The decision of the district court was based on the Nevada Supreme Court's pronouncement that "[u]nder the separation of powers doctrine, individual legislators cannot, nor should they, be subject to fines or other penalties for voting in a particular way." (Guinn v. Legislature, 119 Nev. 460, at 472 (2003)) The decision of the district court was also based on a long line of cases from the United States Supreme Court which hold that under the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity, Federal and State Legislators must be free to represent the interests of their constituents with assurance that they will not later be called to task for that representation by the other branches of government. (Tenney v. Brandhove, 341 U.S. 367, 71 S.Ct. 783 (1951); Powell v. McCormack, 395 U.S. 486, 89 S.Ct. 1944 (1969); Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 92 S.Ct. 2614 (1972); Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union, 446 U.S. 719, 100 S.Ct. 1967 (1980)) Given this well-established and long-standing precedent, the district court found that the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity are intended to protect the independence of individual Legislators by giving them broad freedom of speech, debate, deliberation and action during the legislative process and by shielding them from executive and judicial oversight that realistically threatens to control their conduct as Legislators.

Thus, because of the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity, the district court determined that any inquiry into the ethical propriety of legislative actions concerning disclosure, voting and abstention must be conducted by the Legislative Department and cannot be conducted by an administrative agency of the Executive Department, such as the Commission on Ethics. The district court also determined that because each House is given the exclusive constitutional power to determine the rules of its legislative proceedings and to punish its members for improper conduct related to those legislative proceedings, the Standing Rules adopted by each House concerning disclosure, voting and abstention take precedence over NRS 281A.420. Therefore, out of respect for the separation of powers under Section 1 of Article 3 of the Nevada Constitution and out of respect for the exclusive constitutional power of each House to determine its rules and punish its members under Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution, the district court held that the determination of whether a State Legislator has properly followed the Standing Rules concerning disclosure, voting and abstention is a matter reserved exclusively to the Legislator's own House.

Finally, the district court emphasized that its decision applied only to the provisions of NRS 281A.420 concerning disclosure, voting and abstention and that the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity do not provide State Legislators with blanket protection from the Nevada Ethics in Government Law. Rather, State Legislators remain subject to the Ethics Law for conduct that falls outside the scope of legitimate legislative activity.

Sections 3.4-5.4 and 7.2-8.23 of this bill clarify the meaning of terms used in the Ethics Law and codify long-standing interpretations of those terms. Additionally, the definitions in sections 4 and 5 ensure that the Ethics Law accurately reflects the constitutional and legal differences between a "State Legislator" and a "member of a local legislative body." The definition of "investigatory panel" in section 8.1 recognizes that when the two-member panel is deciding whether there is just and sufficient cause to refer an ethics complaint to the Commission for a hearing, the panel is performing an investigatory function, not an adjudicatory function. Section 8.2 revises and clarifies the definition of "public officer" in the Ethics Law by employing terminology used in the definition of "public officer" in NRS 281.005 and by including members of boards of trustees of general improvement districts within the meaning of the term "public officer."

Sections 3.4, 3.6, 8.23 and 17.5 of this bill define the terms "intentionally," "knowingly," "willful violation" and "willfully" in the Ethics Law to conform with the legal meanings generally ascribed to those terms. A "willful" act is an act done intentionally and knowingly. (In re Fine, 116 Nev. 1001 (2000); Black's Law Dictionary 1593 (7th ed. 1999) (defining "willful")) A person acts "intentionally" when he acts voluntarily or deliberately, rather than accidentally or inadvertently. (Batt v. State, 111 Nev. 1127 (1995); In re Fine, 116 Nev. 1001 (2000); Nevada Service Employees Union v. Orr, 121 Nev. 675 (2005)) A person acts "knowingly" when he has knowledge of the facts which constitute the act or omission. (NRS 193.017, 624.024; State v. Rhodig, 101 Nev. 608 (1985); Garcia v. Sixth Jud. Dist. Ct., 117 Nev. 697 (2001))

Section 5.6 of this bill clarifies that public officers and employees cannot assert common-law privileges and immunities in proceedings under the Ethics Law but may assert constitutional or statutory privileges and immunities in such proceedings.

Section 5.8 of this bill moves the existing provisions of NRS 281.236 into the Ethics Law so that those provisions may be enforced by the Commission on Ethics. Under the existing provisions of NRS 281.236, certain regulated businesses and industries must observe a 1-year "cooling off" period before they may hire a former public officer or employee who had significant involvement in regulating the business or industry. Section 5.8 contains the same substantive provisions as NRS 281.236, except that the requirement to observe the 1-year "cooling off" period is imposed on the former public officer or employee instead of on the regulated business or industry.

Sections 8.25, 8.35 and 8.45 of this bill clarify existing provisions of the Ethics Law which prohibit members of the Commission on Ethics and the Commission's Executive Director and Counsel from performing certain lobbying activities on behalf of private parties. (NRS 281A.200, 281A.230, 281A.250) Section 8.35 also provides that the Executive Director must have experience in administration, investigations and law.

The Ethics Law imposes civil penalties for certain violations (NRS 281A.480), but it does not contain an express statute of limitations. When a law imposes civil penalties but does not contain an express statute of limitations, it is presumed that the Legislature intended for a generally applicable statute of limitations to apply to proceedings brought under the law. (DelCostello v. Int'l Bhd. of Teamsters, 462 U.S. 151, 103 S.Ct. 2281 (1983); 3M Co. v. Browner, 17 F.3d 1453 (D.C. Cir. 1994); 51 Am. Jur. 2d Limitation of Actions § 129 (2000)) Because NRS 11.190 contains a generally applicable 2-year statute of limitations for actions brought upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, the 2-year period in NRS 11.190 is presumptively applicable to proceedings brought under the Ethics Law. (Community Cause v. Boatwright, 177 Cal. Rptr. 657 (Cal. Ct. App. 1981)) For purposes of clarity and certainty of application, sections 8.55 and 26 of this bill codify the existing 2-year statute of limitations expressly into the Ethics Law. (NRS 281A.280)

The Ethics Law places restrictions on certain public officers and employees with regard to representing or counseling a private person for compensation before various agencies. (NRS 281A.410) Section 8.7 of this bill clarifies those restrictions by replacing the terms "member of the executive branch" and "member of the legislative branch" with more specific, descriptive and accurate terms. Section 8.7 also clarifies the methods for filing the disclosure form certain public officers must file if they have represented or counseled a private person for compensation before certain agencies.

The Ethics Law requires public officers to disclose conflicts of interest and to abstain from voting because of certain types of conflicts. (NRS 281A.420) Because public officers must disclose conflicts before determining whether to abstain, section 9.5 of this bill rearranges the order of the existing disclosure and abstention provisions in the statute so that the disclosure provisions come before the abstention provisions. Section 9.5 also changes the abstention requirements which apply to members of certain county and city planning commissions so that those members are subject to the same abstention requirements which apply to other public officers under the statute.

Section 9.5 additionally requires the Commission to give appropriate weight and proper deference to the public policy of this State which favors the right of public officers to vote, provided they have properly disclosed all conflicts. Under this public policy, abstention is required only in clear cases where the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in the public officer's situation would be materially affected by the conflicts. This public policy demands proper disclosures of conflicts but prefers fewer instances of abstention because abstention disrupts the normal course of representative government and deprives the public and the public officer's constituents of a voice in governmental affairs.

The Ethics Law allows public officers and employees to bid on or enter into contracts with governmental agencies when certain requirements are met, including that the contracting process is controlled by the rules of competitive bidding. (NRS 281A.430) Section 11 of this bill allows public officers and employees to enter into such contracts in situations where existing law exempts the contracts from the rules of competitive bidding because the contract is an emergency contract or because no responsible bids were received in response to a previous request for bids on the contract. (NRS 332.112, 332.148)

The Ethics Law contains procedures for investigating and adjudicating alleged ethical violations. (NRS 281A.440) Section 12 of this bill: (1) authorizes a public officer or employee who requested an advisory opinion regarding his own conduct to waive certain time limits; (2) provides a public officer or employee with 30 days to file an informational response to an ethics complaint and also provides that no objection or defense is waived by the failure to assert it in the informational response or during the investigatory stage of the proceedings; (3) grants the Executive Director an additional 10 days to complete his investigation of an ethics complaint and to present a recommendation regarding just and sufficient cause to the investigatory panel; and (4) grants the Commission a total of 60 days to hold a hearing and render an opinion if the investigatory panel finds just and sufficient cause, unless the public officer or employee waives the time limit.

The Ethics Law requires public officers to file a form acknowledging that they have received, read and understand the statutory ethical standards. (NRS 281A.500) Section 14 of this bill requires public officers to file the form at certain times while holding office and to acknowledge in the form that they have a responsibility to inform themselves of any amendments to the statutory ethical standards. Section 14 provides methods for public officers to obtain hard copies of the statutory ethical standards and also provides for Internet access to the statutory ethical standards. Section 14 additionally clarifies the methods for filing the form and provides that the willful refusal to execute and file the form constitutes a willful violation of the Ethics Law.

Finally, when the Nevada Constitution specifies a particular method for removing a public officer from office for misconduct, that constitutional method is exclusive, and the public officer may not be removed from office through statutory removal proceedings. Because certain elected and appointed state officers may be removed from office only through impeachment pursuant to Article 7 of the Nevada Constitution, they may not be removed from office through statutory removal proceedings. (Robison v. First Jud. Dist. Ct., 73 Nev. 169 (1957)) Similarly, because State Legislators may be removed from office only through expulsion by their own House pursuant to Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution, they may not be removed from office through impeachment or statutory removal proceedings. (Hiss v. Bartlett, 69 Mass. 468 (1855); State ex rel. Martin v. Gilmore, 20 Kan. 551 (1878); In re Speakership, 25 P. 707 (Colo. 1891); State ex rel. Haviland v. Beadle, 111 P. 720 (Mont. 1910); State ex rel. Ezzell v. Shumate, 113 S.W.2d 381 (Tenn. 1938); State ex rel. Danforth v. Hickey, 475 S.W.2d 617 (Mo. 1972)) Sections 13 and 18-24 of this bill conform existing statutory law with the constitutional provisions governing impeachment, expulsion and removal from office.

WHEREAS, The doctrine of separation of powers is fundamental to our system of State Government; and

WHEREAS, The constitutional source of the doctrine of separation of powers is Section 1 of Article 3 of the Nevada Constitution, which establishes a tripartite system of State Government and which firmly fixes the principle of separation of powers in the organic law of this State; and

WHEREAS, Under the doctrine of separation of powers, when the Nevada Constitution expressly grants the Legislative Department an exclusive power, the other Departments of State Government may not usurp, exercise, infringe upon or interfere with that exclusive power out of respect for an equal and coordinate branch of government; and

WHEREAS, Under Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution, each House of the Legislature has the exclusive constitutional power to determine the rules of its legislative proceedings and to punish its members for improper conduct related to those legislative proceedings; and

WHEREAS, Because Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution creates an exclusive constitutional power in each House, neither the Legislature nor one of the Houses may delegate that exclusive constitutional power to another branch of government; and

WHEREAS, For centuries, freedom of speech, debate, deliberation and action in National and State Legislatures has been recognized as essential to protect the integrity of the legislative process by ensuring that individual Legislators may perform their core or essential legislative functions without harassment, intimidation or interference by the other branches of government; and

WHEREAS, Legislative privilege and immunity has its origins in the Parliamentary struggles of the 16th and 17th centuries when the English monarchs used civil and criminal proceedings to harass, intimidate and suppress members of Parliament who were critical of the Crown; and

WHEREAS, Legislative privilege and immunity was first codified in the English Bill of Rights of 1689, which provided "That the Freedom of Speech, and Debates or Proceedings in Parliament, ought not to be impeached or questioned in any Court or Place out of Parliament"; and

WHEREAS, Legislative privilege and immunity was extended to Legislators in the American Colonies where freedom of speech, debate, deliberation and action in the legislative process was taken as a matter of course by those who severed the American Colonies from the Crown and who became the Founders of our Nation; and

WHEREAS, The Founders of our Nation viewed legislative privilege and immunity as fundamental to the system of checks and balances and indispensable to the constitutional structure of separate, coequal and independent branches of government; now, therefore,

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 41 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The Framers of the Nevada Constitution created a system of checks and balances so that the constitutional powers separately vested in the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Departments of State Government may be exercised without intrusion from the other Departments.

(b) As part of the system of checks and balances, the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity facilitate the autonomy of the Legislative Department by curtailing intrusions by the Executive or Judicial Department into the sphere of legitimate legislative activities.

(c) The constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity protect State Legislators from having to defend themselves, from being held liable and from being questioned or sanctioned in administrative or judicial proceedings for speech, debate, deliberation and other actions performed within the sphere of legitimate legislative activity.

(d) Under the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity, State Legislators must not be hindered or obstructed by executive or judicial oversight that realistically threatens to control their conduct as Legislators.

(e) Under the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity, State Legislators must be free to represent the interests of their constituents with assurance that they will not later be called to task for that representation by the other branches of government.

(f) Under the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity, State Legislators must not be questioned or sanctioned by the other branches of government for their actions in carrying out their core or essential legislative functions.

(g) Under the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity, the only governmental entity that may question or sanction a State Legislator for any actions taken within the sphere of legitimate legislative activity is the Legislator's own House pursuant to Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution.

(h) Therefore, the purpose and effect of this section is to implement the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity by codifying in statutory form the constitutional right of State Legislators to be protected from having to defend themselves, from being held liable and from being questioned or sanctioned in administrative or judicial proceedings for speech, debate, deliberation and other actions performed within the sphere of legitimate legislative activity.

2. For any speech or debate in either House, a State Legislator shall not be questioned in any other place.

3. In interpreting and applying the provisions of this section, the interpretation and application given to the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity under the Speech or Debate Clause of Section 6 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States must be considered to be persuasive authority.

4. The rights, privileges and immunities recognized by this section are in addition to any other rights, privileges and immunities recognized by law.

5. As used in this section, "State Legislator" or "Legislator" means a member of the Senate or Assembly of the State of Nevada.

Sec. 2. NRS 49.015 is hereby amended to read as follows:

49.015 1. Except as otherwise required by the Constitution of the United States or of the State of Nevada, and except as otherwise provided in this title or title 14 of NRS, or section 1 of this act, no person has a privilege to:

(a) Refuse to be a witness;

(b) Refuse to disclose any matter;

(c) Refuse to produce any object or writing; or

(d) Prevent another from being a witness or disclosing any matter or producing any object or writing.

2. This section does not:

(a) Impair any privilege created by title 14 of NRS or by the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure which is limited to a particular stage of the proceeding; or

(b) Extend any such privilege to any other stage of a proceeding.

Sec. 3. Chapter 281A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections ~~[4 and 5]~~ 3.4 to 5.8, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 3.4. "Intentionally" means voluntarily or deliberately, rather than accidentally or inadvertently. The term does not require proof of bad faith, ill will, evil intent or malice.

Sec. 3.6. "Knowingly" imports a knowledge that the facts exist which constitute the act or omission, and does not require knowledge of the prohibition against the act or omission. Knowledge of any particular fact may be inferred from the knowledge of such other facts as should put an ordinarily prudent person upon inquiry.

Sec. 4. "Member of a local legislative body" means a member of a board of county commissioners, a governing body of a city or a governing body of any other political subdivision who performs ~~[a legislative function.]~~ any function that involves introducing, voting upon or otherwise acting upon any matter of a permanent or general character which may reflect public policy and which is not typically restricted to identifiable persons or groups.

Sec. 5. "State Legislator" or "Legislator" means a member of the Senate or Assembly of the State of Nevada.

Sec. 5.4. In applying the provisions of this chapter to an alleged violation by a former public officer or employee, the use of the term "public officer" or "public employee" in this chapter must be interpreted to include the former public officer or employee, unless the commencement of proceedings against the former public officer or employee concerning the alleged violation is time-barred by the statute of limitations pursuant to NRS 281A.280.

Sec. 5.6. 1. In any proceeding commenced against a public officer or employee pursuant to the authority of this chapter, including any judicial review thereof, the public officer or employee who is the subject of the proceeding may not assert, claim or raise any common-law privilege or immunity as an affirmative defense, for testimonial or evidentiary purposes or for any other purpose.

2. The provisions of this chapter are intended to abrogate common-law privileges and immunities only in a proceeding commenced pursuant to the authority of this chapter and only for the public officer or employee who is the subject of the proceeding. This abrogation of common-law privileges and immunities does not apply to or affect:

(a) Any privilege or immunity granted by the Constitution of the United States or of the State of Nevada or by section 1 of this act, chapter 49 of NRS or any other statute;

(b) Any person who is not the subject of the proceeding; or

(c) Any other proceeding that is not commenced pursuant to the authority of this chapter.

Sec. 5.8. 1. A former member of the Public Utilities Commission of Nevada shall not:

(a) Be employed by a public utility or parent organization or subsidiary of a public utility; or

(b) Appear before the Public Utilities Commission of Nevada to testify on behalf of a public utility or parent organization or subsidiary of a public utility,

➥ for 1 year after the termination of his service on the Public Utilities Commission of Nevada.

2. A former member of the State Gaming Control Board or the Nevada Gaming Commission shall not:

(a) Appear before the State Gaming Control Board or the Nevada Gaming Commission on behalf of a person who holds a license issued pursuant to chapter 463 or 464 of NRS or who is required to register with the Nevada Gaming Commission pursuant to chapter 463 of NRS; or

(b) Be employed by such a person,

➥ for 1 year after the termination of his service on the State Gaming Control Board or the Nevada Gaming Commission.

3. In addition to the prohibitions set forth in subsections 1 and 2, and except as otherwise provided in subsections 4 and 6, a former public officer or employee of a board, commission, department, division or other agency of the Executive Department of State Government, except a clerical employee, shall not solicit or accept employment from a business or industry whose activities are governed by regulations adopted by the board, commission, department, division or other agency for 1 year after the termination of his service or period of employment if:

(a) His principal duties included the formulation of policy contained in the regulations governing the business or industry;

(b) During the immediately preceding year, he directly performed activities, or controlled or influenced an audit, decision, investigation or other action, which significantly affected the business or industry which might, but for this section, employ him; or

(c) As a result of his governmental service or employment, he possesses knowledge of the trade secrets of a direct business competitor.

4. The provisions of subsection 3 do not apply to a former public officer who was a member of a board, commission or similar body of the State if:

(a) The former public officer is engaged in the profession, occupation or business regulated by the board, commission or similar body;

(b) The former public officer holds a license issued by the board, commission or similar body; and

(c) Holding a license issued by the board, commission or similar body is a requirement for membership on the board, commission or similar body.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, a former public officer or employee of the State or a political subdivision, except a clerical employee, shall not solicit or accept employment from a person to whom a contract for supplies, materials, equipment or services was awarded by the State or political subdivision, as applicable, for 1 year after the termination of the officer's or employee's service or period of employment, if:

(a) The amount of the contract exceeded $25,000;

(b) The contract was awarded within the 12-month period immediately preceding the termination of the officer's or employee's service or period of employment; and

(c) The position held by the former public officer or employee at the time the contract was awarded allowed him to affect or influence the awarding of the contract.

6. A current or former public officer or employee may request that the Commission apply the relevant facts in his case to the provisions of subsection 3 or 5, as applicable, and determine whether relief from the strict application of those provisions is proper. If the Commission determines that relief from the strict application of the provisions of subsection 3 or 5, as applicable, is not contrary to:

(a) The best interests of the public;

(b) The continued ethical integrity of the State Government or political subdivision, as applicable; and

(c) The provisions of this chapter,

➥ it may issue an opinion to that effect and grant such relief. The opinion of the Commission in such a case is final and subject to judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130, except that a proceeding regarding this review must be held in closed court without admittance of persons other than those necessary to the proceeding, unless this right to confidential proceedings is waived by the current or former public officer or employee.

7. Each request for an opinion that a current or former public officer or employee submits to the Commission pursuant to subsection 6, each opinion rendered by the Commission in response to such a request and any motion, determination, evidence or record of a hearing relating to such a request are confidential unless the current or former public officer or employee who requested the opinion:

(a) Acts in contravention of the opinion, in which case the Commission may disclose the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion and any motion, evidence or record of a hearing related thereto;

(b) Discloses the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion or any motion, evidence or record of a hearing related thereto; or

(c) Requests the Commission to disclose the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion, or any motion, evidence or record of a hearing related thereto.

8. A meeting or hearing that the Commission or an investigatory panel holds to receive information or evidence concerning the propriety of the conduct of a current or former public officer or employee pursuant to this section and the deliberations of the Commission and the investigatory panel on such information or evidence are not subject to the provisions of chapter 241 of NRS.

9. As used in this section, "regulation" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 233B.038 and also includes regulations adopted by a board, commission, department, division or other agency of the Executive Department of State Government that is exempted from the requirements of chapter 233B of NRS.

Sec. 6. NRS 281A.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

281A.020 1. It is hereby declared to be the public policy of this State that:

(a) A public office is a public trust and shall be held for the sole benefit of the people.

(b) A public officer or employee must commit himself to avoid conflicts between his private interests and those of the general public whom he serves.

2. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) The increasing complexity of state and local government, more and more closely related to private life and enterprise, enlarges the potentiality for conflict of interests.

(b) To enhance the people's faith in the integrity and impartiality of public officers and employees, adequate guidelines are required to show the appropriate separation between the roles of persons who are both public servants and private citizens.

(c) ~~[~~Members of the Legislature~~]~~ In interpreting and applying the provisions of this chapter that are applicable to State Legislators, the Commission must give appropriate weight and proper deference to the public policy of this State under which State Legislators serve as "citizen Legislators" who have other occupations and business interests ~~[~~. (d) The provisions of this chapter do not, under any circumstances, allow the Commission to exercise jurisdiction or authority over or inquire into, intrude upon or interfere with the functions of a State Legislator that are protected by legislative privilege and immunity pursuant to the Constitution of the State of Nevada or section 1 of this act.

Sec. 7. NRS 281A.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:

281A.030 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 281A.040 to 281A.170, inclusive, and sections ~~[4 and]~~ 3.4 to 5, inclusive, of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

7. 2. A public officer or employee shall not use his position in government to secure or grant unwarranted privileges, preferences, exemptions or advantages for himself, any business entity in which he has a significant pecuniary interest, or any person to whom he has a commitment in a private capacity to the interests of that person. As used in this subsection:

(a) "Commitment in a private capacity to the interests of that person" has the meaning ascribed to "commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others" in subsection 8 of NRS 281A.420.

(b) "Unwarranted" means without justification or adequate reason.

3. A public officer or employee shall not participate as an agent of government in the negotiation or execution of a contract between the government and any ~~[private]~~ business entity in which he has a significant pecuniary interest.

(c) The use of telephones or other means of communication if there is not a special charge for that use.

➥ If a governmental agency incurs a cost as a result of a use that is authorized pursuant to this subsection or would ordinarily charge a member of the general public for the use, the public officer or employee shall promptly reimburse the cost or pay the charge to the governmental agency.

8. A ~~[member of the Legislature]~~ State Legislator shall not:

(II) The cost or value related to the use is nominal; and

(III) The use does not create the appearance of impropriety;

(2) The use of mailing lists, computer data or other information lawfully obtained from a governmental agency which is available to members of the general public for nongovernmental purposes; or

(2) Where such service has otherwise been established as legislative policy.

9. A public officer or employee shall not attempt to benefit his personal or financial interest through the influence of a subordinate.

10. A public officer or employee shall not seek other employment or contracts through the use of his official position.

Sec. 9. NRS 281A.420 is hereby amended to read as follows:

281A.420 1. 2. (a) His acceptance of a gift or loan;

(b) His pecuniary interest; or

(c) His commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others.

➥ It must be presumed that the independence of judgment of a reasonable person would not be materially affected by his pecuniary interest or his commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others where the resulting benefit or detriment accruing to him or to the other persons whose interests to which the member is committed in a private capacity is not greater than that accruing to any other member of the general business, profession, occupation or group. The presumption set forth in this subsection does not affect the applicability of the requirements set forth in subsection 4 relating to the disclosure of the pecuniary interest or commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others.

3. In a county whose population is 400,000 or more, a member of a county or city planning commission shall not vote upon or advocate the passage or failure of, but may otherwise participate in the consideration of, a matter with respect to which the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in his situation would be materially affected by:

(a) His acceptance of a gift or loan;

(b) His direct pecuniary interest; or

(c) His commitment to a member of his household or a person who is related to him by blood, adoption or marriage within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity.

➥ It must be presumed that the independence of judgment of a reasonable person would not be materially affected by his direct pecuniary interest or his commitment described in paragraph (c) where the resulting benefit or detriment accruing to him or to the other persons whose interests to which the member is committed is not greater than that accruing to any other member of the general business, profession, occupation or group. The presumption set forth in this subsection does not affect the applicability of the requirements set forth in subsection 4 relating to the disclosure of the direct pecuniary interest or commitment.

4. ~~[A]~~ Except as otherwise provided in this section, a public officer or employee shall not approve, disapprove, vote, abstain from voting or otherwise act upon any matter:

If the officer or employee is not a member of such a body and holds an appointive office, he shall make the disclosure to the supervisory head of his organization or, if he holds an elective office, to the general public in the area from which he is elected. This subsection does not require a public officer to disclose any campaign contributions that the public officer reported pursuant to NRS 294A.120 or 294A.125 or any contributions to a legal defense fund that the public officer reported pursuant to NRS 294A.286 in a timely manner.

5. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 241.0355, if a public officer declares to the body or committee in which the vote is to be taken that he will abstain from voting because of the requirements of this section, the necessary quorum to act upon and the number of votes necessary to act upon the matter, as fixed by any statute, ordinance or rule, is reduced as though the member abstaining were not a member of the body or committee.

6. ~~[After a member of the Legislature makes a disclosure pursuant to subsection 4, he may file with the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau a written statement of his disclosure. The written statement must designate the matter to which the disclosure applies. After a Legislator files a written statement pursuant to this subsection, he is not required to disclose orally his interest when the matter is further considered by the Legislature or any committee thereof. A written statement of disclosure is a public record and must be made available for inspection by the public during the regular office hours of the Legislative Counsel Bureau.~~

7. The provisions of this section do not, under any circumstances, apply to State Legislators or allow the Commission to exercise jurisdiction or authority over State Legislators. The responsibility of a State Legislator to make disclosures concerning gifts, loans, interests or commitments and the responsibility of a State Legislator to abstain from voting upon or advocating the passage or failure of a matter are governed by the Standing Rules of the Legislative Department of State Government which are adopted, administered and enforced exclusively by the appropriate bodies of the Legislative Department of State Government ~~[.]~~ pursuant to Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution.

capacity. Such a disclosure must be made at the time the matter is considered. If the public officer or employee is a member of a body which makes decisions, he shall make the disclosure in public to the chair and other members of the body. If the public officer or employee is not a member of such a body and holds an appointive office, he shall make the disclosure to the supervisory head of his organization or, if he holds an elective office, to the general public in the area from which he is elected.

2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not require a public officer to disclose:

4. In interpreting and applying the provisions of subsection 3:

(a) It must be presumed that the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in the public officer's situation would not be materially affected by his pecuniary interest or his commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others where the resulting benefit or detriment accruing to him , or if he has a commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others, accruing to the other persons , ~~[whose interests to which the member is committed in a private capacity]~~ is not greater than that accruing to any other member of the general business, profession, occupation or group ~~[.]~~ that is affected by the matter. The presumption set forth in this ~~[subsection]~~ paragraph does not affect the applicability of the requirements set forth in subsection ~~[4]~~ 1 relating to the disclosure of the pecuniary interest or commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others.

(b) The Commission must give appropriate weight and proper deference to the public policy of this State which favors the right of a public officer to perform the duties for which he was elected or appointed and to vote or otherwise act upon a matter, provided he has properly disclosed his acceptance of a gift or loan, his pecuniary interest or his commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others in the manner required by subsection 1. Because abstention by a public officer disrupts the normal course of representative government and deprives the public and the public officer's constituents of a voice in governmental affairs, the provisions of this section are intended to require abstention only in clear cases where the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in the public officer's situation would be materially affected by his acceptance of a gift or loan, his pecuniary interest or his commitment in a private capacity to the interests of others.

~~[3. ~~(c) His commitment to a member of his household or a person who is related to him by blood, adoption or marriage within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity.~~

~~➥ It must be presumed that the independence of judgment of a reasonable person would not be materially affected by his direct pecuniary interest or his commitment described in paragraph (c) where the resulting benefit or detriment accruing to him or to the other persons whose interests to which the member is committed is not greater than that accruing to any other member of the general business, profession, occupation or group. The presumption set forth in this subsection does not affect the applicability of the requirements set forth in subsection 4 relating to the disclosure of the direct pecuniary interest or commitment.~~

~~4. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a public officer or employee shall not approve, disapprove, vote, abstain from voting or otherwise act upon any matter:~~

~~(a) Regarding which he has accepted a gift or loan;~~

~~(c) In which he has a pecuniary interest,~~

~~➥ without disclosing sufficient information concerning the gift, loan, commitment or interest to inform the public of the potential effect of the action or abstention upon the person who provided the gift or loan, upon the person to whom he has a commitment, or upon his interest. Such a disclosure must be made at the time the matter is considered. If the officer or employee is a member of a body which makes decisions, he shall make the disclosure in public to the Chairman and other members of the body. If the officer or employee is not a member of such a body and holds an appointive office, he shall make the disclosure to the supervisory head of his organization or, if he holds an elective office, to the general public in the area from which he is elected. This subsection does not require a public officer to disclose any campaign contributions that the public officer reported pursuant to NRS 294A.120 or 294A.125 or any contributions to a legal defense fund that the public officer reported pursuant to NRS 294A.286 in a timely manner.]~~

5. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 241.0355, if a public officer declares to the body or committee in which the vote is to be taken that he will abstain from voting because of the requirements of this section, the necessary quorum to act upon and the number of votes necessary to act upon the matter, as fixed by any statute, ordinance or rule, is reduced as though the member abstaining were not a member of the body or committee.

6. The provisions of this section do not, under any circumstances:

(a) Prohibit a member of a local legislative body from requesting or introducing a legislative measure; or

(b) Require a member of a local legislative body to take any particular action before or while requesting or introducing a legislative measure.

7. The provisions of this section do not, under any circumstances, apply to State Legislators or allow the Commission to exercise jurisdiction or authority over State Legislators. The responsibility of a State Legislator to make disclosures concerning gifts, loans, interests or commitments and the responsibility of a State Legislator to abstain from voting upon or advocating the passage or failure of a matter are governed by the Standing Rules of the Legislative Department of State Government which are adopted, administered and enforced exclusively by the appropriate bodies of the Legislative Department of State Government pursuant to Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution.

8. As used in this section:

3. The provisions of this section do not apply to the extent that they conflict or are otherwise inconsistent with any provision of the Constitution of the State of Nevada regarding the power to judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of or to punish, impeach, expel or remove from office the Governor, other state and judicial officers or State Legislators.

1. NRS 11.190 contains a generally applicable 2-year statute of limitations for any action upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, where the action is given to a person or the State.

2. Because NRS 281A.480 authorizes the Commission on Ethics to impose civil penalties on a current or former public officer or employee for a violation of chapter 281A of NRS, the existing 2-year statute of limitations in NRS 11.190 is applicable to proceedings commenced against a current or former public officer or employee pursuant to chapter 281A of NRS.

3. By enacting the 2-year statute of limitations in NRS 281A.280, as amended by section 8.55 of this act, the Legislature is substituting in a continuing way the 2-year statute of limitations in NRS 281A.280 for the existing 2-year statute of limitations in NRS 11.190 with regard to violations of chapter 281A of NRS.

4. Therefore, the 2-year statute of limitations in NRS 281A.280, as amended by section 8.55 of this act, is applicable to any proceeding against a current or former public officer or employee for a violation of chapter 281A of NRS if the proceeding is commenced on or after the effective date of section 8.55 of this act, whether or not the violation occurred before that effective date.

Sec. 27. 1. This section and sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 7.4 and 9 of this act become effective on January 1, 2009.

Senate Bill No. 183.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 751.

AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; ~~[revising provisions relating to systems for obtaining solar or wind energy; revising the provisions~~

~~governing the regulation of certain streets in common-interest communities;~~] revising provisions concerning voting rights exercised by delegates or representatives; prohibiting an association in a common-interest community from imposing an assessment against the owners of certain tax-exempt property; clarifying various provisions governing common-interest communities; making various other changes to the provisions governing common-interest communities; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

[~~Existing law provides that a covenant, restriction or condition in a deed, contract or other legal instrument cannot unreasonably restrict the use of a system for obtaining solar or wind energy. (NRS 111.239, 278.0208) Sections 1 and 45 of this bill specify the circumstances under which a specification regarding the color of such a system is enforceable.~~]

Section 3 of this bill provides additional ethical requirements for members of an executive board by requiring a member who stands to gain any personal profit or compensation from a matter before the executive board to disclose the matter to the executive board and to abstain from voting on the matter. (NRS 116.31185, 116.31187)

[~~Section 4 of this bill: (1) states that the provisions of chapter 116 of NRS do not modify the tariffs, rules and standards of a public utility; and (2) provides that the governing documents of an association must be consistent and not conflict with the tariffs, rules and standards of a public utility.~~

~~Existing law provides that certain common-interest communities are prohibited from regulating motor vehicles on thoroughfares accepted by the State or local governments for public use. (NRS 116.350) Section 5 of this bill prohibits a common-interest community from restricting the operation of motorcycles. Section 6 of this bill prohibits a common-interest community from using information from radar guns or other devices unless the radar gun or device meets certain specifications and the person operating the radar gun or device meets certain qualifications.~~]

Section 5.5 of this bill authorizes the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, or the Administrator of the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry with the Commission's approval, to adopt regulations to require any additional disclosures in the sale of a unit as the Commission deems necessary.

Under existing law, a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, and a common-interest community, with a declaration so providing, that consists of at least 1,000 units, may have the voting rights of the units' owners in the association for that common-interest community be exercised by delegates or representatives. (NRS 116.1201, 116.31105) Sections 8, 14, 15, 18, 20 and 21 of this bill prohibit the use of delegates or representatives to exercise the voting rights of units' owners in the election or removal of a member of the executive board. Also, sections 9 and 22 of this bill provide that this form of voting may occur only during the period that the declarant is in control of the association and during the 2-year period after the declarant's control of the association is terminated. A master association which governs a time-share plan created pursuant to chapter 119A of NRS is excluded from these new provisions and is allowed to continue using delegates or representatives to exercise the voting rights of owners of time shares. A master association which governs a planned community that is exempt from the provisions of chapter 116 of NRS is also excluded from these new provisions.

Section 11 of this bill prohibits an association from imposing an assessment against the owner of any property in the common-interest community that is exempt from taxation pursuant to NRS 361.125. Section 46 of this bill provides that this prohibition applies to such owners who are not obligated to pay assessments as of January 1, 2009.

Section 12 of this bill provides that: (1) a unit's owner must receive notice of a violation and possible fine; (2) an association may not impose a fine against a unit's owner or tenant of a unit's owner for a vehicular violation of the governing documents committed by a person delivering goods to, or performing services for, a unit's owner or tenant of a unit's owner; (3) a member of the executive board cannot participate in hearings on fines if he has not paid his assessments; and (4) the association must provide written confirmation when a fine is paid. (NRS 116.31031)

Section 13 of this bill requires an association to establish an account for a unit owner's payments for fines, which must be kept separate from any account established for assessments. (NRS 116.310315)

Section 14 of this bill increases the maximum term of office for a member of an executive board from 2 years to 3 years. (NRS 116.31034) Section 14 also provides that an association is not obligated to distribute any disclosure made by a candidate for the executive board if the disclosure contains information that is believed to be defamatory, libelous or profane.

Section 16 of this bill requires that a declarant deliver to an association an ancillary audit of the association's money and audited financial statements from the date of the last audit until the date the declarant's control ends. (NRS 116.31038) Section 14 also requires the declarant to pay for the costs of the ancillary audit.

Sections 35-37 and 39-44 of this bill eliminate the issuance of permits to reserve study specialists and instead provide for their registration. (NRS 116.750, 116A.120, 116A.260, 116A.420-116A.900)

Section 19 of this bill lengthens the period between which meetings of the executive board must be held from every 90 days to every quarter, but not less than every 100 days. (NRS 116.31083)

~~[~~ ~~Section 23 of this bill revises provisions relating to financial statements for certain associations. (NRS 116.31144)~~

~~Existing law provides that an association has the statutory obligation to: (1) fund adequately its reserves; (2) include in its annual budget a statement concerning its reserves and whether it will be necessary to impose any~~

~~special assessments; and (3) review its study of the reserves on an annual basis and make any appropriate adjustments necessary to ensure that the reserves are always funded adequately. (NRS 116.3115, 116.31151, 116.31152) Section 24 of this bill clarifies existing law by explicitly stating that notwithstanding any provision of the governing documents to the contrary, the executive board may, without seeking or obtaining the approval of units' owners, impose any necessary and reasonable assessments to establish adequate reserves.~~]

Existing law requires certain signatures before money in the reserve account of an association may be withdrawn. (NRS 116.31153) Section 26 of this bill also requires certain signatures before money in the operating account of an association may be withdrawn, unless the withdrawal is to transfer money to the reserve account or to make automatic payments for utilities.

Section 28 of this bill excludes the books, records and other papers of the association which are in the process of being developed and have not yet been placed on an agenda for final approval by the executive board from the material which the board must make available upon the written request of a unit's owner. (NRS 116.31175) Section 28 also provides that if an official publication contains any mention of a candidate or ballot question or contains the views or opinions of the association concerning an issue of official interest, the official publication must, upon request, provide equal space and equivalent exposure to opposing views and opinions. In addition, section 28 provides immunity from criminal or civil liability for an association and its officers, employees and agents who publish or disclose information pursuant to the duties imposed by this section.

Section 29 of this bill expands the prohibition against certain contracts between an association and a member of the executive board or officer to include contracts involving financing. (NRS 116.31187)

[~~Existing law provides that except as otherwise provided in the declaration, an association may not require a unit's owner to secure or obtain any approval from the association in order to rent or lease his unit. (NRS 116.335) Section 30 of this bill provides that unless at the time a unit's owner purchases his unit the declaration prohibited the unit's owner from renting or leasing his unit or required the unit's owner to secure or obtain any approval from the association in order to rent or lease his unit, the association may not: (1) prohibit the unit's owner from renting or leasing his unit; or (2) require the unit's owner to secure or obtain any approval from the association in order to rent or lease his unit.~~]

Section 31 of this bill provides additional rights to units' owners by mandating notice before an association may interrupt utility service to a unit's owner. (NRS 116.345)

[~~Existing law provides that certain common interest communities are prohibited from regulating motor vehicles on thoroughfares accepted by the State or local governments for public use. (NRS 116.350) Section 32 of this~~

~~bill prohibits a common interest community from restricting the parking of certain utility service vehicles, law enforcement vehicles and emergency services vehicles.~~

~~Existing law provides that an association may charge certain fees for furnishing certain documents and certificates in connection with the resale of a unit. (NRS 116.4109) Section 33 of this bill provides that if the association enters into a contract or agreement with any person or entity to furnish such documents or certificates, the contract or agreement must not allow a unit's owner to be charged any fee that exceeds the amount of the fee that the association itself may charge. Additionally, section 33 provides that an association may not charge a unit's owner, and may not require a unit's owner to pay, any fee related to the resale of a unit that is not specifically authorized, including, without limitation, any transaction fee, transfer fee, asset enhancement fee or other similar fee, except it may charge a fee to transfer the unit to a new owner in the association books and records based on the actual cost incurred.~~]

Section 34 of this bill deems deposits made in connection with the purchase or reservation of units from a person required to deliver a public offering statement placed in out-of-state escrow companies as being deposited in this State if the escrow holder has a legal right to conduct business in the State, has a registered agent in this State and has consented to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State. (NRS 116.411)

[~~Section 38 of this bill provides for the issuance of temporary certificates for community managers for a period of 1 year under certain circumstances. In addition, section 38 requires the posting of bonds by community managers in an amount established by regulation, based on a sliding scale. (NRS 116A.410)~~]

(2) Part of a cooperative may be conveyed, or all or part of a cooperative may be subjected to a security interest, only pursuant to NRS 116.3112.

(i) Grant easements, leases, licenses and concessions through or over the common elements.

(j) Impose and receive any payments, fees or charges for the use, rental or operation of the common elements, other than limited common elements described in subsections 2 and 4 of NRS 116.2102, and for services provided to the units' owners.

(k) Impose charges for late payment of assessments.

(l) Impose construction penalties when authorized pursuant to NRS 116.310305.

(r) Exercise all other powers that may be exercised in this State by legal entities of the same type as the association.

(s) Direct the removal of vehicles improperly parked on property owned or leased by the association, as authorized pursuant to NRS 487.038, or improperly parked on any road, street, alley or other thoroughfare within the common-interest community in violation of the governing documents. In addition to complying with the requirements of NRS 487.038 and any requirements in the governing documents, if a vehicle is improperly parked as described in this paragraph, the association must post written notice in a conspicuous place on the vehicle or provide oral or written notice to the owner or operator of the vehicle at least 48 hours before the association may direct the removal of the vehicle, unless the vehicle:

(1) Is blocking a fire hydrant, fire lane or parking space designated for the handicapped; or

(2) Poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community.

(t) Exercise any other powers necessary and proper for the governance and operation of the association.

2. The declaration may not impose limitations on the power of the association to deal with the declarant which are more restrictive than the limitations imposed on the power of the association to deal with other persons.

3. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter or the governing documents to the contrary, an association may not impose any assessment pursuant to this chapter or the governing documents on the owner of any property in the common-interest community that is exempt from taxation pursuant to NRS 361.125. For the purposes of this subsection, "assessment" does not include any charge for any utility services, including, without limitation, telecommunications, broadband communications, cable television, electricity, natural gas, sewer services, garbage collection, water or for any other service which is delivered to and used or consumed directly by the property in the common-interest community that is exempt from taxation pursuant to NRS 361.125.

Sec. 12. NRS 116.31031 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31031 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a unit's owner or a tenant or ~~[guest]~~ invitee of a unit's owner violates any provision of the governing documents of an association, the executive board may, if the governing documents so provide:

(a) Prohibit, for a reasonable time, the unit's owner or the tenant or ~~[guest]~~ invitee of the unit's owner from:

(1) Voting on matters related to the common-interest community.

(2) Using the common elements. The provisions of this subparagraph do not prohibit the unit's owner or the tenant or ~~[~~guest~~]~~ invitee of the unit's owner from using any vehicular or pedestrian ingress or egress to go to or from the unit, including any area used for parking.

(b) Impose a fine against the unit's owner or the tenant or ~~[~~guest~~]~~ invitee of the unit's owner for each violation, except that ~~[~~a~~]~~ ***:

(1) A fine may not be imposed for a violation that is the subject of a construction penalty pursuant to NRS 116.310305 ~~[~~.~~]~~ ; and

(2) A fine may not be imposed against a unit's owner or a tenant or invitee of a unit's owner for a violation of the governing documents which involves a vehicle and which is committed by a person who is delivering goods to, or performing services for, the unit's owner or tenant or invitee of the unit's owner.

➥ If the violation poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community, the amount of the fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be determined by the executive board in accordance with the governing documents. If the violation does not pose an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community, the amount of the fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be determined by the executive board in accordance with the governing documents, but the amount of the fine must not exceed $100 for each violation or a total amount of $1,000, whichever is less. The limitations on the amount of the fine do not apply to any interest, charges or costs that may be collected by the association pursuant to this section if the fine becomes past due.

2. The executive board may not impose a fine pursuant to subsection 1 unless:

(a) Not less than 30 days before the violation, the unit's owner and, if different, the person against whom the fine will be imposed had been provided with written notice of the applicable provisions of the governing documents that form the basis of the violation; and

(b) Within a reasonable time after the discovery of the violation, the unit's owner and, if different, the person against whom the fine will be imposed has been provided with:

(1) Written notice specifying the details of the violation, the amount of the fine, and the date, time and location for a hearing on the violation; and

(2) A reasonable opportunity to contest the violation at the hearing.

➥ For the purposes of this subsection, a unit's owner shall not be deemed to have received written notice unless written notice is mailed to the address of the unit and, if different, to a mailing address specified by the unit's owner.

3. The executive board must schedule the date, time and location for the hearing on the violation so that the unit's owner and, if different, the person against whom the fine will be imposed is provided with a reasonable opportunity to prepare for the hearing and to be present at the hearing.

4. The executive board must hold a hearing before it may impose the fine, unless the fine is paid before the hearing or unless the unit's owner and, if different, the person against whom the fine will be imposed:

(a) ~~[~~Pays the fine;

~~(b)]~~ Executes a written waiver of the right to the hearing; or

~~[(c)]~~ (b) Fails to appear at the hearing after being provided with proper notice of the hearing.

5. If a fine is imposed pursuant to subsection 1 and the violation is not cured within 14 days, or within any longer period that may be established by the executive board, the violation shall be deemed a continuing violation. Thereafter, the executive board may impose an additional fine for the violation for each 7-day period or portion thereof that the violation is not cured. Any additional fine may be imposed without notice and an opportunity to be heard.

6. If the governing documents so provide, the executive board may appoint a committee, with not less than three members, to conduct hearings on violations and to impose fines pursuant to this section. While acting on behalf of the executive board for those limited purposes, the committee and its members are entitled to all privileges and immunities and are subject to all duties and requirements of the executive board and its members.

7. A member of the executive board shall not participate in any hearing or cast any vote relating to a fine imposed pursuant to subsection 1 if the member has not paid all assessments which are due to the association by the member. If a member of the executive board:

(a) Participates in a hearing in violation of this subsection, any action taken at the hearing is void.

(b) Casts a vote in violation of this subsection, the vote is void.

8. The provisions of this section establish the minimum procedural requirements that the executive board must follow before it may impose a fine. The provisions of this section do not preempt any provisions of the governing documents that provide greater procedural protections.

~~[8.]~~ 9. Any past due fine:

(a) Bears interest at the rate established by the association, not to exceed the legal rate per annum.

(b) May include any costs of collecting the past due fine at a rate established by the association. If the past due fine is for a violation that does not threaten the health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community, the rate established by the association for the costs of collecting the past due fine:

(1) May not exceed $20, if the outstanding balance is less than $200.

(2) May not exceed $50, if the outstanding balance is $200 or more, but is less than $500.

(3) May not exceed $100, if the outstanding balance is $500 or more, but is less than $1,000.

(4) May not exceed $250, if the outstanding balance is $1,000 or more, but is less than $5,000.

(5) May not exceed $500, if the outstanding balance is $5,000 or more.

(c) May include any costs incurred by the association during a civil action to enforce the payment of the past due fine.

~~[9.]~~ 10. If requested by a person upon whom a fine was imposed, not later than 60 days after receiving any payment of a fine, an association shall provide to the person upon whom the fine was imposed a statement of the remaining balance owed.

11. As used in this section:

(a) "Costs of collecting" includes, without limitation, any collection fee, filing fee, recording fee, referral fee, fee for postage or delivery, and any other fee or cost that an association may reasonably charge to the unit's owner for the collection of a past due fine. The term does not include any costs incurred by an association during a civil action to enforce the payment of a past due fine.

(b) "Outstanding balance" means the amount of a past due fine that remains unpaid before any interest, charges for late payment or costs of collecting the past due fine are added.

Sec. 13. NRS 116.310315 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.310315 If an association has imposed a fine against a unit's owner or a tenant or ~~[~~guest~~]~~ invitee of a unit's owner pursuant to NRS 116.31031 for violations of the governing documents of the association, the association ~~[~~:

~~1. Shall, in the books and records of the association, account for the fine separately from any assessment, fee or other charge; and~~

~~2. Shall not apply, in whole or in part, any payment made by the unit's owner for any assessment, fee or other charge toward the payment of the outstanding balance of the fine or any costs of collecting the fine, unless the unit's owner provides written authorization which directs the association to apply the payment made by the unit's owner in such a manner.~~] shall establish a compliance account to account for the fine, which must be separate from any account established for assessments.

Sec. 14. NRS 116.31034 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31034 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS 116.212, not later than the termination of any period of declarant's control, the units' owners shall elect an executive board of at least three members, at least a majority of whom must be units' owners. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, the remaining members of the executive board do not have to be units' owners. The executive board shall elect the officers of the association. The members of the executive board and the officers of the association shall take office upon election.

2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed ~~[2]~~ 3 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation on the number of terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive board.

3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant; and

(b) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.

4. Not less than 30 days before the preparation of a ballot for the election of members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit's owner of his eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board. Each unit's owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may have his name placed on the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected by the members of the executive board or a nominating committee established by the association.

5. Each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a member of the executive board must:

(a) Make a good faith effort to disclose any financial, business, professional or personal relationship or interest that would result or would appear to a reasonable person to result in a potential conflict of interest for the candidate if the candidate were to be elected to serve as a member of the executive board; and

(b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good standing. For the purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall not be deemed to be in "good standing" if the candidate has any unpaid and past due assessments or construction penalties that are required to be paid to the association.

➥ The candidate must make all disclosures required pursuant to this subsection in writing to the association with his candidacy information. ~~[The]~~ Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the association shall distribute the disclosures , on behalf of the candidate, to each member of the association with the ballot in the manner established in the bylaws of the association. The association is not obligated to distribute any disclosure pursuant to this subsection if the disclosure contains information that is believed to be defamatory, libelous or profane.

6. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant:

(a) A person may not be a member of the executive board or an officer of the association if the person, his spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for that association.

(b) A person may not be a member of the executive board of a master association or an officer of that master association if the person, his spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for:

(1) That master association; or

(2) Any association that is subject to the governing documents of that master association.

7. An officer, employee, agent or director of a corporate owner of a unit, a trustee or designated beneficiary of a trust that owns a unit, a partner of a partnership that owns a unit, a member or manager of a limited-liability company that owns a unit, and a fiduciary of an estate that owns a unit may be an officer of the association or a member of the executive board. In all events where the person serving or offering to serve as an officer of the association or a member of the executive board is not the record owner, he shall file proof in the records of the association that:

(a) He is associated with the corporate owner, trust, partnership, limited-liability company or estate as required by this subsection; and

(b) Identifies the unit or units owned by the corporate owner, trust, partnership, limited-liability company or estate.

8. ~~[The]~~ Except as otherwise provided in NRS 116.31105, the election of any member of the executive board must be conducted by secret written ballot ~~[unless the declaration of the association provides that voting rights may be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105. (a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

(b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.

(c) A quorum is not required for the election of any member of the executive board.

(d) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome of the election.

(e) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

(f) The incumbent members of the executive board and each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a member of the executive board may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

9. Each member of the executive board shall, within 90 days after his appointment or election, certify in writing to the association, on a form prescribed by the Administrator, that he has read and understands the governing documents of the association and the provisions of this chapter to the best of his ability. The Administrator may require the association to submit a copy of the certification of each member of the executive board of that association at the time the association registers with the Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 116.31158.

Sec. 15. NRS 116.31036 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31036 1. Notwithstanding any provision of the declaration or bylaws to the contrary, any member of the executive board, other than a member appointed by the declarant, may be removed from the executive board, with or without cause, if at a removal election held pursuant to this section the number of votes cast in favor of removal constitutes:

(a) At least 35 percent of the total number of voting members of the association; and

(b) At least a majority of all votes cast in that removal election.

2. ~~[The]~~ Except as otherwise provided in NRS 116.31105, the removal of any member of the executive board must be conducted by secret written ballot ~~[unless the declaration of the association provides that voting rights may be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105. (b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.

(c) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome.

(d) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

(e) The incumbent members of the executive board, including, without limitation, the member who is subject to the removal, may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

3. If a member of an executive board is named as a respondent or sued for liability for actions undertaken in his role as a member of the board, the association shall indemnify him for his losses or claims, and undertake all costs of defense, unless it is proven that he acted with willful or wanton misfeasance or with gross negligence. After such proof, the association is no longer liable for the cost of defense, and may recover costs already expended from the member of the executive board who so acted. Members of the executive board are not personally liable to the victims of crimes occurring on the property. Punitive damages may not be recovered against the association, but may be recovered from persons whose activity gave rise to the damages.

4. The provisions of this section do not prohibit the Commission from taking any disciplinary action against a member of an executive board pursuant to NRS 116.745 to 116.795, inclusive.

Sec. 16. NRS 116.31038 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, deliver to the association a reserve account that contains the declarant's share of the amounts then due, and control of the account. If the declaration was recorded before October 1, 1999, and, at the time the control of the declarant ends, he has failed to pay his share of the amounts due, the executive board shall authorize the declarant to pay the deficiency in installments for a period of 3 years, unless the declarant and the executive board agree to a shorter period.

9. Any renewable permits and approvals issued by governmental bodies applicable to the common-interest community which are in force and any other permits and approvals so issued and applicable which are required by law to be kept on the premises of the community.

10. Written warranties of the contractor, subcontractors, suppliers and manufacturers that are still effective.

If the governing documents do not designate an annual meeting date of the units' owners, a meeting of the units' owners must be held 1 year after the date of the last meeting of the units' owners. If the units' owners have not held a meeting for 1 year, a meeting of the units' owners must be held on the following March 1.

2. Special meetings of the units' owners may be called by the president, by a majority of the executive board or by units' owners constituting at least 10 percent, or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the total number of voting members of the association. The same number of units' owners may also call a removal election pursuant to NRS 116.31036. To call a special meeting or a removal election, the units' owners must submit a written petition which is signed by the required percentage of the total number of voting members of the association pursuant to this section and which is mailed, return receipt requested, or served by a process server to the executive board or the community manager for the association. If the petition calls for a removal election and:

(b) The voting rights of the units' owners will be exercised through the use of secret written ballots pursuant to NRS 116.31036, the secret written ballots for the removal election must be sent in the manner required by NRS 116.31036 not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received, and the executive board shall set the date for the meeting to open and count the secret written ballots so that the meeting is held not more than 15 days after the deadline for returning the secret written ballots.

(c) A period devoted to comments by units' owners and discussion of those comments. Except in emergencies, no action may be taken upon a matter raised under this item of the agenda until the matter itself has been specifically included on an agenda as an item upon which action may be taken pursuant to paragraph (b).

A copy of the minutes or a summary of the minutes must be provided to any unit's owner upon request and, if required by the executive board, upon payment to the association of the cost of providing the copy to the unit's owner.

7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, the minutes of each meeting of the units' owners must include:

(a) The date, time and place of the meeting;

(b) The substance of all matters proposed, discussed or decided at the meeting; and

11. The units' owners may approve, at the annual meeting of the units' owners, the minutes of the prior annual meeting of the units' owners and the minutes of any prior special meetings of the units' owners. A quorum is not required to be present when the units' owners approve the minutes.

12. As used in this section, "emergency" means any occurrence or combination of occurrences that:

(a) Could not have been reasonably foreseen;

(b) Affects the health, welfare and safety of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community;

(c) Requires the immediate attention of, and possible action by, the executive board; and

Such notice must be:

(a) Sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner;

3. In an emergency, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall, if practicable, cause notice of the meeting to be sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community. 4. The notice of a meeting of the executive board must state the time and place of the meeting and include a copy of the agenda for the meeting or the date on which and the locations where copies of the agenda may be conveniently obtained by the units' owners. The notice must include notification of the right of a unit's owner to:

6. At least once every ~~[90]~~ quarter, and not less than once every 100 days, unless the declaration or bylaws of the association impose more stringent standards, the executive board shall review, at a minimum, the following financial information at one of its meetings:

7. The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause minutes to be recorded or otherwise taken at each meeting of the executive board. Not more than 30 days after each such meeting, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause the minutes or a summary of the minutes of the meetings to be made available to the units' owners. A copy of the minutes or a summary of the minutes must be provided to any unit's owner upon request and, if required by the executive board, upon payment to the association of the cost of providing the copy to the unit's owner.

8. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 9 and NRS 116.31085, the minutes of each meeting of the executive board must include:

11. A unit's owner may record on audiotape or any other means of sound reproduction a meeting of the executive board, unless the executive board is meeting in executive session, if the unit's owner, before recording the meeting, provides notice of his intent to record the meeting to the members of the executive board and the other units' owners who are in attendance at the meeting.

12. As used in this section, "emergency" means any occurrence or combination of occurrences that:

(a) Could not have been reasonably foreseen;

(b) Affects the health, welfare and safety of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community;

(c) Requires the immediate attention of, and possible action by, the executive board; and

(d) Makes it impracticable to comply with the provisions of subsection 2 or 5.

Sec. 20. NRS 116.311 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.311 1. If only one of several owners of a unit is present at a meeting of the association, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that unit. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners cast the votes allocated to that unit without protest made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the unit.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, votes allocated to a unit may be cast pursuant to a proxy executed by a unit's owner. A unit's owner may give a proxy only to a member of his immediate family, a tenant of the unit's owner who resides in the common-interest community, another unit's owner who resides in the common-interest community, or a delegate or representative when authorized pursuant to NRS 116.31105. If a unit is owned by more than one person, each owner of the unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the unit through an executed proxy. A unit's owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.

3. Before a vote may be cast pursuant to a proxy:

(a) The proxy must be dated.

(b) The proxy must not purport to be revocable without notice.

(c) The proxy must designate the meeting for which it is executed.

(d) The proxy must designate each specific item on the agenda of the meeting for which the unit's owner has executed the proxy, except that the unit's owner may execute the proxy without designating any specific items on the agenda of the meeting if the proxy is to be used solely for determining whether a quorum is present for the meeting. If the proxy designates one or more specific items on the agenda of the meeting for which the unit's owner has executed the proxy, the proxy must indicate, for each specific item designated in the proxy, whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative on behalf of the unit's owner. If the proxy does not indicate whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative for a particular item on the agenda of the meeting, the proxy must be treated, with regard to that particular item, as if the unit's owner were present but not voting on that particular item.

(e) The holder of the proxy must disclose at the beginning of the meeting for which the proxy is executed the number of proxies pursuant to which the holder will be casting votes.

4. A proxy terminates immediately after the conclusion of the meeting for which it is executed.

5. ~~[~~A~~]~~ Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a vote may not be cast pursuant to a proxy for the election or removal of a member of the executive board of an association . ~~[~~unless~~]~~ A vote may be cast pursuant to a proxy for the election or removal of a member of the executive board of a master association which governs a time-share plan created pursuant to chapter 119A of NRS if the proxy is exercised through a delegate or representative authorized pursuant to NRS 116.31105.

6. The holder of a proxy may not cast a vote on behalf of the unit's owner who executed the proxy in a manner that is contrary to the proxy.

7. A proxy is void if the proxy or the holder of the proxy violates any provision of subsections 1 to 6, inclusive.

8. If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the common-interest community must be cast by the lessees of leased units rather than the units' owners who have leased the units:

(a) The provisions of subsections 1 to 7, inclusive, apply to the lessees as if they were the units' owners;

(b) The units' owners who have leased their units to the lessees may not cast votes on those specified matters;

(c) The lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records and other rights respecting those matters as if they were the units' owners; and

(d) The units' owners must be given notice, in the manner provided in NRS 116.3108, of all meetings at which the lessees are entitled to vote.

9. If any votes are allocated to a unit that is owned by the association, those votes may not be cast, by proxy or otherwise, for any purpose.

Sec. 21. NRS 116.31105 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31105 1. If the declaration so provides, in a common-interest community that consists of at least 1,000 units, the voting rights of the units' owners in the association for that common-interest community may be exercised by delegates or representatives ~~[.]~~ except that, in the election or removal of a member of the executive board, the voting rights of the units' owners may not be exercised by delegates or representatives.

4. For the purposes of subsection 1, each unit that a declarant has reserved the right to create pursuant to NRS 116.2105 and for which developmental rights exist must be counted in determining the number of units in a common-interest community.

~~[4.]~~ 5. For the purposes of subsection 3, each time share that a developer has reserved the right to create pursuant to paragraph (g) of subsection 2 of NRS 119A.380 must be counted in determining the number of time shares in a time-share plan.

6. Notwithstanding any provision in the declaration, the election of any delegate or representative must be conducted by secret written ballot.

~~[5.]~~ 7. When an election of a delegate or representative is conducted by secret written ballot:

(a) The secretary or other officer of the association specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret written ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

(b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.

(c) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association in the manner prescribed on the ballot may be counted to determine the outcome of the election.

(d) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting called for the purpose of electing delegates or representatives. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

(e) A candidate for delegate or representative may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association in the manner prescribed on the ballot before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting called for that purpose.

6. Notwithstanding any provision in the declaration, the election of any delegate or representative must be conducted by secret written ballot.

7. When an election of a delegate or representative is conducted by secret written ballot:

9. The provisions of subsection 8 do not apply to:

(a) A time-share plan created pursuant to chapter 119A of NRS which is governed by a master association; or

Amendment No. 736.

AN ACT relating to local governmental planning; authorizing the extension of the validity of certain building permits and development agreements for a maximum of 15 years beyond the original expiration date if the land is leased for renewable energy generation projects; providing that certain changes to regulations or laws which are made after the issuance of the permit or the time the agreement is entered into, and which apply environmental, life or safety restrictions to the land, apply to the permit ~~[.]~~ or agreement; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prohibits construction without a building permit issued by the building official with authority over the land where any proposed construction would take place. (NRS 278.610) Existing law also authorizes the governing body of a city or county to enter into an agreement with a person concerning the development of land. (NRS 278.0201) This bill authorizes the extension of the validity of any such permit or agreement beyond its original expiration date if: (1) the permit holder or landowner cannot finance the proposed project; and (2) the land is leased for certain renewable energy projects. The extension is available for permits and agreements for residential and commercial development for a maximum of 15 years after the original expiration date of the permit or agreement. This bill also provides that if a building permit or development agreement is extended, no condition may be placed on the permit or agreement that was not imposed on the original permit or agreement. Additionally, this bill provides that new regulations or laws that apply environmental, life or safety protections to the land in question would also apply, but other zoning changes enacted after the issuance of the permit would not. Extensions for building permits and agreements pursuant to the provisions of this bill will not be issued after June 30, 2013.

Amendment No. 656.

SUMMARY—Makes various changes concerning ~~[the procedures for adopting administrative regulations and the requirements of the Open Meeting Law.]~~ governmental administration. (BDR 18-62)

AN ACT relating to governmental administration; revising the provisions governing the notice of intention to act on a proposed regulation by a state agency subject to the Nevada Administrative Procedure Act; providing that workshops and hearings regarding a proposed regulation of such a state agency are subject to the Open Meeting Law; revising the procedure for the review of permanent regulations and certain temporary regulations by the Legislative Commission or the Subcommittee to Review Regulations; requiring a public body to make available certain documents to the public at a public meeting; eliminating certain nonprofit entities affiliated with a university or college from the definition of "university foundation" for purposes of the Open Meeting Law, the requirements relating to public records, the exemption from the tax on the transfer of real property and other requirements pertaining to university foundations; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

The Nevada Administrative Procedure Act requires each state agency that is not exempt from the Act to provide 30 days' notice of its intended action on any proposed regulation. The agency is required to wait to give such notice until at least 30 days after delivering the proposed regulation to the Legislative Counsel or until the agency has received the approved or revised text of the proposed regulation from the Legislative Counsel, whichever occurs first. (NRS 233B.060) Section 1 of this bill makes receipt of the approved or revised text of the proposed regulation from the Legislative Counsel the only required condition before provision of the 30 days' notice. Section 3 of this bill makes a conforming change.

Existing law prescribes a procedure for the review of certain temporary regulations and of adopted permanent regulations by the Legislative Commission or the Subcommittee to Review Regulations for conformity with statutory authority and legislative intent. Under existing law, unless the Commission or Subcommittee objects to such a temporary or permanent regulation, the regulation becomes effective. (NRS 233B.0633, 233B.067, 233B.0675) Sections 4-6 of this bill require the Commission or Subcommittee to either affirmatively approve or object to a regulation.

The Open Meeting Law requires all meetings of public bodies to be open and public unless otherwise provided by a specific statute. (NRS 241.020) Section 2 of this bill provides that each workshop and hearing required to be conducted concerning administrative regulations is subject to the Open Meeting Law. (NRS 233B.061)

Under the Open Meeting Law, a public body is required, upon request and at no charge, to provide a copy of an agenda for the meeting, any proposed ordinance or regulation to be discussed at the meeting, and other supporting documents to members of the public body for an item on the agenda. (NRS 241.020) Section 7 of this bill requires that a public body make at least one copy of those documents available to the public at the public meeting to which the documents pertain.

Section 8 of this bill amends the definition of "university foundation" to exclude certain nonprofit organizations affiliated with a university or college for the purposes of provisions applicable to university foundations, including the Open Meeting Law, the requirements relating to public records and the exemption from the tax on the transfer of real property. (NRS 239.005, 241.015, 375.090, 396.405, 396.535)

Unless it is submitted between July 1 of an even-numbered year and July 1 of the succeeding odd-numbered year, the Legislative Counsel shall return it with any appropriate revisions within 30 days. If the agency is a licensing board as defined in NRS 439B.225 and the proposed regulation relates to standards for licensing or registration or for the renewal of a license or a certificate of registration issued to a person or facility regulated by the agency, the Legislative Counsel shall also deliver one copy of the approved or revised text of the regulation to the Legislative Committee on Health Care.

3. An agency may adopt a temporary regulation between August 1 of an even-numbered year and July 1 of the succeeding odd-numbered year without following the procedure required by this section and NRS 233B.064, but any such regulation expires by limitation on November 1 of the odd-numbered year. 4. An agency may amend or suspend a permanent regulation between August 1 of an even-numbered year and July 1 of the succeeding odd-numbered year by adopting a temporary regulation in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as prescribed in subsection 3.

2. If a temporary regulation that the Legislative Commission is requested to examine pursuant to subsection 1 was required to be adopted by the agency pursuant to a federal statute or regulation and the temporary regulation exceeds the specific statutory authority of the agency or sets forth requirements that are more stringent than a statute of this State, the agency shall submit a statement to the Legislative Commission that adoption of the temporary regulation was required by a federal statute or regulation. The statement must include the specific citation of the federal statute or regulation requiring such adoption.

Sec. 12. NRS 116.3115 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.3115 1. Until the association makes an assessment for common expenses, the declarant shall pay all common expenses. After an assessment has been made by the association, assessments must be made at least annually, based on a budget adopted at least annually by the association in accordance with the requirements set forth in NRS 116.31151. Unless the declaration imposes more stringent standards, the budget must include a budget for the daily operation of the association and a budget for the reserves required by paragraph (b) of subsection 2.

2. Except for assessments under subsections 4 to 7, inclusive:

(a) All common expenses, including the reserves, must be assessed against all the units in accordance with the allocations set forth in the declaration pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 of NRS 116.2107.

(b) The association shall establish adequate reserves, funded on a reasonable basis, for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements ~~[.]~~ and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore. The reserves may be used only for those purposes, including, without limitation, repairing, replacing and restoring roofs, roads and sidewalks, and must not be used for daily maintenance. The association may comply with the provisions of this paragraph through a funding plan that is designed to allocate the costs for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore over a period of years if the funding plan is designed in an actuarially sound manner which will ensure that sufficient money is available when the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements or any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore are necessary.

3. Any past due assessment for common expenses or installment thereof bears interest at the rate established by the association not exceeding 18 percent per year.

4. ~~[To the extent required by the declaration:]~~ Except as otherwise provided in the governing documents:

(a) Any common expense associated with the maintenance, repair, restoration or replacement of a limited common element must be assessed against the units to which that limited common element is assigned, equally, or in any other proportion the declaration provides;

(b) Any common expense or portion thereof benefiting fewer than all of the units must be assessed exclusively against the units benefited; and

(c) The costs of insurance must be assessed in proportion to risk and the costs of utilities must be assessed in proportion to usage.

5. Assessments to pay a judgment against the association may be made only against the units in the common-interest community at the time the judgment was entered, in proportion to their liabilities for common expenses.

6. If any common expense is caused by the misconduct of any unit's owner, the association may assess that expense exclusively against his unit.

7. The association of a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, is not required to make an assessment against a vacant lot located within the community that is owned by the declarant.

8. If liabilities for common expenses are reallocated, assessments for common expenses and any installment thereof not yet due must be recalculated in accordance with the reallocated liabilities.

9. The association shall provide written notice to each unit's owner of a meeting at which an assessment for a capital improvement is to be considered or action is to be taken on such an assessment at least 21 calendar days before the date of the meeting.

Sec. 12.3. NRS 116.31151 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31151 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 and unless the declaration of a common-interest community imposes more stringent standards, the executive board shall, not less than 30 days or more than 60 days before the beginning of the fiscal year of the association, prepare and distribute to each unit's owner a copy of:

(a) The budget for the daily operation of the association. The budget must include, without limitation, the estimated annual revenue and expenditures of the association and any contributions to be made to the reserve account of the association.

(b) The budget to provide adequate funding for the reserves required by paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 116.3115. The budget must include, without limitation:

(1) The current estimated replacement cost, estimated remaining life and estimated useful life of each major component of the common elements ~~[:]~~ and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore;

(2) As of the end of the fiscal year for which the budget is prepared, the current estimate of the amount of cash reserves that are necessary, and the current amount of accumulated cash reserves that are set aside, to repair, replace or restore the major components of the common elements ~~[:]~~ and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore;

(3) A statement as to whether the executive board has determined or anticipates that the levy of one or more special assessments will be necessary to repair, replace or restore any major component of the common elements or any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore or to provide adequate funding for the reserves designated for that purpose; and

(4) A general statement describing the procedures used for the estimation and accumulation of cash reserves pursuant to subparagraph (2), including, without limitation, the qualifications of the person responsible for the preparation of the study of the reserves required by NRS 116.31152.

2. In lieu of distributing copies of the budgets of the association required by subsection 1, the executive board may distribute to each unit's owner a summary of those budgets, accompanied by a written notice that:

(a) The budgets are available for review at the business office of the association or some other suitable location within the county where the common-interest community is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within one of those counties; and

(b) Copies of the budgets will be provided upon request.

3. Within 60 days after adoption of any proposed budget for the common-interest community, the executive board shall provide a summary of the proposed budget to each unit's owner and shall set a date for a meeting of the units' owners to consider ratification of the proposed budget not less than 14 days or more than 30 days after the mailing of the summaries. Unless at that meeting a majority of all units' owners, or any larger vote specified in the declaration, reject the proposed budget, the proposed budget is ratified, whether or not a quorum is present. If the proposed budget is rejected, the periodic budget last ratified by the units' owners must be continued until such time as the units' owners ratify a subsequent budget proposed by the executive board.

116.31152 1. The executive board shall:

(a) At least once every 5 years, cause to be conducted a study of the reserves required to repair, replace and restore the major components of the common elements ~~[.]~~ and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore;

(b) At least annually, review the results of that study to determine whether those reserves are sufficient; and

(c) At least annually, make any adjustments to the association's funding plan which the executive board deems necessary to provide adequate funding for the required reserves.

2. The study of the reserves required by subsection 1 must be conducted by a person who holds a permit issued pursuant to chapter 116A of NRS.

3. The study of the reserves must include, without limitation:

(a) A summary of an inspection of the major components of the common elements and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore;

(b) An identification of the major components of the common elements and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore which have a remaining useful life of less than 30 years;

(c) An estimate of the remaining useful life of each major component of the common elements and any other portion of the common-interest community that the association is obligated to maintain, repair, replace or restore identified pursuant to paragraph (b);

(d) An estimate of the cost of maintenance, repair, replacement or restoration of each major component of the common elements and any other portion of the common-interest community identified pursuant to paragraph (b) during and at the end of its useful life; and

(e) An estimate of the total annual assessment that may be necessary to cover the cost of maintaining, repairing, replacement or restoration of the major components of the common elements and any other portion of the common-interest community identified pursuant to paragraph (b), after subtracting the reserves of the association as of the date of the study, and an estimate of the funding plan that may be necessary to provide adequate funding for the required reserves.

4. A summary of the study of the reserves required by subsection 1 must be submitted to the Division not later than 45 days after the date that the executive board adopts the results of the study.

5. If a common-interest community was developed as part of a planned unit development pursuant to chapter 278A of NRS and is subject to an agreement with a city or county to receive credit against the amount of the residential construction tax that is imposed pursuant to NRS 278.4983 and 278.4985, the association that is organized for the common-interest community may use the money from that credit for the repair, replacement or restoration of park facilities and related improvements if:

(a) The park facilities and related improvements are identified as major components of the common elements of the association; and

(b) The association is obligated to repair, replace or restore the park facilities and related improvements in accordance with the study of the reserves required by subsection 1.

Sec. 13. NRS 116.31175 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31175 1. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the executive board of an association shall, upon the written request of a unit's owner, make available the books, records and other papers of the association for review during the regular working hours of the association, including, without limitation, all contracts to which the association is a party and all records filed with a court relating to a civil or criminal action to which the association is a party. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(a) The personnel records of the employees of the association, except for those records relating to the number of hours worked and the salaries and benefits of those employees;

(b) The records of the association relating to another unit's owner, including, without limitation, any architectural plan or specification submitted by a unit's owner to the association during an approval process required by the governing documents, except for those records described in subsection 2; and

(c) A contract between the association and an attorney.

2. The executive board of an association shall maintain a general record concerning each violation of the governing documents, other than a violation involving a failure to pay an assessment, for which the executive board has imposed a fine, a construction penalty or any other sanction. The general record:

(a) Must contain a general description of the nature of the violation and the type of the sanction imposed. If the sanction imposed was a fine or construction penalty, the general record must specify the amount of the fine or construction penalty.

(b) Must not contain the name or address of the person against whom the sanction was imposed or any other personal information which may be used to identify the person or the location of the unit, if any, that is associated with the violation.

(c) Must be maintained in an organized and convenient filing system or data system that allows a unit's owner to search and review the general records concerning violations of the governing documents.

3. If the executive board refuses to allow a unit's owner to review the books, records or other papers of the association, the Ombudsman may:

(a) On behalf of the unit's owner and upon written request, review the books, records or other papers of the association during the regular working hours of the association; and

(b) If he is denied access to the books, records or other papers, request the Commission, or any member thereof acting on behalf of the Commission, to issue a subpoena for their production.

4. The books, records and other papers of an association must be maintained for at least 10 years. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(a) The minutes of a meeting of the units' owners which must be maintained in accordance with NRS 116.3108; or

(b) The minutes of a meeting of the executive board which must be maintained in accordance with NRS 116.31083.

5. The executive board shall not require a unit's owner to pay an amount in excess of $10 per hour to review any books, records, contracts or other papers of the association pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 14. NRS 116.41095 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.41095 The information statement required by NRS 116.4103 and 116.4109 must be in substantially the following form:

BEFORE YOU PURCHASE PROPERTY IN A COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY
DID YOU KNOW . . .

1. YOU GENERALLY HAVE 5 DAYS TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT?

When you enter into a purchase agreement to buy a home or unit in a common-interest community, in most cases you should receive either a public offering statement, if you are the original purchaser of the home or unit, or a resale package, if you are not the original purchaser. The law generally provides for a 5-day period in which you have the right to cancel the purchase agreement. The 5-day period begins on different starting dates, depending on whether you receive a public offering statement or a resale package. Upon receiving a public offering statement or a resale package, you should make sure you are informed of the deadline for exercising your right to cancel. In order to exercise your right to cancel, the law generally requires that you hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the seller within the 5-day period, or mail the notice of cancellation to the seller by prepaid United States mail within the 5-day period. For more information regarding your right to cancel, see Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4108, if you received a public offering statement, or Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4109, if you received a resale package.

2. YOU ARE AGREEING TO RESTRICTIONS ON HOW YOU CAN USE YOUR PROPERTY?

These restrictions are contained in a document known as the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions. The CC&Rs become a part of the title to your property. They bind you and every future owner of the property whether or not you have read them or had them explained to you. The CC&Rs, together with other "governing documents" (such as association bylaws and rules and regulations), are intended to preserve the character and value of properties in the community, but may also restrict what you can do to improve or change your property and limit how you use and enjoy your property. By purchasing a property encumbered by CC&Rs, you are agreeing to limitations that could affect your lifestyle and freedom of choice. You should review the CC&Rs, and other governing documents before purchasing to make sure that these limitations and controls are acceptable to you. Certain provisions in the CC&Rs and other governing documents may be superseded by contrary provisions of chapter 116 of the Nevada Revised Statutes. The Nevada Revised Statutes are available at the Internet address http://www.leg.state.nv.us/nrs/.

3. YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS FOR AS LONG AS YOU OWN YOUR PROPERTY?

As an owner in a common-interest community, you are responsible for paying your share of expenses relating to the common elements, such as landscaping, shared amenities and the operation of any homeowners' association. The obligation to pay these assessments binds you and every future owner of the property. Owners' fees are usually assessed by the homeowners' association and due monthly. You have to pay dues whether or not you agree with the way the association is managing the property or spending the assessments. The executive board of the association may have the power to change and increase the amount of the assessment and to levy special assessments against your property to meet extraordinary expenses. In some communities, major components of the common elements of the community such as roofs and private roads must be maintained and replaced by the association. If the association is not well managed or fails to provide adequate funding for reserves to repair, replace and restore common elements, you may be required to pay large, special assessments to accomplish these tasks.

4. IF YOU FAIL TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME?

If you do not pay these assessments when due, the association usually has the power to collect them by selling your property in a nonjudicial foreclosure sale. If fees become delinquent, you may also be required to pay penalties and the association's costs and attorney's fees to become current. If you dispute the obligation or its amount, your only remedy to avoid the loss of your home may be to file a lawsuit and ask a court to intervene in the dispute.

5. YOU MAY BECOME A MEMBER OF A HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION THAT HAS THE POWER TO AFFECT HOW YOU USE AND ENJOY YOUR PROPERTY?

Many common-interest communities have a homeowners' association. In a new development, the association will usually be controlled by the developer until a certain number of units have been sold. After the period of developer control, the association may be controlled by property owners like yourself who are elected by homeowners to sit on an executive board and other boards and committees formed by the association. The association, and its executive board, are responsible for assessing homeowners for the cost of operating the association and the common or shared elements of the community and for the day to day operation and management of the community. Because homeowners sitting on the executive board and other boards and committees of the association may not have the experience or professional background required to understand and carry out the responsibilities of the association properly, the association may hire professional community managers to carry out these responsibilities.

Homeowners' associations operate on democratic principles. Some decisions require all homeowners to vote, some decisions are made by the executive board or other boards or committees established by the association or governing documents. Although the actions of the association and its executive board are governed by state laws, the CC&Rs and other documents that govern the common-interest community, decisions made by these persons will affect your use and enjoyment of your property, your lifestyle and freedom of choice, and your cost of living in the community. You may not agree with decisions made by the association or its governing bodies even though the decisions are ones which the association is authorized to make. Decisions may be made by a few persons on the executive board or governing bodies that do not necessarily reflect the view of the majority of homeowners in the community. If you do not agree with decisions made by the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, your remedy is typically to attempt to use the democratic processes of the association to seek the election of members of the executive board or other governing bodies that are more responsive to your needs. If you have a dispute with the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, you may be able to resolve the dispute through the complaint, investigation and intervention process administered by the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, the Nevada Real Estate Division and the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels. However, to resolve some disputes, you may have to mediate or arbitrate the dispute and, if mediation or arbitration is unsuccessful, you may have to file a lawsuit and ask a court to resolve the dispute. In addition to your personal cost in mediation or arbitration, or to prosecute a lawsuit, you may be responsible for paying your share of the association's cost in defending against your claim.

6. YOU ARE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OF YOUR PROPERTY WITH INFORMATION ABOUT LIVING IN YOUR COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY?

The law requires you to provide a prospective purchaser of your property with a copy of the community's governing documents, including the CC&Rs, association bylaws, and rules and regulations, as well as a copy of this document. You are also required to provide a copy of the association's current year-to-date financial statement, including, without limitation, the most recent audited or reviewed financial statement, a copy of the association's operating budget and information regarding the amount of the monthly assessment for common expenses, including the amount set aside as reserves for the repair, replacement and restoration of common elements. You are also required to inform prospective purchasers of any outstanding judgments or lawsuits pending against the association of which you are aware. For more information regarding these requirements, see Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4109.

7. YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS REGARDING OWNERSHIP IN A COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY THAT ARE GUARANTEED YOU BY THE STATE?

Pursuant to provisions of chapter 116 of Nevada Revised Statutes, you have the right:

(a) To be notified of all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in cases of emergency.

(b) To attend and speak at all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in some cases where the executive board is authorized to meet in closed, executive session.

(c) To request a special meeting of the association upon petition of at least 10 percent of the homeowners.

(d) To inspect, examine, photocopy and audit financial and other records of the association.

(e) To be notified of all changes in the community's rules and regulations and other actions by the association or board that affect you.

8. QUESTIONS?

Although they may be voluminous, you should take the time to read and understand the documents that will control your ownership of a property in a common-interest community. You may wish to ask your real estate professional, lawyer or other person with experience to explain anything you do not understand. You may also request assistance from the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, Nevada Real Estate Division, at (telephone number).

Assemblyman Anderson moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Anderson.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, reengrossed and to third reading.

Senate Bill No. 376.

Bill read second time.

Amendment No. 689.

AN ACT relating to labor; making various changes relating to the establishment of the prevailing rates of wages in each county; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Labor Commissioner to establish the prevailing rate of wages for public works performed in each county. In determining the prevailing rate of wages for a county for a particular year, the Labor Commissioner is required to survey contractors who have performed work in the county during the preceding year. (NRS 338.030) Section 1 of this bill: (1) clarifies that the survey encompasses private and public nonresidential construction work; (2) specifies the classes of workmen for which the Labor Commissioner is required to survey; (3) if the prevailing rate of wages for a craft or type of work is a wage that has been collectively bargained, requires the Labor Commissioner to recognize the rate for the classes and subclasses of workmen and certain premium pay established in the collective bargaining agreement and adjust to the rate of wages in the agreement that are in effect ~~[on the effective date of the determination;]~~ and on file with the Labor Commissioner by a specified deadline; and (4) clarifies the circumstances in which the Labor Commissioner is required to hold a hearing in a locality concerning an objection to or information received on a rate of prevailing wage that has been determined. These requirements apply initially to the process of determining and issuing the prevailing rate of wages that will become effective on October 1, 2010.

Under existing law, agencies of the Executive Branch of the State Government, unless specifically exempted, are required to comply with the Nevada Administrative Procedure Act when adopting administrative regulations or adjudicating contested cases. (NRS 233B.039) Section 2 of this bill exempts the Labor Commissioner from compliance with the Act only in the process of determining and issuing the prevailing rate of wages and subclassifications in each county.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 338.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:

338.030 1. The public body awarding any contract for public work, or otherwise undertaking any public work, and any person who wishes to bid on a public work shall ascertain from the Labor Commissioner the prevailing wage in the county in which the public work is to be performed for each craft or type of work.

2. To establish a prevailing wage in each county, including Carson City, the Labor Commissioner shall, annually, survey contractors who have performed private or public nonresidential construction work in the county. As used in this subsection, "nonresidential construction work" means any type of construction other than the construction of multifamily residences which are less than four stories in height and the construction of single-family residences.

3. For the purpose of a survey conducted pursuant to subsection 2, the Labor Commissioner shall recognize and survey only for the following classes of workmen:

Under existing law, a law enforcement agency that investigates an allegation of misconduct by a peace officer or takes any punitive action against the peace officer must comply with certain requirements for providing notice and a hearing, using polygraphic examinations, maintaining confidentiality and taking other actions relating to the rights of the peace officer. (NRS 289.010-289.120)

Section 2 of this bill authorizes a peace officer who is the subject of an investigation by a law enforcement agency to review and copy any administrative or investigative file maintained by the law enforcement agency concerning the investigation if, after the conclusion of the investigation, the charges against the peace officer are sustained and the law enforcement agency imposes or considers the imposition of punitive action against the peace officer. (NRS 289.057)

Section 3 of this bill requires a law enforcement agency that intends to conduct an interrogation or to hold a hearing concerning an investigation of a peace officer to provide a written notice of that fact to both the peace officer who is the subject of the investigation and to any peace officer believed by the law enforcement agency to have knowledge of any fact concerning the complaint or allegation made against the peace officer who is the subject of the investigation. Section 3 also ~~[requires the law enforcement agency to allow the peace officer to review certain compiled evidence prepared by the law enforcement agency before conducting the interrogation or hearing and prohibits the law enforcement agency from taking various other actions concerning the peace officer. (NRS 289.060) Finally, section 3]~~ provides that, if a peace officer provides a statement or answers a question relating to the alleged misconduct of the peace officer who is the subject of an investigation after he is informed that failure to provide the statement or answer may result in punitive action against him, the peace officer's answer or statement cannot be used against him in any criminal investigation of him.

Remarks by Assemblyman Anderson.

Assemblyman Anderson requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Madam Speaker. Senate Bill 313 adopts, in part, the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act and amends various provisions concerning guardianships.

The bill adopts portions of the Uniform Act regarding jurisdictional issues in order to: (a) facilitate cooperation between courts in different states; (b) clarify which court has jurisdiction in certain circumstances; (c) specify a procedure for transferring proceedings from one state to another; and (d) address the enforcement of orders from other states.

Additionally, Senate Bill 313 provides that a court may find that a petitioner for guardianship is a "vexatious litigant" and issue sanctions if he files repeated petitions that are without merit or to harass or annoy the guardian. The bill revises the persons who must be notified of a guardianship petition and revises requirements concerning supporting documents necessary in certain petitions.

The measure also establishes certain record keeping and accounting requirements for the guardian, revises the guardian's authority to manage the state and affairs of a ward, and addresses responsibility for repayment of certain expenses of a ward that were paid by the county.

Finally, the bill addresses the release of a ward who was involuntarily committed by a court and gives the guardian discretion to determine where the person will be released.

The measure is effective on October 1, 2009.

This rather extensive Act created from the Uniform Code is to a large extent supported by the guardians here in the state to bring in those parts of the Uniform Code that have been left out in our documents in the past and thus the extensive nature of the document.

Let us pray:

Lord, we know that there are days of stress and times of anxiousness, when futures are uncertain. Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 1, 3, 7, 8, 11, 14, 16, 22, 29, 31, 39, 50 and 53 of this bill authorize certain business entities that have made a filing with the Secretary of State to cancel the filing if: (1) the Secretary of State has not processed the filing and placed the filing into the public record; and (2) the business entity

Section 2.5 of this bill amends existing law, which requires a registered agent who wishes to resign with respect to a represented entity to file with the Secretary of State a statement of resignation which includes the name and address of the person to which the agent will send the notice of resignation, to require such registered agent to file with the Secretary of State an affidavit stating that written notice was provided to each represented entity and to keep a copy of such notice on file for 1 year from the date of filing the statement of resignation and to make any such copy available to the Secretary of State upon request. (NRS 77.370)

Sections 4, 9, 13, 18, 20, 24, 26, 32, 34, 40, 42, 47 and 48 of this bill amend existing law, which requires the Secretary of State to mail certain notices and blank forms to certain business entities, to authorize the Secretary of State to provide instead, by any means, notice to those business entities of the applicable statutory obligations to file certain lists. (NRS 78.150, 80.110, 82.523, 86.263, 86.5461, 87.510, 87.541, 87A.290, 87A.560, 88.395, 88.591, 88A.600, 88A.732)

Sections 36 and 44 of this bill authorize a partnership to register as a limited-liability limited partnership by filing a combined certificate with the Secretary of State and paying the appropriate fee. (NRS 87A.630, 88.606)

Section 53.5 of this bill amends existing law to provide that an undomesticated organization seeking domestication in this State must provide a certified copy of the charter document and a certificate of good standing, or the equivalent, from the jurisdiction where the

Finally, section 53.5 expands the availability of domestication in this State from only organizations governed by the laws of a foreign country or jurisdiction outside the United States to include organizations governed by the laws of any state other than this State, including those of other states within the United States. (NRS 92A.270)

Section 54 of this bill amends the existing definition of "business" to include any entity organized pursuant to title 7 of NRS, including an entity required to file with the Secretary of State, whether or not the entity performs a service or engages in a business for profit, other than a nonprofit corporation or a corporation sole, which clarifies that such a business is required to: (1) obtain a state business license; and (2) register with the Department of Taxation if the business purchases tangible personal property for storage, use or other consumption in this State. (NRS 360.765, 372.220)

Section 55 of this bill provides that if an applicant for a state business license is a business organized pursuant to title 7 of NRS and on file with the Secretary of State, the applicant must include in its application the exact name on file with the Secretary of State. (NRS 360.780) Section 55 also clarifies that for the purposes of the statutory provisions requiring a person to obtain a state business license, a person is deemed to be conducting a business in this State if a business for which the person is responsible has a registered agent in this State.

8. 92A.270 1. Any undomesticated organization may become domesticated in this State as a domestic entity by:

(a) Paying to the Secretary of State the fees required pursuant to this title for filing the charter document; and

(b) Filing with the Secretary of State:

(1) Articles of domestication which must be signed by an authorized representative of the undomesticated organization approved in compliance with subsection 6;

(2) The appropriate charter document for the type of domestic entity; ~~[and]~~

(3) The information required pursuant to NRS 77.310 ~~[.]~~ ***;

(4) A certified copy of the charter document of the undomesticated organization; and

(5) A certificate of good standing, or the equivalent, from the jurisdiction where the undomesticated organization was chartered immediately before filing the articles of domestication pursuant to subparagraph (1).

2. The articles of domestication must set forth the:

(a) Date when and the jurisdiction where the undomesticated organization was first formed, incorporated, organized or otherwise created ~~[.]~~ and, if applicable, any date when and jurisdiction where the undomesticated organization was chartered after its formation;

(b) Name of the undomesticated organization immediately before filing the articles of domestication;

(c) Name and type of domestic entity as set forth in its charter document pursuant to subsection 1; and

(d) Jurisdiction that constituted the principal place of business or central administration of the undomesticated organization, or any other equivalent thereto pursuant to applicable law ~~[,~~
~~→~~ ~~]~~ immediately before filing the articles of domestication.

3. Upon filing the articles of domestication and the charter document with the Secretary of State, and the payment of the requisite fee for filing the charter document of the domestic entity, the undomesticated organization is domesticated in this State as the domestic entity described in the charter document filed pursuant to subsection 1. The existence of the domestic entity begins on the date the undomesticated organization began its existence in the jurisdiction in which the undomesticated organization was first formed, incorporated, organized or otherwise created.

4. The domestication of any undomesticated organization does not affect any obligations or liabilities of the undomesticated organization incurred before its domestication.

5. The filing of the charter document of the domestic entity pursuant to subsection 1 does not affect the choice of law applicable to the undomesticated organization. From the date the charter document of the domestic entity is filed, the law of this State applies to the domestic entity to the same extent as if the undomesticated organization was organized and created as a domestic entity on that date.

6. Before filing articles of domestication, the domestication must be approved in the manner required by:

(a) The document, instrument, agreement or other writing governing the internal affairs of the undomesticated organization and the conduct of its business; and

(b) Applicable foreign law.

7. When a domestication becomes effective, all rights, privileges and powers of the undomesticated organization, all property owned by the undomesticated organization, all debts due to the undomesticated organization, and all causes of action belonging to the undomesticated organization are vested in the domestic entity and become the property of the domestic entity to the same extent as vested in the undomesticated organization immediately before domestication. The title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in the undomesticated organization is not reverted or impaired by the domestication. All rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of the undomesticated organization are preserved unimpaired and all debts, liabilities and duties of an undomesticated organization that has been domesticated attach to the domestic entity resulting from the domestication and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the debts, liability and duties had been incurred or contracted by the domestic entity.

8. When an undomesticated organization is domesticated, the domestic entity resulting from the domestication is for all purposes deemed to be the same entity as the undomesticated organization. Unless otherwise agreed by the owners of the undomesticated organization or as required pursuant to applicable foreign law, the domestic entity resulting from the domestication is not required to wind up its affairs, pay its liabilities or distribute its assets. The domestication of an undomesticated organization does not constitute the dissolution of the undomesticated organization. The domestication constitutes a continuation of the existence of the undomesticated organization in the form of a domestic entity. If, following domestication, an undomesticated organization that has become domesticated pursuant to this section continues its existence in the foreign country or foreign jurisdiction in which it was existing immediately before the domestication, the domestic entity and the undomesticated organization are for all purposes a single entity formed, incorporated, organized or otherwise created and existing pursuant to the laws of this State and the laws of the foreign country or other foreign jurisdiction.

9. The owner liability of an undomesticated organization that is domesticated in this State:

(a) Is not discharged, pursuant to the laws of the previous jurisdiction of the organization, to the extent the owner liability arose before the effective date of the articles of domestication;

(b) Does not attach, pursuant to the laws of the previous jurisdiction of the organization, to any debt, obligation or liability of the organization that arises after the effective date of the articles of domestication;

(c) Is governed by the law of the previous jurisdiction of the organization, as if the domestication has not occurred, for the collection or discharge of owner liability not discharged pursuant to paragraph (a);

(d) Is subject to the right of contribution from any other shareholder, member, trustee, partner, limited partner or other owner of the undomesticated organization pursuant to the laws of the previous jurisdiction of the organization, as if the domestication has not occurred, for the collection or discharge of owner liability not discharged pursuant to paragraph (a); and

(e) Applies only to the debts, obligations or liabilities of the organization that arise after the effective date of the articles of domestication if the owner becomes subject to owner liability or some or all of the debts, obligations or liabilities of the undomesticated entity as a result of its domestication in this State.

10. As used in this section ~~[, "undomesticated]~~ ***:

Bill read second time.

Amendment No. 778.

AN ACT relating to energy; providing for the training of persons to perform jobs which promote energy efficiency; requiring governmental entities to perform certain functions to promote energy efficiency; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill provides for the use of the incentives contained in the recently signed federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 to provide job training, the promotion of energy efficiency and the promotion of the use of renewable energy in Nevada. Sections 9 and 10 of this bill seek to take advantage of those incentives by providing specific training to persons in this State, establishing projects that will require the skills for which those persons are trained and providing for the employment of those persons. Section 9 requires the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation and the Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry to establish contractual relationships with nonprofit collaboratives to provide training in the fields of energy efficiency and renewable energy, including training in the areas of weatherization, energy retrofit applications and performing energy audits. Within the limits of available money, the collaboratives will carry out programs for job training and provide apprenticeship programs in specific energy-related fields. Within the limits of money available, the Housing Division is required to contract with the nonprofit collaboratives, governmental entities, community action agencies and other nonprofit corporations to identify neighborhoods that will qualify for funding for residential weatherization projects and award contracts for projects to promote energy efficiency through residential weatherization. Such contracts awarded must provide for employing the persons trained by the nonprofit collaborative for this purpose, paying those employees prevailing wages and offering the employees and their dependents health care insurance.

Section 10 of this bill requires the State Public Works Board, the board of trustees of each school district and the Board of Regents of the University of Nevada, within 90 days after the effective date of this bill, to each establish projects to weatherize and retrofit public buildings, facilities and structures in this State, including without limitation, traffic-control systems, and to otherwise use sources of renewable energy to serve those buildings, facilities and structures. Section 10 further sets forth criteria for prioritizing those projects. Those entities are further required to enter into contracts for the projects as soon as practicable. Such contracts are required to provide that employees of the contractors and subcontractors on the project be paid prevailing wages, that the contractor or subcontractor employ a certain number of employees trained by a nonprofit cooperative and pay them prevailing wages and that the contractor offer employees on the project and their dependents health care insurance.

Section 11 of this bill provides that within the limits of money available, the State Public Works Board and the Division of State Parks of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources shall conduct studies to determine the feasibility of carrying out certain projects for providing alternative sources of energy in this State.

Section 12 of this bill requires the Labor Commissioner to adopt the job classifications and wage rates established by the Federal Government for certain jobs relating to residential weatherization and to enforce those job classifications and wage rates in the same manner that he enforces the labor laws and regulations of this State generally.

Section 13 of this bill requires the Office of Energy within the Office of the Governor, the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation and the Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry to report to the Interim Finance Committee concerning the application for and acceptance and expenditure of any money available to the State to carry out the purposes of this bill pursuant to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, Public Law 111-5.

WHEREAS, The unemployment rate in the State of Nevada is currently 9.1 percent and is expected to reach 11.4 percent sometime during 2009; and

WHEREAS, Many of Nevada's 128,000 unemployed residents have lost jobs in the construction and service sectors as the construction industry has faltered as a result of the mortgage foreclosure crisis and as the service industry, including gaming and tourism, has faltered as a result of the curtailment of discretionary spending on a national level; and

WHEREAS, One of the most effective methods of returning unemployed Nevadans to work is to create "green jobs" by developing new industries in this State in a manner that takes advantage of incentives offered by the Federal Government for job training, the promotion of energy efficiency and the promotion of the use of renewable energy; and

WHEREAS, An immediate step which may be taken to put Nevadans back to work is to coordinate job training with programs for weatherization and energy efficiency that are part of the recently enacted federal economic stimulus package; and

WHEREAS, In such a manner, unemployed Nevadans may learn new skills in fields such as energy auditing and the installation of energy efficient equipment and improvements, and then go to work performing such tasks as weatherizing homes, retrofitting public buildings, helping lower-income Nevadans to save on their utility bills, and reducing energy costs for schools, government buildings and other public facilities; and

WHEREAS, The Green Jobs Initiative can be accomplished through a public-private partnership that combines the resources of state agencies, local housing authorities, institutions of higher education, joint labor-management partnerships, apprenticeship programs and private contractors under the "umbrella" of a nonprofit collaborative; and

WHEREAS, The Green Jobs Initiative would function to establish programs to provide job training and outreach for the weatherization and retrofitting of buildings and facilities in northern Nevada, southern Nevada and rural Nevada; now, therefore,

(b) Agreed to in writing by the developer.

5. For the purposes of this section, in determining whether the replacement unit or parcel "provides the owner of the time share the opportunity to enjoy a substantially similar vacation experience as available with the original unit or parcel," the following factors must be considered with respect to the similarity of the replacement unit or parcel and the original unit or parcel:

(a) Size;

(b) Furnishings;

(c) Reservation rights;

(d) Standards of maintenance; and

(1) No individual time-share unit may be counted as providing more than 365 nights of use per 12-month period or more than 366 nights of use per 12-month period that includes February 29; and

(2) The rights of use of each owner must be counted without regard to whether that owner's rights of use have been suspended as the result of the failure to pay assessments or for any other reason.

Sec. 2. NRS 119A.495 is hereby amended to read as follows:

119A.495 ~~[If]~~

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if a time-share instrument authorizes the developer to withdraw units from the time-share plan, any unit that is subject to withdrawal may not be withdrawn if a time share attributable to that unit is owned by a purchaser.

2. Any legally created units or parcels within a project may be withdrawn from the time-share plan by the developer if:

(a) All remaining owners having an interest in the unit or parcel, if there are any such remaining owners, give written consent to the withdrawal;

(b) The developer amends the time-share instrument which established the time-share plan to reduce the number of units or parcels included in the time-share plan by the number of units or parcels withdrawn pursuant to this subsection;

(c) Any existing cost-sharing agreement between the developer and the association covering shared common areas or amenities is amended to reflect the reduction in the number of units or parcels included in the time-share plan as the result of the withdrawal of units or parcels pursuant to this subsection; and

(d) A new cost-sharing agreement which covers any common areas or amenities that are shared by the remaining units or parcels within the time-share plan and the units or parcels withdrawn pursuant to this subsection and which allocates the shared costs proportionately between the developer and the association according to the number and size of the units withdrawn pursuant to this subsection is entered into between the developer and the association.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Commerce and Labor:

Amendment No. 785.

AN ACT relating to property; authorizing a landlord who leases or subleases any commercial premises to dispose of any abandoned personal property left on the commercial premises without incurring any civil or criminal liability under certain circumstances; authorizing the landlord to charge and collect certain reasonable and actual costs before releasing the abandoned personal property; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill authorizes a landlord who leases or subleases any commercial premises under a rental agreement that has been terminated for any reason to dispose of any abandoned personal property left on the commercial premises without incurring any civil or criminal liability if the landlord takes ~~[reasonable]~~ certain steps to notify any holder of a perfected lien or security interest of the existence of the abandoned property and notifies , by certified mail, the tenant who left the property on the premises of his intention to dispose of the property. If the landlord and any holder of a perfected lien or security interest have a written agreement concerning the removal and disposal of abandoned property, that agreement determines the rights and obligations of those parties with respect to the removal and disposal of abandoned property.

Section 2 of this bill defines "abandoned personal property" as any personal property which is left unattended on the commercial premises after the termination of the tenancy [~~, unless the owner of the personal property expresses his intent in writing to return for the personal property.~~] and which is not removed within a certain period after the landlord has provided certain notices to the tenant and any holder of a perfected lien or security interest in the property. If the abandoned personal property is a vehicle, section 1 requires the vehicle to be disposed of in the manner provided in chapter 487 of NRS for abandoned vehicles.

Section 1 of this bill also authorizes the landlord to charge and collect the reasonable and actual costs of inventory, moving and safe storage, if necessary, of the abandoned personal property before releasing the abandoned personal property to the tenant or his authorized representative. If the tenant disputes the costs claimed by the landlord, section 1 authorizes the dispute to be resolved using the procedure specified in NRS 40.253, as amended by section 3 of this bill.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 118 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. ~~[A]~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a landlord who leases or subleases any commercial premises under a rental agreement that has been terminated for any reason may, in accordance with the following provisions, dispose of any abandoned personal property, regardless of its character, left on the commercial premises without incurring any civil or criminal liability:

(a) The landlord may dispose of the abandoned personal property and recover his reasonable costs out of the abandoned personal property or the value thereof if the conditions set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) are satisfied:

(1) ~~[The landlord has taken reasonable steps to:~~

~~(I) Determine whether the abandoned personal property is subject to a lien or security interest; and~~

~~(II) If the abandoned personal property is subject to a lien or security interest, notify the holder of the lien or the security interest that the abandoned personal property has been left on the premises.~~

~~(2)]~~ The landlord has notified the tenant in writing of his intention to dispose of the abandoned personal property and 14 days have elapsed since the notice was ~~[given]~~ mailed to the tenant. The notice must be mailed , by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the tenant at the tenant's present address, and if that address is unknown, then at the tenant's last known address.

(2) The landlord has taken reasonable steps to:

(I) Determine whether the tenant has subjected the abandoned personal property to a perfected lien or security interest; and

(II) If the landlord determines that the tenant has subjected the abandoned personal property to a perfected lien or security interest, notify the holder of the perfected lien or the security interest that the abandoned personal property has been left on the premises.

➥ The landlord shall be deemed to have taken the reasonable steps required by subparagraph (2) if the landlord has reviewed the results of a current search of the records in which a financing statement must be filed in order to perfect a lien or security interest pursuant to chapter 104 of NRS for a financing statement naming the tenant as the debtor of a debt secured by the abandoned personal property and, if such a financing statement is found, mailed, to any secured party named on the financing statement at the address indicated on the financing statement, by certified mail, return receipt requested, a written notice stating that the abandoned personal property has been left on the premises.

(b) The landlord may charge and collect the reasonable and actual costs of inventory, moving and safe storage, if necessary, before releasing the abandoned personal property to the tenant or his authorized representative rightfully claiming the abandoned personal property within the appropriate period set forth in paragraph (a).

(c) Vehicles must be disposed of in the manner provided in chapter 487 of NRS for abandoned vehicles.

2. If a written agreement between a landlord and a secured party who has a perfected lien on, or a perfected security interest in, any abandoned personal property of the tenant contains provisions which relate to the removal and disposal of abandoned personal property, the provisions of the agreement determine the rights and obligations of the landlord and the secured party with respect to the removal and disposal of the abandoned personal property.

3. Any dispute relating to the amount of the costs claimed by the landlord pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 may be resolved using the procedure provided in subsection 7 of NRS 40.253.

Sec. 2. NRS 118.171 is hereby amended to read as follows:

118.171 As used in NRS 118.171 to 118.205, inclusive, and section 1 of this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Abandoned personal property" means any personal property which is left unattended on any commercial premises after the termination of the tenancy ~~[, unless the owner of the personal property has expressed an intent in writing to return for the personal property.]~~ and which is not removed by the tenant or a person who has a perfected lien on, or perfected security interest in, the personal property within 14 days after the later of the date on which the landlord:

(a) Mailed, by certified mail, return receipt requested, notice of his intention to dispose of the personal property, as required by subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of section 1 of this act; or

(b) Provided notice to a person who has a perfected lien on, or a perfected security interest in, the personal property that the personal property has been left on the premises, as required by subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of section 1 of this act.

2. "Real property" includes an apartment, a dwelling, a mobile home that is owned by a landlord and located on property owned by the landlord and commercial premises.

~~[2.]~~ 3. "Rental agreement" means an agreement to lease or sublease real property for a term less than life which provides for the periodic payment of rent.

~~[3.]~~ 4. "Tenant" means a person who has the right to possess real property pursuant to a rental agreement.

Sec. 3. NRS 40.253 is hereby amended to read as follows:

40.253 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 10, in addition to the remedy provided in NRS 40.2512 and 40.290 to 40.420, inclusive, when the tenant of any dwelling, apartment, mobile home, recreational vehicle or commercial premises with periodic rent reserved by the month or any shorter period is in default in payment of the rent, the landlord or his agent, unless otherwise agreed in writing, may serve or have served a notice in writing, requiring in the alternative the payment of the rent or the surrender of the premises:

(a) At or before noon of the fifth full day following the day of service; or

(b) If the landlord chooses not to proceed in the manner set forth in paragraph (a) and the rent is reserved by a period of 1 week or less and the tenancy has not continued for more than 45 days, at or before noon of the fourth full day following the day of service.

➥ As used in this subsection, "day of service" means the day the landlord or his agent personally delivers the notice to the tenant. If personal service was not so delivered, the "day of service" means the day the notice is delivered, after posting and mailing pursuant to subsection 2, to the sheriff or constable for service if the request for service is made before noon. If the request for service by the sheriff or constable is made after noon, the "day of service" shall be deemed to be the day next following the day that the request is made for service by the sheriff or constable.

2. A landlord or his agent who serves a notice to a tenant pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 shall attempt to deliver the notice in person in the manner set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 40.280. If the notice cannot be delivered in person, the landlord or his agent:

(a) Shall post a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises and mail the notice by overnight mail; and

(b) After the notice has been posted and mailed, may deliver the notice to the sheriff or constable for service in the manner set forth in subsection 1 of NRS 40.280. The sheriff or constable shall not accept the notice for service unless it is accompanied by written evidence, signed by the tenant when he took possession of the premises, that the landlord or his agent informed the tenant of the provisions of this section which set forth the lawful procedures for eviction from a short-term tenancy. Upon acceptance, the sheriff or constable shall serve the notice within 48 hours after the request for service was made by the landlord or his agent.

3. A notice served pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 must:

(a) Identify the court that has jurisdiction over the matter; and

(b) Advise the tenant of his right to contest the matter by filing, within the time specified in subsection 1 for the payment of the rent or surrender of the premises, an affidavit with the court that has jurisdiction over the matter stating that he has tendered payment or is not in default in the payment of the rent.

4. If the tenant files such an affidavit at or before the time stated in the notice, the landlord or his agent, after receipt of a file-stamped copy of the affidavit which was filed, shall not provide for the nonadmittance of the tenant to the premises by locking or otherwise.

5. Upon noncompliance with the notice:

(a) The landlord or his agent may apply by affidavit of complaint for eviction to the Justice Court of the township in which the dwelling, apartment, mobile home or commercial premises are located or to the district court of the county in which the dwelling, apartment, mobile home or commercial premises are located, whichever has jurisdiction over the matter. The court may thereupon issue an order directing the sheriff or constable of the county to remove the tenant within 24 hours after receipt of the order. The affidavit must state or contain:

(1) The date the tenancy commenced.

(2) The amount of periodic rent reserved.

(3) The amounts of any cleaning, security or rent deposits paid in advance, in excess of the first month's rent, by the tenant.

(4) The date the rental payments became delinquent.

(5) The length of time the tenant has remained in possession without paying rent.

(6) The amount of rent claimed due and delinquent.

(7) A statement that the written notice was served on the tenant in accordance with NRS 40.280.

(8) A copy of the written notice served on the tenant.

(9) A copy of the signed written rental agreement, if any.

(b) Except when the tenant has timely filed the affidavit described in subsection 3 and a file-stamped copy of it has been received by the landlord or his agent, and except when the landlord is prohibited pursuant to NRS 118A.480, the landlord or his agent may, in a peaceable manner, provide for the nonadmittance of the tenant to the premises by locking or otherwise.

6. Upon the filing by the tenant of the affidavit permitted in subsection 3, regardless of the information contained in the affidavit, and the filing by the landlord of the affidavit permitted by subsection 5, the Justice Court or the district court shall hold a hearing, after service of notice of the hearing upon the parties, to determine the truthfulness and sufficiency of any affidavit or notice provided for in this section. If the court determines that there is no legal defense as to the alleged unlawful detainer and the tenant is guilty of an unlawful detainer, the court may issue a summary order for removal of the tenant or an order providing for the nonadmittance of the tenant. If the court determines that there is a legal defense as to the alleged unlawful detainer, the court shall refuse to grant either party any relief, and, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, shall require that any further proceedings be conducted pursuant to NRS 40.290 to 40.420, inclusive. The issuance of a summary order for removal of the tenant does not preclude an action by the tenant for any damages or other relief to which he may be entitled. If the alleged unlawful detainer was based upon subsection 5 of NRS 40.2514, the refusal by the court to grant relief does not preclude the landlord thereafter from pursuing an action for unlawful detainer in accordance with NRS 40.251.

7. The tenant may, upon payment of the appropriate fees relating to the filing and service of a motion, file a motion with the court, on a form provided by the clerk of the court, to dispute the amount of the costs, if any, claimed by the landlord pursuant to NRS 118A.460 or section 1 of this act for the inventory, moving and storage of personal property left on the premises. The motion must be filed within 20 days after the summary order for removal of the tenant or the abandonment of the premises by the tenant, or within 20 days after:

(a) The tenant has vacated or been removed from the premises; and

(b) A copy of those charges has been requested by or provided to the tenant, ➥ whichever is later.

8. Upon the filing of a motion pursuant to subsection 7, the court shall schedule a hearing on the motion. The hearing must be held within 10 days after the filing of the motion. The court shall affix the date of the hearing to the motion and order a copy served upon the landlord by the sheriff, constable or other process server. At the hearing, the court may:

(a) Determine the costs, if any, claimed by the landlord pursuant to NRS 118A.460 ~~[,]~~ or section 1 of this act and any accumulating daily costs; and

(b) Order the release of the tenant's property upon the payment of the charges determined to be due or if no charges are determined to be due.

9. A landlord shall not refuse to accept rent from a tenant that is submitted after the landlord or his agent has served or had served a notice pursuant to subsection 1 if the refusal is based on the fact that the tenant has not paid collection fees, attorney's fees or other costs other than rent, a reasonable charge for late payments of rent or dishonored checks, or a security. As used in this subsection, "security" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 118A.240.

10. This section does not apply to the tenant of a mobile home lot in a mobile home park or to the tenant of a recreational vehicle lot in an area of a mobile home park in this State other than an area designated as a recreational vehicle lot pursuant to the provisions of subsection 6 of NRS 40.215.

If a corporation desires to have more than one class or series of stock, the articles of incorporation must prescribe, or vest authority in the board of directors to prescribe, the classes, series and the number of each class or series of stock and the voting powers, designations, preferences, limitations, restrictions and relative rights of each class or series of stock. If more than one class or series of stock is authorized, the articles of incorporation or the resolution of the board of directors passed pursuant to a provision of the articles must prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class and series. The voting powers, designations, preferences, limitations, restrictions, relative rights and distinguishing designation of each class or series of stock must be described in the articles of incorporation or the resolution of the board of directors before the issuance of shares of that class or series.

2. All shares of a series must have voting powers, designations, preferences, limitations, restrictions and relative rights identical with those of other shares of the same series and, except to the extent otherwise provided in the description of the series, with those of other series of the same class.

3. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, no stock issued as fully paid up may ever be assessed and the articles of incorporation must not be amended in this particular.

4. Any rate, condition or time for payment of distributions on any class or series of stock may be made dependent upon any fact or event which may be ascertained outside the articles of incorporation or the resolution providing for the distributions adopted by the board of directors if the manner in which a fact or event may operate upon the rate, condition or time of payment for the distributions is stated in the articles of incorporation or the resolution. As used in this subsection, "fact or event" includes, without limitation, the existence of a fact or occurrence of an event, including, without limitation, a determination or action by a person, the corporation itself or any government, governmental agency or political subdivision of a government.

5. The provisions of this section do not restrict the directors of a corporation from taking action to protect the interests of the corporation and its stockholders, including, but not limited to, adopting or signing plans, arrangements or instruments that grant ~~[rights to stockholders]~~ or ~~[that]~~ deny rights, privileges, power or authority to a holder or holders of a specified number of shares or percentage of share ownership or voting power.

Sec. 5. NRS 78.205 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.205 1. A corporation is not obligated to but may sign and deliver a certificate for or including a fraction of a share.

2. In lieu of signing and delivering a certificate for a fraction of a share, a corporation may:

(a) Pay to any person otherwise entitled to become a holder of a fraction of a share an amount in cash based on a per share value, and that value or the method of determining that value must be specified in the articles, plan of reorganization, plan of merger or exchange, resolution of the board of directors, or other instrument pursuant to which the fractional share would otherwise be issued;

(b) Issue such additional fraction of a share as is necessary to increase the fractional share to a full share; or

(c) Sign and deliver registered or bearer scrip over the manual or facsimile signature of an officer of the corporation or of its agent for that purpose, exchangeable as provided on the scrip for full share certificates, but the scrip does not entitle the holder to any rights as a stockholder except as provided on the scrip. The scrip may provide that it becomes void unless the rights of the holders are exercised within a specified period and may contain any other provisions or conditions that the corporation deems advisable. Whenever any scrip ceases to be exchangeable for full share certificates, the shares that would otherwise have been issuable as provided on the scrip are deemed to be treasury shares unless the scrip contains other provisions for their disposition.

3. Any proposed corporate action that would result in only money being paid or scrip being ~~[delivered instead of fractional shares]~~ issued to stockholders who:

(a) Before the proposed corporate action becomes effective, hold 1 percent or more of the outstanding shares of the affected class or series; and

(b) Would otherwise be entitled to receive ~~[fractions of shares]~~ a fraction of a share in exchange for the cancellation of all their outstanding shares,

➥ is subject to the provisions of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive. If the proposed corporate action is subject to those provisions, any stockholder who is obligated to accept money or scrip rather than receive a fraction of a share resulting from the action taken pursuant to this section may dissent in accordance with ~~[the]~~ those provisions ~~[of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive,]~~ and obtain payment of the fair value of the fraction of a share to which the stockholder would otherwise be entitled.

Sec. 6. NRS 78.2055 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.2055 1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a corporation that desires to decrease the number of issued and outstanding shares of a class or series held by each stockholder of record at the effective date and time of the change without correspondingly decreasing the number of authorized shares of the same class or series may do so if:

(a) The board of directors adopts a resolution setting forth the proposal to decrease the number of issued and outstanding shares of a class or series; and

(b) The proposal is approved by the vote of stockholders holding a majority of the voting power of the affected class or series, or such greater proportion as may be provided in the articles of incorporation, regardless of limitations or restrictions on the voting power of the affected class or series.

2. If the proposal required by subsection 1 is approved by the stockholders entitled to vote, the corporation may reissue its stock in accordance with the proposal after the effective date and time of the change.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if a proposed decrease in the number of issued and outstanding shares of any class or series would adversely alter or change any preference, or any relative or other right given to any other class or series of outstanding shares, then the decrease must be approved by the vote, in addition to any vote otherwise required, of the holders of shares representing a majority of the voting power of each class or series whose preference or rights are adversely affected by the decrease, or such greater proportion as may be provided in the articles of incorporation, regardless of limitations or restrictions on the voting power of the adversely affected class or series. The decrease does not have to be approved by the vote of the holders of shares representing a majority of the voting power of each class or series whose preference or rights are adversely affected by the decrease if the articles of incorporation specifically deny the right to vote on such a decrease.

4. Any proposal to decrease the number of issued and outstanding shares of any class or series, if any, that includes provisions pursuant to which only money will be paid or scrip will be issued to stockholders who:

(a) Before the decrease in the number of shares becomes effective, hold 1 percent or more of the outstanding shares of the affected class or series; and

(b) Would otherwise be entitled to receive ~~[fractions of shares]~~ a fraction of a share in exchange for the cancellation of all their outstanding shares,

➥ is subject to the provisions of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive. If the proposal is subject to those provisions, any stockholder who is obligated to accept money or scrip rather than receive a fraction of a share resulting from the action taken pursuant to this section may dissent in accordance with ~~[the]~~ those provisions ~~[of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive,]~~ and obtain payment of the fair value of the fraction of a share to which the stockholder would otherwise be entitled.

Sec. 6.5. NRS 78.207 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.207 1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a corporation that desires to change the number of shares of a class or series, if any, of its authorized stock by increasing or decreasing the number of authorized shares of the class or series and correspondingly increasing or decreasing the number of issued and outstanding shares of the same class or series held by each stockholder of record at the effective date and time of the change, may, except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, do so by a resolution adopted by the board of directors, without obtaining the approval of the stockholders. The resolution may also provide for a change of the par value, if any, of the same class or series of the shares increased or decreased. After the effective date and time of the change, the corporation may issue its stock in accordance therewith.

2. A proposal to increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of any class or series, if any, that includes provisions pursuant to which only money will be paid or scrip will be issued to stockholders who:

(a) Before the increase or decrease in the number of shares becomes effective, in the aggregate hold 10 percent or more of the outstanding shares of the affected class or series; and

(b) Would otherwise be entitled to receive ~~[fractions of shares]~~ a fraction of a share in exchange for the cancellation of all ~~[of]~~ their outstanding shares,

➥ must be approved by the vote of stockholders holding a majority of the voting power of the affected class or series, or such greater proportion as may be provided in the articles of incorporation, regardless of limitations or restrictions on the voting power thereof.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if a proposed increase or decrease in the number of authorized shares of any class or series would adversely alter or change any preference or any relative or other right given to any other class or series of outstanding shares, then the increase or decrease must be approved by the vote, in addition to any vote otherwise required, of the holders of shares representing a majority of the voting power of each class or series whose preference or rights are adversely affected by the increase or decrease, regardless of limitations or restrictions on the voting power thereof. The increase or decrease does not have to be approved by the vote of the holders of shares representing a majority of the voting power in each class or series whose preference or rights are adversely affected by the increase or decrease if the articles of incorporation specifically deny the right to vote on such an increase or decrease.

4. Any proposal to increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of any class or series, if any, that includes provisions pursuant to which only money will be paid or scrip will be issued to stockholders who:

(a) Before the increase or decrease in the number of shares becomes effective, hold 1 percent or more of the outstanding shares of the affected class or series; and

(b) Would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a share in exchange for the cancellation of all of their outstanding shares,

➥ is subject to the provisions of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive. If the proposal is subject to those provisions, any stockholder who is obligated to accept money or scrip rather than receive a fraction of a share resulting from the action taken pursuant to this section may dissent in accordance with those provisions and obtain payment of the fair value of the fraction of a share to which the stockholder would otherwise be entitled.

Sec. 7. NRS 78.275 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.275 1. The directors may at such times and in such amount, as they may from time to time deem the interest of the corporation to require, levy and collect assessments upon the assessable stock of the corporation in the manner provided in this section.

2. Notice of each assessment must be given to the stockholders personally, or by publication once a week for at least 4 weeks, in some newspaper published in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located or, if the principal office of the corporation is not located in this State, in ~~[Carson City,]~~ the county in which the corporation's registered office is located, and in a newspaper published in the county wherein the property of the corporation is situated if in this State.

3. If, after the notice has been given, any stockholder defaults in the payment of the assessment upon the shares held by him, so many of those shares may be sold as will be necessary for the payment of the assessment upon all the shares held by him, together with all costs of advertising and expenses of sale. The sale of the shares must be made at the office of the corporation at public auction to the highest bidder, after a notice thereof published for 4 weeks as directed in this section, and a copy of the notice mailed to each delinquent stockholder if his address is known 4 weeks before the sale. At the sale the person who offers to pay the assessment so due, together with the expenses of advertising and sale, for the smallest number of shares, or portion of a share, as the case may be, shall be deemed the highest bidder.

Sec. 8. NRS 78.345 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.345 1. If any corporation fails to elect directors within 18 months after the last election of directors required by NRS 78.330, the district court has jurisdiction in equity, upon application of any one or more stockholders holding stock entitling them to exercise at least 15 percent of the voting power, to order the election of directors in the manner required by NRS 78.330.

2. The application must be made by petition filed in the county where the principal office of the corporation is located or, if the principal office is not located in this State, in ~~[Carson City,]~~ the county in which the corporation's registered office is located, and must be brought on behalf of all stockholders desiring to be joined therein. Such notice must be given to the corporation and the stockholders as the court may direct.

3. The directors elected pursuant to this section have the same rights, powers and duties and the same tenure of office as directors elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting held at the time prescribed therefor, next before the date of the election pursuant to this section, would have had.

Sec. 9. NRS 78.350 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.350 1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, or in the resolution providing for the issuance of the stock adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, every stockholder of record of a corporation is entitled at each meeting of stockholders thereof to one vote for each share of stock standing in his name on the records of the corporation. If the articles of incorporation, or the resolution providing for the issuance of the stock adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the articles of incorporation, provides for more or less than one vote per share for any class or series of shares on any matter, every reference in this chapter to a majority or other proportion of stock shall be deemed to refer to a majority or other proportion of the voting power of all of the shares or those classes or series of shares, as may be required by the articles of incorporation, or in the resolution providing for the issuance of the stock adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, or the provisions of this chapter.

2. Unless a period of more than 60 days or a period of less than 10 days is prescribed or fixed in the articles of incorporation, the directors may prescribe a period not exceeding 60 days before any meeting of the stockholders during which no transfer of stock on the books of the corporation may be made, or may fix, in advance, a record date not more than 60 or less than 10 days before the date of any such meeting as the date as of which stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at such meetings must be determined. Only stockholders of record on that date are entitled to notice or to vote at such a meeting. If a record date is not fixed, the record date is at the close of business on the day before the day on which the first notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day before the meeting is held. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders applies to an adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting. The board of directors must fix a new record date if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 60 days later than the date set for the original meeting.

3. The board of directors may adopt a resolution prescribing a date upon which the stockholders of record entitled to give written consent pursuant to NRS 78.320 must be determined. The date prescribed by the board of directors may not precede or be more than 10 days after the date the resolution is adopted by the board of directors. If the board of directors does not adopt a resolution prescribing a date upon which the stockholders of record entitled to give written consent pursuant to NRS 78.320 must be determined and:

(a) No prior action by the board of directors is required by this chapter or chapter 92A of NRS before the matter is submitted for consideration by the stockholders, the date is the first date on which a valid, written consent is delivered in accordance with the provisions of NRS 78.320.

(b) Prior action by the board of directors is required by this chapter or chapter 92A of NRS before the matter is submitted for consideration by the stockholders, the date is at the close of business on the day the board of directors adopts the resolution.

4. The provisions of this section do not restrict the directors from taking action to protect the interests of the corporation and its stockholders, including, but not limited to, adopting or signing plans, arrangements or instruments that grant or deny rights, privileges, power or authority to a holder or holders of a specified number of shares or percentage of share ownership or voting power.

Sec. 10. NRS 78.378 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.378 1. The provisions of NRS 78.378 to 78.3793, inclusive, apply to any acquisition of a controlling interest in an issuing corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation in effect on the 10th day following the acquisition of a controlling interest by an acquiring person provide that the provisions of those sections do not apply to the corporation or to an acquisition of a controlling interest specifically by types of existing or future stockholders, whether or not identified.

2. The articles of incorporation, the bylaws or a resolution adopted by the directors of the issuing corporation may impose stricter requirements on the acquisition of a controlling interest in the corporation than the provisions of NRS 78.378 to 78.3793, inclusive.

3. The provisions of NRS 78.378 to 78.3793, inclusive, do not restrict the directors of an issuing corporation from taking action to protect the interests of the corporation and its stockholders, including, but not limited to, adopting or signing plans, arrangements or instruments that grant or deny rights, privileges, power or authority to a holder or holders of a specified number of shares or percentage of share ownership or voting power.

6. Any receipt by the interested stockholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder of the benefit, directly or indirectly, except proportionately as a stockholder of the resident domestic corporation, of any loan, advance, guarantee, pledge or other financial assistance or any tax credit or other tax advantage provided by or through the resident domestic corporation.

Sec. 14. NRS 78.438 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.438 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 78.433 to 78.437, inclusive, a resident domestic corporation may not engage in any combination with any interested stockholder of the resident domestic corporation for 3 years after the date that the person first became an interested stockholder unless the combination or the transaction by which the person first became an interested stockholder is approved by the board of directors of the resident domestic corporation before the person first became an interested stockholder.

Sec. 15. NRS 78.630 is hereby amended to read as follows:

78.630 1. Whenever any corporation becomes insolvent or suspends its ordinary business for want of money to carry on the business, or if its business has been and is being conducted at a great loss and greatly prejudicial to the interest of its creditors or stockholders, any creditors holding 10 percent of the outstanding indebtedness, or stockholders owning 10 percent of the outstanding stock entitled to vote, may, by petition setting forth the facts and circumstances of the case, apply to the district court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located or, if the principal office is not located in this State, to the district court in ~~[Carson City]~~ the county in which the corporation's registered office is located for a writ of injunction and the appointment of a receiver or receivers or trustee or trustees.

2. The court, being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise of the sufficiency of the application and of the truth of the allegations contained in the petition and upon hearing after such notice as the court by order may direct, shall proceed in a summary way to hear the affidavits, proofs and allegations which may be offered in behalf of the parties.

3. If upon such inquiry it appears to the court that the corporation has become insolvent and is not about to resume its business in a short time thereafter, or that its business has been and is being conducted at a great loss and greatly prejudicial to the interests of its creditors or stockholders, so that its business cannot be conducted with safety to the public, it may issue an injunction to restrain the corporation and its officers and agents from exercising any of its privileges or franchises and from collecting or receiving any debts or paying out, selling, assigning or transferring any of its estate, money, lands, tenements or effects, except to a receiver appointed by the court, until the court otherwise orders.

Sec. 15.3. NRS 78.650 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(j) The corporation is not about to resume its business with safety to the public.

2. The application may be for the appointment of a receiver, without at the same time applying for the dissolution of the corporation, and notwithstanding the absence, if any there be, of any action or other proceeding in the premises pending in such court.

3. In any such application for a receivership, it is sufficient for a temporary appointment if notice of the same is given to the corporation alone, by process as in the case of an application for a temporary restraining order or injunction, and the hearing thereon may be had after 5 days' notice unless the court directs a longer or different notice and different parties.

4. The court may, if good cause exists therefor, appoint one or more receivers for such purpose, but in all cases directors or trustees who have been guilty of no negligence nor active breach of duty must be preferred in making the appointment. The court may at any time for sufficient cause make a decree terminating the receivership, or dissolving the corporation and terminating its existence, or both, as may be proper.

82.306 1. If any corporation fails to elect directors within 18 months after the last election of directors required by NRS 82.286, the district court has jurisdiction in equity, upon application of any one or more of the members of the corporation representing 10 percent of the voting power of the members entitled to vote for the election of directors or for the election of delegates who are entitled to elect directors, or 50 members, whichever is less, to order the election of directors as required by NRS 82.286.

2. The application must be made by petition filed in the county where the principal office of the corporation is located or, if the principal office is not located in this State, in ~~[Carson City,]~~ the county in which the corporation's registered office is located, and must be brought on behalf of all members desiring to be joined therein. ➥ The demand must state the purpose for the meeting. Those making the demand on the corporation must sign, date and deliver their demand to the president, chairman of the board or the treasurer of the corporation. The corporation must then immediately give notice of a special meeting of delegates or members as set forth in subsections 2 to 7, inclusive ~~[.]~~ , or subsection 9.

2. Whenever under the provisions of this chapter delegates or members are required or authorized to take any action at a meeting, the notice of the meeting must be in writing and signed by the president or the chairman of the board or a vice president, or the secretary, or an assistant secretary, or by such other person or persons as the bylaws may prescribe or permit or the directors designate.

3. The notice must state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called and the time when, and the place, which may be within or without this State, where it is to be held.

4. A copy of the notice must be delivered personally, ~~[or must be]~~ mailed postage prepaid ~~[,]~~ or given as provided in subsection 9 to each delegate or member, as the case may be, entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before such meeting. If mailed, it must be directed to the person at his address as it appears upon the records of the corporation. Upon the mailing of any notice the service thereof is complete, and the time of the notice begins to run from the date upon which the notice is deposited in the mail for transmission to the person. 5. The articles or bylaws may require that the notice be also published in one or more newspapers.

6. Notice duly delivered or mailed to a delegate or member in accordance with the provisions of this section and the provisions, if any, of the articles or bylaws is sufficient, and in the event of the transfer of a membership after the delivery or mailing and before the holding of the meeting it is not necessary to deliver or mail notice of the meeting to the transferee.

7. Any delegate or member may waive notice of any meeting by a writing signed by him, or his duly authorized attorney, either before or after the meeting.

8. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, whenever notice is required to be given, under any provision of this chapter or the articles or bylaws of any corporation, to any member to whom notice of two consecutive annual meetings, and all notices of meetings or of the taking of action by written consent without a meeting to him during the period between those two consecutive annual meetings, have been mailed addressed to him at his address as shown on the records of the corporation and have been returned undeliverable, the giving of further notices to him is not required. Any action or meeting taken or held without notice to that person has the same force and effect as if the notice had been given. If any such person delivers to the corporation a written notice setting forth his current address, the requirement that notice be given to him is reinstated. If the action taken by the corporation is such as to require the filing of a certificate under any of the other sections of this title, the certificate need not state that notice was not given to persons to whom notice was not required to be given pursuant to this subsection.

9. Any notice to members or delegates given by the corporation pursuant to any provision of this chapter, chapter 92A of NRS, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws is effective if given in the same manner that a corporation is required to give notice to its stockholders pursuant to NRS 78.370.

(a) No professional entity may issue any of its owner's interest to anyone other than a natural person who is licensed to render the same specific professional services as those for which the professional entity was formed.

(b) No owner may enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his owner's interest, unless the other person is licensed to render the same specific professional services as those for which the professional entity was formed.

(c) No owner's interest may be sold or transferred except to a natural person who is eligible to be an owner or to the personal representative or estate of a deceased or legally incompetent stockholder. The personal representative or estate of the owner may continue to own the owner's interest for a reasonable period, but may not participate in any decisions concerning the rendering of professional services.

➥ The articles, bylaws or operating agreement of the professional entity may provide specifically for additional restrictions on the transfer of an owner's interest and may provide for the redemption or purchase of the owner's interest by the professional entity, its owners or an eligible individual account plan complying with the requirements of subsection 2 at prices and in a manner specifically set forth. An owner may transfer his owner's interest in the professional entity or any other interest in the assets of the professional entity to a revocable trust if he acts as trustee of the revocable trust and any person who acts as cotrustee and is not licensed to perform the services for which the professional entity was formed does not participate in any decisions concerning the rendering of those services.

2. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 623.349, a person not licensed to render the professional services for which the professional entity was formed may own a beneficial interest in any of the assets, including an owner's interest, held for his account by an eligible individual account plan sponsored by the professional entity for the benefit of its employees, which is intended to qualify under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 401, if the terms of the trust are such that the total number of shares which may be distributed for the benefit of persons not licensed to render the professional services for which the professional entity was formed is less than a controlling interest and:

(a) The trustee of the trust is licensed to render the same specific professional services as those for which the professional entity was formed; or

(b) The trustee is not permitted to participate in any decisions concerning the rendering of professional services in his capacity as trustee.

➥ A trustee who is individually an owner may participate in his individual capacity as an owner, manager, director or officer in any decision.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, a professional entity in which all the owners who are natural persons are licensed to render the same specific professional service may acquire and hold an owner's interest in another professional entity or in a similar entity organized pursuant to the corresponding law of another state, only if all the owners who are natural persons of the professional entity whose stock is acquired are licensed in that professional entity's state of formation to render the same specific professional service as the owners who are natural persons of the professional entity that acquires the owner's interest.

4. A professional entity practicing pursuant to NRS 623.349 in which all the owners are natural persons, regardless of whether or not the natural persons are licensed to render the same specific professional service, may acquire and hold an owner's interest in another professional entity or in a similar entity organized pursuant to the corresponding law of another state if control and two-thirds ownership of the business organization or association that is acquired is held by persons registered or licensed pursuant to the applicable provisions of chapter 623, 623A or 625 of NRS. As used in this subsection, "control" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 623.349.

5. An attorney may form a legal services professional entity that is organized or incorporated in the State of Nevada with one or more natural persons, each of whom is a member in good standing and eligible to practice before the bar of any jurisdiction of the United States, and such legal services entity may issue an owner's interest to a natural person who is a member in good standing and eligible to practice before the bar of any jurisdiction of the United States provided that at least one attorney admitted by the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada to practice law as a member of the State Bar of Nevada owns an owner's interest in the professional entity.

6. Any act in violation of this section is void and does not pass any rights or privileges or vest any powers, except to an innocent person who is not an owner and who has relied on the effectiveness of the action.

Sec. 59. Chapter 92A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

"Senior executive" means the chief executive officer, chief operating officer, chief financial officer or anyone in charge of a principal business unit or function of a domestic corporation.

Sec. 60. NRS 92A.005 is hereby amended to read as follows:

92A.005 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 92A.007 to 92A.097, inclusive, and section 59 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 61. NRS 92A.180 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2. A parent domestic corporation, whether or not for profit, parent domestic limited-liability company, unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, or parent domestic limited partnership owning at least 90 percent of the outstanding shares of each class of a subsidiary corporation entitled to vote on a merger, 90 percent of the percentage or other interest in the capital and profits of a subsidiary limited-liability company then owned by each class of members entitled to vote on a merger, or 90 percent of the percentage or other interest in the capital and profits of a subsidiary limited partnership then owned by both the general partners and each class of limited partners entitled to vote on a merger may merge with and into the subsidiary without approval of the owners of the owner's interests of the subsidiary domestic corporation, subsidiary domestic limited-liability company or subsidiary domestic limited partnership.

3. The board of directors of a parent corporation, the managers of a parent limited-liability company with managers unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, all members of a parent limited-liability company without managers unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, or all general partners of a parent limited partnership shall adopt a plan of merger that sets forth:

(a) The names of the parent and subsidiary; and

(b) The manner and basis of converting the owner's interests of the disappearing entity into the owner's interests, obligations or other securities of the surviving or any other entity or into cash or other property in whole or in part.

4. The parent shall mail a copy or summary of the plan of merger to each owner of the subsidiary who does not waive the mailing requirement in writing.

5. Articles of merger under this section may not contain amendments to the constituent documents of the surviving entity except that the name of the surviving entity may be changed.

6. The articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation, the articles of organization of a domestic limited-liability company, the certificate of limited partnership of a domestic limited partnership or the certificate of trust of a domestic business trust may forbid that entity from entering into a merger pursuant to this section.

Sec. 62. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 62.5. NRS 92A.205 is hereby amended to read as follows:

92A.205 1. After a plan of conversion is approved as required by this chapter, if the resulting entity is a domestic entity, the constituent entity shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing:

(a) Articles of conversion setting forth:

(1) The name and jurisdiction of organization of the constituent entity and the resulting entity; and

(2) That a plan of conversion has been adopted by the constituent entity in compliance with the law of the jurisdiction governing the constituent entity.

(b) The charter document of the domestic resulting entity required by the applicable provisions of chapter 78, 78A, 82, 86, 87A, 88, 88A or 89 of NRS.

(c) The information required pursuant to NRS 77.310.

2. After a plan of conversion is approved as required by this chapter, if the resulting entity is a foreign entity, the constituent entity shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing articles of conversion setting forth:

(a) The name and jurisdiction of organization of the constituent entity and the resulting entity;

(b) That a plan of conversion has been adopted by the constituent entity in compliance with the laws of this State; and

(c) The address of the resulting entity where copies of process may be sent by the Secretary of State.

3. If the entire plan of conversion is not set forth in the articles of conversion, the filing party must include in the articles of conversion a statement that the complete signed plan of conversion is on file at the registered office or principal place of business of the resulting entity or, if the resulting entity is a domestic limited partnership, the office described in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 87A.215 or paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 88.330.

4. If the conversion takes effect on a later date specified in the articles of conversion pursuant to NRS 92A.240, the charter document to be filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must state the name and the jurisdiction of the constituent entity and that the existence of the resulting entity does not begin until the later date.

5. Any records filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to this section must be accompanied by the fees required pursuant to this title for filing the charter document.

Sec. 63. NRS 92A.270 is hereby amended to read as follows:

92A.270 1. Any undomesticated organization may become domesticated in this State as a domestic entity by:

(a) Paying to the Secretary of State the fees required pursuant to this title for filing the charter document; and

(b) Filing with the Secretary of State:

(1) Articles of domestication which must be signed by an authorized representative of the undomesticated organization approved in compliance with subsection 6;

(2) The appropriate charter document for the type of domestic entity; and

(3) The information required pursuant to NRS 77.310.

2. The articles of domestication must set forth the:

(a) Date when and the jurisdiction where the undomesticated organization was first formed, incorporated, organized or otherwise created;

(b) Name of the undomesticated organization immediately before filing the articles of domestication;

(c) Name and type of domestic entity as set forth in its charter document pursuant to subsection 1; and

(d) Jurisdiction that constituted the principal place of business or central administration of the undomesticated organization, or any other equivalent thereto pursuant to applicable law,

➥ immediately before filing the articles of domestication.

3. Upon filing the articles of domestication and the charter document with the Secretary of State, and the payment of the requisite fee for filing the charter document of the domestic entity, the undomesticated organization is domesticated in this State as the domestic entity described in the charter document filed pursuant to subsection 1. The existence of the domestic entity begins on the date the undomesticated organization began its existence in the jurisdiction in which the undomesticated organization was first formed, incorporated, organized or otherwise created.

4. The domestication of any undomesticated organization does not affect any obligations or liabilities of the undomesticated organization incurred before its domestication.

5. The filing of the charter document of the domestic entity pursuant to subsection 1 does not affect the choice of law applicable to the undomesticated organization. From the date the charter document of the domestic entity is filed, the law of this State applies to the domestic entity to the same extent as if the undomesticated organization was organized and created as a domestic entity on that date.

6. Before filing articles of domestication, the domestication must be approved in the manner required by:

(a) The document, instrument, agreement or other writing governing the internal affairs of the undomesticated organization and the conduct of its business; and

(b) Applicable foreign law.

7. When a domestication becomes effective, all rights, privileges and powers of the undomesticated organization, all property owned by the undomesticated organization, all debts due to the undomesticated organization, and all causes of action belonging to the undomesticated organization are vested in the domestic entity and become the property of the domestic entity to the same extent as vested in the undomesticated organization immediately before domestication. The title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in the undomesticated organization is not reverted or impaired by the domestication. All rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of the undomesticated organization are preserved unimpaired and all debts, liabilities and duties of an undomesticated organization that has been domesticated attach to the domestic entity resulting from the domestication and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the debts, liability and duties had been incurred or contracted by the domestic entity.

8. When an undomesticated organization is domesticated, the domestic entity resulting from the domestication is for all purposes deemed to be the same entity as the undomesticated organization. Unless otherwise agreed by the owners of the undomesticated organization or as required pursuant to applicable foreign law, the domestic entity resulting from the domestication is not required to wind up its affairs, pay its liabilities or distribute its assets. The domestication of an undomesticated organization does not constitute the dissolution of the undomesticated organization. The domestication constitutes a continuation of the existence of the undomesticated organization in the form of a domestic entity. If, following domestication, an undomesticated organization that has become domesticated pursuant to this section continues its existence in the foreign country or foreign jurisdiction in which it was existing immediately before the domestication, the domestic entity and the undomesticated organization are for all purposes a single entity formed, incorporated, organized or otherwise created and existing pursuant to the laws of this State and the laws of the foreign country or other foreign jurisdiction.

9. As used in this section, "undomesticated organization" means any incorporated organization, private law corporation, whether or not organized for business purposes, public law corporation, limited-liability company, general partnership, registered limited-liability partnership, limited partnership or registered limited-liability limited partnership, proprietorship, joint venture, foundation, business trust, real estate investment trust, common-law trust or any other unincorporated business formed, organized, created or the internal affairs of which are governed by the laws of any foreign country or jurisdiction other than the United States, the District of Columbia or another state, territory, possession, commonwealth or dependency of the United States.

2. A stockholder who is entitled to dissent and obtain payment pursuant to NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive, may not challenge the corporate action creating his entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to him or the domestic corporation.

3. From and after the effective date of any corporate action described in subsection 1, no stockholder who has exercised his right to dissent pursuant to NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive, is entitled to vote his shares for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or any other distributions on shares. This subsection does not apply to dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders on a date before the effective date of any corporate action from which the stockholder has dissented.

Sec. 67. NRS 92A.390 is hereby amended to read as follows:

92A.390 1. There is no right of dissent with respect to a plan of merger, conversion or exchange in favor of stockholders of any class or series which ~~[, at the]~~ is:

4. There is no right of dissent for any holders of stock of the surviving domestic corporation if the plan of merger does not require action of the stockholders of the surviving domestic corporation under NRS 92A.130.

5. There is no right of dissent for any holders of stock of the parent domestic corporation if the plan of merger does not require action of the stockholders of the parent domestic corporation under NRS 92A.180.

Sec. 68. NRS 92A.400 is hereby amended to read as follows:

92A.400 1. 2. A beneficial stockholder may assert dissenter's rights as to shares held on his behalf only if:

A stockholder who fails to so withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw without the subject corporation's written consent.

5. The stockholder who does not demand payment or deposit his certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the dissenter's notice, is not entitled to payment for his shares under this chapter.

Sec. 73. NRS 92A.450 is hereby amended to read as follows:

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Commerce and Labor:

SUMMARY—Enacts the Uniform Debt-Management Services Act. (BDR ~~[52]~~ 56-1279)

AN ACT relating to trade practices; enacting the Uniform Debt-Management Services Act; repealing the existing provisions governing the regulation of debt adjusters; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for the regulation of debt adjusters by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions. (Chapter 676 of NRS) This bill repeals those provisions and enacts the Uniform Debt-Management Services Act, which provides for the regulation of providers of debt-management services by the Commissioner of ~~[Consumer Affairs.]~~ Financial Institutions.

Sections 26-38 of this bill provide for the registration of providers of debt-management services ~~[.]~~ , which includes providers of credit counseling, providers that develop and implement debt-management plans and providers of debt settlement services. No provider may enter into an agreement with any debtor in this State without registering as a consumer debt-management service in this State. Registration requires submission of detailed information concerning the service, including, without limitation, its financial condition, the identity of principals, locations at which service will be offered, the form for agreements with debtors and business history in other jurisdictions. To register, a service must have an effective insurance policy against fraud, dishonesty, theft and the like in an amount not less than $250,000. It must also provide a security bond of a minimum of $50,000 which has the Commissioner as a beneficiary. If a registration substantially duplicates one in another state, the service may offer proof of registration in that other state to satisfy the registration requirements in this State. A satisfactory application will result in a certificate to do business from the Commissioner. A yearly renewal is required.

Sections 39-49 of this bill govern agreements between debtors and providers of debt-management services. To enter into agreements with debtors, there is a disclosure requirement respecting fees and services to be offered, and the risks and benefits of entering into such a contract. The service must offer counseling services from a certified counselor or certified debt specialist, and a plan must be created by the counselor or debt specialist for debt-management service to commence. The contents of the agreements and fees that may be charged are set forth in sections 39-49. There is a penalty-free 3-day right of rescission on the part of the debtor. In addition, the debtor may cancel the agreement after 30 days, but may be subject to fees if that occurs. The service may terminate the agreement if required payments are delinquent for at least 60 days. Any payments for creditors received from a debtor must be kept in a trust account that may not be used to hold any other funds of the service. There are strict accounting requirements and periodic reporting requirements respecting funds held.

Section 50 of this bill prohibits specific acts on the part of a service, including, without limitation, misappropriation of funds in trust, settlement for more than 50 percent of a debt with a creditor without a debtor's consent, gifts or premiums to enter into an agreement and representation that settlement has occurred without certification from a creditor. Sections 51-59 of this bill provide that the enforcement of the provisions of this bill occurs at two levels, the Commissioner and the individual level. The Commissioner has investigative power, power to order an individual to cease and desist, power to assess a civil penalty up to $10,000 and power to bring a civil action. An individual may bring a civil action for compensatory damages, including, without limitation, triple damages, if a provider of debt-management services obtains payments not authorized by the provisions of this bill, and may seek punitive damages and attorney's fees. A service has a good faith mistake defense against liability. The statute of limitations pertaining to an action by the Commissioner is 4 years, and 2 years for a private right of action. Section 58 of this bill provides that a violation of a provision of this bill constitutes a deceptive trade practice and that, for such a violation, an individual may recover pursuant to the provisions of this bill or the provisions of existing law relating to deceptive trade practices.

3. If a personal financial emergency necessitates the disbursement of an individual's money to one or more of the individual's creditors before the expiration of 3 days after an agreement is signed, an individual may waive the right to cancel. To waive the right, the individual must send or deliver a signed, dated statement in the individual's own words describing the circumstances that necessitate a waiver. The waiver must explicitly waive the right to cancel. A waiver by means of a standard form record is void.

Sec. 43. Unless the Commissioner, by regulation, provides otherwise, the disclosures and documents required by this chapter must be in English. If a provider communicates with an individual primarily in a language other than English, the provider must furnish a translation into the other language of the disclosures and documents required by this chapter.

Sec. 44. 1. All money paid to a provider by or on behalf of an individual for distribution to creditors pursuant to a plan is held in trust. Within 2 business days after receipt, the provider shall deposit the money in a trust account established for the benefit of individuals to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services.

2. Money held in trust by a provider is not property of the provider or its designee. The money is not available to creditors of the provider or its designee, except an individual from whom or on whose behalf the provider received money, to the extent that the money has not been disbursed to creditors of the individual.

3. A provider shall:

(a) Maintain separate records of account for each individual to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services;

(b) Disburse money paid by or on behalf of the individual to creditors of the individual as disclosed in the agreement, except that the provider may delay payment to the extent that a payment by the individual is not final; and

(c) Promptly correct any payments which are not made or which are misdirected as a result of an error by the provider or other person in control of the trust account and reimburse the individual for any costs or fees imposed by a creditor as a result of the failure to pay or misdirection.

4. A provider may not commingle money in a trust account established for the benefit of individuals to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services with money of other persons.

5. A trust account must at all times have a cash balance equal to the sum of the balances of each individual's account.

6. If a provider has established a trust account pursuant to subsection 1, the provider shall reconcile the trust account at least once a month. The reconciliation must compare the cash balance in the trust account with the sum of the balances in each individual's account. If the provider or its designee has more than one trust account, each trust account must be individually reconciled.

7. If a provider discovers, or has a reasonable suspicion of, embezzlement or other unlawful appropriation of money held in trust, the provider immediately shall notify the Commissioner by a method approved by the Commissioner. Unless the Commissioner, by regulation, provides otherwise, within 5 days thereafter, the provider shall give notice to the Commissioner describing the remedial action taken or to be taken.

8. If an individual terminates an agreement or it becomes reasonably apparent to a provider that a plan has failed, the provider shall promptly refund to the individual all money paid by or on behalf of the individual which has not been paid to creditors, less fees that are payable to the provider under section 45 of this act.

9. Before relocating a trust account from one bank to another, a provider shall inform the Commissioner of the name, business address and telephone number of the new bank. As soon as practicable, the provider shall inform the Commissioner of the account number of the trust account at the new bank.

Sec. 45. 1. A provider may not impose directly or indirectly a fee or other charge on an individual or receive money from or on behalf of an individual for debt-management services except as permitted by this section.

2. A provider may not impose charges or receive payment for debt-management services until the provider and the individual have signed an agreement that complies with sections 41 and 50 of this act.

3. If an individual assents to an agreement, a provider may not impose a fee or other charge for educational or counseling services or the like, except as otherwise provided in this subsection and subsection ~~[4]~~ 5 of section 50 of this act. The Commissioner may authorize a provider to charge a fee based on the nature and extent of the educational or counseling services furnished by the provider.

4. Subject to adjustment of dollar amounts pursuant to subsection 6 of section 54 of this act, the following rules apply:

(a) If an individual assents to a plan which contemplates that creditors will reduce finance charges or fees for late payment, default or delinquency, the provider may charge, not including money provided by creditors to support educational or counseling services concerning personal finance provided by nonprofit entities:

(1) A fee not to exceed $50 for consultation, obtaining a credit report, setting up an account and the like; and

(2) A monthly service fee, not to exceed $10 times the number of accounts remaining in a plan at the time the fee is assessed, but not more than $50 in any month.

(b) If an individual assents to an agreement which contemplates that creditors will settle debts for less than the principal amount of the debt, a provider may charge:

(1) Subject to subsection 4 of section 41 of this act, a fee for consultation, obtaining a credit report, setting up an account and the like, in an amount not to exceed the lesser of $400 and 4 percent of the debt in the plan at the inception of the plan; and

(2) A monthly service fee, not to exceed $10 times the number of accounts remaining in a plan at the time the fee is assessed, but not more than $50 in any month.

(c) A provider may not impose or receive fees under both paragraphs (a) and (b).

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~[4]~~ 5 of section 50 of this act, if an individual does not assent to an agreement, a provider may receive for educational or counseling services it provides to the individual a fee not to exceed $100 or, with the approval of the Commissioner, a larger fee. The Commissioner may approve a fee larger than $100 if the nature and extent of the educational or counseling services warrant the larger fee.

5. If, before the expiration of 90 days after the completion or termination of educational or counseling services, an individual assents to an agreement, the provider shall refund to the individual any fee paid pursuant to paragraph (d) of subsection 4.

6. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 4, if an agreement contemplates that creditors will settle an individual's debts for less than the principal amount of the debt, compensation for services in connection with settling debt may not exceed one of the following applicable settlement fee limits, the terms of which must be clearly disclosed in the agreement:

(a) With respect to agreements in which a flat settlement fee is charged based on the overall amount of included debt, the total aggregate amount of fees charged to an individual under this chapter, including fees charged under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (b) of subsection 4, may not exceed 17 percent of the principal amount of debt included in the agreement at the agreement's inception. The flat settlement fee authorized under this paragraph must be assessed in equal monthly payments over not less than half of the length of the plan, as estimated at the plan's inception, unless:

(1) Voluntarily accelerated by the individual in a separate record; and

(2) Offers of settlement by creditors have been obtained on at least half of the outstanding debt included in the agreement.

(b) With respect to agreements in which fees are calculated as a percentage of the amount saved by an individual, a settlement fee may not exceed 30 percent of the excess of the outstanding amount of each debt over the amount actually paid to the creditor, as calculated at the time of settlement. Settlement fees authorized under this paragraph must become billable only as debts are settled, and the total aggregate amount of fees charged to an individual under this paragraph, including fees charged under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (b) of subsection 4, may not exceed 20 percent of the principal amount of debt included in the agreement at the agreement's inception.

➥ A provider may not impose or receive fees under both paragraphs (a) and (b).

7. Subject to adjustment of the dollar amount pursuant to subsection 6 of section 54 of this act, if a payment to a provider by an individual under this chapter is dishonored, a provider may impose a reasonable charge on the individual, not to exceed the lesser of $25 and the amount permitted by law other than this chapter.

Sec. 46. A provider may not solicit a voluntary contribution from an individual or an affiliate of the individual for any service provided to the individual. A provider may accept voluntary contributions from an individual but, until 30 days after completion or termination of a plan, the aggregate amount of money received from or on behalf of the individual may not exceed the total amount the provider may charge the individual under section 45 of this act.

Sec. 47. 1. If a provider imposes a fee or other charge or receives money or other payments not authorized by section 45 or 46 of this act, the individual may void the agreement and recover as provided in section 57 of this act.

2. If a provider is not registered as required by this chapter when an individual assents to an agreement, the agreement is voidable by the individual.

3. If an individual voids an agreement under subsection 2, the provider does not have a claim against the individual for breach of contract or for restitution.

Sec. 48. 1. If an individual who has entered into an agreement fails for 60 days to make payments required by the agreement, a provider may terminate the agreement.

2. If a provider or an individual terminates an agreement, the provider shall immediately return to the individual:

(a) Any money of the individual held in trust for the benefit of the individual; and

(b) ~~[Sixty-five]~~ If the agreement contemplated that the provider would provide debt settlement services, sixty-five percent of any portion of the set-up fee received pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 4 of section 45 of this act which has not been credited against settlement fees.

Sec. 49. 1. ~~[A]~~ If an agreement contemplates that a provider will develop and implement a debt-management plan or provide debt settlement services, the provider shall provide the accounting required by subsection 2:

(a) Upon cancellation or termination of ~~[an]~~ the agreement; and

(b) Before cancellation or termination of ~~[any]~~ the agreement:

(1) At least once each month; and

(2) Within 5 business days after a request by an individual, but the provider need not comply with more than one request in any calendar month.

2. A provider, in a record, shall provide each individual for whom it has established a plan an accounting of the following information:

(a) The amount of money received from the individual since the last report;

(b) The amounts and dates of disbursement made on the individual's behalf, or by the individual upon the direction of the provider, since the last report to each creditor listed in the plan;

(c) The amounts deducted from the amount received from the individual;

(d) The amount held in reserve; and

(e) If, since the last report, a creditor has agreed to accept as payment in full an amount less than the principal amount of the debt owed by the individual:

(1) The total amount and terms of the settlement;

(2) The amount of the debt when the individual assented to the plan;

(3) The amount of the debt when the creditor agreed to the settlement; and

(4) The calculation of a settlement fee.

3. A provider shall maintain records for each individual for whom it provides debt-management services for 5 years after the final payment made by the individual and produce a copy of them to the individual within a reasonable time after a request for them. The provider may use electronic or other means of storage of the records.

Sec. 50. 1. A provider may not, directly or indirectly:

(a) Misappropriate or misapply money held in trust;

(b) Settle a debt on behalf of an individual for more than 50 percent of the outstanding amount of the debt owed a creditor, unless the individual assents to the settlement after the creditor has assented;

(c) Take a power of attorney that authorizes it to settle a debt, unless the power of attorney expressly limits the provider's authority to settle debts for not more than 50 percent of the outstanding amount of the debt owed a creditor;

(d) Exercise or attempt to exercise a power of attorney after an individual has terminated an agreement;

(e) Initiate a transfer from an individual's account at a bank or with another person unless the transfer is:

(1) A return of money to the individual; or

(2) Before termination of an agreement, properly authorized by the agreement and this chapter and for:

(I) Payment to one or more creditors pursuant to an agreement; or

(II) Payment of a fee;

(f) Offer a gift or bonus, premium, reward or other compensation to an individual for executing an agreement;

(g) Offer, pay or give a gift or bonus, premium, reward or other compensation to a person for referring a prospective customer, if the person making the referral has a financial interest in the outcome of debt-management services provided to the customer, unless neither the provider nor the person making the referral communicates to the prospective customer the identity of the source of the referral;

(h) Receive a bonus, commission or other benefit for referring an individual to a person;

(i) Structure a plan in a manner that would result in a negative amortization of any of an individual's debts, unless a creditor that is owed a negatively amortizing debt agrees to refund or waive the finance charge upon payment of the principal amount of the debt;

(j) Compensate its employees on the basis of a formula that incorporates the number of individuals the employee induces to enter into agreements;

(k) Settle a debt or lead an individual to believe that a payment to a creditor is in settlement of a debt to the creditor unless, at the time of settlement, the individual receives a certification by the creditor that the payment is in full settlement of the debt or is part of a payment plan, the terms of which are included in the certification, that on completion will lead to full settlement of the debt;

(l) Make a representation that:

(1) The provider will furnish money to pay bills or prevent attachments;

(2) Payment of a certain amount will permit satisfaction of a certain amount or range of indebtedness; or

(3) Participation in a plan will or may prevent litigation, garnishment, attachment, repossession, foreclosure, eviction or loss of employment;

(m) Misrepresent that it is authorized or competent to furnish legal advice or perform legal services;

(n) Represent in its agreements, disclosures required by this chapter, advertisements or Internet website that it is a not-for-profit entity unless it is organized and properly operating as a not-for-profit entity under the law of the state in which it was formed or a tax-exempt entity unless it has received certification of tax-exempt status from the Internal Revenue Service and is properly operating as a not-for-profit entity under the law of the state in which it was formed;

(p) Employ an unfair, unconscionable or deceptive act or practice, including, without limitation, the knowing omission of any material information ~~[.]~~ ***;

(q) Receive any compensation from the creditors of an individual, unless the compensation is a donation for the operating costs of the provider; or

(r) If the provider furnishes debt settlement services, represent that the provider is able to prevent telephone calls from creditors.

2. If a provider furnishes debt-management services to an individual, the provider may not, directly or indirectly:

(2) A creditor of the individual, to the extent necessary to secure the cooperation of the creditor in a plan; or

(3) The extent necessary to administer the plan;

(f) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of section 45 of this act, provide the individual less than the full benefit of a compromise of a debt arranged by the provider;

(g) Charge the individual for or provide credit or other insurance, coupons for goods or services, membership in a club, access to computers or the Internet or any other matter not directly related to debt-management services or educational or counseling services concerning personal finance, except to the extent such services are expressly authorized by the Commissioner; ~~[or]~~

(h) Furnish legal advice or perform legal services, unless the person furnishing that advice to or performing those services for the individual is licensed to practice law ~~[.]~~ ; or

(i) With respect to debt settlement services:

(2) Provide debt settlement services with respect to a secured debt, a debt which was at any time a secured debt or a loan to which chapter 604A of NRS applies or include a secured debt, debt which was at any time a secured debt or a loan to which chapter 604A of NRS applies in the calculation of the provider's fee.

3. A provider, or an employee, officer or agent of a provider, may not provide legal services or advice or represent that the provider, or an employee, officer or agent of the provider, is authorized or competent to provide legal services or advice, unless the person providing legal services or advice, or about whom the representations concerning the provision of legal services or advice were made, is authorized to practice law in this State. As used in this subsection, "legal services or advice" include, without limitation, an analysis of the rights of a creditor or debtor with respect to a debt, advice concerning a response to legal filings or actions and

~~[5.]~~ 6. Unless a person supplies goods, services or facilities generally and supplies them to the provider at a cost no greater than the cost the person generally charges to others, a provider may not purchase goods, services or facilities from the person if an employee or a person that the provider should reasonably know is an affiliate of the provider:

Sec. 52. 1. 2. If the agreements of a provider contemplate that ~~[creditors will settle for less than the full principal amount of the debt]~~ the provider will provide debt settlement services and the provider advertises ~~[debt management]~~ debt settlement services, it shall disclose, in an easily comprehensible manner, the information specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection 4 of section 39 of this act.

Sec. 53. If a provider delegates any of its duties or obligations under an agreement or this chapter to another person, including, without limitation, an independent contractor, the provider is liable for conduct of the person which, if done by the provider, would violate the agreement or this chapter.

2. The Commissioner may investigate and examine, in this State or elsewhere, by subpoena or otherwise, the activities, books, accounts and records of a person that provides or offers to provide debt-management services, or a person to which a provider has delegated its obligations under an agreement or this chapter, to determine compliance with this chapter. Information that identifies individuals who have agreements with the provider must not be disclosed to the public. In connection with the investigation, the Commissioner may:

(a) Charge the person the reasonable expenses necessarily incurred to conduct the examination;

(b) Require or permit a person to file a statement under oath as to all the facts and circumstances of a matter to be investigated; and

(c) Seek a court order authorizing seizure from a bank at which the person maintains a trust account required by section 44 of this act, any or all money, books, records, accounts and other property of the provider that is in the control of the bank and relates to individuals who reside in this State.

3. The Commissioner may adopt regulations to implement the provisions of this chapter.

4. The Commissioner may enter into cooperative arrangements with any other federal or state agency having authority over providers and may exchange with any of those agencies information about a provider, including, without limitation, information obtained during an examination of the provider.

5. The Commissioner, by regulation, shall establish reasonable fees to be paid by providers for the expense of administering this chapter. The Commissioner may, in his discretion, establish a reduced fee schedule for providers that are qualified nonprofit entities.

6. The Commissioner, by regulation, shall adopt dollar amounts instead of those specified in sections 4, 27, 31, 35, 45, 55 and 57 of this act to reflect inflation, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, published by the United States Department of Labor, or, if that Index is not available, another index adopted by regulation by the Commissioner. The Commissioner shall adopt a base year and adjust the dollar amounts, effective on July 1 of each year, if the change in the index from the base year, as of December 31 of the preceding year, is at least 10 percent. The dollar amount must be rounded to the nearest $100, except that the amounts in section 45 of this act must be rounded to the nearest dollar.

7. The Commissioner shall notify registered providers of any change in dollar amounts made pursuant to subsection 6 and make that information available to the public.

8. The Commissioner, by regulation, may:

(a) Require a provider to make additional disclosures before an individual assents to an agreement, including, without limitation, disclosures that:

(1) Nothing in the agreement requires the individual's creditors to accept payments pursuant to a plan.

(2) Nothing in the agreement prevents creditors of the individual from pursuing collection efforts, including, without limitation, telephone calls for the purpose of collecting a debt, and that creditors may sue the individual for any debt that remains unpaid.

(3) The provider cannot provide legal services or advice and, if the individual is sued, the individual should seek legal services or advice.

(4) The provider is not a credit repair organization and does not claim that the plan will have a positive impact on the credit score of the individual.

(5) If an agreement contemplates that a provider will develop and implement a debt-management plan, a creditor may be included in the debt-management plan even if the creditor does not make a contribution.

(b) Establish any requirements and prohibitions with respect to advertising by providers which do not violate the Nevada Constitution or the Constitution of the United States. Such regulations may include, without limitation, a requirement that a provider submit all advertising used by the provider to the Commissioner within 30 days after the first publication of the advertisement.

Sec. 55. 1. The Commissioner may enforce this chapter and regulations adopted under this chapter by taking one or more of the following actions:

(a) Ordering a provider or a director, employee or other agent of a provider to cease and desist from any violations;

(b) Ordering a provider or a person that has caused a violation to correct the violation, including, without limitation, making restitution of money or property to a person aggrieved by a violation;

(c) Subject to adjustment of the dollar amount pursuant to subsection 6 of section 54 of this act, imposing on a provider or a person that has caused a violation a civil penalty not to exceed $10,000 for each violation;

(2) Obtain restitution or an injunction or other equitable relief, or both; or

(e) Intervening in an action brought under section 57 of this act.

2. Subject to adjustment of the dollar amount pursuant to subsection 6 of section 54 of this act, if a person violates or knowingly authorizes, directs or aids in the violation of a final order issued under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 1, the Commissioner may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $20,000 for each violation.

3. The Commissioner may maintain an action to enforce this chapter in any county.

4. The Commissioner may recover the reasonable costs of enforcing this chapter under subsections 1, 2 and 3, including, without limitation, attorney's fees based on the hours reasonably expended and the hourly rates for attorneys of comparable experience in the community.

5. In determining the amount of a civil penalty to impose under subsection 1 or 2, the Commissioner shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the good faith of the violator, any previous violations by the violator, the deleterious effect of the violation on the public, the net worth of the violator and any other factor the Commissioner considers relevant to the determination of the civil penalty.

Sec. 56. 1. The Commissioner may suspend, revoke or deny renewal of a provider's registration if:

(a) A fact or condition exists that, if it had existed when the registrant applied for registration as a provider, would have been a reason for denying registration;

(b) The provider has committed a material violation of this chapter or a rule or order of the Commissioner under this chapter;

(c) The provider is insolvent;

(d) The provider or an employee or affiliate of the provider has refused to permit the Commissioner to make an examination authorized by this chapter, failed to comply with paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of section 54 of this act within 15 days after request, or made a material misrepresentation or omission in complying with paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of section 54 of this act; or

(e) The provider has not responded within a reasonable time and in an appropriate manner to communications from the Commissioner.

2. If a provider does not comply with subsection 6 of section 44 of this act or if the Commissioner otherwise finds that the public health or safety or general welfare requires emergency action, the Commissioner may order a summary suspension of the provider's registration, effective on the date specified in the order.

3. If the Commissioner suspends, revokes or denies renewal of the registration of a provider, the Commissioner may seek a court order authorizing seizure of any or all of the money in a trust account required by section 44 of this act, books, records, accounts and other property of the provider which are located in this State.

4. If the Commissioner suspends or revokes a provider's registration, the provider may appeal and request a hearing pursuant to NRS 233B.121 to 233B.150, inclusive.

5. As used in this section, "insolvent" means:

(a) Having generally ceased to pay debts in the ordinary course of business other than as a result of good faith dispute;

(b) Being unable to pay debts as they become due; or

(c) Being insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law, 11 U.S.C. 101 et seq.

Sec. 57. 1. If an individual voids an agreement pursuant to subsection 2 of section 47 of this act, the individual may recover in a civil action all money paid or deposited by or on behalf of the individual pursuant to the agreement, except amounts paid to creditors, in addition to the recovery under paragraph (c) and (d) of subsection 3.

2. If an individual voids an agreement pursuant to subsection 1 of section 47 of this act, the individual may recover in a civil action three times the total amount of the fees, charges, money and payments made by the individual to the provider, in addition to the recovery under paragraph (d) of subsection 3.

3. Subject to subsection 4, an individual with respect to whom a provider violates this chapter may recover in a civil action from the provider and any person that caused the violation:

(a) Compensatory damages for injury, including, without limitation, noneconomic injury, caused by the violation;

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4 and subject to adjustment of the dollar amount pursuant to subsection 6 of section 54 of this act, with respect to a violation of section 39, 41 to 46, inclusive, or 49 of this act or subsection 1, 2 or [4] 5 of section 50 of this act, the greater of the amount recoverable under paragraph (a) or $5,000;

(c) Punitive damages; and

(d) Reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

4. In a class action, except for a violation of paragraph (e) of subsection 1 of section 50 of this act, the minimum damages provided in paragraph (b) of subsection 3 do not apply.

5. In addition to the remedy available under subsection 3, if a provider violates an individual's rights under section 42 of this act, the individual may recover in a civil action all money paid or deposited by or on behalf of the individual pursuant to the agreement, except for amounts paid to creditors.

6. A provider is not liable under this section for a violation of this chapter if the provider proves that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a good faith error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error. An error of legal judgment with respect to a provider's obligations under this chapter is not a good faith error. If, in connection with a violation, the provider has received more money than authorized by an agreement or this chapter, the defense provided by this subsection is not available unless the provider refunds the excess within 2 business days after learning of the violation.

7. The Commissioner shall assist an individual in enforcing a judgment against the surety bond or other security provided under section 35 or 36 of this act.

Sec. 58. 1. A violation of a provision of this chapter constitutes a deceptive trade practice for the purposes of NRS 598.0903 to 598.0999, inclusive.

2. If an act or practice of a provider violates both a provision of this chapter and a provision of chapter 598 of NRS, an individual may not recover under both for the same act or practice.

Sec. 59. 1. An action or proceeding brought pursuant to subsection 1, 2 or 3 of section 55 of this act must be commenced within 4 years after the conduct that is the basis of the Commissioner's complaint.

2. An action brought pursuant to section 57 of this act must be commenced within 2 years after the latest of:

(a) The individual's last transmission of money to a provider;

(b) The individual's last transmission of money to a creditor at the direction of the provider;

(c) The provider's last disbursement to a creditor of the individual;

(d) The provider's last accounting to the individual pursuant to subsection 1 of section 49 of this act;

(e) The date on which the individual discovered or reasonably should have discovered the facts giving rise to the individual's claim; or

(f) Termination of actions or proceedings by the Commissioner with respect to a violation of the chapter.

3. The period prescribed in paragraph (e) of subsection 2 is tolled during any period during which the provider or, if different, the defendant has materially and willfully misrepresented information required by this chapter to be disclosed to the individual, if the information so misrepresented is material to the establishment of the liability of the defendant under this chapter.

Sec. 60. In applying and construing the Uniform Debt-Management Services Act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

Sec. 61. This chapter modifies, limits and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. 7001 et seq., but does not modify, limit or supersede section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. 7003(b).

Sec. 62. NRS 598.741 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Amendment No. 840.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions governing ~~[~~the issuance of~~]~~ hunting, fishing and trapping. ~~[~~licenses.~~]~~ (BDR 45-1177)

AN ACT relating to wildlife; providing for the permanent revocation of a license, permit or privilege to hunt, fish or trap in certain circumstances; requiring a person to maintain a principal and permanent residence in this

State to be eligible for a resident license, tag or permit to hunt, fish or trap; providing for the forfeiture of a bonus point or other increased opportunity to be awarded a tag for making a false statement or furnishing false information in certain circumstances; requiring a person seeking to obtain a license, tag or permit on behalf of another for a fee or other compensation to have a power of attorney to do so; making it unlawful intentionally to remove, disturb or interfere with the trap of a holder of a trapping license under certain circumstances; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that a license, permit or privilege of a person to hunt, fish or trap may be suspended or revoked for wildlife convictions, but not for more than 3 years except in certain circumstances. The license, permit or privilege of a person who is convicted pursuant to NRS 501.376 of: (1) a gross misdemeanor may not be suspended or revoked for more than 5 years; and (2) a felony may not be suspended or revoked for more than 10 years. (NRS 501.1816) Section 2 of this bill expands the suspension and revocation penalties to require that the license, permit or privilege of a person who has been convicted of two or more felonies pursuant to NRS 501.376 be permanently revoked.

Existing law requires that a person meet certain requirements before he can be issued a resident license, tag or permit pursuant to chapter 502 of NRS. (NRS 502.015) Section 3 of this bill clarifies the language regarding domicile to mean maintaining a principal and permanent residence in this State beyond just owning a home in Nevada.

Existing law prohibits giving a false statement or furnishing false information to obtain any license, tag or permit, making such an action a misdemeanor, or to obtain a big game tag, making such an action a gross misdemeanor. (NRS 502.060) Section 4 of this bill adds a provision that any person who is convicted of giving a false statement or furnishing false information to obtain a license, tag, permit or big game tag forfeits any bonus point or other increased opportunity to be awarded a tag in a subsequent drawing.

Existing law requires a person attempting to obtain a license, tag or permit on behalf of another person to have a power of attorney giving him the authority to do so. (NRS 502.061) Section 5 of this bill restricts the requirement to have a power of attorney to only those persons attempting to acquire a license, tag or permit on behalf of another for a fee or other compensation.

Existing law makes it unlawful for a person to remove or disturb the trap of a holder of a trapping license while the trap is being used by the trapper on public land or on land where he has permission to trap. (NRS 503.454) If a person commits such a violation, he is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $50 or more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 6 months, or by both fine and imprisonment. (NRS 501.385) Section 6 of this bill revises existing law by making it unlawful for a person intentionally to remove, disturb or interfere with the trap of the holder of the trapping license. Section 6 defines the phrase "interfere with" to mean any act that physically impedes, hinders or obstructs the trap.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 501.1814 is hereby amended to read as follows:

501.1814 1. The Commission shall establish and the Department shall administer and enforce a system of assessing demerit points for wildlife convictions. The system must be uniform in its operation.

2. Pursuant to the schedule of demerit points established by regulation of the Commission for each wildlife conviction occurring within this State affecting any holder of a license, permit or privilege issued pursuant to this title, the Department shall assess demerit points for the 60-month period preceding a person's most recent wildlife conviction. Sixty months after the date of the conviction, the demerit points for that conviction must be deleted from the total demerit points accumulated by that person. The date of the ~~[violation]~~ conviction shall be deemed the date on which accumulated demerit points must be assessed. If a conviction of two or more wildlife violations committed at a single event is obtained, demerit points must be assessed for the offense having the greater number of demerit points.

Sec. 2. NRS 501.1816 is hereby amended to read as follows:

501.1816 1. If a person accumulates 9 or more demerit points, but less than 12, the Department shall notify him of that fact by certified mail. If, after the Department mails the notice, the person presents proof to the Department that he has, after his most recent wildlife conviction, successfully completed a course of instruction in the responsibilities of hunters approved by the Department, the Department shall deduct 4 demerit points from his record. A person may attend a course of instruction in the responsibilities of hunters only once in 60 months for the purpose of reducing his demerit points.

2. If a person accumulates 12 or more demerit points before completing a course of instruction pursuant to subsection 1, the Department shall suspend or revoke any license, permit or privilege issued to him pursuant to this title.

3. Not later than 60 days after the Department determines that a person has accumulated 12 demerit points, the Department shall notify the person by certified mail that his privileges will be suspended or revoked. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the Department shall suspend or revoke those privileges 30 days after it mails the notice.

4. Any person who receives the notice required by subsection 3 may submit to the Department a written request for a hearing before the Commission not later than 30 days after the receipt of the notice. If a written request for a hearing is received by the Department:

(a) The suspension or revocation of the license, permit or privilege is stayed until a determination is made by the Commission after the hearing.

(b) The hearing must be held within 60 days after the request is received.

5. The periods of suspension or revocation imposed pursuant to this section must run concurrently. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, no license, permit or privilege may be suspended or revoked pursuant to this section for more than 3 years. The license, permit or privilege of a person who is convicted pursuant to NRS 501.376 of:

(a) A gross misdemeanor may not be suspended or revoked for more than 5 years; ~~[or]~~

(b) ~~[A]~~ Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c), a felony may not be suspended or revoked for more than 10 years ~~[.]~~ ; or

(c) Two or more felonies, arising from separate events, must be permanently revoked.

6. If the Department suspends or revokes a license, permit or privilege pursuant to this section, the period of suspension or revocation begins 30 days after notification pursuant to subsection 3 or a determination is made by the Commission pursuant to subsection 4. After a person's license, permit or privilege is suspended or revoked pursuant to this section, all demerit points accumulated by that person must be cancelled.

Sec. 3. NRS 502.015 is hereby amended to read as follows:

502.015 1. For the purpose of issuing and using resident licenses, tags or permits pursuant to this chapter, a person is considered to be a resident of the State of Nevada if:

(a) He is a citizen of, or is lawfully entitled to remain in, the United States; and

(b) During the 6 months next preceding his application to the Department for a license, tag or permit, he:

(1) ~~[Was domiciled]~~ Maintained his principal and permanent residence in this State;

(2) Was physically present in this State, except for temporary absences; and

(3) Did not purchase or apply for any resident license, tag or permit to hunt, fish or trap in another state, country or province.

2. A person who ~~[is not domiciled]~~ does not maintain his principal and permanent residence in Nevada but who is attending an institution of higher learning in this State as a full-time student is eligible for a resident license, tag or permit if, during the 6 months next preceding his application to the Department for a license, tag or permit, he:

(a) Was physically present in Nevada, except for temporary trips outside of the State; and

(b) Did not purchase or apply for any resident license, tag or permit to hunt, fish or trap in another state, country or province.

3. A resident license, tag or permit issued by this State is void if the person to whom it was issued establishes or maintains his ~~[domicile]~~ principal and permanent residence in and obtains any hunting, fishing or trapping privilege or entitlement conditional on residency from another state, country or province.

4. As used in this section, "principal and permanent residence" means a place where a person is legally domiciled and maintains a permanent habitation in which he lives and to which he intends to return when he leaves the state in which the permanent habitation is located. The term does not include merely owning a residence in a state.

Sec. 4. NRS 502.060 is hereby amended to read as follows:

502.060 1. A person applying for and procuring a license, tag or permit, as provided in this chapter, shall give to the license agent his name and residence address, which must be entered by the license agent ~~[on the license and stub,]~~ , manually or electronically in a record specified by the Department, together with the date of issuance and a description of the person. If a child under the age of 18 years is applying for a license to hunt, the child's parent or legal guardian must sign the application and an attached statement acknowledging that the parent or legal guardian has been advised of the provisions of NRS 41.472.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, any person who makes any false statement or furnishes false information to obtain any license, tag or permit issued pursuant to the provisions of this title is guilty of a misdemeanor.

3. Any person who makes any false statement or furnishes false information to obtain any big game tag issued pursuant to the provisions of this title is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

4. It is unlawful for any person to hunt, fish or trap using any hunting, fishing or trapping license which is invalid by reason of expiration or a false statement made to obtain the license.

5. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsection 2 or 3 forfeits any bonus point or other increased opportunity to be awarded a tag in a subsequent drawing conducted for that tag if the bonus point or other increased opportunity was acquired by the false statement or false information.

6. As used in this section, "big game tag" means a tag permitting a person to hunt any species of pronghorn antelope, bear, deer, mountain goat, mountain lion, bighorn sheep or elk.

Sec. 5. NRS 502.061 is hereby amended to read as follows:

502.061 1. A person , for a fee or other form of compensation, may obtain or attempt to obtain on behalf of an applicant any license, tag or permit issued pursuant to this chapter only if the person acts pursuant to a power of attorney or other written instrument that:

(a) Provides that the power of attorney or other written instrument is executed for the sole purpose of authorizing the person to apply in the State of Nevada on behalf of the applicant for a license, tag or permit for a specific season;

(b) Provides that the power of attorney or other written instrument expires on February 28 of the year following the year in which the power of attorney or other written instrument is executed; and

(c) Is acknowledged and includes a jurat as defined in NRS 240.0035, or is otherwise certified.

2. Any license, tag or permit which is obtained by the use of a power of attorney or other written instrument that does not comply with the provisions of subsection 1 is void.

Sec. 6. NRS 503.454 is hereby amended to read as follows:

503.454 1. Every person who takes fur-bearing mammals by any legal method or unprotected mammals by trapping or sells raw furs for profit shall procure a trapping license.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 100.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 617.

AN ACT relating to education; revising the duties of the Deputy Superintendent for Administrative and Fiscal Services in the Department of Education relating to charter schools; revising provisions governing charter schools and university schools for profoundly gifted pupils; revising provisions governing the annual reports of school districts and charter schools; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

The Deputy Superintendent for Administrative and Fiscal Services in the Department of Education investigates, inspects and reports on the funds and accounts of school districts. (NRS 385.315) Section 1 of this bill requires the Deputy Superintendent to perform similar duties for the funds and accounts of charter schools and university schools for profoundly gifted pupils.

The governing body of a charter school is required to appoint a trustee upon closure of the school. (NRS 386.536) Section 2 of this bill provides that the trustee appointed by the governing body is subject to the approval of the sponsor and requires the sponsor to make the appointment if the governing body is not able to do so. Section 2 also provides that if the sponsor of a charter school provides financial compensation to the administrator or person appointed by the governing body, the sponsor may receive reimbursement from the charter school for the costs incurred by the sponsor in providing the financial compensation for a period not to exceed 6 months.

A charter school that meets certain requirements, including certain financial and performance standards, is eligible for an exemption from an annual performance audit and must instead undergo a performance audit every 3 years. (NRS 386.5515) Section 3 of this bill provides that if such a charter school no longer satisfies the requirements for an exemption or if reasonable evidence of noncompliance ~~[concerning the educational progress]~~ in achieving the educational goals and objectives of the charter school exists, the charter school shall submit to an annual performance audit.

Existing law provides that upon the request of a parent or legal guardian of a pupil enrolled in a charter school, the board of trustees of the school district in which the charter school is located shall authorize the pupil to participate in a class, extracurricular activity and sports within the school district under certain circumstances. Section 4 of this bill amends existing law to provide for such participation in the school district in which the pupil resides rather than the school district in which the charter school is located. (NRS 386.560)

The sponsor of a charter school may request, upon completion of each school year, reimbursement from the governing body of the school for the administrative costs associated with sponsorship. The total amount of such administrative costs must not exceed a specified percentage of the total amount of money apportioned to the charter school during the year. (NRS 386.570) Section 5 of this bill revises the schedule of payments for reimbursement of administrative costs from yearly to quarterly ~~[.]~~ and authorizes a charter school to apply for a delay in the payment of a quarterly reimbursement if a financial hardship exists. Section 5 also provides that to determine the maximum amount of administrative costs, the total amount apportioned to the charter school during the year must be adjusted by the final computation of apportionment for the school.

Sections 6 and 9 of this bill revise provisions governing the annual reports of charter schools and school districts. (NRS 386.600, 387.303)

The Department of Education is required to develop a formula for determining the minimum amount of money that each school district is required to expend each fiscal year for textbooks, instructional supplies and instructional hardware. (NRS 387.206) Section 8 of this bill requires the development of such a formula and minimum expenditures for charter schools.

Existing law requires the board of trustees of a school district and a college or university within the Nevada System of Higher Education which sponsors a charter school to submit an annual report to the State Board of Education on the evaluation of the progress made by the charter school in achieving its educational goals and objectives. A charter school is entitled to receive its proportionate share of any other money available from federal, state or local sources that the school or the pupils who are enrolled in the school are eligible to receive. If a charter school receives special education program units directly from this State, the amount of money for special education that the school district pays to the charter school may be reduced proportionately by the amount of money the charter school received from this State for that purpose.

If the board of trustees of a school district is the sponsor of a charter school, the amount of money that may be paid to the sponsor pursuant to this subsection for administrative expenses in 1 school year must not exceed:

5. To determine the amount of money for distribution to a charter school in its first year of operation, the count of pupils who are enrolled in the charter school must initially be determined 30 days before the beginning of the school year of the school district, based on the number of pupils whose applications for enrollment have been approved by the charter school. The count of pupils who are enrolled in the charter school must be revised on the last day of the first school month of the school district in which the charter school is located for the school year, based on the actual number of pupils who are enrolled in the charter school. Pursuant to subsection 5 of NRS 387.124, the governing body of a charter school may request that the apportionments made to the charter school in its first year of operation be paid to the charter school 30 days before the apportionments are otherwise required to be made.

6. If a charter school ceases to operate as a charter school during a school year, the remaining apportionments that would have been made to the charter school pursuant to NRS 387.124 for that year must be paid on a proportionate basis to the school districts where the pupils who were enrolled in the charter school reside.

7. 8. If a charter school uses money received from this State to purchase real property, buildings, equipment or facilities, the governing body of the charter school shall assign a security interest in the property, buildings, equipment and facilities to the State of Nevada.

9. The governing body of a charter school may submit to the Superintendent of Public Instruction a written request to delay a quarterly payment of a reimbursement for the administrative costs that a charter school owes pursuant to this section. The written request must be in the form prescribed by the Superintendent and must include, without limitation, documentation that a financial hardship exists for the charter school and a plan for the payment of the reimbursement. The Superintendent may approve or deny the request and shall notify the governing body and the sponsor of the charter school of the approval or denial of the request.

Amendment No. 643.

AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; requiring the executive board of a unit owners' association of a common-interest community to make available to each unit's owner certain information concerning the association's collection policy; extending the period of time certain liens have priority over [other] certain other security interests; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that, not less than 30 days or more than 60 days before the beginning of the fiscal year of a unit owners' association of a common-interest community, the executive board of the association must provide each unit's owner with certain information pertaining to the budget of the association. (NRS 116.31151) Section 1 of this bill requires the executive board to also make available to each unit's owner information pertaining to a policy established by the association for the collection of any fees, fines, assessments or costs imposed against a unit's owner, including the unit's owner's responsibility to pay such fees, fines, assessments or costs and the rights of the association to recover the fees, fines, assessments or costs if the unit's owner does not pay them.

Under existing law, a unit-owners' association of a common-interest community has priority over certain other creditors with respect to a lien on a unit for any construction penalty imposed against the unit's owner, any assessment levied against the unit or certain fines imposed against the unit's owner. Such a lien is also prior to a first security interest on the unit recorded before the assessments became delinquent to the extent of the assessments for common expenses based on the periodic budget adopted by the association which would have become due in the absence of acceleration during the 6 months preceding an action to enforce the lien. (NRS 116.3116) Section 2 of this bill changes the 6-month threshold for super priority of a lien for an association to ~~[2 years, if the unit is a single-family detached dwelling. (NRS 116.3116)]~~ 9 months, unless federal regulations adopted by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation or the Federal National Mortgage Association require a shorter period of priority for the lien. If such federal regulations require a shorter period, the period must be determined in accordance with the federal regulations, except that the period must not be less than the 6 months preceding an action to enforce the lien, as currently provided in existing law.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 116.31151 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31151 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 and unless the declaration of a common-interest community imposes more stringent standards, the executive board shall, not less than 30 days or more than 60 days before the beginning of the fiscal year of the association, prepare and distribute to each unit's owner a copy of:

(a) The budget for the daily operation of the association. The budget must include, without limitation, the estimated annual revenue and expenditures of the association and any contributions to be made to the reserve account of the association.

(b) The budget to provide adequate funding for the reserves required by paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 116.3115. The budget must include, without limitation:

(1) The current estimated replacement cost, estimated remaining life and estimated useful life of each major component of the common elements;

(2) As of the end of the fiscal year for which the budget is prepared, the current estimate of the amount of cash reserves that are necessary, and the current amount of accumulated cash reserves that are set aside, to repair, replace or restore the major components of the common elements;

(3) A statement as to whether the executive board has determined or anticipates that the levy of one or more special assessments will be necessary to repair, replace or restore any major component of the common elements or to provide adequate funding for the reserves designated for that purpose; and

(4) A general statement describing the procedures used for the estimation and accumulation of cash reserves pursuant to subparagraph (2), including, without limitation, the qualifications of the person responsible for the preparation of the study of the reserves required by NRS 116.31152.

2. In lieu of distributing copies of the budgets of the association required by subsection 1, the executive board may distribute to each unit's owner a summary of those budgets, accompanied by a written notice that:

(a) The budgets are available for review at the business office of the association or some other suitable location within the county where the common-interest community is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within one of those counties; and

(b) Copies of the budgets will be provided upon request.

3. Within 60 days after adoption of any proposed budget for the common-interest community, the executive board shall provide a summary of the proposed budget to each unit's owner and shall set a date for a meeting of the units' owners to consider ratification of the proposed budget not less than 14 days or more than 30 days after the mailing of the summaries. Unless at that meeting a majority of all units' owners, or any larger vote specified in the declaration, reject the proposed budget, the proposed budget is ratified, whether or not a quorum is present. If the proposed budget is rejected, the periodic budget last ratified by the units' owners must be continued until such time as the units' owners ratify a subsequent budget proposed by the executive board.

4. The executive board shall, at the same time and in the same manner that the executive board makes the budget available to a unit's owner pursuant to this section, make available to each unit's owner the policy established for the association concerning the collection of any fees, fines, assessments or costs imposed against a unit's owner pursuant to this chapter. The policy must include, without limitation:

(a) The responsibility of the unit's owner to pay any such fees, fines, assessments or costs in a timely manner; and

(b) The association's rights concerning the collection of such fees, fines, assessments or costs if the unit's owner fails to pay the fees, fines, assessments or costs in a timely manner.

Sec. 2. NRS 116.3116 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.3116 1. The association has a lien on a unit for any construction penalty that is imposed against the unit's owner pursuant to NRS 116.310305, any assessment levied against that unit or any fines imposed against the unit's owner from the time the construction penalty, assessment or fine becomes due. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, any penalties, fees, charges, late charges, fines and interest charged pursuant to paragraphs (j) to (n), inclusive, of subsection 1 of NRS 116.3102 are enforceable as assessments under this section. If an assessment is payable in installments, the full amount of the assessment is a lien from the time the first installment thereof becomes due.

2. A lien under this section is prior to all other liens and encumbrances on a unit except:

(a) Liens and encumbrances recorded before the recordation of the declaration and, in a cooperative, liens and encumbrances which the association creates, assumes or takes subject to;

(b) A first security interest on the unit recorded before the date on which the assessment sought to be enforced became delinquent or, in a cooperative, the first security interest encumbering only the unit's owner's interest and perfected before the date on which the assessment sought to be enforced became delinquent; and

(c) Liens for real estate taxes and other governmental assessments or charges against the unit or cooperative.

➥ The lien is also prior to all security interests described in paragraph (b) to the extent of the assessments for common expenses based on the periodic budget adopted by the association pursuant to NRS 116.3115 which would have become due in the absence of acceleration during the ~~[2 years immediately preceding institution of an action to enforce the lien if the unit is a single-family detached dwelling or during the 6]~~ 9 months immediately preceding institution of an action to enforce the lien ~~[.] [if the unit is any other type of dwelling.]~~ , unless federal regulations adopted by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation or the Federal National Mortgage Association require a shorter period of priority for the lien. If federal regulations adopted by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation or the Federal National Mortgage Association require a shorter period of priority for the lien, the period during which the lien is prior to all security interests described in paragraph (b) must be determined in accordance with those federal regulations, except that notwithstanding the provisions of the federal regulations, the period of priority for the lien must not be less than the 6 months immediately preceding institution of an action to enforce the lien. This subsection does not affect the priority of mechanics' or materialmen's liens, or the priority of liens for other assessments made by the association.

3. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, if two or more associations have liens for assessments created at any time on the same property, those liens have equal priority.

4. Recording of the declaration constitutes record notice and perfection of the lien. No further recordation of any claim of lien for assessment under this section is required.

5. A lien for unpaid assessments is extinguished unless proceedings to enforce the lien are instituted within 3 years after the full amount of the assessments becomes due.

6. This section does not prohibit actions to recover sums for which subsection 1 creates a lien or prohibit an association from taking a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

7. A judgment or decree in any action brought under this section must include costs and reasonable attorney's fees for the prevailing party.

8. The association, upon written request, shall furnish to a unit's owner a statement setting forth the amount of unpaid assessments against the unit. If the interest of the unit's owner is real estate or if a lien for the unpaid assessments may be foreclosed under NRS 116.31162 to 116.31168, inclusive, the statement must be in recordable form. The statement must be furnished within 10 business days after receipt of the request and is binding on the association, the executive board and every unit's owner.

9. In a cooperative, upon nonpayment of an assessment on a unit, the unit's owner may be evicted in the same manner as provided by law in the case of an unlawful holdover by a commercial tenant, and:

(a) In a cooperative where the owner's interest in a unit is real estate under NRS 116.1105, the association's lien may be foreclosed under NRS 116.31162 to 116.31168, inclusive.

(b) In a cooperative where the owner's interest in a unit is personal property under NRS 116.1105, the association's lien:

(1) May be foreclosed as a security interest under NRS 104.9101 to 104.9709, inclusive; or

(2) If the declaration so provides, may be foreclosed under NRS 116.31162 to 116.31168, inclusive.

(NRS 647.145)

Section 10 of this bill provides that chapter 647 of NRS does not prevent counties from licensing, taxing and regulating dealers in junk or scrap metal. (NRS 647.080)

Section 12 of this bill provides that a person who willfully or maliciously removes, damages or destroys utility property, agricultural infrastructure, construction sites or certain other property to obtain scrap metal is guilty of a misdemeanor if the value of the removal or damage of property is less than $500 or a felony if the removal or damage is greater than $500 or interrupts a service provided by utility property.

Existing law generally provides that a person commits petit larceny and is guilty of a misdemeanor if he steals property with a value of less than $250. (NRS 205.240) Existing law also generally provides that a person commits grand larceny if he steals property with a value of $250 or more. (NRS 205.220) A person who commits grand larceny is guilty of a category C felony if the value of the property is less than $2,500 and is guilty of a category B felony if the value of the property is $2,500 or more. (NRS 205.222)

Section 13 of this bill: (1) provides that, if the value of the scrap metal stolen within a period of 90 days is less than $250, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor; (2) provides that, if the value of the scrap metal stolen within a period of 90 days is $250 or more, the person is guilty of a category C or B felony with varying terms of imprisonment and fines, depending upon the value of the scrap metal stolen within the 90-day period; (3) requires the court to order a person who steals scrap metal to pay restitution; and (4) provides that the cost of repairing or replacing property damaged by the theft of scrap metal must be included in the value of the property that was stolen.

Sections 17 and 19 of this bill amend existing law to apply certain provisions governing larceny to the new crime of larceny described in section 13 of this bill involving scrap metal. (NRS 205.251, 205.980)

Assembly Bill No. 251.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 622.

AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; revising the procedures for voting for a member of the executive board of an association under certain circumstances; requiring that the regulations governing the issuance of certificates for community managers must contain certain provisions relating to persons who formerly engaged in community management; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that the executive board of a unit-owners' association may nominate a person to serve on the executive board and that qualified members of the association may also have their names placed on the ballot along with the nominees for election to the executive board. Existing law also provides that the election of any member of the executive board of a unit-owners' association must be conducted by secret written ballot, unless the declaration of the association provides that voting rights may be exercised by delegates or representatives. (NRS 116.31034) Section 1 of this bill provides that, before notice is provided to each unit's owner of his eligibility to serve on the executive board, the executive board may determine that if the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is less than or equal to the number of open positions on the executive board, the appropriate officer of the association will send a notice to each unit's owner informing each unit's owner that a unit's owner who is qualified to be a member of the executive board may nominate himself for membership on the executive board by submitting a nomination to the executive board within 30 days after the notice. If the executive board decides to send such a notice and, at the closing of the period for nominations, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is greater than the number of members to be elected to the executive board, then the association must conduct an election for membership on the executive board. If, after any additional nominations, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board continues to be less than or equal to the number of open positions on the executive board, then such nominees shall be deemed to be duly elected members of the executive board.

Existing law requires the Commission on Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels to adopt regulations governing the issuance of certificates for community managers. (NRS 116A.410) Section 2 of this bill provides that those regulations must establish a procedure for a person who was previously issued a certificate and who no longer holds a certificate to reapply for and obtain a new certificate without undergoing any period of supervision by another community manager, regardless of the length of time that has passed since the person last acted as a community manager.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 116.31034 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31034 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS 116.212, not later than the termination of any period of declarant's control, the units' owners shall elect an executive board of at least three members, at least a majority of whom must be units' owners. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, the remaining members of the executive board do not have to be units' owners. The executive board shall elect the officers of the association. The members of the executive board and the officers of the association shall take office upon election.

2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed 2 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation on the number of terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive board.

3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant; and

(b) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.

4. Not less than 30 days before the preparation of a ballot for the election of members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit's owner of his eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board. Each unit's owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may have his name placed on the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected by the members of the executive board or a nominating committee established by the association.

5. Before the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association causes notice to be given to each unit's owner of his eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board pursuant to subsection 4, the executive board may determine that if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected to the executive board at the election, then the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association will cause notice to be given to each unit's owner informing each unit's owner that:

(a) The association will not prepare or mail any ballots to units' owners pursuant to this section and the nominated candidates shall be deemed to be duly elected to the executive board unless:

(1) A unit's owner who is qualified to serve on the executive board nominates himself for membership on the executive board by submitting a nomination to the executive board within 30 days after the notice provided by this subsection; and

(2) The number of units' owners who submit such a nomination causes the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board to be greater than the number of members to be elected to the executive board.

(b) Each unit's owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may nominate himself for membership on the executive board by submitting a nomination to the executive board within 30 days after the notice provided by this subsection.

6. If the notice described in subsection 5 is given and if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board described in subsection 5, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected to the executive board, then:

(a) The association will not prepare or mail any ballots to units' owners pursuant to this section;

(b) The nominated candidates shall be deemed to be duly elected to the executive board not later than 30 days after the date of the closing of the period for nominations described in subsection 5; and

(c) The association shall send to each unit's owner notification that the candidates nominated have been elected to the executive board.

7. If the notice described in subsection 5 is given and if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board described in subsection 5, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is greater than the number of members to be elected to the executive board, then the association shall:

(a) Prepare and mail ballots to the units' owners pursuant to this section; and

(b) Conduct an election for membership on the executive board pursuant to this section.

8. Each person ~~[whose name is placed on the ballot]~~ who is nominated as a candidate for a member of the executive board pursuant to subsection 4 or 5 must:

(a) Make a good faith effort to disclose any financial, business, professional or personal relationship or interest that would result or would appear to a reasonable person to result in a potential conflict of interest for the candidate if the candidate were to be elected to serve as a member of the executive board; and

(b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good standing. For the purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall not be deemed to be in "good standing" if the candidate has any unpaid and past due assessments or construction penalties that are required to be paid to the association.

➥ The candidate must make all disclosures required pursuant to this subsection in writing to the association with his candidacy information. The association shall distribute the disclosures to each member of the association with the ballot or, in the event ballots are not prepared and mailed pursuant to subsection 6, in the ~~[manner established for distribution of ballots in the bylaws]~~ next regular mailing of the association.

~~[6.]~~ 9. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant:

(b) A person may not be a member of the executive board of a master association or an officer of that master association if the person, his spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for:

(1) That master association; or

(2) Any association that is subject to the governing documents of that master association.

In all events where the person serving or offering to serve as an officer of the association or a member of the executive board is not the record owner, he shall file proof in the records of the association that:

If the election of any member of the executive board is conducted by secret written ballot:

(a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

(b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.

(f) The incumbent members of the executive board and each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a member of the executive board may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

The Administrator may require the association to submit a copy of the certification of each member of the executive board of that association at the time the association registers with the Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 116.31158.

Assembly Bill No. 46.

Amendment No. 621.

AN ACT relating to firearms; requiring a court to transmit certain records of adjudication concerning a person's mental health to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History for certain purposes relating to the purchase or possession of a firearm; establishing procedures for those persons to petition a court to regain certain rights relating to the purchase or possession of a firearm; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Federal law requires states to transmit to the National Instant Criminal Background Check System records of adjudication of mental illness or incompetence, involuntary admission to mental health facilities and other records which indicate a person is prohibited from purchasing a firearm. Federal law also requires states to implement a program by which a person who was previously adjudicated mentally ill or involuntarily committed can apply to have his right to possess a firearm restored and ties this requirement to certain federal funding for states under the NICS Improvement

Amendments Act of 2007. (Public Law 110-180) Nevada law prohibits a person from owning or possessing a firearm if he has been adjudicated as mentally ill or has been committed to any mental health facility. (NRS 202.360)

Sections 1-4 and 13 of this bill require a court to transmit to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History a record of any court order, judgment, plea or verdict concerning the involuntary admission of a person to a mental health facility, the appointment of a guardian for a person who has a mental defect, a finding that a person is incompetent to stand trial, a verdict acquitting a person by reason of insanity or a plea of guilty but mentally ill, along with a statement that the record is being transmitted for inclusion in all appropriate databases of the National Instant Criminal Background Check System. (NRS 159.055, 174.035, 175.533, 175.539, 178.425, 433A.310)

Section 7 of this bill requires the Central Repository to take reasonable steps to ensure that the records transmitted to it by the court are included in each appropriate database of the National Instant Criminal Background Check System. In accordance with federal law, this section also provides a procedure for a person who is the subject of such a record to petition a court to have the record removed from the National Instant Criminal Background Check System and to have his right to possess or purchase a firearm restored.

Section 8 of this bill provides that the records transmitted by the court to the Central Repository are confidential, may not be used for any purpose other than for inclusion in each appropriate database of the National Instant Criminal Background Check System, and no cause of action for damages may be brought for transmission, failure to transmit, delay in transmitting or inaccuracies within such records.

Section 8.5 of this bill authorizes a person who is or believes he is the subject of a record of mental health held by the Central Repository to inspect and correct such records. This section, which is modeled after NRS 179A.150, also requires the Central Repository and the Director of the Department of Public Safety to adopt certain regulations relating to the inspection and correction of such records.

Section 11.5 of this bill requires a court, when appointing a general guardian, to determine whether a proposed ward is a person with a mental defect who is prohibited from possessing a firearm pursuant to federal law.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 174.035 is hereby amended to read as follows:

174.035 1. A defendant may plead not guilty, guilty, guilty but mentally ill or, with the consent of the court, nolo contendere. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty or guilty but mentally ill.

2. If a plea of guilty or guilty but mentally ill is made in a written plea agreement, the agreement must be in substantially the form prescribed in NRS 174.063. If a plea of guilty or guilty but mentally ill is made orally, the court shall not accept such a plea or a plea of nolo contendere without first addressing the defendant personally and determining that the plea is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of the plea.

3. With the consent of the court and the district attorney, a defendant may enter a conditional plea of guilty, guilty but mentally ill or nolo contendere, reserving in writing the right, on appeal from the judgment, to a review of the adverse determination of any specified pretrial motion. A defendant who prevails on appeal must be allowed to withdraw the plea.

4. A plea of guilty but mentally ill must be entered not less than 21 days before the date set for trial. A defendant who has entered a plea of guilty but mentally ill has the burden of establishing his mental illness by a preponderance of the evidence. Under such a plea or defense, the burden of proof is upon the defendant to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) Due to a disease or defect of the mind, he was in a delusional state at the time of the alleged offense; and

(b) Due to the delusional state, he either did not:

(1) Know or understand the nature and capacity of his act; or

(a) Probation is not allowed; or

(b) The maximum prison sentence is more than 10 years,

➥ unless the plea bargain is set forth in writing and signed by the defendant, the defendant's attorney, if he is represented by counsel, and the prosecuting attorney.

8. If the court accepts a plea of guilty but mentally ill pursuant to this section, the court shall cause, on a form prescribed by the Department of Public Safety, a record of that plea to be transmitted to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History along with a statement indicating that the record is being transmitted for inclusion in each

(a) The defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of an offense;

(b) The defendant has established by a preponderance of the evidence that due to a disease or defect of the mind, he was mentally ill at the time of the commission of the offense; and

(c) The defendant has not established by a preponderance of the evidence that he is not guilty by reason of insanity pursuant to subsection 5 of NRS 174.035.

2. Except as otherwise provided by specific statute, a defendant who is found guilty but mentally ill is subject to the same criminal, civil and administrative penalties and procedures as a defendant who is found guilty.

3. If the trier of fact finds a defendant guilty but mentally ill pursuant to subsection 1, the court shall cause, on a form prescribed by the Department of Public Safety, a record of the finding to be transmitted to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History, along with a statement indicating that the record is being transmitted for inclusion in each appropriate database of the National Instant Criminal Background Check System.

Sec. 3. NRS 175.539 is hereby amended to read as follows:

175.539 1. Where on a trial a defense of insanity is interposed by the defendant and he is acquitted by reason of that defense, the finding of the jury pending the judicial determination pursuant to subsection 2 has the same effect as if he were regularly adjudged insane, and the judge must:

(a) Order a peace officer to take the person into protective custody and transport him to a forensic facility for detention pending a hearing to determine his mental health;

(c) The costs of insurance must be assessed in proportion to risk and the costs of utilities must be assessed in proportion to usage.

5. Assessments to pay a judgment against the association may be made only against the units in the common-interest community at the time the judgment was entered, in proportion to their liabilities for common expenses.

6. If any common expense is caused by the misconduct of any unit's owner, the association may assess that expense exclusively against his unit.

7. The association of a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, is not required to make an assessment against a vacant lot located within the community that is owned by the declarant.

Assemblyman Anderson moved that the Assembly do not concur in the Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 350.

Remarks by Assemblyman Anderson.

Motion carried.

Assembly Bill No. 192.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 652.

AN ACT relating to local government purchasing; making various changes to the provisions governing performance contracts entered into by local governments for operating cost-savings measures; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes and sets forth the requirements for local governments to enter into performance contracts for the purchase and installation of operating cost-savings measures to reduce costs related to such matters as energy, water and the disposal of waste, and related labor costs. (NRS 332.300-332.440) Existing law sets forth the procedures by which a local government will compile a list of the qualified service companies that it determines have a record of established projects or have demonstrated technical, operational, financial and managerial capabilities to design and carry out operating cost-savings measures. Under existing law, the local government must solicit proposals for a performance contract from such companies. (NRS 332.350, 332.360) Sections 2-5, 11 and 12 of this bill provide that a company must apply to the local government, meet certain qualifications and be preapproved by a local government before it may submit a proposal for a performance contract.

Section 6 of this bill requires that performance contracts for operating cost-savings measures identify the specific dollar amount and units or percentages of consumption that will be eliminated or avoided as a result of the operating cost-savings measures.

Section 6.5 of this bill requires a local government that enters into a performance contract for operating cost-savings measures to submit a report annually to the Legislature or, when the Legislature is not in session, the Interim Finance Committee.

Section 8 of this bill amends the definition of "building" to provide that performance contracts apply only to existing buildings. (NRS 332.310)

Section 9 of this bill adds ground source systems of heating and cooling to the list of operating cost-savings measures that may be included in a performance contract. (NRS 332.330)

Section 13 of this bill eliminates the option for a performance contract to be structured as a shared-savings contract. (NRS 332.370)

Section 14 of this bill provides that the bonding requirements set forth in the provisions of chapter 339 of NRS apply to performance contracts that exceed $100,000. (NRS 332.390)

Existing law authorizes a local government to reinvest any savings realized under a performance contract into operating cost-savings measures. (NRS 332.410) Section 15 of this bill requires that such reinvestment comply with the provisions of NRS 332.300-332.440 and sections 2-6.5 of this bill.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 653.

AN ACT relating to the subdivision of land; revising the requirements for the purchase of property for school construction; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth a multistep process for obtaining approval for the subdivision of land. (NRS 278.320-278.460) One of the preliminary requirements is a determination of the need for a school in the area in which the subdivision is located. (NRS 278.330) If a school is needed, the subdivider is required to make suitable land within the proposed subdivision available for purchase by the school district at a price which does not exceed the fair market value of the land. Under existing law, if the school district does not construct a school on the land within 10 years from the date of purchase, the land must be offered for resale back to the subdivider or his successor in interest. (NRS 278.346)

This bill provides that, in a county whose population is 100,000 or more but less than 400,000 (currently Washoe County), the school district and subdivider may negotiate a purchase price which is the lesser of: (1) the fair market value of the land on the date of purchase; or (2) the fair market value of the land at the time the tentative subdivision map was approved plus the costs of certain expenses paid by the subdivider. This bill also provides that, in such a county, if the purchase is not completed within 5 years after the final map that shows the school site is approved, the subdivider need not continue to set aside the land for the school district. This bill further requires a school district in such a county that purchased land for a school site to offer the land back to the subdivider or successor in interest if construction on a school has not begun at the site within ~~[5]~~ 10 years from the date ~~[of purchase unless the school district has requested an exemption from the planning commission to delay construction of the school for up to another 5 years. This bill sets forth the circumstances under which the school district may apply for such an exemption.]~~ on which the final map that shows the school site was approved.

If any land purchased by ~~[a]~~ the school district pursuant to the provisions of ~~[this subsection have]~~ subsection 2 has not been placed in use as a school site at the end of 10 years from the date of purchase, the land must be offered to the subdivider or his successor in interest at a sale price equal to the fair market value ~~[. (c) Retain such property, if such retention is determined to be in the best interests of the school district.

~~[3.]~~ 5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~[4,]~~ 6, when any land dedicated to the use of the public school system or any land purchased and used as a school site becomes unsuitable, undesirable or impractical for any school uses or purposes, the board of trustees of the county school district in which the land is located shall dispose of the land as provided in subsection ~~[2.]~~ 4.

The school district may apply to the planning commission for an extension of not more than 5 years to the limitation set forth in subsection 9 for the construction of a school at the school site. To apply for an extension pursuant to this subsection, the school district must demonstrate the existence of extenuating circumstances which have caused the delay in beginning the construction of the school. The planning commission must consider an application for an extension requested pursuant to this subsection at a public hearing. Amendment No. 659.

AN ACT relating to the protection of children; making various changes concerning the investigation of applicants for a license to operate a child care facility, licensees and others over whom applicants or licensees exercise some control; requiring applicants and licensees to terminate certain employees and remove certain residents and participants in outdoor youth programs who have been convicted of certain crimes or who have had a substantiated report of child abuse or neglect made against them; expanding the grounds for denying a license and for taking other disciplinary action against a licensee; authorizing the imposition of administrative fines for violations of certain laws and regulations concerning licensure of child care facilities; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for the licensure of certain child care facilities. (NRS 432A.131-432A.220) As part of the process for obtaining a license, the Bureau of Services for Child Care of the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services conducts a background check of each applicant for a license, licensee, employee of an applicant or licensee and every resident of a child care facility or participant in an outdoor youth program who is 18 years of age or older. (NRS 432A.170, 432A.175) Section 5 of this bill expands the list of crimes that the Bureau must inquire about as part of such an investigation and requires the Bureau to request information concerning every applicant, licensee, employee, resident or participant from the Statewide Central Registry for the Collection of Information Concerning the Abuse or Neglect of a Child to determine whether there has been a substantiated report of child abuse or neglect made against any of those persons. (NRS 432A.170) Section 6 of this bill requires the Bureau to obtain permission from each such applicant, licensee, employee, resident or participant to obtain such information from the Statewide Central Registry. (NRS 432A.175) If an employee of an applicant or licensee, or a resident or participant, has been convicted of one of the crimes inquired about as part of the investigation, the Bureau is required to notify the applicant or licensee. Upon receiving such notice, section 2 of this bill requires the applicant or licensee to terminate the employment of the employee, remove the resident from the child care facility or remove the participant from the outdoor youth program, as applicable, after affording the person an opportunity to correct the information. Section 6 further requires an applicant or licensee to notify the Bureau when the applicant, licensee, employee, resident or participant is involved in certain legal proceedings or disciplinary hearings or charged with certain crimes. (NRS 432A.175)

Section 4 of this bill prohibits the Bureau from issuing a provisional license to operate a child care facility unless the Bureau has completed an investigation into the qualifications and background of the applicant and his employees to ensure that they have not been convicted of certain crimes or had a substantiated report of child abuse or neglect made against them. (NRS 432A.160)

Section 7 of this bill expands the grounds for denial of an application for a license to operate a child care facility and for taking disciplinary action against a licensee and authorizes the Bureau to impose administrative fines for a violation of the statutes governing licensure of child care facilities or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto. (NRS 432A.190)

Assembly Bill No. 24.

Amendment No. 599.

AN ACT relating to industrial insurance; revising provisions relating to the duty of an insurer to accept or deny a claim for compensation; revising provisions relating to the selection of a physician or chiropractor by an injured employee; revising provisions relating to the denial of compensation due to discharge from employment for misconduct; revising provisions relating to the closure of a claim; repealing provisions requiring the reduction of compensation by the amount of federal disability insurance benefits received by an injured employee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, an insurer is required to accept or deny a claim for compensation within 30 days after the insurer has been notified of an industrial accident. (NRS 616C.065) Section 2 of this bill provides that if an insurer is ordered by the Administrator of the Division of Industrial Relations of the Department of Business and Industry, a hearing or appeals officer, a district court or the Supreme Court of Nevada to make a new determination relating to a claim for compensation, such a determination must be made within 30 days after the order.

Existing law provides that an injured employee may choose an alternative treating physician or chiropractor after making his initial choice if the alternative choice is made within 90 days after the injury. (NRS 616C.090) Section 3 of this bill clarifies existing law by providing that an injured employee may make the alternative choice without the insurer's approval if the alternative choice is made within 90 days after the injury. Section 3 also provides that an injured employee may make a change in the treating physician or chiropractor at any time, subject to the insurer's approval. Section 3 further requires an insurer to provide to an injured employee whose request for a change in the treating physician or chiropractor has been denied the specific reason for the denial.

Section 4 of this bill provides that the affidavit or declaration of a qualified laboratory director, chemist or any other person meeting certain qualifications may be used to prove the existence of alcohol or controlled substances in an employee's system in denying, reducing or suspending the payment of compensation for an injury. (NRS 616C.230)

Section 5 of this bill revises existing provisions governing the denial of compensation to injured employees who have been discharged for misconduct by providing that only compensation for temporary total disability may be denied. (NRS 616C.232)

Section 5.5 of this bill revises existing law by requiring an insurer to notify an injured employee whose claim will be closed whether an evaluation for a permanent partial disability has been scheduled or, if such an evaluation has not been scheduled, that the reason is because the insurer determined there is no possibility of a permanent impairment of any kind. (NRS 616C.235)

Section 9 of this bill repeals the provisions requiring a reduction in the compensation received by an employee for temporary disability, permanent partial disability or permanent total disability by the amount of federal disability insurance benefits received by the employee. (NRS 616C.430)

~~[7.]~~ 8. For the purposes of this section, the insurer shall mail the written determination to:

(a) The mailing address of the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant that is provided on the form prescribed by the Administrator for filing the claim; or

(b) Another mailing address if the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant provides to the insurer written notice of another mailing address.

~~[8.]~~ 9. As used in this section, "certificate of mailing" means a receipt that provides evidence of the date on which the insurer presented its written determination to the United States Postal Service for mailing.

Sec. 3. NRS 616C.090 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.090 1. The Administrator shall establish a panel of physicians and chiropractors who have demonstrated special competence and interest in industrial health to treat injured employees under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS. Every employer whose insurer has not entered into a contract with an organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527 shall maintain a list of those physicians and chiropractors on the panel who are reasonably accessible to his employees.

2. An injured employee whose employer's insurer has not entered into a contract with an organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527 may choose his treating physician or chiropractor from the panel of physicians and chiropractors. If the injured employee is not satisfied with the first physician or chiropractor he so chooses, he may make an alternative choice of physician or chiropractor from the panel if the choice is made within 90 days after his injury. The insurer shall notify the first physician or chiropractor in writing. The notice must be postmarked within 3 working days after the insurer receives knowledge of the change. The first physician or chiropractor must be reimbursed only for the services he rendered to the injured employee up to and including the date of notification. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, any further change is subject to the approval of the insurer, which must be granted or denied within 10 days after a written request for such a change is received from the injured employee. If no action is taken on the request within 10 days, the request shall be deemed granted. Any request for a change of physician or chiropractor must include the name of the new physician or chiropractor chosen by the injured employee. If the treating physician or chiropractor refers the injured employee to a specialist for treatment, the treating physician or chiropractor shall provide to the injured employee a list that includes the name of each physician or chiropractor with that specialization who is on the panel. After receiving the list, the injured employee shall, at the time the referral is made, select a physician or chiropractor from the list.

3. An injured employee whose employer's insurer has entered into a contract with an organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527 must choose his treating physician or chiropractor pursuant to the terms of that contract. If the injured employee is not satisfied with the first physician or chiropractor he so chooses, he may make an alternative choice of physician or chiropractor pursuant to the terms of the contract without the approval of the insurer if the choice is made within 90 days after his injury. If the injured employee, after choosing his treating physician or chiropractor, moves to a county which is not served by the organization for managed care or providers of health care services named in the contract and the insurer determines that it is impractical for the injured employee to continue treatment with the physician or chiropractor, the injured employee must choose a treating physician or chiropractor who has agreed to the terms of that contract unless the insurer authorizes the injured employee to choose another physician or chiropractor. If the treating physician or chiropractor refers the injured employee to a specialist for treatment, the treating physician or chiropractor shall provide to the injured employee a list that includes the name of each physician or chiropractor with that specialization who is available pursuant to the terms of the contract with the organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527, as appropriate. After receiving the list, the injured employee shall, at the time the referral is made, select a physician or chiropractor from the list. If the employee fails to select a physician or chiropractor, the insurer may select a physician or chiropractor with that specialization. If a physician or chiropractor with that specialization is not available pursuant to the terms of the contract, the organization for managed care or the provider of health care services may select a physician or chiropractor with that specialization.

4. If the injured employee is not satisfied with the physician or chiropractor selected by himself or by the insurer, the organization for managed care or the provider of health care services pursuant to subsection 3, the injured employee may make an alternative choice of physician or chiropractor pursuant to the terms of the contract. A change in the treating physician or chiropractor may be made at any time but is subject to the approval of the insurer, which must be granted or denied within 10 days after a written request for such a change is received from the injured employee. If no action is taken on the request within 10 days, the request shall be deemed granted. Any request for a change of physician or chiropractor must include the name of the new physician or chiropractor chosen by the injured employee. If the insurer denies a request for a change in the treating physician or chiropractor under this subsection, the insurer must include in a written notice of denial to the injured employee the specific reason for the denial of the request.

5. Except when emergency medical care is required and except as otherwise provided in NRS 616C.055, the insurer is not responsible for any charges for medical treatment or other accident benefits furnished or ordered by any physician, chiropractor or other person selected by the injured employee in disregard of the provisions of this section or for any compensation for any aggravation of the injured employee's injury attributable to improper treatments by such physician, chiropractor or other person.

~~[5.]~~ 6. The Administrator may order necessary changes in a panel of physicians and chiropractors and shall suspend or remove any physician or chiropractor from a panel for good cause shown.

~~[6.]~~ 7. An injured employee may receive treatment by more than one physician or chiropractor if the insurer provides written authorization for such treatment.

~~[7.]~~ 8. The Administrator shall design a form that notifies injured employees of their right pursuant to subsections 2 , ~~[and]~~ 3 and 4 to select an alternative treating physician or chiropractor and make the form available to insurers for distribution pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.050.

Sec. 4. NRS 616C.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.230 1. Compensation is not payable pursuant to the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS for an injury:

(a) Caused by the employee's willful intention to injure himself.

(b) Caused by the employee's willful intention to injure another.

(c) Proximately caused by the employee's intoxication. If the employee was intoxicated at the time of his injury, intoxication must be presumed to be a proximate cause unless rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

(d) Proximately caused by the employee's use of a controlled substance. If the employee had any amount of a controlled substance in his system at the time of his injury for which the employee did not have a current and lawful prescription issued in his name or that he was not using in accordance with the provisions of chapter 453A of NRS, the controlled substance must be presumed to be a proximate cause unless rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

2. For the purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection 1:

(a) The affidavit or declaration of an expert or other person described in NRS 50.310, 50.315 or 50.320 is admissible to prove the existence of any alcohol or the existence, quantity or identity of a controlled substance in an employee's system. If the affidavit or declaration is to be so used, it must be submitted in the manner prescribed in NRS 616C.355.

(b) When an examination requested or ordered includes testing for the use of alcohol or a controlled substance, the laboratory that conducts the testing must be licensed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 652 of NRS.

3. No compensation is payable for the death, disability or treatment of an employee if his death is caused by, or insofar as his disability is aggravated, caused or continued by, an unreasonable refusal or neglect to submit to or to follow any competent and reasonable surgical treatment or medical aid.

4. If any employee persists in an unsanitary or injurious practice that imperils or retards his recovery, or refuses to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is necessary to promote his recovery, his compensation may be reduced or suspended.

5. An injured employee's compensation, other than accident benefits, must be suspended if:

(a) A physician or chiropractor determines that the employee is unable to undergo treatment, testing or examination for the industrial injury solely because of a condition or injury that did not arise out of and in the course of his employment; and

(b) It is within the ability of the employee to correct the nonindustrial condition or injury.

➥ The compensation must be suspended until the injured employee is able to resume treatment, testing or examination for the industrial injury. The insurer may elect to pay for the treatment of the nonindustrial condition or injury.

Sec. 5. NRS 616C.232 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.232 1. If an injured employee is discharged from his employment as a result of misconduct, an insurer may deny compensation for temporary total disability to the injured employee because of that discharge for misconduct only if the insurer proves by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The injured employee was discharged from his employment solely for his misconduct and not for any reason relating to his claim for compensation; and

(b) It is the injured employee's discharge from his employment for misconduct, and not his injury, that is the sole cause for the injured employee's inability to return to work with the preinjury employer.

2. An insurer waives its rights under subsection 1 if the insurer does not make a determination to deny or suspend compensation to the injured employee within 70 days after the date on which the insurer learns that the injured employee has been discharged for misconduct.

3. An insurer may not deny any compensation pursuant to this section except for compensation for temporary total disability pursuant to subsection 1.

Sec. 5.5. NRS 616C.235 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.235 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2, 3 and 4:

(a) When the insurer determines that a claim should be closed before all benefits to which the claimant may be entitled have been paid, the insurer shall send a written notice of its intention to close the claim to the claimant by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the claimant and, if the insurer has been notified that the claimant is represented by an attorney, to the attorney for the claimant by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the attorney. The notice must include, on a separate page, a statement describing the effects of closing a claim pursuant to this section and a statement that if the claimant does not agree with the determination, he has a right to request a resolution of the dispute pursuant to NRS 616C.305 and 616C.315 to 616C.385, inclusive, including, without limitation, a statement which prominently displays the limit on the time that the claimant has to request a resolution of the dispute as set forth in NRS 616C.315. A suitable form for requesting a resolution of the dispute must be enclosed with the notice. The closure of a claim pursuant to this subsection is not effective unless notice is given as required by this subsection.

(b) If the insurer does not receive a request for the resolution of the dispute, it may close the claim.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 233B.125, if a hearing is conducted to resolve the dispute, the decision of the hearing officer may be served by first-class mail.

2. If, during the first 12 months after a claim is opened, the medical benefits required to be paid for a claim are less than $300, the insurer may close the claim at any time after he sends, by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the claimant, written notice that includes a statement which prominently displays that:

(a) The claim is being closed pursuant to this subsection;

(b) The injured employee may appeal the closure of the claim pursuant to the provisions of NRS 616C.305 and 616C.315 to 616C.385, inclusive; and

(c) If the injured employee does not appeal the closure of the claim or appeals the closure of the claim but is not successful, the claim cannot be reopened.

3. In addition to the notice described in subsection 2, an insurer shall send to each claimant who receives less than $300 in medical benefits within 6 months after the claim is opened a written notice that explains the circumstances under which a claim may be closed pursuant to subsection 2. The written notice provided pursuant to this subsection does not create any right to appeal the contents of that notice. The written notice must be:

(a) Sent by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the claimant; and

(b) A document that is separate from any other document or form that is used by the insurer.

4. The closure of a claim pursuant to subsection 2 is not effective unless notice is given as required by subsections 2 and 3.

5. In addition to the requirements of this section, an insurer shall include in the written notice described in subsection 2:

(a) If an evaluation for a permanent partial disability has been scheduled pursuant to NRS 616C.490, a statement to that effect; or

(b) If an evaluation for a permanent partial disability will not be scheduled pursuant to NRS 616C.490, a statement explaining that the reason is because the insurer has determined there is no possibility of a permanent impairment of any kind.

Sec. 6. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 8. NRS 616C.475 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.475 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, NRS 616C.175 and 616C.390, every employee in the employ of an employer, within the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, who is injured by accident arising out of and in the course of employment, or his dependents, is entitled to receive for the period of temporary total disability, 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

2. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616B.028 and 616B.029, an injured employee or his dependents are not entitled to accrue or be paid any benefits for a temporary total disability during the time the injured employee is incarcerated. The injured employee or his dependents are entitled to receive such benefits when the injured employee is released from incarceration if he is certified as temporarily totally disabled by a physician or chiropractor.

3. If a claim for the period of temporary total disability is allowed, the first payment pursuant to this section must be issued by the insurer within 14 working days after receipt of the initial certification of disability and regularly thereafter.

4. Any increase in compensation and benefits effected by the amendment of subsection 1 is not retroactive.

5. Payments for a temporary total disability must cease when:

(a) A physician or chiropractor determines that the employee is physically capable of any gainful employment for which the employee is suited, after giving consideration to the employee's education, training and experience;

(b) The employer offers the employee light-duty employment or employment that is modified according to the limitations or restrictions imposed by a physician or chiropractor pursuant to subsection 7; or

(c) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616B.028 and 616B.029, the employee is incarcerated.

6. Each insurer may, with each check that it issues to an injured employee for a temporary total disability, include a form approved by the Division for the injured employee to request continued compensation for the temporary total disability.

7. A certification of disability issued by a physician or chiropractor must:

(a) Include the period of disability and a description of any physical limitations or restrictions imposed upon the work of the employee;

(b) Specify whether the limitations or restrictions are permanent or temporary; and

(c) Be signed by the treating physician or chiropractor authorized pursuant to NRS 616B.527 or appropriately chosen pursuant to subsection 3 or 4 of NRS 616C.090.

8. If the certification of disability specifies that the physical limitations or restrictions are temporary, the employer of the employee at the time of his accident may offer temporary, light-duty employment to the employee. If the employer makes such an offer, the employer shall confirm the offer in writing within 10 days after making the offer. The making, acceptance or rejection of an offer of temporary, light-duty employment pursuant to this subsection does not affect the eligibility of the employee to receive vocational rehabilitation services, including compensation, and does not exempt the employer from complying with NRS 616C.545 to 616C.575, inclusive, and 616C.590 or the regulations adopted by the Division governing vocational rehabilitation services. Any offer of temporary, light-duty employment made by the employer must specify a position that:

(a) Is substantially similar to the employee's position at the time of his injury in relation to the location of the employment and the hours he is required to work;

(b) Provides a gross wage that is:

(1) If the position is in the same classification of employment, equal to the gross wage the employee was earning at the time of his injury; or

(2) If the position is not in the same classification of employment, substantially similar to the gross wage the employee was earning at the time of his injury; and

(c) Has the same employment benefits as the position of the employee at the time of his injury.

Sec. 9. NRS 616C.430 is hereby repealed.

Sec. 10. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2009.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION

616C.430 Reduction of compensation by amount of federal disability insurance benefits received by employee.

1. If an employee who is entitled to compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS for temporary total disability, permanent partial disability or permanent total disability becomes entitled to federal disability insurance benefits under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 402 and 423, respectively, the employee's compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS must be reduced by the amount of the federal benefits being received by him.

2. This section must not be applied to reduce the employee's compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS to any greater extent than his federal benefits would have otherwise been reduced by the Social Security Administration under section 224 of the Social Security Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 424a. After any reduction pursuant to this section, the combination of his state compensation and federal benefits must be at least as much as the greater of:

(a) The benefits payable pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, without the reduction; or

(b) The benefits payable under the Social Security Act, without any reduction.

3. After a reduced amount of compensation for an employee has been established pursuant to this section, no further reduction in his compensation may be made because he receives an increase in his benefits under the Social Security Act as the result of an adjustment based on an increase in the cost of living.

4. No compensation may be reduced pursuant to this section until the Social Security Administration has determined the amount of benefits payable to the employee under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act and he has begun to receive those benefits.

5. If an employee:

(a) Fails to report the amount of benefits which he is receiving under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act, within 30 days after he is requested in writing by the insurer to make that report; or

(b) Fails to provide the insurer with a written authorization for the Social Security Administration to release information on the employee's average current earnings and the amount of benefits to which he is entitled, within 30 days after he is requested to provide that authorization,

➥ the insurer may reduce by 50 percent the compensation which the employee would otherwise receive pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS. Any compensation which is withheld pursuant to this subsection must be paid to the employee when he has furnished the report or authorization as requested.

6. If the provisions of section 224 of the Social Security Act are amended:

(a) To allow an employee to receive more compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS without any reduction in benefits payable under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act; or

(b) To lower the maximum sum of compensation payable under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS and benefits payable under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act,

7. No reduction in compensation may be made under this section for any period of entitlement which:

(a) Occurs before January 1, 1982;

(b) Occurs before the employee has been given a written notice by mail of the intended reduction; or

(c) Includes any week after the week in which the employee becomes 62 years of age.

3. Unless modified pursuant to subsection 4 or 5, the court may divide the income and resources:

(a) Equally between the spouses; or

(b) By protecting income for the community spouse through application of the maximum federal minimum monthly maintenance needs allowance set forth in 42 U.S.C. 1396r-5(d)(3)(C) and by permitting a transfer of resources to the community spouse an amount which does not exceed the amount set forth in 42 U.S.C. 1396r-5(f)(2)(A)(ii).

6. The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 620.

AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; requiring that license plates without distinguishing marks be furnished for two vehicles used by the office of the county coroner; ~~[authorizing]~~ deleting provisions which prohibit the Department of Motor Vehicles ~~[to issue certain]~~ from issuing special license plates for the support and enhancement of parks, recreation facilities and programs in the City of Reno unless the Department receives at least 1,000 applications for the issuance of those plates before May 29, 2009; authorizing the Department to issue certain special license plates for use on motorcycles; prescribing the fees for special license plates for use on vehicles other than passenger cars and light commercial vehicles; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that license plates furnished for certain exempt vehicles maintained for and used by certain governmental entities must be free of distinguishing marks which would otherwise identify the vehicle as a governmental vehicle. (NRS 482.368) Section ~~[1]~~ 1.3 of this bill adds two vehicles used by the office of a county coroner to the list of vehicles for which license plates without a distinguishing mark must be furnished.

Existing law authorizes the Department of Motor Vehicles to issue special license plates for the support and enhancement of parks, recreation facilities and programs in the City of Reno if the Department receives at least 1,000 applications for the issuance of the special license plates before May 29, 2009. (NRS 482.379375) Sections 1 and 1.7 of this bill delete the provisions which authorize the Department to issue such special plates only if the Department receives at least 1,000 applications before May 29, 2009.

Under existing law, if the Department ~~[of Motor Vehicles]~~ issues special license plates for use on a passenger car or light commercial vehicle and if those special license plates generate financial support for a charitable organization, the Department is authorized to issue the special license plates for use on a trailer or other type of vehicle that is not a passenger car or light commercial vehicle, but is prohibited from issuing the special license plates for use on a motorcycle or heavy commercial vehicle. (NRS 482.3824) Effective July 1, 2010, section 2 of this bill removes the prohibition against the Department issuing such special license plates for use on motorcycles and provides further that the fees for special license plates issued for use on vehicles other than passenger cars or light commercial vehicles must be the same as if the special license plates were issued for use on a passenger car or light commercial vehicle.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 482.36705 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.36705 1. If a new special license plate is authorized by an act of the Legislature after January 1, 2003, other than a special license plate that is authorized pursuant to NRS 482.379375, the Legislature will direct that the license plate not be designed, prepared or issued by the Department unless the Department receives at least 1,000 applications for the issuance of that plate within 2 years after the effective date of the act of the Legislature that authorized the plate.

2. In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection 1, if a new special license plate is authorized by an act of the Legislature after July 1, 2005, the Legislature will direct that the license plate not be issued by the Department unless its issuance complies with subsection 2 of NRS 482.367008.

3. In addition to the requirements set forth in subsections 1 and 2, if a new special license plate is authorized by an act of the Legislature after January 1, 2007, the Legislature will direct that the license plate not be designed, prepared or issued by the Department unless the Commission on Special License Plates approves the application for the authorized plate pursuant to NRS 482.367004.

Any license plates authorized by this section must be immediately returned to the Department when the vehicle for which they were issued ceases to be used exclusively for the purpose for which it was exempted from the governmental services tax.

2. License plates furnished for:

(a) Those vehicles which are maintained for and used by the Governor or under the authority and direction of the Chief Parole and Probation Officer, the State Contractors' Board and auditors, the State Fire Marshal, the Investigation Division of the Department of Public Safety and any authorized federal law enforcement agency or law enforcement agency from another state;

4. Applications for the licenses must be made through the head of the department, board, bureau, commission, school district or irrigation district, or through the chairman of the board of county commissioners of the county or town or through the mayor of the city, owning or controlling the vehicles, and no plate or plates may be issued until a certificate has been filed with the Department showing that the name of the department, board, bureau, commission, county, city, town, school district or irrigation district, as the case may be, and the words "For Official Use Only" have been permanently and legibly affixed to each side of the vehicle, except those vehicles enumerated in subsection 2.

5. As used in this section, "exempt vehicle" means a vehicle exempt from the governmental services tax, except a vehicle owned by the United States.

6. The Department shall adopt regulations governing the use of all license plates provided for in this section. Upon a finding by the Department of any violation of its regulations, it may revoke the violator's privilege of registering vehicles pursuant to this section.

Sec. 1.7. NRS 482.379375 is hereby amended to read as follows:

A person may request that personalized prestige license plates issued pursuant to NRS 482.3667 be combined with license plates for the support and enhancement of parks, recreation facilities and programs in the City of Reno if that person pays the fees for the personalized prestige license plates in addition to the fees for the license plates for the support and enhancement of parks, recreation facilities and programs in the City of Reno pursuant to subsections 3 and 4.

3. The fee for license plates for the support and enhancement of parks, recreation facilities and programs in the City of Reno is $35, in addition to all other applicable registration and license fees and governmental services taxes. The license plates are renewable upon the payment of $10.

Assembly Bill No. 333.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 665.

AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; revising certain provisions relating to the towing of vehicles; authorizing an electronic notification to the Department of Motor Vehicles of the transfer of ownership of a motor vehicle; authorizing the Department to provide certain information about the transfer of ownership of a motor vehicle to tow car operators and other interested parties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill requires the Nevada Transportation Authority to reduce any charge for preparing or satisfying a lien which is filed by the operator of a tow car if the Authority determines that all or part of the charge is attributable to the operator's failure to prepare or satisfy the lien in a timely manner. (NRS 706.4468)

Existing law presumes that an abandoned motor vehicle was abandoned by its registered owner. The registered owner is thus responsible for the costs of removing and disposing of the vehicle. Existing law also provides for the rebuttal of this presumption. (NRS 487.220) Section 2 of this bill provides a similar presumption, and opportunity for rebuttal, for the registered owner of a vehicle that is towed at the request of the owner of real property from which the vehicle is towed. (NRS 706.4477)

Existing law provides that if an operator of a tow car tows a motor vehicle at the request of someone other than the owner, the operator is required to notify the owner of certain information within a particular period of time. (NRS 706.4479) Section 3 of this bill ~~[: (1) requires such information to be provided earlier than the existing law; and (2)]~~ adds to the list of the information that must be provided notice to the registered and legal owner of the vehicle as to the actions the owner may take to reduce his liability for any potentially applicable assessments, fees, penalties or other charges, and as to the opportunity to rebut presumptions about the ownership of a vehicle.

Section 4 of this bill authorizes a person who transfers ownership of a motor vehicle to notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the transfer electronically. Section 4 also authorizes the Department to provide information regarding vehicle ownership transfers to tow car operators and other interested parties. (NRS 482.400)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 706.4468 is hereby amended to read as follows:

706.4468 1. Each operator of a tow car shall file its charges for preparing or satisfying a lien to which the operator is entitled against a vehicle that was towed without the prior consent of the owner of the vehicle or the person authorized by the owner to operate the vehicle. The Authority ~~[may]~~ ***:

(a) May investigate any charge filed pursuant to this subsection and revise the charge as necessary to ensure that the charge is reasonable.

(b) Shall reduce any charge filed pursuant to this subsection if the Authority determines that the charge is unreasonable because the charge is attributable, in whole or in part, to failure on the part of the operator of the tow car to prepare or satisfy his lien in a timely manner.

2. An operator of a tow car may not impose a charge or any part of a charge filed pursuant to subsection 1 unless the operator:

(a) Has initiated the procedure by which a person may satisfy a lien; and

(b) Stores the vehicle for at least 96 hours.

3. If an operator of a tow car stores a vehicle that was towed without the prior consent of the owner of the vehicle or the person authorized by the owner to operate the vehicle for at least 96 hours but not more than 336 hours, the operator may charge an amount not to exceed 50 percent of the charge approved by the Authority pursuant to subsection 1 for preparing or satisfying a lien.

4. If an operator of a tow car stores a vehicle that was towed without the prior consent of the owner of the vehicle or the person authorized by the owner to operate the vehicle for more than 336 hours, the operator may charge an amount not to exceed 50 percent of the charge approved by the Authority pursuant to subsection 1 for preparing or satisfying a lien in addition to the amount charged pursuant to subsection 3.

Sec. 2. NRS 706.4477 is hereby amended to read as follows:

706.4477 1. If towing is requested by a person other than the owner, or an agent of the owner, of the motor vehicle or a law enforcement officer:

~~[1.]~~ (a) The person requesting the towing must be the owner of the real property from which the vehicle is towed or his authorized agent and must sign a specific request for the towing. For the purposes of this section, the operator is not an authorized agent of the owner of the real property.

The Department may, by regulation, prescribe alternative methods by which a signature may be affixed upon a manufacturer's certificate of origin or a manufacturer's statement of origin issued for a vehicle. The alternative methods must ensure the authenticity of the signatures.

2. Within 5 days after the transfer of the title to, or the interest of an owner in, a vehicle registered or issued a certificate of title under the provisions of this chapter, the person or person whose title or interest is to be transferred may submit electronically to the Department a notice of the transfer. (b) The wholesale vehicle auctioneer shall be deemed a transferee of the vehicle for the purposes of subsection ~~[4.]~~ 5. The wholesale vehicle auctioneer is not required to comply with subsection 1 if he:

Amendment No. 802.
AN ACT relating to vehicles; revising provisions governing the applicability of the implied warranty of merchantability to the sale of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer; providing remedies for a purchaser if a used vehicle does not conform with the implied warranty of merchantability; requiring a contract for the sale of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer to contain certain statements; prohibiting a manufacturer from requiring a dealer to alter substantially an existing facility of the dealer or construct a new facility except under certain circumstances; prohibiting a manufacturer from taking adverse action against a dealer relating to the exportation of a vehicle outside the United States except under certain circumstances; providing for the licensure of an agent of a broker; revising provisions governing the modification or replacement of a franchise; establishing fees; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1.3 of this bill provides that in a contract for the sale of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer, the implied warranty of merchantability codified in NRS 104.2314 expires at midnight on the 15th day after delivery of the used vehicle or upon the used vehicle being driven 500 miles, whichever occurs first. Section 1.3 also prohibits a used vehicle dealer from excluding, modifying, negating or limiting the implied warranty of merchantability or limiting any right or remedy of the purchaser for failure of the used vehicle to conform with the implied warranty of merchantability. Section 1.4 of this bill provides that a used vehicle conforms with the implied warranty of merchantability if the used vehicle functions substantially free of certain defects. Section 1.4 further provides certain remedies to the purchaser if the used vehicle does not conform with the implied warranty of merchantability, including returning the used vehicle to the used vehicle dealer and receiving a refund of the full amount paid by the purchaser toward the purchase price of the used vehicle. These remedies are in addition to any other remedies provided by existing law.

Section 1.5 of this bill provides that a contract for the sale of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer must contain a statement providing that the used vehicle is fit for ordinary use for 15 days or 500 miles after delivery of the used vehicle to the purchaser, whichever occurs first. Section 1.6 of this bill provides that a purchaser may waive the implied warranty of merchantability for a particular defect under certain circumstances. Section 1.8 of this bill provides that if a used vehicle dealer violates certain provisions of this bill, the contract for the sale of a used vehicle is voidable by the purchaser. Section 1.7 of this bill provides that the provisions of sections 1.1-1.8 of this bill do not apply to the sale of a used vehicle which is covered by an express warranty of a manufacturer.

Section 2 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer from requiring a dealer to alter substantially an existing facility or to construct a new facility for any new vehicles that are handled by the dealer under certain circumstances. Section 2 also provides that such a requirement constitutes a modification of the franchise of the dealer.

Section 3 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer from taking adverse action against a dealer who sells a vehicle which is later exported outside the United States, unless the dealer had actual knowledge of or reasonably should have known of the exportation of the vehicle.

Sections 5 and 14 of this bill provide for the licensure of an agent for a broker of vehicles in this State. A person who violates the provisions governing the licensure of such agents is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 8 of this bill provides that if a manufacturer is purchased by another manufacturer or entity, a dealer must be offered a franchise agreement that is substantially similar to the franchise agreement offered to other dealers of the same line-make vehicles. Section 8 defines such vehicles as those vehicles which are offered for sale, lease or distribution under the same name, trademark, service mark or brand of the manufacturer of the vehicles. (NRS 482.36354)

Section 13.7 of this bill provides that the forms for the application for credit and contract to be used in the sale of a used vehicle prescribed by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions must contain statements substantially similar to the statements described in sections 1.5 and 1.6 of this bill.

Existing law provides various protections for a person who purchases a used vehicle which has been driven 75,000 miles or more. (NRS 482.36661-482.36667) Sections 13.2-13.5 of this bill make those provisions applicable to any used vehicle sold by a used vehicle dealer, regardless of the mileage of the used vehicle.

Section 14.5 of this bill repeals certain provisions governing express written warranties provided by a used vehicle dealer and the imposition of administrative fines.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 482 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections ~~[2]~~ 1.1 to 5, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 1.1. "Implied warranty of merchantability" means the implied warranty described in NRS 104.2314.

Sec. 1.2. To the extent of any conflict with the provisions of chapter 104 of NRS, the provisions of NRS 482.36655 to 482.36667, inclusive, and sections 1.1 to 1.8, inclusive, of this act control with respect to the sale in this State of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer.

Sec. 1.3. 1. The implied warranty of merchantability in a contract for the sale of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer expires:

(a) At midnight on the 15th calendar day after the date of delivery of the used vehicle to the purchaser; or

(b) Upon the used vehicle being driven 500 miles after its delivery to the purchaser,

↳ whichever occurs earlier.

2. A used vehicle dealer shall not exclude, modify, negate or limit the implied warranty of merchantability with respect to the sale of a used vehicle or limit any right or remedy of the purchaser for failure of the used vehicle to conform with the implied warranty of merchantability.

3. For the purposes of this section, the computation of:

(a) Days following the date of delivery of the used vehicle to the purchaser must not include any day on which the used vehicle fails to conform with the implied warranty of merchantability.

(b) Miles driven must not include miles driven to obtain or in connection with the repair, service or diagnostic testing of a used vehicle which fails to conform with the implied warranty of merchantability.

Sec. 1.4. 1. A used vehicle that is sold by a used vehicle dealer conforms with the implied warranty of merchantability if the used vehicle functions substantially free of any defect which:

(a) Significantly limits the use of the used vehicle on any public highway; and

(b) Is not the result of any damage that occurs after the sale of the used vehicle, including, without limitation, damage resulting from off-road use, racing, towing, abuse, misuse, neglect, failure to perform ordinary maintenance or failure to maintain adequate levels of oil, engine coolant or other required fluids or lubricants.

2. If, during the effective period of the warranty of merchantability, the purchaser of a used vehicle discovers a defect that constitutes the failure of the used vehicle to conform with the implied warranty of merchantability, the purchaser shall notify the used vehicle dealer as soon as practicable, but not later than 30 days after the purchaser discovers the defect.

3. Before a purchaser may pursue the remedy prescribed in subsection 4:

(a) The purchaser must give the notice required by subsection 2;

(b) The used vehicle dealer must have a reasonable opportunity to repair the used vehicle; and

(c) The purchaser must pay one-half of the cost of the first two repairs that are necessary to bring the used vehicle into conformity with the implied warranty of merchantability, but not more than $25 for each repair.

4. If, after a reasonable opportunity, the used vehicle dealer is unable to repair the used vehicle to conform with the implied warranty of merchantability, the purchaser may elect to return the used vehicle to the used vehicle dealer who shall:

(a) Accept the return of the used vehicle; and

(b) Not later than 5 business days after the return of the vehicle:

(1) Refund to the purchaser the full amount paid by the purchaser toward the purchase price of the used vehicle; and

(2) Satisfy any security interest taken in the used vehicle.

5. A used vehicle dealer is not liable under this section to the purchaser for any amount other than the amount described in subsection 4, unless the used vehicle dealer had actual knowledge of or should have known of a defect in the used vehicle as a result of the circumstances in which the used vehicle was acquired or sold and did not disclose the defect to the purchaser.

6. The remedy provided in this section is not exclusive and is intended to supplement existing law.

Sec. 1.5. 1. A contract for the sale of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer must contain the following conspicuous statement printed in boldface type and not less than 10-point font:

Nevada law requires that this used vehicle be fit for the ordinary purposes for which the used vehicle is used for 15 days or 500 miles after delivery of the used vehicle to you (the purchaser), whichever occurs earlier, except with regard to particular defects disclosed on the first page of this contract. You (the purchaser) will not have to pay more than $25 for each of the first two repairs if this warranty is violated.

2. The statement required by subsection 1 does not create an express warranty in a contract for the sale of a used vehicle by a used vehicle dealer.

Sec. 1.6. A purchaser may waive the implied warranty of merchantability in a contract for the sale of a used vehicle only:

1. For a particular defect in the used vehicle; and

2. If the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The used vehicle dealer fully and accurately discloses the particular defect to the purchaser;

(b) The purchaser agrees to purchase the used vehicle after the disclosure of the particular defect is made; and

(c) The purchaser, before taking delivery of the used vehicle, signs and dates the following conspicuous statement which must be printed on the first page of the contract in boldface type and not less than 10-point font:

Attention purchaser: Sign here only if the used vehicle dealer has disclosed to you that this used vehicle has the following particular defects and you agree to purchase the used vehicle after this disclosure:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____.

Sec. 1.7. The provisions of sections 1.1 to 1.8, inclusive, of this act do not apply to the sale by a used vehicle dealer of a used vehicle which is covered by an express warranty of a manufacturer.

Sec. 1.8. If a used vehicle dealer violates any provision of sections 1.1 to 1.8, inclusive, of this act, the contract for the sale of a used vehicle is voidable by the purchaser.

Sec. 2. 1. A manufacturer shall not require a dealer:

(a) To alter substantially an existing facility of the dealer; or

(b) To construct a new facility,

➥ for any new vehicles that are handled by the dealer, unless the alteration or new construction constitutes a reasonable facility requirement in accordance with the franchise agreement.

2. If a manufacturer requires a substantial alteration of an existing facility of the dealer or requires the dealer to construct a new facility, that requirement constitutes a modification of the franchise of the dealer for the purposes of this section, NRS 482.36311 to 482.36425, inclusive, and sections 3 and 4 of this act.

Sec. 3. A manufacturer shall not modify the franchise of a dealer or take any adverse action against a dealer that sells a vehicle which is later exported outside the United States, unless the dealer had actual knowledge of or reasonably should have known of the exportation of the vehicle.

Sec. 4. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 5. 1. A person shall not engage in the activity of an agent for a broker, or act in the capacity of an agent in this State without first having received a license or temporary permit from the Department. Before issuing a license or temporary permit to engage in the activity of an agent, the Department shall require the applicant to submit to the Department:

(f) Any other information the Department determines necessary.

2. The Department may issue a 60-day temporary permit to an applicant who has submitted a complete application and paid the required fee.

3. A license to act as an agent of a broker issued pursuant to this section does not authorize a person to engage in the business of selling mobile homes.

4. The Department may deny an application for a license as an agent or suspend or revoke a license issued pursuant to this section upon any of the following grounds:

(a) Failure of the applicant to establish by proof satisfactory to the Department that he is employed by a broker.

(b) Conviction of a felony.

(c) Conviction of a gross misdemeanor.

(d) Conviction of a misdemeanor for a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.

(e) Falsification of the application.

(g) Failure of the applicant to provide any information determined necessary by the Department to process the application.

(h) Any reason determined by the Director to be in the best interests of the public.

5. An agent shall not engage in any activity, or act in any other capacity as an agent other than for the account of, or for and on behalf of, a single employer, at a specified place of business of that employer, who must be a broker.

6. If an application for a license as an agent is denied, the applicant may reapply for a license not less than 6 months after the denial.

7. An agent's license must be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises of the broker by whom the agent is employed.

9. If an agent changes his residential address, he shall submit a written notice of the change to the Department within 10 days after the change occurs.

3. For the purposes of this section, "costs" includes:

4. Require a dealer to waive a trial by jury in actions involving the manufacturer, distributor or factory branch.

9. Prevent a dealer from establishing, on or after October 1, 1997, an additional franchise to sell or service another line or make of new vehicles in the same facility as the existing dealership if the dealer:

(a) Submits a written request for approval of the additional franchise to the manufacturer, distributor or factory branch of the existing dealership;

(b) Complies with the reasonable requirements for approval set forth in the franchise of the existing dealership; and

(c) Obtains the approval of the manufacturer, distributor or factory branch of the existing dealership.

The manufacturer, distributor or factory branch shall not unreasonably withhold its approval. If the request is denied, the material reasons for the denial must be stated. The amount of pecuniary loss sustained by a dealer, pursuant to subsection 7 of NRS 482.3638, is the fair market value of the franchised dealership at the time of notification of termination, refusal to continue or unilateral modification of a franchise.

3. Any artificial person created and existing under the laws of any other state, territory, foreign government or the government of the United States, or any person residing outside the State, who grants a franchise to any dealer in this State may be served with any legal process in any action for injunctive relief or civil damages in the following manner:

Amendment adopted.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblywoman Spiegel:

Amendment No. 843.

AN ACT relating to vehicles; prohibiting a manufacturer from requiring a dealer to alter substantially an existing facility of the dealer or construct a new facility except under certain circumstances; prohibiting a manufacturer from taking adverse action against a dealer relating to the exportation of a vehicle outside the United States except under certain circumstances; providing for the licensure of an agent of a broker; revising provisions governing the modification or replacement of a franchise; revising provisions governing the termination of a franchise agreement with a manufacturer or distributer of motor vehicles; establishing fees; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 2 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer from requiring a dealer to alter substantially an existing facility or to construct a new facility for any new vehicles that are handled by the dealer under certain circumstances. Section 2 also provides that such a requirement constitutes a modification of the franchise of the dealer.

Section 3 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer from taking adverse action against a dealer who sells a vehicle which is later exported outside the United States, unless the dealer had actual knowledge of or reasonably should have known of the exportation of the vehicle.

Sections 5 and 14 of this bill provide for the licensure of an agent for a broker of vehicles in this State. A person who violates the provisions governing the licensure of such agents is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Under existing law, when a franchise agreement is terminated by a manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles, the manufacturer or distributor is required to compensate the new vehicle dealer for the dealer's inventory of new vehicles and certain inventory of parts and accessories of the dealer. (NRS 482.363521) Sections 7.1-7.7 of this bill provide that, if the franchise agreement is terminated due to the bankruptcy of the manufacturer or distributor, the dealer may elect instead to retain the inventory of new vehicles and certain parts and accessories, and is authorized for a specified period to sell the vehicles at retail and thereafter to sell the vehicles as used vehicles. The dealer is further authorized to sell the inventory of the retained parts and accessories.

Section 8 of this bill provides that if a manufacturer is purchased by another manufacturer or entity, a dealer must be offered a franchise agreement that is substantially similar to the franchise agreement offered to other dealers of the same line-make vehicles. Section 8 defines such vehicles as those vehicles which are offered for sale, lease or distribution under the same name, trademark, service mark or brand of the manufacturer of the vehicles. (NRS 482.36354)

The amount of pecuniary loss sustained by a dealer, pursuant to subsection 7 of NRS 482.3638, is the fair market value of the franchised dealership at the time of notification of termination, refusal to continue or unilateral modification of a franchise.

3. Any artificial person created and existing under the laws of any other state, territory, foreign government or the government of the United States, or any person residing outside the State, who grants a franchise to any dealer in this State may be served with any legal process in any action for injunctive relief or civil damages in the following manner:

Firewarden and State Fire Marshal to cooperate in the enforcement of certain laws and regulations; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the State Fire Marshal to cooperate with the State Forester Firewarden to prepare certain regulations. (NRS 477.030) Section 4 of this bill expands that requirement to include regulations relating to the mitigation of the fire hazard risk posed by vegetation in the Lake Tahoe Basin and the Lake Mead Basin. Section 5 of this bill requires the State Forester Firewarden to review and evaluate the laws and regulations of this State to: (1) ensure that such fire protection districts have adequate statutory and regulatory authority to carry out the regulations adopted pursuant to this bill and to carry out necessary fire safety and fire prevention activities; and (2) ensure that there are adequate mechanisms to increase the funding of the fire prevention districts, if necessary, to enforce the regulations and that adequate funding exists to carry out their responsibilities. The State Forester Firewarden is required to submit a report of its review and evaluation and any recommendations for legislation to the Legislative Committee for the Review and Oversight of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency and the Marlette Lake Water System, and to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau by January 1, 2011, for ~~[submission]~~ transmittal to the 2011 Legislature.

AN ACT relating to children's products; prohibiting the advertisement, sale, lease, sublet or distribution of children's products under certain circumstances; prohibiting certain commercial activity regarding unsafe cribs; providing that a violation of provisions relating to unsafe cribs or to children's products is a deceptive trade practice; ~~[authorizing the Consumer's Advocate of the Bureau of Consumer Protection in the Office of the Attorney General to ban or designate as a health or safety hazard any children's product;]~~ providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 7 of this bill provides that a retailer of a new or used product intended for children under 12 years of age may not advertise, sell or offer for sale, lease, sublet or otherwise distribute the product if the product is subject to a recall notice, is subject to a warning indicating that the use of the product constitutes a health or safety hazard or has been banned or designated as a health or safety hazard by the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission ~~[, the Consumer's Advocate of the Bureau of Consumer Protection in the Office of the Attorney General]~~ or the

(NRS 598.092) ~~[Section 19 of this bill authorizes the Consumer's Advocate to ban or designate as a health or safety hazard any children's product. (NRS 228.380)]~~

Sections 9-17 of this bill establish the Infant Crib Safety Act. Section 14 prohibits persons from remanufacturing, retrofitting, selling, contracting to sell or resell, subletting or otherwise placing in the stream of commerce a crib that is unsafe for use by an infant. Section 14 also describes the types of cribs that are presumed unsafe. Section 15 establishes civil penalties for persons who violate any provision relating to unsafe cribs. Section 16 exempts antique or vintage cribs from the provisions relating to unsafe cribs if such a crib is accompanied with a written notice provided by a commercial user stating that it is not intended for use by an infant. Section 16 further releases from liability any commercial user who complies with the notice requirement. Section 17 authorizes any person to maintain an action against a commercial user who violates any provision relating to unsafe cribs.

Amendment No. 877.

AN ACT relating to real property; establishing the responsibility for the maintenance of certain security walls within certain common-interest communities; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill revises the responsibilities of unit-owners' associations of certain common-interest communities to provide that each such association is responsible for the maintenance, repair, restoration and replacement of any security wall which is located within the common-interest community. Section 2 of this bill similarly revises the law with respect to such security walls located in such common-interest communities which are governed by certain limited-purpose associations. (NRS 116.1201) Section 6 of this bill provides that if a common-interest community was created before October 1, 2009, the requirements of the bill do not apply to the common-interest community until January 1, 2013.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 116 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 116.31135, the association is responsible for the maintenance, repair, restoration and replacement of any security wall which is located within the common-interest community.

2. As used in this section, "security wall" means any wall composed of stone, brick, concrete, concrete blocks, masonry or similar building material, including, without limitation, ornamental iron or other fencing material, together with footings, pilasters, outriggers, grillwork, gates and other appurtenances, constructed around the perimeter of a residential subdivision with respect to which a final map has been recorded pursuant to NRS 278.360 to 278.460, inclusive, to protect the several tracts in the subdivision and their occupants from vandalism.

Sec. 2. NRS 116.1201 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.1201 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 116.1203, this chapter applies to all common-interest communities created within this State.

(II) Section 1 of this act, if the limited-purpose association is created for maintaining the landscape of the common elements of the common-interest community; and

(III) NRS 116.31075, if the limited-purpose association is created for a rural agricultural residential common-interest community;

(4) Shall comply with the provisions of NRS 116.4101 to 116.412, inclusive, as required by the regulations adopted by the Commission pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 5; and

This chapter applies to a planned community containing both units that are restricted exclusively to nonresidential use and other units that are not so restricted only if the declaration so provides or if the real estate comprising the units that may be used for residential purposes would be a planned community in the absence of the units that may not be used for residential purposes.

(c) Common-interest communities or units located outside of this State, but the provisions of NRS 116.4102 to 116.4108, inclusive, apply to all contracts for the disposition thereof signed in this State by any party unless exempt under subsection 2 of NRS 116.4101.

(d) A common-interest community that was created before January 1, 1992, is located in a county whose population is less than 50,000, and has less than 50 percent of the units within the community put to residential use, unless a majority of the units' owners otherwise elect in writing.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, time shares governed by the provisions of chapter 119A of NRS.

3. The provisions of this chapter do not:

(a) Prohibit a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, from providing for separate classes of voting for the units' owners;

116.1203 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if a planned community contains no more than 12 units and is not subject to any developmental rights, it is subject only to NRS 116.1106 and 116.1107 unless the declaration provides that this entire chapter is applicable.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Atkinson:

Amendment No. 881.

AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; specifically authorizing constables to issue citations for failure to register vehicles that are required to be registered in this State; increasing the fee to which constables are entitled for removing or causing the removal of abandoned vehicles from public property; revising the penalties for failure to register certain motor vehicles; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill specifically authorizes constables to issue citations for the failure to register a vehicle that is required by existing law to be registered in this State and requires constables to charge and collect a fee from the person to whom the citation is issued. The citation is to be issued to the owner of the vehicle or the driver if the driver is not the owner but is the party responsible for registering the vehicle pursuant to existing law. (NRS 258.070) Sections 3 and 4 of this bill clarify that constables are entitled to demand and to view the certificate of registration and to request information to determine whether the vehicle is required to be registered in this State. (NRS 482.255, 482.385)

Section 2 of this bill increases the fee to which constables are entitled for their services of removing or causing the removal of an abandoned vehicle from public property from $50 to $100. ~~[Section 2 also increases the amount the constable may collect when collecting all sums on execution or writ charged against a defendant from 2 percent of the first $3,500 to 2 percent of the first $10,000.]~~ (NRS 258.125)

Existing law requires a person, within 60 days of becoming a resident of this State or at the time he obtains his driver's license, to apply for registration for each vehicle he owns which is operated in this State. (NRS 482.385) Section 4 of this bill increases the fine for failing to comply with that requirement from a minimum of $250 and a maximum of $500 to a $1,000 fine, and provides that the fine may be reduced to not less than $200 if the person provides proof of registration of the vehicle in Nevada at the time of his hearing.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 26.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 703.

AN ACT relating to charter schools; revising the deadline for submission of an application for renewal of a written charter; revising provisions governing the exemption from annual performance audits for certain charter schools; revising certain annual reports concerning the progress made by charter schools; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill changes the deadline by which a charter school must submit an application for renewal of the written charter from 90 days to 120 days before the expiration of the charter. (NRS 386.530)

A charter school that meets certain requirements, including certain financial and performance standards, is eligible for an exemption from the requirement of an annual performance audit and must instead undergo a performance audit every 3 years. (NRS 386.5515) Section 2 of this bill provides that if such a charter school no longer satisfies the requirements for an exemption or if reasonable evidence of noncompliance ~~[concerning the educational progress]~~ in achieving the educational goals and objectives of the charter school exists, the charter school will be required to submit to an annual performance audit. After undergoing the annual performance audit, the charter school may reapply for the exemption.

Existing law requires the board of trustees of a school district and a college or university within the Nevada System of Higher Education which sponsors a charter school to submit an annual report to the State Board of Education on the evaluation of the progress made by the charter school in achieving its educational goals and objectives. (NRS 386.610) Section 3 of this bill requires an annual report to be made by the Department of Education for each charter school sponsored by the State Board.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 386.530 is hereby amended to read as follows:

386.530 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an application for renewal of a written charter may be submitted to the sponsor of the charter school not less than ~~[90]~~ 120 days before the expiration of the charter. The application must include the information prescribed by the regulations of the Department. The sponsor shall conduct an intensive review and evaluation of the charter school in accordance with the regulations of the Department. The sponsor shall renew the charter unless it finds the existence of any ground for revocation set forth in NRS 386.535. The sponsor shall provide written notice of its determination not fewer than 30 days before the expiration of the charter. If the sponsor intends not to renew the charter, the written notice must:

(a) Include a statement of the deficiencies or reasons upon which the action of the sponsor is based; and

(b) Prescribe a period of not less than 30 days during which the charter school may correct any such deficiencies.

➥ If the charter school corrects the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the sponsor within the time prescribed in paragraph (b), the sponsor shall renew the charter of the charter school.

2. A charter school may submit an application for renewal of its initial charter after 3 years of operation of the charter school. The application must include the information prescribed by the regulations of the Department. The sponsor shall conduct an intensive review and evaluation of the charter school in accordance with the regulations of the Department. The sponsor shall renew the charter unless it finds the existence of any ground for revocation set forth in NRS 386.535. The sponsor shall provide written notice of its determination. If the sponsor intends not to renew the charter, the written notice must:

(a) Include a statement of the deficiencies or reasons upon which the action of the sponsor is based; and

(b) Prescribe a period of not less than 30 days during which the charter school may correct any such deficiencies.

➥ If the charter school corrects the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the sponsor within the time prescribed in paragraph (b), the sponsor shall renew the charter of the charter school.

Sec. 2. NRS 386.5515 is hereby amended to read as follows:

386.5515 1. To the extent money is available from legislative appropriation or otherwise, a charter school may apply to the Department for money for facilities if:

(a) The charter school has been operating in this State for at least 5 consecutive years and is in good financial standing;

(b) Each financial audit and each performance audit of the charter school required by the Department contains no major notations, corrections or errors concerning the charter school for at least 5 consecutive years;

(c) The charter school has met or exceeded adequate yearly progress as determined pursuant to NRS 385.3613 or has demonstrated improvement in the achievement of pupils enrolled in the charter school, as indicated by annual measurable objectives determined by the State Board, for the majority of the years of its operation;

(d) The charter school offers instruction on a daily basis during the school week of the charter school on the campus of the charter school; and

(e) At least 75 percent of the pupils enrolled in the charter school who are required to take the high school proficiency examination have passed that examination, if the charter school enrolls pupils at a high school grade level.

2. A charter school that satisfies the requirements of subsection 1 shall submit to a performance audit as required by the Department one time every 3 years. The sponsor of the charter school and the Department shall not request a performance audit of the charter school more frequently than every 3 years without ~~[showing good cause for such a request.]~~ reasonable evidence of noncompliance ~~[concerning the educational progress]~~ in achieving the educational goals and objectives of the charter school based upon the annual report submitted to the State Board pursuant to NRS 386.610. If the charter school no longer satisfies the requirements of subsection 1 or if reasonable evidence of noncompliance ~~[concerning the educational progress]~~ in achieving the educational goals and objectives of the charter school exists based upon the annual report, the charter school shall, upon written notice from the sponsor, submit to an annual performance audit. ~~[Such]~~ Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection 1, such a charter school:

(a) May, after undergoing the annual performance audit, reapply to the sponsor to determine whether the charter school satisfies the requirements of paragraphs (a), (c), (d) and (e) of subsection 1.

(b) Is not eligible for any available money pursuant to subsection 1 until the sponsor determines that the charter school satisfies the requirements of that subsection.

3. A charter school that does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 1 shall submit a quarterly report of the financial status of the charter school if requested by the sponsor of the charter school.

Sec. 3. NRS 386.610 is hereby amended to read as follows:

386.610 1. On or before August 15 of each year, if the State Board, the board of trustees of a school district or a college or university within the Nevada System of Higher Education sponsors a charter school, the Department, the board of trustees or the institution, as applicable, shall submit a written report to the State Board. The written report must include:

(a) An evaluation of the progress of each charter school sponsored by the State Board, the board of trustees or the institution, as applicable, in achieving its educational goals and objectives.

(b) A description of all administrative support and services provided by the Department, the school district or the institution, as applicable, to the charter school.

2. The governing body of a charter school shall, after 3 years of operation under its initial charter, submit a written report to the sponsor of the charter school. The written report must include a description of the progress of the charter school in achieving its educational goals and objectives. If the charter school submits an application for renewal in accordance with the regulations of the Department, the sponsor may renew the written charter of the school pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 386.530.

Assembly Bill No. 56.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 702.

AN ACT relating to education; revising provisions governing the use of physical restraint and mechanical restraint on pupils with disabilities; revising provisions relating to reports of the use of restraints and reports of violations; providing for the reporting of the use of corporal punishment on a pupil in public school; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prescribes the requirements for the use of physical restraint or mechanical restraint on a pupil with a disability who is enrolled in a public school or a private school. (NRS 388.521-388.5315, 394.353-394.378) Sections 1 and 7 of this bill require each school district and each private school which provides services to pupils with disabilities to submit annual reports to the Department of Education on the use of physical restraint and mechanical restraint on pupils with disabilities during the previous school year.

Sections 3, 4, 9 and 10 of this bill provide that if physical restraint or mechanical restraint is used on a pupil with a disability three times during 1 school year, the circumstances of the restraint must be reviewed and reported. If such restraint is used five times during 1 school year, the pupil's individualized education program or the pupil's services plan, as applicable, developed pursuant to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq., must be reviewed. If the restraint continues after such a review, the school district or private school, as applicable, and the pupil's parent or legal guardian ~~[must explore]~~ shall include additional positive behavioral approaches in the pupil's services plan or program, as applicable, so that the restraint does not continue. (NRS 388.5275, 388.528, 394.368, 394.369)

Existing law prescribes the requirements for the use of mechanical restraint on a pupil with a disability enrolled in a public school or private school, including a requirement that the pupil's physician issue a medical order authorizing the use of mechanical restraint before the application of the restraint or not later than 15 minutes after the application of the restraint. (NRS 388.528, 394.369) Sections 4 and 10 of this bill eliminate the requirement of a medical order for each application of the mechanical restraint and instead require that a medical order authorizing the use of mechanical restraint be included in the pupil's individualized education program or the pupil's services plan, as applicable.

Existing law provides that corporal punishment may not be used on a pupil in any public school. (NRS 392.4633) Section 6 of this bill provides that a person may report the use of corporal punishment on a pupil to the agency which provides child welfare services in the county in which the school district is located. If the agency finds that the report is substantiated, the agency shall forward the report to the Department, local law enforcement agency and the county district attorney for further investigation.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 388 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. The board of trustees of each school district shall, on or before August 1 of each year, prepare a report in the form prescribed by the Department that includes, without limitation, for each school within the school district:

(b) The number of instances in which mechanical restraint was used at the school during the immediately preceding school year, which must indicate the number of instances per teacher employed at the school and per pupil enrolled at the school without disclosing personally identifiable information about the teacher or the pupil; and

(c) The number of violations of NRS 388.521 to 388.5315, inclusive, by type of violation, which must indicate the number of violations per teacher employed at the school and per pupil enrolled at the school without disclosing personally identifiable information about the teacher or the pupil.

2. The board of trustees of each school district shall prescribe a form for each school within the school district to report the information set forth in subsection 1 to the school district and the time by which those reports must be submitted to the school district.

3. On or before August 15 of each year, the board of trustees of each school district shall submit to the Department the written report prepared by the board of trustees pursuant to subsection 1.

4. The Department shall compile the data received by each school district pursuant to subsection 3 and prepare a written report of the compilation, disaggregated by school district. On or before October 1 of each year, the Department shall submit the written compilation:

(a) In even-numbered years, to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmission to the next regular session of the Legislature.

(b) In odd-numbered years, to the Legislative Committee on Education.

5. If a particular item in a report required pursuant to this section would reveal personally identifiable information about an individual pupil or teacher, that item must not be included in the report.

Sec. 2. NRS 388.521 is hereby amended to read as follows:

388.521 As used in NRS 388.521 to 388.5315, inclusive, and section 1 of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 388.5215 to 388.526, inclusive, have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 3. NRS 388.5275 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) The use of force in the application of physical restraint does not exceed the force that is reasonable and necessary under the circumstances precipitating the use of physical restraint.

2. Physical restraint may be used on a pupil with a disability and the provisions of subsection 1 do not apply if the physical restraint is used to:

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assemblyman Oceguera moved that Senate Bills Nos. 73, 245, 363, and 411 be taken from the General File and placed on the General File for the next legislative day.

Motion carried.

By the Committee on Elections, Procedures, Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments:

Assembly Resolution No. 10—Expressing and explaining the public policy governing Rule No. 23 of the Standing Rules of the Assembly for the 75th Session of the Legislature.

WHEREAS, It is a well-established principle of parliamentary practice that every member of the Legislature has a duty to vote unless prohibited or excused by the rules of the House (Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure §§ 521 & 522 (2000) (Mason's Manual); Luther S. Cushing, Elements of the Law & Practice of Legislative Assemblies §§ 1789-91 (1856) (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies)); and

WHEREAS, Rule No. 23 of the Standing Rules of the Assembly for the 75th Session of the Legislature provides that in determining whether a Legislator has a conflict of interest, the Legislator should consider whether the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in his position upon the matter in question would be materially affected by his acceptance of a gift or loan, his private economic interest or his commitment to a member of his household or his immediate family; and

WHEREAS, Rule No. 23 provides that if a Legislator knows he has a conflict of interest, the Legislator shall make a general disclosure of the conflict of interest on the record in a meeting of a committee or on the floor of the Assembly, as applicable; and

WHEREAS, Rule No. 23 provides that in determining whether to abstain from voting upon or advocating or opposing a matter concerning which a Legislator has a conflict of interest, the Legislator should consider whether the conflict impedes his independence of judgment and whether his interest is greater than the interests of an entire class of persons similarly situated; and

WHEREAS, Rule No. 23 must be interpreted and applied in light of well-established principles of parliamentary practice that have been shaped, developed and followed by national and state legislatures for hundreds of years; and

WHEREAS, Rule No. 100 of the Standing Rules of the Assembly for the 75th Session of the Legislature provides that sources of parliamentary authority in the Assembly include Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure; and

WHEREAS, Section 522 of Mason's Manual provides that "[t]he right of members to represent their constituencies is of such major importance that members should be barred from voting on matters of direct personal interest only in clear cases and when the matter is particularly personal"; and

WHEREAS, Section 1791 of Cushing's Legislative Assemblies provides that "[i]nterest in a question pending in the house, is good cause for disallowing a vote; but such an interest must be a direct pecuniary interest, belonging to a separate description of individuals, and not such as also belongs to all the citizens, arising out of any measure of state policy"; and

WHEREAS, Section 1791 of Cushing's Legislative Assemblies further provides that disqualification to vote generally "applies only to private bills, or bills relating to individuals, such as estate bills, inclosure bills, canals, joint-stock companies, etc., wherein only the individual profit or loss is concerned . . . but does not apply to questions of interest arising out of public measures, such as tax bills, colonial regulations, domestic trades, and the like"; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, That the fundamental purpose of representative government in this State is to elect citizen Legislators who will advocate and vote on behalf of their constituents so that those constituents are fully represented in the people's branch of government and their voices are effectively heard regarding the most critical legislative measures that affect both the general welfare of this State and their everyday lives; and be it further

RESOLVED, That there are legislative measures of immense statewide importance, such as bills raising revenue and bills approving the budget of the State Government, which globally impact all citizens of this State because such measures set the fiscal, economic and social priorities of this State and thereby influence and affect every aspect of our society; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the public policy of this State favors the right of citizen Legislators to perform the duties for which they were elected and to vote or otherwise act upon a matter, provided they have properly disclosed any conflicts of interest; and be it further

RESOLVED, That because abstention by a Legislator disrupts the normal course of representative government and deprives the public and the Legislator's constituents of a voice in the most important governmental affairs, Rule No. 23 is intended to require abstention only in clear cases and when the matter is particularly personal; and be it further

RESOLVED, That Rule No. 23 does not require any member of the Assembly to abstain from voting upon or advocating or opposing legislative measures of immense statewide importance which globally impact all citizens of this State because, in such cases, the very nature of such legislative measures presumptively makes the interests of every member of the Assembly no greater than the interests of every other citizen of this State, and therefore, the independence of judgment of members is not impeded by those interests and they are not required to abstain; and be it further

RESOLVED, That during the 75th Session of the Legislature, the legislative measures of immense statewide importance which globally impact all citizens of this State include the General Appropriations Act, the Authorized Expenditures Act, the Unclassified Pay Act, the State Distributive School Account Act and any legislative measures that increase various taxes and revenue sources necessary to fund the State Budget, such as Senate Bill No. 429; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this resolution shall be entered upon the Journal of the Assembly.

Remarks by Assemblymen Oceguera, Goedhart, and Madam Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN OCEGUERA:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. Nevada has a citizen's Legislature. It is a long and proud tradition in our state. That means that those of us who serve in the Legislature have jobs and other interests in our everyday lives. I guess taken to their extremes, any of these aspects of our private lives could be construed as a conflict. Certainly, any time a legislator's commitment materially affects independent judgment, he or she should abstain. And we have all had instances where we felt we needed to abstain. But we also have a constitutional obligation to vote and represent our constituents, because abstention has the effect of depriving the public of its voice on important governmental matters. There is no more important matter than the one we are considering now and in the next several days. This resolution makes it clear that the policy of Rule No. 23 is to require abstention only in clear and specific cases, not when the matter is of immense statewide importance and impacts all Nevada citizens. I urge your support, Madam Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOEDHART:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I have a question in regards to this resolution. For those who say this resolution does not materially change Rule No. 23, why do we need to pass it now, after having this bill dropped on us less than half an hour ago? I see this bill as advocating in favor of an individual being allowed to violate current ethical standards which prohibit voting on an issue if they are materially affected by a piece of legislation. That being the case, I cannot support this attempt to weaken our ethics laws and violate the confidence of the people of Nevada. I believe we should have a roll call vote so that Nevada's citizens know how their representatives voted on this issue of public trust. Thank you.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

Whenever you are considering bills and situations of this unprecedented magnitude, it is very stressful. The halls today have been filled with accusations about peoples' good character—people who many times I do not agree with, but I defend their right to be who they are and say what they believe.

I have heard a lot of things, everything from, "Hey, if you are a public servant, you cannot vote on this because this might affect you," to "Hey, this person served on your board, you cannot vote on this," to "Hey, you work in a drug court. The amount of medications in the budget may affect how many people you see."

I see the reverse happening. I see people trying to knock people out from voting, without cause. Serving in the Legislature at times can be difficult. We are away from our homes and we are away from our families. But when you start calling peoples' character and integrity into question, as has been done today, that is where I draw the line, even when I do not agree with people. And that is what I think has been done all day today.

Legal was besieged with questions from legislators. It became like a telephone tree as these rumors started. "Hey, what about this person? They may have a conflict." "I heard this person might have a conflict." I think it was beginning to be designed to break this process down. In the end, I think I have a pretty good accurate guess of where this session is going to end ideologically. And that is fine. Everyone has a right to vote how they want. But to deprive people of their right to vote because of the creation of more and more conflicts? Our Legal Division finally said that they thought we would be down to a handful of folks if everyone was so afraid of an ethics complaint that they were then afraid to vote for their constituents and to represent them on the most important matter facing the state. I appreciate the concern with the lateness, but that is why I am supporting it. And I appreciate your comments.

Resolution adopted.

CARSON CITY (Thursday), May 21, 2009

Assembly called to order at 11:37 a.m.

Madam Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Reverend Patrick Propster.

Proverbs 3:5-8:

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways, acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. Do not be wise in your own eyes. Fear the Lord and depart from evil. It will be health to your flesh and strength to your bones.

Let us pray:

Lord God, You are above all things. You are the fountain of all goodness for mankind. Therefore, we pray this day for the days remaining in this Session that You would be an overflow of strength and wisdom through us, to complete the tasks before us. May our endeavor always be not to live independent of Thee, but to lean on Thee. Lord Jesus, by Your Spirit, please be our moorings that we would not drift unawares from Thy ways.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Bill No. 562.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Arberry, Cobb, Smith, Gansert, McClain, Hardy, Goedhart, Denis, Leslie, Christensen, and Madam Speaker.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARBERRY:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. Assembly Bill 562 is the General Appropriation Act. The General Appropriation Act is the salary bill, the school funding bill, and the capital improvement bill—all are the final results of a long deliberation between the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means and the Senate Committee on Finance. The General Appropriation Act and other appropriation bills considered throughout the session deliberated the amount of the General Fund support approved by the money committees for the operation of Nevada State Government for the 2007 and 2009 biennium. The General Fund appropriation includes the General Appropriation Act, totaling about $3.88 billion over the next two years for the 2009-2011 biennium. There is a reduction of approximately $425 million when compared to the general fund appropriation approved by the 2007 legislature for the 2007–2009 biennium. That also includes the highway funds appropriation totaling $118 million dollars in Fiscal Year 2010 and $115 million in Fiscal Year 2011.

ASSEMBLYMAN COBB:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 562. I appreciate the hard work of the committee—no disrespect to you. I just believe that we had a balanced budget that we had to consider and I would prefer not spending as much money as we are looking to spend in this appropriations bill. I think a lot of people are cutting back at home, losing jobs, plus we have double digit unemployment. We have businesses that are having a tough time affording to keep people on the payroll. If you are going to vote in favor of this, you have to be responsible enough to vote in favor of taxes that gets you to that number. I think now is not the time to be expanding government. I think that maintenance is fine and covering the essential services is fine, but expanding government is too much for our private citizens and taxpayers to have to afford during this down economy. I respectfully disagree with the committee and will not be voting for this bill.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SMITH:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Bill 562. We heard the discussion yesterday about the education budget, so we know the details of that. I would like to commend my colleagues who sat on the joint budget committees. It has been a long arduous task going through the budgets and hearing the realities of what we were faced with. We made some great strides in the education budget but we also did a lot of cutting. When you look at the major areas that we funded, between salaries and services, which go directly to the classroom, we still cut over 50 percent of that budget. It is devastating. And yet this budget does restore some essential services and helps keep the school districts whole and able to do what they need to do in the classroom.

Our colleagues, the people we work with every day and entrust to sit on these committees, just as we look to our colleagues in the morning policy committees, have listened to testimony for hour upon hour and made very tough decisions to try to trim these budgets, and in many ways, slash these budgets to come to a conclusion about how we could do justice to serve our constituents and make sure that we are providing the essential services to take care of the citizens of this state. In the education arena we had to deal with possibly closing a campus. How do you think about that in the realm of what we are faced with in this state? You can't move forward when you don't have a strong education system. You can't have strong economic development when you don't have a good education system. Our colleagues did, in my mind, yeoman's work listening to these budgets day after day and making sure that we seriously evaluated every decision we made. We listened to more constituents than we have ever listened to in person during my time here. We all know that we had a packed house many times over, with people coming to tell us how they felt about the budgets we were considering and the cuts we were faced with. These budgets are cut and I think we can rest assured that we have restored essential services and we have done what we needed to do in this state to try and preserve our education system for both K-12 and higher education.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARBERRY:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise not to defend or make excuses for all the hard work that the two committees did who worked on this particular measure. The session started as a high-speed session. You might want to use the example of a high-speed car. The government says you need to drive 55 mph. These two committees worked at a speed of 190 mph. They had to make decisions on the run and none of these decisions were based on any fluff. I looked at this situation, when this Legislature and this body came together, and thought it was going to be Armageddon. When you were elected to this body this was going to be the hardest and toughest decisions that you will ever have to make dealing with the State of Nevada. The State of Nevada will fall if this body does not make the right decisions. We will fail. We will go back to the 1800s and we no longer live in the 1800s. We are now facing an economy that has failed throughout the country. You have to step up to the plate sometimes, and sometimes when your heart is pumping blood, sometime it's pumping Kool-Aid, and at this time you have to standup to be the man and the woman, to say that your heart is pumping blood.

We need your support for this because if this fails you don't fail, everyone fails. Our constituency is looking at us and wondering what have we been doing for 120 days? It comes down to this final mark and the final crossing. You have to step up and make a decision to support this, because if you do not, when you go home and face your constituency, you could say, "We cut it—we cut it." You cut every session and as a Democrat I have cut many budgets over the years to make sure that we do the right thing. Now you have to really do the right thing. If you can't face the music in here, you shouldn't be here. This is a tough decision. Every session it has always been easy. We have always had money and we can flow, but the decisions we make today are very critical. Understand that when you look at the hard work the money committee has done, it is still down to your final vote.

We bring you a package that has no fluff and there is no extra nothing in this budget. We took the bare bones and we crawled and we crawled and we did what we could do to keep everyone taken care of and feed the families, feed the businesses so the people can provide something to the businesses to get us all on our feet for the next two years. We do not like everything we put in here. It was across the line. So Body, I beg of you, you have to make a decision today and that is to vote in a positive way because if you don't and this fails, you will fail and you will have to face your constituency.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GANSERT:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Bill 562. I have been on the money committee now for a third session and I know how we have the different divisions come in and we asked them about their cuts and whatever they had we asked them to cut more and more. It was a very difficult and long process. I also know that we did add back about 1 percent to make sure that we provided services for children with autism and to make sure that we could keep the rural mental health clinics open, and to make sure there was a little more funding for education. A part of the budget that I could not defend or support was the 36 percent cut to higher education. I am a Nevadan, my family and children are from Nevada and I cannot imagine not having a University of Nevada or University of Nevada Las Vegas. We would really have had to shut down an institution at that amount or a portion of institutions or the medical school.

If you think about what we need in the state, we need healthcare providers. We need a well educated workforce. I have always told my children that education is opportunity and if we take away education we are taking away opportunity. In this budget we did add back quite a bit of money for PEBS. There was a SAGE Commission recommendation that we should really change how that works for some of the retirees and employees. I did not agree with the entire add-back. I am on the record continually opposing that because I think we could have probably saved a little bit of money there. In the scheme of things, everything else that we did I don't know that we could have done it any differently. So I do support that.

We go through these budgets and we try to decide what to spend. What are the essential services? Do we need to fund education? Then we have to come up with how we are going to pay for it. The problem my caucus had, at least some of us, was agreeing how to appropriate more funds. How are we going to pay for this? I know we are not in agreement on that. We have looked at a bump in sales tax and we have people who would be okay with bumping the sales tax, which would cover pretty much all of this. I know being on record supporting this appropriation makes us responsible for funding it, but I don't know we agree with the funding mechanism, and again, because of the way this process moves, I just want everyone to know how hard we did work on this and how important a lot of these add-ons are. However, I can not participate in a 36 percent cut to higher education. We did leave a 12.5 percent cut, so it is not as if there hasn't been a huge cut. There have been a lot of major, major cuts, even in cultural affairs, those people are down to working 32 hours. I think this is bare bones. I do support it, but because of this process I am not sure whether we will be supporting the revenue side of it. Again, it is kind of the nature of the beast.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN MCCLAIN:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of Assembly Bill 562. I just would like to explain how this budget came to us. It did not come as a balanced budget. It may have looked like one on paper but the draconian cuts that were included in it were beyond belief. For the first time in my history here we had to basically rebuild this budget. I chaired the subcommittee on public safety. I'll give you an example. The budget came over and it included $208 million for a new prison to be built, but yet it wanted to cut out NSP in Carson City here and layoff 200 Carson City residents. It wanted to close a rural conservation camp it Tonopah, the only fire safety people we have in the rural parts of central Nevada. It would have changed it and opened a new prison camp in Indian Springs, which is three hours from the fire danger areas. So we restored the camps, we restored the NSP, we said no to the new prison. Fortunately, when the numbers for inmate population came in they were a little bit lower this time so that helped save some money. The public safety budgets are bare bones as well. One of the other things was the budget recommended merging the narcotics unit with investigations. This would have basically diluted all the narcotics units' efforts in rural Nevada. We did not look at rural versus southern or urban, but it was for the safety for all the residents in our state. The merger proposal for POST training and investigations—every sheriff and law enforcement officer in the state agreed that it was a very bad idea. We just split them a few sessions ago for efficiency. Whatever we did we had the thought of safety for our residents in mind. We still cut public safety as much as we could without cutting the safety to our public. I urge you to support this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN HARDY:

Thank you, Madam Speaker, I rise in support of AB 562. I have personally appreciated the bipartisan support and the bipartisan scrutiny of a virtually zero-based budgeting that went into this process. I think if we look at this body and recognize that when talk about "across the aisle support," there isn't any "across the aisle support" in this body because we are next to each other and we work together. We don't have a split house. We have a committee that literally works together. The Committee on Finance, if I may allude to them, and the Committee on Ways and Means have jointly worked together in a very bipartisan way. My constituents have told me that they want people to work together and they are tired of people fighting. This is a time where we have had to come together to build a budget with zero-based budgeting.

Furthermore, I have appreciated the SAGE commission, and, if I so risk, I have appreciated the Governor and the Governor's staff. Without a foundation, without something to build from, we would not be able to build upon. The Governor, bless his heart, has chosen to build a budget and to balance that budget however he and his administration have been able to. That gave us a framework to build upon, or to take away from, because we haven't agreed all the time. But as I have sat in those budget meetings and heard testimony and listened to what we would be doing or what we wouldn't be doing, I suspect that it was well over 90 percent of the time that we had this common phrase of "I move, gov rec". What that meant was that we agreed with the Governor and his recommendation, and that's what the motion was. When we started looking at all the different scenarios and all the different choices, we said that we were going to go with what the Governor recommended. However low that may have been or however high it may have been for others, it was the foundation on which we built.

I stand in support of AB 562 because it was built in a literal bipartisan way with people who were considerate of the needs of the state, such as education, health, public safety and transportation, so that we could keep this state moving forward and keep the hope that little children have and that their parents want them to have. That's why I'm standing in support of this.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOEDHART:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I also rise to give a lot of credit to the bipartisan efforts between all of the members of this body. However, I noticed that going into this session we all knew that we were going to be faced with a budget shortfall. What we have so often heard has been the expression, "either we have to raise taxes or cut services". Because of that, we came to this session with quite a few bill drafts that may not have been perfect, but we were hoping that they would get a hearing. There were ideas about different kinds of education reforms, about benefit eligibility, and about emergency suspension of prevailing wages. We had quite a few bills that we figured could have saved literally hundreds of millions of dollars. Unfortunately, many of those bills were not even allowed a hearing. I feel that we may have shortchanged our taxpayers, our citizens, by not allowing those bills for hearing and by not working on two different paths of working collaboratively and cooperatively, but also by looking for ways to get more done with the same amount of money.

Because of that, I feel that we have given our members here an impossible choice of either cutting services or raising taxes. I don't think that we did all of our taxpayers and all of our citizens quite the proper measure.

ASSEMBLYMAN DENIS:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I'm going to try not to repeat what others have said. I chaired the Subcommittee on General Government and this particular committee considered some of the things that are most important to me in my life, and I wanted to share just a few examples. We talked about museums. Some of the recommendations were to close down the Nevada Historical Society in Reno, the East Ely Railroad in Ely, and the Comstock History Center. In the testimony that we received, the East Ely Railroad provides 3 million dollars in economic support to Ely. There was a recommendation to cut that. For me the important part is that we provide opportunities. I know many people say that museums aren't that important and so we can cut those because they don't provide much, but I think that one of the reasons that I am here is because of those opportunities that I had when I was growing up. I couldn't fathom making that cut, and in our committee it was very heart wrenching to hear the stories of what would happen if we cut all of those museums.

Cuts that we did make were cutting back the work week for the directors to 32 hours a week and the curators to 32 hours a week. We've already lost two of our curators who had a knowledge that we can't get back. We've got another one who is interviewing somewhere else. We have the possibility of losing all of our institutional knowledge in our museums because of all our cutting.

We had a recommendation to eliminate the Consumer Affairs Department, which unfortunately we had to go with. We put back two people so at least we can take phone calls. We're in hard economic times right now. People are going to be calling. We know that people are out there right now ripping other people off, because they are hard up for money, and yet we're not even going to have a Consumer Affairs Department other than someone at the end of a phone line ready to transfer you to somewhere else.

We were asked to take Tourism and Economic Development and to merge them into one entity. As we looked at that option we saw that they have two different missions. While we might save a little bit of money, in the end we really lose money because we are not providing that economic development which is going to bring the jobs. Nor would we bring in the tourists who pay a lot of our taxes.

Another example that I want to share is that we had a recommendation from the Department of Agriculture to eliminate the crop inspector position in Winnemucca. We would have potato crops sitting there and waiting for several days for inspection and in the meantime they could rot. Our agriculture is an important part of the Nevada economy. We still had to make cuts but we were able to put that position back. We were going to have brand inspectors doing plant inspections. I don't know if we could get any more bare bones than we are and continue to function as a state, and so I urge your support.

We started this process two weeks before the session started, as was mentioned, and we met with the Senate together in these subcommittees and in the full committees. We've done everything that we could. We've heard a lot of testimony. We've had to cut what we could and still keep things going. Even though the museums are going to be open a few days a week, at least they are still going to be open. Hopefully we can come back next time and get them up and running again. I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN LESLIE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of the Appropriations Act, Assembly Bill 562. We have heard a lot of discussion today about the budget. We even heard from a colleague in Reno who said we are expanding government. And yet you have heard a lot of testimony from those of us who serve on the money committee and our chairs from different subcommittees, and I hope it has convinced you that we are hardly expanding government. As the chair of the Health and Human Services Subcommittee, I would like to give you a few examples of how I think the subcommittee, as the good doctor from southern Nevada pointed out, worked, not only in a bipartisan fashion but in a bicameral fashion, to come up with a better plan.

For juvenile justice, for example, the Governor's budget came over cutting 88 beds in our state institutions and cutting the community corrections block grant, which is where we provide programs and prevention at the local level, so the kids do not come to the state institutions. And no additional money for youth parole officers. Think about that for a minute, as the subcommittee did. Where do these kids go? We are not providing them help in the community. We are cutting 88 beds. And there is no one to watch over them with youth parole. The subcommittee quickly figured out that was not going to work. We came up with a better plan. We did cut the beds. We added money to the community corrections block grants, working with the local communities, to keep the kids at home with their families but in a program to stay out of trouble. We added four youth parole officers to supervise the kids who are leaving institutions, to maintain public safety.

Nevada Check Up is another example. The Governor wanted to cap enrollment in this program, which is our state's SCHIP program that provides health insurance to children of working poor families. The federal government pays over half the cost of the program. The number one reason children go to emergency rooms, which is the place that costs the most to get your health care, is ear infections, something that is easily treatable in a general medical practice. Why would we want to cut poor children off of health insurance? The subcommittee voted to uncap Nevada Check Up.

During the special sessions, in the midst of our budget crisis, we had to implement a 5 percent rate reduction in our hospitals. The Governor's budget for the next biennium had an additional five percent cut in provider rates. The subcommittee heard a lot of testimony from hospitals, on top of other places where they are getting hurt in the budget, and we had testimony that several hospitals might close in our state. Together, we came up with the recommendation to not accept the Governor's budget and to not implement the additional five percent reduction.

Too many of our Nevadans have to go into nursing homes when they would much rather remain in their own home, but need certain essential services in order to stay in their home. The subcommittee restored 394 Medicaid slots for those elderly Nevadans who want to remain in their homes. This makes good fiscal sense because then we are not paying the nursing home costs. We came up with a better plan.

The Governor cut 225 positions in our mental health hospitals. The subcommittee looked at that very carefully and we restored 31 positions in southern Nevada. There have been two rapes in our southern Nevada mental health hospital. It is a matter of patient safety and staff safety, to have adequate staffing. We worked hard as a subcommittee to go through that budget and determine what the 31 critical positions are, to make sure our patients and our state staff are safe.

The Governor cut over half of the rural mental health clinics in this state—eleven of them. The subcommittee worked with our rural Assembly members to come up with a reorganization plan and a better plan to restore nine of those eleven rural mental health clinics. So, someone who lives in Hawthorne does not have to drive to Yerington to get emergency mental health care.

The Consumer Health Assistance Office was cut by the Governor. This is the office that helps consumers go over their hospital bills and make sure they are being appropriately charged and paid for. That saves millions of dollars for the state. We put it back.

2-1-1 is the phone line where people call in when they need help finding an available service. When times are tough, people need those services more than ever. We put some money back for that.

There was also funding for victims of domestic violence. I could go on and on, Madam Speaker, but I want to talk just a little bit about things we did end up cutting so no one can walk out of here and with a straight face say we are expanding state government.

We cut medication for mental health patients in Reno. We had testimony that said we were going to ration mental health medications. Can you imagine that? For the severely mentally ill that live in downtown Reno, we are going to say, "You can have your medication today. You cannot have it tomorrow." Where are those folks going to go? They are going to go to jail. They are going to go to the emergency rooms. And they are going to be in the downtown, hurting business. We had to cut it. There is no money. We told the mental health agency they can come back during the interim, if they really start rationing medications and ask for some help. Maybe our contingency fund will help us with that.

I think all of us can remember the day that we had the autism mothers and fathers come in and show videos of the treatment that has helped those kids in the last two years. The Governor's budget eliminated $3.2 million and would have cut these kids off of treatment. If you could have seen that video of what the kids were like before they got the treatment and what they are like now, in the middle of their treatment, and the progress that they have made, I don't think anyone in this body would have voted to cut off that funding.

Now there are those who are saying today, like our minority leader, that they can vote for the budget because they know how hard we worked. And we did work hard and we came up with an essential services budget. But she is not sure she can vote for the revenue to fund it, because she does not like the things that are in there. I don't like the things that are in there. I don't like what it's in the revenue package much. If it was up to me, it would look entirely different. If it was up to our majority leader, it would look entirely different. Every single one of the 63 of us would have a different revenue package if it was up to us. That is not how it works. We work together. We compromise. We come up with our best plan, together. You can't vote for a spending plan and not vote for a revenue plan. So, if you are not going to fund it, I don't know why you would vote for it. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHRISTENSEN:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I am sure all of us feel the weight here in the room today. This is where it is all coming together. Going through the campaign cycle, knowing that the state has been experiencing more pain than most any of us have seen in our lifetimes, and then coming into the session and hearing about cuts and what would happen and sitting through hearings and reading the press on where we are as a state, I decided this session I would save my comments for times when I was really, really passionate about something. And the thoughts I have to share hopefully will reflect the passion that I have for the people that I represent, the constitutional responsibility that I accepted when I came here.

I came here, Madam Speaker, with the fundamental belief that if families have to live within their means, and families should only spend the money that they have, that we as government should only spend the money that we have. To the previous speaker, who said in her final comments—and I agree—if someone is not going to fund the revenue side, then don't support the spending side.

I am standing before you today to share what I consider is an interesting observation, especially because a year ago I didn't even expect that I was going to be back here. Maybe that would have been a nice bullet to dodge because I feel like this decision today is very much a challenge. I read a Forbes' article that highlighted the three fastest growing states—Arizona, Florida, and Nevada and their growth from 2000 to 2008. It highlighted that Nevada's state budget growth has been greater than those other two states and that our budget growth has outpaced population and inflation by 40 percent. I just ask myself, being here now four times, how long will we continue this? I don't know. One of my colleagues from Armargosa Valley referred to the bills that were introduced to bring certain reforms.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

Mr. Christensen, I am going to have to cut you off there. I gave Mr. Goedhart some latitude, but under the rules of the floor, you can't refer to other bills and measures. You have to speak to this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHRISTENSEN:

I will close with this comment. I know that there are a lot of issues to be addressed, a lot of things that need to be taken care of. I am confident in the ability of this body to take care of those. I wholeheartedly expect that this measure will pass. I wanted my comments to go on the record. I do not know if I will be back here again to share these comments. I do have great concerns as I see the budget growing and this bill, should it pass, will have expenditures that go beyond what we have, which goes against a belief I have. We have to rein this in. We have to be smart with our dollars, especially with what all of us see happening to our neighbor to the west, California. I am here. I am speaking. I am doing everything I can to make sure that Nevada does not ever become or put itself in a position to experience the pain that California is going to experience. Madam Speaker, I appreciate the opportunity to speak. I will be voting no on this bill.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

When we entered this session, we were given staggering news that we would have a deficit of 44 percent in order to fund services at the current level. So, what did we do? We started in our money committees a process of looking at our priorities. We had three missions: What could we cut? What could we reform? What did we have to preserve?

Republicans and Democrats sat side-by-side and went through every budget account. It is easy to cut. It is easy to say, "Oh, just cut it within your revenue availability." But we are constitutionally mandated to provide adequate funding for schools. When times are tough and a family doesn't have revenue, they also don't have the constitutional responsibility of accepting every new student who walks in that door, to constitutionally fund prisons, and health and human services. We looked at our responsibility and we looked at every budget account and we cut. There is no expansion of government in this bill. We cut. But as members previously said, we did it in a smart manner.

We looked, for example, as my colleague that chaired the health and human services subcommittee said, at the mental health hospitals. We end up cutting three-fourth's of the positions. But how do you not have adequate staff in order to ensure that mentally ill patients are being cared for in a safe manner? We morally cannot do that. We legally cannot do that.

We had the Gaming Control Board come to us and testify, saying that if some of the Governor's cuts were not restored, they could not adequately regulate the gaming industry. That is our largest industry. How can we not provide the tools to the Gaming Control Board, to do their jobs?
