, and I would like to thank this entire House for standing up for the students and standing behind Governor Guinn in trying to make this the best program it can be.

I do not know quite what we are going to do right now, Mr. Speaker. I believe the Governor is going to consider whether he extends our time and to allow us to consider this measure, or whether we just go home. I think likely we will have that decision very soon.

Mr. Speaker, I really wanted to just take a moment and to thank you. If the rumors are correct, you are not running for reelection to the State Assembly, so this would mark your last Session with the Nevada Legislature and your last Session as Speaker. I would be remiss if I did not take the opportunity to thank you for who you are and to thank you for the job that you have done, whether it was your work on bills, Amber Alert, Homeland Security, pushing full-day kindergarten, the rousing speech you gave us to start this Session, making sure that this Session put behind the acrimony that we had from last Session, and saying, “Let’s not forget what makes Nevada special. We don’t do things in the Washington, D.C. manner. We have a way of operating ourselves.” You made that happen.

I also want to thank you for your friendship to me, and to so many in this Body. You gave me the chance. People joke and they say, “Oh, you are running things. You’re doing this and you are doing that.” What they do not know is you let me do that. There are a lot of people who say, “No, I have to control every single thing. I want to hog the show,” but that is just not your style. You have a style of grace, calm consensus. It is easy to be the bomb-thrower to get the quote. It is harder to say, “This institution matters more. I am going to set an example through bipartisanship, caring, and compassion.” I think sometimes you lose politically when you put the policy before the politics, but how many times this past week have I said, “Why don’t you do this?” and you said, “You know what—it is not worth it. It is better to do the right thing for the right reason than to try to grab a quick headline.”

I want to thank you, and I would like to thank you on behalf of everybody in this Body and everybody whose lives you have improved by your service in this Body. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

Thank you very much. This Legislature has been a great part of my life. I came in together with Minority Leader Hettrick. We have worked together a long time. I certainly appreciate your work—particularly this Session, with us coming together and putting last Session behind us. In 1993, as freshmen, it was an interesting year for us. The 1995 Session was even more interesting, with an evenly split house and with co-speakers and co-chairmen. It was doomed to failure by this media, but we did a good job. I looked to you and to Speaker Dini for that leadership. In Ms. Buckley’s first session we revised the Criminal Code. In 1997 we had some school construction issues, water issues in southern Nevada, and a whole new crop of people. Each session, ladies and gentlemen, has its own personality. Oftentimes, it is based upon the people who are here. Sometimes it is defined by the issues. I had the great pleasure and the great honor of having a mentor like Joe Dini who taught me great things. I wish I had remembered as much as he taught me.

My only regret is that when I first came to this institution my youngest kids were four and five, and they are now seventeen and eighteen. There were school plays and t-ball games and I couldn’t be there, but they have always been supportive and that is what has allowed me to serve here in Carson City. If I had to do it all over again, I would absolutely do it again. It is what I enjoy. If you would have told me in 1992, when I first was elected, I was going to do seven sessions, I would have said you were crazy. But, it is my last Session. I have enjoyed it.

Ms. Buckley, I can't tell you how much I appreciate you, as a friend, as a colleague, as a Majority Leader, and as my partner these last several sessions. Mr. Arberry, you always have that smile on. I appreciate you very much. Ms. Giunchigliani, I could go around the room and name virtually everybody. Mr. Marvel and Mr. Carpenter, my rural friends. So many of you have made similar sacrifices for as long as I have, or longer. I could not have done it without all of you.

I could not have done it without the support of my family, particularly my wife. I want to make sure she understands that. It has been kind of a tradition in our family that every February or so of a campaign, we would get around the kitchen table to decide if "we" were going to run again because it is a "we" thing. It affects the entire family. Several years ago, my firstborn was ten years old and I had posed that question, "Are we going to run again?" and as precocious as she was she said, "Daddy, if you don't do it, who is going to do it?" I am not so full of myself to suggest to you that nobody else could do it, a lot of people can, but it was the trust that little girl had in me and the trust that my family has and their support that allows me to do this.

I am not sure, actually, what I am going to think after I leave this Legislature. As you well know, it becomes part of who you are. It has been a good run, but it is time to be done. I find my patience waning these days, where I had more patience in earlier sessions. Let me stop rambling and thank all of you for everything you do for the state of Nevada. As you probably continue to read the "flashes" and the disparaging remarks from our good political pundit about how shameful our work is and how we are not getting things done, a lot of extraordinary things happened in the 2005 regular Session. I would still rate it as a ten. The winners from this Session, ladies and gentlemen, were the citizens from the state of Nevada. I hope all of you continue to want to serve and continue to do that. Thank you for allowing me the privilege and honor of being your Speaker. Thank you.

I. OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Rule No. 1. Speaker of the Assembly.

1. All officers of the Assembly are subordinate to the Speaker in all that relates to the prompt, efficient and correct discharge of their official duties under the Speaker's supervision.

2. Possessing the powers and performing the duties described in this Rule, the Speaker shall:

(b) Preserve order and decorum and have general direction of the Chamber of the Assembly and the approaches thereto. In the event of any disturbance or disorderly conduct therein, order the same to be cleared.

(c) Decide all questions of order, subject to a member's right to appeal to the Assembly. On appeal from such decisions, the Speaker has the right, in the Speaker's place, to assign the reason for the decision.

(d) Have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitution must not extend beyond one legislative day.

(e) When the Assembly resolves itself into Committee of the Whole, name a Chairman to preside thereover and call him to the Chair.

4. If a permanent vacancy occurs in the office of Speaker, the Assembly shall select a new Speaker.

If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the Assembly, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and if called to order by a member, such member shall immediately state the point of order. If the point of order be sustained by the presiding officer, the member shall not be allowed to proceed; but if it be not sustained, then he shall be permitted to go on. Rule No. 22. Reserved.

Rule No. 23. Committee on Ethics; Legislative Ethics.

1. The Committee on Ethics consists of:

(a) Two members of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker from the majority political party;

(b) One member of the Assembly appointed by the Minority Leader from the minority political party; and

(c) Two qualified electors of the State chosen by the members of the Committee who are appointed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b), neither of whom is a present or former member of the Legislature or employed by the State of Nevada.

2. The Speaker shall appoint two members of the Assembly, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party to serve as alternate members of the Committee. If a member is disqualified, the alternate appointed from the same political party shall serve as a member of the Committee during the consideration of a specific question.

3. A member is disqualified if he is the requester of advice concerning a question of ethics or conflict of interest, or if the advice is requested by another member of the Assembly and a reasonable person in his situation could not exercise independent judgment on the matter in question.

4. The Committee shall hear complaints on alleged breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest, brought by Legislators and others, and it may advise

Legislators on questions of breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest. All proceedings held to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence or physical or mental health of any person by the Committee on matters of ethics or conflicts of interest are confidential unless a Legislator:

The Chairman shall send a copy of the complaint, within 24 hours after receiving it, to the Legislator against whom the complaint is brought.

- (a) His acceptance of a gift or loan; or
- (b) His private economic interest.

7. A Legislator who determines that he has a conflict of interest may vote upon, advocate or oppose any measure as to which a potential conflict exists if he makes a general disclosure of the conflict. In determining whether to vote upon, advocate or oppose the measure, the Legislator should consider whether:

- (a) The conflict impedes his independence of judgment;
- (b) His participation will produce a negative effect on the public's confidence in the integrity of the Legislature;
- (c) His participation is likely to have any significant effect on the disposition of the measure; and
- (d) His interest is greater than the interests of an entire class of persons similarly situated.

1. All bills must be read the second time on the first legislative day after which they are reported by committee, unless a different day is designated by motion. Upon second reading, Assembly bills reported without amendments shall be placed on the General File and Senate bills reported without amendments shall be placed on the General File. Committee amendments reported with bills shall be considered upon their second reading, and such amendments may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present. Any amendment which is numbered, copied and made available to all members must be moved and voted upon by number unless any member moves that it be read in full. Assembly bills so amended must be reprinted, engrossed, and placed on the General File. Senate bills so amended must be reprinted, then engrossed or reengrossed, as applicable, and placed on the General File.

2. Any member may move to amend a bill during its second or third reading, and such a motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present. Bills so amended on second reading must be treated the same as bills with committee amendments. Any bill so amended upon the General File must be reprinted and then engrossed or reengrossed, as applicable.

3. The reprinting of amended bills may be dispensed with only in accordance with the provisions of law.

Rule No. 111. Consent Calendar.

1. A standing committee may by unanimous vote of the members present report a bill with the recommendation that it be placed on the Consent Calendar. The question of recommending a bill for the Consent Calendar may be voted upon in committee only after the bill has been recommended for passage and only if no amendment is recommended.

2. The Chief Clerk shall maintain a list of bills recommended for the Consent Calendar. The list must be printed in the Daily History and must include the summary of each bill, and the date the bill is scheduled for consideration on final passage.

3. At any time before the presiding officer calls for a vote on the passage of the Consent Calendar, a member may give written notice to the Chief Clerk or state orally from the floor of the Assembly in session that he requests the removal of a particular bill from the Consent Calendar. If a member so requests, the Chief Clerk shall remove the bill from the Consent Calendar and transfer it to the Second Reading File. A bill removed from the Consent Calendar may not be restored to that Calendar.

4. During floor consideration of the Consent Calendar, members may ask questions and offer explanations relating to the respective bills.

5. When the Consent Calendar is brought to a vote, the bills remaining on the Consent Calendar must be read by number and summary and the vote must be taken on their final passage as a group.

[Statutes of Nevada 1977, 1660; A 1987, 2328; 1997, 3552; 1999, 3845; 2001, 3305]

Rule No. 112. Reserved.

Rule No. 113. General File.

All bills reported to the Assembly, by either standing or special committees, after receiving their second readings must be placed upon a General File, to be kept by the Chief Clerk. Bills must be taken from the General File and acted upon in the order in which they were reported, unless otherwise specially ordered by the Assembly. But engrossed bills shall be placed at the head of the file, in the order in which they are received. The Chief Clerk shall post a daily statement of the bills on the General File, setting forth the order in which they are filed, and specifying the alterations arising from the disposal of business each day. The Chief Clerk shall likewise post notices of special orders as made.

Rule No. 114. Reserved.Rule No. 115. Reconsideration of Vote on Bill.

On the first legislative day that the Assembly is in session succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill or resolution has been taken, a vote may be reconsidered on the motion of any member. Notice of intention to move such reconsideration must be given on the day on which the final vote was taken by a member voting with the prevailing party. It is not in order for any member to move a reconsideration on the day on which the final vote was taken, except by unanimous consent. There may be no reconsideration of a vote on a motion to indefinitely postpone. Motions to reconsider a vote upon amendments to any pending question may be made at once.

[Statutes of Nevada 1973, 1895; A 1999, 3845]

Rule No. 116. Vetoed Bills.

Bills that have passed both Houses of the Legislature and are transmitted to the Assembly accompanied by a message or statement of the Governor's disapproval or veto of the same must be taken up and considered immediately upon the coming in of the message transmitting the same, or become the subject of a special order. When the message is received, or (if made a special order) when the special order is called, the said message or statement must be read together with the bill or bills so disapproved or vetoed. The message and bill must be read by the Chief Clerk without interruption, consecutively, one following the other, and not upon separate occasions. No such bill or message may be referred to any committee, or otherwise acted upon save as provided by law and custom; that is to say, that immediately following such reading the only question (except as hereinafter stated) which may be put by the Speaker is, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?" It shall not be in order, at any time, to vote upon such a vetoed bill unless the same shall first have been read, from the first word of its title to and including the last word of its final section. No motion may be entertained after the Speaker has stated the question, save a motion to adjourn or a motion for the previous question, but the merits of the bill itself may be debated. The message or statement containing the objections of the Governor to the bill must be entered in the Journal of the Assembly. The consideration of a vetoed bill, and the objections of the Governor thereto, shall be a privileged question, and shall take precedence over all others.

JOINT STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Rule No. 1. Procedure Concerning.

In every case of an amendment of a bill, or joint or concurrent resolution, agreed to in one House, dissented from in the other, and not receded from by the one making the amendment, each House shall appoint a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the other; and the committee so appointed shall meet publicly at a convenient hour to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen and announced publicly, and shall confer upon the differences between the two Houses as indicated by the amendments made in one and rejected in the other and report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective Houses.

The report shall be made available to all members of both Houses. The whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be considered by the committee, and it may recommend recession by either House, new amendments, new bills or resolutions, or other changes as it sees fit. New bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments unless the bills or resolutions are composed entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treatment required in the respective Houses for original bills, or resolutions, as the case may be.

The report of a conference committee may be adopted by acclamation, and such action may be considered equivalent to the adoption of amendments embodied therein. The report is not subject to amendment. If either House refuses to adopt the report, or if the first conference committee has so recommended, a second conference committee may be appointed. No member who served on the first committee may be appointed to the second.

There shall be but two conference committees on any bill or resolution. A majority of the members of a conference committee from each House must be members who voted for the passage of the bill or resolution.

is exempt from the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of Joint Standing Rule No. 14, subsection 1 of Joint Standing Rule No. 14.2 and Joint Standing Rule No. 14.3. The Fiscal Analysis Division shall give notice to the Legislative Counsel to cause to be printed on the face of the bill the term “exempt” for any bills requested by the Senate Finance Committee or Assembly Committee on Ways and Means that have been determined to be exempt and shall give written notice to the Legislative Counsel, Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly of any bill which is determined to be exempt or eligible for exemption after it is printed. When a bill is determined to be exempt or eligible for an exemption after the bill was printed a notation must be included as a part of the history of the bill on the next practicable legislative day. The term “exempt” must be printed on the face of all reprints of the bill after the bill becomes exempt.

2. Unless exempt pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1, all of the provisions of Joint Standing Rules Nos. 14, 14.2 and 14.3 apply to a bill until the bill becomes exempt pursuant to subsection 1. A bill that has become exempt does not lose the exemption regardless of subsequent actions taken by the Legislature.

3. A cumulative list of all bills determined by the Fiscal Analysis Division pursuant to subsection 1 to be exempt or eligible for exemption after being printed must be maintained and printed in the back of the list of requests for the preparation of legislative measures prepared pursuant to NRS 218.2475.

4. The provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of Joint Standing Rule No. 14, subsection 1 of Joint Standing Rule No. 14.2 and Joint Standing Rule No. 14.3 do not apply to:

2. For the purposes of this Rule, an amendment is independent of, and not specifically related and properly connected to, the subject that is expressed in the title of a bill or resolution if the amendment relates only to the general, single subject that is expressed in that title and not to the specific whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution.

3. This Rule must be narrowly construed to carry out the purposes for which it was adopted which is to ensure the effectiveness of the limitations set forth in Joint Standing Rules Nos. 14, 14.2 and 14.3.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES REGARDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Rule No. 20. Maintenance of Working Environment; Procedure for Filing, Investigating and Taking Remedial Action on Complaints.

1. The Legislature hereby declares its intention to maintain a working environment which is free from sexual harassment. This policy applies to all Legislators and lobbyists. Each member and lobbyist is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others are able to work in such an environment.

2. In accordance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, for the purposes of this Rule, "sexual harassment" means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(a) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment;

(b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person; or

(c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

3. Each person subject to these Rules must exercise his own good judgment to avoid engaging in conduct that may be perceived by others as sexual harassment. The following noninclusive list provides illustrations of conduct that the Legislature deems to be inappropriate:

(a) Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments;

(b) Visual conduct such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;

(c) Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with the work directed at a person because of his sex;

(d) Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests to keep a person's job or avoid some other loss, and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors; and

(e) Retaliation for opposing, reporting or threatening to report sexual harassment, or for participating in an investigation, proceeding or hearing conducted by the Legislature or the Nevada Equal Rights Commission or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment or submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person or such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

4. A person may have a claim of sexual harassment even if he has not lost a job or some other economic benefit. Conduct that impairs a person's ability to work or his emotional well-being at work constitutes sexual harassment.

5. If a Legislator believes he is being sexually harassed on the job, he may file a written complaint with:

(a) The Speaker of the Assembly;

(b) The Majority Leader of the Senate; or

(c) The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, if the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate.

The complaint must include the details of the incident or incidents, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses.

6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate, as appropriate, shall refer a complaint received pursuant to subsection 5 to a committee consisting of Legislators of the same House. A complaint against a lobbyist may be referred to a committee in either House.

7. If the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate, the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau shall refer the complaint to the Committee on Elections, Procedures,

Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments of the Assembly or the Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections of the Senate, as appropriate. If the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate is a member of one of these committees, the Speaker or the Majority Leader, as the case may be, shall not participate in the investigation and resolution of the complaint.

8. The committee to which the complaint is referred shall immediately conduct a confidential and discreet investigation of the complaint. As a part of the investigation, the committee shall notify the accused of the allegations. The committee shall facilitate a meeting between the complainant and the accused to allow a discussion of the matter, if both agree. If the parties do not agree to such a meeting, the committee shall request statements regarding the complaint from each of the parties. Either party may request a hearing before the committee. The committee shall make its determination and inform the complainant and the accused of its determination as soon as practicable after it has completed its investigation.

9. If the investigation reveals that sexual harassment has occurred, the Legislature will take appropriate disciplinary or remedial action, or both. The committee shall inform the complainant of any action taken. The Legislature will also take any action necessary to deter any future harassment.

10. The Legislature will not retaliate against a person who files a complaint and will not knowingly permit any retaliation by the person's supervisors or coworkers.

11. The Legislature encourages a person to report any incident of sexual harassment immediately so that the complaint can be quickly and fairly resolved.

12. Action taken by a complainant pursuant to this Rule does not prohibit the complainant from also filing a complaint of sexual harassment with the Nevada Equal Rights Commission or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

13. All Legislators and lobbyists are responsible for adhering to the provisions of this policy. The prohibitions against engaging in sexual harassment and the protections against becoming a victim of sexual harassment set forth in this policy apply to employees, Legislators, lobbyists, vendors, contractors, customers and visitors to the Legislature.

14. This policy does not create any enforceable legal rights in any person.
